Today's bid came close upon the finish of Wade's eighth and last year at Alabama. Yesterday his team downed Georgia 13 to 0 to complete its schedule unbeaten. He becomes head coach of Duke university at Durham, N. C., next year.

Some observers call the machine Wade has fashioned this year his best. They say it has more power than those great elevens of 1925 and 1926 with Johnny Mack Brown, Pooley Hubert, Grant Gillis, Emil Barnes, Pickard and others.

It is virtually a senior team. Wade has drilled his main cogs for more than two years and experience has brought them their ability and power. A sophomore fullback, "Hurry" Cain, is about the only new comer on the first eleven, although the second team—which plays about as the first—has several sophomores and juniors.

This boy Cain was given a tough assignment—that of replacing an all-American fullback, Tony Holm—but he has come through in great style, calling signals and kicking and passing like a veteran.

The Crimson Tide has rolled up 247 points to 13 for its opponents. It played eight conference teams in a row, including four of the strongest in the south—Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Kentucky, and Florida—on successive week-ends.

Alabama did not play outside the south this season but three of its victims, Vanderbilt, Georgia and Florida, had scored impressive victories in intersectional frays.

As Alabama takes the field on New Year's day, Wade, a guard on the Brown university eleven which lost to Washington State in the first Rose Bowl game in 1916, will have opportunity to avenge the lacing his teammates took 14 years ago.

Indications are that special trains will run from Alabama points to the Pacific coast and Governor Bibb Graves has already announced his intention to head the state's delegation.

BANTAMS WIN CLOSE GAME FROM WORCESTER COLLEGIANS

At the Baltic gym last night the Baltic Bantams won a hard-fought game from the Worcester Blue and White Collegians 25 to 20. Charron the Baltic left forward star was the high scorer for the evening with four field goals and two fouls to his credit. Savoie and Mercier starred for the Collegians.

In the preliminary game the Baltic S. A. C. Juniors won from the Bones team of Norwich 23 to 16. The summary:

Collegians

	G.	F.	Pts.
Gauthier, lg	0	0	0
Cote, lg	0	0	0
Valade, rg	1	0	2
Dufaut, c	1	0	2
Paradis, lf	0	0	0
Savoie, lf	2	3	7
Mercier, rf	4	1	9
	8	4	20

Bantams

	G.	F.	Pts.
Deschamps, rf	1	1	3
Robitaille, lf	0	1	1
Charron, lf	4	2	10
Passmore, c	0	1	1
Depot, rg	3	2	8
Rondeau, lg	0	1	1
Blanchette, lg	0	1	1
	8	9	25

Score at half time, Baltic 15, Collegians 13. Referee, Gillotte.

B. C.-H. C. CLASH TODAY MARKS CLOSE OF N. E. SEASON

BOSTON, Nov. 28.— (AP) —Boston college and Holy Cross, ardent Jesuit rivals who have been lowering the New England football curtain for many seasons, will put on their annual clash here tomorrow at Fenway park. The Purple's wealth of backfield material has made Capt. John McEwan's team the favorites.

Holy Cross has not won since 1924 and since then several underrated Boston college teams have ended a mediocre season gloriously by upsetting their highly favored rivals in the objective game.

Holy Cross will start almost the same team that swamped Harvard, 27 to 0, but several subs will be in for injured Eagle regulars at the opening kickoff.

The Purple's opening line-up included Cavalieri and Colucci, ends; Fitzgerald and Himmelberg, tackles; Clark and Zyntell, guards; Farrell, center; Phil O'Connell, one of the east's best field marshals, quarterback; Baker and Capt. Garrity, halfbacks, and Griffin, fullback.

The Eagles will open with Captain Johnny Dixon at left end and Tossi holding down the injured Buckley's right wing; Bennett and Romanowski, two replacements at tackles; O'Connell and Morelli, guards; Downes, center; Colbert, quarterback; Marr and Antos, halfbacks, and Kelly, fullback.

STRIBLING AND GLIDER PLUNGE INTO LAKE

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 28—(AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling, was doused with cold water here today, but not by his seconds.

Stribling arrived in his airplane from Miami with his father and his wife and saw a glider on the surface of a lake near the airport. He asked permission to fly it, admitting he had never flown one.

Airport officials agreed and the glider was pulled into the air by a highpowered motorboat. Stribling did well with the motorless machine, but when he came down things started.

He made a beautiful landing, airport officials said, but at the moment the pontoons struck the water a wave upset the glider and W. L. went into the middle of the lake, clothes, parachute and all. Weighted down by the 'chute, he disappeared from sight.

A motor boat went to the scene and the boat's pilot pulled Stribling out.

The boxer was resting at his hotel tonight. His physician reported that he had suffered severe chills but otherwise was little the worse for his ducking.

SHIRES BOUGHT BY MILWAUKEE FOR $10,000

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 28—(AP)—Art "The Great" Shires has been purchased by the Milwaukee American association baseball club for $10,000 cash from the Washington Senators, Lou Nahin, vice president of the Brewers, announced today.

Nahin said the new first baseman, widely known for his publicity antics, would start spring training with the Brewers.

While Nahin announced no element of trade in the purchase of Shires, local sports writers said there might be some player-consideration involved with the St. Louis American league club, which controls the Milwaukee association club.

Shires, reached by long distance telephone at Hollywood, Calif., where he is working on one reel comedies, said the purchase was "one of the greatest breaks I ever got."

"Why, I'm too good a ball-player to be sitting around on a major league bench and I told Clark Griffith that last year," he added. With his usual reticence, "what-a-man" advised local persons he will "be available as a toast-master or guest of honor at any banquets planned for me."

He closed the modest 600 word statement with: "I won't be any trouble to anybody. I just want to play baseball and earn my way back to the big show. I'll give the town a pennant winner sure."

Shires was recently married to a University of Wisconsin co-ed, resident of Chicago.

PORTNEY GIVES MAYS NEAT 10-ROUND TRIMMING

NEW LONDON, Nov. 28.— (AP) — Jack Portney, Baltimore lightweight, won a decision over Bobby Mays of New London in a fast 10-round battle here tonight. Portney was awarded seven rounds and Mays three.

Al Palladino of New York won a decision over Joe Emmonds of Waterbury in an 8-round semi-final. Joe Russo of Westerly, R. I., originally scheduled to meet Palladino, will face the New York boy two weeks from tonight.

Jack "Red" Knight, New Haven lightweight, knocked out Billy Huston, in the first round.

Artie Weinberg of New York won a decision over Jack Silvers of New Bedford. Both weighed in at 118.

Carmen Knapp of New Haven knocked out Billy Eulie in the second round.

Volleyball At Y Today

The local Y volleyball team will meet the New London Yers this afternoon at 5:30 at the Y gym. A hot match is expected and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Y Jrs. Attention!

The Y Jrs. have been requested to report at the Y. M. C. A. this (Saturday) morning at 9 o'clock.

BOWLING

AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
AMERICAN INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

J. B. Martin Co.

Bouley	111	106	103—	320
W. Guinan	106	94	109—	309
Fontaine	134	108	116—	358
Lemieux	109	111	111—	331
Keller	104	148	125—	377
Totals	564	567	564—	1695

Atlantic Carton Corp.

Magnuson	105	108	126—	339
Gillis	109	99	122—	330
Marion	110	107	90—	307
Lawless	86	129	119—	334
J. Guinan	113	115	102—	330
Totals	523	558	559—	1640

American Thermos Bottle Co.

Corkery	90	130	97—	317
Driscoll	117	93	104—	314
Mozzacki	94	106	93—	293
Golebrewski	96	110	116—	322
Peckham	136	106	119—	361
Totals	533	545	529—	1607

Oakland—Pontiac

Jenks	116	96	91—	303
Pellerin	100	88	106—	294
Farragosso	105	101	110—	316
Young	107	139	110—	356
Hall	106	137	118—	361
Totals	534	561	535—	1630

U. S. Finishing Co.

Barry	78	89	95—	262
Ellison	125	90	132—	347
Palidoro	104	123	97—	324
Wozniak	118	106	113—	337
Shaw	106	100	82—	288
Totals	529	508	519—	1556

The Saxony Corp.

Sidney	108	91	133—	332
Stelzner	101	91	118—	310
Olson	115	85	97—	297
Bowne	110	111	85—	306
Aldi	111	99	117—	327
Totals	545	477	550—	1572

WALKER KAYOES CHRISTNER IN THE FIRST ROUND

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.— (AP) —Mickey Walker, making his second invasion in the heavyweight ranks, scored a technical knockout over K. O. Christner, Akron rubber man, in the first round of a bout at the coliseum tonight that had a decidedly peculiar ending.

After thirty-eight seconds of boxing, in which Christner was knocked down for a count of three with a left hook to the jaw, he suddenly received another left hook on the chin and dived through the ropes, landing on the laps of the spectators. The Akron heavyweight rolled over on the press tables and then fell to the floor. He remained there while the timekeeper tolled off a count of twenty instead of the usual ten. Under the rules of the Illinois state athletic commission, a boxer knocked out of the ring is entitled to twenty seconds in which to return to the contest.

After the count was finished Christner laboriously climbed back into the ring, dragging his right leg after him. He was assisted to his corner. Christner then claimed he was unable to continue and a technical knockout was awarded Walker.

Meanwhile the slim crowd of spectators swarmed about the ring booing and yelling "fake" at the sudden and strange ending of the fight. While Christner sat in his corner, Jack Kearns, manager of Walker, lost no time in cutting the middleweight champion's gloves off his hands, and hustled Walker out of the ring.

BULKELEY-CHAPMAN TILT SCHEDULED FOR TODAY

The high school football season will be brought to a close this afternoon when Bulkeley and Chapman Tech grapple at New London for the city championship. This game was postponed from two weeks ago when rain interferred.

Bulkeley is the favorite to win, although Chapman Tech is conceded a fighting chance. On the basis of their work against the Academy Bulkeley should win by about two touchdowns as the Academy beat Tech, 13 to 7 and then lost to Bulkeley, 6 to 0.

Jewett City Defeats Sterling

Jewett City Soccer club defeated Sterling Thanksgiving afternoon by the score of 4 to 0, at Sterling. It was a fast and exciting game keeping the fans on their toes.

Jewett City	Sterling
MacCluggage, g	g, Burton
Barnfield, rfb	rfb, Barlow
A. Bartlett, lfb	lfb, Shippee
Schzolas, chb	chb, Garvey
Coughlin, lhb	lhb, Knox
Bradfoot, rhb	rhb, French
Miller, cf	cf, Adams
O. Cantara, or	or, Bunning
E. Cantara, ir	ir, Tetre
Bartlett, ol	ol, Machie
Jarvis, il	il, Taylor

Goals scored for Jewett City E. Cantara 2, O. Cantara 1, G. Jarvis 1.

Referee, Chamberlain. Linesmen, Vachon, Smith. Time of game, two 40 min. halves.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Week At United Congregational Church

The Junior Guild meets in the junior department room at 7.30 on Tuesday evening, for the making of Christmas favors, discussion of Christmas plans, etc.

The Cub Scouts meet in the scout room at 4.15 p. m. on Thursday.

The cabinet of the Woman's Guild will meet in Miss Pullen's study at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

The Girl Scouts meet in the scout room at 3.45 on Friday afternoon.

The weekly rehearsal of the girls' chorus will be held as usual at 6.45 on Friday evening.

Boy Scouts, Troop 1, meet at 7.30 on Friday evening, in the scout room.

The December meeting of the Philathea class will be held at the church on Friday evening; Mrs. Dawley and Mrs. Flynn, hostesses.

All mothers of the church and parish with their babies and little children up to five years of age, are most cordially invited to the church school rooms from 3.30 to 5 on Saturday afternoon for a cradle roll party.

LABARBA WINS UNPOPULAR VERDICT

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Some of the ring glory that has come to bristling Fidel La Barba, uncrowned king of the featherweights, in the past few months, turned a bit green tonight under the two-fisted pressure of blonde Bud Taylor, Terre Haute veteran, though Fidel gained the decision after ten rounds of casual and uninteresting dueling before a disappointed crowd of 8,000.

Most of the gathering thought Taylor, once the Nemesis of all the good bantamweights, had earned a draw at least in a battle of left hooks that was fought almost entirely at close quarters. There were no knockdowns and neither at any time was in danger of visiting the floor. Taylor suffered a gash in his left cheek in the second round and La Barba was cut deeply in the left eyebrow in the fourth.

The boos of the crowd, rising steadily throughout the ten rounds, as La Barba rushed constantly to close quarters and stayed there, reached its height when the decision was announced. The Associated Press score sheet gave Fidel, only recently the conqueror of the flashy Kid Chocolate, a margin in four rounds, the first, second, seventh and tenth. Taylor appeared to have an edge in three, the third, sixth and eighth, with three even.

The blonde veteran, without the physical resources he once had, played a waiting game, meeting La Barba's rushes with swinging lefts to the head and body, and right uppercuts that dug deep into Fidel's ribs. La Barba, once his eyebrow was split, refused to fight anywhere but with his head stuck under Bud's chin and both hands pumping to the body. Both were guilty of holding in every round.

Has Jaw Fractured

Tony Caragliano, promising Italian lightweight, suffered a probable fracture of the jaw in the first round of a six round preliminary engagement with Andy Saviola, of Brooklyn. Saviola was awarded the decision on a technical knockout after 2:51 of the first round when Caragliano bled profusely from the mouth.

Martin Zunega, of Los Angeles, scored a technical knockout over Bobby Grieve, New York featherweight, in the first round of the opening four rounder. Grieve was helpless after taking one count of eight.

Jimmy Slavin, New York, 127 1-2, fought a hard ten round draw with Joe Scalfaro, New York, 122 1-2, in the semi-final.

Pete De Grasse, New York, 126 1-2, drew with Lew Feldman, Brooklyn, 125 1-2, in a 10-round match. Pete Hayes, New York, 121, won the decision over Juan Cruz Juarez, Mexico, 120, in four rounds.

All Star Boxing — 34 Rds.
PARISH HALL TAFTVILLE
Auspices Shyma Club
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, AT 8.15 P. M.
STAR BOUT—8 ROUNDS AT 144 LBS.
AL KOZIOL of Norwich Vs. VIC DARR of Norwich
STAR BOUT—8 ROUNDS AT 120 LBS.
EDDIE REED of Hartford Vs. FRANKIE GARCIA of Boston
STAR BOUT—8 ROUNDS AT 126 LBS.
RENE PELOQUIN, Danielson Vs. TONY CAPRIO, Providence
8 ROUNDS AT 118 LBS.
AL RODMAN, Goodyear Vs. PAT JAMES, Providence
4 ROUNDS AT 118 LBS.
SNOOKS LACY, Norwich Vs. WHITEY ALLEN, Manchester
Tickets on sale at Franklin Hardware Co., Hickey's Billard Parlor, Our Smoke Shop, Norwich; Army and Navy Club, Chip Dagas Bowling Alleys, Eddie's Lunch, phone 3100, Taftville; Wood's Super-Service, Danielson; Capitol Sport Shop, Willimantic.
General Admission $1.50 Ringside $2.00

MAIL-AD
FILL OUT AND MAIL TO
The Norwich Bulletin or Record
NORWICH, CONN
12c a line. Average 5 Words to a Line. Wants — To Let — For Sale — Etc.
Name .... Classification ....
R. F. D. or Street .... Number of Insertions ....
Post Office .... Amount Enclosed ....
Write Complete Ad. Below, Including Name and Address
—or if Blind Address is Wanted Mark X Here .... ☐

TUOMI FINED FOR EVASION OF RESPONSIBILITY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Nov. 28.—Trial in the case of Frank Tuomi, charged with knowingly having caused an automobile accident and failure to return to the scene on Main street, Bradford, took up the morning and afternoon sessions of the third district court today. At the recess of the court Judge Williams, together with Prosecutor John Ferguson and Attorney John J. Dunn for the defendant, visited his home three miles out of Bradford, on the road to Watchaug pond, for the purpose of taking a view of the Dodge touring car of the respondent, which was alleged to have been in collision with the Packard sedan of Harry L. Bolles of Elm street, Westerly, in the late afternoon of Friday, Nov. 14, the latter car having been damaged to a claimed amount of over $125. Attorney Dunn explained that the Dodge car had suffered with the cold weather to the extent that it could not be started to have it at the courthouse and therefore the Bradford trip of the court resulted.

When court opened a question arose as to whom should be the Finnish court interpreter, the defense desiring Oliver Forse, who had acted in court the previous week when a continuance was asked in the case and the state desired Harvey Pihlgren of Potter Hill, the latter being the final decision of the court and the trial of the case was necessarily lengthened by the necessity of an interpreter, although when the defendant was accused by the state as being "drunk," at the time, a ready "no" was forthcoming from Tuomi on the witness stand without the usual translation.

The afternoon session was devoted to the pleas of the attorneys, the defendant closing at 2:20 o'clock, and the state resting its case at 2:30. Judge Williams, in passing judgment stated that the court would comment on the testimony but he was satisfied that the state had proven its case beyond a reasonable doubt and found the defendant guilty on the evidence presented. He fixed the penalty at $100 fine and costs which amounted to somewhere about $65. A claim that the defendant had perjured himself the court said would not be considered at this time. Attorney Dunn gave notice of the taking of an appeal and the court fixed the amount of the bonds as $1000 and again accepted Jacob Jacobson as surety. On the appeal the case will come up in Washington county superior court at the courthouse at Kingston, R. I., on the third Monday in February, 1931.

The complaining witness, Harry L. Bolles, testified that on Nov. 14, in company with his wife he was proceeding from the entrance to the B. D. A. toward the railroad and was about opposite the A. and P. store over which was a theatre and nearby were parked several autos. He stated that he had just passed an auto parked on the opposite side of the street when an automobile approaching from the opposite direction gave him no time nor was there room for his auto to be driven to the side by reason of the parked autos and an auto afterwards learned to have been that of the defendant, passed and jammed a front fender and rear mudguard and also ripped off his rear hubcap. At the side of the store was a truck on which the driver and helper were at work. One of them picked up a hubcap and handed it to him later, it proving to be the hubcap of a Dodge auto. Photographs of his damaged car were submitted and admitted as evidence.

Raymond Leonard, 198 County street, Taunton, Mass., the helper on the truck, testified that he saw the approaching auto occupied by Tuomi and remarked to the driver of his truck, "Here comes a close one!" the crash following, the driver, John Kelthan, of Taunton, who also testified, gave him the number of the Dodge touring car, "R. I. 62,408" which he wrote on the back of his truck, and was surprised when the driver seemed to put on more speed and disappeared without stopping or returning.

Two garage men, Orrin Lewis and Emil Mateson of the Bliven garage in Bradford, testified to Tuomi's stopping at the garage to have repairs made to a flat tire. Lewis was so impressed with Tuomi's apparent actions, as though under the influence of liquor, that he later asked him if he reached home all right that night.

Officer Charles Button, who investigated the crash, testified to calling the R. I. state board of public roads and obtaining the name of Tuomi and the Dodge auto registered in his name from the numbers given him by Mr. Bolles. The defendant took the stand in his own behalf to give a general denial to the testimony.

Civil Docket

Feldman Bros., Inc., of Norwich, vs. William Riddell and Mary Riddell. Decision rendered and by agreement of counsel accepted, for plaintiff to recover in the sum of $235 and costs.

Clyde Mills, Inc., vs. Joe Stedman. Continued nisi.

United States Rubber Co. vs. Albert S. Angel. Judgment was asked for by Attorney Henry Harris.

Morris Plan Bank of R. I. vs. Santo Turano. On request of Judge Turano for respondent a continuance was made until next Friday on a motion for judgment.

Criminal Docket

Dept. R. I. state police, Sherwood F. Healey, vs. Murray Diamond, 14 Summer street, Roxbury, charged with auto speeding, was continued one week in the absence of his court appearance.

Dept. R. I. state police, John F. Kennedy, vs. Thomas J. H. Pierce, continued one week in the failure of his court appearance.

John F. Kennedy vs. Samuel I. Coit. Continued one week.

CASE OF WESTERLY YOUTH IS CONTINUED FOR WEEK

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Nov. 28— But brief session was held of Stonington town court on Friday morning by Judge William A. Wilcox of Pawcatuck when a complaint, made by Prosecutor Henry P. Hammacher, charging Nicholas Furcolo, 16, of 32 Pierce street, Westerly, with the reckless operation of an automobile on the Westerly-Stonington state highway near the top of Moss hill, on Thanksgiving night, was continued to the regular session of Stonington town court on Tuesday, Dec. 7th. Furcolo was the operator and member of the cross-country team of the Westerly high school, together with two other teammates, Clarence Shippee of Ledward avenue, and James Giorno, 137 Tower street, all of Westerly occupants of a Chevrolet sedan which figured in a crash with two other cars and all three youths were injured.

The injuries, which kept the members of the party at their homes, were related by Attorney John F. Gallagher, who appeared as counsel for Furcolo, as a cause for asking for the continuance. Joseph Marzzarelli was continued as bondsman in the sum of $50 for the court appearance of Furcolo. Mr. Gallagher stated that he had only been called into the case on Friday morning. Pawcatuck Police Patrolman Simeon R. Shortman was the investigating Stonington police officer who arrested Furcolo and ordered his Friday morning court appearance with George Marcheen of 45 Clifford street, Roxbury, Mass., as a material witness.

WEDDINGS

Kennerson—Eccleston

At the rectory of Grace Methodist Episcopal church on Thanksgiving day morning at 9 o'clock occurred the quiet wedding when Miss Grace Alice Eccleston of Uncasville became the bride of Robert Almer Kennerson of that town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Luther H. Conklin, pastor of the church.

DeMattro—Gencarelli

The Church of the Immaculate Conception on Thanksgiving morning was the scene of the wedding when, at 8 o'clock, Miss Eleanor Gencarelli of Oak street was united in marriage with Vincenzo DiQuattro of Providence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M., and the nuptial mass which followed was celebrated by Rev. J. P. Cassagne, S. M.

DeQuattro—Gencarelli

Sanquedolce—Tavernese

On Thanksgiving morning at 9 o'clock, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, was held the wedding of Salvatore A. Sanquedolce of Pawcatuck and Miss Teresa Tavernese of Pierce street, Westerly, who were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M., who also celebrated the nuptial mass which followed. The wedding marches were played by Mrs. James McMahon, and solos during the service were sung by Miss Mary LaPere. Mrs. Edward Lallo was matron of honor and Joseph Lazzaro was best man.

Morrissini—DiFrancesca

In Pawcatuck, on Thanksgiving morning at 9 o'clock at St. Michael's church, Miss Prudence DiFrancesca of Mechanic street, became the bride of Peter Morrissini of Mystic. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. F. X. Quinn, who also celebrated the nuptial mass which followed the ceremony.

Miss Isabelle Quattromani was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Misses Hilda Kinney of Mystic and Lena Stella. Anthony DiFrancesca, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were David McGuinness of Mystic and Frank Arnone of Bradford. Misses Kathleen Grills and Gloria Trombino were train bearers.

FUNERAL

Walter J. Payne

On Friday morning was held the funeral of Walter J. Payne, who was drowned in the Pawcatuck river Tuesday afternoon as he was returning from a clamming expedition in Lower Pawcatuck.

Services at 10 o'clock were conducted by Rev. Harold R. Crandall, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church, and were followed by burial in River Bend cemetery.

Mrs. E. Arthur Mallette, formerly Miss Jane E. Francis, of Rutherford, N. J., arrived in Westerly on Thursday noon to visit with Pawcatuck relatives and friends for a week before returning to her New Jersey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Potter returned on Thursday evening from a Thanksgiving vacation visit with relatives and friends in Warren, R. I.

Probation Officer Elias Emmett, of Providence, was a Westerly visitor on Friday when he attended the session of third district court.

Mrs. Richard J. Butler, Jr., and son, Richard, left Westerly on Friday morning to visit with her sister, Mrs. John Cushman, formerly Miss Helen McWeeney, of Westerly, at her home in Belmont, Mass.

Oscar Crepeau of Fall River, Mass., former resident of Pawcatuck, has been the guest the past week of friends in Pawcatuck and Westerly.

Thermometers in Westerly on Friday morning, the coldest so far this season, ranged from 15 to 20 degrees above zero.

Hopkinton Chief of Police Frank Brown was a Westerly business visitor on Friday, attending the third district court session.

Mrs. Bertinette Blackler has returned to Boston after being the Thanksgiving day guest of Westerly relatives.

STONINGTON

DOUGHTY SUMMER HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

(Special to The Bulletin)

STONINGTON, Nov. 28—Fire practically destroyed the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Doughty on the Stonington road Friday afternoon. The Stonington Steam Fire Engine Co., answered an alarm at about 3:30 and at 4 o'clock it was necessary to call the borough companies. Mr. and Mrs. Doughty have been summer visitors here for a number of years.

On H. S. Honor Roll

The following students have been placed on the honor roll at Stonington high school: Joseph McKenna, Annie Swizdun; Edward Collins, Anne Ward, Mary Delmastro, John Orlando, Melva Burtch, Elizabeth Bindloss, Doris Rix, Evelyn Ferraro, Michael Norcia, Eleanor Driscoll, Frances Lord, Ruth Smethurst, Alfred Goodman, Arline Perry, Clement Shea, Congetta Christina, Elizabeth Crowley, Sylivia Gordon, Florence Ferraro, Maurice Devine, Mary Lombardo, Caroline Stanton, John McCarthy, Catherine Ferrie, Joseph Vargas, Rose Longo, William Thorp, Joseph Fauliso, George MacKenzie, Jane Clarkson, James Lamb, Margaret Walsh, Hyland Richmond, Doris Brown, John Murray, Frederick Broxy, Madeline Keefe, Helen Sylvia, Merle Doughty, Mary Whitlock, James Hanley, Marie Kendzia, Margaret Ripple, Katherine Gynther, Anna Rippel, Carl Mazzarella, Mary Roever, James Anderson, Frances Fain, Sarah Ranta, Marion Brown, Ines Nurmi, Fred Savage, Matilda Long, Leslie Johnson, Paul Jordon, Marie Holly, Frank Landgraf, Kenneth Higginbotham, Sidney Brooks, Beryl Marchard, Mary Castagna, Helen Haas, Gregory Longo, Jennie Longo, Mary Murphy, Winona Delagrange, James Spellman, Frieda Freestone, Anna Giesor, Rauni Forss, Bertha Seimer, Grace Lamb, Esther Cooper, Charles Martin, Lawrence Harvey, Margaret Shephard, Ella Clark, Alice Farnell.

Edmund P. Hyde and family are in South Orange, N. J., for the week end.

George B. Riley and family are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Frank Archbald, of Larchmond, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hammand are visiting Walter E. Hammond in Keene, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hammond spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Providence.

Dr. Herman Atwood, Mrs. Eugene P Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pendleton spent the holiday in New York.

Joseph A. Vargas and family are spending the week in Maspeth, N. Y., with relatives.

Miss Katherine Riley is visiting relatives in Newport, R. I.

At Country Place

Henry B. Barnes and family, of New York are here at their summer home for the holiday recess.

Chas. Miller and sons attended the Brown-Colgate football game at Providence on Thanksgiving.

Catherine Levens, R. N., of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her parents.

Anne and Betty Pierce of Smith college are spending the holiday recess here with their parents.

Mrs. Charles Ide and daughter Ruth of New York are guests of Mrs. Otto Ide.

Dr. and Mrs. Socol of New York are guests here of Mrs. Nellie Smith, of Broad street.

Charles Reitchie, of Bristol, Conn., is visiting Judge and Mrs. L. D. Fairbrother.

Up for Holidays

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams of New York are spending the week end here at their home.

Dorothy Turner of New York is here visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gardiner and children were holiday guests of Mrs Byron Gardiner.

Anna Mae Kriznack of Willimantic is spending a few days here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Garity and Miss Margaret Curtin were holiday visitors in Norwich.

MONTVILLE

NORWICH TOWN MAN PAYS FINE OF $10 AND COSTS

Anthony Duke of 27 Rose street, Norwich Town, was arrested by Police Officer Howard Lamphere, of Montville early Friday morning at Uncasville Four Corners. He is charged with tampering with a motor vehicle, upon complaint of Nicholas Muscarella of 87 Bayonet street, New London, who alleges that Duke stole a set of aluminum wheel discs from his Ford roadster, which was parked in front of the dance hall. The case was tried in Montville justice court Friday afternoon. The accused was found guilty by the court and was fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Oscar E. Church, who heard the case.

Joseph Duke's Hearing the 3rd

Joseph Duke of the same named address was also arrested by Police Officer Howard Lamphere on a charge of tampering with a motor vehicle. His case was continued until Monday next, Dec. 3rd at 7:30 p. m.

The Mission society of the Methodist church held an all day sewing session Friday in the church parlors at Uncasville with a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludger Valliere, of Pequot have motored to New Bedford, Mass., where they will spend the week end with relatives.

LOCALIZED RELIEF TO BE APPRAISED AFTER YEAR'S TEST

MOLINE, Ill (AP)—The "Moline plan" of localized farm relief soon will be tested in the light of results.

Soon after January 1 statistics compiled from the first year's operations will be tabulated.

The "plan" is localized to the trading territory of Moline, Rock Island, East Moline and Davenport, Iowa. At the beginning a study of the products and needs of the area resulted in general recommendations to farmers.

No radical change was urged in the type of farming, but farmers were instructed in grading of products and consumers were to be educated in selection and purchase of foods. Dealers were urged to help make graded farm products popular, and long-time farm betterment projects were to be encouraged.

Since the plan went into effect, alfalfa in the area has been increased by 1,000 acres—after it was found alfalfa could be grown at a profit of $16.64 an acre.

A quality milk association was formed, with more than 700 members; a cow-testing association was organized, with inspectors testing all cows every 30 days. A quality fruit growers' association was started to grade fruit produced and sold in the area, and $40,000 was raised to promote better grading.

Market Pecan Crop

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma's 1930 pecan crop, now being marketed, will total 5,500,000 pounds, the state crop reporting service estimates. Oklahoma's largest crop was 10,310,000 pounds in 1926.

Farm movies made by the United States department of agriculture are being shown in Cuban rural communities.

For Your Next Breakfast
Eat Our Home Made
PORK SAUSAGE or
SAUSAGE MEAT
100% Pure
40c per lb.
THUMM'S
Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street

REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN.

Extraordinary Value
Nature's Rival Corselet
$5.00

Fashioned of rich silk brocade. Fifteen inch knitted silk bordered elastic section at each side. Six garters, two of which are pulley type attached to inner belt. Full size inner belt of pink coutil, firmly boned and attached to the side seams of garment with elastic sections. The garment is well boned in back and has detachable grosgrain shoulder straps. Sizes 36 to 48. Regular $7.50 garment $5.00

Main Floor

REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN.

SPECIALLY PRICED!
Coat Event
$21.75
A Planned Holiday Event!

Beautiful cloth coats, lavish with fur. All of the newest fabrics—in rich high shades, and plenty of black and brown. These coats are exceptional values at this low price.

— MAIN FLOOR —

THE CHRISTMAS STORE — REID & HUGHES — THE CHRISTMAS STORE
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN.

Here's a Reason Why You Should Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

Christmas Gift Items

$1

An Ideal Gift — Handkerchiefs

Ladies' all linen white and colored embroidery —four in a box $1.00

Men's white and colored drawn thread handkerchiefs— four in a box $1.00

Colored satin and lace trimmed handkerchief cases, pastel shades; boxed $1.00

Main Floor

Dainty Bandeaus and Garter Belts, $1.00

Entire new assortment of bandeaus, fashioned of satin, crepe and lace in the new uplift models; colors of flesh and peach $1.00

Garter belts to match these bandeaus $1.00

These are packed in dainty holiday boxes.

Main Floor

FOR MEN OR WOMEN
Toilet Goods

Williams Shaving Sets $1.00
Rose Jars and quaint animals filled with bath salts $1.00
St. Denis Soap and Salts Sets $1.00
Colgates Sets for men and women $1.00
Manicure or Week-End Sets $1.00
Perfumes and Toilet Waters, boxed $1.00
Mello-Glo Face Powder and Compact, both boxed $1.00
Perfume Atomizers and Droppers $1.00
Fancy Boxed Stationery $1.00
Single or Double Compacts $1.00
Christmas Cards, 21 in boxes $1.00

Main Floor

Full Fashioned Silk Hose $1.00

Full fashioned service and chiffon hose, service weight has lisle tops while the chiffon is all silk; in all the fall shades, boxed—pair $1.00

Women's rayon and non-run rayon vests in colors of pink, peach and white; picot straps, sizes 36 to 44 .... $1.00

Girls' non-run rayon sets, vest and bloomers in pink only; sizes 6 to 12 $1.00

Main Floor

Cretonne and Broadcloth Smocks, $1.00

Smocks of good quality broadcloth in solid colors of rose, blue and green; also colorful cretonnes in single and double breasted models; sizes 16 to 46 .... $1.00

Women's home frocks of high quality prints in medium and dark colors; a splendid range of styles to choose from; sizes 36 to 54 .... $1.00

Dainty Pinafore Aprons of organdie and dimity; lace trimmed $1.00

Main Floor

Gifts for the Boys

Boys' white broadcloth shirts, boxed $1.00

Boys' Knit Caps, navy, blue and white, red, and red and white, boxed $1.00

Boys' kid gloves, wool lined $1.00

Boys' leather belts, with initial buckle $1.00

Boys' woolen socks $1.00

Boys' knit and silk scarfs $1.00

Boys' fancy pajamas $1.00

Second Floor

Gifts from the Art Department

Backgammon boards for the popular game $1.00

Painted glass vases, over night sets, orange juice sets, cookie jars, utility pitchers, flower pots $1.00

Pottery vases, flower pots, teapots, nut bowls, etc. $1.00

Novelty dolls in organdie $1.00

Salad bowls, door stops, book ends, telephone screens, pictures, waste baskets, and many other suitable gifts for $1.00

Third Floor

Boudoir Lamps $1.00

Boudoir lamp and shade complete, colors of blue and tan with paper parchment shades to match $1.00

Cottage Curtains of hard twist voile in colors of blue, green, and gold with coin dot or figured pattern $1.00

Rayon pillows, round, oblong, and oval; colors of gold, rust, rose, blue and red $1.00

Third Floor

Chamoisette Gloves, $1.00

Chamoisette and leatherette gloves, pull on and one clasp style; colors of silver moon, bon bon, mocha, tortoise $1.00

Main Floor

Buffet Sets $1.00

Buffet and Vanity sets, 3 pieces $1.00

Appliqued Guest Towels $1.00

Linen Cloth with colored border; size 54x54 .... $1.00

Basement

Boxed Prints

3 1-2 yards of boxed prints, for gifts $1.00

Second Floor

"Lok-Ray" Panties

A new non-run rayon fabric of Kayser's in dainty pastel shades, appliqued with glove silk of contrasting colors; also bloomers.

$1.00

Bandeaus to match either the bloomers or panties.

$1.00

Hand made gowns of an excellent quality of rayon, full cut and appliqued in pretty lingerie colors $1.00

Novelty Pajamas of a fine grade of broadcloth in tuck-in styles, cleverly fashioned and in a gorgeous color array. This is a very special purchase which would ordinarily sell for $1.95—Now $1.00

Main Floor

Infants' Philippine Dresses, $1.00

Hand-made Philippine dresses, also hand-made Mexican dresses with smocking or cross stitching of pink and blue; sizes 1 and 2 years $1.00

Children's wash dresses, 2 to 6 years, guaranteed fast colors, with bloomers to match $1.00

Infants' slip-on and button front sweaters, 1 and 2 years; colors of white, pink, and blue $1.00

Second Floor

Toys for the Kiddies

Toy Tractors $1.00
Colored Electric Light Sets $1.00
Assorted Games $1.00
Dolls and Teddy Bears $1.00
China Tea Sets $1.00
Aluminum Kitchen Sets $1.00
Embroidery Sets $1.00
Standing Blackboards $1.00
Metal Airplanes $1.00
Metal Trucks $1.00

Second Floor

Gifts for the Home

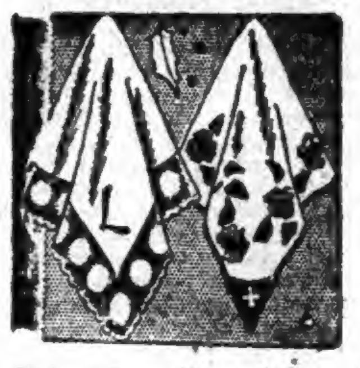
Pyrex Pie Plates $1.00
Pyrex Utility Dishes $1.00
Pyrex Pudding Dishes $1.00
Pyrex Tiles $1.00
Pyrex Platers $1.00
Unfinished End Tables and Magazine Racks $1.00
Crystal Glassware with black base, sherbets, goblets, wine and champagne glasses—six for $1.00

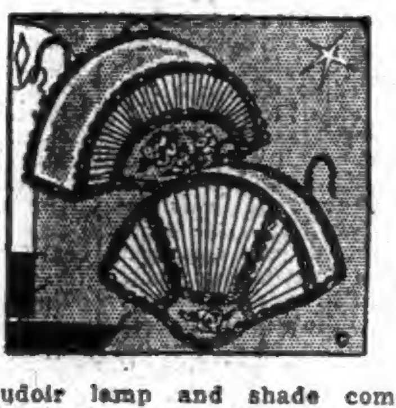
Basement

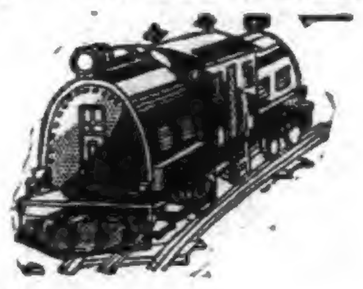
GIFTS FOR THE MEN

Ties, plain and fancy patterns ... $1.00
Fancy hose, 3 pair for $1.00
Plain and fancy shirts $1.00
Silk and wool hose, 2 pair $1.00
Silk hose $1.00
Pajamas and night shirts $1.00
Suspender and garter sets $1.00
Belts $1.00
Scarfs $1.00
Fancy suspenders $1.00
Rayon shirts and shorts, each . $1.00

Main Floor







THE SOCIAL CORNER

THE HIGHEST CULTURE IS TO SPEAK NO ILL

SOCIAL CORNER PRIZE WINNERS FOR NOVEMBER

One Dollar Each

To TWICE TWENTY for letter entitled Corner Loses Two Old Members.
To BETSY BOBBET for letter entitled Interest Still Exists in Corner.
To OLGA for letter entitled Members Should Write Occasionally.
To IMPROVEMENT for letter entitled A Fair Chance.
To HOPE COBWEB, for letter entitled Mending Kitchenware.

SOCIAL CORNER EVENTS

Dec. 10—Club No. 1 meets in Y. M. C. A., Willimantic.

SOCIAL CORNER POETRY

Surrender

Matthew V 38-48

Who can surrender to Christ, dividing his best with the stranger,
Giving to each what he asks, braving the uttermost danger
All for the enemy man? Who can surrender till death
His words and his works, his house and his lands,
His eyes and his heart and his breath?

Who can surrender to Christ? Many have yearned toward it daily
Yet they surrender to passion, wildly or grimly or gaily;
Yet they surrender to pride, counting her precious and queenly
Yet the surrender to knowledge, preening their feathers serenely.

Who can surrender to Christ? Where is the man so transcendent
So healed with love of this kind, so filled with the spirit resplendent
That all of the hours of his day his day his song is thrilling and tender,
And all of his thoughts to our white cause of peace.
Surrender, surrender, surrender?

By Vachel Lindsay.
Sent in by PERNICKETY.

Life

Life is like
An automobile ride.
There are Smooth roads,
Rocky roads,
Straight roads,
Crooked roads,
Cross roads,
Detours,
And stop signs
Which we are penalized
For passing.
The journey may be
Long or short,
Happy or tiresome,
Fast or slow,
There are spots
Where we
May pause and rest;
And always
There is
A destination.

By Esther Wright.
Sent in by PERNICKETY.

Superlatives

There was a maid in Boston town,
And she was wondrous fat
She trotted in the cabarets
And dropped ten pounds at that.
But when she'd lost that decimal
She went to tango teas
And fed on cakes and pastry 'till
She gained it back with ease.

The hen that cackles loudest may not lay the largest eggs;
The mule that kicks the hardest may not have the longest legs;
The tree that is the tallest may not bear the sweetest fruit,
And the girl that is the fairest may not wear the smallest boot.
The man whose brow is highest may not always know the most;
The hero who is bravest may not make the loudest boast;
The arm that is the strongest may not have the farthest reach,
And the man who talks the longest may not make the finest speech.
The rose that is the reddest may not have the sweetest scent;
The man whose strut is proudest may not be most prominent;
The woman who has jewels that she measures by the peck
May not have the slimmest fingers or the most delightful neck.
The man who works the hardest may not draw the highest pay;
The one with deepest knowledge may not have the most to say;
But the man who is most modest gets the last seat in the rear,
And the one who blows his bugle is the one whom people hear.
Sent in by ARIES.

Four Men Dined

It chanced upon a winter's night, safe sheltered from the weather,
The board was spread for only one, yet four men dined together.
There sat the man I meant to be, in glory spurred and booted,
And close beside him to the right, the man I am reputed.
The man I think myself to be, a seat was occupying
Hard by the man I really am, who to hold his own was trying.
And though beneath one roof we met
None called his fellow brother;
No sign of recognition passed—
They knew not one another.

From an Old Scrap Book
Sent in by HAPPY GO LUCKY.

"Songs My Mother Sang"

Sometimes like a chime of bells
Through life's din and clang,
I remember sweet and clear—
Songs my mother sang.

Far above the city's smoke,
Drifting like a bird
Float the tunes she used to hum
Songs without a word.

When I close my eyes at night,
Often her songs creep
Through the dusk, like little hands,
Fingering my sleep
There is comfort in their touch,
Something in their sound,
Peace and purity like snow
White upon the ground.

Let Time steal away years,
Life will still be new,
While I hear my mother's song
Back of all I do.

—Helen Frazee Bower.
Sent in by QUID NUNC.

LIFE IN FLORIDA

To The Editor and Social Corner Sisters: Now that the frost is on the pumpkin, rather snow, up there, and the winter visitors are returning to Florida for the season, it feels like home to meet them again.

I've read the letters of the crystals in the gardens, and others through the glass in their windows. So, now, I will try to give you all an idea of what I see through my three windows in front of my table here. I live on an island in the St. John's river now, and to one who loves the great outdoors, it's wonderful. Today the sun is nice and warm, not a cloud in sight. The river is just a little rippley with a fair little breeze. In the foreground, I have two barges that form my pier. To that there are three cruisers tied, also two rowboats. My husband and son are there overhauling their tugboat. To the east is a mile stretch of the river to the bend that forms the opening of Lake Beresford. I can see across that, two miles away, the smoke of the railroad trains when they go through the woods there also.

Now across the river here the oaks are changing colors in the leaves. I can see mistletoe growing on some of them and long streamers of moss hanging to the cypress trees. A few cows are knee-deep in the water eating the tops of the hyacinths there. A few Negroes are fishing off shore a quarter of a mile up that side. The mullett fish are jumping all over in the river. They cannot be caught by hook and line. Just with seives. That is forbidden in this country.

Every day there are folks going by in row boats with outboard motors to the fishing grounds. Saw a big sail and gasoline yacht go by last week. Her two masts were about 75 feet or more high. The sun made the glass and brasswork shine so pretty on it. The hull was white and cabins and decks of red wood all varnished. Then the government workboat went by yesterday, "The Palmetto." They are renewing the beacon lights all the way from Jacksonville to Sanford, Fla., 154 miles of the St. John's river which the big boats can travel. You can go further with small boats and outboatings rigs though. The cool spell we had for four days a week ago has given the oranges in the groves a nice yellow tint. The fruit here in the grove has tested now up to standard for picking, so the crews will soon be here for them. My husband will haul the fruit in boxes on the barges to the packing house four miles up the river and across Lake Beresford.

Everyday I can see a pair of bald headed eagles circling around overhead. They have their nest in the top of a high pine tree on the landpoint of Lake Beresford. I love to watch them sail through the air. But the most interesting thing about them is to see them take fish away from the ospreys all around here. An osprey will fly along over the river or lake and when he sights a fish, he dives straight down to it, then he rises to fly back to land to eat it. But those crafty eagles are waiting for him to come up again. Then they go at him with shrill screeches till he drops the fish to get away from them. The eagles catch that fish every time before it strikes the water again. Then they go to their nest to feed while the osprey has to start looking for his meal all over again.

Then we have ten wild ducks playing around here all the time now since the cool weather came a month ago. They are very cute looking. Last week, one day, we were crossing over in the rowboat when all of a sudden a sleek brown head came up out of water to look us over. It was an otter, about four feet long. He didn't linger though went for the hyacinths to hide out again. That is the second one I have seen in Florida.

Twice a week, the big tugboat, "The Anna," comes by here with big steel oil barges for the public utilities plants near Lake Monroe, 20 miles south of us.

The freighters, "Daytona," "Lusterlite," "Jean," come by three times each week. So now I have given you an idea of what I can see through my three windows that form the front of my living room. True, I am seven miles from town but there is plenty t osee during the day. At night I have my battery set radio to give us anything on the air from the Dallas, Texas, to Chicago studios, New York to Havana, Cuba the other way. News of the day by Floyd Gibbons and even the time to set my clock right every half hour.

Here in Florida I have the difference in time very well. New York time and Chicago time varies just one hour. When an announcer gives us the time, we'll say 7 o'clock central standard time, it is exactly 8 o'clock here in Florida.

On Armistice day I listened in on the nation-wide hookup. It was fine. On thinking over the wonders of radio one can imagine how small this world seems to be. Heard one announcer say that the curtain was going up in a minstrel show the other night, you could hear the squeaking as it went up. To the day in the near future when we can all have a televisor attached to the radio and we see as well as hear the performers, won't it be wonderful? The magic carpet of old won't have a thing on our modern radio.

Must sign off this time in hopes that the Social Corner page will be full every week.

Best wishes to all, and may those who are ill be well soon.

E. M. R. C. P. MAY 7. (Club 4).

A FAIR CHANCE

Dear Social Corner Friends: The child needs some one willing to teach him, from the first day of his life until he has learned all the fundamental facts and is capable and disposed to continue learning by himself from books and other ways.

Because until he learned to understand what he heard said, this teaching was done unconsciously for the most part, we did not grasp the necessity of constant daily teaching from that time on.

Before a child reaches school age he should know how to read and understand simple number work and the foundation facts of geography and history, etc. All of this he will learn as simply and easily and naturally as he learned to talk, if he can hear some one talk it each day.

But of course this requires time and effort on the part of some one each day. For he has already learned all there is to know that happens without special thought and effort from his attendants.

Our school system is reaching back into the homes now, through the work of the school nurses and the home teachers and the juvenile courts, but it is still too slow and there is now no reason why the proper home teaching, for all children of 18 months and more of age, should not be made compulsory, as part of the regular school system.

Every child should be trained to think and to use his common sense on every occasion.

It is a disgrace to us that there are still so many children growing up with undeveloped minds—mere animals. Watch the behavior of a group of children going and coming from school.

Are they pushing and knocking each other down and quarrelling like a mess of untrained animals?—just what they are.

Every boy should have access to some apparatus where he can work off his surplus energy properly and be taught that in such ways is the only proper place to do it.

We see some children in churches and in public places who behave as the adults do, taking their places quietly and politely as a person of any age should do, and this should be the expected and ordinary behavior of every child in all places.

It is just as easy to have them all trained so that they expect to do only this.

Assume with dignity that the child will do this and probably he will imitate your polite behavior and your expectations; if he does not, make him see that his rude behavior is not smart, that it is just babyish and stupid and silly and ignorant—no one who is anybody would do so.

Ridicule is a good helper when properly used in the training of the crude youngster.

IMPROVEMENT

THANKSGIVING

Dear Social Corner Members: When I turned a page of my Sunshine calendar on Sunday morning of this Thanksgiving week I read this quotation: "I awake this morning with devout thanksgiving for my friends, the old and the new." What a beautiful thought for us all and especially so at this season of the year when many of us in memory turn to the time when in the old home we spent Thanksgiving with loved ones now gone from us. We are truly thankful for the memory of those happy days and grateful indeed for the newer friends and home of today.

There is a legend that tells of a man who believed that he had no reason to rejoice. He had allowed his life to become so filled with sadness that he could not see anything cheerful or lovely. Sorrow had knocked at his door repeatedly. An angel came to him one day and told him that if he would find a home on his street in which no sorrow had ever entered, she would restore his happiness. The man searched the homes, but could find none in which there had not been some cause of sadness. Yet the homes did not seem sad and he learned that while sadness comes to every one, gladness too can be found. Everyone has something to be thankful for.

"I'm thankful for the summer with its blossoms an' its bees;
I'm thankful for the winter with its bluster an't its freeze;
I'm such a thankful feller that I couldn't if I'd try
Say whether I'm more thankful for December or July.
Of course there's disappointments and there's trouble more or less;
But I'm so brimming over with the sweets o' happiness
I don't have time to worry o'er the bitter things, you see,
For the Lord keeps me busy bein' thanksful's I can be."

PRIMROSE

NO SACRED DAYS TODAY

Dear Editor and All the Friends: How do you all like this fine weather? I hope it lasts all winter, don't you?

Hurrah! for Thanksgiving. Well, it's almost here again and there is so much to be thankful for. There is something for each day of the year. Sometimes we think there is not, but if we look the day through at night we will find something that we will be thankful for. The Pilgrims set aside this one especial day for a general Thanksgiving for the good things they had received during the whole year. I think it a beautiful day to keep and I pray God will be merciful to us all through the coming year. Let us all give thanks on that blessed day.

When I was a little girl we all went to church on that day. It was a day of reverence, but today it is a day of pastime and hilarity. There are no sacred days today, but I think this day should be kept more sacred because God has given us so many things to be thankful for. I hope that all the poor will have a good dinner on Thanksgiving day.

Ma of Green Gables: How I wish I had one of your squash pies. I suppose you have been up to your elbows in the pies this fall.

Rural Aunty: How are you? Have you started any more quilts or mats yet?

Kochia: Did you come to the dance? Well, he was looking for you. Keep your eyes open.

Azile: Hope you are feeling much better. I think of you so often.

Harry E.: You should give us a letter and let us know that young Harry is growing.

Ann Tenna: I hope you are much improved.

L. T. H.: I don't think you and Violet are forgotten.

Last Rose of Summer: Hope you are fine?

Aries: Hope you and Adam are fine?

Marvis: Tell your mother I will answer her letter soon. I am glad I have found out who you are. I will look for a letter.

Chkkie: Where are you? Have you lost your pen or got a lame elbow? Come now, write and do your bit. We have had some awful blasting about 30 feet from my door, but the old hen's nest is still there on the solid rock. Get the big boy to bring you up to see me.

Carol: Have you joined us yet? You were going to. Well, I wish all a fine Thanksgiving. May God be with you all is my best wish.

NONESOPRETTY (Club 4)

INTEREST DOES NOT WANE

Dear Corner Sisters and Friends: Although I haven't written for a long time, yet my interest for the Corner page hasn't slackened. I take great pleasure in reading the many interesting letters of those who have the tact as well as the courage to write, of which I am not blest with either. I mean to do my bit once in awhile that I may not be a slacker in the good cause for which our Corner stands. No doubt most of you have read the "Acrostic," composed by Sisters Buffalo which was wonderful and right to the point in regard to what our Corner stands.

Calla Lily: Seems an age since we met. Cheer up.

Molly Larkin: Thanks for favors. Was saddened to hear of the sudden death of Effie M. She will be missed as well as many others, who have gone from our midst, never to return. "We shall meet, but we shall miss them."

Dorinda: Sorry to hear of your illness.

Bumblebee: Cheer up, better days are coming.

Golden Glow: Will come to see you, sometime.

Nespa: Where are you these days? Hope you keep well.

Queen Elizabeth: Hope to see you again, soon.

Catnip: Hope you are better and that we shall meet in December.

Unome: On God's protecting arm rely to him in all thy sorrows fly.

No Go: When are you coming to see me?

E. L. M.: Wish I could have been to your meeting of Club No. 6.

A happy Thanksgiving to you all.

U. C. K.

PLEASANT VISIT TO BIRTHPLACE

Dear Social Corner Friends: Again, I have been ajourneying. In September I left home on a visit to the place of my birth in New York state. With friends I autoed to Middletown and Waterbury, crossing the Hudson river over the new bridge at Poughkeepsie, then on to Kingston and through the Catskill mountains, past Ashokan Dam, one of the great reservoirs that supply New York city with pure water. We threaded our way in and out of villages and up and down hills until we came at last to the beautiful valley through whose green meadows the Delaware river runs like a silver thread. In my home town, which, by the way, is known as "The Garden Spot of the Catskills," the river is about the size of the Yantic at Norwich. One day we went nearly to its source in Roxbury, not far from John Burroughs' old home. The brook, for there it was nothing more than that, ran so crookedly that a stone thrown by a boy would cross it seven times.

Another time we followed the Delaware down to the Pennsylvania line. There it had attained the size and dignity of a real river. Owing to the drought, however, it was so low in places that one could cross it without getting wet feet, by stepping on the stones that showed above the water. Many brooks and even small rivers were entirely dry or showed only an occasional pool of water. Some Connecticut streams have muddy beds, but Catskill mountain brooks run over rocky beds and the water is clear and alive looking.

The Thames river seems to be a business-like man's river. Thinking of it, one calls to mind not only its natural beauty, but tugs towing dusky coal barges, tall masted schooners laden with lumber, and Uncle Sam's slim gray boats riding on or under the water. The Thames is man's slave to fetch and carry and do his bidding.

In the Catskills the rivers are not yet grown up. The Delaware has its beginning in two springs from which flow the "East Branch" and the "West Branch." These later unite to form the main river. For many miles the scenes along its banks are those of quiet pastoral beauty. Instead of coal barges and submarines, bright-colored canoes and flat bottomed skiffs drift lazily along or idly rest in the shadow of huge willow trees. Nearly all rivers in that section have beautiful willows, singly or in groups along their borders. To me there are no more lovely trees than these, as they bend over nature's mirror to catch glimpses of their own gracefulness in the water below.

When I left home I took my camera with me hoping to bring back some pictures that might, perhaps, rival Wallace Nutting's, for the country, I knew, was full of attractive scenery. But one cannot take photos when riding 45 miles an hour. Wherever I went I caught fleeting glimpses of rare beauty,—the slender white spire of a church set among trees, with a winding river in the foreground, quaint old covered bridges was cattle knee-deep in the water beneath and many other alluring places. But alas! We always seemed to be in a hurry, and I could only note some charming bit of landscape and hope that, sometime, I might take its picture.

I had used up two rolls of films, having taken some rather prosaic snap-shots of homes of relatives, when we decided to auto to Hamilton, the seat of Colgate university. We planned to loiter along the road so I took along my camera and an extra roll of films. On the way to Hamilton, I saw a group of willows, a soft maple in kingly robes of scarlet, and a towering button-ball tree with gray-blotched trunk, reflected in the water of a sparkling rock bedded stream. Black and white cattle grazed in the foreground. The hills in the background were of the most brilliant hues mingled with the cool greens of pine and hemlock softened by distance into pastel shades. A perfect picture.

"I simply must have that," I said, and my host obligingly stopped the car. I climbed out, almost went out of sight in a deep ditch, fought my way through briers to the fence, and clicked a carefully aimed camera. Sad to relate, after we had gone on, I discovered that I had taken two pictures on the same film, and, worse luck, when I attempted to refill my camera I found that I had brought with me a used roll instead of an unused one. So I got no pictures that day.

It's rather confusing to learn that Colgate university is located at Hamilton, while Hamilton college is in another town. Colgate campus, most of its buildings stand on high ground, and are made of flat field stone, is very interesting, as is the town in which it is situated. The following there was to be a big football game. High canvas was stretched around the field. We caught a glimpse inside as we passed the narrow opening, through which the next day thousands would crowd to watch the players.

I spent ten days in Norwich, N. Y., a city both like and unlike our own Norwich. It has a suburb called Preston, and two rivers unite below the city as do our two to form the Thames. High hills lie around Norwich, N. Y., but most of the city is built on level ground. A large park in the center of the town is cut in two by one of the main streets. At one end of the park stands the courthouse, a colonial white painted structure with massive pillars and a cupola. The city has less than 10,000 inhabitants, but seemed to be a fairly busy place.

One day while there I went to Chenango lake, 1,200 feet above sea level.

On one of our rides we saw this rather unusual sign: "Goodbye, good luck, God be with you."

We went to Binghamton. The road followed the course of the Chenango river and the old canal which has probably not been used for 50 years. In former years water from the river was diverted into it. It is now for the most part empty and overgrown with grass. The locks have been torn down but the old cow path is still in good condition. Seeing this canal brought to mind the contrast between the old and new methods of transportation. A heavily laden freight train puffed along near the river, autos sped by on the highway, and an airplane soared high above us. Nowadays everything is hustle and bustle and hurry and worry. It might not be so exciting as an airplane trip, but I have sometimes thought that I would like to make a leisurely ride across New York state in a house boat by way of the Erie canal.

During my visit I wandered up and down the valleys of the Susquehanna, Chenango, Delaware, Oleout and Unadilla rivers. The names are Indian and slip like poetry from one's tongue. Each valley was like a green paradise which lack of rain had not affected. Around them arose the hills and mountains. It was my good fortune to be there just as the flame of autumn was sweeping over them. It was indeed the "scarlet and gold of the year." Miles of maple trees lined some of the roads. Even on cloudy days their golden leaves gave one an impression of strong sunlight. But why try to describe the glories of the foliage of such an autumn as we have just had whe neverywhere "nathre had swung a reckless brush."

I picked the only rainy day in three weeks for my journey home. But I had company all the way and so did not mind it. Friends took us over the Catskills to Kingston, where we crossed the Hudson to Rhinecliff. From there we went to New York by train, then to New London, and took the bus home. And so ended one more pleasant journey.

THE FRIENDLY VOICE.

GIFTS FOR CHRISTMAS

Dear Editor and Corner Sisters: Feeling the urge to write, I'll "burst into print" once more.

What a lot of rain we had, and yet even now the river here is very low. With our wonderful, never failing water supply I suppose we do not half realize how hard it has been for many people, especially in the rural sections.

Woodside: I'm glad your sister liked the doll needle cases. I made dozens of them for Christmas gifts. I don't know if I have any ideas which are new to you, but here are a few things I have planned for this year.

Patchwork cushions, which seem very popular and can be made of the small pieces on hand.

Simple crocheted edgings for covers or pillow slips make very pretty gifts, which cost very little in actual cash. I use about No. 50 or 60 crochet thread and make strips 42 inches long if meant for pillow slips or 18 inches long for covers. Two strips of the 42 and four of the 18 will trim a whole set. I do not give the pillow slips or covers themselves, just the lace. I press it with a warm flatiron and wind it smoothly on squares of cardboard which I have covered with red tissue paper.

Cut circles of different colored cloth, either silk or cotton, turn under edge and gather, drawing up until a space about the size of a nickel is left in center. In this space work several French knots in black. Make two pieces of green, leaf-shaped, outline ribs in black and sew five or six of these circles, side by side, on a strip of tape about 18 inches long, placing one of the leafs at each end and you have pretty curtain tie-backs at practically no cost and very little labor. These circles should be cut about four inches in diameter and when sewn on the tape only cover about one-half of it, the empty half coming next to window.

Buy a doll's head. Make a small bag and gather the top. Place a ball of twine in this bag, run the end of the twine out through the doll's mouth and gather top of bag tightly around doll's neck. This makes a nice twine holder. The lady from whom I received this idea said that she bought the celluloid dolls at the five and ten cent store and cut off the bodies around the shoulders. If the mouth was not open she cut it open. These are less expensive than buying the china heads elsewhere.

Last year I made several pairs of slippers from felt. You can buy insoles in the five and ten store. The tops are cut in two pieces. Then I worked around the top in blanket stitch with bright colored wool and placed a pom pom of same color wool on top of slipper. I shall be glad to send you the pattern of the slipper if you wish.

O. D.: Congratulations on receiving the yellow slip.

Milky Way: So you like detective stories, too. They are my favorite form of fiction. I like Fletcher, also Chrolyn Wells, Valentine Williams, Edgar Wallace, S. S. Van Dine and Charles J. Dutton. Do you recall Rev. John J. Dutton, who was at one time pastor of the Broad street church? This Charles J. Dutton is his son. He also is a minister and a writer of detective stories. In one of his stories, "The Shadow on the Glass", the scene of the story is laid at Watch Hill and Westerly. Another very good mystery story is "Hide in the Dark", but I do not remember the author.

Recently, in painting a floor, I came to a knot hole which I had forgotten to close up. Not wishing to wait for putty or plaster to dry, I hammered a cork into the hole and went right ahead with my painting. This may help some other sister, so I'm passing it along.

AMERICAN GIRL (Club 6)

MORE ABOUT CALLAS

Dear Social Corner Friends: The letter by May B. on "The Care of Callas" was most interesting to me for we have a plant consisting of three bulbs that my husband's father took, with other things in the payment of a debt over 40 years ago. About the first of July each year after the plant has finished blooming, we put it out under the syringa bush, side down, and leave it until the first of September, when it is brought in and new material put into the large jar. It is composed of well-decayed chip dirt from an old woodpile and fine pulverized fertilizer from the barnyard, about equal parts of each. A layer of fresh earth is put on top after the bulbs are pressed into their places with several inches between them. As May B. suggests, it should be set into a larger dish several inches in height and kept watered, but not too wet. If quick blooming is desired, warm water placed in the outer dish will hasten the growth and buds to form, but I do not usually do this as we have a sunny window in the second story over the living room where the register keeps this room at about 50 degrees all winter and this seems to be the right temperature for callas. For two winters the calla was kept in the living room at 70 degrees or more and it looked sickly and had no blooms either year.

With the care thus described one can have callas equal to those growing out of doors in California, in long hedges from three to four feet in height and having masses of large blooms.

Temperature is an important factor in the successful care of plants and requires much study and experimentation. Coleres require warm temperatures with a generous amount of water, also begonias, while amoryllis, fuchael, cacti and geraniums do best in moderate temperature from 55 degrees to 65 degrees.

Orange trees will stand the most neglect and ill treatment of almost any plant used for decorative purpose. They respond readily to sunshine and water with vigorous growth and fruit, but will also thrive in shade and with but little water and earth. We have two in large jars that are eight years of age and about three feet in height. Part of the year they are in the sunshine, the remainder in the shade and have made a very slow growth, but are pleasant reminders of "Sunny California."

Now the annual Thanksgiving season is here and we, in the country, have much to be thankful for, to our Heavenly Father, and we should remember those who are less fortunate.

With best regards to all.

CALIFORNIA POPPY.

Farm dairying has made a big increase in West Florida during the past two years.

RECOMMENDS READING BOOK

Dear Social Corner Readers: My notebook has taken on a historical (not to mention hysterical) air this week for I am reading "Giants in the Earth" by O. E. Rolvaag, "The Prairie Years," a history of the early life of Lincoln by Carl Sandburg and the first of two books by Charles and Mary Beard, "The Rise of American Civilization." I haven't read enough of either of the last two to tell you very much about them but I certainly do enjoy "Giants in the Earth." It is interesting to me on one count and that is its difference from the pioneer stories which have been published during the past few years. You've read so much about it in all the papers and magazines that you won't thank me for talking about it some more; but, if you haven't read it yourself, do. It may not be pleasant at all times and the ending may not suit your ideas of the way a story should end, but the whole thing has the ring of truth and sincerity and one appreciates the hardships which the Norwegian settlers of the west encountered and overcame. It is seldom that one reads more beautiful description than that contained in the first chapters of the book.

Improvement: Up-to-date schools are working more and more on the "individuality ideas." Teachers are now being taught in the training schools to study their children and work to bring out the best in each rather than to work to make them "fit in the same mold." Text books are supplemented and required to assume at times a secondary place in the plans of the school by the teacher's conception of what is best fitted to the children and what bears directly on their own lives and experiences. For example, when the second grade in the particular school of which I was told, were learning their numbers, they took down the house numbers and then numbered toy log houses which they had made during another period. In this way they learned both odd and even numbers and at the same time learned uses for the numbers so that the mere memorization does not seem as senseless to them. I hope that Sumac will tell us about the Parent and Teacher's association meeting. While the problems of various schools may be very different, still the interchange of ideas is helpful.

E. L. M.: I haven't read "Mary Minds Her Business" yet, but shall in the near future. I have read several of George Weston's stories. Did you know that he lives in Windham county and that in several of his books, he has used local backgrounds? We visited Old Furnace last Sunday, one of the places which figured in one of his novels.

One has read so much in the past few years of the wildness of the "younger generation" that it is a relief to find the occasional articles which tell of its passing and of the arrival of the "new generation", the boys and girls of 1930. One of these articles written by La Mar Warrick, the only woman member of the faculty of the Northwestern School of Journalism, is called "Farewell to Sophistication," and appears in a recent Harper's magazine. In Mrs. Warrick's opinion this new generation have weighed and found wanting, the ideas and ideals of their predecessors and have set out to establish their own set of values and standards. And it seems to be her opinion also, though she doesn't state it, that they will make a much better job of life than their elder brothers and sisters, who so recklessly scrapped all traditions in their search for "freedom."

Time to get supper.

PERNICKETY

HEARS INSTRUCTIVE TALK

Dear Social Corner Friends: Indeed, I have been a slacker as far as writing to the page. However, I feel as if I had done my duty to the meetings, both in helping and attendance. Like many others, I wrote my letter of admission and then contented myself by reading the letters.

A short while ago I attended a farm bureau meeting where we were told by Miss Van Cleef of Storrs how to remodel our last year's dresses. It was instructive and I carried home various ideas which I have passed on to some with problems.

You may lengthen your old dress by adding a drop skirt (using it as a slip) of either a darker shade of predominating color or one in pleasing contrast. Always wear the colors suited to your complexion regardless of styles leading colors. Before making or purchasing a garment you should stand in front of a mirror and study your color, hair, lines in face and neck, in fact your whole form. White felt hats are very chic, but be sure to include white in your ensemble. These are only a few of the ideas.

White Chrysanthemum: Thanks for the inquiry. You did the trick.

Anona and Wisteria: Take a walk upon the hill where the mild breezes blow and bring your neighbor.

Please more come out to our next month's meeting. We are assured of a bountiful dinner for we are to have a good hostess.

Little Sister: So glad to hear good news from you.

MAISIE. (Club No. 1).

WORK NEVER WORRIES HER

Dear Editor and Sisters: Thanksgiving will have gone into the past when this gets printed and every one will have been thankful for something or other, no matter how hard the times are. "From the time you are born, 'til you ride in a hearse, whatever your troubles, they might have been worse."

Anastasia: Wouldn't I just love to tell you I have an eight room house with cook and maids galore! But alas! Alack! It is not so. My house is small, too small, and my family, well I can't say it is too large, there are none of them I could do without, so I guess I'll just say it's the house to blame, it's too small. I have a Martha-by-the-day that comes once a week, on Tuesday. But since the little Sumac's have been having chicken pox, she has been conspicious by her absence as she has never had it. She is very trustworthy and the children are very fond of her. I can go out in the morning and not come back until four and find the house cleaned up, cooking done and some washing done if I wish it. I have most of my clothes done in the laundry, wet wash, which means more work than if they were dried flat, but, I get more clothes done for my money. The worst of it is I can't ever afford enough clothes to last the week around, so I usually have to do some between spells. All the children except Kitty Lou (Lucille) go to school so I can often take her if I go other days beside Tuesdays. Grange meetings are, of course, in the evenings and as Mr. Sumac doesn't belong, he stays with the kiddies. He stays when I go and I stay when he goes out and once in a while we have someone come in and we both go places. But mind you, it would have to be a mighty important task that I wouldn't leave to go somewhere. I have no system as long as the work gets done sometime its all right with me. I may be ironing, washing dishes or even washing floor at 11 o'clock at night because I went to mothers to listen to a baseball or football game in the afternoon. If I go out and leave it, work never worries me. It will be there when I get back, so why spoil my afternoon or what have you, by worrying. I like to see a clean house and work all finished as well as any one, but why get all tired out, cross and ugly insisting on doing things not absolutely necessary. I try to keep the children clean and give them enough food of the right kind to eat. There is always another day coming, but if it doesn't come, why we needn't worry. There are many who perhaps do not approve of this method, but it seems to work out alright with me.

Pernickety: I am afraid I gave you a wrong impression as to my opinion of Sinclair Lewis. As far as the Nobel prize is concerned, there may have been many outstanding books than his. I am not of course in a position to say as I do not read enough to form an opinion. But, I do feel differently about his books than many people that I know do. In Main Street, as he describes certain characters you just stop and think, who do you know that comes under that description, and soon you have each one personified in an acquaintance or friend of yours. That was one of the most interesting things I found about it. Elmer Gantry and Arrowsmith are decidedly different and again Free Air is still different. He certainly does not have a sameness in his books that we often find in several books by the same author.

I hope everyone will continue to send in Christmas suggestions.

SUMAC.

HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

Dear Social Corner: What is your Home Demonstration club doing? I am sure that a number of our members belong to these groups and that others are interested in their work. The clubs in this section are undertaking a nutrition project. The subject of the first meeting was Nutrition Made Easy.

As our home demonstration agent has a large number of clubs under her supervision, she cannot be present at each of the monthly meetings. Therefore two members of each club are sent to the local leader training school which meets once a month. Then these leaders bring the information to their group.

This school is an all-day meeting and it is held in some central place. Now that we are studying nutrition, each one is asked to bring some raw food and this is prepared and served for luncheon. The work is divided up and all have a pleasant time visiting old friends and making new ones while doing their task. The afternoon is spent listening to the agent explain the lesson and all go home full of enthusiasm and ideas to pass on to their home group.

Each member is asked to put into practice the suggestions given and to report on her success at the following meeting. She is to pass on to at least one other person, the information she has received. Perhaps some of you would like to try the recipes that were used for the luncheon mentioned, so here they are:

Vegetable Chowder: One-third cup diced salt pork, 1 cup diced potatoes, 1 cup diced carrots, 1 cup diced turnips, 1 onion, 2 cups hot milk, salt, 3 tablespoons flour, celery leaves or celery salt.

Brown pork in kettle, add chopped onion, brown slightly. Add carrots, turnips and seasonings and water to cover. Cook 15 minutes. Add potatoes. When vegetables are tender add milk. When this comes to the boiling point, add flour which has been rubbed to a smooth paste with water. Some prefer it with no thickening.

Cabbage and Pineapple Salad: Two cups finely shredded cabbage, 1-2 cup boiled dressing or mayonnaise, 1 cup drained pineapple, shredded or cubed. Mix, and serve with or without lettuce.

Oatmeal Muffins: One cup quick cooking oats (cooked), 1 1-2 cups flour, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup milk, 1 egg.

Mix and sift flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Add one half the milk, egg well beaten and rest of milk mixed with oatmeal. Beat thoroughly. Add butter. Bake 25 minutes in greased muffin tins.

Date Caramel Cream: One and three-fourts cups scalded milk, 1-3 cup (1-4 pkg.) sliced dates, 2 tablespoons corn starch, 1-4 cup cold milk, 1-4 cup nut meats, (may be omitted), 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 egg or 2 egg yolks, 1-4 cup brown sugar, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.

Add the sliced dates to the scalded milk in the top part of the double boiler. Mix cornstarch and salt with cold milk, stir the paste into the scalded milk. Continue to stir until the mixture has thickened. Cover tightly and cook 10 minutes. Beat egg slightly, add sugar and combine with cornstarch mixture 1 minute before it is removed from the fire. Add vanilla and nuts.

SISTER RHODY.

PUSLEY AS A GREEN

Dear Social Corner Sisters: My, but these are busy days, taking care of every thing and getting ready for winter. It is indeed a pleasure to be well and able to do the many things that every day brings for us to do.

I was reading about one sister speaking of pusley in her garden, and how if it could be made into a salad and sell it to the Chinese, that one evil would be overcome. Now, I would like to know if Sister (Cassagnac) has ever cooked pusley the same as other green, with a piece of pork. Try it some time and I feel quite sure you will no longer call it an evil weed. We think it makes a fine meal. I had some I had canned last summer, so took up a jar for dinner last Sunday. Well, it so happened that my sister and brother-in-law came, so I had them sit down and have some of our summer dinner. I told them what it was as they had never eaten any before, and they pronounced it good. My brother-in-law said, I could come down and weed his garden for he has a plenty. I know I will can more next year if I am still here and I think my sister will do the same. If any of the sisters have never eaten it just try it, and I would be glad to hear reports. Nature provides so many good things for us if we will only use them and cost us nothing, only the picking.

It won't be long now, before we will see some of Jack Frost's handywork. How lovely the trees and bushes and every little twig covered with frost looked Thursday and Friday morning. It surely looked like so much lace everywhere. But the sun soon puts a finish to it all and such is the ways of life. I hope everyone is well and happy is the wishes from STEBELIA.

A-CHATTING WITH SUMAC

Dear Editor and Sisters: What a day! What a day! Too cool without a fire. Too warm with one. Didn't seem to make much difference which window was open it rained in. Next time I go down town I'll have some of those window ventilators. Social Corner next Tuesday is out for Yours Truly. Three youngsters down with chicken pox. And they sure have got it aplenty. John, who is all better now, looked like red and white polka-dot as I touched each spot with merculochrome as the scabs came off. That took the soreness out and I kept him well dusted with powder during the earlier stages and that stopped the itching to a certain extent. He had so many on the side of his head and up in his hair that the poison drained down into the glands of his neck so it hurt him to swallow or laugh. They say the first hundred years is the worst, so I guess perhaps I'll soon get a better break.

Sister Rhody: I wonder, too, why people are so fussy about the kind of cooking utensils. Experts say that after exhaustive experiments on aluminum they found the amount that entered into the food was negligible. I would prefer it to the kind that has a coating to chipp off. Those very heavy aluminum pans and kettles are wonderful in everything but price. That's beyond my pocketbook and I'm just as content with the cheaper grade. I don't own a pressure cooker, but Milky Way does and I'll try and get her to write about her experiences with it. But when talking of nutrition, I don't know. Just now I'm trying to follow Dr. Lulu Hunt Peter's advice and count calories. I am, O ever so many pounds over weight, but I can't seem to stop eating somehow. So I'm trying not to think of food. Of course you don't have to think much about it when cooking for a family of six. I don't eat any breakfast and no sugar in my coffee and very few potatoes, but somehow I make up for it in other things. I've just got to reduce or I won't be able to wear any of my clothes and I can't afford to buy any more. I think you wrote that you were having nutrition classes under Mrs. Dakin. She helped me a lot with the children's diet when they were small. I brought the twins up strictly according to Hoyle from birth and it surely paid for extra time spent in doing things right. O boy, didn't they howl nights till they were three month's old and was I weary, worn, and discouraged? And the M. D. said he couldn't see a thing the matter with them, "Good natured ugliness, let them howl," and of course I did, couldn't do anything else. If you can't stop them you have to let them. They won a health prize in a contest where sixty babies were enrolled and are now six and go to school.

Betsy Bobbett: It would be nice if you lived nearby and I could run in and talk (and shell beans). Yes, I have read Tarkington's Seventeen as well as Penrod and Penrod and Sam. Did you get the series of Penrod and Sam that were on the radio Sunday evenings a while back? I liked those stories because they were so true to life. How frightfully in love the hero of Seventeen was and also how quickly he recovered. I also read Tom Sawyer and Tom and Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain and enjoyed them immensly.

Pernickety: I used to read about five books a week and could remember the characters and authors, but with babies to tend, I had to read what I could pick up and drop in a hurry and that doesn't encourage serious subjects and now its hard to remember either titles or authors. I read the book reviews and when one sounds attractive I try to get it at the library. I would like to belong to a book of the month club sometime. Some people don't approve of having their reading matter selected for them, but I'd like to try it once. I haven't read the Saturday Evening Post in ages, but it used to have some good stories in them. I liked the ones by Joseph Hergeshimer about antiques and Elsie Lingmaster's stories were also good. I read the first of Rinehart's Fish stories in the Saturday Evening Post, too.

My friends, the skunks, have gone their various ways and are no more. One was hit by a car in the road; a dog killed one and alas and alack! One night A was going out and Jimmy Skunk was in the yard. A threw two or three stones to scare him away and he threw one when Jimmy was right beside the back door. Jimmy never knew what struck him. He immediately layed down and died. And did we need gas masks, even now when it rains it revives the smell. If A had intended to have killed him he couldn't have come anywhere near hitting it. Well, I must stop this or it will be consigned to the W. B. Sorry to hear of Ann Tenna's death. I have missed her letters.

SUMAC, (No. 8.)

RECALLS VISIT TO HACKENSACK

Dear Social Corner: Debbie's letter reminded me. About 30 years ago, I visited my brother who had just moved from New York to Hackensack, N. J. He met me at the station. As his wife was away, we went to dinner and to the opera, "Faust." It's rather blood curdling. All the way out to Hackensack my brother was telling me of their lovely new home, with a yard, garden and right across from the park. It was late and it seemed a long time before we reached Hackensack. My brother unlocked the door, let me in, turned on the light, was trying the night latch, and I cried out Ed, there's somebody here! He turned quickly and said, "Where." It was a pier glass and the somebody was me. I saw myself full length. I had on a new hat and coat. How we laughed.

He took me to my room, opened the back hall door and said, "First door goes down stairs, second is bathroom. Don't get up early. Emma will be home on 9 o'clock train and you stay in bed." But the play, my fright at myself, and strange house made me restless. I got up quite early, partly dressed, put on kimono and went into the hall, opened second door and went into the room. There was a lady and gentleman eating breakfast. I was so surprised I just stopped and looked at them. The man turned in his chair, looked me up and down, and down and up, scowling. The lady said, "Well." I just blurted out, "I thought this was my brother's house and this the bathroom. Where shall I go?" She got up and said, "The lady of the house is not at home," and showed me the bathroom door. She smiled. He said something to her under his breath. I was provoked, mad at my brother and the man. She had closed their door, but when I came out it was ajar. I felt like a thief. I went downstairs. Ed had left coffee and eggs for me, but I couldn't eat. I went outside. I saw them looking at me from their windows.

When Emma came, the first thing I said was why didn't Ed tell me he had a tenant upstairs? I walked into their room this morning in my kimono. He was horrid. She laughed and said, "We don't rent rooms. That was Joseph Lincoln and his wife. They have built a lovely house in Hackensack. We let them have two rooms while they get it ready to move in."

Well, I met them later every day. She was quite nice and jolly. I never saw him smile or laugh. With his books so full of fun and quick repartee. I think all his humor goes into them. I was glad he wasn't mine. Ed said he told him he knew I wasn't

(Continued on Page Twelve)

Time to Flirt

By
HAWTHORNE HURST

DAWN HAVILEN OGLED HER WAY INTO TROUBLE AND OUT AGAIN WHEN THE STUDENT CRUISING SHIPS MADE PORT IN CAGLIARI

DAWN HAVILEN glanced out the porthole. If Harry Hunt was on the pier he was well hidden in the heavy shadows that hung like black portieres everywhere save at the very end of the Corinth's gangplank, where a wan electric bulb blinked introspectively. Through the shadows shone small points of light, where Cagliari straggled up the mountainside.

Dawn danced back to the mirror hastily lining her lips with rouge.

"See him?" Fay asked from her bunk.

Dawn shook her head. "He's there though. You know Harry."

Fay said: "You've got more nerve than I have, Dawn."

"Why?" Dawn asked. "What's nervy about going out to dinner?"

"I wouldn't go into that town after dark. These Sardinians look like they all carry knives and eat two debutantes before breakfast."

Dawn laughed. "There's less danger here than there is on Broadway. These people step out into the street to let you pass."

"Yes, in the daytime," Fay said. "Furthermore, you'll probably run into one of the darn chaperons on deck and she'll clap you in irons."

"What for?" Dawn asked. "Aren't I allowed to come up for a breath of air if I can't sleep? What is this, a student cruise or a prep school for Sing Sing?"

"More like the latter," Fay said acoustically.

Dawn, giving a last touch to her hair, said: "That's more truth than small talk. Have you ever in your life been more thoroughly chaperoned? And things are even worse on the men's ship, Harry says. They've forbidden one boy to go ashore any more because he got 'tight' in Naples." She opened the door and peeped down the companionway.

"Well, be careful, Dawn. Hope you make it."

"Oh, I will," Dawn said. She stepped out, looked back in sand whispered, "Night!" and was gone.

No one was on deck. She waited a moment, then ran for the gangplank. Two seconds later the thick darkness of the pier enfolded her. She stood very still against a stanchion. Her heart was pounding. The adventure was thrilling her more than she had wanted Fay to know. The black vastness of the pier was eerie. She wondered if Harry, after all, had made it.

THEN he spoke, close at her side; "Good girl. Scared?"

"No. But I'm thrilled to a wafer." She put out her hand and touched his arm.

He said: "I've got a wreck of a taxi waiting in the street. Whenever you get your breath—"

The taxi was aged, battered, broken. The chauffeur, leaning out to open the door for them, was heavily bearded.

"Where did you want to go, Dawn?" Harry asked.

"Oh, that funny place we saw this afternoon, Harry. It looked awf'ly desperate. Casco's—that's it. It's up in the Castle section."

"Casco's," Harry said to the driver. The man nodded, unspeaking. The car roared, rocked and then went careening up through the narrow, dirty, winding streets.

Casco's shed a queer, greenish light on the uneven sidewalk. A violin's wailing came through the one sightless window.

"Doesn't it look evil?" Dawn whispered.

"Evil's the word," Harry said. "We'll probably both come out with our throats cut."

Dawn shivered delightfully. She looked up at the massive cathedral, shouldering the low, gloomy clouds, and the tottering buildings that clung about it on the steep street, oppressed by the memories of the centores that had come upon them and gone.

"We'd better keep this guy," Harry said. "We'll never find another when —or if—we get out. Hey—Pietro—you wait—get me?"

"Si, signor," breathed the chauffeur into his thick beard.

There was quite evident surprise on the face of the man who let them into Casco's. But he led them to a table and took the order Harry wrested from a greasy menu written in longhand.

All the tables were filled with undersized men, impossibly mustached, and oversized women hung with a profusion of outlandish jewelry and dressed in barbarian colors. The violin was played by an ancient on a dais in a corner.

The air was thick with smoke. Every one wolfed food, using fingers oftener than implements.

"I prefer a night club," Harry said.

The waiter came with a soup, greasy, hotly seasoned, filled with suspicious, stringy things. Dawn took one spoonful, grimaced and shook her head.

Harry laughed. "Anticipation is ninetenths of everything," he said. "Did you have any trouble getting away?"

"No," Dawn said. "I evaded the ogres."

"I had to crawl down a rope," Harry said. "I wonder how I was ever fool enough to come on one of these student cruises. I might have known."

"So might I," Dawn said. "It's just wasting a summer."

"Oh, well, cheer up," Harry said, "it'll be over in another month. Then you can marry me and forget it all."

Dawn was looking about, frankly staring at the people.

"Dawn."

"What?"

"Are you going to?"

"What?"

"Marry me?"

"Oh, Harry, look at the man's eyebrows. Look! Look!"

"I'm not interested in eyebrows," Harry said. "Oh, look here, Dawn. Darn it, you might say yes or no. I've asked you every time I've seen you on three continents. Say yes and I won't bother you any more. I'm out of college now and you'll be out next year. There isn't any reason at all why we can't be married then."

Dawn looked at him, at his young, eager face, at the quick lights in his eyes. When he looked like that it always frightened her a little. She felt pressed, pursued—and she didn't like to feel that way. She supposed she loved Harry—there were moments when she knew it—but life was so youthful, so inviting, so alluring. She didn't want to marry. At least, not yet.

"Oh, Harry—" and then she stopped. For her eyes, over Harry's shoulder, had mingled with other eyes. Liquid, black eyes, hot now with little flames that glowed in them. The man was staring at her as frankly as she had been staring about the room.

"Harry, turn around casually in a minute and see John Gilbert in the flesh."

She went on looking at the man. His hair was a mass of inky ringlets, his face was lean, his cheekbones high, and he wore a small, black mustache over perfectly shaped lips. His gray shirt was open at the throat and he wore a waistcoat of bright colors and a red sash showed above the table.

"Listen, Dawn—"

The man was staring at her gravely. His black eyes never moved. An uncontrollable impulse suddenly made Dawn wink at him.

"Don't do that, Dawn," Harry said. "You never can tell—some day you're going to get into a lot of trouble by flirting. You're the most outrageous flirt in the world. Don't you ever think of the consequences when you do things like that?"

"I'm sorry, Harry," Dawn said. "I just wanted to see what would happen."

But the wink had produced no effect. The waiter brought them other food, scarcely more palatable. Before they had finished, the romantic-looking man rose, flung coins on the table, took a black cloak and threw it about his shoulders and went out. Dawn watched his tall figure, but he never glanced back.

Harry said after a little: "Perhaps we'd better shove off, Dawn. There doesn't seem to be anything more to this joint."

"No," Dawn said. "It's not so hot."

The taxi was still at the curb. They climbed in and Harry said: "To the pier." The driver nodded; the car again suffered agonies and went coughing away. Dawn leaned back in the uncomfortable seat. The thrill of adventure was gone and it left her a little tired. She closed her eyes.

"HEY, Pietro!" Harry suddenly called out. "You're going away from the pier. We want to go back to the pier."

The driver chattered volubly.

"What's he say, Harry?"

"Darned if I know. The pier, you idiot."

An explanatory paroxysm seized the chauffeur. He writhed, grimaced and gesticulated. In the midst of that the car staggered around a corner and stopped.

"Now, look here—" Harry started.

But Dawn seized his arm. "Look!" she whispered. The taxi was surrounded by horsemen. There was a clatter of hoofs as the steeds stamped on the cobblestones.

"What the dickens!" Harry said.

One of the horses drew alongside and the man dismounted. He opened the door of the tonneau and looked in. Dawn recognized the man who had stared at her at Casco's.

Harry started to rise, but Dawn held his arm, pulled him back to the seat. A wandering ray of light had gleamed sharply on something in the man's hand.

"Do not be disturb', plees," the man said. His voice was deep, rich, musical. His eyes were grave steady. "It is Luigi Vignetti. You sit veree still. We go out from Cagliari."

"What do you mean?" Harry said. "We're going back to the pier. We're Americans, fellow. Here—driver—Pietro!"

"Be quiet, plees," said the man. "I 'ope you not try to get out." He spoke quickly to the driver, slammed the door and jumped into the saddle. The taxi started again and the horsemen rode before, behind, on both sides.

"Well, I'm darned," Harry said. "They can't get away with this sort of thing."

"It looks like they're doing it," Dawn said. "Harry, I'm thrilled to a wisp!"

"Darn it, Dawn," Harry said. "This isn't a movie. This is serious. We've got to get out of here." He looked out the window of the car. "Do you think—could you make it if we jumped out at the next corner and ran? Could you do it?"

"No, signor," said the driver. "I would not try. Thees Luigi Vignetti —he shoot like no time."

"What do you mean by driving us into this trap?" Harry asked.

The driver shrugged. "When Vignetti come to Cagliari, signor, Cagliari is Vignetti's. If I say no—pouf —I am not drive again."

"What's the matter with the carabinieri?"

The driver shrugged again. "They can no catch Vignetti, signor."

They came to the straggling edge of the town. Beyond the last house stood a fringe of woods. Past that, in the wan light of the moon that had struggled free of the clouds, stretched a jagged, tip-tilted expanse of rocks and sand. Far away mountains towered. The taxi stopped. Dawn leaned close against Harry and he put a protective arm about her.

Vignetti opened the door again and beckoned them out. Harry helped Dawn down to the road. It was chilly, she shivered. Her heart was pounding and her knees felt trembly.

Vignetti spoke to the taxi driver, and he turned the car and sped back to the town. The horses stamped nervously, saddles creaked. Harry saw two saddles were empty.

Vignetti said: "It is not far. You ride, signorina?"

"Now, listen," Harry said. "What's the idea? Don't you know you'll get in a lot of trouble this way? We're Americans. You can't kidnap Americans."

"Kidnap, signor? You are mistake'. You and the signorina, you are my guests."

"Well, we'd rather not," Harry said. "We'll go back now."

"Ah, no," said Vignetti. "Plees." His tone was persuasive, but Harry saw his finger tap his sash. "You ride, signorina?" he repeated.

DAWN nodded mutely. He led a horse to her side, lifted her lightly to the saddle. Then he brought a mount for Harry. Mounting, Harry said to Dawn: "Don't worry, honey. We'll get out of this."

"There is nothing to worry," said Vignetti. Dawn laughed nervously, and Vignetti joined in, a low, musical laugh. All the riders—there were nine—laughed too. They closed in about Dawn and Harry, and the cavalcade passed out into the wasteland.

"Where are you taking us?" Harry said to Vignetti, riding beside him.

"To my home, signor," Vignetti said. "It is in the hills there. It is but a poor home, but it's yours."

"I imagine," Harry said. He lapsed into silence. It was ransom, of course. In his case—but for Dawn. He wished Dawn hadn't winked at the man.

The pace of the horses became a fast canter. The desert spun past, the hills loomed nearer. After ages they came to a clump of trees. Then the going became steep, the trees more numerous, and they were climbing a mountain trail.

After a time they halted beside a giant boulder caught between three great trees. Four men dismounted, went to the rock and placed their shoulders against the massive slab of stone. After a moment it began to move slowly, as though on a natural pivot. Behind it opened a narrow trail, winding upward. The horses passed through, and the men pushed the boulder back.

Vignetti said: "It is near now, signorina."

But it was some time before the riders ahead disappeared over a little ridge. When Dawn's horse clambered over it, she saw they had come to a plateau of perhaps an acre of treeless ground. In the middle stood a long, low stone structure. Through narrow slits of windows a light glimmered.

The horses went through a squat arch into what seemed to be a long, high-ceilinged hall, running completely through the building. Vignetti dismounted and helped Dawn to alight. Harry stood beside her. The others rode on, out the other end of the hall.

Vignetti said: "This way, plees." He pushed open a heavy door, and light streamed out into the corridor. Harry took Dawn's arm and stepped with her through the door. They stood in a vast room of shifting shadows, stirred by a roaring fire at the other end. The firelight was the sole illumination. Dawn's heels clicked on the stone floor as she went to the fireplace.

VIGNETTI followed and indicated a stone bench on one side of the fireplace. Dawn sat down, because her knees were giving way. Harry stood, back to the fire. Vignetti sat on the bench on the opposite side of the hearth so that the firelight played upon his face. Dawn couldn't believe this was real. She felt in a dream. She heard Harry say: "Now, let's have a showdown on this thing. You want ransom, of course."

"Ransom, signor?" Virgnetti asked. "For my guests?"

"Drop it," Harry said. "What do you want?"

The brigand's face looked injured. "Signor," he said, "you are onkind. See, now. I am lonely. I see young signor, signorina—I think: ah, they will come to my home. They will talk for me. Maybe signorina, she will smile for me. I do not know. I mus' find out—no?"

Dawn laughed at the man's gestures. He joined her again, rocking back and forth on the bench, slapping his knee.

"You see?" he said. "Already we are friends!"

"We want to get back to the ships," Harry said. "Right away."

"So soon? Ah, but I 'ave not yet talk to the signorina. I 'ave so much I mus' say to the signorina."

Harry began talking at that. Dawn saw he was talking against time. Her own mind was numb. Thoughts of escape seemed fantastic. The fire hurled restless shadows into the corners of the room. There was a long, bulky table in the middle of the room, and from one side opened a series of doors.

"The sensible thing for you to do now, Vignetti, is to let us go quietly back to the ships," Harry said. "Do you think we're not going to be missed? Why, the carabinieri will be here in no time."

Vignetti laughed again. "The carabinieri? Wan hondred times I raid Cagliari—wan hondred times I ron away queek—wan hondred times I hear carabinieri go by. It is the beeg stone, signor. Carabinieri they are blind on the eenside of the head. I wait—I hear them come back—I hear them come back—I hear they say: 'Sapristi! Vignetti, he is gone again. Vignetti is wan ghost!'"

Dawn saw a door opening at the side of the room. She stared. The sense of unreality deepened. Her eyes traveled up and down the girl who had entered. The firelight flung warm arms around her, danced and glittered on the great gold earrings that hung almost to her shoulders beneath the cloud of midnight hair. She was wildly magnificent. Her red dress ended just below her knees, her legs and arms and throat were bare. Her face had the beauty of a tropical sunset. Her black eyes flashed from one of the trio to the other. Then she came swiftly and placed her hand on Vignetti's shoulder.

She spoke rapidly, in the sibilant, musical dialect of Sardinia. His face was impassive as he answered, a brief word or two. Again she spoke, and his reply was a short monosyllable. Dawn saw the girl's eyes flash upon her, and a shiver ran up her back. There had been murder in those eyes.

Vignetti waved an arm toward the door and turned back to Dawn the Harry. But the girl did not go. Vignetti waited, then said: "Maria!" She started walking slowly backward, but she remained at the door, staring fixedly at Dawn.

Something clicked in Dawn's mind. Suddenly she smiled at Vignetti, lifted a finger and moved it reprovingly: "You are married, Mr. Vignetti!"

He smiled and shook his head: "No. Maria is—you know—a friend. No, I am not have wife. Not until tonight, maybe."

"You're going to be married tonight?" Dawn asked.

He nodded. "Ah, yes. I have look a long time. I have look in Sicily, in Rome, in Naples, in Venice, in Genoa—I have look everywhere! And now I have find my wife."

"Oh, how nice," Dawn said.

"Si." He leaned forward, touched her hand with a finger. "It is you."

"Oh," said Dawn. Harry looked quickly at her. But she was smiling. Her shoulders were drawn up in a little gesture of excitement and she grimaced at Vignetti. She was openly flirting with him. Harry tried to catch her eye, warn her to stop. But all her attention was for Vignetti.

THE brigand suddenly stood up, went to the door and called down the corridor: "Emmanuel!" Some one came running. They saw a giant of a man come into the light. Vignetti spoke to him and laughed. The giant laughed in response, nodded and was gone. A moment and five horses passed through the corridor. Vignetti came back to his bench.

"I have send Emmanuel to Cagliari for the padre," he said.

It occurred to Harry that if he could get free he could bring the carabinieri back in time to interrupt the brigand's plans. He said: "Look here, Vignetti. If this girl wants to marry you, all well and good. But this doesn't concern me. Why don't you let me go? I'll keep quiet when I get back to the ship."

Vignetti shook his head. "No, signor. You must be my guest a little more. The other Americans, they will say: 'This girl is gone. Ah, and this man is gone. So! They have run away with themselves.' And they will not look for you on Sardinia."

Harry saw the truth of that for the first time. It hadn't occurred to him that there might not be a search. The logic of Vignetti's argument stunned him. He was silent, staring at Dawn. She was vivacious, merry, playing up to Vignetti. The darn little flirt! She was getting deeper and deeper into the thing every minute.

The horses of the four men who had gone to open the path for Emmanual returned. After they had passed, there came the low pluck and strum of a guitar. Some one was playing just outside, beneath the narrow windows. Playing, and singing in a low, lingering voice. Music that mingled the slow beauty of Spain with the hot passion of Italy.

"Oh, lovely," Dawn said.

"You like that?" asked Vignetti.

"I adore it!"

He rose and went to the window, spoke through it. In a moment the musician appeared in the door and came forward. He also wore earrings, and a vivid kerchief about his head. He leaned against the table and began playing, his fingers caressing the strings, his eyes sentimentally on Dawn. Then he changed the tempo to a swift, running lilt. Dawn's shoulders swayed.

Vignetti said: "Ha—you dance, maybe?"

"Oh, I couldn't dance to that," Dawn said. "I mean, I only foxtrot and waltz and things, you know."

"That is not dancing," Vignetti said. "I show you dancing."

He jumped up and took Dawn's hand, pulled her to her feet, into his arms. He held her close, gliding with her, stopping, flinging her away, bringing her back, half lifting her feet in a quick turn. Harry saw Dawn's face, aglow, alive, her eyes on Vignetti's. She probably didn't realize that every instant she was making her chances of escape slimmer.

Then the girl, Maria, laughed scornfully from the shadows. She came rapidly out, laid a hand on Dawn's shoulder and pushed her away from Vignetti. She looked disdainfully at her, then offered herself to the brigand.

With a sweep of his arm, Vignetti sent her staggering back across the floor. She almost fell, saving herself by an out-stretched arm. Vignetti barked a few words at her, then resumed the dance with Dawn. The girl got up, went to the door, stood glaring at Dawn.

HARRY saw Dawn looking at the girl over Vignetti's shoulder. Then, to his amazement, he saw her pull the brigand's head down, meet his lips with hers. Harry's astounded eyes went back to the other girl. His heart stopped. He shouted: "Here—!"

But Vignetti had already leaped aside. Dawn heard something whiz past her ear, clang on the stone floor. Then Vignetti had flung her aside and leaped for the door. The girl had fled. They heard Vignetti roaring: "Maria! Maria!" And then they heard hoofbeats, ringing briefly through the corridor, then out and away. They saw Vignetti running through the corridor. They heard him call again: "Maria!"

Harry was fingering the long, sharp knife.

"Darn it, Dawn," he said, "you should have had better sense than that."

Dawn tried to speak, but Vignetti had already come back into the room. He said nothing to them, but spoke to the musician. The man departed and returned in a moment with an armful of wine bottles.

"May I have a glass of wine?" Dawn asked.

"But, yes!" he said. "And you, signor!" He motioned to the bench on the opposite side of the table from the one on which Dawn sat. Harry, his mind still frantically plucking at and rejecting means of escape, went to the bench and sat down.

Dawn began asking him about his experiences. He told her he had been in New York once. He had left, he said, because some one had got in the way of his knife. He told of returning to Sardina and how he had started his career after killing a man in Saragossa. The man, he mentioned in passing, was Maria's husband.

Time dragged by. The wine, Dawn saw, was making Vignetti amorous. He was leaning closer to her.

Dawn saw Harry leap across the table. He seized Vignetti by a shoulder. "Look here," he said, "you—"

Vignetti stood up slowly. Dawn cried: "Harry—don't!"

Vignetti said: "You too much trouble. I think I keel you."

"By—"

"Yes," said Vignetti, "I think—"

He started. A shot had ripped the silence outside. Another followed, and another. They heard rapid pounding of hoofs. Vignetti leaped for the door, dragging a revolver from his sash. The horses came closer, rang on the cobblestones. A horse flashed on by, but a man fell off, reeled in the door. It was the giant Emmanuel. Blood streamed down his face from his heavy hair.

"Carabinieri!" he shouted. "Padrone! Carabinieri!"

Vignetti roared down the passageway. Men's voices suddenly burst into frantic cries. Hoofbeats were approaching again, many of them, like surf, thunder. Vignetti's men swarmed up the corridor, sweeping Vignetti before them to the front of the building.

A HORSE screamed above the crashing of the guns. Dawn found herself in Harry's arms, sobbing. There came another stampede down the corridor, gunfire reverberating in the roofed passage. Then it was over. It was over when Vignetti fell in the doorway, across the figure of his giant lieutenant. The carabinieri followed and two of them picked up the brigand, assisted him to the table, where he sat with his face hidden in his hands. Another, evidently the leader, came in and strode up to Harry.

"You are the Americans," he said. "We are verree sad that this should happen in Cagliari."

"Well, thank heavens, you got here, anyway," Harry said. "How did you find out?"

"The girl," the man said. "She come down to me and tell about this."

"What girl?"

"Vignetti's girl, Maria Pietrotti. She is mad! She say how she comes here, and then she say: 'Keel Vignetti for me!'"

"Oh, it worked!" Dawn cried. "Oh, Harry, it worked!"

"What worked?" Harry asked.

"The flirting! I thought if I could make her jealous enough—"

"You—Dawn! You're a genius! Is that why you flirted with him?"

"Of course! You didn't think I liked to have him paw me, did you! Why, he reeks of garlic, and his ears are dirty. Oh, Harry, you have such nice clean ears. I think I'll have to marry you when we get home."

(Copyright by Public Ledger)

MANSFIELD DEPOT

Mrs. La Moure is making a house-to-house canvass for yearly memberships in the Red Cross.

E. E. Sykes of the dairy and food commissioner's department is inspecting the dairies in the town.

Amos Wilson motored to Palmer Thursday evening. His daughter Freda and Gladys Thompson returned home with him.

Mrs. A. J. Bowers, Miss Doris Mildred Bowers, R. N., of Mansfield depot, Miss Doris Brown, R. N., and Miss Helen Bowers, R. N., of Johnson Memorial hospital, Stafford, spent Wednesday in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Merton, of Mansfield State Hospital and Training school have moved into the Long House.

At Holiday Whist

A number from here attended the Eastern Star Climax chapter whist at Merrow Thursday evening.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Green's the past week were Mrs. W. R. Davoll of Mansfield Center, Mrs. Ruth Jacobs of Columbia, Newton Carpenter, of Eastford, Mr. and Mrs. William Stedman and Mrs. Amelia Strong, of this place, James C. Green and two grandsons, Emerald and Ronald, of Eagleville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowers and daughters Helen and Mildred, Mrs. Francis Bowers and son Paul called on relatives in Broad Brook, Scitic and Daleville Sunday.

Ed Gordon of Kent's Cliff, N. Y., spent the week end with his family here.

Foretold Cold Weather

The display of northern lights Sunday was very noticeable. This is a sign of colder weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Houston, Mrs. E. B. Thompson and Amos Wilson attended a whist given by Eastern Star, Radiant chapter, of Willimantic, at the Masonic hall, Willimantic, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thompson attended Wednesday the party at Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Storrs' of North Coventry, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Storrs' wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Watrous of Boston called on their cousin, Harvey Gergler and family recently.

Ninety-fourth Birthday

Miss V. V. Fowler of South Coventry, spent her 94th birthday Tuesday, Nov. 18, quietly, at the home of Mrs. Mary Summer, with whom she is spending the winter. Miss Fowler has been a resident here for many years.

CANTERBURY

At the last regular meeting of Canterbury grange the election of officers resulted as follows: Master, Richard Parkhurst; overseer, Fred Hicks; lecturer, Elise Hawes; steward, Webster Wainwright; assistant steward, James Fleming; chaplain, Mrs. Laura Kerr; treasurer, Mrs. Cora Hawes; secretary, Levi W. Clark; gate keeper, Andrew Colburn; Ceres, Mrs. Myra Herrick; Pomona, Myrtice Williams; Flora, Mrs. Emma Apsly; L. A. S., Mrs. Lucille Bushnell; executive committee, Grace Dawley; insurance committee, Hart W. Goff.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Frink, Mrs. Martha Frink, Mr. and Mrs. William Wright were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Frink in Brooklyn, Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Jennie Wilson had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tracy and family, of Canterbury Plain.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Hawes entertained Mrs. C. L. Hawes, Miss Elsie L. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rodler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lovell's dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lovell and family and Carlton Lovell, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bennett and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hale Bennett were visitors in Jewett City with relatives.

Thursday evening, Nov. 20th, when the representatives-elect, Clinton Frink and Howard Rix, and Judge of Probate Arthur Bennett were hosts at an oyster supper given by them to the people of Canterbury, 200 were present, and all enjoyed the supper and social time. The county commissioners, representatives from Plainfield and Willimantic, Sheriff Gates and Mr. Wheeler were the guests of the evening. Canterbury orchestra played during the supper hour and furnished music for the dancing.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Small motored to Howarth, N. J., Monday, staying for the week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Norton. Miss Miriam Small, of Wells college, Aurora, N. Y., and Edwin Small, of Hartford, joined them for the holiday.

Buy Now

FOSTER THE SPIRIT OF PLAY with TOYS

Help Others to Help You

To induce you to Shop Early (with us) we offer you a Discount of 20% (Saturday, Nov. 29th, only) on any article selected for Xmas. Present this ad for Discount.

For a small deposit, we will hold until wanted any article selected by you.

ALLING RUBBER CO.

(Opposite Chelsea Bank)

UNITED FRUIT STORES

240 Main Street — Corner Franklin Street

LOWER PRICES! LOOK!

NOW ON SALE — FLORIDA BLUE GOOSE

49c pk ORANGES pk 49c

A full car of Sweet, Juicy Thin Skins

TANGERINES	Lge. Sweet Juicy Flas. 2 doz.	25c
Grape Fruit	Lge. Thinskin Floridas 5 for Regular 3 for 25c	23c
Cranberries	Best Cape Cod 2 qts.	19c
ORANGES	Sweet Juicy Flas. Very Good Size 2 doz.	29c
BEANS	Best Baby Flat Stringless 4 qts.	25c
CABBAGE	Native Solid Heads 10 lbs.	15c
POTATOES	Best Native No. 1—pk.	27c
CAKE	Fresh Pound—3-lb. Loaf. Whole or Cut—pound	17c
BREAD	3,000 Loaves Fresh Baked—loaf	3c
EGGS	Strictly Fresh Natives — doz.	47c
CANDY	Fresh "Cherry Blossom" Peanut Butter Filled—lb.	25c

STOCK UP! SAVE MONEY!

Don't Miss This Sale

ALTHOUGH BUT SIX DAYS OLD, THIS GREAT SALE HAS BROKEN ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS. HUNDREDS OF BUSHELS OF APPLES MARK THE WONDERFUL ENTHUSIASM WITH WHICH THE PUBLIC HAS TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF OUR

Great Drop In Prices

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE SENSATIONAL VALUES:

FREE! A BUSHEL OF APPLES WITH $10 PURCHASE

MEN'S OVERALLS— All Sizes — Union Made	69c	All Wool Blue OVERCOATS — Sale Price	$11.90	MEN'S HEAVY WOOL SOCKS	15c
MEN'S HEAVY FLEECE COATS— SALE PRICE	$1.00	MEN'S WORK PANTS — All Sizes	$1.00	$3.00 MEN'S HEAVY BLUE PANTS	$1.95
50c SILK TIES — TWO FOR	51c	BEAR BRAND SOCKS — Fast Colors	10c	$3 BOYS' SHOES— Uskide Soles— Sizes 1 to 6	$1.95
POLICE SUSPENDERS — Heavy Grade	19c	$2 MEN'S SHIRTS— Grey or Blue—Lined Chest, Double Elbow	$1.00	MEN'S WORK SHOES — Moccasin Uskide Soles	$1.95
BLUE WORK SHIRTS Triple Stitched— Full Cut	59c	MEN'S AND BOYS' CAPS — Fur Lined — Sale Price	45c	MEN'S UNION SUITS — Extra Heavy Ribbed—Now	$1.00

We Will Gladly Exchange Any Purchase Made During This Sale!

BROOKLYN OUTFITTERS

266-270 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

"THE STORE THAT SATISFIES"

Never a Sale Like This, Folks! Come and Be Convinced

DOWNWARD TREND IN THE PRICES OF STOCKS IN DULL SESSION OF MARKET

NEW YORK Nov. 28—(AP)—Lower prices prevailed in the security and commodity markets today. Stocks were heavy in sleepy post-holiday trading. Rails suffered most, but the average net decline for the three major groups was less than 2 points in a turnover of 1,743,790 shares. Late covering saved prices from closing on the bottom.

Railroad bonds followed the stocks lower, and there was little vitality in any part of that market except U. S. governments, which held firm. Wheat and corn sagged while cotton futures closed 50 to 90 cents a bale lower.

The effect of the month end settlements on money was evident only in the unofficial call rate, which coincided with the stock exchange's official figure of 2 per cent. The latter has prevailed throughout October and November, but a concession would not be surprising should the New York clearing house reduce to 1 1-2 as report says it may do.

The decline in the railroad equities, which suffered maximum losses of 1 to 6 points, followed publication of the executives' association's plans for seeking legislative relief. This program, embracing a demand that other forms of transportation be put under interstate commerce regulation, was accompanied by a rather gloomy expression of opinion as to the situation now faced by the roads, and its appearance overshadowed the October earnings statements. Last month's net is running nearly 8 per cent above September, but nearly 27 per cent below October, 1929.

Utilities and oils reacted with the rails, although not so extensively. Industrial leaders, at the day's lowest prices were off one to three points, but part of those declines was recovered in the last half hour. Several carrier shares skidded into new low ground, among them New York Central, Chicago Northwestern common and preferred. Missouri-Pacific, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, Illinois Central and Rock Island. Atchison recovered a third of a six point drop and Missouri-Pacific cut in two a similar decline. Union Pacific, off more than 5 at one time, closed 2 lower, and New York Central retrieved a point of a break of 3 1-2.

A decline in brokers' loans was not unexpected, but a drop of the extent of $63,000,000, was somewhat surprising, even though stocks eased slightly during the week covered by the report. Decreases for nine consecutive weeks have brought the market very close to a cash basis.

More seasonable weather, the trade reviews said, has helped retail distribution, although neither Dun's nor Bradstreet's was able to report much important improvement. The former again pointed out that "widespread recovery is yet to be achieved." Federal reserve figures for October wholesale, department store and chain store business revealed unfavorable comparisons with a year ago, but, as in the case of the railroads last month's showing was better than September's.

Net losses in the industrial stocks exceeded a couple of points in only a few instances. U. S. Steel, American Can, Bethlehem Steel Case, DuPont, General Electric, Radio, and Westinghouse, were off 1 to 2 at the close. American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, American Water Works, and North American fell in the same range, although Detroit Edison lost 7 and Peoples Gas 10.

Easiness of wheat, which sagged slightly more than a cent, was ascribed to weakness in Winnipeg and bearish Kansas reports. Corn dropped 1 1-4 to 1 1-2 cents on increased receipts and larger Argentine exports.

Foreign exchanges were largely heavy, but dull. The Canadian dollar receded from the levels which recently sent gold to Montreal. Sterling and the French franc were steady.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

New York

Stocks weak; several railroads at new low levels.

Bonds heavy; rails under pressure.

Curb heavy; oils weak.

Foreign exchanges irregular; Canadians sag.

Cotton lower; southern selling.

Sugar steady; Cuban support.

Coffee steady; trade buying.

Chicago

Wheat easy; lower Winnipeg and beneficial rains Argentina.

Corn easy; larger Argentina exports and increased receipts.

Cattle steady to strong.

Hogs higher.

STOCKS.

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
3	Abiti P & P	10⅛	10	10
4	Abiti P & P pr .	45⅛	42⅝	44
15	Adams Exp.....	20	19¼	19¾
3	Adv Rume	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
55	Air Reduct 103		100	100½
1	Air Way E Ap .	11	11	11
7	Alaska Jun .. .	6¼	6	6¼
48	Alleghany	10¼	9⅛	9⅛
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

10	W E & M pr .	111½	111½	111½
2	W E&I A	34½	34½	34½
1	White Mot	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝
1	Wilcox O & G ...	10	10	10
9	Willys Over	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1	Wilson A	6½	6½	6½
210	Woolworth	60⅝	58¾	59¾
15	Worth P & M .	78	76¾	77¾
8	Wrigley Jr .. .	68½	65	65
4	Yale & Towne ..	31	31	31
17	Yell Tr & C	11	10½	11
21	Young S & W ..	23⅝	23¼	23⅝
7	Zenith Radio . .	3⅝	3	3⅝

BANKS, INS., UTILITIES

HARTFORD.

Fire Insurance Companies.

	High	Low	Last
Aetna Casualty		73	78
Aetna Fire		47	49
Aetna Life		59	61
Auto Ins		27	29
Com Cen		113	118
Hartford Fire...		59	61
Hfd Steam Boiler		40	58
Nat Fire		55	57
Phoenix Fire		69	71
Travelers		945	965

Public Utilities

Conn Elec Serv	65	70
Conn L&P 5½s p pr...	103	106
Conn L & P 6½s	111	114
Conn Power	59	61
Greenwich W&G 6 pc p-	..	91
Hfd Gas com	72	76
Hartford Gas pr	42	46
Htfd Elec Light	65	67
Holyoke Wat Pow	6	475

NEW YORK.

Bank Stock

America....	66	68
Bank of U S	12	14
Chase	100	103
Chelsea	23	25
Chatham Ph	80	83
Chemical	49	51
City	104	107
Corn Exch	134	138
First National	3900	4000
Fifth Avenue	2450	2650
Harriman	1500	1600
Manhattan	86	88
Seward Natl	70	75

Trust Companies.

Bankers	107	110
Bank of N Y	595	615
Bronx County	50	55
Brooklyn	605	620
Cent Hanover	245	250
Empire	55	57
Fulton	480	500
Guaranty	480	490
Irving Trust	36	38
Manufacturers	51	53
N Y Trust	170	175
Times Square (new) ...	10	14
Title G & S T	130	135
U S Trust	2950	350

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—Railroad bonds dipped with shares today and many second grade and speculative issues reacted to new lows for the year.

Liquidation in carrier obligations swelled the volume of business to the best figure of the week. It induced considerable selling in domestic utility and industrial issues.

Foreign loans were featured by some wide swings both ways. United States governments with the exception of Liberty 3 1-2s, closed at slightly under their previous highs.

Both lien and convertible issues were among those depressed to new lows for the year including Atchison convertible 4 1-2s, Baltimore and Ohio 4 1-2s, Canadian Pacific 4 1-2s, St. Paul adjustment 5s, and 4 1-2s, Chicago, Northwestern 4 3-4s, Kansas City-Southern 5s, Lehigh Valley 4s, Southern Railway general 4s, Cotton Belt first 5s Wabash 5s B. Lehigh Valley 4s and Missouri Pacific general 4s. Most of the best grade legals were softened under the pressure against the group. Atchison general 4s, a popular savings bank issue, dipped 1-2 point.

In the foreign section, active issues cut a wide swath. German 5 1-2s were well bought and held firm and most of the industrials and municipals of that country, improved slightly. Bavarian State 6 1-2s advanced 2 points, and Estonia Republic 7s, rose 4. Frankfort City 6 1-2s closed more than a point above the year's low recently established. Argentine bonds were a firm spot in the Latin-American group. Others were mixed. Minas Geraes 6 1-2s reacted 9 points and Rio Grande Do Sul 8s dipped 5 and Sao Paulo State 6s, 3.

New offerings in the final week of November shortened a day by Thanksgiving holiday, totaled $46,874,000, and was less than half of the volume in the previous week, which was the best of the month with $98,977,000 in new issues. Virtually all of the financing this week was contributed by the public utility and municipal groups.

U. S. BONDS.

(U. S. Government Bonds in Dollars and Thirty-Seconds of Dollars.)

		Bid	Asked
1st Lib 3½s '32-47	.102	101.29	101.29
1st Lib 4¼s '32-47	.103	102.31	103
4th Lib 4¼s '33-38	.103.27	103.24	103.27
Treas 4s '44-54	....108.11	108.28	108.28
Treas 4¾s '47-52	..113.9	113.9	113.9

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Nov. 28—(AP)—Successive downward jolts to wheat prices today ended with word that the week's North American breadstuff exports, were the smallest witnessed for a long while. Other shocks came from British trade, estimates greatly enlarging figures on the probable Argentine exportable wheat surplus. Wheat values here also were shaken by indications that United States goverment sponsored agencies were on both sides of the market from time to time, with uncertainties likewise prevalent regarding wheat stabilization plans in Canada.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled 7-8@2 1-2c a bushel lower than Wednesday's finish. Corn closed 1 1-4@1 5-8c down, oats 1 1-4@1 3-4c off, and provisions at 2@20c decline.

CHICAGO GAIN MARKET.

	High	Low	Close
Dec. new ...	78⅞	74¾	75⅛
Dec old ...	75⅝	74½	74¾
Mar. new ...	78¼	77¼	77⅞
Mar. old ...	78	76⅞	77¼
May new ...	80⅜	79⅝	79⅞
May old ...	80¼	79	79⅝
Corn—
Dec. new ...	75½	74	74⅛
Dec. old ...	75⅞	73⅞	74⅛
Mar. new ...	78¾	76½	76¾
Mar. new ...	78¼	76½	76¾
Mar. old ...	78	76⅛	76¼
May new ...	80¼	78⅝	78½
May old ...	80	78	78⅝
Oats—
Dec. new ...	34⅞	33⅞	33¾
Dec. old ...	34⅞	36½	33¾
May new ...	36⅜	35¾	35⅝
Mar. old ...	36½	35⅛	35⅝
May new ...	37⅝	36½	36⅝
May old ...	37	36¼	36¼

COTTON

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—Futures closed steady, 10 to 18 points lower. Spot quiet; middling 10.55.

MONEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—Call money steady 2 per cent all day. Time loans easy 60-90 days, 2@2 1-4; 4 months, 2 1-4; 5-6 months, 2 1-2@2 3-4. Prime commercial paper 2 3-4@3. Bankers' acceptances, unchanged.

THE CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—The downward trend of curb market shares was resumed today, as traders returned from the holiday with their none too cheerful attitude unaltered. Selling, however, was less active, the day's transactions totaling 473,900 shares, or 36,700 less than Wednesday's.

A notable development of the session was extensive selling of Humble and Gulf Oils, both breaking to new low ground. Gulf declined 4 points to 74 1-4, and closed at 75. It has always been one of the wider movers in the group, as it is rather closely held, and in keeping with the Mellons' policy of plowing earnings back into the company, it is selling, even at current low levels, to yield only about 2 per cent.

Humble, a Standard of N. J., subsidiary, sagged 2 1-2 points to a new low at 68 1-2 in active selling for this normally lightly traded issue. Early in the week, directors ordered an extra dividend of 50 cents. Among other Standard issues, however Indiana, Kentucky, and Vacuum, were well supported, and closed with gains of minor fractions. Standard of Ohio, however, lost 2 points in a few sales, Cities Service lost 1-2 point. Selling of the oil issues presumably reflected estimates of very low earnings owing to the deep price cuts in crude oil and gasoline.

In the industrial group, Aluminum Company of America, another Mellon company, dropped 12 1-2 points to 162 1-2, compared to the year's low of 150. This issue, despite its high prices—it has sold this year up to 356—pays no dividends, as the management has been turning all profits back into development and expansion of the property. Lightly traded in a thin market, the stock is one of the widest movers on the curb. Industrials and specialties were mostly under pressure. Deere dropped 3 points, close to its low and Western Air Express lost 2 1-2. Losses elsewhere were largely narrow. Exceptions to the trend were Ferro Enamel, up 3, Diamond Match new, and Standard Cap and Seal new, up 2 1-2.

Utilities sagged moderately. Electric Bond and Share, still the active feature of the group dropped nearly 2 points, then rallied to close off 1 1-4 net at 46. An unofficial analysis of the stock indicates that it is selling within a point of the market value per share of its security holdings and other assets. It will receive more than 90,000 shares of American Power and Light as result of its recently ordered 10 per cent stock dividend. American Gas, Associated Gas A, Consolidated Gas of Baltimore, Electric Power Associates, and Insull Utility Investment lost 1 to 2 points.

Sales in 100s.		High	Low	Close
1	Aero Indust war..	⅝	⅞	⅞
250	Aero Underw ..	7½	7⅛	7⅛
3	Affiliated Prod .	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Ainsworth	11½	11½	11½
2	Allehany Gas .. .	2½	2⅜	2½
9	Allied Mills	5⅝	5⅛	5⅛
5	Alum Co Am	162½	160½	162½
1	Alum Co Am pr	103¾	103¾	103¾
3	Alum Ltd	76½	75	75
1	Alum Ltd pr ...	[illegible]	96	95
2	Am Aust Car ...	2	2	2
1	Am Cap A	12⅛	12⅛	12⅛
1	Am Cpit B	5	5	5
8	Am C P&L A ..	34½	34	34½
25	Am Cigar	65¼	65¼	65¼
15	Am Cit P&L B .	8⅞	8⅛	8½
23	Am Com Pow A .	15	14¼	15
42	Am Cyan B	10¾	10⅝	106½
1	Am Dep St	2¼	2¼	2¼
22	Am Equit .. .	7¼	6⅜	6½
15	Am & F P w .	21½	20⅞	21½
12	Am Found	5¾	5⅜	5⅜
15	Am Gas & E ...	90⅞	88¼	88⅞
3	Am Invest war	2¼	2⅛	2
3	Am L & Tr	43½	43	43
1	Am Marac	⅞	⅞	⅞
121	Am Sap Pow	13	12¾	13
2	Am Sun P 1 pr .	92	92	92
4	Am U & Gn B .	5¼	5⅛	5⅛
4	Ang Ch C N ...	15⅛	14Z	14⅝
28	Appalach Gas ..	6⅞	6⅜	6½
4	Ark Nat Gas	6⅞	6⅛	6⅛
35	Ark Nat Gas A .	7⅛	6¾	6¾
4	Art Metals	5	4½	4½
1	Asso Dye & P ...	½	½	½
7	Asso El In Ltd .	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1	Asso G & El ...	19	19	19
10	Asso G & E pr	88	88	88
21	Asso G & El A .	21	20⅛	20⅛
2	Ariz G&E deb ..	2¼	2	2
5	Asso Laundry .	1	1	1
1	Asso Ray pr ...	41¼	41¼	41¼
5	Atl F & S	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Atl Sec Corp ...	8½	8½	8½
8	Atl Util	5	4⅞	5
5	Atlas Util w ...	1	1	1
3	Av Corp Am	23½	22¼	22½
23	Bahia Crp	4	3¼	3¾
1	Bahia Corp pr .	2	2	2
3	Blue E W	15½	15½	15½
10	Blue Ridge . ..	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
6	Blue Rdge cv p .	34½	34½	34½
3	Buckeye Pipe ..	43½	43	43½
2	Buf N & E P pr.	25⅞	25⅞	25⅞
9	Bulova Wtch	15⅝	15¼	15¼
1	Bunk H & S d.	50⅞	50⅞	50⅞
6	Burco	5½	5	5½
1	Cab & W A	1	1	1
1	Cab & W B ..	Z	⅝	⅝
1	CAM Co vtc . ..	5-16	¼	5-16
57	C M Wire	2½	2½	2½
1	C H G & E v .	20	20	20
50	C & S W U p .	95	95	95
1	C & S W U	18	18	18
7	C P S A	15⅝	15¼	15¼
36	Cen St El ., ..	11⅝	11	11⅝
1	C S E c p n ...	70	70	70
1	C S E pr xw . .	59	59	59
1	Cent Pipe	6¾	6⅝	6⅝
2	Chain St St	8	8	8
5	Ch Ph A nv	15⅝	15¼	15¼
10	Chic Crp	5⅝	5⅜	5⅜
187	Citiese Serv . .	19¾	18¾	19
1	Cit Serv pr	89½	89⅛	89½
1	Cleve Tract ..	8⅝	8⅝	8Z
6	Col O & G	6¼	6⅛	6⅛
1	Colum Pic t	24	24	24
50	Com & So wr .	2⅛	2	2⅛
20	Cons Cop M	3⅛	3	3⅛
3	Cons G & E B ..	87½	87½	87½
1	Cons G Util A ..	17½	17½	17½
1	Cns G Util B ..	8	8	8
1	Cons Laund	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
1	Cons Ret St	4½	4½	4½
150	Cont Sh cvt pr	52⅛	52	52
3	Cord Corp .. .	5	4¾	4¾
5	Cosden Oil .. .	2¾	2⅝	2⅝
14	Creole Pet	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
7	Crocker & Wh ..	9½	8⅞	8⅞
1	Crown Cn Pt ..	⅞	⅞	⅞
50	Cumb Pipe L ..	22	22	22
1	Cuneo Press .	33½	33½	33½
1	Curt Wrgt wr	⅝	⅝	Z
1	Daniel Reeves ..	21	21	21
5	Dayton Airp	2	1⅞	2
5	Deere & Co n ..	48⅞	47⅛	47⅛
5	De Foreset	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
2	Deisel W Gilbt ..	12	12	12
6	Detroit Aircr	2	2	2
39	Diam Match n ..	16⅞	15¼	16⅞
1	Dinkler Hot A ..	11½	11½	11½
2	Doehleer D Cast .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
2	Douglas Aircr .	15	15	15
2	Dresser Mfg A .	35	35	35
2	Dubilier Cond ..	3½	3⅝	3½
75	Duke Power ..1	30	127	127
3	Duq Gas	4⅜	4	4
1	Durant Mot	1⅝	1Z	1⅝
3	Duval Tex Sul .	2½	2¼	2½
4	East G & Fuel .	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
9	East St Pow B ..	17¼	16⅝	16⅝
1	East Util A ..	3	3	3
1	East Util T cv ..	7	7	7
1	Eisler Elec	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
397	El Bnd & Sh .	46⅞	45⅝	46
2	El Bnd & Sh pr	103⅝	103⅝	103⅝
3	El Bnd & Sh 5n p	92	91½	91½
22	El Pow As . ..	13½	12½	13½
30	El P As A	13⅜	12	12⅜
1	El P & L opt w .	24	24	24
7	Elect Share . .	13½	13¼	13⅛
2	Elec Shar pr ...	78	77½	78
2	Empire Corp ..	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
2	Emp G & F 7 pc .	82½	82	82
1	Employ Reins ..	23	23	23
5	Evan Wallo Ld .	1	1	1
4	Fabric Finish . .	⅝	⅛	⅛

1	Fazeo Mot	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
2	Federated Mot ..	10	10	10
10	Ferro Enam A .	28	26	26
1	Fiat rcts .. .	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Fla P&L 7pc pr.	100	100	100
4	Ford Mt Can A .	21Z	21⅛	21⅛
1	Ford Mot Fran .	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛
78	Ford Mot Ltd	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝
1	Foremost Feb . ..	4	4	4
5	Founda Fr A ...	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
14	Fox Theat A ..	5⅝	5	5⅛
1	Gen Avia Corp ..	7½	7½	7½
3	Gen Bak	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
4	Gen Bak pr	34⅝	32¾	32¾
3	Gen Elect Ltd ..	11½	11⅛	11⅛
1	Gen Empire .. .	17½	17½	17½
200	Gen G&El pr B.	58⅝	58	58
1	Gen Thea Eq ..	10	10	10
1	Gen Thea Eq pr.	34	34	34
1	Gen Wat Wks .	15⅞	15⅞	15⅞
1	Geo Pow pr ...	95½	95½	95½
3	Glean Comb H.	14	14	14
4	Glen Ald Coal .	58	56½	58
4	Globe Underw . .	7	6⅝	7
4	Gold Seal Elec ..	1⅝	1½	1½
7	Golden Cen Min ..	1	⅞	⅞
5448	Goldm Sachs r..	11⅛	10¾	10¾
3	Groc Str P vtc .	5¼	4¾	4⅞
2	Graymur	27	27	27
1	Guardian Fire .	22½	22½	22½
33	Gulf O Corp P ...	77¾	74¼	75
3	H Wlk G&W ...	6⅝	6½	6½
5	Holi Gold M	6	6	6
8	H Ban M & S ...	5⅛	4⅞	4⅞
61	Humble Oil	69⅜	68⅜	68½
5	Hy El Serv .. .	25⅞	25½	25½
5	Hygrade Food ..	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
1	I P & L 6 pr ..	90¾	90¾	90¾
18	Imp Oil Can . .	18½	17⅞	18⅛
1	Imp O C r	18⅝	18⅝	16⅝
2	Ind T I A	19⅞	19⅞	19⅞
1	Ind Pipe Line ..	20	20	20
5	Ind Fin ctf ...	9¾	9	9
25	Ind Fin pr ...	61½	61½	61⅛
2	Ins Util	41	39⅜	39⅜
2	Ins U 2 pr	78¼	78¼	78¼
4	I C Nor A	51¼	51	51
2	Insurance Sec .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
3	Inter Pet	14¾	14Z	11¾
21	Interc Pet	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Inter Util A ...	26¼	26¼	26¼
50	Inter Util B ...	7⅛	6½	6½
1	Inter Util war ..	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
2	Interst Equit .	4⅞	4⅛	4⅛
2	Inters Hosiery .	56½	6½	6½
8	Irving Air Ch ..	9	9½	8½
1	Jones Nacmb ...	½	½	½
4	Kolster Brandes ..	½	½	½
2	Lake Superior . .	7⅝	7	7⅝
1	Lefcourt Realty .	14½	14½	14½
1	Ley Fred & Co	29	29	29
1	Lion Oil	8¼	8¼	8¼
1	Loew's war	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
8	Lone Star Gas .	24	24	24
1	Long Is Light ..	32	32	32
7	Magdalena Sy ..	3-16	⅛	⅛
25	Mangel St pr ..	32¾	32⅝	32¾
5	Marconi Int M ..	9	9	9
2	Marion Stm Sh .	3½	3⅛	3⅛
6	Mess Util Asso ..	5	5⅝	5⅞
5	Mavis Bott.. ...	½	½	½
2	Mercant Strs	21¼	21¼	21¼
3	Merritt C & S ..	17	16¾	17
3	Mesabi Iron . .	1	1	1
2	Mesta Mach ...	25	25	25
1	Metal & Min.. ..	1½	1½	1½
2	Metro Ch Strs . .	4	4	4
1	Mid W St Util ..	23	23	23
19	Mid West Util ..	20¾	20	20
1	Midl St nw	16½	16½	16½
1	Miller & Sons ...	20⅞	20⅞	20⅞
10	Mo Kan Pl L ...	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
8	Mo Kan P L B ...	⅝	½	⅝
3	Mount Pdod .. .	6	5⅝	5⅞
1	Nation Am Co ..	6	6	6
6	Nat Avia	5⅝	5¼	5½
1	Nat Elec P A	24	24	24
3	Nat Fam St	6¾	6⅛	6⅛
1	Nat Food B	1	1	1
6	Nat F & Gas .	26½	25½	25½
3	Nat Invest	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
1	Nat Mfgf & Str .	8	8	8
2	Nat Rub Mach ..	5¾	5¾	5¾
1	Nat Sh T S A xd.	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝
1	N Sug Ref N J .	29½	29½	29½
2	Natl Tr	18⅞	18⅞	18⅞
1	Nestle L Mu	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	New Brodg	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
4	Newmont M . .	56¾	55¼	55¼
1	Newport Co	16	16	16
75	NY Tel 6½ pc	114¾	114½	114½
1	N Y Transit .. .	14	14	14
104	Niag Hud P .. .	11⅛	10⅞	10⅞
2	Niag Hd P A w .	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
2	Niag Hd P B	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
2	Nipissing Mns .. .	1¼	1⅛	1⅛
12	Noranda Mines .	17⅝	16¾	16¾
8	Nor Am Av A ...	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
16	Nor Cor Ltd	⅝	9-16	9-16V
2	Nor Euro Oil . .	⅛	1⅛	1⅛
3	Nor St P A 130		130	130
4	Novadel Agene .	40⅛	39½	40
40	Otis B T 7 ..p	106⅝	106⅝	106⅝
50	Ohio Cop	⅝	⅝	⅝
20	Ohio Pow n ..	103	103	103
4	Oil Stocks A ...	5	5	5
1	Outb Mot B	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
1	Overseas Sec	3¾	3¾	3¾
2	Pac G & E 1 p .	26¾	26¾	26¾
2	Pac West Oil ...	9Z	9½	9⅝
5	Pandem Oil . ..	5-16	5-16	5-16
43	Pennroad Co ...	7¼	6⅞	7
1	Pa Mex Fuel . .	17¼	17¼	17¼
1	Peop GY&C rt..	10¾	10¾	10¾
3	Peo L Pow A	24	24	24
1	Pierce Gov	4¾	4¾	4¾
8	Pitney Bow	7	7	7
2	Polymet fg .	2¼	2	2
2	Prince & Wls .	1½	1⅜	1⅜
2	Prod Roy	5	4¾	5

4	Prudential ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
30	Pub U Hold	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
4	Pub Ut Hdwr	1⅝	1½	1½
20	Pure Oil pr	95	95	95
1	Radio Prod	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
1	Railroad Sh . ..	4½	4½	4½
3	Reiter Foster . ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
3	Rel Manage	6⅛	6	6
1	Rich O C pr . .	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
2	Rock LPire p....	17	17	17
9	Rossia Intl	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1	Ryerson & Son ..	26	26	26
10	Safeway St 2 w	1Z	1⅝	1⅝
30	St Regis Paper ..	15	14⅝	14⅝
3	Salt Creek Prd .	7	7	7
2	Saxet Co	9	8½	9
6	Schul Un 5c $1..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
2	Seaboard Util ..	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
1	Seeman Bros	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝
19	Segal Lock . ..	5⅝	5½	5⅝
8	Select Indust	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
1	Select Ind al ctf ..	51⅛	51⅛	51⅛
9	Select Inr pr . .	50	47⅛	47⅛
20	Shenandoah . .	6⅝	6½	6⅝
16	Shenandoah pr .	34⅝	34⅝	34⅝
1	Solar Ref	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
1	So Cal E B pr 4	26⅛	26⅛	26⅛
1	Southern Corp	4	4	4
1	South P O	23	23	23
3	Southl Roy	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
6	South Gas U	6⅛	6	6
50	Southw G&El ..	95½	95½	95½
50	Souw P P L	33½	33½	33½
2	Std C & S	33½	33	33½
5	Stand Met	1	1	1
38	Stand Oil Ind .	36⅞	36⅝	36⅝
28	Stand Oil Ind .	36⅞	36⅝	36⅝
1	St Oil Ky	23⅞	23⅛	23⅝
450	St Oil pr O	76	54⅝	54⅝
2	Starrett Cor	11	11	11
5	Starrett pr .. .	24⅞	22	24⅞
30	Stein & Co n ..	85	85	85
6	Straus Roth	10⅝	9⅛	10⅝
1	Stutz Mot Am	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
3	Sunray Oil	3½	3½	3½
5	Swift & Co	29	29	29
7	Swift Int	32½	31½	31½
1	Syr Wash M B .	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
6	Tag Corp	12	11	12
4	Tex O & O	12⅝	12½	12½
2	Tastel Sec . ..	2½	2½	2½
7	Tran Air T	5⅝	5⅞	5⅞
1	Trans Lux D P A ...	7	7	7
1	Trans Lx D P A	7	7	7
1	Tung Sol Lamp ..	7½	7½	7½
1	Ut Nat Gas Can	17½	17½	17½
6	Un Tobac	½	½	½
2	Unit Carr Fast ..	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞
2	Un Corp w	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
2	Unit Dry Dock .	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
1135	Un Found	9⅞	8⅞	9⅞
89	Un Gas nw	9⅞	8⅞	8⅞
14	Unit Gas war .	3½	3⅛	3⅛
3	Unit Gas pr	89	88¼	88¼
45	U L & P A	27¼	25⅞	25⅞
8	Unit L&P cv pr .	99	98⅝	99
1	U S & Int Sec ..	1½	1½	1½
3	U S & Int Sec pr	43	42½	[illegible]
41	U S El Pow ...	6	6½	6½
1	U S Finish .. .	7¾	7¾	7¾
4	U S Foil B	5½	5	5
1	U S Lines pr ...	7	7	7
5	Unit Verde Ext .	8	7⅞	7⅞
6	Util Equitiese	6¾	6¾	6¾
14	Ut P & Lt	11¼	10½	10¾
2	Util P & L B .	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
2	Util & I	7	7½	7½
1	Util & Ind pr	18	18	18
21	Vacuum Oil	64⅝	63⅛	61¼
5	Walgreen Co .	22	22	22
6	West A Exp	19⅝	19	19
1	Wil-Low Cafet . .	4	4	4
5	Zonite Prod ...	9⅞	9⅞	9⅞

WALL STREET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—Commercial failures in the United States, during the week total 461, a daily average of 92, which is slightly less than last week's average, R. G. Dun and company, reports. The period covers five business days owing to the Thanksgiving holiday. A year ago 371 insolvencies were reported for five days.

The Lehigh Valley railroad is inquiring for bids for 100 seventy ton gondola cars.

Walter E. Frew, chairman of the Corn Exchange Bank Trust company has been elected a director of the Ingersoll Rand company, succeeding Henry Lang.

Henry A. Roemer, president of the Continental Steel corporation, has been appointed president of the Sharon Steel Hoop company. He succeeds Severn P. Ker, who becomes chairman of the board and also will head the executive committee.

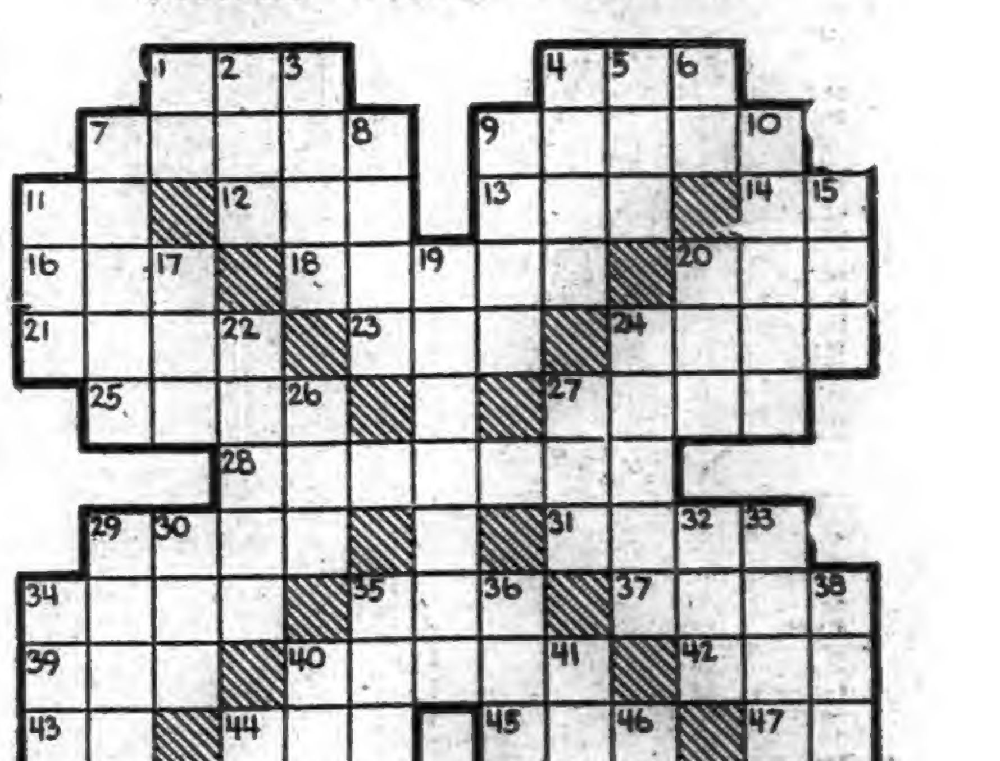
Arrangements have been made for the sale of a New York Curb exchange membership at $106,000, an increase of $5,000 over the last sale.

The daily statement of the federal reserve bank of New York showed imports of $1,620,000 in gold from Colombia. There were no withdrawals for export.

Treasury Balance

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 — (AP) — Treasury receipts for Nov. 25 were: $4,084,535.70; expenditures $6,568,627.85; balance $95,388,954.21.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



HORIZONTAL

1-To stake on an uncertain issue
4-Mineral spring
7-Rends
9-An African antelope
11-Prefix—from 12-Summit
13-Swiss river
14-Egyptian sun god
16-Affirmative reply
18-Froth
20-A gear wheel
21-Village in Greeland
23-Without moisture
24-Hard part of the body
25-Care
27-Stream
28-Matured
29-A good thing be stowed
31-A retreat
34-A broad smile
35-Pronoun
37-Observed
39-Sick

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)

40-Attempt
42-Point of compass (abbr.)
43-Battalion (abbr.)
44-Comrade
45-Obtain
47-Preposition
48-A silly creature
50-Gains
52-Ensnare
53-A grain

VERTICAL

1-Exist
2-Consume
3-Ancient city of Asia Minor
4-A narrow strip of board
5-Equality of value
6-Indefinite article
7-Incisors
8-Moved swiftly
9-Comfortable
10-Hum

VERTICAL (Cont.)

11-Tinge
15-Stage of life
17-So (Scot.)
19-Checks
20-A fish
22-A wading bird
24-Awaits
26-Clamor
27-A number
29-Carry
30-Grease
32-Look
33-Examines
34-Idle talk
35-Island (poet.)
36-Profound
38-Combining form—new
40-Point of compass
41-Time-period
44-American author
46-Endeavor
49-Ahead
51-Point of compass (abbr.)

MYSTIC

Relatives and friends in Mystic have received invitations issued by Mrs. Henry H. Tift of Tifton, Ga., to the marriage of her niece, Miss Cecelia Elizabeth Lawrence and John Lewis Cook Saturday evening the twentieth of December at half after eight at the First Baptist church, Tifton. Miss Lawrence has spent summers here with her aunt, Mrs. Tift and had made many friends here.

A large delegation from Mystic, students of Stonington high school attended the football game between Stonington and Westerly Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Marchand had the following guests at their home Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cook and two children of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. John Marchand and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Perry and son Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. William Marchand.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lamphere entertained Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bindloss of Niantic, Misses Mary and Phebe Lamphere, Mystic, Edwin Lamphere and Miss Helen Lamphere of Old Mystic, Miss Lillian Hewitt of Arlington, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Atmore Tucker of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Hewitt were Thanksgiving day guests of Attorney and Mrs. B. H. Hewitt.

James Cooper and family spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hershey at Arlington Heights, Mass.

Miss Elizabeth A. Foley spent the week end in Hartford.

Miss Mary Schmidt spent the holiday and week end in Boston.

Misses Emmeline and Jessie Fish entertained their cousins, Miss Helen Wilbur and Mrs. Roberta Lamphere on Thanksgiving day.

Big Family Gathering

Miss Bertha Lamphere entertained the following relatives for Thanksgiving: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas, daughter Thelma and son Clifford, Mrs Annabel Douglas of New London, Prof and Mrs. Philip Douglas and son Philip of Kingston College, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mell, Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Paine and son spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Scofield, in Deep River.

Randall Newbury of New London visited relatives here Thanksgiving.

Leaves for Boston

Miss Dorothy Nelson returned Thursday morning to her home in Boston after visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes in Old Mystic.

James F. Brown and family of North Stonington spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bindloss.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Main, their daughter Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Savage spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. William Benjamin in Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilmore spent Thanksgiving day in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. E. William Holmes and their daughter Norma have returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson in Boston.

Guests From New York

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker of New York spent the holiday with Mrs. Herbert Davis.

Union Service

All business was suspended in the village Thursday, stores, factories, banks and schools being closed in observance of Thanksgiving day a custom since 1864. The post office had the usual holiday hours. There were numerous family gatherings. In the evening a union service was held in the Methodist church, Rev. R. J. Chrystie presiding and other pastors assisting, with the sermon delivered by Rev. L. J. Shepler. The music was by singers from the local churches.

Miss Sally Elion is spending the holiday recess in New London.

Milton J. Berry, who has been employed in Mystic pharmacy, has resigned and will return to his position in Hartford. Mr. and Mrs. Berry will be greatly missed in Mystic.

David G. Scott, of Bethlehem, Penn., spent the holiday with his mother, Mrs. George S. Scott.

Mrs. Edith Bacon, principal of West Mystic school is pass[illegible] the holiday recess at her home in Moosup.

Miss Betty Coe spent the holiday recess at her home in Litchfield.

Miss Ruth Peck spent the holiday recess at her home in Stratford.

Kirk Spaulding and Mrs. M. Abbie Packer spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Abel Loudon, in Westerly.

Mrs. William L. Main, Miss Hazel Main, Mrs. David Brown, Miss Marion Brown and Mrs. Wallace Phillips were callers in Norwich Friday.

Club to Meet

The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Louis P. Allyn. The paper, prepared by Mrs. Henry B. Noyes, will be read by Miss Larrabee, of Groton.

Mrs. Frances O'Brien is visiting relatives in Noank.

Dined in Norwich

George H. Griswold, son Arthur and Mrs. Adelaide Griswold, spent Thanksgiving day with Norwich relatives.

Mystic district town of Groton voted 124 to 48 in favor of a finance board for the town of Groton, at the recent election.

NOANK

Thanksgiving day was pleasingly observed at the Spicer home. The superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Whipple prepared a fine dinner of chicken roast pork mashed potatoes, turnips, celery, cranberry sauce, pies and fruit. There are ten men and two women at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rathbun of Norwich spent Thursday with Mr. Rathbun's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rathbun.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Thorsen are spending several days with relatives in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin Leatherman, of Springfield, spent the holiday with Mrs. Leatherman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William I. Spicer, of Spicer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses W. Rathbun and daughter, Joyce, has been visiting friends in New London.

Roy Scaplen was a recent caller in Providence.

Bernard Carson, of Cornfield lightship, is spending a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Jane Carson.

Wilbur Smith, of New York, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Albany Smith.

Mrs. Etta Main is spending several days with relatives in Saybrook.

Edward Mahoney was a business caller in New York Friday.

William Hockitt has returned to Hartford after spending several days with local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tourjee and children, Bramon and Margaret, have returned, after spending Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Sheffield, in Saybrook.

Olaf Jenssen was a caller in Hartford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cole have returned to Millis, Mass., after spending several days at their cottage on Elm street.

Roger Searles, principal of Noank grammar school, spent the Thanksgiving recess with relatives in Northampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Getchell have returned to Malden, Mass., after a visit with Capt. and Mrs. Fred W. Buddington of Bayside avenue.

Special Service

Another in the series of popular evening services will be held at the Baptist church Sunday evening. William I. Spicer will give an interesting address on the construction of Bolder dam and the control of the Colorado river. There will be special music.

Elihu Spicer, of New York, has been spending several days with local relatives.

Wednesday afternoon a special musical and literary program was given in the third grade room of Noank grammar school. The pupils of the sub-primary, first, second, third and fourth grades were present.

George Snyder of Essex was a recent caller in the village.

Miss Phoebe Sheffield, of Saybrook, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Tourjee.

Miss Dorothy Hahn, of South Hadley, Mass., has been spending several days at her summer cottage.

Miss Ruth Fitch has returned to Worcester after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Nancy Fitch.

Plans are being made for a musical entertainment by the young people of the Methodist church. The program will be under the direction of Miss Marion MacDonald.

Eugene Butson, of East Greenwich, R. I., is spending several days at his home on Bayside avenue.

Mrs. Annie Dennis is visiting relatives in Saybrook.

Mrs. August Reichel is visiting relatives in New York.

At the Sunday afternoon services of the Methodist church the pastor, Rev. Robert J. Chrystie, Ph. D. will take for his subject "Do You Believe in Ghosts?". In the evening, in place of the Epworth league services, the pastor will give an interesting lecture on Chautauqua. This lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides beautifully colored.

Start On Bridge

Work has been started on the new bridge which will span the railroad tracks and which will eliminate the two grade crossings at Main street and Spicer avenue crossings. Both sides of the bridge were placed Friday. The bridge is being constructed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. It is expected that it will be erected in about two weeks.

At the weekly meeting of Liberty council, D. of A., second nomination of officers was received. Plans are being made for an entertainment and the following committee is in charge: Mrs. Gertrude Tourjee, Mrs. Dorothy Bishop and Miss Grace Rathbun. At the close of the business session refreshments were served by the good of the order committee, Miss Eleanor Scaplen, Miss Grace Rathbun and Mrs. Jesse O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobart have been visiting relatives in Mystic.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Week At Central Baptist Church

Monday—7.45 p. m. Meeting of the 3-G class with Miss Dorothy Rathbun.

Tuesday—3.00 p. m. Woman's prayer circle, Mrs. Ralph Gallup, leader. 7.45 p. m. A. B. C. circle meets with Mrs. George Phillips, East Great Plain. 7.45 p. m. In-As-Much circle meets with Mrs. C. S. Storms, 575 Main street.

Wednesday—3.30 p. m. Americanization sewing school, Mrs. R. Otis, superintendent. 7.00 p. m. Alpha Phi meeting. 7.30 p. m. Builders' circle meets in the mothers' room with Mrs. C. Lane, Miss N. Rathbun, and Miss L. Cook as hostesses.

Thursday—7.45 p. m. Meeting for prayer and conference.

Friday—3.00 p. m. Meeting of the A circle in the woman's room with Mrs. B. R. Gardner of Jewett City as the speaker. 6.15 p. m.—Men's supper. 7.00 p. m. Alpha kai meeting. 7.00 p. m. Pioneer meeting. 7.30 p. m. Meeting of the executive board of the Woman's league in the church office.

Christian Science Services

Reading room 40 Main street, open every week day excepting holidays from 3 to 4.30 p. m.; Sunday from 11.15 a. m. to 12.30 p. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 7.45.

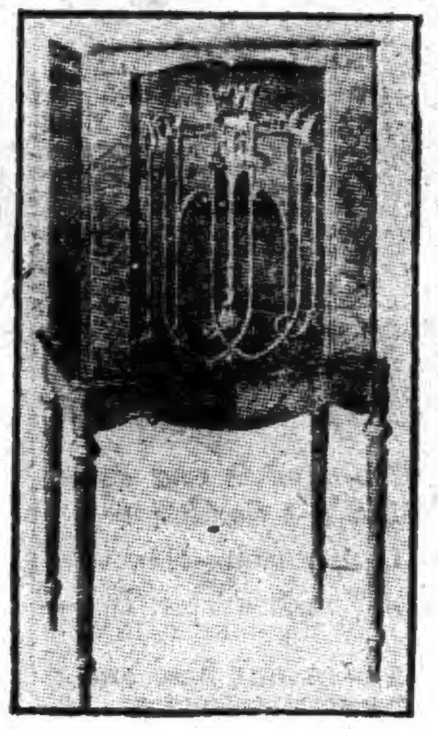
Christ Episcopal Church

On Monday, Dec. 1, which is St. Andrew's day, there will be Holy communion service at Christ Episcopal church at 10 a. m.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Sterling—	Friday	Year Ago
Demand	$4.85 7-16	$4.87¾
Cables	4.85 9-16	4.87 13-16
Francs	3.92⅜	3.94
Lire	5.23¼	5.34 9-16
Swis francs	19.36⅝	19.41⅛
Pesetas	11.11	13.88
Belgian belga	13.94	13.99½
Greece	1.29¾	1.30¼
Guilders	40.25	40.25
Marks	23.85	23.94
Shilling	14.08	14.25
Sweden	26.81	26.81
Denmark	26.74	26.81½
Norway	26.74	26.80½
Argentina	34.37	41.62
Brazil	9.60	11.83
India	36.00	36.48
Japan	49.62	49.33

A Few More!
—OF—
The Newest 1931 Model
COLONIAL Radio
TRIPLE
Screen Grid
$88.85
Complete
WITH TUBES
The very latest 1931 Colonial 7-tube screen grid; Dynamic speaker — steel fool-proof chassis and many other new improvements!
Built into the superb Highboy Cabinet pictured above.



$5.00 DOWN $2.00 WEEK
UNITED MUSIC COMPANY
MITCHELL WOLFE, Manager
NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST RADIO RETAILERS
84 Main Street, Norwich, Conn. Phone 3263

Take A Tip from Santa
Join Now
Membership in our Christmas Club assures you of a Merry Christmas Next Year.
Join Now!

Thames Bank & Trust Company
NORWICH, CONN.

You Are Cordially Invited to Join
THE CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB
For 1931

OPEN DEC. 5, 1930

Classes to Suit All!

THE CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB

Is the Oldest and Largest in Norwich, Conn.

Payments Will Be Made to Members
—on December 5, 1931—

Members paying 25c for 50 weeks $12.75
Members paying 50c for 50 weeks $25.50
Members paying $1.00 for 50 weeks $51.00
Members paying $2.00 for 50 weeks $102.00
Members paying $5.00 for 50 weeks $255.00

SAVE SYSTEMATICALLY
FOR CHRISTMAS OF 1931

THE Chelsea Savings Bank
"The Bank of Community Service"
Franklin Square Norwich, Conn.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS—6:30-8:00
N. B.: NEW CURRENCY AND HOLIDAY CONTAINERS

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

BORN

MEYERS—In Norwich at the Backus hospital, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Meyers of 122 Roath street.

ROY — In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roy of 97 Ashland street, Jewett City.

ROY—In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy of 97 Ashland street, Jewett City.

MARRIED

ST. GERMAIN-FOLEY— In New London, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. James W. Roche, Clarence E. St. Germain, of Waterford and Miss Delia Foley, of New London.

FRENALD-HRABORECKI — In New London, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, Lloyd W. Frenald, U. S. C. G., and Helen M. Hraborecki, of East Lyme.

KENNERSON-ECCLESTON —In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. Harvey H. Conklin, Robert Elmer Kennerson and Miss Grace Alice Eccleston, both of Uncasville.

SANQUEDOLCE-TAVERNESE — In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M., Salvatore A. Sanquedolce, of Pawcatuck and Miss Teresa Tavernese, of Westerly.

DI QUATTRO-GENCARELLI — In Westerly, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M., Vincenzo Di Quattro of Providence, and Miss Eleanor Gencarelli, of Westerly.

MORISINI-DI FRANCESCA —In Pawcatuck (Stonington), Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. J. F. X. Quinn, Peter Morisini, of Mystic and Miss Prudence Di Francesca, of Pawcatuck.

DIED

BURROWS—In Jacksonville, Fla., Martha E., widow of Charles Burrows, formerly of Pleasure Beach, Waterford, Conn.

CANNING— In New London, Nov. 28, 1930, Edward F., Jr., son of Edward F. and Madeline Hubbard Canning, aged 12.

FUNERAL NOTICES

MANNING—In Norwich, Nov. 28, 1930, Mary E. Maples, widow of Lemuel A. Manning, aged 82 years.
Funeral services at her late home, 82 Peck street, Sunday, Nov. 30, at 7:30 p. m. Burial in West Plains cemetery.

SMITH — In Putnam, Nov. 28, 1930, Herbert James Smith, aged 47 years. Funeral services will be held at his late home on Sunnyside, in Putnam, Monday afternoon, Dec. 1, at 1:30 o'clock.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
10 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

C. A. GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR TEL 642-2
LADY ASSISTANT
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

J. J. LYONS and CO.
MORTICIANS
43 MAIN STREET
Tel. 696-W

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
DAVID H. WILSON
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-W

HOURIGAN BROS.
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Funeral Home, 35 Church Street.
Office 62 Main St Branch Jewett City

DOUGHERTY BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Taftville 2326 Moosup 306-2

THOMAS J. SHAHAN
MORTICIAN
451 Main Street Tel 2470

WILLIMANTIC

LINCOLN and POTTER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMERS
62 Church St., Willimantic
Phone 705-2
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
86 Union Street Willimantic, Conn
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

PLAINFIELD

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN
Tel. Moosup 282-9

DANIELSON

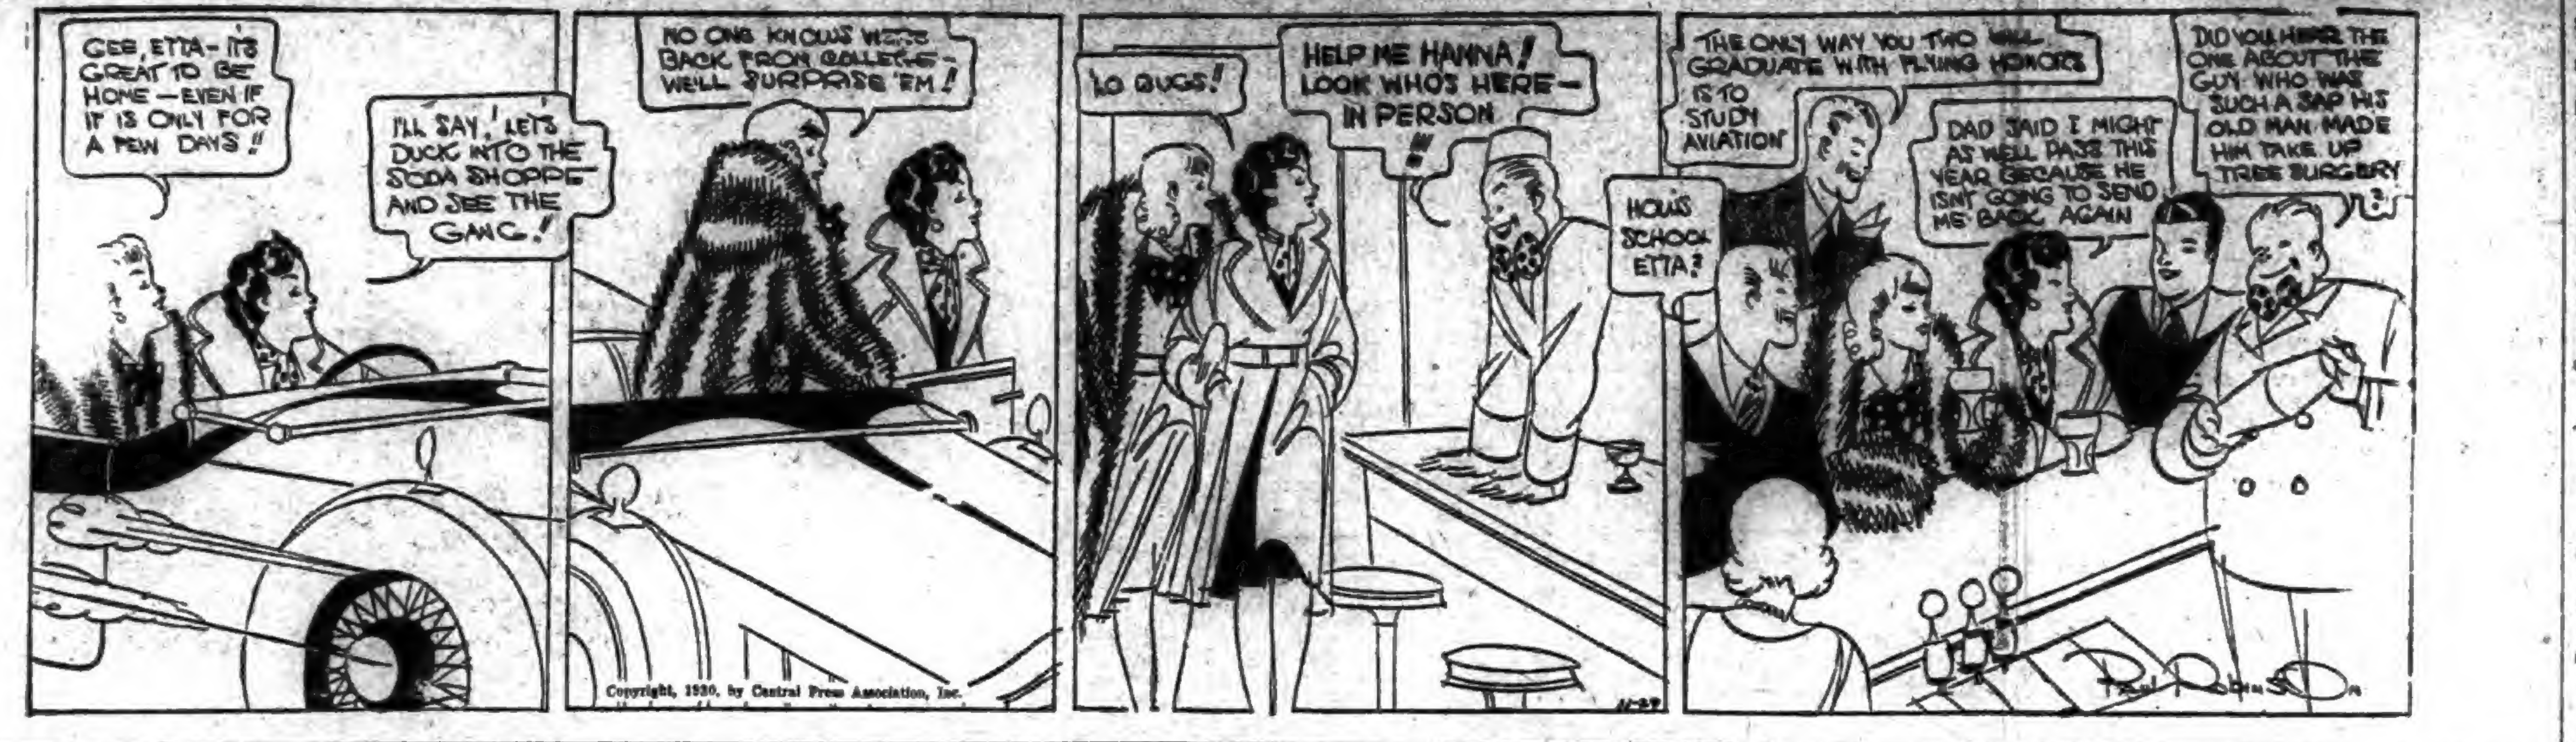
ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director
Embalmer
PHONE 140 DANIELSON

Martin T. Burns
Academy Street, Danielson
Embalmer and
Funeral Director

FOR SALE—RADIOS

FOR SALE —Used and demonstrated radios, battery and all electric at low prices. Some as low as $4. Hanover-Curland Co, 24 Franklin St.

ETTA KETT Hail! Hail! the Gang's Here! —By PAUL ROBINSON



GEE, ETTA- ITS GREAT TO BE HOME —EVEN IF IT IS ONLY FOR A FEW DAYS !!
I'LL SAY! LETS DUCK INTO THE SODA SHOPPE AND SEE THE GANG!
NO ONE KNOWS WE'RE BACK FROM COLLEGE — WELL SURPRISE 'EM!
'LO BUGS!
HELP ME HANNA! LOOK WHO'S HERE — IN PERSON
HOW'S SCHOOL ETTA?
THE ONLY WAY YOU TWO WILL GRADUATE WITH FLYING HONORS IS TO STUDY AVIATION
DAD SAID I MIGHT AS WELL PASS THIS YEAR BECAUSE HE ISN'T GOING TO SEND ME BACK AGAIN
DID YOU HEAR THE ONE ABOUT THE GUY WHO WAS SUCH A SAP HIS OLD MAN MADE HIM TAKE UP TREE SURGERY
11-29
Paul Robinson

Copyright, 1930, by Central Press Association, Inc.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—New house just completed. Can be bought with a small down payment. Must be seen to appreciate. On Maple St. For further information call 602-3. nov29

FOR SALE —5 spool beds, 3 maple beds, 2 shoemaker's benches, old; 6 bureaus, 6 Boston rockers, 2 maple tables, 3 cherry tables, 1 old fireplace frame. Elm Ave., Norwich Town.

ASKT THE MAN down ta the Inn what the bridle path wuz fer, 'n' he ced that it wuz fer newlyweds. He ced if the bridle walk down the path it wood brink her good luck. That's a joke I bet. See our 50c Briar pipes. They are pips. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT — Brand new seven-room cottage with all modern improvements including steam heat. Can be bought on small monthly payments. Must be seen to be appreciated. Tel. 602-4. 4tnov27

FOR SALE— A two-apartment house with large lot in Lisbon; a six-room cottage with large lot on Baltic St.; a seven-room house with a 2-car garage on Woodmansee Ave.; also a large roomy house on Washington St. All of above priced right for quick sale Burton, No. 736, No. Main St. Phone 1125. 3tnov25TTS

State Road location of 12 acres
8-room house, barn, well adapted for poultry. Price $1500—one-half cash.
Tryon's Real Estate Agency
Willimantic, CoCnn.

FOR SALE — Home furnishings at lowest prices. Living room sets, $8.00 up; dining room sets, $45 up; bed outfits, $7.50; 9x12 rugs, $12.50; buffets with mirrors, $12.50; kitchen cabinet, $15 Norwich Used Furniture Exchange, 29 Shetucket St

HOUSE LOT with barn 40x149. Electricity and water. Price $195. Your own terms. One mile from Jewett City P. O. Rex. Bulletin Office.

"WHACHA DOIN?" I sez "I'm the listener up on the farm." "Whatzat," sez I. "I herd the cattle," sez he. Fine lot of Briar pipes, 50c. Manila cigars, 10 for 25c. Cigrets, 2 for 25c. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

FOR SALE—3 Stanton Ave., seven room house with bath Price reasonable. Within easy walking distance of center Apply Susan D Ryder, 159 Blatchley Ave., New Haven, Conn 12tnov19

FOR SALE Bargains in single and double houses. Have what you need in real estate Quinn Insurance Agency

FOR SALE—Used ranges, also parlor stoves that sold up to $50; now $10 and $15 Reasonable terms Silberman's Furniture Store, 37 Main St

FOR SALE—At once, to settle the estate, all the property at Wintergreen Point, in Waterford For particulars see Miss Moore at The Bulletin office or R E Burton Phone 1125

FOR SALE—Used dining room suite, also od doak buffets China cabinets and tables Silberman Furn. Store tfaug13

FOR SALE— Hay. Phone 2858-R. Peter A. Nawrocki, Yantic. 3tnov28

FOR SALE
A desirable Six-Room Cottage. All improvements, one-half acre of land, Garage for two cars, situated on state highway leading from Norwich to Westerly. A rare bargain at $4000. Terms. Send for my Farm Bulletin No. 30 (Choice of 400)
WILLIAM A WILCOX
Real Estate
WESTERLY, R. I. TEL DIAL 2365

FOR SALE
1 Two-apartment house, Bos. Ave. One in Greeneville section. Good investment. (3) Canterbury turnpike, cottage with 25 apples trees, 4 acres land, nice barn, one cow, low price. Call Clarence Sholes. Tel. con. feodnov25

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

FOR SALE—100 rabbits; Chins, New Zealand Whites, Silvers. Fred Newton. Box 46, Canterbury. Phone. nov29

FOR SALE—Collie puppies. 128 West Town St. 6tnov25

WANTED—All kinds of live poultry. Broilers a specialty Tel. 539 S. Colt. tffeb18

WANTED—All kinds of poultry; will call anywhere; highest prices paid Joseph Horn Tel. 1501 Willimantic. tfmar19

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—White birch wood. $7 00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE — Seasoned hard wood. slabs. Delivered to Jewett City. No extra cost, Roy B. Kennedy. Phones 1137-M or 3755-R. 6tnov27

FOR SALE — Delivered, kindling or split wood, 7 baskets, $1.00. $8.00 a load. Coal, 5 bags, $1.00. Tel. 3666

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Children to board by day or week. Tel. 3207-J.

WHY BE LONESOME—Hundreds happily mated, confidential service. N. R. Gibson, 2605 N. 9 St., Philadelphia, Pa. 3t8tMWenov29

WANTED—Will exchange a late model electric sewing machine for an all electric radio. Write Box 502 Bulletin, giving full information regarding radio. 8tnov27

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose Norwich Glass Co. 5 Bath St Tel 2463

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT—5-room apartment at 225 Laurel Hill Ave. With heat or without. Tel. 2357. Inquire. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—5-room apartment; second floor; on Williams St. Tel. 3361-W. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—Cottage of 5 rooms, 55 Fairmount St. All furnished, all improvements. Apply Abner Schwartz, Schwartz Bros., Main St. nov29

FOR RENT —5 rooms, all improvements. 14 Arnold St.

FOR RENT—5 rooms. Bath. 7 minutes from Franklin Sq. $20 mo. Apply at 445 Main St.

TO RENT — Tenement of 7 rooms. Telephone 993 Norwich. tfoct3

FOR RENT—1st floor, 5 rooms. Sunny corner. Separate heater, near Bishop school. Garage optional. Tel. 1047-M.

FOR RENT— Two 6-room cottages; brand new; also 5-room apartment; all modern improvements. Call 1923. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms and bath, heat and hot water furnished, central location. Phone 141-M.

TO RENT—Cottages and apartments. Burton, No. 736 No. Main St. Phone 1125. 2tnov25TS

FOR RENT— Apartment, No 364 Washington St., Norwich Town Tel. 626-W Oct15

FOR RENT —2 apts. 6 rooms, bath. Newly decorated, all improvements. 107 or 109 Sachem St. Tel. 568. F. Ferry, 118 W. Main St. 3tnov27

TO RENT—Furnished 4-room apartment. 5 minutes walk from Franklin Square. Rent reasonable. Tel. 3615-W. tfnov28

TO RENT—A modern 6-room apartment. Apply to B. C Hannis, 11 McKinley Ave. tfnov26

TO RENT—3-room tenement. $15 a month. Call 1422-W. tfnov26

TO RENT—Furnished apartment, well heated, garage. Phone 285-J. tfnov25

TO RENT— Two light housekeeping rooms, 45 Union street, all improvements tfnov25

FOR RENT—6-room apartment; all improvements. Phone 946-W.

FOR RENT—At Wintergreen Point, to small family, 6-room house with garage. See Miss Moore at Bulletin office

TO RENT—Pleasant six-room apartment. Rent reasonable. J. A. Cunningham. Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056.

FOR RENT—7 rooms with all improvements. 89 Asylum St. tfOct16

FOR RENT—Rooms, board if desired Good location. Tel 3557-J. tfnov18

TO RENT—5 lovely rooms, 23 Hill St. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters. tfnov11

TO RENT—7-room cottage, bath, hot and cold water Fountain St Call 77 Cedar St. Phone 868 tfnov15

FOR RENT— Modern 5-room apartment 47 Otis St Tel. 1085-R. tfnov13

TO RENT— Flat of six rooms, 6 Church St Tel 2637-J 3tnov5MWF

TO RENT—Modern 5-room apartment Best section in town Oil heated, hot water Available now 60 Broad St Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., Franklin St tfnov8

TO RENT — 4-5 room apartments, hardwood floors steam heated Call 1529 tfoct30

STORAGE—Gilbert Furniture Co. Inquire 68 Broadway. tfoct118

FOR RENT — Light housekeeping rooms Steam heat 27 McKinley Ave tfsept30

TO LET—5 nice rooms, all improvements, 11 High street. tfsept17

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; modern and central Phone 211 Sept26

FOR RENT—Heated apartment in the Osgood Caron's Specialty Shop.

TO RENT— A 6-room and a 4-room apartment; all modern conveniences, 357 Washington St Tel 1085-R tfsept17

TO RENT—Flat of six rooms with all improvements. Inquire of Gilbert Bowers 120 Washington St., or phone 1132-M. tfsept27

FOR RENT—Rooms for gentlemen. On car line. Phone 2658-W. 12tnov19

For Rent
First Floor Tenement With Bath Room and Hot Water Heater
234 BROAD STREET

TO RENT
If you want a 5-room apartment a little out of the ordinary, at a reasonable price, see those in the "Huntington". 170 Broadway. Tel. 3282.
D. T. SHEA

For Rent
FINE LIGHT STORE IN SUNLIGHT BUILDING
Occupied Continuously for 15 Years as Barber Shop
Apply BULLETIN OFFICE

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

WANTED—MALE

$1260 TO $3000 YEAR. Government jobs. Men-women, 18-50. Steady work. Common education usually sufficient Experience usually unnecessary. Sample coaching and particulars Free. Write today sure. 947-C, Bulletin.

MEN 18-35. $155-$225 month. Railway postal clerks. Steady. Common education sufficient. Experience unnecessary. 25 coached free. Write today. Franklin Institute, Dept. 26-C, Rochester, N. Y.

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING
Of The
WM. W. BACKUS HOSPITAL
is accepting applications for the February class. The course of instruction covers a period of three years which includes a seven months affiliation with the Yale School of Nursing and the New Haven Visiting Nurse Association. Only high school graduates accepted. For prospectus of the school giving requirements for admission, curriculum and opportunities offered address
Principal, School of Nursing,
Wm. W. Backus Hospital,
Norwich, Conn.

FOR SALE—Dogs

FOR SALE—Boston bull pups; very fine markings; price reasonable. 230 Valley St., Willimantic. Tel. 724-4. nov29

FOR SALE—Livestock

FOR SALE—30 Guernsey and Holstein grade cows. Just arrived from Wisconsin. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon, 30. 6tnov29

AUCTION

L. J. WILCOX .... Auctioneer

AUCTION

I will sell at Public Auction, at my Storehouse on Lebanon Ave., Colchester, Conn., MONDAY, December 1, 1930, at 12:30 p. m. sharp, the following:

3 Breakfast Sets, Dining Room Sets, 6 Bureaus, 4 Dressers, Chairs, Rocking Chairs, Chairs of all Kinds, 3 Graphaphones, 4 Parlor Stoves, 2 Kitchen Stoves, 1 Davenport, Rugs, Carpets Tables, 1 Roller Top Desk (small), Small Stands, 1 Leather Couch, 2 Pianos, Beds, Mattresses (almost new), 1 Singer Sewing Machine, 4 Drop Leaf Tables, 3 Pair Andirons, Pictures, Glassware, Dishes of all Kinds, Books, 2 Wagons and Other Articles Too Numerous to Mention.

Sale Rain or Shine
In Storehouse if Rainy

Mr. Liverant purchased the above list from an Estate and all are in first class condition.

NATHAN LIVERANT,
Lebanon Ave. Colchester, Conn.

WANTED—Female

WANTED— Housekeeper around 50 years for lone man. Good home with small wages. Address Box 616, Bulletin 3tnov27

WANTED— A widower, unincumbered, Protestant, with a modern home in a country section, wishes a widow, accordingly, of middle age, as a companion housekeeper. Must be of a good family, and be well recommended. To the right person a good home awaits her. A full description of the applicant will be necessary in order to receive a reply. Box 332, Norwich Bulletin. 5tnov25

RADIO REPAIRS

—CALL 2880—
Radio Service Our Specialty
SMITH'S RADIO STORE

LEGAL NOTICES

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 28th day of November A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Max Schwartz, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executor cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

ABNER SCHWARTZ, Executor.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 28th day of November A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Mariah H. Fay, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Charles L. Stewart, of Norwich, Conn., Trustee of said estate appeared in Court and filed his resignation as such Trustee, together with a full accounting, and praying for the reasons therein set forth, that the same be accepted.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 2d day of December A. D. 1930, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—AUTOMOTIVE

FOR SALE—1929 Chrysler 75 roadster, 1929 Whippet coupe, 1928 Chrysler 72 sedan, 1927 Chrysler 70 roadster, 1927 Jordan coupe, 1926 Dodge sedan. Many others. Cash or terms. 2 Bath St. Next to Bailey's Garage.

FOR SALE — Demonstrators, very small mileage: 1930 Marmon-Roosevelt sedan, $795; 1930 Marmon-Roosevelt coupe, rumble seat, $795; 1930 Chrysler roadster, rumble seat, $795; 1924 Buick sedan, extra good, $150; 1928 Chevrolet 1-ton truck, $300. 12 other good second hand trucks, from $50 up. T. R. Sadd, 1086 Main St. Willimantic. 3tnov27

USED CARS
All Makes, Models and Prices All in A-1 Condition
1 1930 Club Sedan—New
1 1930 ½-Ton Roadster. Del.—New
THESE CARS ARE NEW AND AT REDUCED PRICES
Our prices are the Lowest and Our Terms the Easiest
The Austin Chevrolet Co.
82-90 North Main Street
Open Evenings and Sundays
Telephone 202

Business Notices

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

WANTED—Second-hand antique furniture Best prices paid A Bruckner 100 Franklin St Phone 555

LOUIS D WARD Antique and second hand furniture bought and sold. 6 Main St Norwich Tel 1833 tfjw3

CLEANERS AND DYERS

WE CALL & DELIVER FREE
MENS-SUITS-TOPCOATS LADIES PLAIN COATS ETC. CLEANED & PRESSED
$1
PHONE 2060
CLEANERS & DYERS of EVERYTHING SPECIAL ATTENTION LADIES WORK
Russell's
DOLLAR CLEANERS

CONTRACTORS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street

G. E. Boucher
GENERAL CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER
Estimates Cheerfully Given
Phones 1530 or 679

DENTISTS

Dr. Alfred Richards
DENTIST
DISCO BUILDING
Office Hours: 9 to 12 A. M.; 1:30 to 5 P. M. Evenings by appointment only.
Telephone 299.

ELECTRICAL

ROSS
Order now and save a nice discount. Write me and I will call
OLSON BARN EQUIPMENT
KOHLER ELECTRIC PLANTS
DE LAVALL MILKERS AND SEPARATORS
DODD LIGHTNING RODS
W. P. HOLMES
Pachaug

HOSPITAL

ST. TERESA PRIVATE MATERNITY Hospital, room weekly, $35; semi, $28; ward, $17.50. Also aged invalid, charge according to condition; Home-like. Tel 2124 Norwich, Conn. ju30

MONEY TO LOAN

NEED MONEY QUICKLY?
CASH LOANS OF $10 to $300
Within 24 Hours
Small Monthly Repayments—Come in for full information—Just Phone or Write.
The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.
Personal Finance Co.
257 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.
Room 307, Disco Building

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

ANSWERS TO WHAT DO YOU KNOW

1. —Three.
2. —F. L. Allen, Nichols & Harris, Seth Smith.
3. —Nos. 33 State, 11 Bank and 28 State streets, respectively.
4. —Waterford.
5. —1662.
6. —In bounding a grant of six acres located betwixt Neck fence and Jordan river.
7. —George Chapple.
8. —Josiah Standish.

Business Notices

INSURANCE

"What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult to each other?"
—George Eliott.
EDWIN V. ROSS
INSURANCE
63 Broadway
Call 2424

VACATION
is over for your residence
HEATING BOILER.
Is it ready for the WINTER'S WORK?
BOILER INSURANCE
not only protects you against explosion and cracked sections, BUT it also includes Periodic Inspections by a competent Boiler Engineer
B. P. Learned & Co.
Norwich, Conn. Tel. 228
The Insurance Service Station

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

HARTFORD STEAM BOILER INSPECTION & INSURANCE CO. Hartford, Conn.
W. R. C. Corson, President [illegible]

TREES AND SHRUBS

MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs East Great Plain. Tel. 926-7

TRUCKING

JOSLYN—Excellent storage. Mover of teaming and auto vans at your service, everything; expressing, freight handling.

VETINARIAN

Dr. Robert Globus
VETERINARIAN
PHONE 2824
OFFICE AND HOSPITAL
758 Boswell Ave. Norwich Conn.

SOCIAL CORNER

(Continued from Page Eight)

his sister as Ed was blue-eyed and blond and I dark. We saw his home at Chatham, but I had no desire to go there. I have read all his books and often think of him as I saw him the first time.

I wonder if any sister has read "Specialist," by Chick. If not, don't, unless you are past middle-age and have lived on a farm long ago. To me it's great, but my daughter couldn't see anything at all in it. I like "Laughing Boy," LeTorge and stories like The Selbies, Dodworth, that takes in Paris life and places.

Silent Partner: At the shop at Colchester they have remnants in packages, 40 pounds, but I go there and get it from waist box in strips and small pieces. All colors cost the same.

My letter is too long to talk of Christmas gifts. Was glad to see the Corner full of letters. All write again, soon.

SUSANNA.

CLUB MEETING DEC. 10

Dear Social Corner Sisters: Club No. 1 will again hold its next meeting, Dec. 10th, in the Y. M. C. A., as the chamber of commerce rooms aren't ready. As it is the Christmas month, I would like to have each sister bring a small gift. We will have a box and exchange gifts as in past years. Hoping to see good weather and also a good crowd. Please bring dishes and silver as usual and something good to eat.

TOO LATE.

A TERRIBLE SEA TRAGEDY

Dear Social Corner Editor and Readers: There are a few holidays that don't carry with them some story of tragedy.

There are none of recent years that struck the New England homes of many with such force as the tragedy of the wreck of the steamer Atlantic owned and operated by the Norwich and Worcester railroad. On Thursday, Thanksgiving morning, November 26, 1846, this splendid new steamer was wrecked on the rock bound coast of Fishers Island, with a loss of the lives of 42 men, women and children.

Many homes throughout New England were made homes of mourning by this terrible sea tragedy. The final act came on the early morning of the 27th when the cable of the large anchor parted. The vessel, being struck by a tremendous sea, was at once thrown with mighty force onto the jagged rocky shore. Not many minutes elapsed before that boat, loaded with human freight, was a total wreck, carrying to a watery grave 42 human beings. What a sorrowful and sad Thanksgiving for those who eagerly watched for the home-coming of those who never came.

I was then two years and three months and three days old. No, I don't remember it but the story of that mournful tragedy was told to me in after years by my mother's cousin, Hiram Tarbox, who was a passenger on the ill-fated steamer; he being on his way to New York to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Mr. Tarbox saved his life by watching a certain breaker; he jumped, being buoyed up by his large leather suit case. He landed on the rocks out of reach of the next incoming breaker, badly bruised and nearly frozen. Before his death Mr. Tarbox presented this life saving suit case to an old friend, William Johnson, a well known gentleman; a jeweler, of Danielson, Conn.

The following story is told of a certain wag who lived in the town of Lisbon many years ago. A neighbor meeting the wag one day in the early spring, said: "Well, Colonel Preston. I haven't seen you lately! How have you been this winter and how have you busied yourself."

"Well, replied the colonel, "you know they have been very short of water down in New York, so to help them out, I have been very busy digging wells and storing them up and shipping them down to the city. You know, I am always willing to help those out who are in trouble."

Here is one on myself. In the winter of 1865 I was a full fledged "tin peddler" in the employ of Amos Bill of Scotland. My route was from Hazardville, Conn., through the northern part of the state. It was late in the afternoon. I was looking for a place (a farm house) to stay all night. I was nearing the hamlet of Abington Four Corners. I saw a man (a jolly fisherman) busy with chores near his house. I asked him if he could keep me and horse over night. He replied "he would be glad to, but, as they had a large family, he hadn't accommodations, but, no doubt, I could find accommodations at the village just beyond. It has been a cold day and I bet you are pretty cold; won't you come in and have a drink of good whiskey to warm you?" I said, "No, thank you, I wouldn't drink a glass of whiskey for $5."

"Ah, begorry, I think if I put you to bed in a room with a glass of whiskey and a $5 bill on the table, I would get up in the morning and find them both gone," he replied. There was no disposition on my part for an argument.

I found accommodations at a very nice place at the Corners near the church, where, with the family, I attended a very nice church supper.

QUID-NUNC

DIED

SWEENEY — In New London, Mary Margaret, widow of John Sweeney.

PAYNE—In Pawcatuck (Stonington), Nov. 25, 1930, suddenly, Walter John Payne of Westerly, aged 48.

RANEY—In Norwich, Nov. 25, 1930, John Raney, aged 67 years.

ZAWISTOWSKI—In Jewett City, Nov. 26, 1930, Antonio Zawistowski, of 22 Dime St.

LEFFINGWELL—In Norwich, Nov. 26, 1930, Orrin Bradford Leffingwell, aged 81 years.

TRACY—In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 27, 1930, Frank W. Tracy, aged 69 years, formerly of Norwich.

TYLER—Suddenly, in Sterling, Conn., Nov. 27, 1930, Kenneth Clarence Tyler, aged 5 years, 11 months.

BEHNKE — In Jewett City, Nov. 27, 1930, Rose Behnke, wife of Alexander Behnke

GRAY—At the Westerly hospital, Westerly, R. I., Nov. 28, 1930, Luther Calvin Gray, aged 73 years.

SHERBURNE — At Uncas-on-Thames, Norwich, Nov. 20, 1930, Albert Norwood Sherburne, of New London, aged 42.

PECK— At Old Lyme, Nov. 20, 1930 Martha D., widow of Walter S. Peck, aged 76.

BENNETT—In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 20, 1930, Palmedus Wilcox Bennett, aged 88.

GEARY— In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 20, 1930, Annie Pendleton Allen, wife of Herbert Geary, aged 48.

KANE — In Windsor Locks, Conn., Nov. 22, 1930, Matthew F. Kane, formerly of this city.

MOODY—In Canterbury, Conn., Nov. 20, 1930, Allen A. Moody, in his 67th year.

PALMER—In Norwich, Nov. 21, 1930, Miss Hattie B. Palmer, aged 62 years.

RATHBUN — In Norwich, Nov. 21, 1930, Bridget Rathbun, wife of Charles Rathbun, formerly of Jewett City.

WALLACE—In Griswold, suddenly, Patrick Wallace of Lisbon.

MOORE — Suddenly in Norwich, Nov. 21, 1930, Arthur Wilfred Moore, aged 47 years, formerly of Passaic, N. J.

DUDLEY — In North Madison, Conn., Nov. 18, 1930, Ellison Curtis Dudley, aged 83.

CORCORAN—In this city, Nov. 23, 1930, Mary, wife of the late Michael Corcoran, of 33 Prospect street.

JONES—At East Lyme, Nov. 22, 1930, Emma C. Howard, widow of Jonathan Jones.

READ—In Norwich, Nov. 23, 1930, William Read, formerly of New Haven, aged 67 years.

IBBISON—In this city, Nov. 22, 1930, Thomas Ibbison, Sr., aged 75 years.

MARRIED

PONEDEL-DORELL— In New London, Nov. 25, 1930, by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, Irving Ponedel, of Waterford and Anna Dorell, of New London.

CASEY-MAINES —In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 24, 1930, by Rev. Fr. J. F. Vincent, James Joseph Casey of Westerly and Miss Evelyn Malissa Maines of Wyoming, R. I.

SMITH-SUTCLIFFE— In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 26, 1930, by Rev. Fr. J. F. Vincent, James Henry Smith, of Stonington and Miss Helen Elizabeth Sutcliffe, of Westerly.

CURLEY-LAMOUREUX—In Pawcatuck (Stonington), Nov. 23, 1930, by Rev. Fr. J. F. X. Quinn, Walter Curley, of New London and Miss Lena Lamoureux, of Pawcatuck.

DERICK-BARNARD —At the Congregational parsonage, Lebanon, Nov. 22, 1930, by Rev. Walter Vey, Clarence J. Derick and Miss Martha G. Barnard, both of Hartford, Conn.

RECINE-MARIANI—In Mystic, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. John P. Kennedy, Charles John Recine, of New London and Miss Mary Camilla Mariani, of Mystic.

FRASER-ECCLESTON — At Norwich Town, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. Wilfred N. Wilton, William Russell Fraser and Miss Ruth Elizabeth Eccleston.

RICHARDS-VOECH—In Norwich, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May, Walter Henry Richards of Uncasville and Miss Marian Madaline Voech of Perry avenue.

RUSSILLO-CURTO —In Norwich, Nov 27, 1930, by Rev. John J. Reilly, Joseph Rossillo of Happy street and Miss Angelina Curto of 223 Maple street.

TUBER-ZALTAS — In Colchester, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rabbi M. A. Tankel of Norwich, Benjamin M. Tuber of Norwich and Miss Sarah Zaltas of Putnam.

SUNDERLAND-OLSSON — In Norwich, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. C. H. Ricketts, Dr. William A. Sunderland of Danbury and Miss Estelle Charlotte Olsson of 158 Roosevelt avenue.

REX-BALCZUN— In Norwich, Nov. 27, 1930, by Rev. S. A. Iciek, Walter Rex of Taftville and Miss Victoria E. Balczun of 36 Spaulding street.

VISCIGLIO-MICCIONTUONO — In Norwich, Nov. 24, 1930, by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael H. May, Bert Visciglio of New York and Miss Isabelle Micciontuono of 272 Franklin street, Norwich.

O'BRIEN-McKEON—In Branford, Conn., Nov. 24, 1930, by Rev. Thomas J. Murray, Walter D. O'Brien, of New London and Miss Marian Frances McKeon, of Branford.

WURLETTE-NEWMAN —In Coventry, Nov. 17, 1930, by Rev. J. N. Atwood Alfons Wurlette and Mrs. Sarah Newman.

NEIL-ROYCE — In this city, Nov. 22, 1930, by Rev. David A. Pitt, D. D., Lloyd E. Neil, of New Britain, and Miss Marion Royce, of 1 Willey place.

PIERCE-LEZARDE— In New London, Nov. 22, 1930, by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth, Raymond W. Pierce of Mystic and Eleanore S. Lezarde of New London.

ALLEN-CLARK — In West Hartford Oct. 25, 1930, by Rev. Thomas M. Hodgdon, Charles Louis Allen, Jr., of 594 Main street, Norwich, and Miss Violet Amanda Clark of 136 Raymond road, West Hartford.

VISCIGLIO-MICCIANTUONO— In Norwich, Nov. 24, 1930, by Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May, Bert Visciglio of New York city and Miss Isabelle Micciantuono of 272 Franklin street.

NEIL-ROYCE— In Norwich, Nov. 22, 1930, by Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, Lloyd E. Neil of New Britain and Miss Marion Royce of 1 Willey place, Norwich.

SISSON-MISARSKY—In this city, Nov. 24, 1930, by Rev. William J. Topor, Haywood L. Sisson of Palmertown and Mrs. Josephine Misarsky, of No. 30 Rose street.

PETTINI-MOROSINI— In Mystic, Nov. 24, 1930, by Rev John P. Kennedy, Peter Pettini, of New London and Miss Lucy Morosini, of Mystic.

BORN

TOMBARI—In Norwich, Nov. 22, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tombari, of Washington street, (Anna Bowdon).

PARKHURST—At New London, Nov. 26, 1930, a daughter to Capt. and Mrs. George C. Parkhurst, of Springfield, Mass.

AUSTIN —In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 22, 1930, a son, Roland Barber, to Charles William and Lucy Ellen Thorpe Barber of Ashaway.

SCHLAFF—At Stafford Springs, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schlaff of Somers.

SMITH— In Westerly, R. I., Nov. 26, 1930, a son, Arthur Dennison, to Richard Joseph and Emily Crandall Smith.

CARLISLE—At New London, Nov. 21, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Price Carlisle.

FRENCH—At New London, Nov. 20, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Carl French.

CHRISTOPHERSEN— At New London, Nov. 20, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Christophersen.

PIJEAUX—At New London, Nov. 21, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pijeaux.

ORAZI—At New London, Nov. 21, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Orazi.

GREEN—At New London, Nov. 20, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. David E. Green.

HOXIE—In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, Nov. 21, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hoxie of 30 Hamilton avenue.

ROCHE—In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, Nov. 21, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. John Roche of 68 Dunham street.

VILLETTO — On Watch Hill road, Nov. 19, 1930, a daughter, Edna Nettie, to George and Nettie Edna Villetto.

SAVAGE — In Norwich, Nov. 11 1930, at 104 North Main street, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Savage

BANKER— In Wequetequock (Stonington), Nov. 21, 1930, a son, Donald Courtland, to Mr. and Mrs. John Banker.

BRUNO — In Pawcatuck (Stonington) Nov. 22, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Bruno.

ITALIANO —In Westerly, R. I., Nov 23, 1930, a son, Joseph, to Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Italiano.

AUSTIN—At Hopkinton, R. I., Nov. 23 1930, a son to Mr and Mrs. Charles W. Austin, Jr.

DUPRE—In Norwich at the Backus hospital, Nov. 24, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dupre of 74 Sunnyside, Yantic.

STANLEY A. WEAVER CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT AT NEW LONDON

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Nov. 28.—Stanley A. Weaver, 29 Spring street, until recently employed by the Groton and Stonington Traction company in this city as cashier, was arrested this afternoon, charged with embezzlement of funds of the company in the sum of $830. In default of a surety on his bond Weaver was locked up and will be in the police court tomorrow.

A shortage in Weaver's accounts was discovered a brief time ago and when a check-up was made, it was found that the former cashier had collected money belonging to the company and had applied it to his own use. Complaint was made to Prosecuting Attorney Max Boyer and that official today issued a warrant for Weaver's arrest. The warrant was given to Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh and the officer arrested Weaver at his home.

Stanley P. White, of North Stonington, was arrested in Preston yesterday by State Police Officer Clarence Hoxie, charged with reckless driving.

BAD MAN FRANK DAVIS HAS 10TH ST. PLACE RAIDED

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Nov. 28.—The police late this afternoon raided the residence of Frank (Bad Man) Davis, on Tenth street, for, according to the police, the house is also being conducted as a booze resort. Davis was arrested on a charge of maintaining a house of ill fame and was released upon furnishing a surety on his bond of $250. Frank Lane, a comparative stranger in this vicinity, was arrested on a charge of violation of the liquor law and was unable to procure a surety on his bond of $1000. Anna Paul, a character well known to the police, was arrested on charges of frequenting a house of ill fame, intoxication and breach of the peace. Anna did not succeed in obtaining a surety on her bond of $200 and was locked up. John J. Sheehan, 37, married, residing at 71 Crystal avenue, was arrested on a charge of frequenting. He secured a surety on his bond of $50 and was released. The three men and the woman will be presented in the police court tomorrow. The police received information as to the nature of the business being promoted at Davis' home and a raiding squad consisting of Detective Sergeants John Cavanaugh and Nelson Smith, Sergeant Patrick Murphy, Automobile Patrol Officer William Corcoran and Patrolmen George Laboue and Walter Rean swooped down upon the alleged den of vice and arrested all they found there. The raiders claim that Sheehan purchased a pint of liquor of Lane and co-habited with the Paul woman. Davis, who is a contracting mason and who claims to be 80, has been arrested several times. The last time, prior to today that he was arrested was July 7 last, when he was charged with violation of the liquor law as a result of his home being raided. When the case was called in the police court, however, a nolle was ordered.

Fred Harrison, 209 Bank street, reported to the police this afternoon that his bicycle had been stolen.

BACHELOR PARTY AND GIFT FOR OFFICER MORIARTY

Patrolman Cornelius Moriarty, who will become a benedict within a few days, was tendered a farewell party tonight by members of the middle trick of the department of which the officer is a member. The function was held in the police gymnasium at midnight, a half hour after the officers of this shift reported off duty. The affair was entirely informal and the time was spent in a social manner by feasting. During the course of the festivities, Officer Moriarty was presented an electric clock, the gift of his associate-officers. Next Monday morning at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, Officer Moriarty will wed Miss Ella D. Bliven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bliven, of 16 Lincoln avenue.

A summer cottage at Mago Point, Waterford, owned by a New Haven resident, was destroyed by fire last night. When the fire was discovered the cottage was enveloped in flames, making a vivid reflection. Waterford and Niantic hose companies got out, but when the firemen arrived the cottage was doomed and the work of the fire-fighters was devoted to saving nearby buildings for a strong wind prevailed. The cottage was unoccupied. The origin of the fire has not been determined.

Able To Leave Hospital

Three of the seven men and women injured in an automobile collision near the Fred Stone ranch, Lyme hill, East Lyme, early yesterday, were discharged at Lawrence Memorial hospital during the day, the patients refusing to remain at the hospital after their injuries, consisting of lacerations and contusions, had been dressed. They left on their own responsibility and were: William Kirby, 43, of Danvers, Mass.; Margaret Millins, 27, Peabody, Mass., and Nora Millins, 29, Dorchester, Mass. The crash resulted when the auto Kirby was driving rounded a curve and crashed with another Massachusetts auto.

WEDDING

O'Connor—Vodick

John J. O'Connor, Milford, N. H., and Miss Elizabeth Vodick, Waterford, were married last Tuesday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, the nuptial mass being sung by the pastor, Rev. S. J. Nalcwajk. Andrew Hamilton was best man and Miss Margaret Miller, attended the bride.

William A. Fones, 172 Willets avenue, who has been seriously ill with heart disease for many weeks, with Mrs. Fones, spent the holiday with their son, Byron A. Fones, in Meriden.

Rev. C. B. Reagan returned to Trenton, N. J., today, having enjoyed the holiday as the guest of relatives.

Tramp Room Filled

The tramp room at police headquarters is filled to overflowing almost nightly now, especially as real cold weather has set in. Some of the applicants for lodging are neatly dressed, but the men are without employment and funds. The Salvation Army soup kitchen is also being sought by a large number of unemployed; twice daily soup is given to a large gathering of men and youths.

ADD NEW LONDON— ....

[illegible]

BITES EAR AND FINGER OF GUEST AT A PARTY

William Fusconi, 35, of Groton, was arrested late last night, charged with mayhem, and will be presented in Groton town court Monday next. The arrest of Fusconi was the result of his engaging in a fight with Dominick Cedio, 38, and using his teeth to obtain a victory, more so than his fists.

Because of the holiday, Cedio entertained a number of friends at his home, 16 Denison avenue. While the festivities were in progress, Fusconi and Cedio engaged in a quarrel, which gradually assumed a serious aspect. Finally Fusconi and Cedio began fighting and during the battle Fusconi resorted to his teeth as a more combative weapon than his fists, with the result that Cedio's ear and one finger were nearly severed. When the fighters were separated by other attendants at the party, complaint was made to the state police and Fusconi was arrested by Officers John Smith and William E. MacKenzie. Cedio's ear and finger were so badly lacerated that they hung by mere shreds of flesh and numerous stitches were required by a physician who was summoned to treat the injured man. Fusconi and Cedio are well known in Groton.

Young Auto Thieves Escape

The state police were unsuccessful last midnight in apprehending a pair of youthful thieves, who stole from an automobile and attempted to steal gasoline from a filling station. The youths occupied a closed automobile and while in Mystic they were observed to go to a parked automobile and steal a suitcase. They drove toward New London and were unsuccessful in obtaining gasoline from the pump at the filling station because they realized that they were being followed, for Charles Williams, of Mystic, had given chase in an automobile when he saw the theft of the suitcase committed. The auto the crooks used, however, quickly outdistanced the pursuing car.

HANCOCK HEARING GOES OVER FOR TWO WEEKS

The continued case of Vincent Hancock, Newark, N. J., arrested here a fortnight ago charged with smuggling and conspiring to defraud the federal government, was called before United States Commissioner Russell H. Corcoran this afternoon at 2:30. Upon request of counsel for Hancock, the case was continued another two weeks. Hancock was arrested here upon request of department of justice officials of New Jersey who, it is understood, had sought Hancock several years; for it is claimed that he is a member of a mammoth gang of booze racketeers. Hancock and his companions had been in New London from time to time and when that information was obtained by the federal authorities a request for his arrest was made. The following day after the request was received, Hancock was detected driving toward Hartford, on Broad street, by Automobile Patrol Officer Elwood Bailey. A short time after being in custody, Hancock obtained a surety on his bond of $5,000.

HIGHSTRUNG AND CREW ARE ORDERED DISCHARGED

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Nov. 28.—The speed boat Highstrung, recently seized by the United States coast guard as a rum-runner, was ordered released and the crew of three men, Charles Johnson, Brooklyn, N. Y.; James Ferrara, New York, and Joe Brown, Sayville, N. Y., were ordered discharged, because of lack of evidence. The speed boat was seized by the crew of a patrol boat off this port two weeks ago when her movements attracted the attention of coast guardsmen. No liquor was found on the Highstrung, but the allegation was that the boat had long been suspected of engaging in the rum traffic by receiving cargoes from a supply ship and then transporting the load to Montauk Point or points along the southern New England shore.

WEDDING

St. Germain—Foley

Clarence E. St. Germain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ulderic St. Germain, Waterford, and Miss Delia Foley, daughter of Mrs. Thomas F. Foley, 102 Connecticut avenue, were married Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. James W. Roche. Michael Foley, brother of the bride, was best man, and Mrs. John Hancock, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Mr. and Mrs. St. Germain are now enjoying their wedding tour and upon its conclusion will reside on Broad street extension. Mr. St. Germain is a carpenter by occupation.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Mabel Sophie Berntsen daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berntsen, of Waterford, and Forest W. Thayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Thayer, also of Waterford.

Frenald—Hraborecki

Lloyd W. Frenald, United States coast guard, and Helen M. Hraborecki, of East Lyme, were married yesterday at the parsonage of the First Church of Christ by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth.

Edward Connelly, of 25 Whittlesey street; Mariana Considine, 29 Cottage street; Mrs. Gustav Christophersen and infant son, 33 Hamilton street; Jack Kaminsky, Poquonoc road, Groton; John and Mary Spinnato, 31 Jefferson avenue; Mrs. Carrie E. Stone, Waterford; Mrs. Louis Weismuller, North road, Poquonoc; Mrs. Philip G. Nichols and infant son, 42 Nameaug avenue, patients at Lawrence Memorial hospital were discharged Thursday and today.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Charles Burrows

Mrs. Martha E. Burrows, widow of Charles Burrows, formerly of Pleasure Beach, Waterford, died this week in Jacksonville, Fla., where she had made her home in recent years. The body will be brought to New London for funeral and burial.

Edward F. Canning, Jr.

Edward F. Canning, Jr., 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Canning, 95 Elm street, died this morning at the private hospital from a ruptured appendix. The boy had been a patient there but a short time. Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, Lawrence, Leroy and John Canning.

FUNERAL

Mrs. John Sweeney

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Margaret Sweeney, widow of John Sweeney, of Huntington street, was held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church and was attended by a great number of mourners. The high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. James W. Roche. The bearers were John L. Larkin, John Flanagan, John Birmingham, John Corcoran, Christopher Barry and Thomas Hanley. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery where Rev. Fr. Roche conducted the committal service.

The commissioner of motor vehicles today ordered the suspension of the drivers' licenses of William Wheeler, 22 Reed street; Arthur Deimel, 259 Williams street, and Frank Pollard, 30 Eastern avenue. Commissioner Stoeckel also ordered the return of the driver's license of Andrew Triono, 687 Bank street.

An automobile driven by Charles Drenjewski, 23 Cedar street, hit a trolley car of the Connecticut company on Main street, corner of Pierce street, this afternoon. The automobile sustained damage, but the driver escaped injury.

William J. Porter, 740 Ocean avenue, today reported to the police that a spare tire was stolen from his automobile last night while the car was parked in front of the owner's residence.

LURBEY, DESPONDENT, TEMPTED TO STEAL CAR

Perley Lurbey, 21, ex-service man, residing at 108 Golden street, was in the police court this morning, charged with automobile theft. He was held for trial at the next term of the superior court and in default of bail of $750 was remanded to jail. Lurbey was arrested in Boston Wednesday midnight, charged with driving without a license. It then developed that the car he had been driving, a Chevrolet coupe, was owned by Thomas Coates, 96 Hempstead street, this city, and was a stolen auto. Detective Sergeant Nelson Smith went to Boston yesterday and returned with the prisoner last night. Lurbey said that Wednesday he was despondent because of being out of work and because his landlady had informed him not to return to the rooming house unless he could pay the sum that he owed. He said that he intended to go to the Thames river highway bridge and end his life by leaping into the river. On his way to the bridge and while passing through Mill street, he observed the automobile parked and entering it, drove away. Lurkey said that he went from New London to Hartford and then to Worcester, finally arriving at Boston where he was held up by a patrolman and arrested.

Struck Girl In Face

A. J. Potenza, a sailor, stationed at the submarine base, was charged with breach of the peace. He was fined $10 and costs and paid. Potenza and a girl friend had attended a dance and when they started for home last midnight, the couple went to a State street doorway where they engaged in a quarrel, Potenza finally striking the girl a blow on the face. Patrolman William Riordan, who was nearby, arrested Potenza.

CASE AGAINST MANAGER TOO TRIVIAL FOR HEARING

Alfred J. Herskowitz, manager of the Crown theatre, was charged with breach of the peace, but the facts in the hands of Prosecutor Max Boyer relative to the charge against Herskowitz being of such a trivial nature, a nolle was requested and granted. Herskowitz was arrested last night upon complaint of Robert "Chick" Gaines, former service man, residing at Ridgewood park, Waterford. The theatre manager and Gaines engaged in a heated controversy in the lobby of the theatre over Gaines not tendering a ticket for admission to the theatre to the doorman and when Gaines made complaint to Patrolman William Riordan, Herskowitz was arrested.

A laborer, charged with intoxication, was fined $10 and costs. He could not pay, so went to jail for a stay of three weeks.

A Boston man, charged with intoxication, was given suspension of judgment. He was arrested on North Bank street last night by Patrolman Cornelius Moriarty.

NO. GROSVENORDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Auburn, R. I., were Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emil Johnson entertained their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boehm of Pawtucket, at Thanksgiving dinner.

The first annual firemen's ball held at the Community house Thanksgiving eve was well attended.

Mrs. E. Langlois spent the holiday with her daughter, Mrs. Alvin Lachance, of Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Seney had as guests at dinner yesterday their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Uldee Seney and sons Gerard and George.

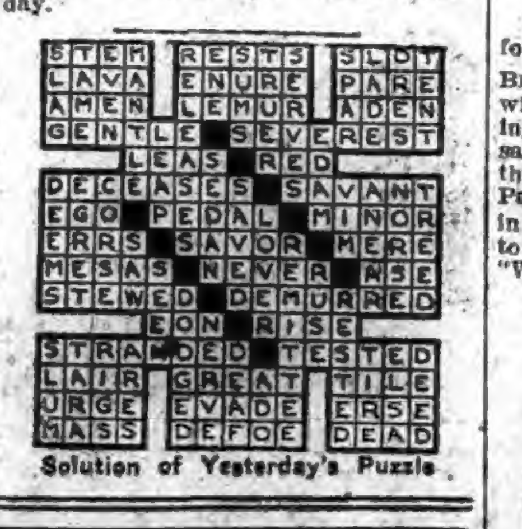
Edward Seney, Paul Norseux and J. Norseux were among local people attending the Southbridge-Webster football game Thursday forenoon at Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelard Lachapelle entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Lachapelle at Thanksgiving dinner.

The four large tanks being erected by the Grosvenordale company to contain fuel to be used with the burners that will soon be put in the plant are at their destination in the mill yard, the last two being moved from the N. Y., N. H. and H. siding this week.

Tourtellotte Alumni basketball five defeated the Tourtellotte high school squad in their first game at the high school gymnasium Thanksgiving eve The final score stood 60 to 27. Jerry O'Brien, sophomore, was high scorer for Tourtellotte while Bousquet and Dan Chubbuck were the high scorers for the Alumni five. The lineups: Alumni: R. Mahew, c; Chubbuck, lg; St. Marie, rg; Bousquet, rf; L. Johnson, lf; Veto, rg, Maitland, sub. Tourtellotte: W. Chubbuck, c; Blanchette, lg; Seney, lg; Johnson, rf; Demetry, rg; Sherry, lf; Tefft, rg; O'Brien, rf, Russell Blid, refereed the game while Louis Auger was timer and P. Demeter scorer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fruppler and daughter Elaine of New Haven were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Carlson Thursday.



S	T	E	M		R	E	S	T	S		S	L	O	T
L	A	V	A		E	N	U	R	E		P	A	R	E
A	M	E	N		L	E	M	U	R		A	D	E	N
G	E	N	T	L	E	■	S	E	V	E	R	E	S	T
			L	E	A	S	■	R	E	D
D	E	C	E	A	S	E	S	■	S	A	V	A	N	T
E	G	O	■	P	E	D	A	L	■	M	I	N	O	R
E	R	R	S	■	S	A	V	O	R	■	M	E	R	E
M	E	S	A	S	■	N	E	V	E	R	■	A	S	E
S	T	E	W	E	D	■	D	E	M	U	R	R	E	D
				E	O	N	■	R	I	S	E
S	T	R	A	N	D	E	D	■	T	E	S	T	E	D
L	A	I	R		G	R	E	A	T		T	I	L	E
U	R	G	E		E	V	A	D	E		E	R	S	E
M	A	S	S		D	E	F	O	E		D	E	A	D

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

RADIO PROGRAMMES

SATURDAY, Nov. 29

303—SPRINGFIELD, WBZ—990

12.05 p. m.—New England Agriculture; Produce Market Review; Farm and Home hour.
1.30 p. m.—St. Regis orchestra.
2.00 p. m.—Blue Chasers.
2.15 p. m.—Football; Notre Dame against Army at Chicago.
5.00 p. m.—Uncle Bill and the Twins; "We're in the Army Now"; Stock quotations; Evening Stars; Tip-Top Roadman.
6.03 p. m.—Sport Digest; Riverside Ramblers; McCoy Boys; Topics in Brief, Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters; Sandy MacFarlane's Chimney Swallows.
8.00 p. m.—Dixies Circus; Rin-Tin-Tin Thriller; Fuller Man.
9.00 p. m.—Gilbert and Barker Variety hour; Dutch Masters Minstrels.
10.00 p. m.—Chicago Civic Opera.
11.03 p. m.—Statler orchestra.

283—HARTFORD, WTIC—1060

12.00 noon—Farm and Home forum.
12.30 p. m.—Bond trio.
1.25 p. m.—Knights of Melody and Ilima Islanders.
2.15 p. m.—Edith Drescott Woodcock, contralto.
2.30 p. m.—Leo Joseffer, 'cellist.
3.00 p. m.—Daytime Dancers with Verne Makin, crooner.
4.00 p. m.—Hank Keene and his Connecticut Hill Billies.
4.30 p. m.—American Game Protective talk, "Tragic Love."
4.45 p. m.—Ilima Islanders.
5.00 p. m.—Sunset Hour with Ruth Ekberg, soloist.
6.00 p. m.—"Mother Goose," Besie Lillian Taft.
6.15 p. m.—Highlights in sport.
6.30 p. m.—Mary Oliver concert.

454—NEW YORK, WEAF—660

12.00 m.—Elgin program; On Wings of Song.
1.00 p. m.—The Skyliners—dance band.
2.00 p. m.—Melody Three—string trio.
3.00 p. m.—The Marionettes.
4.30 p. m.—Mellow melodies.
4.45 p. m.—Dartmouth-Stanford football game.
7.30 p. m.—Silver Flute.
8.00 p. m.—Football scores; Salon Singers—mixed chorus; Careless Love—Negro sketch.
9.00 p. m.—General Electric hour—Walter Damrosch, conducting; "Adventures in Science," Floyd Gibbons.
11.00 p. m.—Troubadour of the Moon—Lannie Ross, tenor with string trio; Horace Heidt orchestra.
12.00 m.—Rudy Vallee orchestra.

394—NEW YORK, WJZ—760

12 (noon)—Luncheon ensemble; National Farm and Home hour.
1.30 p. m.—Vincent Lopez orchestra.
2.05 p. m.—Blue Chasers.
2.15 p. m.—Army-Notre Dame football game. Announcer Graham McNamee.
5.00 p. m.—Campus Carollers, male octet.
5.15 p. m.—Stock Market Reports.
5.30 p. m.—Blue Aces.
6.00 p. m.—Raising Junior; Saltsman's orchestra; football scores; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters—male trio; Mellow 'cello; Pickard Family, southern folk songs.
8.00 p. m.—Dixies Circus; "Rin-Tin-Tin Thriller"; Fuller Man—Earle Spicer, baritone; male quartet.
9.00 p. m.—Edwin Stanley Seder, organist; Dutch Masters Minstrels, male quartet.
10.00 p. m.—Chicago Civic Opera.
11.00 p. m.—Slumber Music, string ensemble.
12.00 p. m.—Phil Spitalny orchestra.

384—NEW YORK, WABC—860

6.00 p. m.—Tom, Dick and Harry; Barbizon Plaza orchestra.
7.00 p. m.—Football scores; The Crockett Mountaineers; Romance of American Industry; Necco Surprise party.
8.00 p. m.—Dixie Echoes, Negro spirituals; Dancing Yesterdays; Wallace Silversmiths
9.00 p. m.—Carborundum hour; National Radio Forum.
10.00 p. m.—Hank Simmons's Show Boat; "The Tinker's Warning."
11.00 p. m.—Mt. Royal orchestra from Montreal; Royal Canadians.
12.00 mid.—Biltmore orchestra; Ann Leaf at the Organ.

422—NEWARK, WOR—710

6.00 p. m.—Uncle Don; Sports period; Aviation, Maj. William M. Purcell.
7.01 p. m.—Varsity Collegians; Montclair Concert Ensemble.
8.01 p. m.—American Legion; Bob Totman and Joe Worms, banjo and piano; St. George Concert orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Character Readings; Manhattan Mandolin orchestra; Greenwich Village orchestra.
10.15 p. m.—Emil Velasco, organ recital; Jones Beach Community; Globe Trotter.
11.03 p. m.—Valle Picardy orchestra; Moonbeams.

508—BOSTON, WEEI—590

4.45 p. m.—Dartmouth-Leland-Stanford, California.
7.45 p. m.—WEEI String ensemble.
8.00 p. m.—Tastyeast Jesters; Smith Brothers.
9.00 p. m.—General Electric band.
10.00 p. m.—Lucky Strike orchestra.
11.00 p. m.—Fishing forecast.

243—BOSTON, WNAC—1230

1.15 p. m.—Football game, Boston college against Holy Cross.
6.00 p. m.—Boston Publix Theatres' program; Rem Merrymakers; Campus Capers, with football scores.
7.00 p. m.—"Mirth Quakers"; The Necco Surprise Party.
8.00 p. m.—Chevrolet Chronicles; Dancing Yesterdays; Wallace Silversmiths.
9.00 p. m.—The Carborundum band; National Radio forum.
10.00 p. m.—Hank Simmons's Show Boat.
11.15 p. m.—Mount Royal orchestra; Royal Canadians.
12.00 p. m.—Biltmore orchestra; Ann Leaf at the organ.

Boarding house proprietress—Cook, I shall have to give notice. You're not quite what I want.

Cook—Oh, ma'am. And I understand the boarders like my cooking very much indeed.

Boarding house proprietress—They do. That's just the trouble.

—Dorset Echo.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broadway Theatre.

"War Nurse," which opens today a four days' engagement at Warner Bros., Broadway theatre, was made with the thought in mind of presenting the woman's side of the war in the same direct, accurate, realistic manner that made such a success of "The Big Parade," outstanding epic of the boys in the trenches. Searching for a story to carry out this idea the frank novel, "War Nurse," was picked which caused so much discussion when it appeared serially in a national magazine.

ROBERT MONTGOMERY and JUNE WALKER in "WAR NURSE"

"War Nurse," which has been called the outstanding talking picture of the year, was adapted by Becky Gardiner from the anonymous novel depicting an entirely new angle of the World war from the viewpoint of the hospital workers. An all-star cast includes Robert Montgomery, Robert Ames, June Walker, Anita Page, Zasu Pitts and Marie Prevost.

Entertainment And Dance

Under the auspices of the Norwich 4-H club an entertainment and dance is to be given this evening at Samuel Huntington school by the men's and women's division of the Y. M. C. A. who will repeat the play which proved so popular when given earlier this month at the Y. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the 4-H club.

Hillcrest Theatre.

Janet Gaynor, whose singing voice was first heard on the screen in "Sunny Side Up," again sings in "High Society Blues," Fox Movietone musical romance to be seen and heard at the Hillcrest Theatre Sunday. Miss Gaynor had three outstanding song hits in "Sunny Side Up," while in her current production she has four.

There will be a matinee at 2 o'clock and two shows in the evening at 6.30 and 8.30.

For Tuesday and Wednesday Mr. Schwartz has booked "Madam Satan," one of the most elaborate productions ever made.

Boy Scout Picture at Y. M. C. A.

The time of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday meeting at the local Y. M. C. A. has been changed from 4 o'clock to 3.30, and at the latter time on the coming Sunday in the large gymnasium the six reel motion picture titled, "The Deerslayer," will be shown. This picture is James Fenimore Cooper's romance of the French-Indian war, and it has been officially dedicated to the Boy Scouts of America. All the picturesque atmosphere and scenic veracity of the book have been preserved. The adventure of the French and Indian wars in the years of 1740 to 1745, when the white man's struggle to gain a foothold in a new country was being bitterly contested by the red man, are depicted in a production historically true. Those were the days when conditions called for very unusual courage and grit and only the men of strength could measure up to the strenuous demands.

On this occasion seats will be reserved in the body of the hall for the Boy Scouts. The public is invited.

Palace Theatre.

Now playing at the Palace, Constance Bennett, the most beautiful young lady of the screen, in her latest and greatest success, "Sin Takes a Holiday," this the one outstanding feature of the season, rich in settings and a wee bit spicy. If you like the paprika of ultra smart dialogue in a sizzling story of modern morals and modern maidens in this snappy, spicy production, wives and sweethearts must see this picture. This is an ultra-smart picture of fashionable life in New York and Paris and the swift-moving action accompanying the development of a thrilling story vests the production with exceptional interest and appeal.

As the secretary of a wealthy divorcee lawyer who makes her his wife so that he might be free to indulge in his hobby—women—then sends her off to Paris alone, only to find her eminently-desirable after she has developed into a lovely woman. Miss Bennett evidenced her complete mastery of ultra-smart society characterizations for which she is famous as star. Her display of fashionable gowns, rich and of vast variety were received with rapt delight by the feminine contingent of the audience. The eminent star was fortunate in the adequacy of her supporting players, the portrayals of Kenneth MacKenna, leading man, Basil Rathbone, Rita La Roy, Louis Bartels, Zasu Pitts, John Roche, Kendall Lee, Helen Johnson, Murrel Finlay and Fred Walton being especially praiseworthy.

This great picture is surrounded by an excellent bill of short features, news, comedy and Vita acts.

NEED MONEY ?

IF YOU CAN'T COME IN JUST 'PHONE!
OUR REPRESENTATIVE WILL CALL
CASH LOANS
$10 to $300
WITHIN 24 HOURS

The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
THIRD FLOOR, DISCO BLDG.
257 MAIN STREET
PHONE 3233
NORWICH, CONN.

10 to 1
It's Your Valves!

When your auto gets wabbly and weak-kneed—gets tired easily when climbing hills—lacks pep and power—you are apt to blame the gas, the carburetor, the ignition, the pistons and rings, when the chances are 10 to 1 that your whole trouble is in your valves!

They need correction—and we specialize in that work. We use the KWIK-WAY SYSTEM of scientific valve correction—the best system known to the automotive industry. Drive in—let us give your car the once-over. 10 to 1 the whole trouble is in your valves.

The Austin Chevrolet Co.
82-90 NORTH MAIN ST., NORWICH, CONN.
Phone 202

CATTLE AUCTION
We Will Sell at Public Auction at the Farm of
F. O. BROWN, New London Turnpike, Colchester, Conn.
On Tuesday, December 2, at 1:00 P. M.
28—HEAD OF COWS—
New Milch and Forward Springers
Under State and Federal Supervision.

This lot consists of young cows, good producers, possessing size and quality, and selected from modified accredited areas in Vermont. Most of them are eligible to be added to an all accredited herd. In this lot are Jerseys, Guernseys and Holsteins, also two pure bred Ayrshires with calves. Some second calf heifers.

AUCTIONEER'S NOTICE: All the above will be sold without reserve. Sale Rain or Shine.

ROBERT M. REID & SON, Auctioneers
201 Main St., Manchester, Conn.—Phone 3193

OFFICE GIRLS KNOW FIGURES THAT INTEREST THE BOSS—
YOU'LL LEARN A LOT FROM THIS CLEVER STENOGRAPHER WHO WON A MILLIONAIRE CONSTANCE BENNETT
IN
Sin Takes a Holiday

If you like the paprika of ultra-smart dialogue you'll find it in this snappy, spicy Comedy with a marvelous supporting cast.

NOW AT
WARNER BROS. PALACE

RIN-TIN-TIN
in the Fourth Episode of
THE LONE DEFENDER
At Matinee Only Today

NOW PLAYING
4—DAYS—4

WARNER BROS. BROADWAY

SUNDAY 2 SHOWS
AT 6:30 and 8:30

FOR THE FIRST TIME — THE WOMAN'S SIDE OF THE WAR

THE ANONYMOUSLY WRITTEN BOOK OF HEROINES WHO LIVED, LOVED AND SUFFERED ON THE WESTERN FRONT
THE GLORIOUS SEQUEL TO "THE BIG PARADE"
WAR NURSE
Truthful, Absorbing—It's a Picture You'll Never Forget
With ROBERT MONTGOMERY — JUNE WALKER
ANITA PAGE — ROBERT AMES
MARIE PREVOST and ZAZU PITTS

DANCE TONIGHT
HOTEL WAUREGAN BALLROOM
"KELL" PATCH in Person and His Music
DANCING 8 P. M. TILL 12 AND AFTER ADMISSION 75c

LILY
THEATRE
PLAINFIELD, CONN.
Saturday, Nov. 29th
Mat. at 3 P. M.—Eve. at 7:45 P. M.
CARL LAEMMLE Presents
The White Hell of Pitz Palu
RIN-TIN-TIN in
"THE LONE DEFENDER"
NEWS and SONG REEL
Sunday, Nov. 30th at 7:45 P. M.
NORMA SHEARER in
"LET US BE GAY"
With Marie Dressler—Rod Laroque
COLLEGE HOUNDS—Dog Comedy
NEWS and SONG REEL

HILLCREST
TAFTVILLE — PHONE 2702
SUNDAY ONLY
Mat. at 2:00—Eve. 6.30-8.30
Adults 35c
Janet Gaynor and Chas. Farrell in
"HIGH SOCIETY BLUES"
The greatest picture this team's ever made
Tuesday and Wednesday
CECIL DE MILLE'S
"MADAM SATAN"

BAZAAR AND DANCE
Given at PULASKI HALL
Saturday, Nov. 29th
Music by
"JOLLY BOYS'" ORCHESTRA
Dancing from 7:30 P. M. to 12:00
ADMISSION 25c

Dance Tonight
The Bijou
Jewett City
Sugar Orchestra of Webster

Dancing Tonight
— AT —
UNCASVILLE AUDITORIUM
MUSIC BY
Benvenuti's Orchestra
DANCING 8.45 to 12
ADMISSION 50c

The Saturday Night Dances
IN I. O. O. F. HALL
Will Continue With
THE MUSICAL ACES
and Mr. Clarence Lillibridge as prompter

Y. M. C. A., Sunday, 3:30
6-Reel Feature Picture
"The Deer Slayer"
Dedicated to the Boy Scouts of America
Seats Reserved for Boy Scouts
ADULT PUBLIC INVITED

Thanksgiving Dance
Given by
Combined Germania Lodges
Saturday, Nov. 29, 1930
GERMANIA HALL
32 MARKET STREET
— Music by —
THE MUSICAL ACES
DANCING 8-12
ADMISSION 50c
All Rights Reserved

ENTERTAINMENT and DANCING
— TONIGHT —
At Samuel Huntington School
Given by Men's and Women's Divisions of Norwich Y. M. C. A.
Under Auspices of 4-H Club
Entertainment 8-9:30 Dancing 9:30-12

Malek's Hotel
JEWETT CITY
Special Chicken Dinner

FAIR TODAY; CLOUDY TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., SATURDAY, NOV. 29, 1930

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Nov. 29, 1930

THE WEATHER

Conditions

The disturbance that was over Newfoundland Thursday night has moved northeastward to Greenland.

The southwestern disturbance has caused light rain from southern California eastward to Texas and Oklahoma and there have been local snows in portions of the lake region, the Appalachian region and the extreme upper Ohio valley. Otherwise fair weather has prevailed during the last 24 hours. The weather continued unseasonably cold east of the Mississippi river.

The weather will continue fair in the Washington forecast district Saturday, but the eastward advance of the western disturbances will likely cause precipitation, mostly in the form of rain, Sunday as far east as the middle Atlantic states and northern and central New York. The temperature will rise Saturday and the weather will become warmer Sunday quite generally in the Washington forecast district.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Diminishing westerly winds and fair weather Saturday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Diminishing northwest winds becoming variable and fair weather Saturday.

Forecast

For southern New England and New Jersey: Fair with rising temperature Saturday; Sunday increasing cloudiness and warmer.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Friday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	18	29.80
12 m.	28	30.00
6 p. m.	22	30.10

Highest, 28; lowest, 18.

Comparisons

Predictions for Friday: Generally fair, continued cold.

Friday's weather: As predicted; light snow at night.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises a. m.	Sun Sets p. m.	High Water a. m.	Moon Rises a. m.
24 ..	6.47	4.23	12.37	7.53
25 ..	6.48	4.22	1.25	8.57
26 ..	6.49	4.21	2.21	10.01
27 ..	6.50	4.20	3.17	11.03
28 ..	6.51	4.20	4.11	morn.
29 ..	6.52	4.20	5.01	0.04
30 ..	6.53	4.19	5.47	1.05

Six hours after high ater it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

Miss Helen Sutthill, a student at Boston university is spending the holiday recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sutthill, of Central avenue.

The boys of the village were very busy Friday cleaning the refuse from their barrel burning.

The Greeneville T. D. sewing circle met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Alice Smith on Durfey street with a large class present. The first part of the evening was devoted to sewing of fancy articles and lampshading. Following the business meeting refreshments were served which consited of assorted sandwiches, cakes, cookies, fruit candies and hot chocolate. The dining room was prettily decorated. Piano and vocal solos were rendered during the evening.

Miss Esther Goldblatt has returned to her home on Central avenue after spending two weeks as the guest of relatives at Worcester Mass.

Miss Eileen Krause, a student at the Willimantic Normal school is spending the holiday recess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krause on Fifth street.

William Erwin is spending a few days at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erwin on Central avenue.

Joseph Delaney of New York city is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delaney on Eighth street.

At St. Andrew's church Monday, Dec. 1st, being St. Andrew's day, the holy communion will be administered at 10 a. m. Communicants and friends are urged to attend this service.

The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church is to meet Thursday with Mrs. Rudolph Johnson of 25 Margerie street.

Mrs. Mary Hraboscz Nowakowski is taking appointments for Marcels, Shampoos, Fingerwaves and other Beauty Culture work, at 191 Central ave., or phone 2743J.adv.

MOTOR LAW COMPLAINT NOLLED AGAINST BRIDEGROOM

Walter R. Ro., of No. 10 Terrace avenue Taftville, was presented in the city court Friday morning on a charge of violation of the rules of the road. On the recommendation of City Attorney Charles W. Cassidy the case was nolled as the city attorney informed the court that the action was more of a civil nature than of a criminal nature.

Rec, who was married Thursday morning, was summoned to court after an accident Thursday in Greeneville. He was backing his machine out of a side street into North Main street when Mrs. Sophia Cooper of Plainfield, driving along North Main street, decided that the two cars would crash unless she turned out sharply. She swung her car into Sixth street and it upset when it hit the curbing.

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE WHILE LEAVING TROLLEY

Hit by an automobile just after he alighted from a trolley car on the New London turnpike Friday morning Benjamin Gwasdoff, 58, of No. 35 Fairmount St., was badly injured. His right shoulder was dislocated, one thumb injured and his scalp lacerated. He is a patient at the W. W. Backus hospital.

The injured man was taken to the hospital by George Jones of New London, whose car is said to have struck him.

Repairs To Hydrant Leak

The water department was at work Friday afternoon in front of The Bulletin office to make repairs to a leak near a hydrant. It is necessary to cut down through the hard surface of the street to get at the location of the leak.

There are 68,854 cattle in 3,583 herds in Louisiana under tuberculin testing supervision.

NOTICE!

All complaints to the Health Department must be in writing and signed either by an individual or for an organization.

HARRISON GRAY, M. D.,
Health Officer

CENSUS REPORTS SHOW CROPS AND LIVESTOCK IN NEW LONDON COUNTY

Livestock on New London county farms, with the exception of cattle, decreased in the five years from 1925 to 1930, according to preliminary figures of the 1930 farm census, given out by the director of the census. The figures cover horses, mules, cattle and dairy cows, hogs and chickens.

At the same time there was a decrease in acreage under cultivation for several selected crops, except corn for silage, which showed something of an increase, on a comparison between 1929 and 1924.

In 1925 the census figures show that there were 3,620 horses and 54 mules, but five years later these had decreased to 2,397 horses and 29 mules. In the general cattle classification there was a gain from 19,302 in 1925 to 20,761 in 1930, but there was an indication that the dairy industry had declined, for dairy cows numbered 14,536 in 1925 but there were only 12,722 dairy cows counted in 1930. Hogs numbered 2,048 in 1925 but were 1,782 in 1930. Poultry raising was also not followed so much in 1930 as in 1925 for in the former year there were 212,361 chickens as compared with 231,452 in 1925.

In reporting on acreage and product of certain selected crops the census figures are for the years 1929 and 1924, these showing that there has been generally fewer acres under cultivation and consequently smaller crops.

In corn harvested for grain there were 1,290 bushels under cultivation in 1929, with a crop of 60,759 bushels where there had been a crop of 66,387 bushels from 1,624 acres five years before. Oats threshed for grain were grown on 125 acres with 3,293 bushels in the crop in 1929, but there were 137 acres and crop of 3,466 bushels in 1924. Acreage and tonnage of hay also decreased from 49,745 acres and 42,140 tons in 1924 to 25,196 acres and 39,581 tons in 1929.

Increased use of silos was shown for there were 37,823 tons of corn raised for silage on 2,387 acres in 1929 against 33,544 tons from 2,843 acres in 1924. White potatoes were not raised as much in 1929 as in 1924, for there was a 1929 crop of 121,200 bushels from 1,046 acres in 1929 as compared with the 1924 crop of 160,118 bushels from 1,288 acres.

Windham County

Windham county census figures for same years show that chicken raising has gained there in the five-year period and there has also been an increase in the number of cattle on the farms.

There were nearly 900 fewer horses in the county in 1930 than in 1925 and mules had decreased in number by 63. In 1925 there were 2,941 horses and in 1930 only 2,094, while the number of mules had decreased from 84 to 21. In the cattle classification the five-year period showed an increase of over 1,300 from 14,142 to 15,437, but dairy cows decreased from 9,510 to 9,329.

The gain in the poultry industry was shown by the county of 204,125 chickens in 1925 and 217,509 in 1930, but hogs dropped off by nearly 50 per cent from 1,477 in 1925 to 667 in 1930.

Acreage and production of several selected crops in Windham county are shown as follows, in tons for hay and silage corn and bushels for the other crops:

	1929	1924
Acreage
Corn h'rv'st'd for grain	1,099	1,382
Oats threshed for grain	81	186
Rye	74	84
Hay	33,211	41,939
Corn cut for silage	1,884	1,180
White potatoes	734	1,216
Production
Corn h'rv'st'd for grain	50,127	56,202
Oats threshed for grain	1,888	4,714
Rye	846	1,371
Hay	36,378	39,146
Corn cut for silage	17,621	12,485
White potatoes	75,819	112,163

GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING

A jail sentence of six months was given Leone J. Bessette, 31, of Taftville, by Judge Arthur F. Libby in the city court, Friday morning, when the accused was found guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor. It was the second drunken driving conviction for Bessette, he having previously been convicted in the Waterbury police court.

The accused was arrested by State Police Officer Arthur Kathe, following an accident at Taftville, Thursday night, when Bessette's machine ran into the rear of a machine parked on Norwich avenue and owned by Emory S. Legare of No. 42 Norwich avenue.

Workmen's Compensation Agreements

The following workmen's compensation agreements have been approved by Commissioner A. J. Bailey:

Tile Roofing Co., Inc., New London, employer, and Burton A. Rolf, Waterford, employe; sprained back Oct. 15, 1930, at rate of $13.50.

Connecticut College for Women, New London, employer, and John A. Daniels, East Lyme, employe; injury to right hand July 31, 1930, at rate of $13.11; also Clifford Winters, Waterford, employe, bruised left elbow Oct 14, 1930, at rate of $13.24.

Family Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cruthers of 750 North Main street, entertained for Thanksgiving day their children and grandchildren. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Cruthers and sons, Charles and Gerald, of 607 Boswell avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Percy G. Cruthers and son, Gordon, and little daughter, Margaret Ann, of Vergason avenue, Norwich Town; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and children, Alys, Albert, Mary Lou and Dorothy, of Laurel Hill avenue.

NORWICH TOWN

Dr. and Mrs. Frank D. Coles, of 169 Harland road, motored to Providence Thanksgiving afternoon and were included in a family dinner party at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Ella Riley. Others present were Mrs. Ellen Babcock, formerly of Jewett City, Mr. and Mrs. Merton E. Phillips and daughter, Miss Erma Phillips, of Willimantic, also Edward Budlong, of Providence. Mrs. Babcock is mother of Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Coles.

Dr. and Mrs. Coles had as guests Friday, when a turkey dinner was served, Mrs. Coles' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Merton E. Phillips and daughter, Miss Erma Phillips, of Willimantic. Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Coles will be dinner guests at the Phillips' home.

At Montville Dinner

Mrs. Thurston B. Barber of Canterbury road was the guest at dinner Thanksgiving day of her relatives, Mrs. Charles L. French and son, Robert L. French, at their home on the New London road, Montville.

Guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Barber were her daughter, Mrs. Lena Gardner Taylor, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. Gardner and little daughter, Alice Gardner, all of New London. During the evening refreshments were served.

LOCAL GUESTS AT BRISTOL FOR HOLIDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. George and children, Dorothy, Warren, Edward Gardner, Irene and Frances George, of Washington street, motored to Bristol to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. George, formerly of Norwich Town. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie George had as motor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kinney, of Town street, who also were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. George's parents. Other guests included the younger Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Sterry of Willimantic also formerly of Norwich, who motored here Wednesday to their son-in-law and daughter's home, they having conveyed back with them three of their grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph George, who twenty-five years ago occupied the middle apartment in Mr. and Mrs. Kinney's home, served an excellent turkey dinner also prepared a fine supper for their guests. Mr. Sterry and Mr. Kinney were schoolmates at Norwich Town school when they were boys.

Presented Chest of Silver

A belated wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. William Russell Fraser (Ruth Elizabeth Eccleston) who were married in Norwich Town Thanksgiving afternoon at the bride's home, was a chest of silver, presented by Mr. Fraser's young men friends in the Thamesville section of Norwich, where his business is located.

SEDAN AND OIL TRUCK IN THAMES ST. CRASH

After the Ford sedan he was driving crashed, almost headon, into a large Standard Oil company tank truck, on Thames street, near Thames square, shortly after 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, John Donovan, 28, of Uncasville, driver of the sedan, was arrested by the local police on a charge of reckless driving and driving while under the influence of liquor. He was released during the evening on bonds of $300 for his appearance in the city court this (Saturday) morning.

Donovan turned the corner at Thames square, into Thames street, and met the oil truck, bound in the opposite direction about 300 feet from the corner. The truck driver pulled to the extreme right of the street in order to avoid the crash but the Ford hit the front end of the truck on the left hand side.

Both truck and sedan were put out of commission by the impact and traffic was delayed for nearly 10 minutes. Donovan, who sustained a scalp wound, was taken into a nearby store and Dr. John W. Callahan was summoned. Before the physician arrived Officer Clifford Crary took the injured man to the physician's office where his injuries were attended and he was later taken to police headquarters.

The front end of the Ford was extensively damaged and it was towed away by a wrecking machine to a local garage. The left front wheel of the truck was damaged and the truck was unable to proceed until later in the evening when the damage was repaired.

GRATEFUL FOR GIFTS TO COUNTY HOME

Expressions of hearty thanks are voiced by the New London County Home to the good friends who remembered the children on Thanksgiving.

A box of delicious oranges was donated by Miss Porteous, also three pumpkins which will be made up into pies later. A second box of oranges from W. E. Baldwin, the grocer, will enable the children to enjoy fruit for several days.

The children from the Shewville school, Ledyard, under their teacher, Mrs. Fuller, wanted to do something for the children at the county home but having no money they gave of their time and effort. They gathered nuts, cracked them and put them up in packages, one for each of the 74 children.

The following letter was received and explains itself. The names of the children in the school are given. To them all the children of the home send a sincere "thank you":

Shewville School,
Ledyard, Conn.

My Dear Children:

Thanksgiving day is almost here and we all have so much to be glad for.

This year the nuts were very plentiful out here and we gathered many. We are happy to share them with you.

What a beautiful new home you are going to have. It is much better than our building, but we like ours, too.

We hope you will have a merry holiday.

Your friends,

Leon Zachem, president of class, for Paul Kleeman, Robert Crouch, George Crouch, Pauline Zukowski, Alec Zukowski, Ralph Zachem, Doris Yovino, Ralph Yovino, Mae Metzendorf, Jennie Ramatowski, Everett Bromley, Joseph Pianko, Calixte Yovino, Stanley Roman, Antoinetee Ramatowski, Elizabeth Kleeman, Roger Crouch, Vera Nacinovich, Raymond Crouch, Frank Roman, Harvey Crouch, Jack Zachem, Ernest Yovino, Max Zachem, Frances Zukowski, Madeline Yovino, Nora Roman.

MACHINES IN COLLISION ON NORTH MAIN STREET

A Ford machine driven by Rudolph Henschel of 332 Main street and a Studebaker driven by John Kulkowski of Central avenue were crippled so much in a collision on North Main street Friday afternoon that both had to be towed away.

The cars were proceeding in opposite directions when they came together as Mr. Henschel pulled out to pass a truck that was parked by the side of the highway across from the car barn. The Kulkowski car hit a stone wall after colliding with the other machine and the damage done to it was estimated at about $100. The Henschel car sustained estimated damage of about $40.

TAFTVILLE

Leo Gladue, a student at Assumption college, Worcester, Mass., is spending the Thanksgiving recess at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hormidas Gladue and family of Providence street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pingree and family had a family dinner party on Thursday, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Pingree and son Harold, Jr., of Goodyear, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Pingree and daughter Miss Lois C. Pingree of Saylesville, R. I.

To spend the Thanksgiving holidays, Rene Paradis is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Paradis and family of South A street from Assumption college, Worcester, Mass.

It has been announced that the next meeting of the 8 and 40, is to be held with Mrs. Clara T. Caron of Blissvine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linderson of North Third avenue had with them on the holiday their son Wilfred Linderson of Bridgeport, and Mrs. Linderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Vergason of North Stonington.

Curtis A. Hedler of the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass., is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Hedler of Terrace avenue for the holiday recess.

Among the pupils of schools and colleges home for the holidays is Richard Peltier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peltier of Providence street, from Assumption college, Worcester, Mass.

John Meyer of Hartford visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Meyer of Providence street.

Leonard Martel of Dion street is ill at the home of his parents in North Grosvenordale.

Those riding through the country on Thanksgiving day, noticed that the big flocks of turkeys which have been raised this year by local farmers were considerably smaller. Most turkey raisers reported good business for the holiday, with some selected birds left for the Christmas trade. One turkey man pointed out Thursday that of all the breeds of domestic fowl, including turkeys, chickens, ducks, geese and guineafowl, the turkey is the only species originating in America. It is said that they were first domesticated by the Aztecs in Mexico, where Cortez found them when undertaking the conquest of that country and took a flock to Spain, from where they spread to every country in Europe. When the Spanish explorer Crijalva discovered Mexico in 1518, he reported finding domesticated turkeys in great numbers. There are now six standard varieties of turkeys recognized by the American Poultry association, which include the Slate, the Bourbon Red, the Black, the Narragansett, the Bronze and the White Holland. The bronze variety is the popular breed raised locally. Although purely a North American bird, Argentina has developed turkey raising on a big scale and competition from that country is becoming a serious problem with turkey raisers of the United States. Some time ago some of the members of the Taftville Rod and Gun club were interested in the wild turkey as a game bird, as several state game departments are reintroducing the bird, but it is doubtful whether the bird would thrive in this state which is thickly settled in comparison with some of the states where it still is to be found.

After a program of intensive work, the committee in charge of the visitation of the grand court officers of Connecticut, Foresters of America, has announced that the plans are all in readiness for the big event to take place this (Saturday) evening at the courtrooms on Merchants avenue. The grand chief ranger and his staff are to make an official visitation for the purpose of inspecting the local court and to further the bonds of good fellowship existing in this order throughout the state. A smoker with refreshments has been arranged and there is to be a fine bill of entertainment.

YOUNG WOMEN OF SYNAGOGUE TO BE TEACHERS FOR NEW SCHOOL

Announcement was made at the regular Friday evening service of the Norwich Community synagogue on Church street, that the long felt need of a religious school for the Jewish children in the city will be filled by the opening of such a school at the Community house this (Saturday) a. m. following the regular service at 8 o'clock. The school which will be open to all the children who do not attend the Talmud Torah will have for its teachers young women of the congregation who are expected to volunteer their services. Registrations will take place at 10 o'clock.

These announcements were made to a large congregation attending the evening service by Dr. Abba Abrams of the Jewish Theological Seminary of New York, the preacher, who took for the subject of his sermon, "Dreams of Youth," and spoke ably and interestingly upon the theme. "We have in youth certain ambitions, hopes and desires, which we look forward to attain in later years in order to make this world a better place in which to live," said Dr. Abrams. Continuing he said that man in trying to acquire more and more wealth and in pursuing a policy of keeping up with the Joneses, he finds it essential to have more clothes, better furniture, another car and goes after the money regardless of what effect it may have upon his fellowmen and very often at the expense of his fellowmen.

"Absorbed in pursuing the dollar man forgets about his hopes, ambitions and desires of early youth and in a time of depression as this when he suffers a setback he finds his life empty and void because of all the things he pursued he finds to be mere vanity, mere matter, which satisfied his physical desires and passions without regard to his spiritual inner-self," he added. Dr. Abrams called upon the congregation to set some time aside in order to think and reflect upon the things they have accomplished and to see whether they have pursued the paths laid down in early dreams, hopes and ambitions and to listen to that inner consciousness which is bound to guide them out of the present state of depression.

An open forum was held in the social rooms after the service when there was a discussion of the religious school question.

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOM

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

Sebequonash Council, No. 11, met in the Buckingham Memorial Wednesday evening. Two members were reported ill, Eva Fitzmaurice being reported very ill at the hospital. The meeting of the 10th of December will begin at 7 o'clock. Nomination and election of officers is to be on the 23d instead of the 24th of December. One name was balloted on and there is hope of having a large class soon. For the good of the order Ida Clifford, social chairman, had a grab bag. She also reported a card party soon.

CATHOLIC LADIES OF COLUMBUS

The second of a series of card parties being conducted by Mercier assembly, No. 12, was held Tuesday evening in their assembly hall. Miss Alice Lonergan was chairman of the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Nellie McHale, Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald and Mrs. Cecilia Sandberg at whist, Miss Margaret Sullivan for bridge and Miss Julia Ulrich and Miss Blanche Richards for pinochle. The prizes of the evening were won by the following: Whist, ladies, first, Mrs. McCaffrey; second, Miss Mary O'Connell. Gentlemen, first, Mr. Webber; second, Mr. Edward Burns. Bridge, ladies, first, Mrs. Chester Wright; second, Miss Mary Howser. Gentlemen first, Mr. John Donahue; second, Mr. John Burns. Pinochle, ladies, first, Mrs McBurney; second, Mrs. O. MacInnes. Gentlemen, first, Mr. A. Benoit; second Mr. Gilbert Dennison.

Under arrangements made by a committee of which Miss Anna Mara is chairman, the assembly's post-Thanksgiving dance promises to be a brilliant social success. The following is the published list of patrons and patronesses;

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. John Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burke, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrell, Miss Mary Maloney, Mrs. Hannah Eirmann, Miss Lucy Murphy, Miss Mary Hamill, Miss Loretta Gadle Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Leeney, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Combies, Miss Margaret R. Sullivan.

ODD FELLOWS

Uncas lodge, No. 11, held its regular meeting Monday evening at which the third degree was conferred upon a class of candidates.

Routine business was transacted and the final reports of the parade and dance committees were submitted and accepted. There was a slightly larger attendance at this meeting than usual, and it is hoped that more of the older members will again become regular attendants. Light refreshments were served after the meeting.

FOREIGN WAR VETERANS

The regular meeting of the R. E. Hourigan post, No. 594, was held in the post rooms, Water street, Tuesday evening. The meeting was presided over by Commander Kavanaugh. A large attendance was present. A class of four new members was obligated by Commander Kavanaugh. A communication was read stating that Senator Walcott was obligated as an honorary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at New Haven on November 21, 1930.

The post was visited by Department Musical Instructor Lewye Gerry of Gold Star post, Willimantic, in regard to starting a drum corps. The post voted to hold a Christmas party for the members' children the last Saturday in December. George MacFarland was elected chairman of the entertainment committee. The post voted to hold a benefit dance for the unemployed of the city next month.

MOOSEHEART LEGION

Women of Mooseheart Legion held their regular meeting in Moose home Tuesday evening with Senior Regent Margaret Comire presiding. The ways and means committee announced a card party to be held next month. Under nomination of officers the following officers were nominated: Senior regent, Margaret Comire; junior regent, Mary Edwards; chaplain, Margaret Mehrholz; recorder, Helen Erickson; treasurer, Nora Willett. They will be elected at the next regular meeting.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY

The semi-monthly business meeting of R. E. Hourigan auxiliary, No. 594, V. F. W., was held Monday evening at the post rooms in the Olympic building with the president, Mrs. Emma Kavanagh, in the chair. Following the committees' reports and routine business, the president appointed these chairmen of committees for the ensuing year; Relief, Mrs. Agnes Pelequin; hospital, Mrs. Louise Manchester; publicity, Mrs. Rosamond Jacques; membership, Mrs. Ida Fairbanks.

All of the members are making an effort to raise funds for the relief committee, as there are numerous calls for help from the sick and needy among the veterans' families.

The fourth district county council will meet at Odd Fellows hall, Putnam, Saturday evening, Dec. 6.

FORESTERS OF AMERICA

Court City of Norwich, No. 63, is to celebrate its anniversary with a turkey supper to be given in Foresters hall on Thursday evening, Dec. 11. Grand court officers are to be present and the occasion will have entertainment provided that will make it a red letter event for the members of the court.

MOOSE.

Norwich lodge, No. 950, is to have the first class to be initiated under open charter at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Moose home.

After the class has been through the first degree there will be lunch served and the Nutmeg Entertainers will furnish a two hour program that promises plenty of fun for all who attend. A class of 21 candidates is in waiting and the committee reports everything ready. Philip Baumgartner, Robert Sterry, Henry Couture, George Emback and the dictator will have charge of this class.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

The regular meeting of Sedgwick Woman's Relief corps, No. 16, was held in Buckingham Memorial Friday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Iola Bjurstrom, in the chair. Mrs. Florence Dean, chairman of the executive committee, reported a successful food sale and card party. It was voted to give donations to the Christmas seals, the American Red Cross, Double Cross Health bond, Uncas-on-Thames, the Cromwell W. R. C. Home, Noroton Soldiers' Home and Rutland Heights hospital. The meeting closed with the salute to the flag.

REBEKAHS

Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, will hold its regular meeting in Odd Fellows hall on next Wednesday evening, Dec. 3, when a class of 20 will receive the Rebekah degree in full form. It is hoped by the officers that all members of the officers' or degree teams will make a special effort to be on hand as this will be the last initiation of the year. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

FISK JUBILEE SINGERS TO SING THEIR SPIRITUALS

The management of the Norwich Young Men's Christian association, desirous of bringing to Norwich the best obtainable, has after much effort secured the famous Fisk jubilee singers for a programme of spirituals to be given at the Central Baptist church at 7:30 Sunday evening.

Established in 1865 on the site of an old slave market, Fisk university is the best known institution for the higher education of Negro people.

The present group of jubilee singers has made four tours of Europe. In Paris they filled Salle Gaveau four times. They sang "by command" before King George and Queen Mary. They also gave private concerts at the homes of Lady Astor, Premier Mussolini, Ambassador Tobin of Holland and Ambassador Fletcher in Rome. In the United States they have sung several times at the White house. They have appeared and reappeared with the symphony orchestras of Detroit, Chicago and Boston, and in the summer of 1929 they were the first Negroes to appear in the Hollywood Bowl, where they had a remarkable success. Such authorities as Walter Damrosch are loud in their praises and recently they gave a programme of their spirituals at the home of Mr. Damrosch before an audience of distinguished musicians, including Paderewski. The Fisk jubilee singers would seem to rate as the most powerful factor in obtaining an impressive recognition for the musical genius of their race.

Following is the programme to be rendered Sunday evening:

Live a Humble, Nobody Knows de Trouble I See, Everytime I Feel the Spirit, Golden Slippers, Wish I'se in Heaven Settin' Down, Little David Play on Your Harp, Go Tell it on The Mountains, My Soul is a Witness, John The Revelator, Ain't That Good News, I Want Two Wings, Great Camp Meeting, Mighty Lak' A Rose, Kentucky Home.

The association announces that the public is cordially invited to hear the singers and a free-will offering will be taken.

VERDI PROGRAMME GIVEN FOR MUSIC ROUND TABLE

The music department of the Woman's City club held the second round table in the club rooms this week. The committee in charge of the programme included Mrs. David Disco, Miss Margaret Driscoll and Miss Rosalie A. Bennett. The subject of the programme was Verdi's Il Trovatore and the story of this opera was illustrated by many of the well known songs. Mrs. Josephine Stewart sang My Heart is His Alone and Mrs. Stewart and Robert A. Gray gave the lovely duet, Home to Our Mountains. Miss Nellie Howie was the accompanist. Victor records were used for several songs, and a brief account of the life of Verdi was given by Miss Driscoll.

The next round table on January 6 will be an evening with MacDowall.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS RECORDED IN NORWICH

Real estate transfers in Norwich have been recorded this week at the office of Town Clerk Harold S. Burt as follows:

Nov. 22.—Hattie L. Davis to Victor H. Davis, Taftville.

Joseph E. and Alexina Casavant to Charles J. Dupont, Taftville.

Nov. 24.—William D. Fitch to Bruce F. Rogers, 23 East Town street.

Nov. 26—C. H. and J. E. Humes to State of Connecticut, land near Taft's station.

HARTFORD MAN, NOT KRIEGER, OWNED COTTAGE

A summer cottage at Ridgewood, Ocean Beach, which was burned to the ground Thanksgiving day was the property of P. Hoffson of Hartford, and not of Benjamin Krieger of this city, as was reported at the time of the fire. Mr. Krieger sold the cottage to the Hartford man last August.

Five farmers in Edgecombe county, N. C., have owned and operated a cooperative threshing machine for seven years at a profit.

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

Several liquor raids provided about the only sensational news in Norwich 50 years ago this week. Considerable liquor was seized at the places of several unlicensed saloons. The Arcanum club held a delightful dance the same week at Steiner's hall. Interesting extracts from the files of The Norwich Bulletin of November, 1880, are as follows:

Monday, Nov. 22, 1880—Thomas Schofield, an old gentleman of 90 years, now resident in Montville, was in this city, this morning, says the New London Telegram. He is a son of John Schofield, who established the first woolen mill in this country in the neighborhood of Boston.

Captain William E. Whaley and Officers Sullivan and Lathrop with City Sheriff J. B. Rogers, made a very successful raid on the places of several unlicensed liquor dealers Saturday afternoon and seized a large quantity of intoxicating liquors. The parties were arrested. They gave bonds of $150 each for their appearance for trial in the city court today.

The Rev. Frank Palmer, son of Mr. Edwin Palmer of this city, preached very acceptably at the Broadway church, Sunday morning.

The annual Thanksgiving eve social of the Niagara Hose Co., will be given at their house on Union street next Wednesday night.

Tuesday, Nov. 23, 1880—A fire was discovered yesterday afternoon in the clothes press of a sleeping room at the residence of W. H. Bell at Greeneville. The Shetucket Hose Co., turned out and "doused the glim" without raising a general larm." It is thought that the fire was accidentally set by children playing with matches.

J. S. Burdett, a celebrated humorist of New York, will entertain the members of the Norwich Literary society and as many others as may go, at the society's rooms, this evening.

Charles A. Burnham of this city has received the painful intelligence of his mother's death in San Francisco within the past few days. His parents had undertaken a journey from their home in Philadelphia to the Sandwich Islands where they resided a number of years ago. The cold wave at Ogden, Utah, induced in Mrs. Burnham an attack of pneumonia which quickly proved fatal.

Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1880—The board of county commissioners examined the rooms in the court house set apart for the use of the New London county bar for library purposes yesterday, with a view of preparing them for the reception of the law books of the late L. F. S. Foster, left to Col. J. T. Wait and George C. Ripley, Esq., as trustees, for the use of the bar. As soon as cabinets have been prepared for their reception, they will be transferred to the library room for reference. Each book is to be labelled with the name of the donor and the whole collection is to be kept together and to be known as "The Foster Law Library."

Fire Marshal Carrier began his annual fall inspection of the heating apparatus in all the manufactories, stores and public buildings of the city Monday.

The county commissioners met in this city yesterday. The recommended applicants for license came forward so slowly that an impression exists that money is not over flush this season.

The crafts along the wharves are being dismantled and laid up for the winter.

At midnight last night the mercury in the thermometers stood at 18 degrees above zero.

Otis library is henceforth to be illuminated with kerosene oil.

The roof of the new school building on Broadway was finished yesterday and is now ready for the tinners.

Thursday, Nov. 25 1880—The jury took the papers in the suit of Evan Burdick against the City of Norwich for $5,000 damages for alleged injuries sustained by his residence and grounds on Franklin street by the overflow of the Franklin street sewer at 5 p. m. Tuesday and after a session of two and a half hours adjourned until 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. The superior court came in at 9.30 o'clock and at 10 o'clock the foreman of the jury announced an agreement upon a verdict that plaintiff recover $1,500 damages and costs of suit.

Niagara Hose Co., No. 2 held a social at their house on Union street last evening. There were some forty couples present and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

The Buckingham Guards gave a Thanksgiving ball at Ripley's hall last night. They had a good party and the affair was very spirited and enjoyable.

Friday, Nov. 26, 1880 — The Thanksgiving night social given by the Arcanum club at Steiner's hall was a very successful affair. The music by Miller's quadrille band was first class. Thirty-five couples formed the grand march which took place about 9 o'clock. The gallery was filled with spectators and the social as a whole was pronounced to have been exceptionaly pleasing by all who attended.

Officers Ives of this city and Gardner of Bean Hill spent Thanksgiving eve in raiding upon the unlicensed saloons of Taftville and succeeded in seizing liquor at several places.

The Nash family had a grand reunion at the residence of Asa Nash of Poquetanuck, yesterday, and feasted upon the best the country afforded. A bus from this city carried a large party to the family abode.

Saturday, Nov. 27, 1880—George L. Sheldon of Ticonderoga, N. Y., son of Col. Joseph Selden of this city, was married to Miss Ella H. Dana of Manchester, N. H., at the residence of the bride's mother, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward G. Selden, brother of the groom.

The Rev. Hugh Montgomery will deliver his fourth lecture in the "Ghastly Foe of Norwich" course, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Subject, The Lazy Man.

A harvest concert will be given at the Greeneville Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening.

Go to Breed hall on Monday evening of next week and see Pinafore presented by Bennett and Moulton's Juvenile Opera company. Reserved seats should be procured at Noyes and Davis.

ONLY

PASTEURIZED MILK

IS SAFE

THERE is no positive way of knowing that the milk which you are using is pure, unless it has been pasteurized. Pasteurization, not only retains all the vital elements in milk, but also adds to its tastiness. As a safeguard to your family, use only pasteurized milk. It costs no more.

Wouldn't you like to have us send you our pamphlets telling you more about pasteurized milk? Simply drop a card.

NORWICH·DAIRY·CO.

Phone 3920
NORWICHTOWN, CONN.

TOYS

LOW PRICES!

There is no reason on earth why your children cannot have a happy Christmas with an abundance of toys! We offer you choice of our large toy stocks at the lowest prices and on the easiest credit terms imaginable!

Desk and Chair
$7.75
Here's a gift that any boy or girl will be delighted with! Well made and attractively finished.

Child's Rockers
$3.50
What little tot wouldn't be delighted with a comfortable rocker for its very own use? All styles and finishes.

Doll Carriages
$2.50 Up
Most popular of all gifts for little girls are doll carriages. Our prices are sure to save you money!

Hourigan Bros.
Home Furnishers

62-66 MAIN ST., NORWICH, CONN.

DEC

1930

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXXII—No. 287 NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1930 —12 PAGES CIRCULATION MORNING AND EVENING 19,049 PRICE TWO CENTS

ASSURANCE GIVEN HOOVER BY DEM. LEADER OF SENATE

Senator Robinson, in Conference With the President, Agreed in Part Upon a Non-Partisan Program to Hasten Lifting of Economic Depression—Bills to Provide Relief For Drought-Stricken Farmers, to Expand Public Buildings Construction, Federal Road Aid and Improvement of Inland Waterways Are Included in the Non-Partisan Program—Action Will Follow President Hoover's Message to Congress Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—On the eve of the opening of congress, President Hoover and Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, today discussed and agreed in part upon a non-partisan program seeking to lift the nation from the economic depression.

The white house conference was in line with the pledge of the republican and democratic parties after the recent election to cooperate at this session on legislation of public welfare in the present economic crisis.

Senator Robinson, as the democratic leader, will sponsor legislation to provide relief for the drought-stricken farmers. A measure drafted by him is understood to have administration approval and will be introduced immediately. Its terms were withheld pending introduction.

Bills to expand public buildings construction, federal road aid and improvement of inland waterways also are included in this non-partisan program and will be submitted as soon as President Hoover's recommendations to congress are received in his annual message on Tuesday.

There appears to be every assurance of a political truce in congressional ranks on unemployment and drought relief legislation and to the immediate accomplishment of this congress will direct its efforts after the opening ceremonies tomorrow.

But beyond this, the course for the limited session ending next March 4 seemed clouded. President Hoover today again emphasized his desire to avoid an extra session in the spring. Senator Robinson, along with other democratic and republican congressional leaders, reiterated a desire to avoid such a meeting. But there was no assurance that the dreaded extra session could be escaped.

The decision of Mr. Hoover to submit the world court issue to this session still had the senate republican ranks in consternation and in considerable doubt as to whether it would not lead to an extra session.

Senator Robinson, an advocate of the world court, said he saw little hope for action on the proposal.

"Undoubtedly," he added, "appropriation bills and relief measures will have the right of way and I am doubtful if any action can be taken on the world court at this session."

As for the full employment and drought relief program, Senator Robinson stated after his white house conference he would wait to see Mr. Hoover's message to congress before announcing his views.

The controversial Muscle Shoals problem comes up for immediate attention this week. Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, chairman of the conferees, intends to call a meeting tomorrow or Tuesday.

The senate and house are deadlocked. The senate has passed the bill of Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, for government operation of the power and nitrate plant. The house is insisting upon its bill for private operation. This controversy apparently must be solved if the extra session is to be avoided.

While only the brief formal openings are on the program for the opening session tomorrow, there is prospect of some action in the senate over the right of Senator-elect Davis, republican, Pennsylvania, to take his seat.

Chairman Nye of the senate campaign funds investigating committee, announced today he would ask Davis to stand aside temporarily while the committee investigated reports of additional expenditures in his primary campaign.

On Tuesday, the annual message of President Hoover will be read separately to the senate and house. Then the grind will begin without further preliminaries.

The senate will take up the house bill for regulation of motor bus traffic. The house will start work on the first of the vital appropriation bills whose enactment is necessary to avoid an extra session.

The senate also soon will have before it more than a score of important nominations, including William N. Doak, of Virginia, to be secretary of labor, the entire personnel of the new tariff commission, the members of the new power commission and a host of judicial appointees.

TO URGE $1,000,000,000 FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT BOND ISSUE

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Formation of a group which will urge congress to float a billion dollar federal "employment" bond issue or "prosperity loan," was announced today by Harold S. Buttenheim, editor of the American City magazine and acting chairman of the emergency committee for federal public works.

The committee's plan would apply the war-time "Liberty loan" method to the present problem of unemployment.

The committee proposes that the proceeds of the "employment loan" be put to the task of building necessary federal public works on so vast a scale that employment will be given to several hundred thousands of men directly on the projects themselves and to many thousands more in factories, railroads and elsewhere.

Among those named as supporting the program are James H. Post, Frank C. Munson, Amos Pinchot, Daniel J. Meserole, Richard S. Childs and Paul U. Kellogg.

ARRESTS IN NORWALK MAY SOLVE SERIES OF ROBBERIES

NORWALK, Nov. 30—(AP)—With the arrest of three Norwalk youths, local police today believe they had solved the series of robberies in Norwalk and neighboring cities in the past week, which have netted more than $800 in loot.

The three under arrest are John Mezello, 20; Samuel Vena, 18, and William Hornick, 22.

Hornick, arrested last night, confessed his part in the holdups and implicated the other two, who were seized at their homes. Vena is the brother of Louis Vena, now serving time in Wethersfield for a series of robberies, and was himself paroled from the Cheshire reformatory two years ago.

The arrests came as a result of the finding, in a local auto sales agency, of an automobile known to have been used in one of the robberies. Tracing it, it was learned that it had been turned in by Hornick, who after his arrest, admitted purchasing a second car in an endeavor to cover his tracks after he had learned his older car, used in all the robberies, had been seen and described.

Among the robberies admitted by Hornick were the raiding of the First National store in Norwalk and two stores in New Canaan.

CHEMIST MAKES CHAMPAGNE FROM SUGAR CANE IN CUBA

HAVANA, Nov. 30.— (AP) —Champagne may soon be as common as table wine in Cuba as a result of three years of scientific research here on the part of a Spanish chemist who announces a new concoction made almost entirely of sugar cane.

Officials of the department of agriculture see in the discovery not only an important new industry for Cuba but an important outlet for the present sugar surplus.

The discoverer of the new beverage is Leon Elso Blasco, a Basque. The new champagne, made without grapes, is amber in color, and is said to be as live as French champagne of ancient vintage, with a bouquet to match any of the finest wines.

PASSENGERS AND CREW OF FRENCH SEAPLANE RESCUED

ROME, Nov. 30—(AP)—Passengers and crew of the French seaplane Faiya, which landed on the ocean near the Island of Monte Cristo yesterday afternoon, were rescued today and taken to the island.

The plane was forced down by motor trouble and ships from Leghorn went to her assistance.

Monte Cristo is Italian territory in the Mediterranean, lying 26 miles [illegible]th of Elba.

GUNMAN WAS SLAIN AFTER KILLING TWO POLICEMEN

MACOMB, Ill., Nov. 30—(AP)—Picked up on a minor loitering charge, an unidentified gunman "shot it out" with an automobile load of police early today, killing two and wounding two before he himself was slain.

The dead policemen were Edward Whitesley, 60, and Ernest Bowman, 36.

Patrolman Al Links, shot through the abdomen, was reported dying. Patrolman Luther Jackson was shot through the hand.

The officers in a squad car approached the gunman as he loitered in front of a garage. Searching the man, they found a steel "jimmy" in his coat pocket and decided to take him to headquarters for questioning.

The gunman entered the machine docilely enough, but as the car pulled up in front of the station he whipped out a small "sleeve pistol" and cut loose with a murderous fire.

Whitesley was shot through the head as he stepped from the machine. Whirling, the gunman sent a slug through Bowman's abdomen and the officer toppled over in the car mortally wounded. Links, the driver, was shot as he turned in his seat. The gunman hurled him from the machine and took the wheel himself.

Jackson was shot in an exchange when he ran from the station in an attempt to halt the fighting.

The machine had traveled about a block when the dying Bowman, in the back seat, revived long enough to draw his gun and empty it into the driver's back.

Little was learned concerning the identity of the gunman, but because of his savage resistance to the inconsequential arrest police believe he was badly wanted.

WEATHER BUREAU WARNS OF A SOUTHWEST STORM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning:

"Southwest storm warning ordered 12 noon, Cape Hatteras to Provincetown, Mass. Disturbance centered over Indiana will move rapidly northeastward and will be attended by increasing southerly winds becoming strong and possibly reaching gale force late tonight."

JUDGE GETS JOB FOR A SELF-STYLED VAGRANT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Morris Saltzberg had himself arrested as a vagrant, and Magistrate Mogilesky ordered him acquitted because he wasn't.

"The charge is dismissed," the court said today. "I just got Saltzberg a job washing automobiles."

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

VIENNA, Nov. 30.—(AP)— President Miklas today commissioned Dr. Otto Ender, governor of Vorarlberg province, to form a cabinet succeeding that of Karl Vaugoin, who resigned last week.

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Miss Alice Morrow, sister of Senator Dwight W. Morrow, arrived tonight to resume her volunteer service as hostess at the American College for Women and as librarian of the Morrow library, which Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow gave the college.

ETAMPES, France, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Marcel Doret, noted French flier, today broke the world's record for a 1,000 kilometer flight, averaging almost 179 miles an hour for the 625 miles. The flight, over a measured course of 100 kilometers, was made in three hours, 29 minutes and 37 2-5 seconds.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 30.—(AP) —Deposed President Hipoliti Yrigoyen and Elpadia Gonzales, former minister of the interior, have been ordered by the government transferred from the cruiser Buenos Aires to the Island of Martin Garcia, on the River Plate, a short distance from this city.

EIGHT AUTO DEATHS IN STATE WEEK OF NOV. 16-22

HARTFORD, Nov. 30.—(AP)— Eight persons lost their lives as a result of automobile accidents in Connecticut during the week of November 16 to 22 inclusive, as compared with 13 deaths in the same seven days last year, it was announced by the state department of motor vehicles recently. With five and a half weeks left in this year there have been 56 fewer deaths by motor vehicle accidents this year than at the same time last year, it was declared.

The city total of accidents reported was greater than in the same period last year during the week for the first time in several months, 200 accidents being reported from the incorporated cities of the state as compared with 183 accidents last year. The state total of accidents reported, however, continued to be lower this year than last, but 334 accidents being reported as compared with 370 accidents in the week last year.

Hartford was the only city in the state reporting two fatalities during the week, one fatality each being reported in Bridgeport, Bristol, Danbury, Hamden, Kensington and Waterbury.

COMMUNISTS HISS THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. — (AP)—A communist demonstration is planned at the capitol tomorrow when congress convenes.

Plans were perfected at a mass meeting of 500 communists today at which hisses and boos greeted references to the American government, President Hoover and other national figures.

The Fish communist investigating committee also was criticised and resolutions were adopted opposing all restrictions on quota immigration and all laws discriminating against the foreign born.

The communists claimed to represent 327 organizations with a total membership of 271,000. The meeting was called by the national committee for the protection of the foreign born, a group recently formed in New York.

Israel Amter of New York was the keynote speaker and "Comrade" Squier of Chicago introduced the resolutions.

Plans for tomorrow's demonstration include the display of banners demanding the release of political prisoners, opposing deportation of aliens and "lynching, jim-crowism and segregation."

INTERCOLLEGIATE LIVESTOCK JUDGING CHAMPIONSHIP

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.— (AP)—The college boys from Oklahoma won another point today in their apparent effort to show that the intercollegiate livestock judging championship should be theirs permanently.

The College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts from that state was triumphant again at the 31st international livestock exposition. After having been victor in 1925, 1926 and 1928, they led 22 other institutions in a contest which saw Kansas win second place and Kentucky third.

Championship in this contest, one of the most important of the week-long farm fair, carries with it temporary possession of the huge bronze bull trophy offered by the Union Stock yards. It must be won three times to be retained, a feat already performed once by the Oklahomans.

FIRE LEAVES SEAPLANE DO-X A CHARRED WRECK

LISBON, Nov. 30—(AP)—Their dream of a flight across the Atlantic shattered, the crew of the German flying boat DO-X tonight started scattering in various directions while their ship, its one wing destroyed by fire, lay a charred and battered wreck.

Captain Frederich Christiansen, the commander, said he would remain in Lisbon with a reduced crew to supervise repairs to the plane, which was towed by a submarine this morning to the docks at Belem. It is expected the repairs will take a month.

The fire is believed to have started from a short circuit in an auxiliary engine room which houses a small 10-horsepower motor for charging the wireless batteries. The blaze spread to a gasoline tank in the left wing, causing an explosion.

FIND BODY OF MAN WHO WENT SWIMMING THANKSGIVING DAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Though temperatures have been in the low twenties, someone went swimming in the Hudson river Thanksgiving day. The body, clad in a bathing suit, was recovered today, but unidentified.

Police believe the bather was a member of one of the "Polar" clubs whose members swim in the Hudson all winter.

VOTE $137,000 TO BUILD SCHOOL; NO GROUND TO BUILD IT ON

AIRMONT, N. Y., Nov. 30.—(AP)—It begins to look as if the Airmont school might have to take its new four-room annex and hang it out the window.

Voters of the district yesterday authorized a $130,000 appropriation for the structure, but at the same time defeated an appropriation of $30,000 for ground to build it on.

92,000 Coal Miners On Strike In Scotland

It is Believed a General Strike of Miners in Great Britain Has Been Averted

LONDON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A strike of 92,000 men in the coal fields of Scotland started today, but Great Britain breathed a sigh of relief as it appeared certain there would be no general stoppage of work in the coal fields tomorrow when the new coal mines' law goes into effect.

On Friday the situation appeared as dark as it could be. The miners' leaders in a great majority of the districts as well as the delegate conference meeting in London, had decisively turned down the plan of 90 hours work per fortnight—the "spread-over" system—which was the only alternative the owners could propose to a wage-cut when the seven-hour day becomes compulsory under the new mines act.

Then on Friday night the government intervened and in telegrams to both the owners and miners in all districts urged some sort of temporary working agreement until further negotiations could be completed.

The course of events since has been a welter of complex negotiations varying from district to district, but the fact remains there will be no general stoppage of work tomorrow.

The Scottish situation is admittedly grave but just how grave no one at present can say. E. Shinwell, minister of mines, has been working almost incessantly since Friday to bring the Scottish owners and miners into line with the rest of the country to come to some arrangement whereby the pits may be kept open, if only on day-to-day basis.

Optimists believe the men will be back at work by tomorrow night. On the other hand, strikes of these dimensions obviously contain potentialities both for a local upheaval and for extension of trouble to other districts.

BELIEVE THAT AVIATRIX MRS. KEITH-MILLER HAS PERISHED

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 30—(AP)—Aviation officials today agreed in expressing the belief that Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian aviatrix, perished on an attempted flight in adverse weather conditions from Havana to Miami.

No word has been received of the Australian flier since she left Havana in her re-conditioned plane, "The Bullet" at 9:11 a. m., Friday.

Captain W. N. Lancaster of the British Royal Flying Corps, a former flying partner of Mrs. Keith-Miller, was en route here by plane to assist in the search for her. With him is John Liggett, III, Pittsburgh, one of the backers of Mrs. Keith-Miller's recent Pittsburgh-Havana flight.

The naval station at Key West said no ships in gulf or Atlantic waters had reported information on the missing aviatrix, and that orders for a search by navy boats would have to come from the navy department at Washington.

Fliers here believed Mrs. Keith-Miller was blown over the Gulf of Mexico by a high wind that swept in from the east.

REFERENDUM ON DRY LAW TO BE PROPOSED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)— A national referendum on repeal of the 18th amendment will be proposed in the house tomorrow by Representative Andrew, republican, Massachusetts.

The anti-prohibitionist announced today he had prepared a resolution which he said was along lines suggested by Dr. Clarence True Wilson of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals. He added it would provide seven years for ratification of repeal by the states through conventions.

Dr. Wilson was represented at a recent secret meeting of dry leaders in Washington at which a proposal along the same lines was discussed.

FORECASTS GREAT ERA FOR SALVATION ARMY

LONDON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Edward J Higgins, commanding general of the Salvation Army, in an address today declared a new era of Salvation Army activity and progress will result from the recent international meeting of commissioners.

"There is no doubt," he said, "that the army is stronger and firmer as a result of our decisions and the future of this great movement has been made more secure."

TOWING GERMAN SHIP AFIRE IN GULF OF PANAMA

PANAMA, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The naval tug Sciota and the Panama canal vessel Gorgona tonight reached the side of the North German Lloyd freighter Ludwigshafen, afire in the Gulf of Panama, 30 miles southeast of Cape Mala and prepared to tow it in.

SECRETARY OF LABOR DAVIS URGES RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.— (AP) — Only those foreign workers needed by American industry would be allowed entry, under a plan emphasized today by Secretary Davis as he turned from the cabinet to the senate.

"The industrial depression during the past year," he informed President Hoover, "has more clearly than ever shown the need for this departure from our haphazard method of immigration control."

The stand was taken in his tenth and final report as head of the labor department. Tomorrow he enters congress from Pennsylvania, there doubtless to work for the legislation advocated.

The document, which reviewed his decade of secretaryship, dealt in general with activities of the federal employment service and the bureau of labor statistics. Unemployment during the current slack business period was not discussed, however.

Immigration problems held dominance. More stringent naturalization and deportation laws were proposed, including provision for expulsion of habitual lawbreakers and other "classes of undesirable aliens now immune from deportation."

Restriction of immigration to industrial needs was recommended as a permanent policy. Davis wants this brought about with a codification of the immigration laws into one statute, bringing together many "fragmentary and often conflicting and discriminatory enactments" which congress has approved to meet particular situations.

Present discriminations, he continued, "largely grew out of the fact that congress enacted laws for limiting immigration from the Orient before it adopted like legislation for immigrants of other nationalities." An adaptation of the quota system for entries from the Orient would, in his opinion, give the government more complete control over immigration from the east.

In conclusion Davis expressed gratification that his years of service had seen Ppresidents Harding, Coolidge and Hoover, as well as industrial leaders, espousing "the principle of keeping all our eligible gainfully employed people at work regularly at wages which will permit them and their families to look far beyond a mere existence."

Nye To Ask S[illegible]tor Davis T[illegible]p Aside

Until Co[illegible]tee Can Inquire Into Reports of Campaign Expenditures

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30— (AP) — Chairman Nye of the senate campaign funds investigating committee announced today that he intended to ask Senator-elect Davcis, republican, of Pennsylvania, to stand aside tomorrow when he presents his credentials for entry in the senate until the committee can inquire into reports of new expenditures in his campaign.

This decision was reached today by Senator Nye upon receipts of word from Pennsylvania that a supplemental report of expenditures in the republican primary had brought the total to about $520,000 spent in behalf of the Davis-Brown ticket. Francis Shunk Brown was candidate for governor on the ticket with Davis in the primary.

Nye's request is expected to defer at least temporarily the seating of Davis who retires tomorrow from the labor post in President Hoover's cabinet. Senator Nye said he would give assurance in making his request that the committee would complete its inquiry within "one or two days".

If the $520,000 total is found to be correct for the Davis-Brown expenditures, Senator Nye said he would then leave it up to the senate to determine what part of these expenditures were attributable to Davis and what should be done about it if anything. He was not prepared to state that he would ask rejection of Davis as a senator.

However, there have been many rumors of an effort to deny Davis his senate seat because of the campaign expenditures and the new report is expected to lend strength to any movement contemplated in his district.

Senator Nye nevertheless, emphasized that the inquiry by his committee had developed that the main contest in the Pennsylvania primary was over the republican gubernatorial nomination. Gifford Pinchot defeated Mr. Brown in this race and Secretary Davis won over Senator Grundy in the senatorial contest.

No other protests against new members eligible to be sworn in tomorow are contemplated by the Nye committee. The new members include: Morrow, of New Jersey, and Carey, of Wyoming, republicans; Bulkley, of Ohio; McGill, of Kansas, and Williamson, of Kentucky.

Secretary Davis declined tonight to comment on the action proposed by Senator Nye. He said he knew nothing about the additional expenditures into which the committee seeks to inquire. He added he was not sure whether he would go to the senate tomorrow to present his credentials.

"I don't know anything about it," he said.

PRINCE OF WALES EXHIBITS MOVIE OF HIS ADVENTURES

LONDON, Nov. 30—(AP)—The Prince of Wales today assumed the rule of film impressario.

In Lambeth road in South London, he exhibited his own movie of African adventures before 700 former service men.

"It's entirely an amateur effort," the prince told them. "Some of the captions are rather short, but that's not my fault.

"You don't look at them as you do at ordinary cinema and then turn away and talk to your friend and then look back at the caption," he went on in explanation. "Your motto is deeds, not words."

The prince expressed the hope that the spectators would "get some of the enjoyment at seeing the pictures which I got by taking them." At his special request no details of the film itself will be published.

OPENING SESSION OF SINN FEIN CONGRESS

DUBLIN, Nov. 30—(AP)—The Sinn Fein organization opened its annual congress today by adopted a resolution which declared allegiance to "the government of the Irish republic," an imaginary ideal.

This action followed a raid yesterday on the head offices of the group in Dawson street, where documents were removed but no arrests were made.

J. J. O'Kelly was elected president of the organization today. Miss Mary MacSwiney, the Rev. M. Flannagan and Brian O'Higgins were chosen vice presidents. A decrease in the number of branches in Ireland was reported.

TWO MEN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF BLACKMAIL

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—Four attempts within the past two weeks to extort $10,000 blackmail from Richard Clemson, millionaire tool manufacturer of Middletown, N. Y., had resulted tonight in the arrest of two men—John Rhodes, 36, of Irvington, N. Y., and John Brady, 36, of Harrison, N. J.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Attendance in colleges and universities increased from 167,999 to 863,793 between 1900 and 1928.

Elihu Root believes that civilization and world peace advance not at treaty tables, but in the hearts of men.

More than a hundred persons in New York were subpoenaed Saturday to tell what they know of graft from vice.

The Rumanian legation in Washington denied a report that Mme. Lupescu was living in the royal palace at Bucharest.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover is in Asheville for a short visit with her son, Herbert Hoover, Jr., who is ill with incipient tuberculosis.

While J. Reuben Clark, newly accredited United States ambassador in Mexico City remains in Mexico City. The embassy will serve no liquor.

Speaker Longworth declared unalterable opposition to an extra session of congress and would do everything possible to avoid an excuse for it.

"Two Toes" a notorious wolf, was a captive and faced execution for his depredations of many years among flocks and herds near Mogehee, Ark.

Doubt was expressed by the legation at Peiping in a report to the state department that Mrs. H. D. Hayward of Seattle, was still being held by Chinese bandits.

Michael Oerchetti, 35-year old meat market proprietor, was clubbed and shot to death as he emerged from his garage in Westfield, N. J., late Saturday night.

Sinclair Lewis sailed for Stockholm Saturday to receive the Nobel prize for literature, an dhis parting word was a retort to criticism of his selection for the honor.

The "Fair of Sorotchintzy," -Moussorgsky's posthumous opera, was brought to the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, Saturday for its American premiere.

After collapsing on the courthouse steps in Montreal, Thomas Lewis, 42, of Cavendish, Vermont, died in a hospital. Authorities believed death due to alcoholic poisoning.

Before New York city, broadcasting metropolis of the United States, can attain equal eminence as a television center she may have to do something about her skyscrapers.

A candy store cashier was robbed of $3,500 and a guard who was accompanying her to a bank in Chicago, was shot in the neck in a holdup on Randolph street, Chicago's "Rialto."

A summer conference will be held at Yale university from July 6 to August 4, under the auspices of the department of education for a select group of advanced students of education.

Unemployment and the outlook for the return of prosperity will be central themes at the 51st annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, which opens in New York today.

The Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines., Ltd., announced at Montreal, an extra dividend in the form of a bonus of five cents per share, payable with the regular dividend at the end of December.

Fatalities from yesterday's explosion at the Number 5 mine of the Hailey-Ola Coal company at Lutie, Okla., had increased to 15 last night with the deaths of two injured men in a hospital at Hartshorne.

The United States commission on education in Haiti yesterday recommended to President Hoover that the United States assist in the establishment of an adequate educational system for the Caribbean republic.

Bareheaded, his white bead accentuated by a black overcoat, and his hands pulled into his sleeves as a protection against the cold. Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the Indian poet, Saturday called on President Hoover.

The greatest motion picture production boom since the advent of talking pictures was forecast for 1931 by Hollywood studio executives, who predicted the new activity would get under way before the end of January.

A testimonial dinner to Senator-elect Dwight W. Morrow of New Jersey will be given December 13 by the national prison emergency committee "in recognition of the senator's contributions to the science of prison administration."

Looking ahead to the end of the business depression and the time when it will be freed of its duties with the emergency fleet, the shiping board yesterday proposed legislation to aid it in supervising development of the American merchane marine.

Mrs. Violet Redford Mix died at Boise, Idaho, from a bullet wound, self inflicted, after she had broken into the home of her former husband, N. D. Mix and shot him twice in the abdomen. He is in a critical condition. Police ascribed jealousy as the motive.

T. Wallace Hawkes, 46, former president of the defunct Merchants and Mechanics bank, pleaded guilty in court in Macon, Ga., to fourteen charges in connection with a reported shortage of $91,000 in his accounts and wa ssentenced to ten years in prison.

The National City bank of New York, in its monthly review of economic conditions, to be published today, attributes the banking difficulties in the south and middle west primarily to the drop in real estate values and to over expansion of banking facilities.

A handful of gold coins, $350 in all, which Mexican authorities took from Theodore Douglas Robinson, former assistant secretary of the navy, as he was leaving that country, will remain in Mexico. Their equivalent in American currency will be restored to him

Graft in the service which maintains the blockade against Canadian liquor on the Detroit river seemed likely in Detroit to result in indictments of 30 present and suspended members of the customs border patrol and dishonorable discharge of 45 others. The force here includes 150 men.

SOVIET GOVT. RUSHING ITS INDUSTRIAL REFORMATION

Valerian V. Kuibyshev, President of the State Planning Commission, Claims the Pre-War Level of Industrial Production Has Been Doubled—Expects to Complete Five Year Plan in Four Years—Gives Exhaustive Analysis of the Plan's First Two Years of Operation

(Copyright, 1930, and all rights reserved by the Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Claims of full success for soviet Russia's momentous five-year plan and the confident prediction that it will be fulfilled not in five years but in four are contained in an exhaustive analysis of the plan's first two years of operation by Valerian V. Kuibyshev, president of the state planning commission.

In a study of comparative figures giving the estimates for the first two years and what he described as the actual results, the man responsible for the operation of the plan told the Associated Press that the question of fulfillment in scheduled time is no longer a problem, as this task already has been exceeded.

"The present task," he said, "consists of fulfillment of the plan before scheduled, that is, in four years." Part of M. Kuibyshev's analysis follows:

"On October first ended the second year of piatiletka (the five-year plan), that same piatiletka which excited the minds of the whole world and over which the bitterest discussion has been and continues to be conducted in the pages of the press throughout the world.

"Who does not remember the claims advanced by the greatest bourgeois economists and politicians that the estimates of the five-year plan were unreal, utopian and fantastic? Who does not remember talk that the estimates of piatiletka were mere bolshevist delirium? To this day cries are heard of the failure of piatiletka failure of the far-reaching plan for the reconstruction of the national economy of the soviet union.

"The past two years' operation of the plan furnish sufficient material both for verifying the reality of the plan's provisions and for verifying the justice of the objections and doubts which the plan aroused among representatives of bourgeois economic thought. The past two years have revealed piatiletka being exceeded in the most important sections of national economy.

"In planned industries the value of the first two years of output under piatiletka is estimated in unchanging prices as 29,333,000,000 rubles (about $14,690,000,000) with an actual value of 30,456,000,000 rubles (about $15,-280,000,000). The excess of fulfillment of piatiletka for the first two years is particularly remafkable in the field of heavy industry. While piatiletka provides in this field for 12,476,000,000 rubles, the actual output was 13,764,000,000 rubles.

"The extent to which actual output exceeds estimates may be gauged from the following figures:

"Oil—Estimated under piatiletka, 28,000,000 tons; actual output 30,-600,000 tons.

"Steel—Estimated 9,900,000 tons; output, 10,200,000.

"Rolled metal—Estimated, 7,600,000 tons; output, 8,300,000 tons.

"Electrotechnical— Estimated, 588,-000,000 rubles; ouput, 781,000,000 rubles.

"Agricultural machinery —Estimated, 472,000,000 rubles; output, 513,000,-000 rubles.

"The production of general machinery during the first two years also exceeded the plan.

"Though estimates for the first year of piatiletka proved successful, particularly remarkable successes were achieved by socialist industry in the second year. In 1929-30 the gross output increased 25 per cent, exceeding piatiletka estimates by 5 per cent.

"It must be emphasised that the increase in the output of industries producing means of production amounted last year to 40 per cent, exceeding the planned figure for the year by 16 per cent.

"In the most important industries the actual output and the piatiletka estimates compare as follows:

"Oil—Excess over the plan, 13.1 per cent.

"Steel—Excess, 6.7 per cent.

"Rolled Metal—Excess, 12 per cent.

"The output of the metal working machine building industries exceeded estimates 26.3 per cent and production in the electrotechnical industry exceeded the piatiletka estimates [illegible] per cent.

"In short, in all important industries we are progressing beyond piatiletka figures.

"A less rapid tempo of growth was recorded in the light industries in which available agricultural and raw materials acted as a limiting factor. The stimulation of native raw materials and resources will enable us next year considerably to exceed the piatiletka estimate in the light industries as well (food, cotton, etc.).

"On the whole, the pre-war level of industrial production already has been doubled."

TARDIEU SEEKS AGREEMENT BETWEEN FRANCE AND U. S.

PARIS, Nov. 30.— (AP) — Premier Tardieu's call for a real working, financial and economic agreement between France and the United States, made in a Thanksgiving day address before the American club, has aroused nation-wide interest.

It was observed tonight that while French statesmen of other days have sought ententes with Great Britain or Russia, as circumstances suggested, Premier Tardieu appears to have thrown his force, particularly in working out what might be called a non-political agreement, with the American republic.

Friends of Tardieu pictured him as not having any great interest at present in disarmament agreements because he deems that France and the United States have before them the more pressing problem of international economic ills and the necessity of putting on their feet nations which are being crushed by disturbances, economic laws and by overproduction of raw materials.

Tardieu welcomes the exercise of American political influence in Europe because he is convinced it is disinterestedly beneficial.

PRESIDENT HOOVER TO GIVE RADIO TALK TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—President Hoover is to deliver a special message to youth in a radio talk tomorrow night.

Speaking from the white house study at 8 p. m. (EST) on the combined WEAF-WJZ networks of the National chain as well as the Columbia hookup, he will address primarily the 1,800 prize winning members of the boys and girls 4-H clubs meeting in annual convention in Chicago.

The president will be introduced from Chicago by Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the national committee on 4-H club work.

Previously scheduled programs have been re-arranged including Roxy's gang on WJZ and chain billed for 7:45 p. m., which is to be replaced by a 15-minute program of El Tango Romantico.

SEAPLANE TOWED TO SAFETY IN HARBOR AT NEW HAVEN

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 30.—(AP)— Out of gas after facing strong headwinds, a seaplane piloted by L. V. Rollings, of Elizabeth, N. J., landed on the harbor here tonight and was brought to a wharf only after a struggle with heavy seas.

A tug sent out for aid, had difficulty finding the plane in the darkness. A line was finally heaved to the disabled craft and it was towed to safety.

Rollings, accompanied by Daniel Kuzine, mechanic, reported that he was en route from Boston to New York when the fuel supply ran out. They had left Albert Klute of New York city, owner of the plane, in Boston, after a hunting trip in New Brunswick.

DEMONSTRATORS CRASH WITH POLICE IN BOMBAY

BOMBAY, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Sixty-five persons were injured today in clashes between demonstrators and police. The majority of casualties occurred when police made a charge with bamboo staves on a crowd which had gathered on the esplanade in front of the police station after a ceremony of salute to the "national flag."

SHOCK FOLLOWING ATTACK FATAL TO YOUNG WOMAN

GARY, Ind., Nov. 30—(AP)—Miss Arlene Draves, 18, died early today from what Chief Deputy Coroner Chester A. Owen described as shock following an attack. Four young men were held, pending a coroner's inquest tomorrow.

Those taken into custody are Virgil Kirkland, 20, halfback on last year's state championship Horace Mann football team; Leon Stanford, 21, former Emerson high grid star; Paul Barton, 21, and Harry A. Shirk, 24, son of a Gary fire captain.

Their arrest followed Kirkland's appearance at the Draves home about 2:30 a. m., today with the announcement: "Babe's dead," and his statement which officials said implicated the others, who had all attended a party in the home of David Thomason.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION IN LONDON FOR M'CORMACK

LONDON, Nov. 30—(AP)—John McCormack was given an enthuisastic reception today at his last London concert for two years.

The audience failed to fill the vast auditorium of Albert Hall, but it applauded wildly and the noted tenor responded with numerous encores despite the fact that he obviously was suffering from a cold.

He will sail for the United States on December 31 and will make a tour of the eastern states before going to Hollywood. His accompanist, Edwin Schneider, said it was problematical whether he would make another talkie.

NEGRESS HELD FOR MURDER BARGAINED WITH POLICE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Nov. 30—(AP) —Hester Smith, Negro woman held for murder, bargained with police today.

"I 'fess I done killed him," she told detectives, speaking of the late John Munerlin, who died with a knife in his back Friday night. "I'se done ready to fix everything up all right. Y' all let me go and I'll pay for his funeral."

Her case will be investigated by the grand jury Monday.

U. S. AIR MAIL SERVICE TO CAPITAL OF BRAZIL

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 30—(AP)—S. J. Williamson brought the first United States air mail to the capital to Brazil this afternoon, marking a new era in commercial relations between the two republics.

He flew the 860 miles from Bahia in 8 and a half hours, making three stops en route.

His cargo, 52 sacks of mail, left Miami a week ago, and thus the trip cut the steamer mail time between New York and Rio by six days.

Return mail will leave here Tuesday morning and arrive in New York seven days later.

GARRETT SURRENDERED TO THE BOSTON POLICE

BOSTON, Dec. 1—(Monday)—(AP)—Oliver B. Garrett, former head of the Boston police liquor squad surrendered here at 12.30 a. m., ending a nation-wide search that began last June when he fled on the eve of his trial on charges of extortion.

WILLIMANTIC

Jordan Block, Lincoln Square Phone 150-W Residence Phone 461-J

DUMAIS CHILD HURT IN UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Nov. 30.—Roland Dumais, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dumais of 156 Quercus avenue, sustained a painful bruise on the left leg in an unusual accident this forenoon. The boy was on his way to church with his parents when a coach driven by Wilfrid Moreau of 77 South street pulled to the curb in front of St. Joseph's school on Valley street. The front tire of the car struck the projecting end of a heavy metal drain cover set in a groove on the sidewalk with the result that the cover flew upward and the sharp edge struck the boy on the leg. The child was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital where Dr. A. J. Girouard gave treatment, to be supplemented Monday with an x-ray photograph. Officer Roderick Lariviere was summoned to investigate and found that the drain cover was about three inches over the curb line. The car driver was held entirely unresponsible for the mishap.

Superior Court Cases

At the opening of the December criminal term of the Windham county superior court here next Tuesday morning, three cases of local interest will be included in the total of ten cases on the list for the term. Mrs. Angeline Gialluca and her brother, Nicholas Lorella, will be tried jointly on a charge of arson, resulting from a $1,000 fire at the home of Mrs. Gialluca last week which the man and woman have confessed setting to collect the insurance. The third case is that of Wilfred Bellevance, charged with statutory burglary.

Other criminal cases on the list are: John Murphy, intoxication; Joseph Gennette, operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor; Walter Bowen, embezzlement by agent; Walter Warren, abuse of a female child; Anthony L. Peters and Joseph R. Cardoza, robbery with violence; Forrest B. Morgan, violation of the rules of the road; Philip Grennettino, violation of the rules of the road; Edmond Mainhild, assault and breach of the peace.

There are seven uncontested divorce cases scheduled for the short calendar session and assignment of cases Tuesday afternoon. The divorce actions are: Leslie Culpin vs. Cora A. Culpin; Bertha Breault vs. Arthur Breault; Rose A. Perreault vs. Harvey Perreault; Ernest Morin vs. Helen M. Morin; Mary P. Lussier Knapp vs. Dwight Eugene Knapp; Fred Chapman vs. Ruth Tanner Chapman, and J. George Theriaque vs. Marie Louise Theriaque.

Members of the Salem Lutheran church of Norwich were guests of the Ebenezer Lutheran church here this evening for a largely attended song service with a sermonette on Advent Sunday by Rev. E. Einar Kron, pastor of the two churches, that at present are combined into one pastorate. The combined choir sang several anthems and there were selections by a male quartet, the service being conducted in English.

Private branch extensions of the inter-communicating dial system are being installed in the Windham National bank and Willimantic Trust Co. by the Southern New England Telephone Co. Telephones in the different departments of the banks will be operated by a dial on the receiving instrument instead of the bells.

Births led the total of other vital statistics by a wide margin in the town of Windham for the month of October. The records of the town clerk show that during that month there were 25 births, 13 female and 12 male children, six marriages and ten deaths. Two of the marriages were performed by Rev. Edward A. Mathieu and one by Rev. J. J. Papillon of St. Mary's church, and one each by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock of the local Congregational church, Rev. Edward F. Smiley of Windham and Rev. Paul B. Sanger of Chaplin.

None of the ten deaths were of persons under 50 years of age, except one, whose age was 42. The ages ranged as high as 84.

In one of his timely appeals for public cooperation during the Christmas mailing rush, Postmaster Frank M. Smith requests that all persons in the city who have moved from one address to another take pains to notify the postal authorities of the change. Inability to locate persons who have moved from one point to another within the city is a constant source of trouble and delay in mail delivery, especially in the case of special delivery mail. Another ruling of the post office department to which Postmaster Smith calls attention is that all homes should be equipped with slots in a door or suitable receptacles for mail, otherwise the carrier should return the mail to the post office, where addressees must call for it.

Anthony F. McKenna, son of John McKenna of Jackson street, will be one of the Tasty Yeast trio to go on the air three times weekly, beginning next week, over the new Columbia station WDRC at Hartford. The trio has been broadcasting over Station WJAR at Providence, R. I., for the past three months.

Mrs. John Reilly, chairman of the local sale of Christmas seals for the tuberculosis fund, has sent out a supply of the seals to hundreds of persons. The average appeal on this basis is of one dollar in return for the seals, which are to be used on Christmas mail and packages. The seal sale is handled through the Visiting Nurse association, of which Mrs. Reilly is president. The seal sale committee consists of Mrs. John Reilly, agent; Mrs. Robert H. Fenton, Mrs. Arthur Connor, Mrs. Carrie Stiles, Mrs. Frank Rafferty and Mrs. William Costello.

The expiration of a number of short sentences occasioned a drop of from 92 to 82 prisoners at the county jail in Brooklyn last week. The present registration includes four persons bound over to the superior court.

Richard Savory spent the week-end with his sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Resnisky, of Hartford.

George Felker, deputy regional scout executive of the Boy Scout movement, will address the Rotary club on scout work and organization at the regular meeting next Tuesday noon. He is expected to be accompanied by Regional Scoutmaster John Selman of Norwich on his visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Leonard were Sunday visitors in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Bernadette D'Auteil of Walnut street has been spending the past week with relatives and friends in Providence, R. I.

Pastor Announces Hospital Drive

In the various churches today announcements were made from the pulpit of the opening, Monday evening, of the $500,000 new hospital campaign. Rev. Henry E. Quinn, pastor of St. Joseph's church, through which St. Joseph's hospital has been provided for the past 23 years, urged the congregation to give strong support to the new hospital project, which he characterized as a development and an outgrowth of St. Joseph's hospital. "The Catholic people are always back of any measure for community progress and development," he said, "and every one of you who have substantial bank accounts or have provided for the rainy day should take pride in the feeling that you have taken a definite part in the construction of a fine new hospital by subscribing to the fund."

Miss Eulalie Jenkins, student nurse at Hartford, spent the week-end at the home of her father, Dr. Charles A. Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ryan and family of Torrington were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Kegler, of Sylvester street.

Miss Bernadette Murphy of Hartford spent the week-end at her home on Francis street.

CHAPLIN MAN ARRESTED ON COMPLAINT OF GIRL

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Nov. 30.—Harry W. Everett, about 32, of Chaplin, was arrested at the filling station he operates on the Putnam-Danielson highway this morning on charges of seduction and fornication, the arrest being made by Deputy Sheriff Ernest A. Holland of this city. A warrant for the man's arrest was sworn out by Grand Juror George Reed on complaint of Helen Victoria Ernberg, 21, of Chaplin. Both Everett and the girl are former residents of New York. Everett appeared before Justice of the Peace Miss Theresa Dauberneck of the Chaplin town court, who granted a continuance of the case until Monday, Dec. 8, under bonds of $1,000, which were furnished by Ross Moran of Chaplin. The accused did not enter a plea today.

COLCHESTER

MORE SMOKE THAN FIRE IN CELLAR OF LEVINE HOME

Assistant Foreman Herman Conrad, with the engine and squad of men, was called about 12:30 Sunday afternoon to extinguish a small fire in the cellar of the Samuel Levine residence on Lebanon avenue. The blaze, which started from an electrical short circuit, was extinguished with very little damage being done. The cellar had filled with dense smoke, making it difficult for the firemen to enter.

Miss Carol Bock, student at Russell Sage college, Troy, N. Y., visited over the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bock.

Fire Chief Harold F. Brown spent the week-end with Boston friends.

Going to Norwich

Members of Oliver Woodhouse lodge No. 51, K. of P., will visit the Norwich lodge, K. of P., this (Monday) evening when the Colchester degree team will confer the third degree on a class.

Hyman Slavkin, of Hartford, former local resident, was calling on friends and relatives here Sunday.

Miss Clara E. Park, teacher in Danbury, Misses Alice, Claire and Margaret Brown and Rae Freedman, teachers in Hartford, and Evelyn R. Strong, teacher in Newington, spent the week-end at their homes here.

A large crowd of students and interested townspeople attended the recent presentation, in Day Hall, of the three-act comedy, "The Burglary at Brown's," the proceeds being for the benefit of the Academy Student association. Those taking part were: Lillian Hankin, Max Schmiel, Doris Riley, Sam Berman, Joseph Busel, Edward O'Connor, Hyman Falk, John Gregory and Beatrice Gitlin. The play was directed by the domestic science instructor, Miss Pearl M. Tiffany, assisted by the English instructors, Misses Barbara C. Cole and Josephine O'Brien. This was the first play presented this season by Bacon Dramatic club and the students and directors are being highly complimented on the fine program presented.

At the meeting of Colchester Grange in Grange hall, Wednesday evening, Hebron Grange degree team is to confer the third and fourth degrees on a class of seven.

COLUMBIA

Miss Nellie Hunt, of Providence, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Ethel Blakely.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arnold and son spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at the home of Mrs. Arnold's sister, in White Plains, N. Y.

Miss Ruth Comstock, teacher of the center school, spent Thanksgiving day in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Failor and three children, of Montclair, N. J., are spending several days in Columbia, guests of Mrs. Failor's sister, Miss Anne Dix.

Clayton E. Hunt, Jr., a freshman at Worcester Polytechnic institute, is spending the Thanksgiving recess at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Winsor, Lauriston Winsor and Miss Helen Winsor, of Johnston, R. I., spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Winsor's sister, Mrs. Clayton Hunt. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Winsor's mother, Mrs. Louise Goff, who has been staying in Columbia with her other daughter, Mrs. Hunt, for the past six months. Mrs. Goff will spend the winter in Johnston.

Town schools closed Wednesday for the remainder of the week.

The thermometer Friday morning dropped to the lowest temperature of the season so far, 14 being registered on the Green, with probably lower prevailing in other parts of the town.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mrs. Bessie Trythall were Mr. and Mrs. Lucine Hennequin and two children, E. P. Ladd, Mrs. Etta Taylor, Mrs. Edith Taylor and two sons, all of Willimantic. Later in the day they were joined by Mrs. Nellie Joslin and son, George, and Mrs. Randolph Bullard, of Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Porter spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Porter's brother, W. C. Robinson, of Post Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isham, Mrs. Ruth Jacobs, Mrs. Harriet Little, Mrs. Mary Smith and son, Roland Smith, Luther Buell and Miss Rachael Buell, of Columbia, spent Thanksgiving day at Spring Hill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gillette.

Mrs. Florence Badge entertained Thanksgiving day Miss Edna Latham, Miss Mildred Latham, of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lyman, of Hartford, and Lewellyn Latham, of Baltimore.

WEDDING

Nye—Greene

Miss Laura Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greene, of Columbia, and Arthur Nye, of Andover, were married Thanksgiving afternoon in the Liberty Hill parsonage. The bride has been employed in the Willimantic Trust Co., and the groom is a state highway foreman. Mr. and Mrs. Nye will make their home in Andover. Mr. Nye is a brother of Mrs. Fred Abell, of Columbia.

VOLUNTOWN

Voluntown has answered the annual Red Cross roll call in its usual generous manner. No doubt the membership contributions would have been greater had business conditions been better. Miss Berthe Lewis was in charge of the local drive assisted by Mrs. Emily Chatfield and Mrs. Edward E. Clarke, and they deserve credit for the successful outcome.

The large maple on Main street near the red barn has been cut down. This passes a once beautiful shade tree.

A new line of electric light poles has been erected on Main street as far as the Center school. The school has been wired and connected with line, so there are no more dark days in school.

In the Center school, Voluntown, the following pupils had perfect attendance from Sept. 1 to Dec. 1: Anita Auranen, William Antilla, Catherine Brand, Florence Lemieux, Paul Laine, Charles Roode, Alfred Vincent, Yvonne Boucher, Marie Johnson, Rosella Vincent, Edward Rudolph, Clarence Macomber, Roland Lemieux, Orville Herbert, Shirley Durfee, Florence Baton, Alice Button, Mary Ellen Vincent, William Niemi, Joseph Baton, Eddie Gravelin, Rudolph Magry, Gloria Marion.

An honor roll composed of the three highest pupils from each grade has been compiled. In case of a tie, four names are entered. The honor roll for the first three months of school is as follows:

Grade 8—Jane Kaufman, Paul Laine, (Anita Auranen, Eva James).

Grade 7—Ellen Daugherty, Cora Robbins, William Antilla.

Grade 6—Joyce Dupont, (Sarah Goldberg, Nancy Daugherty,) Fred Robbins.

Grade 5—Rena Gravlin, Marie Johnson, Anna Macumber.

Grade 4—Mary Daugherty, Mary Ellen Vincent, Arville Herbert.

Grade 3—Shirley Durfee, Esther Gravlin, Joe Robbins.

Grade 2—Rita Church, Beverly Downing, Gloria Marion.

Grade 1—Lois Marshall, John Macumber, Eddie Gravlin.

Tuesday afternoon the pupils at the Center school held their Thanksgiving exercises in Union hall, a large number of parents and friends attending. A well-arranged entertainment was given to a greatly pleased audience.

Tax Collector George B. Sheldon is busy these days receiving the personal tax from local taxpayers and hopes to equal his 1929 record of a perfect score, a record hard to beat.

THOMPSON

Quinatisset grange has its annual Educational Night in charge of Principal W. G. Colby next Tuesday at eight o'clock in Mr. Chandler's hall. This program is open to the public and is always worth while.

The committee for the Christmas entertainment is to hold a food sale to pay the epenses of the treat. This committee is Mrs. Bogardus, Mrs. Hannah Bates and Mrs. Henry Robbins. The Girl Scouts have been asked to give a play that is to be in charge of Sarah Ballard.

The Woman's Home and Foreign missionary society will meet with Miss Harriet R. Lewis, Wednesday, Dec. 3rd. Mrs. Oscar Munyan is to be leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsdell and daughters spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Munyan, in Worcester.

The King's Daughters are to hold their monthly all-day meeting in their hall, Wednesday, Dec. 3rd.

H. P. Amidon and family were guests of G. W. Amidon, Stafford Springs, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, of Boston, have been visiting at the Hoenig home.

About thirty friends gave Helen Law a birthday party at her home, Saturday night. She received a number of gifts.

Raymond Bixby and family, of Worcester, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bixby.

Betty Maitland broadcasted from station WCAC at Storrs Monday night her experiences at Camp Vail, National 4-H club camp, at the Eastern States exposition in Springfield. Her father, Alexander Maitland, announced the program for the Windham County 4-H clubs.

Florence Thompson and family, of Middletown have been visiting at Herbert Robbins'.

The Brandy Hill C. E. Flying Squadron visited Thompson Hill Sunday night. The Thompson society visited two societies in Southbridge last week Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLeod and Ruth Loges of Manchester, N. H., have been at Warren Loges's.

Miss Ella Ballard visited schools in Worcester on Friday.

There was a family gathering at the Chase homestead Thanksgiving day.

A Domino club has been formed here. Recent hostesses were Mrs. Fred Herrick and Mrs. Clinton Lewis.

Thanksgiving day Mrs. Vonsiatsky entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ream, Henry and John Wightson Ream, Mr. Ives, of New York and a number of boys from the Pomfret school.

There was a family dinner at Roger Clapp's on Thanksgiving.

A large police dog owned by Frank Herrick, bit two sheep of Mr. Hill and drove them into the pond, where they were drowned.

A Speedy Flight

Ray VanArsdale, of Newton Center, Mass., came by airplane to visit Frank Herrick last week Saturday making the trip in thirty-eight minutes.

Mrs. Robert Summers entertained the West Thompson Ladies' Aid society last week.

Miss Lucy Olney entertained Mr. and Clarence Jacobs Thanksgiving day.

Miss F. D. Wiley and Miss Rosamond Danielson were at Connecticut college Monday.

Thanksgiving guests at the parsonage included Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Lyon, of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Rose Thompson of Providence.

F. A. Decker and family were at Mrs. Hunt's in Providence for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Carrie Brott went to Boston with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Mills to take Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mills and their children.

Miss F. D. Wiley, Miss Lucy Olney, Mrs. A. Vonsiatsky, Miss Harriet R. Lewis and Miss Augusta Elliott were in Pomfret Tuesday at Miss Bonet's card party.

Mrs. A. Vonsiatsky attended the Yale-Harvard football game.

New government tests show that Vitamin G, which is a food factor promoting growth, is from five to eight times more abundant in beef liver, pork liver and beef kidney than in lean beef, pork or lamb.

MOOSUP

Much sorrow is felt for Mrs. Clarence Tyler in the death of her six-year-old son, Kenneth, who died at Backus hospital, after he was struck by a truck on the highway in front of his home.

Rev. R. W. E. DeWolfe and family spent Thanksgiving at Cranston, R. I., with relatives.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion gave a very successful dance Wednesday evening, which was well attended.

Miss Millicent Goyette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goyette, of Linnell street, is visiting this week in Hartford with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacNamara.

This week there were 30 tables of whist played at the American Legion's second whist party. These are being given to raise money for airplane markers. The prizes, which were donated by the different merchants of the town, were won by Miss Margaret Levesque, Mrs. Clara Beausoleil, Mrs. Rose Parenteau, William Carroll, Alexis Bissonette and Delphis Lamoureux.

Miss Alice Ray, a teacher of Hartford, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Miss Coffey, of Linnell street.

NO. GROSVENORDALE

Elizabeth Corttles, of Syracuse university spent the Thanksgiving recess with her mother, Mrs. Edith B. Corttis.

Miss Theresa Coderre, of New York was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coderre for the holiday and week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose of Pawtucket, R. I., were holiday guests of Mrs. Emma Skotchless.

Mr. and Mrs. John Svenning and son Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baboitt and son Norman motored to New Britain where they were guests of relatives.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church and the young people of the parish were guests of Mrs. Fred D. Chandler Friday night.

Paul Coderre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coderre spent the Thanksgiving recess at his home. He is a student at Assumption college, Worcester.

ANDOVER

Guests at Mrs. Helen Gatchell's, Thursday for dinner were, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bartlett and son, Guy Jr., and daughter, Martha, Mrs. Charles Wright and sons, Carol and Holden, Donald McPereon of Hartford, Miss Irene Davenport of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Wilson Tripp of Providence and her own family, in all numbering 14.

Royal D. Webster and family of Southbridge and Miss Amy Randall of Hartford were guests of Mr. Webster's mother, Mrs. M. L. Webster, Thursday.

Dwight Webster, Southbridge, is spending the week end with his grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Webster.

David Leomans of Wellsey college is at the home of his parents for the week end.

The cost of a radio telephone call between New York and Australia is $45 for the first three minutes and $15 for each additional minute.

POETRY

Forgotten

Friend of past years, from whom no signal flashes
On those grim towers forgetfulness has built,
Carest thou not that here 'mid memory's ashes
I sit and mourn o'er love's wine vainly spilt?

There in the mire the silver chain lies broken
That bound us, by thy proud foot spurred aside;
Say, as I lift this link, and this, for token
Of thy cold heart, do I not well to chide?

Who answers? "Friend! for whom my love once counted
As dear the Cross, the rending nail and thorn,
Might I not chide until shame's fierce flush mounted
Thy cheek for love paid by forgetful scorn?"

O friend, I chide no more!—thou art forgiven,
Although my proffered hand thou dost not heed;
How could I chide, who seventy times and seven
From a forgotten Christ for grace must plead?

—Henry W. Clark in British Weekly.

Before The Snow

Today the aging fingers of the trees
Let go their clutch of gold,
Knowing that dead hands will not need the hoard
Grown burdensome to hold.

Flung gold, it stirs in drifts about our feet
Still whispering of loss,
And all forgotten by the praying trees
Changes to crumbling dross.

The joy of bubbling song has fled away
From out the wind-raked wood,
And though they say no word, the trees foreknow
White stillness will be good.

They can be patient. The full tide of life
Has swept them and gone by;
And so, awaiting that deep, passionless dream,
Dead hands implore the sky.

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

New Maid: "Please, sir, a man ran up and stole your car. I couldn't see what the man is like, but I took the number of the car."—Vart Hem.

Jimmy (watching something tasty going into sickroom)—Please, ma, can I have the measles when Willie's done with them?—Toronto Globe.

Mrs. Campbell—Dear, I saw the sweetest little hat in a shop today.

Mr. Campbell—Put it on and let me see how you look in it.—Nottingham Post.

Pretty Co-ed: "I want a track suit I can wear around the gymnasium."

Clerk (absently): "Certainly, madam, what size is your gymnasium?"—R. R. Magazine.

Boy—Good morning.
Girl—Good morning.
Boy—Good driving.
Girl—Good boy?
Boy—Good girl?
Girl—Yes.
Boy—Goodby.
(Editor—Good Lord!)—Brown Jug.

Lieutenant (after teaching the theory of saluting)—Now, suppose you were going home for the week end and found the captain sitting in the carriage you entered, what would you do?

Recruit—If there were time, I should look for another carriage—Nebelspalter.

The argumentative town alderman was on his feet, bent on pulverizing his opponents.

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "Alderman Jones says this is a case of six of one and a half-a-dozen of the other. But I say no—most emphatically no! It is exactly the contrary."—Bystander.

At one of our Western military posts there was a young recruit who during the first few weeks of his army life was made the victim of so many army jokes that he doubted all men and their motives. One night while he was pulling his first tour of guard duty, the tall figure of one of the regimental officers loomed up in the darkness before him.

"Who goes there?" he challenged.

"Major Moses," replied the officer.

The rookie scented another practical joker. "Advance, Moses," he said, "and give the Ten Commandments."—112th Regiment Magazine.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Flies and mosquitoes can not stand pine oil.

There are more than 8,000 varieties of dahlia on the market.

The United States imports furs from about eighty countries of the world.

Almost 100 mills in the south are manufacturing paper from the southern pine.

A silkworm produces several thousand yards of silk filaments in the course of its working career.

Nashville, Tenn., held the record for having the least unemployment, when statistics were gathered this spring.

The experiment of running an air line for passengers from Liverpool to London is being tried for three months.

Nitrogen is used in the manufacture of photographic films, artificial leather, artificial silk, imitation ivory and dyes.

The prickly pear cactus, which covers millions of acres of land in Australia, is being fought back by insect enemies imported into that country.

One-room schools, the "little red schoolhouses" of an earlier generation, dropped out of existence at the rate of 4,600 a year between 1920 and 1926.

A survey recently made by the United States office of education shows that more students than ever are entering colleges and other higher institutions of education.

A Belfast (Me.) citizen, owner of a fine clock, took it to the jeweler's to be regulated. In due course he called for it and the jeweler remarked as he handed it across the counter, "As I have wound it, you won't need to touch it for a week." "Won't need to wind it for a week?" gasped the customer. "And why not?" "It's an eight-day clock. Didn't you know it?" returned the jeweler. "Know it?" shouted the excited clock owner. "No! I've had that clock for over twenty-five years and wound it every night of my life."

Receiving a telephone call from a frightened woman that "there is a battle going on up here," a squad of Pasadena (Cal.) police raced to North Fair Oaks avenue, arriving in time to see a man fire a load of buckshot into the top of a tall palm tree. The officers waited breathlessly to see the victim fall, but only a palm frond fluttered downward. The owner of the tree, Mrs. S. H. Harrison, appeared and explained that she had hired a tree trimmer, who, lacking an adequate ladder, had invented this efficient method of tree trimming. The police didn't approve of the invention and ordered the tree trimmer to get a longer ladder.

GALES FERRY

A family party entertained over the holiday by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. French included the former's grandfather, Allen D. French and his aunt, Mrs. H. Kelly, from Plymouth, Mass., his parents, Attorney and Mrs. C. F. French, his brother, George and wife and young daughter, Estelle, and another brother Clarence French, all from Waltham, Mass.

Mrs. Charles McKennie, with her daughter, Durrett, of Bronxville, N. Y., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. B. B. Leonard, at her cottage on the Bluff, was joined here by Mr. McKennie for a holiday visit. Mrs. McKennie and daughter returned with him Thursday evening to their home.

Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Monett A. Lawson and family, at Long Cove.

Miss Em Beth Bennett of New York was home for over Thanksgiving a guest of her cousin, Miss Emma E. Davis.

Mrs. Allen Shaw Bush was entertained for the holiday by Mrs. E. E. Kenerson, in New London.

November Dandelions

Albert Messier and his sisters, Misses Edwiner and Regina Messier of Danielson, with Napoleon Peltier of Putnam were guests Sunday of Mr. Peltier's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott of the Lester district. While taking a walk through the woods that day Mrs. Abbott found five dandelion blossoms.

Mrs. Allen Shaw Bush entertained recently for the day Dr. Frank L. Moore, of Chicago, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Kenerson, of New London. Dr. Moore is a superintendent of the Congregational church and was associated with the late Rev. A. S. Bush in religious work in the western states.

Lawrence Rasie, of Boston, was home for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rasie, of the Stoddard district, over the holiday and week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery W. Main and daughter, Elizabeth of the Stoddard district, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young of Waterford, were entertained for Thanksgiving by Mrs. Latham E. Smith and family at Rose Lawn farm.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Allen of Long Cove entertained Mrs. Frances Bryson and daughter, Miss Ruth Bryson, of New London, on the holiday.

William H. B. DuMont and daughter, Miss Jean, of Montclair, N. J., with his sons, Bruce and Donald DuMont, from New London, motored here for a call at their summer cottage on the holiday.

"It Controls the Nerves"

"I am a saleslady in a store. My nerves got the best of me and I never had good finger nails because I could not stop biting them off. My appetite was poor and I was always tired. One of my friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I know that it controls the nerves because I have no desire to bite my nails now, and they are long and well kept. My appetite is enormous and I feel like a new person. I have recommended your medicine to many girls with the same good results."—Ethel Fleetwood, 3023 Bandin Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

CAPITOL THEATRE
Willimantic
NOW PLAYING
"The Big Trail"
EXTRA MATINEE SHOW TODAY
AT 4:00 P. M.

BUY AN ATWATER KENT
RADIO
With the GOLDEN VOICE
AND BE SURE

That's Just it—You are sure, absolutely sure of what you're getting.

You know Atwater Kent dependability—unfailing, uninterrupted performance night after night through the years. Any owner will tell you you practically never require service. You know the Golden Voice, compared with ordinary radio tone. You know Atwater Kent workmanship. Its easy to decide—especially easy when you know our easy terms, Call us today.

H. I. PHILLIPS
The Only Local Authorized Dealer
Tel. 1966 Capitol Theatre Building Willimantic

BIGGER AND BETTER

THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX

Strikingly beautiful, fleet and smart —a masterpiece of Fisher styling

Never has the superiority of Body by Fisher been more strikingly exemplified than in the Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six!

With the added advantage of a lengthened wheelbase, Fisher designers have achieved in the new Chevrolet an impressive degree of smartness, comfort and luxury.

Inside and out, scores of refinements stamp this car as a masterpiece of modern coachwork. Radiator, headlamps and tie-bar form an unusually attractive and distinctive ensemble. Mouldings sweep back in an unbroken line to blend with the smart new body contours. And new color combinations lend a new individuality. Interiors, too, are exceptional. The new mohair and broadcloth upholstery is smartly tailored. Seats are wider and more luxuriously cushioned. A deeper windshield and wider windows give better vision. And beautiful new modern fittings lend a final note of charm.

Many mechanical improvements are also evident in this Bigger and Better Six. Among these are a stronger frame; easier steering; a more durable clutch; a quieter, smoother transmission; and many important engine refinements.

The Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six is now on display. See it today—drive it! It is the Great American Value.

Front view of the new Chevrolet Sport Coupe

CHEVROLET

» » AT NEW LOW PRICES « «

The Phaeton	$510	The Coach	$545	Sport Coupe with rumble seat	$575
The Roadster	$475	Standard Coach	$535	Standard Sedan	$635
Sport Roadster with rumble seat	$495	Standard Five-Window Coupe	$545	Special Sedan	$650

SPECIAL EQUIPMENT EXTRA
Chevrolet Trucks from $355 to $695
All prices f. o. b. Flint, Michigan

NEW CHEVROLET SIX

IT'S WISE TO CHOOSE A SIX

AUSTIN-CHEVROLET CO.
82-90 NORTH MAIN STREET PHONE 202

DANIELSON

WOODSTOCK CHILD FOUND DEAD OF STARVATION

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Nov. 30—A death from starvation was reported this afternoon from that northwest corner of the town of Woodstock that lies in the vicinity of Black Pond, where the Tri-County Y. M. C. A. camp is located. Coroner Arthur G. Bill went forth from Danielson this morning to check up on the matter. The coroner said late this afternoon that the child, William Parker Perrin, age 6 days, had passed out of the picture as the result of being improperly fed. Dr. Ernest R. Pike of Woodstock was the attending physician. Arrangements were practically completed this afternoon for the burial of the child.

The dead child was the son of Charlotte E. Perrin, who is said to have been separated from her husband for the past three or four years. There is no explanation as to the father of the child.

This unusual case may or may not have its after effects, as to investigation. It happens to be unusual because the infant's death is attributed to starvation.

Rain Makes Bad Driving

A wild southeast storm began kicking in here shortly after sunset tonight, bringing rain on the wings of a high wind. And with it came a change of temperature from a few degrees agove zero yesterday morning to 63 degrees at 6 o'clock tonight. As the sun went down tonight difficulties began to multiply for those who sat back of steering wheels. State officers remained on duty throughout the night at the barracks on North Main street, awaiting any possible developments.

A Warning to Grafters

Herewith—make no mistake about it—is a warning for the vultures to layoff. The vultures, the low-down dregs of humanity, it may be recorded here, are those who are trying to rob the town of Killingly in this particular period of stress under the guise of poverty. This item deals with those who are working, who, in some cases have money in the bank; who in other cases have pledged their earnings, one two or three years ahead on installment purchases to make an effort to stay up there with the crowd. They're out of luck—make no mistake about this.

No person that arrives at the town hall in an automobile on which he owes more or less to seek aid is going to get it. He can sell his car and eat on the proceeds if he has to, but the town is just not going to support him, that's a sure shot.

This is a hard-boiled recital, in an effort to drive off the grafters. It is fully realized. Where there is real suffering, real want, there is no place for cheaters, yet they are in your midst, people of the town of Killingly.

In the name of all that is fair and honest, Killingly residents are asked here to give the selectmen all information they may have about people seeking town aid. The selectmen want to know about the people who are paying for automobiles, for radios, for electric washing machines, for this and that at so much a week, and in many cases whining around to the town for support. There's a beating that the taxpayers are just going to turn down flat, while complaining not at all about doing everything in their power for the unfortunates who are really deserving.

The treasury of the town of Killingly is under fire just now by those who —to put it mildly—would steal the community's money to get by. These racketeers are out of luck. The people are asked to make the situation more difficult for them by telling the selectmen about those who live here and hope to have the town support them the coming winter.

A cheater is out of place in this town this winter. Plans are being worked out to put a few of them in jail. As to the deserving poor, they have nothing to worry about. The town will be generous with them—will see that they get by.

A Pitiful Case

On the eve of the holiday season there goes with putting this kind of an item into the record with much regret that a mother, down in the southern section of the borough, has been reduced to feeding her infant on flour mixed with water as the only diet available. The child, incidentally, has been sleeping in a make-shift crib constructed out of a box. Now, after all, there is little excuse for that about these parts. There are agencies who look out for such cases, but these agencies do not function unless they are informed as to where they are supposed to go to work. In the case mentioned false pride allowed a child to suffer because a parent hesitated to tell. It's just too bad.

Four Held for Laurel Theft

Four Rhode Island men—there names were not available late this afternoon when this was written—were being held at the state police barracks on North Main street after 6 o'clock tonight to answer to a charge of taking laurel from land owned by Carl Gallup in Sterling. They were picked up by State Officer John Murphy.

This particular holiday season anyone who goes onto the land of another to cut down Christmas trees, or to gather trailing vines or what not is about bound to be out of luck. There has been such publicity about this sort of stuff that the average person knows it is wrong to do. The penalties that may be inflicted are heavy enough to deter any sensible person from stealing in this manner.

From now on state officers, ranging the countryside, will be on the lookout for those who would take whatever they see wherever they see it. These raiders had better watch out.

It just would not be nice at all to spend Christmas in that jail over at Brooklyn

Breaks Arm in Accident

Cars operated by Lillie Bunning of Oneco and John Compagna of Moosup went into a jam today. The woman came out of the crash with her right arm broken and with head cuts. Campagna, also jammed up more or less, was ordered by the state officer who checked up the accident to appear in a justice's court in Sterling Monday afternoon.

Angelina Del Pesco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Del Pesco, of Mechanic street, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam and this afternoon was operated upon at the institution for appendicitis. The child, 12 years of age, was reported to be resting comfortably tonight.

What's this now? Having stood the old order of things on its head in the state election of early November, political manipulators will bet you just about anything they have in the way of small change that they will pick and name the members of the borough government at the annual election next April, and start an econmy administration. There does not happen to be any party politics in this proposal. The canvassers assert that they are just going out and ask this one and that one to vote for this one and that one, picking their candidates and their voters solely with an eye to cutting down all needless overhead.

For years the annual borough election in the spring has been a nonpartisan affair. One ticket has gone before the voters. It mattered little whether the candidates were republicans or democrats or uncatalouged. Seems it's going to be different in the spring. There's to be a big uprising, it is said. This being true, no one can punish the average citizen holding borough office. He serves without pay, in the great majority of instances. Many times he gets a razz for this and that. A wisester said this afternoon "Why not elect all the protestors to office, and after they are in, give them a ride."

Mrs. Alfred Pluze left today to spend the winter with relatives in Stamford.

Football enthusiasts here got a kick out of sitting around in the dark last night and hearing the broadcast of the Dartmouth-Stanford game out there on the coast.

One heard today that an old buck deer—so old that he was wrinkled and gray and clumsy, stood off a youngster dog that had him cornered, casually batting the dog away with his forward hoofs, that a hunter out after rabbits got a real kick out of watching the show, until the dog was called off and the venerable buck went his way.

Rev. Edward Shelly, M. S., a missionary of the LaSalette order in charge of St. James' parish, preached at two of the masses here today.

George C. LeFevre of New Bedford was a visitor with friends in Danielson over the week end.

Gavitt's Restaurant

NOW OPEN

At Railroad Square,

Danielson

Fine Food, temptingly served

"If not satisfied, tell us; If satisfied, tell others."

I. F. GAVITT

Proprietor

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Sessions L. Adams, of Meriden, was at his home here for a short stay at the week-end.

Edward Spicer, of Dayville, has been at his home for a few days.

PLAINFIELD CHURCH CELEBRATES 225th ANNIVERSARY

CENTRAL VILLAGE, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Charles MacFarland was the soloist at the evening service Sunday at the celebration of the 225th anniversary of the Plainfield church. A number from here attended.

Fractures Wrist in Fall

Mrs. Clinton Frink, of Canterbury Green, fell on the street and fractured her wrist. Mrs. Frink is a past noble grand of the Rebekah lodge of this village.

Miss Elizabeth Wilde, student nurse at Backus hospital, Norwich, has been at her home for a short stay.

DECIDE TO UNITE WITH PLAINFIELD CONG'L. CH.

Friday evening the members of the local church and members of the Ecclesiastical society met at the vestry to act upon the proposal to unite the two parishes. They agreed to maintain the course the trustees had recommended. It was decided to unite with the Plainfield church for a longer time, after Rev. Mr. Prentice leaves as his resignation takes effect Dec. 16. Mrs. George Loring, Wilfred Lawson and Mrs. Stuart Ellsworth are the committee to secure preachers to supply the pulpit until a pastor is secured to fill the vacancy after Mr. Prentice leaves the Plainfield church On recommendation of Rev. Mr. Prentice, a church calendar will be printed early in December. Mrs. Charles Barber will donate these calendars in memory of her husband, Charles E Barber.

FUNERAL

Henry Gendron

The funeral of Henry Gendron, 69, who died at a Norwich hospital, was held from the home of his brother-in-law, Peter Plouff, Saturday morning. Requiem mass was celebrated at All Hallows' church, Moosup. Burial was in the family lot in Sacred Heart cemetery, Wauregan. Mr. Gendron leaves his wife, who will return to Gilbertville, Mass., to make her home indefinitely with her sister, with whom she has lived for a few months during her husband's serious illness.

Miss Norma Day, a student at Simmons college, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Cora Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Morrow, of Hartford, have been guests of Mrs Morrow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eradley.

Miss Laura Nickolson has been a visitor in Pawtucket.

One evening, about 7:30 during the week, a Buick auto driven by James Warren of this village, collided with a Packard auto, coming from the south and going to Lowell, Mass. Mr. Warren was driving to Moosup and they met at the boarding house corner. Both machines were badly damaged. Mrs. Warren's head went through the windshield and her forehead and legs and mouth were badly cut so that stitches were taken by Dr. Garcia of Moosup, who was called to the home of Wilfred Paradise into whose house he was taken. She was later taken to her home, Mr. Warren's eye was bruised and he was badly shaken up. A state cop from the Danielson barracks investigated.

Much sympathy has been expressed for Mrs. Clarence Tyler of Sterling in the sudden death of her little son Kenneth, on Thanksgiving. The child leaves his grandmother, Mrs. Stephen Tyler an aunt, Mrs. Walter Curry and four uncles, Raymond, Everett, Howard and Irving Tyler in this village.

The body of Mr. Gendron who died at the hospital in Norwich was brought here Friday to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Peter Plouff. Mr. and Mrs. Gendron were residents here until a few weeks ago when Mr. Gendron, who had been an invalid for several years, was taken to the hospital. The home was broken up on account of Mrs. Gendron's health and she went to live with out of town relatives.

Peter Denis who is employed at Point Judith, has been at his home for a short stay.

This prescription for a cold was advised by Queen Elizabeth: Take a quart of newe milk, put into it 2 sponefulls of honey, 4 ounces of linseede, and as it boyles put in pieces of scarlett or redd cloth and laye one peece on your stomack and one opposite to that on the backe and soe goe to bedd; swat and you shalbe well.

ELEVEN ARRESTED IN RAID ON NO. GROSVENORDALE GAMBLING DEN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Nov. 30.—Frank O'Clair, proprietor, and ten frequenters of North Grosvenordale's Main street speakeasy and gambling parlor located in the basement of the St. Jean Baptiste hall, were arrested early Sunday morning when a squad of state officers of Danielson barracks operating under the direction of State Officer John T. Murphy, shortly after midnight, descended upon the place and in a raid that followed seized a quantity of home brew beer, an elaborate layout of gambling devices, and playing card equipment, together with a "pot" of crap game stakes totaling $10.

The Sabbath morning crap shooters, realizing their predicament, made a half-hearted attempt to exit through a rear door, but the police intervention was so well timed that not a single frequenter was successful in leaving.

Police said today that the basement den had been under suspicion for several weeks. To members of the Independent club, supporters of the amusement parlor and to out of town patrons, O'Clair's place was known under the nautical term of "Davy Jones' Locker." Its name was justly becoming for according to the police, admittance could be secured only with a pass key issued to bona fide Independents. In addition to an improvised bar room where beer and hard liquors were dispensed by a salaried, white aproned steward, the quarters contained an elaborate layout of gambling equipment including specially constructed rubber cushioned tables for dice games and high banked pool tables which were quickly converted into dice tables when the billiard artists tired of their pastime. The whole affair Lieut. Prquhart said embraced the ideas of an artist skilled in such lines of design.

The quarters the police said, were rented from the owners of the building who informed officers when questioned, that they supposed the space was occupied by a social organizaion carrying on in a legitimate manner.

Before returning to the barracks this morning the policemen under the direction of Officer Murphy appropriately provided for the "locking of Davy Jones' Locker.

O'Clair, manager of the club, was released today under bonds of $500 for appearance in justice court in North Grosvenordale Monday morning, when he will be arraigned on charges of keeping intoxicating liquors with intent to sell and keeping a gambling house. The frequenters were released under bonds of $25 which were furnished by Arthur Plouffe, of North Grosvenordale, for their appearance in court Monday to answer for charges of frequenting a gambling house.

It was understood today that the nocturnal raid of the state police rests in the fact that complaints were registered with the police by families of certain members of the club alleged to have been gambling away funds which were needed for the support of their homes.

Officers participating in the raid were Elton T. Nolan, Royal V. Scranton, George R. Martin and Lionel H. Poirier.

PUTNAM

TAXI ZONES MAY BE ESTABLISHED IN PUTNAM

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PUTNAM, Nov. 30.—The belief held by Putnam taxicab drivers with regard to the state public utilitites commission's proposal to adjust taxi fare rates will ultimately result in a set of taxi zones being established within the city. Such a plan will probably be discussed at the meeting of the taxi men and the commission's special agent which will take place Tuesday morning at the municipal building on Church street at ten o'clock.

Reason for the commission's sudden interest in the rates being charged by local drivers is unexplainable, according to a number of the taximen who have been notified to be present at Tuesday's meeting. A check-up of several of the cabmen this week drew forth the assertion that all are satisfied with the revenue being obtained on their runs under the present system of rates. What plans will be suggested is not known although the meeting is said by certain members of the guild to be the forerunner of the state's institution of a zoning scale.

Hospital Drive Closes Today.

The formal closing of the $25.000 building fund campaign for the Day Kimball hospital nurses' home will take place on Monday, according to Mrs. A. A. Vonsiatsky, of Thompson, general chairman of the drive. A meeting of the campaign committee will be held on Monday and final and complete reports of their activities will be filed with the general committee to be prepared for publication. The last of a series of benefits for the home fund was run off last week in the form of a boxing card staged by the Putnam Boxing club in St. John's hall on Providence street which netted a substantial amount. No further benefit enterprises are contemplated, although several last minute contributions are expected to be received. The general belief, with returns still incomplete, is that the drive has gone over the top by many hundred dollars. So certain are the members of the committee that the drive has met with complete success is the announcement of the building committee this week that the $50,000 building being erected at the hospital grounds on Pomfret street, will be ready for occupancy by February 1st.

Norman Forcier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delphis Forcier, of Grosvenordale, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital suffering from a fracture of the left arm. The Forcier child was injured this morning when he fell from the limb of a tree.

Another patient admitted to the hospital this morning was Mrs. Lily Bunning of Oneco, injured in an auto accident occurring in that town early today. Mrs. Bunning is suffering from bruises and lacerations of the body and a fractured arm.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Rosalie Arpin.

A death in this city late Friday afternoon was that of Mrs. Rosalie Arpin, 40, who died at her home on Mill street, following a lingering illness. Mrs. Arpin who was a native of Canada, had lived in this city for a number of years and was a widely known and respected resident of the north end section. She is survived by her husband, Wilfred Arpin.

WEDDING.

Woodis-Campbell.

A wedding of interest to people of Putnam and Norwich took place Saturday afternoon in Oxford, Mass., when Miss Evely Campbell, of Norwich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Campbell, of that city, became the bride of Elbert E. Woodis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs Elbert E. Woodis, of Walnut street, this city, at a quiet ceremony performed at the residence of Rev. W. J. Collins of Oxford, Rev. Mr. Collins officiated. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Parker, of Putnam. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Woodis left on the brief wedding trip which will take them to cities in southern New England.

Reports to the effect that from two to three inches of ice covered ponds in this section, were received this morning. Saturday evening proved to be the coldest period of the recent cold snap that blew up this week following the extended November warm spell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reardon of Pawtucket, R. I., were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Durand of Bradley street.

The corps of college students who have been spending the Thanksgiving recess at their homes in this city returned to their respective schools tonight in order to be present for the opening of classes Monday.

The Thanksgiving holiday for the public school student bodies was concluded tonight. Schools will reopen at the regular hours Monday morning, Supt. L. N. Farrin announced today.

More than 18,000,000 acres are embraced in 18 national forests in California while four national parks include an area of approximately 2,000,000 acres.

JEWETT CITY

ELKS' COMMITTEE FINDS SELF-DENYING SPIRIT

The members of the Elks' committee who distributed Thanksgiving gifts in Griswold, met with the real Thanksgiving and Christian fellowship spirit in one case. A heaping basket of good cheer was left at one woman's house, where it was certain that times were hard, and feasts were few. The woman, coming to the door, received the proffered dainties, saying to the men, "Are you sure that some one doesn't need these good things more than I do?"

Important meeting K. of C. tonight. Good attendance desired.—Adv.

The Stove Pipe club, a member of which keeps the record of the winter's snow storms, chalked up on the chimney behind the stove, had mark No. 1, all made when the members arrived for the regular Saturday evening discussion. Immediately there were several inquiries, "How come that snow storm mark?" The facts are that a light dusting of snow came before sunrise Thanksgiving morning. The club's weather man stuck to it, that any snow-fall was to be counted. O. C. Watson, veteran woodsman and Mt. Misery trapper, was consulted. The mark was rubbed out. when he declared that no snow fall was a storm, unless a fox could be tracked in what showed on the ground, adding, "I tried it myself Thanksgiving day, started one, but couldn't tell where he went to."

Finn's tonight. Last chance to see Joe E. Brown in all-talking comedy, Top Speed.—Adv.

Pachaug Community club held its November meeting in Grange hall Thursday evening. The attendance was 125. At the business meeting C. Frank Morgan presided. The program was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A Hyde, Bessie McCluggage, Anna Ruszinas and Elmer Miller and opened with community singing, "Marching Through Georgia," "My Bonnie" and "Annie Laurie" with Everett W Thornton at the piano. Welcome by the talented little Miss Edith Mae Bartlett, vocal solo "On the Road to Home, Sweet Home" by Mrs. Azlen Sarazin, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mabel Frink. The remaining half hour of the program was very entertainingly taken up by Messrs. Bowers and Smith, otherwise known as "The Two Nutmegs", who kept the audience highly amused, Mr. Bowers singing comic songs and relating jokes and Mr. Smith playing so very skillfully upon the piano and accordion. A lunch of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee was served by the committee after which there was dancing, to music by Miss Mabel Frink, piano and Mr. Smith, accordion. The committee for the December meeting is Mr. and Mrs. Adam Medick Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell and Raymond Campbell.

FUNERAL

Luther Gray

The funeral services for Luther Gray, a former resident of Lisbon, was held in Mystic Saturday, burial being in Elm Grove cemetery. Attending from Jewett City were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gray, Mrs. Ruth Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Babcock, Walter, Ruth and Ruby Gray and Mrs. Phoebe Gray. In 1888 Luther Gray moved to the Hibbard place in Lisbon, where he lived ten years. Edwin M. Gray is now the only one living of the four sons of the late Thomas Gray.

Children Aiding the Sick

The sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals begins this week under the charge of Dorcas circle of The King's Daughters. As has been the custom, the school children will sell them, or they may be obtained at the homes of Miss M. A. Burdick and Mrs. E. H. Hiscox. Eighty-five per cent of the money received remains in this town, the remaining fifteen going to the state tuberculosis commission for the support of the sanatoria in this state. The cases of tuberculosis in this town, which receive every assistance possible, are never published. From the receipts of the sale of these seals the board, or partial board, of patients from this town is paid at a sanatorium, the outfit necessary is sometimes purchased, milk and eggs are provided for a patient at home in some cases. These seals are not Red Cross seals and should not be so called. They are sold under the jurisdiction of the state tuberculosis commission. Voluntown receives eighty-five percent of the sale in that town, the seals being sent the schools by Dorcas circle. The children are eager to help the sick people residents are expected to be patient when the door bell rings several times.

The beauty of Jewett City's Main street was not enhanced, Sunday, by the newspapers and a miscellaneous collection of all kinds of litter that blew all over the place. It would seem that property owners and tenants would avail themselves of the weekly collection made by the borough, and keep paper of any description from becoming a menace for a fire, to say nothing of untidy streets and property on which motorists never fail to comment. Passengers entering a bus are frequently in the habit of throwing an entire newspaper in the gutter, where a cigarette or cigar butt can easily do damage to a parked car.

Miss Idella Young, of Glasgo, spent Thanksgiving day at Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Webster's on Aspinook street.

Guests at Daniel Morgan's home on Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Palmer and children of Lisbon, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barber and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dawley of Jewett City and Miss Isabel Gimbel, of Norwich.

Additional names on the Red Cross roll call are: Mrs. Ella Holden, Miss Margery Brewster, Mrs. G. D. Palmer, G. D. Palmer, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Theophile Pepin, Mrs. William Hiscox, Mrs. Grace Frink, Mrs. Napoleon LaGasse, Miss Mabel Frink, Albert Paquette, Mrs. F. D. Ballou, F. D. Ballou, Rev. E. E. Scates, Mrs. E. E. Scates, Jean Burleson, E. F. Burleson, Mrs. Frank Moriarty, Mrs. D. A. Bothwell, Alex McCluggage, Mrs. Alex McCluggage, George A. Ross, Mrs. G. A. Ross, Miss Kate Ross.

Beautiful carnations at the Congregational church Sunday, were from Mrs. Lydia Lewis Brown of Cromwell, in memory of Captain Ira F. Lewis. They were taken to the sick after the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, of New York were visitors at the home of Mrs. Evans' cousin, Mrs. Everett H. Hiscox Saturday. Mrs. Evans' father, Dr Arthur A. Barrows and Mrs. Hiscox's mother were the children of Dea. Robert Porter Barrows, of Mansfield Center. Mr. and Mrs. Evans attended church in Mansfield Center Sunday morning and were guests at Robert Stearns home. While in Jewett City. Mr. Evans called on Rev. J. J. McCabe, whom he met in Bermuda.

BROOKLYN

There were many Thanksgiving parties in Brooklyn among local friends and neighbors, which made the day pass very pleasantly which otherwise would have been rather a gloomy one for some.

Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Hatch entertained, on Thursday. Mrs. Hatch's brother-in-law and sister. Mr. and Mrs. McKie, and her niece, Miss Dorothy Morris, of Fairfield, Conn.

An interesting meeting of Brooklyn grange was held Tuesday evening with W. M. Theodore Anderson in the chair. The first and second degrees were conferred upon a class of candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lawton had as their guests for Thanksgiving their son, Carroll M. Lawton, his wife and two children, and Mrs. Carroll M. Lawton's parents, of Hartford. On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lawton and their son were in Boston.

Fernand Doyen is visiting his son Serge Doyen, and family, on Fishers Island.

Mrs. F. C. Leavens had for Thanksgiving guests her daughter, Mrs. Grant, and son, of Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pearl were guests of Fitchburg relatives over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ashworth were with Mr. Ashworth's mother in Saugus, Mass., on Thursday.

L. S. Ingalls, of Newport, Vt., was with his family here for Thanksgiving.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Frink's on Thanksgiving were their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Frink and son, Kenneth, of Sea Cliff, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey W. Frink, of Willimantic, Mr. Frink's mother, Mrs. C. C. Frink, of Canterbury, and Mr. Frink's brothers and sisters from Canterbury and Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Stanley, of Hartford, were dinner guests of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bard entertained, over the week-end, their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Bard, and lady friend, of Providence, and Philip Hyatt, of New Haven.

Mrs. Estelle Reed is a guest of friends in Springfield.

Rev. and Mrs. Philip J. Cleveland and family have arrived and are getting settled in the Congregational parsonage.

Mrs. J. H. Hargraves had as dinner guests Thursday, G. L. Reeves, of Providence, Mrs. Reeves and her brother, O. W. Hargraves, of Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Stetson had as their holiday dinner guests, Mr Stetson's mother and sister, of Harwichport, Mass., and Mrs. Stetson's two brothers from Canterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Walter were in Providence over the week-end, guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett V. Kelly.

Capt. James Westaway, of Halifax, N. S., is enjoying a brief vacation here with his wife and son.

Mrs. F. B. Van Brunt spent the week-end with friends in Holyoke, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harris entertained the past week their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lehrer, and two children, of Danielson, Mrs. Harris' sister, Mrs. Flora Gardiner and Mr. and Mrs. William Mertens and child, of Manchester.

DAYVILLE

Floyd Mitchell, Mrs. Emma Mitchell, the Misses Ruth and Hazel Weeks and Miss Gertrude Jaegar were visitors on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, of Central Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Miller and Mrs. Fred Burnett spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Miller, of Portland.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Michie were Miss Mary J. Cairns and Delbert Moody, both of Hartford, also Mr. and Mrs. James Michie.

Albert Rollison and Charles Weeks were in Canterbury on Thursday, calling on Mrs. Charles Barstow.

David Smalley, who is employed in Canterbury, was home for Thanksgiving.

Miss Annabel Rol, of St. Ann's orphanage, Worcester, was home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovilla Massey, of Webster, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Joseph Rol.

Frank Burnett was the guest on Thanksgiving day of his daughters, Mrs. Roy Shippee, Putnam.

Awarded Silver Tea Set

The expert salesmanship of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leslie Schlough has again been signally recognized by their employers in an award of merit consisting of a silver tea set and a fine duck for Thanksgiving.

Word has been received from Mrs Charles Schlough, of Norwich, who is seriously ill, that she is resting comfortably and her condition is hopeful Mrs. C. Leslie Schlough is still with her.

ONECO

Miss Agnes A. Brown, of Hartford, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown.

Mrs. Tom Brewin and two children spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Sinceon Brewin.

Miss Mildred Brown spent Thursday with friends at Central Falls.

Herbert A. Kennedy of Central Falls was a recent visitor at George Lincoln's.

Indiana now has 40 co-operative gasoline filling stations operated by farm organizations in as many counties.

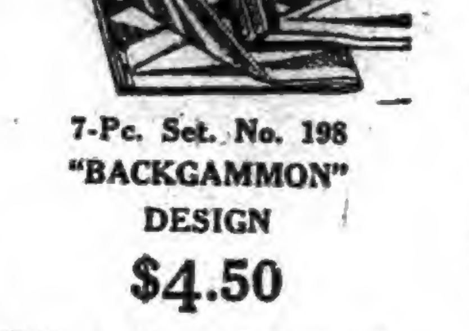
THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO.

SANTA STARTS HIS LONG JOURNEY SOON

A message from Santa tells us he is getting his sleigh packed and in readiness for his long trip from the North Pole.

Cannon Ensemble Towel Sets

$2.98 to $5.98



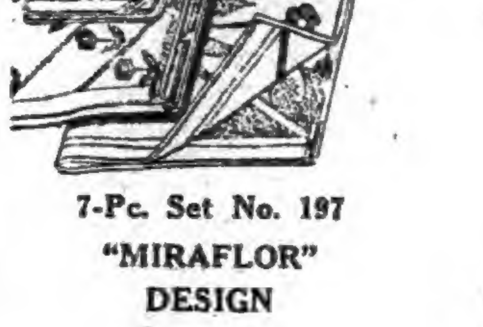
7-Pc. Set. No. 198

"BACKGAMMON"

DESIGN

$4.50

Made in four color combinations—Jade and Maize. Orchid and Rose. Turquoise and Peach. Peach and Maize. All Sets cellophane wrapped.



7-Pc. Set No. 197

"MIRAFLOR"

DESIGN

$5.98

In same color combinations as above

A smart Christmas gift for anyone. New Cannon Ensemble Sets containing two Bath Towels, two Guest Towels, two Wash Cloths, one Bath Mat. Sets are tied with gay ribbons and wrapped in shining transparent cellaphone to keep them spotless. A perfect gift, this bathrom ensemble, either for your bathroom or your friends. Gay all-over paterns in soft pastel shades, every color guaranteed fast. Stitched in every item is the Cannon label, putting sterling Cannon reputation behind your purchase.

Cannon Towels as Low as 29c

Cannon Towels in guest, individual and guest sizes in styles to suit your taste Each 29c to $1.88

Cannon Bath Mats—floral designs, tile frame, dark center, modernistic and geometric designs Each $1.00 to $3.93

Cannon Wash Cloths—colored ribbon, plaid, solid color, stripe and check designs Each 10c to 25c

Cannon Towels for Children

$1.98 to $4.50 Depending on Size of Set

Any "Girl or Boy"—from wee babies, up through grammar school—would like to own this friendly little "Scottie Dog" ensemble set—Gift sets comprising Towel, Wash Cloth, Bib, Kiddie Koop Rug and Bath Mat or other combinations—made to stand wear and tear.

Extraordinary Specials

BATH TOWELS — BATH MATS — BATH SHEETS — WASH CLOTHS, ETC.

Acceptable Gifts that Never Fail to Please Mother or Wife Who Admires Things Which Add Beauty and Comfort to the Home

BATH TOWELS — size 18x36 double thread quality; thoroughly absorbent; attractive borders.

19c each—6 for $1.00

BATH TOWELS — extra size, 22x44; double thread, attractive borders in various colors; regular value 39c each.

4 for $1.00

"CANNON" BATH TOWELS — a real man's Towel, deeply lofty and absorbent; Jacquard borders in various colors. Regular value 79c to $1.00 each.

Special, each 59c

"A Great Gift Towel"

"CANNON" BATH MATS—an ideal size for the average bathroom, harmonizing colors guaranteed fast. Value $1.75 to $1.95.

Special, each $1.00

"CANNON" WASH CLOTHS—all colors, splendid quality; regular value 12 1-2c each.

6 for 50c

"CANNON" BATH SHEETS—a limited quantity of these superb "Cannon" grade Bath Sheets; size 40x72 inches.

Special, each $1.50

This Big Store Is Completely Ready To Meet Every Christmas Gift Problem

It is Holiday Time all over the store — with a host of pretty things from everywhere.

All Christmas lists can be filled expediently and satisfactorily here. Everything is in readiness. Every department permeates the Spirit of Yuletide. You'll find a visit to the store a glorious adventure: because of the completeness of Gift stocks, so interesting and varied; because you can Christmas shop here at the lowest prices in years.

— FOUR GREAT FLOORS —

At the Top!

This big floor is devoted to Pillows, Cushions, Lamps, Rugs, Curtains, Draperies, Hoover Electric Sweepers, and Occasional Furniture, etc

On the Second Floor!

Charming gifts for Infants and Children — Silk Underwear, Negligees, Housedresses, Corsets, Women's Apparel, lovely Fur Coats, Scarfs, Jackets, Sweaters, Skirts.

And the Main Floor!

Hundreds and hundreds of Handkerchiefs, Gift Hosiery, Gloves, Jewelry, charming Hand Bags, Silks and Wash Fabrics, Toiletries in gift boxes and sets, Christmas Candy, Decorative Linens, Neckwear, Dressings for gift packages to help you say "Merry Christmas" —and our great Men's Store, what a place to shop for "him"—Bath Robes, Silk Neckwear, Silk Hosiery, Pajamas, gift Shirts by the hundreds. Boys' Shop with warm sheep-lined Leather Coats, Sweaters, etc. Hhe Main Floor Annex — Games, Books, Greeting Cards, etc.

Beneath the First Floor!

A lovely Blanket section—Gift Comfortables, Linens, Bath Mats and Towel Sets of the better kind. Gift Luggage, Fitted Cases, Overnight and Week-end Cases, Dress and Wardrobe Trunks, Tires and Tubes, Dinnerware, Gift Glassware and Pottery. A Toy Department that will thrill old and young alike—Dolls of all kinds to make little girls happy.

1796 1930

Norwich Bulletin

Norwich Courier

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 35-R
Bulletin Job Room 35-W
Willimantic Office
Jordan Block, Lincoln Square.
Phone 1131-2.

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

140 YEARS OLD

Members of The Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein.
All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Monday, Dec. 1, 1930

AS CONGRESS OPENS

Having reached the day for the opening of the concluding session of the present congress, it will require but little time to disclose what is actually going to be accomplished and whether there is going to be a chance for the administration to carry through its programme and escape without the necessity of calling an extra session of the new congress.

As far as the matter of emergency legislation is concerned, there will probably be little difficulty. Opinions may differ as to what projects should be favored or what the amount of the appropriation should be but it is a matter upon which there should be early action and there will, in all probability, be general approval.

When it comes to certain other matters the situation will be different. The desirability of getting the appropriation bills out of the way may be understood but it will also be fully appreciated that those bills, or the failure to act upon the bills before the time for the close of the session arrives, will provide the means of forcing an extra session of congress. Thus the speeding up of the appropriation bills need not be expected. They will continue until the last and may not be reached.

In the meantime there will be plenty of controversial matters brought up for discussion and action. There will be the Muscle Shoals bills, the senate favoring government operation, while the house supports private operation. It is legislation that should be disposed of but there is nothing to support the contention that the country wants government operation. Experiences therewith in other directions are sufficient to warrant congress in steering clear of any more experimentation in that direction. Debate can be expected over the so-called "lame duck" bill and there is quite a list of appointments which will come before the senate for confirmation. If they do not furnish enough on which to talk and delay there will be the question of joining the world court.

There are those among the democrats who have given assurance that they will uphold the administration in certain particulars. Their attitude has not pleased other party senators, so it is problematical what the outcome will be as far as numerical strength is concerned. Beyond emergency legislation and possibly opposition to an extra session there may be none. Whether it will more than offset the insurgents remains to be seen in a session that threatens anything but harmony.

HANDLING TRAFFIC

Where traffic has grown and the practice of erecting traffic lights has grown with it, there is often experienced a demand for reducing the number of such lights. The feeling is that so many of them are not needed and that there are frequent instances where compliance with the signals simply means standing in the street without any traffic going along the intersecting highway.

There isn't any question but what such traffic signals must be respected as long as they exist, but the knowledge that certain streets have such signals is the prime reason for users of such a street seeking out another route which is not encumbered with traffic lights. If such a move is possible the traffic lights result in a distribution of the traffic instead of keeping it all in the main street of a city, but dodging a traffic system is not always possible.

A move that is accomplishing much for the relief of cities and smaller communities is the building of highways which circle them, by which traffic is not required to get into the congested centers but is permitted to keep going without interruption. The importance of this is recognized, not only by the motoring public, but by the communities which understand the need of relief.

Upon main thoroughfares there is a steadily increasing volume of traffic. That means congestion, increased liability of accident, difficulty in parking, greater noise and greater danger. It means that those who have to use the main thoroughfares are greatly inconvenienced by those who have to take that route because no other is provided. On the other hand, the increased congestion which the through traffic causes is frequently the cause of much embarrassment to the stranger because of the difficulty in trying to comply with the regulations when nearly every community demands something different.

While it seems improbable that the diverting of the through traffic so that it will go around cities instead of through them will so decrease the traffic that signal systems can be eliminated, that course with the use of signals only at the hours when traffic conditions are bad and really require them would prove beneficial to all.

FIGHTING QUAKES

Campaigns are waged in fights against disease, efforts are made to end the devastation of pests, work is undertaken to prevent floods, but when it comes to preventing hurricanes and earthquakes the situation is decidedly different.

It is about seven years since Japan experienced a severe earthquake and we are told that the area in which the quakes occur in that part of the world represents, as far as the age of the earth is concerned, a fairly recent upheaval and because of that there is a constant shifting of the subterranean area which has its effects upon the surface. When there are adjustments being made underneath it is impossible for the surface to escape if they are severe enough.

Quakes come at points which have experienced few of them, though the region in general cannot said to be immune. Even territory where earthquakes are not supposed to occur feels an occasional tremble, but there are areas where earthquakes have raised havoc in the past, even as volcanoes have done likewise in others, and in such regions efforts may well be directed toward such developments as will lessen the effect, if such a thing is possible.

The problem of prevention is so big that no one has hoped for success. Efforts must be centered on trying to keep down the losses under such conditions, to prevent as many deaths as possible, and to minimize the destruction of property.

In the tornado areas safety is insured, in case there is a sufficient warning, by constructing tornado cellars and getting into them when trouble of that kind threatens. In the hurricane section construction is undergoing changes to combat the fierce storms. Likewise in the earthquake regions thoughts are being turned to different construction with the idea of preventing the collapse and destruction of buildings in which so many are caught and killed. Japan is not the only region that has recognized that necessity but it has had such experience with quakes that it knows the importance of making provision for as great safety as possible. Not knowing when or where a quake may occur, the thing to do is to be prepared as much as possible when it happens.

NEW CABINET CHOICE

When President Hoover selected a successor to Secretary Davis of the department of labor, who has been elected as a senator from Pennsylvania, he picked the man he had in mind for that office when it seemed probable Mr. Davis would retire from that post at the conclusion of the Coolidge administration. It is, therefore, not a new thought on the president's part and it doesn't appear, either then or now, that he was prompted in the idea by other than the fitness of the man to direct such affairs and by his work in connection with labor activities.

In the choice of the members of his cabinet the president assumes the responsibility. He selects his advisers with full knowledge that he must be responsible for them. It is not expected that his hands will be tied and the freedom that should prevail is disclosed by his choice in spite of the fact that the man selected is prominent in a labor organization not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Although it was proper that suggestions be made to the president concerning the new secretary, the selection rested with him, and it is apparent that he has picked the man who, in his opinion, has the highest qualification and not because he belongs to any particular group in labor circles. He has made his own selection and evidently, from the criticism, resisted demands.

SAILORS

There was something romantic and fascinating about the life of those who used to sail before the mast in those days when the wind was depended upon for the necessary push, when sails had to be raised and lowered when sailors were required to get up into the rigging and to take all kinds of risks aloft in handling the sails, whether it was setting them all in departure from port or furling them in anticipation of a blow.

It was an interesting but a hard life, although Andrew Furseth, long at the head of the Pacific Coast Sailors' union, regrets the passing of the old-time sailor. Others may also regret his passing but his disappearance is due to the march of time. Progress has been made in ships as well as in other forms of transportation. The windjammers are few and far between. The square riggers are a novelty. Vessels driven by steam or electricity are to the front these days, and while they carry large crews it is not their work to handle sails and take the risks that the old-time seamen did. They have to scrub the decks, clean the paint and brass, handle the freight and serve the needs of the passengers in a variety of ways, but those who follow the water under such conditions are not so different from those who do similar work ashore. They number stevedores, cooks, waiters, clerks, coal handlers, oilers, in addition to the officers of the ship, quite in contrast to the days of the sailing ship, but there is hardly justification for the claim by Mr. Furseth that they "don't know a capstan bar from a scrubbing brush and can't lower a boat even in a calm sea."

There are those who may have difficulty in lowering boats, or getting them ready to lower, but there have been plenty of instances which show that sailors of today not only can lower boats in a calm sea but have repeatedly done it in rough seas and figured conspicuously in the rescue of those aboard doomed ships. There is a marked contrast between the old-time and present-day sailor, but it is fortunate that shipping conditions of today do not require the strenuous life and terrible risks of those who went down to sea in the days of old.

With possibly a few others, it would be a fine thing if congress would pass the appropriation bills and adjourn. But don't expect it.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Those who are anxious for the first snow are not those who will have to push the snow shovels.

The claim is made that New England will have a population of 10,000,000 by 1950. And New England will still have Connecticut.

The man on the corner says: To have the right of way is one thing; to take it away from the other fellow is something else.

One of the two gunmen who shot a policeman at Greenwich when he tried to stop them has surrendered, wounded. Now the sob sisters will probably gather around him and plead for his release so he can finish the next policeman who dares to get in his way.

BITGOODS' STRENGTH STARTLED NORWICH—DICKENS, BLOCK ISLAND HERCULES

This article concludes the account of strong men who lived within the Norwich radius, as given in back files of the Norwich Bulletin. The first article, which appeared last Saturday, dealt with Dr. Byron Sweet of Lebanon, Norwich and Jewett City, and Clarence S. Verrill of Norwich. The present article describes the feats performed by the Bitgood brothers of Voluntown and by Capt. J. F. Dickens of Block Island.

From The Bulletin of May 7, 1908:

"The Strongest Men the World."

You can find Bitgoods a-plenty out in Voluntown and all men of might and muscle, but if you ask for the real strong men of the town, everyone, from the oldest inhabitant to the latest native born, will send you out about three miles east of the village to the farm of Elmer Bitgood and his brother, Doane, who claim to be the strongest men in the world.

"None of your trick lifts, you understand, but a straight back lift or putting up a weight with your hands," said Elmer, and Doane backed up his brother, who is the older of the two and the star performer at the lifting game. The Bitgood boys had heard there were some weight lifters, the Apollo brothers, at the Broadway theatre, and had dressed up in their store clothes to come to town to see what the Apollo brothers had to show.

These two rugged specimens of Voluntown manhood, with long black hair, attracted considerable attention Wednesday on the streets as they lingered around, waiting for the evening performance. They had been up to the theatre in the afternoon but had not tried the sack lift, Doane declaring that the weight was nothing but a plaything for him, but he couldn't be induced to go on; thought he might break up the show for the rest of the week, if he walked off with the sack.

Could Lift Over a Ton.

While he wouldn't try the Apollos' lifting game he foxily invited the strong men at the theatre to come out for a trial at the Bitgood game. This is done with a table loaded with five stones weighing 2,200 pounds. Elmer then gets underneath, puts his hands on a small stool and raises the table three or four inches with his shoulders, lowering it gently back to place. Then, if the visitor wants to see something more, he has a stone as big as a small automobile, weighing 2,400 pounds, which they roll upon the table, and that is hoisted in the same way. All this for a very moderate consideration.

Then he has two stone barbells, the heaviest 230 pounds, which he will put up over his head, one at a time, and finish up with a one-hand feat, in which he holds at arm's length a stone weighing 150 pounds, and will also lift it with his little finger put through a ring in the stone.

All the weights lifted are guaranteed, Doane says, by a committee of his townsmen, who weighed them on a pair of new scales and marked the weights so that there can be no mistake. Elmer, who is about 25, weighs from 290 to 300 when feeling just right; but Doane, who is about 23, comes nearer his father's weight, which is 225, size and strength having always been a family trait. They have numerous other startling feats to perform and can interest the visitor at any time at their Voluntown farm.

With the passage of years either the Bitgood strength grew or else the stories about it did, for on May 19, 1916, The Bulletin published this from its Plainfield correspondent:

An article on Elmer Bitgood, claimant of the title of strongest man on earth, appeared in the Providence Journal recently. It was written by a Journal reporter who visited Mr. Bitgood's place in Voluntown, and described the feats accomplished by this strong man.

It is said that a man was going by Bitgood's home and asked the direction to a certain house. Elmer, who was ploughing in the fields near his home without the aid of any horse, is said to have picked up the plow and pointed out the direction with it as though it were a small stick.

Another story widely circulated here is that three of the Bitgood brothers rode to Norwich and obtained a supply of provisions. They bought a barrel of crackers and on the way home they dug into them until the crackers had all disappeared before reaching home.

Any of the Bitgood brothers is certainly large enough to eat a good-sized meal.

At present Elmer Bitgood is living on the Jewett City-Plainfield road.

Mr. Bitgood performed most of his marvelous feats of strength on his little farm in Voluntown, near Beach pond. At this place Elmer has erected a platform composed of planking set upon four fence posts. He has covered this platform with common field stones weighing a ton and placing a small stool under the platform he is able with the greatest ease to raise the platform clear of the posts. He has often placed more stones upon the form lifting it from the posts.

About six years ago Mr. Bitgood said that he loaded the platform with stone weighing 4,200 pounds and lifted it clear of the posts.

He has many other strength tests to his credit besides back lifting. On one occasion he loaded a stone drag with 1120 pounds of field stones and dragged it 25 yards.

Chain breaking is a common sight for anyone to see at the circus, but the way and the ease with which Elmer Bitgood does the trick is not seen very often at a circus. He can pick up 250 pounds with the little finger of either hand. He can muscle out 85 pounds in one hand; 305 pounds is his present record for lifting a dumbbell over his head with both hands and 152 pounds with one hand. He has pushed a dumbbell of 200 pounds in weight from his shoulder straight over his head 10 times in 20 seconds.

Mr. Bitgood says: "There may be some people who are stronger than what I am, but as yet I have failed to meet one. I have a perfect right to claim the title until someone can prove that I am not worthy of it."

This champion is only about 31 years of age and stands five feet, eight inches in height. He weighs about 325 pounds, and his biceps measure 20 inches in circumference.

Mr. Bitgood is very willing to go through his performance for most anyone and he is real modest in speaking of his achievements.

Some Bitgood Statistics

From The Bulletin of July 29, 1926:

Voluntown friends were pleased recently to greet Dr. Jesse Bitgood and family, also Elmer Bitgood of South Manchester. The feats of strength accomplished by these two men in days gone by, have been the talk of rural Connecticut and Rhode Island. Elmer, who is 5 feet 9 inches in height and then weighed 300 pounds, had a chest measure of 52 inches, 50 inches round the waist and his biceps were 20 inches. He wore a 12 shoe and a 7 1-2 hat. Every morning before breakfast he used to lift a weight of 2,200 pounds and raised a 125-pound dumbbell ten times in 20 seconds.

One of the marvelous feats he performed at a Fourth of July picnic, during his strong days, was lifting one end of a boiler and engine weighing 4,100 pounds, on which nine men were seated. Another time he stopped an engine under 85 pounds steam pressure and held one of the drivers for a full minute.

Jesse, although strong, was no match for his brother Elmer in lifting, but he could lift astonishingly heavy weight and perform with 130 pound dumbbells. About 20 years ago they were "The Strong Men of Campbell's Mills."

Broke Pacing Stones With Fist

The Block Island Hercules is described in The Bulletin of Oct. 6, 1887:

Capt. J. F. Dickens of Block Island is said to be a man of phenomenal physical power even now, though considerably past his prime. Hundreds of persons have seen him break thick, solid pacing stones with one blow of his clenched fist wrapped in a handkerchief. He once lifted 1,000 pounds of sheet lead from a vessel's deck, and expresses the opinion that he could easily have lifted 200 or 300 pounds more. In his younger days he was noted for his athletic performances as a runner, jumper and high kicker.

YOUR HEALTH

The Benefits Of Tonsil Removal In Children

By Albert D. Kaiser, M. D., Rochester.
(From Gorgas Memorial Institute)

For many years the adenoids and tonsils in children have at times been looked upon as a menace to a child's health. Rarely were they removed however until recent years. Where tonsils and adenoids caused obstruction to the breathing and swallowing, excellent results followed the operation. As a result of this obvious benefit to the child, removal of tonsils became more popular. Instead of having an occasional child operated, from 30 to 50 per cent of the school children in American cities now have their adenoids and tonsils removed.

Now that the removal of tonsils and adenoids is practised on so many children in a community, the parent has the right to ask—is it worthwhile to do this operation? Is there any danger to the child from the operation? It has been possible to collect reliable information on these queries which may guide the physician and parents in determining what children should have the tonsils removed. After observing several thousand children whose tonsils and adenoids were removed. After observing several thousand children whose tonsils and adenoids were removed 10 years ago and comparing them in every way with as many children whose tonsils were not removed, certain conclusions have been reached on the benefits to be epected from the operation.

It is quite certain that not all children need their tonsils removed. The danger of operation is not great but there are slight risks associated with the operation which need not be taken unless the benefits to be epected justify this slight risk.

All children in whom the adenoids and tonsils cause obstruction to breathing and proper development of the nose should be removed. In most instances these children will be greatly benefited by the operation.

Children in whom the tonsils have been repeatedly infected can anticipate considerable improvement in general health after removal in all but about ten per cent of the children. Repeated attacks of tonsillitis may cause more serious diseases such as rheumatic disease, kidney disease and heart trouble. Studies made in Rochester show that less heart disease and kidney trouble developed in children whose tonsils were removed than in those not operated.

Children who have repeated head colds without sore throats do not get much benefit from removal of tonsils. Infections of the ear are not quite as likely to occur in children whose tonsils are out but the benefits are so slight that the operation does not offer great relief. The removal of the adenoids is often followed by less ear infection and should be done in children subject to repeated infections of the ears.

Children subject to swollen glands of the neck derive considerable benefit fro mremoval of the tonsils. Less diphtheria and scarlet fever occurred among the children whose tonsils were removed.

Unfortunately in recent years much more has been promised from tonsil removal than can be reasonably expected. Disappointments have followed the operation because frequently it would be performed on children where the tonsils were not at fault and some other condition had been overlooked. It is essential therefore, before a child's tonsils and adenoids are removed, to be sure there is nothing else accounting for the child's symptoms, which can only be determined by a careful physical examination. If the tonsil removal is urged only where the complaints enumerated are present, the parent can expect considerable benefit to the child and the slight hazard of the operation need not be considered in such children.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORY

The Young Muskrat Is Found

Pain and helplessness and fright—
Pity those in such a plight.
—Jerry Muskrat.

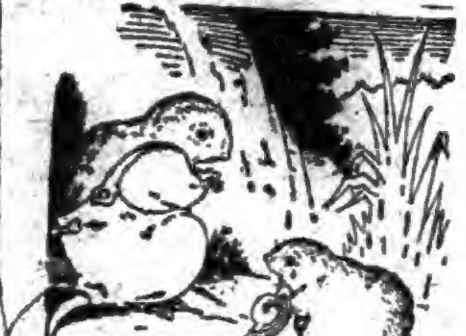
Beautiful Mistress Moon, looking down on the green meadows, the green forest, the Smiling pool and the Laughing brook, saw as pitiful a sight as was to be seen in all the great world. Yes, sir, she did so. On the bank of the Laughing brook below the Smiling pool she saw an old log, half in the water and half out on the bank. She had seen that old log for longer than she could remember. Often she had seen it unoccupied and often she had seen a little person in a fur coat sitting on it. Sometimes that little person was Billy Mink pausing for a rest on his way up or down the Laughing brook. More often it was a muskrat, one of Jerry Muskrat's relatives. Sometimes it was Jerry himself.

On this night when she had first looked down on the old log no one was there. Then she had seen a young muskrat, one of Jerry's children whom she had often seen playing in the Smiling pool start to climb out on that log. He was only part way out when she saw him plunge back into the water and there splash and kick and kick and splash, yet remain right there. She knew what it meant. She had seen that dreadful thing many times before. That young muskrat was caught in a trap, a dreadful thing which had seized one leg in cruel, steel jaws, and now hung on with a grip that no amount of struggling could loosen. A chain fastened that trap securely to the log.

Gentle Mistress Moon pitied that young muskrat as many, many times she had pitied other trapped little people of the green meadows and the green forest. And there was nothing she could do about it. All she could do was to look down on that little sufferer and pity him and wish and wish that she could help him.

The pain was bad enough, for the bone of that leg had been broken by those cruel steel jaws and the leg was badly swollen. Added to this was the dreadful feeling of helplessness and fright.

"If only I could do something," the young muskrat kept saying over and over. "If only I could do something. Oh, oh, oh, how that leg hurts! What will happen next? What will be done to me? If Reddy Fox should come along, or Hooty the owl happen this way, I will be killed and eaten. I cannot even try to escape if one of them appears. I wish my father or mother would come. Perhaps they could do something for me. I wish they would come."



Jerry Muskrat looked at him for a minute without saying a word

But the long hours dragged past and no one came. Some clouds had hidden the face of gentle, pitying Mistress Moon. It was nearly time for jolly, bright Mr. Sun to begin his daily climb up in the blue, blue sky when the young muskrat heard a faint sound out in the water. Some one was swimming toward him. He held his breath and watched. He could see a silver line approaching and he knew it was made by the swimmer. He knew, too, that it was a muskrat approaching. A moment later he could see who it was. It was his father, Jerry Muskrat!

The young muskrat was so glad that he started forward to meet his father. He forgot for the moment that he was held fast by one leg. The result was that he tumbled with a splash into the shallow water beside the old log. Whimpering, he crawled back, dragging that dreadful trap. It was with the greatest difficulty that he managed to get back on the log.

Jerry Muskrat looked at him for a minute without saying a word. When he did speak all he said was: "So here you are. I've found you at last, and I've found you just as I feared I would. The question now is, what is to be done?"

(Copyright, 1930, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "A Tense Moment."

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 — Most folks with a taste for drama in their makeup look forward to the opening of the sessions of the house in the 72nd congress very eagerly.

They imagine a time when big-voiced Patrick Haltigan, hero of many a national convention balloting battle, shall roar his way amid the usual floor confusion of a roll-call vote in the house down to the name "Kvale."

Pat will pronounce it just like that, probably, Kay-val-ee, with the accent on the "val." That is the way all Washington pronounces it after rubbing shoulders quite a few years with the two highly independent Kvales from Minnesota, father and son, who have held that particular house seat so firmly in the family grasp.

The Right Twist

Yet they were never "Kay-val-ee" to themselves. Various writers have sought to get an exact twist of letters that will make the name look like it sounds to its owner. "Qualley" seems to hit it off to most of them.

And not until young Paul John responds to Pat's stentorian shout of "Kay-val-ee" in the anticipation of the drama lovers will anybody know for sure how a roll-call division of the house on political lines is going to turn out.

Paul John himself takes no stock in all that. If he did, the amount of attention that has and will center on him due to election results would have gone to his head.

Everybody bombarded him with requests that he outline his position. "Don't be silly," said Paul John, in effect. And he went right on duck shooting out near Benson, Minn.

Practical

Why not? Young Kvale looks and acts like a right practical-minded person. He was a machine gun sergeant back in World war times, and any A. E. F. buddy or other army veteran will tell you that sergeants have need to be practical men.

Since the war he has done a bit of teaching, newspapering and flying in odd moments when not doing farmer-labor politics, first as his late father's chief lieutenant and then in his own behalf.

Now none of those occupations is of a sort to over-develop the ego. Nor do young Kvale's published reactins to the trick the 1930 elections played on him indicate that he is out to capitalize personally on his unique position.

If chance ever does give him the deciding vote in the house—and it probably will not—his political philosophy, not personal politics, will govern his decision, his friends assert.

What Do You Know About Eastern Connecticut?

1.—When France and England resumed hostilities in 1702, what effect did the war have upon Woodstock?

2.—Who was appointed by the government of Connecticut to order forces for the safety of the upper towns?

3.—When did he visit Woodstock?

4.—How large a force did he find guarding the women and children?

5.—Where were the rest of the male inhabitants?

6.—How many men did he leave for the defense of the westward hill?

7.—What co-operation did Massachusetts furnish?

8.—How long did the soldiers remain on guard?

Answers Will Be Found On Classified Page

DO YOU KNOW CONNECTICUT?

By Conn. Chamber of Commerce

Q. From what sources were the names of Connecticut towns derived?

A. Indian names or words, towns in England, words descriptive of the location of the town, Biblical names, and combinations of names of previously established towns.

Q. Why is Connecticut's climate considered beneficial?

A. It has all four characteristics of the best climate; cool but not cold winters as a mental stimulus; warm but not hot summers as a physical stimulus; a high humidity except in warm weather; frequent changes of weather.

Q. How many hotels are there in the state?

A. Approximately 300.

Q. Who built the first steamboat in the world?

Q. What city is called the "Hat City?"

Q. What is the circulation of Connecticut newspapers?

(Answers to these questions will be published in Wednesday's paper.)

Norwich 100 Years Ago

From
THE NORWICH COURIER

The convention of teachers and friends of education, notified for Friday, last, was held, according to notice, in the Female Academy, and was very fully and respectably attended. The Norwich Courier of December 1, 1830, a century ago this week, says. Continuing the report of the meeting as chronicled in the ancient paper, says; We were happy to see so large a number of teachers from the different towns in the country, and the interest apparently manifested by them in the objects of the meeting. Certain we are that much benefit has actually been received by most of those present at the meeting, in any measure connected with the schools. The address by Mr. Hemenway, in the afternoon, is said to have been extremely sound, practical and interesting. The illustrations in the use of the blackboard were also perfect and such as must have satisfied every one of the importance of this valuable auxiliary in instruction. These, together with a discussion of some resolutions, occupied the afternoon.

This terminated what was strictly called the convention and a strong desire was universally expressed for another meeting at an early period and measures taken for calling one. A crowded audience assembled in the evening at the Lyceum room to hear the discussions as to the effect of the multiplication of private schools upon the cause of general education. The question was fully examined and the general sentiment seemed to be in favor of so far elevating public schools as to render private schools unnecessary.

Another item of more or less local interest reads: Nathan Haley, a native of Stonington, Conn., whose relatives were distinguished in repelling the attack of the British in the last war, has been highly commended by Count de Monstier, colonel of the National Guards at Nantz for having, in the late Revolution, "greatly contributed, with the Artillery company of the National Guards to which he belongs, to overthrow the mad and culpable projects of Gen. Despinols."

Under the heading Deaths By Steam Explosions, the same issue of The Courier says; It is stated in Silliman's Journal, No. 39, that 1,500 persons have been destroyed in this country by explosions from steamboat boilers. Another item; It is stated that the Union Line of Stages, running between Baltimore and Washington City, have carried upwards of 13,000 passengers within the last six months.

Take notice, says an advertisement: Once for all, that I, George O. Goodwin, do call upon all who are indebted to me either by book or note, to settle the same by the 10th of December. Those who do not call upon me by that date, will please to call upon J. A. Rockwell, Esq., where they will find their long standing accounts.

The Betrothed of Wyoming, a historical tale, just published, is for sale at R. Hubbard's bookstore.

Cemetery For Pets

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—A cemetery for pets with separate sections for dogs, cats, birds and miscellaneous animals, and with mausoleums costing up to $1,500 has been established here.

Arizona requires health certificates by an authorized veterinarian from all dogs entering the state.

Stories That Recall Others

Brother Knew

Little Dorothy believes the quickest way to find out anything is by asking questions. Sometimes mother thinks she has too many to answer all of them, so brother tries to help her out. When mother, who generally makes pies with one crust, decided to make an apple pie, using a top crust, Dorothy wanted to know why she did that. After asking three times, brother answered:

"To keep it warm, Dorsie."

Everything O. K.

The day was hot and little Jimmy had gone to join some neighbor children in a shower bath. When his mother looked out she found him seated in a tub of water that was to be used in bathing the dog. Leaning out the window she said: "Jimmy you get right out of there. Don't you know they are going to bathe the dog in that?"

"Oh, that's all right," responded Jimmy, "the dog has already been in."

A new Life Sciences building at the University of California, Berkeley, Cal., provides room for 500 laboratories, offices, and class rooms.

A HISTORY OF CONNECTICUT INDUSTRY

Released by Manufacturers Association of Connecticut

Dictaphone Corporation, Bridgeport.

The republic of France granted the Volta prize of 50,000 francs to Alexander Graham Bell for his invention of the telephone. With this money, Dr. Bell established the Volta Laboratory association with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The associates, or partners, in the Volta Laboratory association were Alexander Graham Bell, his cousin Chichester A. Bell and a scientist by the name of Charles Sumner Traintor.

One of the first problems of the associates was the development of a practical phonograph. In 1876, Thomas A. Edison invented the first machine for the recording and reproduction of speech. The record was an indented sheet of tinfoil stretched over a grooved mandrel. It was a distinct scientific novelty but in the form invented had no practical application and Mr. Edison directed his energy along other lines.

In the latter part of 1885, after more than four years of research, experimental and development work, the associates, developed the first practical phonograph, and nearly all the fundamental principles of the phonograph art, viz., the wax record, the engraved sound trake, the floating reproducer, and the method of electroplating and duplicating records. They covered these inventions with a large group of patents which were later judicially recognized as fundamental patents in the phonograph art. Model machines wer eexhibited in various places during 1886.

During 1886, Edward D. Easton, a prominent court stenographer, saw one of the exhibitions and became so enthusiastic about the machine, that he was mainly instrumental in forming the American Graphophone Co. to manufacture, and later formed the Columbia Graphophone Co. to sell, the Taintor machine. Mr. Easton became the president of these concerns.

In January, 1887, more than two years before anyone else tried to manufacture and sell a practical phonograph, they started the public sale of their machine. It was known as the Taintor treadle graphophone. It was provided with a treadle stand much the same as those used on sewing machines. Electricity had not come into general use. Many of these treadle graphophones were sold as late as 1907.

The first few machines were made in Washington. In 1888 the American Graphophone Co. moved to Bridgeport. Production was around three machines a day. The original sale of machines was for business use only. Later, more and more machines were sold for amusement or home use, and developed into the gigantic Columbia Graphophone Co. of 1922.

In January, 1923, a group of men under the leadership of Richard H. Swartwout, anticipated a future for specialized dictating machine manufacture and sale. They bought the Dictaphone dictating machine business from the Columbia Graphophone Co., and formed the Dictaphone corporation of today. Their anticipations have been amply justified. The company has enjoyed a very healthy growth from its start.

By concentrating all its energies on the dictating machine business, new fields have been developed until the corporation now has world wide representation.

The present officers are: Richard H. Swartwout, chairman of board of directors; L. C. Stowell, president; M. B. Sands, vice president; J. L. McIntosh secretary and treasurer; T. H. Beard, supervising engineer.

TYPEWRITERS
Authorized Factory Representative for
ROYALS — CORONAS
All Makes and Models
SOLD, RENTED, REPAIRED
RELIABLE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE
287 Main Street, Leroy Bldg.
Tel. NORWICH 2499W

The Clepsydra or "Water Thief"

Water was the spring in this early timepiece. As water dripped, a float slowly descended, causing the hand to traverse the dial approximately once in every twenty-four hours

Compare this crude, troublesome method of timekeeping in the home with that of the ultra-modern Electric Clock See them displayed in our window!

One thing you pay for whether you have it or not—

Accurate Time!

You pay for accurate time whether you have it or not. You pay far less for having it than for not having it. People who know a thing or two about accurate time in the home are demanding Hamilton-Sangamo Electric Clocks—made for every type of current and at prices to fit every purse. You can afford Hamilton-Sangamo Clocks in your home—yes, even in every room. We invite you to see the new models now on display priced at $10.00 upward.

"Time is valuable to us," say the men who board "The Broadway"

MEN who catch the famous Broadway Limited travel by exact time. They are successful men . . . business chiefs. Men whose time is valuable . . . whose minutes mean money.

It is significant that successful men are accuracy-minded . . . and that a surprising number carry Hamiltons. The reason is simple . . . Hamilton means accuracy. Come in today and choose your Hamilton from our fine assortment. Prices from $50 to $685.

The "FARRAGUT" $55 with the new Sonnetor dial

Ferguson's
189 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

Agent for EASY
Washer and Ironer
United Music Co.
For Demonstration Call 3253
84 Main St., Norwich, Conn

RUSSIAN TRAITORS IMPLICATE POLAND

MOSCOW, Nov. 30—(AP)—Testimony that two officers of the French general staff had promised armies from Poland and the Baltic and the aid of the English fleet, for intervention in Russia scheduled for last summer, was adduced today at the trial of eight prominent engineers accused of plotting to overthrow the soviet government.

Under cross-examination by N. B. Krilenko, the fiery, shaven-polled prosecutor, Prof. Leonid Ramsin, one of the defendants, said: "We received definite assurances and guarantees of intervention."

Ramsin said he first met Colonels Janville and Richard of the French general staff with the former Czarist Officers Denisov and Lukomsky in Paris in 1927, and they discussed intervention plans.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE TO GET ANOTHER AIRSHIP

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. —(AP)— The Smithsonian institution is to get another ship of the air to preserve, together with Col. Lindberg's "Spirit of St. Louis," for posterity.

The glider "Texaco Eaglet," in which Capt. Frank M. Hawks was towed from San Diego to New York last spring, is to be presented to the institution at formal ceremonies tentatively set for December 8.

The Eaglet will be displayed as the first such craft ever to cross the continent. It will be towed from New York to Washington and just before its presentation to the institute it will make its final flight for officials of the army and navy.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James L. Coffee.

Mrs. Margaret W. Scott Coffee, widow of James L. Coffee, died early Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Dygert 338 Eastern Point road, Groton. She was in her 75th year.

A native of Norwich, she was born Oct. 15, 1855, the daughter of William and Sarah Scott, now deceased. She resided in Norwich most of her life, leaving there to make her home with Mrs. Dygert nine years ago following the death of her husband, who for many years was connected with the Kies Shoe store.

Besides her daughter, the deceased is survived by a son, George H. Coffee, of Tacoma, Wash.; a granddaughter, Mrs. Blanche M. Eccleston, of Groton, and two grandsons, State Trooper James L. Dygert, of Groton, and James L. Coffee.

Dismissals at Backus Hospital

Patients discharged at W. W. Backus hospital on Sunday were: Wm. Burelle, 91 Hunters avenue, Taftville; Harold Jordan, East Great Plain; Rosanna Clark, 218 West Main street; Cecelia Nestor, 36 West Main street.

Fire Department Calls in November.

There were 17 calls for the local fire department during the month of November. The calls included 14 telephone calls, two oral alarms and one telephone call. The loss for the month was unusually light.

Distributed Thanksgiving Food.

About ten bushels of food was distributed by the Boy Scouts during Thanksgiving week, according to the local Boy Scout headquarters. About a score of families were recipients of the gifts. During the Christmas week scouts will again give baskets to the poor.

"Flapper Chorus" Chosen

Announcement was made Sunday evening that 30 well known business and professional men of the city will comprise the "flapper chorus" in the play, Aunt Lucia, to be staged in the near future under the auspices of R. O. Fletcher post, No. 4, American Legion. The proceeds of the play will be turned over to the welfare department of the United Workers. Those who will appear in the "flapper chorus" are:

Sorority president, Dr. Hugh B. Campbell; teacher's pet, E. D. Van Tassel; Clara Bow, C. W. Cassidy; girl with million dollar legs, Flint Brayton; Flo Zeigfeld's choice, Earl Stamm; Vamp of Norwich, C. B. Gilbert; campus flirt, Melvin Worth; beauty winner, Charles Worth; baby face, Benedict Pullen; Hard Hearted Hannah, Julian Williams; dancing girl, L. J. Smith; queen of the campus, Earl Toggart; clinging vine, J. B. Caron; Greta Garbo, W. S. Spencer; Kansas City Kitty, A. B. Silverberg; flapper of 1910, L. M. Crandall; teacher's pet, Frank Eggleton; Lonesome Lil, Imbert Fellows; shrinking violet, W. B. Frisbie; gold digger, Dr. Vincent D. Eldred; Fatima, Dr. David Sussler; Janet Gagnor, C. V. James; Tillie the Toiler, J. Lyons; perfect 36, Frank J. Leonard; Follies favorites, W. Russell Baird, Bennet F. Gaines; Louisville Lou, Edward G. McKay; Wild Irish Rose, Charles McGibney; flower girl, Joseph N. French; June bride, Charles W. Taggart; bridesmaid, John Sayles.

A by-law providing for street improvement in Burnaby, B. C., received the necessary number of votes at election but was defeated because an elector had written favorable comment on a ballot.

A Delicious Beverage. A Healthy Mixer
RAINIER LIME RICKEY
Made from pure juice of fresh ripened limes. (The life of any party.) Listen in on WBZ each Friday, 7.15 P. M. Distributed by
S. LANDOW CO., Norwich, Conn.

BumsteadsWormSyrup
"To children an angel of mercy." Where directions are followed, IT NEVER FAILS. Despite scarcity and enormous cost of SANTONIN, it contains full dose. Used 70 yrs. test. All Druggists or by mail, 50c a bottle. Insist on Bumsteads. Est. C. A. Voorhees, M. D., Philadelphia.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Norwich, Monday, Dec. 1, 1930

VARIOUS MATTERS

It is daybreak now at 5:14.

Light vehicle lamps at 4:49 this evening.

The planet Mercury is evening star throughout December.

December begins with a day only nine hours, 20 minutes long.

Song recital by Henry LaFontaine tonight, at Slater hall.—adv.

The best moonlight nights in December will be from the 4th to the 8th.

At Merrow, Mrs. Jennie Millard has been soliciting Red Cross subscriptions.

Until late Sunday afternoon traffic even over the post roads was comparatively light.

Pinochle at Duwell club tonight, 8 p. m. Six prizes.—adv.

Up in Westford, Clarence Chapin, of Springfield, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. R. N. Chism.

Dealers in protective footwear can see a good season ahead, with snow starting in so soon after Thanksgiving.

The Central Waterford Parent-Teacher association has voted $50 toward the piano fund of the Cokahzie school.

Song recital by Henry LaFontaine, tonight, at Slater hall.—adv.

The children of Wauregan school now publish a weekly school paper. The editor at present is Sophia Stasiewitz.

This (Monday) evening there is to be a meeting of the 3 G class of the Central Baptist church with Miss Dorothy Rathbun.

Small ponds on which the juniors were skating Saturday began to soften up Sunday afternoon, when the mercury rose to 52.

Students from colleges and prep schools, who had been home for the holiday, returned Saturday and Sunday to their studies.

A flock of 15 wild geese headed south flew over Norwich between 3 and 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon—another sign of cold weather.

During Sunday afternoon the reading room at the Otis library was in charge of Miss Louise P. Miner. There were 44 visitors.

The turf has greatly improved at the Norwich Golf club and a number of ardent players went over the course Sunday morning.

Song recital by Henry LaFontaine, tonight, at Slater hall.—adv.

A strong scent of alcohol from an automobile during these chilly times does not imply anything contraband—merely winter preparedness.

The flowers at Trinity Methodist church Sunday were the gift of Wesleyon guild. On the previous Sunday the flowers were given by James Smith.

Answering a query which peeves and perplexes every resident of New England, Peck library, Slater hall, has the volume by C. B. Brooks, "Why the Weather?"

Members of Social Corner club, No. 5, are to meet Wednesday at the Buckingham Memorial for their December meeting.

A month's mind high mass of requiem for John T. Croker was sung in St. Patrick's church Saturday at 8 o'clock by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May.

Public whist and pinochle, 8 prizes, Elizabeth St. school. W. E. C. A., tonight, at 8. Adm. 25c.—adv.

The Junior guild of the United Congregational church has a work meeting planned for Tuesday evening, to make Christmas favors and complete Christmas plans.

Woman's Exchange final clearance sale of all merchandise. Christmas gifts. Good Shepherd yarn, children's sweaters, handkerchiefs, embroidery and crochet cotton.—adv.

These are the days when every advertisement is carefully studied by prospective shoppers and when much of the holiday buying is done in advance, right by the fireside.

At New London, John Coleman Prince post, Cecelia Sweeney post and auxiliary plan a card party and dance for the benefit of needy veterans of the World war and their families.

Brooklyn's health officer, E. C. Babson, issues the warning: Water from the well should be pumped daily, but not used for drinking or household cooking unless boiled five minutes.

When the residents of Norwich awoke Saturday to discover the ground sprinkled with light snow and to find the roofs covered with frost they realized that winter is no fiction.

Norwich Free Academy, as well as the other schools, resumes sessions today (Monday) after the brief holidays. Just now the Academy has about 1220 students, taught by 62 instructors.

The New Haven railroad does its best to boom Connecticut College for Women by picturing its buildings and giving a sketch of the college activities, on the menu folders in its dining cars.

South Coventry residents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wolfe, have returned home after a three weeks' automobile trip to Lynn Haven, Fla. Their daughter, Dorothy, is to spend the winter with her grandmother there.

A week end husking bee and old-fashioned dance held in Niantic by the Temple Building corporation was attended by farmers and farmerettes from Montville, Salem, Colchester, Waterford, Grassy Hill and other places.

A number from this vicinity went to Plainfield, Sunday, for the services commemorating the 225th anniversary of the organization of the majestic white church on the post road, which attracts the attention of all who pass that way.

At Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clarke entertained 22 guests at dinner on the holiday, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clarke and family of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kimball and family, Orson Sweet and family and Frank Wood.

An amputation of the left arm above the elbow was performed at St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, the past week, for Miss Mary G. Barrows, of Mansfield Center, who was knocked down near her home early in October by a road construction truck.

A religious play, "Every Youth," was given by the Dramatic club of Hartford (colored) at Union Congregational church, Rockville, Sunday evening, under the auspices of the First African Baptist church, of Rockville. The proceeds will be turned over to the African church.

A sweet potato grown by Albert Martin, Tennessee truck farmer, weighed 12 pounds and measured about 12 inches in length.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Mary Burgoyne of South Coventry, was in Hanover at the home of Charles Royal for the holiday.

Miss Lillian Harwood and Mrs. Alice Parsons of Norwich are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Dart in Uncasville.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nelson Main of Smith's corner, Franklin, and daughter Elsie Louise were visitors in New Britain Sunday.

Mrs. Viola Main and children of North Stonington, were holiday guests of Mrs. Main's sister, Mrs. John Robinson of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nelson Main and daughter Elsie, of Franklin, spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. Main's father, Allen T. Main of Fitchville.

Dr. Leslie Tracy Gager of Washington, D. C., formerly of Norwich, spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Luella Gager, at her home in Stonington.

Miss Lucille Perry, a senior at Wheaton college and Earle Kenyon of Norwood, Mass., spent the holiday in Scotland, at the home of George N. Perry.

Eaoul LaPela of Taftville was one of the witnesses at the marriage of Miss Corana LaPela and Arthur Mossisette, in St. Patrick's church, Mystic, on the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paton entertained at their home in Montville on Thanksgiving day, friends including Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Johnson and son Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fitch Johnson, all of Norwich.

$7,000 FROM STONINGTON TO DRAIN MOSQUITO MARSHES

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 30—(AP)—Stonington, setting out on work that within a few months will completely clean the town short of mosquito breeding places, is leading the activity against the insects in which all eastern shore towns are taking part.

The largest private subscription the Connecticut agricultural experiment station at New Haven has received since 1910 has, it was announced today, been placed under the supervision of R. C. Botsford, deputy of the experiment station in charge of mosquito elimination, by residents of Stonington. Approximately $7,000 has been raised to ditch and drain almost 600 acres of salt marshes.

Legal notices have been posted, and, local officials announce, ditching will start before the ground freezes.

Old Lyme will spend $3,000 next spring to complete ditching 1393 acres of salt marshes. Old Saybrook, this summer and fall, ditched 200 acres, and an additional $1,000 has been appropriated to carry on the work.

The experiment station reports that only seven shore towns have failed to drain all or part of their salt marshes. They are Bridgeport, Stratford, Milford, North Haven, Lyme, Waterford, and New London.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Lemuel A. Manning.

At 2.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Lemuel A. Manning was held with a large attendance of relatives and friends at her home, No. 32 Peck street. Rev. Percy A. Kilmister, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. George H. Strouse, of Bozrah, a former pastor of the church, conducted the funeral service. The interment was in the family plot at West Plains cemetery, with a committal service at the grave. The bearers were Frank A. Skinner, Herbert Mitchell, A. W. Armstrong, Frederick J. Maples, Harvey M. Briggs and William D. Ricker. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements

Frank W. Tracy.

The body of Frank W. Tracy, formerly of this city, who died in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was brought to this city Saturday from Hartford by a Hartford undertaker, and the burial was at the Yantic cemetery at 11 a. m. Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the local arrangements.

WEDDING.

Gameroff-Clark.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Sunday in the Old English room of the Hotel Bond, Hartford, when Miss Ruth Helene Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clark of Norwich, was united in marriage with Samuel Daniel Gameroff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gameroff of Montreal, Canada. Rabbi Morris Silverman officiated.

The room was beautifully decorated by Macky, with palms and chrysanthemums, and the bridal party was married under a canopy of flowers of pastel shades.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a Larrin model, developed in ivory transparent velvet, with cowl neck and elbow cuffs lavishly covered with seed pearls, a four yard train extending from the bottom of the skirt with scalloped edge. Her veil was of bridal tulle, with alencon lace cap and clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Dorothy Clark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a Vionnet model of emerald green transparent velvet with chantilly lace to match and carried yellow roses. Miss Bernice Clark, sister of the bride, and Miss Lyna Gameroff, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They were aquamarine blue chiffon gowns, trimmed in rhinestones, and carried pink roses. The little flower girls were N. Jeanne Beit and Pearl Leah Clark, the former wearing orchid georgette and the latter green georgette and carried old fashioned baskets of roses.

The bride's mother wore black lace and chiffon, and the bridegroom's mother wore violet chiffon, and each wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.

The ushers were Morris Rose, of Hartford, and Dr. Leonard Rubin, of Montreal. The best man was Louis Gameroff, the groom's brother. Brennan's orchestra, of Norwich furnished music for the evening, its members comprising Edward Brennan, director and violinist, Mrs. Edward Brennan, pianist, and Edward Gladue, clarinet and saxophone.

The bride's traveling costume was a squirrel coat and she wore a gown of Biarritz blue maravia crepe, trimmed with ecrue lace and bead trim.

Mr. and Mrs. Gameroff left for a trip to Bermuda and West Indies and will be at their newly furnished home in Westmount, Quebec, after January 1.

The bride has been a successful teacher in the town of Norwich and the groom is a prominent real estate broker in Montreal.

A Hartford concern catered for the evening and covers were laid for 60. Guests were present from Montreal, Ottawa, Quebec, New York, Bridgeport, New Haven and New Roobelle.

Cross Country Award to Brown

Nelson B. Arnold of New London, was awarded a letter in cross country at a recent meeting of the Moses Brown school athletic council in Providence. Arnold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Arnold of the Mohican hotel, New London. He attended Ridgefield school before entering Moses Brown

HEAD WINDS DRIVE PLANE DOWN ON PIERSON LOT AT EAST GREAT PLAIN

Unable to make any headway against strong winds an airplane bound from Providence to Wallingford landed Sunday at 4 p. m. on the Pierson lot at East Great Plain. The pilot, named Lawrie, made a safe landing, the plane was made secure and left on the lot for the night.

The plane, owned by the Wallingford airport, was undamaged. The pilot left Providence intent on arriving at Wallingford during the afternoon. Over Norwich, however, he encountered a strong headwind that at times caused the plane to come practically to a standstill in the air.

After vainly trying to gain headway the pilot decided to come down, and selecting the Pierson lot, brought his ship to the ground. Later in the afternoon, after calling several friends by telephone from a house in the vicinity, the pilot left for an unstated destination. Weather permitting the plane will take the air today (Monday) to continue the interrupted flight.

SANATORIUM HOLIDAY FUND MAKES ANNUAL APPEAL

Now that Thanksgiving bon-fires are past history for another year, and the turkeys (excepting for soup bones) are but ghosts of their noble selves, thoughts turn automatically to Christmas and giving. And, as always, there is in this town a cause which makes appeal to every heart—the maintenance of the holiday fund, for the use of Uncas-on-Thames.

The state houses, feeds and gives to its sanatoria the best of medical advice and treatment and does its splendid service, so far as all the practical necessities are concerned. It provides the bread and butter of hospital life, so to speak— but the little extras, the desserts and small luxuries, so essential to sick people, must be bought elsewhere. This is where the holiday fund steps in, and puts its sturdy shoulder to the wheel, to keep it turning!

Every year sees an increase in the waiting list of the local sanatorium. It is now full to its limit, with every bed taken, and the good work of healing goes on unendingly; in equal proportions do the needs of the patients increase, and the call of this fund is ever greater. From a small beginning, the fund has now more and more responsibility, till it is an absolute necessity to the budget of Uncas-on-Thames, a loving service, voluntarily maintained.

It is a true "Pollyana chest," from which flowers and favors for every holiday in the year, from January first to Christmas, are supplied; it is a modern "widow's cruse," which never fails its sick children. Everybody's birthday is also remembered, and when one recalls that there are over 200 patients to be made happy this way, that, in itself, is a very important item. Warm garments are, likewise, purchased from this source, and it is an every-day emergency fund, which, at a moment's notice, can and does produce everything a patient may need, who may not be able to afford the necessary "woolies" to offset the cold.

Too much stress can not be laid upon the value of the holiday fund; it would be a real calamity, should it ever fail in the loyal support of Norwich people.

Christmas, at Uncas-on-Thames, is always a memorable day, and the big trees in each ward a beautiful sight. The day is ushered in with Christmas choristers singing through the wards, and Santa Claus never fails to put in an appearance during the morning. The bright cheery atmosphere and environment, (together with some little unexpected gift) do wonders towards chirking up hospital morale, and not one can afford not to give as freely as possible. Any sum, no matter how small, is acceptable, and the bigger, the better!

It seems necessary each year to explain that this friendly fund in no way interferes with, or affects, the sale of the Christmas seals, which does its own fine work, in providing, with its proceeds, nourishment for the under-fed children at the clinics, and in those preventive measures, which are so valuable in the fight against tuberculosis.

As usual, Miss Mary E. Richards is in charge of the work of soliciting for the holiday fund, and has assembled a competent committee to help her. They are the following:

Miss Elsie Bogue, Mayor Lee Roy Robbins, Miss Kate MacKenzie, Roy D. Judd, William R. Clarke, Earle Wood, Taftville; Clarence E. Carpenter, Felix Callahan, Miss Amy Burlingame, Mrs. Samuel C. Smiley, Mrs. Shepard B. Palmer, Mrs. Harrison Gray, Mrs. Frank B. Ricketson, Mrs. George L. Ingalls, Miss Alice Cogswell, Mrs. Charles T. Bard, Miss Jane McGregon Aiken, Mrs. John E. Hawkins, Mrs. Roderick F. Sullivan, Mrs. Charles J. Twist, E. LaRue Bliven, Alfred H. Bliven, Miss Lillian Stetson, Mrs. James M. Osten, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss Katharine A. Kent and Miss Dorothy Paul.

Checks and donations may also be sent to Miss Richards directly, at her home address, 93 Sachem street, city.

And so, the holiday fund once more makes its appeal for the continuance of that help, in which its Norwich friends have never failed.

CONNECTICUT STUDENT JUDGES SCORE LOW

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Connecticut team took lowest places of 28 entries tonight at the intercollegiate livestock judging contest. Connecticut student judges took thirteenth in the sheep class, twenty-second in cattle, and last in hogs and horses.

Prof. Harry L. Carrigus, of Storrs, was elected to the executive committee of Lambda Gamma Delta, honorary livestock judging fraternity, for a term expiring in 1934.

Given Birthday Party

Saturday evening, a very pretty party was tendered Miss Jennie Sunko, at her home on Gifford street in honor of her birthday. The home was beautifully decorated with pale blue and pink streamers. After delicious refreshments were served, games, stunts and novelty dances were enjoyed. The party ended at a late hour, with each one wishing Miss Sunko many more happy birthdays.

Among those present were: Misses Jennie and Veronica Tamulewicz, Julia and Alice Wirzbinski of Norwich Town; Pauline E. Nawrocki of Brown university, Angela Pawleski of Willimantic Normal school, Laura Concavish, Alice Karniewicz, Mary Kaleda, Mary Homiski, Jennie and Stacia Sienko of Yantic; Wanda Ostrowski of Greeneville; Mrs. Thomas Wirzbinski, John Tamulewicz of Norwich Town, Anthony Wojciechowski of Greeneville, Tony Garska of Fitchville; Joseph Bessette and Joseph Arthur of Baltic, Frank Barbowski of Thamesville, Stanley Ostrowski, John and Joe Wladyka, Paul Nichol and Jack Wronowski of New London.

Masonic Temp's Public Inspection.

A good number of visitors are expected today (Monday) at the Masonic temple on Washington street at the hours which have been set for public inspection of the building, which are from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Members of the Masonic fraternity will be present to welcome all visitors.

STATE VEGETABLE GROWERS TO HAVE ANNUAL MEETING

(Special to The Bulletin)

STORRS, Nov. 30—Announcement has been made here that the Connecticut Vegetable Growers' association will hold their annual meeting this year December 4-5 at Hotel Garde in Hartford.

The meeting will begin at 9:15 Thursday morning with a talk by Frederick Waugh, director of the New England Research council. Haugh has made an intensive study of the Boston market, the subject on which he is to speak. At 10:00 o'clock C. Richardson of Sunderland, Massachusetts will relate his experiences as a vegetable grower. At 11 a. m. Daniel Dean, a potato grower of Nichols, New York, will speak on solving the fundamental in potato production.

In the afternoon the value of crop estimating and reporting will be discussed by a group of vegetable growers including Louis L. Grant of Buckland, John Christensen of Wilson, Leon Dobkin of Ellington, Louis Daigle of Marion, H. P. Beers of Southport, Earl Hodges, of the bureau of markets of the state department of agriculture, and C. D. Stevens, statistician of the New England division of the United States department of agriculture at Boston. Following this will be talks by Daniel Dean on how marketing factors are influencing potato prices and profits, by Dr. G. P. Clinton, director of the botany division of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment station at New Haven on the new plant diseases and their control, and Dr. W. E. Britton, state entomologist, on the control of insects attacking vegetables.

In the evening there will be an informal meeting which will be held with the object of showing growers what is being done or can be done to help them and to offer an opportunity for growers to suggest additional needs. At this time the group will be addressed by Dr. C. C. McCracken, president of Connecticut Agricultural college, Professor W. L. Slate, director of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment stations and S. McLean Buckingham, commissioner of agriculture. The final address of the day will be made by Professor H. B. Rowe, extension marketing economist of Massachusetts Agricultural college.

On Friday the meeting will continue with the reports of the officers of the association, and the annual election of officers. At 10:30 a. m. a report of the vegetable experimental work which is being conducted at Windsor will be made by Dr. D. F. Jones and Dr. N. F. Morgan of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment stations. Professor Alva T. Stevens, head of the department of gardening at Connecticut Agricultural college will then explain the factors affecting the pollinization of plants.

At 1:30 p. m. Roscoe W. DeBaum of Pine Brook, N. J., will explain the vegetable farm organization as it affects gross income and profits, and at 2:30 p. m. Henry B. Marquart, president of the Vegetable Growers' association of America, will outline a practical solution of the marketing problem.

PRODUCE MERCHANTS MUST HAVE GOVERNMENT LICENSE

Only ten days are left for commission merchants, dealers and brokers in fresh fruits and vegetables engaged in interstate trade to apply to the United States department of agriculture for a license to continue business before the penalty provision of the perishable agricultural commodity law becomes effective.

S. McLean Buckingham, commissioner of agriculture, in a statement Sunday, explained that the law comes under the jurisdiction of the federal government and his primary interest in the matter is to inform all Connecticut dealers affected by the law of its nature and the necessity of securing a license in order to avoid a penalty. He is advising all dealers affected to write the U. S. department of agriculture for service and regulatory announcements No. 121.

Those who fail to apply for a license before the tenth are subject to a fine of $500 plus $25 for each day of operation without a license. The purpose of the perishable agricultural commodity law approved June 10, 1930, as set down in the printed law, is to suppress unfair and fradulent practices in the marketing of fresh fruits and fresh vegetables, whether frozen or packed in ice, in interstate or foreign commerce. The United States secretary of agriculture, in enforcing the law, is authorized to construe all provisions to make them most effective n procuring the desired end.

MADE 85 ARRESTS IN MONTH OF NOVEMBER

There were 85 arrests made by the police in November of which 34 were for intoxication, the chief cause. In the tours around the streets at night the officers found 38 doors unlocked and there were 120 lodgers given a place to sleep over night at police headquarters.

The causes of arrest were the following: Intoxication 34, motor law violations 24, breach of peace 12, theft 6, operating under influence 4, theft of motor vehicle 3, violation of liquor law and non-support 2 each, manslaughter 1, resisting officer 1, injury to private property 1.

SCOUTS MAKE GOOD START ON LAYING CABIN FLOOR

Saturday about a score of Boy Scouts spent the day on the new camp site on the Quinebaug river and before the day had closed had laid about one-third of the flooring of the cabin. According to the local scout headquarters, it is hoped that all the flooring of the huge cabin will be laid by Friday, in order that the scoutmasters and members of the executive board can all go out Saturday morning or afternoon and put up the frame. Once the frame and the roof rafters are up, the work will proceed rapidly for then many hands can nail on the slab boards and work in the interior of the cabin.

A great deal needs to be done before the cabin, which is 30x30 feet, can be completed. Some estimate that it will take the scouts all winter. Others declare that if the men and scouts set to with a will the cabin will be practically complete by the first of the year. Certainly the scouts are getting a great thrill out of trying to put up the large structure. When it is completed it is anticipated that it will house between 35 and 40 boys at one time. Among those who have contributed to the building of the cabin thus far are: W. S. Spencer, Dr. W. T. Browne and Mrs. Browne, the Connecticut Gas & Light company, Chas. W. Burton, the board of the county home, Sussman's Bedding Co., Inc., Dr. R. R. Agnew, the Misses Lucas, and several others who have made cash contributions.

It is estimated that when the cabin is completed its valuation will be in excess of $1,000. The cabin is situated on a knoll and is surrounded by beautiful cedar trees. It faces due southwest and from the proposed veranda a magnificent view can be had of Bundy Hill and the gorgeous sunsets which form on the crest of the hill. The tract of land is 80 acres and is a natural game preserve. The scouts propose to make it a game sanctuary and carry on reforestation projects and wild game cultivation.

Much still needs to be given for the cabin. Boards suitable for roofing, roof joists, fire tiling for the interior of the fireplace, a mantel piece, 24 cot mattresses or straw ticks, a quantity of 2x4 and 4x4 boards for the building of the veranda. In fact, according to the local scout headquarters, a great deal of any sized used flat boards can be used if those wishing to give them will but communicate with the scouts. People having old garages or sheds which they can no longer use will find that the scouts will go out, if notified, and tear them down and use the lumber for their cabin.

The work Saturday was carried on under the supervision of Dr. R. R. Agnew, A. L. Peale and John L. Sellman. Chief workers were a group of Rover Scouts consisting of James Dutton, Woodrow Sebastian, Walter Payson and Will Finlayson, who worked directly with the scouts.

DEPUTY SCOUT CHIEF TO ATTEND BOARD MEETING

Deputy Regional Scout Executive George Felker will attend the Scout executive board meeting this (Monday) evening at 7.30 at the Thayer building, in the chamber of commerce rooms. Mr. Felker comes to Norwich from Boston and will spend three days in eastern Connecticut working with the district committees and in giving general advice and assistance to the organization. He comes at the request of the council president, H. D. Larrabee, who has been anxious to establish better unity between the several centers in the sections of the state.

Mr. Felker will arrive in Willimantic at 2 p. m. and will be met by Executive Sellman at the train. From there they will drive to Stafford Springs for a conference with W. O. Ladish and Dr. W. B. Bean. Returning from Stafford Springs they will reach Norwich in time to attend the executive board meeting called by President H. D. Larrabee to determine the exact date of the February campaign and to discuss the camp and other important matters.

Tuesday morning will be spent in Willimantic and Mr. Felker will speak before the Willimantic Rotary Tuesday noon. On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Felker and Mr. Sellman will drive to Putnam where they will again hold meetings with the several scout men of that district. On Wednesday Mr. Felker will confer with President Larrabee and other members of the executive committee, complete unfinished business and leave for Middletown early in the day.

Among those who are expected to attend the board meeting this evening are: President H. D. Larrabee, vice president, Rev. J. J. Reilly; vice president, Max Hanover, Arthur E. Story, Charles Coit, Charles V. James, Wilbur S. Williams, H. A. Tirrell, C. B. Gilbert, H. F. Powers, J. V. Pedace, Arthur L. Peale, Rev. A. H. Abbott, H. M. Lerou, E. J Graham, Dr. R. R. Agnew, Edward W. Jewett, Earl G. Taggart, F. Russell Smith, Edwin V. Ross, Rev. T. M. Shipherd, William M. Wyman, Walter Casey, F. H. Wyant, Rev. Joseph Casey, Walter King, William O. Ladish, John J. O'Rourke, Will Collins and John Sellman.

BOY SCOUTS DISTRIBUTE POSTERS FOR WINDOWS

Boy Scouts last week did two good turns to the community in the distribution of Red Cross Christmas seal posters and American Legion posters advertising the play which is to be given soon for charity.

According to H. M. Lerou, chairman of civic service of the local scout council, hardly a week goes by but that the scouts are called upon to render some community service which if paid for would cost the city hundreds and hundreds of dollars.

BEGINNING THEIR ANNUAL COLLECTION OF TOYS

Last year the Boy Scouts of Norwich collected and repaired over ten bushels of toys. This year they hope to exceed that amount. Through the courtesy of Rotarian Henry Vignot of the New London-Norwich Poster company, all toys collected by the scouts will be repaired and painted by skilled workmen at the company's plant on Franklin street. In previous years it has been found that the scouts have been greatly handicapped in repairing the toys without tools and paints.

ARREST FOLLOWS CRASH INTO CLIFF ST. POLE

Driving an automobile down the steep street by the side of St. Joseph's Polish church on Cliff street, William C. Goodrich, 52, of 21 Arcadia street, ran the machine head-on into a pole about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon and was arrested on the charge of operating under the influence of liquor.

The machine was practically reduced to a pile of junk, it was stated. The arrest was made by Officers Clifford Crary and Daniel J. O'Neil.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mayor Lee Roy Robbins returned Friday from a holiday visit in Stamford. Mrs. Robbins and children arrived home at the week end, Miss Ray Robbins remaining at school in Stamford.

Miss Mabel S. Webb, who spent the holiday recess with Miss Osgood and Miss Martha L. Osgood, returned Sunday to Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Reggio, of Bay Shore, Long Island and West Miami Beach, have left town, having spent the holiday and week end at Norwich Inn. They were in town to visit Mrs. Reggio's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Ives.

Following their holiday dinner in Boston with Misses Elizabeth and Kathryn Zumbro, Mrs. William M. Zumbro, Mrs. W. Tyler Olcott, Miss Mary F. Hyde returned to Norwich at the week end. During Sunday, Miss Hyde joined Miss Mabel S. Webb, leaving for Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The December meeting of Gen. Ebenezer Huntington society, Children of the American Revolution is to consider Old Doorways in Norwich. The meeting will be held Friday with Nancie Belle Greenman, of McKinley avenue. The hostesses will be Mrs. Charles D. Greenman, Mrs. William S. Elliott, Mrs. Talley E. Babcock, Mrs. George R. Fellows and Miss Florence Congdon.

TUG PROGRESSIVE SINKS IN LONG ISLAND SOUND

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 30. — (AP) — Pounded by heavy seas, the tug Progressive sank today off Cockenal Island in Long Island sound, it was reported here, leaving her six men to make their way into Bridgeport in the lifeboat.

Her tow, the barge William H. Wales, was left held by two sea anchors. The tug Russell Number 6, of New Haven, prepared to leave this port at midnight tonight, if the weather permitted, to bring the barge to safety.

The Progressive was commanded by Captain Joe Marshall and is said to belong to a New York company. Her tow was loaded with seven tons of fuel oil.

REPORTS SAY O. B. GARNETT IS TO SURRENDER THIS WEEK

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Search for Oliver B. Garrett, former Boston liquor raider, was stirred into renewed but fruitless activity today by reports that he had been hiding at nearby Franklin and would give himself up early this week.

Immediately after receiving information that the missing officer had been living with his wife at their house in Franklin, District Attorney William J. Foley informed police. A squad of officers raided the house but found neither Mr. nor Mrs. Garrett. The only person there was Miss Lillian V. Hatch, Garrett's aunt.

Later in the day a dozen state motorcycle officers from the Framingham barracks combed Franklin and surrounding towns for trace of the defaulting former policeman, who had been indicted for practicing extortion on liquor raids. Again the search was fruitless.

Garrett disappeared last June just before he was to go on trial.

FLOODS INUNDATE THE SUBURBS OF PARIS

PARIS, Nov. 30.—(AP)— The River Seine, whose rise because of rains had alarmed Paris for a week, was still boiling tonight and gave promise of going higher.

In the last 24 hours the river had risen 15 inches, placing the water level at 18 feet, 3 inches above normal at the Austerlitz bridge, a height not reached since 1924.

With its tributaries also rising, experts predicted another increase of 20 inches before nightfall tomorrow, which would raise the stream nearly 20 feet above normal.

In Paris itself, where the river is lined with strong walls, the waters have given little trouble except to seep into cellars, but many suburbs have been inundated.

FAVORABLE FACTORS CITED BY CREDIT MAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.— (AP) —Well sustained collections somewhat stimulated retail buying and vigorous efforts to meet the unemployment problem by both public and private agencies are cited as favorable factors in the December bulletin of the National Association of Credit Men.

Although admitting that the general business indices are not cheering, Dr. Stephen I. Miller, executive manager of the association, pointed out today that some phases of the present situation are distinctly favorable. The apparent stabilization in the price of copper he mentioned as having particular significance, inasmuch as copper led the decline in commodity prices.

"It is to be hoped that copper, having put its house in order, will help to lead the other commodities back to safer ground," Dr. Miller said.

See our Display of Jamesway Equipment
at the
NORWICH POULTRY SHOW
to be held in Olympic Hal'
Dec. 3 - 4 - 5
A. E. SHEDD
NORWICH

AUTOMOBILE SALON AT HOTEL COMMODORE, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. — (AP) —The twenty-sixth annual automobile salon, at which the luxurious handicraft of master motorcar coach makers is exhibited, opened tonight at the Hotel Commodore. The prices of models displayed ranged from five to twenty-two thousand dollars, with the top moving as high as $50,000 for those who might care for inlaid gold designs.

The efforts of the carrossiers this year seems to have been to appeal to the eye and taste for luxury of those able to afford these specially designed coaches.

DEATH OF SWEETHEART CAUSE OF GIRL'S SUICIDE

NEWTON, Mass., Nov. 30.—(AP)— Within 24 hours after her school boy sweetheart was drowned, Miss Flora Lotz, 16, Newton high school athlete, was found dead today in her father's garage a victim of carbon monoxide poisoning.

The girl, daughter of a high executive in the Woolworth chain of stores, appeared unconsolable after learning of the death last night, of John Barry, also a high school athlete, who was drowned in Hammond's pond.

Several hours after retiring, she arose, dressed herself and proceeded to the garage. This morning her father found her, slumped over the wheel of his automobile. The motor was not running but the ignition had been turned on.

Motor Service To Gales Ferry.

Announcement has been made by the New England Transportation company that effective Wednesday, December 3rd, certain motor coach service will be operated to and from Gales Ferry village.

The new schedule which becomes effective on that date indicates a number of trips leaving Norwich and New London will make side trips to Gales Ferry.

NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 AS SHOWN BY CENSUS FOR 1930

The population of Norwich, based on the 1930 census, is 32,438, as shown by the final report of the U. S. bureau of census. Norwich, the largest town of eastern Connecticut, exceeds New London in population by 2,798. The New London figures are 29,640.

Connecticut's population on April 1, 1930, according to the fifteenth census was 1,606,903, which represents an increase of 226,272, or 16.4 per cent, as compared with the population on January 1, 1920. The total land area of the state, as shown in Table 3, is 4,820 square miles. The average number of inhabitants per square mile in 1930 was 333.4, as compared with 286.4 in 1920.

There are 18 cities and 2 boroughs in the state which has a population of 10,000 or more in 1930. Hartford, the largest city, has a population of 164,072, which represents an increase of 26,036, or 18.9 per cent, since the census of 1920. New Haven is the second city in Connecticut, with a population of 162,655, and Bridgeport is third, with 146,716 inhabitants. The next three cities in the order of their population are Waterbury, New Britain and Stamford. Wallingford borough and Shelton city first attained a population of 10,000 between 1920 and 1930.

The population figures of cities towns and boroughs in New London, Tolland and Windham counties follow:

Minor Civil Division	1930	1920	1910
New London County	118,966	104,611	91,25[illegible]
Bozrah town	859	858	862
Colchester town	2,184	2,050	2,140
Colchester borough	937	913	974
East Lyme town	2,575	2,291	1,918
Franklin town	611	522	527
Griswold town	6,010	4,220	4,282
Jewett City borough	4,483	3,196	3,028
Groton town	10,770	9,227	6,495
Groton borough	4,122	4,236	1,895
Lebanon town	1,436	1,343	1,528
*Ledyard town	1,144	1,161	1,079
Lisbon town	1,097	867	824
Lyme town	546	674	746
Montville town	3,970	3,411	2,804
New London town	29,640	25,688	19,659
New London city	29,640	25,688	19,659
North Stonington town	1,135	1,144	1,100
Norwich town	32,438	29,685	28,219
Norwich city	23,021	22,304	20,367
Old Lyme town	1,313	946	1,181
*Preston town	3,928	2,743	1,917
Salem town	403	424	443
Sprague town	2,539	2,500	2,351
Stonington town	11,025	10,236	9,154
Stonington borough	2,006	1,100	2,083
Voluntown town	651	656	479
Waterford town	4,742	3,935	3,097
Tolland County	28,659	27,216	[illegible]
Andover town	430	389	371
Bolton town	504	448	433
Columbia town	648	706	840
Coventry town	1,554	1,582	1,600
Ellington town	2,263	2,127	1,903
Hebron town	879	915	894
Mansfield town	3,349	2,574	1,867
Somers town	1,917	1,673	[illegible]
Stafford town	5,949	5,407	[illegible]
Stafford Springs borough	3,492	3,383	[illegible]
Tolland town	1,064	1,040	[illegible]
Union town	196	273	[illegible]
Vernon town	8,703	8,898	[illegible]
Rockville city	7,445	7,726	[illegible]
Willington town	1,213	1,200	[illegible]
Windham County	54,088	52,815	[illegible]
Ashford town	726	673	[illegible]
Brooklyn town	2,250	1,655	[illegible]
Canterbury town	942	896	[illegible]
Chaplin town	414	355	[illegible]
Eastford town	529	496	[illegible]
Hampton town	511	475	[illegible]
Killingly town	8,852	8,178	[illegible]
Danielson borough	4,210	4,130	[illegible]
Plainfield town	8,027	7,926	[illegible]
Pomfret town	1,617	1,454	[illegible]
Putnam town	8,099	8,397	[illegible]
Putnam city	7,318	7,711	[illegible]
Scotland town	402	391	[illegible]
Sterling town	1,233	1,266	[illegible]
Thompson town	4,999	5,055	[illegible]
Windham town	13,773	13,801	[illegible]
Willimantic city	12,102	12,330	[illegible]
Woodstock town	1,712	1,767	[illegible]

*—Part of Ledyard town annexed to Preston in 1928.

SIMMONS LEADS AMERICAN LEAGUE BATTERS WITH AN AVERAGE OF .381

CHICAGO, Nov. 30—(AP)—The younger generation of stars, headed by Al Simmons of the championship Philadelphia Athletics, exploded most of the batting thunder in the American league last season.

Simmons captured the batting crown of the circuit by a narrow margin of two points over Lou Gehrig. Of the first 30 leading batsmen, 26 were players with no more than four years' experience in the league final official averages revealed tonight.

It was a lean year for the batting aces of yesteryear, although Babe Ruth still reigned as the league's home run king and placed third among the leaders with a .359 average.

Simmons won the batting championship with an average of .381 or a dozen points better than the mark established by Lew Fonseca of Cleveland, who won the title in 1929. Simmons also topped the field in runs scored with 152, was third in total hits, second in hits for total bases and fifth in home runs. Gehrig led in hits with 220 and in hits for the largest total of bases—419. Other batting leaders in individual departments were two base hits, Urban Hodapp, Cleveland, 51; three base hits, Earl Combs, New York, 22 and sacrifice hits, George "Mule" Haas, Philadelphia, 33. Marty McManus of Detroit was far ahead of the field in the art of pilfering bases with 23 thefts.

The "Big Ten" hitters waged such a close fight for the batting title that only 31 points separated Simmons from Edgar "Sam" Rice of the Washington Senators, who led the batting parade for several weeks and then finished up in tenth position with a .346 mark. The leaders, in addition to Simmons, Gehrig, Ruth and Rice, together with their averages, were Carl Reynolds, Chicago, .359; Mickey Cochrane, Philadelphia, .357; Urban Hodapp, Cleveland, .354; Ed Morgan, Cleveland 350; Henry Manush, Washington, .360, and Dick Porter, Cleveland, .350.

The slugging Yankees led in team batting again with a season's average of .309, an increase of 15 points over their 1929 record. Cleveland finished second with .304, a jump of 10 points in a year, while the surprising Washington Senators, in third place with a .302 percentage, showed a remarkable gain of 26 points. The Yankees established new records with a total of 1,062 runs scored, and with a total of long hits—1,683 blows for a record of 2,657 bases. The Senators were the hardest to score against, only 689 runs being recorded against them all season.

Of the many notable batting feats during the season, several stood out to provide material for the record books.

In a double header on September 17, Earl Averill of Cleveland batted out four home runs in five times at bat—three in the first game and one in the second. In the first game, he tied the league record by driving in eight runs.

On July 29, Dick Morgan of Cleveland made five hits in five chances and drove in five runs. Morgan also hit 26 homers—the first time in league history that a Cleveland player hit more than 20 circuit blows.

Besides Averill, Gehrig, Reynolds and Ruth hit three home runs in a single game. Reynolds made his record in three consecutive times at bat and also tied the record by driving in eight runs. Gehrig performed his feat twice. Thus the record for driving in runs in a single game was tied four times. Bib Falk of Cleveland, Earl Combs of the Yankees and Tony Lazzeri of the Yanks each scored five runs in one game, and Gehrig counted one or more runs in each of 15 consecutive games for a total of 24. Jonathan Stone of Detroit hit safely in 34 consecutive games, July 6 to August 9, inclusive, a record for the season.

ZEP WINS NATL. A. A. U. CROSS-COUNTRY TITLE

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 30.—(AP)—William O. Zep of Dorchester, Mass., won the National A. A. U. cross-country championship here today, covering the six miles in 29 minutes, 43 seconds. The Millrose A. A. of New York won the team title with low total of 46 points.

Zep won by eight seconds from Joe McCluskey of Fordham university, who competed unattached. Joe Mundy of the Nativity club, Philadelphia, was third in 30:11; and Phil Silverman, Brooklyn Harriers, fourth in 30:14 Gus Moore, crack distance ace of the Brooklyn Harriers and the defending champion, was handicapped by a bad knee and finished tenth.

Trailing the Millrose A. A. in the team scores were the Dorchester club with 71; Nativity club, 82; Brooklyn Harriers, 90; New York A. C., 93; Meadowbrook club, Philadelphia, 113, and Michigan State Normal college, 120.

The Millrose team placed its first five men in sixth, eighth, ninth, tenth and 13th places.

EASTERN LEAGUE WILL HAVE EIGHT CLUBS IN 1931

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—Plans by which the Eastern Baseball league again will become an eight-club circuit were outlined at a special meeting here today.

Although no definite announcement as to what new members will be admitted will be forthcoming until another meeting later this month, representatives of three cities attending today's conference and others previously had indicated to President William E. Carey their desire to join the league. Present members are Albany, Bridgeport, Allentown and Springfield. Representatives from Richmond, Va., Norfolk, Va., and Trenton, N. J., appeared at the meeting and made application for franchises.

President Carey said the league would consider the applications carefully before coming to any decision.

DODGERS NOSE OUT GIANTS IN TIGHT GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers nosed out the New York Giants, 7-6, in a National Professional Football league game at the Polo grounds today.

The Giants scored first, Campbell breaking away on a 35 yard run for a touchdown. The try for point was wide. The Giants held on to this advantage until the fourth quarter when Brooklyn marched down the field and McBride broke through the line for a touchdown. The try for point was good and Brooklyn went into the lead, and fought off all Giant attempts to score.

— The — Recreation Billiards
Sellas Building, Franklin Square
Tel. 1914
Finest Equipment in Eastern Connecticut
EIGHT BRUNSWICK TABLES
Promotes Good Fellowship

LITTLE OF INTEREST IN METRO RINGS THIS WEEK

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The boxing spotlight shifts its rays from New York to various other sections of the nation this week as bike racing occupies Madison Square Garden.

The big fellows of the ring also are regaining their share of the interest after yielding to smaller men for several weeks. Maxie Rosenbloom, the light-heavyweight champion who can find few good opponents, is slated to cash in on his title to some extent in St. Louis Tuesday night when he meets "K. O." Phil Kaplan of New York in a non-title bout. Rosenbloom should have no great trouble defeating his veteran rival. He has done it twice before.

Jimmy Maloney, favorite of Boston fans who grabbed himself a large slice of the calcium light recently when he beat big Primo Carnera, makes another appearance in the Boston Garden Friday against Johnny Risko, Cleveland's still sturdy rubber man. They have met twice before. In 1928, Maloney won a decision and in 1929 Risko scored a three-round knockout.

Other bouts on the week's national schedule include:

Tuesday, at St. Louis—Eddie Ran, Poland, vs. Vickie Purvis, Indianapolis, welterweights, ten; Sammy Offerman, St. Louis, vs. Ray Alfano, East St. Louis, lightweights, ten; Freddie Haverlak, New York, vs. Lou Terry, St. Louis, lightweights, ten.

At Indianapolis—Harry Dillon, Winnipeg, vs. Tony Cancela, Detroit, lightweights, ten; Frankie Jarr, Fort Wayne, Ind., vs. Kid Woods, Indianapolis, bantamweghits, ten.

At Los Angeles—Sammy Jackson, Los Angeles, vs. Paulie Walker, New York, welterweights, ten.

At New York, Broadway Arena—Roberto Roberti, Italy, vs. Eddie Benson, New York, heavyweights, ten.

Thursday, at Cincinnati—Cowboy Joe Willis, San Antonio, Tex., vs. Joe Anderson, Covington, Ky., light-heavyweights, ten.

Friday, at Hollywood, Cal.—Al Fay, Chicago, vs. Al Morro, Burbank, Cal., heavyweights.

At Sacramento, Cal.—Dixie La Hood, Butte, Mont., vs. Charlie Miller, Reno, Nev., lightweights, ten.

WESTERN MARYLAND IS ONLY UNBEATEN TEAM IN EAST

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—With the defeat yesterday of both the Army and Dartmouth, Dick Harlow's Western Maryland outfit has returned to the top of the eastern football heap so far as cold figures go.

Western Maryland, tied once, is the only eleven in the east that has not been beaten.

Colgate enjoys a wide lead in total points scored with 376. The only other teams which have passed the 300 mark are Dartmouth and Springfield, each with 301. Western Maryland has put up the highest defense, allowing only 14 points to the enemy. On the other hand, the University of Baltimore with only one victory in ten games, has allowed 360 points to the opposition.

The records of representative teams, as compiled by The Associated Press follow:

College	W	L	Tied	Pts	Opp Pts
West.Maryland	8	0	1	289	14
Geneva	9	1	0	196	98
Colgate	8	1	0	376	21
Springfield	8	1	0	301	34
Fordham	8	1	0	215	29
Army	8	1	1	262	22
Dartmouth	7	1	1	301	43
Albright	7	1	1	167	59
St. Johns, N. Y.	6	1	0	111	45
Williams	6	1	1	188	23
Wash.-Jeff.	6	1	1	164	39
Gallaudet	5	1	1	69	64
Rhode Island	5	1	2	148	19
Holy Cross	8	2	0	195	45
New York U.	7	2	0	195	83
Cornell	6	2	0	273	83
Pittsburgh	6	2	1	186	69
Syracuse	5	2	2	207	79
Yale	5	2	2	198	58
Amherst	4	2	2	156	78

MACALUSO WINS HIGH SCORING HONORS IN EAST

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Scoring nine points with a touchdown and three extra points in Thursday's game, Leonard Macaluso of Colgate, leading scorer of the east, brought his total up to 144 points for the season and increased his margin to 48 points over his nearest rivals.

Jack Grossman of Rutgers and Ken Goff of Rhode Island held their tie for second place. Although both have added their seasons their totals of 96 points kept them ahead of Bart Viviano of Cornell, who put over one touchdown against Pennsylvania to end the year with 90 points. The stands of other leaders remained unchanged as Thursday's and Saturday's games failed to produce any new names for the list of the eastern scoring stars.

Macaluso has made 19 touchdowns and 27 points after touchdowns, leading all rivals by wide margins in both respects. He also has made one field goal, yielding honors among the leaders to Ralph Hewitt of Columbia, who has booted two. Grossman and Goff each have scored 16 touchdowns and Viviano 15.

Records of the leaders to date, as compiled by The Associated Press, follow:

Player	G	Td	Pat	Fg	Ttl
Macaluso, Colgate	9	19	27	1	144
Grossman, Rutgers	9	16	0	0	96
Goff, R. I.	8	16	0	0	96
Viviano, Cornell	8	15	0	0	90
D'b'nsky, C.C.N.Y.	8	13	1	0	79
J. M'phy, Fordham	9	13	0	0	78
Corzine, 'D'vis-Elk.	10	12	0	0	72
Foster, Bowdoin	7	12	0	0	72

JOHNNY FARRELL TO MAKE SET OF MOTION PICTURES

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Following the example of Bobby Jones, Johnny Farrell, pro at Mamaroneck, N. Y., and St. Augustine Fla., will make a set of golfing motion pictures this winter. Farrell will demonstrate each of his shots for the camera, starting with the woods and going through the various irons to the green, where a complete series will be devoted to putting. The pictures will be taken on the St. Augustine links, where Farrell is winter professional.

Indians Swamp Eagles

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 30.—(AP)—In the fastest hockey game seen in the New Haven arena this year, Springfield proved far superior to the New Haven Eagles, to win 6 to 0.

Beattie, of Springfield, proved the individual star of the game. Two of his team's six scores were made by him, while he was credited with an assist in two others.

The gum value of sand pines is being tested in Florida by officials of the national forestry service.

The Bulletin Board

Anyone who has been up around the Academy of an afternoon during the past month and watched Paul Bitgood work with his large basketball squad of beginners cannot help but have visions of some great things for the Wildcats at this game within the next few years. It's partly because of the coach himself and mainly because of the systems that he is instituting at the school.

Since the last week in October Mr. Bitgood has had approximately 81 boys under his wing in the big new Norton Memorial gym three afternoons a week, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, instructing them in the fundamentals of the game. For the most part, they have little experience, in fact, probably not one-fifth of the total ever played on an organized team.

Now, with six weeks of this and with the fall sports campaigns ended, Paul is about ready to sound another call for candidates, which will bring out those from the football and cross-country teams who could not report before. For the next four weeks until the opening game on Jan. 2, the work will, no doubt, get stiffer.

The Academy cannot expect too much from its basketball representatives during the coming season, because basketball will be almost a new sport to the school, after a year's interim, following the first three years of the sport, but the Academy fans are back of Mr. Bitgood to a man and will support him in every way.

The friends of Lefty Dugas, Taftville walloper, who busted his way from Wichita to the Pittsburgh Pirates all in one season of organized ball, are sympathizing with him as the final averages of the Western league are announced for Lefty was beaten out by six points, in the race for the batting championship of the circuit. Dugas had .340 and a teammate, Jensen, won with .354. Still .349 or ten or twenty points below that is a sweet thing for an average in your first year out. Lefty, incidentally, parted company with his tonsils last week and is resting for a while before returning to the basketball wars with the Shymas.

Now a word about the glorious art of sports announcing. Graham McNamee and Ted Husing, doing the honors Saturday on the Army-Notre Dame game, had a tough enough time of it, the weather being what it was, but why make other people feel miserable, too, with their repeated comments about Jupe Pluvius. Graham and Ted may both be good, but give us good old Bill Munday in football and no other than Fred Hoey, of Boston, in baseball.

PLAINFIELD WINS FROM THE NEW LONDON RANGERS

(Special to The Bulletin)

PLAINFIELD, Nov. 30.—Plainfield turned back the New London Rangers in an Eastern Connecticut Soccer league game here today and went into second place in the standing. The score was 3 to 1 and to win the local booters had to come from behind in the second half.

After Lawless had put the Rangers ahead before intermission, Plainfield evened it up when O'Leary knocked one into his own goal and Barrett and Lang followed soon after with two more scores.

Summary:

Plainfield	New London
Korab, goal	goal, Rose
Allard, rfb	rfb, J. King
Marriott, lfb	lfb, Turgeon
Lyons, rhb	rhb, Devlin
Mettle, chb	chb, A. King
T. Mercier, lhb	lhb, O'Leary
E. Mercer, or	ir, A. King
J. Mercier, ir	or, Schaffer
Lang, cf	cf, Ballantine
J. Heyes, il	il, Lang
Barrett, ol	ol, Lawless

Referee, Vic King; linesmen, Brooks and Marden; time, 45-minute halves. Substitutions: Plainfield—T. Heyes for Mercer.

WESTERLY WINS CONFERENCE TITLE BEING UNDEFEATED

With Bulkeley's 26 to 0 victory over Chapman Tech Saturday at New London for the city championship all grid activities among Eastern Connecticut high schools were brought to a close. Bulkeley's season was the most successful in some years as the Tigers defeated their two main rivals, the Academy and Tech and came from last place in the conference in 1929 to second place in this campaign.

Bulkeley was three points behind the champion Westerly team while Windham finished in third place. The Academy, with three points, on one victory and one tie in five games, closed in fifth position.

The final conference standing:

	Won	Lost	Tie	Pts.
Westerly	5	0	0	10
Bulkeley	3	1	1	7
Windham	2	2	1	5
Stonington	0	1	4	4
N. F. A.	1	3	1	3
Chapman Tech	0	4	1	1

CARNERA WINS DECISION OVER UZCUDUN BEFORE 90,000

BARCELONA, Spain, Nov. 30—(AP)—Primo Carnera, giant Italian heavyweight, outpointed Paulino Uzcudun, rugged Basque woodchopper, in a 10 round bout fought before 90,000 spectators here today. Referee Moss Deyong cast the deciding vote after the two judges had disagreed.

There was some booing when the official verdict was announced and a few fist fights broke out among the more choloric fans but the thousand police detailed to prevent disorders had not the slightest difficulty controlling the big crowd.

Paulino's attempts to bring the fight to close quarters were frustrated by Carnera's tremendous reach and height. Carnera kept the rushing Spaniard at bay with straight rights and lefts throughout most of the fight. Carnera weighed 265 3-4; Paulino 206 3-4.

Pro Football Standing

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Following is the standing of clubs in the National Football league, including today's games:

	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
Green Bay	10	3	0	.833
New York	11	4	0	.733
Brooklyn	7	3	1	.700
Chicago Bears	8	4	1	.667
Providence	6	4	1	.600
Stapleton	5	5	2	.500
Chicago Cardinals	5	6	2	.455
Portsmouth	4	6	2	.400
Frankford	4	12	1	.250
Minneapolis	1	6	1	.143
Newark	1	10	1	.091

Sunday's results:
Brooklyn, 7; New York, 6.
Chicago Bears, 14; Portsmouth, 6.
Green Bay, 37; Stapleton, 7.

MID-WEST AND WEST PROVE THEIR SUPERIORITY OVER TEAMS OF EAST

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—Two of the east's strongest football elevens, Army and Dartmouth, headed for home today ready to confirm an already strong suspicion that the middle west and far west have more than a hazy idea of how the game should be played.

Army's courageous Cadets took an unbeaten record with them to Chicago and fought the rough riders of Notre Dame tooth and nail before bowing by the margin of a single point, 7-6. Dartmouth, another previously undefeated team, invaded Palo Alto, held Stanford even for three periods but finally surrendered, 14-7.

Just to add a little more color to the same picture, Washington State's Cougar, champions of the Pacific Coast conference, invaded Philadelphia to wallop Villanova, 13-0, while Drake, Missouri Valley title-holders trounced Temple in the same city, 40-20.

A crowd of 100,000 braved rain and sleet in Soldier field to watch Army seek to halt the Notre Dame juggernaut which had rolled over Southern Methodist, Navy, Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh, Indiana, Penn, Drake and Northwestern in succession.

And a fighting line almost turned the trick for the Cadets. For three periods and ten minutes of the fourth it was a gruelling scoreless duel although Army was called upon to repel five dangerous Notre Dame scoring threats. With five minutes to play, the rough riders had the ball on their own 42 yard line. Two line thrusts netted only four yards but on the next play Marchmont Schwartz, flashing halfback, broke loose for 54 yards and a touchdown. Frank Carideo calmly booted the extra point which, as it turned out, meant victory. Soon afterwards, a long Army punt put Notre Dame back almost to its goal line. Carideo attempted to punt but Dick King, sub Army end, broke through, blocked it and Trice, Army right guard fell on the ball over the goal line for a touchdown. Broushous, a sub, was sent in to try for the all-important extra point but the Notre Dame forwards smashed through and smothered it.

At Palo Alto, Stanford consistently outgained Dartmouth but found the Easterners' defense exceedingly hard to pierce in scoring territory, after each had scored touchdowns in the second period and the contest developed into a tight defensive duel until the final quarter when Stanford drove 58 yards in three plays for the winning touchdown. The scoring play was a 17 yard dash by Caglieri.

Washington State, with Elmer Schwartz in the leading role, piled up 16 first downs and gained 265 yards from scrimmage against Villanova and got only two touchdowns out of it. Seven times the coast conference champions marched deep into Villanova territory and then found the Wildcats' defense too strong.

Drake exhibited a fine passing game and an excellent running attack in swamping Temple as Chuck Van Koten and Lynn King scored three touchdowns apiece.

In the east's only other big game of the day, Holy Cross took advantage of a blocked punt to score a touchdown against Boston college in the second period and then held on grimly to win 7-0. Navy with Penn to be faced next week and Army a week later, had to call on the regulars to beat George Washington, 20-0. Western Maryland was too strong for Muhlenberg, 25-0, and Loyola of Maryland conquered the University of Baltimore, 38-7.

In the southwest conference where Texas already had won the title, the Baylor Bears beat Rice, 7-4, to finish second in the standings. Texas Christian walloped Southern Methodist, 13-0, Red Oliver taking the opening kickoff and racing 85 yards to a touchdown.

The southern conference schedule was limited to the Vanderbilt-Maryland game which Vanderbilt won 22 to 7. Benny Parker's 81 yard run to a touchdown was the outstanding individual exploit. Loyola of New Orleans, a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association, turned back Iowa State, 14-7.

At Detroit, Georgetown held the University of Detroit scoreless for two periods but finally went down, 12-0.

N. A. P. B. LEAGUES MEET AT MONTREAL TODAY

MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Baseball notables, representing teams from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast and from Mexico to Canada poured into Montreal tonight for the annual gathering of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

Starting tomorrow with the meetings of the International and Pacific Coast leagues, baseball officials have ahead of them a busy week which promised to bring several important questions up for decision. The National association meeting, the only one for which a definite program has been set, opens its sessions Wednesday and closes Friday, but meetings of various separate leagues and associations promise a full week of business.

One outstanding issue is to be discussed at tomorrow's meetings of the International and Pacific Coast leagues and probably at the National meeting later. That is the universal draft question, on which the big minors are at odds with the major leagues. There is no indication from either of these Class AA leagues that they will change the stand they took at the meeting with the majors in Cleveland a month ago.

Today was the last day of grace under the old agreement and unless a new one is made this week, there will be no more trading between the big leagues and the revolting minors. The majors have stated their intention of standing pat on their proposals.

The Montreal Baseball club expects to play host to more than 1,000 visitors this week and many already have arrived.

NORWICH FORESTERS WIN FROM HARTFORD BROTHERS

Saturday evening at Hartford the bowling team of Court City of Norwich won from the Court Ericson team of Hartford in a state league match. Aldi and Genesi of the Norwich court were the stars, Aldi taking high total with 327 and Genesi the high single string with 128. The scores:

Norwich
Aldi	117	95	115—	327
Genesi	75	86	128—	289
Bolduc	91	102	89—	282
Fontaine	103	89	106—	298
Keller	104	97	98—	299
	490	469	546—	1495
Hartford
Hagarty	76	77	91—	244
Demers	74	90	101—	265
Salway	106	113	100—	319
Lynch	99	106	82—	287
Whelan	98	96	104—	298
	453	482	488—	1413

TED HUSING ANNOUNCES HIS ALL-RADIO TEAM

Notre Dame and Harvard have a majority representation on Ted Husing's All-Radio football team for 1930. Husing, chief sports announcer on the WABC-Columbia network, has chosen his team exclusively from colleges whose games he described play by play from start to finish. Husing knows football as a former star player as well as an observer.

His selection follows:

End—Harding, Harvard.
Tackle—Bowstrom, Navy; Price, Army, (tie.)
Guard—Kassis, Notre Dame.
Center—Siano, Fordham.
Guard—Metzger, Notre Dame.
Tackle—Trafford, Harvard.
End—Elcewicz, Fordham.
Quarterback—Carideo, Notre Dame.
Halfback—Crickard, Harvard.
Fullback—Clark, Pittsburgh.
Halfback—Schwartz, Notre Dame.

"In a season where team play counted most," says Husing, "and where individual brilliance was unmistakably on the wane, this selection, while heavily overbalanced with Notre Dame, Harvard and Fordham players, was made after continued study and weighing of the relative merits of each man, including consideration of opponent, opponent's team strength, defensive and offensive play, and strategical effectiveness.

"Taking into consideration the games seen, the results, the type of system used, the forward wall strength, and the backfield brilliance, I have taken the easiest way out by naming four Notre Dame, three Harvard, two Fordham players and one each from Pittsburgh and the service schools. Here is why.

"Harding—His defensive work in the Army game was little short of miraculous. He blocked three of Fields' punts, (crashing through the kicking side, where two men defend the kicker) and was honored by being covered by two Army men throughout the game on all Harvard offensive plays. An ideal end, tall, heavy and fast.

"Bowstrom—Submerged on a comparatively poor line, many of the gains by the Navy backfield through the Notre Dame line—and there's a tough line to send a back through—were made through his position. On the defense, the Notre Dame quarterback quickly agreed with his team mates that the other side of the forward wall was a better place to send plays. Bowstrom is an excellent punter and a morale inspirer.

"Price — One of the outstanding eastern candidates for the position of All-American tackle. In the three games seen to date he has been a power in a powerful Army line, one of the best linemen the Point ever had. Excellent on both offense and defense, and a hard man to get through. In the Harvard and Illinois games a world-beater.

"Kassis—The last word in guards. The never-say-die attitude which Kassis exudes makes his line play stand out. It's hard for a man in the guard position to look sensational, but Kassis does it. Coupled with Metzger, my other guard selection, Kassis has made the center of Notre Dame's line almost impregnable. He and Metzger are both running guards, and they cover each other's position whenever necessary.

"Siano—'Tackle by Siano,' booms the loud speaker. Looked better this year than Ben Ticknor, Dick Mestres and others in games in which I saw them play. Siano never lets up, and has played a consistently good offensive and defensive game from Saturday to Saturday all season. He has been a tower of strength on backing up the Ram line.

"Metzger—Looks like a sure All-America. Weighs 156, but is one of the hardest-hitting guards in the game . . . Mr. Ripley, please copy. Practically won the Northwestern game single-handed when he stopped Russell and Hank Bruder so hard that they fumbled on the one-yard line.

"Trafford—Defensively superb. Offensively he is what is known as a combination linesman. He works better with his end and guard than any linesman seen by me this year.

"Elcewicz—Here is one of the most natural football players I have ever had the pleasure of watching. He has football instinct, if any man ever had it. His end play is not sensational because it is so effortless, and he makes the tough ones look easy. Turns opponents plays beautifully, and his work in the St. Mary's game, until he was hurt, would have satisfied such hardy old sticklers on end play as Herbert Reed and Major Sasse.

"Carideo, Schwartz, Crickard and Clark—It was a job picking four outstanding backs from the wealth of fine ball-carriers that I saw play this season. I trust that the hundreds of fans that I know will disagree with my selection will remember that this is not an All-America team, in the strictest sense of the word. It's my own particular All-Radio team. I have not picked my line-up on the strength of their showing through the season, but on the strength of what I saw them do in the games I broadcast.

"Carideo and Schwartz need no introduction, I am sure. They have both starred all season. Carideo has no peer as a brainy quarter, and few can touch him as a hard-running, blocking back.

"Every 'all-team' has to have one purely sensational back, and Marchy Schwartz is that man. Fast, smart and shifty, he made every game in which I saw him perform simply sparkle with his clean knifing through the line and his long, twisting runs through broken field.

"Johnny Crickard was unheard of until the Harvard-Army game. Though he was on the losing side of that encounter, his work stood out above that done by all other backs on the field. He was the story-book substitute back who made good in the big game—and how!

"Spooky Clark, of Pittsburgh, though weighing only 165 lbs., is one of the best line smashers I saw this season. His bullet-like thrusts are a joy to watch, for if he can't find a hole he will make one. He is a throw-back to the old school of line plungers, who hit the forward wall with their noses about an inch off the ground.

"Lots of people will wonder how I could possibly leave off such sterling backs as Stud Stennett, of St. Mary's; Hank Bruder, of Northwestern; Bowman and Stecker of Army, and a host of others. But who ever picked an 'all-team' of any kind without raising a storm of protests from that most rabid of fans—the football bug?"

INDIANS HAVE POINT LEAD IN CAN.-AM. LOOP

BOSTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—The undefeated Springfield Indians today topped the Canadian-American Hockey league standing with a half game margin over the Providence and New Haven clubs. The Indians had to overcome a two goal lead last night before keeping their slate clean by upsetting the Reds. The Boston Tigers and Philadelphia Arows were trailing in the five club ice circuit.

The official standing, including games of November 29, follows:

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Springfield	4	0	0	8
Providence	3	2	1	7
New Haven	3	2	1	7
Boston	2	3	0	4
Philadelphia	1	5	0	2

CROWD OF 5,000 SEES BIKE RIDERS START GRIND

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—New York's semi-annual sleepless week started promptly at nine o'clock tonight when the starting gun was fired for the forty-ninth international six day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden.

A crowd of about 5,000 highly enthusiastic fans were on hand to see the 15 teams sent away on the long grind that will not end until next Saturday night. As usual, sprint prizes as well as the major money awards were hung up for the 30 pedal pushers to compete for.

Eight nations are represented in this race. They are Italy, Germany, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Australia, Canada and the United States.

The entry list follows:

Reggie McNamara, Newark, N. J., and Tony Beckman, Sedaucus, N. J.; Franco Georgetti, Italy and Paul Broccardo, France; Freddy Spencer, Plainfield, N. J. and Gerard Debaets, Belgium; Franz Duelberg and Paul Buschenhagen, Germany; Pietro Linari and Alfredo Binda, Italy; Jimmy Walthour and Charley Winter; New York; Alfred Letourne and Marcel Guimbretiere, France; Gaetano Belloni, Italy, and Emily Richili, Switzerland; Roger De Nef and Adolf Charlier, Belgium; Cecil Walker and Harris Horder, Australia; Norman Hill, San Jose, Calif., and Harry Horan, Newark, N. J.; Dave Lands, Irvington, N. J. and Willie Grimm, Maplewood, N. J.; William Peden, Toronto, Can., and Al Crossley, Boston; Paul Croley, Brooklyn and Harvey Black, Newark; Rafelo De Pacco and Pietro Fossati, Italy.

CHURCH LEAGUE WILL BE ORGANIZED TODAY

There will be a meeting of the managers of the Church league basketball teams at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. This will be the third year of the league's activities and it is expected that it will be a larger loop than last year.

The games will be played on Monday nights, as in the past. The Church league has developed some of the best basketball players in the city, and it affords an opportunity for about 70 players to take an active part in the game. The Gamma club of the Greek Orthodox church has won the championship for the past two years. The league consisted of six teams and the winner represented Norwich in the State Church league. The Gammas were put out of the running by the Central Baptists of Hartford, after playing a home-and-home series.

The teams that were in the league last year were the Gamma club, Central Baptists, United Congregational, Brothers of Joseph, Congregational church of Jewett City and the Baltic Methodists. It is requested that every church that has designs of entering a team in the league be present tonight.

BROWN SWIMMING TEAM ANNOUNCES ITS SLATE

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Brown varsity swimming team will engage in 13 meets in one of the most difficult schedules ever arranged for a Bear tank team, according to the schedule announced here this evening by Dr. Frederick W. Marvel, director of athletics.

Dual meets with Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, Army, M. I. T., McGill, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Bowdoin, W. P. I., and Connecticut and the New England and individual intercollegiates, are listed. The Bruin will meet Harvard and Connecticut for the first time.

The schedule follows, all meets being booked for Providence, unless otherwise listed:

Dec. 12, Connecticut; Jan. 10, Columbia in New York; 16, Harvard at Cambridge; 24, Pennsylvania; Feb. 5, McGill; Feb. 14, W. P. I., at Worcester; Feb. 18, M. I. T., at Cambridge; 21, Army at West Point; 25, Yale at New Haven; 28, Bowdoin at Brunswick; March 5, Dartmouth; 13 and 14, New England I. S. A., and 20 and 21, I. S. A.

NEW MANAGER OF RED SOX TO BE ANNOUNCED TODAY

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Owner Bob Quinn of the Boston Red Sox today notified baseball writers that he would parade his 1931 manager before their gaze during a conference tomorrow afternoon at Fenway Park.

Quinn, since he failed to persuade Joe McCarthy, ousted manager of the pennant-winning Chicago Cubs, to come here, has been extremely reticent about his managerial plans.

The Red Sox boss returned a few days ago from a trip to the mid-west during which he discussed the Boston situation with numerous baseball figures who could be described as candidates for the job held down last season by "Heinie" Wagner, whose resignation was accepted at the close of the 1930 season.

Quinn flatly turned aside all queries about his new pilot and so many have been suggested for the job that his announcement tomorrow is expected to be something of a stunning surprise to the baseball world.

PACKERS REGAIN LEAD BY BEATING STAPLETON

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—The Green Bay Packers regained first place in the National Football league today by defeating the Stapleton team, 37 to 7, before 12,000 Staten Island fans.

The Packers turned what was expected to be a close game into a rout as Blood, Molenda, Llewellyn, Engelmann and Hubbard ran through the Stapes for scores. Blood got two touchdowns and the others one apiece. Stapleton's only score came when Ken Strong ran 85 yards through a broken field for a touchdown and then kicked the extra point.

The Packers evidently learned some lessons from their recent defeat by the New York Giants, which cost them the lead for a while, as they displayed a fine passing game. Passes paved the way for the first Packer Touchdown.

"Y" ACTIVITIES

Boys' and Girls' basketball practice tonight at 4:15.

Business Men's class today at 5:15. Calisthenics and volleyball will comprise the programme.

Children under 15 years of age who were killed in automobile accidents during the first half of 1930 in California numbered 114.

SHYMA SPORT FLASHES

Girl's Basketball

All members were present Wednesday night and the following were chosen to play on the road team.

Forwards, H. Breault, D. Paul, J. Dupont, A. Rondeau; centers, I. Pion, B. Bertrand; guards, I. Chappell, A. Simoneau, R. Legare, C. Legare.

Dot Paul continues her sensational shooting, but is hard pressed by the opposing forwards for the honors.

The scores were held low by the brilliant work of the guards, who although restricted by the rules from shooting deserve equal credit as the forwards for their fine team work.

The Permanents sported their snappy new uniforms of light blue for the first time.

The Lipsticks not to be outdone by the others appeared on the court in their flashy white middies and red ties.

The Rouges, who have not appeared in their uniforms, are expected to surprise them all with their stunning green, Wednesday.

The Powder Puffs displayed their fighting powers by holding the large Rouge team to a tie score in a fifteen minutes practice.

Volley Ball League

The third night of the league should see one team or another seated in first place unmolested. So far the league has been a tied up affair, two teams tied for first, two tied for third and two tied for last place.

Yale and Columbia are the two leaders to date. Yale climbed to the top by a steady winning streak, winning two games out of three each week, while Columbia gained high honors by a sudden splurge of three wins last week. It remains to be seen which of these two teams will be able to keep up their winning ways.

Notre Dame and Princeton tied for third and fourth places also have a fair chance of climbing to the throne of honor. Each of these teams have won three and lost three, by winning three and having Yale and Columbia losing at least one they may climb into first place also.

Army and Harvard tied for last place have a slim chance to climb very high.

Tonight's games: Princeton vs. Army; Yale vs. Notre Dame; Harvard vs. Columbia.

First game at 7:00 p. m. sharp.

Basketball Shots

The Shymas lost their second straight game Thanksgiving afternoon to the Danielson boys. It seems as if Mgr. Sullivan's boys will have to snap out of it if they are to win a game.

Some of the boys are wondering why the Shymas have reserve strength and if it is only to grace the uniforms.

Well Battery E of Westerly will be here this week. Let's hope that Capt. Pingree will have his players snap out of it and win a game.

The seconds will play with the fast Baltic Bantams and from the rivalry existing between these two teams it seems like it will be a battle royal.

Enos Eccleston again handled the game in fine style Thanksgiving afternoon.

VELVETMEN BEAT BALTIC IN ROUGH GAME

Sunday at Sayles Field Baltic, the J. B. Martin soccer football team took the Baltic Social and Athletic team into camp and carried off the bacon by the score of 4 to 1 in a well played game. The old feeling between Baltic and Taftville crorpped up at the end of the game when Eickson of the J. B. Martin tried to put Simoneau of Baltic down for the count and receiv what was coming to him and the game was called to clear the field. The J. B. Martin team, according to the fans, spoils their good play by rough stuff. The majority of the goals scored was by Thompson, who lives and works in Baltic. Baltic had 2 new men in their lineup, McMillian and Strong who put up a good brand of football. The Baltic team needs Prive back in their lineup as their combination work is lacking. Good team work won the game for the visitors.

The lineup:

J. B. Martin	Baltic S. and A.
Risk, g	g, Blanchette
Seidel, lfb	lfb, Greenhalgh
Orcutt, rfb	rfb, Simoneau
Edmond, rhb	rhb, Dudley
Archibald, lhb	lhb, Ridgeway
Houston, osr	osr, McMillian
Roehead, isr	isr, Alexander
Erickson, cf	cf, Strong
Headon, Lynas, isl	isl, Mathews
Labenski, osl	osl, Coullard

Referee, Knowles. Linesmen, Archambealt and Firth.

GRANGE GALLOPS TO WIN OVER SPARTANS

CHICAGO, Nov. 30— (AP) —Red Grange had another round of his galloping days today and the Chicago Bears defeated the Portsmouth Spartans, 14 to 6, in a National league football game at Wrigley field.

Grange gained every time he started, scored a touchdown and tossed a pass to Luke Johnson for the other.

The Bears scored in each of the first two periods and the Spartans got their touchdown in the second, with Bill Glassgow carrying it over.

In spite of the $1,000 fine assessed against them for signing and using Joe Savoldi, the Bears employed the jumping Italian today. He carrried the ball six times for 31 yards.

SOUTHERN LOOP LIKELY TO ADD TO MEMBERSHIP

MEMPHIS, Tenn., —(AP)— The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association, world's largest athletic conference, probably will admit two new members and bring its roll to 35 at the annual meeting in December.

At last year's meeting applications were received from the Mississippi State Teachers' college of Hattiesburg, Miss., and the Murray State Normal School and Teachers' college of Murrey, Ky.

These schools were placed on a year's probation and in all probability will be admitted this year.

Both schools have played a number of football and other games with nearby S. I. A. A. schools in this section.

At present there are 33 members of the association—eight in Kentucky, six each in Louisiana and South Carolina, four in Florida, three in Tennessee and Alabama, two in Mississippi and one in Georgia. Thirty-one of the schools have football teams.

"BABE" HOLLINGBERY USES HIGH SCHOOL TRICK PLAYS

By Frank Gorrie.

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

PULLMAN, Wash. —(AP)— There is one football coach in this country who is winning football games without using the style of play taught by Knute Rockne or "Pop" Warner.

He is O. E. "Babe" Hollingbery of Washington State college, located in the Palouse hills of eastern Washington. Hollingberry has just sewed up the Pacific conference championship for this season.

His team has scored victories over California, Southern California, Montana, Washington and Oregon State college.

And for that matter "Babe" doesn't even teach any special type of football.

"I have my own style of play," said Hollingbery after one of his victories this fall. "I never attended any college or university so I did not receive the usual early grid training.

"If I use any special type of play I have gone back to my old high school days for ideas.

"I believe in hard, fundamental football, with a little deception and a few passes thrown in.

"My real ace this year is Mel Hein, center. He is an All-American if there ever was one. He plays a different style than most other centers.

"He stays right in his hole on defense instead of roving around and he takes his medicine, or rather, hands it out.

"He is 6 feet 3 inches tall and weighs 197 pounds, yet he is one of the fastest men I have.

"He is great on intercepting passes, coming out of the line sometimes 30 and 20 yards to knock down or grab an opposing pass.

"I knew when I started this year that I had the makings of a great eleven, but I had never expected to knock over California and Southern California on successive Saturdays.

"I hoped to accomplish the feat, but what coach doesn't always figure that he at least has a chance in any game?"

For Mayor of Chicago

Issuing a bitter attack on Mayor William Hale Thompson, Charles V. Barrett, board of review member, above, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for mayor of Chicago. The primary will be held in February.

DANNY MURPHY ON ALL-TIME ATHLETICS

Connie Mack, in a recent newspaper article, picked Danny Murphy, former Norwich State league player, as the centerfielder on his all-time Athletic team. Connie rates Danny as one of the greatest players he has ever coached and claims he can be ranked on a par with Al Simmons, his present great slugger.

Simmons, incidentally, was at left field on the mythical club. The infield was composed of Foxx at first, Eddie Collins at second, Jack Barry at short and Frank Baker at third.

MAREE IS "HANDY MAN" OF GEORGIA TECH TEAM

ATLANTA —(AP)— Out of the Flats, proving ground for Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado, they're calling Vance Maree the "handy man."

This 215-pound giant has been a gridiron regular since his sophomore year. He played tackle and earned all-Southern recognition in 1928.

Last year Coach Bill Alexander found himself without a fullback and yanked Maree out of the line. The big boy, unaccustomed to the position, was better than the average line-buster, but didn't set any woods afire.

This year he started back at tackle again, but injuries to Captain Dunlap and Halfback Graydon, Tech's only punters, caused Coach Alex to alternate Maree between the line and the backfield.

To Destroy Prairie Dog Town

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A praries dog town is to be wiped out here at a cost of $3,000. The town covers 27 sections on a 100-section ranch and is estimated to contain 800,000 animals.

Hulks of 27 obsolete destroyers are being dismantled at Mare Island, Cal., preparatory to sale to junk dealers for approximately $5,000 each. The average original cost was $1,000,000 each.

Next to Stalin

Clemence Voroshilov, above, Soviet commissar for war and navy, is reputed to rank next to Josef Stalin in the present Russian regime. The Soviet government has become more powerful than ever through the admittance of engineers on trial that, with foreign aid, they had conspired to overthrow the government.

IT'S A LONG BOB FOR 1931

Gone is the flapper bob, and for 1931 hairdressers predict that necklength hair pinned up in back will be most chic. Irene Dunne is shown with the 1931 bob, which covers the ears and really doesn't look much like a bob at all.

BOX-LIKE SILHOUETTE CREATED BY NEW COATS

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Coat styles are getting stand-offish.

Some of the newest flare from the shoulders at such an angle that they miss the hips by inches, developing silhouettes distinctly box-like.

The loose coats have not yet penetrated afternoon styles. There is hardly a dissenting voice against fitted and flared coats for dress wear.

But sport coats and velvet evening wraps are distinctly influenced by the movement toward fullness released from the shoulders.

One house is chief sponsor for evening coats of medium length which hang straight and full from the shoulders.

Box type sport and travel coats have several influential backers. Lucien Lelong shows various box coat suits for golf and some loose flared coats for travel.

Jean Patou also approves loose coats for travel and dramatizes the standaway flare in a sensational model.

The shoulder-to-hem flare is one of the newest notes in the mode. As yet it is only a hint of a possible future trend waiting for the right women to take it up and popularize it.

FLOWERS SMARTEST WHEN OLD-FASHIONED

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Artificial flowers, following new ideas in ribbons, ruffles and romance, are newest when they are most old-fashioned.

Tight little nosegays of pink moss roses in a formal foil of green leaves are worn, and roses are the most favored of all flowers for wear on evening dresses.

in grandmother's garden, are a chic accompaniment to pajamas for young things.

Shirred Pink Gloves

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—Jean Woodson, a debutante of next season, wore with a pink evening gown long pink gloves of thin suede which were shirred the length of the upper arm. Rhinestone shoulder straps supported the bodice which was without back.

Guiding Your Child

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

Biography

All children at about the age of 12 or 13 begin to take an interest in the lives of great men.

Exceptionally intelligent children show this interest somewhat earlier and with them it is apt to be a particularly intense and absorbing one.

This leaning, which children and especially gifted ones, show toward biography should give the parent who bemoans the fact that his child does not seem to be finding much intellectual food on the dry bones of curricular studies a clue to at least one way of enriching his child's experience.

The reading of biography meets in a fairly unique way the child's need for wish fulfillment reading and for knowledge about the real world both in the past and in the present.

Reading about great men and women at this age when hero worship is natural, helps the child to formulate an ideal which for the time being at least serves to center his constant strivings toward an ideal self.

Incidentally it gives him a wide knowledge of history, science and literature, a knowledge which acquired as it is with a glow of emotional interest is likely to become a permanent part of his intellectual equipment.

Parents who are wondering what sort of books to give their older children for Christmas may find in carefully selected biographies at least a part of the answer to the question.

Of course the life stories of great persons must be chosen with reference to their interest to the particular child.

The biography which is most likely to appeal is one in which the child finds a vicarious fulfillment of his own hopes and dreams or at least a story of achievement not too far removed from them.

BUSTS TO HONOR VIRGINIA "NATIVE SON" PRESIDENTS

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 30—(AP)—Busts of eight Virginia-born presidents and another of Lafayette soon will adorn the rotunda of the Virginia state capitol.

Gov. John Garland Pollard will unveil busts of seven presidents, placed in niches surrounding the Houdon statue of Washington, in a series of ceremonies beginning early in January and continuing with one each month until October.

The first bust to be unveiled is of Thomas Jefferson. The others are of Madison, Monroe, Taylor, Harrison, Tyler and Wilson. The bust of Lafayette will occupy the eighth niche. The statue of Washington, in the center, is being cleaned and decorated for the ceremonies.

STUDENTS INDEX PATENTS TO EARN COLLEGE MONEY

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 30—(AP)—As if secrets of zoology and engineering are not enough to weary one's brain, two students here have spent their spare time indexing steel patents to earn their way through college.

V. Everett Kinsey, 20, a senior in zoology at the University of Pittsburgh, and Thomas Hopkins, 21, a senior in commercial engineering at Carnegie Tech, met such success in publishing the index in limited numbers that they are compiling an index of patents on nickel and its alloys.

Their first book composed 256 pages dealing with 1,800 patents. They may continue their index work after graduation to cover the entire patent field.

TRAIN TRAVELERS USE PHONE FOR BUSINESS

MONTREAL, Nov. 30—(AP)—Two-way commercial telephone service on passenger trains operating between Montreal and Toronto is proving both popular and successful, railway officials say.

Trains have handled as many as 31 calls on a single trip, while the total number of calls for the first five months of operation was 791.

During the first six weeks 60 per cent of the messages were "curiosity" calls, but business conversations now constitute about 65 per cent.

SPRING STYLES HINT OF LINGERIE COLLARS

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Advance notices of next spring's styles, hinted at in mid-winter additions to style collections, indicate a furore of lingerie collars and sleeve touches.

Cushion lace, both white and colored, is seen at one important house, used as edging for slightly starched linen collars and jabots.

Muffs Must Amuse

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Paris refuses to take muffs very seriously in this steam heated age.

But plenty of dressmakers show them, and plenty of women seem interested in them as amusing rather than useful accessories.

Newest of all is the crush-muff of soft fur like shaved lamb or caracul.

It is long, narrow and supple. In an emergency when both hands are needed the crush muff is pushed onto the coat sleeve and wrinkled into position like a fur foresleeve.

It is long enough, when extended that both arms can be buried into it up to elbows with an effect like melon sleeves of fur.

Paris also makes muffs cut with two or three points, matching pointed sleeves of fur.

Peroxided Moleskin

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Peroxided moleskin has come into fashionable women's lives.

The bleached fur is among the smartest materials dressmakers here use for making windbreakers for sportswear. There are many vests for wear under motor coats or with golf suits made of chamois or bleached mole.

The fur is soft enough to work like fabric. A leading dressmaker makes a moleskin vest with turnover collar and button and buttonhole placket closing.

Game Sanctuary Set Aside

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 30—(AP)—Nearly 14,000 acres on the military reservation of Camp Henry Knox have been set aside as a wild game sanctuary. No hunting or fishing is permitted in the northern part of the reservation and only hunting in the south.

5,000,000 Pay To Fish

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—More than 5,000,000 persons in the United States paid $7,314,928 for the privilege of fishing last year, bureau of fisheries records show. The bureau distributed 7,500,000,000 fish during the year.

Create New Tulips

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 30—(AP)—In trying to curb the "mosaic" disease in tulips, Oregon horticulturists have learned they can create new permanent varieties by inoculating healthy plants with the disease and then controlling the virus.

Dressy Silver Hat

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—Mrs. Eldon King, wife of Major King, is wearing an afternoon frock of grey blue crepe de chine trimmed with touches of black fur at the neck and on the bell shaped sleeves. The accompanying hat has a silver crown and small brim of blue lace.

Plaid Waistcoats

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Shepherd plaid waistcoats buttoned up the front over a regulation golf blouse are the smart wear with outdoor enthusiasts. The waistcoats have belts at the back with mannish buckles which make it possible to pull them into a normal waitline.

Chiffon at Tea

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30—(AP)—A frock of pale green chiffon was worn by Miss Margo Wyeth at the tea dance which presented her to society. The dress was made on long lines with a high waist line. Miss Wyeth's mother, Mrs. Nathan C. Wyeth, was gowned in brown chiffon. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Punch Work Smart

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Punch work figures conspicuously on the new daytime shoes, and cut-out embroidery plays a part in ornamentation of evening slippers.

The cut-out work is limited to small designs and is executed in fabrics like crepe de chine or faille with insets of brocade or lame.

Frilly Blouses

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Frilly blouses, made feminine with rows of gathered lace on sheer materials like chiffon and organdy are an advance spring trend easily discernible here.

At present a select few dressmakers are showing such blouses for wear with black broadtail cloth or dark velvet suits for afternoon wear.

It's a Woman's WORLD

KATHERINE MAY

Feminine influence has reached yet another occupation, and instead of three men making up the crews of Chicago-San Francisco air lines there are two men and a woman—a young, comely woman.

Katherine May of Virden, Ill., was the first of eight girls now in that vocation. She was picked from 200 applicants. In the first six months at her job Miss May flew 50,000 miles.

The stewardesses, who also are trained nurses, serve meals, handle tickets, provide reading material, and add to passengers' comfort in various ways.

GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER, AT 24, WILL BE 'FIRST LADY' OF OHIO

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 30—(AP)—One of the nation's youngest "first ladies" will preside over social affairs at the governor's mansion here for the coming two years.

She is Miss Mary Louise White, 24, daughter of George White, democratic governor-elect. The new executive Mary Louise and another daughter, Charlotte, will move into their new home following the inauguration Jan. 12.

Poise of manner and graceful bearing characterizes the new "first lady," who since her mother's death more than a year ago has presided over her father's household.

During the recent campaign Mary Louise was a secretary at democratic state headquarters in Columbus.

"I've been working so hard to make my father the 'first man' of Ohio that I haven't had time to think what I'll do as 'first lady,'" she says. Neither of White's daughters ever has been inside the executive mansion.

Ohio's new hostess is slender and of medium build. She has brown hair, unbobbed. Music, dancing, tennis and an occasional swim are her pastimes. She is a graduate of Smith college.

Charlotte, two years younger than her sister, also will take a prominent part in social events at the executive mansion. She is raven-haired and brown-eyed, and is a student in the school of journalism at Ohio State university.

WOMAN IN LIFE AND IN THE KITCHEN

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

When lemons become dry, immerse them in cold water.

Save soap scraps, put them through a food chopper and use for soap chips.

When baking apples cut a circle round them near the top. They will rise well and not burst.

To keep parsley fresh sprinkle with cold water and keep it in a tight fruit jar in the refrigerator.

A small lump of butter mixed with the white of an egg beaten to a froth is an excellent substitute for cream.

A solution of one-half ammonia and one-half water is excellent for cleaning jewelry. Polish with a chamois.

If you cook cauliflower in milk and water it will be much whiter and possess a richer flavor than if cooked in water only.

To keep jar tops from sticking, rub melted wax on the inside screw cover. When ready to open, pour hot water over the top to melt the wax.

When cooking sauces, custard and the like, drop a large, clean marble into the vessel. It will roll and bob around, keeping the contents thoroughly stirred.

Boiled water will lose its flat taste if it is poured from one pitcher to another three or four times, or if it is shaken up in a large bottle.

Tie the package that is to be sent parcel post, two or three times, and with separate pieces of cord. Then tie knots where the cord crosses. If this is done and one piece of cord breaks, the others will hold the package.

Should an egg have been boiled too long it can be softened again by lifting the saucepan off the fire, quickly placing it under the faucet, and allowing a good stream of cold water to run onto it. The sudden shock of changing from hot to cold water has the curious effect of softening the egg.

The most important requisite for an efficient ice box is cleanliness. Instead of wrapping vegetables in paper or towels, they should be kept in china or glass containers. Strongly flavored foods, such as cheese, should be kept on the racks of the ice box.

BROOMS RESTORED

Brooms that have been stood up the wrong way get crushed. Put a half-filled kettle on the fire, and when the steam comes strongly from the spout apply crushed part to it. In a minute or two the bristles will rise into their original position. While steaming, the hand should be passed briskly over the surface of the broom to hasten its recovery. This method is effective for all brooms and brushes, whether bristles or fiber.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

A cup of strong coffee will be found very effective in removing the odor of onions from the breath.

A little epsom salts dissolved in the foot basin when bathing is an excellent remedy for tired or perspiring feet.

A vessel of cold water placed in the sick room will absorb all unhealthy gases. This water should never be used for any other purpose.

If food becomes lodged in the throat it can sometimes be worked out by pressing on the outside of the throat and working it upwards with the fingers.

INITIAL UMBRELLAS

Very smart are umbrellas with amber handles that are topped with one large square initial.

LEATHER FLOWERS

A single flower made of leather is very smart to wear with a town suit. The flower has many layers and is particularly attractive in black and pink.

MATCH BOXES

Decorative little match boxes are encased in the tiny book shaped boxes each decorated with a small Godey print. They are sold in packages of four.

SCHOOL DAYS

Nothing could be more convenient for the child who lives some distance from school and has to take lunch as well as books, than a roomy bag of rubberized tweed with a slide fastener, that folds up and can be carried in a pocket when not in use.

POPULAR BOWS AT EVERY TURN

If you have wondered whether the ubiquitous bow would suffer by so much popularity you have only to see some of the newest frocks from the midseason openings to put that question at rest. There are bows but they are not meaningless bits pasted on here and there with no idea of design. For instance a very necessary bow appears at the hip of an evening frock tying up a graceful little draped peplum. Shoulder straps tie in bows. The decolletage often ends in a bow at the waistline.

BROADCLOTH COATS

Not for many years has broad cloth had such a prominent place in fashion, but this winter will see many of the smartest coats developed in suave silky broadcloth—such a perfect background for rich furs.

DICTATES OF FASHION

Various versions of the cowl collar continue to be promoted.

Narrow scarfs, some in gross cravat effects, are popular.

Dull stockings are still making a wide appeal among fastidious women.

Wrap-around skirts with slip-on sweaters continue in favor with matching or contrasting jackets.

Chanel has scored with a sleeveless blouse or vest made of the reverse of the knitted fabric used for the accompanying suit.

Dolman sleeves are reported to be gaining steadily in favor and are in line with a universal tendency toward complicated sleeve treatments.

Not only beaded collars and cuffs are being worn by day, but supplementary collars of colored taffeta are appearing over self collars on dark woolen frocks.

THE REDS HAVE IT

There is much red in winter fashions, and it is hard to think of a single tone of this color that isn't on the program. There is wine red for blondes and the Titian, or golden-haired maidens. There are black-cherry reds, brownish reds, laquer, American Beauty and rust reds for the ladies with dark eyes or hair or both.

BEAVER TRIMMED COATS

Beaver is decidedly effective when used to trim coats of very dark green. These are extensively featured by one of the best shops, for quite young girls.

NEW BLUES

The southern resort season may seem a long way off but fashionists are already wondering whether blues will last until the first snow flies and those birds of plumage who can afford it start winging their way south. Some of the blue shades expected to vie with tropical oceans are clematis blue, guardsman blue and Basque blue.

Not all stockings must be dull to is to match your hosiery with the surface of the fabric used for a costume. If tweeds be your choice for the moment, naturally stockings must be dull or of sports character. With silk having undeniable luster, such as satin and velvet, chiffon hosiery with sheen is preferred.

LAUNDRY HINTS

Soak red-bordered towels or red print ginghams, in borax water to prevent them from fading.

If a small quantity of turpentine is added to the pot of starch, it will prevent the iron from sticking to the goods.

New stockings will last longer if they are washed before they are worn. Wash them in warm water to which a few drops of ammonia has been added.

When washing lace curtains if the curtain stretcher is available, hang them while wet on curtain rods, pin to the casing under the window sill and in the cracks on the sides of the window and they will dry perfectly.

CLEANS TAPESTRY

Clean tapestry-covered furniture by rubbing it with hot bran, reheating the bran as it gets cold. Have two dishes of bran going—one to be using and one to be in the oven heating.

FEATHERS WASHABLE

A good feather pillow can be cleaned and fluffed up if the feathers are first transferred from the ticking to a cheese-cloth bag the size of the pillow, then swished through several tubs of warm, thick soapy water. Rinse well, hang on line to dry. A sunny, windy spot would be ideal.

DELICATE FABRICS

The most delicate fabrics may be washed in bran water. To prepare, fill a cheesecloth bag with bran, pour boiling water over it, leave for ten minutes, then squeeze out the bag and remove. The water is then ready for use.

VENETIAN GLASS

Venetian glass needs no description when it comes in familiar shapes and colors but recently glass blowers have gone modern for a new glass imported is a cloudy white with black handles, bases and rims. The effect is very beautiful and the shapes of all the pieces, which comprise candlesticks, bowls and vases are modernistic in outline.

TO PREVENT "SLIPPERINESS"

Housewives who admire the beauty and well-kept appearance of waxed floors will be interested in knowing that "slipperiness" has been eliminated by the introduction of the electric polishing machine. The experience of home economics teachers and institutes demonstrates that when floors are polished electrically they are not slippery. In fact, if a waxed floor is slippery it is a sure sign that it has not been polished properly. It usually means that the wax has been applied too thickly and the user has not taken the time to polish it thoroughly into the wood. With the electric machine the wax is driven into the pores of the wood, filling the cracks between the boards, leaving a smooth and even, but not a slippery surface, the luster that is so much desired on the floors. Dusting is then easier, as there are no obstructions or "pockets" to catch and hold the dirt particles.

CONCERNING WOMEN

Nova Scotia now grants allowances to mothers with dependent children.

Sarah Barclay DeForrest owns one of the biggest varnish factories in New York.

Green or black fingernails and rose eye-shadows are to be the vogue for American beauty seekers this coming season.

Miss Effie Meeker, of Santa Rosa, Calif., holds the "pet owning" championship of the state. She has 28 dogs, and pays $42 for license fees.

Four women stand guard over the lives and property of residents of West Essex, New Jersey. They are unusing "heroines" who receive emergency calls for the fire-fighters and sound the alarms.

Miss Dorr Bothwell, Oregon university co-ed, after having passed two years studying native culture in American Samoa, became the adopted daughter of a chief and was the official of the village.

NAIL AND TOOTH BRUSH

An oblong case of pink composition, holds a folding tooth brush and a nail brush. These come in a number of pastel shades.

MIXED FISH

You can eke out left-over fish to make an excellent supper dish by adding a can of shrimp, creaming all of it together and baking en casserole.

RECIPES

Nut-tapioca pudding: Cover one and one-half cup of tapioca with cold water and let soak over night. Put into a saucepan with two and one-half cups of sugar and allow to cook until clear, then add one cup of chopped nut meats, the strained juice of one orange and one lemon and the sirup from a can of peneapple. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Serve cold with whipped cream.

Cream cheese cookies: Cream one cup of butter, add one cup of sugar, one teaspoon of lemon juice and the rind of half a lemon grated, then one package of cream cheese. Mix well and add one teaspoon of baking powder and three and one-half cups of flour sifted together. Shape into balls one inch in diameter. Place an inch apart on a greased cooky sheet and bake in a hot oven for about 20 minutes. When cool dip into melted fondant or cooled, boiled frosting and roll in chopped nuts or cocoanut. This makes three dozen cookies.

ENCLOSED SUN PORCH A JOY IN WINTER

An airy atmosphere has been achieved in this cheerful sun room.

By HOPE HAMMOND

Especially in winter is the enclosed porch or sun room a joy to inhabitants of the house that has one.

It is an invitation to bask in light and sunshine in the cold months, and it is equally prized for shade and airiness in summer.

In the decorations of a sun room an outdoor atmosphere should prevail, even though deep upholstered chairs are included in the furnishings.

Obviously this room is a place for modernism. Modernistic chairs are particularly suitable.

An airy effect is given to these sturdy chairs by the broad open spaces between their slender lines of metal, of polished walnut, and something of the breezy gaiety of silver birches is conveyed if they are upholstered in silver-green Padua cloth.

It should be of smooth antique weave and sunfast—stretched across the cushions instead of lengthwise.

The effect of airiness likewise may be accentuated by the selection of a suitable lighting fixture, and by the use of window shades of fine wood reed laced together in green and orange stripes.

Colors of the walls and woodwork should emphasize every sun tint. Yellows should be stronger than inside the house.

Greens, on the contrary, should be neutralized to create a distinct difference from the lawn outside. A pleasing effect in carpeting is obtained by use of a machine-hook carpet or taupe and neutral green geometricals.

Helping The Homemaker

By Louise Bennett Weaver

SPANISH RICE

Dinner Menu

Spanish Rice and Meat Sauce
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Bread Apple Jam
Cabbage and Pineapple Salad
Salad Dressing
Frosted Date Cookies Coffee

Spanish Rice

(Serving six)

Four slices bacon, 3 tablespoons chopped onions, 3 tablespoons chopped celery, 3 tablespoons chopped green peppers, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 1-2 cups cooked rice, 2 cups tomatoes, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Cut bacon in small pieces. Place in frying pan and heat slowly. Add onions, celery, green pepper and rice. Cook slowly until well browned. Add rest of the ingredients and cook slowly for 15 minutes. Stir frequently.

Meat Sauce

(Using leftovers)

Three tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup diced, cooked meat, 2 cups milk or meat stock, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Melt the butter and add the flour. Cook until a little brown. Add rest of ingredients and cook slowly until sauce thickens. Pour around the Spanish rice after it has been placed on serving platter. Garnish with parsley and serve.

Date Cookies

(Deliciously flavored)

One cup fat, 1 3-4 cups light brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 cup chopped dates, 1 cup chopped nuts, 5 tablespoons cream (sweet), 4 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda.

Cream the fat and sugar. Add the eggs, vanilla, spices, dates, nuts and cream. Beat for 3 minutes. Add rest of the ingredients and shape into roll. Chill for 2 hours or longer. Cut off thin slices and bake 12 minutes in moderate oven.

Frosting

Three tablespoons soft butter, 3 tablespoons boiling coffee, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1 3-4 cups sifted confectioner's sugar.

Mix ingredients. Beat for 2 minutes. Carefully spread on baked cookies.

To soften flannels which have become hard and stiff soak in gasoline.

Town Has No Cemetery

NORTH BEND, Ore., Nov. 30—(AP)—Despite its population of 4,000 North Bend has no cemetery. Burials are made in the cemetery of Marshfield, four miles away.

Yessir! Neckribbons!

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Neck ribbons are back after decades of oblivion. Parisians put a white grosgrain ribbon in the neck of dark daytime dresses. Many sport dresses have velvet ribbon bound necklines.

Gloves With Puffs

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—Long gloves with lengthwise insets of shirring or with elbow puffs formed by a series of horizontal tucks have a following here. Paris shows a marked preference for long gloves that are black.

Caracul Turbans

PARIS, Nov. 30—(AP)—White and black caracul are combined in jig-saw puzzle design to form smart draped turbans that are having a big success here. With the turban goes a matching scarf of the same furs put together in irregular fashion.

WOMAN DISPUTES DARWIN, SAYS NATURE DIDN'T EXPERIMENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 30—(AP)—A fragile little Russian woman is telling American scientists that Darwin's "survival of the fittest" theory is incorrect.

She is Mme Nadine Zavadsky, educated as a surgeon in Petrograd before the war, but now exiled from her native land.

Mme. Zavadsky is an associate of Mme. Curie at the Institut du Radium in Paris, where since 1927 she has studied biology and cancer with the aid of radium and the X-ray.

Now she is visiting laboratories and talking with leading scientists in the United States, telling them of her discoveries.

Mme. Zavadsky spent many years giving relief to Russian soldiers in the World war and then aided the White Russian troops fighting the Bolsheviki after the revolution. After the White forces disbanded she turned from surgery to theoretical experiments with the effects of radiation.

These experiments led to her disagreement with Darwin's theory. Nature creates a brand new species spontaneously in a single individual without experimenting, she says.

Darwin believed nature experimented with various changes in living creatures, and chose the form best fitted to survive, as the basis of a new species.

Mme. Zavadsky caused modifications in reproductive cells of mice by irradiating them with X-rays, but these changes produced of themselves no new species in following generations.

This indicates that nature is extremely conservative, she says, and outside forces cannot influence formation of species, contrary to what Darwin believed.

5 Major Reasons—

SILENT GLOW Maintains Its Leadership as the World's Largest Producer of Quality Oil Burners

1—SILENT GLOW has the industry's outstanding men at the head of each department: research, design, patents and manufacturing.

2—These men have made SILENT GLOW commercially perfect—praised by 80,000 women.

3—SILENT GLOW a SUPERHEATER—is quick lighting—the only burner that will give heat immediately.

4—SILENT GLOW, an honest product, is sold only through dependable agents. Not sold by any Tom, Dick and Harry.

5—SILENT GLOW Guarantee is a gilt edge guarantee backed by a $10,000 bank deposit. That means something.

Beware of deceiving imitations that at a glance resemble a SILENT GLOW. You will repent at leisure
—Look for this Trade Mark—

$11.00 INSTALLS A BURNER IN YOUR HOME

Order Today Phone 655

SILENT GLOW
TRADE MARK REGISTERED U.S. PAT. OFF.
OIL BURNER

Easy Terms Phone 655

Norwich Oil Heating Service

Over 1,000 Satisfied Users in Norwich and Vicinity.
Marguerite Building, 15 North Main St. Tel. 655.
Edward Rousseau, Jewett City. Tel. 66.

SPECIAL!

Ladies and Men's GARMENTS
DRY-CLEANED and PRESSED

All Garments that were
$1.50 — NOW

$1

Free Call—Free Delivery

LACKENBACH'S

CLEANERS & DYERS
84 WEST MAIN—20 BROADWAY
Phones 2871—2837

IT'S SUCH A RELIEF

We lift washday cares right out of YOUR HOME

"Yes, our laundry service is a great comfort" to know that you can send even your most delicate pieces to this laundry with the utmost confidence of their being carefully and expertly done! We have a department that specializes in

HAND IRONING

of your best TABLE CLOTHS or silk things.

HAVE YOU USED OUR CURTAIN OR BLANKET SERVICES?

Our Special Department for these Services gives you the most nearly PERFECT LAUNDERING you have ever seen.

WE CHALLENGE YOU TO TRY US!

TROY
LAUNDRY
282 FRANKLIN ST.

RETAIL TRADE IMPROVED LAST WEEK; WHOLESALE TRADE SLOWED DOWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP) —With December at hand, business attention now converges upon holiday trade, while industrial production is permitted to drift.

Retail trade has shown some response during the past week to the impetus of colder weather and the first distributions of Christmas savings by banks, which total about $632,000,000 this year, and will be fully distributed this week. Wholesale trade tended to slow up, although there was still fair activity in some of the holiday lines.

The steel industry slackened operations still further. Ingot output was reduced to 41 per cent of rated capacity (Iron Age estimated), from 43 a week previously, and 48 per cent early in the month.

This basic industry is accustomed to let its operating schedules decline in December, preparatory to the new year's business. January almost always brings a fairly substantial upturn in the steel business. In only one year out of the past ten has January failed to show an increase in ingot production.

The program for stabilizing steel prices, urged by President Farrell of U. S. Steel at this autumn's meeting of the American Steel Institute, appeared to be developing satisfactorily. Makers of sheets and other lighter lines are joining with the producers of plates, shapes and cars in announcing minimum price schedules. Raw materials—scrap and pig iron— have, nevertheless, sagged further.

Although security prices have been reactionary, the past week has seen encouraging stability in commodity prices generally. The annalist weekly commodity price index actually recorded a slight gain, while Bradstreets' food price index was unchanged. Better prices for grains and livestock were balanced by an easing tendency in cotton, hides, rubber and some of the non-ferrous metals.

The sugar market was rather uncertain, pending negotiations by the Chadbourne committee with East Indian and European producers seeking cooperation with the Cuban restriction plans. The copper situation remained virtually unchanged, with large producers still holding to their 12-cent price, and custom smelters selling small quantities at 10 1-2. One custom smelter, however, raised its price to 11 cents yesterday. The petroleum industry was still unsettled, with isolated cases of gasoline price cutting appearing, but plans for more drastic pro-rating of crude production seemed to be developing.

Recent stepping up of production by one of the larger motor manufacturers has not yet been followed by the industry generally, and in the past week aggregate production was little changed. It is expected that another large producer may shut down entirely for two weeks during December. The industry appears to be developing its 1931 campaign cautiously.

The tendency among manufacturers of lighter lines, such as wearing apparel, radio sets and household wares was toward the normal quiet which prevail for a time after the output for the holiday trade is completed. Freight car loadings as reported for the week ended November 15 were the lowest of the year, but the reports for the last two weeks of November should reflect the movement of holiday merchandise.

Both electric power production and building contracts as reported for the third week of the month were bright spots in the weekly quote of statistics. Electric power production showed a gain of 1-5 of one per cent over the previous week, and was only about six per cent below the like week of last year. F. W. Dodge Corp.'s weekly figures for building contracts showed a daily average of $12,571,966, or about $2,000,000 above the daily average for the first two weeks of the month.

The National City bank, in its monthly survey of economic conditions, published today, points out that business has been declining for 15 months, and is now at a level some 35 per cent below the 1929 peak. "This equals the severity of any previous decline of the past 50 years, and, while not conclusive proof, surely warrants a strong assumption that the decline is nearing its end." The survey adds, however, "that recovery, when it does set in, will be a gradual rather than a rapid process, is quite generally agreed."

It may be pointed out, in addition, that the decline of about 36 per cent from the 1929 peak has taken business down about 20 per cent below normal, as measured by leading business indices, which are weighted for the normal rate of growth over long periods. Going back over 50 years, the records show that in every depression, consumption has overtaken production around current levels, and that the trend has definitely turned upward.

WALL STREET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP) —William H. Woodin, president of the American Car and Foundry company, said that he personally feels that the business depression has "about reached the bottom of things" and that "from now on business is going to assume a brighter aspect. "It is a little bit like a child that first must creep before it walks," he added. "I really believe that we have reached the creeping stage toward rehabilitation of business."

An extension to January 15 next, in the time for deposit of the various securities affected by re-organization of Wickwire Spencer Steel company, was announced by the committee, under whose plan more than 77 per cent of the bonds, more than 84 per cent of class "A" and more than 86 per cent of the class "B" notes of the company already have been deposited.

All outstanding Campbell Baking company real estate first (closed) mortgage 6 1-2 per cent gold bonds due 1943 have been called for redemption on January 1 next, at 105 and accrued interest.

Middle West Utilities system has joined the billion dollar group of American business organizations, according to the company's manual of securities issued today.

New bond offerings scheduled for tomorrow included $1,000,000, Multhomas County, Oregon, 4 1-2 per cent bonds due December 15, 1936-1960; $1,350,000 Rye, N. Y., 4 1-4 per cent school bonds due from 1933 to 1955 and $1,000,000 Asbury Park, N. J., 4 3-4 per cent gold bonds, due 1932 to 1957.

Treasury Balance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Treasury receipts for Nov. 26 were $2,777,017,28; expenditures $3,491,461.54; balance $94,674,509.95.

WESTERLY

MUCH ACTIVITY AT TOWN HALL TODAY

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Nov. 30—The Westerly town hall building and courthouse will be a busy place Monday morning, afternoon and evening. At 9:30 a. m. the Westerly town council will hold its December meeting when there will be numerous business matters outside of the routine to occupy the attention of the council fathers. In the absence of Council President Horace E. Burdick, on a business trip to Florida, First Councilman George E. Broughton will preside.

At 10:30 a. m. in the superior court rooms on the second floor of the courthouse and session will be resumed after the Thanksgiving recess of the November term of Washington county superior court with Justice Jeremiah O'Connell of Providence on the bench. A new panel of jurymen are under summons to report and Jury Commissioner Arthur A. Sherman of Portsmouth, R. I., will be present to hear their qualifications. On the assignment docket as marked the first case for jury trial will be that of W. F. Schoonman vs. Louise Leone.

On Monday evening in the council chambers of the town hall the December meeting of the Westerly chamber of commerce will be held with President Dr. John Champlin, Sr., presiding. Besides the usual reports from the chairmen of the various chamber committees and a report on the attendance of delegates to the New England council held two weeks ago at the Hotel Statler, Boston, it is expected that a survey will be made of the non-employment situation in Westerly and measures adopted for relief if it is thought to be necessary.

The blazing chimney of the house of Fred Clark on the Boom Bridge road, required two visits of firemen. On Saturday, about 10 p. m. the pumper and force of men visited the house and at about 1:15 a. m. Sunday another pumper and firemen again called to find that some of the roof rafters were burning and charred.

OBITUARY

Mrs. William A. Freestone

The death of Mrs. Hannah C. (Gardner) Freestone occurred in Pawcatuck on Friday night at her home, 65 Moss street. She was the wife of William A. Freestone, her death occurring at the age of 55 years. She had been in ill health for some time.

Mrs. Freestone was born in Westerly, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner, and had lived practically all her life here. She was married to Mr. Freestone, who survives her, in 1911. Besides the husband she leaves two brothers, Howard and William Gardner of Wakefield, and a niece, Mrs. Earl Barber of East avenue.

Elder Daniel Seekater, well known Washington and New London county preacher and of Narragansett Indian descent, had a fainting spell about 10 a. m. Sunday while he was attending the Christian Advent church on Pleasant street and his condition necessitated the calling of a physician.

Mr. Seekater had been in the church about 10 minutes when he began to feel faint, and he was carried to a couch. Dr. Harry Crandall was called and treated him. He was later removed to his home, 35 Pierce street.

According to Mr. Sekater, who was feeling much better this afternoon, he strained his stomach about 30 years ago while working on a farm and since that time he has had frequent fainting spells.

Elder Seekater for the past many years has been one of the principal speakers at the August or annual Indian meeting held at the Indian stone church in Charlestown, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Moulton of Canterbury, Conn., formerly of Ashaway, R. I., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Sisson and family in Westerly.

Miss Mary Mullaney returned to her Pawcatuck home on Sunday afternoon from a visit with relatives in New Jersey.

Raymond Neild returned to New York on Sunday from a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Neild, Sr., at their home in Westerly.

Francis P. O'Brien of Hartford was the week end visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Brien, at their home in Westerly.

William Cullinane of New York city was the Thanksgiving vacation guest of his parents in Pawcatuck.

Miss Lucie Cowan has returned to her studies at Howard seminary, Auburndale, Mass., after being the Thanksgiving holiday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cowan, Jr., in Pawcatuck.

Albert Martin of Newport, R. I., who has visited the past week with Pawcatuck relatives, has returned to his duties with the U. S. government.

W. Harris Browning, medical student at Harvard university, was the Thanksgiving vacation guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Browning, in Westerly.

J. Alonzo Peabody and daughter, Miss Edna A. Peabody of Pawcatuck, were week end visitors with relatives in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maines and three daughters of Waltham, Mass., were the guests of Pawcatuck relatives the past week end.

MONTVILLE

SAILOR IN AUTO-TROLLEY CRASH HELD IN $500 BONDS

Andrew Gardner, a sailor stationed at the Sub base, New London, was arrested by State Trooper John Smith of Groton barracks Sunday on charges of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, reckless driving and evading responsibility. Gardner was arrested by the state trooper at the Sub base, following an accident in which he figured late Saturday evening when the Velie touring car that he was operating crashed into a one-man trolley car, at the top of Trading Cove hill, on the Norwich-New London highway. The crash resulted in two persons being injured. The driver escaped with only two slight cuts, one on the left temple and the other above the right eye. The car was a total wreck. When State Troopers John Smith and W. Elmer MacKenzie investigated the accident the driver of the Velie was missing and it was thought at the time that he was painfully injured. However, the accused told the officers Sunday morning that he and a young woman companion were returning from a birthday party held in Thamesville and he was taking his companion to her home in Essex when the accident happened. Following the crash, his mind was dazed, but he remembers that a motorist picked him up and that he got out at Thames square, Norwich, and walked to the Sub base over the Military highway, arriving there at 2:30 a. m. The guard at the gate told him that the state troopers were looking for him and that they had just left. Gardner was taken before the Montville justice court Sunday afternoon and was put under a $500 bond by Justice of the Peace Oscar E. Church for his appearance in the justice court Monday afternoon. The bond was furnished by Louis Elfenbein, of New London.

FRENCH-POLISH MISSIONS FOR CATHOLIC PARISH

The four masses in St. John's church, Uncasville, were offered by Rev. Father Thomas Lynch and Rev. Father Terence P. Finnegan, Sunday. There will be an anniversary requiem mass Saturday for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Sarah Donahue; also an anniversary mass for Mrs. Mary Piotrowsky Saturday at a later hour. The children of the parish will receive holy communion next Sunday morning at the 8:30 mass. The Children of Mary and the Rosary and Scapular society will also receive holy communion at that mass and this will be followed by a reception of the new members into the Sodality. Confessions will be heard Thursday afternoon and evening in preparation for receiving holy communion Friday, the first Friday of the month. Masses that morning will be at 6:30 and 7:30. The pastor announced that the mission for the French-speaking members of the parish will start on Thursday, Dec. 11, and will last for three days, and the Polish mission will commence Monday, Dec. 22, and will also continue three days.

STEREOPTICON PICTURE ENDS BAPTIST SERVICES

The Christian's Resources was the theme at the 10:45 a. m. Sunday services at Palmertown Union Baptist church, Rev. Raymond J. Bates, pastor. At the 6:30 C. E. society meeting the leader, Mrs. Capitola Burgess, had for her subject, Our Responsibility to Spread the Gospel. At the Glad Hour services at 7 p. m., a stereopticon picture, An Indian Doctor's Message, was shown.

John Lynch has returned to his home, following a week's visit with relatives in New York.

Miss Stella Segal, a student at Trinity college, Washington, D. C., returned to her studies Sunday, following the holiday recess spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Segal, of Pequot.

A large number of students of Chapman high school and Bulkeley high from Montville attended the football game between these two teams Saturday, at New London.

The finance committee of the Union Baptist church will meet this (Monday) evening at the parsonage, Palmertown.

Friends of Mrs. John Awesec, of Pequot, are encouraged to learn that she is resting comfortably, following a surgical operation performed at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, New London.

Peter Gauthier has returned to his home at Pequot, after a few days' visit in Clinton, Conn.

Mrs. E. S. Dominey, of Enigma, Ga., figures she saved 252,800 steps during the past year by installing a kitchen sink.

TWO CARS CRASH AT RAILROAD BRIDGE; LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Nov. 30.— Two automobiles came together on Saturday night at 8:30 at the West street dry railroad bridge at the intersection of Railroad avenue and West street. A Ford coupe, owned and operated by Ernest Palmer of Bradford, and a Chevrolet roadster, owned and driven by Edward Morris of Dunn's Corners, were considerably damaged. No one was injured. The Ford coupe was proceeding along Railroad avenue toward the railroad station and the Chevrolet was about to cross the West street bridge when the impact of the front end of the coupe hitting the roadster squarely on the side caused it to be spun around in the highway. The right side running board and both mudguards of the roadster were crumpled and broken and the coupe had a broken front bumper, smashed headlight and axle bent. Police Officers Robert M. Kessell and George L. Madison were called to investigate and found that George Nunes of Westerly was a passenger in the roadster and only the driver was in the coupe. Police Officer Madison issued Ernest Palmer a summons to appear on Friday in the regular session of third district court.

MYSTIC

At the morning service of the Union Baptist church, Sunday, Mrs. Ira Avery sang the solo, "Graceful, Oh Lord, am I." During the Sunday school hour of the Women's Bible class, the teacher, Mrs. B. F. Davis paid a tribute to the memory of Mrs. Bessie Hancox Ludwig, who was buried last Wednesday, following her sudden death Sunday last. Mrs. Davis said that Mrs. Ludwig began to attend the class about 17 years ago and had been a great help in many ways to her in her teaching. She declared that she would miss Mrs. Ludwig's kind and thoughtful deeds more than words could tell.

There was an attendance of 55 and a collection of $4.25 at the session of the Sunday school of the First Groton Baptist church, Old Mystic, Sunday morning. Notices for the week included the December meeting and social time of Plus Ultra Bible class Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Horace S. Williams. The weekly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society will be held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. William D. Beckwith, the president. In the evening there was a very good attendance to hear the special sermon "The Mission of the Farmer," given by the acting pastor, Rev. Edwin S. Holloway, of Eastern Point. There was special music by several of the singers of the church.

At the Congregational church Sunday morning Treffly A. Morin sang the aria from Hayden's Creation, "And God Said, Let the Earth Bring Forth Living Creatures."

Other Generous Donors

Mystic merchants' relief fund is still growing. In addition to the list already published in this paper, the following have contributed: Friend, from Greenmanville, $100; C. H. Broun, $5; Charles Manchester, $20; William Davis, $2; friend, $1.50; G. H. Griswold, $1; Ingram Sign Works, $1; Dr. L. M. Allyn, $1. The amount up to the time the above amounts came in was $434. Many families have been made happy by the cheerful giving of the merchants and persons in Mystic.

The December meeting of Fanny Ledyard chapter, D. A. R., is to be held in Masonic temple Wednesday afternoon. The paper on State Forests will be given by Mrs. Mary Park Denison. The hostesses will be Mrs. Florence S. Boylen, Mrs. Elsie P. McGaughey, Mrs. Abby B. Phillips, Mrs. Anna B. Caswell, Mrs. Harriet H. Gilfillan, Miss Emily N. Murphy, Miss Clara S. Murphy and Mrs. Caroline M. F. Morgan.

Ellison Beckwith, employed in New Haven, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beckwith and his sister, Miss Dorothy Beckwith at Old Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Bennett and sons, Maurice, Richard and Harold Bennett of Cambridge spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Thorpe, of Quiambaug. On their return to their home Sunday evening Miss Elizabeth Thorpe, who has been spending the holiday recess with her parents, returned to her studies at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Lester Wheeler has left for New York after visiting his parents in town.

Miss Mary A. Burdick, R. N., returned to Norwich Sunday evening after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Holmes of Old Mystic.

Mrs. Lydia Burdick is a guest of relatives in Providence.

Amos Gallup of Pawcatuck was a business caller in town Saturday.

Williams Woman's Relief corps is to meet in G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening. At this time a supper will be served for members having birthdays during October, November and December.

Prof. and Mrs. Herbert Wolfe and two daughters of Pawtucket, R. I., spent the week end with relatives in the village.

J. Everett Woodbury of Springfield spent the holiday season with his mother, Mrs. Jane Woodbury, in the village.

Dr. and Mrs. Thurman P. Maine entertained at dinner recently Mrs. Betsy A. Maine and daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Maine and Mrs. Lucy Miner, of North Stonington.

The summer home of Mrs. Henry H. Tift of Tifton, Ga., on High street, is being repaired and reshingled.

Supplies At Westerly

Rev. Edward E. Knapp of West Mystic has been preaching in Calvary Baptist church, Westerly, for the past few Sundays, taking the place of the regular pastor, Rev. Lewis A. Walker, who has been ill.

Peter Mariani has returned to his home in New York after being in town to attend the wedding of his niece, Mary Camilla Mariani and Charles John Recine, of New London, on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Trulock B. Hathaway and son, Burton, have returned to Bridgeport after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Foote.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holmes have left for Brooklyn, after a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. W. K. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Turkington of New Brunswick, N. S., are visiting Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Fagan.

Julius Foote will return to his studies at Bay Path institute in Springfield after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Foote.

STONINGTON

Postmaster J. S. Anderson has posted notices in the various stores and the post office of the borough, requesting people to mail holiday packages early. This will enable the carriers and officials to spend Christmas at home. As last year, there will be no delivery made Christmas day, thus early mailing will insure delivery.

Work For Badges.

The Girl Scouts of the borough will meet in the Fort hall Wednesday. The girls are working for two badges, the first group, Olive Burtch, Glenna Noble and Caroline Stanton, are working for the badge for cooking and those of the second group, Marion Veal, Winifred Glover, Elizabeth Brown, Rita Bessette and Lucretta Schepis are working for the badge in laundrying. The scouts are under the direction of Captain Florence Buck.

The committee for the dance of the Lions' club is working hard to make it a success. The club has done much in the borough for the needy in the past and already has commenced its good work this winter.

The Christmas seals will be sent out in the borough this week and it is hoped that as many as possible will keep them and return the dollar. The sale this year will be in charge of Miss Marguerite B. Sliney, R. N.

Miss Fannie Stanton, of Arnold college, New Haven, has been spending the holiday recess with her parents.

Instructing Communion Class.

Friday, of this week, the first Friday communion will be given in St. Mary's church at 5.45 a. m. and mass will be celebrated at seven o'clock. There will be devotions in the evening at 7.30. The confirmation class will be given instructions Friday at 4 o'clock.

Edmund P. Fritz, of Newark, N. J., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Teola Fritz.

Mr. and Mrs. McClurg have returned from Hartford. Mr. McClurg delivered an address over station WTIC Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Gustav Erickson returned to New York Sunday after a visit of a few days here.

Mrs. Edward Smith, who has been visiting local relatives, returned to New York Sunday.

At Union, N. H., there was an entertainment for the benefit of the Ladies' Social Circle to replete the treasury, which had been emptied on repairs to the church. Each one had been requestioned to earn $1 and part of the evening was spent in telling how the money had been acquired. One member reported that she had earned a nickel a day for refraining from asking her husband if he had washed his ears, till at last the necessity of asking him became so obvious that she had to earn the remaining sum another way.

A campaign against beavers has been started in sections of Texas where the animals have caused heavy damage.

We wish to buy

Aetna Life Insurance Co.
Connecticut General Life Ins. Co.
Connecticut Power Co.
Gray Telephone Pay Station Co.
Hartford Electric Light Co.
Hartford Fire Insurance Co.
Southern New England Telephone Co.
Travelers Insurance Co.

PUTNAM & CO.

Members New York and Hartford Stock Exchanges

Hartford, Conn.
6 Central Row
Telephone 5-0151

New Britain, Conn.
31 West Main Street
Telephone 2040

Feel "logey" Headache?
Take the VEGETABLE LAXATIVE
Beecham's Pills

Join Our Christmas Club Now!

Select the amount you wish to save weekly and bring or send it to the bank. Then deposit the same amount each week—

THE CLUB RUNS 50 WEEKS
UNTIL DEC. 1, 1931

$ .25--Club Pays $ 12.75
$ .50--Club Pays $ 25.50
$1.00--Club Pays $ 51.00
$2.00--Club Pays $102.00
$3.00--Club Pays $153.00
$5.00--Club Pays $255.00

THE DIMES SAVINGS BANK
OF NORWICH
33 Broadway

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS—6:30-8 O'CLOCK

You Are Cordially Invited to Join
THE CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB
For 1931
OPEN DEC. 5, 1930
Classes to Suit All!

The Chelsea Christmas Club

Is the Oldest and Largest in Norwich, Conn.

Payments Will Be Made to Members on December 5, 1931

Members paying 25c for 50 weeks $12.75
Members paying 50c for 50 weeks $25.50
Members paying $1.00 for 50 weeks $51.00
Members paying $2.00 for 50 weeks $102.00
Members paying $5.00 for 50 weeks $255.00

Save Systematically For Christmas of 1931

THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK

Franklin Square — "The Bank of Community Service" — Norwich, Conn.

Open Saturday Evenings—6.30-8.00 — N. B. New Currency and Holiday Containers

Francis M. Toomey
Contractor and Builder
Estimates Furnished
Jobbing Promptly Attended To EAST GREAT PLAIN
Norwich, Conn.

Homer J. Monty
Contractor and Builder
Alterations — Jobbing
Estimates
New Homes for Sale
Grant Court, Norwich, Conn.
Telephone 3167

Henry G. Montie
Contractor and Builder
A Modern Home Builder
Jobbing a Specialty
Estimates Furnished
344 SUMMIT ST. TEL. 1362

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street

G. E. Boucher
GENERAL CONTRACTOR
AND BUILDER
Estimates Cheerfully Given
Phones 1530 or 679

COMBINATION STORM and SCREEN DOORS
Are One of Our Specialties
Put one on your house this winter and keep out the cold winds. It will pay for itself in one season.
THE Peck-McWilliams
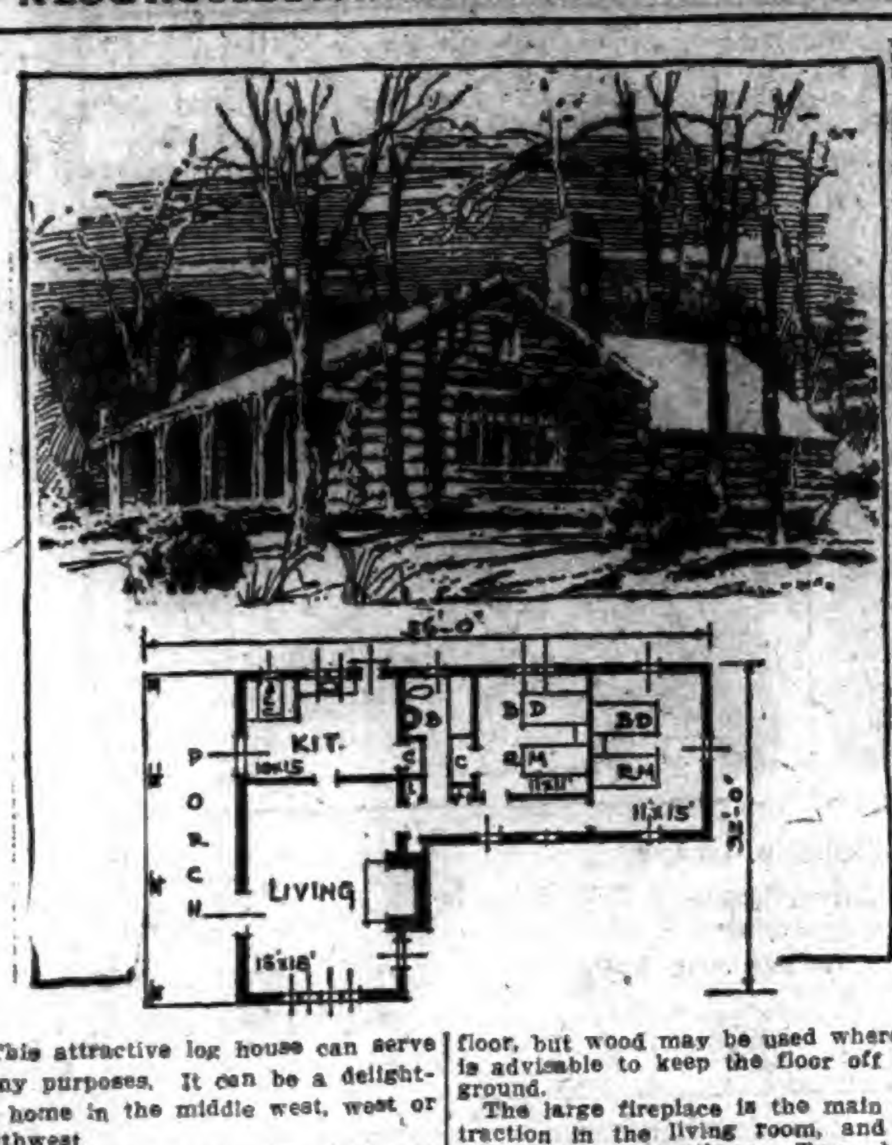
COMPANY
Norwich, Conn.

WHOLESALE
Pumps and Water Systems
Builders' Hardware
RETAIL
Paints, Oils and Varnishes
Window Glass
Becker & Goldstein
Plumbing and Heating Contractors
Plumbing Fixtures and Steam Supplies
77-79 WATER STREET
NORWICH, CONN.
Phone, Norwich, 1306

Fitzgerald's Home Improver says
We'll keep the cold out!
You may be a hospitable soul, but you needn't go so far as to make Old Man Winter the star boarder in your home. Our heating skill can keep him OUT.
J. A. FITZGERALD
Plumbing PHONE 2267 Heating
81-87 FRANKLIN ST.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin

A LOG HOUSE SUITABLE FOR WOODED LAND



This attractive log house can serve many purposes. It can be a delightful home in the middle west, west or southwest.

It can serve as a hunting lodge in the mountains of the central or northern states or as a summer home on the edge of a lake.

If used as a home the interiors may be finished more carefully, but for other uses it should be left as rough and unfinished as possible—the rougher the better.

Either logs or railroad ties are suitable. They are built up with cement between, making a fine, thick well.

The porch construction should be as rough and rugged as the walls of the house. A split face field stone or flagging is preferable for the porch floor, but wood may be used where it is advisable to keep the floor off the ground.

The large fireplace is the main attraction in the living room, and its size lends atmosphere. Two bedrooms, bath and kitchen complete the plan. This easily can be made to accommodate more bedrooms by the addition ow length to the rear wing. The kitchen has a dining alcove.

In a suburban locality a lot 50 by 100 would take the house, but 60 by 125 would be more suitable. The house should properly be faced so that the porch faces west and the kitchen north, giving the living room a west and south exposure.

The construction cost ranges from $7,000 to $9,000, depending upon the material chosen and market price in the locality.

ELECTRIC MIXERS HAVE MANY USES

Some sage individual has made the observation that it no lnoger is a question of whether the average family of moderate circumstances can afford to be without one?

The same is true of electrical home devices. Can the average family get along without an electric vacuum cleaner, ironer, washing machine, grill and whatnot? The opinion would appear to be fairly unanimous that they cannot get along comfortably and economically without them. And with each passing year some new gadget comes into the market which drives this truth home with ever-increasing force. Take an electric mixer, for example. This is a useful little implement which has fully a thousand uses. It can be fastened to a table or shelf and its bowl employed for any one of a large number of kitchen uses. The mixer does all the work, swiftly, effectivly and at no cost in manual labor.

It is not to b wondred that sales organizations make their appeals to women. Show such a contrivance to the average man and he will agree, more or less non-commitally, that "it is a good thing, all right." Show it to the average woman and she will begin immediately to devise ways and means for financing one.

The favorite sport of University of Oklahoma co-eds is hockey, a recent survey revealed.

R. J. KAVANAGH
Floor Laying and Surfacing
On Old and New Floors
310 MAIN STREET

HOLLAND VAPORAIRE HEATING
Ventilating, Cooling for Homes
Call Norwich 2687R
New London 7762
Holland Furnace Co.,
26 Moore Court, New London

C. E. WHITAKER
ROOFING AND SHEET METAL WORK
18 Central Ave., Norwich, Ct
PHONE 680

JOS. J. CHINIGO
Excavating and Building
My Excavating Work is Done With a Steam Shovel and at a Saving Price to You
14 HICKORY STREET
Telephone 1371

LYNN RANGE OIL BURNER
Now Guaranteed for 10 Years
Sold and Serviced by
Carl E. Berkoff
Modern Home Equipment
119 FRANKLIN ST.
Phone 700

IF YOU ARE PLANNING TO BUILD A NEW HOUSE OR ALTER YOUR PRESENT HOME
CONSULT WITH
W. S. Spencer
Builder
Disco Building, Norwich, Conn. Telephone 2758

NEW SYSTEM NEEDED IN STREET NUMBERS

Have you ever driven slowly through a residential section after dark, vainly seeking a house number which will serve as a guide to the home of a friend? Two to one you have and it is probable, also, that you have fussed and stewed with the rest of us and perhaps have been obliged to disturb total strangers by ringing bells and asking for directions.

It is almost time that people in general put their house numbers somewhere out near the sidewalk instead of on one side of the door frame where it is almost impossible to see or decipher them from the street. The writer has noted many new homes where numbers and even name plates have been attached to trees or slender ornamental poles, near the sidewalk line. In this way a driver can identify a house without leaving his car, espec'ally at night.

One clever individual in Longmeadow has adopted the plan employed by state highway officials and has installed a metallic number plate similar to the new highway route signs which are made perfectly legible when the glare from motor headlights strikes them. The house number plate is sufficiently large to be seen plainly for 200 or 300 feet, while at the same time it is far from being an objectionable feature during daylight hours. In any event, his neighbors never are bothered by friends of his ringing their doorbells to find out where he lives. It might be a good idea if they returned the favor.

AUTUMN LEAVES ARE EXTREMELY USEFUL

If your yard is liberally sprinkled with dead leaves they should not be looked upon as a necessary evil, to be raked up, burned and disposed of for all time. Nature never intended that leaves should be sacrificed in such careless fashion and where she is permitted to have her own way about it dead leaves play an important part in providing nourishment for young growth.

It would be much wiser to rake up all the aumtumn leaves your place provides, and, if the neighbor next door is indifferent about the fate of his leaves, take these also. It is quite a simple process to build a boxed-in crib behind the garage and it is quite as simple to fill such a crib with leaves. Then they should be allowed to remain there, with ample opportunity, for rain, snow and sleet to do its work during the coming winter. Dead leaves, if permitted to rot, make ideal fertilizer and compost. When thoroughly rotted until there is scarcely a thing to remind one that the damp, oozy mass once was a pile of leaves, it is as good as just so much loam and in some instances even better.

Leaf mold is, and always has been, excellent fodder for the gardener. It provides splendid spring and summer nourishment for shrubs and small trees. In fact, it has been spaded into a garden with excellent results. Hence the advice to save all the leaves you can get. They make a good investment and yield fully 100 per cent profits.

HELPFUL BOOKLET ON SMALL HOMES

Prospective home builders will find much of intelligent and helpful guidance in "Small Homes of Arichectural Distinction," recently issued by Harper & Brothers, New York. It carries something more than 200 small home suggestions, showing both perspective and floor plan. Largely they are of the cottage type although there are a number of exceptionally fine designs of two-story, six-room homes. The houses shown are in frame, stucco and brick and the prices range from $3000 to $10,000. All of the designs were developed by the Architects' Small House Service bureau. There are also valuable pointers relative to furnishing and landscaping which will be found helpful.

ART SCREENS MAY BE MADE AT HOME

Art screens, we are told, are coming into quite general favor again. This is interesting, because present-day conditions make it possible for one to keep well supplied with these objects without involving prohibitively high prices. In fact, one can keep art screens constantly up to the minute and attractive without involving the oultay of much money.

Certain artistic patterns of wallpaper, for example, can be used to provide attractive designs for screen panels. It also is possible to use various decorative fabrics. Many women haunt the remnant counters in department stores and other establishments dealing in fabrics of this sort. Many a remnant of excellent material can be used for making screens and when completed prove unusually attractive. They have the advantage of lending themselves to occasional changes. If you should carry out a new plan for interior decorating the screens can be furnished ith the same or similar materials and then, too, you can do the work yourself.

ENVIRONMENT AFFECTS VALUE AND CHARACTER

Environment affects the value and character of everything. Values are determined and conditions are produced as much by this one factor as by many other factors combined.

Sociologists and novelists have written books showing that even human nature is intensely affected by its environment; and thus are produced some of the greatest criminals who might have developed otherwise if it had not been for their surroundings.

Other writers have shown that human nature can be superior to environment. But it all goes to show that conditions may be either an asset or a liability; an obstacle or a boon; something to overcome or something to conjure with.

Move old-established shrubs and plant new ones. Water to the non-saturation point, and then mulch heavily with grass clippings, leaves, or marsh hay, in order that the tiny rootlets may get a firm hold before frost sets in. This applies to perennials and trees as well. Dry freezing results in serious winter injury.

USE OF GOOD MATERIALS IS A WISE INVESTMENT

Some time ago a local man built two houses on adjoining lots, one of which he proposed to sell while he reserved the other as his future home. Before he could finish them a party arrived who was so pleased with the first house that he bought it. He requested permission to carry on the work of interior decorating in accordance with his own ideas and the builder readily agreed.

As a result of what followed the builder learned a valuable lesson, the benefits of which he applied to his own new home. The purchaser and his wife, instead of selecting conventional wallpaper, sought the advice of a skilled interior decorator, who advised something quite a bit better than was originally planned. They followed his advice and the results were so striking that the builder abruptly changed the decorating plans for his own house to conform. The wallpapers, paints, enamels and floor finishes employed produced such striking effects that, despite the somewhat higher costs, the builder figured that he could not afford to go through with his original plans.

Accordingly, his new home represents a cost perhaps one and a half per cent greater than his original estimate, but in the richness of the finish and the natural beauties of the various rooms the value of the house, he figures, has been increased fully 10 per cent.

"As long as I've been building houses," he said, "it never had occurred to me that the additional cost which high-grade materials entail could make so striking a difference. But when these new neighbors cheerfully paid the difference for the sake of getting something so much beter in every way than I had planned I came to the conclusion that my education had been neglected. From now on I shall use nothing but high-grade materials and I am sure the houses I shall build will sell more readily."

There's a good lesson for the average individual in this; yes, and for the man who owns rental properties. The item of interior decoration plays a large part in recommending a place to prospective tenants. High grade papers and other materials, while they may cost somewhat more, actually make up this extra cost in improved appearance and in length of service.

DEALERS URGED TO MAKE CANVASS FOR REPAIR JOBS

An appeal to every lumber dealer in the United States to help reduce unemployment in the home construction field by hiring idle building tradesmen to make a house-to-house canvass for repair and remodeling business among all home owners has been issued by C. E. Stedman, vice chairman of the National Building Industries bureau.

"This appeal," declares Stedman, "is not just a stunt to get business for lumber dealers and help members of the building trades. Lumber dealers owe it to home owners in their vicinity to bring forcefully to their attention the fact that building is cheaper today than it has been any time in the past ten years, and that they can help bring back prosperity by taking immediate advantage of rock bottom material and labor costs.

"Colonel Arthur Wood, chairman of Hoover's unemployment commission, says repairing and remodeling of homes offers one of the greatest opportunities to relieve unemployment; and the way to accelerate it is with personal solicitation and advertising. Let local advertisements carry the general message, and let the canvassers discuss with each home owner the things in which the householder is particularly interested."

MODERNIZER CAN USE GAY PAPER IN ROOMS

Until rather recently, plain papers, stripes, Georgian scrolls or very conventional designs were considered to be the only types of papers suitable for the dining room. However, with the new fashions in colored glassware and colored linen, pottery and crockery, and gay linoleums, the wallpapers may now be equally informal.

Of course, suitable floral designs must be chosen. The flowers must have a definite character. The simple bedroom chintzes will not do. Conventionalized flower vines, scenic borders, flowering trees and silver leaves are all in the realm of floral papers suitable for dining rooms.

Rustproof Nails.

Copper, and in fact all roofings, should be applied with copper nails. Nails of corrodible metal soon rust and in a short time the shingles become loose in places, not only giving a shoddy appearance but providing places for water to seep through and work its havoc on ceilings and walls.

Protects Ceiling.

That portion of the basement ceiling directly over the heating plant and fuel storage, and extending three feet beyond and that portion of the ceiling over hot, air and smoke pipes should be protected by plaster applied oved a base of metal lath.

Two Chicago policemen always are on guard at the home of twelve-year-old Billy Ranieri, who was rescued from kidnappers two years ago. Two men were convicted of kidnapping him.

MRS. JANE PERRY, BROOKLYN, TRIES TO CHEAT NEW LONDON TAXIMAN

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Nov. 30.—A female taxicab fare evader was presented in the justice court at Salem today when Mrs. Jane Perry, of 392 Vanderbilt street, Brooklyn, N. Y., was specifically charged with evading the payment of fare from New London to Salem. The charge was nolled upon Mrs. Perry paying the costs of the court, also reimbursing the taxicab driver in the sum of $5. Mrs. Perry hired the cab Saturday afternoon and when the trip of approximately 20 miles had been concluded, she requested the driver to await her return. Mrs. Perry alighted and that was the last seen of her, for instead of returning and paying her fare, the woman went to the residence of an acquaintance. The cab driver made complaint to the state police. Saturday night Officer John Smith went to Salem where his investigation revealed that Mrs. Perry wa sthe woman sought. She was found at the residence where she was visiting and arrested.

Beach Season Not Profitable.

The past season at Ocean Beach, according to concession holders there, was the least profitable ever known there, but the expenditures were far below what they have been in other years. The visitors seem to have taken a leaf from the book of roadhouse patrons and carried their own lunch so that they did not have to buy at the beach. Some of the concessionists declare that they went in debt during the season. From other sources it is made known that the prices charged for purchases at the beach were in excess of what the same could have been bought for up town, so that patrons once wene not patrons again.

There is surprise expressed as to what has become of the maritime prominence of New London. There was a time when this port was the hailing place of a score or more of halibut fishermen, but not a sail is engaged in that business now. The fleets owned by James Fitch, the Browns, and by the Slate and Keeney boys have all gone. The whaling industry long ago went into oblivion and the coastwise sailing vessels have become so few that they can be counted on the fingers of one hand. Indeed the only coastwise sailcraft hailing from New London are said to be the two Klinck three-masters and the tern Annie B. Mitchell. There were scores of vessels of this class, but they have gone the way of the yorld. They were not lost, but they have disappeared—no one knows where. Even the towboat lines are complaining that there is a slackening of their business and that the coal that goes through the sound is now carried by the big colliers. The so-called "coffin" barges long ago disappeared as coal carriers, and they were replaced by modern barges with every device for handling cargoes and for the comfort of their crews, but these also have disappeared. The building of barges here and at Noank was an important industry a score of years ago, but it has vanished and little is done in that direction now.

FRANK DAVIS MISSING—JUMPPED HIS BOND

(Special to The Bulletin.)

NEW LONDON, Nov. 30.—The police have not been successful in apprehending Frank ("Bad Man") Davis, 80, a contracting mason, who has been conducting a resort at his home, 19 Tenth street for a long time and who is wanted on a charge of jumping his bond of $250. A search was instituted for Davis throughout Saturday and today, but without the whereabouts of the man becoming known. Davis was arrested when his home was raided last Friday afternoon, charged with conducting a house of ill fame. He furnished a bondsman, which he has done several times before, and even retained counsel, but when Davis' case was called in court Saturday, the aged man failed to present himself, with the result that his bond was declared forfeited. Frank Lane, a stranger, whom the police assert was Davis' bartender, was charged with violation of the liquor law. His case was continued until Monday and in default of a surety on his bond, he went to jail. In court Saturday it became known that Lane intended to enter a demurrer when he is presented tomorrow. A woman, Mrs. Anne Paul, who represented herself as Davis' housekeeper, and who was arrested in the raid, charged with intoxication and frequenting a house of ill fame, pleaded not guilty, but on the evidence introduced, she was convicted and fined $25 and costs. She did not have money to pay the penalty, so went to jail.

For several days trains bound westward through New London have hauled flat cars which were laden with Christmas trees. The trees are consigned to cities of the far west and are being shipped to assure their arriving at their destination in ample time for the holiday season. One train pasing through here this afternoon contained six cars of the trees.

The personnel of the pilice department was curtailed today when two supernumerary officers were relieved of duty. The officers are Joseph T. Sullivan and Arthur Powell. Sullivan and Powell performed patrol duty the greater part of the summer and throughout the fall, but with the members of the department having practically ended vacations, it was decided to reduce the number of patrolmen to the normal quota. The officers, however, will be returned to duty next year.

Edwina Cotter, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cotter, 1019 Pequot avenue, is to enter a sanitorium at Saranac Lake, N. Y., for treatment, which will be of an unlimited period. It is anticipated that the child's health will be greatly benefited by the change in climate.

Many members of the police department will attend the wedding at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock of Patrolman Cornelius Moriarty, son of Mrs. Bridget Moriarty, of Vauxhall street, and Miss Ella D. Bliven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bliven, of 16 Lincoln avenue.

Dr. Woodruff's Condition Serious.

It has become known that although Dr. Thomas A. Woodruff, 44 Mott avenue, was discharged at Lawrence Memorial hospital, where he had been a patient several weeks, the condition of the physician has not improved materially and he is considered very ill. He is under medical treatment at his home where his condition is said to be extremely weak.

Heavy Travel On New Haven Road.

Traffic on the New Haven railroad today was exceedingly heavy for thousands of men and women, who had spent Thanksgiving day at their homes or the homes of relatives and friends, concluded their stay of pleasure. So great was the traffic that many trains were run in two sections, this being the case with practically all west-bound trains this afternoon and tonight. The Merchants' Limited ordinarily a light train in the fall and winter, was one of the heaviest trains operated. It was run in two sections 13 cars comprising the first section and 12 cars being hauled on the second section. Of this number of cars, four were dining cars. Included among the vast number of passengers were hundreds of young women students of Connecticut college, who returned to New London after the Thanksgiving recess at their homes. The young ladies will resume their studies Monday.

The list for the police court tomorrow will be very light to claim the attention of Judge Daniel M. Cronin. In fact there will be a lesser number of cases to occupy the attention of the court than has been the case over a week end in many months. But one arrest was made since Friday. The unfortunate, who fell into the clutches of the law, is a laborer, employed at Fishers Island, and who is charged with intoxication. He was arrested on North Bank street Saturday night when he was found intoxicated and soliciting funds of pedestrians.

Mrs. Harry Hirsch and little son of Ocean avenue, spent the week end with Mrs. Hirsch's mother, Mrs. Starin, New Haven.

Edward Henkle, a student at Cornell university, and Robert Henkle, a student at the medical school of the same university, have been spending the holidays with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Henkle of Ocean avenue. Robert Henkle was accompanied by a classmate, Vernon O'C. Stahl, of Los Angeles.

Local Students Assisted.

When Rev. Arthur H. Chandler, O. P., former chaplain of Albertus Magnus college, New Haven, and present dean of Providence college, was the guest of honor on Sunday, at a tea given by the Junior class of the former college, Miss Alexine Maloney of Bridgeport was chairman of the committee in charge. She was assisted by Miss Catherine Bailey of Hartford, Miss Klem Kennedy of Waterbury, Miss Nora Booth of New London, and Miss Roe Smith and Miss Rosemary Spang of New Haven. Tea was poured by Miss Helen O'Brien of New Haven, and Miss Catherine Bailey of Hartford.

SCHOOL COST PROBLEM PERPLEXES CITY COUNCIL

The city council will meet Monday evening, but there is a possibility that the meeting will adjourn till Tuesday evening without transacting other than the business that must be disposed of Monday. The tax rate that will be fixed to raise the money called for by the budget cannot be decided upon till the grand list is known and the deductions made. That will be in March. It is understood that the members of the council have made a study of the cost of education in the several schools of the city and have compared it witn the cost prevailing in other cities, and this generally to the advantage of New London. Out-of-town pupils are charged slightly more than the per capita cost of the education of New London pupils amounts to. The increase to the out-of-town pupils comes from the expense they are put to to get to the New London schools. Waterford pupils pay a little increase when the cost of transportation is calculated, and so do the pupils that come here from Montville for their education. Norwich Free Academy charges a flat rate of $150 a year to pupils, while the rate at New London is some $7 more, counting the cost of transportation. The education study is now receiving the attention of the members of the council in most serious manner. The cost per capita at Bulkeley school is said to be in excess of the cost at Chapman Technical school because of the higher salaries paid at Bulkeley. New London's high schools are endowed, so the city does not have the exclusive management of them.

Hard Day at Sea

The really cold weather that struck this section the latter part of the week broke Saturday night and mild weather prevailed today, with the wind veering to the southwest and inclining to the south and east, indicating rain tonight or Monday. Tugs and barges going to the westward, either light or laden, ran in here to get out of sea and wind. They reported a very small number of craft going through the sound, either east or west. Indeed, they say that the towing business has been affected as much as any other and that colliers are carrying so much coal that the tugs and barges are idle as a result.

Snyder's clothing and furnishing goods store on Bank street has gone out of business and has left vacant premises.

Give Up Use of Tobacco

A result of the unemployment situation is said to be that many men have abandoned the use of tobacco for smoking and chewing. If a tax is levied on cigarettes, as now proposed by the state, a still further decrease will be made in the number of tobacco users.

Stole Groceries From Car

Robert K. Morgan, Ledyard, came to New London yesterday afternoon, purchasing a quantity of groceries. He drove his automobile to Tilley street and parked the car. When Morgan returned he discovered that the groceries had been stolen. The theft was reported at police headquarters.

William Allen, 25 Lewis street, reported to the police Friday night that a rear wheel and chain of a bicycle owned by his son were stolen while the cycle was on the veranda of the boy's home. It is believed that the theft was committed by boys residing in the neighborhood.

Patrolman Henry Sylvia discovered a window of the barber shop, 119 Blinman street, unlocked early Saturday morning and was not able to secure it.

Franz Sevthor, 9 Morse avenue, Groton, notified the police last night that a suitcase had been lost from his automobile while being driven from the union station here to the owner's residence. The case contained apparel and a passport.

Sailors Create Disturbance

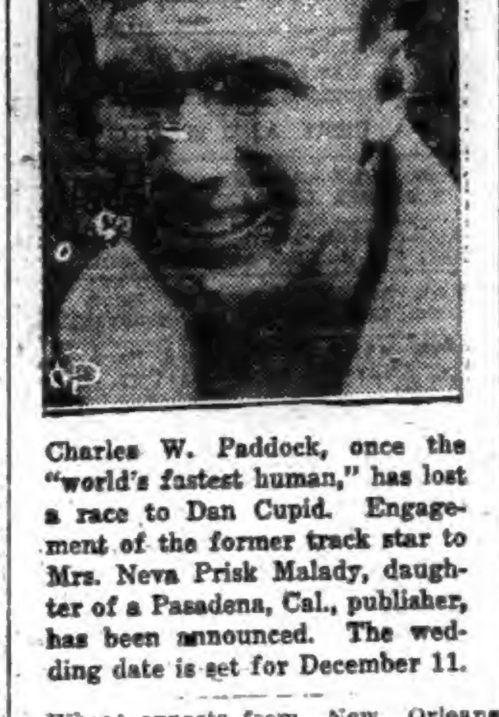
G. N. Robinson and J. H. Meardy, first-class seamen, stationed at the submarine base, were arrested by Patrolman Albert Iverson charged with breach of the peace. The sailors were locked up, but they will not be presented in the police court tomorrow, for the disturbers were given into the custody of a shore patrol and taken back to the base, where they will be given military discipline. Robison and Meardy went to the Hartford bus station, where they abused an employe, so much so that the bluejackets were complained against and taken into custody.

Four microscopes were stolen from New Haven hospital recently and one of them was recovered in Hartford. The New London police have been requested to keep a lookout for the other three, as it is possible that an attempt will be made to dispose of one or more of them in this city.

Cars and Wheel Stolen

The New London police this afternoon were requested to be on the lookout for two stolen automobiles and a motorcycle. One of the cars, a Nash sedan, carrying Connecticut registration Y—5310, was stolen in New Haven. Another auto was stolen from a garage in Norwalk. It is a Chevrolet coupe, 1927 model, and carries Connecticut registration 44667. The motorcycle was stolen from a garage in Hartford. It is a Harley-Davidson, 1925 model, painted blue, with white stripes and white gasoline tank. It carries Connecticut registration 3306.

Loses to Cupid



Charles W. Paddock, once the "world's fastest human," has lost a race to Dan Cupid. Engagement of the former track star to Mrs. Neva Prisk Malady, daughter of a Pasadena, Cal., publisher, has been announced. The wedding date is set for December 11.

Wheat exports from New Orleans showed an increase of 2,359,728 bushels between July 1 and September 30.

A Wee Bit Daring! A Trifle Naughty!
TODAY AT PALACE
A Sparkling Comedy Romance
Constance BENNETT
Sin Takes a Holiday
WHAT A STAR! WHAT A SHOW!

Today and Tuesday
BROADWAY
NOW PLAYING
TRUTHFUL — ABSORBING — IT'S A PICTURE YOU'LL NEVER FORGET!
WAR NURSE
— With —
ROBERT MONTGOMERY—JUNE WALKER
ANITA PAGE — ROBERT AMES

SECOND CONCERT OF SLATER HALL SERIES
MEADER
Metropolitan Opera Tenor—FRIDAY, Dec. 5th.
Remainder of Series:
New York String Quartette, Wed., Jan. 14th
Kathryn Meisle, Contralto, Friday, Feb. 6th
Seat Sale at Cranston's Thursday and Friday, Dec. 4th-5th

DANCE
Given by
Mercier Assembly No. 12
Catholic Ladies of Columbus
T. A. B. Hall, Broadway
MONDAY, DEC. 1, 1930
Music by
Benvenuti's Orchestra
DANCING FROM 9 TO 12
ADMISSION 50c

DANCE
DECEMBER 3rd
BENEFIT CHRIST CHURCH
Samuel Huntington Auditorium
8 o'Clock
10-Piece Orchestra
o Dance by Miss Crandall
SQUARE — MODERN DANCING
Costumes Optional
Prizes for Dancing and Costumes
ADMISSION 75c
REFRESHMENTS

Want to Laugh?
SEE
AUNT LUCIA
150 Local People
Auspices Robert O. Fletcher Post No. 4, Am. Legion
Masonic Temple
Dec. 8-9
Benefit Welfare Dep't United Workers

DANCE
UNCASVILLE AUDITORIUM
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3
Featuring
EDDIE HOWARD in Person and His Eleven Admirals
Boston and Vicinity's Foremost Radio Artists
DANCING—8:45 TO 12:00
Ladies 50c—Admission—Gents 75c

HOLLAND POWER SUCTION CLEANING
For Furnaces, Boilers and Chimneys
Also Furnace Repairing
CALL NORWICH 2687-R
or
NEW LONDON 7762

WHENEVER YOU NEED READY CASH
COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN HOW QUICKLY AND CONVENIENTLY WE CAN ARRANGE A LOAN FOR YOU
$10 TO $300
1 DAY OR ALMOST 2 YEARS TO REPAY.
★ TERMS TO SUIT YOUR INCOME ★
The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.
PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
THIRD FLOOR, DISCO BLDG.
257 MAIN STREET
PHONE, 2233
★ NORWICH, CONN. ★

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

BORN

CAMPBELL—In Norwich, Nov. 30, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Campbell of 118 North Main street.

JONES—At New London, Nov. 28, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jones of Gales Ferry.

LAWRENCE— In Norwich, Nov. 28, 1930, a son, Alvin Edmund, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Lawrence of East Great Plain.

SULLIVAN — At St. Mary's hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., a son, Raymond J. Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Sullivan, formerly of Greeneville.

MARRIED

GAMEROFF-CLARK—In Hartford, Nov. 30, 1930, by Rabbi Morris Silverman, Samuel David Gameroff of Westmount, Quebec, and Miss Ruth Helene Clark of Norwich.

DIED

GOULD— Suddenly, in Norwich, Nov. 30, 1930, Thomas Gould of Massapeag, aged 70 years.

FREESTONE—In Pawcatuck (Stonington), Nov. 28, 1930, Hannah C. Gardner, wife of William A. Freestone, aged 55.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SCHNEIDER — In Norwich, Nov. 29, 1930, Mary Klemm, widow of Frederick Schneider, aged 82 years.

Funeral services at the home of her niece, Mary Zemke, of 252 Boswell avenue, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 2, at 2 o'clock. Interment at Maplewood cemetery. 2tdec1

SHEA —In Canterbury, Nov. 30, 1930, Margaret E. Shea, of East Hartford.

Funeral from the home of her brother, Michael T. Shea, Canterbury, Tuesday morning at 8:10. Solemn requiem mass at Sacred Heart church, Wauregan, at 9 o'clock. Burial in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery, Norwich.

PEPIN—(Suddenly). In Taftville, Nov. 30, 1930, William J. Pepin, aged 52 years, 4 months.

Funeral from the home of the Misses Faucher, No. 8 Hunters avenue, Tuesday morning, Dec. 2, at 8:15. Requiem high mass in Sacred Heart church at 9. Burial in Sacred Heart cemetery.

COFFEE — In Groton, Nov. 29, 1930, Margaret W. Scott, widow of James L. Coffee, formerly of Norwich, in her 76th year.

Funeral services will be held at Robert H. Byles' rooms, 15 Masonic street, Monday afternoon, Dec. 1, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment at Yantic cemetery.

SMITH — In Putnam, Nov. 28, 1930, Herbert James Smith, aged 47 years. Funeral services will be held at his late home on Sunnyside, in Putnam, Monday afternoon, Dec. 1, at 1:30 o'clock.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

C. A. GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR. TEL. 642-2
LADY ASSISTANT
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2. Lady Assistant

J. J. LYONS and CO.
MORTICIANS
43 MAIN STREET
Tel. 806-W

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
DAVID H. WILSON
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-W

HOURIGAN BROS.
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Funeral Home, 85 Church Street.
Office, 62 Main St. Branch, Jewett City

DOUGHERTY BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Taftville 2325 Moosup 306-2

GEORGE G. GRANT
Phone 2729 Providence St. Taftville
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER

THOMAS J. SHAHAN
MORTICIAN
851 Main Street Tel. 2470

WILLIMANTIC

LINCOLN and POTTER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMERS
62 Church St., Willimantic
Phone 705-2
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
33 Union Street. Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

PLAINFIELD

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN
Tel. Moosup 282-9

AUCTION

L. J. WILCOX .... Auctioneer

AUCTION

I will sell at Public Auction, at my storehouse on Lebanon Ave., Colchester, Conn., MONDAY, December 1, 1930, at 12:30 p. m. sharp, the following:

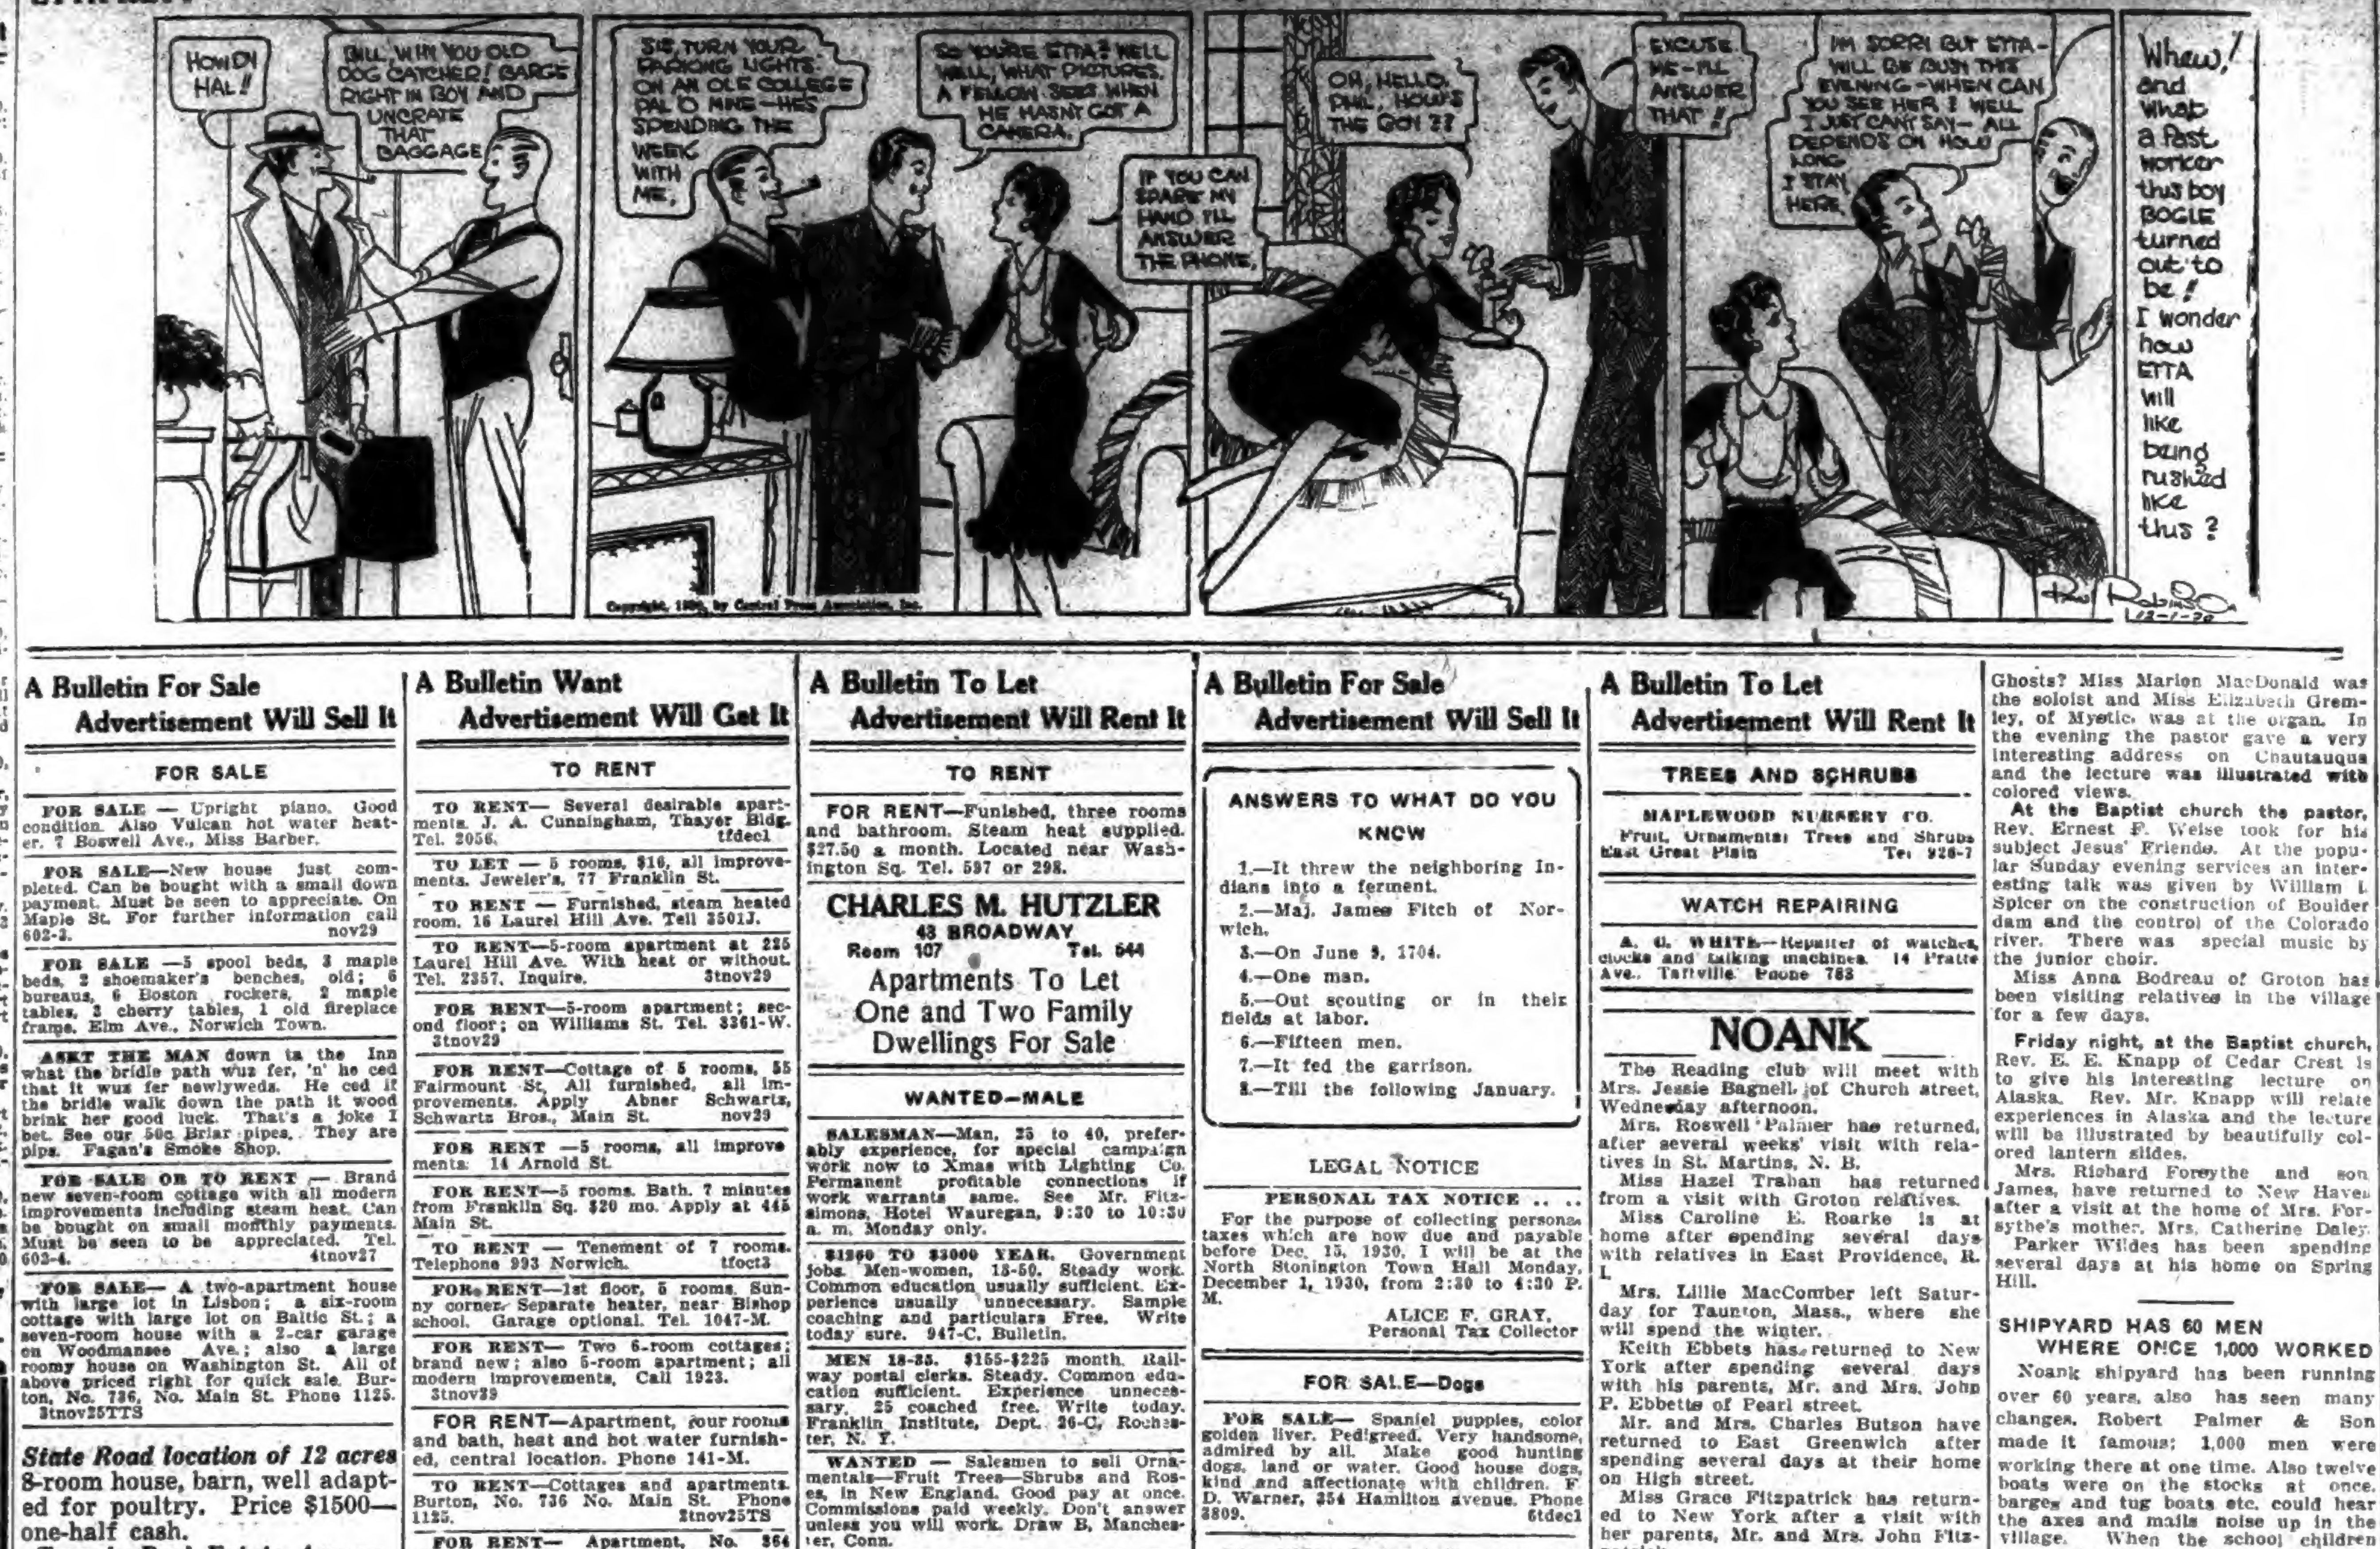
3 Breakfast Sets, Dining Room Sets, 6 Bureaus, 4 Dressers, Chairs, Rocking Chairs, Chairs of all Kinds, 3 Graphaphones, 4 Parlor Stoves, 2 Kitchen Stoves, 1 Davenport, Rugs, Carpets, Tables, 1 Roller Top Desk (small), Small Stands, 1 Leather Couch, 2 Pianos, Beds, Mattresses (almost new), 1 Singer Sewing Machine, 4 Drop Leaf Tables, 3 Pair Andirons, Pictures, Glassware, Dishes of all Kinds, Books, 2 Wagons and Other Articles Too Numerous to Mention.

Sale Rain or Shine
In Storehouse if Rainy

Mr. Liverant purchased the above list from an Estate and all are in first class condition.

NATHAN LIVERANT,
Lebanon Ave. Colchester, Conn.

ETTA KETT — The Fast Stepper! —By PAUL ROBINSON



HOWDY HAL!!
BILL, WIN YOU OLD DOG CATCHER! BARGE RIGHT IN BOY AND UNCRATE THAT BAGGAGE
SIS, TURN YOUR PARKING LIGHTS ON AN OLE COLLEGE PAL O MINE—HE'S SPENDING THE WEEK WITH ME.
SO YOU'RE ETTA? WELL, WELL, WHAT PICTURES A FELLOW SEES WHEN HE HASN'T GOT A CAMERA.
IF YOU CAN SPARE MY HAND I'LL ANSWER THE PHONE.
OH, HELLO, PHIL, HOW'S THE BOY ??
EXCUSE ME—I'LL ANSWER THAT!
I'M SORRY BUT ETTA—WILL BE BUSY THIS EVENING—WHEN CAN YOU SEE HER? WELL I JUST CAN'T SAY—ALL DEPENDS ON HOW LONG I STAY HERE.
Whew! and what a fast worker this boy BOGLE turned out to be! I wonder how ETTA will like being rushed like this?
Paul Robinson 12-1-30

Copyright, 1930, by Central Press Association, Inc.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE — Upright piano. Good condition. Also Vulcan hot water heater. 7 Boswell Ave., Miss Barber.

FOR SALE—New house just completed. Can be bought with a small down payment. Must be seen to appreciate. On Maple St. For further information call 602-3. nov29

FOR SALE —5 spool beds, 3 maple beds, 2 shoemaker's benches, old; 6 bureaus, 6 Boston rockers, 2 maple tables, 3 cherry tables, 1 old fireplace frame. Elm Ave., Norwich Town.

ASK THE MAN down to the Inn what the bridle path wuz fer, 'n' he ced that it wuz fer newlyweds. He ced if the bridle walk down the path it wood brink her good luck. That's a joke I bet. See our 50c Briar pipes. They are pips. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT — Brand new seven-room cottage with all modern improvements including steam heat. Can be bought on small monthly payments. Must be seen to be appreciated. Tel. 602-4. 4tnov27

FOR SALE— A two-apartment house with large lot in Lisbon; a six-room cottage with large lot on Baltic St.; a seven-room house with a 2-car garage on Woodmansee Ave.; also a large roomy house on Washington St. All of above priced right for quick sale. Burton, No. 736, No. Main St. Phone 1125. 3tnov25TTS

State Road location of 12 acres
8-room house, barn, well adapted for poultry. Price $1500—one-half cash.
Tryon's Real Estate Agency
Willimantic, CoCnn.

FOR SALE — Home furnishings at lowest prices. Living room sets, $8.00 up; dining room sets, $45 up; bed outfits, $7.50; 9x12 rugs, $12.50; buffets with mirrors, $12.50; kitchen cabinet, $15. Norwich Used Furniture Exchange, 29 Shetucket St.

HOUSE LOT with barn 40x149. Electricity and water. Price $195. Your own terms. One mile from Jewett City P. O. Rex, Bulletin Office.

"WHACHA DOIN?" I sez. "I'm the listener up on the farm." "Whatsat," sez I. "I nerd the cattle," sez he. Fine lot of Briar pipes, 50c. Manila cigars, 10 for 25c. Cigrets, 2 for 25c. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

FOR SALE—3 Stanton Ave., seven room house with bath Price reasonable. Within easy walking distance of center. Apply Susan D. Ryder, 159 Blatchley Ave., New Haven, Conn. 12tnov12

FOR SALE—Bargains in single and double houses. Have what you need in real estate. Quinn Insurance Agency.

FOR SALE—Used ranges, also parlor stoves that sold up to $50; now $10 and $15. Reasonable terms. Silberman's Furniture Store, 37 Main St

FOR SALE—At once, to settle the estate, all the property at Wintergreen Point, in Waterford. For particulars see Miss Moore at The Bulletin office or R. E. Burton. Phone 1125.

FOR SALE—Used dining room suite, also od doak buffets, China cabinets and tables. Silberman Furn. Store. tfaug13

FOR SALE— Hay. Phone 2858-R. Peter A. Nawrocki, Yantic. 3tnov28

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Sawed white birch wood. $7.00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs, J. M. Pillar, 416 Asylum St. Phone 721.

FOR SALE—White birch wood. $7.00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE — Seasoned hard wood. slabs. Delivered to Jewett City. No extra cost. Roy B. Kennedy. Phones 1137-M or 3755-R. 6tnov27

FOR SALE — Delivered, kindling or split wood. 7 baskets, $1.00. $8.00 a load. Coal, 5 bags, $1.00. Tel. 2666.

FOR SALE—Automotive

FOR SALE — 1930 Pontiac 4 door Sedan, wire wheel equipment. Driven 700 miles. Terms and trade-in arranged. For information call 3614.

FOR SALE—1929 Chrysler 75 roadster, 1929 Whippet coupe, 1928 Chrysler 72 sedan, 1927 Chrysler 70 roadster, 1927 Jordan coupe, 1926 Dodge sedan. Many others. Cash or terms. 8 Bath St. Next to Bailey's Garage.

FOR SALE — Demonstrators, very small mileage: 1930 Marmon-Roosevelt sedan, $795; 1930 Marmon-Roosevelt coupe, rumble seat, $725; 1930 Chrysler roadster, rumble seat, $795; 1924 Buick sedan, extra good, $150; 1928 Chevrolet 1-ton truck, $300. 12 other good second hand trucks, from $50 up. T. R. Sadd, 1086 Main St. Willimantic 3tnov27

FOR SALE—Livestock

FOR SALE—30 Guernsey and Holstein grade cows. Just arrived from Wisconsin. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon, 30. 6tnov29

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

FOR SALE—100 rabbits; Chins, New Zealand Whites, Silvers. Fred Newton, Box 46, Canterbury. Phone. nov29

FOR SALE—Collie puppies. 128 West Town St. 6tnov25

WANTED—All kinds of live poultry. Broilers a specialty. Tel. 539 S. Colt. tffeb13

WANTED—All kinds of poultry; will call anywhere; highest prices paid Joseph Horn Tel. 1501 Willimantic. tfmar19

FOR SALE—Radios

FOR SALE —Used and demonstrated radios, battery and all electric at low prices Some as low as $4 Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

RADIO REPAIRS

—CALL 2880—
Radio Service Our Specialty
SMITH'S RADIO STORE

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT— Several desirable apartments. J. A. Cunningham, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056. tfdec1

TO LET — 5 rooms, $16, all improvements. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St.

TO RENT — Furnished, steam heated room, 16 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel 3501J.

TO RENT—5-room apartment at 225 Laurel Hill Ave. With heat or without. Tel. 2357. Inquire. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—5-room apartment; second floor; on Williams St. Tel. 3361-W. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—Cottage of 5 rooms, 55 Fairmount St. All furnished, all improvements. Apply Abner Schwartz, Schwartz Bros., Main St. nov29

FOR RENT —5 rooms, all improvements. 14 Arnold St.

FOR RENT—5 rooms. Bath. 7 minutes from Franklin Sq. $20 mo. Apply at 445 Main St.

TO RENT — Tenement of 7 rooms. Telephone 993 Norwich. tfoct3

FOR RENT—1st floor, 5 rooms. Sunny corner. Separate heater, near Bishop school. Garage optional. Tel. 1047-M.

FOR RENT— Two 6-room cottages; brand new; also 5-room apartment; all modern improvements, Call 1923. 3tnov29

FOR RENT—Apartment, four rooms and bath, heat and hot water furnished, central location. Phone 141-M.

TO RENT—Cottages and apartments. Burton, No. 736 No. Main St. Phone 1125. 2tnov25TS

FOR RENT— Apartment, No. 364 Washington St., Norwich Town. Tel. 626-W. Oct15

FOR RENT —2 apts. 6 rooms, bath. Newly decorated, all improvements. 107 or 109 Sachem St. Tel. 568. F. Ferry, 118 W. Main St. 3tnov27

TO RENT—Furnished 4-room apartment. 5 minutes walk from Franklin Square. Rent reasonable. Tel. 3615-W. tfnov28

TO RENT—A modern 6-room apartment. Apply to B. C. Hannis, 11 McKinley Ave. tfnov26

TO RENT—5-room tenement, $15 a month. Call 1422-W. tfnov26

TO RENT—Furnished apartment, well heated, garage. Phone 285-J. tfnov25

TO RENT— Two light housekeeping rooms, 45 Union street, all improvements tfnov25

FOR RENT—6-room apartment; all improvements. Phone 946-W.

FOR RENT—At Wintergreen Point, to small family, 6-room house with garage. See Miss Moore at Bulletin office.

TO RENT—Pleasant six-room apartment. Rent reasonable. J. A. Cunningham, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056.

FOR RENT—7 rooms with all improvements. 89 Asylum St. tfOct16

FOR RENT—Rooms, board if desired. Good location. Tel. 3557-J. tfnov18

TO RENT—5 lovely rooms, 23 Hill St. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters. tfnov11

TO RENT—7-room cottage, bath, hot and cold water. Fountain St. Call 77 Cedar St. Phone 868. tfnov15

FOR RENT— Modern 5-room apartment. 47 Otis St. Tel. 1085-R. tfnov13

TO RENT— Flat of six rooms, 5 Church St. Tel. 2687-J. 3tnov5MWF

TO RENT—Modern 6-room apartment. Best section in town. Oil heated, hot water Available now. 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., Franklin St. tfnov8

STORAGE—Gilbert Furniture Co. Inquire 68 Broadway. tfoct11S

FOR RENT — Light housekeeping rooms. Steam heat. 27 McKinley Ave. tfsept30

TO LET—5 nice rooms, all improvements, 11 High street. tfsept17

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; modern and central. Phone 211. Sept26

FOR RENT—Heated apartment in the Osgood. Caron's Specialty Shop.

TO RENT— A 6-room and a 4-room apartment; all modern conveniences, 857 Washington St. Tel. 1085-R. tfsept17

TO RENT—Flat of six rooms with all improvements. Inquire of Gilbert Bowers 130 Washington St., or phone 1122-M. tfsept27

FOR RENT—Rooms for gentlemen. On car line. Phone 2658-W. 12tnov19

For Rent
First Floor Tenement With Bath Room and Hot Water Heater
234 BROAD STREET

TO RENT
If you want a 5-room apartment a little out of the ordinary, at a reasonable price, see those in the "Huntington", 170 Broadway. Tel. 3282.
D. T. SHEA

For Rent
FINE LIGHT STORE IN SUNLIGHT BUILDING
Occupied Continuously for 15 Years as Barber St
Apply BULLETIN OFFICE

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TO RENT

FOR RENT—Funished, three rooms and bathroom. Steam heat supplied. $27.50 a month. Located near Washington Sq. Tel. 597 or 298.

CHARLES M. HUTZLER
43 BROADWAY
Room 107 Tel. 644
Apartments To Let
One and Two Family
Dwellings For Sale

WANTED—MALE

SALESMAN—Man, 25 to 40, preferably experience, for special campaign work now to Xmas with Lighting Co. Permanent profitable connections if work warrants same. See Mr. Fitzsimons, Hotel Wauregan, 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Monday only.

$1260 TO $3000 YEAR. Government jobs. Men-women, 18-50. Steady work. Common education usually sufficient. Experience usually unnecessary. Sample coaching and particulars Free. Write today sure. 947-C, Bulletin.

MEN 18-35. $155-$225 month. Railway postal clerks. Steady. Common education sufficient. Experience unnecessary. 25 coached free. Write today. Franklin Institute, Dept. 26-C, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED — Salesmen to sell Ornamentals—Fruit Trees—Shrubs and Roses, in New England. Good pay at once. Commissions paid weekly. Don't answer unless you will work. Draw B, Manchester, Conn.

EARN EXTRA MONEY. Sell finest $1.00 Christmas Cards and Parchments. Smartest selection, irresistible value. Sample box 60c. Write Gramatan Art Co., Slote Bldg. Mount Vernon, N. Y.

66 MILES ON 1 GALLON. Amazing Moisture Gas Saver. All Autos. 1 Free. Critchlow, G-11, Wheaton, Ill.

SALESMEN WANTED — Crankcase Oil heater; replaces drain plug, makes starting easy; winter driving a pleasure. Flashy demonstration. Big profits. Write Nelson Mfg. Co., Sioux City, Iowa.

SALESMEN — Old, established million dollar concern, manufacturing nationally known advertising material and specialized service for every representative line of business, has openings for several aggressive salesmen; liberal commission with weekly remittances; full time employment. Closing contracts now for new selling season commencing December 26. Look up our AAA-1 rating and write us stating your age, experience and references. American Art Works, Inc., Coshocton, Ohio.

WANTED — Two young men to train for executive positions. Must be able to travel. Some college education desirable. Box 31, Bulletin.

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Children to board by day or week. Tel. 3207-J.

WHY BE LONESOME—Hundreds happily mated, confidential service. N. B. Gibson, 2605 N. 9 St., Philadelphia, Pa. 3tStMWenov29

WANTED—Will exchange a late model electric sewing machine for an all electric radio. Write Box 502 Bulletin, giving full information regarding radio. 3tnov27

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co., 8 Bath St. Tel 2462.

STOMACH ULCERS, Gastritis Sufferers, get rid of your pain! Quick relief. No diet! Valuable booklet sent free. Udga Laboratories, 8020 Dakota Bldg. St. Paul, Minn.

WANTED — Horse about 1,200 lbs. Must be sound and true. Tel. 3673-5.

IF YOU WANT a wonderful opportunity to make $15 profit a day and get a new Ford Sedan besides, send me your name immediately. No experience necessary. Particulars free. Albert Mills, 4632 Monmouth, Cincinnati, O.

SPECIALIZING — Pawtuxet Valley, East and West Greenwich and Coventry farms. Arthur Kinne, East Greenwich, Rhode Island.

WANTED—Female

ADDRESSING envelopes at home. Spare time $15-$25 weekly. Experience unnecessary. Dignified work. Send stamp for particulars. Parnusie, Dept. 835, New Brunswick, N. J.

ADDRESS envelopes at home. Spare time $15-$25 weekly. Experience unnecessary. Dignified work. Send 2c. stamp for particulars. Brown Co., Dept. 575, Paducah, Ky.

YOUNG WOMAN desires house work or care of children. Address Box 47, Bulletin.

WANTED— Housekeeper around 50 years for lone man. Good home with small wages. Address Box 616, Bulletin. 3tnov27

WANTED— A widower, unincumbered, Protestant, with a modern home in a country section, wishes a widow, accordingly, of middle age, as a companion housekeeper. Must be of a good family, and be well recommended. To the right person a good home awaits her. A full description of the applicant will be necessary in order to receive a reply. Box 338, Norwich Bulletin. 5tnov25

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING
Of The
WM. W. BACKUS HOSPITAL
is accepting applications for the February class. The course of instruction covers a period of three years which includes a seven months affiliation with the Yale School of Nursing and the New Haven Visiting Nurse Association. Only high school graduates accepted. For prospectus of the school giving requirements for admission, curriculum and opportunities offered address

Principal, School of Nursing,
Wm. W. Backus Hospital,
Norwich, Conn.

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND — A sum of money. Owner can have it by proving his ownership of the same. Call at Garage, 151 Washington St., A. J. Christman.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

ANSWERS TO WHAT DO YOU KNOW

1.—It threw the neighboring Indians into a ferment.
2.—Maj. James Fitch of Norwich.
3.—On June 9, 1704.
4.—One man.
5.—Out scouting or in their fields at labor.
6.—Fifteen men.
7.—It fed the garrison.
8.—Till the following January.

LEGAL NOTICE

PERSONAL TAX NOTICE . . .

For the purpose of collecting personal taxes which are now due and payable before Dec. 15, 1930, I will be at the North Stonington Town Hall Monday, December 1, 1930, from 2:30 to 4:30 P. M.

ALICE F. GRAY,
Personal Tax Collector

FOR SALE—Dogs

FOR SALE— Spaniel puppies, color golden liver. Pedigreed. Very handsome, admired by all. Make good hunting dogs, land or water. Good house dogs, kind and affectionate with children. F. D. Warner, 354 Hamilton avenue. Phone 3809. 6tdec1

FOR SALE—Boston bull pups; very fine markings; price reasonable. 230 Valley St., Willimantic. Tel. 724-4. nov29

Business Notices

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

Antique Shop Angelo Mastello, prop., 8 West Thames St. Norwich, Conn Established 1920 Tel 707 We specialize in any kind of furniture work at moderate prices also deal in anticues aug8

WANTED—Second-hand antique furniture. Best prices paid A Bruckner 100 Franklin St Phone 555

LOUIS D WARD Antique and second hand furniture bought and sold. 8 Main St., Norwich Tel 1833 tfjw3

CLEANERS AND DYERS

WE CALL & DELIVER FREE
1
PHONE 2060
MENS-SUITS-TOPCOATS LADIES PLAIN COATS ETC. CLEANED & PRESSED
CLEANERS & DYERS of EVERYTHING SPECIAL ATTENTION TO LADIES WORK
Russell's
DOLLAR CLEANERS

DENTISTS

DR. P. A. SCHWARTZ
Dentist
Metropolitan Store Building

TRUCKING

JOSLYN—Excellent storage. Mover of teaming and auto vans at your service everything; expressing, freight handling.

HOSPITAL

ST. TERESA PRIVATE MATERNITY Hospital, room weekly, $35; semi, $28; ward, $17.50. Also aged invalid, charge according to condition; Home-like. Tel. 8134 Norwich, Conn jul30

MONEY TO LOAN

NEED MONEY QUICKLY
Cash Loans of $10 to $300
Within 24 Hours
Small Monthly Repayments

You'll be suprised how easily a loan can be arranged. Our friendly and courteous service has helped many when they needed money quickly. Come in, 'phone or write for full information. There is no obligation. The only charge is three and one-half percent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
Room 307, Disco Bldg., 257 Main St.
Norwich, Conn.

LOANS
$300 OR LESS
At the rate of 3% per month on the unpaid balance
OUR SERVICE IS FRIENDLY—CONFIDENTIAL
THE HAMILTON LOAN CO.
of Norwich
25 Shetucket St. Tel. 119 Norwich

MACHINISTS

BARBER'S MACHINE SHOP—L. and A. P. Guertin proprietor. 23-25 Chestnut St. Tel 3144. Does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly, day or night tfjy3

PHYSICIAN

EMMA K. DUNHAM
Naturopathic Physician
30 Carroll Avenue

Are you suffering from Stomach, Liver Troubles, Neuritis, High Blood Pressure, Nervousness or other ailments Naturopathic methods including Physiotherapy and Colonic Irrigations remove the cause.
Office Hours: 9-11 A. M., 2-5 P. M.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TREES AND SCHRUBS

MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs East Great Plain Tel. 926-7

WATCH REPAIRING

A. G. WHITE—Repairer of watches, clocks and talking machines. 14 Pratte Ave., Taftville Phone 783

NOANK

The Reading club will meet with Mrs. Jessie Bagnell of Church street, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Roswell Palmer has returned, after several weeks' visit with relatives in St. Martins, N. B.

Miss Hazel Trahan has returned from a visit with Groton relatives.

Miss Caroline E. Roarke is at home after spending several days with relatives in East Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Lillie MacComber left Saturday for Taunton, Mass., where she will spend the winter.

Keith Ebbets has returned to New York after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ebbetts of Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butson have returned to East Greenwich after spending several days at their home on High street.

Miss Grace Fitzpatrick has returned to New York after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzpatrick.

Make Plans For Tea

The Ever Ready girls of the World Wide guild held a meeting at the home of Miss Charlotte Welsh on Church street, recently. Miss Welsh was voted treasurer, to take the place of Miss Caroline Fitch, who is away. Plans were made for an afternoon tea to be given soon. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were the Misses Vivian Meister, Guerinna Bracci, Georgianna Haynes, Ruth Merritt and Adel Pezolessi.

Miss Katherine Forest of New York was a recent caller on friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sullivan and children and Mrs. Margaret MacLeod have returned after spending the holiday and week end with relatives in Boston.

Wilbur Smith has returned to New York after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Albany Smith.

Miss Marietta Mariano of New London spent the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Philomena De-Biasi.

Lectured On Chicago

At the Sunday afternoon services at the Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. Robert J. Chrystie, Ph.D., took for his subject, "Do You Believe in Ghosts? Miss Marion MacDonald was the soloist and Miss Elizabeth Gremley, of Mystic, was at the organ. In the evening the pastor gave a very interesting address on Chautauqua and the lecture was illustrated with colored views.

At the Baptist church the pastor, Rev. Ernest F. Weise took for his subject Jesus' Friends. At the popular Sunday evening services an interesting talk was given by William I. Spicer on the construction of Boulder dam and the control of the Colorado river. There was special music by the junior choir.

Miss Anna Bodreau of Groton has been visiting relatives in the village for a few days.

Friday night, at the Baptist church, Rev. E. E. Knapp of Cedar Crest is to give his interesting lecture on Alaska. Rev. Mr. Knapp will relate experiences in Alaska and the lecture will be illustrated by beautifully colored lantern slides.

Mrs. Richard Forsythe and son James, have returned to New Haven after a visit at the home of Mrs. Forsythe's mother, Mrs. Catherine Daley.

Parker Wildes has been spending several days at his home on Spring Hill.

SHIPYARD HAS 60 MEN WHERE ONCE 1,000 WORKED

Noank shipyard has been running over 60 years, also has seen many changes, Robert Palmer & Son made it famous; 1,000 men were working there at one time. Also twelve boats were on the stocks at once, barges and tug boats etc. could hear the axes and mails noise up in the village. When the school children were going home to dinner they had to dodge through the men. It made work for a long while. Whenever a steamer was built for New York people, over 2,000 people were employed. A mayor came from that city and his daughter broke the real stuff in a bottle on the bow of the new white craft as she slid down the ways.

A big time would be held in Palmer hall, known now as Unity hall. Speeches would fill the room, pictures were taken by newspaper men who were here to get the news, thick as flies on a cow's back. It was always a big time in the fishing village.

Then Robert passed on to another world after living to a good old age. His son Robert took charge, and made a success, following in the footsteps of his dad. Not many years later he too, was taken away, leaving the shipyard flat.

Then after a party from out of town tried it and made good, Charles Morse and son Harry bought the yard and ran it along well and soon the World war broke out and the shipyard was in full swing again, working day and night, building boats to take the men to France. About 1500 men were on the pay rool. A 30-piece band was formed and a baseball team, and "good times were had by all."

Boats would be launched and sent away and when war news came, the band trucks would dash about, also parades would be held.

In Mystic and Noank everybody was happy. The shipyard kept going, but finally work on the boats stopped. Then Harry Morse took a load off his father's shoulders by buying him out, trying hard to keep the business running good. He repaired boats, and built several large ones; but now wood on the payroll. A 30-piece band was but it is keeping men at work. Faithful Harry kept boats coming in, so as not to close the yard down.

Then over five years ago, the worst fire ever seen in the Indian village broke out at the yard; eight buildings were burned and a boat got afire. Seven fire companies from out of town came and gave the smoke eaters a lift, so as not to burn the whole town. Newspapers in New York had the story and many people thought that was the end of Noank's shipyard, but the old saying is "You cannot keep a good man down." Harry Morse got busy, cleaned up the fire stuff and Bill Lockas, the right hand man to Morse, found an old Indian stone axe near the office and said "That will bring luck to the yard!"

Today the shipyard has a new yacht storage building 150 feet long which will hold around 20 yachts. Also there are five tracks and three railways to haul boats out, up to 200 feet long. Yachts, from Florida and all over, are at the docks to be put away for the winter. It is expected that over 50 yachts and fishing boats will be hauled out until next spring. This is a good thing for Noank as it gives somebody work. Of the old-timers, known as ship-carpenters there are only a few left. Noank men don't have to sleep in a strange bed in another city, but can be with their wives and children here. Owner Morse sure works hard to bring boats into the shipyard to give men work and not to let one of the largest wooden shipyards in the United States be at a standstill.

Over 60 men are working at the yard, although times are the hardest since Grover Cleveland was president of the United States.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Salvation Army Store

Monday morning the Salvation Army are opening a store on Main street where they will sell second-hand clothing, furniture, etc., any one having partly worn clothing or excess furniture they would like to donate it would be much appreciated by those in charge.

The Low-Down on Aunt Lucia.

A group of Norwich's leading business men were in a huddle on the street corner. "Do you really think," one of them was saying, "that C. W. Cassidy looks like Clara Bow?"

"You'll have to admit," another replied, "that he has IT."

"And which one of us, do you suppose will be chosen as the 'Girl with the Million Dollar Legs'?" someone else inquired.

"Well," said Flint Brayton, "when it comes to Sox Appeal, I guess you boys know me."

"I heard," said W. B. Frisbie, "that I'm to be the Spinster School Teacher, but I don't like the idea. I want to be the 'Shrinking Violet'."

Now what, dear public, does this mean? Police authorities were questioned, and replied:

"It's this old gal Aunt Lucia, that's causing all the trouble. She's due to arrive here on Dec. 8 and 9 and is causing more excitement than Santa Claus."

"And who," I asked, "is Aunt Lucia?"

"She's a baffling mystery," the police confided.

So there you have it. Who is she? Does she have bobbed hair? Or does she still cling to flowing tresses? Which does she prefer, long or short skirts? What is her opinion of the 18-day diet? These and other important questions I shall endeavor to answer for you soon. Whenever there is a mystery to be solved you can rely on me.

What's that you ask? Who am I? Why, I'm the Stage Door Snoop.

What Is Going On Tonight

Norwich Music association meets at Slater hall.

Common council meets in council chamber.

Uncas lodge, No. 11, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows' hall.

Thames union, No. 137, U. B. of C. and J. of A., meets in Carpenters' hall.

St. Joseph's association meets in St. Joseph's school house.

Clover temple, No. 9, P. S., meets in Buckingham Memorial.

Norwich aerie, No. 367, F. O. E., meets at Eagles' home.

Nemrod Grotto, M. O. V. P. E. R., meets in Grotto home.

Women's auxiliary, No. 2, A. L., meets in state armory.

Nevins-Carver circle, No. 1225, C. of F., meets in Foresters' hall.

Wauregan lodge, No. 6, K. of P., meets at 278 Main street.

Officials of Harris county, Texas, have caught 214 horses running at large on the highways in violation of the law, and their owners refuse to claim them.

CATTLE AUCTION

We Will Sell at Public Auction at the Farm of
F. O. BROWN, New London Turnpike, Colchester, Conn.
On Tuesday, December 2, at 1:00 P. M.
28—HEAD OF COWS—
New Milch and Forward Springers
Under State and Federal Supervision

This lot consists of young cows, good producers, possessing size and quality, and selected from modified accredited areas in Vermont. Most of them are eligible to be added to an all accredited herd. In this lot are Jerseys, Guernseys and Holsteins, also two pure bred Ayrshires with calves. Some second calf heifers.

AUCTIONEER'S NOTICE: All the above will be sold without reserve. Sale Rain or Shine.

ROBERT M. REID & SON, Auctioneers
201 Main St., Manchester, Conn.—Phone 3193

MAIL-AD

FILL OUT AND MAIL TO

The Norwich Bulletin or Record

NORWICH, CONN

12c a line. Average 5 Words to a Line. Wants — To Let — For Sale — Etc.

Name .... Classification ....
R. F. D. or Street .... Number of Insertions ....
Post Office .... Amount Enclosed ....

Write Complete Ad. Below, Including Name and Address
—or if Blind Address is Wanted Mark X Here .... ☐

RADIO PROGRAMMES

Monday, Dec. 1

302—Springfield, WBZ—990

2:35—Farm and Home hour.
1:35—Matinee Melodies.
3:01—Blue Chasers; Statler organ — Doris Tirrell.
4:00—Phil Napoleon's band; Home Forum Cooking school.
5:00—Music Lovers —Eunice Babcock Truesdale, soprano; Air Castles; State House Safety talk; World Bookman.
6:00—Maltine program; Stock exchange quotations; agricultural markets; Tip-Top Roadman.
6:03—Dinner music; Sallinger's Vagabonds; McCoy Boys; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7:00—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters; Phil Cook; Jolly Time revue.
8:00—Vapex Musical Doctors; McAleer Melodists; Ingram Shavers.
9:00—Maytag orchestra; "Real Folks."
10:00—Stromberg-Carlson program; Empire Builders.
11:04—Frederick Musical Gems; Statler organ—Louis Weir; McEnelly's orchestra.

282—Hartford, WTIC—1060

7:00—"Air Scoops," with Elinor Smith.
7:15—Dr. J. F. Marton on "Mouth Diseases."
7:30—Travelers Trust concert.
8:00 — Seth Parker's Old-Fashioned Singing school.
8:30—The Gypsies.
9:30—General Motors.
10:00—"Southern Cameos."
10:30—Concert Classics.
11:05—The Merry Madcaps, with Illma Islandsts; and Harmony Revelers.
11:30—Walter Seifert, organist.

244—Boston, WNAC—1230

6:00—La Palina Melodies; Romance in Rhythm; Shepard Ambassadors; Dairy and Food council.
7:00—Program arranged by Paul Shirley; the Vagabonds; Evangeline Adams, astrologer; Jason-Weiler gems.
8:00—Seth Parker Singing school; "Arabesque."
9:00—Minneapolis-Honeywell Symphony hour; An Evening in Paris.
10:00—Burns Panatela program; Nit Wit hour.
11:15—Columbia's radio column; broadcast from Palais d'Or.
12:00—Mayfair orchestra; Ann Leaf at the organ.

508—Boston, WEEI—590

4:10—Stock exchange quotations.
6:00—Big Brother; Shakerknit program.
7:00—Coke Dinner music; Robert L. Ripley.
8:00—Tastyeast Jesters; Quincy companions; A. and P. Gypsies.
9:30—General Motors.
10:00—Sherlock Holmes.
11:15—Bud Peters and Jack Francis.

422—Newark, WOR—710

6:00—Uncle Don; Sports; Astor Concert orchestra.
7:15—Vapex Musical Doctors; The Foursome; "Tom Collins, Junior," songs and comedy.
8:01—Trey's Enchanting hour; Chock Full O' Nuts program.
9:00—Weber & Fields on Webster; Sadko Russian Revels; On the Riviera.
10:15—Reis and Dunn, wandering minstrels; Globe Trotter.
11:03—Dance orchestra; Moonbeams.

379—Schenectady, WGY—790

11:45—New York stock reports.
12:00—Farm program.
1:00—Luncheon music.
2:01—Marie Bernstein, soprano; The Song Writer; Household Chat; Roger Sweet, tenor.
3:00—Melody Three; Musicalities; Sixteen Singers.
5:15—Warren Munson, guitar; Highway report; Uncle Jim.
6:01—Stocks; Dinner music; Black and Gold orchestra.
7:15—McAleer Melodists; Beacon Oil program.
8:00—Agricultural program; Gypsies.
9:30—General Motors.
10:00—WGY Players, "The Devil's Chateau," Episode V; "Cathedral Echoes," Union College Chapel Mixed quartet.
11:00—Hal Kemp's orchestra; Organ recital.

395—New York, WJZ—760

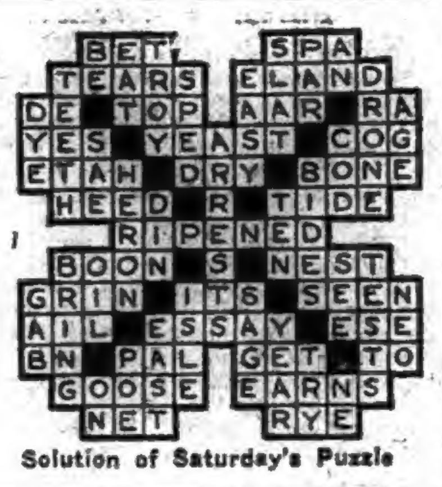
1:05—Three Little Maids, string trio.
2:00—"Your Daily Menu," Mrs. Julian Heath; Blue Chasers; Band of a Thousand Melodies.
3:00—Phil Napoleon band; Chicago Serenade.
4:00—Cosmopolitan Dance orchestra; Classic Gems.
5:00—Maltine Story Program.
5:35—Stock Market reports.
6:00—Rise of the Goldbergs; Mormon Tabernacle choir and organ; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7:00—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters; Phil Cook.
7:45—Roxy's Gang program.
8:30—Ingram Shavers — Raymond Knight, guest artist.
9:00—Maytag orchestra—Ruth Lyons, soprano, guest artist; Cheesbrough Real Folks.
10:00—Stromberg-Carlson program; Empire Builders.
11:00—Slumber Music—Rafael Galindo, violinist; string ensemble.
12:00—Duke Ellington orchestra.

454—New York, WEAF—660

12:00 noon—Clyde Doerr and his saxophone octet; On Wings of Song.
1:00—Palais d'Or orchestra.
2:30—Melody Three—string trio.
3:15—Musicalities—dance band; Sixteen Singers—mixed chorus.
4:00—The Merry Makers; "The Twilight Circle," Charlotte Geer.
5:00—"The Lady Next Door; Tea Timers—dance band; Rex Cole Mountaineers.
6:05—Black and Gold orchestra; "Who's Behind the Name?"—Edwin Alger; Erva Giles, soprano.
7:00—"Air Scoops" — with Elinor Smith; "The World Today"— James G. McDonald; Robert L. Ripley.
8:00—"How's Business?" — Merle Thorpe; Fifteen Minutes in the Nation's Capital; Gypsies.
9:30—General Motors — Lewis James, tenor; Brigadiers, male quartet.
10:30—Adventures of Sherlock Holmes —"The Stockbroker's Clerk"; Symphonic Rhythm Makers.
11:00—Florence Richardson's orchestra; Horace Heidt orchestra.
12:00—Phil Spitalny.

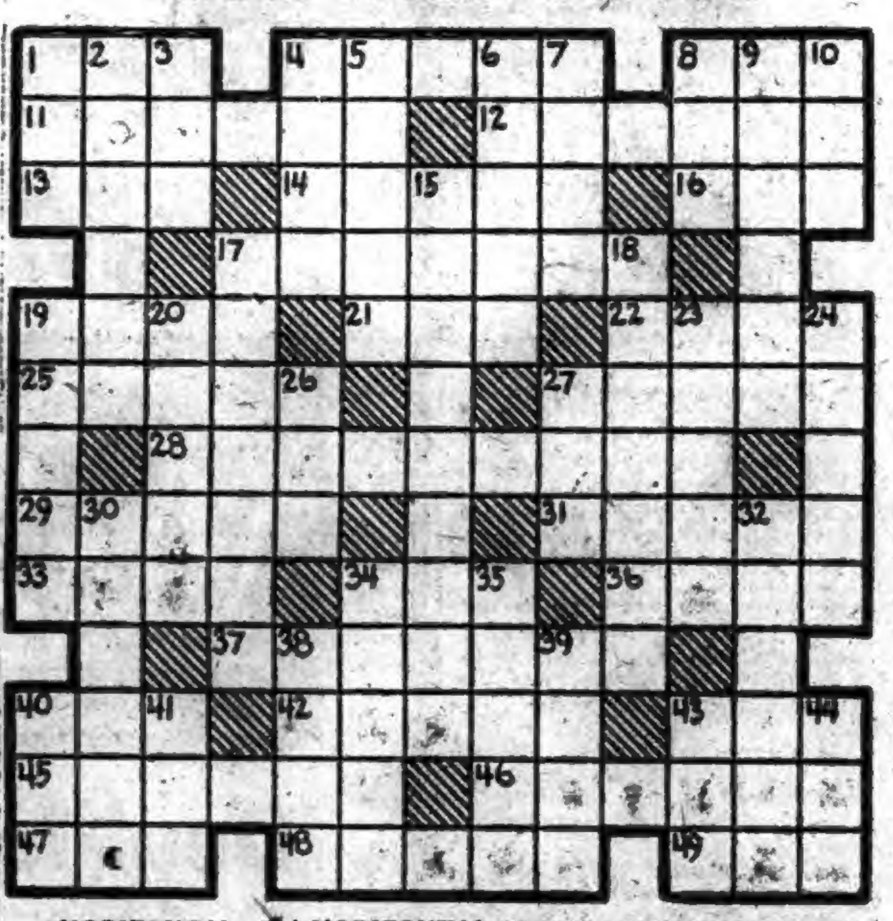
348—New York, WABC—860

6:00—WSPD Commodores—Dance Music; Janssen Hofbrau orchestra.
7:00—Current Events, H. V. Kaltenborn; Crockett Mountaineers; Evangeline Adams, Astrologer.
8:00—Topics in Brief— Lowell Thomas; Madri Gras; Arabesque—Desert Play.
9:00—Minneapolis-Honeywell Symphony Hour; An Evening in Paris.
10:00—Burns Panatela Program; Nit Wit Hour.
11:00—Musical Aviators; Columbia's Radio Column — Heywood Broun; Biltmore orchestra.
12:00—Asbury Park Casino orchestra; Ann Leaf at the Organ.



Solution of Saturday's Puzzle

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



HORIZONTAL
1–Interdict
4–To raise
8–Anger
11–Bloodless
12–A bird
13–Insect
14–Vapor
16–New Zealand parrot
17–Removed the hide
19–Bargain
21–Not even
22–Same as "emu"
25–Beseech
27–Fruit of the oak
28–Uttered as if preceded by the letter "H"
29–To sow again
31–A province in Belgium
33–Level
34–A province of Canada (abbr.)
36–Former ruler of Russia
37–Used in spacing

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
40–Bustle
42–An open space for contests
43–Fish eggs
45–Make smaller
46–A gas (pl.)
47–Point of compass (abbr.)
48–Conducts, as a periodical
49–Fondle

VERTICAL
1–Cry of a sheep
2–To render soft and tough by heating
3–A lace fabric
4–A thick, rich soup
5–Proportion
6–Large African antelope
7–Silver coin
8–Writing fluid
9–Short cloak
10–Greek letter

VERTICAL (Cont.)
15–The power to endure
17–Flavors
18–Frauds
19–Extra
20–Let
23–Methods
24–Beneath the shelter of
26–Department of Public Works (abbr.)
27–Atlantic (abbr.)
30–Escapes
32–Abundant
34–Propelled
35–Doctrine
38–To measure by strides
39–Rodent (pl.)
40–Part of verb "to be"
41–Lyric poem
43–Material with corded surface
44–Superlative ending

Norwich Produce Market

Furnished by Bureau of Markets Conn. Dept. of Agriculture

There has been very light trading on the market since the holiday. Apples and potatoes constitute the bulk of native offerings in fruits and vegetables and both are moving very slow. Shipped in products generally liberal. Poultry market quiet. Native eggs move liberal and prices seem to have the downward trend. Beef, lamb and pork were firmer.

Notice

Owing to the small list of native products now on the market it has been thought best to discontinue this publication during the winter months. With the continued cooperation of the Norwich Bulletin this service will be resumed in the spring as native products appear on the market.

Those who have been depending upon this service for their market buying or selling are requested to communicate with the Marketing Bureau, State Department of Agriculture, Hartford, and be placed on the mailing list to receive the Connecticut Market Bulletin.

Wholesale prices follow:

Fruits, Vegetables.
*Apples, Baldwin, A bu.	1.00	1.25
*Apples, Baldwin, B bu.	.75	1.00
Apples, McIntosh A bu.	1.50	2.00
*Apples, McIntosh B Gr. bu	1.25	1.50
*Apples, McIntosh Uncl' bu	1.00	1.25
*Apples, Greening, bu	.75	1.25
Oranges, 176-216	4.00	5.00
*Beets, bu.	1.00	1.25
Cranberries, 25-lb. box	2.85	3.50
*Cauliflower, doz. crate	2.50	2.60
*Cabbage, bu.	.80	1.00
*Celery, 12 stalk bun.	.75	1.00
Lettuce, Iceberg, crate	4.75	5.00
*Onions, bu.	.75	.90
*Carrots, bu.	1.00	1.25
*Parsnips, bu.	2.00	2.25
*Potatoes, bu.	1.10	1.15
*Potatoes, bu.	1.10	1.20
Potatoes, 120-lb sack	2.25	2.30
*Peppers, bu.	1.00	1.25
*Spinach, bu.	1.00	1.25
*Squash, 100 lbs	2.00	2.50
*Turnips, bu.	1.00	1.25

Poultry, Dairy.
Broilers, Dressed, lb.	.30	.35
*Chickens, Dressed, lb	.34	.38
*Ducks, Live, lb.	.20	.22
*Fowl, Dressed, lb.	.30	.32
*Fowl, Live lb.	.20	.25
*Turkeys, Conn. fancy lb.	.48	.50
*Turkeys, Live weight, lb.	.30	.40
Turkeys, West, dress, lb.	.34	.37
Butter, 92 p. c. score, lb.	.35	.39
Eggs, Conn. Newlaid Fancy, Doz.		.56
*Eggs, Conn. newlaid med.	.45
*Eggs, Conn. special	.52
*Eggs, Conn. special pul.	.30	.38
*Eggs, Conn. extra	.50	.55
*Eggs, Conn. gathered	.45	.50
Eggs, Western	.30	.45

Meat Products.
*Calves, best, live, lb.	12	.13
*Calves, heavy, lb.	09	.10
Hams, best smoked, lb.	.26	.29
Beef, prime, lb.	.19	.21
Beef, medium, lb.	.17	.19
Cows, dressed, lb	.12	.13
*Cows, com. dressed, lb.	.10	.12
*Lambs, fancy, lb.	.18	.20
*Pork, dressed, lb.	.14	.16
Veal, fancy, western, lb	.17	.20
*Veal, fancy, lb.	.20	.22

Grain Retail at Door
Bran	1.40	1.50
Corn, v. 2	1.95	2.00
*Timothy, loose	1.00	1.25
Middlings, std.	1.40	1.50
Oats, No. 1, 30 lbs.	1.55	1.65
Wheat	1.70	1.80

BARGE OVERTURNED; EIGHT PERSONS DROWNED

SAN ANTONIO, Chile, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A barge carrying 25 passengers overturned today in the Maipo river near Lo Gallardo, with probably eight persons drowned. Only three bodies had been recovered tonight.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broadway Theatre

Those who think only of war in terms of soldiers in trenches were reminded sharply at Warner Bros.' Broadway theatre that international conflict is anything but an exclusively masculine affair.

"War Nurse," Edgar Selwyn's M-G-M picture, has opened for a four-day run. It is a forceful, romantic and dramatic presentation of woman's part in the war. It has, on the feminine side, the same feeling of powerful truth that existed in "The Big Parade."

The scenes show with unflinching realism the sort of thing which nurses had to undergo at the front. The plot is woven around the romance of two nurses, June Walker and Anita Page, and two aviators, Robert Montgomery and Robert Ames. Scenarist Becky Gardiner has contrived a fast-moving, melo-dramatic plot which embraces love scenes the night before men are to go forward to almost certain death, bombs dropping on a hospital, emergency operations, etc.

Palace Theatre

"Sin Takes A Holiday" scores a decided hit at the Palace where it will be shown for today and tomorrow for the last times. Beautiful Constance Bennett is shown at her best in her latest and greatest role to date, greater then her work in Common Clay, and Son of the Gods, for in her real life she has seen more life at her age then most women of fifty. Sin Takes A Holiday is a story made to order for this talented young lady. From the opening scenes to the final fadeout the audience was kept constantly on the qui-vive, and it was voted as one of the most important screen offerings seen here in many months.

The story deals with a plain girl secretary of a rich philandering lawyer, who persuades her to marry him in order that he might escape the attentions of a designing woman. There is no love wasted between them, and the husband agrees to pay her $5,000 a year and maintain her in fine style in Paris. She goes there for her honeymoon and creates a sensation when she blossoms out as a woman of wealth, fashion and beauty. She later returns to her husband and her changed appearance brings the husband to his knees at her feet. The story is entertaining and there are numerous thrilling scenes.

Coming Wednesday another of those double feature bills that has the town talking, new pictures played here before the big cities, and double bills when most houses play them singly. Brothers, with Bert Lytell and Truth About Youth, with Loretta Young.

"MOTHER" JONES GROWS APPRECIABLY WEAKER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. — (AP) — Mary (Mother) Jones, 100-year-old friend of labor who is slowly dying at her home in nearby Maryland, today was unconscious and appreciably weaker than yesterday.

Her physician said [illegible] was unable to predict how long [illegible] might continue her hold on life [illegible] has not taken solid food for [illegible].

The Presidio of San Francisco was established as a military reservation by Spain on March 28, 1776.

A Friend to Those in Need!

Thee Salvation Army Store will open Monday with a complete line of Second Hand Clothing, Furniture, etc. 14 Main Street.

with every GE Radio we sell

To The Purchaser IMPORTANT Open and Read Carefully

The GENERAL ELECTRIC CERTIFIED INSPECTION PLAN

It is our aim that everyone who purchases a General Electric FULL RANGE Radio from us will feel completely satisfied with the performance of his set. We have enthusiastically endorsed the G-E Certified Inspection Plan because it assures us of your satisfaction and good-will.

The performance of General Electric FULL RANGE Radio is one of the outstanding happenings in radio. The Certified Inspection Plan assures this splendid performance—and appoints you the sole judge of that satisfaction.

Take the earliest possible opportunity of hearing this new type receiver with its FULL RANGE Sensitivity, FULL RANGE Selectivity and FULL RANGE Tone—and hear all the details of the G-E Certified Inspection Plan.

Any G-E Radio may be bought on the Budget Payment Plan . . . Come in!

THE LOWBOY (as illustrated)—9-tube, Screen-Grid Super-Heterodyne. Fitted with local-distant switch. Remote control available at additional cost. Brown walnut cabinet, satin finished. Early American design. Price $142.50 less tubes.

Other G-E Radio Models
The Studio Lowboy $112.50 less tubes
The Highboy $179.50 less tubes
The Radio Phonograph Combination $285.00 less tubes

GENERAL ELECTRIC FULL RANGE RADIO

FERGUSON'S
189 MAIN STREET, NORWICH, CONN.

Christmas Buying Made Easy—

Your Principal Christmas Gift

BRUNSWICK RADIO

A gift the entire family will enjoy. Provides a world of entertainment the year 'round. A receiver that includes all the new features in a cabinet that is a joy forever. A gift decidedly worth while.

Model 15
Screen-grid radio receiver with completely Armored Chassis, Uni-Selector, Rigid Tuning Scale, and Tone Control

Model 15
Cabinet of selected butt Walnut 43 inches high, 23¾ inches wide, and 14½ inches deep. Electrically operated throughout.
Price, $139.50 less tubes.

The BRUNSWICK CHRISTMAS GIFT CLUB provides a way

A small deposit made weekly provides the down payment on this super-entertainer at Christmas. Balance on terms to suit your convenience.

Ask Us About It

FERGUSON'S
189 MAIN STREET, NORWICH, CONN.

The New Edison Radio

with the famous Flash-O-Matic tuning feature. Beauty of tone, beauty of case—a product of the Edison laboratories. Nothing finer to be had in radio. Demonstration in your home gladly given. Ask us today.

Gilbert Furniture Co
68 B'DWAY PHONE 1602
Good Furniture Since 1861

TOYLAND ON SECOND FLOOR

REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN.

GIFT SHOP, SHANNON BUILDING ANNEX

Christmas Gloves
For Every Occasion
$2.95

If she is fastidious about her dress she will love this collection of new gloves. Pull-on and one-clasp style suede and glace kid gloves in white, silver grey, orient, walnut and foam. For afternoon or street wear.

— MAIN FLOOR —

Daytime Dresses
In the Latest Winter Lines
$15.00

They have a long, graceful line, no longer than the middle calf length. They have the novel sleeve treatment, the Russian tunic, the draped or one-sided collars. They consist of velvets, flat crepes, lace, georgette crepes, wool crepes, and a few evening gowns. We have an assortment of sizes and colors.

New Coats

Made of fine quality broadcloth, fur trimmed, colors of black, brown and green—$21.75

— MAIN FLOOR ANNEX —

A Gift That Is Most Acceptable
SILK HOSIERY

Ruby Ring Full Fashioned Service Weight Silk Hose with lisle tops. Runs will not go below Ruby Ring Run Stop. In the leading shades of Bahama, promenade, almora, basque, brown, Florida, and light and dark gun metal—Pair $1.65

— MAIN FLOOR —

ADIRONDA and LUCERNE SPORTSWEAR

Introduced last season by Merode and now recognized as essential to the wardrobe of the modern outdoor sport loving miss and matron. Adironda is a pure silk and wool fabric, while Lucerne is rayon, cotton and worsted. Prices range from $1.69 to $3.50

— MAIN FLOOR —

THE "MODERN MISS" BAG
$5.00

Just lift up the flap and then the mirror and there is room for twelve of your favorite cigarettes. This is very compact and convenient. Colors of black, brown, and green calf with matching lining at $5.00.

— MAIN FLOOR —

Give Her Silk Lingerie for Christmas

And buy it now! Dance Sets, Step-ins, Panties and Chemise. Beautiful pure silk dye crepes and lustrous crepe-back satin underthings, the kind that are precious to all women. Some rich with laces, others with touches of embroidery. Colors of peach, flesh, nile, and blue.
$1.95

— MAIN FLOOR

RAIN TODAY; SNOW,
COLDER TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., MONDAY, DEC. 1, 1930

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, Dec. 1, 1930

THE WEATHER.

Conditions.

A disturbance that was central over Arkansas Saturday night has moved rapidly northeastward to northern Quebec. Pressure is high south of Newfoundland. During the last 24 hours rains have occurred over practically all sections east of the Mississippi river. The weather has become considerably warmer in the Atlantic states.

The outlook is for normally fair weather in the Washington forecast district, except for local showers in the lower lake region, the Southern Ohio valley and northern New England Monday. It will be colder Monday over practically all of the Washington district and the upper lake region and the North Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Northwest winds, probably gale force at times. Weather overcast Monday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Strong northwest wind with weather overcast with rain Monday.

Forecast

For southern New England: Rain in early morning probably changing to snow in western Massachusetts; Tuesday snow and colder.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Sunday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	34	30.70
12 m.	46	30.60
6 p. m.	50	30.20

Highest, 50; lowest, 34.

Comparisons

Predictions for Sunday: Cloudy and warmer, followed by light rain.

Sunday's weather: Cloudy, warmer, southwest wind, rain in evening.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises a. m.	Sun Sets p. m.	High Water a. m.	Moon Rises a. m.
1	6.55	4.19	6.30	2.06
2	6.55	4.19	7.10	3.10
3	6.56	4.19	7.49	4.19
4	6.57	4.19	8.28	5.29
5	6.58	4.19	9.09	rises
6	6.59	4.19	9.52	4.38
7	7.00	4.19	10.36	5.46

Six hours after high ater it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Polish National church on Golden street, the dedication of 40 new stained glass windows artistically colored and designed with religious emblems, with two statues, which were all donated by the parishioners, was celebrated by Bishop V. Gawrychowski, of Chicopee, Mass., bishop of the eastern diocese. The ceremony opened with a procession of the acolytes from the rectory to the altar of the church. In line were members of the ladies' and young girls' societies of the parish. The ladies and girls carried candles and the members of the choir chanted hymns during the procession.

At the church, Rt. Rev. Bishop Gawrychowski delivered the sermon of the day, using for his topic, "What was the Spiritual Power of the First Christian Church?" The bishop then asked the congregation if the church was built upon the powers of vast wealth or of social influence or great intelligence or education? He stated it was not, for Christ had selected the apostles who did not possess any of these great powers. Christ's church was built with faith as its foundation. Other marks of the church are that we must be loyal to His ideals of love and hope that His truths must prevail. He said that it was proof that the love of the parishioners prevailed in this parish for all the good that had been accomplished since the organizing of the parish 10 years ago they had done as tributes to God.

When the church started with only a handful of parishioners, there was much opposition and many told that the idea would never be put across. But today, since the erection of this House of God, the ranks of this church have multiplied wonderfully through the fine cooperation that has been given the present pastor, Rev. Father Lesniak, and predecessors.

The bishop spoke words of praise of the achievements since the pastorate was taken over by Rev. Father Lesniak and wished that his success would continue. The bishop then stated that the Church of Christ knew that the Christians were not perfect, that they would err, which in this case means sin, so in order for the people to make amends with God for the errors He instituted the sacrament of penance by which you abolish the worries and tribulations. Penance is confession of the wrong which has been done, both spiritually and bodily.

Following the bishop's address, vespers was celebrated by Rev. Father Miklaszewski, of New London, after which the following donors of the gifts were called to the altar and received the bishop's blessing: (14 large windows) Ladies' society of church, Society of St. Peter and St. Paul, Polish National union, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kornacki, Mr. and Mrs. S. Siemak, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Powichrowski, Mr. and Mrs. P. Sucharzewski, Mr. and Mrs. A. Szusta and Mr. and Mrs. F. Bowa, Mr. and Mrs. W. Pololak and J. Kuczenski, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gromka and Mr. and Mrs. B. Gromka, Mrs. Wiktorja Bzdel, John Rydel, Michael Golemiewski; three windows above the altar, by the members of the church board of trustees; eight smaller windows by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grajek, Girls' society of the church, Boys' society of church, K. Jablowski, P. Sienkowski, Mr. and Mrs. E. Laskiewicz and Mr. and Mrs. J. Soran, Mrs. E. Rynkiewicz, S. Mokrzewski; other windows by J. Niewiarowski, Mrs. J. Nowacka, Mrs. Kozlawska (2), F. Biederko, A. Zieziulka, Mr. and Mrs. S. Glowski (2), Mrs. M. Gromko, A. Milewski, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Dytko, Mrs. A. Andruszkiewicz, S. Rozanski, Miss Cecelia Walisiewicz and J. Bigos; two statues, one of St. Joseph and the other of the Saviour, by Mr. and Mrs. J. Zachara.

The musical program for the services was in charge of the church organist, Miss Helen Kordeiska, who prepared a very elaborate musical program. A large attendance was present at the services, including people from New London, New Haven, Westerly and Providence, Mystic, and other places.

Miss Mary Mallon, a student nurse at St. Joseph's hospital, is spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mallon, on Convent avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Higgins were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Higgins' aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gay, on Eleventh street.

Edward Webber, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, on Prospect street.

John McClafferty, of Southbridge, spent the week-end at his home on Hickory street.

Edward Connelly at Radio Station

It was reported that Edward T. Connelly, a local singer, will sing tonight over the radio from a Hartford station. Mr. Connelly is well known throughout the state for his fine singing. Mr. Connelly has appeared in many local amateur and professional plays and his appearances were always welcomed and heartily received.

MASSAPEAG MAN, DESPONDENT, ENDS LIFE WITH RIFLE SHOT

With a gaping hole torn in the left chest, by a self-inflicted bullet, plainly exposing the heart to view, Thomas Gould, 70 years of age, of Massapeag, lived for three hours, dying at the Backus hospital about 2.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Despondency is thought to have been the cause of the elderly man's self-destruction.

Using a high powered rifle, Gould, who for nine years had been employed by S. J. Colt at Massapeag, shot himself in the cellar of the Colt residence. Dr. James J. Donohue, of this city, called by telephone, responded immediately and the dying man was rushed to the W. W. Backus hospital in the ambulance, on the physician's orders.

The discharge from the gun tore away a section of three of the ribs, and one lung, completely exposing the heart. The hole left by the bullet was about four inches in length and three inches in width. In a vain attempt to save the man's life Dr. Donohue performed a remarkable operation, completely closing the wound, but the shock, due to his terrible injuries, was too much for the aged victim, who was claimed by death about 2.30 o'clock.

Medical Examiner C. C. Gildersleeve was notified of the man's death and after an investigation the body was given in charge of Undertaker C. A. Gager.

Mr. Gould, as far as known, had no relatives in this city. It is thought that he had relatives in New Jersey and an effort was being made Sunday to locate them and inform them of his death. He was a moulder by trade and for years was employed at the plant of the Richmond Radiator Co. He had been more or less despondent for several months, it is said.

UNITED SONG SERVICE IN WILLIMANTIC CHURCH

In spite of the rainy weather, the Ebenezer Lutheran church on Oak street, Willimantic, was filled Sunday night for the special service of song held at 7:15. This was a combined service of the church at Willimantic and the Salem Lutheran church of Norwich, and so a great many drove up from Norwich for the occasion. The combined choirs of the two congregations were heard in two groups of anthems, the first a Thanksgiving group and the second dealing with Advent. A male quartet consisting of Walter Pierson, Richard Pearson, Elmer Pierson and Arthur Ellison sang two numbers. The accompanist for the evening was Miss Edna Hanson. A short sermon fitting the Advent season and entitled "Preparations" was given by Rev. E. Eina Kron. The following was the order of service:

Hymn, congregation; song, Naught Have I Gotten but What I Received (Towner), male quartet; opening liturgy for vesper services; anthems: Sing to the Lord of Harvest (Haydn), It Is a Good Thing to Give Thanks; vocal solo, Jerusalem (Parker), Pastor Kron; song, Sunrise in Heaven (Basset), male quartet; hymn, congregation; sermonette, "Preparations," Pastor Kron; anthems: Hark, the Glad Sound (Pond), Arise, the Kingdom is at Hand (Handel); offertory; hymn, congregation; benediction.

This is doubtless the first of a series of such joint meetings, as several present expressed the hope that such services might be held often. The offering that was taken was divided between the two choirs for the purchase of new music.

BAR ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE TO PICK FEDERAL JUDGE

Attorney Charles B. Whittlesey of New London is one of a committee of five, selected by the Connecticut Bar association to survey the field of candidates for appointment as federal judge to succeed Warren B. Burrows of Groton, who resigned the judgeship to make his successful run for election as attorney general. The other members of the bar committee are Attorneys Edward M. Day, Hartford, chairman; Terrence Carmody, Waterbury; Thomas Hewes, Farmington, and James E. Wheeler of New Haven.

It is said that it is planned to keep the federal judgeship out of politics and that both United States Senators Hiram Bingham and Frederick Walcott are ready to recommend whichever candidate receives the endorsement of the state bar association.

The most recent name to the presented in connection with the judgeship appointment is that of Judge William I. Larash of West Haven. His backers are making a vigorous campaign and are busy securing the recommendations of the leading barristers in the state for Judge Larash.

In New Haven county, however Judge Pierrepont B. Foster continues to lead the field and will, it appears, receive the appointment if a member of the bar of New Haven county is named. Much of Judge Foster's private practice has been devoted to federal work and because of his familiarity with it, he is considered a good choice.

From Waterbury comes the candidacy of Carol C. Hinks, who looms as a strong opponent of Judge Foster. He too, has considerable experience in federal court work, which increases his qualifications. The other candidate from New Haven is John C. Danaher, assistant district attorney, who while he has compiled an enviable record in the court, is seriously handicapped because of his youth.

From Hartford county, Henry H. Hunt of Glastonbury appears as the most formidable choice and if a Hartford attorney is to be named federal judge, undoubtedly he will be the one honored.

The appointment to the judgeship on the bench of the United States district court is one that is for life and carries with it a salary of $12,000 a year. The judge that is to be named will spend much of the time in New York sitting on cases in that city. The junior judge of the district court is the one who has usually been designated by Judge Martin Manton of the circuit court in New York to assist in the trying of liquor cases in that city.

DIES SUDDENLY WITH ACUTE INDIGESTION

William J. Pepin, 52, of Taftville, died suddenly there Sunday morning of acute indigestion. He had lived in Taftville for a number of years and is survived by a daughter and three sons.

Slight Injuries in Accident.

Miss Louise Bourget, 17, of 49 South Main street, Essex, who was injured in an automobile accident on Mohegan Hill Saturday night had but slight injuries, which consisted of lacerations of the face and she was discharged from the Backus hospital as soon as these had been treated there.

BRINGS $15,000 SUIT FOR AUTO CRASH INJURIES

One suit for damages in an automobile accident, and another for a lawyer's fee against his client are included in the new cases for the superior court in this county which have just been filed with Clerk John H. Walker and are returnable in December.

Mrs. Ella Minor of Lyme is the plaintiff in a $15,000 damage suit against Augustus H. Merritt of East Haven, who, she claims, was the owner and operator of an automobile which was in collision on Feb. 14 with a car driven by the plaintiff's husband in which she was a passenger. The collision was in the town of East Haddam near the intersection of a road with the Devil's Hopyard road. Mrs. Minor alleges that she sustained serious injuries.

Attorney Thomas M. Shields of this city has brought suit against Sarah E. Moran, Ellen Casey and Dr. W. B. Casey, all of this city, to collect a charge of $1,550 for legal service rendered in the case where Dr. Casey was arrested on the charge of manslaughter through an illegal operation in connection with the death of Leona M. Frechette, wife of Edward Frechette. Dr. Casey was arrested May 20, 1930, and the case eventually reached the superior court, where it was disposed of by an absolute nolle. The lawyer claims that he was employed by the defendants to act as attorney for Dr. Casey and defend him against the charges and that his services were worth the sum demanded.

A suit to quiet title to a farm located partly in the town of East Lyme and partly in the town of Montville has been brought by William and Mary Turksi of East Lyme against William Mazurkowitz of Montville. The latter claims an interest in the property.

DIVORCE SUITS BROUGHT IN SUPERIOR COURT

Two divorce suits are among the new cases filed in the superior court, returnable in December and filed here with Court Clerk John H. Walker.

Frank A. Repp of New London seeks divorce from Mary Dillon Repp of that city, whom he married Dec. 14, 1914. He alleges a statutory offense and asks the custody of two minor children.

Divorce, alimony and change of name are asked for by Lillian Russell Holly of Mystic in a suit brought against Charles Holly, also of that place. They were married Sept. 14, 1920, and she alleges intolerable cruelty.

DRIVING AUTOMOBILE WITH ANOTHER PERSON'S PLATES

When Officer Clifford Crary noticed Harold A. Flood of 218 Broad street driving an automobile in the city Sunday morning without a front number plate, the policeman's investigations disclosed that Flood was operating the car with number plates issued to some other car owner. He was accordingly arrested on this charge and is to appear in the city court Tuesday morning.

ROUNDED THAMES SQUARE BEACON WRONG WAY

Rounding the mushroom beacon in Thames square on the left side Sunday morning as he was turning an automobile to go from Thames street up the West Main street hill, Eugene L. Curtiss, colored, of New London, was stopped by Officer Clifford Crary and was found to be without his driver's license which he said he had left in the pocket of another coat than the one he was wearing.

Curtiss will appear in the city court to answer to a charge of violating the motor vehicle law.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merrill and son, Robert, of Providence street, were in Lawrence, Mass., to spend the holiday with relatives.

Leo Gladue, who spent Thanksgiving and the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hormidas Gladue and family, of Providence street, has returned to his studies at Assumption college, Worcester, Mass.

After a few days' visit with Axel L. Aberg of North Third avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Pingree and their daughter, Miss Lois Charlotte Pingree, have returned to their home in Saylesville, R. I.

The Home department of the Taftville Congregational church school met Friday evening in the church parlors and vestry. After a short business session conducted by the supervisor, Mrs. Fred Ince, there was a sewing period for the William W. Backus hospital. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Pilling, Mrs. John W. Seddon, Mrs. Percy Seddon, Mrs. Adam Seidel, Mrs. George Simino and Mrs. Christopher Troeger.

Having spent the holiday and week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lemoine, of Norwich avenue, Austin Lemoine, Jr., has returned to St. John's school, Danvers, Mass., where he is a student.

Wilfred Linderson, who has been spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Linderson, of North Third avenue, has returned to Bridgeport. While here Mr. Linderson visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Vergason of North Stonington, and had with him Mahlon E. Wood, of North Third avenue.

Richard Peltier has returned to Assumption college, Worcester, Mass., after a few days' stay in town at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peltier of Providence street.

Mrs. Rudolph Gley and her daughter, Miss Helen Gley, of New Bedford, Mass., have returned home after spending some time at the home of the former's father, Edward Meyer, and her brother, Edward Meyer, Jr., of Norwich avenue.

Mrs. Ezilda Belhumeur and her daughter, Mrs. Sophie Cloutier of Norwich avenue, have been visiting Peter Cloutier who is a patient at the Central Islip hospital in New York.

When the monthly business meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians was held last week at their rooms on Merchants avenue, Mrs. William J. Malone, the president, was in charge. Routine business was transacted, and reports showed the auxiliary to be in good financial standing. Election of officers was held, and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Susie H. Malone; vice president, Mrs. Mary W. Breault; recording secretary, Miss May Nolan; financial secetary, Miss Nora Murphy; mistress-at-arms, Mrs. Loretta W. Bouchard; sentinel, Mrs. Sarah M. Nolan; chairman of the standing committee, Miss Mary H. Murphy; chairman of the committee on Irish history, Miss Catherine Malone. The officers are planning to go to New London in January to assist at the joint installation of officers.

Rev. and Mrs. William Penner and daughter, Amy, of South Second avenue, have returned from a motor trip to Maine.

Rene Paradis has resumed his studies at Assumption college, Worcester, Mass., after spending the Thanksgiving holiday and week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Paradis and family of South A street.

Because of the holiday, the regular meeting and rehearsal of the Wequonnoc school orchestra was omitted last week.

William Larochelle of Providence street and Lewis A. Aberg, of North A street, were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ott of Maplewood.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Seddon were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey and Miss Mabel Hodgkinson of Fanning avenue, Norwich.

The Wequonnoc school resumes sessions this (Monday) morning after having been closed since Wednesday noon for the annual Thanksgiving recess.

Mrs. Albert Vetter and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Vetter, have returned from spending the holiday in Hartford.

GIRLS CITY CLUB HAS GROUP FOR INITIATION

The next meeting of the Girls City club, under the auspices of the Women's City club, promises to be very interesting, as it is expected that over 20 girls, who have applied for membership in the club since the opening meeting early in the fall, will be initiated as members in the club. The girls who were members last year will hold a special meeting during the coming week to plan the initiation ceremony, and the director of the club urges that all girls who have applied for membership be present, as there will be no initiation ceremony for another two months.

Last Friday night the regular weekly meeting of the club was held and the question box, the new feature announced last week, proved most interesting. A recreation period followed a short business session. The sewing and dramatic classes, which meet on Tuesday night at the clubroom, continue in splendid interest and attendance.

BOY SCOUTS ENJOY MOVING PICTURE AT Y

About 100 Boy Scouts attended the Sunday afternoon service at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30, according to the local Boy Scout headquarters. The picture entitled "Deerslayer" was quite old and to the older members of the audience was reminiscent of the silent pictures made before the war. The story taught the moral that the white men in dealing with the Indians tried on the one hand to teach forgiveness of wrongs and brotherhood and on the other hand too often stole his lands and shot the braves without sufficient justification.

Secretary Edwin Hill called upon some Scout to volunteer to give some of the traits that an Indian possessed which Boy Scouts should possess. Scout Bradford Spicer volunteered with a few remarks saying that the Indian was trustworthy, loyal, brave, and reverent, but that a Scout tried to be a little more than that, in being helpful, friendly, courteous, kind and clean.

NORWICH TOWN

Wolf Patrol Score High.

The John Mason Troop 2, Boy Scouts, connected with the Norwich Town Methodist Episcopal church, held a meeting Friday night with an attendance of 15. The Wolf Patrol under the leadership of Leon Ladd made the largest score, bringing their total in the interpatrol contest from 334 to 384. A special drill period was put on by Bugler Edward Jordan, son of Major Jordan of the United States army, he was assisted by Patrol Leader Clayton Rose, Senior Patrol Leader Donald Olsen had charge of the song period and in the opening ceremony Scouts Woodruff Sullivan and John Laskowski assisted the scoutmaster, Rev. George Warren Potter.

Cubs Hear Camp Fire Stories.

Wolf Cub Pack, connected with the Methodist church held a meeting Saturday morning with an attendance of 17. The boys squatted around the camp fire and enjoyed Indian and ghost stories. The pack was inspected by the assistant Cubmaster, Edward Jordan, who also led in the song period. The setting-up exercise, "A Day at Camp," was in charge of the cubmaster, Rev. George Warren Potter. A number of the Cubs gave a report of progress on their totem poles. The meeting closed as the Cubs stood at salute, in the glow of the camp fire while the bugler, Ellis Bentley, played Taps.

"The Devil's Disciple."

Sunday night in the Methodist church the pastor, Rev. George Warren Potter gave a drama-sermon based on Bernard Shaw's play, "The Devil's Disciple." The text was St. John 15:13, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." The play tells the story of a mother, Mrs. Dudgeon, who believes that self-denial will save her soul. She makes her home miserable and unhappy. Her son, Dick, declares that if his mother represents religion, then he is the devil's disciple. In the last act he was even going to his death to save his mother. He had within him the spirit of Christ, rather than being the Devil's disciple.

At the morning service the pastor preached on the theme, "Thorns," taking three texts, Genesis 3:18, Isaiah 55 and St. John 19. A duet, "Whispering Hope," was sung by Vivian Ward and Florence Gembel. The vested choir sang, under the leadership of Mrs. Lewis H. Aldrich. Theodore M. Brown wa sthe leader at the C. E. meeting. Her most interesting talk was on the topic, "Our Responsibility to Spread the Gospel."

When the Drop-in class of the First Congregational Sunday school, Mrs. Frank S. Wheeler president, held a pound party recently in the chapel, there was a good-sized company present and quite a sum was realized from the goods auctioned off. These comprised mostly groceries and fruit. John L. Browning and Charles Barber were the auctioneers for the various pound packages brought in, each person attending having contributed something that weighed one pound. During the evening, ice cream and cake were on sale, in charge of Mrs. David M. Dean, chairman of the supper committee of this class, assisted by others. A playlet, When the Lights Went Out, was put on by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barber. Other numbers on the program were: A vocal duet, When You and I Were Young, Maggie, by Mrs. Wilfrid M. Wilton, soprano, and Mrs. Orrin F. Merry, alto, with Miss Louise Sterry piano accompanist; Miss Anna Wilton contributed two songs, Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, and Old Black Joe. She also was accompanied by Miss Sterry.

First Church Interests

Included in the large congregation at the First Congregational church Sunday morning were several from other places, among them former members and absent members, many of whom had returned to Norwich Town for the holiday and week-end from various colleges, business employments, etc. Places represented were: California, New York, Boston, Providence, Middletown, Willimantic and Portland, Conn. The pastor, Rev. Wilfrid M. Wilton, prior to the service conducted a religious service at Norwich State hospital, Brewster's Neck, at 9 o'clock. At the Norwich Town church, Rev. Mr. Wilton, who preached "On the Coming of the Kingdom," read the Scripture lesson from Luke 17, from the 20th to the 37th verse, inclusive. His text was "Not to here, or to there: but the Kingdom of God is in the midst of you." Luke 17:21.

"Our Responsibility to Spread the Gospel," with Scripture references in I Corinthians and Romans was the theme assigned to the Young People's C. E. service Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry T. Frazier will be hostess Wednesday evening to Ever Ready circle of the King's Daughters, at its next meeting.

Walter Murphy, a freshman at Bryant-Stratton college, Providence, spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Murphy, of West Town street.

Harold Cummings, student at Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs has been passing a few days at his home on West Town street during the holiday recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Young, of Norwich Town, had with them for Thanksgiving and the week-end their son, Daniel Young, Jr., from Tufts Medical college, Boston.

Sidney P. Smith, designing engineer for a large Boston firm, returned to that city Sunday afternoon, having spent the holiday recess with his family on Washington street. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Eleanor Smith, a student at Boston university, who also came home for the Thanksgiving season.

Guests at Occum

Former Norwich Town residents Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, of Occum, entertained a family dinner party on the holiday, which included Mrs. Bell's son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph F. Cobb, and daughter, Miss Avis Cobb, of South Windham, also Mr. Bell's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. W. Tyler Browne, of Broadway, Norwich.

$50,000
Millbrook Woolen Mills, Inc.
7 per cent Cumulative Preferred Stock
SHARES $100.00 EACH
Dividend Dates — January 1; April 1; July 1; October 1.

The citizens of Norwich are invited to subscribe for one, two, five, ten or as many shares as may be desired and thereby help make possible the re-opening of the old Yantic Woolen Mill Company Plant

For convenience subscription blanks may be secured from
The Thames Bank and Trust Co.
The Uncas-Merchants National Bank and
James L. Case, 40 Shetucket St.

GRANGE MEETING WITH REPORT FROM ROCHESTER

At the last regular meeting of Norwich grange, No. 172, held in Grange hall, with Worthy Master Albert W. Lillibridge presiding, the programme opened with a song by the grange, followed by an original paper, Barrel Burning, by Mrs. Elizabeth Murray; Thanksgiving hymn by quartette, Mrs. Ida Richardson, Mrs. Amy Coles, Mr. Beebe, Mr. Whipple, and an interesting paper, From King Tut to the Present Time, by F. S. Armstrong. After a round, Are You Sleeping, by the grange, the programme concluded with Mrs. Richardson's interesting report of her trip to the national conference held at Rochester, N. Y. Refreshments of squash pie, cheese and coffee were served by Division B.

At the next grange meeting a home economics programme is to be in charge of Sister Browning and as there is to be a class in the first and second degrees the meeting will begin at 7 o'clock. All who are in the contest on pressed flowers are to have them ready for this night to be judged.

Norwich grange has received and accepted an invitation for neighbors' night with Groton grange on Dec. 12.

SLEPT ON RECTORY PORCH WITH POLICE DOG WATCHING

When Zenow Senkanec was found asleep in an intoxicated condition Saturday night on the porch of the rectory of St. Andrews' Episcopal church on Eleventh street, the police had a problem to get him away from there because a big police dog was on guard. Senkanec was wrapped up in his sheepskin coat, the dog lay there with him. Sergeant Matthew Delaney and Officers Crary and Wojkiewicz had to do considerable maneuvering before they were able to get Senkanec into an automobile without the dog in order to bring the man to police headquarters where he was booked on the charge of intoxication.

CONGREGATION FILLS CHURCH TO HEAR FISK SINGERS

A congregation that came close to filling the Central Baptist church attended the service Sunday evening when a programme of Negro Spirituals was given by the Fisk jubilee singers, who came here under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association.

The group of six singers, two tenors, a soprano, an alto and two basses, who have made four tours of Europe, held the congregation in thrilled admiration as the rich harmonies of the chorus supplemented the excellent solo work in the style typical of Negro religious melodies. Each number was imbued with a fervor and feeling that made the hour one of worship on the wings of song.

The numbers given were: Live a Humble, Nobody Knows de Trouble I See, Everytime I Feel the Spirit, Golden Slippers, Wish I'se in Heaven Settin' Down, Little David Play on Your Harp, Go Tell it on the Mountains, My Soul is a Witness, John the Revelator, Ain't That Good News, I Want Two Wings, Great Camp Meeting, Mighty Lak' A Rose, Kentucky Home. By request the singers added several extra numbers, including Swing Low Sweet Chariot.

Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt pronounced the benediction at the close of the service, a collection having been taken after an announcement by General Secretary Edwin Hill of the Y. M. C. A.

MOOSE CONFER INITIATION ON FOURTEEN CANDIDATES

A class of 14 candidates was initiated Sunday afternoon at Moose home by Norwich lodge of Moose, No. 950, the degree work being exemplified by Dictator August Kopp and Vice Dictator Charles Shermon, both of New London lodge. After the initiation a number of the visitors spoke and Dictator Bernard Wunderlick announced that the lodge would have a turkey supper on New Year's eve free to all mebers. Prelate Robert Sterry spoke of the progress Norwich lodge is making, and Vice Dictator George Embach spoke briefly of Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

"Supper was served to about 200, Chef Henry Couture having charge and a programme by th eNutmeg Entertainers was heartily applauded and pronounced first class. Inside Guard Harry Smith was in charge of the entertainment programme. Members were present from Wauregan, New London, New Haven, Westerly, and Providence. Alex Kaminsky was master of ceremonies.

LUCKIES CLUB MAKES GIFT TO PRIZE WINNING MEMBER

The annual election of officers of the Luckies club of North Stonington was held at the home of Miss Merle Elias. The following officers were elected:

President, Anna Bergius; vice president, Kathryn Thompson; secretary, Lucile Wheeler; treasurer, Jean Hart; club reporter, Anna Gray; music committee, Ruth Cryder; social committee, Ruth Hart and Merle Elias.

The outline of work for the coming year was discussed. It was decided that for the next meeting each girl should make a Christmas gift.

A manicure set and case was presented Miss Vivi Bergius, the former club president who has won the county and state dress contests and is now making a trip to Chicago to compete in the National 4-H club dress contest.

The next club meeting will be held December 8 at the home of Kathryn Thompson.

Few Mine Fatalities

PARIS (AP)—Mining fatilities in the Saar region of France are the lowest of any mining district in the world.

For Your Next Breakfast
Eat Our
Home Made
PORK SAUSAGE or
SAUSAGE MEAT
100% Pure
40c per lb.
THUMM'S
Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street

Getting Your Money's Worth

is a habit easily formed at A & P Stores. A & P customers soon find out that while spending less they are getting more.

That's because A & P gives consumers all the savings that come from its large operations.

Double Tip Matches	6 PKGS	17c
Palmolive Soap	5 CAKES	29c
Whitehouse Milk TALL	3 CANS	23c
Gorton's Codfish	PKG	23c
Quaker Maid Beans	4 NO. 2 CANS	25c
A & P Corn	2 CANS	25c
Mello-wheat	PKG	17c
Pillsbury's Bran	PKG	16c
CHIPSO	lge pkg	20c
VIRGINIA SWEET SYRUP	bot	23c
VIRGINIA SWEET PANCAKE FLOUR	pkg	11c
VIRGINIA SWEET BUCKWHEAT FLOUR	pkg	14c
A & P SUCCOTASH	can	21c
PRINCE ALBERT TOBACCO	2 cans	25c
FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST	cake	3c
SCOTT TISSUE	roll	10c
SULTANA MOLASSES	gal jug	$1.19
ALL GUMS	8 pkgs	25c
CHAMPION FLAKE BUTTERS	lb tin	18c
A&P PEARS	No. 2½ can	23c

CORNED BEEF Fancy Brisket or Thick Rib, lb. 25c Middle Rib, lb. 15c
SHOULDERS Fresh Corned or Smoked lb. 17c
LAMB CHOPS Boneless Rib and Kidney TUESDAY SPECIAL lb 39c
STEAK WEDNESDAY SPECIALS Sirloin lb. 39c Porterhouse lb. 49c
FISH Sliced Halibut .... lb. 39c
Fresh Haddock Fillet .... lb. 23c

COFFEE
BOKAR LB TIN 33c
RED CIRCLE LB 29c
EIGHT O'CLOCK LB 25c

F 12-1/6

THE ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO

A & P FOOD STORES OF NEW ENGLAND

URBAN'S
UP AN UP
SELF RISING CAKE FLOUR

FREE
A Modern CUP CAKE TIN with each package
AT ALL GROCERS

No other Flour compares with
UP AN UP
FOR MARVELOUS BISCUITS AND CAKE

Norwich 1790 1930 Bulletin

VOL. LXXII—No. 288 NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1930—12 PAGES CIRCULATION MORNING AND EVENING 19,049 PRICE TWO CENTS

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS SEEKING ORDERLY PROGRAM

As 71st Congress Reassembled For the Concluding Short Session Police Were Engaged in Dispersing Communist Demonstrators on the Plaza of the Capitol—Business Will Be in Order in Both Senate and House Today—President's Message is Expected at Noon—Action On Seating Of Senator-Elect Davis Confronts the Senate—Representative Tilson is Ready to Begin Night Sessions With a View to Cleaning Up All Controversies—Bill Was Introduced in the House to Block All Immigration From Russia Permanently

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Turmoil prevailed both inside and outside the capitol today as the election-torn ranks of the 71st congress reassembled for the concluding short session.

While communists battled police on the capitol plaza and congress went through its brief opening formalities, harassed party leaders inside were striving to work out of a jumbled legislative docket an orderly program that could be completed by March 4.

The only unanimity, however, appeared to be on drought and unemployment relief legislation.

The first measure proposed dealt with drought relief. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, who yesterday assured President Hoover of support for a bi-partisan relief program, introduced a $60,000,000 drought relief bill and republicans in the house and senate hastened to advance similar legislation.

But the organization of the public buildings, road construction and drought relief programs awaits the recommendations to be submitted to congress tomorrow by President Hoover.

Among the other perplexities that arose as congress met was whether Senator-elect Davis of Pennsylvania will be seated. Mr. Davis failed to put in his appearance and the senate ceremonies were over in 20 minutes.

To the solution of this controversy and the problem of what to do with the world court protocol which President Hoover has decided to submit to the senate, the republican leadership bent itself in conference tonight.

With these two troublesome propositions and that of Muscle Shoals ahead, leaders were still dubious of their ability to forestall an extra session in the spring.

Representative Tilson, of Connecticut, the republican leader, announced he was ready to begin night sessions with a view to clearing up all controversies.

Ignoring the demonstration by the communists, early crowds filled the galleries in the senate and house to watch the opening. Animosities of the campaign, together with its joys and sorrows for the membership, seemed forgotten by the congressional hosts as the galleries looked down.

Formal attire was absent. The members slapped each other on the back and exchanged greetings like school boys. At noon, Speaker Longworth and Vice-President Curtis rapped their gavels but each had to pound several times before they could make themselves heard.

After the prayers of the chaplains and the opening roll calls, newly elected members were sworn in to complete unexpired terms. A committee including the republican and democratic leaders of each branch was sent to the white house to inform President Hoover that congress was in session.

Business will be the order in both the senate and house tomorrow. The president's message is expected at noon.

There is every likelihood of an immediate showdown then over the right of Davis to the seat which the senate a year ago denied to William S. Vare.

Chairman Nye of the campaign funds investigating committee has drafted a resolution to deny Mr. Davis the oath of office pending further inquiry into expenditures in his primary campaign.

In addition to Davis, Senator-elect Dwight W. Morrow, of New Jersey, failed to appear to take the seat left vacant by Walter E. Edge, the ambassador to France. His credentials will be ready on Wednesday, when it is understood he will appear to be sworn.

On the house side, Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the majority leader, called a meeting of the unofficial steering committee for tomorrow morning to map out a legislative program.

Tilson said plans had been laid to expedite action on the annual supply bills and emergency unemployment legislation. Speeding up of public buildings and highway construction would be among the proposals for immediate unemployment relief, he said.

He added that disposal of Muscle Shoals would be a privileged matter in the house after the conference committee reports.

Tilson said he was opposed to the principle of government operation and would like to see it sold. He added that he wanted to see it developed "because it is one of the great resources of the south and the people are entitled to it."

RELIEF MEASURES CALL FOR BILLIONS OF DOLLARS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Unemployment and drought relief bills of varied context, proposing the expenditure of billions of dollars, were introduced or prepared today for introduction as congress opened.

The most comprehensive plan for drought relief was proposed by Democratic Leader Robinson, in the senate, in a bill which would authorize President Hoover to take control of the wheat purchased by the federal farm board and distribute it for seed and food necessary for making crops next year.

Robinson's bill, introduced on his own responsibility but after a conference with the president yesterday, also would authorize $60,000,000 for seed, feed and fertilizer loans to farmers; authorize loans of $5,000,000 to drought stricken states for highways other than those aided by the usual federal funds, and provide

(Continued on Page Nine)

EXPECT 50 WITNESSES TO TESTIFY AGAINST GARRETT

BOSTON, Dec. 1—(AP)—The legal machinery of Suffolk county moved today to insure early trial of Oliver B. Garrett, former police liquor raider, who surrendered this morning after a five months' hideout. Date for the opening of the trial would be set in a few days, District Attorney William T. Foley, said.

Operatives communicated with many of the more than 50 witnesses expected to testify against Garrett. Garrett is charged with extortion and larceny in several counts as well as for default of a total of $13,000 bail. The trial Foley said, was certain to open in the December session of the court.

Quite unlike the debonair and gay Garrett who led the liquor squad in sensational raids over a period of about six years, the defendant today appeared pale and lacking in humor. He spent much of his time in the detention pen conversing with William H. Corrigan, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was held on charges of breaking, entering and forgery. To other prisoners, Garrett gave cigarettes on request but had little to say.

He declined several times to discuss the incidents of his five months evasion of police to newspapermen who knew him intimately when he was called the "czar" of the liquor squad.

FAMILIES DRIVEN FROM SUBURBS OF PARIS BY FLOODS

PARIS, Dec. 1—(AP)—The flooding Seine oozed into the tunnels under the Invalides railway station this afternoon, flooding the tracks and suspending all service, Traffic was diverted to other stations. The river was higher than at any time since 1924 and there was a probability that an even greater menace was approaching as the tributaries poured more muddy water down from the north.

The rain had stopped for the first time in several days.

OBITUARY

Jesse Smith

WATERBURY, Dec. 1—(AP)—Jesse Smith, 77, well known Litchfield county dairy farmer, died at his home in Bethlehem tonight. Mr. Smith had been a resident of Bethlehem for 42 years going there from Washington Conn., where he had been the manager of a creamery operating between Washington and New York. He was born in Greenville, N. C., and came to Washington a few years after his father had been killed as a soldier in the Civil war.

FAIL TO SETTLE STRIKE AT THE SCOTTISH COAL FIELDS

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Negotiations for settlement of the strike in the Scottish coal fields, where 70,000 of the 90,000 miners have quit work, failed today.

High hopes based on today's peace negotiations and news of their failure caused keen disappointment, Some anxiety was expressed lest the trouble extend to the South Wales district, where a shutdown on a gigantic scale was narrowly averted over the week end.

Thus far such abstentions from work as have occurred outside Scotland have been on a small scale, One that has created much concern is the refusal of half of 1,500 miners employed at a colliery at Trehafod, South Wales, to work owing to alleged communist agitation.

NEW CROSS-COUNTRY RECORD FLIGHT FOR WOMEN, 17 HOURS

BURBANK, Cal., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Flying faster than any woman has crossed the United States before and nearly as fast as man has traveled, Miss Ruth Nichols, Rye, N. Y., society woman, landed here today from New York in a flying time of 16 hours 59½ minutes.

She arrived at the United airport at 11.57 a. m., making the last 250 miles from Kingman Ariz., at 161 miles an hour.

Her time lowered by eight hours 44½ minutes the east-to-west record set recently by Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian aviatrix, Miss Nichols' flight was only slightly more than two hours slower than the speed mark Captain Frank M. Hawks set last August over a similar route.

DATE OF TRIAL OF THE EWALDS IS SET FOR JAN. 5

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—(AP)—A court jam created by the failure of a jury to agree on a verdict in the case of Martin J. Healy and Thomas J. Tommaney was partially cleared today by the setting of a new date for the trial of George F. Ewald and his wife.

Healy, a Tammany leader, Tommaney, Ewald, a former magistrate and Mrs. Ewald were indicted by the same grand jury on respective charges of selling and buying a judicial appointment.

The Ewalds were to have gone to trial Dec. 8 but when the jury which heard the trial of Healy and Tommaney failed to agree their retrial was set for that date. Today the trial of the Ewalds was moved up to Jan. 5.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

A man and a woman were killed and a young girl was seriously injured in a landslide near Half Moon Bay, Cal.

Col. Louis C. Scherer, 63, U. S. A., retired, veteran of two wars and an officer of the French Legion of Honor, died in New York.

Charles W. Buck, 81, retired attorney and formerly United States minister to Peru, died in Louisville, Ky., after a brief illness.

Fred Stewart, 14, of Fairview, Utah, sat on a tack fellow students had placed on his seat at school. Yesterday he died of blood poisoning.

Reunited with his first wife at Lynn, Mass., after a separation of 34 years, Edward T. Rush, 64, a carpenter, yesterday obtained a marriage license to rewed her.

President Hoover's policy of "complete conservation of government oil" and the steps taken to enforce it were sustained by the District of Columbia court of appeals.

Immediate additional expenditures involving more than $2,000,000 for locomotives, bridge and station construction will be made by the Reading Railway system.

Edward W. Varzecha, 10, playing in the street in Middletown, with other boys, was hit by a car yesterday noon and went to the hospital with a broken leg and internal hurts.

Bob French, 30, commercial airplane pilot, his wife, and their 8-year-old son were killed at Mitchell, S. D., when their plane side-slipped and crashed 400 feet to the earth.

Adrian Martineau, manager of the meat department in an Atlantic & Pacific store in Windsor, has been missing since Thanksgiving day and is the object of a police search.

A dread of the flashlight photographer, the public interviewer and cold weather was given as the reason John D. Rockefeller slipped away to the southland a day ahead of schedule.

Albert Savoy, 16, and his brother, Clarence, 14, drowned in the Kennebec river near Richmond, Me., when a flat-bottomed boat in which they were trying to cross the stream capsized.

Six of the ten silver foxes that escaped from the farm of Dr. Arthur Guildford in Torrington, Friday night, after three of his fox pens had been broken into by thieves have been recovered.

Three men instead of four will die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Thursday, night. Prison authorities said a month's reprieve had been granted Hyman Hirsch by Governor Roosevelt.

Oscar De Priest, Negro congressman from Illinois, criticized "class legislation" at a meeting in Camden, N. J., under auspices of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Harry C. Knight, of New Haven, president of the Southern New England Telephone Co., was last night given a floor clock as a token from the Telephone Employes' Association of Connecticut.

For the time being $30,000 worth of Christmas club checks are held up by the closing yesterday of the Central Fairfield Trust Co., under a restraining order of State Bank Commissioner Lester E. Shippee.

The Hamilton Chateau, restaurant and night club at North Bergen, N. J., was burned to the ground after Ernest Settkam, the porter, had been stuck up and robbed and the place looted by four armed men.

The Grand aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles announced in Kansas City that a bill for the creation of a federal industrial commission, sponsored by the organization, would be introduced soon in congress.

Willis Overton, famed outboard motor racer and holder of two world's championships, was forced to take to the cold waters of Norwalk harbor and swim a quarter of a mile to escape the flames of his burning boat.

A direct radio telegraph circuit between the United States and Czechoslovakia was opened yesterday by R. C. A. Communications, Inc., W. A. Winterbottom, vice-president of the corporation, announced.

William Robbins McCabe, 71, former state commissioner of banking and insurance, once democratic speaker of the house of the Delaware general assembly, died suddenly of paralysis at his home in Selbyville, Del.

Under the watchful eyes of 20 policemen and two assistant state's attorneys, the Newspaper Drivers' union at Chicago, in a special meeting, ousted Jack Barry, labor racketeer, from his post as secretary of the organization.

James R. Sheffield, former ambassador to Mexico, will sail today for Venezuela on the cruiser Northampton to present to the South American country a statue of Henry Clay, for which funds were provided by congress.

Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, returned to her pulpit at Angelus temple, Los Angeles, Sunday, after an illness of four months. The church was decorated with flowers and a great banner reading "Welcome home our sister."

Elmer S. Southwick, 65, of 441 St. Mary's avenue, the Bronx, New York, died suddenly in a downtown hotel in Providence. Medical Examiner William A. Magill declared death due to natural causes. Dr. Magill found $2,384 in the man's pocket.

Police of Oakland, Cal., were searching last night for the confederates of Frank E. Smith, shot to death when he tried to escape arrest as the leader of a band of robbers responsible for several sensational holdups over the west in recent years.

Lifting the ban against exportation of helium—the non-inflammable gas—to permit its use abroad for inflating dirigibles and balloons, is proposed in a bill being drafted by Representative Arentz, republican, Nevada, one of two engineers in the house.

Hindenburg Signs Bruening Pr[illegible]am

President of G[illegible]y Makes Financial R[illegible]m Part of the Law of the Reich

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—(AP)—With a stroke of his pen, Germany's venerable president, Paul Von Hindenburg, tonight declared the Bruening financial reform program part of the law of the reich.

In signing the decree promulgating the new laws, which Chancellor Heinrich Bruening and his cabinet have worked on for months in an effort to straighten out Germany's involved finances, the president resorted to the extraordinary powers of Article 48 of the constitution. This establishes a semi-dictatorship and can be legally invoked only "when public peace and safety are in danger."

The program recently received the approval of the reichsrat, or federal council, but the chance of its being passed by the reichstag—the principal legislative body—appeared so faint that the chancellor appealed to Von Hindenburg to use his constitutional right to go over the reichstag's head.

There is still another act to this financial drama. When the reichstag convenes Wednesday afternoon it will be confronted with the accomplished fact of the promulgation of the financial program.

Under the constitution the legislative body has a right to revoke this. But the chancellor is confident that the legislators who were unwilling to vote for such unpopular reform will be equally unwilling to assume the responsibility for upsetting this important and far-reaching program. What would happen in case of rejection only the chancellor can say.

The fascists, avowed enemies of parliamentary government, will be in an unusual position Wednesday. They must either accept the situation as it is or else insist upon the sacred right of a parliamentary system—that of revoking a presidential decree.

The decree signed by President Von Hindenburg embraces three groups of laws:

1—Minor alterations of the emergency decrees of last July, when Article 48 also was invoked.

2—Twenty-six laws through which the government's financial and economic reform proper will be effected.

3—Measures for the relief of agriculture.

The essential features of the Bruening program are the ruthless slashing of public expenditures; a sweeping reduction in public salaries, beginning with a 20 per cent cut in that of Von Hindenburg; the halting of government contributions to various doles, and the blocking of the upward march of taxes.

WOMEN VICTIMS TESTIFY AT MAGISTRATE'S HEARING

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Several women identified as victims of an alleged "vice ring" of policemen, bondsmen, and lawyers testified today before secret hearings at the appellate court investigation of New York magistrate's court.

Among them was Margaret W. Harton, who was arrested allegedly without evidence, convicted and sentenced for a year to Bedford reformatory, "Chile" Acuna, a former police "stool pigeon," identified her in public testimony last week as one of some 20 women who were arrested by police despite his failure to get any evidence of wrong doing against them, and were turned over to lawyers and bondsmen who split the fees they received with the police.

Chief Magistrate Joseph Corrigan conferred again today with Isador Kresel, prosecuting the inquiry, and Referee Samuel Seabury, before whom it is being conducted. District Attorney Crain also conferred with them and said he would be guided by their advice in presenting the matter to a county grand jury for possible criminal action.

ANOTHER COLD WAVE IN THE MIDDLEWEST

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—(AP)—Cold returned to the middlewest today with renewed vigor after its week-end holiday.

Unlike its immediate predecessors, today's frigid wave carried little snow. In Ohio there was a heavy fall to add to the drifts piled up last week, but in nearly all the other states there was just a raw, biting wind from the northwest.

The lowest temperatures of the season, marks that equalled the minimums in Canada, were recorded in the northern tier of the central states. An unofficial 20 below at Bemidji, Minn., and an official 18 below at Devils Lake, N. D., headed the list of sub-zero readings. There were others not far behind, including Duluth, with -14, and St. Paul, with -10.

SUICIDE ASCRIBED TO BROODING OVER DEAD WIFE

SOUTHBURY, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Brooding over the memory of his dead wife in the lonely solitude of his secluded woodchopper's shanty near the Southbury station, Samuel McGargi, 58, committed suicide by shooting himself with a shotgun on the third anniversary of his wife's burial here, Friday night. His body, with the top of his head almost blown off was found late this afternoon in an outhouse near his home by his 16 year old son and a friend.

Views Of Marriage By Judge Lindsey

Presented to the New York Churchmen's Association—Bishop Manning Objected

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)— Judge Ben B. Lindsey presented his views on marriage today to the New York Churchmen's association, despite the objection of the Right Rev. William T. Manning, Protestant Episcopal bishop of New York. Bishop Manning did not attend.

The famed founder of Denver's juvenile court waited an hour while 70 members of the association, made up of Episcopal clergymen, ate lunch. He waited another hour while they debated the advisability of hearing him, and an additional 30 minutes while they prepared a statement for the press to make clear their belief in the sanctity of marriage.

In the official statement the clergymen said they were "governed by the conviction that it is both the right and the duty of the clergy to hear speakers on matters vitally affecting the welfare of the people to whom they are called upon to minister."

While Judge Lindsey waited he told newspapermen what he planned to say, outlining four reforms he advocates. They were the legalization of companionate marriage; divorce of discordant couples by a commission composed of two physicians and a lawyer instead of a court; a system of education in schools and colleges on the art of love, and alimony and support after divorce with reference to economic status rather than by arbitrary laws.

He insisted he belived in the sanctity of marriage.

"And in children, too," he said, "I have a lovely little girl and I am hoping for another addition to the family in the spring.

"I am not an advocate of free love. When I say legalize companionate marriage, I mean legalize what now is practised, namely marriage without begetting."

Judge Lindsey made no reference to Bishop Manning in his talk to the clergymen. To the press beforehand he said. "The time is past when we can hope to make people good by keeping them ignorant. The time is past when intelligent people will submit to religion rammed down their throats by the coercive methods of the 16th century. This is the 20th century. Bishop Manning insisted I should not be allowed to speak. Perhaps he is afraid of me. Reaction and superstition always dreads the truth."

The number of clergymen attending the meeting established a record. The Right Rev. Charles E. Gilbert, suffragan bishop of New York and president of the association, retired from the chair and withdrew as soon as the vote to hear Judge Lindsey was taken. A few others departed, too, but explained they had other engagements.

SAYS MEN ARE "DOLLING UP" IN COMPETITION WITH WOMEN

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—(AP)—Men are seeking make-up beauty aids to hold their jobs against feminine competition, Dr. Warren Goodman said in a medical lecture here tonight.

"White collar workers," he said, "view the competition of women who avail themselves of beauty culture and are examining themselves more carefully than hitherto.

Although men have been backward in taking advantage of cosmetic aids in business, the situation is rapidly changing. Barbers throughout the country are studying their trade all over again. They are preparing to offer to men patrons about every service which the woman gets in a beauty shop.

"Economic necessity will force many men into accepting new ideas. Haircut, shave and manicure will not suffice.

"People must look fit and young to hold jobs. There will be more dyed heads and more facials given to men than before the business depression. Insofar as cosmetics are concerned there will be a single standard for men and women—they will both use them.

DOESN'T BELIEVE RUSSIA WILL OUTSTRIP AMERICA

MOSCOW, Dec. 1—(AP)—One of the eight Russian engineers on trial for high treason tonight expressed the belief that Soviet Russia would not get ahead of the United States in technical production for many years.

The defendant, 67-year-old Alexander Fedotov, had been asked by Prosecutor Krilenko whether he thought the plans of the soviet to outstrip America would succeed.

"I am guilty, of course," replied the aged engineer, "but I must admit I don't believe the soviets will get ahead of America for many years."

FIRE DESTROYS $250,000 CHURCH IN NEWARK, N. J

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 1—(AP)—Four smoke-blackened stone walls and a 158 foot tower, leaning precariously, remained tonight of the main building of the Second Presbyterian church, destroyed by fire today at a loss of $250,000.

A hundred and fifty firemen fought in vain against one of the most spectacular fires in Newark history but kept it from spreading to surrounding property, Fire chiefs said the cause might have been overheated pipes or defective wiring.

TESTIMONY AT THE HEARING INTO STATE PRISON ADMINISTRATION

WETHERSFIELD, Dec. 1.— (AP) — Methods of punishment used at the Connecticut state prison at Wethersfield, the problems and policies of its officials, and the medical care afforded prisoners were described today by several witnesses as the special committee inquiring into the administration of the prison resumed its public hearings.

In general, today's testimony brought forth several recommendations for improving the facilities and the activities at the institution, a defense of the contract labor system as employed in Connecticut, and statements disclaiming any knowledge that punishment which the witnesses regarded as brutal or abusive had ever been inflicted on prisoners.

Deputy Warden Burton J. Caswell was one of the witnesses who testified that during his connection with the institution he had never seen punishment inflicted which he considered brutal. He told the committee, however, that prisoners in solitary confinement had at times been hand-

(Continued on Page Nine)

MRS. KEITH-MILLER, AVIATRIX, SAFE AT NASSAU, BAHAMAS

Australian Airwoman Had Been Missing Since Friday, When She Took Off From Havana For Miami—Says She Was Caught in Terrific Gale and Forced to Land on the Island of Andros—Aviation Circles Are Puzzled As to How Mrs. Keith-Miller Landed at the Bahamas, When the Wind Would Have Been More Likely to Drive Her Over the Gulf of Mexico

NASSAU, Bahamas, Dec. 1.—(AP) — The lonely island of Andros, largest in the great Bahama bank, saved the life of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller after she had virtually been given up for death for four days.

Mrs. Keith-Miller, a widely known Australian airwomen, left Havana at 9:11 o'clock Friday morning with the announced intention of going to Havana. She flew a small and much used monoplane which had neither radio, bank dial nor blind-flying instruments and took off in the face of expert advice that the weather was too bad for such a venture.

After that nothing was heard until she arrived here today, saying she had been caught in a terrific gale Friday and was forced to land on Andros. She immediately sent cablegrams to her mother, Mrs. C. S. Beveridge of New York, and Mrs. John Liggett, Jr., of Pittsburgh, advising them of her safety. Mrs. Liggett was one of the sponsors of Mrs. Keith-Miller's Pittsburgh-Havana flight.

Aviation circles are puzled as to why Mrs. Keith-Miller ended her flight in the Bahamas, which lie much to the east of the normal Havana-Miami course. The assumption would be that she was blown eastward by winds, but aviators say that the winds of last Friday were blowing strongly from the east and hence would have been more likely to drive her south of Florida and westward over the Gulf of Mexico.

Details of the landing were difficult to obtain. Captain W. N. Lancaster, former flying partner of Mrs. Keith-Miller, said at Miami that he had been advised by the flier's mother that she was forced to use a collapsible rubber raft after landing. She was picked up by a fishing boat and the slowness of this craft in getting to Nassau presumably accounted for the length of time required to get the story of her safety to the world.

SENDS MESSAGE TO FORMER FLYING PARTNER

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Captain W. N. Lancaster, former flying partner of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, said tonight he plans to fly to Nassau tomorrow on the strength of reports she is safe there. She had been missing since Friday.

Captain Lancaster said he was "overjoyed" to hear the report.

Captain Lancaster received a message from Mrs. Keith-Miller tonight forwarded from New York.

He quoted it:

"Sorry Bill. Quite safe. Chubbie."

Captain Lancaster said he expects to leave at dawn tomorrow in a chartered plane and will bring Mrs. Keith-Miller back.

EXCLUSIVE STORY OFFERED ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR $2,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Associated Press has declined to purchase for $2,000 the exclusive story of Mrs. Keith-Miller's safety after the attempted Havana-Miami flight. The offer was made by telephone from Miami by Captain W. N. Lancaster, who has been associated with her in her flights.

TWO OF PARTY OF FOUR DUCK HUNTERS MISSING

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Two of a party of four duck hunters were tonight known to be safe, the body of a third was being held in East Haven, and a fourth was missing.

A body identified as that of Samuel Bradford McRickard, 22, of Yonkers, N. Y., was found washed up on the beach at East Haven, early today, while wreckage and clothing were strewn along the beach in the vicinity.

A companion, John Kisling, 22, of Woodside, Long Island, was rescued by a schooner off the entrance to the New Haven harbor late last night. He reported that he had fought heavy seas in his small rowboat since Sunday morning, and had been blown across the sound.

A third member of the party, Bernard Schmidt, 21, of Jackson Heights, L. I., was reported rescued by a passing boat. George Pappas, 23, also of Jackson Heights, was still missing. A two hours' search by airplane today failed to reveal any sign of his body

GERMANY DEMANDS GENERAL DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

GENEVA, Dec. 1—(AP)—Germany tonight demanded at the meeting of the preparatory disarmament commission that a general disarmament conference be called for Nov. 2, 1931.

No discussion followed, but general belief was the general conference would not be called before early in 1932.

The German demand was made as the commission began its final review of the draft disarmament convention which it has been formulating the last several weeks.

In its final review, the commission confirmed its former decision to limit effectives of land, sea and air by direct enumeration and voted by a narrow majority to limit government-owned aircraft in reserve as well as military aircraft in service.

The commission made rapid progress and most of the articles were adopted without comment.

Russia again was defeated in her attempt to commit governments to reduce as well as limit armaments.

PROMINENT TORRINGTON WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

TORRINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)— Mrs. Martha Klein, wife of Frank W. Klein, labor superintendent of the American Brass company one of the best known women in this city, committed suicide by sending a bullet through her brain shortly before 5 o'clock this afternoon, when she was seized with a sudden fit of melancholy. In the opinion of Dr. A. B. Hanchett, medical examiner, Mrs. Klein died instantly. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNeil of this city. Mr. McNeil is the president of the Torrington Water company.

MOVEMENT TO DEFER MOTION ON WORLD COURT PROTOCOL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A movement to defer consideration of the world court protocol until a year hence was launched in the senate today but there was no assurance for such an agreement.

Friends of the court were initiating the postponement move to avoid involving it in the snarl over an extra session, and some of the most bitter foes were among those insisting that the protocol be given prompt consideration.

LIBERAL PARTY VICTORS IN HONDURAS ELECTIONS

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Dec. 1—(AP)—Returns from yesterday's nationwide municipal elections indicate that the liberal party won 85 per cent of the municipalities.

The nationalists took Tegucigalpa, Comayaguela and San Pedro, but the liberals captured such nationalist strongholds as Laveta, Trujillo and Cantarranas.

INTERNATIONAL LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—(AP)—Mutton in sheeps' clothing and hams under the skin strutted before judges of the 31st International Livestock exposition today and brought championships to Canadians and Americans, college boys and practical farmers.

It was the first big session for the animals raised for meat and all day long they clumped out of their stalls and into the judging rings, where the show's first good weather had drawn a crowd of major proportions.

The university-bred entries from Purdue picked off blue ribbons with regularity winning championships for their Poland China barrow and pen of barrows, for their Berkshire barrow, their Shropshire wether and their cross-bred wether of the medium wool type.

Four other championships went to college entries, University of Wisconsin taking honors for its Yorkshire barrows and pen of Yorkshire barrows; University of Minnesota taking the Hampshire wether title; and Kansas Agriculture college showing the ribbon-winning pen of Berkshire barrows.

ADMITS GUILT OF USING THE MAILS TO DEFRAUD

BALTIMORE, Dec. 1—(AP)—Accused by persons in Florida, Alabama, Illinois, and Maryland of defrauding them in stock transactions, Herbert Wheeler, 44, pleaded guilty in federal court today to five charges of using the mails to defraud.

Despite the plea, Judge William C. Coleman insisted that witnesses take the stand and they unfolded stories of fraudulent transactions which William C. Baxter, assistant district attorney, declared would total $800,000.

Wheeler's method, Baxter said, was the formation of $30,000 mining stock buying clubs, comprised of 30 persons who contributed $1,000 each, with Wheeler as the purchasing agent. Several of these clubs were formed in various parts of the country, he said.

Wheeler, was from Decatur, Ill., and represented himself as a mining engineer, according to Postal Inspector George E. Brill.

Arrested in Boston last May, Wheeler was brought here on an indictment and has been in jail in default of $20,000 bail.

CUNARD LINE TO CONSTRUCT BIGGEST STEAMSHIP IN WORLD

LIVERPOOL, Eng., Dec. 1—(AP)—The biggest steamship in the world, a huge craft of 73,000 tons displacement, is to be built in the yards of John Brown and Company at Clydebank, under a contract signed today by the Cunard line.

She will make 30 knots, according to reported specifications, and she will cost more than $22,000,000. This is an answer from the British merchant marine to the challenge of the Bremen and the Europa, now the fastest ships in the Atlantic service.

REPORTS POSTAL SAVINGS EXCEEDING WAR TIME PEAK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Postal savings exceeding the war time peak were reported to congress today by Postmaster General Brown.

He included in his report a request for enactment of a pending bill raising the $2,500 limit for postal savings to $5,000.

The total amount on deposits October 31, 1930, was $191,865,798, which exceeded the previous high level, the war peak, by $15,067,265.

EXPLOSION WRECKED BASEMENT OF SCHOOL

AKRON, Ohio, Dec. 1.—(AP)—An explosion believed to have originated in a gas tank, wrecked the basement of the Bath Consolidated school, eight miles northwest of here, late today, and seriously injured five boy pupils who were preparing for a basketball game.

WILLIMANTIC

Jordan Block, Lincoln Square Phone 180-W Residence Phone 461-J

FIFTEEN DIVORCE CASES ON SHORT CALENDAR

(Special to The Bulletin).

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 1.—Cases listed on the short calendar session of the Windham county superior court to be held here Tuesday afternoon following the opening of the criminal term at 10 o'clock in the forenoon are: Henry R. Woodward vs. Eugene G. McDaniels, et al.; Alphonse L. Dery vs. Ernest Dion; Abbie M. Smith vs. Susie Mildred Donahue, et al.; John H. Geeson vs. Augusta M. Winn; Morris Zipkin vs. Abraham Zipkin; Charles Morris Lamprey vs. Georgette Maralle Corvisier Lamprey; Viola Bartocha vs. John Bartocha; W. A. Musgrave & Co. vs. Alphonse L. Gelinas, executor. The seven uncontested divorce actions published previously are also to be taken up during the short calendar.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Clara M. Kinnaird

Mrs. Clara May Kinnaird, wife of John Kinnaird, died at her home in Lebanon this morning after a brief illness. She was born in Wadhams, N. Y., Oct. 26, 1865, a daughter of Lewis and Elizabeth Braisted Cleland. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Gordon Kinnaird, of Hartford; two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Sheldon of South Salem, N. Y., and Mrs. E. E. Smith of Shelton, Vt., and several nieces and nephews.

Kerman Delude

Kerman, 13-months-old son of Adelard and Docina Trudeau Delude, died of diphtheria at the home of his parents, 245 Valley street, Sunday. Besides the parents he leaves two sisters, Docina and Lucille Delude. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon with burial in the family plot at St. Joseph's cemetery.

In the huge task of rebuilding the high tension line between the power house of the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting Co. at Stafford Springs to the plant here, C. H. Reinhardt, assistant superintendent who is in charge of the work, said today that 13 of the 19 miles of the line have been finished, bringing the work from Stafford Springs to a point near Perkins' corners. A force of 14 men is engaged on the job and if good weather prevails Assistant Superintendent Reinhardt hopes to have the entire contract completed by the first of the year.

FUNERALS

Patrick E. Doyle

The funeral services for Patrick E. Doyle, who was killed by a railroad train Friday evening, were held this morning with a requiem high mass in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Michael J. Thompson was celebrant of the mass and conducted the committal service at the grave in St. Joseph's cemetery. During the services Mrs. Henry Mathieu was heard in solos, with Mrs. Edmund R. Portelance at the organ. The bearers were Michael Sullivan, Michael Hurlihe, James and William Grady, John Shea and Patrick Minahan. Arrangements were in charge of Killourey Brothers.

Mrs. Mary Lemot

Leaving the home at 58 Chapman street, the funeral of Mrs. Mary Lemot was held this morning with a high mass of requiem in St. Joseph's church at 8 o'clock. Rev. Francis A. Duch officiated and Mrs. Edmund R. Portelance presided at the organ. Miss L. Monica McKean was soloist. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, where a committal prayer was read by Rev. Father Duch. The bearers were Joseph Brogeski, Ike Gajick, Stanley Musial and Stanley Tabor.

The work of the personal tax enumerators of the town of Windham is progressing nicely. The returns must be filed by Jan. 1, after which the abstract is compiled at the office of the town clerk. Personal Tax Collector Alfred R. Handfield will begin collections on Feb. 1, 1931. Last year the sum of $10,555 was collected from this form of taxation.

Special City Meeting

The special city meeting when action will be taken on the 1931 budget as drawn up by the board of aldermen, will be held Monday evening, in the town hall, it was announced today by Mayor Walter R. King. The budget which will be presented to the voters amounts to $213,155, representing a net cut of $45,450.14 from the budget for the preceding year. Action on the sale of the Hilltop Hose company property, which has been unoccupied for some years, will also be requested at this meeting. A proposal to sell this property was flatly turned down on another occasion some four years ago. The city, at present, is making none or little use of the property, which is located in a desirable residential section.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Wilcox were in Kingston, R. I., Sunday, to be dinner guests of Rev. Harry S. McCready and his sister, Miss Sadie McCready.

The Willimantic Woman's club was guest of the Storrs Woman's club this evening in Storrs, when Mme. Annie Barnouw, dramatic interpreter, gave an interesting review of outstanding current plays. Mme. Barnouw will lecture on Christmas Legends from Many Lands in this city Tuesday afternoon when the local club will entertain the Storrs women.

Water conditions, which were a topic of much discussion some weeks ago because of the extended drought, are now beginning to edge toward the other extreme as recent and heavy rainfalls swell streams and threaten to cause some of the brooks in this section to overflow should more heavy rains come soon.

In honor of her 22nd birthday, Miss Irene Rondeau of Maple avenue was tendered a surprise party Saturday evening by a group of relatives and friends coming from New Britain, Baltic and this city. She was presented with a white gold wrist watch, a cedar chest and other attractive gifts.

The Men's Bible class of the local Baptist church will be guest of the class of the Danielson Baptist church Tuesday evening, some 25 members, including President Russell A. Andrews, planning to make the trip.

In police court this morning two local men were arraigned on intoxication charges, one going to the county jail when he was unable to pay a fine of $15 and costs, and the other, who is also charged with breach of the peace, securing a continuance until Tuesday morning.

The December meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Merton C. Andrews at The Ridges Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles F. Risedorf returned today from Middletown, where she and Mr. Risedorf spent the holiday with her sister, Mrs. Wilbur F. Burrows.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. LaFleur of Columbia lake left Sunday by automobile for West Palm Beach, Fla., to remain for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Staebner have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Staebner and daughters, Marguerite and Gertrude, of Salem, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin D. Boss will leave later this week by train for Florida, making a stop at Jacksonville before taking up winter quarters in West Palm Beach.

Mrs. Albert J. Piche left today for Biddeford, Me., to spend the week with relatives.

Miss Hedridge Sampson of Summit street has returned from New York city where she spent several days with her brother. She was accompanied on the trip by her sister, Miss Estelle Sampson, of Essex.

Stafford Springs

Jacob Jellen, employed in Hartford, is making a few days' visit with friends and relatives in the borough.

Joseph Gilbert has returned to his duties with the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company after a week's vacation.

George C. Lane of Noank visited friends in Stafford Springs Monday.

End Of Furlough

Andrew Andrelsky, son of Mrs. Catherine Andrelsky, has returned to South Carolina after a fifteen days' furlough at his home. Mr. Andrelsky is a member of the U. S. marine corps.

WEDDING

Roche—McAnanama

Miss Elizabeth Roche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roche, and James McAnanama of Stafford street were united in marriage at St. Edward's church Monday morning at eight o'clock. Rev. John J. Weldon, curate at St. Edward's, performed the ceremony. Miss Katherine Blodgett was bridesmaid and Fred St. John of Providence was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on West Main street. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McAnanama will reside on Westford avenue, Stafford Springs.

Geno Fontanella, employed in New York, was a recent visitor at his home on Prospect street.

Appeal In Jitney Cases

William J. Phillips of Worcester pleaded guilty to the charge of abandoning a motor vehicle on the Crystal Lake road, when he appeared in the borough court Monday morning and paid a fine of $5 with costs of $11.35. George Morin and Ovila Martin of Willimantic, charged with violating the jitney laws, entered a demurrer to the complaint and took an appeal to the next term of the superior court. A local man was sent to Tolland jail for 30 days after pleading guilty to the charge of intoxication.

Mrs. Blanche R. Page of Chicago is visiting her father, William E. Robbins, in Orcuttville.

OBITUARY

Melvin H. Davis

Melvin Holland Davis, 72, died at his home on the Hollow road Monday morning after a brief illness. Mr. Davis was born in Stockbridge, Vermont, April 25th, 1858. He has resided in Stafford Springs for the past three years. He is survived by his wife, Fanny M. Davis, and a daughter, Grace Davis. The body will be taken to Stockbridge, Vt., for burial.

Costos Constantinou has returned to his studies at the University of Syracuse after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Constantinou.

Miss Molly Kusiansky of Springfield, formerly of Stafford Springs, was a recent visitor with local friends.

The forty hours' devotions began at the ten o'clock mass at St. Edward's church Sunday morning.

Miss Dorothy Hodgson has returned to Columbia university after several days spent with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Hodgson.

Edward Hotkowski has returned to Clark university, after the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Hotkowski.

Miss Ella Tonidandel, student nurse at St. Francis hospital, Hartford, has concluded a few days' vacation spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tonidandel.

Misses Helen and Corinne Gilligan have gone back to New York, after several days spent with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gilligan.

Miss Elizabeth Comins of Boston has returned after passing a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Comins.

Edmund Reister is having a vacation from his duties as lineman for the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company.

COLCHESTER

FRANK SKAWINSKI FOUND DEAD IN BED MONDAY

Frank Skawinski, 89, was found dead in bed at his home in the West road section of Salem early Monday morning. Mr. Skawinski, who lived alone, was last seen in the door-yard of his home on Friday. On Monday morning his neighbor, Mrs. Andrew Remblisz, happened to call and found him dead. Just how long he had been dead could not be determined. Medical Exainmer Cyrus E. Pendleton of Colchester was called and gave permission for the removal of the body. Mr. Skawinski is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fuchs and daughters visited over Thanksgiving with relatives in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Skawinski and children visited over the holidays with Passaic, N. J., and New York city relatives.

The following books have been added to the Cragin Memorial library:

Hill—The Gold Shoe.
Kipling—Just-so Stories.
Kaye-Smith—Shepherds in Sackcloth.
Lincoln—Blowing Clear.
James—Lone Cowboy.
Overton—Long Island's Story.
Putnam—David Goes to Greenland.
Priestly—Angel Pavement.
Wright—Exit.
Young—Miss Mole.
James—The Raven.
Pinchot—To the South Seas; Who's Who in America (1930 edition).
Adams—The Adams Family.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Miss Marion Allen has returned from Bristol where she has been at her home for a few days.

Historical Address

Rev. William C. Prentiss gave, at the Sunday morning service here, his historical address which he gave earlier in the day at the church in Plainfield, mother church of the local church, built in 1846. At that time forty-five members of the Plainfield church united with the local church. There was no Congregational church here before that time. There was an Episcopal church at Ladds' Corner, but it was sold and moved to Willimantic.

Cars Collide

Saturday afternoon, about 1:15, at the same spot near the boarding house corner where the accident occurred Thanksgiving eve, two cars, one a Massachusetts car coming from the south and heading toward Moosup, and a Rhode Island car coming from Moosup collided. The Massachusetts car was an Essex, 343438, and the Rhode Island car was a Buick, 92915. The Massachusetts car was taken to the garage by Collins' wrecker but the Rhode Island car was not as badly damaged. No one was injured and the driver promised to settle for damages.

Miss Edith Morrill has returned from a motor trip to her home in Concord, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Laflame, of Niantic, spent Sunday with local relatives.

Friends regret to learn of the recent death of Mrs. Charles Drabble, in Auburn, N. Y. Mrs. Drabble was a former resident here moving from here to Auburn. Burial was in Dayville cemetery.

Miss Josephine Armstrong has been visiting friends in Middletown.

No Resident Pastor

Henry White and family will move to the parsonage from the Ladd house, at Ladds' Corner. No resident pastor will be engaged for a year and the parsonage on River street has been vacant since Rev. George Reese moved to Eastford, last June.

Relatives were in Sterling Sunday to attend the funeral of little Kenneth Tyler, fatally injured when struck by a truck Thanksgiving day.

The firemen were called to a chimney fire at the Ellsworth house, occupied by the Cross and Tillinghast families. No damage was done.

Alfred Hopkins has returned to his studies at Yale university.

Miss Frances Cisor has returned from Albany where she has been spending several days with friends.

Wilbert Hall and daughters, Lois and Blanche, returned Saturday night from a motor trip to New York where they visited relatives for a few days.

Miss Estella Lafrance has left for Forest Hills, N. Y., where she is a teacher, having spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urgele Lafrance.

Mr. and Mrs. George Winsor and son, John Winsor, returned Sunday from Niantic, where they spent several days with relatives.

So thick are the clouds of mosquitoes that swarm about Alaskan airplane fields in late summer, that pilots have been forced to use smoke screens at times in order to take off for a flight.

NEW WILLIMANTIC HOSPITAL DRIVE OPENS WITH ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 1.—About 400 men and women workers in the campaign for the $500,000 new Windham Community Memorial hospital, coming from this city and the many surrounding towns within the hospital area gathered at the banquet, marking the opening of the campaign in the state armory tonight. The meeting was opened by General Chairman James B. Fullerton, who turned the proceedings over to George E. Taylor, chairman of the memorial committee, who acted as toastmaster for the evening. Prayer was invoked by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock and music was by the Peerless orchestra.

MRS. C. C. CASE
In Charge of Women's Teams

An excellent turkey dinner was served by an out of town caterer. It was announced that plans had been made to have Rov.-elect Wilbur L. Cross to be one of the speakers but that he was unable to attend tonight owing to a previous engagement. Mrs. Christopher C. Case addressed the audience and prophesied great results from the Willimantic woman's divisions of about 100 workers, of which she is chairman. A letter wishing success to the drive was read from Reverend Mother M. Geraldine of St. Joseph's convent. Mother Geraldine has been superior of the Sisters of Charity engaged in hospital work at St. Joseph's hospital.

On behalf of the men's division remarks were made by Charles W. Hill, chairman of that division. A telegram was read from William J. McAneeny, of Detroit and North Windham, endorsing the hospital drive. The next speaker was Prof. Richard E. Dodge, of Storrs, who, with Prof. A. J. Brundage, heads the Mansfield division.

Remarks were also made by Charles L. Folsom of New York, who is directing the hospital drive and who announced that the first report meeting would be held at the state armory Wednesday night.

There will be subsequent report meetings with the final reports to be filed at the closing of the drive, Dec. 10.

The main speaker was Dr. D. Alan Craig, of Chicago, a former director of the American College of Surgeons, who spoke of the needs of a larger and modernized hospital for this district.

The closing feature was a two-act sketch presented by Charles L. Folsom, Harry W. Standish of this city, and Mrs. R. L. McBee of Willington, depicting the right and wrong methods of approaching prospective subscribers, the sketch being an object lesson to the workers on the methods of procedure to be used during the campaign.

Subscriptions during the campaign will be secured without a cash deposit and will be payable in installments, the first of which does not become due until April 1, 1931.

CAPITOL THEATRE
Willimantic
NOW PLAYING
"The Big Trail"

FEEL MEAN?

Don't be helpless when you suddenly get a headache. Reach in your pocket for immediate relief. If you haven't any Bayer Aspirin with you, get some at the first drugstore you come to. Take a tablet or two and be rid of the pain. Take promptly. Nothing is gained by waiting to see if the pain will leave of its own accord. It may grow worse! Why postpone relief?

There are many times when Bayer Aspirin will "save the day." It will always ease a throbbing head. Quiet a grumbling tooth. Relieve nagging pains of neuralgia or neuritis.

Check a sudden cold. Even rheumatism has lost its terrors for those who have learned to depend on these tablets.

Gargle with Bayer Aspirin at the first suspicion of sore throat, and reduce the infection. Look for Bayer on the box—and the word Genuine in red. Genuine Bayer Aspirin does not depress the heart.

BAYER ASPIRIN

An Easy Chair

by KROEHLER

KROEHLER Standard Quality

Special Price

A product of the famous Kroehler factories, the chair illustrated is made up to the highest standards, embodying all the special features for which Kroehler furniture is so well known. This chair is covered in high grade tapestry in pleasing colors, and is not only a beautiful chair, but is 100% comfortable.

Special price—$35.00

Gilbert Furniture Co
68 B'DWAY PHONE 1602
Good Furniture Since 1861

Gruen Cartouche
14kt solid gold case, $45

Solid Gold Gruens
$40-$45-$50

As a diamond deserves a mounting of platinum—or as an oriental pearl calls for a setting of exquisite satins, so too a fine watch gains much, dressed in a case of genuine, solid gold.

Make your Christmas gift a Gruen, in solid gold, and you'll know that you have presented the very best to be had.

SMITH-KEON
JEWELERS
Willimantic, Conn.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO

An Exceptional Opportunity for Gift Shoppers!

Sale of Christmas Handkerchiefs

FOR WOMEN

12½c and 15c
IRISH PRINTS
6 for 50c
Ladies' Handkerchiefs in real Irish Printed designs.

25c Grade
IRISH LINEN
6 for $1.00
100% Pure Irish Linen, all neatly hand embroidered and hand rolled edges—in a multiplicity of patterns and colorings.

39c and 50c
SHEER LINEN
4 for $1.00
In a most bewitching array of real hand embroidered styles—dainty colorings—edges all hand rolled.

50c Grade
APPENZELLS
6 for $2.00
"Appenzell" and "Swiss" Embroidered designs—the choicest of Chinese hand embroidery on the sheerest of Irish Linen.

$1.00 Grade
SHEER IRISH LINEN
2 for $1.00
Fine 1800 count sheer Irish Linen—real Appenzell patterns in finest of Chinese embroidery.

FOR MEN

25c Grade
IRISH LINEN
6 for $1.00
100% pure Irish Linen, all hemstitched styles.

39c Grade
HEMSTITCHED LINEN
4 for $1.00
Size 19x19 All Linen Handkerchiefs, hemstitched and hand drawn on good quality Linen.

75c Grade
PURE IRISH LINEN
2 for $1.00
High grade pure Irish Linen, all hand rolled edges, tape borders.

LADIES' HANDKERCHIEFS
Daintily Boxed
at 50c box
One gross Ladies' Handkerchiefs all prettily embroidered and daintily boxed—3 Handkerchiefs in each box.

at $1.00 box
200 Boxed Ladies' Handkerchiefs—all in the most attractive Swiss Embroidered designs in all white and colors. Regular values $1.50 to $1.75 each. 3 Handkerchiefs to each box.

During This Sale
ALL HANDKERCHIEFS 50c AND OVER
Monogrammed or Lettered
WITHOUT CHARGE

SANTA CLAUS Due to Arrive Saturday, Dec. 6th

Santa again makes his headquarters here, making this the original Santa Claus store. Each year he makes his long journey all the way from his home in the far North to spread Christmas joy and cheer from his workshop in the big window of our store.

Extra Special for Tuesday!
Unusual Assortment of
DRESSES
2 for $9.00

NOW IN PROGRESS
DRASTIC REDUCTIONS
Coats
Dresses
Suits
Furs
You'll Save Up to.. 40%

Our Daily Special
72x84 Part Wool
BLANKETS
$3.44
Value $5.00 pair
Please note the extra size of these wonderful part wool unshrinkable Blankets. All in pairs, sateen bound. 5 choice colors—Rose, blue, gold, orchid and green—lofty, fleecy and warm and at the same time harmonizing with your color scheme.
ON SALE TUESDAY
No Mail or Telephone Orders.

DANIELSON

SEEK MISSING GIRL WHOSE MOTHER IS ILL

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 1—Plans were complete today for widespread publicity that it is hoped will bring Jennie Misiaszek, missing Danielson girl, back to her home here, where her mother is said to be critically ill and mourning grievously for her daughter.

The missing girl disappeared from her home here early this year, after previous absences contrary to the wishes of her parents. Some time after her last disappearance she was traced to a hospital in New York, where she was taken after collapsing on the street in that city. However, by the time that it was learned she had been a patient at the particular institution referred to, she had been discharged. Later she was picked up by New York police, and held on some charge that is not quite clear from records that are available here. Following her ultimate release she again disappeared and her whereabouts remain unknown. At this time there is especial anxiety that she be located to come to her mother, a respected member of the community.

Guzik is Fined

Leo Guzik of Ware, Mass., was fined $10 and costs in the Plainfield town court at Central Village today for failure to grant the right of way when his car was in collision with another machine operated by Peter Dumas of Providence on Sunday. Guzik pleaded guilty to the charge.

Another incident involving a violation of the motor vehicle laws was that having to do with the release this afternoon of Thomas Short of New Haven, who was found operating a furniture-laden truck in Hampton yesterday by State Officer George Martin. Short's operator's license was suspended some time since and remains suspended. He procured bail in the amount of $50 today, and will be in court in Hampton Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Wednesday evening the council of the Danielson Federation of Churches is to meet in the parlor of the Westfield Congregational church.

Legion Parade Sunday

Danielson will see a parade of American Legionnaires representing, it is hoped, every post in Windham and Tolland counties when a district meeting is held here next Sunday afternoon. Commander Arthur DeForest of Leo J. L'Homme post of Danielson said that members of the Legion and auxiliaries will come from all over the area mentioned—District No. 4. The parade will be headed by the Rockville post drum corps, and each post will have a color guard out. The meeting is to be held in the town hall.

Coroner Reserves Decision

At his office here this morning Coroner Arthur G. Bill conducted an inquest in the death of Kenneth Tyler, the little Sterling boy who was fatally injured when struck and run over by a truck operated by Joseph A. Roy of Blackstone.

The testimony of witnesses indicated that Kenneth had been playing with companions, including his brother, and had run out into the highway as the truck came along. It so happened that there were several witnesses of the accident in addition to Mr. Roy. Had he lived today would have been Kenneth's sixth birthday. Coroner Bill reserved decision.

Well over an inch of rain fell in the wild southerly storm that lashed this territory throughout last night. The rainfall was the heaviest in any storm of the present fall season. The downpour and the gale continued all night long, finally ceasing just before 6 o'clock this morning. It added materially to the available water supply, which has steadily been increasing since October.

This week is one of hustle and bustle in Danielson's stores, as owners, managers and clerks make ready for the opening of the holiday rush. There is to be no let down, because of depression, in making displays of holiday goods as varied and attractive as in other years. Danielson has been fortunate throughout the year in the manner in which its industries have gone along, next week will witness the outpouring of Christmas club money and there are other reasons to encourage the belief that there will be a generous amount of Christmas business.

J. M. Mellor of Broad street, representing a mid-western brass company, is leaving this wek for a fortnight's tour that will take him into Pennsylvania. Mr. Mellor says he finds business considerably improved, and that buying of copper by street railway and other concerns has been heavy during the past two or three weeks.

Owners of farm lands in nearby territory will be given ample protection against raiders for Christmas trees and Christmas greens if they will promptly notify the police here when any trespasser is observed violating the law in this respect. Like reports will be welcomed from any person who observes this sort of thieving going on. The country east of here, close to the Rhode Island border, has been subjected to the most severe raiding the past few years just before Christmas time, and largely by persons coming into this town with automobiles bearing Rhode Island registrations.

Can't You Please Make My Dreams Come True? is the name of a pretty dance number, with lyrics, that has been written by Miss Mary Espinosa, an East Brooklyn girl who is still in her 'teens. It was played publicly for the first time by the orchestra at Kum-Along-Inn at a week end dance, and was received with enthusiasm, two encores being demanded by the dancers. Miss Espinosa is a daughter of Michael Espinosa, who is in business here. Miss Espinosa is to have the song published.

In the town court this morning Charles A. Popple of Putnam was fined $5 and costs, $4 of the fine being remitted, for failure to grant the right of way last night when his car was in a collision with another machine operated by Reuben Shekleton of Killingly R. F. D. No. 2. The accident happened at the Attawaugan-Ballouville four corners as Shekleton was emerging from the side road. State Officer James Carmody investigated the accident and ordered Popple to appear in court.

Beginning another six months interest period. Don't forget to deposit in our savings department during the first few days of this month, so that your deposit will draw interest from December 1. The Windham County National Bank.—Adv.

This afternoon at St. Alban's parish house there was a rehearsal for the Christmas play, and this evening members of the Girl's Friendly society of the parish met there.

Tuesday evening a periodical Church Family night is to be held at the Westfield Congregational church. This will be Young People's night. A report of the Storrs Young People's conference will be presented.

Coal that rattles off cars being hauled through here by the New Haven road is being garnered by thrifty persons and put to good use in keeping their homes warm.

Now that the football season is at an end for the team, athletes at Killingly high school are turning their attention to basketball, and will play out a schedule during the winter and early spring seasons.

Don't forget that all deposits made in our savings department on or before Dec. 5th, will draw interest from Dec. 1. The Danielson Trust Co.—Adv.

Kid Brouillard, K. O. Gene Billings, Ray Landry and Anselm Bernier, local boxers, will battle against boys from Fred Yelle's Taunton stable on a card of bouts at Putnam Tuesday evening.

Almost daily near-accidents at the intersection of North Main street and Westcott road, where trunk lines meet, causes many persons to remark upon the need of slow signs and traffic warning lights there.

Choirs of Danielson's churches are now busy with rehearsals of the special musical programs that will be given at the Christmas services.

This evening the body of Mrs. Ellen F. White, who died in Willimantic today, was brought to A. F. Wood's funeral home here. For years Mrs. White was a resident at East Killingly. There are no surviving relatives closer than cousins and a nephew.

A model roadside market, named the Pepper Pod and attractively decorated and stocked with farm products, was recently demonstrated for the benefit of Florida farmers who conduct roadside stands.

PAIN GETS BETTER BACK FEELS FINE

after Musterole—safe "counter-irritant"—is applied once an hour for 5 hours. Many feel better after first application.

MUSTEROLE

UNABLE TO GET BONDS PROVIDENCE LAUREL PICKERS HELD FOR COURT

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 1—Ovid J. Desautel, Thomas Carrier, Frank Rovinki and Howard Williams, Providence men, languished in cells at the police station here through this day, each in default of $100 bail. They are scheduled to face charges, in a justice's court in Sterling, for taking laurel and other Christmas greens contrary to law. It was anticipated today that they will be in court on Tuesday.

These men were arrested in woods within the limits of the town of Sterling by State Officer John Murphy of the Danielson barracks while engaged in gathering Christmas greens on land that they had invaded without permission of the owner and are alleged to have been taking his property contrary to law.

These arrests are the first of a preholiday season in which it is hoped to so discourage takers of Christmas trees and holiday greens that it will be generally given up as bad business. This raiding of woodlands has come to be done by numbers on a commercial basis in numbers of instances, for what is taken is intended to be sold.

Nisiford LaPrise, who is no stranger to local state officers or court officials here, will make another appearance before Judge W. Fenner Woodward in the town court Tuesday morning to answer to an allegation that he stole a rabbit last night. The complaint about the affair came in this morning, Joseph Richards, who occupies a tenement in a house in which LaPrise also lives, in another tenement, being the complainant.

Richards told the police that in the height of the storm last night his dog came barking at the door, and upon going out to investigate what the clatter was all about found LaPrise out near the rabbit coops holding a rabbit by its ears. Mr. Richards raises rabbits and has about 100 on hand at the present time. LaPrise, who has a record of arrests for violation of the liquor laws, was released today under bonds of $100.

PLAINFIELD

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES 225TH ANNIVERSARY

The 225th anniversary of the First Congregational church was celebrated Sunday. Morning worship at 10:30 followed this order: Organ prelude; call to worship; The Lord is in His Holy Temple; doxology; The Shepherd Psalm, in unison; hymn, How Pleasant and How Fair Thy Dwellings; Scripture lesson; anthem, Seek Ye the Lord, with solo by Mrs. William Krauss; prayer; offertory, taken by William P. Barstow, Jason Lathrop, Joseph Stubbs and Walter Kingsley; solo, Lord, I Believe, from Daughter of Jairus, James Royle; hymn, Rise Up, O Men of God; sermon, The Old Meeting House; hymn, Faith of Our Fathers; benediction; organ postlude.

Evening worship at 7:30: Organ prelude, The Pilgrim Chorus; call to evening worship; I Love Thy Church Oh Lord; doxology; prayer of invocation and Lord's Prayer, Rev. William Williams, of Wauregan church, solo, The Lord is My Shepherd, Mrs Charles C. MacFarland; hymn, Ye Servants of God; Scripture lesson, Rev. William C. Prentiss, pastor; anthem, Sing, O Heavens; prayer, Rev. William Williams; offering and consecration, Rev. R. W. E. DeWolfe, of Moosup Baptist church; offertory; duet, Mrs. William Krauss and James Royle; hymn, Rise My Soul; address, The Mouth that Asks Questions, Rev J. Beveridge Lee, D.D., Second Congregational church, New London; hymn, The Day Thou Gavest; prayer, Rev. A. Elwyn Tingley, Ph.D., Methodist Episcopal church, Moosup; benediction, Rev. William C. Prentiss; organ postlude, Hallelujah Chorus.

History of the church summarized: Organization of the town and the calling of Rev. Joseph Coit, 1699; first meeting house erected on Black Hill 1702; pews and pulpit added, 1704; second building erected north of the Dorrance home, 1720; third building erected on the present site, 1784; destroyed by hurricane, 1815; present stone edifice erected with galleries 1816; galleries removed and present arrangement of auditorium made, 1851; church remodeled and basement excavated, 1924; new organ, gift of Mrs. Georgiana Lawton, installed 1924; church incorporated, 1929; Central Village Congregational church organized by 45 members, dismissed for the purpose, 1846; the First church and the Central Village church vote to unite parishes for the trial of one year, 1930.

Minister of the Plainfield church. Rev. Joseph Coit, 1705 to 1745; Rev. David Rowland, 1748 to 1761; Rev John Fuller, 1769 to 1777; Rev. Joel Benedict, D.D., 1784 to 1816; Rev. Orin Fowler, 1820 to 1831; Rev. Samuel Rockwell, 1832 to 1841; Rev. Andrew Dunning, 1842 to 1847; Rev. Henry Robinson, 1847 to 1856; Rev. William A. Benedict, 1857 to 1863; Rev. Joshua L. Maynard, 1864 to 1865; Rev. James D. Moore, 1867 to 1868; Rev. William Phipps, 1869 to 1876; Rev. Asher H Wilcox, 1876 to 1883; Rev. Abram J Quick, 1883 to 1887; Rev. Henry T Arnold, 1887 to 1907; Rev. Frederic Bamford, 1910 to 1913; Rev. Frederic Lakin, 1914 to 1915; Rev. Arthur W Barwick, 1916 to 1921; Rev. William Carlos Prentiss, 1922 to 1931.

Mrs. Henry Leach is organist of the church and James Royle is choir leader.

Miss Dorothy Pike returned to South Manchester Sunday after spending the holiday in town.

Miss Adelaide Prentiss has resumed her duties as dean at Damon Junior college, Newton, Mass.

PUTNAM

MANY IN ATTENDANCE AT H. J. SMITH'S FUNERAL

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 1.—An impressive tribute was paid this afternoon by citizens of Putnam and other parts of Windham county to the memory and personality of Herbert J. Smith, whose death was mourned by his relatives and friends throughout the state when funeral services were held this afternoon at his home on Sunnyside at 1:30 o'clock. Those in attendance included members of the town and city governments, representatives of professional, manufacturing and business interests of Putnam, with whom Mr Smith was associated, and others without affiliations other than a deep and sincere friendship for one who will be remembered through the years.

Rev. Joseph Vasey, pastor of the Congregational church, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Henry E Hodge, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bearers were Leon N. Walker, business partner of Mr Smith, and three employes of the firm of Smith & Walker, Edward S. Keith, Edmund Tetreault and William Reille. The display of floral remembrances was magnificent. Burial was in the family plot in Canterbury cemetery.

Out of respect to the memory of Mr Smith, all banks and business houses in the city suspended business operations a one-hour period, from 1:30 to 2:30 o'clock, this afternoon.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR NURSES' HOME AMOUNT TO $25,304.37

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 1.—Following a meeting of the general committee in charge of the Day Kimball hospital nurses' home fund drive held in Thompson this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Vonsiatsky, it was announced that the drive, which came to a close on Saturday, was a complete financial success. Mrs. Vonsiatsky who is general chairman of the fund campaign, said tonight the total amount of subscriptions and pledges received by the committee from the towns of northeastern Windham county was $25,304.37.

Not only are members of the drive committee and officials of the hospital deeply elated over the splendid achievement but scores of people in Putnam and neighboring communities who have allied themselves with the progress of the financial project since its launching last August, were overjoyed when the report of the tabulation of district contributions was made known.

Looking at the report by towns, the town of Pomfret has the distinction of being the highest single contributor. The quota set for this community was $6,000 and its final returns exceeded this figure by $495.66. Woodstock was second with a subscription of $5,748.10, an amount $748.10 above its quota of $5,000. Both Putnam and Danielson lagged behind their respective quotas, but the returns from these towns were surprisingly large, considering the innumerable adversities and unfavorable economic conditions under which the drive workers were forced to labor. Of its $5,000 quota, the Putnam forces raised $3,922.43 while Danielson's committee filed a return of $2,851.18, which was $2,148.82 in arrears of its quota of $5,000. The workers in each of these communities are deserving of a great deal of credit, Mrs. Vonsiatsky said, in expressing the gratitude of the general committee and hospital authorities.

The town of Eastford exceeded its $500 quota by a two-dollar margin while the town of Thompson, which worked for a $5,000 goal, filed a return of $5,200 and the town of Brooklyn turned in $585, the quota here being $1,000.

Although some of the communities participating in the building fund drive failed to reach their quotas, the incident does not, in any way, detract from the glory in which the sensational success of the whole affair now reposes. While credit for the splendid work is being meted out in equal proportions to every individual nurses' home booster, the success of the drive, in a large way, is directly attributed to Mrs. Vonsiatsky, who gave so freely of her time and efforts to personally supervise the appeal for funds that insure the completion of the beautiful building now in the process of construction.

In an interview tonight, the general chairman lauded the efforts of Windham county's men and women, who cooperated so heartily with her to bring the nurses' home drive to its $25,000 goal, and of those who so generously contributed to the project Mrs. Vonsiatsky, in behalf of the general committee, profoundly expressed her sincere appreciation.

It was said today that the fund is not only great enough to insure completion of the nurses' home but is sufficiently large enough to furnish and equip the building for occupancy.

The stage was being set tonight for the airing of Putnam taxicab rates which will take place Tuesday morning at the municipal building on Church street. At that hour the tax men of the city will meet with a representative of the public utilities commission. The chief objective of the informal session is for the discussion of a uniform taxi rate, but certain members of the profession this afternoon expressed opinion that an effort will be made to take up other subjects at the same time. While it was impossible to learn this afternoon whether or not a get-together of the various taxi concerns would be effected before the opening of the meeting Tuesday morning in an effort to suggest a favorable rate, it was understood that a possibility exists whereby a proposal for a lower rate than any now prevailing is likely to be recommended for the consideration of the commission. In all events, the meeting will be an interesting one, for the matter of taxi rates has been one that has been subjected to considerable pro and con comment during the past year.

At the annual meeting of the Senexet grange, No. 40, of Woodstock held in South Woodstock last week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Charles L. Peckham, master; Ernest H. Peckham overseer; Mabel J. Nelson, lecturer; C Leanord Anderson, steward; Paul E Gran, assistant steward; Lucy H. Child, chaplain; Harry E. Wells, treasurer; Michael L. White, secretary; Howard Foskett, gate keeper; Geneva Foskett, Ceres; Evelyn Butts, Pomona; Doris Butts, Flora; Roxanna Child, lady assistant steward; William C. Child, member of the executive committee for three years; Ewart G. Healy, Freeman R. Nelson, Frank T. Anderson, members insurance committee for one year.

The Woodstock chapter of the organization has recently initiated a large class of candidates, the degrees being administered by the men's and ladies' degree teams, assisted by regular officers. A social programme planned for the enhancement of the grange building fund will be presented during the winter months.

An interesting letter received this morning from J. H. Converse, 84-year-old resident of Thompson and for many years a constant reader of The Bulletin, described details of the Thanksgiving family reunion which was held at the Converse home on Thursday. The gathering was for a two-fold purpose for, in addition to observing the traditional New England day of thanksgiving, the Converse family joined in the celebration of the 84th birthday of the venerable Grampa Converse, who was born on Nov. 27, 1846. Following is Mr. Converse's account of the reunion: "The J. H. Converse family of Thompson and Putnam had a double Thanksgiving gathering and dinner Sunday, Nov. 23. A turkey dinner with all the fixings was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Converse in Thompson. Nineteen persons were present at the sumptuous feast of good things, which all enjoyed. Again on Thanksgiving day, the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Converse on Ring street in Putnam, at which time the 84th birthday of Grampa Converse was celebrated. A large cake decorated with candles was in evidence. The affair was a happy and delightful one, but gloom was mingled with the joy, caused by the recent passing of Grandma Converse."

Mr. Converse, who is a widely known and respected resident of Thompson, concludes his interesting letter with the report that he is favored with a comfortable degree of health and feels much younger than scores of people who are many years his junior. He attributes his excellent state of health to the fact that during his life he has never consumed a drop of intoxicating beverages nor used tobacco in any form.

Justice Percy P. Tourtellotte of North Grosvenordale, within whose jurisdiction falls the trial of the cases of the proprietor and ten frequenters of the Independent club, arrested early Sunday morning in a raid staged by officers of Danielson state police barracks, this morning granted a continuance until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Several of those facing charges of frequenting a gambling house have requested an opportunity to procure legal counsel.

Cashiers of local banks said today that Christmas club checks will be mailed to depositors during the four-day period beginning next Friday. The amount of Christmas savings which will flood many of the homes of the community this year will aggregate $78 000.

The water shortage problem, which has threatened residents of the rural districts for the past several months, was permanently solved with the torrential downpour of rain that lasted over a nine-hour period Sunday.

JEWETT CITY

TRAGEDY OF A GANDER BALKED IN FLIGHT SOUTH

(Special to The Bulletin)

JEWETT CITY, Dec. 1. — Along toward dusk Sunday, in the teeth of the stiff southwest wind, a great flock of south-bound Canadian blue geese became scattered and off their course, a little distance below the town. All attempts of the big gray gander to get his bearings and whip the stragglers into a line-up against the gale proved futile. Down near the Miller farm on the Preston road, somewhat back from the street is an old mill pond. Into this sheltered bit of water the seemingly bewildered flock dropped one by one to seek shelter from the storm. John Knicko, who was milking in a barn nearby, heard the distant honkings, and rightly guessed what was taking place. Monday, before sunrise, taking along his 22 calibre rifle, John crept through the wet underbrush to a spot where he could overlook the pond. Sure enough, there they were, the water was spotted with great gray voyagers from the north. Sorry, he said, he was that he didn't have a shot-gun but aiming at a big gander, he let his single bullet go. With sharp cries of alarm and a roar of wings the flock arose and got under way. All but one, John's aim was true, and all day Monday passersby stopped to gaze into J. B. LeClaire's window to see a fine specimen of the Canadian blue goose, that failed to make it. Some thought, as they peered through the glass at the great brid, his feathers besmirched with red and with a bullet hole in his breast, and paused to think of the great non-stop flight he would have made from Labrador to the gulf, had it not been for the storm, that it would have been as well if the hunter's marksmanship had been less sure!

The sale of the state tuberculosis Christmas seals does not begin here until today (Tuesday). They will be given to the children of the parochial and public schools sometime today. Any other seals sold on Monday or previously are not the state tuberculosis commission seals. The picture on the seal is Santa carrying a Christmas tree over one shoulder. Over the top are the words, Merry Christmas, and underneath, Health to All. The date, 1930, is on the seal.

Chicken pie supper for Bethel church, Edwin Lewis' home, Fri. .50 —adv.

CROSSING OF 1836 CLOSED BY NEW HAVEN RAILROAD

A gang of men from the maintenance of way department of the New Haven railroad slid into town early Monday forenoon in their Black Maria, and closed the Main street crossing. There have been all sorts of wild speculations as to how they would do it. Some declared they couldn't, with others mildly saying it was not likely to be done. Two rows of 8-inch square bridge ties were set across the road, to which plank were spiked, and that's that. One was reminded of the Lightning Rod Dispenser, in Will Carleton's poem, for they swarmed all over the place and bound it down with gewgaws and topped it off with wires. The fact of this closing is no joke either, to the people living on South Main and Anthony streets. School children living on the latter street must now go a quarter mile extra every trip to and from school. The barrier extends from the corner of the Shea property around to Wolf's garage, leaving no way of getting uptown except going around via Quinebaug street and the new viaduct.

The closing of this Main street crossing is no ordinary accomplishment, on two counts. First, it cost the railroad approximately $80,000 to do the trick, also this crossing has been open continuously since the right of way was first established in 1836, and during that close to a century the layout never has been changed. It is a far cry to tell what ancient conveyance may have been the first to drive over it, but the last vehicle to be allowed legal passage was a woman wheeling her baby in its carriage. All the while the snip of a youngster gogooed and giggled, and even reached over the side to offer one of the workmen a taste from its red lollypop. As far as the legal end of it goes the closing is established, but the actual physical prevention is not yet, nor does anyone know that it ever will be, with the fact remaining that some may yet crawl under, while others can climb over, with the safe bet remaining that now and then someone will attempt to crash through the whole works.

Bazaar, 3 p. m. Roast beef supper, .60, at 6. Cong. vestry, Thurs.—adv.

Christmas Checks Sent Out

People from all over the town, and from many widely scattered points in this section, received substantial Christmas presents Monday morning when the letter carriers came along. The local banks sent out Christmas club checks, which aggregated close to one-third more than at any previous holiday seasons. The actual saving of this $20,000 which has been sent out has been accomplished without skimping or curtailing on any necessity, and now the nice specially printed holiday checks are at hand. As proof that there is little squandering of these welcome club certificates, not a few add them to their paes books, or use them as the nucleus for a permanent account.

The November report of Miss Alice Brennan, R. N., community nurse, includes for the Metropolitan: Adults, 142; baby, 18; total, 158. For the John Hancock: Adults, 23; baby, 8; total, 31. Other adult visits, 18; deliveries, 2; operations, 1.

Finn's tonight, "Song of the West," with John Boles and Joe E. Brown. —adv.

Accepting the invitation of Hope Rebekah lodge, of Norwich, Ruthie Rebekah lodge of Jewett City will be the former's guest Wednesday evening.

Names to be added to the Red Cross roll call are: Daniel Morgan, Daniel Morgan, Jr., Lois Morgan, Benjamin T. Morgan, Mrs. Frank Mell, Mrs. Charles Bradlaw and James Dolan.

Miss Margaret Shea, who died at the home of her brother, M. T. Shea in Canterbury Sunday, was a sister of James T. Shea of Tift street. Miss Shea at one time lived in Lisbon at James Shea's home, and has many friends in this vicinity.

The Junior Epworth league meets at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. The mid-week prayer meeting is also held there in the evening, at 7:30.

Mrs. Alice Anthony was a Thanksgiving guest at Mr. and Mrs. C. Irving Smith's in Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Ray entertained Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ray, of Pachaug, Thanksgiving day.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Champion, of Laurel Glen, entertained a party of relatives at their home on Thanksgiving eve. In the early evening Mrs. Cmampion, assisted by Miss Gertrude Champion, served sandwiches, cake, coffee and fruit. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Maine and family, Mrs. Fred L. Champion and daughter, Miss Gertrude, Mr and Mrs. Elwood Eccleston and John Hoskins. Cards were played during the evening.

Nathan N. Maine is confined to his home because of illness.

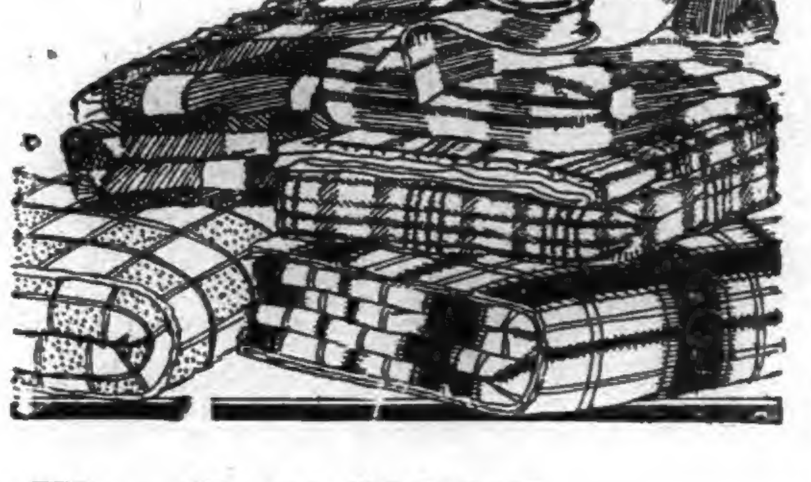
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Palmer entertained all their children and grandchildren Thanksgiving day.

Callers at Mr. and Mrs. Nathan N. Maine's place Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Maine and daughter, Miss Jean Mrs. John I. Holmes, Judge and Mrs. Charles A. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Champion, Jr., and son, Frederick, 2rd, and Mrs. Clarence Palmer and son James.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Champion and son were dinner guests of Mr. Champion's father in Ashaway, Thanksgiving day.

REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN

Part Wool Plaid BLANKETS



First Pair $5.95

Second Pair $1.00

Yes! That's it. Two pair of blankets for $6.95. Extra large size, 72x83 inches. Weight 4½ pounds to the pair. Soft and fluffy in very attractive block plaids of rose, blue, gold, green, tan, bound with matching sateen. These are an exceptional value.

- Basement —

THE NORWICH BARGAIN HOUSE

3-5-7 Water Street, Cor. Washington Square — Norwich, Conn.

BUY YOUR WINTER NEEDS AT WHOLESALE PRICES!

CHOOSE FROM THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT IN EASTERN CONNECTICUT

Clothing and Furnishings for Men and Boys

OUR WEEKLY SPECIALS

Men's Overcoats
$9.95 $14.95 $18.95
All New Goods—Blues, Greys, Browns

Men's Suits
Garbadine Worsted — All New Shades — With Two Pairs of Pants
$18.95 $22.95 $24.95
Values to $35.00

Men's Sheep Lined Coats
36-inch Length; 4 Pockets and Belt $5.75

Men's Beach Jackets $3.95

Men's Sheep Lined Coats
Slicker Inter-lining; Sheep to Edge; Best Quality Sheepskin; Leather Re-inforced Elbows—Value $12.50 $8.95

Men's Beach Vests $2.45

Men's Hy. Horsehide Coats
All Sizes; Belted Back; Front Quarter Skins Only $9.95

Men's Horsehide Jackets
Reversible Wool Plaids $8.95

Men's Heavy Iceman's Pants
40 oz. Goods; Extra Heavy Pockets—Value $6.00 .... $3.95

WE CARRY A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF FLANNEL SHIRTS, WOOL UNDERWEAR, HEAVY HOSE, SWEATERS, LUMBERJACKETS, PEA COATS, MACKINAWS, FUR BAND CAPS, GLOVES, MITTENS AND EVERYTHING FOR COLD WEATHER.

Exceptional Values In Boys' Wear

1790 1930

Norwich Bulletin

Norwich Courier

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 35-R
Bulletin Job Room 35-W

Willimantic Office
Jordan Block, Lincoln Square. Phone 1131-2.

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

140 YEARS OLD

Members of The Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1930

EARLY CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Ever since the idea was advanced some years ago, there has been growing recognition of the advisability of early Christmas shopping. This is true as to the relief it gives the clerks through a better distribution of the trading, as well as to the advantage that is afforded the buyer in the elimination of the 11th-hour rush, the better assortment of goods and the chance to get what is wanted by easy stages.

The movement for early Christmas shopping has done much toward encouraging many to shop for Christmas throughout the year. This covers only a small part of the Christmas buying, but early shopping has made it necessary for the earlier bringing out of the real Christmas goods with the holiday decorations, as well as the thoughts and spirit of the season.

The urge for shopping early is just as real and just as potent as it ever was. There are the stocks of goods which are ready to be seen and to be moved. It is possible to look them over and make the desired selection without getting into jams, if the buying is done early. One can shop extensively and not experience any inconvenience by going about it before the hustle and bustle sets in. In fact, through the early shopping, it is possible to greatly reduce the last-minute rush, the hectic search and the grand rush to accomplish the impossible. It simply means making an earlier start instead of waiting until the few days before Christmas.

But if the shopper isn't prompted to such action by self-interest, there should not be overlooked the opportunity to extend some relief to the clerks. No one understands the benefit of early shopping better than they do. They prefer to have their time well occupied each day from now until Christmas than to experience much idle time, only to be required to take care of those jams which all but move the counters off the floor, and be asked to do the impossible in trying to supply the wants of a score of persons at the same time.

Early Christmas shopping is beneficial to all concerned. The merchants as well as the clerks welcome it and the trading public cannot fail to be mindful of its value if they but stop to give it serious thought. Early Christmas shopping simply means breaking away from that common habit of procrastination.

A NATIONAL REFERENDUM

Everything indicates that the present session of congress is going to produce some interesting debates on prohibition. Already bills have been introduced which call for a modification of the Volstead act, Connecticut coming to the front with a resolution seeking 4 per cent beer, while from Massachusetts came a resolution for a national referendum on the 18th amendment.

A national referendum is something which has been urged on more than one occasion but which has never secured much encouragement because of the claim that there was no provision for holding such. It is the proposal of Congressman Andrew of Massachusetts that it lies within the power of congress to secure a referendum in the exercise of its authority relative to the amending of the Constitution. Under the Constitution it rests with congress to set in motion an amendment when it is possible to get two-thirds of the votes in both houses. Such a proposal must be submitted to the states for ratification, the vote of three-fourths of the legislatures being necessary to ratify, but it is pointed out by Congressman Andrew that the Constitution also provides for ratification by conventions in three-fourths of the states, the proposal as to which form resting with congress.

It is through the convention plan that opportunity would be provided for a national referendum, inasmuch as the delegates to the convention called for the particular purpose, would be chosen on their wet or dry stand and the vote on the members would indicate the sentiment in the various states.

Certain states have had referendums which have proved informative as to the sentiment of the voters. The presentation of the Andrew resolution doesn't insure the adoption of it, or the early coming of such a national referendum, but there would be an opportunity of sounding the sentiment of the voters of the country if such a plan should be adopted. It will be sure to encounter the opposition of the dry forces unless, by chance, there exists the belief on their part that the drys are in the majority.

SECRETARY DAVIS' RECOMMENDATIONS

During the ten years that he has served as secretary of the department of labor, James J. Davis, now senator-elect from Pennsylvania, has persistently advocated the registration of aliens in order that it might be possible to know who is entitled to be here and who came in in violation of the immigration laws.

In his concluding report as secretary of labor, Mr. Davis sets forth his views in regard to changes in the immigration laws. In fact, he believes that those laws should be brought together under one law, that there should be increased restriction of immigration, or that they should be made to operate in accord with labor requirements and that aliens who are desirous of overthrowing the government, who are affiliated with any organization the purpose of which is to supplant our form of government with a totally different system, or who engages independently in advocating such changes, through force or violence, should be deported.

The sentiment thus expressed coincides with views which have been offered by other advocates of immigration restrictions or control. It comes from one who has had years of experience in dealing with such cases and who should have a fair idea of what the conditions are which prompt the advocacy of increased restrictions.

Furthermore, Mr. Davis would change the naturalization laws to make them more stringent and he would so alter the deportation laws that the habitual lawbreakers and undesirables among the aliens, now immune from deportation, could be sent out of the country. This is a view that will strike a responsive chord in the opinions of many who have long deplored the failure to deal with this situation as they feel should be done. Whatever action has been taken in the past has not covered the situation to the extent that is advocated by the retiring secretary. If it hasn't been needed in the past, it is his belief that it is needed now, and will be a protective measure for the future. He has no sympathy with the idea that wild-eyed aliens should be permitted to do as they please and to the extent they please in their efforts to break down the established government, but he will find plenty of sympathy for the position he has taken and the demands he has made in the way of new legislation.

THE SANATORIUM FUND

Interest always runs strong in connection with the various funds which are raised locally for institutions and organizations. There is a recognition of the worthiness of the cause in each instance, the good use to which the funds are put, and a desire to participate in the fine work by giving assistance to the agencies which are so ably directed and render such efficient service.

For years there has been a holiday fund for the patients at the tuberculosis sanatorium. It has repeatedly awakened a general interest and participation and there has been due appreciation of the fact that where the many lend a hand there is bound to be pleasing results. Reports of past years attest the generous participation and the fine results attained. That it means much to those at the sanatorium, those sadly afflicted, and brings cheer to them on many occasions when relatives and friends may not be able to be with them and when institutional funds do not cover the various extras which make their stay in the hospital happier.

There are many and various ways in which this fund serves to please and encourage the sanatorium patients. Even as the effort has aroused a general interest, so has the voice of appreciation from the sick demonstrated how worthwhile it all is. The idea has been a success from the start. Certainly public interest has intended that it should be, and there is every reason for believing that the fund which is being raised at this time will be quite as generously supported as in the past. Interest never ceases to run strong when it comes to doing something that will cheer the sick.

SELLING THE SHIPS

The shippinug board is gradually getting to the point where the government can get out of the business of competing with private shipping interests. The year has seen a decrease in the number of government-owned merchant vessels by 100, and the business has undergone such a decided change that the board has reduced its salary account by nearly $900,000, through a 23 per cent decrease in its payroll.

This represents progress toward the goal that is much desired. It means that it ought not to be long now before the government can quit entirely the operation of merchant vessels and direct its attention to cleaning up the ends which will remain for a long time in connection with the sale of the various lines and the loans that have been made to ship-owners.

In connection with the disclosure of its activities during the year, the shipping board has a list of recommendations for the ear of congress. They bear upon many phases of the shipping business. They call for increased appropriations in certain directions and the extension of certain restrictions which now prevail. There is an evident purpose to increase the encouragement given to private shipping and the construction of new ships. Recognition is given to the desirability of having adequate shipping facilities in the days to come, when improved conditions will call for increased water transportation. This view is being taken by American shipowners who are ready to put new and better boats into service along the New England coast if the development of the Cape Cod canal can be assured.

Although it will be some time before the shipping board will go out of existence, the day is approaching when it will have disposed of its ships and thus terminate what has been one of the steady and heavy drains on the country.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner says: Cheer up, winter hasn't been driven beyond recall.

Now that we have had snow there will be no more use for the lawn mower this year.

Those 7,000 seeking jobs as prohibition agents may have heard how well the others have fared.

Boston is calling attention to its 18 new industries during October, and it is something to brag about even if at present they only employ 350 hands Great oaks from little acorns grow.

If there is an argument about who started that kind of singing known as crooning, there can be none about who should stop it.

Probably there will always be those who think that the worse criminals act, both in and out of prison, the more leniently they should be treated, overlooking, of course, that they force their own punishments.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

(Special to The Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—Nothing is heard but "Will the house be democratic in the next congress?" Even when the news of the death of Representative Quayle caused the flags at the capitol to be lowered to half mast, the query most often heard was "Is that for a republican or democrat?" so keen is the competition for party leadership in a congress which bids fair to be settled by one or two votes at the most.

An extra session is surely looming, whether or not it actually comes over the top. Regular republicans are openly against it—they also openly disapprove of the president's proposal to put the world court and controversial matters of that sort before congress this winter, thus blocking advancement of appropriation bills. They believe such a course spells disaster to the continuance of republican power, for apparently it means concessions to both democrats and republican "liberals" as they like to be called, who form a combined majority. On the other hand many of the democrats apparently do not want a spring session to quickly follow; they want to make sure of their strength in actual votes, not based on merely coalition promises. The insurgents, now holding committee chairmanships or ranking places, fear they may not fare as well under democratic power. We could ramble on columns, and yet get back to where we started. It is all uncertain, but indications are for an extra session, unless death steps in and makes the party majority even more of an uncertainty than now. Here are some democratic "indications" gleaned this week.

If straws show which way the political wind blows, the fact that Democratic Floor Leader John Garner of Texas has left the quiet little family hotel where he long lived, up on Capitol Hill, and moved to a sumptuous big down town hotel, would indicate that he expects to be speaker of the house when the next congress convenes, whether at an extra session or a year hence. In fact, it rather points to an indication that Garner doesn't expect to let the grass grow under his feet, in becoming "The Chair" if he can help it, by advocating an extra session this spring. Speakers are in the social spotlight.

John Garner is no laggard when it comes to being right on the spot when things happen. He is always the first man in the dining room, when the doors open for breakfast, and they say he is the last man to quit the card game, in which he and his table of cronies indulge in every night. Garner isn't a quitter in anything. Peppery as befits a Texan born man; short of stature, rosy and just a bit rotund, but not too much so. Garner's rather high pitched voice can usually be heard in the clinching argument of a debate, whether on the floor of the house or in the cloak room.

Garner may want to utilize insurgent republicans to serve his purpose as speaker or floor leader, but as for really joining hands with one of them, and openly endorsing such a thing as an insurgent move, he would probably prefer tar and feathers for himself, rather than advocate anything in the world except straight democracy. Garner is a staunch democrat, a southerner who truly believes that section of the country must be the guiding star of all other sections, otherwise the whole world will go wrong. Rich and powerful, Garner never "puts on airs." He is a true democratic in the sense of the word, as used non-politically.

The genuine friendship and comradeship that exists between Garner, democratic floor leader, Colonel John Tilson, republican floor leader and Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the house is one of the most notable of house membership personal tie-ups.

They like nothing better than lay aside politics and start off together for a ball game, or some sort of a side-show, every week. The government furnishes the speaker of the house with a big car and chauffeur. The favorite joke is "Whose car is it." Garner will query Longworth. "It's really my car, but I'm glad to have you ride in it." Whereupon the dignified speaker of the house will unbend and reply, "Not on your life, John. It's my car, but I'll be glad to take you in and give you a ride." All the while Tilson, who towers head and shoulders above either of the other two snaps in with "Settle it between you. I'm getting in and going to ride anyhow, and if you don't quit fussing I'll leave you both behind." And it's always Nick, John and the colonel between them. Each hangs on like a dog to a bone, for the rights and the benefits of his party and its policies, but personally partisanship is a forgotten incident.

Tilson is tall, several inches over six feet, with heavy dark hair now showing streaks of great-broad shoulders and a voice that needs no amplifier to help it along; Garner is short, a bit stout, and with an "upper C" sort of voice. The speaker is between the other in height, impressively polite, and though not snobbish, is a far cry for a "pat me on the back" type. He is decidedly bald in spots, and getting a bit "portly." While Garner is impetuous and peppery, neither Tilson nor Longworth can be jostled or driven out of their customary composure and remarkable poise.

Democratic women politicians either in their own right or through marital heritage, are flocking to social and political affairs in great numbers. To those of us who have watched the changes from one partisan control to another, that too, spells a determination by the democrats to take over the wheel and steer the next congress if they can do so. Of course there is a stiff controversy within their own ranks as to the wisdom of assuming responsibility of legislation while a republican president holds the veto power, but all the same they are standing in the front line ready to jump at the first pop of a gun. It's a sort of waiting for "You may fire now, Gridley," situation, only they haven't yet picked out who shall be the "Gridley" of the occasion.

But to return to the "Lady" as Senator Lewis would say, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of the late president, has blossomed into social and political life once more, after having shown a decided disinclination to mingle largely in it, since the death of the president. I note that Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Preston, widow of President Cleveland, took an active part in the recent luncheon given here by the woman's organization of the democratic party—something new for them to do.

Former Governor of Wyoming, Mrs. Nellie Ross, is here and she too is entertaining at luncheons, speaking at political affairs and so are many other democratic women of note.

The National Woman's Democratic club is keeping open house, and whether or not the scanty majority either party holds in the next congress gives them the right of way, they are all prepared to step out in fine shape if the opportunity comes their way.

We already hear southern democrats naming the next democratic presidential candidates. The latest slate seem to be George White, Ohio, wet president, and Cordell Hull, Tennessee, dry for vice president. The southern men talking most just now do not seem over keen about either Franklin Roosevelt or a revival of the Gov. Smith boom. They seem to want to present a party split bu putting up a "fancy match" of a wet northerner and a dry southerner for their presidential team. And what is even more noticeable among that group is the lack of enthusiasm shown concerning the possible selection of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, who suffered defeat on the last national ticket. Hull has just been elected to the senate after serving about 20 years or more in the house.

NEW REALTY CHANGE ON SITE OF OLD BETHEL RECALLS STORY OF ANCIENT LANDMARK

A famous old landmark that passed away more than 30 years ago is recalled by the announcement that a gasoline station will replace structures now standing at West Main street and Falls avenue, opposite the Mahoney building, at the entrance of the approach to Union depot. These structures share with Falls avenue the site of Old Bethel, which had stood there from 1844 to 1897, and which from 1795 to 1844 had been the home of the Second Congregational society on Church street. The building was twice severely damaged by fire; and it is a coincidence that after each fire it was sold.

The second of these severe fires, which occurred in 1896, started the chain of events which led up to the acquisition of the property by the city, which wanted it in order to widen the approach to Union depot. The story is told in news items from the files of The Bulletin.

Much Damaged By Fire

From the issue of Aug. 31, 1896:

About midnight yesterday, Isaac Hyman, who runs the restaurant in the Old Bethel corner of Falls avenue and North Main street, was closing up when a kerosene lamp exploded and fell to the floor. In an instant the whole room was in flames. Officer Norris struck in an alarm from box 14 at 1:05, and the department responded promptly. Before they arrived, however, the whole southeast corner was ablaze and the flames were eating their way upward.

The fire spread so rapidly that within fifteen minutes it had broken through the roof and soon it was all afire.

The firemen, directed by Chief Greeneberg and his assistants, worked well, but the old structure was doomed and they could do little toward putting out the fire.

The contents of the building, being largely wood and paints and oil, helped on the flames. The old landmark is damaged beyond possible repair.

The first floor was occupied by Hyman, J. T. Perkins and company, carpenters, and Fred C. Crowell, dealer in paints, oils, windows, etc. Mr. Crowell also occupied the second floor, the upper floor being used for storage. The building belonged to John T. Perkins and was partially insured.

Crowell and Perkins and company were also insured and their loss is heavy. Hyman had no insurance, and he lost everything. The total loss will probably reach $8,000.

Later the fire broke into the brick building on the west, owned by Irving Harvey. The damage, however, was mostly by smoke.

The Old Bethel was one of the oldest buildings in the city.

The building was moved to its present location from Church street. It was used for revivals, the late Elder Swan holding many meetings there. It was later used as a dance hall, and for many years has been given up to business purposes.

First Assistant H. L. Stanton had his hand badly crushed by a falling timber.

From The Bulletin of Sept. 1, 1896:

Besides the losers already mentioned in connection with the Old Bethel fire, Joseph Lavoire, who occupied the basement as a blacksmith shop, lost everything except a colt, which luckily was rescued by some neighbors. He had no insurance.

P. F. Murtagh had a paint shop on the second floor and everything there was consumed. Mr. Murtagh's loss was partically covered by insurance. The building itself was insured for $3,000, and was owned by J. T. and W. M. Perkins.

Notwithstanding the news report that "the old landmark is damaged beyond possible repair," the owners did show a disposition to restore it, but the city forbade them to do so unless they used some more durable material than wood.

City Buys Property

The reasons that led the city to take the property over, and the method of acquisition finally adopted, are revealed in a report appearing in The Bulletin of March 9, 1897:

The special city meeting Monday evening was called to order by Mayor Osgood shortly after 8 o'clock, about 150 citizens being present. City Clerk Gifford read the warning.

Mayor Osgood briefly told of the circumstances of the Bethel affair, beginning with the action of the city meeting in November voting to condemn the property and concluding with the award of $7,900 by the committee. He stated that the Messrs. Perkins had agreed to accept the award on condition that an additional $850 be given them for an absolute deed of the property.

If the city was not willing to appropriate this and take a deed there were four citizens ready to do it and take the deed and hold the property subject to the city's order.

S. A. Crandall said that by the condemnatory proceedings the city only acquires highway rights, the fee remaining in the Messrs. Perkins. He believed it for the city's interest to own the property, and do as they wished with it, and offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the court of common council be and it is hereby authorized to appropriate from the city treasury a sum not exceeding $850 to defray the expense of purchasing of John T. Perkins and William M. Perkins their interest in the Bethel property so-called."

Frank Ulmer inquired if the money from the New London Northern Railroad company and from the two citizens was given unconditionally.

Mayor Osgood answered that the money from the railroad company was given unconditionally, and that from the citizens on the proviso that the property be taken by condemnation.

Dr. C. B. Farnsworth inquired if there was any claim on the property to prevent a sale of all or a portion, and was informed that there was none.

Dr. Patrick Cassidy, Mr. Ulmer and Z. R. Robbins made remarks concerning the widening and grading of Falls avenue after the property was secured.

A ballot was taken on the resolution and there were 48 yeas and 4 nays, and it was adopted.

Paid $15 For Building

On April 8, 1897, it is announced:

Contractor John Donovan has purchased the Bethel building of the city for $15 and is to move it away and assume the liability of accident to adjoining property. He is to fill in the cellar and leave stone enough to build a retaining wall. The work of tearing down this old structure was begun yesterday.

History of the Building

The following letter, published in the Bulletin of Sept. 5, 1896, tells how the building came to be located on Central Wharf:

Editor of The Bulletin: An item appeared in one of our newspapers a few days ago stating that my grandfather, Capt. W. W. Colt, purchased the old Bethel as the result of an election wager. The facts of the case are as follows:

Capt. Colt was a great admirer of Henry Clay, and when Clay was a candidate for the presidency, he felt so confident of his election that he promised to buy the Rev. Dr. Bond's old church, which was for sale, in case his candidate was defeated.

This promise he fulfilled and moved the historic old building down to his new made land between the bridges.

A few years previous Capt. Colt had conceived the idea and commenced the work of filling in the shallows of the Yantic cove, and near where the Bethel stands is the spot where he laid the first foundation of Central wharf by sinking an old scow filled with rocks.

The old Bethel was occupied for many years by Willoughby and company, carpenters and builders, and I have heard Mr. Willoughby say that when he first moved into the building it was customary for the carpenters to throw their refuse and shavings from the rear windows of the Bethel, into the waters of the cove.

Hollyhock island has been extended rapidly during the past thirty years, and it is difficult to believe that the acres of ground upon which now stand the new Union depot and numerous large factories, stores, and buildings, at one time did not exist, and that the Yantic once flowed without obstruction from the Falls to its junction with the Shetucket.

LEEDS W. COIT.

Lottery Aided Building Fund

Mr. Coit's reference to Henry Clay fixes the date when his grandfather bought the building at 1844. In the spring of that year a fire had so injured the structure that the Second Congregationalist society decided not to attempt a reconstruction; and this decision resulted in the offer of the building for sale. After Capt. Colt had taken it away the church erected on the same site the building of dark-blue granite which it occupied till it consolidated with the Broadway Congregational society to form the United church.

The old church building, bought by Mr. Colt, was dedicated on Thanksgiving day, Dec. 24, 1795. To aid in defraying the cost, a lottery to raise 850 pounds was granted by the general assembly.

"The dimensions of this edifice," according to Miss Frances M. Caulkins' "History of Norwich," "were 42 by 62 feet. It was surmounted by a belfry and a short spire, and was painted white outside and green within. The pulpit was partly formed by a recess in the wall—called in the accounts, 'a scooped-out pulpit'—and the pews were so high that when seated only tall persons could raise the head and shoulders above the sides." Later the house was enlarged and the pews were changed into slips; and such was the arrangement of the seating when Capt. Colt bought the building in 1844.

An entry in the Bulletin of Oct. 12, 1866, tells when the Bethel property passed from Capt. Colt's hands:

Two pieces of Capt. W. W. Colt's North Central Wharf property, including the Bethel building, and the dwelling west of the same, have been sold for $23,500. The Pequot Machine company and Elisha Slocum, Esq., agent, are the purchasers.

Willoughby & Co. Were Tenants

Another Bulletin item describes Willoughby and company referred to by Leeds Colt as tenants of Old Bethel when it was used for business purposes.

From the issue of April 16, 1869:

The business of Willoughby and company has been established 40 years. They are contractors and builders, and also carry on a sash and blind factory, in which a 40-horse power engine is in use. The Norwich Free Academy is a specimen of their work, and several other large buildings in that vicinity praise them. They employ 50 to 100 hands, and do an annual business of $200,000.

Was Business Home of M. P. Lewis

Other tenants of Old Bethel are mentoned in the obituary of Maxson P. Lewis, whose entire business life seems to have centered about this ancient landmark. Mr. Lewis' obituary appeared in the Bulletin of Dec. 11, 1896, as follows:

Maxson P. Lewis, one of Norwich's oldest and best-known citizens, died at his home, 36 Uncas street, yesterday evening about 6:30 o'clock, of pneumonia. He was out and apparently in good health Monday, but on Tuesday was stricken with pneumonia, which caused his death.

Mr. Lewis was nearly 77 years of age, and had spent most of his life in Norwich. He learned the trade of a carpenter, and for several years was employed by various persons in this branch of work.

In 1866 he became a member of the firm of Willoughby and company, which at that time consisted of Arena P. Willoughby and Zadoc C. Crowell. They carried on the building and carpentering business in the Old Bethel building on Central wharf and built a large number of dwelling houses. In 1867 Mr. Willoughby retired, but Messrs. Crowell and Lewis carried on the business under the old firm name until 1881, when Mr. Lewis retired and went into the sash and blind business with Edmond L. Baldwin, under the firm name of Lewis & Baldwin.

In 1884 Z. C. Crowell was taken into the firm, the name of which became Crowell, Lewis and company. Mr. Baldwin retired in 1886, and Mr. Crowell and Mr. Lewis continued the business until the death of the former, in February, 1888.

Mr. Lewis ran the business alone until about two years ago, when he sold out to Fred C. Crowell, and has since done no active business, looking after his real estate, of which he owned a considerable amount.

Mr. Lewis was a man of business ability and was associated with the building interests of Norwich for many years. Of a jovial, genial disposition, he made many friends. He took a great interest in religious and temperance work, and was for many years a trustee of the Central Methodist Episcopal church. He had quite a gift of speech, and often spoke at church and other religious meetings.

He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Huntington of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mrs. William P. Kellogg of New York, whose husband was at one time pastor of the East Main street Methodist church in this city.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—" . . . they are fresher from the hands of God.

" . . . we live a life of apprehension as to what their opinion may be of us; of defense against their terrifying energy.

"We put them to bed with a sense of relief . . . and a lingering of devotion. . . ."

Do you know who spoke those lines, speaking of children, anybody's children? Maybe not, yet you know the man, or know of him. Your memories of him probably stretch back more than a dozen years during which he has been an international figure.

Human Side

Perhaps you think of him sometimes as one with a mind that functions like an adding machine, computing economic formulae from a bewildering chaos of cold, emotionless statistics; reducing the business of life itself to percentage tables.

You will find much of that even in what he wrote of children from which the lines quoted above are taken.

Yet in those lines themselves you glimpse another man. For the Bystander they depict a man of tender sympathies, with heart strings attuned to the touch of a childish hand.

And which is the real Herbert Hoover?

Friends and writer folk a-plenty have had visions of humanizing Hoover to his fellow countrymen, never seemingly with his even tacit co-operation. Party press agents have looked longingly toward that forbidden field of effort.

But Mr. Hoover seems to guard against intimate revelations of himself.

Contrast

He has lived for years cheek by jowl with all officialdom of Washington, yet no such wealth of little stories of his off-stage sayings and doings has grown up as surrounded his immediate predecessors at the white house—Wilson, Harding, Coolidge.

White house sources of such material, fruitful in other years, dried up when Hoover came in.

Now and then there has come a surreptitious sidelight. Recently the Bystander has seen Mr. Hoover quoted as saying in answer to a friend's inquiry as to what task he would most like to undertake that it would be to feed all the hungry children in the world.

Or there is that story sometimes told of a Hoover breaking in on a busy presidential day to draw the toddling son of a visitor to his knee and talk with him in childhood's language, tell him of the president's own fondest ambition in childhood to be a locomotive engineer.

When will that intimate, human, personal story of Herbert Hoover be written?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sunset And Evening Star

Mr. Editor: November, the 11th month, has been very kind to us mortals, we needed rain and we received it. Now once again we have the sunshine, and all this is necessary for the happiness and the well being of man. Many things are given to us that we admire, and at the close of day just before the shades of night comes down we look from our windows at the brilliant November sunsets, at the wondrous colors in the western sky as the sun descends beyond the western horizon. Some have told us of the beauty of the Italian sunsets and yet there remains an hour in which it is possible to enjoy the brilliant sunsets which are of frequent occurrence at this time of the year. When summer is yet lingering in the lap of autumn, many of us who go out through the country just at evening, find some place, some elevation, where we can look with admiration upon nature's paintings. Often as I have looked upon this with its wondrous colors the thought has come to me, may not this be just a reflection that comes back to us from the heavens above? Perhaps you may choose to climb upon some nearby hill, where you can secure an unobstructed view; where nothing but the intertwined branches of the trees offer just a slight impediment. We look with wonder upon the sky of blue that looks with its space like a vast sea of translucent blue, and see the clouds that go sailing by like vast ships that may be sailing on to other lands in search of adventure. Soon the whole sky is transformed, and if the day has been clear, we see the sun slowly, silently sinking along the western sky, and then there appears all those wondrous colors of coral, saffion and translucent green, such as was described by Coleridge, and has been transferred to canvas by George Inness or Turner. Almost as you look upon this wonder it begins to fade and the dusky gray replaces the radiance of this wonderful sunset. Yet the fleeting picture that we have seen is still hanging on memory's wall, and is listed among our proud possessions as having seen one of God's glorious banners that he has hung out in the western sky for us to marvel, and adore. Soon, all too soon, the shades of night descend and in the dim twilight as we roll along we hear the cry of some night bird overhead, its wings are seen like an etching in the darkening sky. We hear the chirping of the crickets as they call to each other, some wild creature of the night that has been aroused from its reverie, scared perhaps by the whirr of the motor scampers across the road. The dew begins to fall and there is a perceptible dampness upon the night air. Day merges into night, the day is done, and we cannot help but think everything is so wonderful and so well arranged. Soon the air becomes cooler and gradually the distant lamps of heaven, the stars come into view, and they seem to have an added sparkle, a greater brilliancy, like great big diamonds. Even Lord Byron in his poem, "The Stars," said they are the poetry of heaven. This has been the inspiration of many writers. Do you recall Louis Untermeyer in "Calaban of the Coal Mines."

Nothing but blackness above,
And nothing that moves but the cars.
God, if you wish for our love,
Fling us a handful of stars.

As the air becomes cooler, with the tang of frost in the air, you note the many worlds that appear above us. It is truly a sublime spectacle, for as you gaze upon the splendor of this wonderful drama of nature, you can see as in a vision those shepherds as they watched their flocks and as they gazed at that wondrous star of Bethlehem. Viewed in this light, the starry heavens exercise a moral hold upon our lives. I wonder if some of you old boys don't recollect that old jingle—you do, of course you do—and as soon as I start it you will be away ahead of me. Here goes:

Twinkle, twinkle, little star
How I wonder what you are
Up above the world so high
Like a diamond in the sky.

I guess I have got that pretty near right, and after all may they not be diamonds in God's crown of glory. Who knows, or who can dispute it? While the shadows are falling we gaze upward and see all these other worlds, sparkling, scintillating, in their splendor. Soon they pass on and we look toward the eastern sky and we see once again the glorious sunrise of another day. The sunset and stars have gone, but they will return again, and gleam like jewels in a cloudless sky.

C. H. "DAD" SHAW.

Passaic, Nov. 27, 1930.

What Do You Know About Eastern Connecticut?

1.—What business was conducted at Norwich by H. D. Avery in the 1890's?

2.—What was its address?

3.—How many assistants were employed?

4.—Where was Mr. Avery born?

5.—What was the tax rate of the town of Stafford in 1928?

6.—Of the borough?

7.—Indebtedness of the town?

8.—Of the borough?

Answers Will Be Found On Classified Page

YOUR HEALTH

Dust Hazard In Industry

By W. Irving Clark, M. D., Worcester.
(From Gorgas Memorial Institute)

Very many manufacturing processes produce dust. This dust may vary in quantity from a very slight amount, hardly noticeable in the air, to a light cloud resembling a fog in the workroom. The quality of the dust also varies depending on the materials from which it arises. Both the quantity of the dust and the quality of the dust play a part in determining whether or not the dust condition in a department presents a health hazard.

The danger to the worker of inhaling air which contains a large amount of dust is not immediate. A worker may continue to work for several years in an atmosphere, moderately heavy in dust, without suffering any disability, but generally long continued breathing of very dusty air produces changes in the lung which after from ten to twenty years exposure lead to shortness of breath, chronic bronchitis and a peculiar susceptibility to tuberculosis of the lungs (slow consumption).

There seems to be pretty good evidence that any form of mineral dust will produce changes in the lung if inhaled in sufficient quantity for a long enough time. However, it is also believed that a large amount of free silica in the dust increases the danger. Dust having high silica content causes changes in the lung much more rapidly than dust which is silica free. But even dust having a high percentage of silica is not harmful if the amount of dust inhaled is small, and the period it is inhaled is not too long. It must be remembered that only the very finest particles of dust reach the lung. Much of the dust consists of particles too large to be inhaled into the lungs. Also much of the fine dust inhaled does not reach the lung, being caught on its way by the moist surfaces over which it must pass.

Therefore, the dust hazard depends largely on the efficient removal of dust at the places on the machines where it is produced. That is, if the dust is caught in hoods and sucked out of these by strong exhausts, very little fine dust gets into the workroom. Such small amount as does escape is almost harmless even when inhaled over several years.

The hazard lies in breathing large quantities of dust over many years, not in working in a room in which dust is occasionally produced. It is generally believed that if the dust-removing equipment is in proper condition, the amount of dust in the workrooms of modern factories is too small to be harmful.

In some professions such as sand blasting, it is impossible to remove the dust at the point it occurs. In such cases the work is done in a cabinet separate from the worker, or if this cannot be arranged, the worker is protected by a dust-proof helmet to which the fresh air is constantly provided as in a diver's helmet.

Marked progress in reducing the health hazard of dust is being made yearly and it is to be hoped that within a few years the problem at least in large factories will be completely solved.

Stories That Recall Others

Family Flower

"Who's the girl you spoke to?"

"My sister in law."

"Didn't know you had one. What's her name?"

"Violet-but she's a wet, soggy dandelion to me!"

Barred

A neighbor offered Martha, who was admiring his puppies, one of the rat terriers.

"I know mother won't let me have it because we don't raise rats, and her grocery bill is about all she can stand," said the philosophical six year old.

North Carolina is spending $5,000,000 a year on Negro education, a contrast with the $1,000,000 a year which the same state spent on all education about thirty years ago.

B	A	N	■	B	R	E	E	D	■	I	R	E
A	N	E	M	I	A	■	L	I	N	N	E	T
A	N	T	■	S	T	E	A	M	■	K	E	A
■	E	■	S	K	I	N	N	E	D	■	F	■
S	A	L	E	■	O	D	D	■	E	M	E	U
P	L	E	A	D	■	U	■	A	C	O	R	N
A	■	A	S	P	I	R	A	T	E	D	■	D
R	E	S	O	W	■	A	■	L	I	E	G	E
E	V	E	N	■	O	N	T	■	T	S	A	R
■	A	■	S	P	A	C	E	R	S	■	L	■
A	D	O	■	A	R	E	N	A	■	R	O	E
R	E	D	U	C	E	■	E	T	H	E	R	S
E	S	E	■	E	D	I	T	S	■	P	E	T

(Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle)

CATARRH of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of—
VICKS VAPORUB
26/21
OVER 17 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

$50,000
Millbrook Woolen Mills, Inc.
7 per cent Cumulative Preferred Stock
SHARES $100.00 EACH
Dividend Dates — January 1; April 1; July 1; October 1.

The citizens of Norwich are invited to subscribe for one, two, five, ten or as many shares as may be desired and thereby help make possible the re-opening of the old Yantic Woolen Mill Company Plant

For convenience subscription blanks may be secured from
The Thames Bank and Trust Co.
The Uncas-Merchants National Bank and
James L. Case, 40 Shetucket St.

YE CASTLE GARDENS
INDOOR GOLF
MAJESTIC BLDG.—NORWICH
Open 11 a. m.-12 p. m
Sundays 2 p. m.
—SPECIAL LUNCHES DAILY—
In Our Tea Rom
12 m. to 2 a. m.
Luncheonnette Open All Day

See our Display of Jamesway Equipment
at the
NORWICH POULTRY SHOW
to be held in
Olympic Hall
Dec. 3 - 4 - 5
A. E. SHEDD
NORWICH

For Your Next Breakfast
Eat Our
Home Made
PORK SAUSAGE or
SAUSAGE MEAT
100% Pure
40c per lb.
THUMM'S
Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street

Taken Back to State Hospital

Gustave Bjork was returned to Norwich state hospital Monday afternoon after he had been found earlier in the day in an intoxicated condition by the police. He had escaped from the hospital about six weeks ago. Officers Peter Sullivan and Patrick Murphy brought the man to police headquarters before he was returned to the hospital.

NO NEED TO BE TIRED OUT IN MID-AFTERNOON

By Eating or Drinking Something Sweet This Zero Hour Can Be Avoided

Millions of people engaged in business have the common problem of fighting fatigue in mid-afternoon. This condition is due, not only to the fact that energy has been expended during the early part of the day, but that business invariably speeds up in the afternoon and makes its greatest demands on the worker.

Scientific tests have proved that this mid-afternoon fatigue can be overcome or lessened materially by eating or drinking something sweet. The type of nourishment which has been used in the experiments are candy, ice cream, cookies, cakes, milk, carbonated beverages and the "athlete's cocktail"—a glass of water sweetened with sugar.

It is the sugar in these snacks that refreshes the system. Of all food products, none is more quickly digested than sugar and its energy becomes available immediately.

Since candy, cakes, ice cream and sweet beverages are within reach of nearly every one there is no need to endure the "gone" feeling during the daily zero hour. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

SORE THROAT
Almost instant relief guaranteed with one swallow of 35c 60c
THOXINE

1790 1930

Norwich, Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1930

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 4:49 this evening.

Plainfield grange provided four Thanksgiving dinners for needy families.

Native eggs were selling in some of the Norwich stores Monday at 55 cents a dozen.

Connecticut sportsmen will go up into Massachusetts for the deer season, which opened Monday.

Early Monday evening the moon appeared lost in a big bank of snow, but later it was sharp and clear.

The December bulletin of the Otis Library lists a particularly long number of books for juvenile reading.

With the coming of December 1st the Block Island steamer from Stonington went on her winter schedule.

For the first time in twenty years a well near the tabernacle on Willimantic Camp Ground failed this season.

Demand for curtain goods has been steady throughout the year and has been especially good in recent months, dealers report.

The beautiful flowers at Park Congregational church Sunday were the gift of the family in loving memory of Frank H. Pullen.

The leader of the devotional meeting of the Epworth League at Trinity Methodist church Sunday evening was Edward Lichenstein.

The Holy Name society of St. Patrick's parish will memorialize all departed members by a mass requested in the church for Wednesday.

Winter does not begin officially till Dec. 22nd at 8:40 a. m., but the sharp wind of Monday night made it exceedingly like the genuine season.

At North Stonington, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Longernecker, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Longernecker of Brooklyn, were at their farm home over the holidays.

Miss Nellie M. Arnold of Cliff street, is visiting relatives in Winchendon, Mass. She reports 8 degrees below zero, Thanksgiving day, and quite a little snow.

At a husking bee held by the Temple Building association at Niantic, prizes for best costumes were awarded Mrs. Elmer Russell and Philip Rowley.

Regular meeting Mercier assembly, No. 12, C. L. of C. tonight at 8 o'clock. Initiation and election of officers.—adv.

Mrs. Bruce F. Rogers of Norwich, Mrs. Ernest Murphy of Waterford, Edward Duell of Mystic were dismissed Sunday from Home Memorial hospital, New London.

Monday at 8 o'clock, in St. Patrick's church, a month's mind high mass of requiem for John J. Keefe and George W. Tryon was sung by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May.

Orders taken for Christmas cake. Telephone 2432.—adv.

Pupils in the Mohegan Hill school displayed in the windows during the holiday period the best drawn and most carefully colored turkeys made in their classwork.

When the December meeting of Philathea class is held at the United Congregational church Friday evening, the hostesses will be Mrs. William H. Dawley and Mrs. Flynn.

Dr. Ann H. Morgan, professor of zoology at Mt. Holyoke college, has returned after spending Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Julia Morgan of Lakes Pond, Waterford.

Supper-entertainment, sauerkraut, beans, salads. Versailles M. E. church, tonight. Supper 5-8.—adv.

The Nutmeg Trail of the Epworth League, of which Francis Green, of Rockville, is president, meets Friday, December 2 at East Hartford. There will be a meeting, an address and social.

This is a month of interest for the amateur astronomer, since the planet Venus is morning star, rising about two hours before the sun, and reaching her greatest brilliancy the latter part of the month.

Pinochle at Buckingham Mem. today, 2:00 p. m. D. of V.—adv.

Several of the visitors from Norwich to New London Monday were among those purchasing apples from the basket of an unemployed man who has taken up that means of trying to earn a little money.

Local benevolent organizations looking out for the needy are prompt to see that families or individuals have the necessary fuel. To be cold is more of a trial to those in distressthan it is even to be hungry.

The new Harding 1 1-2 cent stamp, issued Dec. 1, bears the full-faced likeness of President Harding instead of the profile view. The border design also has been changed to agree with stamps of the regular issue.

Word has been received by Mrs. Gus Kellas of New London of the death Nov. 10 in Pjitjifies, near Athens, Greece, of Alexander Peterson, year-old son of Stavros F. Peterson, New London confectioner, and Mrs. Peterson.

Old Saybrook selectmen give notice that 3,000 feet more of water pipe is being laid by the Guilford-Chester Water Co. There have been 40 men, all residents of Saybrook, employed on this work, which has greatly helped in the unemployment situation.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. B. B. Gardner, of Jewett City is to speak before A Circle and others interested, at the Central Baptist church, on her experiences while attending the Silver Bay conference, although her topic will be India.

In the recent open fur trimming exhibit in New York, attended by Connecticut men, particularly noteworthy were the offerings in popular-price skins of the effects and colorings of expensive furs. Seventeen dyers participated in the exhibit, the first of its kind in the industry.

Jas. J. Walsh, Dr. Psychologist, author, scholar of international reputation will speak in St. Patrick's parish hall, Wed. Dec. 3, at 8 p. m., on "How to Keep Mentally Fit." Tickets 35c.—adv.

There is to be a United States civil service examination for associate physiologist (apiculture), $3,200 to $3,800 a year; associate technologist (honey), $3,200 to $3,800. Vacancies in the bureau of entomology, department of agriculture, for duty in Washington, D. C., will be filled from these examinations.

Visited at Rectory School

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bidwell and little David Bidwell with Mrs. A. H. Riese visited Albert Riese, a pupil of the Rectory school, Pomfret, over Thanksgiving day.

Contact Club Meeting Postponed

Because the speaker for the Monday meeting of the Contact club was not able to be present, the meeting of the club this week was postponed.

PERSONALS

Miss Mildred Phillips of Storrs spent Sunday with Mrs. Daniel J. Brown in Poquetanuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Zephley and son Samuel, of Montville, spent the week-end in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Lilla Fitzgerald of Norwich, it is noted, has been calling on relatives in Wequetequock.

Rev. William S. Beard, of New York, who has been spending several days in Montville, is now in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Thomas Blanchard and son, Thomas, of North Stonington road are spending a week with relatives in Norwich.

Miss Mary Shea returned to her home at Norwich Town after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carbury of Pequot.

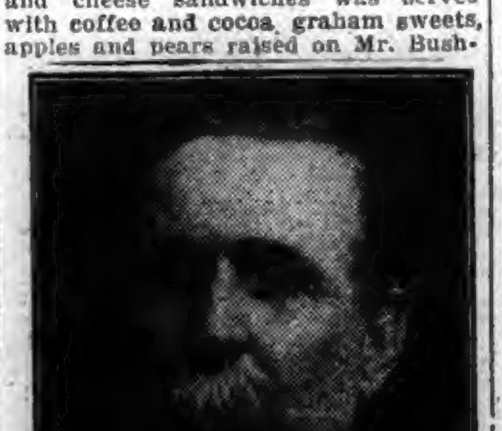
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taber and Mr. and Mrs. Conaty and daughter of Norwich visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newton in Westerly.

Miss Hazel Sundt, a student at Northfield seminary, spent the week end at the home of her father, Rev. Edwin Sundt, at Ridgewood park, Waterford.

David Merritt Carlyle, New London tenor, was soloist Sunday morning at the service at Christ Episcopal church, Norwich, in which he sang as a choir boy 18 years ago.

GAVE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR SELECTMAN BUSHNELL

Sunday proved a day of special enjoyment for Second Selectman Charles P. Bushnell, of the town of Norwich, when his children and grandchildren, as well as other relatives gathered about him at his home on Canterbury turnpike, in recognition of his birthday, although the actual date was Monday, Dec. 1. Those present included Mr. Bushnell's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Santo and children, Helen Elizabeth, Eleanor Jane and Lois Mary Santo; his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Bushnell and children, Ida May, Sadie, Hazel and Jean Bushnell, all of Norwich Town; Mr. Bushnell's other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Thompson and son, Charles Henry Thompson, of Hartford; Mr. Bushnell's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs Nathan Bushnell, of Norwich Town, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ladd, and daughter, Mrs. Raymond Schroder and son, Arthur William Schroder, of Norwich. In this gathering were one grandson and seven granddaughters of Mr. Bushnell. A delicious supper of lettuce, egg, olive, peanut butter, nut and cheese sandwiches was served with coffee and cocoa, graham sweets, apples and pears raised on Mr. Bushnell's farm, as well as candy. A special feature of the repast was two decorated birthday cakes on which were lighted candles. These cakes were made and presented by Mrs. Santo and Mrs. Charles E. Bushnell, and were served with the supper. Later in the evening the eight grandchildren entertained, singing old-time songs, hymns and school songs, Mrs. William Santo playing the accompaniments. The songs included Long, Long Ago; Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching; Old Black Joe; My Old Kentucky Home; Onward Christian Soldiers; Jesus Loves Me; Clap, Clap, Bow; There's a Wee Little Man, In a Wee Little House; The Stein Song, and Betty Co-ed. When singing the Stein Song, the children marched around the chimney. The adults present joined in the choruses.



CHARLES P. BUSHNELL

REPORT PROSPECT OF ELECTRIC CO. MERGER

Preliminary negotiations were reported in East Hampton Monday by which there was prospect that the Connecticut Light and Power company would acquire the Central Connecticut Power and Light company, although the consummation might be several months off.

The Central Connecticut does an electric light and power business and operates in the following towns: East Hampton, Glastonbury, Haddam, East Haddam, Colchester, Chester, Essex, Saybrook, Westbrook and other adjacent communities. Its property consists of a hydro-electric plant at Leesville, transmission and distribution lines. The company also buys electrical energy. It serves a population of 30,000 and has an annual output of 3,000,000 kilowatt hours. It also has street lighting contracts with sixteen organized districts.

THAMES TRUST FIRST ANNIVERSARY NOTED

Officers and employes of the Thames Bank and Trust company noted the bank's first anniversary Monday with the gift of a beautiful basket of flowers to President Francis E. Storer, who took the presidency just a year ago when this leading financial institution of the city began business, following the merger of the Thames bank and the Bankers Trust company. The basket of flowers was from Geduldig's.

FINED FOR SMASHING FURNISHINGS OF CELL

In the city court Monday morning, Zenow Senkanec of this city was fined $5 and costs for intoxication and assessed $5 for damage which he did to his cell at police headquarters. He was found asleep Saturday night on the porch of the rectory of St. Andrew's church and a police dog was standing guard over him. After the police got him in a cell, Senkanec smashed the furnishings.

Invited to Repeat Play

The Unity club of the Young People's department of the Central Baptist Sunday school has been invited by the Norwich grange to repeat the play, "The Cross Roads Meetin' House," in the Grange hall on an evening next week. The girls' share of the proceeds will be donated to some worthy charity.

COUNCIL LAYS $995 ASSESSMENTS FOR SEWER ON AVERY STREET

Following a public hearing before Mayor Lee Roy Robbins and the public works committee the court of common council at its December meeting, Monday evening, adopted a resolution fixing the assessments for benefits derived from the Avery street sewer by property holders on the street. The hearing was called at 7 o'clock by Mayor Robbins. The sewer extends from Mt. Pleasant street to the south end of Avery street. There were about a half dozen of the interested property owners present but no objection to the assessment was raised. Corporation Counsel Edmund W. Perkins explained that the total cost of the sewer was $1,990 and that the city would stand half the expense, leaving the total expense to the property holders as $995. The owners were assessed according to their frontage at a rate of $1.30 a foot. The assessments are as follows and are to be paid by the 15th of February next:

Westerly side of Avery street—Anna and Constantine Plynik, $258.70; Battista and Ginevia Piccini, $71.50; Viola, Victor, Teresa, Raymond W., and Alfred D. Martinelli, $71.50; John Zoladz, $58.50.

South end of Avery street—Boleslaw Zawdzki, $130.00.

Easterly side of Avery street—Thomas P. Murphy, $123.50; Julia and Antoni Ulicickas, $65; John and Alexsandra Podurigiel $65; Vincent and Josephine Grzymkowski, $91.00; Lorenzo and Angiolina Antoinotti, $61.10.

When the council was called to order by Mayor Robbins for the regular monthly meeting, the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted, without reading, according to custom, and City Clerk Weston Pullen read his return of publication of the notice of the new building line ordinance for North Thames street. Petitions were received and referred as follows:

From Daniel Zezza, et al., asking the city to accept East Baltic street as a public highway. Referred to public works committee for report.

From Howard W. Edwards asking the city to remove a horse chestnut tree in front of No. 70 McKinley avenue, as the tree is in the way of a garage driveway he intends to construct. Referred to the public works committee with power.

Claim Disallowed

There were two claims received. One was a claim for $23.85 from Herman Mitterer who complained that his automobile struck a stone in Scott street, and that the battery box, battery and gasoline tank were damaged. The claim was referred to the finance committee and corporation counsel and later in the meeting a recommendation that the claim be disallowed was voted.

Claims Paid

The other claim received at the meeting was one from Helen M. Drescher for $177.50 damages as the result of a fall last September in front of the car barn. This claim was referred to the finance committee and the corporation counsel and later in the meeting they recommended that the claim be settled for the above figure, the recommendation being adopted.

Two other claims, one dating from 1927, were ordered paid. The council voted that Matilda Anderson be paid $82.50 damages as the result of personal injuries received in a fall last September on McKinley avenue.

The 1927 claim voted paid is that of Rose Gerace who was injured when she fell on North Cliff street February 26 of that year. The council voted that she be paid $50 in settlement of her claim.

Electric Lights

The police committee reported the installation of electric lights on Carver ave., Hedge ave., Pukallus ave., Broad street, North Main street, near Golden street and in front of LeBlanc's gas station. The committee recommended that a bug light be placed on Dillon lane, off Golden street, and an arc lamp on Laurel Hill avenue. The council empowered the committee to install the lights. The committee recommended that Joseph Ulikowski, et. al., be given leave to withdraw their petition for three bug lights on Cooper street and the council sustained the recommendation.

Department Bills

The monthly report of the street department, the city treasurer and the quarterly report of the chief of police were received and the following department bills were approved:

Finance dept., $106,745.82; public works dept., $10,747.92; gas and electric dept., $66,975.16; water dept. $4,057.92; police dept., $6,695.26; street lighting, $6,448.05; cemetery dept., $906.03; fire dept., $7,266.06; park dept., $391.13. Adjournment was taken about 8:35 o'clock.

GIVEN SURPRISE FOR GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kessler of 215 West Main street were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening at a family reunion and dinner tendered in honor of their golden wedding anniversary, at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sander Golub, of Preston. Plans for the observance were carried out by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Kessler.

The house was attractively decorated for the occasion and a delicious dinner was served. Many telegrams and messages conveying the good wishes of friends and relatives were received throughout the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kessler were the recipients of many gold pieces and gifts. Relatives were present from New York, New Jersey and Norwich. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler have five children: Samuel Kessler of Vermont, Mrs. Sander Golub of Preston, Robert Kessler of New York, Mrs. Louis Gordon and Miss Aida Kessler of Norwich.

They also have 14 grandchildren: Misses Rose, Sarah and Pauline Kressler of New York, Sydney and Fred Kessler of New York, Joseph and Harvey Kessler of New York, Sylvia, Lillian and Abraham Golub of Preston, Mrs. Ruth Berkman of Yantic, Esther and Isadore Kessler and Roslyn Gordon of Norwich.

HAS SHOULDER FRACTURED WHEN HIT BY CAR

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Alfred Thibeault, about 50, of Tiffany street, West Side, was knocked down by an automobile tonight as she was crossing South Main street at Killingly end of the Quinebaug bridge, where the Hartford-Providence trunk line comes in. She was taken to the office of Dr. J. N. Perreault and later removed to the Day Kimball hospital at Putnam. She has a fractured left shoulder and a possible fracture of the skull. State Officer James Carmody checked up the accident and placed William J. McGair of Providence, under arrest. The officer found that McGair was operating an unregistered car, carrying plates belonging to another machine. McGair was held at the state police barracks on North Main street until he could obtain bonds of $500 for his release late tonight. It is possible he will appear in the Killingly town court on Tuesday.

WIND WRECKS BARN FOR RIDING ACADEMY

A partially constructed barn, 50 by 150 feet, at East Great Plain, was blown down late Sunday night by the high wind. The barn was being constructed by Contractor George Boucher for Arthur J. Brailsford, Jr., as a riding academy. It had no roof, as only the sides had been erected.

A large tree in the vicinity of Mr. Brailsford's home was uprooted by the wind about midnight Sunday, and landing across the highway tied up traffic until it was removed.

Singers For "Aunt Lucia

Many of Norwich's most talented singers are banded together to give "Aunt Lucia," a treat in college harmony. Under the efficient and inspiring leadership of William G. Park, the following voices will make the walls ring on the nights of the performance: Frank G. Aubrey, John J. Morley, Thomas H. Savard, Dr. K. K. Markoff, Dr. Charles Solomon, Leon Dix, Dr. Thomas F. O'Neil, Carl G. Johnson, Dr. Vincent D. Eldred, W. C. McKean, Leon Raymond, George Amburn, Fred J. Maples, Robert A. Gray, Frank Steinke, Oscar Heinrich, George W. Stanton, Nicholas J. Spellman, J. T. Hynd, Dr. E. G. Rowland and John Sellman.

For Burial in West Haven

William Wrinn, 51, died Monday at Uncas-on-Thames after a long illness. Undertakers Cummings and Ring prepared the body for burial and it was sent to his home in West Haven on the 8:30 o'clock train Monday night.

E. L. Duff Going To Norwalk

E. L. Duff, who succeeded Edward H. Harris as cashier at the Norwich office of the Connecticut Light and Power company is to be transferred to the Norwalk office of the company where he will be associated with Mr. Harris.

Rain 2.23 Inches In November

The rainfall of Sunday night measured .89 of an inch, according to the record taken by the city water department. This made a total rainfall for November of 2.23 inches.

PROMISING 400 EXHIBITS FOR POULTRY SHOW

The Norwich Poultry and Pet Stock and Poultry Association, Inc., has been in existence for six years, it was noted at a meeting of the association Monday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms, when the principal item of business was the laying of final plans for the seventh annual exhibition of the association, which is to be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Olympic hall. From present indications it is an almost certain fact that this year's show, the seventh, will far eclipse any conducted in previous years. More than 400 exhibits are to be crowded into the show quarters, it was announced at the meeting, the majority of them coming from the city, but with additional ones from this section and Rhode Island.

Several special attractions have been arranged for this year's exhibit, one being the well-known exhibit of finished rabbit furs and garments made from the same, belonging to Dr. Blake A. Sears of Windsor, Conn., who will also give a lecture in connection with his one-day display. Announcement was made at the meeting that the display of rabbits will be unusually large this year and will number approximately 100.

Another feature attraction will be the display of A. E. Shedd, which will include a brooder house in operation, along with a battery brooder and poultry supplies; Norwich Grain Co.'s exhibit of poultry supplies and feeds, and the Gordon Grain Co.'s exhibit of grain. Special individual exhibits include a pair of turkens, a cross between a hen and a turkey, by Christopher Barry, and Blue Andalusians, the national bird, so-called, its colors being red, white and blue. The latter is the entry of the Gem Poultry yards.

The exhibits are to be judged by Heywood E. Beebe of Waterford and Mr. Cruickshank of Bradford, R. I.

The sixth anniversary of the organization of the association was mentioned at the meeting, Monday evening, it being recalled that its original members numbered 11 and the first session was at the court house. The second meeting of the association had 35 additional members added to its roster. The original members included F. E. Fitch, now serving as president; Carl A. Ricker, E. F. Griffith, Christopher Barry, George N. Wilson, Benjamin Brewster, Byron Frink, James Ibbison, Fred Fratus and William Waters.

The present officers are, besides President Fitch, vice-president, W. W. Waters; secretary, Edwin F. Griffith; assistant secretary, J. Handleman; treasurer, R. G. Raymond; directors, C. Barry, M. J. Farrell, C. P. Bushnell, W. P. Lillies, E. F. Brewster; auditors, C. A. Ricker, C. A. Chamberlain; show superintendent, P. J. Desmond.

With the idea of instilling an interest in the older pupils in the graded schools in the city in raising pet stock and poultry the association distributed 2,000 school tickets Monday in the parochial and public schools. The tickets were for those of sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

JAIL SENTENCE GIVEN ON DRUNKEN DRIVING CHARGE

Pleading guilty to the charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, William C. Goodrich, 53, of 21 Arcadia street was given a jail sentence of 30 days by Judge A. F. Libby in the city court Monday morning in lieu of the $200 fine which would have been imposed if he had had the money to pay.

Goodrich was arrested Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock on Cliff street, after the Ford sedan he was driving had come down the steep hill on North Cliff street alongside of St. Joseph's church and had smashed into a pole at the foot of the hill. Goodrich suffered a few scratches on the side of his face, for which he was given attention by Dr. John Suplicki who happened to be in the neighborhood. The man was arrested by Officers Clifford Crary and Daniel J. O'Neil.

AIRPLANE RESUMES ITS FLIGHT TO WALLINGFORD

The airplane, forced down at East Great Plain about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, because of strong headwinds, while en route from Providence to Wallingford, took the air again Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock and continued the flight to Wallingford. Monday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock a pilot and mechanic arrived by machine and equipped the plane with a new propellor to replace the original propellor which was damaged while Pilot W. F. Morey was making an enforced landing on the Pierson lot, near the old fairgrounds.

The plane, after taking the air, made a loop the loop over the Pierson lot and then headed toward Wallingford. Pilot Morey, who was on his way from Providence to Wallingford Sunday when forced to land here, left shortly afterwards to continue the trip to Wallingford by bus. When he landed he was wearing an aviator's costume. At the Kudlik home, near the Pierson lot, he was furnished an overcoat and hat for which he expressed his deep appreciation.

GAVE CHARMING RECITAL FOR MUSIC ASSOCIATION

Henry LaFontaine, baritone and pianist, brought the charm of a soiree intime to the December meeting of the Norwich Music association Monday evening in Slater hall in a recital of unusual distinction. He is one of the few musicians gifted equally as pianist and singer, playing his own accompaniments with skill and rare feeling for words and music before the deeply appreciative audience of music lovers.

From the sturdy 17th century Italian number of Carissimi, with which the programme opened, down through "Cargoes" of a contemporary composer, with which the programme closed, Mr. LaFontaine's work gave profound evidence of sincere purpose, well grounded technique and thorough musicianship. His voice was full and resonant and his singing was with the simplicity of the real artist, without affectation or mannerisms. There were noted on the programme French numbers in which the quality of his voice was decidedly tenor, rich, full and very beautiful, and the same quality was also apparent in two of the Brahms group. His intelligent interpretation and understanding of the various languages was enhanced by clear enunciation in which few artists who have appeared in Norwich have shown themselves his equal.

At the conclusion of the German group, Mr. LaFontaine endeared himself to his audience by his gracious acknowledgement of Charles J. Dyer as his teacher and friend through whom his vocal education has been so devotedly fostered. In response to Mr. LaFontaine's request and to the applause of the audience, Mr. Dyer very graciously consented to sing the old English ballad, Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes, and followed this with Love's Sorrow. Both were given in a manner that left the audience in no doubt of the supreme artistry of this singer who has held an enviable position in European and American musical circles for many years and for the past few years has devoted himself to fostering the musical talent of Mr. LaFontaine, of whom both he and the musical association may justly be proud.

The recital programme was given as follows, with Joyce Kilmer's "Trees" and "Waterboy" as added numbers after the final group when the audience recalled Mr. LaFontaine by insistent applause:

Vittoria Mio Core, Carissimi; Caro Mio Ben, Giordano; Serenata, Mozart.

My Lovely Celia, Monro; The Rose of Tralee, Glover; The Pretty Creature, Storace;

Mai, Hahn; L'Enamouree, Hahn; Elegie, Massenet.

Vergebliches Standchen, Brahms; Die Mainacht, Brahms; "On Moder, Ich Will en Ding Han," Brahms.

The Temple Bells, Finden; Kashmiri Love Song, Finden; Till I. Wake, Finden.

Cargoes, Dobson.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Vasilios Makris

The funeral of Mrs. Helen Makris, wife of Vasilios Makris, was held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at her home, No. 61 Thames street, followed by a service at Trinity Greek Orthodox church on Boswell avenue, Rev. Mr. Theodoredes officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and a number of beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were George Bekris, Arthur Sellas, Peter Alex, Andrew James and the interment was in the family plot at Maplewood cemetery, Rev. Mr. Theodoredes conducting the committal service.

Mrs. Makris died Saturday. She was born in Norwich May 5, 1902, and is survived by her husband and two children. Undertakers Cummings and Ring had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. James L. Coffee

The funeral services of Mrs. Margaret W. Scott Coffee, widow of James L. Coffee, who died early Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Dygert of 338 Eastern Point Road, Groton, were held Monday afternoon at 15 Masonic street, New London. The services were conducted by Rev. George R. Atha. Interment was in Yantic cemetery, Norwich.

The bearers were Eugene Gardner, William Clark, Charles Crandall, Louis Allen, John Eccleston, and William Dyson.

Shirley Gertrude Shutt

Funeral services for Shirley Gertrude Shutt, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shutt, of 425 North Main street, were held at the funeral home of Thomas J. Shahan, 351 Main St., Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The child died early Monday morning after a short illness.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

The Monday afternoon Sewing club met with Mrs. Archibald Mitchell, 4th, of Broad street.

Miss Annie E. Vaughn entertained the Fesma Auction Bridge club at her home on Broadway Monday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. Harry E. Higgins and Mrs. Rufus H. Vaughn.

Miss Grace Benjamin has returned from New York, after a stay of several days.

Miss Margaret Campbell had the paper at the meeting this week of the Monday Study club, her theme being The Literature of the Stuart Period. The oral topic was treated by Miss Fannie L. Bliss, dealing with Sir Christopher Wren.

A number of prominent members of New London society came to Norwich Monday evening to attend the recital by Henry J. LaFontaine.

Mrs. William Tyler Olcott leaves town Wednesday to rejoin Mr. Olcott, who is in Tucson, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Allen, of Broad street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Esther, to Harry T. Hrand, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid Johnson and their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs Leonard Huguenor Couch, of Hartford, and Capers Johnson, of New York, attended the dance at Norwich Golf club Saturday evening after dining with Mr. and Mrs. Courtland A. Palmer, of Mott court, New London.

Mrs. Arthur F. Wyman and Mrs. William M. Wyman have returned, after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives in Hartford and Meriden.

MARRIED

McANANAMA-ROCHE — In Stafford Springs, Dec. 1, 1930, by Rev. John J. Weldon, James McAnanama and Miss Elizabeth Roche.

KNOCK THAT COLD IN A JIFFY

Here's Relief Almost Before You Know It

If you want quick relief from a cold, go back to first principles and use something you know does the business—don't start "trying" a lot of fancy ideas or remedies. Even a "little" cold is too dangerous to take chances on.

Get Hills Cascara Quinine. A scientific formula made to do ONE THING WELL; to knock a cold in a jiffy, not to cure a hundred different things.

Take two tablets now. Then follow directions on box. Drink lots of water, too—that's all. Soon those mean, aching pains in head and body begin to go; the cold breaks up; poisons leave your system. Almost before you know it, you feel like a new person.

If it doesn't do that, your money back. Get a box now. You'll be surprised at the speed with which it works. Costs only a few cents.

HILL'S Cascara Quinine Compound

How to End RHEUMATISM

New Medicine Drives Rheumatic Poisons from Joints and Muscles

EASES PAIN FIRST DAY

Poisons in the blood settling in the joints and muscles cause rheumatism. You cannot get rid of rheumatic agony till every trace of these dangerous poisons is driven out of your system. That's why external remedies and pain deadening drugs only give temporary relief.

What you need is RU-MA, the new medicine that acts directly on the liver, stomach and blood, and expels through the natural channels of elimination the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatic misery.

No long waiting for your suffering to stop. RU-MA eases pain the first day and is the one rheumatism remedy guaranteed to free muscles and joints from all painful stiffness, swelling and lameness.

Lee and Osgood has so much confidence in RU-MA that they want every rheumatic in town to try it and guarantee money-back if it does not end rheumatism.

COLDS
Here's how most people avoid them
At the first sign of a cold coming on, take two Grove's Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. Then take two more every two or three hours. More people, by millions, check and prevent colds this way than by any other method.
Its popularity comes from its merit!
Get your box at any drug store, 30c. Refuse substitutes.
Grove's Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets

FOR SALE—A 1930 DeSoto Six sedan; looks and runs like new; genuine bargain if sold this week; terms arranged. Call 3285.

WANTED—Small farms, with or without stock. For a quick sale write, giving full description and location, stating lowest price and conditions of sale. Racine Farm Agency, Danielson, Conn. Tel. 53-3.

TO RENT— Two connected furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Mrs. Willet, 248 Main St. Tel. 2049-J. 3tdec2

"DANDERINE" Dissolves Crust of Dandruff

Soothes Scalp; Gives New Life and Luster to Hair!

There's no use allowing unsightly dandruff to steal the life from your hair; make it dull, brittle and scraggy; turn it gray or start it to falling out. "Danderine" will dissolve the worst crust of dandruff in a hurry. It will bring the glow of health back to your scalp. Its consistent use will encourage the hair to grow long, thick, more youthful-looking.

You will be delighted by the effects of "Danderine's" first application. Excess oil is removed from the hair; its natural color is brought out marvelously; it sparkles with new life and lustre.

Five million bottles of Danderine used a year shows its popularity! And you won't wonder at this once you learn its easy use and see how quickly it gives health to the scalp and vigor and youthful appearance to the hair!

Every drug and toilet counter in the land has Danderine—35c bottles.

JOEY CAYER TO BOX EDDIE REED IN EIGHT ROUNDER FRIDAY NIGHT

Learning that Frankie Garcia would not be in the best of condition for a bout with Eddie Reed of Hartford as one of the three star bouts on the Shyma boxing club show at Taftville Friday evening, the matchmaker, Leo P. Flynn, has secured Joey Cayer of New Bedford as Reed's opponent. From all reports the promoters have made no mistake in substituting Cayer for Garcia, as Cayer holds a decision over Garcia.

The New Bedford boy has been boxing main bouts in Massachusetts where he is considered one of the best 120 pound boys in the state. His showing during the past few months has made him an outstanding contender for the bantamweight title of the Bay State. Numbered among his victims are Joey Williams, Joey Duggan, Jimmy Flores, Willie Gomes, Midget Dundee, George LaBate, Tuffy Simms, Joey O'Connell, Georgie Holmes and many other good boys.

Cayer is a two-fisted fighter who punches with both hands and has a great deal of ring experience and ring science. Reed is a youngster who has been going strong around Hartford, having shown his wares on a number of the major cards in that city. He always gives a good fight regardless of the calibre of his opposition and the fans like him for his aggressive fighting. With Cayer and Reed mixing in one of the feature bouts the all star card for Friday night has been well rounded out.

The headliner for the evening will be the Darr-Koziol bout which alone should pack the house. The other star attraction brings together Al Rodman of Goodyear and Pat James of Providence in what should be a real peppy bout as both boys are very fast. As the day for the Darr-Koziol fracas approaches the interest is mounting higher with Koziol drawing to almost even terms with his conqueror in a previous bout. Koziol has been going to Danielson of late for his workouts and from reports from the upstate gym Koziol is looking in better shape than at any time during his career. Those who have seen Koziol in action say that the boy is hitting straight from the shoulder and is wasting fewer punches than has been his habit. With this report coming from those who know their boxers Koziol's stocks have risen considerably during the past few days.

Darr is taking no chances and has due respect for Koziol's hitting powers with the result that he is paying plenty of attention to his defense but at the same time is working on timing that dangerous left of his. From all reports Darr will devote all his attack to Koziol's body which seems to be his most vulnerable point. It was to the body that Darr in his first bout with the Laurel Hill mauler scored so heavily and almost knocked him out. Without doubt this bout between the local boys will be one of the most torrid of the season with the decision going either one way or the other.

CHURCH LEAGUE TO OPEN SEASON ON DEC. 15

Five teams were represented at a meeting of the Church league held Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A., at which plans for opening the circuit on Monday evening, Dec. 15, were brought along. There is a strong possibility of three more teams before the next and final meeting previous to the opening of the campaign. This will be held on next Monday evening, at which time election of officers will also be held.

Those teams having representation were Central Baptist, Phi Delta Nu, Gamma club, Community synagogue and St. Mary's of Willimantic. Others expected to enter are Stronghearts, Baltic Methodist and First Baptist of this city. The same rules and regulations as governed the league last season will again be in force during the coming campaign.

ROPER TO BE GUEST AT NICK ROBERTS' PARTY

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—(AP)—Bill Roper, who ended his career as coach of football at Princeton this season, will be a guest of honor at Yale's annual "win, lose or draw" party given by Nicholas Roberts, Saturday night in Montclair, N. J., it was announced today.

This is the first time since these celebrations were begun ten years ago that an invitation has been sent to any except Yale men. Roper's team this year gave Yale a great battle before losing, 10-7.

Coach Mal Stevens, of Yale, his entire 1930 and ten former Eli gridiron captains as well as alumni from all parts of the country, will be present.

Black Hawks Challenge

As the Black Hawks are without a game for this week they would like to hear from Fell's All Stars, Mohoney's team, or any other football team wishing a game for this week. If challenge is accepted please answer through this paper. The Black Hawks would like to have the game for Saturday morning if possible at the Academy campus.

BOWLING

AETNA BOWLING ALLEYS
ATLANTIC CARTON CORP.
LEAGUE

Die Dept.

Prodell	87	89	77— 253
Anderson	91	94	82— 267
Weiland	103	82	86— 271
Magnuson	86	86	96— 268
Lawless	104	119	102— 325
Totals	471	470	443—1384

Shipping Dept.

Lussier	79	97	86— 262
Prezkop	94	111	94— 299
Lucier	93	92	103— 296
Marien	89	123	115— 327
Tringe	95	94	112— 301
Totals	452	517	516—1485

Office

Mathewson	81	99	89— 269
Whitehead	115	98	83— 296
Kreger, F.	89	93	93— 275
Atterbury	103	96	90— 289
Totals	388	386	355—1129

Stripping Dept.

S. Chojnacki	89	121	110— 320
Chiemlewski	96	97	94— 287
Rokowski	105	112	90— 307
Gillis	114	93	124— 331
Totals	404	423	418—1245

The Aetna
BOWLING — BILLIARDS
Alleys Reserved for Ladies
55 Shetucket St. Tel. 1912

S. N. E. LEAGUE HAS FOUR GAMES TONIGHT

Four fast basketball games are scheduled tonight at the Plainfield Community house in the Southern New England basketball league. The first game at 7:30 brings together two evenly matched teams in Jewett City and the New London Tel. and Tel. Both of these teams have found the going tough but both clubs have added new material to the team and a great battle is expected.

Plainfield tackles Francis Murphy's husky Putnam team at 8 o'clock. Putnam forfeited one game and drew a bye last week so have not seen action for several weeks. Plainfield took a terrific beating at the hands of the strong Danielson team last Friday night and are out to redeem themselves. Plainfield has not lost a game in the league.

At 9:30 Stafford Springs and the fast stepping New London Boys' club teams battle it out. This should be a great game.

The final game of the evening brings together the two fastest teams in the league—Willimantic West Ends and the Danielson club. Neither team has been defeated to date. The Danielson team consists of eagle-eyes Capt. Withey, Gale, Young and Mayhew and rounds out one of the best shooting teams in the league. The Willimantic team also has some clever boys in Capt. Nichols, the Mandell brothers and the Saba brothers. It is going to be a great game and may the best team win.

The league is developing some fine basketball and is getting the support of the public. Pop Williams and Paul Bitgood are doing their bit and officiating good games.

Following is the league standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Willimantic	4	0	1.000
Danielson	3	0	1.000
Plainfield	3	0	1.000
Putnam	1	1	.500
N. L. Boys Club	1	2	.833
Westerly	1	2	.333
Stafford Springs	1	3	.250
Jewett City	1	3	.250
N. L. Tel. and Tel.	0	3	.000

Tie game, Plainfield-Danielson, 27-27.

Point scoring of players:

	F.G.	F.	Pts.
Dyeart, Plainfield	25	10	60
Nichols, Willimantic	25	8	58
Mayhew, Danielson	21	4	46
N. Mandell, Willimantic	21	1	43
Mercer, Plainfield	18	3	39
Young, Danielson	17	3	37
Mette, Plainfield	15	1	31
Saba, Willimantic,	15	1	31
Kaminski, Jewett City	17	7	31
Peterson, Plainfield	12	5	29
Gale, Danielson	14	1	29
J. Mandell, Willimantic	10	9	29
Houle, Stafford Springs	11	4	26
Withey, Danielson	12	2	26
Cropper, Westerly	10	4	24
Slodden, N. L. B. Club	10	3	23
Ricci, Stafford Springs	8	2	18
Sweet, Jewett City	8	2	18
Cohen, Plainfield	8	1	17
Adams, Danielson	8	1	17
P. Saba, Willimantic	7	1	15
Fraser, Danielson	7	0	14
C. Ward, S. Springs	6	3	15
Rossiter, N. L. Tel & Tel	6	1	13
Simons, N. L. Tel & Tel	5	3	13
M'Kelveyt N. L. Tel-Tel	6	1	13
Golart, N. L. Boys' Club	5	2	12
E. Ward, S. Springs	6	0	12
Lester, Willimantic,	4	4	12
Monast, Willimantic	3	1	10
Marriott, Plainfield	4	2	10
Bidorini, S. Springs	4	2	10
S. Derda, Jewett City	4	1	9
Pinch, S. Springs	3	2	8
Hannifan, Putnam	3	2	8
Barkley, N. L. Boys Club	2	2	8
Bromley, Plainfield	3	2	8
Bove, Putnam	3	0	6
Dennins, Putnam	3	0	6
Gilbert, Jewett City	2	1	5
Ninski, Jewett City	2	1	5
Clary, N. L. Tel & Tel	2	1	5
Saboldi, Westerly	2	1	5
Cody, Putnam	2	0	4
Smith, S. Springs	2	0	4
Campbell, N. L. B. Club	2	0	4
Mercier, Plainfield	2	0	4
Korab, Plainfield	2	0	4
Capello, N. L. B. Club	1	1	3
Safranski, Danielson	1	0	2
Macill, N. L. B. Club	0	2	2
Funk, N. L. B. Club	1	0	2
Osmond, N. L. Tel & Tel	1	0	2
Cruicksank, Westerly	1	0	2
Fannon, Westerly	1	0	2
Sweet, Willimantic	1	0	2
Miner, N. L. Tel & Tel	0	1	1
Buckley, N. L. Tel & Tel	0	1	1
J. Derda, Jewett City	0	0	0
Walsh, Jewett City	0	0	0
Murphy, Putnam	0	0	0

JUNIOR COURT LEAGUE BEING FORMED HERE

A Junior basketball league, to foster and develop the sport in Norwich, is being organized by Paul Bitgood, Academy basketball coach, and J. Howard Demarest, Y physical director, and the teams are almost ready to start first practices. The season will open on Friday, Dec. 12.

All games will be played at the new Norton Memorial gym at the Academy on Friday afternoons during the winter. The spaciousness of the gym will make it possible to run off two games at a time. The starting time has been set for 4:30 o'clock.

The schools already entered are Broadway, Greeneville, Samuel Huntington and Elizabeth Street, and an effort is to be made to enlist St. Patrick's and the Wequonnoc school of Taftville.

NEKOLA IS TRADED TO J JERSEY CITY FOR BREAM

MONTREAL, Dec. 1—(AP)—Trades and purchases were scarce today as minor league club owners and managers gathered here for the annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

The Jersey City club of the International league, which signed a new manager, George Toporcer, also traded Maurice "Jess" Bream, right handed pitcher, to St. Paul of the American association for Frank "Bots" Nekola, former college star at Holy Cross.

The Baltimore Internationals announced the purchase of Ralph Boyle, outfielder, and Bernie James, infielder, from the Boston braves. Boyle was out on option with Providence and Albany of the Eastern league last season and James to the Newark Internationals.

Wolgast Beats Todisco

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 1—(AP)—Midget Wolgast of Philadelphia, recognized in New York and Pennsylvania as world's flyweight champion, came back to the ring tonight after a long rest and decisively outpointed Al Todisco of Jersey City in a ten round bout. Todisco put up a good fight at the start, but Wolgast made a strong finish and piled up a big margin in the closing rounds. There were no knockdowns. Wolgast weighed 114 pounds, Todisco 117.

The Bulletin Board

BASEBALL
FOOTBALL
BASKETBALL
BOXING

Basketball comes into its own tonight with games scheduled in all parts of Eastern Connecticut. The Y Seniors and Y Girls' team open their season at Bridgeport; four games are scheduled for the Southern New England league at Plainfield, and the Shymas clash with the Battery E team of Westerly at Parish hall. A junior basketball league is to be organised to play at the Norton Memorial gym and the Academy is starting practice soon. With all this basketball activity going on it would seem that the popular indoor sport is going to boom in the eastern part of the state as it never has before. Basketball is a fast game and fans can get many a thrill out of it.

Norwich has for a long time lacked a playing surface other than the Y. M. C. A. and the Norton Memorial gym has supplied that want. This applies especially to the Academy team which has never had a playing surface of its own on which to practice and play its games. The Academy functioned one year at the Y. M. C. A. but this did not prove entirely satisfactory and the Academy last year abandoned its team until a playing surface of its own could be secured. With Paul Bitgood as mentor of the Academy basketball squad and a playing surface where the team can get plenty of practice Norwich people should have some very pleasant evenings in store for them this winter.

Sharing interest with the basketball attractions this week are the boxing and wrestling engagements. At Putnam tonight will be a card of amateurs; in New London there will be a wrestling bout on Wednesday evening and Friday night at Taftville an all-star card will be put on by the Shyma Boxing club. Which all in all gives Eastern Connecticut a very full week of sporting activities.

Perhaps the most talked of sporting event this week is the Darr-Koziol bout which headlines the Taftville card on Friday. There seems to be a wide difference of opinion as to the outcome of this bout. But one thing is certain, Vic Darr is not the top heavy favorite that he was a few days ago. The cause of this is the report coming from Danielson where Koziol is doing a good part of his training. From Danielson reports trickle through that Al is not the same boy that Darr shellacked a month ago. Boys who have boxed with Koziol or seen him in his workout clai mthat he looks a hundred per cent. better now than he did that night with Dorr. They remark that Koziol is timing his punches and that they are no longer wild swings, but straight punches with a world of power behind them. Others claim that Koziol is faster on his feet and that he is perfecting a defense for his body, something he has paid no attention to heretofore. If all this is so and Koziol remembers it when he gets in the ring the story may be a direct reversal of what it was a month ago. We shall see.

FAST AMATEUR CARD AT PUTNAM TONIGHT

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 1—Through the efforts of the promoters of the Putnam Boxing club another savory leather pushing dish has been prepared for serving at an amateur show to be staged in St. Jean's hall on Providence street, Tuesday evening, December 2nd. This week the local stable scouts have returned with a strong card of ambitious youngsters who wear the colors of Freddy Yale's Taunton, Mass., stable. Included in the outfit are boxers who have established enviable records in the amateur ring, reported to be prepared to take the Danielson and Worcester opponents into camp during their early rounds of their scheduled bouts tomorrow night.

Outstanding among the Taunton fistic artists is Young Yelle, 126 pounder who has been featured in a number of the big New England shows. The lad who won the 127 pound final at St. Joe's A. A., in Boston last week is to be matched against Charley Goulet, promising Putnam fighter who has won his last three fights via the knockout path. Both boys are in unusually fine shape and the go is certain to provide plenty of action for the ringsiders.

Patsy Long of Worcester and Young Tourney of Webster, two clever young pugilists are to get together in Tuesday's go. Both are experienced scrappers and have displayed their talent in Gentleman Gene Billings of Good-

Gnetleman Gene Billings of Goodyear, who lost on a decision during a torrid match two weeks ago, is functioning smooth and easy again and will step into the ring during the bill Tuesday to take on George Viegeant of Webster. As this fight calls for 132 pounders there will be action galore. Billings is an excellent performer and has a bag of tricks that he often resorts to to bring his matches to a sudden halt.

The 130 pound programme will see the return to the local ring of the hard punching Ray Landry, known as Danielson's iron man. Landry will swap punches this time with an agile youngster by the name of Harry Woods of Worcester, who is reputed to be a k. o. artist. This bout will draw no small amount of interest for Landry by reason of his delightful style has won the admiration of a large Putnam following.

PLAINFIELD PROS SIGN WHITEY BERNOT AGAIN

Manager Lester Sallsbury of the Plainfield Pros has signed Whitey Bernot of Worcester to play with the Pros again this season. Bernot, a very popular boy with the basketball fans, was one of the outstanding stars of the Plainfield outfit last year and his brilliant work was missed in the game with the Long Island Pros last week. This week the famous Hakoah team of New York comes to Plainfield on Thursday evening. This is one of the most noted of the metropolitan teams and they play some mighty fine basketball. The probable lineup of the Plainfield team will be Williams and Marchinek, forwards, Conway center, Bernot and Dissinger, guards. Manager Sallsbury is trying to sign Karlon, a former member of the New York Yankee baseball outfit, who is a brilliant basketball player.

Buster's Diners Challenge.

The indoor golf team of Buster's diner issues a challenge to the Ideal team for a match this week at the Castle Garden course for fun, money or marbles. The Diners are managed by Buster Corey, while Tony Bernard is the manager of the Ideals. Buster claims that the Ideals are better baseball players than golfers and is out to take them over.

WHITNEY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CONFERENCE; TOURTELLOTTE IN

Courtland G. Whitney, Academy football and baseball coach, was elected president of the Eastern Connecticut-Western Rhode Island Interscholastic conference at its annual meeting held Monday evening with a dinner at the Wauregan hotel in this city. He succeeds William F. O'Brien of Bulkeley school, New London. Other officers named were Leo Smith, Stonington high school, vice-president; Thomas K. Newell, Robert Fitch high treasurer, and Paul Bradlaw, N. F. A., secretary. Mr. Bradlaw is reelected.

Championships Awarded

Every one of the ten schools in the conference, except Plainfield high, was represented, there being 20 in attendance at the meeting. The football championship for Class A was awarded to Westerly high in the form of a trophy, and that of Class B to Plainfield, this also a trophy. Bulkeley was presented the cross-country championship honors.

All officials for the coming league basketball season are to be members of the Eastern Connecticut board of basketball officials and they will be selected by mutual agreement of the coaches and principals.

In connection with the basketball season, it was brought out at the meeting that Windham high may not compete for the championship. Windham has not scheduled a game with Putnam, as the league schedule specifies and therefore would not be eligible for competition. A decision on the matter is expected in two weeks. According to the slate, each school meets two large and two small schools. Putnam is ranked as one of the smaller schools and if Windham were not to play this school, it would not be possible to schedule another small school. Windham gave an overcrowded schedule as its reason for not playing Putnam.

The annual league track meet will again be held at Rhode Island State college in Kingston if plans, which are outlined, can be worked out. The date is Wednesday, May 20.

Tourtellotte Admitted

Tourtellotte high, represented by Coach William Frank, was voted into the conference, bringing the total membership to 11, as follows: Bulkeley and Chapman Tech of New London, Killingly of Danielson, N. F. A., Plainfield, Putnam, Stonington, Westerly, Windham, Robert Fitch and Tourtellotte. Tourtellotte will not compete in basketball this coming season but will be ready for the 1931-32 campaign.

It developed Monday evening that Westerly high is to have a basketball team within the next two months that will only play a brief schedule this season but should be ready to enter league competition in the next campaign. The new junior high school in that place is expected to be completed toward the latter part of the winter and in it is a new gymnasium where Westerly hopes to stage a few games before the season is finished. Westerly has never competed for the conference basketball championship and will be a welcome addition to the circuit.

The conference's finances were reported in good shape and adjournment was taken until the regular spring meeting, to be held at the Wauregan hotel on Monday, March 2.

"SHANO" COLLINS SIGNED AS MANAGER OF RED SOX

BOSTON, Dec. 1—(AP)—John F. "Shano" Collins, former White Sox and Red Sox outfield star, today returned to the American league as the 1931 manager of the luckless Boston club.

In announcing his appointment, Owner Bob Quinn, said:

"Collins has made a wonderful record as a minor league manager and I see no reason why he should not do well with the Red Sox.

"I have not signed him for any year or term of years, but have promised him the job as long as I live if he hustles and runs the club to my satisfaction."

Collins told the Boston baseball writers that Quinn offered him the position a short time after the Red Sox owner failed to induce Joe McCarthy ,now manager of the New York Yankees to attempt to build up his club.

"I told Mr. Quinn," Collins said "that I would consider his offer and agreed to accept the position Thanksgiving day when he returned to Boston from a mid-western trip."

Collins said he had appointed Rudy Haulswitt, veteran Red Sox scout, as team coach. The latter, with Collins and Owner Quinn, left here tonight for Montreal to attend the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues' meeting with high hopes of obtaining several new players.

Collins succeeded Charles "Heinie" Wagner, who was made manager last season when Bill Carrigan retired. Lee Fohl was manager in 1923, when Collins was last identified with the club.

The new pilot, born in Boston 45 years ago, broke into professional baseball in the now disbanded New England league as a pitcher a quarter of a century ago.

LOCAL Y TEAMS PLAY AT BRIDGEPORT TONIGHT

The Norwich Y basketball teams, girls and boys, travel to Bridgeport tonight where they will encounter the fast General Electric Co.'s teams. Coach Demarest had both teams at the local court last evening in a final work-out and reports both teams in first class shape and ready to bring the laurels home to Norwich.

Mrs. Streeter, girls' physical director, Miss Ruth Mullen, manager, and eight girls chosen by Mrs. Streeter will make the trip.

The following seniors are asked to report: Ludlow, Lynch, Henschel, Red Armstrong, Tubbs and Nadelson. The Y will be short two of their players, as Bitgood is refereeing in Plainfield while Leffingwell is reported to be confined to the sidelines with a wrenched leg.

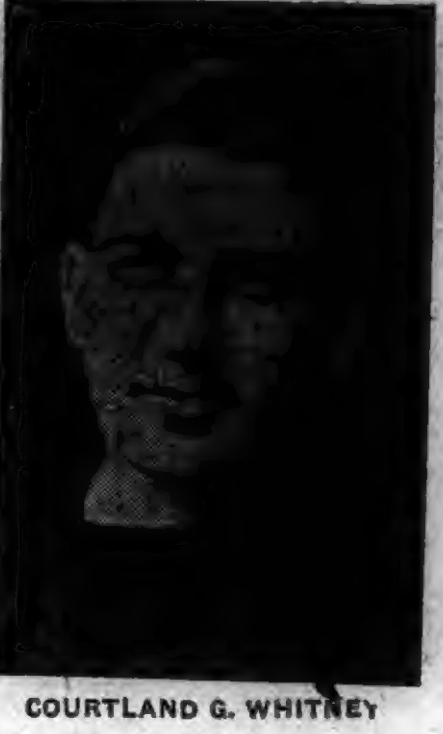
All players are asked to be ready to leave at 5 p. m., promptly.

FINAL MATCH IN THE TAFTVILLE-AETNA SERIES

The third and final match of the series between the Aetna bowling team and the Taftville alley five will be rolled this evening at the Aetna alleys. Each team has won one leg in the series and tonight's match is bound to be hotly contested.

SCHMELING MAY RETURN TO U. S. THIS MONTH

BERLIN, Dec. 1—(AP)—Max Schmeling, claimant of the world's heavyweight boxing championship, may sail for New York about December 14 to consider motion picture and radio contracts. He expects to start training about May 1 for a match next summer.



COURTLAND G. WHITNEY

Y SENIORS TO PLAY 20-GAME SCHEDULE

The Y Seniors, who open their season tonight in Bridgeport playing the General Electrics, will play a schedule of close to 20 games, according to the slate as released by Coach Howie Demarest Monday evening. This includes games in the state Y league in addition to tilts with several teams in this section.

To Play City Series With N. F. A.

The season is featured by a city series with the Academy slated for the grand finale, and also the two games with New London Y, first on Jan. 16 and the other Feb. 21. There are three games scheduled for the first week of the season, Battery E at Westerly, Thursday, and Willington Y here Saturday, being on the books in addition to the opener this evening. Practically all games will be played on Saturday evenings after this week.

The team is shaping up well and Mr. Demarest, although faced with the loss of four regulars from his last year's quintet, figures that with the younger material he has some real prospects who will gradually develop the team-play so essential at the court game and come through with a successful year. Tommy Lynch, a forward, is the only regular remaining from the 1929-30 team. Howard Ludlow, one of the best guards in the city, is the captain and Albert Leffingwell, who teams up with Lynch at forward, is the manager.

The schedule follows:

Tuesday, Dec. 2—General Electrics at Bridgeport.

Thursday, Dec. 4—Battery E at Westerly.

Saturday, Dec. 6—Willimantic Y at home.

Saturday, Dec. 13—Battery E at home.

Saturday, Dec. 20—Middletown Y at home.

Saturday, Dec. 27—Torrington Y at Torrington.

Saturday, Jan. 3—Winsted at home.

Friday, Jan. 9—Willington Y at Willington.

Saturday, Jan. 10—Ansonia Y at Ansonia.

Friday, Jan. 16—New London Y at New London.

Saturday, Jan. 17—Willington Y at home.

Saturday, Jan. 24—Open.

Saturday, Jan. 31—Torrington Y at home.

Saturday, Feb. 7—Winsted Y at Winsted.

Saturday, Feb. 14—Ansonia Y at home.

Saturday, Feb. 21—New London Y at home.

Saturday, Feb. 28—Open.

Saturday, March 7—Middletown Y at Middletown.

Saturday, March 14— Opening of city series with N. F. A. (Pending).

HALAIKO SMASHES OUT WIN OVER MANDELL

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 1—(AP)—Steve Halaiko, Auburn, N. Y., smashed his way to a brilliant victory over Sammy Mandell, Rockford, Ill., former lightweight champion, in an 8-round battle here tonight.

The rising young scrapper cut his more experienced opponent to ribbons with a ripping left jab. Mandell was a battered mess at the end. Both eyes were nearly closed, blood was dripping from a cut lip and battered nose. Halaiko weighed 137; Mandell 140.

NOTRE DAME, BATTERED AND SORE, OFF FOR COAST

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—(AP)—Battered and weary, yet filled with that fighting spirit that has carried them onward to victory in 18 straight football wars, Notre Dame's rough riders today began their westward odyssey for their struggle with the Trojans of Southern California.

PUTNAM TROUNCES WAUREGAN IN LEAGUE SOCCER GAME

The Putnam Spinners continued their fine brand of soccer Sunday when they swamped Wauregan 7-0 in an Eastern Connecticut league game. The Putnam defense and the opportunities of the front rank combined proved the undoing of the Wauregan team. The Putnam eleven kept the Wauregan team on the defense throughout the game. The game had hardly started when Wall crashed one past the goalie. Putnam forced a corner and on a perfect kick by Draggon Fenton headed one well out of the goal-tender's reach. About five minutes later Fenton again headed the leather past the Wauregan goalie. With Putnam continually pressing, Fenton did the hat trick when he slipped a third goal past Couture. Costa put another goal in to end the scoring for the half.

On the start of the second half the fans expected Wauregan to take advantage of the strong wind behind them but were disappointed to see Putnam keep raining shots at the Wauregan goal. Costa smashed one into the far corner and Wall again banged one through to end the scoring for the game.

The lineups:

Putnam		Wauregan
Yates, g		g, Couture
T. Correia, rfb		rfb, Benoit
Scunjio, lfb		lfb, Beauregard
C. Correia, rhb		rhb, Chenial
L. Mellor, chb		chb, Bourey
Mayer lhb		lhb, S. Marshall
Draggon, or		or, Bushey
Fenton, ir		ir, Riopel
Wall, cf		cf, Stone
Costa, il		il, B. Marshall
Winslow, ol		ol, Martel

Referee, Noble. Linesmen, Campbell Wauregan; Fenton, Putnam. Goals scored by—Wall 2, Costa 2, Fenton 3. Time 45 min. halves.

TONIGHT AT EIGHT O'CLOCK
The Popular Play
THE MOLLUSC
Comedy in Three Acts
Given by The Conn. Players of Storrs College
Directed by Prof. A. J. Seckerson
At The
PLAINFIELD COMMUNITY HOUSE
Auspices First Congregational Church
Adults 50c Children 35c

SHYMAS PLAY BATTERY E TONIGHT

For the basketball attraction this evening at the Parish hall, Taftville, Mgr. Sullivan of the Shymas has secured one of the leading attractions in Rhode Island in the Battery E team of Westerly. This team last season had one of the most successful seasons of any team, winning 22 games of the 29 played, these wins being over some of the fastest teams in Conn. and R. I. Mgr. Chapell of the Westerly team would not divulge his lineup for this game other than to state that he will present a lineup that will beat the Shymas and thus keep up their winning streak.

The Shymas have been practicing hard for this game and feel sure that they will come out of their losing streak by beating the fast Westerly aggregation. Mgr. Sullivan will send the following lineup into the fray: Gauthier, Wilk or Labarre forwards, Adams or Coleman center, with Capt. Pingree, Lemieux and Dugas in the back court.

For the preliminary the Shymas Jr. will stack up against the fast Baltic Bantams in a game that is bound to be full of action. Baltic is sending down a big delegation to root for their team who has yet to be defeated this season. The two teams will lineup as follows: Durr and Sammy Raymond forwards, Pete Raymond center, Dugas and Laflesh guards, Peltier, Pepin and Auger held in reserve for the Shymas while Baltic will be represented by Charron, Depot, Deschamps and Robitaille forwards, Passmore center, Rondeau and Blanchette guards.

Dancing will follow the games which are scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m. The Musical Aces will furnish music for the dancing. Enos Eccleston will again handle the main game.

MINOR LEAGUES ADJOURN WITHOUT ACTING ON DRAFT

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 1—(AP)—That bugaboo of major-minor relations, the draft, overshadowed all other questions as minor league club owners and managers gathered here today for the annual sessions of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

Two class AA non-draft circuits, the Pacific Coast and International leagues, devoted most of their time to a discussion of the demand of the majors that they and three other non-draft leagues submit to the draft. Unless they do, the majors have threatened to discontinue all business relations with them.

Neither the International nor the Pacific Coast leagues came to any decision as to whether they would purchase a player from a minor league club by paying a set price. Instead both organizations decided to postpone any action until after a joint conference tomorrow when the American association, the third class AA league, joins forces with the other two in an effort to formulate a plan of action.

The other non-draft leagues, the class A Western and the class B Indiana-Illinois-Iowa (Three Eye) leagues, are expected to follow wherever the three bigger circuits lead.

The whole question arose when the majors demanded that the draft principle be made universal, applying to all minor leagues.

The five non-draft leagues immediately objected, preferring to continue selling their players for what they would bring rather than have them made available to the majors at a fixed rate.

As far as the three AA leagues are concerned, a modified draft agreement with the majors already is in effect. Under its terms the majors may claim at draft price any player in the International, Pacific Coast and American circuits if he previously has been in the majors.

Efforts at Cleveland recently to reach a compromise failed but it was understood at that time that the five non-draft leagues were ready to agree to the draft if a higher draft price were made. It was after the failure of that conference that the majors threatened to discontinue dealing with the leagues in question.

Just what tomorrow's conference may bring remains to be seen but it was believed possible the three AA circuits might make a new offer for the majors to consider at their joint meeting in New York this month.

Both the Pacific Coast and International leagues were understood to be split today on the draft question. The International's session, in particular, was heated, with the membership understood to be evenly divided on the question. Baltimore, Montreal, Newark and Buffalo were reported solidly against the draft.

These two meetings accomplished little. The International league did hear the treasurer's report and re-elected Charles H. Knapp of Baltimore president, Lawrence Solman of Toronto vice president and William J. Manley of New York secretary-treasurer.

The Pacific Coast league tried vainly to elect a president with four votes for Harry Williams of Los Angeles, the incumbent, three for J. C. Ewing of Oakland and one for J. J. Sullivan of Seattle. Williams drew his support from San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland and Los Angeles. Ewing's three votes came from Hollywood, Oakland and Missions. Seattle threw its aid to Sullivan.

Another attempt to break the deadlock will be made either at a meeting here this week or in Los Angeles in January.

SLASHING RULE IS REVISED BY GOVERNORS

DETROIT, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The double major penalty for cutting an opponent with a stick was wiped from the books today at the regular meeting of the governors of the National Hockey league here.

The rule, which had been in force only since the opening of the 1930-31 season, was legislated out of existence effective with tomorrow's games.

In its place will be a rule distinguishing between intentional and unintentional slashes. Unintentionally cutting an opponent will draw for the offender five minutes in the penalty box, as in former years, while deliberately slashing a player about the head will bring the offender a 20-minute match penalty.

The rule abolished called for a ten-minute penalty for all cuts, regardless of whether they were intentional or unintentional. Strict enforcement had met with disfavor in most league cities. Representatives of Detroit, Boston and Chicago clubs voted for its retention and New York Rangers, New York Americans, Toronto, Philadelphia and Montreal voted for its abolition. The Canadiens and Ottawa were not represented.

Attention Blackhawks Jrs.

The Silver Arrows would like to play the Blackhawks Juniors at Mohegan Park Sunday afternoon at 2:30. They would also like to challenge the Lake street team for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the park. If challenges are accepted answer through this paper.

What Is Going On Tonight

Shetucket lodge, No. 27, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows' hall.

Ionic camp, No. 7694, M. W. A., meets in A. O. H. hall.

St. James lodge, No. 23, F. and A. M., meets in Masonic temple.

Rose of N. E. lodge, No. 2364, G. U. O. of O. F., meets at 80 West Main street.

Clara Barton tent, No. 7, D. of V., meets in Buckingham Memorial.

Mercier assembly, No. 12, C. L. of C., meets in T. A. B. building.

White Cross council, No. 13, K. of C., meets in K. of C. home.

A HISTORY OF CONNECTICUT INDUSTRY

Released by Manufacturers Association of Connecticut

The Morgan Silver Plate Company, Winsted.

The Morgan Silver Plate company was organized September 25, 1887, by James T. Morgan and 12 associates for the manufacture of casket hardware and other articles made of wood or metal. Actual manufacturing was begun early the following year. In 1892 the company purchased the land and building formerly owned by The Winsted Hoe company, valuable water rights being acquired with the property.

The company has specialized on a high grade line of casket hardware which has a wide distribution, being as well known on the Pacific coast as in the east. During the past two years an extensive export business has been developed which promises rapid growth as the products are well received abroad.

An early price list issued in 1891 mentions only seven standard finishes, all based on a silver or gold plate. In order to match the great variety of woods and textile coverings now used for burial caskets, the company plates with nickel, brass, copper, gold and silver. These with their variations and combinations result in a standard line of more than 40 finishes. Now ones are constantly being added, especially in connection with the elaborate tapestry coverings so generally used today. And of these finishes can be applied to any one of the 30 designs of handles listed so that it is possible to select a design and finish to harmonize with almost every background.

The plant is modern in equipment, constant additions being made to improve the quality of the product. One of the most recent is the installation of electric melting pots for melting the metal from which the castings are made. The temperature of the metal is held at any desired point by electrical control, thus insuring a uniform product and relieving the operator's mind of all details except the production of perfect work.

Although frequent efforts have been made to produce casket hardware in quantity by semi-automatic machines, the product lacks the artistic touch of the hand-made article, and therefore nothing but hand wrought hardware is made by the company.

The present officers are: M. T Hart, president; M. W. Gabelmann, secretary; A. D. Hart, treasurer and general manager.

8 BOUTS 8 BOUTS
--BOXING--
ST. JEAN'S HALL, Providence Street, Putnam
TONIGHT
At 8:30 P. M.
GENERAL ADMISSION 75c—RESERVED SEATS $1.00
Tickets for sale at the following places in Putnam—JARVIS STORE—PETE MILLER'S—L. VADNAIS STORE—RENE'S BARBER SHOP
Auspices Putnam Boxing Club

WESTERLY COUNCIL CONSIDERS MANY MATTERS AT LONG SESSION

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 1—The December session of the Westerly town council was held on Monday morning in the council chamber of the Westerly town hall with Councilman James Naccarato, the only absentee. Council President Horace E. Burdick returned from a business trip to Florida, presiding, announced that every day of his Florida visit had been warm and sunlight.

Former Town Councilman and Westerly Water Commissioner Farquhar Smith appeared before the council in behalf of the Westerly and Pawcatuck Retail Merchants association relative to the town's contribution of $100 for the Christmas illumination of Broad street sidewalks along town property. He was assured that the matter had been properly cared for.

James Salimeno, Westerly undertaker, who appeared before the last regular November council with bill of $252 for burial of Carmine Cofone, was present in the council chamber but Director of Public Aid Oliver P. Crandall, who had previously been notified to attend this meeting with Mr. Salimeno to explain why he was reported to have paid no attention to a call sent him at the time of Cofone's death, failed to appear before the council. The hearing was continued with both parties notified to appear at the special council session on Monday evening on Dec. 8th. The councilmen were agreed that Director Crandall should have attended this regular meeting. Clerk Whipple stated that Mr. Crandall had informed him that $68 was the average amount expended for town funerals and the largest amount at any time $100. The council were agreed that the next published report of assistance rendered by the town to the indigent, should have names omitted, but appear in the filed copy.

A bill for fighting brush and grass fire near Misquamicut amounting to $718.26 with a highway department charge of $298.86, included was received for the fire of Oct. 2-14th with the approval of Deputy Forest Fire Warden C. Palmer Chapman.

The report voted approved of Building Inspector Thomas Wills for the month of November showed 8 applications for wooden and frame building permits received and granted and 17 for additions and alterations, making a total of 25. Thirty-seven inspections were made. Expenses had been $99.95 and fees received and voted into town treasury amounted to $82.

Milk Inspector Dr. Thomas E. Robinson's report voted approved showed 105 dealers applying for licenses. The report showed that regular inspections were made of dairies and the few complaints were rectified. Many herds were reported under state and federal supervision.

Westerly Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown reported three arrests for the month of November as follows: One each, operation of automobile without license, taking auto without owner's consent and the leaving of the scene of an automobile accident.

Dr. Samuel S. C. Webster, superintendent of health, reported for November two cases of contagious disease, one case each of chicken pox and scarlet fever.

Zoning Inspector Louis J. Rossi for October reported expenses of $7.77 with two visits to Weekapaug, Watch Hill and one to Bradford and White Rock and twenty-five mileage about town. For November, $18.97, with two trips each to White Rock, Watch Hill and one to Bradford and a town mileage of 25 miles.

The council voted approval of the action of Town Treasurer James M. Pendleton in his issuance of town notes for $100,000 for public school indebtedness, dated Dec. 2, 1930 and due Feb. 4, 1931. Also his issuance of town notes for $50,000 dated Dec. 1, 1930 and due May 1, 1931, taken by the First National and Old Colony Trust Co. of Boston at 2.78.

A lengthy list of non-sewer connections was gone over and among those listed appeared some half dozen business blocks located in the center or business section of the town following an actual survey just completed. The council voted that the un-connected property owners be served a thirty day legal notice to connect.

The passage of the plumbing code was continued another month, it being the opinion of the council that a penalty be fixed for the non-report of sewage connections made by plumbers.

Superintendent Ernest H. Saunders with Engineer Alger in charge of easement line location appeared at the council meeting and filed a duplicate copy of a proposed easement for the changing of the location of 5 poles on the Westerly-Bradford state highway new 11,000 volt reconstruction line for the South County Public Service Co., the location desired being from Chapman's or Burden's pond to Oak street to within 21 1-2 feet of the center highway line in anticipation of the widening of the highway by the state to a 50 foot width, the relocation to be on the southerly side of the road where the line now is south of fence line.

Supt Saunders said he did not wish to appear to be "railroading" the project but he was fearful of an accident to the transmission line and if one pole fell the line might go down like "a row of dominoes." George E. Broughton asked if the condition of the line had not been known for some time and Mr. Saunders said that until recently it had not been learned and found in a worse condition than expected, and that the point was a dangerous one with lives at stake.

Solicitor Ferguson advised the council to proceed slowly in their granting of the easement as it was a matter for the highway department to look into. The matter was referred to Mr. Ferguson and the highway department to report back to the council on the special meeting of Monday evening, Dec. 8th.

George B. Utter asked that Engineer Weir of the Playground and Recreational association of America be invited to make a survey of the recently town-acquired beach property at Atlantic Beach, the expense, estimated for three days to be $25 daily with expenses, to be borne by the chamber of commerce. Mr. Utter said that work had been done by him in New Orleans, Cleveland and Chicago. The engineer was to be asked to make the best disposition of the already platted site by Zoning Inspector Louis J. Rossi. Councilmen Isaac G. Smith and James Naccarata were voted a council committee to co-operate with the work, for which plans are to be submitted to the council to be recommended to the February financial town meeting. Mr. Utter brought up the matter that the last town report of Treasurer Pendleton did not show the amount of monies expended by the town council for example for the town police work, to be available for future council police committees for comparisons and recommendations.

Don Dickinson was granted a transfer of a victualizing license from the Shore road to 78 High street.

A bill for damage for fowl killed was increased from a $35 to $78 payment.

Councilman Isaac G. Smith when monthly bills were voted payed called attention to the certifications on the building of the new junior high school showing it nearly completed and asking if the 15 or more per cent retention had been considered.

The last meeting of the town council for the fiscal year 1930 has been set for Monday, Dec. 29th when bills against the town so far as the budget totals will permit will be voted paid.

A council committee consisting of Archie Meikle, Joseph Fraser and John Monti was named to look into the matter of public disposal of garbage, it developing that a menace to public health existed in some cases where nuisances have been ordered abated.

In furtherance of the move by the chamber of commerce for an inspection and certification by a doctor of public food handlers in Westerly, which has come up at previous councils showed progress in that Solicitor Ferguson reported that an amendment to Westerly town ordinances had been prepared by him caring for the matter. The council adjourned shortly before 11:30 p. m.

TRIAL STARTS IN SCHOONMAN-LEONE CASE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 1—The November term of Washington county superior court in its Westerly adjournment with Justice Jeremiah O'Connell of Providence on the bench, held its third day session on Monday in the Union street superior court house.

Judge O'Connell again called the Westerly trial calendar and a similar disposition was given as that appeared in last Tuesday morning's Bulletin with the exception that in the second case set down for hearing Attorney C. E. Roche stated, in the action of Woods, Young Co., vs. Edward J. Fenelon, witnesses are to come from Chicago, who might not reach Westerly until later in the week. Accordingly for the second case, marked ready for trial in the event that Woods vs. Fenelon was not ready was the automobile damage case, Elisha R. Bitgood of Hopkinton, R. I., vs. Harry O. Williams and Elisha R. Bitgood vs. Edith C. Williams.

The case ready for trial on Monday was that of William F. Schoonman of New London vs. Louis Leone of Westerly, an action in book account.

Judge O'Connell examined the 36 talismen and they were all qualified to serve as follows:

South Kingstown—Robert I. Andrew, Weaver; Fred K. Crandall, clerk; Roderick Gillies, printer; Everett F. Goodwin, salesman; William A. Kelley, farmer; Peter F. Lucier, chef; Andrew N. Tefft, clerk; Joseph H. Underwood, unemployed.

North Kingstown—Joseph R. Arnold, carpenter; James B. Barber, clerk; John E. Jenkins, ice cream dealer; William J. Kenyon, garage owner; Francis S. Madison, dairyman; Edmund Webster, farmer; Frank M. Weinreich, conductor.

Westerly—Edwin H. Blackler, undertaker; Henry H. Blackler, dairy farmer; James J. Casey, foreman; Harry G. Clancy, taxi business; John R. Healey, gardener; Francis M. Johnson, manager; Daniel F. Larkin, president; John E. Morrison, carpenter; Farquhar Smith, proprietor.

Hopkinton—Eldred A. Arnold, overseer; Eugene I. Miner, farmer; Harold C. Wilcox, carpenter; Howard C. Woodmansee, ice business.

Richmond—Willis C. Allbee, weaver; Henry G. Clark, president.

Exeter—Frank E. Dutemple, blacksmith; Frank W. Thomas, farmer.

Charlestown—William J. Browne, foreman; George W. Hoxie, clerk.

Narragansett—Walter A. Chappell, farmer; Edward E. Coggeshall, salesman.

With the acceptance of the jurymen, trial started in the Schoonman-Leone case with the plaintiff represented by Attorney John F. Gallagher and the respondent by Attorney C. E. Roche. The suit was described as being brought to collect for nursery stock sold to Leone by Schoonman from his nursery in New London and one purchased by him in 1926 from Ole E Rydher near Norwich during a period dating from May 1926 to Christmas, 1929. The last date was for the Westerly community Christmas tree located last year on the site of the Rhode Island hotel block in Dixon square and for which the bill of particulars made a $10 charge, claimed by Mr. Leone to be excessive as he was making a present of the tree taken from the Norwich nursery. The total amount for which the suit was brought was $380 as claimed for apple trees, lilacs, elms and white birches. Against this was a check payment of $100 leaving a balance claimed due of $280.

The jury to hear the case was empanelled as follows, the spare jurors being excused until this Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Joseph H. Underwood, foreman: Robert O. Andrew, Fred K. Crandall, Roderick Gillies, and Andrew N. Tefft of South Kingstown; James B. Barber, William J. Kenyon, Francis S. Madison and Frank M. Weinrich of North Kingstown; Francis M. Johnson of Westerly; Williard J. Brown and George W. Hoxie of Charlestown.

The plaintiff, William J. Schoonman of New London, occupied the witness stand during the morning session to testify that by an agreement with Ole E. Rydher, Otto F. Ernst, Norwich florist had authority before the nursery was sold to sell stock from the place and had sold to Louis Leone of Westerly. On his purchase he notified these men that he would expect payment from them of stock taken from the place and proceeded to describe the sales in the bill for which suit was brought.

In the afternoon the respondent, Louis Leone, on the witness stand gave a general denial to the statements that he had taken more stock than agreed upon and said that the $100 check payment made by him was in full settlement and that he had even made a special trip to New London with the only purpose to pay Mr Schoonman.

The second afternoon witness was Otto F. Ernst of Norwich, who testified that not until he had received two letters from Mr. Rydher did he know that the nursery had been sold although he had been previously informed by Mr. Schoonman. He said that Louis Leone was practically the only customer to whom he sold stock from the Norwich nursery. He denied on the witness stand that he was on unfriendly terms with Schoonman. In the two letters read to the jury as passing from Rydher to Ernst, one stated, that all stock should be sold as far as possible and even a tender to purchase the place was read to Mr. Ernst. At 4:30 court adjourned with Ernst still on the stand and a court request by Attorney Gallagher for Mr. Leone to produce his account books in court this (Tuesday) morning.

Heavy Surf at Watch Hill

The strong southerly winds of Sunday which veered from southeast to southwest caused heavy surf to ⸺ and upon the east beach at Watch Hill and the shores to the eastward. The large waves beginning at 4 p. m. on Sunday increased until just before high tide and then rain squalls cut them down. No damage was reported to seashore property at the Westerly shore resorts. At the Watch Hill Coast Guard stationo one of the two boats making the trip to Block Island completed the round trip.

The wreck of the rumrunner Helen of Newport, R. I., driven ashore by coast guard gunfire a month ago and beached near Napatree Point, and which had been broken up for junking, was moved by the force of the winds and waves so that on Monday morning a sidewall of the one-time speedy craft lay on the bathing beach between the public and private pavilions and the rest of the wreckage on the rocks at the side of the former Block Island dock.

Tall Cedars Hold Forth

Over 300 Tall Cedars of Lebanon from Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island were Westerly visitors on Monday night and took part in the street parade held previous to the ceremonial held in the American Legion hall on Main street. The parade formed at the American Legion hall, proceeded north up Main street through the square up High to Canal where they counter-marched at the depot down Canal and High, over the bridge, up West Broad street to Moss where it counter-marched east over West Broad and the bridge and back to the American Legion rooms.

Providence Forest No. 19, brought its band and drum corps and other Forests were accompanied by bands Grand Tall Cedar Lewis Goff of Providence was in charge of the program. Forests from New London, New Bedford and East Providence were present with their drill teams. A large representation of Tall Cedars from Westerly and this section greeted the visiting Cedars from the three states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

OBITUARY

Miss Olivia Chester

In Howard, R. I., on Sunday occurred the death of Miss Olivia Chester, a former resident of Rockville, at the age of 84 years. She had been blind and confined to her bed for ten years.

The deceased was born in Rockville being the daughter of the late Christopher N. and Clarisa Chester and had spent all of her life in Rockville previous to going to Howard. She leaves a niece, Mrs. Lula Lanphear of Bowling Lane, Bradford, and a nephew, Fred Chester of Brockton, Mass.

MONTVILLE

CHARGE AGAINST DUKE NOLLED BY JUSTICE CHURCH

Joseph Duke, of 27 Rose street, Norwich Town, arrested by Police Officer Howard Lamphere of Montville, on the charge of tampering with a motor vehicle, had his case tried in the Montville justice court Monday evening. The charge was nolled by Justice of the Peace Oscar E. Church.

ANDREW GARDNER FINED ON ONE OF THREE CHARGES

Andrew Gardner of Brookl ., N. Y., a sailor stationed at the submarine base Groton, was arrested by State Trooper John Smith of Groton barracks Sunday morning on three charges, operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, reckless driving and evading responsibility. The arrest followed an auto collision with a trolley car on top of Trading Cove Hill, Norwich-New London highway, Saturday evening. The accused had his case tried in Montville justice court Monday afternoon. He was found guilty on the first count and was fined $100 and costs. The other two charges were nolled by Justice of the Peace Oscar E. Church, who heard the case.

FIRE DEPT. COMMITTEE TO REPORT AT MEETING

There is to be a public meeting Monday, Dec. 8th, in the school auditorium, Uncasville, for the purpose of organizing a fire company in the town of Montville. At a meeting of this body, held May 21st, a committee was chosen to secure data and different insurance rates of other towns protected by a fire department, also to secure reductions in rates that would go into effect in Montville if the promotors succeeded in organizing a company by public subscription, which company would be independent of the town. The committee comprises Fred C. Rogers, chairman, Rev. Otis Lee Monson, James Pappas, Armand Plouffe, Walter Bergmen, with Frank Richards secretary.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harrison D. Wilson

Mrs. Harrison D. Wilson, of North Main street, Norwich, who has been a summer resident at Haughton's Cove, Uncasville, for a number of years, died early Monday morning in Backus hospital, Norwich, following an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Wilson leaves besides her husband, three sons, Russell, William and Thomas and two brothers, Frederick Power, of Norwich and Alex Power, of Schenectady, N. Y.

Benefit Christmas Dance

Final plans have been made for the second annual benefit dance for the Community Christmas tree and to distribute Christmas cheer to the needy of the town. This will be held in the Montville Community house at Uncasville next week. The committee which comprises members from different lodges and societies in town is working hard to make this affair a great success and to date many tickets have been sold.

Rehearsed Comedy

The members of Uncasville M. E. church who are to produce the comedy Zander Gump's Wedding early in January held their first rehearsal last Monday evening in the church parlors with a large attendance.

-a furry tongue
-an aching head
-a gassy stomach
indicate a real need for
Beecham's Pills
THE NATION'S LAXATIVE
Safe, effective for all the family
25¢ AND 50¢ AT ALL DRUGGISTS
TRIAL SIZE 10¢

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

MYSTIC

Mystic County club will meet Thursday evening, Dec. 4, with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Z. Chesebro of Reynolds hill. The committee in charge will be Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Haggard, Miss Clara Chase and Henry Hammacher.

The Home School association of the Robert Fitch high school is planning a whist. Progressive bridge and straight whist will be played.

Mrs. Edith Baton, principal of West Mystic grammar school, has returned to her duties here, after the holiday at her home in Moodus.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowling Hilton of Keene, N. H., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Morgan, of Pequotsepos.

The body of Luther Calvin Gray, 73, who died Wednesday at the Westerly hospital, was brought to Mystic Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the funeral parlors on East Main street and burial was in Elm Grove cemetery.

Miss Minnie Duerr, R. N., has returned to Providence, after a visit with her mother in the village.

Miss Emma Albright has returned from visiting friends in Pawtucket, R. I.

The meeting of Pequot camp, Modern Woodmen of America, is to be held this (Tuesday) evening.

Fractured Skull

Mrs. George Wallace and son were in Portsmouth recently and visited the former's son-in-law, Richard E. Walker who is a patient in the Naval hospital there, having been in a serious accident. He is making progress, though slow, to recovery, having a fractured skull.

Miss Dorothy Gray has returned to her studies at R. I. State college, after spending the holiday recess with her mother in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson were in New Haven Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah McDaniels has returned to her duties at Middlesex hospital, Middletown, after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Colt.

Notices at St. Patrick's church Sunday morning for the week included the December meeting of the Ladies' Aid society to be held in the vestry at 7:30 Tuesday evening; Thursday evening, the December meeting of the K. of C. will be held. December 5, the first Friday of the month, holy communion will be given at 5:45 o'clock and again at the 8 o'clock mass. Instructions for the children will be given by Rev. J. P. Kennedy, pastor, Saturday morning at 9:30.

Golden Rule class of the Old Mystic Methodist church will meet this (Tuesday) evening with Mrs. Altana Johnson and daughter, Miss Fay Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Packer, of New London, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Desley of Old Mystic, Sunday.

Charles S. Cady, of Hartford, and Miss Geraldine Dodge, of Worcester were dinner guests of Mrs. Howard Sims and Miss Flora Kennedy, Sunday.

A. L. Turrisi of New London, was a business caller in town Monday.

At Morgan Home

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Allyn and Mrs. George Garytie, of Ledyard; Fred Allyn and Miss Dorothy Hoptser of Itaca, N. Y., where guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coles and son, Perry, of Norwich, and Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert W. Carter and son, Jr., of Wethersfield, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldredge, of Old Mystic.

Mrs. W. L. Main, Mrs. W. A. Phillips and Miss Hazel I. Main were in North Stonington Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes and son, Kenneth, and daughter, Norma, were at Watch Hill Sunday afternoon.

Sunday Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kennedy entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Champion of Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Randall Burton Woodward and Miss Ellen Martin, all of Shannock, and Mrs. Howard Sims of Old Mystic.

Oliver Burrows, of New London, spent Sunday with his brother, A. W. Burrows and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Siswick, of Hope Valley, were guests Sunday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Siswick.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, of Westerly, called on Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Swain Sunday afternoon.

STONINGTON

George Sylvia has returned to New York following a visit with his mother, Mrs. Frank Sylvia.

W. Doll of Pawtucket visited here Monday.

Anne and Betty Pierce have returned to Smith college, after the holidays here.

Julia Garity returned to New York Sunday, after spending the week here.

John Allison of Fishers Island was a caller here Monday.

The monthly meeting of the Neptune Engine company was held in the company's rooms Monday evening.

Club Re-opens

Arthur Raynor has been chosen house man at the Arion clubhouse of the American Velvet Co., on Cutler street. The club re-opened Monday evening, after being closed for several months.

Schools of the town resumed sessions Monday, following the Thanksgiving recess.

Mrs. William Edgar, chairman of the Red Cross roll call has announced that 350 members answered the call this year. Although the drive closed on Thanksgiving, the membership drive is still open for anyone who wishes to join.

Mrs. Ralph Seiss has been visiting relatives in Noank.

Miss Dorothy Turner has returned to New York, after visiting here with relatives over the holiday.

The Mineola Raised

Elliott Watrous' marine engineers of West Mystic have succeeded in raising the Mineola, the fishing smack owned by Capt. Frank Kessler, which sank on the south side of the Carlson Packing station last week. A large hole was found in the starboard side. The schooner, a deep and heavy one, will go on the marine ways for repairs.

Charles Willard has returned from a visit in Baltimore.

Disappointed robbers were believed to have chucked away 1,000 pennies found in the backyard of a Santa Barbara, Cal., home.

DANDRUFF
LUCKY TIGER, world's largest seller at Druggists, Barbers and Beauty Parlors. A Proven Germicide. Corrects dandruff and scalp irritations. Safe for adults, children. Guaranteed.
LUCKY TIGER

NOANK

Rapid progress is being made on the new bridge which will span the railroad tracks and connect the new highway which will eliminate the two dangerous grade crossings at Main street and Spicer avenue.

Mrs. Annie Dennis has concluded a visit with Saybrook relatives.

Miss Phoebe Sheffield has left for Saybrook after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Tourjee.

Miss Dorothy Hahn has gone back to South Hadley, Mass.

Miss Thelma Meister is visiting relatives in Perth Amboy, N. J.

The Ever Ready girls of the World Wide guild will meet with Miss Georgianna Haynes Friday evening.

The Dusty Knights of the Junior O. U. A. M. held a meeting in Mechanics hall Saturday evening. Initiation of several candidates took place. Guests were present from New London and Stonington. At the close of the evening refreshments were served and a smoker and pinochle party followed.

The advisory committee of the Baptist church will meet in the vestry this (Tuesday) evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fournier and son, Elno, have returned to Providence after a visit with local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spink, of New London, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Thomas Perkins, of New London, was a caller in the village Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitmore, of Westerly, have been visiting local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thompson are home, after several weeks spent in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thorpe and daughter, Patricia, of Uncasville, have been visiting Mrs. Thorpe's mother, Mrs. Helen Mahoney.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarthy, of New London, spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Annie Tooker, of Pearl street.

Jack Smith has returned to Worcester, after the holidays spent with his mother, Mrs. Albany R. Smith.

E. D. Carroll, of Norwich, was a business caller in the village Monday.

Arthur Falconi, of New London, spent Monday at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emelio Falconi, of Main street.

Liberty council, D. of A., will meet Wednesday evening.

The fishing boat Alden, owned by Capt. Alvin Foster, which has been hauled out on the ways at Rogers' boatyard for minor repairs and painting, has been launched. The pleasure craft, Clarice, owned by Robert Anderson, has been placed in winter storage.

Furlough Ends

Bernard Carson has returned to his duties on Cornfield lightship, after a furlough at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jane Carson.

Joseph Butson has returned to East Greenwich, R. I.

Home From Saybrook

Mrs. Etta Main has returned, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Sheffield, in Saybrook.

The Bridge club will meet with Miss Audrey Brooks, of Highland farm, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Walter Thompson has returned to East Hartford, after a visit with local relatives.

Attired as a hobo, Prof. W. J. Hammond, of Texas Christian university, tramps in old Mexico during summers to gather facts for his history course.

The Extra Cough Help
Extra In Power And Price

'Creomulsion is a super-help for coughs from colds. It is for deep coughs where you dare not risk a weak help. Seven major helps are embodied in it, including the best known to medical science.

The creosote is blended, emulsified and palatable. It is to soothe the membranes and combat the germs. It presents the world's best help for coughs of this kind in a pleasant form.

There are white pine tar, wild cherry bark, menthol, ipecac, etc. All the greatest helps in one, but with no narcotic. Despite all its power and efficiency, it is harmless to a child.

Some coughs call for one help, some another. Nobody can tell. So we combine the best in Creomulsion to be safe.

Creomulsion costs $1.25 — a little more than lesser helps. But all druggists guarantee it and return the full price to anyone not satisfied.

It may be too good for your cough. A lesser help might serve. But is it wise to take the risk when coughs are danger signals? Anyway, a cough from a cold which hangs on calls for this super-help. Do the best men know to be sure.

CREOMULSION
for Difficult Coughs from Colds

How Bright and Full of Energy This Boy Looks!
He Keeps His Face and Hands Clean and Healthy with Cuticura Soap
Teach children early in life to use Cuticura Soap every day and Cuticura Ointment for any rashes or irritations. Shampoos with Cuticura Soap keep the hair healthy and thick.
Soap 25c. Ointment 25c. and 50c. Talcum 25c.
Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Malden, Mass.

You Are Cordially Invited to Join
THE CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB
For 1931
OPEN NOW
Classes to Suit All!

The Chelsea Christmas Club
Is the Oldest and Largest in Norwich, Conn.
Payments Will Be Made to Members on December 5, 1931
Members paying 25c for 50 weeks $12.75
Members paying 50c for 50 weeks $25.50
Members paying $1.00 for 50 weeks $51.00
Members paying $2.00 for 50 weeks $102.00
Members paying $5.00 for 50 weeks $255.00
Save Systematically For Christmas of 1931
THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK
Franklin Square "The Bank of Community Service" Norwich, Conn
Open Saturday Evenings—6.30-8.00 N. B. New Currency and Holiday Containers

SLIGHT ADVANCE OF PRICES IN A DULL SESSION OF STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A becalmed stock market finally caught enough breeze today to close with general net advances, but the story of the session was best told by the sales total, only 1,107,567 shares, the smallest volume for a full day since Aug. 1.

Advances of about a point in the industrials were improved on by many rails and a few utilities, which made their best showing in the afternoon after a mediocre performance in the morning. Some carrier issues rose 3 to 4 points.

The improvement seemed to come from short covering that was based on anticipation of the president's message to congress tomorrow. Nevertheless, whatever sail the bear faction took in as a precautionary measure, was reefed with little haste and the principal feature of the day was the market's dullness.

Business news of the day was scant. Custom smelters who had cut copper to 10 1-2 cents put the price back to 11, where it is still a cent below the producers' figure. Two members of the Kennecott family declared regular quarterly dividends and a regular disbursement was also authorized by American Car & Foundry, all of which decisions were reassuring. On the other side of the account stood a few more bank closings; one in Connecticut represented the closest approach of the epidemic to Wall street which so far has ignored such troubles.

Wheat and corn fluctuated narrowly. Both closed with minor fractional gains, wheat in sympathy with a decreased visible supply and unfavorable weather and corn on a decrease in contract stocks and small Illinois cash offerings. Cotton was down about $1 a bale at the bottom, but reduced its losses to 50 to 65 cents.

Bonds were steadier, especially in the high grade descriptions, with the volume little more than normal. Call money held firm at 2 per cent because of the Dec. 1 requirements.

Except for some heaviness in the early trading, stocks edged higher without interruption. By early afternoon a fair-sized assortment had recorded gains of a point or two, but the best part of the slow rally was withheld until the last hour. Allied Chemical was particularly strong, closing nearly 6 points higher. Union Pacific climbed half a dozen points, holding about half of the rise. Norfolk & Western, Atlantic Coast Line, the Missouri Pacific, gained 3 to 4 net, while Atchison, Baltimore & Ohio, Missouri Kansas Texas, New Haven, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway and New York Central were up 1 to 2. U. S. Steel, selling ex-dividend, touched 145 3-8, and closed at 144 3-4, for a gain of 3-4. General Electric, Electric Auto Lite, National Biscuit, International Harvester, May Department Stores, R. H. Macy, Standard Oil of N. J., DuPont, American Can, Case, and Westinghouse gained 1 to 2 net, and American Telephone, Consolidated Gas and North American a couple of points.

A heavy tone persisted in foreign exchanges. Sterling cables sagged to $4.85 1-2, another new low and a notch nearer the gold point, partly in reflection of the British labor difficulties. The Canadian dollar slipped back to par for the first time in several months, but the move was seasonal, incident to the closing of St. Lawrence river navigation.

STOCKS.

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
8	Abiti P & P	10⅜	10	10⅜
1	Abiti P & P pr.	43	43	43
8	Adams Exp	20¼	19⅝	20
8	Adv Rumely	3¾	3¾	3¾
10	Ahumada L	⅝	⅝	⅝
23	Air Reduc	104⅝	102¾	104⅝
8	Air Way E Ap	10⅞	10⅛	10⅞
4	Ajax Rub	⅝	⅝	⅝
8	Alaska Jun	6⅝	6½	6½
1	A P W Pap	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
87	Alleghany	10⅝	9½	9⅝
1	Allegh pr $30	60⅝	60⅝	60⅝
40	Al Ch & Dye	204⅜	199¼	204⅜
2	Al Ch & Dy pr.	124	123	124
23	Allis Ch Mfg	37⅝	36⅝	37⅝
3	Alpha P Cem	16⅞	16⅞	16⅞
3	Am Agr Chem	2	1⅞	1⅞
1	Am Bosch Mag	23	23	23
3	Am Brak Sh	36½	36¼	36¼
5	Am Bro B El	10	9⅝	10
70	Am Br B pr	65	64½	65
106	Am Can	118¾	115⅞	117¾
46	Am C & Fdy	39	37¼	37⅞
1	Am Car & F pr	81	81	81
4	Am Chain	37	37	37
1	Am Chain pr	87	87	87
3	Am Chicle	40½	40	40½
48	Am & F P	39⅝	38⅝	39⅝
3	Am & F P 6 pc	83½	83	83½
1	Am Hawaii S S	8¾	8¾	8¾
1	Am H & L	4	4	4
5	Am Home Prd	52	51⅝	51⅝
3	Am Ice	29⅝	29	29⅝
38	Am Inter	22¼	21⅛	22
9	Am Loco	30½	29⅛	30⅛
1	Am Loco pr	79¼	79¼	79¼
7	Am Mach & M	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
6	Am Metal	20½	20	20¼
13	Am Pow & Lt	51	49	50⅝
1	Am P & L 6 pc p	98	98	98
45	Am Rad St S	19⅛	18⅝	19⅛
50	Am Rad St S p	140¼	139	140½
4	Am Repub	9⅛	9	9
10	Am Roll Mill	34¼	34⅛	34¼
4	Am Saf Raz	59⅞	58⅝	59⅞
2	Am Seat	6½	6½	6½
2	Am Sm & R	52⅝	51½	52¼
1	Am Snuff	37½	37½	37½
4	Am Stl Fdrs	31	30½	31
1	Am Stores	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝
1	Am Sug Ref	52½	52½	52½
1	Am Sug Ref	103	103	103
89	Am Tel & Tel	189⅝	186½	189⅝
1	Am Tob	106	106⅞	106⅞
27	Am Tob B	108⅞	107¼	108⅞
60	Am Type F p	107	104	107
44	Am Wat Wks	64¼	62⅛	64¼
2	Am Wool pr	17½	17½	17½
1	Am Wtg P cf	2½	2½	2½
1	Am Z L & S	6	6	6
10750	Anaconda	37¼	36⅝	36⅞
1	Anchor Cap	30½	30½	30½
2	Archer D M	16⅝	16⅝	16⅝
3	Armour Del pr	73	72½	72½
34	Armour Ill A	4⅜	3⅞	4⅛
4	Armour Ill B	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
5	Arnold Cons	4½	4½	4½
3	Asso App Ind	28½	28	28½
27	Asso Dry Gds	28⅜	27	28⅜
20	Atchison	191½	186½	190½
3	Atchison pr	106⅛	106½	106⅛
11	Atl Cst Line	125	124	125
4	Atl G & W I	43	42⅜	43
2	At G & W I pr	53½	52½	52½
33	Atl Ref	21½	20⅞	21
2	Atlas Pow	53	52⅝	52⅝
10	Atlas Pow pr	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝
2	Atlas Stores	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
20	Aust N pr A	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
1	Autosales	2	2	2
22	Aviat Corp	4	3⅞	4
126	Baldwin Loc	27⅛	26⅝	27⅝
250	Bald Loc pr	100	98½	100
6	Balt & Ohio	74¼	72⅞	74¼
30	Bamberger pr	107	107	107
30	Barger Bros	12⅛	12⅛	12⅛
10	Barnsdall A	14½	14⅜	14½
100	Bayuk Cigar	29¼	29⅛	29¼
8	Beatrict Cr	72	70½	71½
34	Bendix Aviat	18½	17⅞	18½
17	Best & Co	41½	40⅝	41½
109	Beth Steel	62⅝	61⅛	62⅝
1	Beth St 7pc pr	119⅝	119⅝	119⅝
16	Blaw Knox	26	25¼	26
9	Bohn Alum	23⅞	21⅝	23⅞
43	Borden	68⅝	67⅝	67⅝
10	Borg Warn	18¾	18⅝	18⅝
1	Bot C M A	3	3	3
87	Briggs Mfg	17½	16½	17½
1	Brig & Str	17½	17½	17½
1	Brock Mot	4¼	4¼	4¼
6	Bklyn M Tr	65	65	65
1	Bklyn & Q Tr	9¼	9¼	9¼
3	Bklyn Un Gas	105	105	105
1	Brown Shoe	36	36	36
1	Bruns Bal	11	11	11
1	Br T & Ry	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
2	Bucyr Erie	14½	14½	14½
2	Bucyr E cv pr	27½	27½	27½
1	Budd Mfg	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
3	Budd Wheel	9⅝	9⅛	9⅝
4	Bullard Co	19	18⅝	19
8	Bulova Wat	16½	15⅝	16⅜
8	Burns Br A	73¼	69⅞	69⅞
3	Burns Br B	11	10	10
17	Burr Add M	23⅝	23¼	23⅝
19	Burns Br pr	94¼	94¼	94¼
2	Bush Term	26⅛	26	26
2	But & Sup M	1⅛	1	1
3	Butterick	12	11⅞	12
12	Byers Co	45	45	45
1	Calif Pack	51	51	51
6	Callahan zinc	¾	¾	¾
3	Calum & A	38	37	38
10	Calu & H	10½	10	10
28	Can D G Ale	44	42¾	43
24	Canad Pac	43¼	42⅝	43¼
3	Cap Adm A	10½	10⅛	10½
55	Case J I	112⅛	109½	111¾
3	Caterpil T	32⅛	32¼	32¼
2	Cav Dob	3	3	3
1	Celanese	15	15	15
4	Celotex Co	7½	7¼	7¼
1	Celotex ctfs	7	7	7
100	Celotex Co pr	27	27	27
2	Cen Agri	23⅛	23	23
1	Cen Rib M	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
5	Cer de Pas	30	28⅝	29⅝
8	Checker Cab	22¼	21½	22¼
22	Ches & Oh	43⅞	42½	43⅞
1	Ches Corp	44	44	44
3	Chi G West	7⅝	7⅝	7½
3	Chi Gt W pr	25¾	24⅝	25¾
11	Ch I & L pr	7⅝	7⅛	7⅝
20	C M St P&P pr.	12⅝	12	12¾
1	C R I & P 6 pc p	89	89	89
13	C & N W xd	41	39⅝	40½
4	Chi Pneu T	11½	10⅝	11⅛
15	C R I & P	61⅝	59½	60½
2	C R I & P 7 pc	99⅛	99	99½
2	Childs Co	30⅛	30	30
87	Chrysler	18⅝	17½	18
97	Cluett Peab	100	100	100
1	City Ice & F	37½	37½	37½
20	City I & F pr	82⅞	82⅝	82⅞
5	City Stores	4⅝	4⅛	4¼
3	Coca Cola	158	157¼	158
1	Colg Palm	50	50	50
2	Col & Aik	15¼	14⅛	15¼
2	Coll & Aik pr	78	78	78
8	Col Fuel & Ir	26½	24⅞	26½
133	Colum G & E	37⅛	36	37⅛
1	Col G & E pr A	104¼	104¼	104¼
27	Colum Graph	11⅝	11	11¼
17	Colum Carb	92¼	89½	91½
1	Com Cred A	35	35	35
100	Com Cr pr B.	23¼	22¼	22⅝
5	Com Inv Tr	27⅜	27⅜	27⅜
136	Comw So	9⅛	8⅞	9
8	Comw So pr	95½	94⅛	95⅛
7	Comw So pr	95¼	94⅞	95¼
10	Cong Nairn	8½	8⅛	8⅝
15	Cong Na	8½	8⅛	8⅛
150	Cons Cig 6½	62	60⅛	62
1	Cons Film	13½	13½	13½
2	Cons R R Cu	37½	37	37
105	Consol Gas	89⅞	87⅞	89⅞
8	Consol Text	⅜	⅜	⅜
4	Cont Bak A	20⅞	20¼	20⅞
4	Cont Bak B	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
1	Cont Bak pr	70⅜	70⅜	70⅜
13	Contl Can	50	49	50
33	Cont O Del	11½	11⅛	11½
7	Contl Ins	46⅜	46	46
10	Cont Mot	3⅞	3¾	3⅜
30	Contl Oil Del	11⅜	11½	11⅜
25	Cont Shrs	13⅛	12½	12⅞
3	Corn Prd	80	79½	80
40	Corn Prd pr	146	146	146
3	Coty	10	9⅞	9⅞
4	Crex Carpet	16	15⅞	16
3	Crosley Rad	6½	6½	6½
1	Crucible Stl	57	57	57
10	Cruci St pr	105	105	105
6	Cuban Am Sug	4⅞	4⅜	4⅜
5	Cuba Can Pr	2	1⅞	2
1	Cuba Co	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
4	Cuban Am Sug	4⅞	4½	4⅞
20	Cuban Am S pr	36	36	36
3	Cudahy Pack	41½	41½	41½
3	Curtis Pub	97	96⅝	96⅝
21	Curtis Wright	3⅝	3⅛	3¼
15	Curtiss Wr A	4⅝	4¼	4½
50	Cushm 8 pc pr.	100	100	100
4	Cutler Ham	45	45	45
4	Davis Chem	17	16½	17
12	Del Lack & W	87	87	87
1	Den R G&W pr	36	36	36
100	Det M pr	12	12	12
1	Detroit Edis	161	161	161
1	Diam M ct	209½	209½	209½
1	Dome Mines	8¾	8¾	8¾
2	Domin St	15½	15½	15½
24	Drug Inc	68⅞	67¼	68⅞
3	Dunhill Int	7	7	7
10	Duplan S pr	105	105	106
142	DuP d Nem	90⅝	88	90
14	East Kod	168	165	167¾
3	Eaton T & S	15⅝	15¼	15⅝
106	El Auto L	54¼	51	54
70	Elec Auto L pr	106	106	106
112	El Pow & Lt	44½	42⅝	44⅝
2	El P & L 6 pr	90⅞	90½	90⅞
1	El P & L pr	102⅝	102⅝	102⅝
1	Elec Star B	67⅛	67⅛	67⅛
3	Endicott John	47½	46¼	47½
1	Eng P S 5½ pr	92½	92½	92½
12	Erie R R	30	29	29½
4	Evans Auto L	5¼	5	5
20	Fairbanks pr	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
170	Fash Park pr	19	18⅝	18⅝
10	Fed L & T pr	90	90	90
2	Fed Wat S	25⅝	25½	25½
3	Fed D St	18½	18	18½
7	Fid P Fire Ins	53	52½	52⅝
3	Firest T & R	19	19	19
13	Firest T & R pr	68	66¼	68
20	Fisk R 1 pr	3¼	3⅛	3¼
3	First N St	44⅞	44½	44⅝
16	Fisk Rubber	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
5	Foster Wheel	52½	51	52¼
6	Fourth N I	24⅝	24⅝	24⅝
22	Fox Film A	32	30⅝	32
130	Frank Sim pr	82	81½	81½
8	Freeport Tex	33	32½	33
30	Gamewell as	59⅝	59⅝	59⅝
3	Gardner Mot	1¼	1⅛	1¼
8	Gen Am Tank	67⅝	67	67⅝
2	Gen Bronze	8⅞	8¾	8⅞
2	Gen Cable	11	11	11
2	Gen Cable A	27⅜	27⅜	27⅜
20	Gen Cable pr	70	70	70
20	Gen Cigar p as	114	114	114
278	Gen Elect	49⅜	48⅝	48⅞
6	Gen Elec spl	11⅝	11⅛	11⅛
49	Gen Foods	52	51	52
5	Gen G & E A	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝
10	Gen G&E cv pr	59	59	59
1	Gen Mills	47½	47⅛	47⅛
227	Gen Mot	35⅝	34⅞	35⅝
5	Gen Mot pr	96	96	96
1	Gen Out Adv	9	9	9
8	Gen Pub Ser	20	19½	20
18	Gen Rail Sig	72¼	69	72¼
17	Gen R & U	6⅝	6	6⅝
5	Gen R & U pr	66⅞	66½	66⅞
1	Gen Refract	47⅜	47⅜	47⅜
105	Gen The Eq	18⅝	17⅛	18¼
24	Gillette S R	24½	23⅞	23⅞
32	Gimbel Bro	7⅝	7¼	7⅝
3	Glidden Co	9¼	9⅛	9¼
3	Gobel Adolph	5⅝	5½	5½
84	Gold Dust	35¼	34⅛	35
16	Goodrich	20⅝	20¼	20⅝
49	Goodyear T	52¼	51	51⅞
2	Goody T 1 pr x	89	89	89
11	Goth Silk H	7⅛	6½	6⅝
1	Graham Paige	4¼	4¼	4¼
6	Granby Con M	18⅝	18	18⅝
1	Grand Stl St	29⅞	29⅞	29⅞
4	Grand Union	12⅛	11⅞	12⅛
1	Granite C St	22	22	22
9	Gt No Ry pr	63⅞	62⅝	63½
5	Gt Nor Ir Ore	22½	22⅝	22⅝
12	Gt West Sug	12	11⅝	11⅝
13	Gt West Sug pr	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝
20	Grigsby Grun	4	3⅞	4
1	Gulf St Steel	22¼	22¼	22¼
20	Gulf St St pr	93	92¾	92⅞
10	Hk W pr A	23⅛	23⅛	23⅛
16	Hahn Dept St	10⅝	9⅛	10
2	Harb Walk	41	40⅝	41
3	Hartman B	4½	4⅛	4½
1	Hayes Body	4¼	4¼	4¼
1	Hersh Choc	87	87	87
3	Hersh cvt pr	93½	93⅛	93½
2	Holl F	30¼	30¼	30¼
20	Houd H B	6	5⅝	5⅝
18	Houston Oil	43	41¼	42⅝
7	Houst O n	9⅝	9⅛	9⅝
1	Hud & Man	41	41	41
28	Hud Mot	25	23⅞	25
33	Hupp Motor	9½	9	9½
20	Illinois Cent	81	78⅝	79¼
1	Ind Motorcy	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
138	Indian Refin	4⅜	4⅛	4⅜
18	Inspirat Cop	10⅝	9⅞	10⅜
1	Insur Del	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
2	Insur (Md)	7⅝	7½	7½
9	Interlake Ir	13	12½	13
7	Int Bus Mach	149	147	147⅞
6	Int Carrier Ltd	10⅝	10¼	10½
4	Int Cement	58	58	58
5	Int Comb E	2¼	2¼	2¼
17	Int Harv	60⅝	59⅝	60⅝
2	Int Harv pr	139¼	138⅛	139¼
8	Int Hydro El A	28⅛	27⅞	28⅛
6	Int Hudro El A	28⅛	27⅛	28⅛
13	Int Mtch ptc pr	62⅝	62	62⅝
13	Int Mtch ptc pr	62⅝	62	62⅝
1	Int Mer M ctf	17	17	17
111	Int Nick Can xd	18½	18⅛	18⅝
16	Int P & P A	7½	7⅛	7½
3	Int P & P pr	40	40	40
3	Int Print Ink	17½	17	17½
200	Int Ry C Am	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
30	Int Ry C Am p	45	45	45
5	Int Salt	37⅜	47⅝	37⅜
1324	Int T & T as	27⅜	26⅞	27½
2	Inter Dpt St	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
60	Int Dept St pr	64	63	63
1	Isl Crk C	30	30	30
4	Johns Many	68½	66⅜	66⅝
20	Jones & L S p	119⅝	119⅝	119⅝
1	Jordan Motor	⅝	⅝	⅝
5	Karstadt Rud	8	8	8
5	Kayser J	17⅝	16⅞	17⅝
6	Kelly Spring	2⅛	2	2
10	Kelly Sp 6pc pr	31	31	31
1	Kelsey Hay W	22⅝	22⅝	22⅝
51	Kelvinator	10⅝	10	10⅜
100	Kendall pr	36	36	36
148	Kennecott	28⅝	28⅛	28⅛
1	Kimberly Cl	44½	44½	44½
1	Kinney G R	22	22	22
10	Kinney pr	65⅞	65⅞	65⅞
2	Kolster Rad	1⅜	1¼	1¼
1	Kolster R ctf	⅝	⅝	⅝
25	Kresge S S	29	28	28½
1	Kresge Dept St	7	7	7
1	Kreess S H	45	45	54
112	Kreug & Toll	24⅛	23⅝	24
16	Kroger Groc	25	24½	25
52	Lambert	79	76¼	77⅞
3	Lane Bryant	20	20	20
2	Lee Rub & T	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
6	Lehigh Port C	15½	15½	15½
5	Lehigh Val C	6⅜	6⅛	6⅜
18	Lehman Corp	58⅞	58	58⅞
3	Ligg & Myers	84	83⅜	84
6	Ligg & My B	85	83⅜	85
6	Lima Loc	25½	24½	25
2	Liquid Carb	49½	49½	49½
66	Loew's	58¼	56⅝	58
5	Loft	3⅜	3¼	3¼
1	Long Bell A	4½	4½	4½
2	Loose Wil Bis	51⅞	51⅝	51⅞
15	Lorillard P	13⅜	13	13
4	Louis Oil	5⅛	5	5
4	Louis G & E A	30	29½	30
3	Louis & Nash	103½	102½	103½
3	Ludlum Steel	13½	13⅛	13½
24	Mack Truck	45	44½	44⅞
38	Macy R H	111½	108	110⅞
1	Mad Sq Gar	7	7	7
1	Magma Cop	23⅝	23⅝	23⅝
20	Manati Sug	2¼	2¼	2¼
2	Manh El md gtd	36½	36½	36½
1	Manh Shirt	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
9	Marcal Oil	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
2850	Mar Midl asxd	22½	22	22½
5	Market St Ry	1⅜	1¼	1¼
2	Mark S R pr pr	19	19	19
17	Marsh Field	33¼	32½	32⅝
2	Math Alkali	37	37	37
27	May Dept St	35	34	35
3	McCall	35¼	34	35¼
30	McCro St pr	81¼	81¼	81¼
2	McIntyr Porc	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
2	McKeesp T	72⅝	72⅝	72⅝
21	McKees & Rob	15¼	14	14⅞
6	McK & R p	36½	35½	36
3	Melville Shoe	25½	25	25
23	Mex Seab Oil	13½	12½	13½
5	Miami Cop	10	9⅞	9⅞
2	Mich Steel	45	44	45
6	Mid Cont Pet	17¼	17	17
4	Midland Steel	22	21½	22
16	Minn Mol Imp	5⅝	5	5
1	Minn M 1 pr	55	55	55
20	MSP&SSMII	43¼	43¼	43¼
3	Mo Kan T	23¼	22	23¼
2	Mo K T pr	74½	73⅞	73⅞
2	Mo Pac	30½	29½	30½
8	Mo Pac pr	102	100	102
1	Mohawk Cpt	12	12	12
3	Monsanto Ch	27½	27	27
198	Montg Ward	24	23¼	23⅝
1	Mother Lode	⅞	⅞	⅞
1	Moto Met Gau	2¼	2¼	2¼
3	Mullins Mfg	10¼	10¼	10¼
19	Murray Corp	13⅝	12⅞	13½
20	Nash C & St L.	88	88	88
46	Nash Motor	28⅛	27⅝	28⅛
3	Natl Acme	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜
10	Nat Bell Hess	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
1	Nat B H pr	27	27	27
25	Nat Biscuit	79	77⅛	79
11	Nat Cash R A	31⅝	30⅜	31⅝
40	Nat Dairy pr	44	43¾	44
3	Nat Dist	25⅝	25¼	25¼
1	Nat Lead	119⅝	119⅝	119⅝
33	Nat Pw & Lt	38	36¼	37⅞
2	Nat R M 2 pr	½	½	½
1	Nat Rad pr	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Nat Steel	48⅞	48⅞	48⅞
72	Nev Con Cop	12⅝	11⅝	12
38	N Y Central	131	128⅝	131
5	N Y C & St L	83⅝	81½	81½
3	N Y Dock pr	8½	81	81
120	N Y & Har as	168	161	168
26	N Y Investorh	15	14⅝	14⅝
3	N Y N H & H	65⅞	65	65⅞
20	N Y Rys pr	2	2	2
30	N Y Stm $6 pr.	103⅛	103⅛	103⅛
1	Norfolk & W	207	207	207
80	Norf & W pr	89	89	89
161	North Amer	72⅝	70⅛	72⅝
14	Nor Am Avia	6¼	6	6⅛
1	No Am Ed pr	100½	100½	100½
1	No Ger Lyd	34	34	34
11	Nor Pac	65¼	64⅝	65
10	Northw Tel	49½	49½	49½
32	Ohio Oil	19	18⅝	19
7	Oliver Farm	4⅛	3⅞	3⅞
5	Oliv F cvt par	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
5	Oliver F pr pr	20	19⅝	20
4	Omnibus	5¼	5	5¼
12	Otis Eleva	57⅞	56	57⅞
6	Otis Steel	13¼	13	13¼
11	Owens Il Gl	41¼	40	40
10	Pac G & E	49⅝	48⅝	49
5	Pac Light	59	58⅝	59
200	Pac Mills	17⅛	17	17
68	Packard Mot	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
19	Param Publix	45	44	45
1	Park Utah	1½	1½	1½
4	Parmelee Tr	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
3	Pthe Exch	3⅜	3⅛	3⅛
12	Patino Min	11⅜	11⅛	11½
6	Penney	34½	34	34
68	Penn R R	60⅝	59	60
2	Penick & Ford	40	38⅝	40
1	Peop Drug	30	30	30
1	Peop Gas C	223	223	223
25	Petro Corp	10¼	10	10¼
17	Phelps Dodge	27	26¼	27
9	Phila R E & I	11⅜	11¼	11⅜
10	Phil Jones p	56½	56½	56½
56	Phillips Pet	19¼	18⅛	18⅝
7	Pierce Oil pr	11	10½	10½
9	Pierce Oil	⅝	⅝	⅝
8	Pierce Pet	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
10	Pitts Un pr	97⅞	97⅞	97⅞
3	Pittston Co	19⅞	19½	19⅞
6	Poor & Co	16⅝	16½	16½
1	Por R A T A	22⅜	22⅜	22⅜
19	Prair O & G	18¼	17¼	18
10	Prair Pip L	28⅞	28	28
1	Press St Car	4½	4½	4½
5	Proct & Gam	65¼	65	65¼
1	Prod & Ref	3½	3½	3½
22	Pub Ser N J	75¼	73	74⅜
3	Pub S E & G pr	111⅛	111	111
12	Pullman	61½	60	61½
1	Pun A Sug ctf	⅞	⅞	⅞
11	Pure Oil	11	10⅝	10⅞
50	Pure O pr as	100½	100½	100½
18	Purity Bak	46⅝	44⅝	46⅝
236	Radio	17¼	16½	17
3	Radio pr B	45	44⅞	45
5	Radio pr	50	50	50
187	Radio Kel O	21	20⅛	20⅞
2	Raybestos Man	21	21	21
1	Real Silk	34	34	34
1050	Reis 1st pr	11½	9⅝	11⅝
53	Rem Rand	18½	18	18
7	Reo Motor	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
53	Repub Stl	18⅝	17⅛	17⅞
5	Rep St cv pr	42½	42¼	42½
1	Revere C & Br	11	11	11
1	Reynolds Met	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝
2	Reynolds Spr	2	2	2
29	Rey Tob B	45	44½	45
4	Rhine West El	35	34⅝	35
18	Rich Oil Col	6⅝	6¼	6¼
3	Rio Grand Oil	8¼	8	8
1	Ritter Dent	31⅝	31⅝	31⅝
1	Rossia Ins	21	21	21
21	Royal Dut sh	41¼	40⅛	41¼
30	Safeway St	52	50½	52
2	St Jos Lead	27¼	27	27¼
2	St L San Fr	63½	63	63½
3	Savage Arms	17⅝	16	16⅞
5	Seaboard Air	1⅛	1	1
187	Sears Roeb	56⅝	55	55⅝
1	Second Nat Inv	4	4	4
7	Seneca Cop	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
20	Servel Inc	5	4⅝	5
18	Shattuck F G	25½	25⅛	26½
10	Shell Tr & T	32	32	32
47	Shell Union	8⅝	8½	8½
10	Shubert Theat	6	5⅝	5⅝
93	Simmons	19	17⅞	18⅞
5	Simms Pet	9	8⅛	8½
44	Sinclair Con	12⅝	12½	12⅝
19	Skelly Oil	13⅛	13¼	13⅛
2	Skelly Oil pr ww	61	61	61
1	Snider Pack	2½	2½	2½
15	South Cal Ed	48⅛	47⅝	47⅝
11	South Pac	102¼	100	102
17	So P R Sug	17¼	16⅝	16⅝
30	South Rail	64¼	63⅛	64¼
2	Spalding	35	35	35
1	Sparks With	11⅛	11¼	11¼
140	Spear pr	70½	70½	70½
1	Spencer Kell	12	12	12
2	Spicer Mfg	9⅝	9½	9½
2	Spicer pr A	26½	25½	26½
9	Spieg M Stern	11	3	11
79	Stand Brands	16⅝	16¼	16⅝
11	St Com Tob	5	4⅝	5
69	St G & El	69⅛	67½	68⅝
3	St G & E pr	62⅛	61¼	62⅛
9	Stand Invest	3¼	3	3¼
43	St Oil Cal	49⅝	49	49¼
6	Stand Oil Kan	18⅛	18	18
86	St Oil N J	54½	53⅜	54¼
51	St Oil N Y	25⅛	24⅞	25⅛
2	Sterl Sec A	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
2	Sterl Sec pr	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
12	Stewa Warner	20⅜	20	20¼
29	Stone & Web	51⅝	49½	51⅝
28	Studebaker	24½	22⅜	23⅞
14	Submarine Boat	¼	¼	¼
6	Superior Oil	1⅜	1¼	1¼
1	Superior Stl	7¼	7¼	7¼
5	Symington A	6¼	6⅛	6⅛
3	Tenn C & Ch	10⅛	9⅞	10⅛
45	Tex Corp	38⅜	37⅞	38½
20	T Gulf Sul	52⅝	52⅛	52⅝
4	T Pac C & O	6½	6½	6½
46	T P L Tr	13⅞	13¼	13⅝
1	Third Ave	8¼	8¼	8¼
1	Th Nat Inv	20	20	20
36	Tide W As	8	7⅝	8
3	Tid Wat A pr	71¼	71⅛	71⅛
1	Tide Wat O pr	82	82	82
9	Timk Roll Br	47¼	46⅞	47
1	Tob Prod	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
2	Tob Prod A	11¼	11⅛	11¼
34	Transam	15⅜	15	15⅜
16	Tri C Crp	8½	8¼	8⅜
2	Tr Con pr	94¼	94⅛	94¼
2	Truscon St	23	23	23
120	Twin City pr	50¼	50⅛	50¼
10	Ulen & Co	17⅛	15	16⅜
4	Under Ell	68¼	67½	68¼
1	Un Bag & P	12½	12½	12½
81	Union Cab	62¾	61¼	62½
23	Un Oil Can	26½	25⅝	26
7	Union Pac	188½	185	188
2	Un Tank Car	25¼	25	25¼
181	Unit Airc	30¼	28⅝	30
6	Unit Air pr	54⅜	53	54
5	Unit Bisc	39⅜	38⅜	39⅜
6	Unit Carb	25½	25⅛	25½
2	Unit Cig pr	64	63⅞	64
145	Unit Corp	19⅝	18½	19⅛
14	Unit Corp pr	49⅛	48⅞	49⅛
23	Un Elec Coal	3⅞	3½	3⅝
8	Unit Fruit	67⅝	66¼	67⅝
39	Unit G & I	28⅛	27⅝	28¼
2	Un Piece Dye	23⅝	23⅛	23⅝
3	U S Freight	30⅛	30	30
3	U S Ind Alch	68⅝	68⅝	68⅝
1	U S Leather	9	9	9
1	U S Lea p p	69	69	69
15	U S Pipe	30¼	28⅞	30¼
11	U S R & Im	34⅞	34	34
9	U S Rubber	15⅝	15	15⅝
2	U S Rub 1st pr	28	27⅝	28½
15	U S Sm & R	23½	23½	24½
231	U S Steel xd	145⅜	143⅝	144¾
3	U S Steel pr	146¼	145⅝	145⅝
2	United St A	7½	7⅜	7⅛
8	Unit St pr	42	39	39
3	Univ Leaf Tob	27½	27	27⅛
5	Univ Pi & R	2⅝	2½	2⅛
22	Util P & L A	26⅜	25⅝	26
232	Vanadium	54⅜	52⅝	54⅜
10	Van Ra 1 pr	26⅛	26⅛	26⅛
1	Virg Car Ch	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
20	Va Ir C & C	20½	20½	20½
10	Vulcan Detin	50	50	50
1	Wabash Ry	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜
1	Wabash pr A	43⅝	43⅝	43⅝
9	Walworth	16⅛	15⅞	16⅛
50	Ward Bak A	16½	16½	16½
4	Ward Bak B	5⅝	5¼	5¼
84	Warner Pict	18	17⅛	17⅞
8	Warner Quinl	6	6	6
5	Warner Bros	33	32	33
10	War Br cv pr	43¼	43¼	43¼
1	Warren F & P	24⅜	24⅜	24⅜
9	Wesson O & S	23⅝	23⅛	23⅝
1	Wes Oil & S pr	55½	55½	55½
40	W Penn E A	100	100	100
40	W P E 7pc pr	103	103	103
50	W P E 6pc pr	95	95	95
10	W P P 7pc pr	115	115	115
10	W P P 6pc pr	109¼	109¼	109¼
2	West Dairy B	6½	6½	6½
26	West Mary	15⅛	14	14⅞
1	West Mary 2 pr	15½	15½	15½
6	West Pac pr	30⅛	30	30⅛
11	West Un Tel	142⅝	141½	141½
1	West Air	34½	34½	34½
166	West El & Mfg	101⅛	99¼	101½
30	W E&M 1 pr	113	113	113
1	Westavaco Chl	26	26	26
1	White R M Cp	41⅜	41⅜	41⅜
7	Willys Over	5⅜	5	5⅛
1	Wilson pr	41⅜	41⅜	41⅜
85	Woolworth	63¼	61½	62⅝
8	Worth P & M	81	80½	80½
5	Yale & Towne	31¼	31	31
28	Yell Tr & C	11½	11	11½
3	Young S & W	24	24	24

MONEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Call money steady 2 per cent all day. Time loans easy, 60-90 days, 2a2 1-4; 4 months, 2 1-4; 5-6 months, 2 1-2a2 3-4 per cent. Prime commercial paper, 2 3-4a3. Bankers' acceptances, unchanged; 30 days, 2a1 7-8; 60-90 days, 2a1 7-8; 4 months, 2 1-8a2; 5-6 months, 2 1-4a2 1-8.

FOEIGN EXCHANGE.

	Monday	Year Ago
Sterling—
Demand	$4.85⅝	$4.87⅛
Cables	4.85½	4.87 15-16
France	3.92 13-16	3.93 15-16
Lire	5.23 11-16	5.23⅝
Swiss francs	19.37¾	19.42¼
Pesetas	11.26	13.84
Belgian belga	13.94½	13.99½
Greece	1.29¾	1.30⅜
Guilders	40.23¾	40.35⅝
Marks	14.08⅛	14.25
Schilling	26.84	26.91
Denmark	26.74	26.82
Norway	26.74	26.81
Argentina	34.27	41.62
Brazil	9.63	11.78
Japan	49.65	46.93

COTTON

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Futures closed barely steady, 10 to 13 points lower; spot quiet; middling 10.40.

Treasury Balance.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1— (AP) — Treasury receipts for Nov. 28 were $2,938,543.35; expenditures $7,464,-156.59; balance $90,149,896.71.

THE CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The curb market today began the last month of a slim year with a firm tone and a conspicuous revival of professional speculative activity in the low-priced specialties.

The utilities continued to lead the list, nevertheless, and a few shares in this group developed some buoyancy. Trading in the aggregate, however, was light, the day's transfers totaling 395,800 shares.

In the utilities, Electric Bond & Share was a firm feature, rising more than 2 points in a large turnover to close at 48 3-4. United Gas, a member of the Bond and Share group, rose 3-4 of a point to 9 3-4. American Gas gained nearly 4 points in a small turnover, and Duke Power jumped 11 1-2 in a few odd lot transactions. United Light "A" rose 3-4 in a fair turnover.

The oils were inclined to be sluggish, although Vacuum rose a point, and Cities Service 1-2. Margay Oil dropped 2 points to a price of 3. Union Oil Associates sagged a point to a new low, and Gulf eased fractionally, as did the Indian Territory issues. Standard of Indiana was steady. Coppers were dull. Newmont slipped back a point.

In the industrials and specialties, Deere gained about 2 points, and issues gaining a point or so included General Theatres Equipment, Cooper Bessemer, Mapes Consolidated, and Pratt & Lambert. The Rainbow Luminous issues, which had not been traded since October, when Piperno & Co., specialists in the issues, were suspended, were reinstated. The class "A" stock closed at 3 5-8, a loss of 9 3-8 since its last closing price, and the "B" stock finished at 1 5-8, off 2 5-8. Scoville Manufacturing and Standard Cap & Seal were soft spots, dropping to new lows.

In the low-priced issues, Wenden Copper was the lowest, ranging from 1-8 to 3-16 and closing at the latter figure, with a turnover of several thousand shares. Canadian Marconi rose 3-8 to 2 3-4, and Dayton Airplane Engine, a spectacular performer of 1929, rose 7-8 to 2 7-8. Allied Mills also developed considerable activity, rising 3-4 to a price of 6. Louisiana Land was the most active of this group, rising 1-2 to 2 1-2.

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
3	Affill rod	11⅞	11⅜	11⅞
5	Air Invest vtc	1½	1½	1½
1	Ala Power pr	115	115	115
2	Allegh Gas	2½	2⅛	2⅛
32	Allied Mills	6	5¼	6
5	Alum Goods	16⅜	16½	16½
1	Am Capit B	5	5	5
1	Am C P & L A	34⅜	34⅜	34⅜
	Am Cit P & L B	8¼	8	8¼
12	Am Com Pow A	14⅝	14¼	14⅝
3	Am C P B	30	30	30⅞
16	Am Cyana B	10⅝	10⅜	10½
2	Am Dept St	2¼	2¼	2⅜
1	Am Equit	6½	6½	6½
7	Am & F P wr	22⅜	22⅛	22⅛
11	Am G & E	92¼	90	92¼
20	Am Hardware	47	47	47
53	Am Inv B	5⅜	5	5
1	Am Inv war	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
24	Am Mar	⅞	¾	⅞
1	Am Nat Gas	6½	6½	6½
1	Am Pneu	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
1	Am Pot & Ch	22	22	22
127	Am Sup Pow xd	13⅜	12⅝	13¼
1	Am Sup PV 1	92¼	92¼	92¼
7	Am U & G B v	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
10	Appalach G	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
1	Ark Nat Gas	6½	6½	6½
7	Ark N G A	6⅝	6½	6⅝
2	Ark Nat Gas p	7½	7½	7½
5	Asso E I Ltd	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
125	As G&E ctf xd	81⅜	79½	81⅜
25	As G & E A	20½	20	20⅛
7	Asso G & E db	2	1⅞	1⅞
3	As Tel U	21⅝	20⅜	21⅝
1	Atl Cst Fish	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
7	Atlas Util	5	4¾	5
2	Avia C A	23	22⅛	23
20	Bahia Corp	3½	3	3
1	Bickford	17	17	17
13	Blue Ridge	4⅝	4½	4⅝
16	Blue Ridge cv	34½	34⅛	34⅛
6	Bklyn Shoe	⅛	⅛	⅛
201	Braz T & T	25½	25½	25½
1	Brill A	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
1	Buckeye Pipe	43	43	43
1	Bulova Wat pr	25⅛	25⅛	25⅛
6	Burma Ltd	2½	2	2⅛
3	Butler Bros	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞
2	Cable R T vt	1¼	1¼	1¼
3	CAM Co vt	¼	¼	¼
81	Can Marc W	2¾	2½	2¾
1	Celanese pr	63	63	63
5	Cen P S A	15⅞	15¼	15⅝
16	Cen Sta E	11⅝	11	11⅜
1	Cent St El p xw	58	58	58
7	Chath Ph Al	15⅜	15¼	15¼
111	Cities Service	19⅜	19⅛	19⅜
2	Cities Ser pr	89½	89⅜	89⅜
3	Colon Oil	2⅜	2¼	2¼
130	Com Edis	242½	240	242½
77	Comw & So war	2⅛	2	2
12	Cons Cop Min	3½	3¼	3¼
5	Cons Dairy	5⅛	4½	5⅛
1	Cons G&E Balt	87¼	87¼	87¼
2	Cons Laund	12⅝	12¼	12⅝
125	Con G&E pr pr	100	100	100
800	Cont Shar pr	53	51	53
81	Cont Shar pr B	51½	51½	51½
2	Coop Bess	24⅛	24	24⅛
1	Copeland A	4½	4½	4½
1	Cord Corp	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
2	Corroon & Rey	5	5	5
2	Cosden Oil	2⅛	2⅜	2⅛
11	Creole Pet	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
1	Crn Cent Petn	⅞	⅞	⅞
2	Cnt Cent Int A	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
1	Cuneo Press	33½	33½	33½
1	Curt Wright w	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Daniel Reeves	21⅝	21⅝	21⅝
29	Dayton Airp	3	2⅞	2⅞
1	Deere & Co	49	49	49
3	De Forest	2¼	2	2
2	Deisel W Gilb	12	12	12
149	Diam Mat new	17⅜	16⅝	17½
1	Diam Match pr	24½	24½	24½
2	Dresser Mfg A	35¼	35⅛	35⅛
1	Driver Harris	33	33	33
7	Dubilier Cond	4	3⅞	4
30	Duke Power	138½	138	138½
1	Duquesne Gas	4¼	4¼	4¼
3	Durant Mot	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
2	East G & Fuel	20	20	20
3	East Sta Pow B	17½	17½	17½
5	Eisler Elec	5½	5	5½
469	El Bnd & Sh	49	46½	48¾
1	El Band & Sh pr	91⅛	91⅛	91⅛
1	El Pow Asso	14	14	14
7	El Pw As A	13⅛	12⅝	13¼
6	Elec Share	13½	14¼	14⅝
7	EAmpire Corp	2	1⅞	1⅞
4	Empire Pow	34	33	33
3	Emp Pb Sv A	10½	10½	10½
1	Eng Gold Min	⅝	⅝	⅝
60	Eureka Pipe	28¼	28¼	28¼
2	Europe El A	9	8½	8½
3	Europ El d brt	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Evans Wal Ld	1	1	1
4	Fabric Finish	½	½	½
2	Fageol Mot	1¼	1¼	1¼
6	Fairey Avia	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
20	Fajardo Sug	39	39	39
3	Fansteel	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞
2	Federated Mot	10	10	10
5	Fiat rcts	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
30	Fiat deb rts	¼	3-16	3-16
5	Ford Mot Ch A	21½	21⅛	21⅛
30	Ford Mot Ltd	16½	16⅜	16⅜
1	Forem Dairy pr	2	2	2
13	Fox Theat A	5⅞	5⅛	5⅜
4	Franklin Mfg	6¼	6	6
1	Gen Avia Corp	7⅛	7⅛	7¼
6	Gen Bak	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
2	Gen El Ltd rct	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛
1	Gen Empire	17½	17½	17½
2	Gen G & E cv B	56⅜	56	56
13	Gen Th Equip	11	10¼	11
4	Gen Thea Ey p	34	33¼	33¼
8	Glen Alden Cl	60	59½	60
7	Globe Underw	7	7	7
4	Gold Seal Elec	1¼	1¼	1¼
16	Golden Cent M	⅞	⅞	⅞
3	Goldfield Cons	¼	¼	¼
50	Goldman Sach	10⅜	10⅛	10¼
1	Goth Knith	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Gdaymur	26⅛	26⅛	26⅛
10	Gt A&P 1st pr.	119	119	119
10	Grien Stores	5	4⅞	5
3	Groc St Prd vtc	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
5	Gulf Oil Cr Pa	75	74½	75
1	Hiena Ruben	2¼	2¼	2¼
2	H Wlk G & W	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
5	Hud Bay M&S	4⅞	4⅞	4⅝
2	Humble Oil	69	68⅝	69
1	Hygrade Food	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
2	Hydro El Serv	27	27	27
1	Imp Chem	4½	4½	4½
5	Imp Oil Can	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜
5	Ind Ter Il A	19⅞	19⅝	19⅝
6	Ind Ter Il B	19⅜	19⅜	19⅜
4	Indust Fin ctf	9⅛	8⅞	9⅛
25	Int Fin pr	62	62	62
1	Insull Util	40⅜	40⅜	40⅜
1	Insull Ut 2d pr	79½	79½	79½
1	Ins Co N Am	51	51	51
4	Insur Sec	7⅜	7½	7½
7	Intercon Pet	½	⅜	½
4	Intern Pet	15	14⅞	15
1	Inuter Sup P	24	24	24
2	Inter Util A	36½	36½	36½
17	Inter Ut B	6⅝	6½	6⅝
1	Inter Util 1pb	97½	97½	97½
12	Interst Equit	4⅛	4	4
1	Knott Corp	19	19	19
5	Kolster Brand	½	½	½
25	Kop G&C pr as	100	100	100
60	Leonard Oil	⅞	⅞
30	Ley Fred & Co	29	29	29
1	Loew's war	4	4	4
4	Lone Star Gas	24⅛	24	24⅛
1	Long Is Lt	32	32	32
50	Long I L p B as	100	100	100
132	Louis L & E	2⅜	2	2⅛
1	MacMarr St	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜
3	Mapes Cons	38	38	38
10	Margay Oil	3¼	3	3
2	Mary In Mar	9½	9½	9½
1	Mavis Bot	¾	⅝	⅝
1	Mayflower As	40	40	40
5	Mead John	890	76	76⅝
2	Memph Nat G	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
1	Mer & M S A	20¼	20¼	20¼
1	Merritt Ch & S	17½	17½	17½
2	Metal & Min	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1	Mesta Mach	24⅜	24⅜	24⅜
1	Mid W St Ut	23	23	23
13	Mid West Util	20¼	19⅜	20
2	Mid W U pr x	98½	98	98
3	Mo Kan P L	7⅞	7⅝	7⅜
6	Mo Kan P L B	⅛	⅛	½
25	Moh Hud 1 pr	104	104	104
2	Moun G Gulf	⅜	⅜	⅜
7	Mount Prod	5⅞	5⅜	5⅞
1	Nat Avia	5½	5½	5½
1	Nat B & Sh xd	31½	31½	31½
1	Nat Farm Str pr	15	15	15
1	Nat Inv	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
1	N P & L 6 pc pr	97¼	97¼	97¼
2	Nat St T Sec A	15⅝	15¼	15⅝
50	Nat Steel Car	37	37	37
1	Nat Sug Ref	29⅞	29⅜	28⅜
2	Nauheim Ph	½	½	½
2	Nat Un Rad	2⅝	2⅜	2⅝
3	Nauheim P pr	1½	1⅛	1⅛
1	Neptune Me A xd	21⅝	21⅝	21⅝
1	Nestle Le Mur	2½	2½	2½
	Nestle Le Mur	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
10	Nev Cal Elec	90	90	90
2	Newb J J Co	26	25	25
2	New Bradford	2	2	2
1	New Engl Fuel	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
30	New Eng P pr	88¼	87⅝	87⅝
8	Newmont Min	57	56⅝	56⅝
2	N Y Stm new	50⅜	50⅜	50⅜
50	N Y Tel 6½ pr	114¼	114¼	114¼
2	N Y Transit	14⅝	13⅝	14⅝
36	Niag Hud P xd	11¼	10⅝	11½
2	Niag H P A wr	2⅛	2	2
2	Niag H P B w	6¼	6	6
2	Niag Shrs Md	7⅝	7½	7½
11	Noranda Mines	17¼	16⅞	17
12	Nor Am Av A	1¼	1⅛	1¼
20	No Am Cem as	2¼	2¼	2¼
10	Nor Europ Oil	1⅛	1	1⅛
1	Nor Ind P S 6p	97	97	97
1	Nor St P A	130	130	130
20	Nor St P 6 pc	98⅛	98⅛	98⅛
1	Novadel Agene	40¼	40¼	40¼
7	Oil Stks A	5	5	5
1	Outb Mot B	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
1	Overseas Sec	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
5	Pac G & E 1 pr	26⅝	26½	26⅝
1	Pac Pub Ser	23½	23½	23½
6	Pac West Oil	9⅝	9½	9½
2	Pac Tin Corp	6	6	6
30	Pandem Oil	¼	¼	¼
5	Param Cab	3¼	3¼	3¼
67	Pennroad Corp	7⅛	6⅞	7
2	Pa Mex Fuel	18	17⅛	17⅛
1	Peo Lt Pw A	24	24	24
1	Pepperell Mfg	84	84	84
7	Petrol Cr wa	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
4	Pitney Bowes	6⅜	6⅝	6⅝
2	Plymouth Oil	19½	19½	19½
1	Potero Sugar	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
1	Pratt & Lam	40	40	40
1	Premier Gold	⅞	⅞	⅞
11	Prin & Whitely	1⅜	1¼	1¼
4	Prin & Wh pr	17½	16½	16½
17	Pruden Inv	10⅛	10⅞	10⅞
1	Prod Roy	6	5	6
7	Pub Util Hold	7⅝	7¼	7¼
1	Pub Ut Hold war	1½	1½	1½
10	Pud Sd Pw pr	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝
10	Pure Oil pr	84	84	84
1	Railroad Sh	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
17	Rainb L Pfd A	4⅜	3	3⅝
13	Rainb L Ph B	1⅞	1⅝	1⅝
3	Rel Intl A	3	2⅜	2⅜
10	Reybarn Inc	3	2⅞	2⅞
18	Reynolds Inv	1⅝	1½	1½
1	Rich Oil Cal pr	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
1	Rockl L&P trctf	17	17	17
1	Roosevelt Field	2	2	2
2	Root Rf cv pr	3	2⅜	2⅜
11	Rossia Intl	3¼	3⅛	3⅛
1	Royalty Crp pr	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
1	Ruberoid Co	39¼	38¼	39¼
1	Rdan Cons	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
20	Safewy Str 2 wr	1¼	1¼	1¼
12	St Regis Pap	15	14½	15
1	Saxet Co	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞
1	Scovill Mfg	41⅜	41⅜	41⅜
1	Schu U 5c $1 St	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
7	Seab Util	4⅛	4	4
13	Segal Lock	6½	5¼	5¼
11	Select Indus	2	2⅜	2⅜
5	Sel I allot ctf	51⅝	51	51⅝
1	Select Ind pr pr	50	50	50
1	Shawm W & P	53¼	53¼	53¼
8	Shenandoah	6⅞	6⅜	6⅞
7	Shenandoah pr	34⅜	34⅛	34⅜
100	Smith A O	141⅛	139	139
3	So Rm G & P	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Southern Corp	4	4	4
5	So Penn Oil	22½	22⅛	22⅛
4	South Pipe	10	9⅞	10
8	South Royal	8¼	8¼	8¼
1	Southw Dairy	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
3	Southw Gas Ut	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
2	St Cap & Sel	30⅝	30⅝	30⅝
12	Stand Mot	1	⅞	⅞
43	Stand Oil Ind	37	36⅝	36⅝
8	Stand Oil Ky	33⅝	33⅜	33⅜
3	St Oil Ohio	64	62⅞	63
20	St Oil Oh pr	115¼	115¼	115¼
1	Stand P & L	36⅞	36⅞	36⅞
2	Starrett Cor	11	10⅞	10⅞
4	Starrett pr	22½	20	22½
1	Strauss N	5¼	5¼	5¼
2	Strauss Roth	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
2	Stromb Carls	24⅜	22	22
2	Stutz Motor Am	1⅝	1½	1½
1	Swift & Co	29	29	29
4	Swift Int	32½	32¼	32¼
10	Technic Inc	11⅛	10⅝	10⅝
5	Tech Hugh G	6⅛	5⅛	5⅛
3	Tex Oil & Ln	12⅛	11¼	12¼
1	Tex O & O	11½	11½	11½
1	Tob Prod Exp	⅝	⅝	⅝
20	Toledo Edi pr	107⅝	107⅝	107⅝
11	Trans Air Tr	6½	5⅝	5⅝
1	Trans Lx DPA	7	7	7
3	Tub Ch Cr B	6⅝	6	6
1	Twin S N G A	3¼	3¼	3¼
2	Union Oil Ass	25	24⅝	25
1	United Cor w	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
1	Uni Ch pr	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
2	United Dry D	3	3	3
6	Unit El Serv rt	⅛	⅛	⅛
77	Unit Found	9¼	9	9¼
41	United Gas	9⅝	9¼	9⅝
5	Uni Gas war	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
1	Unit Gas pr	87⅛	87⅛	87⅛
47	Un Lt & P A	27	26	27
1	U L & P cv pr	99	99	99
28	Un M P pr	59	59	59
2	U S & Int Sec	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
1	U S & I S pr	42½	42½	42½
1	U S & Over	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
1	U S & Ov cod	13	13⅝	13⅝
16	U S El Pow	6⅛	6	6⅛
9	U S Foil B	5⅛	5	5
2	Util Equit	6⅞	6⅝	6⅞
8	Util Pw & L	11½	11⅜	11⅜
6	Util & Ind	8	7⅜	8
5	Vacuum Oil	64⅛	64½	64⅛
1	Van Camp Pk	4	4	4
1	Van Camp Pk	4	4	4
2	Venezuelan	1¼	1¼	1¼
10	Vick Finan	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
1	Walgreen Co 4.	21⅞	21⅞	21⅞
2	Walker Mln	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
53	Wend C Min	3-16	⅛	3-16
1	West Air Ex	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
1	Westm Inc	15	15	15
2	W V C & C	1	1	1
1	Ykon Gold	¼	¼	¼
1	Zonite Prd	10	10	10

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Active trading in U. S. governments, which have been at the highest average level since April, 1928, was the feature of a dull and irregular session of the bond market today. A wild reaction appeared at the close.

One block of $1,000,000 Treasury 4s appeared on the tape in the final hour at a concession of 1-32nd from the opening price and the issue closed 1-8 net lower. Treasury 4 1-4s yielded 1-8 of a point also and Treasury 3 3-4s in which the turnover was $800,000 declined 3-32nds. Treasury 3 3-8s of 1943-47 reached a new 1930 maximum and Liberty 3 1-2s duplicated its high of the year.

During the past two months in which the domestic and foreign bonds have declined, U. S. governments, particularly Liberty bonds, have been buoyed by a strong demand from banks and there was a tendency in some quarters to ascribe today's selling to the same sources, possibly in anticipation of new government financing Dec. 15.

The movement in the corporate domestic list was a mixture of small gains and losses. Railroad bonds of all classes resumed their decline but it was less marked than during the closing days of last week. The steadier tone seemed due solely to the drying up of liquidation. What buying interest developed was centered in a few high grade utility and industrial bonds.

The average for 30 domestic bonds was 1-10th of a point higher, the first advance in more than a week.

Standard European governments were stable. Both German 7s and 5 1-2s were accumulated a small fraction above Saturday's final prices. French governments were steady. Italian 7s eased 3-8 but two municipals of that country—Milan City 6 1-2s and Rome City 6 1-2s—rallied a point. They were depressed last week by selling influenced by bank failures.

South Americans displayed no strong tendency either way, and were dull. Argentine 6s sagged 1-2 and Sao Paulo State 8s moved slightly higher in active trading. The Cuban situation was reflected in a reaction of 1 to 2 points in Cuban governments. Both the 5s and 5 1-2s reached new year's minimum.

American Telephone 5 1-2s, Columbia Gas & Electric 5s, Detroit Edison 6s, Duquesne Light 4 1-2s, Havana Electric 5 1-2s, Kansas City Power & Light 5s, Pacific Gas & Electric 5s, were among the utility issues that registered small advances. Bonds of International Telephone and its subsidiary, Postal Telegraph, were soft.

U. S. BONDS.

(U. S. Government Bonds in Dollars and Thirty-Seconds of Dollars.)

	High	Low	Last
1st Lib 3½s '32-47	102	101.30	101.28
1st Lib 4¼s '32-47	102.31	102.29	102.29
4th Lib 4¼s '33-38	103.25	103.23	103.24
Treas 3⅜s '40-43	102.10	102.10	102.10
Treas 3⅜s '43-47	102.28	102.25	102.28
Treas 3¾s '46-56	106.28	106.27	106.27
Treas 4s '44-54	108.27	108.27	108.27
Treas 4¼s '47-52	113.7	113.7	113.5

Carl D. Taylor, manager of the refrigeration department of Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co., announced that expansion in activities will be marked by a greatly increased advertising and sales campaign.

THOUSANDS OF FAMILIES
IN NORWICH AND ENVIRONS
HAVE BENEFITED THRU
OUR LOAN SERVICE
IN THE PAST SEVEN YEARS WITH TIMELY LOANS
from $30 to $300
WE FURNISH THE CASH
WHEN IT IS MOST NEEDED
FOR PRACTICAL AND WORTHY PURPOSES
IF YOU NEED MONEY TOMORROW
CONSULT US TO-DAY
NO INVESTIGATION FEES
THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT
IS THE ONLY CHARGE ON UNPAID
BALANCES MONTHLY
New England Equity Corporation
OFFICES AT
NORWICH—Room 706 THAYER Bldg.—Tel. 1470
WILLIMANTIC—4 MAIN ST. (Second Floor)—Tel. 1597
PUTNAM—Room 328 Front St.—Tel. 1110

THE WIDE-AWAKE CIRCLE

Boys' and Girls' Department

RULES FOR YOUNG WRITERS

1—Write plainly on one side of the paper.

2—Use pen and ink, not pencil.

3—Short and pointed articles will be given preference. Do not use over 150 words.

4—Original stories or letters only will be used.

Write your name, age and address plainly at the bottom of the story

POETRY FOR THE WIDE-AWAKES.

Mussentouchit.

There's some one lives around here—
Somebody we can't see:
But he lives almost anywhere
That we may chance to be;
He is old Mussentouchit—
I only wish I could
Just see him once—I'd fix him,
Yes, you just bet I would.

There's lots of things at our house
With which I want to play;
But when the very nicest
I find and take away
Into a quiet corner,
I'm always sure to hear
Some one say: "Mussentouchit!
You bring that right back here."

'Way up where I can't reach it
They put the thing away;
And when I find another,
It's just the same. They say:
"Oh, no, no, Mussentouchit;"
If I could once catch him,
I'd bite him and I'd pull him,
And tear him, limb from limb.
—Alpha.

Love's Little Boy.

Little boys are just as sweet
And little girls and you
Are as sweet as love can make you,
Sweet as violets in the dew,
And when you snuggle in my arms
In the Spring day's decline
I whisper thankfulness
To the Lord that you are mine.

For what belongs to Eyes-o'Blue
In part belongs to me.
And when I hear the nightbird croon
In the mulberry tree
And you turn wearied from your play
And one more day is done,
'Tis then that the day's happiness
For me seems just begun.

And sometimes when I've tucked you in
And you have gone to sleep,
Why all life's tenderness and love
Are in the tousled heap
I bend to kiss. You murmured once
That all the long night through
You would be lonesome, so I found
A sleep-eyed doll for you.

And now when you have snuggled down
To drift away to rest
The little doll with eyes tight shut
Is snuggled to your breast.
And oftentimes in the dark night
I come to bend above
Where you are sleeping—image of Life's tenderness and love.
Judd Mortimer Lewis, in Houston Post-Dispatch.

UNCLE JED'S TALK TO THE WIDE-AWAKES.

Old Glory was born on Saturday, the 14th day of June, 1777, when the congress of the United States of America:

"Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen united states be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

This was the first legislative action taken by congress for the establishment of a national flag, eleven months and ten days after the declaration of independence.

During the interval we were a nation without a standard to represent our nationality. From the beginning of the revolution up to this time a number of make-shift flags were made to answer our purpose. The great difficulty in deciding upon any particular one of these for general use was that we were by no means sure of what we wanted our flag to represent.

A large number of colonists even among those in arms against the king were loyal to the mother country, and preferred that all such distinguishing marks of authority as would appear upon their ensigns should, while distinctively American, be also unmistakably recognizable as English.

They were fighting as yet not for secession from England, but for freedom from English misgovernment and oppression, for a representative government under English control. Some sort of a compromise flag was evidently required.

Various attempts to design such a flag were made. One of these is preserved among the relics of the Massachusetts Historical society. It is the flag carried during the revolution by Proctor's Westmoreland battalion. It consists of a piece of heavy watered silk, crimson in color, six feet four inches long by five feet ten inches wide. Upon it, painted alike on both sides on the upper corner next where it was fastened to the staff, is the English Union Jack, the red cross of St. George and the white cross of St. Andrew, upon a blue background or field, which was adopted as the English insigna in 1606, and continued such until 1801, when by the incorporation of the cross of Ireland the Union Jack took its present form. To this extent the flag is English, but in the center of the flag is painted a rattlesnake with thirteen rattles coiled ready to strike. The rattles which are held erect, represent the thirteen colonies, and the head of the snake, held defiantly aloft, is directed towards the English Union Jack. Below the rattlesnake a yellow scroll, with the ends bent upwards, partly inclosing the snake, displays in large black letters the warning motto, "Don't Tread on Me." Above the snake are the initials, J. P., standing for John Proctor, and just below them is a figure 1, followed by the letters R. W. C. P. The whole inscription, taken together, means 'John Proctor's First Brigade, Westmoreland County, Pa. It is in all probability the only flag dating back to revolutionary times and bearing the device of the rattlesnake, of which there were originally a very large number, that now survives.

The rattlesnake and the pine tree, or liberty tree, were favorite emblems of the colonists. The English Union Jack, with the pine tree in the upper corner nearest the staff was quite commonly used. The rattlesnake was often represented as coiled, ready to strike, at the base of the tree, and above always appeared the words "Don't Tread on Me." Sometimes, however, the snake was shown chopped into thirteen separate pieces, with the motto, "Join or Perish," or "Unite or Die," accompanying it.

These devices first employed to incite the colonies to unite their forces against the French and the Indians, were again brought into use to urge them to concerted action in their struggle with the mother country.

WINNERS OF PRIZE BOOKS

1—Lillian Jodoin, Plainfield—The Carter Girls.

2—Barbara Binns, Norwich—Merilyn's Rose Garden.

3—Arthur Brown, Colchester—The Broncho Boy Riders.

4—Dorothy LaPoint, Manchester, Conn.—Marjorie Dean, High School Sophomore.

5—Irene Hopkins, Plainfield—The Carter Girls' Week End Camp.

6—Rose Currier, Plainfield—Nancy Pembroke in New Orleans.

7—Roland Belanger Willimantic—Dick Kent in the Far North.

8—Vera Johnson, North Franklin—The Strange Likeness.

Winners of prize books living in Norwich may obtain them by calling at The Bulletin business office after 10 o'clock this morning.

LETTERS OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Ida Brown, Colchester—I have received the book you sent me and wish to thank you very much for it.

Irene Dumais, Yantic—I have received my prize book. I thank you very much. I am reading it and find it very interesting.

Ethel Vincent, Plainfield—I thank you very much for the book you sent me. It is very, very interesting.

Irene Hopkins, Plainfield—I want to thank you for the nice book you sent me.

LETTERS WRITTEN BY WIDE-AWAKES

Myself and My Home.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am going to describe myself and my home to you and the Wide Awake members. I am just 5 feet in height. I have light brown hair which I wear on the side. It is short in a shingle. I have a round face, even teeth and weigh about 118. Just at the present time I am wearing a green and cream pique dress, light stockings and black patent leather shoes. Why I am doing this is because I want to make new friends. I hope some will lead this story and write to me.

My home is in the country. The house in which I live is a small shingled cottage. In the front there is a large lawn. There is a large poplar tree in one corner of the lawn. We play in a large field near our house. We have four chickens which my brother owns. Will some of the Wide Awake members write to me? Hoping I get a book and that you all like my story.

VERA JOHNSON, Age 12.
North Franklin.

Our Surprise.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am sending you an original story which I composed. The title is "Our Surprise."

One dark, windy night mother and I were alone in the house when bing! bang! bang! "What strange noises," my mother whispered. Just then we heard a noise in the cellar. "Ma, what c-c-can that b-b-be" I stuttered. My mother opened the door slowly and cautiously when she heard a mumble then a grumble. Then heard a voice say "Let me go! Let me go!" But a harsh voice said "You are going to die." But a weak but tender voice said "Before she dies you will die." After, the three strangers appeared before my mother and I and who do you suppose they were, why no one else but my three brothers who were rehearsing for a play.

GEORGE BELISLE, Age 14.
Moosup.

Our Halloween Party.

Dear Uncle Jed: This is the first time I have written to you, and I am going to tell you about our Halloween party. We had it at our school. We invited our mothers and fathers. Us little kids had a play. We also played ducking for apples, ducking for pennies and a peanut hunt. Then the big people had dances. I guess everybody had a good time. I know I did.

LUCILLE SPICER, Age 8.
Norwich.

My Dog Buddy.

Dear Uncle Jed: I would like to tell about my pet dog Buddy. Buddy was a black and white Boston bull. One day while we were playing ball, the ball rolled out into the road and Buddy ran after it. No one saw the car until it had hit Buddy. When we picked him up we found that he had a broken leg. I took very good care until he got better.

Buddy used to smoke a pipe and bark twice for his name. He used to come to school, and would wait until I came out.

On Decoration day we went to pay a visit. When we returned home we found him on the floor dead.

LORINE COLBURN, Age 13.
Plainfield.

My First Knitting.

Dear Uncle Jed: I once heard a story of a man who tried to carve a Napoleon from wood. Although he failed many times, he was not discouraged. When finally his wood was nearly whittled away he said to himself, "Well, I have failed to make a Napoleon, but this will make an excellent button for my barn door."

My first attempt at knitting reminded me of this story. I started out to make myself a sweater. I had to take out my work so many times that at length I saw I could never hope to have a sweater from that yarn. So I said to my mother, "Well, I shall not have a sweater, but this yarn will make you some excellent holders."

SOPHIE RYNKIEWICZ, Age 13.
Norwich.

Our Scare.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am sending you a story which I composed. The title is as follows: "Our Scare."

One day as Billy, Mary and I were out in the woods we came to a strange house. As we were walking by a woman came to the door and asked us to come in for a nice piece of pie she had just cooked. She was a tall, thin lady.

As we were going through the hall somebody grabbed us, blindfolded us and led us downstairs. Then we heard a man say "We will keep them in here for a while," and they went out and slammed the door. Soon we heard footsteps returning and a dog's bark. The sounds came nearer and nearer. We gasped and clung together in breathless fear. Then the door opened and in came Dad and our big dog. The dog had followed our tracks. Dad quickly notified the police. To our great relief the newspaper headlines the following morning read: Police Capture Kidnappers—Sentenced 20 Years.

EVELYN SEATON, Age 13.
Moosup.

His First Story.

Dear Uncle Jed: This is the first time I have written.

There was once a very old king who was very wealthy. He had many soldiers to guard his treasure. One day while the king and all his court were having a great festival and there were only a few guards watching the palace gates six men dressed as military officers rode up and asked to see the king. The guards replied: "His Majesty is attending a party and wishes not to be disturbed." While they were talking the officers had formed a circle around the guards. None of them noticed it till they heard the words "Stick 'em up." They looked around bewildered and saw in the hand of each officer a six shooter. They put their hands up and one asked: "What does this mean?" An officer who looked like the leader replied, "You shall see." The leader gave a command and two men proceeded to tie the hands of each prisoner. When they had finished they took them into the woods nearby and stood guard over them while the others went inside the gates to the castle. At the door they were challenged by two guards with long carbines. One said, "Who let you in?" For answer they grabbed the guards and did the same as they did with the others. They then proceeded into the castle where they began their plundering. A group of soldiers who were the king's bodyguard saw them taking their plunder away. They killed them and that is what happens to all wicked men.

ROLAND BELANGER.
Willimantic.

My Trip.

Dear Uncle Jed: Last fall my mother, aunt and I went to New York. Just as we were going through Waterbury a parade came along. They were getting ready to celebrate Columbus day.

We drove all through West Point and came back over the Storm King highway.

ROLLAND BOLZ, Age 1[illegible].
Norwich.

My Pet Bird "Dickie"

Dear Uncle Jed: I have a little bird which I call Dickie. He is a very good singer. In the morning when he wants to take his bath he chirps till we put the tub on the table. Then we open the door of his cage and he flies out. He washes himself good and then he flies all around the room for exercise. We open the door of his cage and he flies in.

When the bird starts to sing the dog begins to bark. That encourages him to sing. When he is tired he goes on his swing and rests.

Every morning he chirps till we give him a piece of toast and a piece of apple. He is my birthday present by my dad, when I was eight years old.

ETHEL VINCENT, Age 12.
Plainfield.

Italy.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am going to tell you about what we are doing in school for geography. We are studying about Italy. We are making note books and putting in the products that Italy raises, such as grapes, lemons, oranges, olives, etc. For out notebook covers we have printed: "Products of Italy." Underneath that there is to be a map of Italy and last of all, we wrote a story on the agriculture of Italy, and then our products. The capital of this great kingdom is Rome. The boundary of Italy is the Alps mountains. I am in the sixth grade.

DOROTHY LA POINT,
Manchester Green.

A Gray Squirrel.

Dear Uncle Jed: It has been a long time since I have written to you, but I have been a constant reader. About three weeks ago my uncle gave me a little baby gray squirrel. The night I got him I was looking at him in his box. The first thing I knew he had jumped out. I tried to catch him but could not. At night he goes in the cold cellar and gets apples to eat. One day my mother picked up an old coat in the cellar and he jumped out of the pocket. I see him every day but can't catch him. I am going to set a box trap for him so I can catch him. It does not hurt to get caught in one of them. He is so small he can easily fit in a cup.

BARBARA BINNS, Age 12.
Norwich.

Our Trip.

Dear Uncle Jed: This is the second time that I have written to you. I am going to tell you about Our Trip.

One day our class went to Slater museum with our teacher. It was a very nice day. The trip was made in machines, their use being given by parents of the pupils. We saw many interesting things, such as Swiss dolls, and statues of famous men of the different wars. We enjoyed it very much as it taught us many things and we had a nice time.

EVELYN PARKINSON, Age 8.
Moosup.

My Trip to Vermont

Dear Uncle Jed: I would like to tell you about my trip to Vermont. We left here on a Friday before Labor day, and went through Athol, Greenfield and Brattleboro up to St. Johnsbury, Vermont. Arriving there at six o'clock we had supper and then went to the theatre. We also did a little shopping. Then we came back to our friend's house, where we slept on a large porch. In the morning, after having breakfast, my sister and I drove the cows down to the pasture. We also visited the sugar house, and went around the farm, which is one of the largest in Vermont. We also saw the barn which is round and has a silo in the center. Later in the afternoon we visited some other friends and went to see the new Connecticut river dam which was recently opened by President Hoover. We started home Monday morning and came home on the New Hampshire side of the Connecticut river as far as Hanover, N. H. We stopped there and looked at the college buildings and sent postcards to our relatives and friends.

We passed over many new bridges that had replaced the old ones that had been washed away during the flood. We arrived home safe Monday evening, after riding 289 miles that day. I wish all the Wide Awakes could have been with me on that pleasant trip.

ROSE CURRIER, Age 13.
Plainfield.

My Pet Chicken

Dear Uncle Jed: One day my sister went to feed and water the chickens when she saw a chicken laying in the run but as soon as she came nearer she got up and started limping around the best she could. When she finished feeding the chickens, she came and got the chicken. She put it into the measure that she had the feed in and brought it to the house. Then she gave it to me and I put it in a box and fed and watered it outside the box on the grass. After many weeks its leg, which was hurt considerably, grew better.

My sisters Alice and Ida also each had a pet chicken. Theirs roosted in a box near the lilacs. One night when I went to shut him in I found that he was not there, so I thought maybe he went to roost somewhere else. The next morning I went to let out my sisters' chickens for them when instead of two there were three. Then I noticed one of them limping and I knew that it was Limpy my pet chicken. The next night he went with the other two again so we let him stay there.

Every morning when I let them out they follow me to the barn and I feed them. My sisters' chickens were both roosters and mine was a pullet. The two roosters were always tame, but my pullet was no longer a pet for me.

ARTHUR BROWN, age 10.
Colchester, R. F. D. 3.

Helen's First Knitting Lesson

Dear Uncle Jed: Helen was a little girl ten years of age. For Christmas her mother didn't know what to buy her, so one day mother said, "Well Helen, what would you like for Christmas?" Well mother, I will tell you said Helen, "Buy me a nice pair of knitting needles and I can make daddy a nice surprise for Christmas and save you in buying it." So her mother did as little Helen told her.

Mother gave her a nice pair of bright red knitting needles. Well, the next thing to do was for Helen to learn how to knit. So she went to another little girl friend of hers and asked her to show her, and she was very pleased to. What Helen wanted to learn was how to make a nice sweater for her dad, and to make it so he could have it in time for Christmas morning. She kept her little fingers very busy and never seemed to get tired like some little girls often do.

Her mother let her stay up longer in the evening than ever before and had to keep it from her daddy so he wouldn't see it.

Soon it was finished and only one more day to Christmas. Little Helen could hardly wait for Christmas morning. Well, Christmas morning came, and she ran to her dad with this big surprise. He opened it and could not believe his little girl could make such a nice sweater. How glad he was to receive such a nice present. Now, when I get to be a big girl of ten, I am going to surprise my daddy, too.

IRENE HOPKINS, age 7.
Plainfield.

My Turkey.

Dear Uncle Jed: I am writing another story hoping you and the Wide Awake circle will enjoy it. My uncle gave me a turkey for Thanksgiving. He lives on a farm in Jewett City.

We put him down the cellar. I think he is nice. Every morning I go down the cellar to feed it. At first I was scared to go down the cellar. But now every time I go it comes to me. I feed it and it takes the food right from my hand.

Last night I went down the cellar to see it. It was perched on a piece of wood we have hung up. I'm getting so used to him that I hope Thanksgiving would never come. It is very fat and will make a good dinner. I hope all my Wide Awake circle friends will have a good dinner also.

LILLIAN JODOIN, Age 13.
Plainfield.

BANKS, INS., UTILITIES

HARTFORD.

Fire Insurance Companies.

	Bid	Asked
Aetna Casualty	73	78
Aetna Fire	48	50
Aetna Life	60	62
Auto Ins	27	29
Com Cen	115	120
Hartford Fire	60	62
Hfd Steam Boiler	49	53
Nat Fire	55	57
Phoenix Fire	70	72
Travelers	945	965

Public Utilities.

Conn Elec Serv	65	70
Conn L&P 5½ p pr	103	106
Conn L&P 6½s	111	114
Conn Power x	60	62
Greenwich W&G 6pc pr.	..	91
Hfd Gas com	72	76
Hartford Gas pr	42	46
Hfd Elec Light	66	68
Holyoke Wat Pow	..	475
So N E Tel Co	155	162

NEW YORK.

Bank Stock

American	64	67
Bank of U S	14	15
Chase	106	1[illegible]3
Chelsea	22	25
Chatham Ph	80	87
Chemical	49	51
City	101	107
Corn Exch	135	140
First National	3825	3950
Fifth Avenue	2450	2650
Harriman	1500	1600
Manhattan	77	85
Seward Natl	70	75

Trust Companies.

Bankers	108	110
Bank of N Y	600	620
Bronx County	47	58
Brooklyn	605	615
Cent Hanover	242	248
Empire	54	56
Fulton	480	500
Guaranty	451	455
Irving Trust	36	37½
Manufacturers	49	52
N Y Trust	170	175
Times Square (new)	10	14
Title G & S T	130	135
N Y Trust	165	170

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(AP)—In the face of the fact that wheat deliveries on December contracts reached a huge total of about 15,000,000 bushels today, prices held steady; the chief reason was that as expected the bulk of the mountain of wheat apparently found its way into the strong hands of government sponsored agencies, and the market therefore kept an even keel. Meanwhile, corn advanced, owing to wintry weather and smallness of receipts.

Closing quotations on wheat were irregular, ranging from 1c off to 3-8c up, as compared with Saturday's finish. Corn closed 1-4a3-4c net higher, oats unchanged to 1-2c advance, and provisions varying from 15c setback to a rise of 5c.

CHICAGO GAIN MARKET.

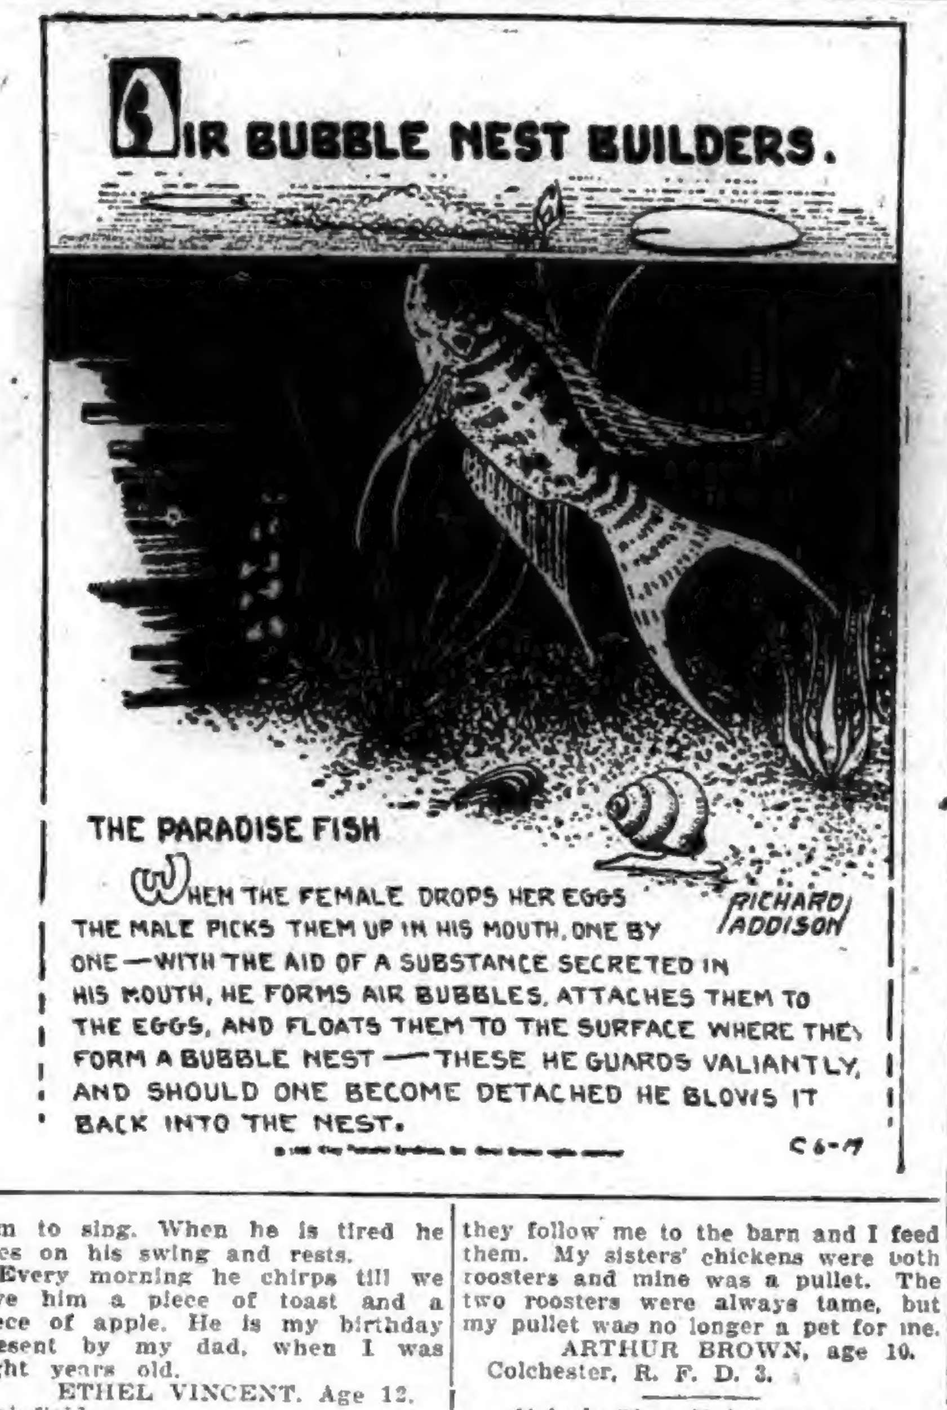
Wheat—	High	Low	Close
Dec. new	75	74¼	75
Dec. old	75	75	75⅞
Mar. new	78	77⅛	77⅝
Mar. old	77¾	77	77⅝
May new	80¼	79¼	80¼
May old	79⅝	78⅝	79½
Corn—
Dec. new	76¼	75¾	75⅞
Dec. old	76½	75½	75¾
Mar. new	79	78⅝	78⅞
Mar. old	75¾	78½	78
May new	80¼	79¾	80¾
May old	80¼	79½	80⅛
Oats—
Dec. new	34⅝	34⅜	34¾
Dec. old	34⅞	34⅛	34¾
Mar. old	36⅝	36	26⅛
May new	37⅜	37¼	37½
May old	37⅛	37⅛	37⅛

WALL STREET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(AP)—While production for the Chevrolet Motor Co. in November exceeded 60,000 units, orders already booked for new cars considerably exceeded this figure, the sales division reports.

First National Old Colony Corp. tomorrow will extend its investment securities organization to the Pacific coast, with the opening of four new offices in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland.

CURIOUS CREATURES By Richard A. Addison



AIR BUBBLE NEST BUILDERS.
THE PARADISE FISH
WHEN THE FEMALE DROPS HER EGGS THE MALE PICKS THEM UP IN HIS MOUTH, ONE BY ONE—WITH THE AID OF A SUBSTANCE SECRETED IN HIS MOUTH, HE FORMS AIR BUBBLES, ATTACHES THEM TO THE EGGS, AND FLOATS THEM TO THE SURFACE WHERE THEY FORM A BUBBLE NEST—THESE HE GUARDS VALIANTLY, AND SHOULD ONE BECOME DETACHED HE BLOWS IT BACK INTO THE NEST.
RICHARD ADDISON
C6-17

BURGESS BEDTIME STORY

A Tense Moment

Helpless, hopeless, clutched by fear,
A minute sometimes seems a year.
—Young Muskrat.

What was to be done? The young muskrat caught in a steel trap chained to a log on the bank of the Laughing brook wished that he knew. So did his father, Jerry Muskrat, who had found him. Jerry looked things over very carefully. He examined the trap where it gripped the left leg of the young muskrat and shook his head. "Bad. Very bad," he said.

He took hold of the chain that fastened the trap to the log and tried his teeth on it. Again he shook his head. "Bad. Very bad," said he.

The heart of the young muskrat began to sink again. Somehow he had had great faith that his father would be able to do something for him. As soon as he had seen Jerry coming he had begun to hope. His father was very wise. His father would know what to do. Now to see him shake his head that way was very discouraging. No wonder his heart sank. It was bad enough to be obliged to suffer the awful pain that was in that imprisoned leg. Yes, sir, that was bad enough. But to see the one whose help he had been sure of shake his head in such a hopeless manner was too much to endure. The young muskrat began to whimper.

"Sh-h-h-h," warned Jerry Muskrat. "Keep still. You don't know what sharp ears may be listening unseen in the black shadows."

"I can't help it," whimpered the young muskrat. My leg aches dreadfully and I'm afraid and I want to go home."

"Sh-h-h-h," warned Jerry again, "some one is coming. Keep perfectly still if you value your life. Whatever happens do not move."

Jerry slipped silently into the water and began to swim down the Laughing brook keeping close to the bank. Presently he began to splash a little and once or twice he squeaked in a contented tone as if he had found something good to eat and was enjoying it. Then the young muskrat heard the soft patter of feet on leaf-covered ground and his heart almost stopped beating as he saw a trim form step out from the black shadows only a jump distant and stand with a look of eagerness on a sharp, crafty face. It was Reddy Fox. His ears were cocked forward and he was looking in the direction from which came the sounds of faint splashing and contented squeaks.

That was a tense moment. Yes, sir, that was a tense moment. The young muskrat held his breath. It seemed to him that his heart thumped so that Reddy Fox must hear it. Would Reddy turn his head and look at that old log, or would he go on? It seemed as if he never would move. Once he started to turn his head as if to look toward the place where the young muskrat crouched in terror, but just then Jerry Muskrat squeaked again from farther down the Laughing brook and close to the bank. Reddy moved forward swiftly, eagerly, soundlessly, a picture of craft, alertness and stealth.

Reddy moved forward swiftly

He passed close to the upper end of the very log to which that terrible trap was holding that helpless young muskrat. The scent of Reddy filled the young muskrat's nose. Yes indeed, that was a tense moment. It was a terrible moment. Then it was over. Reddy had passed on, intent on catching that muskrat who, to judge by the sounds, must be on the very edge of the shore.

As a matter of fact that is just where Jerry Muskrat was. He was running along the very edge and taking pains to make a noise doing it. All the time he was watching and listening for Reddy Fox. It wouldn't do to allow Reddy to catch him on land. So he gradually led Reddy farther and farther down the Laughing brook and away from the helpless young muskrat. At last he slapped the water sharply with his tail and dived in deep water. He knew that Reddy would know that that was an alarm signal and that every muskrat within hearing would thereafter be on guard.

Reddy stopped short and a look of disappointment replaced the eagerness in his expression. Then he turned and trotted away toward the green meadows. For the time being that young muskrat was safe. Jerry swam back swiftly.

(Copyright, 1930, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "Jerry's Dreadful Advice."

TESTIMONY AT HEARING INTO STATE PRISON ADM.

(Continued from Page One)

cuffed to the bars of their cells, but in no case, he said, had a prisoner been shackled with his hands above his head in a manner which would force him to stand on the tips of his toes.

Caswell testified that handcuffing of a prisoner in the solitary confinement cells was a rare form of punishment and related four instances where this punishment had been resorted to during a period covering approximately the past twelve months.

Besides Caswell today's witnesses included Col. N. G. Osborn, chairman of the prison board of directors for the past 15 years; William C. Cheney, a prison director; Dr. Foster E. Priddy, prison physician; Dr. Henry S. Reynolds, and Dr. Raymond S. Holtz, consulting specialists of the prison; Dr. William B. Smith, chief of the prison medical staff; Dr. Floyd Jones former prison dentist; Dr. John F. Barton, also a former dentist at the prison and at present a Sunday school teacher at the institution, and Edward F. Hall, state commissioner of finance and control.

Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the committee, said following today's session that hearing of witnesses will probably be concluded at tomorrow's hearing, scheduled for 10 a. m. Other members of the prison staff, including Warden Charles S. Reed, he said, will testify.

Nearly all of the recommendations presented by witnesses today had been already suggested to the committee by witnesses who testified during the hearings last week when the inquiry was begun. They included segregation of the insane prisoners in a state hospital for the insane, liberalization and extension of the parole system, classification and examination of prisoners by psychiatrists, segregation of prisoners according to their criminal tendencies and mental capacities; a training school and higher wages for guards; compulsory education for prisoners, and expansion of the medical facilities and equipment.

Abolition of the solitary confinement cells was recommended by Dr. Barton, who told the committee that he considered the infliction of corporal punishment under the supervision of responsible officials more humane.

Several of the witnesses, including Dr. Barton, Col. Osborn, and Cheney, expressed the opinion that the present prison precludes the inception of reforms which they consider desirable. Both Col. Osborn and Cheney expressed regret that the proposal made some time ago that a new prison be erected at East Granby failed to materialize.

Asked by Cummings if there was any immediate prospect of a new prison plant, Hall during his testimony said there was not.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS SEEKING ORDERLY PROGRAM

(Continued from Page One)

$3,500,000 for agricultural extension work in drought sections.

Meanwhile, Senator Glenn, republican, Illinois, was drafting for introduction tomorrow, a companion measure, to deal with the unemployment situation. Glenn was preparing his bill at the request of administration leaders.

It would authorize the immediate appropriation of $150,000,000 for speeding up public construction work under the enlarged rivers and harbors, public buildings and highway programs authorized in the last session of congress.

GOSS TO INTRODUCE BILL TO LEGALIZE 4 PER CENT. BEER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Confident of more strength in the next congress, wets attacked prohibition from five legislative angles today as a call was issued for house anti-prohibitionists to meet Wednesday.

Two national referenda on the repeal of the 18th amendment were proposed along with bills to permit the manufacture and sale of wines and beer. In addition, Representative Woodruff, republican, Michigan, proposed in a bill that the federal government give assistance to states in bringing interstate gangsters and racketeers to justice.

Representative Goss, Connecticut republican who took his seat today, announced he would introduce tomorrow a bill to legalize four per cent. beer, and another to authorize physicians to prescribe malt liquors for medicinal purposes in increased quantities.

SENATOR-ELECT DAVIS INVITES INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — (AP) — Senator-elect Davis of Pennsylvania said in a statement late today he would "fully court whatever further investigation Senator Nye cares to make and will co-operate with him and the committee."

Davis said: "I was informed that Senator Nye wished to study further the matter of contributions in the recent Pennsylvania election. After consultation with senate republican leaders who have also conferred with Senator Nye, it seemed to me best to withhold my credentials until Chairman Nye had time to make his examination, that is, until tomorrow.

"In the meantime, I desire to state that having nothing whatever to conceal I fully court whatever further investigation Senator Nye cares to make and will co-operate with him and the committee."

COMMUNISTS DISPERSED WITH COMPARATIVE EASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Several hundred communists picked the moment of the convening of congress today to stage a wild scene on the broad plaza of the capitol before tear gas bombs and policemen's sticks drove them away in a straggling march.

Dispersed with comparative ease, the demonstrators nevertheless left behind them a fear of further reprisal. Capitol police, hours afterward, patrolled their stations equipped with army rifles, and Washington bluecoats gathered in knots near the white house and toured the city in police cars.

Many of the communists, however, left the capital before nightfall in special busses headed toward New York, and no further disorder was reported. At least six of their number remained in jail, and one required hospital treatment for a broken nose.

The demonstration at the capitol was under the auspices of the Conference for the Protection of Foreign Born, claimed to be representative of 1,000 organizations with 270,000 members.

Leaders of the conference had prepared a lengthy statement, to be presented to congress, demanding among other things the abolishment of "all restrictions on immigration," including the "exclusion of Chinese, Japanese and Hindus."

It demanded also a rewriting of that part of the immigration law excluding those "who disbelieve in or oppose organized government."

Under cover of the excitement, a committee headed by Herbert Newton, an Atlanta, Ga. Negro, took a copy of these demands to Speaker Longworth's office. Another copy was taken to the senate by Ella R. Bloor, a North Dakota labor organizer.

In still another part of the capitol at the same time, Representative Bachmann, republican, West Virginia, introduced a bill to block all immigration from Russia permanently.

FREEMAN MAY HEAD RIVERS AND HARBORS COMMITTEE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — The Connecticut congressional delegation were all in their seats when the senate and house convened today. Representative Goss, who succeeds the late Representative Glynn took his oath of office at noon. Mr. Goss has been assigned to the office room formerly occupied by his predecessor in office. Goss was heartily congratulated on his election but all congratulations were coupled with deep regret over the death of Glynn.

Floor Leader Tilson was in constant demand for information regarding the program for the session but invariably replied it was too early to frame a complete program and as a rule he had no comment to make.

If the house continues republican next session Representative Freeman will succeed automatically to the chairmanship of the powerful rivers and harbors committee as he is now ranking member as the chairman, Dempsey, was defeated at the election.

YOU'LL SAVE A LOT OF TIME AND WORRY BY COMING IN AND LETTING US EXPLAIN HOW QUICKLY AND EASILY WE CAN ARRANGE . . . .

CASH LOANS

$10 TO $300

SMALL MONTHLY REPAYMENTS TO SUIT YOUR INCOME

The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
THIRD FLOOR, DISCO BLDG
257 MAIN STREET
PHONE 3233
★ NORWICH, CONN. ★

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

BORN

KOVALIK— At New London, Nov. 29, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Albert Kovalik, of Waterford.

HAUSHCHILD— At New London, Nov. 30, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs Albert Haushchild, of Groton.

HENDEL — At New London, Dec. 1, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hendel.

ENSLING—In Norwich at the W. W. Backus hospital, Dec. 1, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ensling of 65 Sherman street.

BOYD—In this city, Nov. 2?, 1930, a son, William Joseph, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Boyd of 7 Hamilton avenue.

MARRIED

MORIARTY-BLIVEN—In New London, Dec. 1, 1930, by Rev. Dr. T. M. Crowley, Cornelius Moriarty and Miss Ella D. Bliven.

FITZGERALD-FLOYD —In New London, Nov. 28, 1930, by Rev. Raymond J. O'Callaghan, John P. Fitzgerald and Miss Sally E. Keenan.

CARNEY-FLOYD— In New York city, Nov. 28, 1930, by Rev. J. T. van Burkalow, Clifford P. Carney, of New London, and Miss Robenia Floyd, of Waterford, Conn.

DIED

PRINCE—In New London, Dec. 1, 1930, Elizabeth A. Petton, wife of Charles D. Prince.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SKAWINSKI—In Salem, Dec. 1, 1930, Frank Skawinski, aged 90 years.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning, Dec. 3, from his daughter's home, Mrs. Polanski, R. F. D., Colchester, at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass in St. Andrew's church at 10 o'clock. Burial in family plot in St. Andrew's cemetery. J. Woitkowski, undertaker.

WILSON— In Norwich, Dec. 1, 1930, Jennie McBeth Power, wife of Harrison B. Wilson.

Funeral services at the home of her brother-in-law, William E. Wilson, 148 Broad street, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Maplewood cemetery. 2tdec2

WHITE—In Willimantic, Dec. 1, 1930, Mrs. Ellen F. White, formerly of East Killingly.

Funeral services at A. F. Wood's funeral home, Danielson, Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. 2tdec2

GOULD—Suddenly, in Norwich, Nov. 30, 1930, Thomas Gould of Massapeag, aged 70 years.

Services at Gager's Funeral Parlors, 72 Franklin street, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 2, at 3 o'clock. Interment in Comstock cemetery, Montville.

SCHNEIDER — In Norwich, Nov. 29, 1930, Mary Klemm, widow of Frederick Schneider, aged 82 years.

Funeral services at the home of her niece, Mary Zemke, of 252 Boswell avenue, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 2, at 2 o'clock. Interment at Maplewood cemetery. 2tdec1

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all relatives and friends for their many acts of kindness and the beautiful flowers sent during our recent bereavement.

MRS. J. HENRY MILLIGAN,
MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR A. MILLIGAN,
MISS F. LOUISE MILLIGAN.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all relatives and friends for the many kindnesses extended to me in my recent bereavement. I am especially grateful to all who loaned cars and sent flowers. These kind expressions of sympathy will always be remembered.

Signed:
MRS. CLARENCE TYLER.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

C. A. GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR. TEL. 642-2
LADY ASSISTANT
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

J. J. LYONS and CO.
MORTICIANS
43 MAIN STREET
Tel. 896-W

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
DAVID H. WILSON
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-W

HOURIGAN BROS.
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Funeral Home, 35 Church Street.
Office, 62 Main St. Branch, Jewett City

THOMAS J. SHAHAN
MORTICIAN
151 Main Street Tel. 2470

WILLIMANTIC

LINCOLN and POTTER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMERS
62 Church St., Willimantic
Phone 705-2
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
65 Union Street, Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

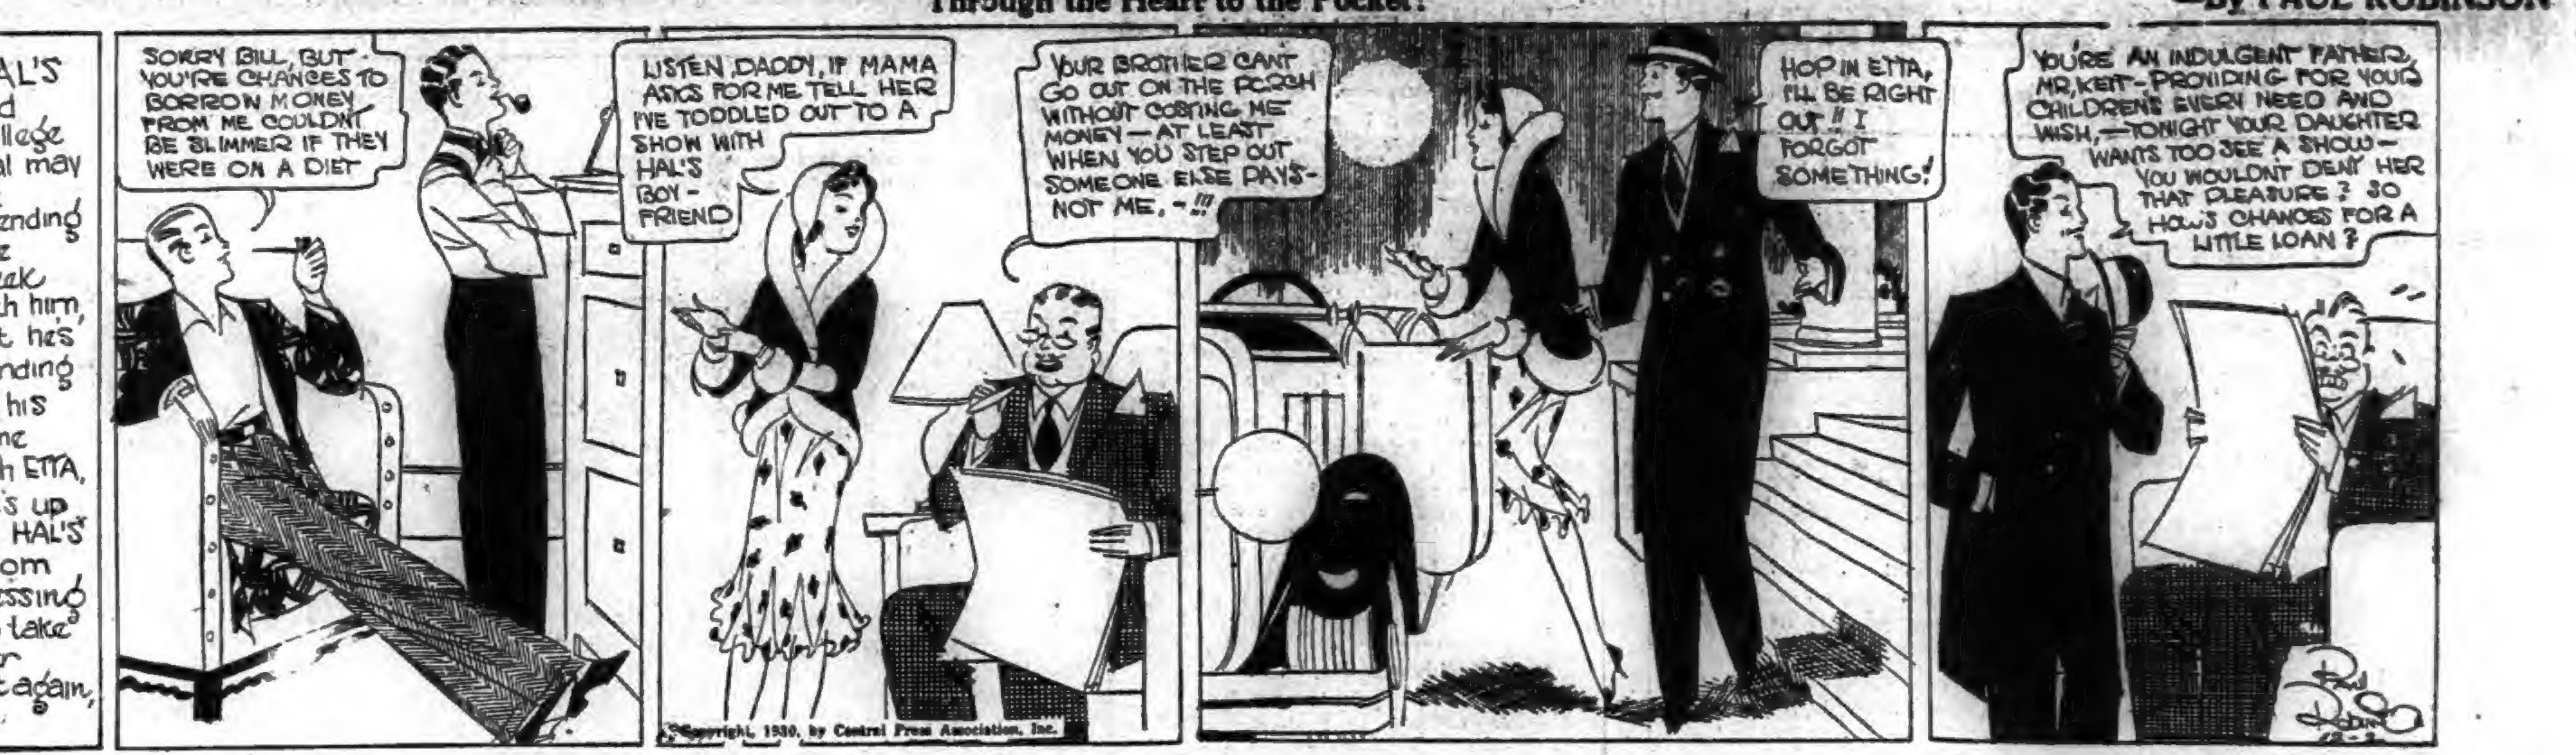
PLAINFIELD

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN
Tel Moosup 282-2

JEWETT CITY

FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Earle E. Gilbert
JEWETT CITY
Phone 158-2

ETTA KETT — Through the Heart to the Pocket! —By PAUL ROBINSON



HAL'S old college pal may be spending the week with him, but he's spending all his time with ETTA, he's up in HAL'S room dressing to take her out again,
SORRY BILL, BUT YOU'RE CHANCES TO BORROW MONEY FROM ME COULDN'T BE SLIMMER IF THEY WERE ON A DIET
LISTEN DADDY, IF MAMA ASKS FOR ME TELL HER I'VE TODDLED OUT TO A SHOW WITH HAL'S BOY-FRIEND
YOUR BROTHER CAN'T GO OUT ON THE PORCH WITHOUT COSTING ME MONEY—AT LEAST WHEN YOU STEP OUT SOMEONE ELSE PAYS—NOT ME, —!!!
HOP IN ETTA, I'LL BE RIGHT OUT!! I FORGOT SOMETHING!
YOU'RE AN INDULGENT FATHER, MR. KETT—PROVIDING FOR YOUR CHILDREN'S EVERY NEED AND WISH,—TONIGHT YOUR DAUGHTER WANTS TOO SEE A SHOW—YOU WOULDN'T DENY HER THAT PLEASURE? SO HOW'S CHANCES FOR A LITTLE LOAN?
Copyright, 1930, by Central Press Association, Inc.
Paul Robinson 12-2

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE OR RENT—In Thamesville, new 6-room house and heated garage. Will be sold regardless of cost. $100 cash. Balance same as rent. Tel. 2579-W. 3tdec2

FOR SALE—Household furniture; dining room set, beds, springs, mattresses, chairs, couch, etc., at 10 a. m., Wed., Dec. 3rd, at 14 Ann St. Phone 1011. 2tdec2

FOR SALE—MacKay plot located on River Road, only short distance from Jewett City. Opportunity awaits you. Extraordinary new method of development. This is not a sale of lots but of acreage. Therefore, when you buy you immediately become owner of enough land so you can subdivide and sell to your friends, thus creating a neighborhood "classified" with original purchaser. Investigate today and enter into this first acreage sale ever instituted near Jewett City. Prices remarkably low. Easy terms. William McNicol, Land Developer and Real Estate, Jewett City. 4tdec2TTSM

BIG BARGAINS— At the used furniture exchange, 9-11 Water St., Washington Sq. Rebuilt ranges, including Glenwoods, Crawfords, Richmonds, as low as $15.00, $20.00, $25.00. Good used Refrigerators as low as $3.50. Parlor suites. Buffets, tables, Dressers, Beds, at lowest prices in the city. Come and get your Bargains Now

ASKT THE MAN down ta the Inn what the bridle path wuz fer, 'n' he ced that it wuz fer newlyweds. He ced if the bridle walk down the path it wood brink her good luck. That's a joke I bet. See our 50c Briar pipes. They are pips. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

FOR SALE— A two-apartment house with large lot in Lisbon; a six-room cottage with large lot on Baltic St.; a seven-room house with a 2-car garage on Woodmansee Ave.; also a large roomy house on Washington St. All of above priced right for quick sale. Burton, No. 736, No. Main St. Phone 1125. 3tnov25TTS

State Road location of 12 acres
8-room house, barn, well adapted for poultry. Price $1500—one-half cash.
Tryon's Real Estate Agency
Willimantic, Conn.

FOR SALE — Home furnishings at lowest prices. Living room sets, $8.00 up; dining room sets, $45 up; bed outfits, $7.50; 9x12 rugs, $12.50; buffets with mirrors, $12.50; kitchen cabinet, $15. Norwich Used Furniture Exchange, 29 Shetucket St.

FOR SALE—3 Stanton Ave., seven room house with bath. Price reasonable. Within easy walking distance of center. Apply Susan D. Ryder, 159 Blatchley Ave., New Haven, Conn. 12tnov19

FOR SALE—Bargains in single and double houses. Have what you need in real estate. Quinn Insurance Agency.

FOR SALE—Used ranges, also parlor stoves that sold up to $50; now $10 and $15. Reasonable terms. Silberman's Furniture Store, 37 Main St.

FOR SALE—At once, to settle the estate, all the property at Wintergreen Point, in Waterford. For particulars see Miss Moore at The Bulletin office or R. E. Burton. Phone 1125.

FOR SALE—Used dining room suite, also odd oak buffets, China cabinets and tables. Silberman Furn. Store. tfaug13

FOR SALE

1. Two-apartment house, Bos. Ave. One in Greeneville section. Good investment. (2). Canterbury turnpike, cottage with 25 apples trees, 4 acres land, nice barn, one cow, low price. Call Clarence Sholes. Tel. con. tfeodnov25

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Will exchange a late model electric sewing machine for an all electric radio. Write Box 502 Bulletin, giving full information regarding radio. 3tnov27

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co. 5 Bath St. Tel. 2463.

WANTED — Horse about 1,300 lbs. Must be sound and true. Tel. 3673-5.

SPECIALIZING — Pawtuxet Valley, East and West Greenwich and Coventry farms. Arthur Kinne, East Greenwich, Rhode Island.

WANTED—Female

ADDRESS CARDS, spare time. Everything furnished. No canvassing. No investment. Particulars for stamped envelope. Imperial Stationery Co., Dept. 948, Washington C. H., Ohio.

WANTED— Housekeeper. State age and experience. Write Box 50, Bulletin.

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper. 6 yrs. experience. Call 3095-J. 3tdec2

ADDRESSING ENVELOPES—Work at home during spare time. Substantial weekly pay; experience unnecessary. Dignified employment for honest, sincere, ambitious persons. Workers League, Naperville, Ill. dec2

YOUNG WOMAN desires house work or care of children. Address Box 47, Bulletin.

RADIO REPAIRS

—CALL 2880—
Radio Service Our Specialty
SMITH'S RADIO STORE

FOR SALE—Livestock

FOR SALE—30 Guernsey and Holstein grade cows. Just arrived from Wisconsin. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel Lebanon, 30. 6tnov29

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

DANIELSON

LOUIS E. KENNEDY
Undertaker and Embalmer
DANIELSON
Special Attention to Every Detail

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT— One large double room, suitable for two gentlemen; also a single room. Phone 1850. 5tdec2

FOR RENT—Five-room apt., all improvements, 70 McKinley Ave. Phone 2690-J. 2tdec2

TO RENT—Apartment at 72 McKinley Ave; all improvements. 2tTuFridec2

FOR RENT on the New London road, 4 rooms with improvements. Phone 1373. dec2

FOR RENT—Four new built modern apartments; 5 rooms each. Rent $15 per month. Call 849-M. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—5 and 6-room tenements, 344 Franklin St. Phone 1951. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—2 light housekeeping rooms. 21 Ripley Place. Tel. 3519-M. 5tdec2

FOR RENT — Flat, new house, 5 rooms, 2 garage. 94 Division St. Phone 737. Night, 3473-J tfoct28TF

TO RENT— Several desirable apartments. J. A. Cunningham, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056. tfdec1

TO LET — 5 rooms, $16, all improvements. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St.

TO RENT — Furnished, steam heated room. 16 Laurel Hill Ave. Tel. 3501J.

TO RENT—5-room apartment at 215 Laurel Hill Ave. With heat or without. Tel. 2357. Inquire 3tnov29

FOR RENT—5-room apartment; second floor; on Williams St. Tel. 3361-W. 3tnov29

TO RENT — Tenement of 7 rooms. Telephone 993 Norwich. tfoct3

FOR RENT— Two 6-room cottages; brand new; also 5-room apartment; all modern improvements. Call 1923. 3tnov29

FOR RENT— Apartment, No 364 Washington St., Norwich Town Tel. 626-W Oct15

TO RENT—A modern 6-room apartment. Apply to B. C. Hannis, 11 McKinley Ave. tfnov26

TO RENT—5-room tenement. $15 a month. Call 1422-W. tfnov26

TO RENT—Furnished apartment, well heated, garage. Phone 285-J. tfnov25

TO RENT— Two light housekeeping rooms, 45 Union street, all improvements tfnov25

FOR RENT—6-room apartment; all improvements. Phone 946-W.

FOR RENT—At Wintergreen Point, to small family, 6-room house with garage. See Miss Moore at Bulletin office

TO RENT—Pleasant six-room apartment. Rent reasonable. J. A. Cunningham. Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056.

FOR RENT—7 rooms with all improvements. 89 Asylum St. tfOct16

FOR RENT—Rooms, board if desired. Good location. Tel. 3557-J. tfnov18

TO RENT—5 lovely rooms, 23 Hill St. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters. tfnov11

TO RENT—7-room cottage, bath, hot and cold water. Fountain St. Call 77 Cedar St. Phone 868 tfnov15

FOR RENT— Modern 5-room apartment. 47 Otis St. Tel. 1085-R tfnov13

TO RENT— Flat of six rooms, 6 Church St. Tel. 2637-J 3tnov5MWF

TO RENT—Modern 5-room apartment. Best section in town. Oil heated, hot water. Available now. 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., Franklin St tfnov8

STORAGE—Gilbert Furniture Co. Inquire 68 Broadway. tfoct11S

FOR RENT — Light housekeeping rooms. Steam heat. 27 McKinley Ave. tfsept30

TO LET—5 nice rooms, all improvements, 11 High street. tfsept17

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; modern and central. Phone 211 Sept26

FOR RENT—Heated apartment in the Osgood Caron's Specialty Shop

TO RENT— A 6-room and a 4-room apartment; all modern conveniences, 357 Washington St. Tel 1085-R tfsept17

TO RENT—Flat of six rooms with all improvements. Inquire of Gilbert Bowers 130 Washington St., or phone 1132-M. tfsept27

FOR RENT—Rooms for gentlemen. On car line. Phone 2658-W 12tnov19

For Rent
First Floor Tenement With Bath Room and Hot Water Heater
234 BROAD STREET

TO RENT
If you want a 5-room apartment a little out of the ordinary, at a reasonable price, see those in the "Huntington". 170 Broadway. Tel. 3282.
D. T. SHEA

For Rent
FINE LIGHT STORE IN SUNLIGHT BUILDING
Occupied Continuously for 15 Years as Barber Shop
Apply BULLETIN OFFICE

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

TO RENT

FOR RENT—4 rooms, bath and pantry, front and side porch, private front and back door; garage. Call after 7 p. m., at 30 Yerrington Ave. Phone 2904-W. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—Funished, three rooms and bathroom. Steam heat supplied. $27.50 a month. Located near Washington Sq. Tel. 597 or 298.

WANTED—Male

AT ONCE—South America or United States. Permanent positions; labor, clerical, mechanical, salesmanship; experience unnecessary. Salaries $25-$100 weekly, transportation furnished. Box 1175, Chicago. dec2

MEN to sell our high grade garden and field seed direct to planters. A good position with big income. Experience unnecessary. Cobb Co., Franklin, Mass. 3tdec2

MANAGER WANTED for Norwich store. Mechanically inclined with some executive ability. $50 per week to start. Earnings up to $500 per month or more. About $1250 cash deposit on goods required. Manufacturer, 112-114 N. May, Chicago. dec2

WANTED
An exceptionally bright man between ages of 23 and 45, to represent Montgomery-Ward & Co. in personal contacts with customers. We do not desire the high pressure house-to-house canvasser, but a man who at the present time is without a position who is upstanding in his community and who is really interested in a future.
MONTGOMERY-WARD & CO.
Putnam, Conn.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

WANTED—All kinds of live poultry. Broilers a specialty. Tel. 539 S. Colt tfeb18

WANTED—All kinds of poultry; will call anywhere; highest prices paid Joseph Horn Tel 1501 Willimantic. tfmar19

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—White, black and tan Beagle hound. No name or number on collar. Call Adam Rojeske, Jewett City. 2tdec2

FOUND— Came to our farm, sheep. Owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. Mrs. A. Lucas, Preston, Phone 3678-5. 3tdec2

LOST—Between Washington St. and Cliff St., sum of many. Finder call 3463-J and receive reward. tfdec2

LOST—Sunday eve on Norwich-Jewett City road, tan leather pocketbook, containing glasses; reward. Leave at Bulletin office.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Sawed white birch wood, $7.00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE — Seasoned hard wood slabs. Delivered to Jewett City. No extra cost. Roy B. Kennedy. Phones 1137-M or 3755-R. 6tnov27

FOR SALE — Delivered, kindling or split wood. 7 baskets, $1.00. $8.00 a load. Coal, 5 bags, $1.00. Tel 3666

LEGAL NOTICES

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 1st day of December A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Herbert A. Richards, late of Lisbon, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executrix cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at Versailles, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

MRS. IVA M. RICHARDS, Executrix.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of William J. Pepin, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

John B. Paradis, of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that administration be granted upon the estate of said deceased alleged to be intestate.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1930, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

ANSWERS TO WHAT DO YOU KNOW

1.—That of dealer in groceries, fruit and pastry.
2.—No. 202 Franklin street.
3.—Two.
4.—At Poquonnoc.
5.—19 1-2 mills.
6.—6 mills.
7.—Funded debt, $202,000; floating debt, $7,319.95
8.—$55,000.

LEGAL NOTICES

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Evelyn A. Gardner, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

The Administrator appeared in Court and filed a written application alleging that said estate is now in settlement in said Court, and praying for an order to sell certain real estate belonging to said estate, fully described in said application.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said application be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 5th day of December, A. D. 1930, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said application, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order once in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and that return be made to the Court

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Thomas Ibbison, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executors cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at 65 Prospect St., Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

WILLIAM E. IBBISON,
JAMES IBBISON,
Executors.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Mary T. Ahearn, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Executor cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the sign-post nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

JOHN H. PERKINS, Executor

FOR SALE—Radios

FOR SALE —Used and demonstrated radios, battery and all electric at low prices. Some as low as $4. Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St

FOR SALE—Dogs

FOR SALE— Spaniel puppies, color golden liver. Pedigreed. Very handsome, admired by all. Make good hunting dogs, land or water. Good house dogs, kind and affectionate with children. F. D. Warner, 354 Hamilton avenue. Phone 3809. 6tdec1

Business Notices

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

WANTED—Second-hand antique furniture. Best prices paid. A. Bruckner 100 Franklin St. Phone 565.

LOUIS D. WARD. Antique and second hand furniture bought and sold. 6 Main St., Norwich Tel 1838 tfiw3

CONTRACTORS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street

G. E. Boucher
GENERAL CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER
Estimates Cheerfully Given
Phones 1530 or 679

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices

CLEANERS AND DYERS

WE CALL & DELIVER FREE
MENS—SUITS—TOPCOATS
LADIES PLAIN COATS ETC.
CLEANED & PRESSED
$1
PHONE 2060
CLEANERS & DYERS
EVERYTHING SPECIAL ATTENTION TO LADIES WORK
Russell's
DOLLAR CLEANERS

DENTISTS

Dr. D. J. Coyle
Dentist
Sellas Building
Franklin Square

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

MONEY TO LOAN

NEED MONEY QUICKLY
Cash Loans of $10 to $300
Within 24 Hours
Small Monthly Repayments

You'll be suprised how easily a loan can be arranged. Our friendly and courteous service has helped many when they needed money quickly. Come in, 'phone or write for full information. There is no obligation. The only charge is three and one-half percent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
Room 307, Disco Bldg. 257 Main St. Norwich, Conn.

MERCHANT TAILOR

S. P. KEPPLER and SON
FINE TAILORS
Showing Fine Woolens for Fall and Winter
NECKWARE
of Style—Quality—Novelty
99 MAIN STREET

TRUCKING

JOSLYN—Excellent storage. Mover of teaming and auto vans at your service everything: expressing, freight handling

TRANSPORTATION

NEW YORK
Boat leaves New London at 12:00 Midnight
Daily Except Saturday
Staterooms ready at 7:00 pm
Tickets and Reservations at R. R. Station—Phone 215-R
Fare from Norwich
$3.38
Automobiles carried at low rates
Return Steamer Leaves Pier 14, N. R., New York, 12:01 Noon Weekdays
NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP LINES

TREES AND SCHRUBS

MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
East Great Plain Tel 926-7

HOPKINTON, R. I.

Ex-Lieut. Gov. Edwin R. Allen reached the age of 90, Wednesday, Nov. 26th. He recently entertained Mr and Mrs Charles Allen, of South Willington and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, of Hartford.

Petit Jurors from this town to serve at the December session of the superior court for Washington county are Howard C. Woodmansee, Harold Wilcox, Eldred A. Arnold and Eugene Miner.

The line walk in the village of Canonchet started up on full time Monday and the mill will begin to operate as soon as necessary repairs are completed.

The public schools resumed sessions Dec. 1st.

Among the Thanksgiving guests in town were Walter White and family, of Providence, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. White, Walter Champlin, of Boston, at the home of his mother, H. Elizabeth Spicer and Frank W. Mills at the home of Rev. E. P. Mathewson.

One thermometer in the village of Ashaway registered 3 degrees above zero Friday morning.

A light sprinkling of snow, about like a heavy white frost, was on the ground Thanksgiving morning in Ashaway but soon vanished. Children enjoyed skating on small ponds Friday.

POETRY

When Father Rode The Goat

The house is full of arnica,
And mystery profound;
We do not dare to run about
Or play upon the ground.
We leave the big piano shut,
And do not strike a note;
The doctor's been here seven times
Since father rode the goat.

He joined the lodge a week ago—
Got in at 4 a. m.
And 16 brethren brought him home,
Though he says he brought them.
His wrist was sprained and one big rip
Had rent his Sunday coat,
There must have been a lively time
When father rode the goat.

He's resting on the couch today
And practicing his signs—
The hailing signal, working grip,
And other monkey-shines.
He mutters passwords 'neath his breath
And other things he'll quote—
They surely had an evening's work
When father rode the goat.

He has a gorgeous uniform,
All gold and red and blue;
A hat with plumes and yellow braid
And golden badges, too.
But somehow, when we mention it,
He waves a look so grim
We wonder if he rode the goat
Or if the goat rode him.

The Republic

Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all its hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
We know what Master laid thy keel,
What Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
Who made each mast, and sail, and rope,
What anvils rang, what hammer beat,
In what a forge and what a heat
Were shaped the anchors of thy hope!
Fear not each sudden sound and shock,
'Tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
And not a rent made by the gale!
In spite of rock and tempest's roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee—are all with thee!

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Darling, father has gone bankrupt."

"I always said he would find ways and means of separating us."—Der Lustige Sachse.

Friend—Spring has come at last.

Professor—Tell him I have no time for him today, but will be pleased to see him tomorrow.—Vart Hem.

"Free of charge," says Calvin Coolidge, "our people have schools, roads libraries and sanitation." This disposes of the silly story that these blessings are bought with tax money.—New Yorker.

Wiseacre—Haven't I always given you my salary check the first of every month?

Mrs. Wiseacre—Yes, but you never told me you got paid on the first and fifteenth; you embezzler!—Cleveland News.

He (with hands over her eyes): "If you can't guess who it is in three guesses I'm going to kiss you."

She: "Jack Frost; Davy Jones; Santa Claus."—Smith's Weekly.

His Reverence: "Oh, since you're going through the village, Jarvis, I would like you to look in at the Craddocks' cottage and say I sent you to enquire about all of them there."

Odd-job Man: "Them there wot, sir?"—London Opinion.

"Is your boy Josh a help to you?"

"Yes," replied Farmer Corntossel, "I dunno's I could get along without him. He assists in keeping the hired hands happy and contented by comin' home evenin's and playin' pinochle with them."—Washington Star.

KALEIDOSCOPE

The canna plant is a close relative of the banana tree.

South Carolina is said to have less goiter than any other state.

The average altitude of the North American continent is about 2,000 feet.

A number of plants and flowers are very good sun dials, opening and closing regularly.

A very promising process for welding copper has been developed from recent research.

Some of the hats woven by Indians of Ecuador require as much as a year in the making.

A Field Museum curator points out that goldfish were unknown in Europe until the seventeenth century.

Despite the advances of the automobile, the bicycle business reports that it has just had its best year since 1910.

Agricultural exports from the United States in the last fiscal year were smaller than in any year since 1910.

Dynamite, one of the most important of peace time explosives, is made by dissolving guncotton in nitroglycerin.

Colors can now be reproduced and matched identically from "measurements" telegraphed or cabled to distant points.

The smaller the industrial plant, the greater the accident hazard, is the conclusion drawn from a recent study in Pennsylvania.

Chloroform was discovered in 1831 by Leibig in Germany and Soubeiran in France, and their reports were published almost simultaneously.

Wood impregnated with metal is being used for radio cabinets and interior decorating, because of its unusual and attractive appearance.

The volcano Mauna Kea, on the island of Hawaii, is often capped with new-fallen snow in the summertime, even though it is a tropical peak.

FORMER NORWICH BOY ADMITS NEW LONDON APARTMENT THEFT

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 1—Another juvenile thief was revealed this afternoon, a youth of 12, a student at Nathan Hale grammar school. The boy admitted having stolen $17 from the apartment of Victor Castaldi, in the Cronin building, State street. The boy will be given a hearing in the juvenile court the latter part of the week. Nov. 1, last, the boy entered the Castaldi apartment for the purpose of selling combination tickets. In the absence of Mrs. Castaldi, who was in the rear of the apartment, the youth opened a drawer to a desk and stole the money. Today Detective Sergeant John Cavanaugh obtained information that indicated that the school boy was the thief and when taken into custody the boy admitted the crime, stating that he had spent the money in buying candy and going to picture shows. The youth, a Syrian, formerly residing on Boswell avenue, Norwich, with his parents, moved to this city several months ago.

Patrolman Carlos Stone resumed duty tonight after his vacation of a fortnight.

People Drinking Less

Other than violation of the automobile laws, intoxication again topped the number of arrests made by the police department during November, but the men and women arrested for being drunk were far below the usual number, for but 38 drunks were locked up, less than half the cases of this nature that ordinarily are presented in court for that length of time. The cases and offenses alleged were as follows: Violation of traffic laws, 83; violation of automobile law, 46; intoxication, 38; breach of peace, 19; theft, 12; arrested and held for other departments, 9; runaways, 5; driving while under the influence of liquor, 4; violation of liquor law, 3; frequenting house of ill fame, 2; insane, 2; non-support, 3; fraud or embezzlement, 2; keeping house of ill fame, 1; lascivious carriage, 1; transporting and keeping female for immoral purposes, 1. Shelter was provided 111 men in the tramp room. No money was collected for license fees, for none were issued.

NIGHT RAIDS OF POLICE, NET NO RESULTS

The police resumed their raiding efforts tonight, but without success for squads were detailed to conduct searches of two business places that were believed to be dispensing liquor. One of the business houses visited was a restaurant and like the other place to receive the attention of the bluejackets, searches failed to reveal any evidences of liquor.

Slodden Case Nolled

The continued case of Alexander Slodden, a valet, residing at 247 Huntington street, charged with breach of the peace and intoxication, was disposed of in the police court today when Judge Daniel M. Cronin ordered a nolle. Slodden was arrested Sept. 19, last and the case had been continued from time to time, until it was ended today. Slodden went to his home while intoxicated and when he engaged in a quarrel with his wife, he physically abused the woman and the latter act resulted in the man being arrested.

But one case of intoxication awaits hearing in the police court tomorrow. The offender is a woman, who was arrested tonight by Sergeant John Courtney charged with intoxication.

COUNCIL ADDS SLIGHTLY TO TOTAL OF THE BUDGET

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 1—The city council held a three-hour session this evening at which consideration of the budget was the principal business. It had been arranged that the meeting would adjourn this evening and hold a session tomorrow night, but this plan was changed and it was decided to recess and consider the budget in executive session.

Councilor Twomey objected to this plan and said that the budget could not possibly be disposed of in any recess, which had been proposed as for five or ten minutes. The recess plan was finally adopted and an executive session of two hours was the result.

The budget appropriation was increased slightly, as the result of the meeting. The sum of $300 was put back into the appropriations for medical attentions in the schools, being principally for diphtheria work and the sum of $500 was put up for the care of venereal diseases, Dr. Hill offering to care for the cases.

In the original appropriation submitted, the library sum was cut $2,000 but tonight $1,000 was restored, making the total appropriation $3,000.

A cut was made in the financial department by the retirement of Mrs. Shefflot. It was also voted to cut the fire department appropriation $520; of this sum $320 is saved by the elimination of telephones and $200 on hose.

Eleven building permits were granted, two being for dwellings.

A contract for 500 cubic yards of bank gravel was awarded to Andrew Nichols and a contract of 300 yards of screened sand was awarded to the same bidder at 97 cents a yard. The bid for bank gravel was $1 a yard. A carload of sewer pipe was contracted for with the Raymond and Alexander Co. Rubber-lined fire hose was ordered purchased at $1,166.20. Councilor Twomey made a plea for wax-treated hose, saying it would be a saving to the city, getting a better hose.

Treasurer Huntley announced that all the banks of the city have agreed to pay two percent for city money on deposit over $1,000. A sewer was ordered to be laid in Harris court at a cost of $2,240. Director of Law Troland explained how the amount is arrived at, because there is a private sewer in the court and something was allowed to the parties who put it there.

Councilor May introduced a proposed ordinance concerning autioneers and the ordinance was referred to the committee on public welfare, for consideration and report. The sum of $250 was voted John M. Mallon, an assistant an the assessor's office who is critically ill and will never return. His son contributed a portion of the money.

The public utilities commission gave notice of the extension to March 1, 1931, in the order of taximeters on cabs here.

The Hempstead family petitioned for the continuance of playground work.

The Montauk Avenue Baptist church withdrew its offer for Ocean avenue property.

Miss Barbara Sexton, of 189 Parkway; Mrs. Ernest Gregory, 119 Golden street; Rinato Cellenne, Swansea, Mass., patients at Lawrence Memorial hospital, were discharged Sunday and today.

FUNERALS

Mrs. James L. Coffee

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret W. Coffee, widow of James L. Coffee, of Groton, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 15 Masonic street and was attended by a large gathering of mourners. The services were conducted by Rev. George R. Atha, pastor of Groton Heights Baptist church. The bearers were William Clark, John Eccleston, William Dyson, Charles Crandall, Louis Allen and Mr. Gardner. Burial was in Yantic cemetery, Norwich.

Edward F. Canning, Jr.

The funeral of Edward F. Canning, Jr., 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Canning, 95 Elm street, was held this morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, the solemn mass of requiem being celebrated by Rev. George Clark, Rev. Raymond J. O'Callaghan being deacon and Rev. Timothy M. Crowley, sub-deacon. The bearers were Luke Martin, Robert K. Sullivan, Roma Leary, Walter Silva, John Irisinga and William Sullivan. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Charles D. Prince

Mrs. Elizabeth Patton Prince, 61, wife of Charles D. Prince, of 14 Pearl street, died this morning at her home, after an illness of several months. Besides her husband, Mrs. Prince is survived by a son, Donald G. Prince, and three daughters, Florence Bliven, Mrs. Gladys MacDonald and Mrs. Marie Newell, all of New London. Two brothers, Andrew and Christopher Patton, of Glasgow, Scotland, and a sister, Mrs. Grace Turner, of Sydney, Australia, also survive, as do several grandchildren. Mrs. Prince was a member of the auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Hiawatha council, Degree of Pocahontas; Dairy Maids, Woman's Relief corps, United Order of the Golden Cross and the Mothers and Daughters' club. Mrs. Prince was born in Glasgow, but had resided in New London about 45 years.

Joseph Ryan has sold a building lot on Cedar Grove avenue to Omar Payatte.

The high wind of last night blew down an electric light pole on the wharf of the Fishers Island Navigation company.

The heavy rain of Sunday night caused a washout on Ocean avenue, near Saunders street. When the defective condition of the road was noted, the police were informed and a repair gang of the city put the highway into a condition of traffic temporarily. Permanent repairs will be made this week.

FIVE P. S. OPERATORS' LICENSES SUSPENDED

At a hearing bfeore Edward T. Brown, inspector of the state motor vehicle department at the county court house here this forenoon, the current public service operators' licenses of five New London drivers were suspended, but the cab men can apply for new licenses and if they are granted a fee of $5 will be assessed. The drivers are Leto Campo, 24 Grove street; John W. Elwood, 54 Prest street; Domenico Gillombardo, 43 Belden street; Robert Potter, 58 Howard street, and Russell Taylor, 254 Ocean avenue. Three other drivers, Edward L. Dray, 62 Douglass street; Samuel Bisconti, 8 Montauk avenue, and Charles Favolise, 34 Shaw street, were allowed to retain their licenses. John P. Piscatello, 39 Truman street, another driver, summoned to present himself before the inspector, failed to appear. The licenses of three private drivers, heard on charges, were returned. They were: Carmine Cutillo, Niantic, reckless driving; Raymond Moore, Deep River, fatal accident; James J. Corbett, 40 Franklin street, loaning markers. The hearings on the public service drivers were ordered because of false statements uttered when the drivers made application for their licensee. The drivers stated that they had never been convicted of crimes. As a result of the statements, inspectors of the motor vehicle department made an investigation and it was the result of their activities in obtaining the evidence against the drivers that they were arrested.

VIOLETTE IS FINED $100— GRITMAN'S CASE GOES OVER

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 1.—An automobile driven by Samuel Violette, 66 Lewis street, and a LaSalle coupe, driven by Clayton Gritman, 124 Ledley street, Bridgeport, collided Sunday night at the approach to the Thames river highway bridge, Groton. Both automobiles were damaged, but the occupants did not sustain injury more serious than bruises and contusions. Violette and Gritman were arrested by state police, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. In the Groton town court this morning, Violette was fined $100 and costs and the case of Gritman was continued until Monday next. He furnished a surety on his bond of $500.

Francis J. McNeill of East Boston, Mass., was arrested in Groton this morning by State Police Officer Eric Swanson, charged with violation of the state motor vehicle law, driving without a license. He will be in Groton town court next Monday.

Mrs. Mary Contino, residing on Clark lane, Waterford, was hit by an automobile driven by Frank E. Reilly, New Brighton, N. Y., yesterday, while walking on the Boston Post road near Station 11. Mrs. Contino was knocked down and sustained bruises and contusions. She is a patient at Lawrence Memorial hospital, but will be there only a short time.

FRANK DAVIS IS FOUND IN BONDSMAN'S OFFICE

Frank "Bad Man" Davis, 80, arrested Friday last when police raided his home and who failed to appear in the police court Saturday and defend a charge of conducting a house of ill-fame, jumping his bond of $250, was arrested this afternoon by Automobile Patrol Officer Augustus Ray. He was unable to secure a surety on his bond and was locked up. He will be in court tomorrow. Davis, a contracting mason, but who has a court record, obtained the services of an attorney after he was arrested and liberated last week. Louis Elfenbein was surety on the bond and when Davis did not present himself in court a search for the man was made by police. A visit to his home last night resulted in it being learned that Davis had caused all the foodstuffs in the house removed. The entrances were unlocked and neighbors said that they had not observed Davis or anyone else at the house. It was reported that Davis had gone to Hartford, and he probably did so, for this afternoon when Davis went to the office of his bondsman he said that he had been in Hartford for the purpose of endeavoring to secure a loan. While in the bondsman's office, the police were informed of Davis' presence there and Officer Ray arrested him.

Davis' Handy Man Jailed

In court today, Frank Lane, who was Davis' agent in the sale of liquor at the Tenth street house, was tried on a charge of violation of the liquor law, actual sale. He entered a demurrer, which was overruled and the accused was fined $200 and costs. He was unable to pay and was committed to jail.

Anna Paul Left Unaided

Mrs. Anna Paul, wife of a Main street restaurant employe, who was found in Davis' home by the raiders and who was charged in the police court the next day with frequenting a house of ill-fame and fined $25 and costs, is still in jail, for none of her friends went to her assistance.

A Fishers Island laborer, charged with intoxication, was fined $10 and costs and went to jail. He was arrested on North Bank street Saturday night when discovered soliciting funds from pedestrians.

Another offender charged with intoxication was fined $10, but execution of the sentence was suspended. He was arrested Sunday night at the engine house of the Central Vermont railroad.

JACOBSON'S BODY FOUND ON FISHERS ISLAND POINT

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 1.—The body of Anthony Jacobson, about 55, former well known lobster fisherman of Fishers Island, who was drowned three weeks ago, was recovered Saturday, being discovered on the shore at Clay Point, Fishers Island, but a short distance from where the fisherman was drowned. He is survived by his widow and a daughter and by relatives in Tolland county. The body was brought to New London and today it was forwarded to Stafford Springs for funeral services and burial.

Mr. Jacobson left in his sloop from Fishers Island on the morning of Nov. 8 to go to North Hills for the purpose of pulling lobster pots. He arrived at the fishing grounds and in the handling of his boat the craft became disabled, probably hitting a rock, for other fishermen observed the boat with her stern out of water. Realizing that the boat was in distress, these fishermen started for the disabled boat, but before they reached it the sloop disappeared from view and no trace of Jacobson could be found. A search for the boat and Jacobson's body was conducted for several days. The sloop was finally located and hauled to the water's surface. Saturday, employes of Richard Davidson, who are engaged constructing a pier at Clay Point, observed an object on the shore which was covered with an oiler. When the employes investigated they discovered the body of the missing fisherman.

UNEMPLOYED MAN STARTS SALE OF APPLES IN STREET

The first of New London's unemployed to undertake the selling of apples from the streets of the business section in an endeavor to obtain a livelihood, appeared on State street, corner of Green, this noon. The man went to the municipal building earlier in the day and obtained permission from City Manager William A. Holt to sell the apples. He procured a basket containing about 100 apples and then offered them for sale to pedestrians at five cents each. The peddler disposed of several baskets of the fruit during the remainder of the day. It is understood that several other men, who are out of work, will seek permission to sell the fruit tomorrow or Wednesday.

WEDDINGS

Moriarty—Bliven

Cornelius Moriarty, son of Mrs. Bridget Moriarty, of 190 Vauxhall street, and Miss Ella D. Bliven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bliven, of 16 Lincoln avenue, were married at 9 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, the nuptial mass being celebrated by Rev. Dr. Timothy M. Crowley, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Alfred Moutran was best man and Miss Josephine Belbruno attended the bride. The bride was attired in garnet transparent velvet and her corsage was of red roses. The gown of the bridesmaid was gold flat crepe. She wore a hat of gold tint and her corsage was of red roses. Following the ceremony, a reception for about 75 was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Moriarty left during the afternoon on a wedding trip and upon their return will reside at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Moriarty is a patrolman of the New London police department.

Carney—Floyd

Clifford P. Carney, of this city, and Miss Robenia Floyd, Clifton street, Waterford, were married last Friday evening in New York, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. T. van Burkalow, at the Eighteenth Street Methodist church. Mr. Carney is employed as district manager in eastern Connecticut and Rhode Island by an oil company. His bride is a member of the teaching staff of the Opportunity school, in this city.

Fitzgerald—Keenan

Announcement is made of the marriage last Friday at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church of John P. Fitzgerald, 121 Bayonet street, and Miss Sally E. Keenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs John P. Keenan, of 17 Rogers street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Raymond J. O'Callaghan. Samuel Corkey was best man and Miss Mary McIninch attended the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Corcoran and child have returned to their home on Ledyard street, having passed the week-end with relatives of Mrs. Corcoran in Brattleboro, Vt.

Miss Hattie E. Hewitt, employed in Porto Rico, who was seized with illness while visiting in this city recently, has returned here after having received treatment at St. Luke's hospital, New York. Miss Hewitt is a former resident of New London and visits here annually.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Y. Spear, 105 Gardner avenue, are in New York for a stay of a few days.

RADIO PROGRAMMES

TUESDAY, Dec. 2

302—SPRINGFIELD, WBZ—990

12.35 p. m.—Farm and Home hour.
1.00 p. m.—Springfield Advertising Club luncheon; Statler ensemble.
2.01 p. m.—Blue Aces; Matinee Melodies; Mary Solution radio column.
3.00 p. m.—Band of a Thousand Melodies; Stanley Benson, violinist; Home Forum Cooking school.
4.00 p. m.—Eddie Welch's orchestra; Air Castle; State House Safety talk.
5.00 p. m.—Junior Aviation league; Safety Crusaders; Stock Exchange quotations; agricultural markets; Tip-Top Roadman.
6.03 p. m.—Dinner music; Savannah Liners orchestra; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; New England Coke Sentinels; Phil Cook; Uncle Willard.
8.00 p. m.—Perkin's Vac-Caps; "Famous Fortunes"; J. A. Joysters.
9.00 p. m.—Tek Music; Death Valley Days.
10.00 p. m.—Westinghouse Salute; Chrysler-Plymouth world tour.
11.05 p. m.—Cline's Statler orchestra.

283—HARTFORD, WTIC—1060

12.00 noon—Farm and Home Forum; Studio String quintet.
1.20 p. m.—"Dog Chats," Helen I. Williams; Bond trio.
2.00 p. m.—Knights of Melody and Ilima Islanders; Edna Wallace Hopper; Charlotte P. Robbie, soprano.
3.00 p. m.—Musique Intime.
3.30 p. m.—The Mixing Bowl, Florrie Bishop Bowering.
4.10 p. m.—Happy, Go and Lucky; Bridge Game.
5.00 p. m.—Sunset Hour with Anna Kaskas, contralto.
6.00 p. m.—Rhythm Chasers; Highlights in Sport; Broadway Favorites.
6.40 p. m.—Col. J. H. Gilson on "Helping Santa Claus."
6.45 p. m.—"Hawaiian Echoes."

243—BOSTON, WNAC—1230

6.00 p. m.—La Lasine Melodists; Crusaders; Rem Merrymakers; Shepard Modernists.
7.00 p. m.—"Forget-Me-Not"; The Cleercoalers.
8.00 p. m.—Blackstone program; Kaltenborn Edits the News; Premier Salad Dressers.
9.00 p. m.—Henry-George; The Philco Symphony concert.
10.00 p. m.—Mr. and Mrs.; The Gypsy Trail; Radio Playhouse.
11.15 p. m.—Paul Tremaine orchestra; Cocoanut Grove orchestra.
12.00 p. m.—St. Moritz orchestra; Ann Leaf at the organ.

508—BOSTON, WEEI—590

4.10 p. m.—Stock Exchange quotations.
4.30 p. m.—Auction Bridge.
7.00 p. m.—Dairy and Food Council; Soconyland sketches.
8.00 p. m.—Investment hour; Gentle's Homlykers.
9.00 p. m.—Eveready program; Happy Wonder Bakers.
10.00 p. m.—Enna Jettick Songbird; Lucky Strike dance orchestra.
11.05 p. m.—Duke Ellington's orchestra.

422—NEWARK, WOR—710

6.00 p. m.—Uncle Don; "Timely Investment Topics"; Chick Meehan; Mike and Al Brothers.
8.01 p. m.—Footlight Echoes; Chevrolet Chronicles.
9.00 p. m.—Character Readings; Tudor Arms entertainment; Radio drama.
10.15 p. m.—Greenwich Village orchestra; Terrace dance orchestra; Moonbeams.

379—SCHENECTADY, WGY—790

11.45 a. m.—New York stock reports.
12.00 m.—Farm program.
1.00 p. m.—Luncheon music.
2.01 p. m.—Chat to Women, Mary Lansing; Organ recital, Floyd Walter; Household Chat; Popular hits, Earl Graper.
3.00 p. m.—Marion Brewer, soprano; Kitty Haydn Meinhold, pianist; Rose Mountain, contralto.
4.00 p. m.—Army talk, Capt. A. E. Hawkenson; Auction Bridge game.
5.15 p. m.—Leonard and Sherman, piano duo; Highway report; Uncle Jim.
6.01 p. m.—Stock reports; Kenmore orchestra.
7.04 p. m.—American Trio; Smith Brothers; Soconyland Sketch.
8.00 p. m.—McManus and Riley; Florsheim Frolic.
9.00 p. m.—Eveready Hour; Continental Baking.
10.00 p. m.—Enna Jettick Songbird; "Kaleidoscope."
11.00 p. m.—Kenmore orchestra.

394—NEW YORK, WJZ—760

12.00 m.—The Luncheon ensemble; Sisters Skillet.
12.30 p. m.—National Farm and Home hour.
1.35 p. m.—Three Little Maids, string trio.
2.00 p. m.—"Your Daily Menu." Mrs. Julian Heath; Blue Chasers; Band of a Thousand Melodies.
6.15 p. m."The Great Smokies," E. K Gordon; Chicago Serenade.
4.00 p. m.—Pacific Vagabonds.
5.33 p. m.—Stock Market reports.
6.00 p. m.—Raising Junior; Savannah Liners orchestra; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Benrus orchestra; Phil Cook; Polly Preston.
8.00 p. m.—Pure Oil orchestra; A Musical Moment; "The Highroad of Adventure."
9.00 p. m.—Tek Music; Death Valley Days.
10.00 p. m.—Westinghouse Salute to Electrical Merchandising Dealers; Cuckoo, burlesque skit.
11.00 p. m.—Slumber Music, string ensemble.
12.00 p. m.—Phil Spitalny orchestra.

454—NEW YORK, WEAF—660

12.00 noon—Muriel Pollock and Vee Lawnhurst, piano duo, assisted by Lew Conrad, novelty vocalist; On Wings of Song.
1.00 p. m.— Pennsylvania Luncheon Music; "Modern Detective Science," Erwin J. Smith; Edna Wallace Hopper.
2.45 p. m.—Melody Three.
3.15 p. m.—Musicalities—dance orchestra; Golden Gems—Elsie Baker, contralto; Theodore Webb, baritone.
4.00 p. m.—Dancing Melodies; Auction Bridge Game.
5.00 p. m.—The Lady Next Door; Tea-Timers—dance band; Rex Cole Mountaineers.
6.05 p. m.—Black and Gold orchestra; "Who's Behind the Name?"—Edwin Alger; Black and Gold orchestra.
7.00 p. m.—"Air Scoops"—with Elinor Smith; Laws That Safeguard Society—"Principals in the First Degree." Dean Gleason L. Archer; Soconyland Sketch.
8.00 p. m.—Troika Bells—Genia Fonariova, soprano; N. Kovakoff, domra soloist; Snoop and Peep—comedy sketch; Florsheim Frolic—Coon-Sanders dance orchestra; male quartet.
9.00 p. m.—Eveready program; Happy Wonder Bakers—Phil Dewey; tenor; male trio; Singing Violins.
10.00 p. m.—Enna Jettick Songbird; Lucky Strike orchestra.
11.00 p. m.—Duke Ellington orchestra; Vincent Lopez orchestra.
12.00 p. m.—Jack Albin orchestra.

348—NEW YORK, WABC—860

6.00 p. m.—Barclay orchestra—Concert Music; Crockett Mountaineers; The Vagabonds.
7.00 p. m.—The Political Situation; Musical Aviators; The Early Book Worm—Alexander Woollcott.
8.00 p. m.—Blackstone program; Kaltenborn Edits the News; Salad Dressers.
9.00 p. m.—Henry-George; Philco Symphony Concert.
10.00 p. m.—Graybar's Mr. and Mrs.; The Gypsy Trail; Paramount-Publix Radio Playhouse.
11.15 p. m.—Yoeng's orchestra; Orchestra from Boston.
12.00 p. m.—St. Moritz orchestra; Ann Leaf at the Organ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Palace Theatre

A double-feature program which will thrill and delight Norwich audiences comes to the Palace theatre tomorrow where it will be shown through Friday of this week. The pictures which have been selected to be shown on this monster double bill are Bert Lytell in "Brothers" and "The Truth About Youth" with Loretta Young.

"The Truth About Youth," is a story of our younger generation and First National Pictures, the producers, say it is different from any similar story that has ever been screened.

Loretta Young in The Truth About Youth at Palace Wednesday

With such youthful stars as Loretta Young, who is still in her teens and David Manners, who is in his early twenties, in the cast it seems "The Truth About Youth" has been ably and tactfully cast. The elder element of the picture is capably taken care of by Conway Tearle, J. Farrell MacDonald and Myrtle Stedman. In other roles are Yola D'Avril, Myrna Loy and Ray Hallor.

"Brothers" the successful stage play of two seasons ago has been adapted for the movies by Columbia Pictures. Bert Lytell, who made the dual role famous on the stage, is playing the same parts in the screen production. The film is showing at the Palace theatre Wednesday. Other leading roles are played by Dorothy Sebastian and William Morris.

Constance Bennett in her latest hit "Sin Takes a Holiday" a comedy drama will be shown for the last times today.

Meader as Interpreter of Song.

George Meader, one of the leading tenors of the Metropolitan Opera company, who is to give the second concert of the Slater hall series this coming Friday evening, is known as an outstanding interpreter of songs. He feels that a singer who is to really get into the soul of music so as to be an interpreter worthy of the name, must know the people from which this music sprang, for music is, after all, merely the expression in tone of the soul, the emotions of a people. His long experience in the countries of Europe gave him this knowledge and Musical America said of him: "He established the right in a single recital to be named among the elect in song singers," and The Musical Courier called him "a very welcome addition in a field where there are few artists of his standard." He possesses many of the secrets of the difficult art of Leider singing of which he is a master and where he stands with very few about him.

The seat sale for this concert will be held Thursday and Friday at Cranston's. Three-quarter course tickets are still available for the remainder of the course.

Broadway Theatre.

"Remote Control," in which William Haines will make his latest talkie appearance at the Warner Bros. Broadway theatre Wednesday for a three day run, is regarded as the best-suited vehicle in which the versatile star has been seen since "Alias Jimmy Valentine."

Like the former hit, "Remote Control" combines a mystery plot with comedy situations. However, the new talkie is particularly of interest in affording Haines an hitherto unrevealed outlet for his talents as a comedian, namely, that of an impersonator of well known radio stars.

The picture, adapted from the New York stage hit, is laid "behind the scenes" in Station WPN, lending a novel atmosphere to the plot which concerns the clever direction of the activities of a band of crooks by means of a nightly broadcast of a clairvoyant's readings. Bank robberies and a spectacular holdup staged atop a fashionable hotel roof garden during the dress rehearsal of a Junior League Follies figure among the exciting incidents.

Today for the last times will be shown that great picture "War Nurse" which has been called the outstanding talking picture of the year. Don't fail to see it.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

Indigestion
gassy stomach, morning sickness quickly relieved by taking Pepsinic Seltzer
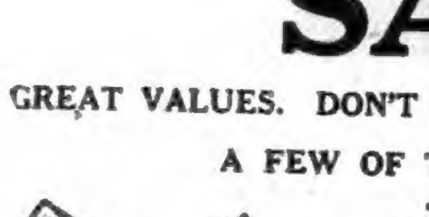
Write Worcester, Mass. for Free Sample

LOWER PRICES makes it easier to BUY NOW
High Grade Shoe SALE
GREAT VALUES. DON'T MISS THEM. COME AND SAVE
A FEW OF THE MANY VALUES



700 pairs NEW FALL NOVELTY SHOES—all the latest materials and styles; values $6.50
$3.97 - $4.77

RED CROSS, CANTILEVER, FOOT FRIEND SHOES — 15 styles to choose from; sizes 3 to 8; all widths; values to $8.50 to $12
$5.77 $6.77 $7.77

MEN'S W. L. DOUGLAS, NUNN-BUSH SHOES—high grade shoes; $6.00 to $10.00 values
$4.77 $5.77 $6.77
Model Booterie
138 MAIN STREET NORWICH, CONN.

for Coughs
Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, nationally known Cough Syrup, 55 years a household remedy. Over 100,000,000 bottles sold. Quick and dependable for Coughs, Croup (spasmodic), dry, tickling throat, troublesome night coughs. Sedative without opiates, mildly laxative. Children like it. Mothers endorse it, exactly suits Elderly Persons.
Ask for FOLEY'S, Family Size
For Sale at Lee & Osgoods.

Stops Itching and Burning
Heals Chafed, Inflamed Skin
Clears Bad Complexions
Comforting facts about the use of Resinol Soap Ointment
Sold by all druggists — — Ask for them today.
Free sample of each. Write Resinol, Dept 40, Baltimore, Md.

WARNER BROS. PALACE
—LAST TIMES TODAY—
CONSTANCE BENNETT in
"SIN TAKES A HOLIDAY"
TOMORROW — MONSTER DOUBLE BILL — 'TIL FRIDAY
"The Truth About Youth"
— With —
Loretta Young
Conway Tearle
David Manners
Myrna Loy
and Many Others
How Can a Girl Tell When She Gets the Wrong Answer to A Maiden's Prayer?

BROTHERS
Twins in Body But Strangers in Soul!
With BERT LYTELL
DOROTHY SEBASTIAN
WILLIAM MORRIS

NOW PLAYING
WARNER BROS. BROADWAY
LAST TIMES TODAY
WAR NURSE
Robert Montgomery
June Walker
A Page Written by Women in the History of the Great War
3 — DAYS, STARTING WEDNESDAY
Tune In for a Million Laughs and Thrills
William Haines
— IN —
"Remote Control"
— With —
Mary Doran, Charles King
John Miljan, Polly Moran

DANCE
UNCASVILLE AUDITORIUM
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3
Featuring
The Sensation of the East—Eddie Howard and His Admirals in Person, of Boston
DANCING—8:45 TO 12:00
Ladies 50c—Admission—Gents 75c

2nd of Slater Hall Series
MEADER
Metropolitan Opera Tenor
FRIDAY, DEC. 5th
SEAT SALE AT CRANSTON'S
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY
Tickets $2.00 each
100 Popular Priced Seats at $1.00 in Rear of Annex

BASKETBALL and DANCE
PARISH HALL, Taftville
TONIGHT at 7:30 P. M.
BATTERY E of Westerly vs. SHYMA
Shymas Jrs. vs. Baltic Bantams
Music by Musical Aces
ADMISSION 35c

DANCING
UNITED ITALIAN HALL
Washington St.
WED. NITE
Featuring
BENVENUTI
and his orchestra
Pep! Melody! Novelties
Dancing 9-12—Admission 50c

RADIOS
Atwater Kent — Majestic
Victor — Grebe
Stromberg-Carlson
Maytag Washers
Kelvinator and Majestic Refrigerators
Gulbranson Pianos
The Hanover-Curland Co.
24-34 FRANKLIN STREET

CLOUDY, COLDER TODAY;
FAIR TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

1790 1930

NORWICH, CONN., TUESDAY, DEC. 2, 1930

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1930

THE WEATHER

Conditions

Pressure is low over the Hudson straits region with a trough extending south-southeastward to Newfoundland, thence southwestward along the Atlantic coast.

The outlook is for generally fair weather in the Washington forecast district during the next two days.

Temperatures will rise Wednesday in the north Atlantic and middle Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook—Fresh to strong west and northwest winds and weather partly overcast Tuesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras—Fresh to strong northwest winds and weather partly overcast Tuesday.

Forecast

For southern New England—Partly cloudy and colder Tuesday; Wednesday fair and warmer in interior.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Monday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	50	29:80
12 m.	48	29:80
6 p. m.	34	29:00

Highest 48; lowest 34.

Comparisons

Predictions for Monday: Rain in early morning.

Monday's weather: Rain in early morning followed by generally fair, continued mild, northwest wind; colder at night.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

Day	Sun Rises a. m.	Sun Sets p. m.	High Water a. m.	Moon Rises a. m.
1 ..	6.53	4.19	6.30	2.06
2 ..	6.55	4.19	7.10	3.10
3 ..	6.56	4.19	7.49	4.19
4 ..	6.57	4.19	8.28	5.29
5 ..	6.58	4.19	9.09	rises
6 ..	6.59	4.19	9.52	4.38
7 ..	7.00	4.19	10.36	5.40

Six hours after high ater it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harrison B. Wilson

The life of Mrs. Jennie McBeth Power, the wife of Harrison B. Wilson of 576 North Main street, came to a close Monday morning at 3:55 o'clock at the Backus hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks following an operation. Mrs. Wilson was born in Scotland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Power and came to this country when a young girl and has always made her residence in Greeneville. Mrs. Wilson was united in marriage at the Greeneville Congregational church by Rev. Charles H. Ricketts. Besides her parents in the old country the deceased is survived by her husband and three sons, Russell, William and Thomas Wilson, all of this city; two brothers, Frederick Power of this city and Alex Power of Schenectady, N. Y. She was a devoted member of the Greeneville Congregational church and was also a member of the Ladies' Aid society of the church. Mrs. Wilson was the possessor of a kind and loving disposition and was always ready to assist anyone in time of trouble. She was a kind wife and mother and the home was her ideal. The deceased had a large circle of friends in this vicinity who, upon learning of her death, were grieved and in return will express their sympathy to the members of her bereaved family.

Community Workers Xmas sale, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3, at 129 Prospect street.—adv.

TAFTVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Boileau and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lanceau of Fall River, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Peltier and family of South Fifth avenue. Mr. Boileau is a former Taftville resident and during his residence here was prominent in several of the local fraternal organizations. His many friends in town were glad to have the opportunity of meeting him, as since his marriage he has made his home in Fall River.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bogle of Providence street have returned from a visit with Mrs. Bogle's father, William Brierley, of New Bedford, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walmsley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lord and the Misses Annie, Louise and Hilda Lord of Occum have returned from a brief visit in Providence, R. I.

Clifford Mell, a teacher at Rutgers university, and Lewis A. Mell, a student at the same college, have returned to New Brunswick, N. J., after a holiday and week-end visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mell, of the Baltic road.

Miss Mildred Alma Phillips has resumed her studies at the Connecticut Agricultural college at Storrs, after spending several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Coles, of Versailles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Greene and little daughter Barbara of Danielson and the former's sister, Miss Ruth Greene, of Providence, R. I., have been recent guests of Mrs. Lee Heap and family of South Second avenue.

It has been announced that the quarterly conference of the Versailles Methodist church is to be held Friday evening at the church with District Superintendent Myron Genter presiding. The church auditorium and the Sunday school room have recently been redecorated by the members of the church choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rangus of Norwich Town have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Horoszko and family of South Third avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Perkins of Occum heights have returned from a recent visit in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. John Haeberle of Occum road has sailed from New York for Germany, where she is to visit relatives for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Kate Frohmader of Occum has returned from a few days' stay in Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Carlson and their daughter, Miss Gladys Carlson of Baltic road, have returned from Hartford where they have been visiting relatives.

Miss Gertrude Topliff of Hartford spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Topliff, and family of Occum heights.

A large red fox was recently bagged in Lisbon by Carl Krauss of Blissville.

The members of one of the classes at the Versailles Methodist Episcopal church were recently organized into a club at the home of Miss Cora L. Tarbox in Occum. Officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Erna Seifert; vice-president, Miss Elizabeth Allen; secretary, Miss Annie Lord; treasurer, Miss Cora L. Tarbox. Light refreshments were served at the close of the business session.

No More Piles

How to End Terrible Agony Without Salves or Cutting

External treatments cannot permanently end Piles. Nor does cutting remove the cause.

The cause is internal—bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel. The veins are flabby—the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles an internal medicine must be used to heal and strengthen the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, a specialist, after years of study discovered a real internal Pile remedy. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1,000 patients, with the marvelous record of success in 960 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist.

Don't waste time on external remedies or think of the pain and expense of an operation until you have tried HEM-ROID. Lee and Osgood will supply you and guarantee money-back if it does not end all Pile misery.

WALLER DECISION IS SUSTAINED BY COURT

Judge Charles B. Waller of the court of common pleas is sustained by the supreme court of errors, although Justice William Maltbie registered dissenting opinion, according to a decision handed down by that court, in the case of Demetrio Chinigo against Samuel Ehrenberg, both parties of this city. Judge Waller gave judgment for Chinigo and others for $981.34 and costs of $50.33 against Ehrenberg for work performed in connection with fixing done for Ehrenberg at his home on the West Side

The majority of the supreme court, Chief Justice Wheeler, Justices Hinman and Avery concurred with Justice Banks in his opinion finding no error.

YORK ESTATE OF $17,465 LEFT TO HIS WIDOW

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—(AP)—The late Edward P. York, architect of New York, Stonington, Conn., and Princeton, N. J., left his entire estate of $17,465 to his widow. He died December 30, 1928, and a transfer tax appraisal filed today revealed the size and disposition of his fortune.

Mr. York's firm designed the recently constructed building of the federal department of commerce in Washington.

NORWICH TOWN

The December meeting of the program committee of the Woman's Department of the League of Service of the Congregational church, will be held Friday at 3 o'clock in the chapel, Mrs. Carl Holdridge (Barbara Goodenough) of Ledyard, is to be the speaker.

The Home and Foreign interests of Congregational Women of Connecticut recently united in one society, called the Congregational Women of Connecticut. The state is divided into four districts, each with its chairman, officers and committees. Mrs. Holdridge is a chairman for the eastern district which includes Windham and New London counties. Her theme will be, "Our State Organization and Its Relation to the Worker of the Local Church."

Miss Charlotte Barbour is to have charge of the meeting, assisted by others. Mrs. Holdridge's talk will not only be explanatory of the work, but inspirational as well. An informal hour of sociability will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Santo, of Plain Hill, had as guests Sunday, Mrs. Santo's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Thompson and son, Charles Henry Thompson, of Hartford, also their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ladd and their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Schroder, and the latter's son, Arthur William Schroder, all of Norwich.

POODLE SIGHTS COONS WHICH ARE SOON KILLED

About noon Monday, through the aid of a small French poodle, a Norwich Town boy sighted two raccoons in a tree on the Plain Hill road. Within five minutes they were dispatched with a shotgun. The animals weighed 13½ pounds each. Those who saw them exclaimed because they were such pretty specimens. The young man, John Marks, would like to challenge any other dog for a similar feat against this little dog.

Having spent the holiday and week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Avery, of Norwich Town, Miss Gertrude S. Avery, of India, returned Sunday to New York, to resume her special course of study; Mrs. Hollis M. French (Ruth Avery) and children, Gene Gertrude and William Avery French, returned to their home in Portland, Conn., while Reginald Avery left to resume his studies at Wesleyan university, Middletown.

Miss Lucille Browning from Boston university, who spent the week end with her father, Irving Earl Browning, returned to Boston Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary William Allen, of Sacramento, Cal., who is visiting Norwich relatives for an indefinite period, was warmly greeted at the Congregational church following Sunday morning worship. When residing in Norwich Town a number of years ago, Mrs. Allen and her husband, the late Fitch L. Allen, were most active and influential in the welfare of this church in several ways, also were members of the choir.

Misses Annie and Rose Smith, of Colchester, were guests Sunday of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Peck. Mr. and Mrs. Peck's son, Crosby Peck, returned Monday to resume his studies at Bryant-Stratton college, Providence. He was accompanied by Howard Randall, of Eagleville, who was his guest over Sunday night. Mr. Randall, a graduate of the college, is at present a member of the faculty.

Mrs. Edward Lillibridge and son, Clayton, returned to Naugatuck, Sunday, following several days' visit with relatives in Webster, Mass., Danielson and Norwich. They were accompanied home by relatives.

Miss Doris Browning, private secretary to Dr. Marvel in the athletic department at Brown university, has returned to Providence, after visiting over Sunday with her father, Irving E. Browning.

Greetings From France.

Norwich Town friends are in receipt of a card under date of Nov. 19, from Mrs. Katharine Somers Desmond, widow of Jeremiah J. Desmond, of Norwich. The card was sent from Paris, France.

Peach, cherry and plum trees in North Alabama have bloomed twice this year, due to the drought.

RIVERS AND HARBORS REPORT ON DEEPENING OF THAMES RIVER

(Special to The Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The rivers and harbors report as filed today in congress by the board of army engineers carries numerous projects of importance to Connecticut. Two of the most notable are those for improvements on the Thames river and New London harbor. The existing project for the Thames river provides for a channel 25 feet deep and 250 feet wide to the upper end of Bartlett's crossover and thence 200 feet wide to Allyn's Point; thence 18 feet deep and 200 feet wide to Norwich. Together with training walls and rip raps the estimated cost is fixed at $818,200 exclusive of amounts expended under previous projects. It provides for the construction of five training walls, with their tops at mean high water, located respectively at Mohegan, pile and stone about 2700 feet long; Trading Cove, riprap 2895 feet long; Long Rock, riprap about 2750 feet long; Rolling Mill riprap, about 3300 feet long. It also provides for the removal long. It als provides for the removal of obstructions in the Shetucket river at Norwich. There is an approved estimate for annual maintenance of $24,300.

The existing project was originated in 1882 and has been added to and continued from time to time since that date.

The report of the engineers states that the terminal facilities at Norwich are now considered adequate for the commerce. The report states that the work done has reduced the cost of water transportation by increasing available draft from 8 to 16 feet and in some places 22 feet. The river commerce of today could not be carried without the increased depth thus obtained.

The existing project on the Thames river is about 67 per cent. completed. The channels have been dredged to a 2000 feet width and 20 feet deep up to Allyn's Point; thence 18 feet deep to Sand Pier light and thence 14 feet deep to Norwich. The obstructions in Shetucket river have been remedied. Training walls are in fair condition. To complete the project requires the widening and deepening of the channel below Allyn's Point and the deepening of the channel above Sand Pier light thence to the wharves at Norwich.

The costs under the project have been $546,736.94 for new work and $163,407.98 for maintenance, making the total expenditure $858,200.68. There are unexpended funds amounting to $135,255.00 which, it is proposed to apply principally to maintenance and dredging below Allyn's Point.

The existing porject for New London harbor provides for a channel entrance 600 feet wide, 33 feet deep and about 3 1-2 miles long from Long Island sound to the natural deep water in the upper harbor; a channel 400 feet or more in width, 25 feet deep and about 6000 feet long skirting the water front of the city and dredging Shaw's cove to a depth of 15 feet. The estimated cost of the new work, exclusive of amounts expended under previous projects is $543,000. In compliance with a provision made by congress the state of Connecticut has completed at a cost of $1,000,000, the essential portions of its terminal developments, consisting of a pier 1,000 by 200 feet with suitable approaches equipped for cargo handling, etc. The total shore frontage developed is nearly 3 miles. The effect of the improvements has been to materially reduce rates on water borne freight and an increasing use of deep draft ocean going vessels. The existing project is 80 per cent. completed. The cost of the project for maintenance and expenditures reaches $496,991.

The report states the principal items of freight are coal, sugar, crude rubber, copper, lumber and fish. It is estimated about $75,000 will be required to complete the project.

Other Connecticut projects for which appropriations are made and which the report covers include the Connecticut river both above and below Hartford; Branford, Norwalk harbor, Southport harbor Eastport harbor, Duck Island harbor, Housatonic river.

Pawcatuck river gets an estimate of $150,000 for dredging, etc., in addition to any sums previously expended, providing for deeper channel touching Avondale, Westerly, and removals at Watch Hill.

Stonington harbor project was completed in 1897, no new work proposed, additional tonnage reported as result of improvements.

Mystic river project was completed in 1913 but appears in report as having channels in good condition and no new work proposed.

Exclusive of funds not already expended, there is an allotment of $90,000 immediately available to the Thames river project.

BEQUEST TO KEEP ORPHANS AT CHOCHEGAN ROCK FARM

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—The will of Nathan Becker, who died on November 4th last and was the father of Sarah Becker Frank of Norwich, Conn., on file for probate with Surrogate John P. O'Brien, leaves $5,000 to this daughter and an additional $5,000 to the executor, in trust, to quote the will:

"For a period of three years after my death, so that said sum, or such much death, so that said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied towards defraying the expense of my said daughter, Sarah Becker Frank, in taking and conveying 40 orphans to the Cochegan Rock farm, conducted by her at her home between Montville and Orange, in the state of Connecticut, and in boarding and lodging said orphans without cost or charge during the summer vacation seasons, or such other times as may be deemed best."

Other bequests are: William F. Becker, son, $20,000 and one-third of residue; Louis Becker, son, $15,000, and one-third of residue; David F. Becker, son, $10,000 and the remaining third share of the residue; Ida E. Becker, widow of testator, $10,000, all of 645 West End avenue; Dora R. Westerman, daughter, No. 570 West 204th street, $5,000; Ray Becker Levy of No. 481 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Frances Becker of No. 645 West End avenue here, daughters, each $5,000.

As yet no date has been set for the proving of the document, which was executed on May 28, 1926 and names William F. Decker, son, as the executor of the estate, the exact value of which will not be known until, under the direction of the court, the property is appraised for inheritance taxation.

JURY CASES COMING BEFORE JUDGE INGLIS

Judge Ernest A. Inglis will preside today (Tuesday) for the first time in the superior court in this city where jury cases have been assigned and the court session is expected to open with the trial of two damage suits because of automobile accident injuries, those of William LaBounty, admr., vs. Silva et al, and Jeanne LaBounty vs. the same defendants.

The following is the assignment list: Tuesday, December 2, William LaBounty, Admr. vs. Silva, et al. Jeanne LaBounty vs. Silva, et al. Sigorina vs. Paparella. Awezec vs. Woodworth. Gladue vs. Wade. Washburn, et al. vs. Hill, et al., Exrs., appeal from probate. Downey vs. Connecticut Power Co., et al.

Wednesday, December 3, Edward Raymond, et al. vs. May Etta Raymond. H. Hess vs. Main, Jr., et al. T. Hess vs. Main, Jr., et al. C. H. Shepard vs. Main, Jr., et al. R. F. Shepard vs. Main, Jr., et al. Berardi vs. Schwartz, et al. Trask vs. Hanover.

Thursday, December 4, Morton Admx., vs. Augusta, Jr. Hess vs. Hannon. Lazinsk vs. Kunkel. Beckwith vs. Starkweather. Williams vs. Proulx.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALES FOR ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS WORK

In the distribution of Christmas seals by the Norwich committee which the public is asked to purchase in order to support the anti-tuberculosis work, it is stated that this is the only fund raised in Norwich for this purpose and that it furnishes milk to the undernourished, clinical advice to the anxious, nursing and sanatorium care to the needy and information to the ignorant.

Of every dollar coming from the sale of the Christmas seals, 85 cents is spent in Norwich and on Norwich residents only, five cents goes to the national organization and ten cents which is given to the state tuberculosis commission purchases the supplies.

The officers and members of the Norwich tuberculosis seal committee are the following: Mrs. Richard B. Snow, chairman; Miss Kate M. MacKenzie; secretary, Harold P. Hull, treasurer, Miss Edith E. Young, Mrs. Leonard O. Smith, Mrs. James L. Case, Dr. Hugh B. Campbell, Dr. Edward J. Brophy, Philip A. Johnson, John A. Cunningham, Charles R. Butts, Rev. Frederick R. DesSureault, Mrs. Albert H. Chase, Mrs. Grosvenor Ely, Mrs. C. C. Gildersleeve, William S. Murray, Robert W. Perkins, Frank B Ricketson, Mrs. Philip T. Welles.

MAKING VISIT AT YE REDDE GATE FARME

Herbert F. Brown of 54 Geer avenue is with his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Grant, at Ye Redde Gate Farme in Lebanon. Mr. Grant is erecting a large cow barn and some smaller buildings for the housing of farm implements.

The question is often discussed in Lebanon as well as in other sections: "Is it possible to 'bring back' an old abandoned farm, successfully and profitably?" Some argue in the affirmative, many say it is a hopeless task. The concensus of opinion generally is that it may be possible for as they say "Grant did it", and in five years time.

MORE MEMBERSHIPS IN RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The following are additional contributors in the annual membership roll call of Norwich chapter of the American Red Cross:

Annual—A. Stuart Kelsey, Mrs. Irene C. Kelsey, Mrs. Jerome Theve, L. E. Peckham, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Leslie L. Brewer, Thames Bank & Trust Co., Mrs. F. C. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Brophy, Dr. E. J. Brophy, Miss Nellie S. Howie, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Geer, Leonard E. Harris, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Higgins.

JUDGMENT FOR BASILE IN SUM OF $125

In a suit brought for $300 damages by Joseph Basile of this city, a barber, against Morris Fox, judgment has been given for $125 for Basile by Judge C. B. Waller in the common pleas court.

Basile alleges that he purchased a load of wood on April 4, 1927, from Fox, the latter delivering it at his (Basile's) home. Basile claimed that while he was in the cellar, about to open the cellar window, Fox threw a piece of wood off the wagon, which struck the cellar window, breaking it. The shattered glass caused Basile's finger to be cut and he alleges that he was unable to perform his regular duties as barber for a period of time, at which he netted $50 a week.

Attorney Thomas M. Shields represented Basile at the trial while Attorney V. P. A. Quinn was counsel for Fox.

It's Christmas Now At Cranston's

CHRISTMAS GIFTS Made Attractive
— With —
Gift Wrappings

FANCY TISSUES
TISSUE TIES
SEALS, TAGS, CARDS,
TINSEL CORD and RIBBON
COLORED TISSUES
WHITE TISSUE
PLAIN WHITE PAPER

Excellent Values
Latest Designs
— at —
CRANSTON'S
25 BROADWAY

It's Christmas Now At Cranston's

CITY PINOCHLE LEAGUE WILL CONTINUE PLAY

The teams in the City Pinochle league will meet with the Lafayette club this (Tuesday) evening, the schedule being as follows:

First half—Thermos vs. Swedish club; Eagles vs. Italians; West Side vs. Icy Hot; Lafayette club vs. Duwells. Second half—Lafayette club vs. Icy Hot; West Side vs. Duwells; Eagles vs. Swedish club; Thermos vs. Italians.

High individual scores last week were made by J. Bontempo, Italians, 7,935 ,and P. Howard, Thermos, 7,925.

CALVIN WILCOX IN PHI DELTA KAPPA

Calvin E. Wilcox, principal of the enter district schools of Windsor, has been accepted as a member of the national honorary educational society of Phi Delta Kappa. This is a national honorary society, electing to its membership men who have made outstanding achievement in their educational pursuits or studies.

Mr. Wlcox has the distinction of being the first graduate to complete a course of studies in the Springfield division of Boston university.

Workmen's Compensation Approved

The following workmen's compensation agreements have been approved by Commissioner A. J. Bailey:

Baltic Mills Co., employer and Harry Sargent, Baltic, employe; lacerated and crushed hard on Nov. 5, at rate of $5.

Dart and Bogue, Inc., employer, and Harry C. Bogue, Montville, employe, injured foot on Oct. 20, at rate of $16.20.

Yellow Cab Co., employer, and James Foley, New London, employe; scratched hand, blood poisoning on Oct. 4, at rate of $11.

Paid $3 in City Court

In the city court Monday morning the case of Eugene L. Curtiss, colored, of New London was nolled on payment of $3 when he was charged with having broken the state motor vehicle law by driving without having his operator's license with him. He drove his machine on Sunday to the left of the mushroom beacon in Thames square.

SCOUT EXECUTIVE BOARD HEARS REGIONAL CHIEF

At a meeting of the executive board of the Eastern Connecticut Council, Boy Scouts of America, held Monday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms, Deputy Regional Chief George Felker spoke briefly upon the extension of scouting in this territory and highly praised the members of the board for the progress which has been made during the past year. Following the minutes of the previous meeting held October 13, a repart of progress was given by Dr. R. R. Agnew on the new camp site. President H. D. Larrabee expressed his appreciation of what had already been accomplished in the building of a cabin and a vote of thanks was extended to all those who have manifested an interest in the building of the cabin, including the Misses Lucas, W. S. Spencer, Charles W. Burton, Dr. W. T. Browne, Chris Gallup, Charles R. Butts and others.

Harold Robbins was introduced as the campaign manager for the coming Boy Scout campaign which will probably be held in the second week of February in connection with the activities of anniversary week. Mr. Robbins spoke briefly of his plans of forming a committee and of his visit to New London to attend the opening dinner of the Boy Scout campaign in that city, which is now nearing a successful close, and predicted that with the cooperation of the citizens of Norwich the campaign this year will again be a success.

Charles B. Gilbert reported on training, James Pedace on publicity, Superintendent E. J. Graham reported on the progress of scouting in the schools, H. M. Lerou reported on civic service, Scout Commissioner A. L. Peale reported on the progress of troops.

Among those present at the meeting were: Charles V. James C. B. Gilbert, J. V. Pedace, Arthur L. Peale, Rev. A. H. Abbott, H. M. Lerou, E. J. Graham, Dr. R. R. Agnew, Rev. T. M. Shepherd, Harold D. Larrabee, F. H. Wyant, George Felker, John L. Sch-

20 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS
DEC.
2

COUGH "MELTED AWAY"

"Jackie was out in real pneumonia weather and caught a nasty-sounding cough. Immediately I put Jack to bed and started treatment with Smith Brothers' Cough Syrup. It soothed and relieved him. The cough seemed to melt away. In the morning there wasn't a sign of a cough left." Mrs. W. Roby, 13608 Emily Street, Cleveland, O.

Triple Action
ONLY 35¢
SMITH BROTHERS'
TRADE MARK
COUGH SYRUP

Schwartz Bros. Inc.

Ideal Gifts Are

CEDAR CHESTS

Lane Walnut Veneer Chest

One of the most sensational values of year The movie stars have selected this chest as the most beautiful from a group of Hollywood models.
An ideal hope chest priced at $29.75

Lane 40-in. Size Chest

A really wonderful gift suggestion. Moth proof and dust proof! Built with aromatic cedar lining and priced for Christmas at $12.95

Window Seat Style

A most charming gift suggestion and an outstanding feature for early Christmas shoppers. A marvelous value at only $19.75

It's Exquisite

$36.75

A very beautiful piece of furniture and one that is exceptionally useful as well. Large size and walnut veneered.

$1.00

Delivers a LANE CEDAR CHEST to Your Home

SCHWARTZ BROS., Inc.

MAKERS of HAPPY HOMES

76-84 MAIN ST.
NORWICH, CONN.

COMPLETE HOME FURNISHERS

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXXII—No. 289 NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1930—12 PAGES CIRCULATION MORNING AND [redacted] PRICE TWO CENTS

HOOVER OUTLINES VIEWS IN MESSAGE TO CONGRESS; DAVIS SEATED IN SENATE

The President Asks $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to Accelerate Construction For Employment Relief — Urges Strengthening of Deportation Laws So As to More Fully Rid Ourselves of Criminal Aliens—Points Out Absolute Necessity to Avoid Increase of Government Expenditures —Calls Attention to the Narrow Margin Surplus in Prospect For the 1932 Fiscal Year—President Hoover's Budget Message Will Be Read in the House Today

(Complete Text of President Hoover's Message to Congress is Printed on Page Nine).

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.— (AP) — Congress went to work today with its attention centered on unemployment and drought relief after pasing to hear President Hoover's views outlined in his annual message.

Republicans and democrats heaped varied forms of relief remedies into the legislative funnel through the day and tonight the committee chairmen were calling meetings for later in the week to organize a definite program for handling them.

In his message President Hoover asked for $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to accelerate construction for employment relief, and a fund for seed and feed loans for farmers whose crops fried up.

He pointed to an estimated deficit for the present fiscal year and a narrow surplus margin in prospect for the 1932 fiscal year and said:

"I cannot emphasize too strongly the absolute necessity to defer any other plans for increase of government expenditures. . . . Most rigid economy is therefore necessary to avoid increase in taxes."

The president's recommendations were heard with customary silence in the senate. In the house the republicans stood and applauded at its conclusion but a number remained seated with the democrats.

One of the first bills offered in the senate was by Senator Glenn, republican, Illinois, to authorize the $150,000,000 emergency funds requested by the president to be used in speeding public buildings construction and inland waterways improvements.

But the outburst of democratic criticism in the senate which followed announcement of Mr. Hoover's program augured stormy days ahead on the shaping of unemployment legislation. The democrats generally condemned the president for not going further in his recommendations.

On drought relief there appeared to be some accord. Both Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, and Senator McNary, republican, of Oregon, offered bills to provide a $60,000,000 loan fund for farmers in the drought-stricken areas to be used in the purchase of seed and fertilizer. As chairman of the agriculture committee, Senator McNary said he would call the group together later in the week to take up this legislation.

The quick disposition of the controversy over the right of Senator Davis, of Pennsylvania, to his seat, cleared the way in the senate for work and it tackled its task immediately upon hearing the presidential message.

The house bill for regulation of motor bus traffic was taken up under the direction of Senator Cousens, republican, Michigan. Several days of debate are ahead on this.

Tomorrow, the annual budget message from President Hoover, outlining his recommendations for expenditures during the coming year, will be read to the house. That branch intends to go to work immediately afterward on the first of the appropriation bills that for the treasury and post office departments.

Tomorrow also, Mr. Hoover intends to send up the first of a great number of nominations and in the disposition of these the senate will have plenty to keep it busy for several days

Another high point of controversy demanding solution at this session—the row between the senate and the house over Muscle Shoals—receives attntion tomorrow.

Senator McNary, chairman of the conferees on this legislation, has called a meeting and he intends to insist upon a vote by the house upon the senate's resolution for government operation. The house has passed a bill for private operation.

The house republican steering committee failed today to agree upon a program.

INFORMS CONGRESS OF LOAD PLACED ON VETERANS' BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. — (AP) — Frank T. Hines asked congress today to measure the load it has placed upon the veterans' bureau.

Devoting much of his annual report to a discussion of some of the new burdens imposed by recent veterans legislation, the administrator requested a definition of future policies for giving relief to veterans who receive disabilities outside service.

Although the government has more than enough hospital beds for veterans injured in service, he said new applications for hospitalization of non-service connected disabilities were bringing a constantly increasing pressure.

With a potential load of 4,000,000 veterans, he said, "it is apparent to what proportions this may extend if it is to be the policy x x x to give non-service—connected cases a mandatory right x x x to hospitalization."

Additional facilities would be required, he continued, and preliminary studies "indicate a future obligation which far overshadows our whole experience to date" because of congressional provision for hospitalization of veterans of all wars in need of treatment regardless of the origin of their disabilities."

Hines recommended further developed of a veterans' employment service, citing the action of congress in launching this work in cooperation with the department of labor with a $22,000 appropriation. He said facilities have been established in 18 states and $100,000 was available for this year's work.

Expansion of the bureau's activities because of the provision for payment of disability allowance was predicted.

NO VICTORY DINNER BECAUSE OF PRESENT UNEMPLOYMENT

GREENWICH, Dec. 2—(AP)—William L. Tierney, congressman-elect, from the fourth Connecticut district and who will succeed Congressman Schuyler Merritt, was to have been given a victory dinner by the democrats of Fairfield county. He has sent a letter to many of those who were sopnsors for the dinner, and to William S. Meany, who is chairman of the committee, asking that the dinner be given up in view of the unemployment situation.

CINCINNATI TO HAVE BUT ONE MORNING NEWSPAPER

CINCINNATI, Dec. 2—(AP)—The Cincinnati Enquirer tonight announced the purchase of the business and good will of the Commercial Tribune, founded here in 1793. Tomorrow morning's issue of the Tribune will be the last.

The Enquirer, which now becomes the city's only morning newspaper, was launched 89 years ago.

It was announced that the street price of the Enquirer here will be reduced from five to three cents.

LOANS TO 'CHANGE MEMBERS LOWEST EVER REPORTED

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP) —Collateral loans to members of the New York stock exchange declined $393,873,985 last month to a total of $2,162,243,002 at the close of business Nov. 29. The total was the lowest ever reported. Nov. 30 last year these loans amounted to $4,016,595,760.

RESCUE OF CREW OF 35 OF NORWEGIAN STEAMER

HOLYHEAD, Eng., Dec. 2—(AP)—Thirty-five men composing the crew of the Norwegian steamer Asmund were saved tonight by coast guardsmen after the vessel rammed into rocks.

Their rescue was credited to a minister, the Rev. H. H. Jones, who was walking along the coast with a woman parishioner when he happened to see, through a dense fog over the Irich channel, the Asmund go on the rocks

The minister ran half a mile to the nearest telephone and reported the accident to the Holyhead coastguard station. Rockets were sent up to reassure the imperiled mariners, while lifeboats and livesaving equipment were rushed to the scene.

Three of the cre wwere taken ashore by lifelines and the others in a lifeboat,

The Asmund, bound from Novorossivsk to Manchester, struck the rocks at high tide and this made her release extremely difficult.

WAITERS ONLY MEN PRESENT AT LADY ASTOR'S DINNER

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Ladies of high degree, representing almost every branch of human endeavor were guests tonight at a dinner and reception in the home of Nancy, Lady Astor, at which waiters were the only men present and that was a mistake.

There were women high in law, medicine, politics, business, diplomacy, literature, arts, aviation and even in crime detection amogn the 36 dinner guests and the 400 who later attended the reception.

Since there were no men present, it was not learned what the women talk about when they are with each other, but it was revealed that that there were no speeches scheduled, thus leaving the guests free to talk when they liked, listen when they liked or all talk at once.

LINGLE SLAYER TO BE IN CUSTODY WITHIN FORTNIGHT

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—(AP)—The killer of Alfred J. Lingle, crime reporter for the Chicago Tribune, will be in custody within a fortnight, Chief Investigator Pat Roche indicated today as the trial of Frank Foster for the murder, was abruptly terminated.

Roche would not elaborate on his statement. It was understood however, that the investigators had been in communication with gangsters who had disclosed the hiding place of the assassin who shot the reporter to death in a Michigan boulevard pedestrian subway six months ago.

Trial of Foster, whose implication in the murder was traced to the revolver he once owned, was postponed until February 16.

LONGEST SCHEDULED WATER HOP IN THE WORLD

MIAMI, Dec. 2—(AP)—Airmail and passenger service on the longest scheduled water hop in the world was inaugurated today as a seaplane of Pan-American Airways left Miami for Cristobal, Canal Zone, via Cienfuego Cuba and Kingston, Jamaica.

Passengers were not carried on the initial flight, which is scheduled to end at Cristobal tomorrow night after a 634 mile over-water flight from Kingston.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

CORUNNA, Spain, Dec. 2—(AP)—Five members of the crew of the fishing smack Maria Carmen perished when the boat foundered during a storm off the town of Sada.

LONDON, Dec. 2—(AP)—Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army in America sailed for home today, but in the midst of her preparations last night she related her "pedigree" to 2,000 Salvationists who assembled to bid her farewell.

GENEVA, Dec. 2—(AP)—Completing tonight its task of drafting a general disarmament scheme for consideration by a world conference, the preparatory commission invited the council of the league of nations to set a date for this momentous assembly of statesmen.

SAIGON, French Indo China, Dec. 2—(AP)—Captain Goulette and Pilot Jean LaLouette, French aviators who on November 13 set an aerial record of five days, three hours, 50 minutes flying time between Paris and Saigon, started their return trip yesterday and reached Bangkok at 12:30 p. m. They hope to reach Paris December 8.

JUDGE BROWN DENIES PETITION OF LEVITT

HARTFORD, Dec. 2.— (AP) —Judge Allyn L. Brown, of the superior court, denied this evening the petition of Albert Levitt, of Redding, for an order to have the attorney general show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court for failing to carry out the provisions of Judge Newell Jennings' mandamus writ ordering him to proceed against the public utilities commissioners for their removal from office as a result of their alleged neglect to carry out the grade crossings elimination law.

Judge Brown also denied Mr. Levitt's motion to disallow the appeal taken by the attorney general from Judge Brown's refusal to grant a new hearing on the madamus action.

The court ruled, however, that the attorney general's pending appeal does not serve as a stay of execution of the original order by Judge Jennings commanding acation against the commissioners by March 20, 1930, which was stayed by the original appeal does not serve as a stay of execution of the original order by Judge Jennings commanding action against the commissioners by March 20, 1930, which was stayed by the original appeal to the supreme court of errors.

TROUBLE OVER FORMING MINISTRY IN AUSTRIA

VIENA, Dec. 2—(AP)—Dr. Otto Ender tonight gave up his effort to form a government and will return to his home in Vorarlberg.

Dr. Ender, a member of the Christian social party, was designated by President Miklas Sunday to form a cabinet, but immediately ran into difficulties. This arose principally because of Dr. Johann Schober's newly formed economic bloc, which obtained 10 mandates in the recent nationalrat election and thus held the balance of power.

In Dr. Ender's first negotiations the fascist Heimwehr were to be included, and with this development Dr. Schober demanded the ministry of the interior, which includes control of the police.

The fascists later were dropped from the proposed coalition and Dr. Schober switched his demand to the portfolio of foreign affairs, which Dr. Ignaz Seipel also sought.

HOPES FOR LEGISLATION TO PROTECT WILD ANIMAL LIFE

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—(AP)— Hope that congress would approve at the present session necessary legislation to protect wild animal life in large areas of wilderness, was expressed by United States Senator Frederick C. Walcott of Connecticut, in an address tonight to the American game conference.

"The conservation of our useful wild animal resources — mammals, birds and fishes—has assumed an importance in the mind of the public undreamed of a generation ago," he said.

JUDGE BROWN ORDERS GRAND JURY IMPANELLED

HARTFORD, Dec. 2.— (AP) —Judge Allyn L. Brown of the superior court this afternoon ordered a grand jury impanelled for Thursday at 10 a. m., to hear the case of George Patnode, Hartland farmer, accused of the murder of Miss Jennie V. Carr, of that town, on October 13. Patnode was arrested by state police after allegedly shooting Miss Carr with a shotgun in the barn on the property of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lichdi.

TWO U. OF T. STUDENTS EXPELLED FOR DRINKING

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 2—(AP)—Expulsion of two students from the University of Texas for their part in drinking which led to the death of Mrs. Mildred Woodruff, 24 year old San Antonio widow, in Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity house Friday, was announced today by V. I. Moore, dean of men.

Dean Moore declined to give their names.

HINCKS ENDORSED FOR FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. — Senator Bingham today recommended to President Hoover the appointment of Carroll C. Hincks of Waterbury for judge of the 1st district federal court to succeed Warren Barrows who resigned. Senator Walcott also warmly endorses the appointment of Mr. Hincks.

MAYOR WM. T. DILLON OF HOLYOKE RE-ELECTED

HOLYOKE, Mass., Dec. 2. — (AP) — Mayor William T. Dillon was reelected at the city election here today by a majority of 2539 over former Mayor Fred G. Burnham. The vote stood: Dillon, 11,549; Burnham, 9,010. The candidates here run without party designation. There were 30 candidates for the office of aldermen-at-large with only seven vacancies to be filled.

BANK ROBBERS GET $5,000 AT CLERMONT, FLA.

CLERMONT, Fla., Dec. 2—(AP)—Two bandits forced an assistant cashier and a bookkeeper into the vault and robbed the Citizens bank of Clermont of approximately $5,000 today.

Another robber remained in an automobile near the bank in which the robbers fled.

Fear Spread Of Coal Strike To Gt. Britain

Secretary of Coal Miners' Union Says Scotland Cannot Be Left Alone in the Struggle

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Fear ran high tonight that the strike in the Scottish coal fields will spread throughout the coal fields of Great Britain.

"Scotland cannot be let alone in the struggle," said A. J. Cook, powerful secretary of the Miners' federation.

His statement was made after receipt of word from Glasgow that at a conference of miners' leaders it was decided the strike should continue. Another disquieting fact was that delegates from Ayrshire, where the men have continued at work, promised to endeavor to bring the miners in their area in line with the strikers.

The next important step in the situation as a whole is expected Thursday, when a conference of national union delegates meets in London. At the Glasgow meeting it was voted to place the position of the Scottish miners before the conference.

"The national conference on Thursday," said Cook, "must decide whether Scotland is to remain out or make a settlement. It cannot let Scotland stay out without doing something to support it. That question is for Thursday's conference to decide."

He expressed the opinion that before a national general strike could be called a vote would have to be taken of all mine workers in the British coal fields.

The principal point of issue is the hours of work, the miners objecting to the proposition of the owners that a 90-hour fortnight go into effect. They demand a flat seven and one-half hour day. The owners contend the only alternative to the 90-hour, or spread-over system, is a reduction in wages.

At the Glasgow conference today a modification of the spread-over system was reported to have been offered by the owners. Under this plan the owners would agree to pay the existing wage scale over a six weeks' period of temporary agreement, during which no miner would be called upon to work more than 11 eight-hour days in two weeks.

Hopes and fears as to the general situation now center on Thursday's conference, and tonight the fears predominated.

FOUR HUNTERS BURNED TO DEATH IN ISOLATED CABIN

EAST OTIS, Mass., Dec. 2. —(AP)— Four hunters were burned to death and eight others injured as fire destroyed an isolated cabin on the rim of Larkin pond early today.

The charred bodies of the victims were not recovered until the fire had burned itself out. Apparently, they were trapped in their sleep and had no chance of escape. The injured, all occupants of the second floor, leaped from windows, scantily clad, while the temperature hovered just above zero.

The dead:

Otto Rittner and Joseph Genst both of New Britain, Conn., and Thomas Hill and Daniel Reilly, both of Shelton, Conn.

The injured, all of whom required hospital treatment, were Joseph Morley, Matthew Mazelka, R. Vincent, William Zinitulachiah, John Skritulksy, Carl Batschekun and Howard Kiely, all of New Britain; Fred Preston, of Canaan, Conn., and Edward Preston, of Ansonia, Conn.

Police were inclined to the belief that an overheated stove caused the fire, although it might have originated from an oil stove, an open fireplace or a gasoline engine.

OPPOSITION AMONG DRYS TO A PROHIBITION REFERENDUM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.— (AP)— An increasing opposition among the dry forces to proposals for a prohibition referendum, and a contention that the liquor problem, regardless of prohibition, will still exist a thousand years from now, were two of today's forecasts.

Ernest H. Cherrington, secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism, said in a statement that dry leaders would insist that if there were a referendum on the eighteenth amendment there should also be a referendum on all 19 amendments as well as the constitution itself.

SENATOR-ELECT MORROW TO TAKE OFFICE OATH TODAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. — (AP) — Dwight W. Morrow came to Washington today to take his seat in the senate as a member from New Jersey.

He will present himself for the oath of office tomorrow.

Morrow takes the place of Senator Baird in completing the unexpired term of Walter E. Edge, ambassador to France. On next March 4, he begins a six-year term of his own.

Mrs. Morrow accompanied the senator-elect and she will be the only member of the family present when he is sworn.

TWO ARMY FLIERS SAVED BY THEIR PARACHUTES

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Dec. 2—(AP)—Two army fliers took to their parachutes today, when their planes collided 3,000 feet in the air during maneuvers near Selfridge field. Lieuts. E. H. Underhill and Llewellyn Ryan came down safely with their parachutes. The planes were wrecked.

Interest In Meeting Of Reichstag Today

All Germany Awaits Reception of President Von Hindenburg's Decrees For Financial Program

BERLIN, Dec. 2—(AP)—Heavy forces of police were concentrated tonight in preparation for tomorrow's reconvening of the reichstag, for the authorities are taking no chances of the disorder attending the fall opening being repeated.

When the reichstag went into session Oct. 13, fresh from elections in which fascists and communists made wide gains, stormy scenes marked the proceedings inside and rioters smashed windows outside.

Hence the police are taking nothing for granted tomorrow and strong forces of both foot and mounted police will be thrown around the parliament building.

What will happen in the reichstag chamber after 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon was a question weighing on German minds tonight. President Von Hindenburg yesterday signed decrees which placed the drastic Bruening financial program into effect as law of the land, and tomorrow's meeting is to determined what the legislative body will do about it.

The reichstag could revoke the presidential decrees, but in view of Chancellor Bruening's determination to set Germany's finances in order—with or without parliament — that would be tantamount to daring him to enter an out-and-out dictatorship.

Social democratic leaders already have indicated that their party is not inclined to help precipitate a dictatorship, hence the cabinet feels confident that its most outspoken enemies—the fascists, communists and nationalists—will be unable to muster enough votes for revocation.

What would be the outcome of a non-confidence motion against the Bruening regime is, however, another question. That would bring up the possibility of resignation of the cabinet.

Hence there are three possibilities —approval by the reichstag of the Hindenburg decree, which would mean approval of something in which the legislature did not participate; revocation, in which the chancellor might obtain presidential authority to dissolve the reichstag and call new elections, thus bringing a temporary dictatorship; and a vote of non-confidence, the outcome of which would be difficult to estimate.

13 MASSACHUSETTS CITIES ELECT MUNICIPAL OFFICERS

BOSTON, Dec. 2.— (AP) — Thirteen Massachusetts cities selected their municipal officers today. They were Quincy, Fall River, Taunton, Peabody, New Bedford, Attleboro, Gloucester, Salem, Newburyport, Holyoke, Haverhill, Leominster and Gardner.

Salem did not select its mayor but the councillor fights were bitter contests with the feature the defeat of Omer P. Theriault, city councillor for 14 years and former president of the council, in ward 5, by Edmond Talbot, Jr., won.

In New Bedford, Mayor Charles S Ashley, non-partisan, was re-elected and will start his 25th term and 27th year as mayor on January 1. His opponents were Charles F. Archambault, Edward R. Hathaway and George Blake. Hathaway, a former mayor, is the only man who ever defeated Ashley for the office.

The narrow margin of 55 votes returned Mayor Forrest V. Smith to office in Haverhill in an election that brought out 74 per cent of the registered voters.

LIFE TERMER ESCAPES FROM PENITENTIARY GUARD

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 2.— (AP)— Rose Castle, an escaped convict from the state penitentiary at Lansing, Kans., and life termer at Joliet prison, escaped from an Illinois state penitentiary guard today as he was being taken to a railroad station to return to prison.

Asking for something to eat, he was taken into a restaurant. The instant his hands were freed, he dashed to the door and escaped in the crowd.

Castle once led a prison mutiny at Lansing. He plotted a jail-break here recently after his partner, Fred Cubit, was killed in an attempt to escape from the county jail. Castle had pleaded guilty to assault upon a custodian of the mails in a postal sub-station and was sentenced to ten years today.

HUSBAND TO TESTIFY AGAINST HIS WIFE

DENVER, Dec. 2—(AP)—The state tomorrow will take the testimony of a husband against his wife in its efforts to convict Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin on a murder charge in connection with the death of her 10 year old stepdaughter, Leona.

The procedure has no direct parallel in Colorado law but a recent ruling of the Colorado supreme court will be cited to enable Leo O'Loughlin, 42, a city detective, to take the stand in the trial of his wife.

GASOLINE FILLING STATION HOLD-UP IN WATERBURY

WATERBURY, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Louis H. Sachs, manager of the Bunker Hill gasoline filling station, this city, was held up at the point of a revolver tonight by one of two bandits, the other bandit remaining at the wheel of their automobile. Only $10 in the cash register was taken.

GOV. TRUMBULL AND WARDEN REED DEFEND STATE PRISON CONDITIONS

WETHERSFIELD, Dec. 2. — (AP) — Warden Charles S. Reed, of the Connecticut state prison at Wethersfield today described as "false, malicious and slanderous" charges that prisoners at the institution have been subjected to brutal and inhumane treatment.

Appearing as the principal witness in the final public session before the governor's committee, which is inquiring into the administration of the prison, Warden Reed specifically denied that prisoners in solitary confinement cells were shackled to the bars with their hands above their heads. This charge was made in a recent newspaper article by Rev. Dr. William S. Smith of Schenectady, N. Y., former chaplain at the prison, who

(Continued on Page Nine).

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Narcotics estimated to be worth $75,000 were fished out of the Big Miami river at Hamilton, O., police announced.

Work for the unemployed of New Haven will be made possible through a $200,000 bond issue authorized by the board of aldermen.

Vaccination of children against smallpox before they are a year old was recommended by the United States public health service.

Charles Paddock, formerly the world's greatest sprinter, and his fiancee, Mrs. Neva Prisk Malaby, filed notice in Los Angeles of intention to wed.

The Greenwich board of estimate has appropriated $190,000 to be used in highway work and other projects as a means of relieving local unemployment.

Walter E. Edge, American ambassador to France, began yesterday a series of conferences with state department officials on Franco-American relations.

The West Coast Cultural league, a women's organization, objected to sun bathers loiling about St. Petersburg, Fla., beaches allegedly without bathing costumes.

North Dakota Indians won their ten-year fight to recover more than $2,000,000 for lands they alleged were wrongfully taken from them 60 years ago by the government.

Ambassador De Martino of Italy said in a statement in Washington that his country had not applied for a loan in the United States and did not contemplate such action.

Higher gasoline taxes will be sought in 16 of the 44 states whose legislatures meet early in 1931, the American Petroleum institute said in reporting the results of a recent national survey.

All nominations made by President Hoover since congress adjourned last summer, with the possible exception of the federal power commissioners, will be sent to the senate at noon today.

A proposed ordinance forbidding the sale of wood alcohol in certain preparations, was approved by the board of health in Waterbury and sent to the corporation counsel for consideration.

The composite production of 17 principal crops was estimated by the bureau of agricultural economics to be 6 per cent smaller than in 1929 and 5 per cent less than the 1919-28 ten-year average.

Posses watched roads in northern Oklahoma and southern Kansas for a bandit believed to have kidnaped two Hunnewell, Kans., possemen after robbing the First National bank of Braham of $2,500.

All available places for employment in the $207,000 program of Yale university, put into effect to aid in relief of unemployment, have been filled. In all, the university reports it has engaged 411 men.

Three Weakley county banks that closed a few days ago re-opened yesterday. They are the Weakley County bank in Dresden, Tenn., the Bank of Martin at Martin and the City-State bank at Martin.

Three unidentified men were killed and 16 other transients were overcome by gas fumes when a freight train stopped in a 2,900-foot tunnel, between Oakridge and Westfir, Ore. The fumes came from the engine.

A party of archaeologists and explorers sent out by the University of Pennsylvania left Miami, Fla., yesterday in a chartered airplane to study ancient ruins of the Mayas in Central America and Mexico.

The Ricci boys, violinist prodigies, over whose custody court battles had been fought in several states, are to stay permanently with their parents, by the terms of a supreme court decision handed down in New York.

John A. Markham, democratic representative from Hartford re-elected last month, announced that he would accede to the wishes of friends who have urged him to be a candidate for minority leader of the 1931 house.

Robert T. "Bobby" Jones of Atlanta, Ga., the world's foremost golfer who recently announced his retirement from further tournament play, has been elected a director of the Public Indemnity Co., a casualty insurance firm.

A plea that "the best minds" of the nation seek the means of ridding America of unemployment was made last night by Patrick Cardinal Hayes, Archbishop of New York, in a radio address over Station WEAF and a national hookup.

Grizzly bears, moose and caribou in the United States have grown steadily fewer since 1925 but six other species of large wild game have multiplied, Dr. William B. Bell, of the U. S. bureau of biological survey, told the American Game conference.

Mexican mail order divorces received a blow in New York when the appellate division of the supreme court in an unanimous decision reversed an order by which a man thus divorced had sought to compel issuance of a license to wed another woman.

Stanley Resor, president of the J. Walter Thompson Co., advertising concern, will speak on "The Public Response to Advertising" in the second lecture on the Block foundation of Yale university, which will be open to the public in Harkness hall, New Haven, on Dec. 8, at 5 p. m.

The trophy which Sir Thomas Lipton, as "The World's Best Loser," will receive Thursday from the American people was displayed in New York publicly for the first time yesterday. It is an 18-karat gold cup, standing on a sterling silver base, the whole trophy 18 inches high.

"If Roger Williams were living he would be on the black list of the Daughters of the American Revolution," Prof. Robert E. Rogers, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, declared at the tenth anniversary banquet of the Colonial Daughters of America in Providence.

SENATE PROPOSALS EXCEED RELIEF RECOMMENDATIONS

Measures Introduced Are Far Outside the Bounds Prescribe in the Presidential Message—Brookhart Proposed to Increase Appropriations For Roads From $125,000,000 to $500,000,000 Annually During 1932 and 1933—Bingham Introduced a Bill For the Sale of 4 Per Cent Beer and to Allow Physicians to Prescribe Malt Liquors For Beverage Purposes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—The legislative boundary lines charted by President Hoover for unemployment and drought relief were well trodden today by legislators as they carried proposal sfar outside the bounds prescribed in the presential message.

Relief plans made up a large portion of the legislative proposals in the senate, where introduction of bills was in order for the first time.

Senators introduced 322 bills and a dozen resolutions, touching on subjects ranging from prohibition to bridges and private relief measures.

The president's message had hardly been read before Senator Glenn, republican, Illinois, introduced a bill to carry out his recommendations for an emergency unemployment relief fund of $150,000,000 to speed up public construction.

The money would be spent on public works already authorized under the direction of a cabinet committee appointed by the president.

Bills by Chairman Keyes of the senate public buildings committee and Chairman Elliott, of the similar house committee, would allow the treasury to award contracts for public buildings without competitive bidding in the interest of speed. They also would authorize the employment of private technical experts to speed up plans.

Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa proposed to increase appropriations for roads from $125,000,000 to $500,000,000 annually during 1932 and 1933.

Three senators, Robinson and Caraway, democrats, Arkansas, and McNary, republican, Oregon, presented bills to authorize $60,000,000 for seed and feed loans, President Hoover proposed such a fund, but did not suggest the amount.

Robinson's bill would authorize the president to distribute the entire 100,000,000 bushels of wheat now held by subsidiaries of the farm board to drought sufferers, Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, introduced another bill to authorize the use of 40,000,000 bushels of this wheat for relief.

Senator Jones, republican, Washington, offered a bill to appropriate $1,000,000 for seed and feed loans in his state, and Senator King, democrat, Utah, proposed to increase road appropriations in national parks from $5,000,000 to $7,500,000 annually.

In the house, Representative McKeon, democrat, Oklahoma, introduced a bill to suspend for 12 months all foreclosure proceedings by the federal land banks in drought areas.

Among the general legislative proposals offered in the senate were:

Oddie, republican, Neveda, to declare an embargo against importations from Soviet Russia.

Bingham, republican, Connecticut, to authorize the sale of four per cent beer and to allow physicians to prescribe malt liquors for medicinal purposes.

Thomas, republican, Idaho, to create a commission to study the government's Indian policy.

Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, to create a federal industrial commission to stabilize employment in agriculture and commerce.

Black, democrat, Alabama, to increase allowances to dependents of permanently disabled veterans.

Smoot, republican, Utah, to authorize naming the first federal narcotic farm at Lexington, Ky., after the late Representative Stephen G. Porter of Pennsylvania, author of the bill creating it.

LEGISLATION TO PREVENT INFLUX OF FOREIGN LABOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—Immediate steps were taken today to carry out President Hoover's suggestion for more rigid restriction of immigration as an unemployment relief measure.

Chairman Johnson of the house immigration committee called his group to meet Thursday to consider legislation to stop the influx of foreign labor.

"We will consider all the bills which have been introduced before mapping out a legislative program," he said.

Meanwhile, Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, has sponsored a bill to suspend al limmigration with the exception of close relatives for two years. Johnson said a similar bill will be introduced in the house.

Another proposal is a bill by Representative Cable, republican, Ohio, a member of the immigration committee to exclude all laborers until the secretary of labor decides they are needed.

"This bill applies to the people of all other countries of the world, both quota and non-quota," Cable said.

Representative Dickstein, of New York, a democratic member of the committee, said the present restriction being applied through visas was illegal.

"I favor revising the whole law on Chinese, so that the government can have some sort of grip on the situation," Dickstein said.

SENATE SEATS DAVIS BY A VOTE OF 58 TO 2

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—James J. Davis stepped into the middle of the session's first big senate fracas today and emerged a few minutes later empowered to take the much-disputed seat of the junior senator from Pennsylvania.

Acting quickly, the senate rejected a resolution by Senator Nye of North Dakota, demanding the oath of office be withheld, and Davis, whose resignation as secretary of labor was accepted only today by President Hoover, was sworn in at once.

More than half of the democratic ballots were cast in favor of the former cabinet member, to give him a two-to-one vote. The count was 58 to 27.

Nye's objections were based on the high cost of campaigning in Pennsylvania.

MRS. KEITH-MILLER TO TAKE FLIGHT TO MIAMI TODAY

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 2—(AP)—Mrs J. M. Keith-Miller and Captain W. N. Lancaster, her flying partner, expect to fly to Miami tomorrow with the plane in which she said she made a forced landing on Andros Island Friday, John Liggett III, of Pittsburgh said tonight.

Mrs. Keith-Miller arrived in Nassau by fishing boat yesterday. Lancaster and Liggett, one of the backers of a round trip flight she was to make from Pittsburgh to Havana and return flew in a rescue plane from Miami to Nassua and Andros Island today.

They picked up Mrs. Keith-Miller at the former place and proceeded to Kemp's Bay on Andros Island, where she and Lancaster left the plane, taking gasoline and oil for the proposed flight to Miami.

Karl Voelter, of Miami, who flew to Nassau and return today, in the relief plane, brought back with him copies of a statement which he said Mrs. Keith-Miller gave him for publication.

In part it said:

"I am most unhappy about myself. As an experienced flier I feel ashamed to think I failed to reach my objective. x x x

"Those who suggested that I might for publicity purposes do such a thing are despicable. I hope that my reputation as a sportswoman is good enough to refute such a thought."

CABINET DINNER AT THE WHITE HOUSE LAST NIGHT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—In a city where "society" and "the session" are somehow synonymous and inextricably interwoven, the unusually brilliant 1930 wheel of gala events started whirling tonight with the dinner of the president to his cabinet.

Symbolic, perhaps, of the superabundance of the season itself, tonight's brilliantly formal dinner will go down in history as the one attended by two who came as secretaries of labor—ex-Secretary James J. Davis and Secretary-nominee William N Doak.

SOVIET CONVICTS CONFIRM TESTIMONY OF SABOTAGE

MOSCOW, Dec. 2—(AP)—Out from soviet jails came witnesses tonight to confirm the extensive sabotage activities of eight engineers on trial for their lives.

Three prisoners were brought into court under a heavy guard and a red soldier with a loosened pistol holster stood nearby as they testified. Although somewhat pale from their confinemnet, the prisoners appeared well-fed and showed no indications of harsh treatment on the part of the secret police to induce them to testify.

ARGUE 18TH AMENDMENT AS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—(AP)—The argument that the eighteenth amendment was unconstitutional was presented today in a liquor violation case before the federal circuit court of appeals.

A group of lawyers headed by former State Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Cohalan and Selden Bacon acted as defense attorneys without pay for Louis E. Thibault of Windsor, Vt. convicted of possessing and selling two pints of whiskey.

They defended a liquor case in federal court in Newark recently on the same grounds. A decision is expected in that case shortly.

It is the contention of this group of lawyers that the tenth amendment to the constitution reserved to the people themselves the power of granting the federal government further authority over themselves and that since the eighteenth amendment was ratified by the legislatures, it was adopted unconstitutionally.

The tenth amendment reads:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, not prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states res ectively, or to the people."

VICTORY DINNER FOR GOV.-ELECT W. L. CROSS

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 2—(AP)—Gov.-elect Wilbur L. Cross, in an address at a "victory" dinner given in his honor at Hotel Taft this afternoon, paid a tribute to the democratic women voters of the state declaring that "if it had not been for the women in the recent election we would not have come anywhere near a victory and the organization would have done nothing."

Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, president of the Connecticut Federation of Democratic Women's clubs, under whose auspices the dinner was given, was toastmaster. More than 500 democratic workers were present from all sections of the state.

LABOR GOVT. DEFEATED IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS

LONDON, Dec. 2—(AP)—After three hours of debate the house of lords tonight defeated the Labor government 74 votes to 10 and censured it for its attitude at the imperial conference.

"This house deplores the refusal of his majesty's government to respond to the advances made by the prime ministers of the dominions toward closer fiscal relations," the motion of censure ran, "and this house condemns the failure of the government to grasp the opportunity of strengthening the ties which bind the several parts of the empire."

WILLIMANTIC

Jordan Block, Lincoln Square Phone 150-W Residence Phone 461-J

HOSPITAL WORKERS MEETING WITH SUCCESS AS DRIVE OPENS

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 2. — While nothing in the nature of figures could be obtained today there were indications that the first day's work in the $500,000 drive for the new Windham Community Memorial hospital was meeting with gratifying results. Several hundred workers throughout the wide hospitalization area invaded the field today, many of them working in twosomes.

The first report meeting of the 10-day drive will be held with a supper at the state armory Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. All workers throughout the area are invited to this and subsequent report meetings. In order to avoid a misunderstanding H. Clinton Lathrop, treasurer of the Windham Community Memorial hospital campaign fund, issued statements today assuring the public that all subscriptions given in the campaign will be used exclusively for the construction and equipment of the new hospital. No part of the fund raised during this movement will go to the present St. Joseph's hospital for any purpose whatsoever, according to the statement. The change of name of the hospital from St. Joseph's Hospital, Inc., to the Windham Community Memorial Hospital, Inc., presented the possibility of misunderstanding.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah G. Backus

Mrs. Sarah G. Backus, native of Norwich, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Florence B. Hillhouse, 74 Bellevue street, this morning after a long illness. She was born in Norwich, August 28, 1866, and leaves one son, Ernest G. Champlin of Seattle, Wash., one daughter, Mrs. Hillhouse of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Bliven of Norwich and Mrs. Anna Thompson of Elmira, N. Y., also several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Sylvia M. Parker

Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Sylvia M. Parker, widow of the late Jonas F. Parker, died in South Coventry Monday night. She was born in Woodstock, August 19, 1844, a daughter of Gustavus and Betsy Chamberlain Coombs. She was the mother of Herbert H. O'Neill, formerly of this city, who died recently in New London. Surviving are three grandchildren; a brother, Charles Coombs of South Coventry, and two nieces, Hattie and Alice Coombs, also of South Coventry. She was a member of the local W. C. T. U. and a past president of the Woman's Relief corps.

Several guests joined the membership of the Willimantic Rotary club at the weekly meeting held in the Nathan Hale hotel this noon to hear a talk on scout work and scout organization by George Felker, deputy regional executive of the Boy Scout movement. Mr. Felker said that Willimantic, which is now the only city of appreciable size in this section of New England not having a nationally-organized scout organization, has about 300 boys eligible for membership. He estimated that a scout troop of about 150 boys could be organized here within a short time, the troop to be headed by a trained scoutmaster. Representatives of several organizations met in conference with Mr. Felker following the meeting. Guests introduced by President Louis A. Kingsbury were: Rotarians John L. Sellman and Charles A. Gager of Norwich, State's Attorney Howard C. Bradford of Putnam, and Attorney Sabin S. Russell of Danielson, and Judge Newell S. Jennings of Bristol, Attorney Louis A. Woisard of Danielson, John W. Higgins of Rockland, Mass., Rev. Wilfred D. Hamilton, Robert H. Fenton, Rev. Frederick C. Williams, Robert C. Rose, Dr. Edward J. Morgan and Dixon VanZandt of this city, the local group including members of the Exchange club. The visitors were led in a song by Dr. Morgan.

Cars operated by George A. O'Leary of the Warner district, South Windham, and Joe Hatcher, of this city, figured in a collision on Windham road this afternoon, both machines being damaged. According to the investigation conducted by Officers John Killourey and F. Rudolph Laramie, O'Leary was turning out to pass a truck as the local man was about to enter the driveway at the home of Don H. Curtis. O'Leary was arrested for failure to grant the right of way and was notified to appear in police court Wednesday morning.

The New York lunch at 7 Railroad street, one of the oldest restaurants in the city, has been sold by Joseph Hochberg to Ernest P. Chesbro, Jr., of this city. The new proprietor is the son of former First Selectman Ernest P. Chesbro, Sr., and has for many years past been employed in the automobile business. He has had considerable experience in cooking, however. The Tryon real estate agency consummated the deal.

In police court this morning a local man was found not guilty of intoxication and breach of the peace when the arresting officer, Officer Joseph Lachappelle, testified that the man was not intoxicated at the time he was arrested on complaint of a Chapman street resident. Philip Tremblay was presented for non-payment of an assessment imposed several months ago for a liquor law violation. The case was continued until January 3 to give him a chance to pay up.

Mrs. Clara Mary Kinnaird of Lebanon, who died Monday, leaves, in addition to relatives previously mentioned, three brothers, Charles Cleland of New York city, Walter of Plainfield and Cecil Cleland of Cincinnati.

An improved coach service between Providence, Danielson, Willimantic, Hartford and intermediate points is announced by the New England Transportation company as being effective December 3. The running time from Providence to this city will be reduced 10 minutes with arrivals here to be the same as at present, and a similar reduction is effected from Hartford to Providence in a schedule of three hours between the two cities.

Mrs. Morris B. Smith and son, James, who have been at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. Frank M. Smith for the past 18 months, left Elyria, Ohio, Sunday for Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Arthur O. Thomas, mother of Mrs. Smith, accompanied them and it is their intention to spend the winter in Phoenix.

Evergreen trees were fastened to the white-way standards throughout the business district today as part of the Christmas decorating program of the Retail Merchants' bureau. These trees are to be decorated with multi-colored electric lights carrying out the attractive scheme of past years. The work of trucking and installing the trees was done by employes of the city street department.

An inquest into the death of Patrick E. Doyle, who was killed by the Hartford-Willimantic commuters' train of the New Haven railroad Friday evening, was conducted here today by County Coroner Arthur G. Bill of Danielson. Witnesses included Medical Examiner Dr. C. E. Simonds, William McAleer, conductor of the train; John Studley, engineer and John Sullivan of 50 Winter street, who was with Doyle just before the latter was struck. Coroner Bill reserved his decision.

A group of members of the Connecticut women's law enforcement committee held an informal meeting in the vestry of the Methodist church from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. today. Several of the towns of Windham county were represented at the meeting which was in charge of Mrs. Emma Pilling of Danielson, county chairman. Plans for the committee's work were outlined by Mrs. Percy T. Walden of New Haven, state organizer and remarks were also made by Mrs. L. B. Baker of New Haven, publicity manager. The organization of the Windham county branch is expected to be completed in the near future.

The weekly meeting of the Lions' club scheduled for this evening was not held owing to the fact that several of the members are connected with the hospital campaign.

The mercury hovered around the zero mark early this morning and this, accompanied by a driving cold wind that continued throughout the day, was accepted as proof that winter had officially arrived.

Mrs. Arthur A. Moreau has just returned from Waterbury where she spent Thanksgiving and the week end with her father, Walter Garrigus.

At a meeting of the South Coventry Men's club held tonight, the committee appointed to arrange for a program of social activities during the winter months, made its report. This committee consists of E. H. Woodworth, Herman Ledoyt and Walter Brooks and the plans presented comprise debates, entertainments, dances and whists.

Miss Doris M. Willard, daughter of Oliver L. Willard, who has finished her course at the Massachusetts Memorial hospital, is spending a recess at her home prior to taking a course of study in Simmons college, Boston, Mass.

Miss Julia Martin, of Chaplin, has received word that her sister, Mrs. Walter E. Lanphear, has suffered a severe shock at Melbourne, Fla., where she and her husband are spending the winter. The condition of Mrs. Lanphear was reported as very serious.

Judge and Mrs. Valentine L. Murphy were in New Haven today to attend the victory luncheon given in honor of Governor-elect Wilbur L. Cross.

Mrs. Ada I. Burlingham has returned from a trip to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., stopping in Hartford to spend the week end with Miss D. Louise Treat.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Davis have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Kaplan and daughter of Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Kaplan is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Ray Priest and Harry Reynolds, occupants of the Dodge marathon car which has been making cross country trips since July, were welcomed in this city this morning by officials of the Jordan Auto company. The speedometer checked at 57,362 upon arrival in this city, the machine, running smoothly, leaving 20 minutes later for Newark, N. J. The car has completed 10 trips across the continent and began its sixth month on the highways Monday.

CAPITOL THEATRE
Willimantic
WILLIAM HAINES in
"REMOTE CONTROL"
Also High Class Vaudeville Acts in Person Tonight Only

Dr. W. Blaine Oliver
DENTIST
3 Church St., Willimantic, Ct.
Telephone 1740

Stafford Springs

ANTHONY JACOBSEN'S BODY BROUGHT FROM F. I.

The body of Anthony Jacobsen, 48, who was drowned off Fishers Island about three weeks ago, was recovered on Saturday and brought to Stafford Springs Monday evening. The funeral is to be held at the Episcopal church. Mr. Jacobsen was a native of Tolland. He spent his boyhood days on a farm in Tolland where his father conducted a large farm and operated a milk route in Stafford Springs. In recent years he had spent his summers lobster fishing near Fishers Island and for a number of years had passed the winter seasons in Florida. Besides his wife and a daughter he leaves three brothers, Anders Jacobsen, postmaster at Stafford Springs; Edward A. and Charles Jacobsen, also of Stafford Springs, and three sisters, Mrs. Peter Brodersen, Stafford Springs; Mrs. Ozro Usher, Rockville, and Mrs. Henry Hansen, of Willington.

Stafford Teachers' club is making preparations for a banquet to be held at the Springs House, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mitchell and children, Nancy and Ronald, Jr., have returned, after spending several days in Worcester, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Hopkins.

The condition of Bartholomew Mullins, who has been seriously ill at his home on Furnace avenue, is considerably improved.

Miss Helen Smith has returned to her studies at Scudder Secretarial school, after several days spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Smith.

Miss Stella Squires, a student at Willimantic Normal school, was a recent visitor with relatives in town.

Mrs. Silas F. Clark has returned home, after a few days' visit with friends and relatives in Springfield.

Leon Wasserman has returned to his studies at Boston university, after enjoying a holiday visit with relatives in town.

Guests From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eaton, of Washington, D. C., have returned after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Burt T. Eaton.

Miss Margaret Taylor has returned to her duties as teacher in the local public school after several days' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Philias Taylor were recent visitors of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Taylor, in Springfield.

Mrs. Francis Lloyd, of Thompsonville, spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Nettie O. Comins.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. with Mrs. Hannibal Alden on Edgewood street this (Wednesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon, of Rockville, have returned home, after a few days' visit with borough relatives.

Mrs. A. Philip Jarvis, of Springfield spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sheppard.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLagan and daughter have returned to Gilbertville, Mass., after several days' visit with relatives in town.

The meeting of Wolcott lodge, No. 60, F. & A. M., will be held Thursday evening.

Harrison R. Moseley, employed in Washington, D. C., has returned, after spending a few days with his grandfather, Russell Colburn, in Stafford Hollow.

The December supper of the Universalist church at Stafford Hollow will be in charge of the men.

COLCHESTER

Announcement was made Monday afternoon that about twenty well-known business and professional men of Colchester will comprise the flapper chorus in the three-act comedy, "Aunt Lucia," to be staged here under the auspices of the grange. Those who will appear in the flapper chorus are: Hard-hearted Hannah, William Raymond, Jr.; innocent freshman, Fred Kopp; vamp of Colchester, George Boson; Peaches Browning, Elmer Foote; bathing beauty, Jack Riley; beauty winner, Earle Stevens; powerful Katrinka, John N. Phelps; studious girl, Chauncey G. Markham; gold digger, Samuel Berman; bride of 1938, Jess Bailey; Clara Bow, Calvin McCall; baby face, Eugene P. Beebe; campus flirt, Irving Strick; girl with the million dollar legs, Eddy Levine; gold digger, J. Hollis Pease; corn-fed co-ed, Joseph Weinstein. Those in the Glee club are: Willard and Randall Sherman, Dr. Stebbins, Rev. A. W. Canney, Rev. H. H. Tompkins, Principal Noyes C. Stickney, W. O. Seyms, C. V. Howell, Merle B. Woodmansee, Harry Deitch, Fred Kopp, Jr., William E. Adams, Edward O'Connor, William B. Gerhardt, Jobert Tompkins, Gordon Dean, Hyman Falk, John Gregory, Samuel Berman, Hyman Schwartz and Edwin Stebbins. The main cast headed by Edward McCall, Jr., includes Herbert Finley, Arthur Stebbins, Jr., Mrs. George Boson, Mrs. M. J. Cornwell, Miss Hattie B. Brown, Harold Clark, Gilbert J. Murray, Harold Brown, Mrs. R. S. Brown, Rev. A. W. Canney, Mrs. Earl Stevens, Nelson Stern, George Leslie Brown, Edwin Stebbins, Edward Seger and Herman Conrad.

A large crowd of local and out-of town people attended the cow auction at the F. O. Brown farm Tuesday.

Morton Turetsky has returned from a month's visit with relatives in New York.

Miss Harriet Howland has been spending the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Howland.

Visited Norwich Lodge

About thirty members of Oliver Woodhouse lodge, No. 51, K. of P., visited Wauregan lodge, No. 6, of Norwich, Monday evening, when the Colchester degree team conferred the third rank on a class of four. Grand Chancellor Evans and Grand Vice-Chancellor Samuel C. Kone, honored guests of the evening, were listened to with much interest by the large assemblage.

FRANKLIN

At the election of Franklin Grange No. 184 held last Friday evening, the following officers were elected: Master, Ray Beckwith; overseer, Arnold Manning; lecturer, Ruth Robinson; steward, Lloyd Adams; assistant steward, Earl Hill; chaplain, Rev. John D. Waldron; secretary, Elizabeth Janosaek; treasurer, Milton Beckwith; gatekeeper, Nathaniel Manning; ceres, Mrs. John D. Waldron; Pomona, Barbara Rogers; Flora, Frances Lamb; lady assistant steward, Edna Lamb. Stanley Armstrong was elected a member of the executive committee for three years. The lecturer's program, in charge of Worthy Lecturer Miriam Bliss Beckwith, included a dialog, "Fast Friends," by Sisters Mildred Manning and Frances Lamb; a vocal duet, "Gee, But I'd Like to Make You Happy," by Brothers Hill and Armstrong. The program closed with the singing of several songs. It was voted to hold whist parties again and a committee was appointed to take charge of this. The first whist will be held following the next grange meeting. Cake and coffee were served by Arnold Manning.

Miss Edna Lamb is in Chicago attending the National 4-H club congress held annually. Miss Lamb is the outstanding home-making girl in Connecticut and is thus entitled to this honor of being one of Connecticut's representatives at the 4-H congress.

Nelson D. Robinson was a week-end guest of Prof. and Mrs. Gustav A. Lindgren.

Miss Faith N. Gager was a Thanksgiving day guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella E. Gager, of South Windham.

Mrs. C. H. Robinson was a recent guest of Mrs. George Geer of Plain Hill.

A Belgian scientist who is preparing to study cosmic rays of higher altitudes is using, among other equipment, the world's largest dry cell battery.

WOMAN GETS YEAR IN PRISON FOR ARSON; SILVER BANDITS SENTENCED

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 2.—A state prison sentence of not less than one year nor more than two years was imposed by Judge Newell S. Jennings in the Windham county superior court here today, in the case of Mrs. Angeline Gialluca, 24, of Birch street this city, charged with burning a building with intent to defraud another. The woman is the wife of Joseph Gialluca, owner of the building in question. She is the mother of three children. Her brother, Nicholas Lorello, 18, tried for arson as a result of the fire which caused $1,000 damages to the Gialluca home, was tentatively committed to the Cheshire reformatory. The brother and sister were arrested by State Policeman Henry Zehrer of the Stafford Springs barracks and Police Officer John A. Lutton of this city some hours after the fire at the Gialluca residence. They pleaded guilty as charged. On behalf of the woman's family, County Defender Harry E. Back of Danielson asked for leniency. It was stated that the woman planned the fire because of the financial difficulties in which the family was involved and that her husband had no knowledge of the crime. The brother actually set the fire by the use of kerosene. Judge Jennings said that there was a question in his mind whether he could send the boy to the reformatory under the statute governing arson.

One of the first cases to be taken up at the opening of the December criminal term of court here this forenoon was that of Wilfred Bellevance, 20, of this city, who was committed to the Cheshire reformatory for statutory burglary. He pleaded guilty to breaking and entering Lindy's restaurant on Union street and stealing about $40.

Joseph Tregolo of Meriden was fined $100 and costs upon his plea of guilty to a charge of reckless driving. State's Attorney Howard C. Bradford did not press an additional charge of manslaughter. Tregelo was the operator of a car that struck and instantly killed Maurice Turcotte, father of Dr. Samuel J. Turcotte, near the man's home on Jackson street last summer.

Edmund Meinhold was presented on charges of breach of the beach and assault to which he pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court.

"Silver" Bandits Plead

The so-called silver thieves, Anthony L. Peters and Joseph H. Cardoza, both of Providence, R. I., were arraigned on charges of robbery with violence. Peters pleaded not guilty and Cardoza pleaded guilty as charged, the former electing trial by jury. The cases were assigned for trial next Tuesday. After this procedure the court attendants and spectators were given the unusual treat of seeing a lawyer given five minutes to leave the court room. This lawyer was Attorney Michael Pedro of Providence who said he was appearing in the interests of Peters. After a recess of the court the attorney was told that he could not appear for either man involved in the case, Judge Jennings explaining that Attorney Pedro had approached State Police Lieutenant Ross V. Urquhardt of Danielson and told the officer that he was requested by Mrs. Cardoza to represent her son. An investigation today disclosed that Mrs. Cardoza had never expressed any such wish. The Providence lawyer interrupted to say that he was representing Peters but Judge Jennings closed the matter by giving the lawyer five minutes to leave the court room.

Charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, Joseph Gennette pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by the court. The case was assigned for Wednesday morning. Later in the day he changed his plea to one of guilty and was fined $100 and costs, the same penalty imposed in the local police court.

Jury For The Term

Court opened with a prayer by Rev. Frederick C. Williams. The selection of a jury panel for the term was then announced as follows: Windham Charles E. Anthony, Nelson A. Daniels; Putnam, Edward H. Burt, Godias Rivard; Ashford, Clarence H. Barlow, Ariel L. Greene; Brooklyn Arnold Wild, Clifford H. Starkweather; Canterbury, Howard A. Rix, Hollis M. Reed; Chaplin, Charles B. Rus- Eastford, Frank M. Smith; Hampton, Jesse Burnham; Killingly, George T. Moran, Charles J. Carver; Plainfield, Armand J. Herbert, Joseph David; Pomfret, James P. Sharpe, A. D. Briggs; Scotland, M. W. Roberts; Sterling, Byron P. Young; Thompson, Winthrop Ballard, William L. Arnold; Woodstock, Albert Hammond.

During the short calendar and assignment of cases, Joseph Kishazi of Ashford was presented on a bench warrant charging him with poisoning a cow owned by Mrs. Eva Varga, also of Ashford, on Monday, November 14. He pleaded not guilty and elected trial by jury, the case being assigned for next Tuesday.

Peters And Cardoza Sentenced

This afternoon Anthony L. Peters, one of the silver bandits, changed his plea to one of guilty and was sentenced not less than seven nor more than 12 years in the state's prison. Cardoza, who had previously pleaded guilty, received a sentence of not less than five nor more than 10 years.

Six Divorces Granted

Judge Jennings this afternoon granted six uncontested divorce decrees as follows: Mrs. Doris Brundage of Hartford, from Ralph Brundage of Danielson, decree on the grounds of desertion; Leslie Culpin of this city, from Cora A. Culpin, desertion; Rosa A. Parreault of Danielson, from Harvey Perreault, grounds of cruelty; Ernest J. Morin of Dayville, from Helen M. Morin, desertion; Mary P. Lussier Knapp of Pleasant Valley from Dwight Eugene Knapp, desertion, and J. George Theriacque of Danielson, from Marie Louise Theriacque, adultery and intemperance. Court was adjourned until Friday morning at 10 o'clock in Putnam for a naturalization session and trial of a few cases.

YANTIC

KAPLAN MILL ACTIVE— GETTING OUT SAMPLES

The Millbrook Woolen company, with Emanuel Kaplan owner, has for its superintendent Roy Playton, of Moosup; for designer, Hugh Stein, from Hanover, Illinois; for overseer in the carding room, Thomas Cobb of Yantic; overseer in the spinning room, Robert Lyon of Yantic; overseer of the weave and dressing rooms, Nicholas Reed of Norwich; overseer of the finishing room, Andrew Grieve of Yantic; overseer of the dye room, C. Whalen, of Pittsfield, Mass. At present a small force of help is busy getting out samples for the New York exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fishbone and niece, Miss Goldie Fishbone, and Mrs. Kramer have returned to their home in New York after spending the holidays as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fishbone.

Miss Anne Gobel has returned to her home in Jewett City, after spending the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Mary Richards.

James Wells of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was a recent guest of local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop spent Thanksgiving in Waterbury, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones.

Mrs. Nathan Whiteley has returned from a week's stay in Albany, N. Y., with her daughter, Miss Beulah Whiteley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bean and daughter Lucile, of Pittsfield, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dumas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson have returned to Bridgeport after a brief stay with relatives here.

Leaves For Washington

Miss Elizabeth Kampton has returned to the Boys Gunnery school Washington, as art instructor, after spending the holiday recess at her home here.

Mrs. Vincent Parkowsky has been a patient at the W. W. Backus hospital for the past five weeks having undergone a major surgical operation.

Big Hawaiian raspberries are being introduced into California.

Holidays!

Ready even if holiday ACUTE INDIGESTION should strike? You ARE ready with Bell-ans.

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

Did your Child have a bad cold last week?

If your child had a bad cold last week, don't be content just because the child is no longer hacking and sneezing. A cold is bad enough, but a child that catches cold easily and often, needs attention.

Half-sick pale run-down children do not have the strength to resist disease and throw off infection. The after-effects of a cold can be very serious. Start now to build up weight and strength.

Father John's Medicine has been proved for over 75 years by countless mothers. It is used regularly by over 184 institutions and hospitals. It is a simple food medicine that supplies the vitamins that every child needs. Children thrive on it amazingly. Their appetite improves their very food seems to do them more good. Pale cheeks glisten with health. Little bodies become strong and vigorous.

Father John's Medicine is a combination of simple food elements none of which could harm an infant. Because of its scientific combination of ingredients it brings all the benefits of cod liver oil in the form best suited to a growing child's needs. It is easily assimilated by even the most delicate stomach. It tastes good and contains no alcohol or drugs.

If your child had a cold last week, start now with Father John's Medicine. Don't take needless chances when this simple aid will help build strength and vigor. All druggists have it

Cook . . . with GAS for Flavor and Economy

This instant, ready fuel lets you purchase less expensive foods and makes them taste better. Tough meat slow-cooked is tender. Even the highest priced meats and vegetables can be ruined by the wrong kind of cooking, but they can be made to yield their best with Gas . . . its quick flame seals the flavor in . . . its speed cuts fuel costs.

If you would like true economy . . . if you care for delicious, nourishing meals . . . cook the modern, automatic way with Gas. You cannot equal the hot gas flame for better cooking.

Did you know that famous hotels, restaurants and clubs do not always buy the most costly foodstuffs? Instead, they purchase at lower prices those higher in food values from which expert knowledge and modern, automatic gas equipment bring out the utmost in flavor.

Why don't YOU too take advantage of this method in marketing for your own kitchen? See the new and beautiful gas range models in your own gas company. Let their Home Service expert aid you in preparing better meals at lower cost.

GAS THE better FUEL

THE GAS INDUSTRY OF NEW ENGLAND
OF WHICH YOUR OWN GAS COMPANY IS A PART

An Open Letter to the Public

To avoid any misunderstanding which may arise in the public mind through the change of name of our hospital from "St. Joseph's Hospital, Inc.," to "The Windham Community Memorial Hospital, Inc.," I wish to assure the public, all subscriptions given in the campaign now under way will be used exclusively for the construction and equipment of the new Windham Community Memorial Hospital. No part of the fund raised during this movement will go to the present St. Joseph's Hospital for any purpose whatsoever.

The money raised in this campaign is solely for the construction and equipment of the new Windham Community Memorial Hospital. Every dollar subscribed will be wholly within the control of the new and enlarged board of directors of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital. As treasurer of this fund, I shall hold all subscriptions and make withdrawals only for the construction and equipment of of the new hospital, and only upon the order of the new board of directors of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital under whose control the new hospital will be constructed and operated.

H. CLINTON LATHROP,
Treasurer of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital Campaign Fund.

DANIELSON

LAUREL PICKERS FINED $56 AND COSTS EACH

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 2—It may serve as a warning to other raiders for Christmas trees and other Christmas greens that four Providence men were assessed a total of $224.56 in a justice's court in the town of Sterling this afternoon for taking laurel, without permission of the owner of the land, Carl Gallup, in that town last Sunday. Ever since they were apprehended in the woods engaged with their nefarious practices by State Officer John Murphy of the Danielson barracks they have been held in custody here, in default of bonds of $100 each required for their release. The individual fines imposed today were $56 each, with costs. Ovid J. Desantel, Thomas Carrier, Frank Rovinki and Howard Williams were the men who paid, and departed for their homes considerably sadder and wiser than when they made their invasion of this state.

Assurance is given from official circles that efforts for convictions and for similar heavy penalties will be sought by officers in every like case that develops in any town hereabouts during the course of the holiday season. Plunderers of woodlands have become too plentiful and too bold, and it so happens that the majority of these persons come from the state and from the city that is claimed as home by the men who were fined in Sterling this afternoon. Not all who raid for Christmas trees and greens are Rhode Islanders, however. Some of them are known, on past records, to be Connecticut people, a fact that will not help them at all if they happen to be ordered into court for taking something that does not belong to them.

Brooklyn to Have Rotary

The town of Brooklyn has arranged to construct a "rotary" at Brooklyn Center where the Hartford-Providence and Pomfret-Canterbury state highways intersect. The work will be undertaken in the immediate future, it was stated today. A circle of traffic control standards will be put in place at the center of the intersection. The standards will carry lights at night. Various accidents and near accidents have occurred at this intersection since the Pomfret-Canterbury route was opened about a year ago. The constant danger to motorists lurking there has resulted in the decision to create the rotary, which will slow down and divert traffic through proper channels, and greatly lessen the chance of accidents occuring.

Danielson people recently in Provideice, Worcester or Boston have come back here with mixed emotions, as to whether or not business is quite as dull as it is generally supposed to be. They tell, especially of Boston, of crowded department stores, where buying was exceedingly brisk, of theatres filled to capacity and of the difficulty of getting seats in hotel dining rooms or restaurants. The local people sense that there is much unemployment and no little poverty, but were left with the recation that the great majority of the people of the cities mentioned are most certainly not worrying too much about general conditions and apparently are getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Fred Thibeault of Tiffany street, who was injured last night while crossing South Main street on the Killingly side of the Quinebaug bridge remained at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam today, with the prospect that she will continue to be a patient there for some time to come. She has a fractured skull and a broken left arm, as told in this morning's Bulletin. William McGair, Providence operator of the unregistered car that he was driving with plates off another Rhode Island car, remained at liberty under bonds of $500 today. Definite assignment of his case for a hearing in the local town court had not been made up to late this afternoon.

Alfred Coutermanche of 343 Knight street, Woonsocket, owns an automobile that he is having experiences with unpleasant and unfortunate ones. Just now the car is at a local garage, awaiting some doctoring and tinkering to get it in operating order again. Yesterday it went through a state highway fence out on the South Killingly road when its steering gear went wrong and it could not be kept in control. Last week the machine was afire, almost from stem to stern, interiorly, and was considerably damaged. That incident also happened in nearby territory. Since the fire the car had been here, and Mr. Coutermanche had come after it and was driving it back home yesterday when it took a nose dive through the fence. The driver was uninjured.

As formally announced by advertisement elsewhere in this column this morning the democrats of Killingly plan to form a democratic club at a meeting Wednesday evening. As a matter of fact, there already is a temporary organization that has been laying plans for this evening's meeting. The objective of the party leaders back of the movement is a minimum of 300 members, but they hope to enroll many more than that.

It was indicated today that the organization will be perfected Wednesday evening, and that thereafter a canvass for additional members will be made in all of the communities that make up the town of Killingly.

This evening at the December Church Family night gathering at the Westfield Congregational church a supper was served in the vestry at 6:30. At 7:15 there was a 30-minute period for fellowship and sociability for the boys and girls in the gymnasium. Coach Raymond E. Mitchell was in charge of the games. The general assembly was in the gymnasium at 7:45. A play, The Color Line, was presented by young people of the Willimantic Congregational church under the direction of Miss Ethelyn L. Nichols. The service of worship was in charge of the members of the Talk-It-Over club.

Organization meeting Killingly Democratic club in hall on third floor of Exchange block, Danielson, 8 o'clock tonight. Everyone interested in joining this club is requested to attend. Discussion of plans for winter meetings. Refreshments.—Adv.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Marie LaPorte

The funeral of Mrs. Marie LaPorte wife of William LaPorte, was held from the home in Attawaugan, services being at St. Joseph's church in Dayville at 9 o'clock. Rev. Ignatius Kost was celebrant of the high mass of requiem and conducted the committal service at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery. The music of the mass was played by Mrs. Rachel Phaneuf, organist, Danielson. Bearers were Frederick Daigle, Leo Lamoureaux, Leo Paradis, Joseph Aubin, Isadore Aubin and Joseph Cote. Martin T. Burns was in charge of the arrangements.

County Agent Raymond E. Wing of the Windham County Farmers' association is furnishing some interesting bulletins dealing with farm problems to agriculturalists, dairymen and poultrymen as the year nears its end and there is time for contemplation of the matters discussed. Mr. Wing comments that those who have kept farm records will have an easier time determining what their financial success or failures have been throughout this year than those who have not kept such records.

He points out that the dairy survey showed that 48 percent of the farms were making gross sales of less than $4,000, which means that these farmers have net incomes of less than $1,000. The survey showed also that 44 percent of the farms have some excess labor. Gross sales for each man on the farm, it is pointed out, should be from $3,500 to $4,000. Is your hired man getting the profits? is a question asked in this connection.

The current bulletin also deals with egg production, and with cultivation of soil, use of fertilizers, etc. The services of all agents of the Farmers' association are available to help anyone having problems of the farm to puzzle out to best advantage.

Curtis N. Saulsbury, Negro tenor, is to sing here next Tuesday evening at the Westfield Congregational church. He comes here by invitation of the Danielson Federation of Churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene DeVillez and daughters, Loraine and Theresa, have returned from a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Doiron at Naitic, R. I.

Don't forget that all deposits made in our savings department on or before December 5th will draw interest from Dec. 1. The Danielson Trust Co. —Adv.

A minimum temperature of 5 degrees above zero was registered early this morning, the cold made especially uncomfortable by the accompanying high wind.

Mrs. Marjorie I. Waller heads the committee in charge of the Every Member canvass of the Westfield Congregational church to be conducted next Sunday.

For the first time since last spring Mashtentuck brook, running through the district of the town bearing the name, is reported as having overflowed its banks through the meadows at the Burlingame farm where John Flood is now resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Atwood, now pleasantly located at Tucson, Ariz., write to relatives here that they live only a few bungalows distant from Mr. and Mrs. Howard Starkweather. Mr. Starkweather is a former resident of Danielson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Starkweather.

Fox hunters, though they are regularly ranging the countryside, would welcome a light fall of snow to aid them in their quests for their elusive quarry. Foxes are reported to be as plentiful as ever.

The death of an infant of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, former residents of Danielson and Norwich, is reported from their home in New Jersey. Mrs. Casey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Lavallee of Maple street. Mr. Casey a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey of the West Side.

MOOSUP

A very fine dinner was served Monday evening in the banquet hall of the Masonic building by the general chairman of the Masonic ball committee, William C. Marshall, and Floyd Main, W. M., to the committees and their young women friends. It was in appreciation of the way the committees worked for the recent Masonic ball. The menu was: Roast turkey, mashed potato, mashed turnip, creamed onions, cranberry sauce, olives, celery, sweet pickles, rolls, squash pie and coffee. After the dinner a social time was enjoyed with cards.

Miss Gladys Young is confined to her home by illness.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Wiegand and son Dudley, of Worcester, and Dr. and Mrs. John S. Wheeler, of Bridgeport and New London, spent Sunday with Miss Lilla Millett and Miss Gertrude Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pendleton, of Norwich, and Mrs. Jessica Leland, of New York, called on Mr. and Mrs. Julian Champagne, Sunday.

Mrs. A. Don Bitgood and son Andrew have returned from Worcester, where they have been entertained by friends.

Frinds are gratified to learn that Miss Elinor Briggs has recovered from illness.

Mrs. Alphonse Garcia has returned from Waterbury, where she spent Thanksgiving and the week-end with her mother.

Mrs. Louise Croce is visiting at Stafford Surings.

Patient at Backus Hospital

Wilfred Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Raymond, was taken, Sunday evening, to the Backus hospital at Norwich, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood and daughter Grace, of South Coventry, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wood.

Mrs. Helen Robertson is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Brown, at Groton, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coughlin and grandson Leonard were recent visitors in Norwich.

W. C. C. Hill and John Cheney spent Saturday in New London.

Mrs. Marie Beauregard has returned to her home here, after spending a few days with her mother.

Mrs. Theo. Bressette and son Raymond are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Nottage, of Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Preston were in East Providence Sunday. Mrs. Stanley Shumway and two children returned with them, after spending the week here.

Friends rejoice to see Mrs. William Heywood out, after her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Potter, of Willimantic were visitors for the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey have returned home, after spending the holidays at Boston and Worcester.

The young people's meeting of the Methodist church will be held Thursday evening at 7:30.

Dance A Success

Saturday evening a very successful novelty dance was held at Milner hall, under the auspices of the Cranska Mill Employes' association. The committee consisted of Elzear Gauthier, chairman; Landia Bertrand, Mary Morency, Angelina Korrecta, William Parkinson, Paul Roper, Donald Zercie, E. T. Gamston.

FUNERAL

Kenneth Tyler

There was a very large assemblage of relatives and friends at the funeral of Kenneth Tyler, 6-year-old son of Mrs. Clarence Tyler, which was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his mother's residence on the Moosup-Sterling road. The services were conducted by Rev. R. W. E. DeWolfe of Moosup Baptist church. The bearers were four uncles of the little boy, Everett and Harry Phillips, Howard and Everett Tyler. Burial was at Evergreen cemetery, Central Village, where prayers were read. There were beautiful flowers.

Sprague Gallup, of Boston, visited over the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gallup.

There is to be a meeting of Moosup lodge, No. 113, A. F. and A. M. tonight (Tuesday).

TAXI FARES IN PUTMAN ARE FIXED AT MEETING WITH P. U. COMMISION

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 2.—As the result of a two and one-half hour meeting with A. S. Gates, superintendent of the bus and taxicab division of the public utilities commission, Putnam taxi drivers representing three of the city's four firms engaged in this business have agreed to a new set of rates which will become effective on Saturday, Dec. 8. When the newly adopted rates go into effect local people who patronize the now union companies will pay a starting charge of 25 cents for one or two passengers riding within the city limits and 10 cents for each additional passenger.

For patrons of the independent drivers of the Putnam taxi service this new scale of prices represents a substantial saving. At the present and heretofore the independents have assessed patrons according to a starting charge of 25 cents for two passengers or 50 cents for three or more.

To patrons of the City Taxi company, owned and operated by James B. Tatem and to those of the Auclair taxi operated by Mrs. Flora Auclair of Pomfret street, the new rates represent a slight increase in service prices, as these companies have been operating on a city limit starting price of 20 cents for one or two passengers and 10 cents for each additional passenger.

In only one instance did the meeting fail in its efforts to bring about the establishment of city-wide uniformity of taxi prices, this occurring when Arthur Dupre, youthful proprietor of the South Main Street Taxi company, refused to be pursuaded to join the price-boosting compromise. When challenged for a well-grounded and logical reason for his attitude, Dupre intimated that under the present situation governing the operation of the "O" marker or private livery cars, owners of these types of registered service vehicles would immediately jeopardize a large amount of their present business possibilities, inasmuch as the "O" companies continuing business on a 20-cent starting basis would come in for a large portion of his patronage who would be inclined to boycott the proposed higher rate. At this point James B. Tatem, owner of the City Taxi company, whose fleet of cars is the Dupre company's leading competitor, inferred that Dupre's theory was unsound because of the fact that the private livery owners have but a certain business capacity which can be exceeded only by commissioning of additional cars into their fleets.

Mr. Tatem's explanation had but little influence upon his business rival, who, in answer to Tatem's remarks, tersely inquired, "Yes, but what's to stop the private livery men from procuring new cars and additional sets of 'O' markers?"

Mr. Tatem was wont to answer, for the fact is well known that interpretations of the existing code of laws governing public service vehicles contain a so-called "loop-hole" rendering it impossible for the police to obtain convictions against drivers of "O" registered cars which are doing legitimate private livery business. On two occasions a Putnam private livery operator has been found not guilty in city court of charges pertaining to violation of taxi laws.

Superintendent Gates at this point was questioned on the legality of the actions of the "O" drivers, but evaded commitment with the statement, "I understand your position, gentlemen, but you know I'm not a lawyer. The utilities commission hopes that the legislature at its forthcoming session will endeavor to permanently clear up this matter with the enactment of a new clause in the act."

As a last resort to win Mr. Dupre's approval of their plans, the nine remaining cab drivers suggested various compromises, but the South Main street taxi proprietor steadfastly held out for his present system of rates.

In order to bring the meeting to a close, Superintendent Gates drew up a pact containing the proposed table of local and distant rates, which was approved and signed by Mrs. Auclair, James B. Tatem, Alphonse Dumas, Charles A. Ryan, Eugene Muire, Guy Zito, George S. Phillips and Eric Ericson.

Under a statement to the effect that he will, after Dec. 8, initiate a starting rate of 20 cents for one passenger and 10 cents for each additional, the consistent Dupre affixed his signature. When the agreement was read by Mr. Gates, the union hackney representatives extemporaneously challenged it with the exclamation, "Why his price is higher than ours!" which was admitted by the utilities commission representative. Still smiling, Dupre replied, "Well, sign this one. Your price will be 'lower' and still you'll be making more money." With this, the gathering came to an adjournment.

All present have agreed to abide by the established prices for one to four passengers riding to out-of-town points within the ten-mile radius of Putnam, which will be as follows: Pomfret (Ben Grosvenor Inn), $1.00; Pomfret Center, $1.50; Pomfret Landing, $2.00; South Woodstock, $1.00; Roseland Park, $1.25; Woodstock Hill, $1.50; West Woodstock, $2.50; East Woodstock, $2.50; Woodstock Valley, $3.00; North Woodstock, $2.50; Mechanicsville, 75 cents; West Thompson, $1.00; Thompson town, $1.00; Brandy Hill, $1.50; East Thompson, $2.50; Grosvenordale, $1.50; Attawaugan (four corners), $1.00; Ballouville, $1.25; Putnam Heights, 75 cents; Dayville, $1.50; Goodyear, $2.00; Elmville, $2.00; Danielson, $2.50; East Killingly (post office), $3.00; Wild Wood Park, $1.50; Webster, $3.00; East Putnam, $1.50; Quadic, $1.50; Abington, $2.00; Sprucedale, $1.50; Wilsonville, $2.00; Quinebaug, $3.00; Fabyan, $3.00; Windham County Children's Home (Sawyer district), 75 cents.

On longer trips the cabmen have agreed to charge according to a rate of 15 cents per running mile both ways. The same ruling will apply in cases where a destination is between towns where an established price has been made.

While the new table of rates will become effective next Saturday, it is in no way final or permanent, for the drivers, through Mr. Tatem, who acted as spokesman, inserted a clause in the pact providing for the establishment of lower or higher rates as soon as the companies concerned see fit. The state commission's representative expressed his willingness to grant the motion by saying that the present system can be withdrawn at any time by a letter to the commission's Hartford offices, "for the commission only asks a uniform rate and not a commission-made rate for Putnam taxicabs," he said.

The taxi service men said this afternoon that they believed the uniform system of rates will meet with favorable public reaction. Under the 20 cent starting price the cab operator was unable to derive a fair profit on his investment and either was forced to resort to the operation of unsafe cars or slight various state requirements in order to eke out any kind of a financial return. All of the city's taxi concerns are furnishing a high type of service that is unexcelled, in the opinion of the state superintendent, who has commended them for the excellent condition in which cars are constantly kept.

PUTNAM

FIRE COMPANY CALLED FOR CHIMNEY BLAZE

Members of the hook and ladder and the engine companies at the Central fire station responded to a "4" call at 10:15 Monday evening, which was for a chimney fire in a tenement house at 8 High street in the Pigeon hill section. Firemen under the direction of Foreman Edmund Keane of the hook and ladder quickly extinguished the blaze before any damage was incurred to property.

The mercury curdled many degrees below the freezing points of thermometers today to increase the thickness of ice now covering ponds in this section and to insure skating for the remainder of the week. The winter's sport was initiated Saturday, following the cold snap of last week, but was brought to a sudden halt Sunday with the recurrence of the unseasonable warm wave.

FUNERAL

Olivier Racette

The funeral of Olivier Racette, who died early Sunday morning at his home on Water street, following a prolonged illness, was held this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's church. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. U. O. Bellerose, pastor, assisted by Rev. Joseph D. Casey as deacon and Rev. Joseph Normand as sub-deacon. An impressive service of music was rendered by a special church choir. Miss Rose Metras, church organist, was in charge of the musical arrangement. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. The bearers were Ferdinand Gagnon, Joseph Maynard, A. Bibeault, Joseph Larose, Peter Comeau and Nelson Racine.

Olivier Racette was born in Canada 83 years ago. For the past 30 years he had been a resident of this city and was a widely known and highly respected citizen. Previous to his retirement from active work, Mr. Racette was a millwright.

Besides the widow, Mr. Racette is survived by a son, Peter Racette, of Water street, and a grandson.

Committeewomen assisting Mrs. A. A. Vonsiatsky, general chairman of the Day Kimball hospital nurses' home fund drive, in conducting the drive which on Monday came to a successful conclusion by exceeding by more than $300 its quota of $25,000, were: Mrs. Andrew V. Frost, Mrs. W. F. Rafferty and Mrs. Silas M. Wheelock of Putnam; Mrs. J. Arthur Atwood of Wauregan and Mrs. Richard Bannigan of Danielson; Miss Katherine Noyes of Pomfret, Mrs. George Sampson of Woodstock, Mrs. Albert Fields of Brooklyn and Mrs. Oliver Bowen of Eastford. Miss Florence Wiley was sub-chairman of the Thompson committee.

State Officer James Carmody of Danielson barracks was in Putnam today conducting examinations of applicants for motor vehicle licenses.

Miss Marjorie C. Bradford, assistant clerk of courts, was in Willimantic today, officiating at a session of superior court.

The United States has at least 50 species of native golden rod.

JEWETT CITY

HAS N. H. ROAD RIGHT TO CLOSE CROSSING?

At a meeting of the warden and burgesses Monday evening it was voted that the rights of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., in closing the Main street crossing, be investigated and that an attorney be engaged for that purpose. A number of complaints have been made by those who are inconvenienced, with the result that this action has been taken by the board of borough government. It is believed that the railroad company may consider with favor the construction of an underpass for the use of pedestrians. There is also the belief here that the railroad company cannot legally close a main thoroughfare of traffic where, as in this case, it causes so much hardship to so many people.

The Spoilers, Finn's, mat. 3:45, eve. 8, tonight; auspices American Legion, proceeds for needy families.—adv.

PINOCHLE CLUB SCORES IN MONDAY NIGHT'S PLAY

The reorganization of the Borough Pinochle club was hailed with much delight by its 24 members. As the result of the first evening's play, the first prize went to Clovis Casavant. Monday night's games resulted as follows:

John Le Claire, 8,540; Wilfred Le Claire, 8,855; Eudor Le Claire, 7,865; Eugene J. Carrol, 9,165; Horace Dawvan, 8,840; Jacob Wechsler, 8,970; James Q. Dolan, 7,985; Horace Dawley, 8,270; Chester L. Dudkowski, 7,900; Lionel E. Boucher, 8,520; Charles Maynard, 9,870; Frank McCarthy, 8,000; Walter Field, 7,980; Arthur Le Claire, 9,330; Richard Dudkowski, 8,025; John Davis, 8,150; H. McLaughlin, 8,355; Clovis Casavant, 8,615; G. H. Jennings, 7,595; H. Popham, 8,340; Mose Loranger, 8,725; James Shea, 8,515; E. Shaskey, 9,830; Tony Lamarine, 8,430. Charles Maynard won with 9,870.

Public whist, St. Jean's Society hall tonight at 8.—adv.

FUNERAL

Fred Comager

Funeral services for Fred Comager, 56, who died at the Rhode Island State hospital in Providence Friday morning, were held in that city Tuesday. Besides his wife he is survived by four brothers and one sister, George and Simon, of Jewett City; Oliver, of Providence; William, of New York city, and Mary, of Central Village; a half-brother, Charles Geer, of New London, and a half-sister, Anna Geer, of Stafford Springs. Attending from Jewett City were George and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Comager. Mr. Comager was a native of Griswold.

Better Novelty and Sandwich Shoppe now open 8 No. Main St.—adv.

THOUGHT THEY HAD BIG GAME, HUNTERS GET SURPRISE

Two of the borough's premier coon hunters took a turn over Stone Hill way Saturday night, a third member of the party being a coon dog of known sagacity and wonderful tracking ability. Game was scarce and the traveling hard, when along toward midnight, over in back of Joseph Selacsowitz's farm, the dog with much barking treed some animal in a dead chestnut. As the hunters approached, down rushed the game with eyes shining green, and the splinters flying. The dog laid on again and once more the animal was put up, this time in a tall hemlock. The Doc rushed up, got a dim sight of the quarry lying out along one of the topmost branches, and let him have both barrels of buck shot. With a great yowl down it came, riddled. Dog and man hurried up, the flashlight was snapped on, the dog sniffed and seemed to lose interest. "Cheese it," said Adam, "it's the old man's tomcat!"

Keech's department store will be open every Wednesday afternoon until after Christmas.—adv.

TEA TO MEET THE BRIDE OF ASHLAND CO. MANAGER

Mrs. Andrew McNicol and Miss Ellen Faust were hostesses at a tea in honor of Mrs. Ray Green at Mrs. McNicol's home Tuesday. Over forty guests met Mrs. Green, who has recently come to Jewett City as the bride of Ray Green, manager of Ashland Cotton Co.'s mill. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and varieties of exquisite flowers. Mrs. Edward A. Faust and Mrs. Frederick D. Ballou poured, being assisted by Mrs. Jay Ricketts, of Hartford, and Mrs. Lloyd G. Buckingham.

The Read-Herskell Cemetery association mets Monday in the Jewett City Savings bank. J. H. Tracy presided and Harry Hull was clerk. Mr. Tracy was elected trustee for three years, the other trustees being Harry Hull and W. R. Palmer. Mr. Hull was re-appointed clerk and treasurer, also caretaker of the cemetery.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Edward Lyman of Danielson spent Sunday with local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tetreault are entertaining a party of friends from New York.

Fred Shippee was a holiday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olney Knight of Foster.

B. E. Terwilliger has installed a water system in his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooke of East Killingly were recent guests of their son, Nathan Cooke.

S. A. Douglas who has been confined to his home the past week by illness is reported recovering his health.

Mrs. Edwin Kelley, her daughter Mildred and Earle Phillips, motored to Marlboro, Mass., for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kent of West Hartford spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Phillips.

Holiday guests at The Oaks were Elizabeth Barber, Addie Holland and Arthur Law, all of Putnam.

Thanksgiving guests at the Barlow homestead were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Winsor Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barlow and son, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Place and children, Mrs. Patrick Coffey and daughter Beatrice and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Coffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bliven have been ill the past week.

Mr. Estey of Providence, a field agent of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, was a dinner guest of A. E. Hall Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Hutchins of Danielson spent the week-end with Miss Jacquelyn Myers, at The Ledges.

WAUREGAN

The Earnest Workers met Monday with Mrs. Henry Leach, and completed plans for the annual sale and supper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burns, Mrs. Mercier and Mr. Williams attended the anniversary services at Plainfield Congregational church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stones spent the Thanksgiving season at Pawtucket, R. I., and Lawrence, Mass.

Every Member Canvass

The church committee met Monday evening at the home of Addison Tracy when plans were made for the every member canvass, to be held Dec. 14th.

Earl Leach led the Young People's meeting Sunday evening, and during the evening sang a duet with David Williams.

Thanksgiving guests at Wauregan included Misses Mildred and Florence Leach, Philip Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, and Philip Jr. of Hartford; Miss Olive Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mott and Miss Doris Hope.

Robert Bethel and Mrs. Bethel visited their daughter Lillian at Boston over the holiday season.

Friends from North Grosvenordale visited over the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leonard.

Supt. Willis E. Dodge and Mrs. Dodge, of Great Neck, N. Y., spent the week end as guests at the parsonage.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mr. and Mrs. George Loring, Billy Loring, Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFarland, Mrs. Charles Gowen, Miss Mildred Gowen, Marjorie MacDonald, Corrine Stone, Mrs. Edith Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Ellsworth and Mrs. Frank Tillinghast were in Plainfield Sunday evening to attend the anniversary service. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McFarland, Stuart Ellsworth and Mrs. Charles Bragg, were members of the choir.

Miss Harriett Kendall, of Hartford has been a visitor at the home of her brother, John Kendall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean have been guests of relatives in Rockville, R. I.

Miss Minnie Bennett has returned from Griswold, where she has been spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Terry.

Guests From Mohegan

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pierce and daughter Phyllis and Charles Pierce of Mohegan, have been at the home of Mrs. William Dean.

Mrs. Robert Wilde has been visiting friends in Jewett City.

Louis Lafrance has returned to his studies at Brown university, after the holiday recess at home.

Mrs. Emma Mitchell of Dayville has been at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher.

Thomas Lyon has employment in Baltic.

Will Entertain Scouts

The Boy Scouts will be entertained Friday evening at the parsonage in Plainfield.

Miss Ruth Mathewson, and Mrs. L. Howard Cross motored to Providence Monday.

Mrs. Fannie Stanton of Summit, R. I., has been a business visitor here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daggett and daughter Arlene have been at the home of Mrs. Daggett's sister in Woodstock.

Miss Elizabeth Stetson of New York has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Stetson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mathewson is confined to her home, ill with a grip cold.

SOUTH GRISWOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom H. Young entertained Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver M. Young and family and Mrs. Ida Turnquist, of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Winroth and family, Jewett City, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Young and family and P. J. Gustafson.

Mrs. Martha Pendleton, Miss Lucy M. Culver, Richard Pinney and Mrs. E. O. Burdick were recent visitors in West Haven.

Edwin E. Lewis, Napoleon Dayon and Joseph Culver motored to Waterbury Sunday.

Andrew Dutka sold 60 turkeys for the Thanksgiving market.

The women's society of Bethel M. E. church is planning a chicken pie supper.

Walter MacClimon and William Wheeler of Preston were recent callers at Bethel Farms.

The Blain family has moved to their new house.

MERROW

Joseph Merrow and Miss Mary Merrow were visitors with their sister, Miss Harriett Merrow on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson spent Thanksgiving with the latter's mother in Athol, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hall and little daughter from Manchester spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Labonte and children spent the holiday with Mrs. Labonte's brother, Martin Hansen and family in Mansfield.

Holiday Party

Thanksgiving guests at Edgewood were Mr. and Mrs. Grayland Clough, from East Hartford; Mrs. Bessie Clough, from Rockville; John Ira Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes, from Tolland; Mr. and Mrs. Rupert West and sons, Byron, Donald, Harold and Robert, from Rockville. A very pleasant day was spent with instrumental music, singing and dancing. Mr. Rhodes, father of the hostess, Mrs. Wilcox, played the violin; he is some over 80 and very active and entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce spent the holiday with Mrs. Pierce's son, Dana Farrington and family.

NO. GROSVENORDALE

The fire department was called out Sunday afternoon about 2.15 to extinguish a field fire at the Grosvenordale company ice house in the lower village. The fire was under control when the firemen arrived, doing no damage to surrounding buildings.

The senior class at Tourtellotte plans a supper during December at the Bandy Hill school house. Mrs. Abbie Potter is chairman of the mothers' committee and Helen Law, Sara Rhodes and Doris Bousquet are on the committee working with them. The proceeds will be added to the Washington trip fund.

Schools opened Monday after the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold its annual Christmas sale and supper this month in the vestry. The sale in the afternoon will be in charge of Miss Thyra I. Walker, chairman.

Miss Fern Harris of Evansdale, Indiana, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duquette over this week-end.

More than 20 members of the Epworth league of the Methodist church attended a social at the home of Mrs. Fred D. Chandler. Games and music provided entertainment and refreshments were served by the hostess.

P. L. Peterson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jarl of Providence.

Raymond Ierardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ierardi, is a patient at the Day Kimball hospital where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Recovering From Pneumonia

Rev. Frits Soderberg has received word that Mrs. [illegible], Ill., Mrs. Soderberg's mother, is improving after being critically ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Swanson, their son Stuart, and daughter Evelyn and P. L. Peterson motored Sunday to North Easton, where they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hilmaer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and family have returned to Auburn, R. I., after being week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lachance and sons, Raymond and Armand were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Adelard Lachapelle.

Miss Pauline Levesque has returned to Putnam after spending the holiday recess with Mr. and Mrs. F. O'Claire.

Home From Taftville

Leonard Martel of Taftville is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Martel.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Prince were visitors in Southbridge Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Seney and son Edward Normand Seney, Miss Rose Authier of Putnam called Sunday on Amedee Bellerose, a patient at the Day Kimball hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rawson and family were visitors Sunday with Mr. Rawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Rawson, of Buckley Hill.

Kentucky's tobacco crop of all types this year is estimated at 321,850,000 pounds.

CHRYSLER SIX

$745

and up, f. o. b. factory

Record Low Prices Made STILL LOWER!

A Chrysler Six at present reduced prices marks an altogether new record in six-cylinder automobile value.

Think of Chrysler performance, Chrysler smartness and Chrysler quality being offered at such low prices—in a Chrysler Six that has the advantages of all the newer developments of Chrysler progress over the first famous Chrysler Six that six years ago sold for more than twice today's prices.

Today's Chrysler Six has a 62-horsepower high-compression Chrysler engine mounted on rubber; Iso-therm pistons; low-swung perfectly-balanced chassis; self-adjusting spring shackles; hydraulic shock absorbers; quiet all-steel bodies of dreadnought strength; safe, sure, internal hydraulic brakes

Here is value never before obtainable even in a Chrysler.

CHRYSLER SIX PRICES: Coupe $745; Touring $785; Roadster $785; Royal Coupe $785; 4-Door, 3-Window Royal Sedan $795. All prices f. o. b. factory (wire wheel equipment extra). 948

Noyes' Garage

315 Laurel Hill Avenue, Phone 2236-W

LLOYD JONES, Associate Dealer, East Great Plain

EXTRA WEDNESDAY VALUES

"OPPORTUNITY"

The secret of success is to take advantage of every opportunity. We give you the finest foods at prices that will swell your savings account.

STEAK Whole Slices of Round, lb. Cut from Steer Beef 29c

A NEW ENGLAND BOILED DINNER

4 lbs. Middle Rib CORNED BEEF —
1 bunch BEETS, 1 bunch CARROTS —
4 lbs. POTATOES, 1 CABBAGE—
TURNIP and one SHOPPING BAG—
ALL FOR 69c

SHOULDERS 15c
Cut from Fresh Lean Little Pigs .... lb.

SAUERKRAUT.. 3 lbs. 25c

"MEADOWBROOK"—Our Best Quality Fresh Creamery
BUTTER lb 35c
This good butter retains its popularity with the thrifty shoppers who know quality in butter

Tasty Whole Milk Cheese lb 25c

Pure Silverleaf LARD .... 2 lbs. 25c

Best NATIVE POTATOES 15 lb. peck 25c

Florida GRAPEFRUIT ...... 5 for 25c

Sweet, Juicy Florida ORANGES 15 for 25c

SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY!

FRESH BAKED Lemon Meringue Pies each 19c
Crispy crusts filled with delicious real lemon filling and covered with meringue. Our regular 25c kind.

Mohican Fresh Baked Rolls doz. 15c
Made in Every Variety
Parkerhouse, Vienna, Sandwich .... 2 doz. 25c
Frankfurter, Split, Snowflake and Raised Biscuit

FOUR MONEY-SAVING SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK!
FINE QUALITY — REAL VALUES
WHOLE GREEN PEAS, lb.
GREEN SPLIT PEAS, lb...
YELLOW SPLIT PEAS, lb.. 7c

CATSUP bottle 8c
An 8-ounce bottle of real tomato catsup, spiced just to suit.

THE MOHICAN MARKETS GIVE PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO CLEANLINESS IN THE HANDLING AND TO THE SANITARY PROTECTION OF ALL FOODS

MOHICAN
MARKET AND BAKERY
FRANKLIN SQUARE

1796 1930

Norwich Bulletin

Norwich Courier

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 35-R
Bulletin Job Room 35-W

Willimantic Office
Jordan Block, Lincoln Square. Phone 1131-2.

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 15c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

140 YEARS OLD

Members of The Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published therein.
All rights of republication of the special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1930

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President Hoover is mindful of the fact that there are matters which need the attention of congress but which are not pressing and should not be allowed to interrupt the enactment of the legislation that is required at this time. These matters, he says in his message to congress, should be taken care of at some appropriate time, but such matters as unemployment and drought relief should be given attention now. Beyond those, he urges early completion of legislation on Muscle Shoals, motor bus regulation, relief of court congestion, border patrol reorganization to prevent smuggling, and law enforcement in the national capital. That the supply and appropriation bills should be acted upon goes without saying, although the president did not touch upon the desirability of preventing an extra session of congress for, as might be anticipated, nothing would serve to bring about the necessity of an extra session more than such a plea from him.

In connection with the provision for unemployment, the president pointed out the fine cooperation which has been given by public utilities, railroads and other corporations, whose volume of work in anticipation of future needs has exceeded that of 1929. The cooperation from employers of labor, labor leaders, state and municipal governments has been most gratifying and effective, but the president wisely says that "economic depression cannot be cured by legislative action or executive pronouncement. Economic wounds must be healed by the producers and consumers themselves. Recovery can be expedited and its effects mitigated by cooperative action."

While the president attributes some responsibility for the depression to the speculative period, he finds that that might have been quickly adjusted but for the other deep-seated causes, such as world-wide overproduction in basic commodities out of all proportion to the demands, and the major forces of the depression are now outside this country.

It was not impossible for the president to find encouraging factors for the future, despite the depression, for he pointed out we are holding from 80 to 85 per cent of our normal activities and incomes; our major financial and industrial institutions have come through the storm unimpaired; price levels of major commodities have remained approximately stable for some time; a number of industries are showing signs of increased demand and the general outlook reflects grounds for confidence. Furthermore depressions are but temporary. They have been weathered before and we are stronger and better able to do so now than ever before.

In dealing with the emergency and to accelerate federal construction in the next six months, an appropriation of $150,000,000 is recommended, but the president leaves to congress the amount that should be provided for seed and feed loans to farmers. But in making these recommendations and in considering federal finances, he advises deferring other plans for increasing government expenditures if there is to be avoided an increase in taxation over and above the discontinuance of the 1 per cent tax cut of the present year. As time passes, the president believes there will be opportunity for action dealing with influences which make for instability, such being based upon the lessons of the present experience.

The president disclosed that what he will have to say concerning the world court will be incorporated in a special message, and while he made no reference to a special session he did advance the thought that there are certain questions bound to come before congress which might be prepared for subsequent action through committees cooperating with the federal departments.

There may be disappointment because he had nothing to say concerning prohibition but that was hardly to be expected in view of the fact that the Wickersham committee has not as yet reported. When it does report there will be opportunity for plenty to be said and possibly another special message.

In keeping with the recommendations of Secretary Davis, the president urges early attention for the strengthening of the immigration laws and the deportation laws, and it is a recommendation that will get hearty endorsement.

The message deals with facts and conditions, urges needed action and should get considerate attention.

NYE TURNED DOWN

"I think the voting on the floor today needs a lot of explaining. I don't know what to make of it." Such was the expression of Senator Gerald Nye, chairman of the senate investigating committee, who had made a report in which he recommended denying the oath of office to Senator-elect Davis of Pennsylvania, formerly secretary of labor in the cabinets of three presidents, and whose motion was denied by more than a two to one vote.

Evidently the senate is getting as sick and tired of the practices of the senate in trying to upset the wish of the voters in various states as the country is. The Nye committee has been busy all summer and fall snooping into the campaigns of senators and the expenditures made in behalf of successful candidates. It has done this on the ground that the senate has the right to pass on the fitness of its members, and regardless of the fact that it rests with the people of the various states to elect those they desire to represent them in the senate.

From the manner in which states have been denied representation and the persons elected to the senate have been denied their seats, the senate has been proceeding under a free and easy interpretation of its rights. In its endeavor to keep down the expenditure of large sums in primary campaigns it has not undertaken to change the law but has concentrated upon excluding those duly elected from their seats. Such high-handed methods have become discreditable, even indicating that any sliding standard might be established for their own members so long as senators-elect might be tripped.

The attempt to deny Senator Davis his seat was not based upon facts. Something in the way of an 11th-hour report to the committee had influenced the move. Even the proof had not been obtained and yet Senator Nye expected the senate to kow tow to such a flimsy committee recommendation. It is to the credit of the senate that it refused to sanction any such course and if there is any explaining to be done it should come from the Nye committee for submitting something which could not be backed up. The action of the Nye committee in this particular instance is enough to cast suspicion over all the investigations which it has been conducting. The country will distrust it, even if the senate doesn't, although the action taken amounts to a rebuke.

HINCKS FOR JUDGE

In the recommendation of the name of Carroll C. Hincks of Waterbury as junior federal judge from Connecticut, Senator Bingham has selected a man who should prove a credit to the government and the district, as well as to Connecticut and himself, if the record he has made and the standing he has amount to anything.

This is a recommendation that must be regarded as based upon merit, inasmuch as in the choice of a Connecticut judge to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Warren B. Burrows of Groton, Senator Bingham called upon the state bar association for recommendations. The association's special committee on judicial appointments was called into action, looked the state over carefully and agreed by a unanimous vote in a committee made up of three democrats and two republicans that Attorney Hincks possessed the right qualifications for the place on the federal bench. The senator has adopted the committee's suggestion, accepted its judgment as his own, and it is highly probable that the man picked by the state bar committee, who not only know men and attorneys but judicial material, will become district judge.

A graduate of Yale Law school with 18 years experience at the bar, with three years of law study in England, Attorney Hincks has not only had opportunity to demonstrate his fitness but from the verdict of the committee has succeeded in doing so. In resorting to the method adopted, Senator Bingham is entitled to much commendation for it makes it apparent that ability rather than politics has been the governing factor in the selection. Too much care cannot be taken in securing the right men for judicial office.

POISON GAS

Discussion at Geneva at the present time dealing with the matter of disarmament is but preliminary to the conference when final decisions will be rendered. In the discussion, however, there is revealed the tendency of the various countries represented and there cannot fail to be interest displayed in the disposition to look with favor upon the idea of eliminating poison gas in warfare.

Probably it is too much to expect that the general disarmament conference, when it assembles, will rush headlong into the adoption of any agreement of that character, but that is a disarmament move that has obtained much support.

The horrors that have been created by poison gas and the possibilities of wiping out cities and the non-combatants are all too well understood by the respective nations. One of the great objections to the idea of outlawing gas is that there would be great difficulty in knowing that it was being respected or that, in case war should develop, it would not be resorted to in cases of desperation.

It had been regarded as against the rules of war during the struggle in Europe, but it was brought into use and those who had not planned to fight that way were forced to retaliate in kind, and the record of its ravages is all too well understood. There are those who regard the use of gas as more humane than the use of other weapons. They might also contend that it can be made to greatly swell the casualty lists and wipe out humanity quicker.

With the efforts for the prevention of war being consistently maintained such support as can be given by the elimination of certain needless weapons of war is bound to be beneficial. Prehaps if it is sought long and persistently enough the goal may be obtained some day.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner inquires: Have you begun to think about your 1931 resolutions?

Boston has located the long missing Garret through surrender, but the mystery as to where he has been still continues.

Near fatalities show that there are still parents who leave matches where they can be got by young and mischievous children.

Believing that the horn is overworked, the commissioner of motor vehicles in Pennsylvania calls for less horn and more brakes. And then he might add brakes with less squeak in them.

This session of congress will see a strong fight against the lame ducks, but newly elected senators are encountering just as much opposition unless they please the holler-than-thou insurgents.

ELDER SWAN, OLD BETHEL'S FAMED EXHORTER, CONVERTED THOUSANDS HEREABOUT

The Rev. Jabez Smith Swan—"Elder Swan"—was probably the most outstanding of all the exhorters at Old Bethel chapel, that ancient landmark of Norwich which is now once more in the public eye because of impending realty changes that are to take place on its former site at the West Main street approach to the Union depot.

The career of Elder Swan is thus recalled in The Bulletin of March 27, 1913:

An Old-Fashioned Evangelist.

Among eastern Connecticut people of the middle eighties there is still a vivid recollection on the powerful preaching of Rev. Jabez Smith Swan, "Elder Swan" as he was known, a native of Stonington and one of the old-fashioned type of evangelists.

The famous evangelist was born in Stonington Feb. 23, 1800, and died in New London, Nov. 14, 1884. The latter part of his life was clouded by a mental trouble, but his splendid physique withstood the ravages of time until he was nearly 85 years of age.

Jabez Smith Swan was the son of Joshua and Esther Smith Swan. His father was a farmer, and his early life was marked by the severe toil that was characteristic of those who tilled the soil in those days in Connecticut.

Joined Church in North Lyme.

In 1812 young Swan's parents moved to Lyme, and it was there, five years later, when he had attained his majority, that he joined the church in North Lyme, and on May 12, 1823, he was licensed to preach. Preaching the gospel was a source of pleasure to him, and he went at the work with all of the enthusiasm that he was capable of. For two years he worked at secular employments and then, deciding to take up the ministry permanently, he went to Hamilton, N. Y., to attend the Literary and Theological seminary, which later became Madison university. Before going to the seminary the young preacher married Miss Laura Griffin of East Haddam.

Every Sunday while he was in college he rode 20 miles to serve a small church, and received in return for his time and trouble the sum of 50 cents per sermon.

Besides preaching, he used to spend several hours a day cutting timber, and he managed to pick up about 37 1-2 cents a day in that way.

Pastor at Stonington.

Elder Swan was ordained as pastor of the Stonington borough church on June 20, 1827. Very soon after he took up the pastorate the desire for evangelistic work began to take possession of him. Those were the days of protracted meetings, and he very soon was making a reputation for himself as one of the most effective preachers that has ever been heard in this part of the state.

In the spring of 1830 he moved to Norwich, N. Y., accepting the call to the church there at the same salary he was receiving in Stonington. Money was of little consequence to him in connection with his preaching. When it became known that the Norwich church had called him the Stonington people offered to double his salary if he would stay, but he saw an opportunity for effective service and declined to neglect to improve it.

He was very effective in Norwich, hundreds of conversions resulting from his preaching. He afterwards served in Preston and Oxford, N. Y., in both places building up the churches and making a deep impression on the community. In 1840 he resigned the Oxford pastorate to take up evangelistic work, and he had wonderful success in that line of activity.

In 1842 he returned to Stonington and began a series of meetings. From there he went to Mystic and it is recorded that 400 converts were baptized.

New London Revival of 1842.

Elder Swan came to New London in October, 1842, and began a revival at the First Baptist church, which was then under the pastoral care of Rev. Henry R. Knapp. A great religious awakening followed his efforts, the converts numbering about 300.

His next field of labor was Albany, N. Y., where he was wonderfully successful. He stirred the whole city by his terrific arraignment of sin and the result was about 3,000 conversions and the evangelist baptized 1,200 of that number.

In 1843 Elder Swan came back to New London and became pastor of the First Baptist church. He went back to Albany in 1848 and the following year accepted the call of the newly organized Huntington street Baptist church of that city and became its first pastor. He labored effectively with that church, which he served twice as pastor. Hundreds were converted there and frequently the meetings were followed by midnight baptisms in the river.

Later he served the Second church of New London as pastor and also the Waterford church. His last days were spend in retirement at New London and many recall his personal appearance after he had long passed the allotted three score and ten.

Scores Cried Out in Agony.

Elder Swan was never happier than when engaged in a revival. He delighted in bringing the necessity of repentance to the people, and it was a great satisfaction to him to mark the effect of his burning words and witness scores at once in an agony of conviction crying for mercy.

He could preach in a manner that was most effective. He was a man of strong convictions, and what he believed he was not afraid or ashamed to state in the most public manner. He was a big man physically, and he had no fear of any consequences that might come to him from the energetic way in which he denounced wrongdoers of every kind.

Elder Swan was interested in temperance as well as religion, and he was an ardent abolitionist. He believed in a personal devil and in the most orthodox kind of hell, and when he painted the horrible fate that awaited the unregenerate he did it in such vivid word pictures that people were scared half out of their wits.

There was no question in his mind that the Baptist faith was right and he was unsparing in his criticism of those who differed with him. At the same time he was one of the best-hearted men who ever lived in New London and would take the coat from his own back for the sake of helping somebody who was in need. His theology was of the most inflexible character, but he was tender-hearted and sympathetic to the highest degree.

The date of Elder Swan's death, given above as Nov. 14, 1884, does not coincide with that given in the Bulletin of Nov. 20, 1884, when it published the following obituary article:

Died in 1884.

The Rev. Jabez S. Swan, the renowned revivalist, died at his home in New London at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, in the 84th year of his age. He has been confined to his house by a protracted illness for the past six months. Elder Swan was one of the best known men of his day, not only throughout New England, but in nearly every state in the union where he engaged in religious revivals. He began his pastoral career in Stonington, Conn., and thence went to Norwich, N. Y. After a successful career in other places, he became, at different times, the pastor of the several Baptist churches in New London.

He was a man of real genius, and to the gifts of genius he added the impetus of industry and indefatigable energy. Endowed with an iron constitution and encouraged by an inflexible purpose to do good to his fellowmen, he preached and exhorted and traveled day and night with his great heart aflame with the word of God.

His Clarion Voice.

His voice and manner were all his own. No preacher in his time possessed such a voice, so full of inflection and intonation. It was a clarion, and yet he could moderate it to expressions of the most exquisite tenderness.

For over half a century he labored for the salvation of others, driving about from town to town, serving his Lord Who has now called the faithful worker to his home. Elder Swan leaves a widow, a son and a daughter.

Concerning the results of Elder Swan's ministry at Old Bethel we have no first-hand testimony from the daily Bulletin files. But it is probably not too much to assume that these results were comparable with those which the elder obtained in many other places hereabout. As showing how his revival work affected other parts of eastern Connecticut in the 1840's, the Mystic correspondent of The Bulletin wrote on June 17, 1884:

Converted 600 in Mystic Valley.

The oldest Baptist association in Conecticut, the Stonington Union, meets this week with the oldest Baptist church in Connecticut, the First Baptist church of Groton, at Mystic, commencing on Wednesday, June 18th, at 10 o'clock. It is the 120th anniversary of the founding of the First church, and the 113th of the association.

It was in this valley that the great revival of 1842 occurred, when Elder Jabez S. Swan, then in his prime as an evangelist, preached continuously for many weeks, baptizing daily. There were 600. The accession to the churches of this vicinity were recorded in the public prints as follows:

Fort Hill Baptist, including Noank and Mystic River, 260, under the care of the Rev. Ira R. Steward; Third Baptist church of Groton, at Mystic River, then under the care of Rev. Erastus Denison, 150; Methodist Episcopal church, at Upper and Lower Mystic, 100, the Rev. Mr. Phelps, preacher; First Baptist church of Groton, the Rev. B. F. Hedden, pastor, 45; First Congregational church of Stonington, (Road church,) the Rev. Nehemiah B. Cook, pastor, 25.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORY

Jerry's Dreadful Advice

Sometimes advice you think sounds bad
Will prove the best that could be had.
—Jerry Muskrat.

It is true. There is bad advice and good advice and sometimes the latter sounds the worse. It was this way with the young muskrat caught in a trap on an old log on the bank of the Laughing brook. His father, Jerry Muskrat, had found him in his terrible trouble and actually had saved his life by leading Reddy Fox away before Reddy discovered the trapped youngster. That experience had made clear to the young muskrat how terrible was the trouble he was in. Reddy Fox might come back any time, or Old Man Coyote might happen along, or Hooty the Great Horned Owl might discover him, or Yowler the Bob Cat might chance that way. Each of these would be glad, very glad, of a muskrat dinner.

Jerry Muskrat looked the trap all over and even tried the chain with his teeth. At last he spoke. "You'll have to lose that leg," said he.

"What?" cried the young muskrat. "What do you mean?"

"Just what I say," replied Jerry. "It is the only way in which you can hope to get free of that trap. A two-legged creature, probably that strange boy we have seen about, set that trap. Sometime, probably this coming morning, he will visit this trap and when he finds you caught he will kill you with a stick."

"What will he kill me for? I haven't done him any harm," said the young muskrat.

"I don't know what he will kill you for, but kill you he will if he finds you here in this trap," replied Jerry. "You mustn't be there when he comes. I know. I've seen things happen to little people that were trapped. You'll have to lose that leg or lose your life. It is your choice—your leg or your life. I know which I would choose were I in your place and it wouldn't take me long to make the choice either."

"But how can I choose?" whinned the young muskrat.

"By cutting your leg off or twisting it off," replied Jerry.

"How can I cut my lef off?" demanded the horrified young muskrat.

"With your teeth," replied Jerry.

"What, gnaw my own leg off? Use my own teeth to do such a dreadful thing as that?" cried the young muskrat, and shivered.

Jerry nodded. "I have seen it done more than once. It is your leg or your life."

"But I can't do that," wailed the young muskrat. "Perhaps that trapper will forget to come back."

"Perhaps he will," replied Jerry. "I have known of such a thing. Then you will stay right here and starve to death unless Reddy Fox or some other hungry enemy finds you first, which is quite likely to happen as you discovered tonight. If I hadn't been here to lead him away Reddy would have had you this very night."

The young muskrat knew that this was true. It had been the narrowest escape in his short life. He shivered when he thought how narrow it had been. And he shivered more when he thought of what a dreadful thing it would be to cut his leg off. The pain of doing it would be dreadful, and afterward it would be dreadful to have only one front leg. He didn't see how he could possibly get along with only one. There must, there simply must be some other way out of his dreadful trouble. He said so. Jerry shook his head sadly.

"But I can't do that," wailed the Young Muskrat

"It is your leg or your life," said he. "It is for you to choose."

Do you wonder that that poor young muskrat whimpered and whimpered? All the time that imprisoned leg was causing him great suffering, and at the same time he was filled with terror of what he must do or of what would happen if he didn't do it. Jerry Muskrat's advice was dreadful, but it was good advice even if the young muskrat couldn't see it that way.

(Copyright, 1930, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "A Day of Misery."

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—It is an odd circumstance that California, on the eve of enjoying a nine vote increase in the house and the electoral college, should by pure oversight be faced with the loss of one house vote during the remainder of the present congress.

Yet that is what has happened since Charles F. Curry, Jr., elected to succeed his late father in the 72nd congress, was not also elected to fill out the remainder of his father's term.

He had no opposition. Curry senior had his district thoroughly organized, which seems to be a habit with representatives from California. It was just that in the hurry of getting word around after Curry senior's death to write young Curry's name on the ballots, the three months remaining of the 71st congress was forgotten.

Young Curry is clerk of his late father's committee, that on territories. The chairmanship reverts now to Johnson of Washington under the seniority rule, or to Dowell of Iowa more likely as Johnson is also immigration committee head.

And unless Representative-elect Curry is to go off the payroll until March 4 next, it looks as though he would have to continue as clerk of the committee on territories. It can not have been often that a representative-elect has served in such a capacity.

Reapportionment

Incidentally, Rankin of Mississippi, who has aspirations toward democratic leadership in the house should democratic control in the 72nd congress develop and Jack Garner become speaker, lost no time in sounding off on the reapportionment matter.

And administration hopes to avoid a special session of the 72nd congress can not be the brighter for the fact that reapportionment is bound to be an urgent problem for the winter session.

Why not? If the short session takes no action not only the house of the 73rd (1932)congress would be automatically remodeled on 1930 census figures; but the next electoral college would show the same shifting of voting strength.

Not only that. Apportionment of state delegations to national conventions of the two major parties is based also on congressional apportionment.

Significance

With the shift of population from farm to city reflected so decidedly in the 1930 census results and the automatic reapportionment calculations, the thing becomes vitally important politically.

Presidential nominations as well as presidential elections may hinge on just what is done between now and March 4, 1931.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Christmas in China

Mr. Editor: I wonder if you have any boys and girls among your readers. If so can they imagine a place in all the world without Christmas and its joys? One such place is down here on the "bottom-side of the world." The slant-eyed "yaller" kiddies here do not have Christmas trees. They do not "hang up baby's stockings the biggest you can get." Santa Claus with his sleigh and reindeer and bags of toys seldom finds his way to China. It may be because the roads are too narrow and the reindeer fear getting their feet wet in the rice-fields, or because there is so little snow and ice, or it may be because Chinese houses have so few chimneys, or perhaps Santa Claus is afraid of falling off the "bottom-side" of the earth, or may be even because nobody has shown him the way here.

Chinese children do not wait up at night to get a sly peep at him. Nor do they run down stairs very early on Christmas morning to see what Santa has put on the Christmas tree or with what wonderful things he has filled their stockings. Just think of it! A land with no Christmas! I say "No Christmas;" but it is not quite "No," for once in a while some English or American store will have a Santa Claus or a Christmas tree in the window for the sake of English boys and girls. Then lots of wee Chinese noses interestedly press against the window-glass.

Then, too, I and my American friends, friends of little children, are trying to be Santa Claus to at least 90) little kiddies in my ragged Sunday schools in Shanghai. The happiest little Brownies you ever saw are my little "Chinks" as on Christmas day I and my helpers tell them the glad Christmas story and distribute among them apples, oranges, and peanuts; dolls and balls; toys and candy. How the eyes of my little people sparkle. How happily they smile and how gratefully they say, "Zia-zia-noong" (thank, thank you), as they receive the gifts of American friends. I wish all your boy and girl readers could be with us and see how happy my boys and girls are with the simplest gifts. They would be glad not only for the delight of my little ones; but they would better appreciate their own Christmas gifts. They would also realize how much boys and girls in China are like American boys and girls with their likes and dislikes, their joys and sorrows, their tears and smiles and would feel that they are indeed their own brothers and sisters.

Some say there is no Santa Claus. I think of him as that great big heart of love that tries to make other people happy. Don't you think that true, Mr. Editor?

Now may I ask you to carry to all your good readers, children and grown-ups, my best wishes for a merry Christmas. Keep lots also for yourself.

Yours from the land of the "Chins Chinks,"

(REV.) H. G. C. HALLOCK.
Shanghai, China, Oct. 11, 1930.

YOUR HEALTH

Fatigue In Relation To Personal Hygiene

By Sidney McCurdy, M. D., Youngstown, Ohio.

(From Gorgas Memorial Institute)

It has been proved that there is a definite relationship between normal health and fatigue. It now promises soon to be possible to reduce to figures, the amount of rest necessary to compensate for a given amount of energy used up by work. Progressive industrial organizations are constantly trying to organize their practice in order to increase individual output without harming the health of the workers. Plant hygiene, plant sanitation, plant lighting, and safety devices cause a tremendous expenditure of money, but is of little or no value unless supplemented by a similar effort on the part of the employees.

The employee must, in this day, so order his life that he is physically and mentally able to do his work properly and safely, or he will cease to progress and may be will soon be in the discard. One's health is very largely kept by individual effort and can be acquired and kept by observing the rules of personal hygiene that we all know. The indifference to the personal care of our bodies is appalling and terribly costly, both in money and unnecessary suffering. The responsibility is largely ours and cannot be passed on to others.

As a fundamental promise, no one can expect to prosper and be happy unless he lives a life suitable to maintaining and raising his resistance to the ravages of sickness and disease. Accurate functioning of the brain cannot be expected when one is not well or overcome by the waste products of fatigue. Therefore, the conditions necessary for correct living must be considered. No matter what sanitary safeguards surround a person at work, there will be failure unless industry employs the man who take care of himself. Most people know how to care for themselves, even if they do not practice the rules of personal hygiene.

There occur in many industries of heat cramps, heat exhaustion and heat prostrations which cause disabilities and sometimes death. If we assume that an employee is in normal physical health, we are convinced that the hours and character of the work are not the cause of these disorders. Particular stress should be laid upon the home conditions, and personal hygiene, as preventive measures. People must keep in good shape to work safely in heat and especially heat with great humidities. Such a physical well-being calls for proper food, elimination of waste products through the bowels, kidneys and skin, sufficient fresh air in the home—day and night—and rest sufficient to offset the fatigue incurred during the working hours.

It is found that very often increased leisure is not used for rest and wholesome recreation. The past summer, many of our cases of heat disorders very frequently give a history of dietary indiscretions, excessive drinking, running around during the leisure hours at the expense of required rest. Not infrequently, with the shorter working day, we see cases which have tried to work 8 or 10 hours in industry and then attempt to carry on farming or other businesses when they should have been resting.

Foremen are learning that they are responsible for the men under their supervision. They see that their men look physically fit when they report for work. They are coming to see that it is their duty to watch the force at all times while under their care, and at the sign of exhaustion, diminish the amount of labor or order the person home for rest. In one organization where this plan has been tried, seriousness of heat disorders has been practically eliminated.

If employees will realize that they are responsible for their own personal hygiene, and if industry provides the known essentials of plant hygiene, lowered resistance, the forerunner of sickness, can be lessened and its attendant disasters conquered.

What Do You Know About Eastern Connecticut?

1.—Where is the locality in New London known as Bloomingdale?

2.—Who conducted the Lyme academy in 1870?

3.—How many banks were doing business in Mystic in 1870?

4.—What were their names?

5.—What were their business addresses?

6.—When was Lebanon named?

7.—From what place?

8.—What does the name mean in Hebrew?

Answers Will Be Found On Classified Page

DO YOU KNOW CONNECTICUT?

By Conn. Chamber of Commerce

Q. Who built the first steamboat in the world?

A. John Fitch, a native of East Windsor.

Q. What city is called "The Hat City?"

A. Danbury, which has more than 50 factories engaged in the manufacture of fur, felt and straw hats and hat materials.

Q. What is the circulation of Connecticut newspapers?

A. The daily newspapers have a combined morning and evening circulation of almost 500,000; Sunday newspapers have a circulation of more than 200,000.

Q. What are the functions of the board of compensation commissioners?

Q. Where was the first lighthouse in the state erected?

Q. How heavy is the average snowfall in Connecticut?

(Answers to these questions will be published in Friday's paper.)

A HISTORY OF CONNECTICUT INDUSTRY

Released by Manufacturers Association of Connecticut

The Embalmers' Supply Co., Westport.

In 1887 C. B. Dolge and Max Huncke entered into partnership for the manufacture and sale of embalming fluid in Brooklyn, N. Y. It was in 1892 that the partnership was incorporated under the name of The Embalmers' Supply Co., with headquarters and research laboratory at Westport, Conn.

Carl B. Dolge was a pioneer in the use of formaldehyde for embalming, having procured the first supply of the fluid from Germany in 1894, immediately after practical production of the chemical had been possible. After much research and many experiments, a year later the first embalming fluid, based upon formaldehyde, was compounded in the Westport laboratory. Since that time there have been other aids to the profession discovered and perfected which are known today as "Esco" products. These include instruments, equipment and accessories of all kinds as well as chemical preparations.

The Embalmers' Supply Co. under the direction of A. H. and K. A. Dolge, sons of the late Carl Dolge, is now known as the largest funeral supply house in the world.

The present officers are: Karl A. Dolge, president; Arthur H. Dolge, vice president and treasurer; Henry R. Oche, secretary; Charles F. Hendricks, general manager.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CO

The CHRISTMAS STORE

Great Stocks of Gift Things for Everyone

at Prices the Lowest in Years!

Make this a most joyous Christmas—by giving practical things—gifts of merit and quality—Eastern Connecticut's big Christmas store is meeting the demand of practical things of merit in a way that will win the admiration of all Gift Seekers. Bring your gift problems to us. We can solve them quickly from great, attractive Stocks at prices that make Christmas giving a real pleasure.

NOW IN PROGRESS

SALE OF CHRISTMAS HANDKERCHIEFS

FOR WOMEN

12½c and 15c
IRISH PRINTS
6 for 50c

Ladies' Handkerchiefs in real Irish Printed designs.

25c Grade
IRISH LINEN
6 for $1.00

100% Pure Irish Linen, all neatly hand embroidered and hand rolled edges—in a multiplicity of patterns and colorings.

39c and 50c
SHEER LINEN
4 for $1.00

In a most bewitching array of real hand embroidered styles — dainty colorings—edges all hand rolled.

FOR MEN

25c Grade
IRISH LINEN
6 for $1.00

100% pure Irish Linen, all hemstitched styles.

39c Grade
HEMSTITCHED LINEN
4 for $1.00

Size 19x19 All Linen Handkerchiefs, hemstitched and hand drawn on good quality Linen.

75c Grade
PURE IRISH LINEN
2 for $1.00

High grade pure Irish Linen, all hand rolled edges, tape borders.

FOR COMING HOLIDAYS' FORMAL OCCASIONS

Smart Tuxedos
$22.95

Regular Value $30.00

Men who take pride in wearing what is correct will profit by this timely offering in formal and dinner attire. —Coat, Trousers and Silk Vest of the finest of materials—a Christmas gift that will delight the Academy or college student.

Our Daily Special

Percale
Coverall Aprons
39c
3 for $1.15

Regular Value 69c each

Made of the best quality Percale in all this season's new designs—light and medium color—regular and extra sizes.

ON SALE WEDNESDAY

No Mail or Telephone Orders

TOYLAND IS OPEN!

Offering Values Not Duplicated in Toys for Many Years!

Santa certainly must have been busy this year, for he has sent us such a wonderful collection of dolls and dishes, wagons and cars, books and boats, animals, automobiles, trains and games and a host of other things to make this Christmas the happiest ever.

Santa Will Arrive Saturday, December 6th

Santa himself will be here next Saturday. He is due to arrive at his workshop in our big window at 3 P. M. He is looking forward to greet all his little friends.

TYPEWRITERS
Authorized Factory Representative
for
ROYALS — CORONAS

All Makes and Models
SOLD, RENTED, REPAIRED
RELIABLE TYPEWRITER
EXCHANGE
287 Main Street, Lerou Bldg.
Tel. NORWICH 2490W

Agent for EASY
Washer and Ironer
United Music Co.
For Demonstration Call 3283
84 Main St., Norwich, Conn

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets help arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, people rarely suffer from indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Try Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. All druggists. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like.

For Your Next Breakfast
Eat Our
Home Made
PORK SAUSAGE or
SAUSAGE MEAT
100% Pure
40c per lb.
THUMM'S
Delicatessen Store
40 Franklin Street

Colds
TO RELIEVE—
Start thorough bowel action and rid your system of poisonous waste as soon as you notice the first sign of a cold. Just take NATURE'S REMEDY—NR Tablets—and be sure of prompt, easy and pleasant results. It is more thorough in action and far better than ordinary laxatives. Try it.
The All-Vegetable Laxative
NR TO-NIGHT
Make the test tonight
TUMS for the tummy! Quick relief for sour stomach, acid indigestion and heartburn. Tums are antacid. Only 10c.

HERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR ELDERLY FOLKS

J. F. Becker, Flint, Michigan, writes, "I have taken Kruschen Salts for some months and do not miss a dose and find them a life saving and helping preparation. I praise them to my friends and family as the best aid in feeling always fit and clear in mind—in fact am enjoying better health than in my young life—I am now 82 years of age." An 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—Get Kruschen Salts at any drug store in the World—Millions take this little daily health dose.

Will Give Student Recital

A student recital will be given Thursday evening in the gymnasium of Connecticut college, under the personal direction of Dr. J. Lawrence Erb, head of the department of music. The program consists of the classics and the moderns, interpreted by the piano, voice and violin in solo and ensemble form. This is the first semester recital and it is open to the public, for whom there is admission without charge.

Student Nurses Return

Student nurses at the Backus hospital returning from the New Haven Visiting Nurse association were the Misses Ruth Ryan and Dorothy Malcolm. Nurses leaving for affiliation with the Yale School of Nursing are Misses Julia Green and Mona Holland.

Beecham's Pills
THE NATION'S LAXATIVE
Relieve Constipation
Naturally
Safe, effective laxative for all the family.
25c—50c at all druggists
Tried also 10c

1790 1930

Norwich, Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1930

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 4:49 this evening.

Light rain is the prediction of Daboll's Almanac for the mid-week.

Exchanging thermometer records is a favorite neighborhood pastime, these Arctic mornings.

It is reported that one man in Stonington recently obtained over 50 eels for an afternoon's work.

Local dealers in smart footwear are proffering some very enticing holiday novelties in both shoes and hose.

Many families received their morning milk nicely frappe, free of extra charge, in Tuesday's low temperature.

The leader of the women's prayer meeting at the Central Baptist church Tuesday afternoon was Mrs. Ralph W. Gallup.

Mrs. Alice P. Mitchell will entertain the Baptist Ladies' Aid society at her home in Palmertown Thursday afternoon.

The stores offer many devices and methods by which gifts for the coming holiday may be made by children themselves.

By today, the 3rd of December, the length of the day has decreased just six hours since the longest days of mid-June.

Pinochle party, Grotto Home, Thurs Dec. 4, at 8 p. m.—Adv.

Foley's Almanac warns mankind that the unlucky days this month are the 20th and 21st, but that the 5th and 6th will be unusually lucky.

Numerous SOS calls came to coal, wood and oil dealers from early morning Tuesday and orders were being filled until late at night.

Under the direction of Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, the girls' choir of Trinity Methodist church is rehearsing for a Christmas concert.

Baked ham supper at Uncasville Community house tonight, 5:30 to 7:30. —Adv.

For the young people of Park Congregational church, the Bible study for Sunday evening was found in Genesis—the story of the Creation and the Fall.

Regular meeting Conn. Council Catholic Women, tonight, 7:30 sharp. —Adv.

At Hamburg, Mrs. Flora Buccini has closed her place, Floral Gardens, on the Grassy hill road, for the season and will spend the winter in New York.

William Sprague, of Chaplin, who has been unemployed for several weeks, expects to leave Thursday for Westerly, where he will be engaged in a sawmill.

Regular meeting Somerset Lodge, No. 34, 7.30 p. m. tonight. M. M. degree. —Adv.

Francis J. Lehane, engineer in the coast guard, and Carrie E. McMann, of New London, were married, in New London Tuesday by Justice of the Peace Jacob Sherb.

Chicken pie supper, Montville Center Cong'l. church Thurs., Dec. 4, 5:30 p. m.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Cary, of Hampton, who left recently on an automobile trip to St. Petersburg, Fla., arrived at their apartment in time for Thanksgiving dinner.

A month's mind high mass of requiem for Francis Marcheseault was sung in St. Patrick's church Tuesday at 8 o'clock by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May.

Store windows about Norwich were frosted early Tuesday evening and as far as conditions went, it might as well have been mid-winter except that there was no snow.

A committee headed by Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell has arranged a cradle roll party for Saturday afternoon at the United Congregational church school rooms, at 3:30.

Niantic, in the town of East Lyme, with a population of 7,368, thinks itself overweighted with clubs and societies, having 54, mostly busied with benefit sales, suppers and the like.

Tuesday evening, A. B. C. circle of the Central Baptist church met with Mrs. George Phillips, of East Great Plain. In-as-Much circle was entertained by Mrs. C. S. Storms, 575 Main street.

Jas. J. Walsh, Dr., psychologist, author, scholar of international reputation will speak in St. Patrick's Parish hall. Wed. Dec. 3 at 8 p. m. on "How to Keep Mentally Fit." Tickets 35c.—Adv.

A new anthem, "I Beheld and Lo, a Great Multitude!" was written recently by Prof. Clara Tillinghast, of the music department of Mt. Holyoke college. Miss Tillinghast is a Vernon, Conn., woman.

It is doubtful if any home gardener can match the record of David H. Purvis, of Mohegan road, who from a ten-cent package of carrot seed harvested, this season, seven bushels of prime vegetables.

Back taxes, carried on the city's books for years and which there is never any hope of collecting, amounting to $314.95 and covering the years 1898 to 1911, inclusive, have been abated by the city of Rockville.

How to Keep Mentally Fit by Jas. J. Walsh, former dean of Fordham Medical college, St. Patrick's Parish hall, tonight at 8. Tickets 35c.—Adv.

There are methodical residents of Norwich who will take pride, before the end of the week, in telling their friends that they have their holiday packages all ready for mailing and their Christmas cards all addressed.

Eugene Higgins, a member of Lyme Art association, has been named the winner in the opinion of the judges and confirmed by public opinion of the $500 prize donated by W. M. Kelley, of Chicago, for his picture, "Driven Away."

C. A. Post's book, "Doan's Corners—and the City Four Miles West" (Cleveland), now in circulation at the Otis Library, is of interest to all in Eastern Connecticut, since the birthplace of the founder of Cleveland, Ohio, was in Canterbury.

Whist, Pinochle, Lafayette hall tonight. Good prizes.—Adv.

Mrs. George Maynard Minor left Waterford Tuesday for Boston, where she will attend a meeting of the D. A. R. Mrs. Minor has closed her home at Oswegatchie for the winter and will go to Washington, D. C., following the Boston meeting.

The gray days and long evenings of winter need mean nothing unpleasant to the residents of Norwich, in rooms and business places equipped with artificial light which makes surroundings bright as day. Thinking citizens all appreciate the value of the Norwich-owned electric lighting service.

Systematic tick eradication work was conducted in 25 Louisiana counties during October.

PERSONALS

Virtume Peloquin, of Versailles, who had his leg broken in two places in a fall while picking apples eight weeks ago had the cast removed Saturday.

Miss Louise Bourget is reported at Centerbrook to have been seriously injured in an automobile accident in Norwich Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Finnegan of New London have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace Marion Finnegan, to Carlyle Avery of Lakes pond, Waterford. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Harriet Turner, a nurse from Norwich, is in Chaplin caring for a Norwich patient, Mrs. Eva Holdredge, who has been ill for the past month at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter S. Vail.

NORWICH COLLEGE CLUB TO MEET AT COLLEGE

The Norwich College club will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the salon of Knowlton hall at Connecticut college, New London. Mrs. Willard P. Haugh, president of the Norwich club, will preside at the meeting, which will be informally addressed by President Katharine Blunt. Shortly after 3:30 o'clock there will be an informal reception and tea in the parlors at Knowlton. Miss Marguerite Hanson of the fine arts department and Miss Elizabeth C. Harris, dietitian, will be at the tea table. Following the tea, the Norwich College club members will be shown through the Palmer Memorial room in the library and through the new Fanning hall. Hostesses at the meeting will be the following members of the faculty: Dean Irene Nye, Miss Hyla M. Snider, Miss Carola L. Ernst, Dr. Pauline H. Dederer, Dr. Esther C. Cary, Dr. Mary C. McKee, Dr. Margaret S. Chaney, Miss Elizabeth Spicer, Miss Mildred Burdett and Dr. Bessie Bloom Wessel.

FUNERALS.

Thomas Gould.

The funeral of Thomas Gould of Massapeag was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parlors of Undertaker C. A. Gager and the officiating clergyman was Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, pastor of the Greeneville Congregational church. The burial was in Comstock cemetery, Montville, and Rev. Mr. Ricketts conducted the committal service. The bearers were Jeffery V. Colt, S. J. Colt, Charles Myers and George Flemming.

Mrs. Frederick Schneider.

Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Frederick Schneider was held at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Zemke, No. 252 Boswell avenue, with a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Carl Storek, pastor of the First Evangelical Lutheran church, conducted the service at the house and also the committal service at Maplewood cemetery. The bearers were Charles Schwenk, Theodore Schultz, George Lynch and Frederick J. Mitterer. There were a number of floral tributes. Undertaker C. A. Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Miss Margaret Shea.

With a very large attendance of relatives and friends the funeral of Miss Margaret Shea, late of East Hartford, was held at the home of her brother, Michael T. Shea, at Canterbury, Tuesday morning at 8.15 o'clock. There was a solemn requiem mass at Sacred Heart church, Wauregan, at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Quinn was the celebrant, Rev. J. C. Mathieu of North Grosvenordale was the deacon and Rev. Philip L. Massicott of Moosup was the subdeacon. Sister Mary Thomas had charge of the music and the children's choir sang. Chopin's Funeral March was rendered at the processional and at the offertory the choir sang Pie Jesu. The recessional number was Some Sweet Day.

The interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, this city, and the committal service was conducted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael H. May. M. Foley of Jewett City, Jerry Shea and Edward Kirby of Norwich, Harold Shea of Providence, P. L. Shea of New London and Jeremiah Foley of Jewett City, were the bearers. There was a wealth of very beautiful floral tributes. Mourners were present from New Haven, Hartford, Waterbury, New York, and other places. J. J. Lyons and Co. were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Miss Shea was a native of this city and for many years made her home here. For 15 years past she had lived at East Hartford. A few weeks ago she went to Canterbury to visit a brother and while there was taken ill, dying Sunday morning.

Miss Shea is survived by five brothers and two sisters, Michael T. Shea, of Canterbury, James Shea of Jewett City, Timothy C. Shea, and Jeremiah Shea of Providence and Daniel T. Shea of this city, and the Misses Theresa and Josephine Shea, both of Canterbury. There are also several nieces and nephews.

William J. Pepin.

The funeral of William J. Pepin of Taftville was held Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of his sisters-in-law, the Misses Faucher, 5 Hunters avenue. A mass of requiem, celebrated by Rev. Donat Jette, followed at Sacred Heart church at 9. The music was in charge of Miss Alice Frechette, the church organist.

Burial was in Sacred Heart cemetery and Rev. Fr. Jette was in charge of the committal. The bearers were Edmund Proulx, Noe Frechette, Philias Poirier, Arthur Fontaine, Pierre Dugas and Joseph Gouin. The floral remembrances were both many and beautiful. Funeral Director George Grant of Taftville, was in charge of the arrangements.

Backus Hospital Dismissals

Patients dismissed in the past two days at the Backus hospital were the following:

Dec. 1st—Stanley Romanoski, Preston; Martal Russi, Hunters avenue, Taftville. Dec. 2nd—Wm. Dwyer, Jr., Jewett City, Vero Kowalchuk, 261 Broadway; Phyllis Lilly, Stonington road; George Hill, 280 West Main street; Mrs. Franklin Hoxie and infant son, 30 Hamilton avenue; Mrs. L. Goffe Briggs and infant daughter, 200 McKinley avenue; Mrs. John Roach and infant son, 60 Dunham street; Michael Barniah, New London; Mrs. Wm. Ladd, Norwich Town.

Fire In Automobile

A call for a fire in an automobile on Washington street was received at 6:10 o'clock Tuesday evening by the fire department, but the damage resulting was nil. The machine, the property of Miss Ella C. Shannon, parked opposite No. 218 Washington street, caught fire when the owner attempted to start it. A backfire in the caburetor ignited oil and grease in the pan, and members of Engines Nos. 1 and 3, under direction of Deputy Chief Dennis Brennan, put out the blaze with three gallons of chemical. Apparently no damage was done, as the machine proceeded away under its own power.

JUDGE AND JURY VIEWED TRUCK IN TRIAL OF $35,000 AUTOMOBILE SUITS

Judge Ernest A. Inglis and the jury in the trial of two $35,000 damage suits in the superior court here Tuesday viewed the Frisbie company pie truck which caused the death of three-year-old William LaBounty, Jr., and severe injury to his six-year-old sister, Jeanne, children of Mr. and Mrs. William LaBounty of the Uncasville-Palmertown road, Montville. The trial will be continued today (Wednesday).

Trial of the two suits, one for $10,000 for the death of the little boy and the other for $25,000 for alleged permanent injuries to the little girl, was begun when court opened in the morning, with Attorneys Meyer Hollandersky and Foster K. Sistare appearing for the plaintiff, who is the father of the children and administrator of the estate of the little boy. The two defendants are Sebastian Silva of New London, driver of the pie truck at the time of the accident on the afternoon of May 3, 1930, and J. P. Frisbie company of Hartford. They are represented by Attorneys Ralph O. Wells and K. W. Weeks of Hartford. The children were riding together in a coaster-cart down a driveway and out on to the highway when they were struck by the Frisbie company wagon.

When trial of the case opened, Dr Harold W. Wellington of New London, the first witness, testified that the little girl, Jeanne, had one leg shorter than the other on account of the accident and there is possibility of permanent disability. She has been highly irritable and nervous and has a permanent scar on face and nose.

Other medical testimony was given by Dr. Charles Kaufman and Dr. John J. Donohue. George Bishop, photographer, explained pictures of the location, Leon E. Daboll showed a civil engineer's plan, and Harold E. Daboll, the Montville officer, testified to his action and investigation when called to the accident.

William C. La Bounty, father of the two children, who is employed in New London as fireman in a manufacturing plant, told of going out of his house after his wife had called to him that the children had been struck. He described the position where the children lay in the road when he got there. He said the boy was dead at that time. Both children were picked up by Mr. Silva and laid on the bank and the little girl was taken to the hospital. At the home of Justice Church later, according to the witness, Mr. Silva told him he didn't see the children at all at the time they were hit.

Mrs. Irene La Bounty, mother of the children, who heard the crash at the time they were hit, also described where the children lay in the road. She said she was in the kitchen of her house and heard no horn blown. Since the injury, Mrs. La Bounty said she had been obliged to have a taxi take Jeanne to school daily because she cannot walk well.

Miss Bettie Bernard of Montville, who said she was standing in her kitchen door, said she saw the crash.

Allen Furber, an 8 year-old boy, was called to the stand but couldn't qualify as a witness through failure to show that he understood the nature of an oath.

Mrs. Harriet E. Furber of Montville, told of seeing the truck coming as the children were about midway in the driveway. The truck was then about 125 to 150 feet away. She said she felt sure that something was going to happen and she ran to another window so that she shouldn't see it.

Francis C. Crandall of Montville, who drives a taxi for his son, testified that he drives the little La Bounty child to school daily and is paid 20 cents a trip. The school is off on a back road.

The plaintiff rested at this point and the defendant's attorneys called to the stand Percy L. Allen, of New London, an architect-engineer, who described a map of the location of the accident. He gave the opinion that the view of a go-cart in the Watt driveway would be obstructed from the view of a motor vehicle driver.

He was followed on the stand by Walter L. Spencer, New London photographer, who identified pictures of the scene of the accident.

The jury in the case is as follows: Charles W. Burton, Charles M. Hutzler, Dwight W. Avery, Norwich; Otis Browning, Preston; Fred W. Holmes, Colchester; Lewis F. Latham, Griswold; Elmer L. Pultz, Lebanon; Leroy E. Latham, Bozrah; George A. Miller, Franklin; Clement L. Perkins, Sprague; Albert A. Rist, Paul Geist, Lisbon.

NOVEMBER DONATIONS TO FAMILY WELFARE DEPARTMENT

The family welfare department of the United Workers expresses its appreciation to the following for their donations received during November: Mrs. Flint Brayton, Miss Nancy Tomlinson, Mrs. Edward A. Rich, Mrs. C. W. Taggert, Mrs. J. H. Delaney, Mrs. Emil M. Fox, Mrs. W. P. Wade, Miss Janet Beatty, Mrs. William S. Elliott, Mrs. C. B. Gilbert, Warren T. Willey, Miss Helen Murphy, Mrs. George C. Leipold, Junior Girls' American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. W. C. Lynes, Miss Marion L. Bishop, Miss Kate Corcoran, Miss Kate MacKenzie, Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins, Miss Jane Aiken, Grace Circle King's Daughters, Mrs. Frank L. Royce, Miss Amy Burlingame, Mrs. Russell Waldo, Mrs. W. W. Goodnow, Mrs. George Stanton, Mrs. George R. Fellows, Mrs. John D. Hall, Miss Annie O'Connell, Mrs. W. H. Nye, Charles Colt, Mrs. Clifford Wilson, Third Baptist church, Mrs. H. B. Hardy, Mrs. Arthur Payson, T. Potvin, Mrs. Frank Goldstein, Misses C. and M. Cadden, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Davis, Miss Susie C. Whittlesey, Mrs. Warren Church, Mrs. Silas Leffingwell, Mrs. A. H. Chase, Mrs. R. W. Perkins, J. B. Martin company, C. W. Pearson & Sons, Mohegan company.

There have also been cash donations from the following for Thanksgiving: Mrs. George E. Stevens, Miss Martha Osgood, Miss Nancy E. Lucas, Miss Mary C. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodard, Miss Anna L. Ely, Home Department of Third Baptist church, Miss Audrey Gernon, Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Taggert, Samuel Huntington school, A Friend, Broadway school, Miss Ella Norton, Miss Helen Perkins, The Children's Hour, Park church, Mrs. Elizabeth Boss, Miss Edith Bliss, Mrs. Eugene Saunders, Henrietta and Margaret Lanz, Miss Cecile Crowell, West Thames street school, Mrs. Frederick W. Lester, Greeneville school, Miss Mary Porteous, Pequonnoc school, A. Altschel, Mrs. R. W. Perkins, Falls school.

Marriage License Applications.

The following applications for marriage licenses have been made at the office of Town Clerk Harold S. Burt:

Andrew Levander, mill employe, 7 Hill street, and Miss Charlotte Staubley, mill employe, 17 Russell road.

Leslie Strong, decorator, Westerly, R. I., and Miss Rosalie B. Aubrey, 49 Seventh street.

John Richards, weaver, East Lyme, and Miss Elsie Filosi, weaver, East Lyme.

V. F. W. Post Plans Dance.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars post has voted to hold a dance from which all receipts are to be for the benefit of the unemployed. Those named on the committee are George McFarland, Raymond Kavanaugh, Leo Jacques, Arthur E. Story, Charles Green and William Snyder.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Faith Trumbull chapter, D. A. R., is holding a holiday social this (Wednesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Wauregan hotel parlors. The regent, Mrs. Albert M. VanWagenen and the other officers will be in the receiving line.

Mrs. Henry H. Vignot was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Contract club at her home on Washington street. The prizes were taken by Mrs. Vignot and Mrs. J. Edward Driscoll.

Miss Larned Ely and Miss Frances Dana Coit are to leave this week to join Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor Ely, who have taken an apartment in Baltimore for the winter.

The Tuesday Auction Bridge club met at Ye Castle Garden. At bridge the prizes were won by Mrs. Charles B. Carpenter and Mrs. Michael H. Hourigan. In golf, Mrs. Hourigan won a gold golf ball for the lowest score. Luncheon was served, Mrs. Anthony J. Bernard being hostess and Mrs. Albert J. Sinay pouring tea.

John Thayer Taintor, of Hartford spent the week end with Weston C. Pullen, Jr.

In a very elegant setting of yellow flowers and favors, the Tuesday Contract club members were entertained at luncheon at Norwich Inn by Mrs. Herbert M. Lerou. The prizes at cards went to Mrs. Edgar H. Allen and Mrs. Albert S. Comstock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Howard Baker have returned to Greenwich, after a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Worth.

$109,063 IN GIFTS TO CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

During the academic year 1929-30, the total of gifts to Connecticut college from all sources, were $84,497.53. This year, from July 1 to October 29, the gifts total $109,063.60. This information is given in President Katharine Blunt's report for the autumn of 1930. Gifts other than money and securities include the valuable herbarium of 4,000 to 5,000 plants given by Dr. Charles B. Graves of New London; about 1,200 volumes for the library from the Carnegie Institute of Washington, Governor-elect Wilbur L. Cross of Connecticut, former Yale dean; the United States government and the Connecticut state library, as well as numerous plants from the New London Garden club.

Dr. Blunt only came to the college last May but under her brief administration the college has enjoyed a fine period of growth. An unusually large amount of construction has just been completed, including Fanning hall, the new classroom and administration building, the new heating plant, the expanded equipment of New London hall, the building devoted to the sciences, and the new tennis courts.

The 16th year of the college has opened with 567 students, a slightly higher number than last year. No real increase in the student body is to be permitted until more dormitories are built. Each of the classes numbers the following students: Freshman, 175; sophomore, 142; junior, 118, and senior, 132, making a total of 567. The freshman class was selected from 600 applicants.

In the early days of the college, three-fourths, or a half of the students came from Connecticut, but of recent years, while Connecticut is still the leading source with a fairly constant proportion of approximately one-third, other states give the college a nation-wide constituency. New York ranks next to Connecticut with 18 per cent and Massachusetts next with 11 per cent; Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Illinois, all send a considerable number and 13 other states, from Maine to California and Minnesota to Alabama, have one or more. There is also one student each from Germany, Austria and Syria.

This year, for the first time, individual study and investigation is offered in history and political science. Other new courses include a second course in astronomy, physical chemistry, the English novel and household management. Sociology is now open to sophomores. Registration in the various departments is as follows: English, 680; romance languages 470; philosophy, psychology and education, 402; social science, 263; history and political science, 241; music, 222; fine arts, 177; secretarial studies, 170; zoology, 147; home economics, 103; mathematics, 96; classics, 93; physics, 86; continental literature, 66; chemistry, 62; German, 58; botany, 50 and astronomy, 43.

The faculty consists of 61 men and women distributed as follows: 13 professors, six associate professors, 14 assistant professors, 17 instructors, eight assistants and three lecturers.

It is interesting to note that more scholarships are available this year, the bequest of Mrs. Marinda C. Butler Robinson of Danielson yielding $1,600 annually for scholarships being used for the first time. In accordance with the original plan of the presidential committee, two freshmen selected while still in high school by means of a special application and questionnaire were given the full amount of tuition. This year, they are Miss Emily Daggy of Norwalk and Miss Olga Wester of Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, N. Y. The tuition scholarships given by the Travelli fund of Boston were awarded to Miss Imogene Manning of Lebanon and Miss Betty Wheeler of Mystic, seniors of high standing. Several other scholarships are available for the first time. These are the Anne Rogers Minor scholarship of the Connecticut D. A. R., the Mary Elizabeth Holmes memorial scholarship in chemistry, an additional gift from Mrs. Frederick Bill, gifts from Harrison B. Freeman of Hartford and Lucius E. Whiton of New London. Altogether, 57 awards were made to students.

D. A. R. Broadcasts

State D. A. R. radio broadcasts will continue from station WTIC at 2:45 o'clock every Thursday afternoon. The program for this month will include a talk Dec. 4 by Albert C. Bates on the Old State House, a talk on the Glebe House Dec. 11, and the Ellis-Stowe House Dec. 18, both by Mrs. Frederick P. Latimer of Hartford, formerly of Groton, and on Different Costumes on New Year's Day in Various Countries, by Miss Mary Louise Pardee, of New Haven.

MERCIER ASSEMBLY ELECTS MISS BARRY PRESIDENT

Officers as follows were elected Tuesday evening at the meeting of Mercier assembly, No. 12, C. L. of C., held in the assembly hall on Broadway: President, Miss Helen Barry; honorary president, Miss Margaret B. Sullivan; vice president, Mrs. Anna Burke; recording secretary, Miss Esther Fahey; treasurer, Miss Loretta Gadle; financial secretary, Miss Marion Murtagh; mistress at arms, Miss Rita Peloquin; assistant mistress at arms, Miss Mary Ulrich; sentinel, Mrs. Hannah Eiermann; organist, Miss Marguerite Delaney; chaplain, Msgr. M. H. May; auditors, Mrs. Nellie McHale, Miss Elizabeth Hoar, Miss Mary Sullivan; trustees, Mrs. Mary Heebener, Mrs. Mary Richmond, Mrs. Nellie Woodmansee. The officers are to be installed at a meeting in January.

The assembly made plans for the Christmas party with exchange of gifts at its next meeting and the usual gifts are to be made to ex-service men at the state hospital and Uncas-on-Thames by a committee of which Miss Mary Weller is chairman.

The assembly's post-Thanksgiving dance on Monday evening was a brilliant social success in charge of a committee of which Miss Anna Mara was chairman. The hall was decorated in gold and white, the C. L. of C. colors, and the music was by Benvenutis orchestra. The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burke Mr. and Mrs. James J. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Desmond, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrell, Miss Mary Maloney, Mrs. Hannah Eiermann, Miss Lucy Murphy, Miss Mary Hamill, Miss Loretta Gadle, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Leeney, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Combies, Miss Margaret R. Sullivan.

LISBON IS TO SELL BLISSVILLE SCHOOL HOUSE

The Blissville school building, located on the Newent highway in the town of Lisbon which has been used until recent years by the pupils of the lower section of the town for a period of well over fifty years, will be sold at public auction, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the school house. Since the consolidation of the schools in the town, two small school buildings have been sold—these the brick and the building located on the Jewett City road near Jewett City. The third will be the Blissville building.

Practically all of the children of the town are now going to school at the Lisbon Community house, situated on the Newent highway in the Newent section, the central point of the town. The small Versailles school, the only building to be retained by the town, is being used by the children in that section. That building has not been sold, it is understood, for it is still in a good state of preservation, and the school board feels that it is still needed.

The majority of the children living in the various sections of the town, are now being transported to and from the Community building by machines. This has been going on for some time past after the proposal was made that more adequate training could be accorded the children were they housed in one building and it was constructed. At the time of the special town meeting to vote on this matter there were some people who were adverse to the idea of consolidation, for it was their opinion that the idea would not work out advantageously, but the results attained have changed their minds.

The school board and selectmen of the town, the latter comprising James Graham, first, Henry J. Kendall and Harry L. Hull, were authorized to sell the Blissville school at auction at an annual meeting of the town.

TAFTVILLE LEGION DEFEATS MARINES RIFLE TEAM

The Taftville American Legion Rifle team took on the U. S. Marines in a Mohegan league match Tuesday evening at New London and was victorious by a score of 865 to 840. It was the second win for the Taftville Legion having won its first match with Norwich several days ago by one point. Two perfect scores were made in prone shooting, by Christian of the Marines and Benoit of Taftville, the latter also shooting high score for the evening with 183 points. The results:

Taftville

	Oh.	K.	S.	P.	Tls.
Benoit	43	42	48	50	183
W. Dugas	40	40	46	48	174
E. Dugas	38	44	43	47	172
Ad. Dugas ...	35	43	45	48	171
Zukowski	37	39	43	46	165
					865

U. S. Marines

	Oh.	K.	S.	P.	Tls.
Stafuffer	42	43	44	47	176
Lutz	38	42	46	49	175
Christian	29	43	48	50	170
Lt. Berry	34	43	39	47	163
Jones	25	37	47	47	156
					840

HULL WINS ARCANUM CLUB POOL CHAMPIONSHIP

An informal talk by Principal H. A. Tirrell and a championship pool match were two feature events for club night at the Arcanum club which was held Tuesday evening with a supper at 6:30. The supper menu included escalloped oysters which were topped off with pumpkin pie and red-cheeked apples, coffee and cigars to the enjoyment of about 75 seated at the tables.

Chairman Julian L. Williams of the entertainment committee introduced Principal Tirrell who gave a 15-minute talk that was entertaining and instructive along the line the historical significance to be found in certain names and titles.

Adjournment was then taken to the pool room for the championship match between Harold P. Hull and Anson R. Grover, who had tied in the club elimination tournament.

The match was for 150 points. Hull built up an early lead, being out in front by 40 to 30, but Grover cut this down and passed him when he ran off 13 balls in the next frame and Grover went into the lead, 43 to 41. They were even at 55 all, but Hull got out ahead again and was leading Grover, 89 to 87, after a few more frames. Grover reached the 100 mark first, making that when Hull was 96, but two frames later Hull practically settled the match by running off 13 balls, giving him the lead, 121 to 111, and from then on drew farther away until he finished as champion by the score of 150 to 124.

Ellis Broyles, 16, of Alma, Ark., spent 64 hours planting and cultivating an acre of sorghum cane. He made a net profit of $167.36.

DUMAS NAMED AS HEAD OF PUTNAM FIRE DEPT.

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 2—By a unanimous vote of eight members of the common council present at the December session of the body held tonight Alphonse Dumas, for the past eight years deputy chief and acting chief of the Putnam fire department since the untimely death in October of Chief Ralph E. Thurston, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late department head. There was little surprise when the result of the executive session was disclosed by Mayor Charles A. Richard, for it was generally believed that the appointment of Chief Dumas would be confirmed.

Edmund Keane, foreman of the Hook and Ladder company at the central fire station, was appointed deputy chief by a six to two vote of the council members. Two other firemen, Walter A. Wheaton, assistant foreman of the engine company at the central fire station, and Vincent E. McEvoy of the Hook and Ladder company, were proposed for the appointment conferred upon Deputy Chief Keane. In an informal ballot, Keane received five votes, Wheaton two and McEvoy one. The result of the formal ballot revealed that Keane had received six votes to Wheaton's two, none being cast for McEvoy.

Both of the new department heads possess enviable records as members of the city's fire-fighting forces. Chief Dumas, who is a veteran fireman, has resided in Putnam nearly all of his life. He became a member of the department 28 years ago and was assigned to duty to the Eagle Hose company at the North End station. When the company was motorized several years ago, he was the first hoseman to qualify as a driver, a position he held until his appointment as deputy chief in 1922. Since becoming a chief engineer, Chief Dumas has served with distinction and while in charge of several serious fires has displayed remarkable talent in handling situations that in every instance has brought admirable results. During an interview tonight, after two newspapermen had informed him of his appointment, Chief Dumas related at random thrilling episodes that have occurred during his long career as a fireman. He is 45 years of age and possesses a fine physique, which has enabled him to work at fires under the most trying conditions. He is widely known throughout the city and enjoys the esteem and admiration of the men under his command and of the townspeople, who recognize him as a capable public official. Mr. Dumas is married and is the father of three children.

Deputy Chief Keane, like the new chief, has a praiseworthy record for service in the department. He has always shown a deep interest in his public service work, has been faithfully devoted to the duties of his office and on several occasions displayed his ableness in directing the work of the fire companies. He has been the choice of the Hook and Ladder company members for company foreman during a five-year period ending February of this year, when he was re-elected for a sixth term. During this time he has proved himself a capable and efficient officer, well qualified for the higher rank which he has been accorded. Deputy Chief Keane has resided in Putnam for several years and is a man of high standing in the community. He is married and has one child, and is at present employed as overseer in the cloth room of the Perkins-Strongman mill. Both officials will assume their new duties at once.

JUDGE INGLIS GREETED IN SUPERIOR COURT

Presiding here Tuesday in the superior court for the first time since he has been elevated to the bench of that court, Judge Ernest A. Inglis of Middletown found the court room filled with members of the New London bar and a delegation of Middletown friends, while on his desk was an immense basket of white and lavender chrysanthemums from friends in Middletown. The flowers were ordered here from the Geduldig greenhouses.

Mrs. Inglis accompanied her husband here and with the judge was entertained at the home of Judge and Mrs. Allyn L. Brown on Broadway.

Judge Inglis, a native of Middletown, was born April 28, 1887, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Inglis. He graduated from Wesleyan university in 1908, receiving the degree of Ph. D. from that college. He received the degree of LLD. when he graduated in 1911 from Yale University Law school.

In Middletown on Sept. 12, 1912, he married Agnes Thompson. Judge Inglis was named state attorney for Middlesex county in 1918. He was on the Connecticut state bar examining board. Judge Inglis is a noted barister and has attained statewide prominence. He was named a judge of the superior court in October, 1930.

OPEN MEETING HELD BY Y. WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

After the regular board meeting and luncheon of the women's auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association had been held at 12:30 Tuesday at the association building, an open meeting of the auxiliary was held in the afternoon at the residence of Miss Alif Stephens, 154 Washington street. At the board meeting the hostesses were Mrs. John B. Oat, chairman; Mrs. Pingree and Mrs. John Kukla.

Mrs. W. H. Dawley, president of the auxiliary, presided at the open meeting at which the devotional exercises were conducted by General Secretary Edwin Hill. The usual reports were given and Rev. Alexander H. Abbott of the United Congregational church gave an interesting address.

Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Dawley poured and other members of the board served.

BACKUS HOSPITAL NURSES PASS STATE EXAMINATIONS

The graduating class of 1930 of the W. W. Backus hospital training school has passed the state board examinations and its members are now practicing as registered nurses. Nurses engaged in institutional work are the Misses Alice Glasbrenner, Edna Holmberg, Helen Ravanell, Viola Green, Elizabeth Boynton, Regina Whitaker. The Misses Ravanell and Green are practicing in New York state and the Misses Doris Bliss, Frances Sweet and Betty Goldblatt are engaged in private duties.

STORRS HENS LAYING MORE AND BETTER EGGS

In the fourth week of the Storrs laying test the production amounted to 4391 eggs or a yield of 62.9 per cent. This is 36 eggs less than for last week, but 382 eggs more than in the corresponding week a year ago.

The birds are laying not only more eggs but better eggs as well. In the first week the average size was 14 per cent under the standard 24-ounce egg, but by the end of the fourth week size has improved to the extent that the eggs are right now less than 10 per cent under the standard a hen is expected to lay. This seems to suggest that these pullets will fully measure up to expectations before the race has run much further.

In reporting by points instead of by eggs, one encounters at times curious situations. The leaders for the fourth week consist of two pens of Reds, two pens of Leghorns and one pen of Barred Rocks, all laid 63 eggs each. The rank, therefore, is determined in this case already by the number of points they scored.

Donald L. Goodenough's pen of Reds from Torrington, Conn., was first with 63 points to their credit. Tom Barron's pen of Leghorns from Catforth, England, ranked second with 61 points. Another pen of Leghorns entered by Alfred J. O'Donovan from Katonah, New York and Scott Poultry farm's pen of Reds from Groton, Mass., tied for third with 60 points each. R. Walter Bishop's pen of Barred Rocks from Guilford, Conn., was fourth best with a tally of 59 points. Each of these five pens, as already indicated, laid precisely the same number of eggs with only a shade of difference in their size.

The average production last week for all breeds and varieties was nearly 63 per cent. Rhode Island Reds cued almost exactly to the line. White Leghorns, however, saved the day, so to speak, by laying up to nearly 71 per cent, thus pulling up the average of the other breeds that are running through perhaps just as surely albeit a little more slowly.

The leading pens to date in each of the principal varieties are as follows:

White Wyandottes, Ebenwood farm, W. Bridgewater, Mass., 156; The Locusts, West Cornwall, Conn., 98.

White Rocks, E. A. Hirt, South Weymouth, Mass., 211; Davidson Bros., Upton, Mass., 185; Kalsrok farm, Westford, Mass., 186.

Barred Rocks—James Dryden, Modesto, Cal., 231; R. Walter Bishop, Guilford, Conn., 212; Lewis farms, Davisville, R. I., 203.

Rhode Island Reds—Donald L. Goodenough, Torrington, Conn., 248; Globus Poultry farm, Attleboro, Mass., 230; Norman W. Amidon, Abington, Conn., 235; Scott Poultry farm, Groton, Mass., 221.

White Leghorns—Alfred J. O'Donovan, Katonah, N. Y., 288; Mt. Hope farm, Williamstown, Mass., 239; St. John's Poultry farm, Oronogo, Mo., 231; J. A. Hanson, Corvallis, Ore., 219; Leighton Orchards, Kingston, R. I., 216.

Mother of Four Babies

"Although I am only 22 years old, I have four babies to care for. Before my first baby was born my mother urged me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was so terribly weak. I had to lie down four or five times a day. After three bottles I could feel a great improvement. I still take the Vegetable Compound whenever I need it for it gives me strength to be a good mother to my family."—Mrs. Vern L. Dennings, 510 Johnson Street, Saginaw, Michigan.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It's Christmas Now At Cranston's
BOOKS
Excellent Christmas Gifts for Men, Women, Boys and Girls
INDIVIDUAL APPEAL
WIDE CHOICE
(Over 1000 titles in our stock)
COMPARATIVE LOW COST
(Many Titles at $1)
EASY TO PACK AND SEND
Make Books Your Selection
— at —
CRANSTON'S
25 BROADWAY
It's Christmas Now At Cranston's

Attention!

Lisbonites or Anyone Else

By order of the selectmen and school board (authorized) we will sell Dec. 6, at 2 p. m. sharp, the Blissville school house (at the school house) on the Newent road.

Signed,
JAMES GRAHAM,
HENRY J. KENDALL,
HARRY L. HULL,
Selectmen of town of Lisbon.

Dated Dec. 3, 1930.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

GROVE RETAINS HIS PLACE AS LEADING PITCHER IN AM. LEAGUE

(By Paul Mickelson.)

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—(AP)—Robert Moses Grove, the big fire and smoke ball southpaw of the Philadelphia Athletics, easily carried off the 1930 American League pitching championship for the second successive year. Final official averages tonight disclosed that the big Athletic lefthander excelled the pitching field not only in the actual number of games won, but in virtually every department. He hurled 291 innings, the equivalent of 32 1-3 games, won 28 and lost but five in the 50 contests in which he worked either as a regular or in a relief role, limited opposing batsmen to a low earned run average of three scores for each nine innings and topped his performances by striking out 214 batters.

Directing his smoke and curve balls with the best control of his major league career, Grove was the machine gun that helped the Athletics stifle the big Berthas of the enemy. His relief pitching was excellent and big innings for the opposition with him on the mound were scarce. Not once did "Lefty" allow five runs in one inning and seldom was he driven from the box. It was his best season since he left Baltimore to join Connie Mack's forces in 1925.

Although Adolph Liska of the Washington senators ranked next to Grove in the earned run average with a mark of 3.28, Wesley Ferrell of the Cleveland Indians was regarded as the runner-up in the pitching race. The Cleveland Ace pitched 297 innings, appeared in 43 games and won 25 and lost but 13. He allowed but 3.89 earned runs for each nine innings.

Other pitchers and their records:

Walter Stewart, St. Louis, appeared in 35 games; won 20 and lost 12; earned runs average 3.46.

Ted Lyons, Chicago; appeared in 42 games; won 22 and lost 15; earned runs average 3.77.

Irving Hadley, Washington; appeared in 42 games; won 15 and lost 11; earned runs average 3.74.

The Washington staff was the most effective in the league, allowing but 3.96 earned runs a game. The pitchers of the next seven clubs were only .53 of a run per game apart, while the St. Louis hurlers, in last place allowed 1.11 runs per game more than the Senators.

Wesley Ferrell contributed the most stirring pitching performance of the season, winning 13 straight victories. Four two-hit games were pitched, Charles Ruffing of Boston and New York, hurling two, and Milton Gaston and Ed Morris of the Red Sox pitching one each. Other stellar performances were Lyons' great record with a seventh place club and the 13 inning shutout pitched by Pat Caraway of the White Sox against Cleveland.

Lou Gehrig of the Yankees, who lost out to Al Simmons in the batting championship race by two points, topped the circuit in runs batted in with a total of 174 or one less than his American League record. Simmons was second with 165; Jimmy Fox of the A's was next with 156 while Babe Ruth landed fourth with 153. Fifteen players drove in 100 or more runs during the season.

BAER IS MATCHED TO BOX ERNIE SCHAAF

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—(AP)—The east is to have a look at Max Baer, young heavyweight slugger from the Pacific coast, but the shadows of past ring intrigues will hang heavy over his Madison Square Garden debut.

The clouting westerner, with better than a score of knockouts in his brief record, will show his wares against Ernie Schaaf of Boston in a ten round feature go Dec. 19. This match and others suggested for Baer's eastern debut have been furrowing the brows of the New York boxing commissioners for weeks and only today was his opponent—and his own eligibility—definitely settled.

The commissioners—James A. Farley, William Muldoon, and General John Phelan—have intimated that Frank Churchill, California fight manager whose name was brought into the investigation of Primo Carnera's fiasco with Bombo Chevalier in Oakland, is a part owner of Baer, although Ancil Hoffman is listed officially as his manager. Churchill is considered persona non grata in New York state because of this connection as well as criticism of fights in which Tod Morgan, former junior lightweight champion, took part here.

The commission refused to permit Baer to meet Jimmy Braddock New York heavyweight, on the ground that the managers of the two fighters were on too friendly a basis. This was interpreted as revealing the commission's belief that Churchill was managing Baer while Bill Duffy, once Jack Dempsey's chief second, was interested in Braddock. Duffy piloted Carnera in the giant Italian's fungo hitting tour of the country and Churchill assisted him in arrangements on the west coast.

Braddock protested to Farley, chairman of the commission after its meeting today, claiming he should have the match instead of Schaaf. Farley refused to change his stand, however.

Baer originally was slated to fight Paulino Uzcudun, but the Spaniard became ineligible by boxing Primo Carnera, a suspended fighter in Barcelona Sunday.

SENIORS LOSE OPENING GAME TO G. E. TEAM

(Special to The Bulletin)

BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 2—The Seniors of the Norwich Y, opening their season here tonight, were not strong enough for the Boys five of the General Electric Co. and lost to them by a 49 to 33 score. The Girls squad, representing the Norwich Y, had better results, trimming the Girls team of the G. E. by 20 to 18. The Norwich girls played remarkable basketball in the second half, as evidenced by the score at the halfway mark, 16 to 2, in favor of the locals. Holding the losers to two points in the latter half the winners amassed 18 points, just enough to squeeze out a win. The Norwich team was behind 29 to 11 at the end of the first quarter.

All Stars Beat Recs Juniors

Monday night at Jewett City the All Star five of Jewett City defeated the Recreation Junior five of Norwich by 18 balls. It was a close and interesting match featured by Liberty who ran 26 balls against Anton to win the game. The scores:

Jewett City

Jarvis	65
Gaska	70
Liberty	100
Torso	100
Burns	100
	435

Rec. Juniors

Buchko	100
Swatsburg	100
Anton	63
Erie	66
Ted	88
	417

DANIELSON STILL IN TIE WITH PLAINFIELD

(Special to The Bulletin)

PLAINFIELD, Dec. 2.—Danielson and Plainfield still remain in a tie in the standing of the Southern New England Basketball league, with four wins and no losses each, as the result of play here tonight, with Danielson and Willimantic playing the feature contest, the former winning by 27 to 25. The other three games resulted in Plainfield defeating Putnam, 46 to 30, Stafford Springs beating New London, 23 to 19, and New London Tel and Tel licking Jewett City, the tailenders, 49 to 33. All of the contests were productive of much good basketball.

New London Tel and Tel

	G.	F.	Pts.
Miner, rf	7	0	14
Newberry, lf	4	0	8
McKelvie, c	8	2	18
Osmand, rg	2	2	6
Holden, lg	1	1	3
	22	5	49

Jewett City

	G.	F.	Pts.
Sweet, lg	2	1	5
J. Derda, rg	3	0	6
Walsh, c	1	0	2
S. Derda, lf	2	2	6
Kaminski, rf	5	4	14
	13	7	33

Score at half time: 22 to 16, New London.

Referee—Williams.

Plainfield

	G.	F.	Pts.
Mercer, rf	4	1	9
Cohen, lf	8	1	17
Dysart, c	1	0	2
Korab, rg	4	1	9
Medde, rg	4	1	9
	21	4	46

Putnam

	G.	F.	Pts.
Cody, lg	0	1	1
M. Johnson, rg	0	0	0
Young, c	2	0	4
Leo, lf	6	1	13
C. Johnson, rf	6	0	12
	14	2	30

Score at half time: 33 to 16, Plainfield.

Referee—Bitgood.

Stafford Springs

	G.	F.	Pts.
Ricci, lg	1	0	2
Bidorini, rg	2	0	4
Smith, c	3	0	6
Panciera, lf	0	1	1
McLagen, lf	1	1	3
Houle, rf	3	3	9
	10	5	23

New London

	G.	F.	Pts.
Sloden, rf	3	1	7
Barclay, lf	0	1	1
Funk, lf	1	0	2
Goulart, c	1	0	2
Mocill, rg	0	1	1
Pinch, lg	1	0	2
Fortili, lg	2	0	4
	8	3	19

Score at half time: 19 to 7, Stafford Springs.

Referee—Williams.

Danielson

	G.	F.	Pts.
Young, rf	1	0	2
Gale, lf	1	2	4
Mayhew, c	2	2	6
Withey, rg	3	2	8
Adams, lg	2	3	7
	9	9	27

Willimantic

	G.	F.	Pts.
J. Mandell, lg	1	1	3
N. Mandell, rg	5	1	11
Nichols, c	2	1	5
P. Saba, rf	1	0	2
Lester, lf	2	0	4
A. Saba, rf	0	0	0
	11	3	25

Score at half time: 14 to 12, Danielson.

Referee—Bitgood.

League Standing

	W.	L.	Pct.
Danielson	4	0	1.000
Plainfield	4	0	1.000
Willimantic	4	1	.800
Stafford Springs	2	3	.400
Putnam	1	2	.333
Westerly	1	2	.333
New London Boys' club	1	3	.250
New London Tel & Tel	1	3	.250
Jewett City	1	4	.200

A Challenge

The Broad Street Apes wish to challenge any sixth grade team in the city for a game of football this week. Call the Broad street school.

BOWLING

SPECIAL MATCH

(Aetna Bowling Alleys)

Taftville

St. Armour	104	106	110—	320
Gallant	90	114	92—	296
Fontaine	87	103	127—	317
Lucier	112	102	111—	325
Dugas	142	104	115—	361
	535	529	556—	1619

Aetna

Combies	121	115	107—	343
Bjorn	112	104	95—	311
Lawless	91	97	104—	292
Aldi	91	104	97—	282
Sidney	119	129	122—	370
	534	549	515—	1598

STATE LUTHER LEAGUE

Collinsville

E. Dobrick	125	90	107—	322
R. Demski	79	94	83—	256
H. Tharan	87	82	94—	263
F. Dimock	99	90	92—	281
T. Demski	84	85	..—	169
W. Pyett	..	..	92—	92
	474	441	468—	1383

Norwich

Hilderbrand	82	98	109—	289
Whitehead	95	92	112—	299
Haul	86	111	132—	329
Lawless	111	104	87—	302
Johndrow	108	101	98—	307
	482	506	538—	1526

Collinsville

Miriam	87	82	73—	242
Dab S.	77	71	80—	228
Albert	73	88	72—	233
D. Fowler	74	98	82—	254
Artie	73	98	96—	267
	384	437	403—	1224

Norwich

A. Berry	81	84	71—	236
M. Zerull	86	71	81—	238
G. Sabtawski	78	70	72—	220
B. Stelzner	72	79	107—	258
B. Thumm	72	71	91—	234
	389	375	422—	1186

The Bulletin Board

BASEBALL
FOOTBALL
BASKETBALL
BOXING

When Al Koziol and Vic Darr, the headliners on the Shyma card Friday night, swap punches in the ring at Parish hall it will be for the third time. Back in 1927 one November night Koziol and Darr who were just blossoming forth as amateurs met in a three round go in Olympic hall. The bout was billed as the feature of the card and it proved to be just that. However, Koziol was given the decision over Darr, not because he whipped Darr but because Darr refused to box a fourth round after Referee Jackie Wilson had called it a draw at the end of the third round. Darr refused to continue for the reason that he had obviously beaten Koziol in three rounds and there was no need for a fourth. The writer saw the bout and without a doubt Darr earned the decision in three rounds.

Apparently we were not the only ones of the same opinion that night as the sports writer of the Norwich Evening Record had the following to say: "Darr with his unique style of boxing had Koziol completely stopped and the Keenan prototype of slugger didn't know what it was all about. When the three rounds were completed for some obscure reason the bout was called a draw. The judges' decision met with prompt and hearty jeers from the crowd. Referee Wilson turned a deaf ear to the crowd and called for another round but Darr seeming to think that he had rightly earned the verdict refused to continue and Koziol was presented with a win. In fairness to Koziol it must be said that toward the waning minute of the last round he was coming to the front fast and had it gone another round or so he would have evened matters and possibly won the verdict."

Now that was back in 1927 and since then both boys have improved considerably. Darr without doubt has shown the most improvement, changing from a dancing, clowning type of boxer to a two-fisted fighter who is dangerous at all times. Koziol fights the same as he did three years ago slugging with all he has, the only improvement being that his timing is better and his weight is about 12 pounds more. Friday night's bout will be the deciding bout between these two local youngsters, each holding a decision over the other. It would not be surprising to see the bout go either way although everything points to Darr as the logical winner, by virtue of his showing in the other two bouts. Another thing is that Koziol has learned that Darr hurts when he hits and he will be a little cautious about piling into him the same as he does with other opponents. Likewise Vic Darr knows that if Koziol catches him on the button that it's liable to put his light out. Both are confident although neither will make any prediction as to the outcome of the bout.

JOHN D. GIVES AWAY NICKELS EVEN IN HARD TIMES

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Dec. 2—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller hesitated about giving his pastor-golfing companion a nickel here today after the latter had executed a good drive.

But then a pretty shot is worth it, and too, "Neighbor John" wanted to accommodate news photographers on his first time out on the links this season.

"If money wasn't so scarce," said Mr. Rockefeller, "I'd give you a nickel for that drive."

The Rev. G. D. Owen, pastor of the Ormond Union church, admittedly a tyro at this golf business, appeared pleased enough with the favorable comment from so widely known a golfer.

But to the news picture folk, it seemed appropriate that the man who has billions of nickels should have given the pastor one nickel, even if he did not get the customary dime. They told Mr. Rockefeller their opinion.

"All right," genially agreed the philanthropist, and the minister now has a shiny new nickel.

Mr. Rockefeller laughed and joked as he played his customary eight holes. Despite a strong wind, he easily beat his partner. His drives, straight down the fairway averaged about 100 yards.

AGGIES ADOPT ZONE PLAY FOR THIS SEASON

(Special to The Bulletin)

STORRS, Dec. 2—Because of a shortage of experienced material, the Connecticut Aggie basketball team will probably go back to the zone type of defense this season instead of retaining the man-to-man type which was used quite largely last season, Coach Dole announced here today.

The zone type of defense was used by Aggie quintets with much success for nearly ten years until last season when the availability of fast and experienced material made it seem advisable to substitute the man-to-man style of play. Graduation took five of last year's letter men and only four are left on this year's squad. Although zone defense will probably see the most service, both types will be taught and either may be used as the occasion justifies it, Coach Dole said.

Today's practice consisted of a short, hard scrimmage. The first combination which was picked included all four of the letter men. Coach Dole stated that the selection was only temporary. The two teams were as follows: Team A: Glenon, rf; Darrow, lf; Chubbuck, c; Lamson, rg; Wilson, lg. Team B: Mason, rf; Calamari, lf; Eddy, c; St Marie and DeRosa, rg; and Levitow lg.

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD AT PLAINFIELD HIGH

Plainfield high school has just finished one of the most successful seasons it has ever experienced in football as has already been stated in this paper. However it is the wish of Bill Ringland that the credit for this work be placed on those shoulders which have shared the work with him. For the past three years Mr. Monoghan has coached football at Plainfield with enviable results and it is from such timber that the past season's team was developed.

Since Mr. Monoghan is faculty director of athletics this makes him head coach of all sports. However it is not in this sense that the past season's results were obtained but rather in the sense of cooperation enjoyed between the two coaches, Mr. Monoghan working with the line and Mr. Ringland with the backfield. Sports at Plainfield high are on a sound basis and it has come as a result of the past three years' work of Mr. Monoghan. Before coming to Plainfield Mr. Monoghan enjoyed considerable success as coach of football in several high schools in Maine. He is a graduate of Colby college and teaches history and government.

ASSOCIATED PRESS ANNOUNCES ITS ALL-STAR EASTERN GRID TEAM

(By Ted Vosburgh)

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—(AP)—Eight colleges are represented on the All-Eastern Football eleven for 1930 selected by a consensus of sport writers and named today by The Associated Press.

Yale has three men on the team, the Army two and Dartmouth, Harvard, Fordham, Cornell, Columbia and Colgate one apiece.

Heading the first team lineup are two players who were virtually unanimous choice—Ben Ticknor, Harvard's great center; and Leonard Macaluso, giant Colgate fullback, who leads the country's major college players in scoring.

John Price big Army tackle, was another popular favorite, leading all the linemen except Ticknor in number of votes received. Bart Viviano, Cornell's sensational sophomore ball-carrier, ranked second to Macaluso among the backs.

Albie Booth returned to the first team quarterback berth which he held last year, although the Yale captain-elect was not the one-sided choice that he was in 1929.

Ralph Hewitt, Columbia's leader for next year, gets a halfback post. His regular position is quarterback so that he and Booth could be alternated at the signal-calling assignment, if the coach of the mythical team desired. Both men can run a team, dropkick, punt and pass as well as carry the ball. Viviano and Macaluso are unexcelled for heavy duty plunging, blocking and defensive work.

Price's running mate at tackle is Frank Foley one of the bulwarks of the powerful Fordham line. Fred Linehan of Yale and Gay Bromberg of Dartmouth, with exactly the same number of votes, win the guard positions. Carl Carlmark of the Army and Herster Barres of Yale are the ends, with nothing to choose between them in the balloting.

Ticknor and Booth are the only repeaters from last year. Fay Vincent of Yale, a first team tackle in 1929, makes the second eleven.

Fordham has three men on the second team, Harvard two, and Yale, Army, Dartmouth, New York university Holy Cross and Colgate one each.

This team boasts a backfield which rivals the first string quartet in all-around ability and probably excels it in passing. Wood, Harvard; Hart, Colgate; and O'Connell, Holy Cross, all are crack shots, and Big Jim Murphy of Fordham, who makes the team at fullback although his regular position is at half, is a brilliant receiver. Murphy narrowly missed a first team berth.

Ticknor and Tom Siano, Fordham's flashy leader who gets the second team pivot job, all but monopolized the votes for center.

The selection, showing the votes cast for each individual:

First Team

Barres, Yale (32)	End
Price, Army (52)	Tackle
Bromberg, Dart. (43)	Guard
Ticknor, Harvard (64)	Center
Linehan, Yale (43)	Guard
Foley, Fordham (43)	Tackle
Carlmark Army (32)	End
Booth, Yale (39)	Quarterback
Viviano, Cornell (44)	Halfback
Hewitt, Col. (37)	Halfback
Macaluso, Colgate (64)	Fullback

Second Team

Harding, Harvard (25)	End
Vincent, Yale (35)	Tackle
Humber, Army (25)	Guard
Siano, Fordham (36)	Center
Wisniewski, Fordham (25)	Guard
Crehan Dart. (34)	Tackle
Nemecek, N. Y. U. (22)	End
Wood, Harvard (26)	Quarterbcka
O'Connell, H. C. (26)	Halfback
Hart, Colgate (22)	Halfback
Murphy, Fordham (32)	Fullback

Third team—Ends, Riblett, Pennsylvania (16); Yudicky, Dartmouth (15); tackles Willson, Pennsylvania (8), Pincura, Western Maryland (7); guards, Tracey, Fordham (19), Hunt, Cornell (13); center, Loeser, Yale (8); quarterback, Grossman, Rutgers (16); halfbacks Eyth, Carnegie (19), Kirn, Navy (18); fullback, Hood, Pittsburgh (15).

Honorable mention—Ends, Orsi, Colgate (13); Bates, Western Maryland (10), Ellert, Syracuse (7), Rosenzweig, Carnegie (4) Buckley, Boston College (4), J. Martinez-Zorilla, Cornell (3), Arianson, Tufts, (3), Messinger, Army (3) Sullivan, Colgate (2), Flanagan, Carnegie (2), Terry, Villanova (2), McNeil, Washington and Jefferson, J. Bonner, Temple Dixon, Boston College, Elcewicz, Fordham, Joseph, West Virginia, Conroy, Fordham Cavalieri, Holy Cross.

Tackles—Concannon, N. Y. U. (6), Bowstrom, Navy (5), Tully, Pittsburgh (4), Highberger, Carnegie (4), Schwartz, Williams (4), Mackesey, Brown (4), McBath, Ursinus (2), Barber, Dartmouth (2), Schnupp, Carnegie (2), Schelbel Colgate, Levine W. and J., Olsen, Pennsylvania, Wilbur Yale, C. Martinez-Zorrilla Cornell.

Guards—Trainer Harvard (12), Obst Syracuse (5) Dreshar, Carnegie (4), Doyle Colgate (2), Sofish, Grove City (2), Grenda, Columbia (2), Dubofsky Georgetown (2), Underwood Navy, Bannak Temple, Cochrane W. and J., Gray Navy.

Center—Berner Syracuse (2) Daughtery Pittsburgh (1).

Quarterbacks—Morton Dartmouth (11), Bennett Princeton (7), Scalzi Georgetown, Baker Pittsburgh, Abruzzino Colgate.

Halfbacks—Hinkle Bucknell (9) Battles West Virginia Wesleyan (5), C. Bonner Temple (4), Masters Pennsylvania (3), Foster Bowdoin (2), Gardner Villanova (2), Hansen Temple (2) Stevens Syracuse (2), French Penn State, Knapik Geneva, Majercik Muhlenberg, Wolff Dartmouth, Letzelter Army, Herb Army.

Fullbacks—Pieculiwicz Fordham (3), Goff, Rhode Island (2), Karcis Carnegie (2), Fishel Syracuse (2), Crowley Yale

STUHLDREHER SAYS FAR WEST PLAYS BETTER FOOTBALL

VILLA NOVA, Pa., Dec. 2—(AP)—Harry Stuhldreher, one of the "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame," and head coach at Villa Nova college says he is of the opinion that "the best type of football in the country today is played in the far west."

"I believe the material in the far west is better because the players are bigger and stronger than ours in the east," said Stuhldreher. "In addition to that they have fewer major schools and there is opportunity for concentration of material which we in the middle west and east do not have.

"The far west is beating the east repeatedly, the victories of St. Mary's over Fordham, Oregon State over West Virginia, Stanford over Dartmouth, and Washington State over my boys being leading examples."

Ideals Accept Challenge

The Ideals accept the challenge of Buster's Diners for a golf match at the Castle Garden course with the greatest of pleasure. The Ideals are out to show the Diners that they are just as good with the putter as they are with the baseball bat. The match is to be played next Tuesday night.

SHYMAS BEAT SOLDIERS IN LAST-MINUTE RALLY

With two minutes remaining to play and with the opposition leading by a 23 to 21 count, the Shymas, Srs., of Taftville, snapped out of their lethargy and came out a winner over the Battery E of Westerly Tuesday evening at Taftville, through the timely shooting of Wilk in a left forward position. Wilk did a nice piece of work in those last two minutes, dropping the oval into the basket for two points which tied Westerly and just before the game ended repeated with another basket. And so Taftville won by a 25 to 23 score.

At the half time mark Westerly was leading the victors by one point, the score being 13 to 12. Both teams displayed a poor passing game, but made up this inefficiency in other departments of play. Roever of the losers led his team in scoring, getting five field goals and two fouls, while Wilk scored the heaviest for Taftville with five goals for a total of 10 points. The victory gave Taftville its first of the season, having lost two previous tilts.

In the preliminary the Shymas, Jrs., not wanting to be outdone by their seniors, whipped the Baltic Bantams by a score of 45 to 31, and in doing so put up a brand of basketball that eclipsed the headliner. Durr scored 16 points for Taftville—high point scoring for either team. The summaries:

Taftville

	G.	F.	Pts.
Wilk, rf	5	0	10
Adams, rf	1	0	2
Gauthier, lf	2	1	5
Coleman, c	0	0	0
Lemieux, rg	1	0	2
Pingree, lg	3	0	6
Totals	12	1	25

Westerly

	G.	F.	Pts.
Sullivan, rf	1	0	2
Stenhouse, lf	2	0	4
Fannon, c	2	1	5
Holt, rg	0	0	0
Roever, lg	5	2	12
Leone, lg	0	0	0
Totals	10	3	23

Score at half time, 13 to 12 Westerly.

Referee, Eccleston.

Shyma Jrs.

	G.	F.	Pts.
Durr, rf	8	0	16
S. Raymond, lf	3	0	6
L. Pepin, lf	1	2	4
P. Raymond, c	3	0	6
Dugas, rg	3	2	8
T. Peltier, rg	0	0	0
Laflesh, lg	2	1	5
Totals	20	5	45

Baltic

	G.	F.	Pts.
Deschamps, rf	2	1	5
Charon, lf	6	0	12
Passmore, c	2	1	5
Depot, rg	0	3	3
Blanchette, lg	1	0	2
Rondeau, lg	1	2	4
Totals	12	7	31

Score at half-time, 26 to 21 Shymas.

Gov. Arturo Bernal, of the northern district of Lower California, issued orders to halt the smuggling of liquor into the United States.

SPORT BRIEFS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 2—(AP)—High Noon, holder of three world records for trotting stallions, was sold today by O. C. Belt, Columbus, to the Walnut Hill farms of Lexington, Ky. The price was not revealed.

TORONTO—Frisco Grande, Philippine flyweight, outpointed Frenchy Belanger, Canadian flyweight champion, in a hard fought six round bout at the Shamrock Athletic club tonight.

PHILADELPHIA—The world champion Canadiens from Montreal defeated the Philadelphia Quakers 3 to 0 in a hard fought National league hockey match at the arena tonight.

MONTREAL—The Montreal Maroons brought the Chicago Blackhawks' undefeated course through the National Hockey league to a sudden halt tonight with a 2 to 1 triumph over the league leaders in a fast game.

PRINCETON, N. J.—William H. Yeckley, of Lorain, Ohio, was elected captain of the 1931 Princeton football team at a meeting of the letter men today. He has been a regular for the past two seasons, playing tackle this year and end in 1929.

NEW YORK—Roberto Roberti, Italian heavyweight, easily outpointed Eddie Benson of Brooklyn in their six round main bout at the Broadway arena tonight. Roberti had all the better of the fighting but his efforts to put over a knockout punch failed.

SCRANTON, Pa.—Promoter Michael Barrett, of the Armory A. C., today wired Maxie Rosenbloom, light heavyweight boxing champion, an offer to meet Lou Scozza, of Buffalo, N. Y., in a championship fight here late in January for the benefit of the Scranton camp for under-nourished and tubercular children.

NEW YORK — Ralph Ficucello, Brooklyn heavyweight, tonight avenged a defeat that once cost him the national amateur championship when he knocked out Eugene (Muddy) Howard of New Haven in the fifth round of their ten round bout at the St. Nicholas arena.

NEW YORK—Regardless of what part Knute Rockne plays in the arrangements, a team of former Notre Dame football stars will oppose the New York Giants professional eleven here on Sunday, Dec. 14, for the benefit of the unemployed as scheduled, if Mayor Walker and his aides have their way.

READING, Pa.—The Chicago National league baseball club definitely threw up the Reading franchise in the International league tonight. William L. Veeck, president of the Cubs, announced Chicago's withdrawal from Reading in a letter to E. J. Poole president of the local club.

MONTREAL—Seven minor league players were fined $100 each by the national board of arbitration today because of exhibition games they played against a Racine, Wis. team this fall. The players fined were George Gerken and John Kloza of Milwaukee, Edgar Holley of Kansas City, Harry Strohm of Little Rock, Fred Dedore of Toronto, Bernard Tesmer of Dallas and Stan Lewan of Hazleton, Pa.

NOTRE DAME ACCLAIMED AS IT HEADS INTO WEST

ABOARD THE NOTRE DAME SPECIAL, Tucumcari, N. M., Dec. 2—(AP)—Be it on the gridiron or aboard a railroad train, the football heroes of Notre Dame draw the crowds.

As the special train bearing the Notre Dame raiders to Los Angeles and the big game with the University of Southern California steamed along its route today, thousands of fans collected excitedly at stations, peering through the windows and demanding that the players show themselves or give impromptu addresses as to how they expect to accomplish the storming of Troy.

"You'd think we were coming back victorious instead of journeying out where we have been promised a neat licking," commented Coach Knute Rockne, who spent most of the day in his compartment, wondering what new plays or tricks he might concoct for the Trojans.

At least two towns along the Southern Pacific route wired Coach Rockne, asking that Notre Dame stop within their confines for workouts. Rockne, however, stuck to his original plan of drilling his players at Tucson, Ariz. The team will arrive at Tucson tomorrow noon and work out an hour later and twice on Thursday before entraining on the final lap to Los Angeles.

DRAFT QUESTION IS THROWN BACK TO MAJORS

MONTREAL, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Bounced around like a much battered football, the trouble-making draft question was tossed back into the arms of the major leagues at todays' session of the minor league convention.

The five non-draft leagues—International, Pacific Coast, American association, Western and Three Eye—announced after a lengthy conference that they were prepared to reopen the whole draft question with the majors if the latter, within 15 days, withdrew their threat to sever business relations with the minor leagues involved in the fight.

The non-draft leagues made no guarantees that they would accept the majors' demand that they submit to the universal draft, but they did offer to reopen negotiations with a view toward arriving at an amiable agreement if possible.

Silver Arrows Jrs. Want Game

The Silver Arrows Juniors are without a game for Friday and wish to play the L. H. A. C. team at the Academy campus. Answer through this paper.

SIANO WILL BE MEMBER OF ALL-EAST TEAM

HAMILTON, N. Y., Dec. 2—(AP)—Two more captains were added to the lineup of the east team today for the New Year's day scrimmage with the west at San Francisco. They are Eddie Baker, Pittsburgh quarterback, and Tony Siano, Fordham center. This will be Baker's second invasion of California. He quarterbacked the Panthers against Southern California in the Rose Bowl last New Year's. Captain Vincent of Yale accepted an invitation from Andy Kerr, Colgate coach, to join the team yesterday.

CITIZENS OPEN COURT SEASON ON THURSDAY

The New London Ockfords come to Norwich Friday evening to take on the Polish Citizens in the latter's first game of the season. The Citizens have been putting in considerable hard practice for this tilt and are confident of victory. The lineups of both teams will be published at a later date.

Murphy, New Fordham Leader

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—(AP)—Jim Murphy, 190 pound left halfback from Biddeford, Me., today was elected captain of the Fordham university eleven by unanimous vote of the 21 letter men. He is a junior and has missed only one game in two years of varsity service.

A Challenge

The Smoke Shop indoor golf team comes forth with a challenge to the Ideals for a match or a series of matches, not for fun or marbles, but for real coin of the realm. The Smokers, keen rivals of the Ideals on the baseball diamond, are looking for some revenge at the indoor game.

Reputation
acquired by 56 years of choice, unvarying
Quality—plus the finest Workmanship
7-20-4
R. G. SULLIVAN'S Cigar

You Are Cordially Invited to Join
THE CHELSEA
CHRISTMAS CLUB
For 1931
OPEN NOW
Classes to Suit All!

The Chelsea Christmas Club
Is the Oldest and Largest in Norwich, Conn.
Payments Will Be Made to Members on December 5, 1931

Members paying 25c for 50 weeks	$12.75
Members paying 50c for 50 weeks	$25.50
Members paying $1.00 for 50 weeks	$51.00
Members paying $2.00 for 50 weeks	$102.00
Members paying $5.00 for 50 weeks	$255.00

Save Systematically For Christmas of 1931
THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK
Franklin Square "The Bank of Community Service" Norwich, Conn.
Open Saturday Evenings—6.30-8.00 N. B. New Currency and Holiday Containers

WESTERLY

MELANSON NON-SUPPORT CASE CONTINUED FOR A MONTH

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 2—Session of Stonington town court was held on Tuesday by Judge William A. Wilcox of Pawcatuck when Samuel Melanson was again brought before the court on a non-support charge. Town Solicitor John F. Gallagher and Prosecutor Henry P. Hammacher had agreed to an arrangement whereby Melanson was to release $75 of $100 wages coming to him from the Velvet mill in Stonington to reimburse the town of Stonington for care of his family while he had been in New London county jail. further judgment of $15 weekly for support of family was entered into and the case given a month's continuance to permit him to again enter employment.

Irving T. Melvin, 38 Broad street, Stonington, apprehended by State Police Officer Arthur Whitmarsh on complaint of a Rhode Island motorist and charged with violation of rules of the road of Connecticut, on the recommendation of Prosecutor Hammacher had an absolute nolle given him. It was represented by Mr. Hewitt that at Lord's Point reservoir a motorist had exceeded his rights when he placed his auto so that the accused could not reach a parking place by the roadside.

Richard Eyler, 50, residing on Coggswell street, Pawcatuck, where on Saturday night Pawcatuck Police Officer Simeon Shortman had been called by neighbors who complained of disorders was represented in court by Attorney John J. Dunn. Prosecutor Hammacher stated that the accused had personally a good reputation and in the breach of the peace complaint recommended a nolle upon the payments of $20.60 costs which were paid.

On request of Attorney Benjamin Hewitt, two civil cases, George H. Foley, Jr., vs. Edward O'Connell of the state of Maine, and the case of Caswell vs. Wright was assigned to next Tuesday for trial.

A nolle was granted in the reckless driving case against William Egan, 8 Palmer street, Providence, the operator of an automobile the past week which struck a high tension line pole of the South County Public Service Co. Moss Hill in Pawcatuck. Prosecutor Hammacher said that the accident resulted when the driver to avoid hitting a skunk or pole cat struck the pole. The injured were members of his own party and the state was without evidence in the case. Judge Herbert W. Rathbun for the respondent said that civil damage costs to pole destruction had been paid.

One month's continuance was given the case against George LaChappelle and Alfred Richards, as it was desired by the prosecutor that a thorough investigation be made of circumstances in their cases.

Probate Matters

The first December bi-monthly regular meeting of Westerly probate court with Probate Judge Edward M. Burke on the bench on Tuesday afternoon proved a busy session when probate matters were disposed of as follows:

Estate of Tristam D. Babcock. Petition received from Industrial Trust company, represented in court by Westerly Branch Manager James M. Pendleton as administrator with the will annexed of the testator, who died a resident of Westerly on April 10, 1930, asking for a second six-months' allowance for widow. With no objection the same was granted at the rate of $100 monthly.

Estate of William McGinn. Petition received from Industrial Trust Co. represented by Manager Pendleton, that the court appoint a referee to represent the estate in the Trust company claim against the estate in the form of a note, dated Jan. 31, 1930. Oliver P. Crandall, appointed by the court, examined the note and declared it to be a valid claim and it was so allowed by the court.

Estate of Dennison C. Hinckley Continuance was made to permit of sufficient order of notice.

Estate of Annie E. Noyes. Inventory of widow, pre-deceased by husband, Nathan F. Noyes, was received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Ella F. Talbot. Inventory received including listing of household furniture and it was received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Hannah M. Crandall. Petition received from Attorney Samuel H. Davis, representing estate, for leave to sell certain real estate to Angelo J. Cappuccio, represented by Attorney John J. Dunn f the sum of $1,025 and it being a ten foot strip of land adjoining lands of Cappuccio and bordering land to be acquired by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company adjoining its right of way extending from near the High street railroad dry bridge toward the land now or formerly of John Sweeney, the plat being examined in court by attorneys and beginning at the southeast corner of Lot No. 20 on Plat of Hannah Crandall, sub division, the dimentions being approximately 690 feet by ten feet by 665 feet by ten feet. The same was granted and bond was made $1500 with surety satisfactory to court.

Estate of Howard J. Taylor. Petition received from brother, Charles S. Taylor, that H. J. Taylor, of full age was of weakened mind, and a guardian be appointed. Return was made of a citation made by the sheriff and with no objection Charles S. Taylor and Jane Taylor were appointed guardians. Bond was made $9,000 each. Viola M. Burdick was appointed appraiser.

Estate of Emma J. Doust. Guardianship account of Helen G. Wilson, represented in court by Attorney S. H. Davis, was heard when testimony was given to show ward although strong physically was in a mentally weakened condition. Continuation was made to Dec. 16th.

Estate of Robert Duff. Inventory received, examined, allowed and ordered recorded.

Estate of Antonio Gentile. Petition was received for a rendering of account by mother, Josephine Gentile, guardian of estate of son, of full age and a citation was ordered issued upon her, returnable on Dec. 16th next.

In this year's Westerly drive, eighty-five thousand Christmas anti-tuberculosis seals were distributed to the children of the public schools of Westerly Monday morning by Miss Ruth Scanlon, chairman of the local committee having charge of the sale of stamps this year.

The Daughters of Italy will hold their annual charity dance on Monday evening at Mechanic's hall on Broad street. The proceeds will be used to provide Christmas dinners for poor families of Westerly.

The annual meeting of the Calabrian Citizen society will be held on Thursday evening at Stillman hall on High street.

After being his Thanksgiving vacation guest the elder brother of Charles Witter returned to his Alfred, N. Y. home on the Federal express on Monday night.

Joseph Clancy left Westerly Monday night for New York city on a business trip in the interests of the Maxson Machinery company of Westerly and Erie, Pa.

The placing of the ornamental colored electric light festooning on the Community Christmas tree on the site of the Rhode Island Hotel in Dixon square was begun on Tuesday afternoon by employes of the South County Public Service company.

On Monday, the first of December two new expresses on the New Haven railroad began their runs, the Havana Expresses, and the Sunbeam Specials, the former to stop regularly at Westerly and the latter on Sunday only.

GALES FERRY

The village school, taught by Mrs. Alice Slater, of New London, and Mrs. Iva B. Hurlbutt, of the village, opened Monday following the Thanksgiving recess.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold H. Critchlow entertained their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Warren H. Critchlow, of Greenport, L. I., over Thanksgiving week. Captain Critchlow with his wife and parents motored to Stoughton, Mass., for a day's visit at a former pastorate of Rev. Mr. Critchlow's, during their stay here. They left for a visit to New York on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll S. Hurlbutt and daughters, Marjorie and Norma, motored to Wakefield, R. I., for a visit over the holiday with Mrs. Hurlbutt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Whittier.

Mrs. George E. Lawson and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Euster, and children, Dorothy and Jerold Euster, of New London, with Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins, of the village, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lawson, at Long Cove.

Mrs. Delphine Fish is spending some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Coleby Morgan, in Mystic.

The Place of Song in the Things of the Spirit was the theme of the Sunday morning sermon at the Community Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Harold H. Critchlow. A solo, O Jesus, I Have Promised, was sung at the offertory by D. R. Povey.

Preparing For Christmas

Plans for the Christmas exercises of the church school were considered at a meeting of the Sunday school board at the close of the school session. A tree and Santa Claus will provide entertainment for the children of the school and there will be the usual tree for gifts for the White Cross. Mrs. Rufus W. Hurlbutt, of the program committee, appointed solicitors for the event, as follows: Gales Ferry village, Margaret Parker, Carol Norman, Ruth Hurlbutt; Allyn's Point, Louise Howard, Ruth Allyn; Stoddard district, William Davidson; Lester district, Mrs. C. Alton Chapman; Long Cove, Le Roy Gunuskey; Submarine base, Margaret Colver. The teachers will act as the gift committee. R. Irving Hurlbutt was appointed to provide a tree and Mrs. Nelson Parker, Mrs. C. Alton Chapman and Irving Norman the decorating committee. The date of the exercises was decided for Dec. 23, at 7 o'clock.

The topic for the Epworth league evening meeting was Jesus, Our Comrade. Miss Doris Wightman was the leader for this service. The offertory selection, My Wondrous Saviour, was sung by the Junior girls. Calendar announcements included an all-day session of the Ladies' Aid society Friday at the vestry. A turkey supper is being arranged by the Men's class of the church school.

Mrs. L. B. Aplin and son, Frank A. Aplin, returned home Saturday evening, having been guests over the holiday of Mrs. Aplin's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Irwin, at Mount Vernon, N. Y., their former home.

Family Parties Entertained

Mrs. Phoebe L. Norman entertained a family party at her home at Allyn's Point Thanksgiving day. Her guests included Mrs. Harry Norman and son Frank and daughter Helen, of New London; Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Norman and children, Carol, Irving and Phoebe, and Mrs. Bertha Hoyt, of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gunuskey, of Long Cove, entertained Mrs. Gunuskey's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rogers, with their daughter, Mrs. Ed Mahoney, and son Jack, from Springfield, Mass., recently for the day.

The summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was visited by the family at the week-end.

Mrs. George H. Wright had a visit, on the holiday, from her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Pike, of New York. William K. Wright, who was a guest of Mrs. Wright's family in Sterling for Thanksgiving was accompanied home by Mrs. Wright for a visit over the week-end.

Robert Miller, of Boston, arrived Sunday evening for a short visit to his grandmother, Mrs. Marie Sorensen, who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andrew P. Miller. Mrs. Miller, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Perkins, for two weeks, left with him Tuesday morning to motor back to Boston.

MONTVILLE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO ADMIT 4 MEMBERS

Pequot council, Knights of Columbus, will meet Sunday afternoon as usual at Pequot. There will be the conferring of the first degree on four candidates. The work will be in charge of Grand Knight William Devine, under whose leadership the council has been growing for the past year. Refreshments will be served at the close of the session.

Work is nearing completion on the construction of a refreshment and smoking room being built on the Uncasville auditorium by Pappas Bros., owners of the new building.

The services at Palmertown Baptist church Thursday at 7:30 p. m. will be the Love and Loyalty campaign prayer meeting, to be conducted by its pastor, Rev. Raymond J. Bates.

Manager Plouffe's Montville Aces basketball team, which had a successful season last year, has been practicing the past three weeks, under the leadership of Captain Peter Morosky, veteran and leading scorer at las. season's Aces, for the coming season which opens next Wednesday evening in the Montville Community house, Uncasville. Their opponents will be the fast Marine Five, of the submarine base, Groton, under the management of Lieut. Barry. This season's team is made up of practically all of last year's stars, including McDermott, one time member of the Norwich Free Academy; Gero former star of Chapman Tech, New London; Bob Welchell, of the University of Ohio; Walt Notosky, formerly of Bridgeport high school team; Captain Morosky and Julius Kobos, who occupied a high niche in Montville port fame. Local fans are looking forward to many interesting games this season.

The Ladies' Aid society of Uncasville M. E. church will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon.

SCHOONMNAN GETS $165 AND COSTS IN SUIT TO COLLECT $280 BILL

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 2—Washington county superior court, with Associate Justice Jeremiah E. O'Connell of Providence on the bench, adjourned its Tuesday session shortly before 4:00 p. m. At 3:40 p. m. the jury which had been hearing the Schoonman-Leone suit brought to collect $280 for nursery stock brought by William J. Schoonman of New London against Louis Leone of the Westerly-Watch Hill road, and which had retired at 2:40 p. m., returned to the courtroom to declare that they had agreed upon a verdict. Foreman Joseph H. Underwood of Wakefield, R. I., announced that the jury had found a verdict for the plaintiff, Schoonman, to recover in the sum of $165 and costs. The jurymen on this panel were excused to report again on next Friday morning at 10:45 a. m.

In Tuesday afternoon's session of court following Attorney C. E. Roche's plea for Respondent Leone at the close of the morning session, Attorney John E. Gallagher made his plea to the jury for Plaintiff Schoonman. Justice O'Connell then charged the jury and they retired to their jury room for an hour's deliberation.

Following the retirement of the Schoonman-Leone jury trial in the two automobile damage suit cases, to be heard jointly, Elisha R. Bitgood of Hopkinton, R. I., vs. Harry O. Williams and Edith C. Williams, was begun at 3 p. m. The jury was empaneled as follows:

Harold C. Wilcox, carpenter, Hopkinton; John E. Jenkins, ice cream dealer, North Kingstown; Willis C. Allbee, Richmond; Farquhar Smith, proprietor, Westerly; Daniel F. Larkin, president Westerly; James J. Casey, foreman, Westerly; Peter F. Lucier, chef, South Kingstown; Joseph R. Arnold, carpenter, North Kingstown; John E. Morrison, carpenter, Westerly; John R. Healey, gardener, Westerly; Frank W. Thomas, farmer, Exeter and Edmund Webster, farmer, North Kingstown.

On challenges Harold C. Wilcox, was excused and Henry G. Clark, president, Richmond, was accepted and later named as the jury foreman. James J. Casey was excused and Walter A. Chappell, farmer, Narragansett, was later excused. Daniel F. Larkin was examined as to insurance connections, and excused and Harry J. Clancy, taxi business, Westerly, accepted. William A. Kelley, farmer, South Kingstown, was accepted in place of Walter A. Chappell.

Attorney George Hurley of Providence, of Fitzgerald and Higgins, for Plaintiff Bitgood outlined the case to the jury. Attorney George P. Slade, Lyman and Cross, Providence, appearing for Harry O. Williams and Edith C. Williams, the former being the operator of the automobile and the latter the owner. It was represented to the court by Attorney Hurley that a court view of the scene of the auto collision on the early morning of Oct. 5, 1926, on the Nooseneck Hill road about 20 miles from Westerly was desired and agreed to by defendant counsel. Judge O'Connell informed the jury that as they were waiting for the return of a jury some of the members of which desired to take trains the view would be taken the first thing on Wednesday morning when he would meet them under the guidance of the sheriff at the Nooseneck Inn, and the jurymen were to report at the Westerly courthouse promptly at 10:45 a. m. this (Wednesday) morning. All jurymen not then serving on the two panels were excused to report on Friday morning next at 11:45 a. m.

Plaintiff's attorney in presenting his case to the jury stated that automobiles of Bitgood and Williams were in collision near Cordwood Corners near a point where highway construction was going on at the time and a steam road roller was getting up steam. He said that Mr. Bitgood had left his home in Hope Valley, R. I., to make a business trip to Providence and when near the Nooseneck Inn turned around and started to return home to get money and keys which he had left when changing his clothes. While proceeding towards Westerly and just after he had passed Cordwood Corners and had almost come to a stop by reason of the heavy fog mixed with smoke, out of the fog came the Williams auto moving fast and crashed into the front left corner of the Bitgood auto tossing it to the left and backward and throwing Mr. Bitgood onto the cement road from which he received injuries.

STONINGTON

At the weekly whist of Stonington Steam Fire Engine company Monday evening 18 tables were in play. The prizes were won by Alexander Wilkinson and Florence Buck, Stiles Ross and Anna Wood. The committee in charge was: Mary Farrell, chairman; Mary Ann Farrell, Thomas Coffey, Albert Palmer, Miss Catherine Hickson, Raymond Garity. Refreshments were served.

Time Clock Repaired

The time clock governing the lighting system in Stonington has been out of order for the past week and the lights have not been going until late in the evening and burning until 10 o'clock in the morning. The Mystic Power Co. has repaired the clock and states that there should be no trouble in the future.

The December meeting of the Stonington Fire police was held in their rooms Tuesday evening.

The December meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the Calvary church will be held Friday, at 2:30, in the chapel. The wardens and vestry will meet at the rectory Friday evening.

Edward P. York, Jr., has returned to Ranford school, at Washington, after a vacation spent here.

Henry Muller has returned from a visit in New Rochelle, N. Y.

The motorship Elizabeth Ann began her winter schedule Monday, leaving New London for Block Island on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and leaving Stonington Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

Miss Ruth Welles has returned from a visit in White Plains, N. Y.

The selectmen of the town held their December meeting in the town hall Monday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Lennon has returned from a visit in West Haven.

Miss Mary Schmitt has returned from Boston, where she visited relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Mallory Williams and daughter Margaret returned to New York Monday, after spending the holiday recess here.

Start For California

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cutler, their son, Benjamin Cutler, and Miss Natalie Bourges left Monday for a visit in California.

Miss Beverly Schmidt, of Kingston, N. Y., and Miss Lillian Stelzer, of Southold, L. I., who were guests here of Miss Fannie Stanton, returned to Arnold college, New Haven, Monday.

Miss Ethel Sheldon, of Bloomfield, N. J., has been visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnson have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wells, of Woodstock.

Miss Dorothy Avery has returned to Storrs college, following a visit here

Everett Pendleton has been entertaining Nelson Pendleton, of Boston.

Mrs. Madeline Judkins and daughter Lucie of New Haven, are visiting with Charles Cowan.

Miss Sarah Graham was removed to the Lawrence-Memorial hospital Monday night for treatment.

On False Alarm

The three fire companies of the borough were called out Monday night on what proved to be a false alarm. The companies covered the town before returning to their rooms. It was a cold night for such a trick and the police are investigating the deceit, which is a serious matter.

ROCKVILLE, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Barber entertained the following relatives at dinner Thanksgiving day: Miss Ella F. Barber and Charles Barber, of Woody Hill; Mrs. Annie B. Kenyon and Leslie Kenyon, of Rockville; Mrs. Mary Bliven and Arthur Barber, of Providence, and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando R. Smith, of Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric G. Barber and son, Wilfred E. Barber, dined Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Lewis, of Woody Hill.

Mrs. B. L. Woodmansee and son, Clarence H. Woodmansee, M. D., of Providence, called on their cousins at Maple Dell, Wednesday, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Woodmansee visited friends in New Hampshire on the holiday and over the week end.

OBITUARY

Miss Olivia E. Chester

Word was received here Monday of the death of Miss Olivia E. Chester, 84, at the state infirmary, Howard, R. I. Miss Chester spent most of her life here.

MYSTIC

About 45 attended a meeting held in the Old Mystic school, Monday evening, to talk over the idea of organizing a Parent-Teacher association for that school. The evening began with a piano selection, "The Last Farewell" by Mrs. Emily B. Holmes. Supt. William B. Noyes of Stonington then gave a brief talk on the benefits of such an organization and at the end asked if there were any nominations for president and secretary. Mrs. William Kennedy was chosen president and Mrs. Clifford J. Desley secretary. They gave a short talk in which they said that everything was new to them, but they would do the best they could with cooperation from the parents and teachers. They were given the power to set the date for the next meeting and to name any committees needed. Following this Mrs. Holmes gave another piano selection, "The Wayside Chapel." The teachers served cookies and punch at the close of the meeting.

INDUSTRIAL COMPANY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Mystic Industrial company was held in the rooms of the B. F. Hoxie Engine company, Monday evening. Reports were read and approved. A board of directors was elected as follows: Ernest Rossie of New Rochelle, N. Y., Arthur Silberman of New York city, John Rossie, Peter Flynn, Dr. G. S. B. Leonard, George Tingley, Felix Hulser, Herbert Chapman, Sidney S. Slswick, all of Mystic. This meeting was adjourned and the directors called another meeting at which time the officers for the coming year were elected. They are: President, Sidney Slswick; vice president, John Rossie; secretary and treasurer, John E. Grinnell.

Miss Anne Fiedler of New York was a recent guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Fiedler of Greenmanville avenue.

Miss Gladys Wilcox has returned to Wethersfield, after a short visit with her parents.

Mrs. Robert Edwards and infant daughter were dismissed from the local sanatorium the first of the week and returned to their home here.

While playing outdoors at Mystic Academy, during the exercises, Miss Ethel Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, was painfully injured when she fell, spraining her knee. She was given medical treatment and later was taken home.

HOW THE PLAYERS STOOD IN WESTERLY VS. MYSTIC

The following scores were made when the Alert Fire company of Westerly played whist with Mystic Hook and Ladder company, in the latter's rooms on Gravel street, Monday evening:

Table 1—Foote and McGregor, Mystic 2106; Howard and F. Shortman, Westerly 998. Margin 1108.

Table 2—J. Patten and Crowley, Westerly 2266; J. Chapman and H. Barnes, Mystic 1182. Margin 1084.

Table 3—Grossman and Collington, Mystic 2235; Green and Rathbun, Westerly 2199. Margin 36.

Table 4—Hardley and H. Shortman, Westerly 2502; Hempstead and Wyley, Mystic 1901. Margin 601.

Table 5—F. Barnes and MacKenzie Mystic 3046; Hill and Sulver, Westerly 1684. Margin 1362.

Table 6—Denekee and Bliven, Mystic 2300; G. McKenzie and T. Patten Westerly 2093. Margin 207.

Other members of Mystic Hook and Ladder company played in New London, Monday evening with members of the Harbour club of that city and their scores were:

Table 1—Foster and Underhill, New London 2988; Wilhelm and Chapman, Mystic 2704. Margin 284.

Table 2—Rowland and Mitchell, New London 2352; Barnes and Chesebro, Mystic 2146. Margin 206.

Table 3—E. L. Whiting and Rogers, New London 3641; Lewis and Kieburg, Mystic 1887. Margin 1754.

Table 4—Davis and Suessmuth, New London 2880—Earnshaw and Douglas, Mystic 2119. Margin 761.

Table 5—T. Whiting and Barber, New London 3928; Mull and Allyn, Mystic 1894. Margin 2034.

Table 6—Doane and Mix, New London 1729; H. Barstow and L. Barstow, Mystic 2654. Margin 927.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will meet with Miss Eliza Denison, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The session will be followed by a social time.

William Kalms of Hackensack, N. J. is a guest of Judge and Mrs. Frank H. Hinckley.

Mrs. Amie Bradley is confined to her home by illness.

G. W. Blunt White and children Patsy and William P. White have returned from a short visit with Mr. White's aunt at Oyster Bay, L. I. Mrs White expects to remain in New York for two more weeks.

MOHEGAN

Julian Harris of Hartford spent Thanksgiving day with his mother, Mrs. Harris.

Courtland Fowler and family were in Pawtucket, R. I., recently.

Gertrude S. Harris, of Manchester called on her grandmother Sunday.

Mrs. Sly, Mrs. Cousins and Mrs. Hilliar, of Norwich, called on Mrs Fowler and Mrs. Harris recently.

Burrill H. Fielding of Groton spent Sunday with Mrs. Schultz and his relatives in this place.

A little boy was running madly along the street. A kindly old lady stopped him and said: "My dear little boy, where are you going so fast?" The little boy answered: "I'm running for a doctor; my grandpa's sick!"

"Now," replied the old lady, "you run right back to grandpa and tell him he only thinks he's sick."

A couple of days later, the kindly old lady saw the little boy in the street again. "My dear little boy," she said, "is your grandpa all right now?"

"Yes," replied the little boy, "he's all right now. He thinks he's dead, and we are going to bury him next Sunday!"—London Evening Standard

NOANK

A meeting of the auxiliary to Harrison Morton Ward post, No. 115, of the American Legion was held in the Legion hall Monday evening. The following committees were appointed: Child's welfare, Mrs. Minnie Palmer; sick, Mrs. Edith Palmer; flag, Mrs. Jens Jenssen; good of the order, Mrs. Gertrude Rogers and Mrs. Flora Goodwin.

Mrs. Everett Latham and son, Richard, are spending several days in Glendale, N. Y.

Guests From Halifax

Mrs. Robert MacDonald, her son, Victor, and daughter, Ethel of Halifax, N. S., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Smith.

Coast guard patrol boat No. 135 is on the ways at Noank shipyard for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Park Prothero of Hartford have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zetkulic, of Riverview avenue.

J. H. Allens, of New York, has been spending several days at his cottage at Groton Long Point.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and Miss Caroline Horton, of New London, have been visiting Miss Caroline Sistare of Potter court.

Birthday Surprise

The Monday Evening whist club met with Mrs. Esther Andrews of Elm street. Mrs. Jessie Bagnell and Mrs. Grace Bentley won the prizes. After cards a birthday surprise party was held in honor of Mrs. Bertha Ashcroft. She received numerous gifts. Refreshments were served during the evening. Others present were: Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Jessie Bagnell, Mrs. Grace Bentley, Miss Effie Lamb, Miss Caroline Sistare, Mrs. Abby Brooks, Mrs. Maude White, Mrs. Mae Olee, Mrs. Ethel Murphy and Mrs. Whilhemenia MacDonald. The members of the club attended a theatre party in New London Tuesday afternoon after which they had a supper.

A. N. Farnham of New London was a business caller in the village Tuesday.

The pinochle party given Monday evening under the auspices of the auxiliary to Harrison Morton Ward post, in the Legion hall, was well attended. Eight tables were in play. Miss Ada Banks, Robert Cuthbert, Miss Sarah Banks and Marcella Balestrini took the prizes. Refreshments were served. The committee in charge was Mrs. Gertrude Rogers and Mrs. Flora Goodwin. This was the first in a series of 10 pinochles and the holder of the high score at the end of the series will be given the capital prize.

Joseph Burr, of New London, was in the village Tuesday.

Mrs. Della Rathbun has returned from a visit with relatives in Wellesley, Mass.

Roger Searles, principal of Noank grammar school, has returned from a brief visit to relatives in Northampton, Mass.

James and Robert Allen, of New York, have left for home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Morrison.

Miss Delia Murphy has gone to Norwich after spending some time in the village.

Fidelis Missionary society of the Baptist church will meet with Miss Irma Doughty of Elm street Thursday evening. The dime cards are to be brought in at this meeting.

At Mayflower Meeting

Mrs. Mary Latham is home, after a visit in Bridgeport the past few days. While there she attended a session of Mayflower council, D. of A.

Frederick R. Day has returned to Ft. Wright, F. I. after a furlough [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. William Stark, of Chester, were Thanksgiving day guests at Mrs. J. W. Stark's. Cards have been received from Mr. Stark mailed while in New Orleans, La.

Thanksgiving guests at W. H. Maynard's were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gates, Misses Anna [illegible] Glastonbury, Henry Maynard of Salem. At M. W. Simon's were Miss Dorothy Simon of New London, M. [illegible] Stark and Miss Emily Stark. At [illegible] H. Strong's were Mrs. Cora Rogers, H. Conway and family of Waterford, Leslie Rogers and family of Black-hall, Harold Gates and family of Cromwell.

Nathan Strong has been ill in bed for several days the past week.

Reginald Stark and family have been staying at Mrs. J. W. Stark's during Mr. Stark's absence.

In Four Weeks Time it will be XMAS . .

We suggest you give one big gift to the Family — a

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Full Range Radio!

The STUDIO LOWBOY is but one of 4 models available!

$112.50

LESS TUBES

Investigate United's Liberal Trade-in Allowance! And United's Certified Free Trial Plan!

$10 DEPOSIT DELIVERS

BALANCE IN SMALL WEEKLY OR MONTHLY PAYMENTS TO SUIT YOUR INCOME

Phone 3263 for Home Demonstration

UNITED MUSIC COMPANY

MITCHELL WOLFE, Manager

NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST RADIO RETAILERS

84 Main Street, Norwich, Conn. Phone 3263

WE GIVE YOU THIS BRAND NEW

EUREKA JUNIOR

FOR YOUR OLD CLEANER

To Purchasers Of The Eureka Standard During This Fall Housecleaning Offer - -

There are no strings or conditions attached to this advertising-educational offer—the most liberal ever made by a vacuum cleaner manufacturer.

For a limited time only, a brand new, Eureka Junior, complete with its famous electric hair dryer, will be given you in exchange for your old electric vacuum cleaner, regardless of its make, age or condition, when you place your order for a new Grand Prize Eureka Standard.

ONLY $5.00 DOWN

BALANCE EASY TERMS

Think of it—two cleaners for the price of one! A $19.50 trade-in value for your old cleaner—more than [illegible] on any other basis—and a Grand Prize Eureka Standard—all for a small down payment—balance on easy terms!

The Eureka Junior, which we will give you free in exchange for your old cleaner, is one of the finest products of its kind—powerful, sturdy and probably the greatest convenience and labor saver you have ever owned. And its Electric Hair Dryer is something that you will never again be without.

DON'T DELAY. Phone 3070

City of Norwich Gas & Elec. Dept.

"We Serve the Community First"

34 SHETUCKET STREET PHONE 3070

Join Our Christmas Club Now!

Select the amount you wish to save weekly and bring or send it to the bank. Then deposit the same amount each week—

THE CLUB RUNS 50 WEEKS UNTIL DEC. 1, 1931

$ .25–Club Pays $ 12.75

$ .50–Club Pays $ 25.50

$1.00–Club Pays $ 51.00

$2.00–Club Pays $102.00

$3.00–Club Pays $153.00

$5.00–Club Pays $255.00

THE DIME SAVINGS BANK OF NORWICH

33 Broadway

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS—6:30-8 O'CLOCK

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE HELPED TO ADVANCE PRICES IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Stock, bond and grain quotations ventured higher today coincident with the president's message to congress, a better tone to the copper market and further vague reports that better steel prices were in the making.

The chief topic of the day inevitably was Mr. Hoover's address to congress. His references to the anti-trust laws and his suggestion for an inquiry into their economic effects upon certain industries, such as coal and oil, that deal with the country's natural resources, were read attentively in financial circles which believe a revision of the laws would help solve some current problems.

But the stock market seemed to have discounted largely the remarks on railroad consolidation, the capital tax, interstate transmission of electrical power, and the estimated treasury deficit, so that publication of extracts of the message on the financial news tickers accelerated only moderately a narrow advance that had been under way for an hour. There was, in fact, some selling thereafter, but when half of the 1 to 2 point gains had been lost the rise was resumed under the auspices of the steel shares.

The report concerning steel prices has been heard off and on during recent weeks. It forecasts an advance, probably for the next quarter, in quotations on bars, shapes and plates, a move which would indicate considerable confidence in the industry's prospects over the next few months.

More definite was the improvement in copper, which was sold by custom smelters at 11 1-2 cents, an advance of half a cent. With no metal available below that figure the large producers continued to hold at 12 cents, the price at which efforts are being made to stabilize the staple.

Although stock prices advanced during the latter half of November, the collateral loans of New York Stock exchange member firms dropped $393,875,085 last month to a new low. This decline was smaller than the shrinkage in federal reserve brokers' loans for the same period, but the latter borrowings are less inclusive than the so-called "street loans."

The market met a minor interruption to the upward trend in the forenoon when selling of Mack Truck, which broke 4 points, unsettled parts of the list. Announcement of the dividend reduction on that stock was followed by prompt covering by shorts who apparently had expected a larger cut and general prices again picked up the thread of the advance. Declaration of the regular dividend of Youngstown Sheet and Tube was reassuring; incidentally, the issue closed 5 points net higher.

U. S. Steel, with a gain of 2 5-8, was a feature of the day. There was net improvement of about a point in Bethlehem, Vanadium, McKeesport, Republic and Otis, among the steels, but only fractional gains in General Electric, Westinghouse, General Motors, American Telephone, Radio and North American. Johns Manville and Allied Chemical rose 2. There was late strength in the foods, with advances of a point or more in National Biscuit, Borden, Coca Cola, Standard Brands, and others. Rails were irregular, but coppers averaged about a point higher.

Trading continued light, although the day's sales of 1,579,620 shares were considerably above Monday's.

Wheat closing 3-4 to 1 3-8 cents higher, was strengthened by a decrease in the world's visible supply and by better export sales of Canadian grain. Corn's gains ranged from 2 to 2 3-8c, deflecting prospects of smaller receipts, unfavorable weather and a small increase in contract stock. Rye was also strong, rallying about 3 cents, while cotton closed 13 to 17 points higher.

Sterling cables, after opening not far from the point at which gold might be exported from New York, rallied rather sharply. Other foreign currencies were generally improved.

STOCKS

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
13	Avia Corp	4	3¾	3¾
54	Baldwin Loc	27¾	26¾	27¾
170	Bald Loco pr	100	100	100
12	Balt & Ohio	76	74	76
1	Balt & Oh pr	77¾	77¾	77¾
66	Bamberger pr	107½	107½	107½
130	Barker Bros	12⅝	12¾	12¾
28	Barnsdall A	15	14½	14½
150	Bayuk Cigar	30	30	30
1	Beatrice Cr	72	72	72
1	Beatrice Co pr	107	107	107
8	Beechnut P	53	52½	53
2	Belding Hem	3½	3⅜	3½
21	Bendix Avia	19	18	18¾
19	Best & Co	41⅛	40⅝	41⅛
319	Bethlehem St	64⅜	62⅛	64⅛
2	Beth Stl 7 pr	120¼	119¾	120¼
5	Blaw Knox	26⅝	25¾	26⅝
14	Blaw Knox	27	25⅝	27
3	Bohn Alum	23¾	23½	23½
1	Booth Fishs	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
57	Borden	69⅛	67½	69
25	Borg Warner	19¼	18⅛	18⅜
51	Briggs Mfg	16⅞	16½	17⅛
1	Brockw Mot	4¼	4¼	4¼
20	Bklyn Man Tr	66⅝	65¼	66⅛
1	Bklyn & Q T	10	10	10
3	Bklyn Un Gas	108	107½	108
8	Brown Shoe	37	36	37
1	Bruns Balke	11	11	11
1	Bruns T & Ry	8	8	8
10	Bucyr Erie	15⅜	14¾	15⅜
2	Bucyr E cv pr	28¼	28¼	28¼
20	Bucyr E 7pc pr	115	112	115
40	Budd Mfg pr	56	56	56
10	Budd Wheel	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
6	Bullard Co	19⅝	19	19⅝
15	Bulova Watch	16¼	15¾	16
2	Burns Bros A	69	67½	67½
1	Burns Bros B	9	9	9
13	Burr Ad Mach	23⅝	22¾	23½
6	u Copper	2	1⅞	2
2	Butterick	12¼	12	12
23	Byers Co	46⅝	45	46
3	Calif Pack	51⅞	51½	51⅞
2	Callahan Z Ld	⅜	⅜	⅜
2	Calum & Ariz	29¾	28⅛	29¾
13	Calu & Hec	10½	10¼	10¼
6	Camp Wyant	13⅝	13	13⅝
9	Can D Gin Ale	43¼	42⅝	43
36	Canad Pac	43⅝	42½	42¾
4	Cannon Mills	19⅞	19⅜	19⅜
1	Cap Adm A	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
113	Case J I	113	110½	112¾
10	Caterpl Tr	32¾	32½	32½
4	Celanese	18	18	18
2	Celotex Co	7½	7½	7½
1	Celotex ctfs	7½	7½	7½
250	Celotex Co pr	26	25	25
18	Cerro de Pas	30¼	29¾	30
1	Certainteed	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
8	Checker Cab	22⅞	22¾	22⅞
26	Ches & Ohio	43⅝	43	43⅝
36	Ches & Ohio	43⅝	43	43⅝
2	Ches Corp	46¼	45	45¼
6	Chi & Alton	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
3	Chi Gt West	7⅝	7⅛	7⅛
13	Chi G W pr	26⅝	25½	26
21	C M St P&P	7⅛	6⅞	7
17	C M S P & P pr	12⅜	11⅜	12
13	Chi & N W	42¼	40⅞	41⅝
10	Chi R I & P	61⅝	59⅝	61⅝
3	Chi R I & P 6 pc	89½	89½	89½
10	Chi Y Cab	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛
2	Chic Cot Oil	14	14	14
8	Childs Co	30⅛	30⅛	30⅛
117	Chrysler	18⅝	17½	18⅜
6	City Ice & F	37½	37½	37½
10	City I & F pr	88	88	88
1	Clark Equip	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
2	City Stores	4¼	4	4¼
1	Cluett Peaby	27	27	27
13	Coca Cola	159½	157¾	159½
1	Coca Cola A	51⅝	51⅝	51⅝
1	Colgate Palm	50	50	50
33	Col & Aik	16⅝	15	16¼
2	Col & Aik pr	78	78	78
4	Col Beacon	10	10	10
22	Col Fuel & Ir	27¼	25½	26¼
51	Colum G & E	37⅝	36⅛	37⅛
1	Col G&E pr B	92⅞	92⅞	92⅞
43	Colum Grapt	11⅝	11⅜	11½
4	Col Carb	93¼	92	92¼
11	Com Credit	20⅜	20	20⅜
5	Com Cred A	35	35	35
4	Com I Tr	28	27⅝	28
2	C I T cv pr	84	84	84
106	Coml Solv	18½	17¼	18
122	Comw Sou	9½	9	9¼
3	Comw So pr	95	95	95
6	Cong Nairn	8½	8⅜	8½
3	Cong Cigar	25	25	25
1	Cons Cigar	29¾	29¾	29¾
100	Cons Cig pr	62	62	62
4	Cons Film	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜
2	Con F pr	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛
106	Consol Gas	90¾	88½	90
1	Cons Gas pr	103⅝	103⅝	103⅝
2	C R R C pr	37¼	37	37
25	Consol Text	⅜	¼	¼
4	Contain A	12⅝	12¼	12⅝
2	Contain B	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
64	Cont Bak A	23⅜	21¼	22½
5	Whi Rk M Sp	42	42	42
3	White Sew M	8⅝	8⅛	8⅝
28	Willys Over	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
91	Woolworth	63⅝	61¾	63⅛
20	Worth P & M	82½	81	81
1	Wor P&M pr B	84⅛	84⅛	84⅛
2	Wrigley Jr	68	68	68
7	Yale & Towne	31⅜	31⅛	31⅜
27	Yel T & C	11⅝	10¾	11¼
11	Young S & W	24¾	21⅛	24½
1	Young Sh & T	80	80	80
3	Zenith Radio	3½	3⅛	3⅛

BANKS, INS., UTILITIES

HARTFORD.

Fire Insurance Companies.

	Bid	Asked
Aetna Fire Ins Co ex	49	51
Auto Ins Co ex	28½	30½
Hartford Fire Ins Co ex	61	62
Nat Fire Ins Co ex	56	57½
Phoenix Ins Co	70	72
Rossia Ins Co	20	22

Life, Indemnity and Other Insurance.

	Bid	Asked
Aetna Cas & Sur Co ex	73	78
Aetna Life Ins Co ex	60	62
Conn Gen Life Ins Co ex	120	124
Htd St Boil In&Ins Co ex	50	53
Lincoln Nat Life Ins Co ex	..	90
Travelers Ins Co ex	960	980

Public Utilities.

	Bid	Asked
Conn Elec Ser Co ex	66	70
Conn Power Co ex	61	63
Greenwich W&Gs Co ex	..	91
Hartford Gas Co ex	73	77
Hartford Gas Co pr ex	42	46
Hart Elec Light Co	66	68
Holyoke Wat Pow Co ex	..	475
So N E Tel Co ex	159	163

NEW YORK.

Bank Stock

	Bid	Asked
American	64	67
Bank of U S	12	13
Chase	100	104
Chelsea	22	25
Chatham Ph	80	83
Chemical	49	51
City	104	108
Corn Exch	135	140
First National	3825	3950
Fifth Avenue	2450	2650
Harriman	1500	1600
Manhattan	83	88
Public Natl	76	79
Seward Natl	70	75

Trust Companies.

	Bid	Asked
Bankers	109	113
Bank of N Y	600	620
Bronx County	47	53
Brooklyn	605	615
Cent Hanover	244	251
Empire	54	56
Fulton	450	500
Guaranty	488	496
Irving Trust	36½	38
Manufacturers	48	51
N Y Trust	170	175
Times Square (new)	10	14
Title G & S T	130	135

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Soaring prices on corn became the center of attraction today for grain traders, corn showing a maximum rise of 4 5-8 over quotations current last week. With arrivals of corn in Chicago reduced to nearly the vanishing point, and with but slim apparent prospects of any increased movement of corn away from farms, the corn market proved itself quickly responsive today to cold weather likely to enlarge feeding demand. Iowa reports said corn for delivery as far off as next summer commanded 5 to 8 cents a bushel over the Chicago May delivery, whereas the usual rate was the Chicago price less freight.

Chicago closing quotations on corn were firm at the topmost level reached, 1 3-8a2 3-4 higher than yesterday's finish. Wheat closed 1-2a1 1-2 up, oats at 5-8a1 1-2 advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 50c.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Stability returned to the bond market today. The further improvement in the share market tended to check urgent selling that has been a disturbing factor of late, and bonds more accurately reflected the favorable conditions in the money market than they have in some time.

While the better tone developed in a quiet session, high grade domestic bonds that normally respond to easy money rates were slightly higher as a rule. Second grade bonds were mixed but some sizeable recoveries were made by issues that have been sharply depressed. Rails were much steadier.

The turnover in United States governments dwindled to small proportions from the peak of activity reached yesterday. Mixed trends prevailed. Liberty 3 1-2s and Liberty first 4 1-4s climbed to within a small fraction of their year's highs, while short term Treasury issues declined further. Treasury 4 1-4s sagged 1-8. The sharp advance in governments in recent weeks probably has influenced some liquidation by banks. Holdings of governments by federal reserve member banks declined $12,000,000 in the week ended Nov. 26.

A moderate inquiry for certain South American and European bonds gave the foreign list a firm appearance. Colombian 6s, Peruvian 7s, Peru first and second 6s, Rio De Janeiro 8s, Rio Grande Do Sul 6s, and Sao Paulo 6s, were among the principal Latin-Americans to share in the improvement. German governments, municipals and industrials, were firmer and very active. German International 5 1-2s advanced 3-4. The Agricultural Bank 6s of 1938 were up a point and similar gains were registered by several others.

In the railroad section improvement was most marked in Boston & Maine 5s, Denver, Rio Grande & Western 5s, Erie 5s of 1975, Illinois Central 4s and first 3 1-2s, Nickel Plate 4 1-2s C, Pennsylvania general 4 1-2s, Frisco bonds, St. Louis, Southwestern 5s, and Southern Railway 6s. Seaboard issues, Wabash 5s B, New York Sussex & Western 5s, Missouri Pacific general 5s, International Great Northern 6s, Chicago & Northwestern issues continued their decline.

A 5-point advance in Warner Bros. 6s in a very active trading was a feature of stock privilege issues which made an irregular recovery. The issue closed at 72 compared with its recent low of 65 1-8. Baltimore & Ohio 4 1-2s, and Allegheny 5s of 1949 gained a point each. Bonds with warrants were generally soft.

COTTON

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Futures closed steady, 13 to 17 points higher; spot steady; middling 10.60.

MONEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Call money steady 2 per cent all day. Time loans easy, 60-90 days, 2a2 1-4; 4 months, 2 1-4; 5-6 months, 2 1-2a2 3-4 per cent. Prime commercial paper, 2 3-4a3. Bankers' acceptances, unchanged.

Treasury Balance

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—Treasury receipts for Nov. 29 were $3,204,308.99; expenditures $11,566,620.16; balance $88,757,585.54.

THE CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The curb market maintained a firm undertone through the medium of dull trading and narrow price movements today.

The day's volume of 432,300 shares was 58,000 shares more than yesterday's slim business, but was insufficient to impart any vitality to the proceedings.

The utilities mainly gained ground, although Electric Bond & Share closed off 1-4, after fluctuating between a gain of 3-8 and a loss of a point. American Super Power closed steady. American Gas & Electric advanced nearly 2 points, and such issues as United Light A, American and Foreign Power warrants and American Light & Traction, gained about a point.

Oils were a little steadier. Humble, Gulf and Vacuum gained about a point. Standard of Kentucky rose 1 1-4 but later reduced its advance to a fraction. Cities Service closed steady, up 1-8. In the natural gas issues, Southwest Gas Utilities sagged a point to a new low. Copper reflected further firmness of the red metal market. Newmont gained a point, and Hudson Bay and Noranda rose fractionally.

Industrials were narrowly irregular. Armstrong Cork, which infrequently trades, sold up 5 points, and Aviation Corp. of the Americas gained 2. Diamond Match new closed firm on announcement that deposits under the recapitalization plan were within a few hundred shares of the necessary 97 per cent. Seton Leather sold up 2 points. General Theatres new and Ford of Canada "A" gained moderately, but Ford, Ltd., eased off fractionally.

Insurance Co. of North America was in fair demand, rising 2 points and closing up 1. In the investment and trading company group, Goldman Sachs closed off 1-2. United Founders was actively traded, sagging 1-4, then recovering.

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
3	Aero Underw	7½	7	7½
3	Affiliated Prod	11⅜	11⅛	11⅜
1	Ainsworth	12	12	12
1	Air Invest vtc	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
10	Rainb L Pr B	2	1⅞	2
3	Red Bank	4¼	4¼	4¼
1	Reiter Foster	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2	Relian Int A	2⅝	2½	2½
6	Reybarn Inc	2⅞	2⅝	2⅝
1	Reynolds Inv	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Rich Oil C pr	12	12	12
1	Rich Rad	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
1	Roan Ant Cop	14¼	14⅛	14¼
5	Rockl L&P tr	17⅝	17	17⅝
3	Rossia Int	3⅝	3½	3½
2	Roy Crp pr	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
120	Safe St 2 w	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
20	St Reg Pap	15	15	15
13	Salt Cr Prd	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
1	Saxet Co	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞
2	Schiff Co	19½	19	19½
3	Sch & Zd pr	9½	9½	9½
4	Winter Benj	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
1	Yukon Gold	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Zonite Prod	9⅞	9⅞	9⅞

WALL STREET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—S. T. Bledsoe, general counsel of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, today was elected chairman of the executive committee with headquarters in New York.

A belief that the textile industry has reached its low point and that general business activity will not show any serious cyclical declines below the October levels, is expressed in the Textile Economist, publication of the research division of Tubize Chatillon Corp. "In general," the Economist says, "the spirit of extreme pessimism which appeared as a result of the failure of business to revive this fall, is turning to cautious optimism."

Charles Warner, president of the Warner Co., announced that approximately $900,000 has been appropriated by the organization for new plant construction and expansion. The funds will be expended in the establishment of additional retail terminals now in operation. At present, the company has four concrete distributing terminals in Philadelphia and one in Wilmington, Del.

At Iron Mountain, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cunningham became the parents of their twenty-first child. They have been married twenty-seven years. Of their twenty-one offspring, seventeen are living.

OFFICES IN 56 CITIES

Have $2500

By Saving $16.25 a Month

OUR 36-year-old Plan of money-building is used by more than 190,000 investors. Write for free descriptive booklet, "Enjoy Money."

INVESTORS SYNDICATE

FOUNDED 1894

Local Office

Plant Building, New London

Tel. 3976

We Offer

Aetna Life Insurance Co.

Aetna (Fire) Insurance Co.

Hartford Fire Insurance Co.

National Fire Insurance Co.

Phoenix Insurance Co.

Travelers Insurance Co.

PUTNAM & CO.

Members New York and Hartford Stock Exchanges

Hartford, Conn.

6 Central Row

Telephone 5-0151

New Britain, Conn.

31 West Main Street

Telephone 2040

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—(AP)—Following is the full text of President Hoover's message delivered to both branches of congress yesterday:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I have the honor to comply with the requirement of the constitution that I should lay before the congress information as to the state of the union, and recommend consideration of such measures as are necessary and expedient.

Substantial progress has been made during the year in national peace and security; the fundamental strength of the nation's economic life is unimpaired; education and scientific discovery have made advances; our country is more alive to its problems of moral and spiritual welfare.

Economic Situation

During the past 12 months we have suffered with other nations from economic depression.

The origins of this depression lie to some extent within our own borders through a speculative period which diverted capital and energy into speculation rather than constructive enterprise. Had overspeculation in securities been the only force operating, we should have seen recovery many months ago, as these particular dislocations have generally readjusted themselves.

Other deep-seated causes have been in action, however, chiefly the world-wide overproduction beyond even the demand of prosperous times for such important basic commodities as wheat, rubber, coffee, sugar, copper, silver, zinc, to some extent cotton, and other raw materials. The cumulative effects of demoralizing price falls of these important commodities in the process of adjustment of production to world consumption have produced financial crises in many countries and have diminished the buying power of these countries for imported goods to a degree which extended the difficulties farther afield by creating unemployment in all the industrial nations. The political agitation in Asia; revolutions in South America and political unrest in some European states; the methods of sale by Russia of her inceasing agricultural exports to European markets; and our own drought—have all contributed to prolong and deepen the depression.

In the larger view the major forces of the depression now lie outside of the United States, and our recuperation has been retarded by the unwarranted degree of fear and apprehension created by these outside forces.

The extent of the depression is indicated by the following approximate percentages of activity during the past three months as compared with the highly prosperous year of 1928:

Value of department-store sales, 93% of 1928.

Volume of manufacturing production, 80% of 1928.

Volume of mineral production, 90% of 1928.

Volume of factory employment, 84% of 1928.

Total of bank deposits 105% of 1928.

Wholesale prices—all commodities, 83% of 1928.

Cost of living, 94% of 1928.

Various other indexes indicate total decrease of activity from 1928 of from 15 to 20 per cent.

There are many factors which give encouragement for the future. The fact that we are holding from 80 to 85 per cent of our normal activities and incomes; that our major financial and industrial institutions have come through the storm unimpaired; that price levels of major commodities have remained approximately stable for some time; that a number of industries are showing signs of increasing demand; that the world at large is readjusting itself to the situation; all reflect grounds for confidence. We should remember that these occasions have been met many times before, that they are but temporary, that our country is today stronger and richer in resources, in equipment, in skill, than ever in its history. We are in an extraordinary degree self-sustaining, we will overcome world influences and will lead the march of prosperity as we have always done hitherto.

Economic depression can not be cured by legislative action or executive pronouncement. Economic wounds must be healed by the action of the cells of the economic body—the producers and consumers themselves. Recovery can be expedited and its effects mitigated by cooperative action. That cooperation requires that every individual should sustain faith and courage; that each should maintain his self-reliance; that each and every one search for method of improving his business or service; that the vast majority whose income is unimpaired should not hoard out of fear but should pursue their normal living and recreations; that each should seek to assist his neighbors who may be less fortunate; that each industry should assist its own employees; that each community and each state should assume its full responsibilities for organization of employment and relief of distress with that sturdiness and independence which built a great nation.

Our people are responding to these impulses in remarkable degree.

The best contribution of government lies in encouragement of this voluntary cooperation in the community. The government, national, state, and local, can join with the community in such programs and do its part. A year ago I, together with other officers of the government, initiated extensive cooperative measures throughout the country.

The first of these measures was an agreement of leading employers to maintain the standards of wages and of labor leaders to use their influence against strife. In a large sense these undertakings have been adhered to and we have not witnessed the usual reductions of wages which have always heretofore marked depressions. The index of union wage scales shows them to be today fully up to the level of any of the previous three years. In consequence the buying power of the country has been much larger than would otherwise have been the case. Of equal importance the nation has had unusual peace in industry and freedom from the public disorder which has characterized previous depressions.

The second direction of cooperation has been that our governments, national, state, and local, the industries and business so distribute employment as to give work to the maximum number of employees.

The third direction of cooperation has been to maintain and even extend construction work and betterments in anticipation of the future. It has been the universal experience in previous depressions that public works and private construction have fallen off rapidly with the general tide of depression. On this occasion, however, the increased authorization and generous appropriations by the congress and the action of states and municipalities have resulted in the expansion of public construction to an amount even above that in the most prosperous years. In addition the cooperation of public utilities, railways, and other large organizations has been generously given in construction and betterment work in anticipation of future need. The department of commerce advises me that as a result, the volume of this type of construction work, which amounted to roughly $6,300,000,000 in 1929, instead of decreasing will show a total of about $7,000,000,000 for 1930. There has, of course, been a substantial decrease in the types of construction which could not be undertaken in advance of need.

The fourth direction of cooperation was the organization in such states and municipalities, as was deemed necessary, of committees to organize local employment, to provide for employment agencies and to effect relief of distress.

The result of magnificent cooperation throughout the country has been that actual suffering has been kept to a minimum during the past 12 months, and our unemployment has been far less in proportion than in other large industrial countries. Some time ago it became evident that unemployment would continue over the winter and would necessarily be added to from seasonal causes and that the savings of workpeople would be more largely depleted. We have as a nation a definite duty to see that no deserving person in our country suffers from hunger or cold. I therefore set up a more extensive organization to stimulate more intensive cooperation throughout the country. There has been a most gratifying degree of response, from governors, mayors, and other public officials, from welfare organizations, and from employers in concerns both large and small. The local communities through their voluntary agencies have assumed the duty of relieving individual destress and are being generously supported by the public.

The number of those wholly out of employment seeking for work was accurately determined by the census last April as about 2,500,000. The department of labor index of employment in the larger trades shows some decrease in employment since that time. The problem from a relief point of view is somewhat less than the published estimates of the number of unemployed would indicate. The intensive community and individual efforts in providing special employment outside the listed industries are not reflected in the statistical indexes and tend to reduce such published figures. Moreover, there is estimated to be a constant figure at all times of nearly 1,000,000 unemployed who are not without annual income but temporarily idle in the shift from one job to another. We have an average of about three breadwinners to each two families, so that every person unemployed does not represent a family without income. The view that the relief problems are less than the gross numbers would indicate is confirmed by the experience of several cities, which shows that the number of families in distress represents from 10 to 20 per cent of the number of the calculated unemployed. This is not said to minimize the very real problem which exists but to weigh its actual proportions.

As a contribution to the situation the federal government is engaged upon the greatest program of waterway, harbor, flood control, public building, highway, and airway improvement in all our history. This together with loans to merchant shipbuilders, improvement of the navy and in military aviation, and other construction work of the government will exceed $520,000,000 for this fiscal year. This compares with $253,000,000 in the fiscal year 1928. The construction works already authorized and the continuation of policies in government aid will require a continual expenditure upwards of half a billion dollars annually.

I favor still further temporary expansion of these activities in aid to unemployment during this winter. The congress will, however, have presented to it numbers of projects, some of them under the guise of, rather than the reality of, their usefulness in the increase of employment during the depression. There are certain common-sense limitations upon any expansions of construction work. The government must not undertake works that are not of sound economic purpose and that have not been subject to searching technical investigation, and which have not been given adequate consideration by the congress. The volume of construction work in the government is already at the maximum limit warranted by financial prudence as a continuing policy. To increase taxation for purposes of construction work defeats its own purpose, as such taxes directly diminish employment in private industry. Again any kind of construction requires, after its authorization, a considerable time before labor can be employed in which to make engineering, architectural, and legal preparations. Our immediate problem is the increase of employment for the next six months, and new plans which do not produce such immediate result or which extend commitments beyond this period are not warranted.

The enlarged rivers and harbors, public building, and highway plans authorized by the congress last session, however, offer an opportunity for assistance by the temporary acceleration of construction of these programs even faster than originally planned, especially if the technical requirements of the laws which entail great delays could be amended in such fashion as to speed up acquirements of land and the letting of contracts.

With view, however, to the possible need for acceleration, we, immediately upon receiving those authorities from the congress five months ago, began the necessary technical work in preparation for such possible eventuality. I have canvassed the departments of the government as to the maximum amount that can be properly added to our present expenditure to accelerate all construction during the next six months, and I feel warranted in asking the congress for an appropriation of from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to provide such further employment in this emergency. In connection therewith we need some authority to make enlarged temporary advances of federal-highway aid to the states.

I recommend that this appropriation be made distributable to the different departments upon recommendation of a committee of the cabinet and approval by the president. Its application to works already authorized by the congress assures its use in directions of economic importance and to public welfare. Such action will imply an expenditure upon construction of all kinds of over $650,000,000 during the next twelve months.

Agriculture

The world-wide depression has affected agriculture in common with all other industries. The average price of farm produce has fallen to about 80 per cent of the levels of 1928. This average is, however, greatly affected by wheat and cotton, which have participated in world-wide overproduction and have fallen to about 60 per cent of the average price of the year 1928. Excluding these commodities, the prices of all other agricultural products are about 84 per cent of those of 1928. The average wholesale prices of other primary goods, such as nonferrous metals, have fallen to 76 per cent of 1928.

The price levels of our major agricultural commodities are, in fact, higher than those in other principal producing countries, due to the combined result of the tariff and the operations of the farm board. For instance, wheat prices at Minneapolis are about 30 per cent higher than at Winnipeg, and at Chicago they are about 20 per cent higher than at Buenos Aires. Corn prices at Chicago are over twice as high as at Buenos Aires. Wool prices average more than 80 per cent higher in this country than abroad, and butter is 20 per cent higher in New York city than in Copenhagen.

Aside from the misfortune to agriculture of the world-wide depression we have had the most severe drought. It has affected particularly the states bordering on the Potomac, Ohio, and Lower Mississippi rivers, with some areas in Montana, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas. It has found its major expression in the shortage of pasturage and a shrinkage in the corn crop from an average of about 2,800,000,000 bushels to about 2,090,000,000 bushels.

On August 14 I called a conference of the governors of the most acutely affected states, and as a result of its conclusions I appointed a national committee comprising the heads of the important federal agencies under the chairmanship of the secretary of agriculture. The governors in turn have appointed state committees representative of the farmers, bankers, business men, and the Red Cross, and subsidiary committees have been established in most of the acutely affected counties. Railway rates were reduced on feed and livestock in and out of the drought areas, and over 50,000 cars of such products have been transported under these reduced rates. The Red Cross established a preliminary fund of $5,000,000 for distress relief purposes and established agencies for its administration in each county. Of this fund less than $500,000 has been called for up to this time as the need will appear more largely during the winter. The federal farm loan board has extended its credit facilities, and the federal farm board has given financial assistance to all affected cooperatives.

In order that the government may meet its full obligation toward our countrymen in distress through no fault of their own, I recommend that an appropriation should be made to the department of agriculture to be loaned for the purpose of seed and feed for animals. Its application should as hitherto in such loans be limited to a gross amount to any one individual, and secured upon the crop.

The Red Cross can relieve the cases of individual distress by the sympathetic assistance of our people.

I shall submit the detailed financial position of the government with recommendations in the usual budget message. I will at this time, however, mention that the budget estimates of receipts and expenditures for the current year were formulated by the treasury and the budget bureau at a time when it was impossible to forecast the severity of the business depression and have been most seriously affected by it. At that time a surplus of about $123,000,000 was estimated for this fiscal year and tax reduction which affected the fiscal year to the extent of $75,000,000 was authorized by the congress, thus reducing the estimated surplus to about $48,000,000. Closely revised estimates now made by the treasury and the bureau of the budget of the tax, postal, and other receipts for the current fiscal year indicate a decrease of about $430,000,000 from the estimate of a year ago, of which about $75,000,000 is due to tax reduction, leaving about $355,000,000 due to the depression. Moreover, legislation enacted by congress subsequent to the submission of the budget enlarging federal construction work to expand employment and for increase in veterans' services and other items, have increased expenditures during the current fiscal year by about $225,000,000.

Thus the decrease of $430,000,000 in revenue and the increase of $225,000,000 in expenditure adversely change the original budget situation by about $655,000,000. This large sum is offset by the original estimated surplus a year ago of about $123,000,000, by the application of $185,000,000 of interest payments upon the foreign debt to current expenditures, by arrangements of the farm board through repayments, etc., in consequence of which they reduced their net cash demands upon the treasury by $100,000,000 in this period, and by about $67,000,000 economies and deferments brought about in the government, thus reducing the practical effect of the change in the situation to an estimated deficit of about $180,000,000 for the present fiscal year. I shall make suggestions for handling the present-year deficit in the budget message, but I do not favor encroachment upon the statutory reduction of the public debt.

While it will be necessary in public interest to further increase expenditures during the current fiscal year in aid to unemployment by speeding up construction work and aid to the farmers affected by the drought, I can not emphasize too strongly the absolute necessity to defer any other plans for increase of government expenditures. The budget for 1932 fiscal year indicates estimated expenditure of about $4,054,000,000, including postal deficit. The receipts are estimated at about $4,085,000,000 if the temporary tax reduction of last year be discontinued, leaving a surplus of only about $30,000,000. Most rigid economy is therefore necessary to avoid increase in taxes.

National Defense

Our army and navy are being maintained at a high state of efficiency, under officers of high training and intelligence, supported by a devoted personnel of the rank and file. The London naval treaty has brought important economies in the conduct of the navy. The navy department will lay before the committees of the congress recommendations for a program of authorization of new construction which should be initiated in the fiscal year of 1932.

Legislation

This is the last session of the seventy-first congress. During its previous sittings it has completed a very large amount of important legislation, notably: The establishment of the federal farm board; fixing congressional reapportionment; revision of the tariff, including the flexible provisions and a reorganization of the tariff commission; reorganization of the radio commission; reorganization of the federal power commission; expansion of federal prisons; reorganization of parole and probation system in federal prisons; expansion of veterans' hospitals; establishment of disability allowances to veterans; consolidation of veteran activities; consolidation and strengthening of prohibition enforcement activities in the department of justice; organization of a narcotics bureau; large expansion of rivers and harbors improvements; substantial increase in federal highways; enlargement of public buildings construction program; and the ratification of the London naval treaty.

The congress has before it legislation partially completed in the last sitting in respect to Muscle Shoals, bus regulation, relief of congestion in the courts, reorganization of border patrol in prevention of smuggling, law enforcement in the District of Columbia, and other subjects.

It is desirable that these measures should be completed.

The short session does not permit of extensive legislative programs, but there are a number of questions which, if time does not permit action, I recommend should be placed in consideration by the congress, perhaps through committees cooperating in some instances with the federal departments, with view to preparation for subsequent action. Among them are the following subjects:

Electrical Power

I have in a previous message recommended effective regulation of interstate electrical power. Such regulation should preserve the independence and responsibility of the states.

Railways

We have determined upon a national policy of consolidation of the railways as a necessity of more stable and more economically operated transportation. Further legislation is necessary to facilitate such consolidation. In the public interest we should strengthen the railways that they may meet our future needs.

Antitrust Laws

I recommend that the congress institute an inquiry into some aspects of the economic working of these laws. I do not favor repeal of the Sherman act. The prevention of monopolies is of most vital public importance. Competition is not only the basis of protection to the consumer but is the incentive to progress. However, the interpretation of these laws by the courts, the changes in business, especially in the economic effects upon those enterprises closely related to the use of the natural resources of the country, make such an inquiry advisable. The producers of these materials assert that certain unfortunate results of wasteful and destructive use of these natural resources together with a destructive competition which impoverishes both operator and worker can not be remedied because of the prohibitive interpretation of the antitrust laws. The well-known condition of the bituminous coal industry is an illustration. The people have a vital interest in the conservation of their natural resources; in the prevention of wasteful practices; in conditions of destructive competition which may impoverish the producer and the wage earner; and they have an equal interest in maintaining adequate competition. I therefore suggest that an inquiry be directed especially to the effect of the workings of the antitrust laws in these particular fields to determine if these evils can be remedied without sacrifice of the fundamental purpose of these laws.

Capital-Gains Tax

It is urged by many thoughtful citizens that the peculiar economic effect of the income tax on so-called capital gains at the present rate is to enhance speculative inflation and likewise impede business recovery. I believe this to be the case and I recommend that a study be made of the economic effects of this tax and of its relation to the general structure of our income tax law.

Immigration

There is need for revision of our immigration laws upon a more limited and more selective basis, flexible to the needs of the country.

Under conditions of current unemployment it is obvious that persons coming to the United States seeking work would likely become either a direct or indirect public charge. As a temporary measure the officers issuing visas to immigrants have been, in pursuance of the law, instructed to refuse visas to applicants likely to fall into this class. As a result the visas issued have decreased from an average of about 24,000 per month prior to restrictions to a rate of about 7,000 during the last month. These are largely preferred persons under the law. Visas from Mexico are about 250 per month compared to about 4,000 previous to restrictions. The whole subject requires exhaustive reconsideration.

Deportation Of Alien Criminals

I urge the strengthening of our deportation laws so as to more fully rid ourselves of criminal aliens. Furthermore, thousands of persons have entered the country in violation of the immigration laws. The very method of their entry indicates their objectionable character, and our law-abiding foreign-born residents suffer in consequence. I recommend that the congress provide methods of strengthening the government to correct this abuse.

Post Office

Due to deferment of government building over many years, previous administrations had been compelled to enter upon types of leases for secondary facilities in large cities, some of which were objectionable as representing too high a return upon the value of the property. To prevent the occasion for further uneconomic leasing I recommend that the congress authorize the building by the government of its own facilities.

Veterans

The nation has generously expanded its care for veterans. The consolidation of all veterans' activities into the veterans' administration has produced substantial administrative economies. The consolidation also brings emphasis to the inequalities in service and allowances. The whole subject is under study by the administrator, and I recommend it should also be examined by the committees of the congress.

Social Service

I urge further consideration by the congress of the recommendations I made a year ago looking to the development through temporary federal aid of adequate state and local services for the health of children and the further stamping out of communicable disease, particularly in the rural sections. The advance of scientific discovery, methods, and social thought imposes a new vision in these matters. The drain upon the federal treasury is comparatively small. The results both economic and moral are of the utmost importance.

General

It is my belief that after the passing of this depression, when we can examine it in retrospect, we shall need to consider a number of other questions as to what action may be taken by the government to remove possible governmental influences which make for instability and to better organize mitigation of the effect of depression. It is as yet too soon to constructive. formulate such measures.

There are many administrative subjects, such as departmental reorganization, extension of the civil service, readjustment of the postal rates, etc., which at some appropriate time require the attention of the congress.

Foreign Relations

Our relations with foreign countries have been maintained upon a high basis of cordiality and good will.

During the past year the London naval pact was completed, approved by the senate, and ratified by the governments concerned. By this treaty we have abolished competition in the building of warships, have established the basis of parity of the United States with the strongest of foreign powers, and have accomplished a substantial reduction in war vessels.

During the year there has been an extended political unrest in the world. Asia continues in disturbed condition, and revolutions have taken place in Brazil, Argentina, Peru, and Bolivia. Despite the jeopardy to our citizens and their property which naturally arises in such circumstances, we have, with the cooperation of the governments concerned, been able to meet all such instances without friction.

We have resumed normal relations with the new governments of Brazil, Argentina, Peru, and Bolivia immediately upon evidence that they were able to give protection to our citizens and their property, and that they recognized their international obligations.

A commission which was supported by the congress has completed its investigation and reported upon our future policies in respect to Haiti and proved of high value in securing the acceptance of these policies. An election has been held and a new government established. We have replaced our high commissioner by a minister and have begun the gradual withdrawal of our activities with view to complete retirement at the expiration of the present treaty in 1936.

A number of arbitration and conciliation treaties have been completed or negotiated during the year, and will be presented for approval by the senate.

I shall, in a special message, lay before the senate the protocols covering the statutes of the world court which have been revised to accord with the sense of previous senate reservations.

HERBERT HOOVER.

The White House, Dec. 2, 1930.

EXCERPTS FROM PRESIDENT HOOVER'S VIEWS GIVEN IN MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

Here are some pointed sentences from President Hoover's message today to congress:

"Economic depression can not be cured by legislative action or executive pronouncement. Economic wounds must be healed by the action of the cells of the economic body—the producers and consumers themselves."

"Some time ago it became evident that unemployment would continue over the winter. x x x We have as a nation a definite duty that that no deserving person in our country suffers from hunger or cold."

"As a contribution to the situation, the federal government is engaged upon the greatest program of waterway, harbor, flood control, public building, highway, and airway improvement in all our history. This, together with loans to merchant shipbuilders, improvement of the navy and in military aviation, and other construction work of the government will exceed $520,000,000 x x this fiscal year."

"To increase taxation for purposes of construction work defeats its own purpose, as such taxes directly diminish employment for the next six months and new plans which do not produce such immediate result or which extend commitments beyond this period are not warranted."

"Our immediate problem is the increase of employment for the next six months and new plans which do not produce such immediate result or which extend commitments beyond this period are not warranted."

"I urge the strengthening of our deportation laws so as to more fully rid ourselves of criminal aliens."

"The political agitation in Asia; revolutions in South America and political unrest in some European states; the methods of sale by Russia of her increasing agricultural exports to Europea markets; and our own drought—have all contributed to prolong and deepen the depression."

"In the larger view the major forces of the depression now lie outside of the United States, and our recuperation has been retarded by the unwarranted degree of fear and apprehension created by these outside forces."

COLUMBIA

Miss Ablene Badge has been spending several days with relatives in Hartford.

Miss Nellie Hunt who has been visiting relatives in Columbia and East Hampton for several weeks, has returned to her brother's home in Providence where she makes her home. Miss Hunt is a former resident of the Pine St. section of Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hunt motored to Worcester, Sunday afternoon, to take their son, Clayton, Jr., back to Worcester Polytechnic institute after spending his Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fallor and family returned to their home in Montclair, N. J., Sunday after spending several days in Columbia at the home of Miss Anne Dix.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Lyman and Miss Harriet Fuller spent Thanksgiving day at Liberty Hill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Davoll.

The pastor of the Columbia church exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning with Rev. Howard Bushnell of the Goshen church, Lebanon. Mr. Bushnell preached from the subject "Appearance and Reality." He was accompanied by a member of his Goshen choir, Stephen Gorski, who sang two solos.

There was no Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening, as it was Tri County Union night, with the meeting at Gilead.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Arnold. Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Henry Hutchins and Mrs. Philip Isham will be the hostesses.

There will be another dressmaking lesson Thursday at the hall, with Miss Van Cleef of Storrs in charge.

GOV. TRUMBULL AND WARDEN REED DEFEND STATE PRISON

(Continued from Page One)

reiterated the accusation last week when he testified before the committee.

Another newspaper article quoted George M. Patterson, former deputy warden of the institution, as saying that prisoners in solitary confinement were shackled with their hands so far above their heads that they were forced to stand on tip toes. Patterson later testified before the committee that he had been misquoted and denied that this form of punishment had ever been inflicted.

While the committee was winding up its public hearings, which began last week, Gov. John H. Trumbull in Hartford defended the prison administration against its critics.

"The Rev. Mr. Smith, the council of churches and others who rushed into print with allegations of cruelty and inhumane treatment of prisoners at the state prison at Wethersfield," the governor said, "did so, I am convinced, not with a desire to correct evils of which they had personal knowledge, but rather to attract attention to themselves by so doing.

"The investigation now under way at the state prison has disclosed, if anything, that the allegations of terrible cruelties practiced on the prisoners were absolutely without foundation, and I am convinced the allegations made were for the sole purpose of attracting public attention to those making them."

In denying the charges of brutality, Warden Reed characterized them as "false, malicious and slanderous not only to me and to the officers, but to the state of Connecticut."

"This institution," he said, "has the reputation of being one of the best of its kind. Any such statements which have been broadcast are unfair, unjust and untruthful."

Warden Reed, who testified at great length as to the policies and administrative details of the institution, told the committee that there had been instances where prisoners in solitary confinement had been handcuffed to their cells for periods not exceeding three or four hours at the time. In no case, however, he testified, had a prisoner's hand been placed above his head.

He related four instances in which shackling of prisoners in cells had been resorted to since he became warden in November of last year. This form of punishment, he said, was used only in extreme cases and in accordance with authority given to the warden by a Connecticut statute.

Asked by Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the committee, if solitary cells were characteristic of all prisons and whether he regarded them as a necessary method of punishment, the warden said that solitary cells were used in all prisons that he knew of and he expressed the opinion that this form of punishment was necessary to deter prisoners from repeating serious offenses.

Besides the warden, the committee today heard Julius J. Hadley, secretary of the state department of public welfare; Rev. Arthur C. P. Schoenfeldt, of Athol, Mass., former chaplain at the prison; Dr. Charles W. Goff, of the prison surgical staff; Dr. Herbert E. Emerson, prison dentist. and Jack Elliott, Maurice L. Cronan, and Nathan W. Garfin, newspapermen employed by the Hartford Courant.

At the conclusion of the public session, Cummings said the committee will confer during the latter part of the week with Sanford Bates, superintendent of federal prisons, Dr. George W. Kirchwey and Dr. Frank Robertson, who were named last week by the committee as experts to conduct a survey of the prison.

HEBRON

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett G. Lord on the holiday, fourteen grown-ups and children were served an old-fashioned turkey dinner.

Eleven sat at the feast at the home of Mrs. Gertrude M. Hough.

Guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Horton and family were, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Horton and son, William Horton, Jr., of Hackensac, New Jersey, Mrs. Marietta Horton, mother of Mr. Edmund Horton, and Miss Marion Gott.

Fifteen people sat at the Thanksgiving table at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jared B. Tennant.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Gray and children spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood A. Miner.

Beatrice Porter of Gilead and Alberta C. Hilding spent the holidays at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clinton Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton H. Jones, and son, Carlton, Jr., spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. E. Buell Porter, Mrs. Jones' parents.

Mrs. C. L. Hamilton of Hartford and Miss Irma Lord, of Willimantic, teacher of the third grade at Willimantic state normal school spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Loren M. Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stratton and daughter, Eleanor, of Guilford, were at the home of Mrs. Stratton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Griffin.

Members of Tri-County C. E. union met November 30 in the Congregational church, Gilead. Two reels, "Give Us Our Daily Bread," and three reels, "Modern Jephtha," were announced to be shown.

The Tri-County C. E. members met Sunday afternoon in Gilead church for a rehearsal of a Christmas cantata, "Holy Child," which will be given in Colchester.

SOMERS

Rev. W. F. Tyer, executive secretary of Tolland County Y. M. C. A., was the speaker at the Sunday morning service which was especially planned for the Pioneers. The boys sat in a group with their leader, Lewis Carter.

Rev. Edwin Thomas Jones of this town preached in the Vernon Center church Sunday morning in place of Rev. Mr. Tyler.

The W. C. T. U. met with the vice president, Mrs. R. S. Bugbee Tuesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society served a community supper at Piedmont hall Tuesday evening. Following the supper a sale of fancy and useful articles was held and there was a mysterious package, grab bag, a white elephant table, a second hand book shelf and a candy table.

A meeting of Enfield C. E. Union will be held at the local church Friday evening of this week. Miss Margaret Slattery, internationally famous platform speaker, will be the speaker. Members of the Ladies' Aid society will serve the C. E. Union members a supper previous to the meeting.

Judge Ernest S. Fuller showed his motion pictures of the Holy Land in Suffield Congregational church last Sunday evening.

Miss Adella Doane, of Wallingford, was a guest of Deacon and Mrs. Charles W. Loomis the past week.

Misses Emilie Bugbee of Cobbleskill, N. Y., and Isabel Bugbee of Greenwick, Mass., were holiday visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Bugbee.

The Women's club is to meet with Misses Clara and Elsie Russell on the North road Thursday afternoon. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Field and Mrs. John McLean. Mrs. V. M. Schwartz of Springfield has been secured as the speaker.

Mrs. William C. White, Miss Maud B. White, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Finley were in Windsor Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. White's sister, Miss Kate C. Pomeroy, who died in the Hartford hospital early Sunday morning. Burial was in Windsor.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Thayer entertained a holiday dinner party of 13 relatives at their home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bliss, of Hartford, were week end guests of Somers relatives.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Charles E. Pike is having his house painted by a painter from South Woodstock who applies the paint by spraying.

J. S. May and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. May in Waterford. Mr. May, who is employed in Newark, N. J., was home over the week end.

August Peterson has gone to New York for the winter, accompanying his grandson, William Anderson, who spent several days here last week.

A. G. Morse and family spent Thanksgiving with W. T. Dartt and family in Quinebaug. Miss Dorothy Dartt, of New York, who spent the summer in Spain and Portugal, was home for the first time since her trip. Her sisters, Lucy, of Storrs, and Sylvia, of Cushing academy, joined the family group.

Arthur G. Morse, Jr., a student at Dean academy, has been spending the holiday recess at his home.

Rev. H. D. Baker and family spent last Friday in Boston.

Kenneth Pike, of Boston; Sarah Pike, Mansfield; Eunice Pike, of Worcester, spent Thanksgiving recess with Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lindeman entertained from Wednesday until Sunday Eleanor Lindeman of Trenton, N. J., Mrs. Louise Landres and infant daughter, Anna Louise, of Woodmont, L. I., Mr. and Mrs. Everett Burbank and son, Robert, of Bidford Hills, N. Y.

Those spending the holiday out of town were J. E. Child and family, Windsor White and family, with Mr. and Mrs. N. T. White in East Brookfield, Mass.; W. R. Bosworth and family, Stuart May and family with relatives in Eastford; Alan and Ethel Upham with E. L. Upham and family in West Newton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra May entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jordan of Webster, Mass., for Thanksgiving.

A. H. Hibbard and family had as guests Rebecca Hibbard of Hartford, Harold Cox and John Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Cox of Stafford Springs spent the holiday at Valley farm, with Mrs. B. E. Eddy.

Mrs. Charles Potter was a holiday guest of her daughter, Mrs. Elliot Clemence and family, in Sturbridge.

Albert Bellerive and family entertained relatives from Walpole on Thanksgiving day.

CANTERBURY PLAINS

The teachers from Canterbury, Lisbon, Voluntown, Sterling, Scotland, Plainfield and Woodstock met Tuesday evening, the 25th, at Plainfield high school, at Central Village, for their extension course under the direction of Mr. Howe, of New Britain normal school. A discussion between Supervisor Stanley of Woodstock and Supervisor Floyd of the first five towns named, followed as to which supervisor's teachers could teach social studies and get the most out of them. After much discussion it was decided that the teachers in Supervisor Floyd's towns knew how to teach the social studies. Interesting remarks were made by Supt. Chapman, of Plainfield high school, and supervisor for the town grades of Plainfield, Mr. Light, of Hartford, also the principal of New Britain normal school. At the close of the meeting the first year high school girls served lunch to the teachers and supervisors.

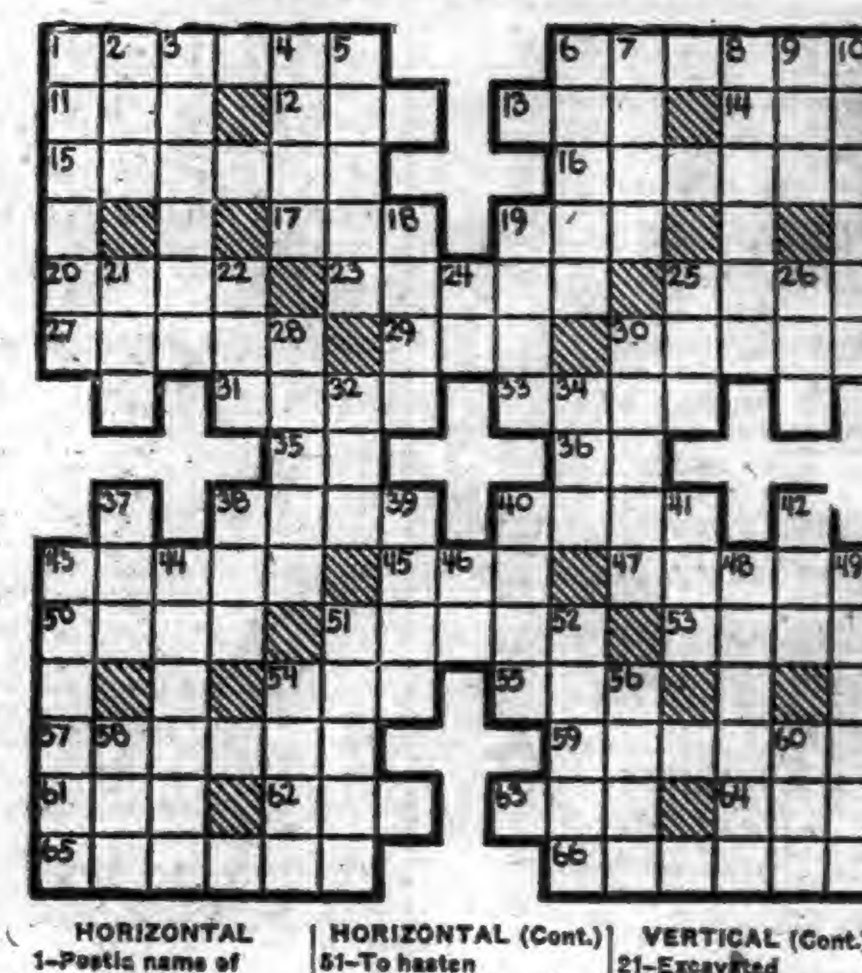
The Juvenile grange has elected these officers: Master, Althea Williams; overseer, Muriel Hanson; lecturer, Molley Cooley; steward, Hazelle Williams; assistant steward, Norman McLeod; chaplain, Olive Linton; secretary, Harry Kinne; treasurer, Marguerite Tracy; gate keeper, Louis Kuchachik; Ceres, Hope Tracy; Pomona, Helen Bennett; Flora, Anna Romanoff; lady assistant steward, Elizabeth Erickson.

Fifteen tables of whist were played in grange hall, Friday night, for the benefit of the grange. The next whist will be held the second week in December. Clam chowder, coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Dwight Bushnell, Elsie Hawes and Grace Dawley assisted.

Some of the wells in this section are still dry and farmers have to carry water for their poultry and stock.

The community was shocked to hear of the death of Allen Moody of Westminster. Much sympathy has been expressed for his son, Manfred, and his niece who has been staying with them since Mrs. Moody's death, six months ago.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



HORIZONTAL

1-Poetic name of China
6-An individual
11-A Swedish coin
12-Small bed
13-Blood color
14-A drink
15-Same as manitou
16-A seaside resort, S. E. France
17-Skill
19-To obstruct, as a river
20-Paradise
23-Drawing-room
25-Festival
27-Rustic
29-Prefix—ba
30-To fear
31-Low
33-Jewelers' weight measure
35-Musical note
36-Upon
38-Company of persons bound together
40-To take notice of
43-To make happy
45-French for street
47-Mistake
50-Traversed on horseback

HORIZONTAL (Cont.)

51-To hasten
53-An American college
54-Young bear
55-Greek goddess of the dawn
57-The other (colloq.)
58-Knew (Scot.)
61-Evening (Poet.)
62-Decay
63-Personal pronoun
64-Before
65-To render miserable
66-East Indian cedar

VERTICAL

1-Long crested wave
2-A Southern constellation
3-Not tough
4-Acts (Latin)
5-Possessive pronoun
6-A nut
7-Kind of cheese
8-A river of S. Carolina
9-A diminutive suffix
10-Built a nest
18-Domesticated
19-[illegible]

VERTICAL (Cont.)

21-Excavated
22-To seize suddenly
24-Musical note
25-Small fish
26-Faucet
28-An American jurist
30-Receiver of a gift
32-To err
34-Fish eggs
37-Same as though
38-An insect
39-To beat, as with a stick
40-In this place
41-Lacking moisture
42-The sun
43-Puts in a slatted box
44-Prepared for publication
46-Ancient Chaldean city
48-Showered
49-To melt and clarify as lard
51-One of the Great Lakes
52-Coupled
54-To seal with wax
56-Withered
58-Plural of ovum
59-[illegible]

Sluggish Systems Frequent Cause of General Bad Health

Noted Authorities Advise Cleansing System with New Laxative

Many so-called "little things" may easily lead to more serious consequencies. Headache, coated tongue, billiousness, bad breath and a general tired feeling, any one of them may be signs of a seriously clogged-up system. And today people are discovering that one of the best possible measures they can take to insure good health is to avoid constipation by using Feen-a-mint the modern chewing gum laxative.

Feen-a-mint is especially famous and popular because it works on an entirely new principle—that of uniform internal distribution.

Because you chew Feen-a-mint it is effective in milder doses than ordinary laxatives. For the effectiveness of a laxative is not so much dependent upon the quantity swallowed as upon the thoroughness of its distribution throughout the ailmentary tract.

While you chew this delicious bit of gum the tasteless laxative it contains is gradually released and mixed with the saliva. Thus it is carried to the intestinal tract smoothly evenly, without shock to the system or the distressing after-effects so common with old-fashioned laxatives. Each particle of the laxative in Feen-a-mint works with utmost efficiency, gently encouraging the intestinal muscles to resume the activity so necessary for healthful elimination.

The action of Feen-a-mint is thorough, gentle, dependable. With the proper dosage, it is not necessary to increase the amount of Feen-a-mint you take nor to switch to another laxative for a change. Feen-a-mint is harmless and contains no habit-forming drugs. Truly the health laxative. Ask for a package at any drug store.—Adv.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

BORN

QUINN—In Norwich at the Backus hospital, Dec. 2, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Quinn, of 5 Elmwood avenue.

BUCK—In Willimantic, Nov. 28, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buck, of Warrenville.

PERRY—In Stonington, Nov. 30, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. William Perry.

GRIFFIN—At New London, Dec. 1, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffin of Fishers Island.

STANTON—At New London, Dec. 2, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stanton.

CURTISS—At New London, Dec. 2, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Curtiss of East Lyme.

BERRY—At Groton, Conn., Dec. 2, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Berry.

DIED

BEACH—At New London, Dec. 1, 1930, John L. Beach.

CHESTER—In Howard, R. I., Nov. 30, 1930, Olivia Chester, daughter of the late Christopher N. and Clarisa Chester, of Hopkinton, aged 84.

MONAHAN—In this city, Dec. 2, 1930, Miss Susie V. Monahan, daughter of the late Michael and Mary Connell Monahan.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

LAMBERT—In Norwich, Dec. 2, 1930, Mary Anne Kane, wife of Napoleon Lambert of Occum, aged 56 years, 6 months.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

FUNERAL NOTICES

KINNAIRD—In Lebanon, Dec. 1, 1930, Mrs. Clara Mary Kinnaird, aged 65 years.
Funeral services at the late home in Lebanon, Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 2 p m. Burial in the New cemetery, Lebanon.

BACKUS—In Willimantic, Dec. 2, 1930, Mrs. Sarah G. Backus, aged 64 years. Funeral services at the home, 74 Bellevue street, Willimantic, Thursday, Dec 4, at 2 p. m. Remains to be taken to Springfield, Mass., Friday, for cremation, followed by interment of the ashes at the Maplewood cemetery, Norwich.

WILSON—In Norwich, Dec. 1, 1930, Jennie McBeth Power, wife of Harrison B. Wilson.
Funeral services at the home of her brother-in-law, William E. Wilson, 148 Broad street, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Maplewood cemetery. 2tdec2

WHITE—In Willimantic, Dec. 1, 1930, Mrs. Ellen F. White, formerly of East Killingly.
Funeral services at A. F. Wood's funeral home, Danielson, Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. 2tdec2

CARD OF THANKS

Thanking all relatives and friends, also Hugh H. Osgood lodge and F. of A. for their many acts of kindness during the loss of our father.

Signed,
WILLIAM E. IBBISON,
JAMES IBBISON,
THOMAS IBBISON.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

C. A. GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR TEL. 842-2
LADY ASSISTANT
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

J. J. LYONS and CO.
MORTICIANS
43 MAIN STREET
Tel. 606-W

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
DAVID H. WILSON
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-W

HOURIGAN BROS.
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Funeral Home, 35 Church Street.
Office, 62 Main St. Branch, Jewett City

DOUGHERTY BROS.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Taftville 3820 Moosup 306-2

GEORGE G. GRANT
Phone 2729 Providence St. Taftville
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER

THOMAS J. SHAHAN
MORTICIAN
301 Main Street Tel. 2470

WILLIMANTIC

LINCOLN and POTTER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMERS
62 Church St., Willimantic
Phone 705-2
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

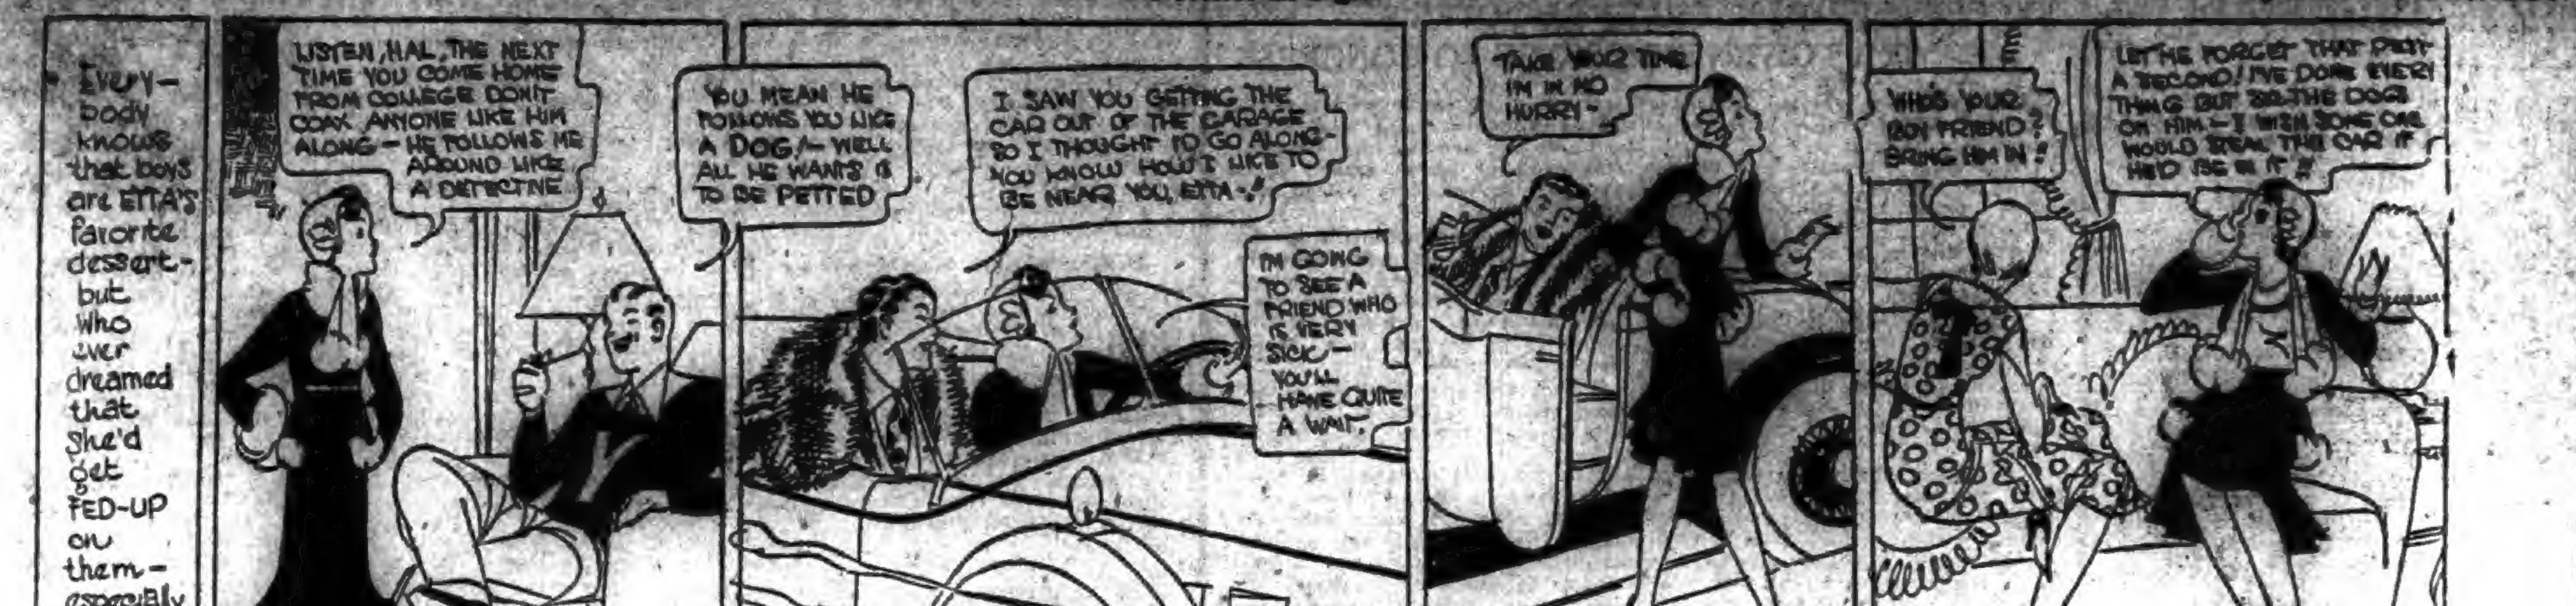
Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
35 Union Street Willimantic, Conn
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

DANIELSON

ALBERTUS F. WOOD
Funeral Director
Embalmer
PHONE 143 DANIELSON

Martin T. Burns
Academy Street, Danielson
Embalmer and
Funeral Director

ETTA KETT — No Relief in Sight —By PAUL ROBINSON



Every-body knows that boys are ETTA'S favorite dessert—but who ever dreamed that she'd get FED-UP on them—especially ONE !!
LISTEN, HAL, THE NEXT TIME YOU COME HOME FROM COLLEGE DON'T COAX ANYONE LIKE HIM ALONG—HE FOLLOWS ME AROUND LIKE A DETECTIVE
YOU MEAN HE FOLLOWS YOU LIKE A DOG!—WELL ALL HE WANTS IS TO BE PETTED
I SAW YOU GETTING THE CAR OUT OF THE GARAGE SO I THOUGHT I'D GO ALONG—YOU KNOW HOW I'T NICE TO BE NEAR YOU, ETTA—!
I'M GOING TO SEE A FRIEND WHO IS VERY SICK—YOU'LL HAVE QUITE A WAIT.
TAKE YOUR TIME I'M IN NO HURRY—
WHO'S YOUR BOY FRIEND? BRING HIM IN!
LET ME FORGET THAT PEST A SECOND! I'VE DONE EVERYTHING BUT SIC THE DOGS ON HIM—I WISH SOME ONE WOULD STEAL THE CAR IF HE'D BE IN IT !!
Copyright, 1930, by Central Press Association, Inc.
12-3 Paul Robinson

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Parlor heaters and kitchenettes. Low price. 471 No. Main St. 2tdec3

FOR SALE—Home-made bread and pastry. Orders for parties a specialty. Call 1171-W. 2tdec3

HOUSE LOT with barn 40x149. Electricity and water. Price $195. Your own terms. One mile from Jewett City P. O. Address H. L., Bulletin Office. 7tdec3

FOR SALE— One horse wagon and sled, log boat, dry planks, cart and wagon bodies. Repair work done. M. H. Parker, Mansfield, Conn.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT — Brand new seven-room cottage with all modern improvements including steam heat. Can be bought on small monthly payments. Must be seen to be appreciated. Tel. 602-4. 4tnov27

FOR SALE—A 1930 DeSoto Six sedan; looks and runs like new; genuine bargain if sold this week; terms arranged. Call 2285.

FOR SALE OR RENT—In Thamesville, new 6-room house and heated garage. Will be sold regardless of cost. $100 cash. Balance same as rent. Tel. 3579-W. 2tdec2

FOR SALE—Household furniture; dining room set, beds, springs, mattresses, chairs, couch, etc., at 10 a. m., Wed., Dec. 3rd, at 14 Ann St. Phone 1011. 2tdec2

ASKT THE MAN down ta the inn what the bridle path wuz fer, 'n' he ced that it wuz fer newlyweds. He ced if the bridle walk down the path it wood brink her good luck. That's a joke I bet. See our 50c Briar pipes. They are pips. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

State Road location of 12 acres
8-room house, barn, well adapted for poultry. Price $1500—one-half cash.
Tryon's Real Estate Agency
Willimantic, CoCnn.

FOR SALE — Home furnishings at lowest prices. Living room sets, $8.00 up; dining room sets, $45 up; bed outfits, $7.50; 9x12 rugs, $12.50; buffets with mirrors, $12.50; kitchen cabinet, $15. Norwich Used Furniture Exchange, 29 Shetucket St.

FOR SALE—3 Stanton Ave., seven room house with bath Price reasonable. Within easy walking distance of center. Apply Susan D. Ryder, 159 Blatchley Ave., New Haven, Conn. 12tnov1F

FOR SALE—Bargains in single and double houses. Have what you need in real estate Quinn Insurance Agency.

FOR SALE—Used ranges, also parlor stoves that sold up to $50; now $10 and $15. Reasonable terms. Silberman's Furniture Store, 37 Main St

FOR SALE—At once, to settle the estate, all the property at Wintergreen Point, in Waterford. For particulars see Miss Moore at The Bulletin office or R. E. Burton. Phone 1125.

FOR SALE—Used dining room suite, also od doak buffets China cabinets and tables Silberman Furn. Store. tfaug13

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WHY BE LONESOME—Hundreds happily mated, confidential service. N. B. Gibson, 2605 N. 9 St., Philadelphia, Pa. 3t8tMWenov29

WANTED—Small farms, with or without stock. For a quick sale write, giving full description and location, stating lowest prices and conditions of sale, Racine Farm Agency, Danielson, Conn. Tel. 52-3.

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co. 5 Bath St Tel 2443.

SPECIALIZING — Pawtuxet Valley, East and West Greenwich and Coventry farms. Arthur Kinne, East Greenwich, Rhode Island.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper. 6 yrs. experience. Call 3095-J. 3tdec2

SALESLADIES
Experienced to Sell Dresses and Coats. Apply at once.
THE PRINCESS SHOP
Franklin Square

THE SCHOOL OF NURSING
Of The
WM. W. BACKUS HOSPITAL
is accepting applications for the February class. The course of instruction covers a period of three years which includes a seven months affiliation with the Yale School of Nursing and the New Haven Visiting Nurse Association. Only high school graduates accepted. For prospectus of the school giving requirements for admission, curriculum and opportunities offered address

Principal, School of Nursing,
Wm. W. Backus Hospital,
Norwich, Conn.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

WANTED—All kinds of live poultry. Broilers a specialty Tel. 539 S Colt tffeb18

WANTED—All kinds of poultry; will call anywhere; highest prices paid Joseph Horn Tel 1501 Willimantic. tfmar19

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

PLAINFIELD

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN
Tel. Moosup 232-3

A Bulletin Wan. Advertisement Wall Get It

TO RENT

TO RENT— Tenement on Mathewson St. Inquire Arremony's store, Jewett City. tfdec3

FOR RENT —Beautiful 3-room kitchenette apartment, steam heated and all conveniences. Phone 3001.

FOR RENT—Rooms; board if desired 78 McKinley Ave. Tel. 3557-J. tfnov18

FOR RENT — 4-room apartment; all improvements. Heat furnished. 152 Broad St. 8tdec4

FOR RENT—4-room apartment, all improvements. Inquire at Eagle Clothing Co. 6tdec3

TO RENT — Steam-heated, fireproof garage in the Majestic building on Water street, six (6) car capacity, $35.00 per month. Also steam-heated store in Majestic building, $25.00 per month. Apply State Finance Corporation, 258 Bank street, New London, Conn., or to janitor on premises. 3tdec3eod

TO RENT— Two connected furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Mrs. Willet, 248 Main St, Tel. 2049-J. 3tdec2

FOR RENT—Five-room apt., all improvements. 70 McKinley Ave. Phone 2690-J. 2tdec2

FOR RENT—Four new built modern apartments; 5 rooms each. Rent $15 per month. Call 849-M. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—5 and 6-room tenements, 344 Franklin St. Phone 1951. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—2 light housekeeping rooms. 21 Ripley Place. Tel. 3519-M. 5tdec2

TO RENT— Several desirable apartments. J. A. Cunningham, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056. tfdec1

TO LET — 5 rooms, $16, all improvements. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St.

TO RENT—5-room tenement. $15 a month. Call 1422-W. tfnov26

TO RENT—Furnished apartment, well heated, garage. Phone 285-J. tfnov25

TO RENT— Two light housekeeping rooms, 45 Union street, all improvements tfnov25

FOR RENT—6-room apartment; all improvements. Phone 946-W.

FOR RENT—At Wintergreen Point, to small family, 6-room house with garage. See Miss Moore at Bulletin office

FOR RENT—7 rooms with all improvements. 89 Asylum St. tfOct16

TO RENT—5 lovely rooms, 23 Hill St. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters. tfnov11

TO RENT—7-room cottage, bath, hot and cold water Fountain St Call 77 Cedar St. Phone 863 tfnov15

FOR RENT— Modern 5-room apartment 47 Otis St. Tel. 1085-R tfnov13

TO RENT— Flat of six rooms, 8 Church St. Tel. 2637-J 3tnov5MWF

TO RENT—Modern 5-room apartment. Best section in town Oil heated, hot water Available now. 50 Broad St Inquire Hanover-Curland Co. Franklin St tfnov8

STORAGE—Gilbert Furniture Co. inquire 68 Broadway. tfoct11S

FOR RENT — Light housekeeping rooms. Steam heat 27 McKinley Ave tfsept30

TO LET—5 nice rooms, all improvements, 11 High street tfsept17

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; modern and central Phone 211 Sept26

FOR RENT—Heated apartment in the Osgood Caron's Specialty Shop

TO RENT— A 5-room and a 4-room apartment; all modern conveniences. 357 Washington St Tel 1085-R tfsept17

TO RENT—Flat of six rooms with all improvements Inquire of Gilbert Bowers 130 Washington St., or phone 1132-M. tfsept27

FOR RENT—Rooms for gentlemen. On car line. Phone 2658-W. 12tnov19

For Rent
First Floor Tenement With Bath Room and Hot Water Heater
234 BROAD STREET

TO RENT
If you want a 5-room apartment a little out of the ordinary, at a reasonable price, see those in the "Huntington", 170 Broadway. Tel. 3282.
D. T. SHEA

For Rent
FINE LIGHT STORE IN SUNLIGHT BUILDING
Occupied Continuously for 15 Years as Barber Shop
Apply BULLETIN OFFICE

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—White, black and tan Beagle hound. No name or number on collar. Call Adam Rojeske, Jewett City. 2tdec2

FOUND—Came to our farm, sheep. Owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. Mrs. A. Lucas, Preston. Phone 3678-5. 3tdec2

LOST—Sunday eve on Norwich-Jewett City road, tan leather pocketbook, containing glasses; reward Leave at Bulletin office.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

ANSWERS TO WHAT DO YOU KNOW

1.—At the south end of Bayonet street.
2.—Miss Mary Huntley.
3.—Three.
4.—Mystic National, First National, Mystic River National.
5.—Mystic, Mystic Bridge and Mystic River respectively.
6.—In 1697.
7.—Lebanon in Syria.
8.—White.

TO RENT

FOR RENT—4 rooms, bath and pantry, front and side porch, private front and back door; garage. Call after 7 p. m., at 30 Yerrington Ave. Phone 2904-W. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—Funished, three rooms and bathroom. Steam heat supplied. $27.50 a month. Located near Washington Sq. Tel. 597 or 298.

WANTED—Male

SALESMEN—Men with cars preferred. Opportunity for men who can produce to earn excellent livelihood. Apply in person Thursday, 9 to 11 a. m., to Mr Cottrell, Montgomery Ward and Co., New London, Conn.

POSITIONS aboard ocean liners; good pay; visit France, Italy, Japan; experience unnecessary; self-addressed envelope brings list. Mr. W. Arculus, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

MEN to sell our high grade garden and field seed direct to planters. A good position with big income. Experience unnecessary. Cobb Co., Franklin, Mass. 3tdec2

WANTED
An exceptionally bright man between ages of 23 and 45, to represent Montgomery-Ward & Co. in personal contacts with customers. We do not desire the high pressure house-to-house canvasser, but a man who at the present time is without a position who is upstanding in his community and who is really interested in a future.
MONTGOMERY-WARD & CO.
Putnam, Conn.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE—Coal, seasoned wood and kindling. Delivered anywhere. R. Shapiro, Chestnut St. Phone 504 or 87-W. 6tdec3

FOR SALE—Hard wood slabs. J M Pillar, 416 Asylum St Phone 721

FOR SALE—Sawed white birch wood, $7.00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE — Seasoned hard wood slabs. Delivered to Jewett City. No extra cost. Roy B. Kennedy. Phones 1137-M or 3755-R. 6tnov27

FOR SALE — Delivered, kindling or split wood. 7 baskets, $1.00. $8.00 a load. Coal, 5 bags, $1.00. Tel. 3666

RADIO REPAIRS

—CALL 3860—
Radio Service Our Specialty
SMITH'S RADIO STORE

FOR SALE—Livestock

FOR SALE—30 Guernsey and Holstein grade cows. Just arrived from Wisconsin. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon, 30. 6tnov29

FOR SALE—Radios

FOR SALE —Used and demonstrated radios, battery and all electric at low prices. Some as low as $4 Hanover-Curland Co., 24 Franklin St.

LEGAL NOTICE

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of Mary E. Manning, late of Norwich, in said District, deceased.

Ordered, That the Administrator cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the signpost nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town, and by publishing the same once in a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at 82 Peck St., Norwich, Conn., within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

FRANK E. MAPLES,
Administrator

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE—Dogs

FOR SALE— Spaniel puppies, color golden liver. Pedigreed. Very handsome, admired by all. Make good hunting dogs, land or water. Good house dogs, kind and affectionate with children. F. D. Warner, 354 Hamilton avenue. Phone 3809. 6tdec1

Business Notices

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

WANTED—Second-hand antique furniture Best prices paid A Bruckner 100 Franklin St. Phone 555.

LOUIS D. WARD Antique and second hand furniture bought and sold. 4 Main St Norwich Tel 1833 tfjw3

CONTRACTORS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street

G. E. Boucher
GENERAL CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER
Estimates Cheerfully Given
Phones 1530 or 679

CLEANERS AND DYERS

WE CALL & DELIVER FREE
MENS-SUITS-TOPCOATS LADIES PLAIN COATS ETC. CLEANED & PRESSED
$1
PHONE 2060
CLEANERS & DYERS of EVERYTHING. SPECIAL ATTENTION TO LADIES WORK.
Russell's
DOLLAR CLEANERS

DENTISTS

Dr. Alfred Richards
DENTIST
DISCO BUILDING
Office Hours: 9 to 12 A. M.; 1:30 to 5 P. M. Evenings by appointment only.
Telephone 289.

HOSPITAL

ST. TERESA PRIVATE MATERNITY Hospital, room weekly, $35; semi. $25; ward, $17.50. Also aged invalid, charge according to condition: Home-like Tel 2124 Norwich, Conn ju30

MONEY TO LOAN

NEED MONEY QUICKLY
Cash Loans of $10 to $300
Within 24 Hours
Small Monthly Repayments

You'll be suprised how easily a loan can be arranged. Our friendly and courteous service has helped many when they needed money quickly. Come in, 'phone or write for full information. There is no obligation. The only charge is three and one-half percent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
Room 307, Disco Bldg. 257 Main St. Norwich, Conn.

LOANS
$300 OR LESS
At the rate of 3½% per month on the unpaid balance
OUR SERVICE IS FRIENDLY—CONFIDENTIAL
THE HAMILTON LOAN CO.
of Norwich
25 Shetucket St. Tel. 119 Norwich

MACHINISTS

BARBER'S MACHINE SHOP—L. and A. P. Guertin proprietor, 23-25 Chestnut St. Tel. 3144. Does all kinds of machine and general repair work promptly, day or night. tfjy3

PHYSICIAN

EMMA E. DUNHAM
Natureopathic Physician
30 Carroll Avenue

Are you suffering from Stomach, Liver Troubles, Neuritis, High Blood Pressure, Nervousness or other ailments Natureopathic methods including Physiotherapy and Colonic Irrigations remove the cause.
Office Hours: 9-11 A. M.; 2-5 P. M.

TRUCKING

JOSLYN—Excellent storage Mover of teaming and auto vans at your service everything; expressing, freight handling

TREES AND SCHRUBS

MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
East Great Plain Tel 926-7

VETINARIAN

Dr. Robert Globus
VETERINARIAN
PHONE 2824
OFFICE AND HOSPITAL
758 Boswell Ave. Norwich Conn.

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

Business Notices

WATCH REPAIRING

A. D. WHITE Repairer of watches, clocks and talking machines 14 Pratte Ave Taftville Phone 733

CITY SPENDS $3,250,000 FOR SOFT WATER SUPPLY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.— (AP) —St. Petersburg has given its citizens and visitors a soft water supply—but it cost $3,250,000.

It required 33 miles of 36-inch pipe to convey the water from its source in the Cosme-Odessa regions to the city reservoir. The line runs through tropical vegetation and swamp sections.

The new system gives St. Petersburg and Gulfport, Fla., a potential soft water supply of 20,000,000 gallons daily. Present consumption is 3,000,000 gallons.

WARRENVILLE

Miss Dorothy Church was home from Vassar college over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard, of Milldale, visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Balch, Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and Miss Harriett Durkee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lipps in West Hartford, Thursday.

Miss Madeline Schub of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schub of Scranton, Pa., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Schub.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Bicknell and William Chism were with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bicknell in Hartford, Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nollet have been entertaining relatives from New Jersey.

Several friends and parents of the children attended school Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. Balch served ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Eastman and little granddaughter, of Hartford, and Miss Lillian Huntington of Eastford spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barlow.

Mrs. Marshall Lawton is with her daughter in Hartford.

Mrs. Ellen Mathewson, Gilbert Mathewson, William Whitehouse and Miss Irene Green spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby, in North Grosvenordale.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bassett had a family gathering of eighteen Thanksgiving day. The children were all home except Mr. and Mrs. Addison Bassett and they were entertaining relatives from New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Buck, Miss Beth Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barlow and Wilfred and Donald Buck, of Hartford spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buck.

Rev. James Goodacre preached Sunday morning at the Baptist church from John X 10.

What Is Going On Tonight

Ladies Auxiliary, No. 54, A. O. H. meets in A. O. H. hall.
Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., meets in Odd Fellows' hall.
Poultry show at Olympic hall.
Mooseheart Legion Sewing circle meets tonight at 38 Cliff street.

Ed J. Stanger of Johnson City, Tenn., won the national prize for growth of the finest mastodon strawberries. There were 16,000 competitors.

POETRY

Checkers And Backgammon

A whirl of new inventions,
Baby golf and bridge and all,
Crowding all the old-time pastimes,
Crowding euchre 'gainst the wall,
Oh, they have their day and hour
And they rush the people round—
Then it's back to old backgammon
And to checkers—so I've found!

All the world is living over
Something done in other years;
All the honey and the clover
Have been grown on other spheres.
All the jokes and songs and beauty
Flourished once in Nineveh—
And it's back to old backgammon
And to checkers on the knee!

In a modern show house nightly
The comedian of renown
Tells the same old jokes that echoed
When dead Carthage was a town.
Baseball, cricket, football, bowling,
Poker, horseshoes, what you will—
In the end it's old backgammon
That the world is playing still!

—Baltimore Sun.

Enter Hugo

A diet's a nuisance, decidedly so!
The dishes you like are the ones they taboo;
If hungry for solids, as any man is,
Your hateful half portion is sure to be good!
The question of calories drives me insane,
And vitamins lead to a perilous brink;
Is ask you! With nothing to eat is it strange
That one should be finally driven to drink?

I relegate this, I eliminate that,
Till the sum of unvetoed ingesta is nil;
Then order, in sheer desperation, I guess
Ev'rything that I crave on the pestilent bill.
Of course, it's unwise and I'm filled with remorse,
But presently I have no fears to conceal;
When Hugo comes in with his tray held aloft
I know I am getting a well balanced meal!

—Edward W. Barnard, in New York Sun.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"My wife doesn't understand me; does yours?"

"I don't know; I've never heard her even mention your name."—Lyre.

Jones (meeting friend)—"Just a word of warning, old chap. There's a hotel thief about here."

"Too late, old man. I'm staying at the hotel he runs!"—Bystander.

Rounder—I sure need advice, old man. I'm in love with a Chicago gangster's wife. What would you recommend?

Bounder—Well, the Prudential or the Postal are both good companies. —The Pathfinder.

"Say, Amos, can you tell me how dey tell de age ob a chicken?"

"By de teef."

"Go 'long, chickens don't hab teef."

"No, but I'se got teef."—Catholic Missions.

"Niggah, I's gonna mash yo nose all ova yo' face; I'se goin to push dose teeth down yo' throat an' black both yo' eyes—et cetera."

"Black man, you don't mean et cetera, you mean vice versa."—Arcanum Bulletin.

"What do you know about this man you say you are going to vote for?" the political worker asked of a citizen.

"Not a thing."

"Yet you will support him?"

"Yes, you see I know the other fellow."—Exchange.

"Did you ever notice that even so subtle a thing as a passing perfume will suddenly bring vivid memories of the past?"

"Many a time," answered Uncle [illegible]min Robinson, "'specially when I happened to step into a [illegible] patch."—Washington Star.

"Mose," said the juge sternly, "you are found guilty of having stolen two chickens from Mr. Harrison's coop last week. The fine will be $5."

"Yassuh, judge," said Mose, placing a $10 bill on the clerk's desk "Ah's givin' yo' 10 bucks which will pay yo' up to an' includin' nex' Sattidy night."—The Pathfinder.

KALEIDOSCOPE

In making their heavy boots, Eskimos use coast whale sinew for thread.

The first printing-press to be set up in the new world was established in Mexico in 1536.

By means of a new process, aluminum articles are now being made in a variety of colors.

Indians who make a fire with a drill can produce a spark and catch it for use in less than half a minute.

American universities conferred ten times as many doctor's degrees in the sciences in 1930 as they did in 1900.

The United States women's bureau is directed by a woman and employs women in its work almost entirely.

It has been estimated that there are about 3,000 different kinds of fish in the Amazon and its tributaries.

The federal district of the Australian capital city Canberra is thirteen times as large as the District of Columbia.

Observations of sleeping persons indicate that the average individual changes his position thirty-three times in the course of a night's sleep.

The true sardine or pilchard occurs only in European waters, but species closely resembling it and loosely called sardines are found in America.

Ginkgo trees from the orient, which are widely planted in the United States, apparently have no insect enemies or fungus diseases in this country.

Use of peacetime explosives has grown until now 500,000,000 pounds are used each year in mining, quarrying, road building and clearing land for cultivation.

The ancient Egyptians had a system of buying somewhat like our "dollar down and a dollar a month" plan, judging by Egyptian writings exhibited at the Field Museum.

Ninety-one per cent. of all towns in the United States with 1,000 to 5,000 inhabitants now have electric power service, and all larger towns are so equipped.

A brickmaker turns out by hand about fifty-five bricks an hour, whereas a brickmaking machine operated by one man turns out 40,000 bricks in the same time.

The wide open season for ice cream eating in the United States is from April to October, inclusive, judging by the fact that three-fourths of the milk supply for commercial ice cream is used in those months.

Cotton roads are being tried in Texas and South Carolina, using a process by which the cotton cloth is treated with asphaltic oil, laid over the surface of the graded dirt roadway and surfaced with sand or gravel.

By a new method of making a velvet figure on a sheer background, the fabric is first woven as a plain silk-back velvet with a rayon pile, and the background pattern is printed with soda, which destroys the rayon where it is not wanted, thus leaving the velvet figure in relief on the silk ground.

INVISIBLE GENES RESPONSIBLE FOR HEREDITARY TRAITS

PASADENA, Calif.—(AP)—The minute size of a gene, one of the most vital parts of every living cell, is out of all proportion to its importance.

"Genes," says Dr. Calvin B. Bridges at the California Institute of Technology, are so small that at present its is hopeless to see them 'in person.' Even aggregates of genes, called genestrings, are probably invisible in the best microscope.

"What can be observed is their voluminous wrappings or clothing materials, which are apparently several layers thick, and constitute the chromonema, the chromomere and the chromosome.

"Genes are the mysterious living particles that are the active constituents of chromosomes, and are responsible for all hereditary characteristics of men, plants and animals.

"Each gene appears to effect one special characteristic, such as texture of skin or color of eyes."

Violet Rays Bad For Autos

DETROIT— (AP) —Ultra-violet rays are healthful for humans but bad for automobiles. These rays in sunlight cause a microscopic erosion of the finish, releasing the pigment particles that originally provided the color.

Sylviam Milsaps, 12, of Nogo, Ark., 4-H club member, was beaten by the drought on his corn project, but he cut off the corn and raised 300 bushels of turnips on the acre.

MAIL-AD

FILL OUT AND MAIL TO

The Norwich Bulletin or Record

NORWICH, CONN.

12c a line. Average 5 Words to a Line. Wants — To-Let — For Sale — Etc.

Name .... Classification ....
R. F. D. or Street .... Number of Insertions ....
Post Office .... Amount Enclosed ....

Write Complete Ad. Below, Including Name and Address
—or if Blind Address is Wanted Mark X Here ☐

NEW LONDON FIRE COMPANIES CALLED OUT FOR BLAZE IN AUTO

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 2—An automobile parked on Bank street, near the corner of Truman street this evening became ablaze, presumably because of defective wiring and an alarm was sounded from Box 45, nearby. On the arrival of Chief Thomas Shipman and four companies, it was found that the fire had been extinguished and there was no need for the services of the department. The damage to the machine was comparatively slight.

Miss Katherine Nettleton of Derby, state regent of the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution, and Miss Emeline Street of New Haven, vice regent, were the speakers at the December meeting of Lucretia Shaw chapter held yesterday afternoon.

Met With Mrs. Jensen

Mrs. Gerard E. Jensen entertained the Review club yesterday afternoon in her home, 51 Hall street. Members present were Mrs. George R. Lee, Mrs. J. Romeyn Danforth, Mrs. Horace C. Learned, Mrs. Ralph H. Keeler, Miss Susan Bose, Miss Helen Whiton, Mrs. Clarence A. Carr, Mrs. Frederic W. Mercer and Mrs. Edward E. Chapman. Mrs. Keeler, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Chapman read papers. Tea was served.

Because of the accumulation of leaves in gutters in front of residences, occupants of many houses are having the leaves destroyed by burning them, although such action is contrary to city ordinance, but because of the leaves obstructing the flow of water into the culverts their destruction by burning was considered the best means of removing them. In some places the accumulation of leaves was such as to reach into the highway, particularly on Montauk avenue, at the corner of Perry street, Alger street and Bellevue place.

Gave Overcoat to Appleman

No increase in the number of apple venders of the unemployed was noticed on the business streets this morning or this afternoon. Yesterday when the lone vender took up his position at the corner of State and Green streets he lacked an overcoat, but during today one of the purchasers of his fruit, observing that the vender was without a coat, proceeded to her residence at the Pequot where a winter garment was obtained and donated to the pedler. The good samaritan also purchased numerous apples.

With freezing temperature prevailing for 24 hours, ice dealers are anticipating an early crop. Already the several ponds are skimmed over and with a few days more of weather of the same temperature, ice of a thickness suitable for cutting will begin to form. With the mercury hovering about the 12 degrees above zero mark, ice will cover all the ponds within a few days.

Mrs. Cornelius Payne and infant daughter, of 174 Howard street; Mrs. Joseph Zielinsky, 27 Winthrop street, Philip Cupella, 56 Jefferson avenue, patients at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

Edwin W. Coe, 288 Huntington street, was arrested this afternoon on Williams street by State Police Officer Edwin Hoxie charged with reckless driving. Coe was ordered to present himself for trial in the police court tomorrow.

Deserter Brought Back

Private George K. Morse, United States army, was arrested in Bridgeport last night by Detective Sergeant Daly charged with being a deserter. Morse was brought to New London this afternoon by Sergeant Daly and taken to Fort Wright, Fishers Island, where the soldier will be given a court martial.

The garage owned by Captain of Police Charles A. Pinney, 63 Howard street, was threatened with damage by fire this afternoon when decayed grass was discovered blazing close to the building. A strong wind prevailed and it was believed that the fire would communicate to the structure. A still alarm was sent to fire headquarters, but before firemen arrived the blaze had been extinguished. It is believed that the undergrowth was fired by boys.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today ordered the suspension of the driver's license of Leo W. Kosowsky, 42 Summer street.

Alfred Gilliam, a colored youth, residing at 27 Hill street, was hit by an automobile driven by Joseph Labensky, of 15 Bijnman street, last night, on Main street, the youth sustaining injuries no more serious than a bruise of knee and thigh, which fact, was determined when the boy was taken to the office of a physician and examined. The boy was near the corner of Federal street and as he attempted to run to the opposite side of the highway, he darted in front of the auto.

Boom for Fuel Trade

The cold weather which started late yesterday caused a rush of business for the coal dealers today for in many cases, tenants who have not obtained a supply of winter's fuel sought relief from the cold by obtaining additional fuel, especially as stoves and furnaces had to be forced in order to obtain a sufficient amount of heat. The drop in temperature also caused boys to collect boxes that are discarded by fruit dealers and which receptacles are placed on the walks to be carried away by the youths. In many instances homes have been supplied with this form of fuel that will help provide heat the greater part of the winter.

In the city court today a widow residing on Truman street, who said she was employed as a laundress, was charged with intoxication. She was given suspension of judgment. She was arrested last night by Sergeant John Courtney.

Two men, one a soldier, charged with intoxication, were also given suspension of judgment. The men were arrested on State street last night by Patrolman George Bruhns and Harold Goldberg.

Bradford Girl Out Late

Joseph Drew, United States coast guard and Sylvia Unbion, 19, the latter of Bradford, R. I., were charged with intoxication and lascivious carriage. The former was fined $20 and costs and went to jail, while the young woman's case was continued to Jan. 29. Drew and his companion were strolling about State street at 2:45 o'clock this morning and when without success they made several attempts to obtain a room in hotels and lodging houses. Patrolmen William Manice and Frank Linehan arrested the pair.

William K. Reaves has returned to his employment at Bridgeport, having visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Reeves, of Riverview avenue.

The following officers were elected at a meeting of the Crowley club last evening: President, Miss Teresa St. Germain; vice president, Miss Nellie Duggan; recording secretary, Miss Helena Keating; corresponding secretary, Miss Mildred Ross; treasurer, Miss Mary Rafferty; entertainment committee, chairman for six months Miss Marguerita McCarthy; trustee for three years, Miss Julia E. Sullivan.

Attorney Harry L. McGuire was in New Haven today.

At a meeting of New London chapter of Hadassah, held last night in the Hebrew institute, Blackhall street, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Benjamin Kaplan; vice president, Mrs. Samuel Selleck; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Epstein; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Martin Greenblatt; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Eisenstein.

Stephen J. McMahon, 2 Union street, returned to his home last evening after having visited in Bermuda about a month.

COAST GUARDSMAN HELD FOR DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

Thomas White, United States coast guard, stationed at the state pier, was arrested this morning charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, driving without a license and driving without registration. He was too drunk to be presented in the police court this forenoon, but he will be there tomorrow. In default of a surety on his bonds of $150, White was made a prisoner at police headquarters. White was driving on the Thames river highway bridge at 6:30 this morning and his car, among others, was headed toward Groton. The irregular course taken by the auto attracted the attention of State Police Officer Donald Brown and when the car swerved in such a manner as to endanger the safety of other drivers, Brown gave chase and overtook White about midway of the bridge. White was visibly drunk and his arrest was the result.

Hunters Fined In Salem

Tony Sabilia, Station 5, Waterford, was before Justice of the Peace Brown in the Salem court yesterday afternoon charged with violation of the hunting laws and was fined $25 and costs. His companion, Joseph Benvenuti, 68 Goshen street, was charged with disobeying an officer's order, also violation of the hunting laws. He was fined $20 and costs on the former count and on the latter charge a penalty of $25 and costs was imposed. However, the former fine was ordered remitted and on the latter charge $10 of the fine was remitted. Sabilia and Benvenuti went to Salem woods where they were detected by a game warden, violating the hunting laws. The warden made complaint to the state police and the hunters were arrested by State Police Officer Arthur Whitmarsh.

YOUTH SELLING WINE PLACED UNDER $1,000 BOND

Roger Gramoline, a youth residing at the rear of 26 East street, was arrested this forenoon by a raiding squad charged with violation of the liquor law. He furnished a surety on his bond of $1,000 in Mrs. Mary Ballestrini, and was released, but he will be given a hearing in the police court tomorrow. The police received information that the youth had been supplying wine to customers at the East street house and a raiding squad consisting of Sergt. John Courtney, Automobile Patrol Officer William Corcoran and Patrolman George Laboue, experienced no difficulty in obtaining entrance to the house and where they seized several bottles of wine.

John W. Walsh, 188 Crystal avenue, is a patient at the private hospital, having been taken there within a day or two. His condition was reported today as critical.

FORMER NORWICH RESIDENTS, OUT OF A JOB, TURN SPIES

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 2. — Frank "Bad Man" Davis, 19 Tenth street, was arrested last Friday when a squad of police raided his home. He was charged with conducting a disreputable house, failed to present himself in the police court when the case was called the following day, which act resulted in his bond of $250, upon which Louis Elfenbein qualified as surety, being declared forfeited. But Davis was not presented in court today although he was arrested yesterday after a search of three days, on a charge of jumping his bond. After being locked up throughout the night, when court convened today, Prosecuting Attorney Max Boyer ordered the man discharged. When the police raided the Davis house upon evidence furnished by a pair of stoolpigeons, Mrs. Anna Paul, wife of a restaurant employe and John J. Sheehan of Crystal avenue, were also arrested on a charge of frequenting and Frank Lane, a resident in the household, was charged with violation of the liquor law. Upon the evidence supplied the police Mrs. Paul was fined $25 and costs and as she could not pay she went to jail. Lane's case went over until yesterday when he was fined $200 and costs and also went to jail. It is reported that the police informers are one-time residents of Norwich who moved to New London recently when a mill in that city was shut down.

Cases of a contagious nature reported today at the office of Health Officer Benjamin N. Pennell, number six. A new case of typhoid fever was reported, the patient being Margaret Cable, six, of 93 Howard street. Robert Peacock, seven, of Glenwood park, was reported as ill with chickenpox. Four cases of whooping cough were the other cases reported, the children ill being Herbert, Mildred, Albert and Orrin Brewster, of 22 Lee avenue. The youngest child is two months old and the eldest is six years.

John W. Duthie, brother-in-law of Mrs. Charles E. Spaulding, of Hempstead street, wife of Rev. Dr. Spaulding, pastor of the Methodist church, died yesterday at his home in Newton, Mass. Mrs. Spaulding has gone to Newton to attend the funeral.

WEDDING

Lehane-Mann

Francis J. Lehane, United States coast guard and Carrie E. Mann, of this city, were married today by Justice of the Peace Jacob Sherb.

Repairs have been completed to the New London line pier of the New England Navigation company. Recently the steamer Naushon in backing into her berth after arriving from New York, smashed piles and stringer.

NORTH STONINGTON

Among the larger family gatherings on Thanksgiving was one of 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Gray, one of 10 at Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stone's, and one of 16 at Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Palmer's.

Mrs. B. L. Longenecker, Mrs. A. Kromback and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Longenecker of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent the holidays at Bertanna farm where Mr. and Mrs. Reuben D. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Burdick were Thanksgiving dinner guests.

Mrs. Theodore S. Maine has been visiting in Providence.

Miss Vivi Burgess has gone to Chicago on a complimentary trip, having won out in the 4-H club dress designing contest.

FUNERAL

Luther C. Gray

Funeral services for Luther C. Gray, 73, were conducted by Rev. B. U. Hatfield in the funeral home at Mystic, Saturday afternoon. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery, the bearers being Ellsworth, Philip, Hadley and Alton Gray, cousins, and Thomas and Walter Gray, nephews. Mr. Gray was a son of Thomas B. Gray and Esther Gates Gray. He married Mary E. Beckwith, of Ledyard, who died several years ago. Two daughters, Mary B., wife of George Gary Jie of Ledyard, and Edna, wife of J. Morton Cook of Stonington, with two grandchildren, Barbara and James Cook survive him. He also leaves a brother, Edwin M. Gray of Jewett City. He was well known through this and surrounding towns and leaves many friends who will cherish his memory.

SOUTH COVENTRY

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wolfe have returned home after a three weeks' automobile trip to Lynn Haven, Fla.

Mrs. George A. Corn has been called to Maine by the death of her father.

Several people had Thanksgiving guests at their homes and also several parties went out of town.

Mrs. Bessie Tripp recently had callers over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. Clark, their granddaughter, Evelyn Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Thompson of Palisades Park, N. J. spent Thanksgiving in Munson, Mass., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Flint and son, Joseph, of Wollaston, Mass., have been visiting the latter's parents, Joseph Greene and family.

Mrs. Abbie Jennison has gone to Orange, Mass., to spend the winter.

RADIO PROGRAMMES

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 3

302—SPRINGFIELD, WBZ—990

1.35 p. m.—Gems of Melody — Polly Willis, soprano.
2.01 p. m.—Blue Chasers; Statler organ—Doris Tirrell.
3.00 p. m.—Matinee Gems; Bostonia trio; Home Forum Cooking school.
4.00 p. m.—Blue Aces; Home Forum Decorating period; Tea Timers; Air Castle; State House Safety talk.
5.00 p. m.—Uncle Bill and the Twins; Health Clinic—"Nephritis," Dr. W. H. Ohler; stock-exchange quotations; agricultural markets; Tip-Top Roadman.
6.03 p. m.—Dinner music; Singing the Blues—Betty Cole and Phil Saltman; Delmore's Cotton Blossoms; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Wolverine Serenaders; Phil Cook; Burson playlet.
8.00 p. m.—Yeast Foamers; Luden Balalaika orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Hood modern concert—John Herrick, tenor; Camel Pleasure—Mary McCoy, soprano; Reinald Werrenrath, Billy Hughes, baritones.
10.30 p. m.—Philco program.
11.05 p. m.—Statler organ—Louis Weir; Winston Sharples, pianist.
12.00 p. m.—Royal York orchestra.

282—HARTFORD, WTIC—1060

7.00 p. m.—Serenading Strings; Highlights in Sport; Watch-Makers; New England Gas concert.
8.00 p. m.—Knights of Melody; Ilima Islanders, Fiddlers Three; Harmony Revelers, and Keyboard Kids.
8.30 p. m.—Mobiloil orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Runkel program; Palmolive hour.
10.30 p. m.—Top-Notchers in Sport.
11.05 p. m.—Collin Driggs, organist.
11.30 p. m.—The Merry Madcaps, Fred Wade, soloist.

243—BOSTON, WNAC—1230

6.00 p. m.—The Champions; Songs of Yesterday; "Smiling Jim" and his Joy Makers; Dairy and Food Council.
7.00 p. m.—Broadcast from Cocoanut grove; Washington Jewelers; Evangeline Adams, astrologer; Eskimo program.
8.00 p. m.—Rockefeller Smoker; Butter and Egg Men.
9.00 p. m.—Gold Medal Fast Freight; La Palina Smoke Dreams.
10.00 p. m.—The Caribbeans; Rhythm Choristers.
11.15 p. m.—Royal Canadians; California Melodies.
12.00 p. m.—Broadcast from Palais d'Or; Ann Leaf at the organ.

508—BOSTON, WEEI—590

4.10 p. m.—Stock Exchange quotations.
6.00 p. m.—String ensemble; Uncle Abe & David.
7.00 p. m.—Werner organist; WEEI organist, Del Castillo; The New England Gas hour.
8.00 p. m.—Joyce Brothers; Mobiloil concert.
9.00 p. m.—Halsey-Stuart hour; Palmolive hour.
10.30 p. m.—Cocoa Cola program.
11.15 p. m.—WEEI organist, Del Castillo.

422—NEWARK, WOR—710

6.00 p. m.—Uncle Don; Sweet-Orr Boys.
7.01 p. m.—St. George concert orchestra; "Super-City" reviewed by Ivan Black; Harry Hershfield, guest speaker; Smith Brothers program.
8.01 p. m.—WOR Minstrels; Larry & The Duke & Helbros Harmonizers; Pete Mack's Moosickers.
9.00 p. m.—Runkel hour; Mexican Marimba Tipica.
10.00 p. m.—Tuneful Tales; Roy Smeck, Wizard of the strings; Globe Trotter.
11.03 p. m.—Greenwich Village orchestra; Moonbeams.

379—SCHENECTADY, WGY—790

6.01 p. m.—Stock reports; Green Room orchestra; Address, Dr. Livingston Farrand, President Cornell University; Uncle Abe and David.
7.08 p. m.—Cello solos, Bernard Silberg; The Gondoliers; Chevrolet program.
8.00 p. m.—General Electric program; Mobiloil concert.
9.00 p. m.—Halsey Stuart program; Palmolive hour.
10.30 p. m.—Coca Cola program.
11.00 p. m.—Dance program.

394—NEW YORK, WJZ—760

12.00 m.—Luncheon ensemble.
12.35 p. m.—National Farm and Home hour.
1.35 p. m.—Three Little Maids, string trio.
2.00 p. m.—"Eatmore Cranberries," Mrs. Julian Heath; Blue Chasers, dance orchestra; "Child Care and Training," Mary Hope Norris; Band of a Thousand Melodies.
3.00 p. m.—Matinee Gems—Muriel Pollock, Alice Remsen, Don Stewart, soloists.
4.00 p. m.—Blue Aces.
5.00 p. m.—"Women and the Stars," Prof. Harlow Shapley; Breen and de Rose, vocal and instrumental duo.
5.35 p. m.—Stock Market reports.
6.00 p. m.—Raising Junior; Horace Heidt orchestra; Talk, John B. Kennedy; Gloria Gay's Affairs; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; National Surety's Secret Cases; Phil Cook; Fifth Avenue Knights—Mildred Hunt, contralto crooner.
8.00 p. m.—The Yeast Foamers—Chicagoans male quartet; The Luden Balalaika orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Muriel and Vee, instrumental and vocal duo; the Two Troupers—Helene Handin and Marcella Shields, dramatic skit; Camel Pleasure hour.
10.30 p. m.—Wayside Inn—Mabel Zoeckler, soprano; the Choristers, male octet.
11.00 p. m.—Slumber Music, string ensemble.
12.00 p. m.—Fred Culley orchestra.

454—NEW YORK, WEAF—660

12.00 noon—Armchair quartet; Godfrey Ludlow, violinist; Keith McLeod, vibraphone solo; On Wings of Song.
1.00 p. m.—Palais d'Or orchestra.
2.15 p. m.—"Cancer," Dr. Shirley W. Wynne; Rosalie Wolfe, soprano, with Melody Three."
3.00 p. m.—"Are You Making the Most of Yourself?"—Ralph E. Pickett; Musicalities—dance band; Evening Stars.
4.00 p. m.—Armchair quartet; Godfrey Ludlow, violinist; Sky Sketches; "The Twilight Circle," Charlotte Geer.
5.00 p. m.—The Lady Next Door; Tea Timers—dance band; Rex Cole Mountaineers.
6.05 p. m.—Black and Gold orchestra; "The Foe of Youth," Dr. Livingston Farrand, president Cornell university; Uncle Abe and David.
7.00 p. m.—"Air Scoops"—with Elinor Smith; "What Is New in Mathematics," Prof. Edward Huntington; Radio Luminaries—Welcome Lewis, contralto; Frank Pinero, violinist; Tony Colucci, banjoist; Breen and de Rose, novelty duo; Sam Herman, xylophonist; "Back of the News in Washington."
8.30 p. m.—Mobiloil concert — James Melton, tenor.
9.00 p. m.—Halsey Stuart program—"The Financial Situation at the Year End"; Palmolive hour.
10.30 p. m.—Coca Cola program—Sidney Franklin, toreador, interviewed by Grantland Rice.
11.00 p. m.—Vincent Lopez orchestra; Jack Albin orchestra.
12.00 p. m.—Florence Richardson's orchestra.

348—NEW YORK, WABC—860

6.00 p. m.—"Bill Schudt's Going to Press"; MacDougall orchestra.
7.00 p. m.— Crockett Mountaineers; Rhythm Ramblers; Evangeline Adams, astrologer; Sandy and Lil.
8.00 p. m.—Burbig's Syncopated History, Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas; Toscha Seidel and Concert orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Gold Medal Fast Freight; La Palina Smoke Dreams.
10.00 p. m.—The Caribbeans— Spanish orchestra; Rhythm Choristers.
11.00 p. m.—Royal Canadians; California Melodies.
12.00 p. m.—St. Moritz orchestra; Ann Leaf at the Organ.

A Delicious Beverage. A Healthy Mixer

RAINIER LIME RICKEY

Made from pure juice of fresh ripened limes. (The life of any party.) Listen in on WBZ each Friday, 7.15 P. M. Distributed by S. LANDOW CO., Norwich, Conn.

EAGLEVILLE

The Ladies' circle met last week with Mrs. Sarah Marsh and tied a quilt. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Edward Warren and son, Adolf, visited Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warren and son and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lillibridge, of Hartford, last week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Green, Archie Dore and Harold Loomis, spent a day in Worcester, recently.

Mrs. Flora Rosedale passed the week in Ottawa, Canada, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Ida Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Healy and Wallace Healy of South Warren, Mass., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. William Converse entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keery, of Somers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eaton and daughter and Mrs. Dewey Rore spent the week end in Palmer, Mass.

Mrs. Ellen Syphers, of Willimantic, was a guest Sunday of her sister, Mrs. Randall Hamer.

Mrs. Edward Warren and son, Adolf, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warren and son, of Hartford, were at Oxoboxo Lake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bayless of Hartford, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson.

Mrs. Jessie F. Marsh, of Southbridge, Mass., is visiting Mrs. Sarah Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Vinton spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Woolsey, at Mansfield Four Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warren and son, of Hartford, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson and daughter were guests Thanksgiving of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren. In the evening all were entertained by Mrs. Dora B. Warren, of Storrs.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Green and children spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Storrs.

Family Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson entertained a family party Thanksgiving day. All of the children and grandchildren were present including Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thompson and children of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson and children of Storrs, Mr. and Mrs. William Hernberg of Mansfield Depot, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson and child of Hartford.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lecture at St. Patrick's Parish Hall

Dr. James J. Walsh, who lectures in Norwich this evening, is probably the most illustrious Catholic layman in America. He is distinctly a doctor of medicine, for not only has he practiced along the lines of his chosen profession in the city of New York and has occupied the chair of physiological-psychology at Cathedral college, but he is a former dean of the Medical college of Fordham, and is at present chief counsellor of the International Clinics. A man of medicine—he is also a man of letters. He holds degrees in philosophy and in letters from six universities of this country and of Europe. He is the author of many books, his latest production being "Mother Alphonsa" (Mother Alphonsa or Rose Hawthorne, daughter of Nathaniel Hawthorne, of whom he was an intimate friend and counsellor). Dr. Walsh speaks this evening at eight o'clock in St. Patrick's Parish hall upon the subject, "How to Keep Mentally Fit."

Palace Theatre

A double bill which will thrill and amuse every theatre goer opens today at the Palace theatre where it will be shown through Friday of this week.

The pictures that comprise this great program are "Brothers" with Bert Lytell, and "The Truth About Youth" with Loretta Young.

At the age of seventeen Loretta Young is playing the identical role that carried Maxine Elliott to the pinnacle of her popularity in the theatre. Miss Elliott played the role of Phyllis in "When We Were Twenty-One" for six years, in stock, on Broadway, and on the road Loretta plays the same role in First National's screen version of the famous stage play, now known as "The Truth About Youth," and current at the Palace theatre. The picture features Loretta, David Manners, Conway Tearle and Myrna Loy.

"Brothers," the thrilling play which scored a tremendous success on Broadway and on the road, has been adapted to the screen by Columbia Pictures into a thrilling motion picture. As a film it is even greater than the play because the limitations of the stage have been removed. Bert Lytell, who played in the stage drama, is starred in his original role. He renders a clever dual impersonation.

"Brothers" presents a striking and intelligent psycho-analysis of the effect that environment has upon two broters who are endowed at the start with equal hereditary gifts.

Here is a double-bill worth seeing. It really is one of the finest double bills ever offered the Norwich theatregoers.

Broadway Theatre

A baffling crime plot mixed with riotous laugh situations is the unusual combination employed to great success in William Haines' newest talkie, "Remote Control," which opens today at Warner Bros., Broadway theatre for an engagement of three days.

The picturization of the mystery stage thriller is the best Haines talkie yet. It is jammed with laughs from beginning to end but manages to sandwich between guffaws some sure-fire dramatic action with suspense that will keep you clutching the edge of your seats.

Haines as the radio announcer who fills in spare moments on the air with vocal impersonations, is at his best betraying a store of versatility which comes as a pleasing revelation. His mimicking of Amos 'n' Andy is a panic you wouldn't miss if you could.

JOHN MILJAN and WILLIAM HAINES in "REMOTE CONTROL"

Edward Sedgwick directed the new Haines feature with Mary Doran in the leading feminine role. The supporting cast includes Charles King, John Miljan, Polly Moran and J. C. Nugent.

Critics' Opinion of Coming Tenor

To the many subscribers to the Slater hall concerts and others who are anticipating the second concert in the course, coming Friday evening, when George Meader, one of the leading tenors of the Metropolitan Opera company, is to be the artist, the following comments by New York critics will be of interest:

New York Herald-Tribune—"Meader's singing will linger among the shining memories of the season."

N. Y. Times—"He displayed his usual taste and refinement of style and knowledge of the traditions."

N. Y. American—"Meader was master of his task; his interpretations were invested with taste, sentiment and musical exactness."

N. Y. Telegraph—"An enthusiastic and very large audience attested to his popularity and following; the recital was a delight."

N. Y. Evening Post—"Meader gave complete satisfaction for his fine tones and excellent phrasing and diction."

N. Y. Evening World—"A voice distinguished for sweetness and sensibility."

N. Y. Telegram—". . . his diction is excellent and he employs an admirable legato."

Many will be interested to know that there are to be 100 seats in the rear of the annex at a popular price. See advertisement for details.

We want

a GENERAL ELECTRIC RADIO

like the one you sold Mrs. ———

a daily request

FERGUSON'S

189 MAIN STREET
NORWICH, CONN.
Telephone 751

ATWATER KENT RADIO

THE ONLY LOCAL AUTHORIZED DEALERS

The Hanover-Curland Company

24-34 Franklin St. Norwich, Conn.

PIANOS VICTROLAS BRUNSWICKS RADIOS

HAVE YOU ENOUGH MONEY?

TO SETTLE OLD BILLS . . . TO PAY OVERDUE TAXES . . . TO IMPROVE OR REFURNISH YOUR HOME . . . TO BUY NOW THOSE THINGS WHICH YOU OR YOUR FAMILY NEEDS

We can arrange quick cash loans

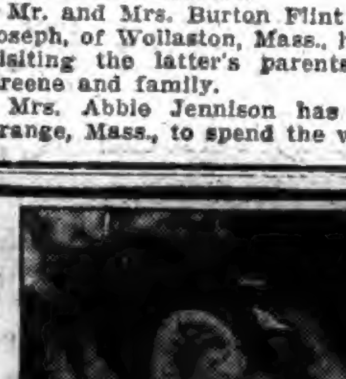
$10 TO $300

Within 24 Hours

YOU GET THE FULL AMOUNT OF YOUR LOAN IN CASH — NO DEDUCTIONS!

The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
THIRD FLOOR, DISCO BLDG.
257 MAIN STREET
PHONE 3232
NORWICH, CONN.



COSTS LESS to use

Why spend money needlessly on skin Lotions?

BUT ECONOMY is not the only quality you want in a skin lotion. Italian Balm—penetrating, greaseless, quick-drying, as well as thicker and longer lasting—has been put to every test. In cold Canada, it far outsells any other chapped skin protector. Approved by Good Housekeeping. At drug and department stores —35c, 60, $1.00 bottles. Try it FREE.

Campana's Italian Balm

THE ORIGINAL SKIN SOFTENER

CAMPANA CORP.
3704 Lincoln Way,
Batavia, Illinois

Please send me my Vanity-Size bottle of Campana's Italian Balm free and postpaid.

(Please write or print plainly)

Name________________

Address________________

BROADWAY

STARTING TODAY
3—DAYS—3

HE BROADCASTS LAUGHS, THRILLS AND ROMANCE

WILLIAM HAINES

— With —
MARY DORAN

Remote Control

SOMETHING NEW AND THRILLING IN TALKIES!

PALACE

— TODAY —
Mammoth Double Bill

IT'S SENSATIONAL

THE TRUTH ABOUT YOUTH

With Loretta Young, Conway Tearle, David Manners

— CO-FEATURE —
AN INTENSELY DRAMATIC PRODUCTION THAT WILL GRIP YOU

BROTHERS

WITH BERT LYTELL

Dorothy Sebastian—William Morris

TONIGHT (WEDNESDAY) AT EIGHT O'CLOCK
The Popular Play
THE MOLLUSC
Comedy in Three Acts
Given by The Conn. Players of Storrs College
Directed by Prof. A. J. Seckerson
At The
PLAINFIELD COMMUNITY HOUSE
Auspices First Congregational Church
Adults 50c Children 35

Dance Tonight

UNCASVILLE AUDITORIUM

The Sensation of the East
EDDIE HOWARD
and His Admirals
in Person — from Boston

Ladies 50c—Admission—Gents 75c

DANCE
Thursday Night
MUSIC BY
Benvenuti's Orchestra
ADMISSION 50c

NOTICE

The Cantata, "JOSEPH'S BONDAGE," will be postponed until a later date, on account of sickness of those taking the leading part. Please hold tickets.

A. F. DRURY, Directress

Don't put it OFF— See your radio dealer today

Have your tubes

TESTED

Cunningham RADIO TUBES

LILY
THEATRE
PLAINFIELD, CONN.

Wednesday, Dec. 3 at 7:45 P. M.
The Case of Sergeant Grischa
With CHESTER MORRIS and BETTY COMPSON

OUR GANG COMEDY
PUPS IS PUPS

FOX MOVIETONE NEWS

DANCING
UNITED ITALIAN HALL
Washington St.
TONIGHT
Featuring
BENVENUTI
and his orchestra
Pep! Melody! Novelties
DANCING 9-12
Ladies, 35c—Admission—Gents 50c

Annual Dance
Given by
Taftville Dramatic Club
PONEMAH HALL
Friday, December 5
Music by D. and O.'s Troubadours
Spotlight Dancing
Dancing 9-12—Admission 50c

Jas. J. Walsh, M. D.
LECTURE
"How to Keep Mentally Fit"
St. Patrick's Parish Hall
TONIGHT — 8 o'Clock
TICKETS 35c

2nd of Slater Hall Series
MEADER
Metropolitan Opera Tenor
FRIDAY, DEC. 5th
SEAT SALE AT CRANSTON'S
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY
Tickets $2.00 each
100 Popular Priced Seats at $1.00
in Rear of Annex

CLOUDY, NOT SO COLD,
TODAY AND TOMORROW

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3, 1930

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Dec. 3, 1930

THE WEATHER

Conditions

Pressure continues low over the Straits of Belle Isle. An area of high pressure is moving eastward over the Atlantic states.

The outlook is for rain Wednesday afternoon or night in northern New York and the interior of northern New England and for snow on Thursday in northern New York.

Temperatures will rise quite generally on Wednesday. It will be colder on Thursday in northern New York and northern New England.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook: Fresh west winds; weather fair Wednesday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Fresh west shifting to southwest winds over north portion and weather fair Wednesday.

Forecast

For southern New England: Increasing cloudiness, not so cold Wednesday; Thursday cloudy.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Tuesday:

	Ther.	Bar.
7 a. m.	20	30.40
12 m.	22	30.50
6 p. m.	20	30.60

Highest, 22; lowest, 20.

Comparisons

Predictions for Tuesday: Partly cloudy and colder.

Tuesday's weather: Generally fair, much colder, brisk west to northwest wind.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

	Sun		High	Moon
	Rises	Sets	Water	Rises
Day	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
1 ..	6.55	4.19	6.30	2.06
2 ..	6.55	4.19	7.10	3.10
3 ..	6.56	4.19	7.49	4.19
4 ..	6.57	4.19	8.28	5.29
5 ..	6.58	4.19	9.09	rises
6 ..	6.59	4.19	9.52	4.38
7 ..	7.00	4.19	10.36	5.40

Six hours after high ater it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

STORY WRITERS' PARTY AT THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH

A unique social was held Saturday afternoon at the Third Baptist church. It was the occasion of the giving of awards, to the children of the Sunday morning congregation who had reproduced in a book of their own the stories told by the pastor, Dr. William James Sly, before the sermon. About 50 children took part in this story writing and over 20 presented their books of stories. Games were conducted by Mrs. Laura Sebastian. Refreshments were served by the women of the church and the pastor presented nine awards of books to those whose stories showed marked excellence, which were: Elsie Laycock, Marilyn Lund, Winifred Haydon, Dorothy Edna Main, Louisa Haich, Olga Serbassavitch, Donald Raven, Lillian Latham and Richard Haisch. The last named is a little boy of five who made a drawing of each story in a pleasing and excellent manner.

For more than 40 years the children of the Children's home in Preston have been attending the Third Baptist church. It has been decided by the home authorities that the children who have just been moved to the new home much farther away will still continue to attend the ma meschools. A buss has been secured which will transport the Roman Catholic children to St. Mary's church and the Protestant children to the Third Baptist church of Greeneville. All the children attending the Third Baptist church were invited to the children's party Saturday afternoon and three of those receiving awards of books were girls from the home. Rev. Mr. Sly is still to continue the children's stories at the Sunday morning services and the children are to retell the story that impresses them the most at some future time.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Frederick Schneider.

Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock funeral services for Mrs. Frederick Schneider were held at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary Zemke, No. 252 Boswell avenue with a large attendance. Rev. Carl Storek, pastor of the German Lotheran church, officiated at the services. Burial took place in the family lot in Maplewood cemetery where Rev. Mr. Storek conducted the committal service. The floral tributes were both beautiful and numerous, and the bearers were Charles Schwenk, Theodore Schultz, George Lynch and Frederick J. Mitterer. Undertaker C. A. Gager was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Greeneville Community Workers Xmas sale this afternoon at 129 Prospect St.—Adv.

OVER 70 TABLES PLAY IN BENEFIT CARD PARTY

One of the largest benefit card parties of the season was held Tuesday evening at the Elks' home, the proceeds of which are to be used as a Christmas fund. More than 70 tables of bridge, whist and pinochle were in play and prizes were awarded as follows:

Whist—Miss Annie Clabby, Miss Rose Buckley, Mrs. J. McNulty, Fred Rouleau, Christopher Barry and James Egan; bridge—Miss Florence Fitzpatrick, Mrs. J. D. Whelan, Mrs. Beckenstein, Miss Miriam Sullivan, Mrs. James Casey, John Donahue, Oscar Silverman, Harold Reardon, Herman Bruckner and James Carey; pinochle—Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. James Casey, Mrs. Clement and Mrs. Brown, Mr. Lowenberger, Mr. Pedace, Mr. Clifford and Mrs. Peterson.

Home-made candy was sold during the evening by the Misses Matheson, Mussell, Pisolowski and Kench. Much credit for the success of the occasion is due to the courtesies extended by the Elks, Rev. S. A. Iciek, the Knights of Columbus, Cummings and Ring, John P. Corcoran and J. J. Lyons.

28 With Licenses Suspended

The names of 28 motor vehicle drivers having their licenses suspended for a year for driving under the influence of liquor were announced Monday by the state motor vehicle department. There were none in this part of the state.

Grange Fair Committee Will Report

Reports for the year are to be made and officers will be elected when the Norwich grange fair committee holds its annual meeting at Grange hall this (Wednesday) evening. Frederick S. Armstrong is chairman of the committee.

Tennessee farmers have found the "mong" bean a good producer of quality hay

SAVED PEACOCK AND DUCK BROOD FROM BUILDNG BURNED AT PARK

Fire, thought to have originated from a wood fire in a stove, destroyed a single story wooden frame structure at Mohegan park, late Tuesday afternoon. A duck, half a dozen ducklings and a peacock, kept in the building, were saved by Supt. Frederick Krohn. The grain supply for the animals and birds at the park and tools were kept in the destroyed structure.

Supt. Krohn and Louis Trengo, an employe, were at work near the casino at the lake, which is close to the burned building. About 4 o'clock Mr. Trengo noticed smoke coming from the building and with Supt. Krohn at once investigated. Although the structure was burning briskly Supt. Krohn managed to reach the telephone in the place and, lifting the receiver, shouted to the operator that there was a fire at Mohegan park. Then he had to escape from the building. The call, however, did not reach the fire department.

Realizing that there was no response to his call, Supt. Krohn sent Charles Tighe, who was in the park at the time, to get help. Mr. Tighe sent in a telephone call to the fire department from a Rockwell street house and Engine No. 3, Squad A and Chief Henry R. Taft responded.

Engine No. 3 was put to work pumping from the lake, but owing to the fact that the suction pipe was not long enough to reach deep water in the lake, mud sucked into the pipe and stopped the flow of water.

The firemen fought the blaze with chemical but the flames had gained too much headway and the structure quickly burned down. After the firemen had done what they could, water pump cans were left with Supt. Krohn for use in case the ruins should blaze up.

Mr. Trengo went into the structure about 12:30 o'clock and fixed the fire, leaving the building about 12:45 o'clock. At that time there was no sign of fire. The fire evidently started at the rear of the roof, in the vicinity of the chimney. The burned structure was known as the monkey house where the monkey family, which died some time ago, were kept.

GAVE ILLUSTRATED TALK FOR PRIMARY COUNCIL

The December meeting of the primary council was held at Broadway school Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock with supper served by Miss Susie C. Whittlesey, assisted by Miss Gertrude Browning, Miss Helen L. Tourtelotte and Miss Luella Wilson.

Following the supper a business meeting was held, Miss Helen Gallup, vice president, presiding. Miss Mary Henderson, art supervisor in the Norwich public schools, gave a most delightful and instructive talk about some of the world famous pictures. Lantern slides were used for illustrations.

The primary council is very fortunate in securing Russell F. Lund, supervisor of nature study in Connecticut, to give a course of three lectures later in the season.

JURORS SUMMONED FOR SUPERIOR COURT TERM

The following is the jury list summoned for the present term of the superior court in this city:

Norwich—Ebenezer Learned, George S. Powers, Charles W. Burton, John Kukla, Frank I. Royce, Charles M. Hutzler, William H. Allen, William S. Case, Dwight W. Avery, Franklin E. Peckham, Patrick T. Connell, Preston—Willard Lucas, Otis Browning, James Butler, sr., Walter S. Tarbox, William McClimon, Jr. Colchester—William E. Avery, Fred W. Holmes. Griswold—Patrick F. Driscoll, Lewis F. Latham, Everett H. Hiscox, Frank Eccleston, Lebanon—Clarence G. Geer, Elmer L. Pultz, Christie H. Foster, North Stonington—Ledyard S. Anthony, Irving R. Main, Bozrah—Chas. T. Leffingwell, Leroy E. Lathrop. Franklin—James W. Huntington, Geo. A. Miller, Sprague—Clement L. Perkins, Joseph W. Wellington, Lisbon—Albert A. Rist, Paul Geist.

CRONIN WINS FIRST IN K. OF C. PINOCHLE TOURNEY

J. Cronin was the winner with a score of 55840 and A. Jordan with 55140 took second in the Knights of Columbus pinochle tournament which closed this week.

The following were the scores:

J. Cronin, 55840; A. Jordan, 55140; W. Harrington, 54720; H. Desmond, 54035; L. Combies, 53235; F. Kingsley, 52785; M. Kelly, 52665; E. Mullen, 52585; D. Mullin, 52445; D. Bailey, 51635; J. Shelly, 51130; J. O'Donovan, 50755; P. Coleman, 50020; J. Lyston, 50005; G. Doland, 49765; E. Riordan, 49430; M. Burns, 48775; T. N. Beckley, 48470; S. Hussey, 47255; W. Shannon, 48055; W. Weir, 47515; J. Shea, 47070; Fr. Sullivan, 46755; J. Kelly, 46390; J. Kilkenny, 46365; Fr. Dargan, 45875; J. Burns, 44130; J. Crawford, 43395; R. Cote, 40660; J. Connors, 40280.

NORWICH TOWN

Little Louise Hoppman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoppman, of Washington circle, was reported Tuesday afternoon as being very much better. This gratifying news was most pleasing to friends. The little girl has been seriously illfor about three weeks, and although she is considered out of danger from the malady with which she was afflicted, she is yet obliged to keep to her bed, due to a weakened condition.

John Mason Troop, Boy Scouts, No. 2, connected with the Methodist Episcopal church, will meet Thursday evening this week instead of Friday.

The third quarterly conference of the Methodist church is to be held at the parsonage Friday evening.

The Sunday school board of the Methodist church, will hold a meeting at the parsonage Saturday evening.

METHODISH CHURCH AND PARSONAGE RE-PAINTED

The painting of the Methodist Episcopal church has been completed and the result is being admired by members of the parish and friends. This church building will be 100 years old in 1932. The body is painted white with dark green trimmings. The work was done by Arthur Fulton and Harold Rose, thus making the church property in excellent condition as to general appearences. The work of painting the parsonage has also been accomplished during this year. The interior of this church was re-decorated at first and put in first class shape by the family of Frank Bushnell of Occum, in memory of his brother, Frederick H. Bushnell, long an active member of this church and for many years superintendent of the Sunday school. When Rev. Francis H. Rose, professor of Central Philippine college, Iloilo, was spending a leave of absence with his family in Norwich during the past summer among relatives, prior to his leaving in September, to resume his duties at the islands he started a painting fund by depositing a liberal sum with the pastor, Rev. George Warren Potter. This fund, added to generously by Rev. Mr. Rose's brother, Harold Rose, and other members of that family was created as a loving tribute to their aunt, Mrs Frederick H. Bushnell, also a much loved and active member in a number of ways, for many years.

Through the efforts of Dorcas Home Missionary society, of this church, Mrs. William Weaver, president, the entire sum for painting the parsonage was raised by this company of energetic women.

Rev. George Warren Potter was a motor guest recently of Rev. Myron E. Genter, when in company with Rev. Joseph Cooper and Rev. A. N. Foster, of Norwich, the clergymen went to Hartford to attend a meeting of the Anti-Saloon league.

THERMOS LEADS RACE IN CITY PINOCHLE LEAGUE

In the City Pinochle league the Thermos team is leading the standing, having won 9 and lost 3. The Duwells are in second place, 8 won and 4 lost, with the West Ends, Eagles and Icy Hots tied for third place, each having won 6 and lost 6. The scores in Tuesday night's play:

First Half.

Italian Club, 28,640; Eagles, 23,800.
Duwells, 27,335; Lafayette, 25,470.
Icy Hot, 25,090; West End, 24,810.
Thermos, 28,545; Swedish Club, 25,060.

Second Half.

Lafayette Club, 28,750; Icy Hot, 24,560.
Italian Club, 23,940; Thermos, 25,080.
Duwells, 28,655; Independents, 24,290.
Swedish, 28,960; Eagles, 25,770.

The league standing:

	Won	Lost
Thermos	9	4
Duwells	8	4
West End	6	6
Eagles	6	6
Icy Hot	6	6
Italian Club	5	7
Lafayette Club	5	7
Swedish Lodge	3	9

The league will play at the Eagles' club next week.

TAFTVILLE

Mrs. Carl Johnson and Miss Gladys Carlson have been appointed a committee to have charge of the annual Christmas concert of the Versailles Methodist Episcopal church school. Miss Alma Boutilier and Miss Elizabeth Allen are to direct the music.

Mrs. St. Amour of South B street has returned from a two weeks' stay in Montreal, Canada.

Over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Belval and Mrs. Mathilda Caron, of Riverside grove, entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Martel, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindberg, Mrs. Rose Lavoie, and her son, Edgar Lavoie, of Brockton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leo Bagley, of Providence, R. I., were week end guests of Mrs. Bagley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clement Marsan and family of Hunters avenue.

Joseph Cady of South Second avenue, is a patient at the William W. Backus hospital where he recently underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Amede Richards and family of South A street, have had as Thanksgiving and week end guests Mr. and Mrs. Adelard Houle and Mrs. Flora Fournier of Passaic, N. J.

After a few days stay with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winchester of Blissville, Mrs. George Heibel, Jr., and her two daughters have returned to their home in Paterson, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robb and little son Jackie have returned to their home in South Manchester, after spending several days with Mrs. Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crowe of South A street.

Miss Sherilda Pion of New London spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amede Pion and family of Hunters avenue.

Letters advertised this week at the local postoffice are for Mrs. Antoinette Salpietro, James Quinn, Henry Sudle and Frank Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lambert and their daughter Miss Ida Lambert of South A street and Theodule Snow of Hunters avenue have been in Willimantic recently to visit Mrs. Lambert's sister, Sister Eucharíste, at St. Mary's convent.

Robert Pilling has been appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a turkey supper for the members of the Ponemah Wheel club.

Mrs. Wilfred Pollard of Block Island has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Fogarty and family of South Second avenue.

The monthly meeting of the members of the Taftville Maennerchor club was held Tuesday evening at their clubhouse on Maennerchor avenue.

The Artisans met Monday evening.

Curtis A. Hedler has resumed his studies at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass., after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Hedler of Terrace avenue.

The monthly business meeting of the Taftville Social and Football club was held Monday evening at the club rooms in the Ponemah building.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Troie and children, William and Jane, of New York, were at Mr. and Mrs. A. Troie of Providence street, for Thanksgiving and the week end.

ELECT C. C. SAXTON MANUFACTURERS' PRESIDENT

At the annual meeting of the Norwich Manufacturers' association, Monday evening, at Ponemah hall, Taftville, Charles A. Saxton was elected president for the coming year. Nearly 50 members of the association attended the meeting, and availed themselves of an opportunity to inspect the Ponemah mills. They were shown through the plant by guides who explained the operations in the various departments.

After the inspection trip a banquet was served at Ponemah hall. Radio and phonograph music, furnished by Ferguson, was enjoyed during the dinner. The tables were attractively decorated and the coverings were of fabric manufactured in the mills. Girls employed in the mill were the waitresses. Edward T. Connelly was the song leader. A. M. VanWagenen, retiring president of the association, introduced J. Arthur Atwood, president of the Ponemah mills and host of the evening and Mr. Atwood extended a hearty welcome to the guests. He also gave a brief history of the plant. Mr. Connelly, Nicholas J. Spellman and Joseph Farrell gave a pleasing program of songs and stories.

The business meeting was called to order about 9 o'clock by the retiring president and the following directors were elected: Charles A. Saxton, A. E. Payson, A. M. VanWagenen, Jacob Munz, J. C. Worth, John F. Rogers, Philip A. Johnson and Charles J. Twist.

C. L. Evanson and W. A. Dower of the Connecticut Manufacturers' association, were the speakers. Christopher M. Gallup of North Stonington, a member of the Norwich chamber of commerce, gave an interesting talk on weather reports.

After adjournment of the meeting, the directors convened in session and elected the following officers: Charles A. Saxton, president; A. E. Payson, vice president; Charles J. Twist, secretary and treasurer.

REPORT ADVERSE ON FURTHER RIVER PROJECT

An adverse report on a project to further improve the Thames river was recommended to congress Tuesday by Major General Lytle Brown, chief army engineer, according to wire dispatches from Washington.

The existing project for the Thames river calls for a channel 250 feet wide and 25 feet deep to Bartlett's crossing, 200 feet wide and 25 feet deep to Allyn's Point and a like width with depth of 18 feet to Norwich.

Made Plans For Christmas Party

The regular meeting of the student body government at Backus hospital was held Monday evening in the nurses 'home. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held Dec. 22. Chairmen appointed were: Invitation, Miss Thelma Bjurstrom; gifts, Mrs. Laura Pellerin; refreshments, Miss Sadie Portelance; decorations, Miss Frances Montgomery; entertainment, preliminary class.

19 SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS
YE THREE WISE MEN SHOPPING EARLY

STATE'S HYDRO POWER AT ITS LOWEST MARK

According to reports of the United States geological survey, the generation of electricity by means of water power in Connecticut has reached its lowest point this fall since the years prior to the construction of the Stevenson dam hydro electric department in 1919. The most recent geological survey report shows Connecticut's water power generation for the month of August at 5,298,300 kilowatt hours and for September at 4,965,000 kilowatt hours. Although the 1929 totals for the same months were low, the usual production is approximately 20,000,000 kilowatt hours for each of those months.

This extraordinary dropping off in water power generation is entirely due to the extended lack of rainfall which according to records dating back 125 years was the worst drouth the state has ever suffered. The lack of rain has taken a terrific toll on the rivers and streams of the state, causing the potentialities for hydro generation to drop to their lowest point in history. This is particularly true of the Housatonic river, upon which the major portion of the state's hydro electric capacity is concentrated.

Connecticut hydro production began dropping as early as March, a month which usually finds water power at its height, and although there was a slight rise in June following upon the approximate normal rainfall of May, it has been falling off steadily throughout the year. Meanwhile the light and power utilities have been forced to rely almost entirely upon steam generation to fulfill the state's industrial and domestic electric requirements, this necessitating the burning of an extraordinary amount of fuel which under normal conditions would not be consumed.

MARKHAM WILL CONTEST FOR MINORITY LEADERSHIP

John A. Markham, democratic representative from Hartford re-elected last month, has announced that he would accede to the wishes of friends who have urged him to be candidate for minority leader of the 1931 house. Representative Markham's candidacy may mean a three-cornered contest in caucus of the democratic members of the house, to be held Jan. 6, as friends of both William M. Citron of Middletown and Oscar A. H. Dannenberg of Bridgeport have advanced them as candidates for the chieftainship of the house democrats.

The minority leadership in the next session is viewed as of more importance than usual because the democratic floor leaders in the 1931 legislature will in some measures be the spokesmen of the first democratic governor of Connecticut in 18 years. In the house for the first time in many years the minority will be sufficiently numerous to be effective. The present party line up is 182 republicans, 84 democrats, and one vacancy, giving the democrats more than one-fifth necessary to order a roll call and only six less than the one more than one-third necessary to block a suspension of the rules.

All of the men mentioned for minority leader of the 1931 house are lawyers. Mr. Markham and Mr. Dannenberg served their first terms in the 1929 house and both were re-elected. Mr. Citron was minority leader of the 1927 house.

MEMBERSHIP ADDITIONS IN RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Additional names received in the annual membership roll call of Norwich chapter of the American Red Cross are the following:

Contributing

W. T. Olcott, Mrs. W. T. Olcott, William H. Shields.

Annual

H. L. Richardson, E. Lewis Young, The S. Landow Co., Mrs. Edith B. Wilson, Miss Beatrice Sharp, Lewis J. Oat, H. R. Kind, Mrs. H. R. Kind, Frank H. Quinley, Mrs. J. A. Tabor, L. M. Wolsard, Miss Emily M. Wilcox, Miss Catherine Novak, Pierre J. Theve, Mrs. Pierre J. Theve.

Honor To A Norwich Boy

A letter received recently from President William Moseley Brown of Atlantic university, located at Virginia Beach, Virginia, states that the name of Douglas M. Fellows of this city appears on the mid-semester honor students' roll, consisting of a list of ten students. This list is made up by both the dean of women and the dean of men, and the name of Mr. Fellows is one of the eight men listed.

An older brother, John Fellows, is a writer of sport stories for New York magazines, while another brother, Otis Fellows, teaches English in the Ecole Normale (Normal school) of Savenay, France. These three brothers are grandsons of the late Rev. F. E. Fellows of this city.

CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB GIVES OUT OVER $106,000 TO MEMBERS

Over 2,400 members of the Christmas club conducted by the Chelsea Savings bank will receive their checks by mail today (Wednesday), which will be a few days in advance of the stated time for club payments. The aggregate sum which will be put in the hands of club members will be over $106,000, one of the largest clubs which the bank has carried out for the Christmas season, and while the announced date for payments was Dec. 5, the bank officers found that there were so many requests to get the money even before then that they voluntarily advanced the date and by extra efforts on the part of the bank staff got the checks ready and put them into the mail Tuesday night.

This considerable sum of money to be distributed to various families will no doubt constitute a valued financial aid in situations where money is needed because of unemployment conditions.

During the club season, Miss Beatrice Krajewski has been in charge of the collections and books at the bank and the club for next year is ready to start by the fifth of December.

HOLLAND POWER
SUCTION CLEANING
For Furnaces, Boilers and Chimneys
Also Furnace Repairing
CALL NORWICH 2087-R
or
NEW LONDON 7782

Does Chiropractic Cure?

WHAT AILMENTS WILL IT REACH?

Competent Chiropractors do not misrepresent. Chiropractic is not a cure-all. Chiropractors do not claim to cure cancer or other uncurable diseases. RECORDS OF THE CHIROPRACTIC RESEARCH BUREAU SHOW

A HIGH PERCENTAGE OF COMPLETE RECOVERY IN CASES SUFFERING FROM THESE AILMENTS

Anemia — Chronic Appendicitis — Arthritis — Bright's D'sease — Bronchitis — Catarrh — Colds — Constipation — Diabetes — Eczema — Epilepsy — Eye Trouble — Gastritis — Hiccough — Influenza — Rheumatism — Sciatica — Throat Trouble — Goitre — Headaches — Heart Trouble — High Blood Pressure — Insanity — Kidney Trouble — Liver Trouble — Low Blood Pressure — Lumbago — Hay Fever — Nervousness — Neuralgia — Neuritis — Paralysis — Insomnia — St. Vitus Dance — Stomach Trouble

Consult these Chiropractors about your ailments with confidencee.

This series of messages on Chiropractic adjustment is brought to the public by the Connecticut Chiropractors Association, Inc.

BOYNTON & BOYNTON
CHIROPRACTORS
283 Main Street
Phone 1506 or 1811

Nothing Takes the Place Of FRESHEST!
Taste The Difference!

Always INSIST ON
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK

A CROWN ROAST
. . . . Fit For A King
If The PORK Is FRESH!

A royal dish for your week-end meal—New England Dressed Fresh Pork prepared as a crown roast—a meal fit for the King of your household—and the Queen and all the little Princes and Princesses. For New England Dressed Fresh Pork is King of meats these days. Cut from the choicest Corn Fed Porkers, brought on alive from the Grain Belt, dressed under U. S. Government Inspection, and received by your dealer within 24 hours after cutting, this Freshest Pork gives you the utmost in fine meat quality.

Try New England Dressed Fresh Pork—in fact, insist upon it. Your first serving will be awarded the family Grand Prize—and you will realize that NOTHING TAKES THE PLACE OF FRESHEST.

Get This Recipe Book FREE

A post card to any of these five concerns brings you "21 Reasons for Using and 21 Ways to Serve New England Dressed Fresh Pork."

Identify NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK by Any of these Brands.

SQUIRE
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
John P. Squire & Company
Boston, Mass.

SPERRY & BARNES
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
Sperry & Barnes Company
New Haven, Conn.

WHITE-PEVEY
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
White Pevey & Dexter Company
Worcester, Mass.

NORTH
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
North Packing & Provision Company
Boston, Mass.

BRIGHTWOOD
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
Springfield Provision Company
Springfield, Mass.

21 REASONS FOR USING
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK
21 WAYS TO SERVE

REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 21 NORWICH, CONN

SOMETHING ENTIRELY NEW APRONETTES
$1.00 each

Apronettes fashioned of high grade percale in pretty garden prints in lovely color array, trimmed at neck line and sleeves with dimity ruffling. The skirt has circular flounce neatly finished with bais binding. When you see them you'll want several and they will also help solve your gift problems. So different and practical. Sizes 36 to 46.

"Minute Men" Colonial Smocks
$1.95 each

Smocks in charming Toile de Jouy Print, depicting early American scenes. Colors of mulberry, green, brown, orange, and blue on a natural background. This is an exceptionally low price of these garments.

TOYLAND ON THE SECOND FLOOR
GIFT SHOP — MAIN FLOOR ANNEX

Norwich Bulletin

VOL. LXXII—No. 290 NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1930—12 PAGES CIRCULATION MORNING AND EVENING 19,049 PRICE TWO CENTS

PRESIDENT'S 1932 BUDGET CALLS FOR $3,932,842,000

Recommends Increases For Veterans, Federal Aid Roads, Public Buildings, Prohibition Enforcement and Shipping Board—Calls For Rigid Economy and States That the One Per Cent Income Tax Reduction of Last Year Cannot Be Continued—Assures Congress That the Government's Resources Are in a Thoroughly Sound Condition

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—A deficit lies ahead and tax rates must be increased, but still, President Hoover today told congress, the government's finances are in a thoroughly sound condition.

The deficit he estimated at $180,000,000 and he said, in his annual message transmitting the budget, that the one per cent income tax reduction granted a year ago could not be continued.

But he submitted a balanced budget for the fiscal year 1932 and a statement that rigid economy in legislation would give the nation a surplus of $30,600,000 for that period.

A "heavy decrease in probably income and the necessity to increase public works" and aid employment, he said, do "not warrant continuation" of the tax reduction.

The chief executive found no cause for concern in the impending deficit. It amounts, he said, to less than five per cent of the total government expenditure.

"When we stop to consider that we are progressively amortizing our public debt, and that a balanced budget is being presented for 1932, even after drastic writing down of expected revenue," his message ran, "I believe it will be agreed that our government finances are in a sound condition."

Although asserting appropriations to relieve unemployment and help farmers of the drought area would tend to increase the deficit as estimated, he expressed the opinion these needs could be met without undue danger.

The president was emphatic in warning congress against extravagant appropriations. Strict economy must be observed, he said, if the narrow surplus estimated for next year is to be realized and a deficit for that period avoided.

A total of $3,932,842,000 was requested to finance the government through the next fiscal year. He recommended increases over current appropriations of $109,620,000 for veterans, $51,500,000 for federal aid roads, $10,330,000 for public buildings, $2,480,660 for prohibition enforcement, and $35,000,000 for the shipping board's construction loan fund.

The decreases were $92,000,000 for tax refunds, $33,697,0000 for national defense, and $22,000,000 for interest on the national debt.

Total receipts for 1932, exclusive of postal revenue, were estimated at $4,085,119,000 and total expenditures at $4,054,519,000. Receipts for the current year were set at $3,834,865,000 and expenditures at $4,014,941,000.

(The budget in tabular form is printed on Page 9)

EFFORTS TO AVERT COAL STRIKE IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Hope of averting a national coal strike centered tonight on the peace efforts of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald.

The prime minister held a two-hour conference tonight in his office in the house of commons with the executive committee of the Miners' federation. William Graham, president of the board of trade, and E Shinwell, secretary of mines.

After the departure of the premier, the discussion continued between the miners' representatives and Graham and Shinwell.

Meanwhile, a great majority of the 90,000 miners in Scotland continue on strike. The Scottish miners have flatly refused the owners' plan of a 45-hour week in place of the straight seven and one-half hour day provided in the new coal mine act which became effective last Monday.

WOMEN TELL OF PAYING TRIBUTE TO LAWYERS IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Inquiry into New York magistrates courts with special reference to graft extorted from women accused of vice reopened today before Referee Samuel Seabury to unfold a series of dramatic disclosures.

Five women told how they either paid high tribute to lawyers, bondsmen and police officers or suffered punishment for violations they never committed.

"Chile" Acuna, paid police informer, substantiated the testimony of the five to the extent there was no evidence against them and added to the list 53 other women who were prosecuted despite the fact he told police he was unable to get evidence against them. More than 30 of the 57 women served prison terms on the charges.

"MILLIONAIRE COP" SUSPECT REQUESTS LEAVE OF ABSENCE

ROCKLAND, Me., Dec. 3.—(AP)—Deputy Marshal John T. Berry, Rockland's "millionaire cop," charged by federal officers with violating the prohibition laws, today requested leave of absence from the Rockland police department pending the outcome of his case.

Berry and four other men are under bail for appearance before a federal commissioner at Portland, Friday. Their arrest last night by six prohibition agents was the result of an investigation of several weeks. Specific charges against the officer have not been disclosed by the federal authorities.

YOUTH MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT IN PROVIDENCE

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Stanislaw Keyak, 17, was mysteriously shot tonight while standing with another youth on a street corner near his home.

Keyak's companion, Theodore Bilsky, 17, told police he heard the shot. Then Keyak dropped with a bullet wound in his abdomen.

An emergency operation was performed at Rhode Island hospital where Keyak is reported to be in a critical condition. His only words to police were that Bilsky had nothing to do with the shooting. Police are without clues.

"HOLIDAY FOR PARLIAMENTS" WOULD BENEFIT ECONOMICS

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Owen D. Young, international banker, whose flare for finance helped put Europe back on its feet after the war, declared at a dinner in his honor tonight for a "holiday of parliaments." That, he said, would be a better solution of the conflict everywhere in the world between politics and economics, than the suggested holiday of armaments.

ELECTED CHAIRMAN N. Y. REP. STATE COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—W. Kingsland Macy, Harvard graduate, leader of exclusive Suffolk county, Long Island, today was elected chairman of the republican state committee. He was one of the original "Hoover boosters" in New York state.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANT OF FOUR VERMONT NEWSPAPERS

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt., Dec. 3—(AP)—The Times building, home of four Vermont newspapers, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early today, with an estimated loss of $50,000.

Although firemen were hampered by the cold weather and were covered in icy armor as they battled the flames but one was injured. Melvin O. Larue sustained frost bitten hands and suffered from exposure. He was token to Rockingham hospital where he was said to be out of danger tonight.

The newspapers published in the building, a frame structure, were the Bellows Falls Times, the Ludlow Tribune, Windsor Journal, and Springfield Reporter. The Tribune got its edition out today while others expect to resume their regular schedule tomorrow. Several newspaper plants in New England offered assistance.

MASS. PROHIBITION LAW CAME TO END LAST NIGHT

BOSTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—The Massachusetts prohibition law came to the end of its existence tonight, with the future policy of state law officers undefined but with local police forces preparing to proceed under an old law against keeping and exposing liquor for sale.

No statement was forthcoming from either Attorney General Joseph E. Warner or Captain Charles T. Beaupre, head of the state police, as to future procedure in connection with the sale of liquor. The chiefs of police of various towns and cities and Boston police headquarters have said that they would proceed against the sale of liquor under old laws and court decisions.

MEN ARE LAGGARD IN CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—It's the laggard male foot-steps that slow the Christmas shopping.

Such was the pronouncement of the retailers' national council, based on a year-long study of statistics garnered in many a city-center in last year's late minute rush.

The council discovered that Christmas eve found mother and the girls with their gifts all wrapped while father and the boys were still buying.

The council decided it might have been because women are adepts, men amateurs, at shopping.

TRANS-ATLANTIC YACHT RACE TO START AT NEWPORT JULY 4

LONDON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—A trans-Atlantic yacht race to start at Newport, R. I., and end at Plymouth was announced today for next summer by the Ocean Racing club of Great Britain—the starting date was fixed at July 4.

A trophy, offered jointly by the British organization and the Cruising Club of America, will go to the winner. Yachts of any rig with 45 to 72 feet waterline will be eligible to compete.

COL. NORRIS G. OSBORN TO ACT AS TOASTMASTER

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Col. Norris G. Osborn will act as toastmaster of the victory dinner to be given Gov.-elect Cross next Wednesday, it was announced tonight.

The dinner will be held at the Hotel Taft under the auspices of the democratic town committee.

Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, invited to speak, has replied that he will be present if he can leave his duties in Washington.

SEARCH OF CAR REVEALED TWO LOADED REVOLVERS

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Search of a car used by three Meriden youths after their arrest on charges of idleness tonight, revealed two loaded revolvers concealed in the side pockets.

The three are: Noah Kaplan, 23; Frank Karbinski, 22, and Cosmo Angilette, 25. They were held in $5,000 bond each. After their actions in the vicinity of a drug store aroused the suspicions of a detective.

35 Fire Engines, Four Fireboats Fighting Crude Oil Fire I[illegible] Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(Thursday)—(AP)—Following two terrific explosions, fire broke out in the Pratt works of the Standard Oil company in Brooklyn late last night, igniting seventeen tanks of crude oil, petroleum and turpentine and endangering the entire plant.

The first explosion occurred about 11:30 in a 10,000 gallon tank of crude oil and rapidly spread to seven more crude oil tanks. A 50,000 gallon tank of highly distilled petroleum exploded and caught fire a few minutes later. Eight 10,000 gallon tanks of turpentine ignited shortly after this and the flames reached great proportions.

In the first explosion the resulting fire spread through underground pipes and ignited the petroleum vat a[illegible] turpentine tanks. When the sec[illegible] explosion occurred it blasted aw[illegible] eighteen foot brick wall, sh[illegible] firemen with debris.

The conflagration swept t[illegible]e waterfront, which borders the [illegible]ant, and flaming oil poured into the East river. The oil tanker Vermont, the fireboat New York and several coal barges caught fire but were extinguished. The flames licked at a three story warehouse which contained 5,000 cases of naphtha and 500 drums of pale oil. The contents were hurriedly removed.

Before the fire had reached its height a five alarm warning was sounded and 35 companies, comprising [illegible]00 men, and four fireboats were [illegible]d to the scene from Brooklyn [illegible] Manhattan. Their efforts were devoted to restricting the blaze to a limited area and preventing it from reaching same twenty five other vats each holding 10,000 gallons of crude oil. The plant of the Brooklyn Union Gas company nearby also was closely guarded.

The Standard oil works are located between Kent street and the East river and between North Kent street and North Fourteenth street, halfway between the Williamsburg and 59th street bridges. The tanks were burning fiercely at 1:30 a. m. and the blaze could be seen from Manhattan and outlying boroughs.

Battle Probable In Reichstag Today

National Socialists Are Prepared to Fight Chancellor Bruening's Program

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—(AP)—The reichstag, meeting today for the first time since last October, listened for an hour while Hermann Dietrich, the finance minister, outlined a program of financial reform which will cut Germany's expenditures by $345,000,000 a year, then adjourned, postponing debate until tomorrow.

Tomorrow's session probably will be a battle royal. The government party is ready to support Chancellor Bruening's program to the last ditch. The national socialists, and the other opposition blocs are prepared to fight his proposals to the bitter end. The social democrats, in the role of innocent bystanders, probably will get a drubbing from both sides.

When the general debate begins at noon the points at issue will be both the 1931 budget and the opposition demand for revocation of Bruening's emergency decree enacting a series of harsh financial reform over a period of three years.

Some of the communists interrupted Dietrich at several points in his speech, but on the whole it was a quiet session and adjournment came almost immediately after the finance minister was through.

The new budget, Dietrich said, has slashed epenses by about $265,190,000, but its measures can be made to stand up only by the Bruening decree which slashes government salaries, appropriations for the states, places unemployment insurance on a self-supporting basis, and taxes cigars and cigarettes.

"Even if we should have a greater income than we expect in the next three years, Dietrich said, "we will have to use any such excess to get ourselves out of debt. Under no circumstances can we spend more than 10,687,000,000 marks (about $2,458,010,000) a year. Our taxes have been pushed up to the very limit. We can't go any further that way. We've got to stop spending."

He warned his countrymen that they must make up their minds to live like spartans until Germany is on her feet again.

"I know it will be unpopular to reduce salaries," he said, "but every department is going to feel these reductions and they must extend not only throughout the national government but to every state's government."

BROADCAST FROM MOSCOW INCITING REVOLT IN BRITAIN

LONDON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—A radio broadcast from Moscow, which a conservative member described in the house of commons today as "inciting British workers to revolution," will form the subject of an official British protest to the soviet government.

Arthur Henderson, foreign secretary, so informed the house after questioning by Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson. He added that personally he did not consider the program an incitement to revolution, but said it nevertheless was a departure from the Russo-British agreement regarding the abolition of soviet propaganda.

The broadcast in question occurred last night and was one of a series transmitted from Moscow every Tuesday for the benefit of British workers.

DARTMOUTH SOPHOMORE HAS MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—(AP)—The mysterious disappearance of an 18-year-old Dartmouth college sophomore October 16, and failure of the New England college authorities and his family, to find a trace of him since, was reported today to the New York police.

The student, Wesley N. Wasgatt, was a son of Dr. R. J. Wasgatt, of Rockland, Maine.

Robert Brown, of Riverside drive, told detectives that Wasgatt was first missed by his dormitory roommate in the early morning of Oct. 16, after he had come in at about 1 a. m., apparently in good spirits.

PAID FOR FLOWERS WITH FORGED MONEY ORDERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—(AP)—Herbert Gordon, with a string of aliases, has been arrested for sending flowers to debutantes, that is, he sent the flowers and paid for them with forged money orders.

Several florists tonight identified him as the snappily dressed man who had defrauded them. The procedure was to pay for the flowers with forged postoffice money orders, and receive change.

SAYS CRISIS IN WINTER WHEAT MARKET HAS PASSED

CHICAGO, Dec. 3—(AP)—O. C. Stine of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics today said the crisis in the wheat market was past and the world's consumption of that cereal probably would improve soon. He addressed the National Association of Marketing Officials on the world wheat situation.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Captain Frank Hawks, air speedster, arrived at Memphis, Tenn., yesterday at 4:38 p. m. (CST), after a one-stop flight from New York.

The estate left by Richard Howell, late editor-in-chief of the Bridgeport Herald, is thought to be worth about $100,000, which goes to his widow.

Miss Amelia Earhart and her fiancee, George Palmer Putnam, Jr., landed at Cleveland airport late yesterday after an air trip from Newark, N. J.

Injured when a heavy desk fell on him, striking him in the head, Arnold French, 24, is in Charlotte Hungerford hospital, Torrington, with a fractured skull.

Commuters to Connecticut and Westchester county towns were delayed last night by failure of a drawbridge over the Harlem river at 136th street.

William Marcotte, 37, of Woonsocket, R. I., was killed in Manchester when his truck was struck by a trolley car while he was repairing the headlights.

The bungalow of Lewis Peugeot, three miles west of Cheshire, was destroyed by fire. Damage was estimated at $10,0000, $4,000 of which was covered by insurance.

The Cunard Steamship line and Pan-American Airways have entered into an agreement for an air-water service between Miami, Havana and New York this winter.

Lewis J. Tutt, deputy prohibition enforcement agent for New Jersey, seized 100 bags of coal in a distillery raid in Bayonne, N. J. He ordered the coal sent to poor families.

America's share in the work of the German-American reparation claims commission was praised by Dr. Karl Von Kewinski, retiring German consul general in New York.

Mrs. Alice Sanderson Cross of New Haven, daughter-in-law of Governor-elect Wilbur L. Cross, will be the latter's official hostess at the inauguration ceremonies on Jan. 7.

Contributions of one dollar or more from everyone who listens in on the radio broadcast of the Army-Navy unemployment football game were urged by Senator Wagner of New York.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, announced last night his organization would not oppose confirmation of William N. Doak as secretary of labor.

The new Charlotte Hungerford hospital, Torrington, recently completed at a cost of approximately $1,500,000, will be formally dedicated in a series of exercises. Rev. S. Parkes Cadman will speak.

The executive committee of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters in Pittsburgh rejected proposals of the United States Potters' association for a decrease in wages of pottery workers.

Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, recommended adversely against a project to improve the Penobscot river in Maine, holding that no expenditure for improvement would be justified.

Richard S. Hargreaves, 61, divorced husband of Grace Bryan Hargreaves, daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, and Helen Ferguson, 28, actress, filed notice in Los Angeles of intention to marry.

John R. Voorhis, New York's 102-year-old election commissioner, was slightly ill with a cold and could not attend the meeting in Tammany hall at which he was nominated for another two-year term.

Grant Shegog, Negro, ordered fried chicken in a South State street restaurant, Chicago. He was positive the fowl served him was a crow—and said so to the cook, George Webb. Webb shot the Negro to death.

Dora Peters, 19, of Scituate, Mass., and George Machado, 21, of Plymouth, Mass., were married in the Franklin county jail. A short time afterwards they were sentenced in city court for a robbery in a St. Albans, Vt., store.

Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, of Los Angeles, was sued by John E. McKeand for recovery of property valued at $18,000 given her by one of her followers, the late Mrs. Catherine McAdams, McKeand's niece.

In five years Constance Brown, 28, rose from stenographer to assistant cashier of the National bank in her home city of Chappaqua, N. Y. Yesterday she surrendered on a charge of embezzling $43,650 of the bank's funds.

Food and fuel or orders for them on merchants will be accepted as admission fee to a theatre in New Britain next Saturday afternoon when a "donation matinee" is held under the auspices of the mayor's relief committee.

An estimate of 4,860,000 persons out of work was given yesterday by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, while the senate was calling for the report of the president's emergency committee on employment.

Rioting Resumed By Cuban Students

One Policeman Was Killed and Another Wounded—Fifty Students Arrested

HAVANA, Dec. 3.—(AP)—One policeman was killed and another wounded at noon here today as students, protesting the re-opening of the National university by presidential decree this morning, clashed with police during a downtown demonstration.

No students were reported wounded but fifty were arrested following the rioting, among them four girls who had led the parade from the university campus to the business district, carrying a Cuban flag.

The rioting began at the university this morning when classes were to have been resumed following a shutdown of the institution during the November elections and the 18-day period of martial law which prevailed in Havana and suburbs until 48 hours ago.

The procession, which clashed with police a short time after having marched to the business district, was headed by several young girls. Police attempted to disperse the marchers and fired several shots in the air. A return fire greeted them, causing the death of the one policeman and the wounding of the other.

The students arrested were taken to the fifth precinct station and will be given a hearing tomorrow. Classes were abandoned for the day and indications were tonight that there would be no attempt to resume them until an agreement had been reached.

COALITION CABINET FOUNDED IN AUSTRALIA

VIENNA, Dec. 3—(AP)—A new Austrian government headed by Dr. Otto Ender, as chancellor and composed of a coalition which includes two former premiers, was formed today.

Dr. Ender, who was called in when the Vaugoin government resigned last week, made up the combination after having indicated last night that he had given it up as a bad job. He informed President Miklais today however, that the final effort had been successful.

The new cabinet gives three posts to the economic bloc headed by Dr. Johann Schober, who used to be a premier himself, but assigns all the other portfolios to Christian socialists.

Dr. Karl Vaugoin, head of the preceding government becomes minister of the army in the new cabinet.

DAVIS-BROWN CAMPAIGN FUND FOUND TO TOTAL $641,274

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—The senate campaign funds committee, over whose protest James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, was given his seat in the senate, picked up today the trail of Davis-Brown primary expenditures it dropped last May and reported it had found a total thus far of $641,274.

This, Chairman Nye said, was $272,312 more than the amount reported to his committee by campaign managers for Davis and Francis Shunk Brown, the unsuccessful Pennsylvania gubernatorial primary candidate. The additions were accounted for by investigators Nye sent to Harrisburg last Sunday.

MAN KILLED WHEN BLIMP BROKE FROM LANDING CREW

GADSDEN, Ala., Dec. 3—(AP)—One man was killed and another seriously injured here late today when the Defender, largest of the Goodyear Rubber company blimps, broke away from a landing crew and carried the two men aloft.

Isaac W. Phillips, a workman at the Goodyear plant here, helping the landing crew, dropped 150 feet to his death while Jim Quisenback, of Oklahoma, regular member of the landing crew was knocked loose from the blimp by a pole and fell 25 feet.

The landing crew was walking the blimp to the hangar here following its arrival from Akron when the ship suddenly lifted.

MAN'S BODY FOUND IN WAREHOUSE WRECKAGE

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—(AP)—A man's body was found tonight in the wreckage of a warehouse building on Rivard street, destroyed last night by an explosion.

Police said the dead man might be Bartolo Oddo, 27, grocer, who sometimes slept in the building to protect his stock of groceries.

No motive has been established for the wrecking of the building.

Police suspected that gasoline had been spread around a portion of the building before the blast was set off.

TOWN WITH JAIL EMPTY AND NO UNEMPLOYMENT

NEW HOPE, Pa., Dec. 3—(AP)—Here's a town: There is no unemployment. The jail is empty. The one industry, a paper mill, is running three shifts a day.

Dr. John A. Flood revealed this lovely state of affairs today. He ought to know. He's Mayor and chief of police.

ACTIVITIES OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF HOUSE WETS

Plan Drive Against Use of Government Funds to Put Poison in Industrial Alcohol—Will Petition House Judiciary Committee to Approve a Bill to Authorize Manufacture and Sale of Beer—Every Member of the House to Be Invited to Join in Efforts Toward Modification of the Volstead Act

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—A drive against use of government funds to put poison in industrial alcohol was planned today by the executive committee of the house wet bloc.

All parliamentary means are to be resorted to by the group to amend the treasury supply bill to prohibit use of any appropriation for poisoning purposes or for chemists who prepare formulas used by commercial concerns in alcohol.

The committee also decided to petition the house judiciary committee to approve a bill to authorize the manufacture and sale of beer.

A third step in the program is to invite every member of the house to join the committee in its efforts toward modification of the Volstead act.

Chairman Linthicum said: "Since the November elections a lot of members have claimed they have never been invited to join and so we are going to give them all a chance."

The group was undecided whether to oppose the proposed $2,000,000 increase for the prohibition bureau, but Linthicum, a Maryland democrat, said he would. He also plans to oppose an allotment of $16,000,000 to the coast guard for enforcement.

Under the treasury bill pending in the house, the industrial alcohol bureau is to receive $4,338,000, a portion of which is to be used in dosing industrial alcohol to prevent diversion for beverage purposes. The proposed amendment would be aimed at this.

"People do not want prohibition," Linthicum said. "It is a waste to try to enforce it. When the seventy-third congress comes we will end prohibition by not appropriating funds to enforce it."

Linthicum said his group of 61 members would be increased to 160 in the next congress and predicted a majority of wets in the seventy-third congress when the house is re-apportioned and industrial centers gain larger representation.

SENATE CONFEREES ON MUSCLE SHOALS FIRM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Senate conferees flatly refused today to recede from the Norris resolution for government operation of Muscle Shoals and left to the house the next step in breaking the deadlock which grips this legislation.

They suggested that the house conferees report a deadlock and ask instructions which would clear the way for a vote on the Norris plan.

This suggestion the representatives of the house took under consideration to be decided next week when two absentees, Wurzbach, republican, Texas, and Quin, democrat, Mississippi, return to the capitol.

TO CONSIDER FIVE-YEAR BAN ON IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—A five-year ban on immigration from every other land will be considered tomorrow by the house immigration committee as an unemployment relief measure.

Moving to carry out President Hoover's suggestion for further limitation on immigrants who might displace American workers or become public charges, Chairman Johnson called the committee meeting after introducing a resolution to effect the embargo.

Other measures also may come up tomorrow. President Hoover's message to congress marked a need for exhaustive re-examination of the entire subject and Johnson has said that discussion of any proposal would open the general subject.

The Johnson resolution is similar to one sponsored by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, except that the Pennsylvanian would lay the ban for two years.

Canada and Latin American countries would be affected by the Johnson resolution. It would restrict Philippine immigration to Hawaii except in cases certified by the commissioner of labor.

Hawaii's delegate, Victor S. K. Houston, has been asked to oppose this because it would affect sugar and pineapple industries there.

BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS SETTLE DOWN TO BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Congress hoisted a heavy legislative burden to its shoulders today and started resolutely down the rough, rocky road of the short session.

For the first time since the legislators convened they put in a full day at work and when night fell they had several concrete accomplishments to show.

The senate applied itself so vigorously to debating the Cousens bus bill that a vote was near as the day drew to a close.

The house tackled the first of the annual appropriation bills, a measure carying $1,083,000,000 to meet expenses of the treasury and post office departments for the next fiscal year.

Both branches paused to receive the annual message of President Hoover, transmitting the budget, and noted his warning that decreased tax rates can not be continued.

Meanwhile, the president's proposal that the unemployment problem be met with a $150,000,000 emergency fund brought further signs of opposition in the house.

SENATE CONSIDERING SCORE OF NOMINATIONS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—The senate took under consideration today more than a score of important nominations with signs of trouble ahead for some of the appointees.

William N. Doak, of Virginia, to be secretary of labor, succeeding Senator Davis, of Pennsylvania, headed the list submitted today by President Hoover and there was every indication of his early confirmation.

But democrats and republican independents both asked "thorough investigation" of the men selected for the newly organized tariff and power commissions. In the six tariff commission nominees now serving under recess appointment and the five members announced today for the power commission centered the main interest.

All nominations were referred to committees and it is expected hearings will be held for the tariff and power commission nominees.

TREASURY-POSTOFFICE SUPPLY BILL UP IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—Ending the formalities of opening, the house began carrying out administration plans to avoid a special assembly today by plunging into consideration of the $1,083,553,943 treasury-postoffice supply bill.

Debate on the measure carrying appropriations for stimulating the America Merchant marine, public building construction and air mail development began immediately after President Hoover's annual budget message was read, with a view to passage by the end of the week.

The bill is $86,906,095 lower than expenditures for the current year and $20,726,410 less than the budget estimates. The reduction largely was accounted for in a slash of $104,000,000 for tax refunds, only $26,000,000 plus the existing surplus being allowed for this purpose.

SHOT FIRED OVER HEAD OF PREMIER BERENGUER OF SPAIN

MADRID, Dec. 3—(AP)—A newspaper reporter resigned his job today and then armed with a pistol went to the office of Premier Berenguer and fired a shot over the premier's head.

The reporter, Joaquin Llizo, denied he had intended to shoot the premier, declaring he only wanted to shoot at him as a protest against conditions in Spain.

However, his gun jammed after the first shot and he was promptly seized by the premier's brother, Luis, who acts as his private secretary and was standing beside the premier when the shot was fired.

Berenguer, who had been about to hold a conference with assembled newspapermen, walked up to Llizo with perfect coolness and said, "Well, why did you do that?"

"I came here," replied Llizo, "to make a bloodless but energetic protest against the social regime represented by your government."

Berenguer then turned to the other newspapermen and said:

"I am all right. Don't make much out of this, boys, it isn't anything. I am unhurt and he is only a poor foolish fellow."

The premier then proceeded upstairs where he presided at a meeting of his cabinet as though nothing had happened.

TO MAP OUT PLANS FOR SHORTER WORKING WEEK

CLEVELAND, Dec. 3—(AP)—The fight of organized labor for a shorter working week will receive fresh impetus here tomorrow when officials of the five big brotherhoods of railroad workers meet to map out plans to obtain that goal in the railroad industry.

The immediate purpose, according to David B. Robertson, president of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and enginemen, is to relieve the present abnormally large unemployment. By reducing the number of miles traveled by train crews per month and reducing the total hours worked by other railroad men, 50,000 railroad men now unemployed could be put to work at once, he said.

Temporarily the adjustment could be made, Robertson said, with increasing labor costs for the railroads.

TRIAL OF SOVIET TRAITORS IS DRAWING TO AN END

MOSCOW, Dec. 3—(AP)—Eight Russian engineers accused of plotting overthrow of the Soviet government may know before the weekend whether they must pay with their lives for their acts of treason.

That Prosecutor N. B. Krilenko will demand the death penalty in his summation tomorrow night was generally admitted, but some doubt existed whether the extreme penalty would be exacted from all the defendants.

There was a strong belief that the death sentence would be imposed on all eight, but later would be commuted in the cases of some of the defendants to ten years imprisonment. This is considered a long prison term in Soviet Russia.

ENGINEER OF EXPRESS DIED AT THE THROTTLE

MARIETTA, O., Dec. 3.—(AP)—As the St. Louis-New York express of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad sped across the Ohio river bridge into Parkersburg, W. Va., today, Engineer Wallace Williams, 65, of Chillicothe, Ohio, died at the throttle.

Denver Conner of Chillicothe, fireman, saw Williams collapse as the train approached the Parkersburg yards and holding the dying engineer with one arm, brought the train to a stop with the other.

AVIATION MECHANIC LEAPED 400 FEET TO DEATH

CRISTOBAL, C. Z., Dec. 3.—(AP)—C. L. Domeyer, of Redwing, Minn., chief aviation mechanic in the U. S. navy, leaped 400 feet to his death in Limon bay today when motor trouble overtook a navy seaplane carrying a crew of four. The pilot saved the ship and the other men were uninjured.

WILLIMANTIC

Jordan Block, Lincoln Square Phone 130-W Residence Phone 461-J

WOMAN'S CLUB MAKES GIFT OF $900 TO HOSPITAL FUND

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 3.—Announcement of a donation of $900 from the Woman's club to the hospital fund was made following the regular meeting held Tuesday. This is one of the first and to date the largest donation from a local organization to the fund. The meeting was a well-attended one with members of the Storrs Woman's club as guests. The speaker was Madame Anne Barnouw of New York, who spoke on Christmas Legends from Many Lands. She illustrated her talk with colorful lantern slides. Mrs. Charles W. Tryon, president, was in charge of the meeting and welcomed the many guests.

V. F. W. Votes $100 to Hospital

A donation of $100 was voted at the regular bi-monthly meeting of Gold Star post, No. 1724, to the fund for the new Windham Community Memorial hospital. The post is undertaking the collection of quantities of clothing, shoes, etc., to be distributed among the needy families of the town and offers to send an automobile to collect these in answer to telephone messages to the V. F. W. rooms. A letter of thanks was voted sent to Smith & McKeon for engraving the radio set that the post is donating to the inmates of the town farm and a similar letter is to be sent to James J. Shea post, No. 14, American Legion, for the support of that organization in helping to win the radio set. The meeting was in charge of Commander Florimond N. Normandin, who introduced as visitors George Stanwood, commander of the Hartford county council, Arthur Gervais of Bristol and A. Washburn of the Syracuse, N. Y., post.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Clara M. Kinnaird

Services for Mrs. Clara M. Kinnaird were held at the family home in Lebanon at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. John H. Knott officiating. Burial was in the new Lebanon cemetery. The bearers were George Simms, Lloyd Sheldon, Walter Cleland and James Sprague. Arrangements were by Avery and Van Zandt.

Mrs. Sylvia M. Parker

The funeral services for Mrs. Sylvia M. Parker were held at 62 North street this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Von Deck of Lebanon officiated. Burial was in the Willimantic cemetery. The bearers were James B. Fullerton, O. P. Frederickson, Herman LeDoyt and William A. Armstrong. Avery and Van Zandt had charge of the arrangements.

Charles Hornberger

Funeral services for Charles Hornberger, 70, former resident of Plainville, who died in a New Britain hospital Sunday evening, were held this afternoon in Plainville, followed by burial in the Willimantic cemetery.

Charged with failure to grant the right of way in connection with an accident on Windham road Tuesday afternoon, George A. O'Leary of the Warner district, South Windham, was fined $5 and costs, the fine being remitted. He pleaded not guilty to the charge when presented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Frank P. Fenton. The violation was considered a technical one by the court. The other car involved in the accident was operated by Joseph Hatcher of this city. The court imposed a sentence of 30 days in the county jail at Brooklyn in the case of a local man found guilty of intoxication.

A story of how the late Albert E. Greene of this city, known widely as Al Circus Greene, a local boy who made good with the big tent and was for some years advance agent for the Sparks circus, gave an old lady a free admission to the circus in Anniston, Ala., is told in the current issue of The Billboard. The elderly woman had walked many miles to see a circus again. She had not seen one since she was a young girl. She was without funds, however, but her plea to three men standing near the entrance brought prompt action. "Go ahead," said Al Greene, "and I hope you have a pleasant afternoon." As the woman entered into the big top Al turned and said, "Boys, she's somebody's mother." In a far-away town in the east was his own mother, who was destined to see her son pass on in an untimely death.

Prof. Alva Stevens of the Connecticut Agricultural college related experiences of his recent travels on the European continent, Great Britain and Ireland, at the weekly meeting of the Exchange club held in the Nathan Hale hotel Tuesday evening with Vice-President John F. Carr presiding in the absence of President Harry L. Garrigus. Professor Stevens showed two reels of moving pictures of European scenes. In the near future, Alfred P. Abbe, member of the club, will tell of his recent travels to the western coast.

Harold F. Barber, international authority on poultry breeding and proprietor of the Pollcraft Poultry farm at Dover, Mass., will deliver an address and preside over a round table discussion at the meeting of the Willimantic Poultry association to be held in the chamber of commerce rooms Dec. 11.

Chief Wilbur G. Stevens of the North Windham fire department said today that the department is to hold a Christmas tree party at the firehouse next Tuesday evening for members and their families. A program of entertainment will be a feature. The department now has a membership of 30 volunteers.

The installation of the vari-colored lights on the Christmas trees installed along the white way and throughout the business district is underway and will probably be completed for the coming week-end. City street department men were engaged today in placing in position the large trees at the four main entrances to the city. These trees will also be lighted following an annual custom that has brought much praise. The decorations are sponsored by the Retail Merchants' bureau.

An enrollment of 50 men, including two local contractors, is making for the success of the night classes for instructions to mechanics of various trades, being held at the Willimantic State Trade school on Monday and Tuesday evenings. Director Otto R. Nyffeler states that about one-half of the men are members of the class in draughting.

Fair Workers Treated

Members of Willimantic lodge, No. 1311, B. P. O. Elks, especially those who assisted in conducting the annual Country fair, were entertained and given a generous collation during a smoker session following the regular meeting tonight. General Chairman Aime J. Martineau of the fair and Exalted Ruler George W. Hickey expressed their appreciation of the services of the members in staging the fair, which proved to be again a successful undertaking, showing a net profit of several thousand dollars.

Mrs. Darius M. Bennett is ill at her home on Buckingham road, The Ridges.

In connection with the weekly social at the Y. M. C. A., Thursday evening, there will be a basketball game and dancing in the gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Woodworth of South Coventry and Archibald W. Buchanan, Sr., of Mansfield were among democrats from this section attending the victory dinner tendered Governor-elect Wilbur L. Cross at New Haven Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan and Mrs. Timothy E. Sullivan are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Orrok in Boston, Mass.

D. D. Cavanaugh, president of the Willimantic Poultry association and manager of the annual Willimantic exposition staged by that organization, was in Norwich this afternoon, attending the exposition there and booking features for the local affair.

Mrs. Ralph U. Wolmer entertained the bridge club of which Mrs. Harvey Bronson is leader at her home Tuesday afternoon with three tables in play. Mrs. Robert O. Branch held highest score. The hostess served luncheon.

Prize winners at the whist party of 11 tables given at the American Legion rooms Tuesday evening were: First, Mrs. Josephine Webster and Duncan McArthur; second, Mrs. H. E. Downer and Mr. Myers; third, Geraldine Lambert and Oliver Wood. Mrs. Jennie Willet headed the committee of arrangements.

Luther League members of the Ebenezer Lutheran church on Oak St. are busy this week preparing for a pre-Christmas festival to be held at the church. The proceeds from this occasion are to be used for the purchase of a special gift to the church, the nature of which is to be disclosed later. Miss Selma Clauson is president of the league and Miss Jennie Peterson is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

HANOVER

William G. Park is in New York on business this week.

Dr. Clarence D. Ussher and son, Beverly, made a short call in Hanover Sunday afternoon, as they were returning from New York where they spent Thanksgiving with Rev. Sydney R. Ussher, on Welfare Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bamford entertained during the Thanksgiving period Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cadell and son, Foster, of Pawtucket, R. I.

Deacon and Mrs. Henry B. Hazen spent Thanksgiving day at Danielson with Mrs. Hazen's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig. Friday they drove to White River Junction, Vermont, where they remained until Sunday afternoon.

The meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church was set a half an hour earlier Sunday night in order to give an opportunity to attend the musical at the Central Baptist church, Norwich, by the Fisk Jubilee singers. Between thirty and forty of the Hanover people availed themselves of the privilege.

All are sorry to learn of the misfortune which befell Charles Kusian in the loss of his cart on one of the Canterbury roads last Friday night. On account of back-firing it is supposed flames enveloped the front part of the cart, giving him barely time to get out, and in a very few minutes the cart was an entire wreck.

The Sprague school board is to hold its December meeting Tuesday evening at Hanover school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Eadie are entertaining Mrs. Eadie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stearns, of St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

Miss Doris Robinson of Westerly, R. I., has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Fred Ladd.

Several local college young people were home for Thanksgiving— Gertrude Ladd from Columbia, Eunice Lebourveau from Boston university and Anna Peck from Pembroke.

Norman Standish and family from Baldwin, L. I., celebrated the Thanksgiving festival at the home of Mr. Standish's mother, Mrs. Webster Standish.

Miss Faith Lee, instructor at the Model school, Willimantic, spent Thanksgiving with her parents on Lee Hill.

MERROW

Harold Brown, with his mother, Mrs. Belle Robinson, spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. H. Higher, in Hartford.

Mrs. Bessie Clough was a guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Ivan Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilcox and son, Calvin, spent the holiday with Mrs. Wilcox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds in Eagleville.

OVER $50,000 RAISED FOR NEW HOSPITAL DURING TWO DAYS OF DRIVE

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 3—At the first report meeting and rally of the workers in the $500,000 campaign for the new Windham Community Memorial hospital held in the state armory tonight, subscriptions and memorials amounting to $52,503, were reported. This is considered by campaign leaders an unusually fine showing and is the result of the work of two days and one evening, or since the campaign opened Monday night.

There were 261 subscriptions and three memorials, the latter amounting to $30,000. These memorials secured by the memorial committee, were as follows: Mrs. Owen O'Neill, in memory of the late Dr. O'Neill, $12,000, no unit designated; Dr. Michael D. Reardon and Joseph F. Reardon, $3000; one of $15,000 from the children and grandchildren of George and Ella J. Waldo, part of which to be used for the clinic. Additional memorials announced in the totals for the teams were: $3,000, St. Joseph's hospital Alumnae, for the superintendent's rooms; $1,500, from Harry C. Smith, for a ward-bed unit and Eugene L. Lescoe, $1,200, no unit designated, and from William M. Smith $4,300.

In the total reports the ten men's teams of the Willimantic division reported 101 subscriptions for $11,177. The Willimantic women's division reported 133 subscriptions for $6,538 and four surrounding towns including the districts of Windham, South Windham, North Windham and Chaplin, 27 subscriptions for $5,783.

The meeting, which was attended by several hundred enthusiastic men and women workers, opened with a roast beef dinner. General Chairman James B. Fullerton said in his opening remarks that there was every indication of success at the conclusion of the ten-day drive. He called for a show of hands, which revealed that a large percentage of those present had themselves or members of their families had, been hospitalized at some time or other. In the roll call of team captains the team, headed by J. E. Sullivan led the field with four subscriptions totaling $3,200 in the men's division and the team headed by Mrs. John Reilly, led the women with 25 subscriptions for $1,301. In making the announcements for the memorial committee on behalf of Chairman George F. Taylor, Dr. Edward J. Ottenheimer indicated that several additional and substantial memorials were under consideration.

It was announced that the reports of the several other towns within the hospital area, not heard from tonight, will be made at the next meeting to be held in the state armory with a supper at 6:30 o'clock Friday night. Charles L. Folsom, who is conducting the campaign, stated that the total report for the evening with about $20,000 more than he had expected on the basis of his many years experience in hospital drives.

Reports by teams:

1	Louis H. Arnold	11	$1825	1
2	Fred L. Avery	3	65	1
3	Harry S. Gaucher ..	6	535	0
4	James H. Hurley ...	5	760	0
5	Roland B. Jordan ..	9	709	0
6	Harry J. Kaufman ..	29	1300	0
7	Raymond A. Parker .	5	330	0
8	J. E. Sullivan	4	3200	1
9	Stanley J. Sumner ..	11	418	0
10	William B. Sweeney .	18	2235	1
11	Mrs. Carl R. Alford .	7	574	0
12	Mrs. William A. Buck	9	[illegible]	0
13	Mrs. H. B. Cummings and Mrs. H. C. Murray	17	1033	0
14	Mrs. William A. Dawson	16	609	0
15	Mrs. Robert H. Fenton	3	390	0
16	Mrs. Albert J. Fournier	15	276	0
17	Miss Inez Paton	8	395	0
18	Mrs. John Reilly	25	1301	0
19	Mrs. Albert E. Welch	7	522	0
20	Mrs. Clifford E. Williams	16	499	0
	Mansfield
	R. E. Dodge and A. J. Brundage	15	874	0
	Chaplin
	Merritt Welch	5	4620	1
	Windham and So. Windham
	Dr. Frank E. Guild	3	220	0
	North Windham
	E. E. Weeks	4	74	0

COLCHESTER

PLAY BEING REHEARSED BY THE GRANGE

The famous collegiate comedy "Aunt Lucia" is being rehearsed, and will be staged at the Grange hall under the auspices of the Grange.

FITCHVILLE

Miss Helen Lathrop spent the Thanksgiving recess with Mrs. E. E. Lathrop, of Norwich Town.

Mr. and Mrs. William Laputz of Greeneville visited Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Laputz, Sunday.

Miss Mary Lynch has returned from a week's stay in New York.

Mrs. Michael Sullivan and daughter, of New York, spent Thanksgiving with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Kingberger.

Miss Mary Baron was the guest of Miss Alexandria Byscowski, of Norwich, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph and daughter Esther were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gregory, of Plainville, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Armand Dibble and children, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Nadleson were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Schiller, of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fletcher of Norwich were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Dibble.

EAGLEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. George Eaton and daughter spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Linderson entertained Mrs. Hattie Dodge, of Gurleyville for Thanksgiving.

Howard Reynolds of the Bryant-Stratton college in Providence, was home for the holiday and week end and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilcox and son, of Merrow, were Thanksgiving guests at the Reynolds' home.

JEWETT CITY

BREAKS THROUGH ICE— BOY NEARLY DROWNED

Stnley Koziol, one of The Bulletin paper boys, nearly lost his life by drowning about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. He started to walk on the ice on Ashland pond near Carely avenue and when 30 feet from shore broke through. Boys on shore dared not venture on the ice and a hose pipe thrown out did not reach him. Stephen Tenczar and Amedie Demers managed with a clothes line to finally, with great difficulty, draw the boy to shore, as he was so cold he lost hold of the hope twice. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Chase were called from Ashland office and the nearly frozen boy was carried into Stanley Hanson's home, where first aid was administered, and the boy was put to bed. At noon he was taken to his home on Elm street, in a rather weakened condition. There was no ice on the pond Tuesday. Not only is it very dangerous to a person to try thin ice, but it also endangers the lives of others, who try to save the drowning person.

Dr. Allonach's office will be closed all day today.—adv.

ELABORATE SYSTEM OF MISSIONS EXPLAINED

A cobweb party was held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gilbert Tuesday afternoon by the Woman's Mission circle of the Baptist church. Mrs. A. M. Brown introduced Dr. H. R. Bowler, executive secretary of the Board of Missionary Cooperation, impersonated by Mrs. B. R. Gardner. Seated at a central table representing the board, Dr. Bowler explained the co-operative method used by Baptists in support of the denomination under the unified budget. A number of balls of tinsel with one end fastened to the table were unrolled by representatives of the organizations combined under this system.

Mrs. Martin Davis and Mrs. G. H. Prior represented Dr. F. E. Taylor and Mrs. H. E. Goodman, presidents respectively of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary society and the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission society, Mrs. Goodman describing the way in which these two societies supplement each other in their work of extending the Kingdom to the far countries. Mrs. E. M. Gray and Mrs. E. E. Scates as Harvey O. Dobson and Mrs. Caleb Moore, presidents of the American Baptist Home Mission society and the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission society, respectively, with Mrs. Moore speaking, told how those organizations cooperate to evangelize the home field. These two groups held cords of equal length to denote their equality in responsibility.

Mrs. Leonard McBroome, as Miss Mame Brockway, field worker for children, represented the American Baptist Publication society; Mrs. R. A. Wilbur as Miss May Huston, associate secretary of the Board of Missionery Education, represented the Baptist Board of Education; Mrs. John MacLean as Rev. Peter C. Wright, executive secretary of the Ministers' and Missionaries' Benefit board, represented that branch; Mrs. Lewis Hewitt as E. E. Gates, general secretary of the Connecticut Baptist State convention, and Miss Ida I. Foster as Miss Mathilda Brown, of Bethel City Mission, Boston, represented City Mission work, each holding cords of various lengths extending around the room, told something about the particular work done by her department under the unified system.

Mrs. Brown, representing the local church, extended the cord held by the representative of the state convention, explaining the way in which that organization links up the local church with the Northern Baptist convention. She divided a big golden dollar into proportionate parts and presented its share to each organization, showing just how much of each dollar given by Baptists is used for denominational work.

At the close of the program, the 24 women present grouped themselves around a table where they had laid gifts brought for a Christmas box to be sent to a mission station. Mrs. Mary Brewster read a poem, "The Magi and the Fairy Folk," and "O Come, All Ye Faithful" was sung.

Mrs. Gilbert, assisted by Mrs. Nathan Babcock and her daughter, Miss Mildred Gilbert, served tea and cakes.

Local bowling scores, Monday, Dec. 1:

Lucky Strikes Girls

Marie Dufrene	77	61	81	—219
Eva Brisson	76	72	65	—213
Helen Dufrene	72	76	74	—222
Maud Ginsford ...	65	71	69	—205
Estelle Ethier	88	83	91	—262
	378	363	380	—1021

Good Sports Girls

Yvonne Richards..	87	87	71	—245
Alma Labranche .	60	65	54	—179
Marie Hamel	73	71	64	—208
Lillian Lachapelle.	79	90	88	—257
Tina Brenck	79	91	73	—243
	378	404	350	—1032

Have your eyes examined by Dr. C. A. Spear, optometrist; hours, 7 to 9 Friday evening, Anthony block.—adv.

Names to be added to the Red Cross roll include: Mrs. Joseph Rourke, Paul Curtis, Mrs. Bertha Marriott, Miss Mary Baldwin, Mrs. Lawrence Philbrook, Manuel Costa, Mrs. John Sowerbutts, Mrs. P. Z. Curtis, Frank Leyden, William Fogarty, Miss Burkerschroder, A. Gauthier, Lois Gill, Lewis Gill, Ralph Stott, James Babbitt, N. Knasmhira, Helena Griffin.

Able to Leave Hospital

Mrs. Richard Meyer, of New Britain, came Wednesday from Backus hospital, where she has undergone a surgical operation, to the home of her father, E. F. Burleson.

Dr. Allonach is in New York, attending the Dental Manufacturers' exhibition at Hotel Pennsylvania.

Mt. Vernon Officers

The following officers were elected by Mt. Vernon lodge, No. 75, F. and A. M., Tuesday evening: Walter L. Benjamin, worshipful master; Howard Davis, senior warden; R. B. Schmidt, junior warden; Everett H. Hiscox, treasurer; George H. Prior secretary. The other officers are appointive and are named later.

Was Burned in Cabin

Mrs. Ellen Riley, of Mathewson street, went to Shelton Wednesday to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Daniel Riley. He was one of the four hunters burned to death in a cabin at Larkin Pond, East Otis, Mass., Tuesday.

Members of the local American Legion post are renovating the Red Cross chapter room with new paint, curtains and lights. The members are doing the work and the town furnishes the paint, as the room is in the town hall. The Legion occupies half the room. Commander Edgar Knox consulted the officers of the Red Cross, who gladly gave their consent to have the much needed renovation done. Alex McNicol will donate new draperies, and Mrs. Adelard Dufresne will give a double screen to divide the room into two parts.

Lisbon grange meets Friday evening in Community hall. The young folks are to give a short play in connection with the program's other attractive features.

CAPITOL Theatre
Willimantic
— NOW PLAYING —
WILLIAM HAINES in
"Remote Control"

Don't Forget—
Tune In on
National Broadcasting Co.
W-J-Z
Friday Evening 6.15 P.M.
Columbia CYCLES
SANTA CLAUS
and His Gnomies
STEINFELD, inc. 11-13 E. 26th St., New York

Windham, Conn.,
Dec. 3, 1930.

Dear Bob:

Sis and I have agreed to pool our Christmas Club fund and buy mother one of those wonderful new ATWATER KENT RADIOS WITH THE GOLDEN VOICE.

It has the Quick Vision Dial, perfected Tone Control and tremendous Range.

Would you care to join us. The prices are very reasonable. Let me know by return mail.

Your Brother,
TOM.

H. I. PHILLIPS
THE ONLY AUTHORIZED DEALER FOR
Atwater Kent Radio
Capitol Theatre Building, Willimantic
Telephone 1966

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL Co

OUR DAILY SPECIAL

Framed
Pictures—Etchings
49c

Daily Special Priced

New Pictures and Etchings in color make attractive gifts...a large assortment of selected subjects in a neat Bronze frame.. size of frame 5½x7 inches.

ON SALE THURSDAY ONLY

NO MAIL OR TELEPHONE ORDERS.

THE PORTEOUS & MITCHELL Co

Pictorial Patterns make

Christmas Budgets Go Far!

Fabric gifts are always welcomed by friends and acquaintances — Pajamas — Robes — Aprons — Lingerie, Pillows — Scarfs — Frocks for Kiddies and grown-ups as well.

Silk Specials for Useful Gifts

Here are assembled a wonderful selection of the new silks for makeable gifts...at prices much lower than usual for such quality.

36-in. Tub Silk Crepe 59c yd. Tweed designs in Copen, Brown, Navy, Green, Wine, Black and White colorings.

39-in. Smart Rayon Crepe 89c yd. All new floral designs in this season's popular color combinations.

Mid-Winter Print Crepes $1.39 39 inches wide, washable, small spaced designs on novelty woven effects. Wines, Browns, Greens, Blacks, Blues.

39-in. New Canton Crepes $1.69 Also Satin Face Crepes for Blouses, Dresses and Lingerie in Street and evening shades.

39-in. Japanese Printed Crepe $1.00 For Kimonos and Pajamas in floral designs on Red and Black grounds.

39-in. All Silk Crepe $1.00 In shades of Pink, Turquoise Blue, Red, Peach, Orchid, Beige, Navy, Brown, White and Black.

BLACK VELVETEEN, 36 inches wide, for Dresses, Coats, Suits—Special, yard $1.19

BLACK TRANSPARENT VELVET, 39 inches wide, for Dresses, Evening Wraps, etc.—Spec. yd. $2.95

Gift Dress Patterns Daintily Boxed

at 79c box Lovely Percales in 3 different designs with latest apron pattern for making.

at $1.00 box 4-yard Patterns, Honor-dress Percales. A choice of any style or color.

at $1.59 box 4-Yard Dress Patterns, Voiles, Dimities, Printed Lawns, Rayons, Linens, etc.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT
Features
The Genuine
Fluffy Imported
ANGORA BERET
The Regular $2.95 Quality
1.95
Each one packed in an attractive Christmas Box.
In every conceivable bright color as well as the darker shades.
For the Miss and Growing Children

NOW IN PROGRESS
Annual MarkDown Sale
of Women's Apparel
..At Drastic Reductions..

Extra Special for Thursday!
Winter Coats
Richly Furred with Luxurious Pelts
Formerly Priced to $58.00 $36.00

This group includes all the outstanding Fabrics and Furs, and the latest smart details—Novel Collar and Cuff treatments — Flared and straight line models in all sizes.

SANTA CLAUS
Will Arrive
Saturday, Dec. 6th

DANIELSON

CORONER SAYS DOYLE'S DEATH DUE TO MAN BEING CONFUSED

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 3.—While the finding in the case is not complete, Coroner Arthur G. Bill said this afternoon that testimony taken at the inquest indicates that Patrick E. Doyle, who was killed by a New Haven road gasoline car at Willimantic last Friday evening, evidently lost his life through becoming confused. It appears that he was walking between two tracks when he heard the car coming and that he stepped aside to allow the car to pass, but stepped toward the track on which the car was running, instead of away from it. He is said to have been walking at the edge of the ties when he was struck.

Local attorneys and state officers who were in court at Willimantic yesterday when Judge Newell S. Jennings summarily ordered Attorney Michael Pedro from the court room for good and sufficient reasons were still thrilled today by the incident. It is regarded as unparalleled in court experiences in Windham county, yet attorneys and state officers are agreed that it was a wholly proper procedure.

Pedro was attorney for Anthony L. Peters, one of the silver bandits, and misrepresented himself as also being counsel for Joseph Cardoza, another of the bandits.

A suggestion heard this morning was to the effect that it would be nice if as many of the people of Danielson as possible would drop at least one cent a day in the receptacles that are about town to receive money with which to buy Christmas cheer for the deserving needy here. Giving a cent a day up to Christmas eve would entail an expenditure of only 20 cents per person, but what a whale of a difference it would make in the size of that fund! Even children could assist to boost it in this manner. There are many, of course, who are annually liberal toward this charity and will continue to be. The objective of the penny-a-day suggestion is to make the giving more widespread.

This afternoon at the A. F. Wood funeral home on Mechanic street, services for Mrs. Ellen White were conducted by Rev. Albert Abbott of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial was in the Bartlett cemetery at East Killingly. Friends were bearers.

Automobile registrations for 1931 continue to arrive here day by day, but there isn't anything to indicate that the same rush for them that has marked the end of December for several years past will be avoided this year. Hundreds of car owners in Killingly have not as yet made application for renewals. However, as is a regular practice with some, numbers of cars will go into storage on Jan. 1 until next spring.

To correct an impression that numbers of people here appear to have gathered, it may be stated that Danielson and other Windham county news that appears in The Norwich Sunday Record is not reprinted in Monday's Bulletin. The Sunday Record's Windham county news service is exclusively its own and is fresher than any other such news service available.

In the open season that closed more than a fortnight ago hunters did not utterly deplete the supply of wild game birds in this territory. Within the past week fox hunters and others who have been afield are telling of seeing numbers of pheasants, including males, and quite a few partridges. Quail, on which there has been an uninterrupted closed season for several years, continue to increase in numbers in nearby territory.

The public will have its first opportunity to inspect the new Masonic temple on Broad street Thursday evening when members of the Order of Amaranth are to be the hostesses. The enlarged and improved temple only recently has been completed.

Operators here of fleets of public service cars read with interest this morning of the conference of Putnam owners of similar cars and the agreement they have entered into as to rates. Danielson has a uniform rate for service by all such cars, the starting charge being 20 cents for trips within certain well-defined areas.

Here's a bit of information especially for the teachers of the town, but likely to be of general interest, showing how teaching salaries have increased in this town from what they used to be in the long, long ago. Winthrop E. Short has come into possession of a slip of paper, a receipt, signed by his uncle, Levi Short, back before the Civil war. In effect it says: "Received from Fenner Burlingame, $56 for teaching in the No. 5 district, Westfield society, school for four months during the winter 1857-1858." Now, that's on a basis of $14 a month, and who would teach for that amount of money in this day and age?

Grangers from all the territory of Quinebaug Pomona grange, No. 2, will assemble at the hall of Wolf Den grange in Abington next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock for the last meeting of the year. At the morning session there will be reports by officers and election of officers. Dinner is to be served at noon by the members of Wolf Den grange. The lecturer's program will open at 1:30, and will include literary and musical numbers as time permits.

Various matters of interest to the organization will be taken up by delegates from American Legion posts in Windham and Tolland counties when a district (No. 4) meeting is held here in the town hall Sunday afternoon. For the first time on such an occasion in Danielson there will be a short parade of the delegates, each post represented by a color guard, and the parade escorted by the Rockville post drum corps.

A. Putnam Woodward, chief of Danielson's fire department, has long been known to his many friends as "Put," but when the chief received a communication by mail this morning from one of the best known weekly publications in the country, the envelope addressed to Put Woodward, he was curious to know, how come? The letter was mailed in New York by the publishers referred to.

Supt. W. E. Parker of the schools in Killingly and Brooklyn is indisposed, but it is anticipated will be his usual active self by the first of the week.

Friday afternoon of this week members of the Civic federation are to meet in the community room of the Brooklyn Savings bank building.

Don't forget to make your deposit in our savings department. Deposits made on or before Dec. 5 will draw interest from Dec. 1. The Danielson Trust Co.—adv.

Kind-hearted Danielson men were seeking today for information relative to a poor family with a view to supplying milk and other foods that a difficult situation may be cleared up.

The time narrows for paying personal taxes. A considerable number of the hundreds of Killingly people liable for this tax have not paid it as yet.

Of interest to those who watch freight trains as they wait to get over the Main street crossing here is the carloads of Christmas trees now being hauled south for delivery in large eastern cities from northern New England points.

Miss Aurise Gregoire of Holyoke is visiting with relatives and friends in Danielson for a few days.

All the rain of the fall notwithstanding, inadequate supplies of water continue to be reported from some of the farming sections in nearby territory. Conditions are better than they were, but not normal as yet.

This morning, Nialford LaPrise of Elmville came into the town court and pleaded guilty to stealing a rabbit from the coop of his co-tenant, the incident happening during the severe storm of last Sunday night. Judge W. Fenner Woodward imposed a fine of $10 and costs.

Christmas seals are beginning to make their appearance on letters going through the Danielson post office.

Building projects underway at California state hospitals and homes for women total $1,983,000.

THIRD MAN IN SILVER BANDIT CASE SURRENDERS TO POLICE

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 3.—Another chapter in the "silver bandit" case was being written into the record here late this afternoon and this evening, and will have at least a semi-sequel in the Killingly town court Thursday morning when Manuel Silva, 22, of Providence, walks in there and listens to the charges that will be filed against him.

Silva, who has a police record, surrendered, by pre-arrangement, at the office of State Attorney Howard C. Bradford in Putnam this afternoon, and immediately thereafter was taken into custody by Lieut. Ross V. Urquhart and State Officer Royal V. Scranton of the Danielson barracks, where he was being held tonight in default of bail. Just what Silva's connection is with the holdup of a truck loaded with silver bullion early one Monday, several weeks ago at South Killingly, was not clear tonight, but it is taken for granted that there is something to it in view of the fact that he made an arranged surrender from another state this afternoon at the state attorney's office in Putnam. It may also be made a part of the record that he came to Putnam with Attorney Michael Pedro of Providence, the lawyer that was unceremoniously chased out of the superior court in Willimantic yesterday by Judge Newell S Jennings, in such an affair as has not previously been seen in any tribunal of justice hereabouts. Attorney Pedro appears to be a favorite with the boys involved, or alleged to be, in the "silver bandit" case, for he bobbed up again, serenely, this afternoon. However, when Manuel Silva appears in the Killingly court tomorrow morning he will be represented by Attorney Harry E. Back of this town, and, presumably, Lawyer Pedro will be sitting on the sidelines.

There was to be read between the lines tonight a real story as to why this Silva youngster walked in and surrendered in a case where a holdup charge with violence was filed against two of his alleged companions in the superior court at Willimantic Tuesday, one of them pleading guilty, the other feinting, but with both drawing long sentences in the state prison at Wethersfield. What that story is state officers or others in the know were not telling anyone tonight. Nevertheless, here's your Silva—you could work that around to silver, without trying too hard—giving himself up and, through counsel, agreeing to battle it out with the state of Connecticut as to what should be done with him in this affair. It appears, unofficially, that Silva has been chased around so much since that holdup over in the eastern part of this town that he has just decided to come in and have it out with the law. That's a point in his favor. It may be that he wins out. Yet, he rates a youth who is alleged to have no particular occupation and has a record of assault with a dangerous weapon and, previously, has been charged with breaking and entering. There are many here and hereabouts that will be mightily interested to see what the state is supposed to have on him and what he has to say for himself when he meets up with Judge W. Fenner Woodward and Prosecuting Attorney Arthur G. Bill, and the state's witnesses in the town court in the morning.

From any angle, that raid on the silver-laden truck has got a considerable lot of persons in a jam.

DAYVILLE

Albert Rollinson and Charles Weeks were visitors Sunday at the home of Fred Marsden, of Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bruton and family were in Woonsocket Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. LaFollett.

Lumbering in Stonington

Frank W. Hart and his son-in-law Mr. Coffin, have left town to engage in lumber operations at Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. LaForte of Hartford, were visitors Sunday evening at Frank W. Hart's.

The Missionary society of the Congregational church is to meet this (Thursday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bruton. Miss Cora Cogswell will conduct the lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pierce are moving from Putnam to Danielson where they will occupy the cottage on the Ernest Warren estate. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, until recently, were residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gingras are occupying the upper apartment in the house owned by John O'Neil and recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Edmonston.

The Tuesday Night Bridge club was entertained this week by Mrs. Orrin Alvord. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Parkin and Mrs. Herman Steinbough.

Percy Greig of Springfield, Vermont, is visiting at the home of his brother, N. Lorne Greig.

Mrs. Mary Street is confined to her home because of illness.

MOOSUP

The third whist party in a series of five, arranged by the American Legion for the airplane markers, at the Franco-American hall, was held Monday evening, with thirty tables at play. The prizes were won by Mrs. Esther Caron, $2.50 in gold, Miss Eva Lafleur, silk hose; Miss Blanche Leblanc bottle of perfume, Mrs. Boisse. Gentlemen: Lorren A. Wainwright of Canterbury, $2.50 in gold; L. Labeau, bottle of Lucky Tiger; third, A. Angel of Canterbury, playing cards; J. Davis of Canterbury. The door award went to Margaret Levesque, $3 in merchandise; Bernard Caron, Jr., 3 lbs. coffee; Dona Dupuis, $4 in merchandise; Alice Lyons, set of knives and forks; Wilfred Jette, $2 in merchandise; Doris Messier, bottle of hair dressing; Jerry Coady, $1 in merchandise; Mrs. Napoleon Fournier, boudoir doll. The merchants who donated the prizes are: Grenier store, D. MacArthur, Lavallie and Brennan, Champagne store, Goldberg Bros., Rene Arsenault, Lloyd; A. & P., E. E. Dupuis, Corner Fruit store, Stephen Johnson, Despathy's, Mrs. Beausoloiel, Joseph Goyette, Marchessault Bros., Zimmerman's Market, Cwynar's, Wm. Heywood, Frank Bernard, Jimmie's Station, Henry Lecraw, Alfred Champagne, Urgle Lafrance, Collins Co., Leo Potvin, Chas Robitaille, Smith and Bessette Lillian shop, Fred Wellman, Miss M. G. Smith, Emily Beauty shop, H. Jette, Fred Faucher, Gelinas, Allard's shop, American Bakery, Beaumis store, Bodo's store, F. X. Desaulnier and Son, Dupuis Mart, The Misses Dore, Downyflake shop, Keystone Cleaners, King's Station, A. Lantagne, Larouse's store, Cas' Market, Moosup Shoe Hospital, C. D. Salisbury and Sons, Steinman Bros., First National stores.

Kenneth Chase is ill with tonsilitis.

New electric pumps are being erected at Jimmie's station.

John Lyons and daughter of Webster were Sunday callers here where they formerly lived.

There was a bowling match Tuesday evening between Moosup Methodists and the Wauregan Congregationals.

Mrs. Rose Symington and Mrs. Mitchell Bressette of Jewett City, were recent callers on Mr. and Mrs. Noble Symington.

Albert Gallup who has been ill with quinsey sore throat is better and is able to attend school again.

NO. GROSVENORDALE

REV. LEO LAVALLEE IS PRESENTED FINE GIFT

Rev. Leo Lavallee, curate at St. Joseph's church, was given a pleasant surprise Sunday evening when presented a confessional robe by the Children of Mary sodality. The presentation was made by Miss Rita Morin at a special meeting of the society. The handsome gift was given in recognition of all Rev. Father Lavallee has done for the sodality since coming here two years ago when he was made their spiritual leader.

Educational Night was observed Tuesday at the Pomona Quinnatisset grange, Thompson. The program was furnished by Tourtellotte Memorial High school pupils, under supervision of W. G. Colby, superintendent of the town schools. Miss Mack, instructor in the domestic science department, directed a playlet, "Take Our Advice," with proper food and clothing as its theme. The play was given by Louise Pottee as Mrs. Green, Birdie Fitzgibbon as Mrs. Jones, Mae Whitney as Mrs. Brown. The commercial department was represented by a shorthand and typing demonstration with Miss Sybil Gilman director. Miss Mary Brew dictated, with Phyllis Nelson and Martha Strand transcriber and typist, respectively. Misses Strand and Nelson have a record of 70 to 80 words a minute in transcribing shorthand.

Miss Eleanor Quigley, of the science department, had Eleanor Brayton give an explanation of the construction and working of an ice plant, while Carl Langer explained how different elements may be detected, with demonstrations. Miss Grace Hussey, of the English department, had as her contribution the recitation of "Casey at the Bat" by Sara Rhodes and the reading of a number from the school sheet, "The Tourtellotte Eye," by the editor, Martha Strand. The musical program was under the leadership of Miss Dorothy B. Roy and Miss Ruth Elliott, and comprised three numbers, a solo, "Anchored," by Wade Chubbuck; "Little Boy Blue," musical recitation, by James Demetry, and "Constant Christmas," by an eighth grade sextet of girls. Miss Helen Sparrow, mathematics instructor, had Helen Greene give a paper on the "Origin of Numbers." Miss Marion Mellican had Eleanor Brayton give a monolog, "The Street Car Conductor and the Deaf Lady." The Senior Student council was represented by Phyllis Nelson, who gave a paper on "School Responsibility," and the Junior High Student council was represented by Birdie Fitzgibbon.

Miss Thyra I. Walker attended the funeral of Herbert Smith at Putnam Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Josephat Therrien entertained guests from Woonsocket recently.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will be guests of Mrs. N. Verne Rawson this afternoon.

A Well Child conference will be held Friday afternoon in the local Emergency hospital from 2 to 4 o'clock.

The military gardes of Union St. Jean Baptist participated in a prize drill at Southbridge town hall and brought home second honors. Garde St. Therese, captained by Miss Annette Harpin, captured second prize with the Lynn team coming in first. Garde Martial was captained by Adelard Therrin, who has done much to bring numerous honors which the garde has received since he has been captain.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hill, of Thompson, entertained Mrs. Perry of Leominster the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Covell have returned after spending Thanksgiving and the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Comain at Gardner, Mass.

Miss Cecile Desauiniers, teacher at Willimantic, is recovering from illness at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Desauiniers.

George Roche has returned to his studies at Tuffts Medical school after spending the holiday and week end with his mother, Mrs. Emil Roche.

Tourtellotte Memorial H. S. is to give an educational program at the annual education night at Quinnatisset Pomona grange at Thompson tonight. All departments of the high school will be represented.

ONECO

Joseph Hawkins, Jr., of New York, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hawkins.

John Brewin has had a perfect attendance record for for three years ending last June. The perfect attendance record for November in the school follows: Grades 5 to 8, Mildred Kelley, teacher; John Brewin, Norman Bunning, Longen Chmura, Woodrow Remington, Jesse Rose, Lawrence Rose, Albert Sweet, Helen Dunay, Dorothy Love, Ethel Marriott, Gertrude Marriott, Ethel Henderson.

Grades 1 to 4, Agnes Innerasky, teacher: Phyllis Lincoln, Loretta Young, Florence Holt, Edith Remington, Rita Sweet, Veronica Brewin, Virginia Lincoln, Emma Sherman, Elouise Cole, Rita Sherman, James Tyler, James Dixon, Raymond Sweet, Gilbert Marriott, Milton Remington.

PUTNAM

COUNCIL VOTES TO BUY NEW SIGNS FOR STREETS

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 3.— At its meeting Tuesday night the city council transacted municipal business for a two month period, inasmuch as the November meeting, because of a lack of quorum early in the month, was adjourned to the first Tuesday in December. Mayor Charles A. Richard presided. Several building permits were granted and the police department reports for the months of October and November indicated that there had been a total of 31 arrests performed during that period. Of the amount of fines and costs imposed in city court during the two months, assessments collected amounted to $140.75, the reports showed.

A check for $40 was presented to the council by Alderman E. J. Migneault of the highway committee who reported the sale of one of the street department's wagons. Mr. Migneault said the draft represented the proceeds of the transaction.

The highway committee in reporting the need of a new street scraper was authorized to satisfactorily dispose of the present one, should the opportunity arise. The committee also was instructed to secure prices of a new scraper to replace the present one which has outlived its usefulness.

By a majority vote of the council, the highway committee has been authorized to purchase at a cost of $891.80, approximately 100 aluminum street signs to replace the present weather beaten and unreadable directors. The decision to purchase the new street sign equipment was reached after some discussion. Alderman David Breault was of the opinion that the more sturdy appearing model which did not meet the favor of the highway committee should be selected because of its more impressive design. Other members of the council shared the views of Mr. Breault but at length changed their opinions and approved the highway committee's recommendation. The signs purchased are an attractive aluminum plate model with black raised letters. They will be supported on iron rods which will be cemented into the streets. Members of the council are pleased over their selection and the chamber of commerce members are elated over the fact that action on this long hanging matter has at last been taken.

It was reported last night that the city's guide for aviators which is the big sign on the roof of the Union block reading "Putnam," has been obliterated by workmen who are engaged in repairing a greater part of the large surface. It was suggested that the sign be repainted, but owing to the cost entailed and the fact that considerable work on the building remains to be done, the council at the suggestion of Mayor Richard, agreed to let the matter wait until spring when steps to retouch the guide will be taken.

A vote to install a light on Mill and Dean streets was passed. Alderman Chadwick of the resolutions committee read a paper of resolutions on the death of Fire Chief Ralph E. Thurston.

A vote to purchase boots, hats and coats to equip each member of the fire department was passed. The motion was entered by Alderman Ames of the fire committee.

Owners of the local taxi cab companies who yesterday agreed to a uniform revisal of service rates have expressed satisfaction at the newly adopted schedule of fares which was drawn up Tuesday morning at a meeting of all city taxi men and A. S. Gates, superintendent of the bus and taxi division of the state public utilities commission. James B. Tatem, owner of the City Taxi company, which is the city's largest public service transportation concern, said today that the outstanding feature of the new rate is the fact that it will enable the taxi owners to give their patrons a safer ride at only a few cents more than the present cost which is wholly unreasonable and unfair to the cab owners, who endeavor to maintain the most modern equipment, conforming at all times to the stiff requirements of the state commission and to retain only drivers of the experienced and careful type.

The South Main Street Twenty-Cent Taxi company, owned by Arthur Dupre, the single insurgent, has not as yet allied itself with the unionized rate concerns who have signed to adopt the new rates on December 8. The Dupre owned service has signed for the adoption of a different rate which on the face appears lower than those to be charged by members of the taxi union, but which in reality is higher. According to the statement Dupre signed yesterday, after Dec. 8 a local rate of 20 cents for one passenger and 10 cents for each additional passenger will be initiated. Compared with the rates of the allied companies on the basis of a three passenger trip, the Dupre cabs would charge 40 cents as compared with the 85-cent charge of the Tatem, Auclair and Putnam Taxi companies.

Members of the Putnam Rotary club were entertained during the social session of their weekly meeting and luncheon held at the Putnam inn today, with a stereopticon showing of postcards of interesting points visited by Rotarian Otto B. Hermansen during his tour of Sweden last summer. Mr. Hermansen arranged the novel entertainment which was well received by a delighted audience.

The condition of Myron Perry, senior student at Putnam high school and son of Mrs. Edith Perry of Grove street, was reported as slightly improved today by officials at the Day Kimball hospital where the boy is a patient. Perry is suffering from an inflammation of the head. It was said today by relatives that the boy's illness, which is of a serious nature, was not brought on from a blow received during a football game, as was at first supposed.

Several automobile owners have received from the state motor vehicle department 1931 sets of number plates which become effective on January 1. The new year's markers are of an attractive color scheme of maroon background with white numerals. For commercial vehicles the same colors will be employed but in the reversed stage.

Holidays!

Ready even if holiday ACUTE INDIGESTION should strike? You ARE ready with Bell-ans.

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

Getting Your Money's Worth

A&P ESTABLISHED 1859 WHERE ECONOMY RULES

is a habit easily formed at A & P Stores. A & P customers soon find out that while spending less they are getting more.

That's because A & P gives consumers all the savings that come from its large operations.

BUTTER SILVERBROOK OR TUB 2 LBS 69c
SUGAR FINE GRANULATED 10 LBS 51c
POTATOES 15 LBS 29c
Double Tip Matches 6 PKGS 17c
Palmolive Soap 5 CAKES 29c
Whitehouse Milk TALL 3 CANS 23c
Gorton's Codfish PKG 23c
Quaker Maid Beans 4 NO. 2 CANS 25c
A & P Corn 2 CANS 25c
Mello-wheat PKG 17c
Pillsbury's Bran PKG 16c

CHIPSO lge pkg 20c
VIRGINIA SWEET SYRUP bot 23c
VIRGINIA SWEET PANCAKE FLOUR pkg 11c
VIRGINIA SWEET BUCKWHEAT FLOUR pkg 14c
A & P SUCCOTASH can 21c
PRINCE ALBERT TOBACCO 2 cans 25c
FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST cake 3c
SCOT TISSUE roll 10c
SULTANA MOLASSES gal jug $1.19
ALL GUMS 8 pkgs 25c
CHAMPION FLAKE BUTTERS lb tin 18c
A&P PEARS no. 2½ can 23c

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

MEAT MARKET SPECIALS

POT ROAST Boneless Chuck lb 25c
FACE RUMP A Lean Meat Roast lb 35c
Fancy Undercut A Clear Meat Roast lb 35c
PRIME RIB Always Good lb 29-33c
SIRLOIN ROLL Boneless lb 45c
CHICKENS Fancy Milk Fed 5 lb size lb 39c
FOWL Fancy Milk Fed 4-5 lb size lb 35c
LAMB LEGS Genuine Spring lb 29c
LAMB FORES Genuine Spring lb 15c
SHOULDERS Fresh Eastern Cut lb 17c
SAUSAGE MEAT Freshly Made lb 29c

FRESH FRUITS & VEGETABLES

Grapes Emperor 2 lbs 15c Celery 2 bch 25c
Onions 8 lbs 15c Cabbage 4 lbs 9c
FLORIDA ORANGES Size 250's doz 29c

COFFEE
BOKAR LB TIN 33c
RED CIRCLE LB 29c
EIGHT O CLOCK LB 25c

ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

A & P FOOD STORES OF NEW ENGLAND

1796 1930

Norwich Bulletin
Norwich Courier

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 35-R
Bulletin Job Room 35-W
Willimantic Office
Jordan Block, Lincoln Square, Phone 1131-2.

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

140 YEARS OLD

Members of The Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein.
All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Thursday, Dec. 4, 1930

EIGHTH STREET CROSSING

It is gratifying to learn that the signal system which has been erected for the protection of the highway users at the Eighth street crossing is once more working correctly and able to meet the tests of experts.

This is, of course, only what should be expected. Unfortunately there has been more trouble with the signal at this crossing than usually accompanies a change from one system to another and this is made all the worse because of the dangerous character of the crossing. Those going to the east at that point have no way of seeing in either direction. They are going down a sharp pitch which terminates at the rails and even if it were possible to stop, look and listen at that point there would be difficulty in seeing much of the rail line, as it bends in both directions. Coming from the east highway, users have a partial view to the north, but the south is quite as much of a blank as both directions are when going the other way.

While there is no heavy traffic at this crossing it constitutes one of the city's really dangerous ones. There is little opportunity for highway users there to guard against trouble and for such a place to be protected by a signal system that goes wrong periodically is a travesty on safety.

We are forced to believe that the experience with the system at Eighth street cannot represent average efficiency for such protection or it could never get the recommendation that it has. There has been a series of defects that has been contrary to expectations and directly opposite to requirements. Local experience, therefore, has not been of the kind that makes a favorable impression or inspires confidence. Possibly as time goes on the picture will change. It is to be hoped so, for none can regard lightly the possibility of driving in front of a locomotive or plunging into its side just because reliance is placed upon a signal which registers safety when it means danger, or vice versa.

It is to be sincerely hoped that the system has been put in shape so that it will last and there will be no more trouble with it, but if users of that crossing are inclined to exercise more than the usual amount of caution there can be no surprise. It may take some time and continued proof to effect a restoration of their faith in it.

THE BUDGET NOTE

Caution was the word that President Hoover held before congress as he presented his message to congress concerning the 1932 budget. He went into a careful explanation of the indicated excess of expenditures over revenue for this fiscal year, and, regardless of the probable deficit, he advocated emergency appropriations to take care of unemployment conditions, but it his belief that such ought not to cover more than a period of six months.

Further than that, he showed where larger appropriations might be expected for the next fiscal year, but under the estimated income he anticipates the government will be able to go through with a small surplus. It is in this respect that he urges caution for, while the situation with the indicated deficit for this year may be safely and easily met, he warns against piling up appropriations which will be the cause of a deficit the year following. The conditions which are responsible for the indicated deficit this year are not to be expected a year hence, but the danger of putting the government in a hole through extravagance under such conditions needs to be recognized and guarded against.

Well does the president direct attention to the fact that the budgets for the past 11 years have produced large surpluses, and these surpluses have been wisely employed in cutting down the national debt with the accompanying reduction in the annual interest account. The wisdom of such action can be fully appreciated as we look backward. It was the advice of those in charge of the nation's finances that the debt reduction should be carried on as rapidly as possible while funds were easily obtainable. Others voiced a different sentiment and favored bigger government appropriations or increased tax reduction. During the year, in order to help the economic situation, the 1 per cent cut in income taxes was voted. It was special action, which present-day conditions show cannot be continued. That cut cannot be carried on another year and had the employment of surpluses for larger appropriations and larger tax cuts been resorted to our debt would today be much greater, our annual interest account much larger and a boosting of federal taxes might easily be faced.

The president's calls for a safe and sane meeting of the present-day situation and it is a plea that is fully justified.

THE RECKLESS MOTORIST

While a case which was recently decided by the United States supreme court directly concerned the District of Columbia, it nevertheless has a bearing upon the entire country and is bound to get widespread attention. This was a case which had to do with reckless driving and the question as to whether it should be regarded as a minor offense and be disposed of by the court without jury trial, or as a crime which, under the Constitution, entitles the accused to trial by jury.

According to the supreme court's decision, the opinion being written by Justice Sutherland, the motor vehicle was termed a potentially dangerous instrumentality and when a person drives a car recklessly his offense becomes more than mere negligence; he displays an obvious depravity. The highest court's decision upheld the decision of the lower court.

Thus there is warning given to those who harbor the idea that they can drive autos recklessly, causing all kinds of trouble possibly and expect that they will escape by paying a fine and getting a lecture, even though they may have been the means of causing death or seriously maiming someone.

When reckless driving cases are brought into court in large numbers it means the docket can be quickly cleared if they can be disposed of otherwise than by jury trials. It aids in speeding up the work of the courts but the supreme court decision sets forth that such cases cannot be regarded as minor offenses. It holds that they constitute a crime calling for jury trial and penalization in keeping with criminal offenses when verdicts of guilty are brought in.

In view of the heavy death toll from automobiles, though not all of them can be charged up to the reckless driving of automobile operators, this decision is of great importance. It will have its bearing in connection with the handling of reckless driving cases and if such a thing is possible it should cause some real serious reflection upon the part of motor vehicle drivers who have been leaning toward recklessness when they thought they could get away with it.

WHAT TREES DO

Droughts constitute problems quite the same as floods. How to prevent both has caused much study and, strange as it may seem, the answer has been forthcoming that what is good for one is likewise good for the other.

One solution of the problem lies in the planting of trees. Where watersheds have been denuded of trees there has been removed one of the means of holding the moisture in the soil. The rains have coursed down the hillsides and run off where during the wooded period they were held in the ground and gradually made their way into the brooks and streams. Thus, for the protection of watersheds and for the purpose of controlling floods to some degree, the planting of trees has been resorted to with favorable results.

As for the relief of drought, Nebraska has had experience in the planting of trees which furnishes strong evidence of the value of such action. Some years ago that state was seriously lacking in trees. It was likewise experiencing only light rainfalls. Advice was given that tree planting be adopted. It was, and in place of a treeless state 50 years ago it now boasts of the fact that it has two billion and a half, and where it was getting a meager rainfall there has been a steady increase until now the state brags of 30 inches and points with pride to the fact that while other states were burning up under the drought of the past summer Nebraska came through with large crops of grain, vegetables and other farm products.

Nebraska may have had as much trouble in getting its people interested in tree planting some years ago as other states are having now, but it is safe to say that its experiences have been such that no one turns his nose up to the idea any more.

PORTO RICAN AID

On repeated occasions since he was named governor of Porto Rico, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has called attention to conditions in the island and the need that exists for assistance. He has done this following careful surveys and his reports have been backed up by investigations conducted by philanthropic organizations.

Now Colonel Roosevelt comes out with the statement that the United States is neglecting the Porto Ricans and insists that instead of treating them like step-children they should be regarded as "members of the family."

Governor Roosevelt is giving conscientious heed to his responsibilities and he is losing no opportunities to get the attention of the country centered upon the conditions that prevail in the island and the need for doing something in the way of relief. It is to be expected that the island government will consider well its duty and do its utmost in meeting the situation, but back of that there is opportunity for support and encouragement on the part of this government.

Conditions in Porto Rico are not what they should be. Some of the fault may be attributed to Porto Rico itself, but with its thoughts and efforts turned away from conditions of other days, with the people a part of the citizens of the United States quite the same as other islands in our possession and with the need firmly established it is no more than should be expected that the matter is kept to the front. Whatever needs to be done there can be accomplished quicker and with vastly greater benefit to the island if vigorously undertaken now than by delaying until some future time, and from different sources reports agree that there is much that should be done.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The man on the corner says: Keeping in a rut is all right provided you make it yourself.

Cold weather should be a reminder that there is real danger in venturing on thin ice, in addition to a cold plunge.

In looking about for a new short history writer for the Rushmore mountain memorial, the commission continues to ignore Gutzon Borglum.

Some feel that the world court protocols will precipitate an extra session. But if that isn't sufficient perhaps the Wickersham report will suffice.

A parrot in the St. Louis zoo has been sold because it uses shocking language. Another case of being ordered out of town to practice on others.

NORWICH MAN FIRST PASTOR OF PLAINFIELD CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, 225 YEARS OLD

In connection with its 225th anniversary observed last Sunday by the First Congregational church of Plainfield, The Bulletin correspondent gives a brief historical sketch of that society. As supplementary to this resume, which laid stress on dates rather than on personalities, an article is herewith republished that describes the careers of those whose lives went into the upbuilding of the Plainfield church. The article first appeared in The Bulletin of March 30, 1915:

Was Third Church in County

The First Congregational church of Plainfield was organized and the first pastor, the Rev. Joseph Coit, whom the society called from Norwich, was ordained Jan. 3, 1705. Mr. Coit had been preaching in the Quinebaug plantation (what is now Canterbury and Plainfield) since their first town meeting in 1699.

This was the first church of Christ in the town of Plainfield, the third in Windham county and the 37th in the colony. It numbered 10 men, and the two deacons were William Douglass and Jacob Warren. This church included Canterbury until June 11, 1711, when a church was formed in that town.

The first meeting house was built by the town on the top of Black hill, near a crossing place of the Quinebaug river, convenient for the inhabitants of the entire plantation, but after the Canterbury church was formed it was voted to build "by the country road that goes from north to south end of the town," about half a mile north of the present church. The second house of worship was ready for use in September, 1720.

Norwich Man Pastor 49 Years

Rev. Mr. Coit resigned as pastor in 1748 and died here in 1750, aged 77, after devoting 49 years to this people. The second pastor, Rev. David P. Rowland, served the church faithfully from 1748 to 1761.

Rev. John Fuller served from 1769 to 1777, and he drew the separates back to the old church home and was pastor over a united people until his death, Oct. 3, 1777.

A third meeting house was built in 1784 on the spot where the present church stands. Dec. 22 of that year Rev. Joel Benedict became pastor and continued to serve until his death, which occurred at the Benedict parsonage (the old Wing house now occupied by William Adams) Feb. 13, 1816.

This church was laid in ruins by the gale of Sept. 23, 1815.

Ten days after the disaster, steps were taken to build the present church on the same spot. This church was opened for use before the installation of Rev. Orin Fowler in 1820, but the galleries on three sides and the steeple were not finished until the following year. The first Sunday school in Plainfield was held in White Hall schoolhouse (now the cottage occupied by Dan Brown) and was taught by Mrs. Elkanah C. Eaton and her sister, Miss Martha Smith. In the spring of 1820 the Sunday school in the church was started. While Mr. Fowler was pastor here he built for himself the house now owned by Edward Pike.

From April, 1832, to April, 1841, Rev. Samuel Rockwell was a pastor here. During his ministry the church experienced a revival of religion. Mr. Rockwell married for his second wife, Elizabeth Saton, daughter of Colonel Elkanah C. Eaton.

Married One of 14 Daughters

From 1842 to 1847 the pastor was Rev. Andrew Dunning, who, while here, married Ruth Coit, one of the 14 daughters of Roger Coit. Early in his ministry a revival of religion refreshed the church and a number united, 41 in two years. March 2, 1846, 45 members were dismissed with expressions of Christian love and sympathy to form the church at Central Village.

Rev. Henry Robinson was installed here April 14, 1847, and remained till April 10, 1856. Mr. Robinson was a grave, calm, man, but he was sympathetic and had a fund of humor. In his audience were about 20 Chickasaw Indians, then students at Plainfield academy.

In 1857, Rev. William A. Benedict, one of the principals of Plainfield academy, became pastor here. His wife, who was Eliza W. Eaton of Plainfield, died during his pastorate here and at the outbreak of the rebellion Mr. Benedict accepted an appointment as missionary agent of the American Tract society for work in the army and among the freedmen. Few records are found of the ministry of Rev. Joshua L. Maynard from March 30, 1864, to Oct. 25, 1885.

For a year and a half, during 1867-8, Rev. James D. Moore was pastor of both the "stone church" at Plainfield and the church at Central Village. The society had provided for Mr. Moore and subsequent pastors a convenient parsonage at a cost of $1,500.

Rev. William Phipps was the beloved pastor here from June 9, 1869, till his death here June 13, 1876, at the age of 63 years.

In July of 1869, Mrs. Mary Ann Tracy, wife of Rev. Hiram A. Tracy, presented the church an elegant communion service.

Rev. Wilcox Died in Norwich

Rev. Asher H. Wilcox, who died a few weeks ago at Norwich, was here from 1876 to 1883 and was one of the best loved pastors. During his pastorate the church was remodeled and in June 28, 1877, the society voted to give the Ladies' Aid society, organized that same year, liberty to fit up and complete the basement of the church for religious and social services.

Rev. A. J. Quick was pastor here from June, 1883, to Dec. 30, 1887. During his pastorate the church issued a revision of the form of admission, prepared during the pastorate of his predecessor.

A Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized here Dec. 19, 1886, with five members. The officers were: President, Charles F. Burgess (now of Moosup); vice president, Miss Ellen B. Lynch; secretary and treasurer, Miss Sarah E. Francis; lookout committee, Miss Mary E. Averill and Miss Ellen B. Lynch.

The 15th pastor, Rev. Henry T. Arnold, now of Norwich, came to Plainfield in 1887. In 1890, through the munificence of William Kinne, A. M., an addition was made to the parsonage of a library building, affording the pastor a fine study and containing a pastor's library of about 2,000 volumes, for the most part given by Mr. Kinne with provisions for a continual enlargement of this collection of rare, useful and interesting books. Mr. Kinne requested that this be called the Benedict library, as it contains Dr. Benedict's books.

In July 23, 1899, an elegant organ of finest workmanship was received from Miss Isabella B. Pratt and her brother, Charles W. Pratt, in memory of their mother, Mrs. Sarah Bradford Pratt, who died Sept. 16, 1898.

The Historic Clock

On August 24, 1904, the church celebrated its 200th anniversary with special services, during which Henry Dorrance for the committee presented the ecclesiastical society a fine tower clock for which the dial plates were prepared when the church was built.

Mr. Dorrance stated that it was through the efforts of Col. Abel Andros, Dr. Josiah Fuller, Elias Woodward, Walter Palmer, Joseph Eaton and Aaron Crary, appointed Dec. 6, 1815, that the present building was erected, and it was in memory of these men that the clock was presented by their living descendants. The lettering for the inscription on the panel of the clock is the work of Mrs. Sarah Francis Dorrance, and the board is a fine piece of cherry found among the effects of the late Joseph Dean, bought by W. P. Bobcock and kept by him for this purpose.

Since Mr. Arnold's retirement the church has had three pastors, Rev. Mr. Balcom, Rev. Mr. Bamford and the present pastor, Rev. William Lakin. The church has received several substantial additions to its fund during the past few years. The beautiful individual communion service in use at the present time was the gift of Miss Nellie Kingsley. The church has electric lights in both the audience room and vestry and is a well-preserved edifice for one built 95 years ago.

From 1915 to the present there have been two pastorates—those of Rev. Arthur W. Barwick (1916-21) and Rev. William Carlos Prentis (1923-31).

Spicy Details

The Bulletin of June 13, 1899, gives some spicy details of Congregational church history in the far-off colonial times when Plainfield and Canterbury were under the same pastorate:

Sunday evening in the Congregational church, Rev. C. H. Crane gave a little ancient church history—of Plainfield and Canterbury. From an examination of records he found that the first town meeting held after the town was incorporated occurred May 31, old style, or June 11, new style, 1699.

Rev. Joseph Coit of Norwich, son of Deacon Coit of New London, was the first minister called. He, by vote of the town, was to be called for three months' trial at a salary of $50. His pay was partly money and in part corn and rye at two shillings a bushel. Rev. Mr. Coit preached on both the Canterbury and Plainfield sides of the Quinebaug river. The river ford then was near the house of Isaac Shephard and opposite was the house of Obediah Johnson.

In 1720 the church at Plainfield was built. Mr. Crane has succeeded in locating the spot on a side street near the locality of the Lucian Burleigh house.

Mr. Coit died in 1750 and was succeeded by Rev. David Rowland. He looked to the town for his salary, and for years he sued regularly to obtain it.

The separatists stood where the orthodox Congregationalists stand today. Saybrook and Cambridge doctrines collided and one minister was confined in jail five times for his preaching in Massachusetts and Connecticut. He refused to be bailed.

Mrs. Josiah Cleveland resided in Canterbury. She was an ancestor of ex-President Grover Cleveland. This family had two sons in Yale college, and because they attended a separatist church when at home they were expelled from college. Thus was religious intolerance exemplified in the early days.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—Recalling those black October days of 1929, when stocks were tumbling to set going the business depression cycle still weighing so heavily on the nation, look at this other date.

On Mayday, 1928, 17 months before that smash began, Senator Wagner of New York introduced his first unemployment bill, "to provide for emergency construction (of public works) for relief of unemployment in periods of business depression."

Even before that by a few days he had put in two other bills designed to create a national employment system in cooperation with the states.

That was back in the last congress, mind you, not the present one. Folks sort of pooh-poohed Senator Wagner's notions about preparing for a rainy day while the business sun still was shining so brightly. The trio of bills went to committees and there they died.

Early Inquiries

But Senator Wagner talked about them. This square-shouldered bulldog-jawed, German-born senator of the United States lives up fully to the advance notice that jaw serves on the world as to his traits.

He's rather pleasant about it, to be sure; but he sticks to what he starts whether other folks like it or not. The senate records show he talked unemployment a dozen times or so that session, besides making a few pointed inquiries about then existing facts of unemployment.

Still, as said before, nothing happened that session. So Senator Wagner revised and revamped his unemployment three sisters a bit and by the time January 29, 1930, rolled around, he was ready to launch them once more on legislative seas.

They had been worked up into a definite, three-part system for dealing with national unemployment emergencies, a sort of federal reserve system against unemployment distress. And the interest in that subject was vastly greater "on the hill" this time.

One of the bills got through and was signed. A second reached the conference stage last session. The third got through the senate and was reported by a house committee.

And between times, in season and out, Senator Wagner talked to the senate about unemployment. The records show he made "remarks" of that nature about 30 separate times during that session alone.

—And Now

Now comes another session of congress. The president and state governors are rivaling each other with unemployment relief proposals; unemployment legislation seems one of the few certainties for congress.

That it will bear Senator Wagner's name as author, however altered in text, seems equally certain.

What a chance to shout "I told you so."

YOUR HEALTH

Poisons From Teeth

By Daniel Jutton, D. D. S., Syracuse.
(From Gorgas Memorial Institute)

Teeth injure our health when they harbor abscessed or infected areas which drain germs and poisons into our systems, there to produce diseases in other parts of our body.

The two diseases of teeth which harbor infected areas are abscesses and pyorrhea. Either may cause direct poisoning of our systems by sending into the blood pus and other waste products. Either may act as a focal point from which germs travel to other parts of our body and there set up a secondary infection.

Pyorrhea is a destructive disease of the tissues about a tooth. The gums become inflamed, swollen and bleed. Pockets form about the roots of the teeth.

These pockets are ideal breeding places for germs. Here the disease producing germs thrive and produce poisonous waste products. The blood tries to fight the disease and in so doing carries away poisonous products.

Abscessed teeth usually begin with tooth decay. Unless tooth decay is stopped, it kills the tooth nerve. Then the germs travel through the nerve canal into the jaw and form an abscess. From here the germs travel or send their poisons into the blood. The blood conducts these poisons to other parts of the body and a secondary infection is set up. When the germs travel to the heart, they cause heart infection. In a similar manner disease of the kidneys, nerves, muscles nad joints are developed.

This does not mean that everyone who has infected teeth will have one of these diseases. The blood of certain persons has substances in it which are able to destroy the germs of poisons before they go very far. However, it is possible to have these poisons travel to the heart for many years, there to slowly cause serious heart disease without any pain or discomfort.

After the heart disease has developed, there is no certainty that much benefit would come from removing the infected teeth. It is too late then, the damage has been done. This explains why many times no benefit seems to follow the removal of infected teeth. Nevertheless, it is important to remove the teeth and shut off further supply of the poisons.

Some people feel that just because they have had infected teeth a long time, and apparently have not been harmed, that they will never be harmed by them. This is not true. A serious heart or kidney disease may develop without much warning. Many are able for years to tolerate germs and poisons but they are using up their energy. They use their energy for years fighting little diseases and when the big disease comes along they are not able to fight it.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORY

A Day Of Misery

How great the suffering is plain
When dread and terror mix with pain.
—Old Mother Nature.

The night had passed, a night of pain and terror, and jolly, bright, round Mr. Sun was climbing up in the blue, blue sky. The young muskrat held fast in a cruel steel trap on the edge of the Laughing brook wondered how the latter could still laugh and sing, and how jolly, bright, round Mr. Sun could continue to smile down on the green forest and the green meadows when such dreadful things as had happened to him were to be seen. Jerry Muskrat had remained near until after daylight. He had advised the young muskrat to either gnaw that imprisoned leg off or try to twist it off and thus free himself, but the young muskrat didn't have the courage to do this. Finally Jerry had gone back to the Smiling pool to warn the other young muskrats to be on constant watch for traps and to tell them what had happened to their brother.

Left alone the young muskrat was more frightened than ever. Actually he suffered as much from dread and fright as he did from the pain in his leg. The latter was swollen and hurt dreadfully if he moved the least bit. Blacky the Crow, flying high overhead on his way to the bank of the big river, discovered him on that log and saw at once that something was wrong. He turned and circled overhead. His sharp eyes saw the trap. He flew down to a tree close by.

"So," said Blacky, "you were not so smart as you thought you were. This is what comes of being headstrong and heedless. Too bad. When that boy who set the trap comes he will knock you on the head with a stick and then carry you off and take your fur coat. I've seen it happen before. Too bad. Why don't you use those big sharp teeth of yours?"

"Use them for what?" asked the young muskrat.

"To cut your leg off and get free of course," replied Blacky in the most matter of fact tone.

The young muskrat shivered. "It is all very well for you to talk; it isn't your leg," said he.

"I'm happy to say it isn't," replied Blacky. "I have only two legs, but if it came to a choice between losing one of these or my life it wouldn't take me long to make up my mind what to do. No, sir, it wouldn't. Well, I must be on my way for I am hungry. I hope that trapper will not come before you have made up your mind. Too bad. Too bad."

Blacky flew away and the young muskrat crouched in misery trying to make up his mind to do the dreadful thing that both his father and Blacky the Crow had advised him to do. He did his best to muster sufficient courage to try his sharp teeth on that aching leg, but it was of no use. He tried to pull, but that hurt too much. His brothers and sister and his mother, Mrs. Jerry, came to see him. They didn't help him any. He didn't feel any better for their coming. Mrs. Jerry urged him to do just what Jerry had advised him to do. She remained near after the others had gone back to the Smiling pool, but there was nothing she could do to help excepting to keep watch.

So the long day passed, the longest day the young muskrat ever had known. It was a day of misery, a day of suffering and terror and hopeless fright. It was getting almost time for the black shadows to come creeping out from the purple hills. That boy who had set that dreadful trap had not come to see if any one had been caught in it. He had been busy about other things. When he thought of that trap it was to say to himself: "If anything has been caught in it it will be there when I get time to go over there." He didn't once think of the suffering of the little victim of that trap. He was cruel, dreadfully cruel, without meaning to be or realizing that he was. You see he was thoughtless. Thoughtlessness often leads to great cruelty. It was not until dusk that he finally headed for the Laughing brook.

(Copyright, 1930, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "Desperation."

C	A	T	H	A	Y				P	E	R	S	O	N
O	R	E	■	C	O	T		R	E	D	■	A	L	E
M	A	N	I	T	U				C	A	N	N	E	S
B	■	D	■	A	R	T		D	A	M	■	T	■	T
E	D	E	N	■	S	A	L	O	N	■	F	E	T	E
R	U	R	A	L	■	M	A	L	■	D	R	E	A	D
	G		B	A	S	E		T	R	O	Y		P
				M	I				O	N
	T		B	A	N	D		H	E	E	D		S
C	H	E	E	R	■	R	U	E	■	E	R	R	O	R
R	O	D	E	■	H	U	R	R	Y	■	Y	A	L	E
A	■	I	■	C	U	B		E	O	S	■	I	■	N
T	O	T	H	E	R				K	E	N	N	E	D
E	V	E	■	R	O	T		H	E	R	■	E	R	E
S	A	D	D	E	N				D	E	O	D	A	R

[illegible]

What Do You Know About Eastern Connecticut?

1.—What effect did the Indian troubles of 1696-1704 have upon the population of Woodstock?
2.—Upon the common lands of the town?
3.—Upon the highways?
4.—Upon the town mill-house?
5.—What action did the town take to secure the rehabilitation of the millhouse?
6.—What promise did the miller make?
7.—What was the miller's name?
8.—Who were on the committee to whom he made the promise?

Answers Will Be Found On Classified Page

IT PAYS 7 WAYS IN 7 DAYS
That's why you can afford to buy a General Electric Refrigerator

DEC 1 Keeps milk and cream from souring.
DEC 2 Makes frozen salad and desserts.
DEC 3 Supplies ice cubes for all purposes.
DEC 4 Makes delicious dishes out of left-overs.
DEC 5 Keeps vegetables fresh and crisp.
DEC 6 Makes it possible to buy food in larger quantities.
DEC 7 Keeps meat, fruit and vegetables fresh.

FOR a few dollars in cash and the balance in easy payments, you can have a General Electric Refrigerator in your kitchen. All it costs to operate is a few cents a day! Drop in at our showroom this afternoon.

A General Electric Refrigerator can be installed in your home for as low as $25 DOWN

GENERAL ELECTRIC
ALL-STEEL REFRIGERATOR
City of Norwich Gas & Elec. Dept.
"We Serve the Community First"
34 SHETUCKET STREET PHONE 3070

THE CHRISTMAS STORE
REID & HUGHES
THE BOSTON STORE TELEPHONE 81 NORWICH, CONN.
THE CHRISTMAS STORE

Specials Thursday Friday and Saturday!

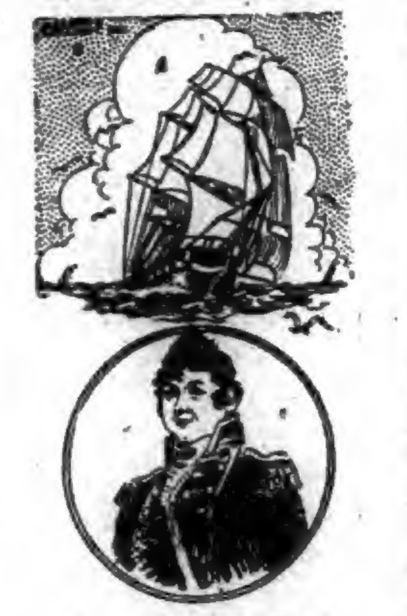
Men's Broadcloth Shirts
$1.95
or 3 for $5.39

Men's Broadcloth Shirts in plain colors, striped broadcloth, and broadcloth with shantung figures, collar attached styles. Sizes 14½ to 17. These make a splendid Christmas gift.
— Main Floor —

MEN'S SCARFS
$1.00 to $1.95
Plain colored Scarfs, also a variety of fancy patterns. A splendid assortment of colors to choose from.
— Main Floor —

EAGLE CREPE TIES
79c each
Eagle Crepe Ties in plain colors, a splendid assortment of colors. Buy a tie to match your shirt. An excellent gift item.
— Main Floor —

Graphic Outlines of History
by DAVID H. WILSON



THE CONSTITUTION

The peer of American frigates, under the command of Isaac Hull, went undefeated in her encounters with enemy ships. She was given the name "Old Ironsides" because of her great record. It has been preserved and now lies at its moorings in Boston Harbor complete in every detail.

Although we pride ourselves on the flawless perfection and painstaking completeness of our service, it is within the means of all.

THE HENRY ALLEN & SONS CO.
DAVID H. WILSON
Funeral Service
LADY ASSISTANT TEL. 410-W
88 MAIN ST. NORWICH

CASTLE GARDENS
INDOOR GOLF
MAJESTIC BLDG.—NORWICH
Open 11 a. m.-12 p. m
Sundays 2 p. m.
—SPECIAL LUNCHES DAILY—
In Our Tea Rom
12 m. to 2 a. m.
Luncheonnette Open All Day

Colds
TO CHECK A COLD IN ONE DAY.....
take the recognized standard remedy for colds—Grove's Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. They contain both the tonic and laxative necessary to check colds quickly.
The laxative quinine for quick cold relief
Get your box at any drug store, 30c.
Grove's Laxative
• BROMO • QUININE Tablets

RADIOS
Atwater Kent — Majestic
Victor — Grebe
Stromberg-Carlson
Maytag Washers
Kelvinator and Majestic Refrigerators
Gulbranson Pianos
The Hanover-Curland Co.
24-34 FRANKLIN STREET

Presents Prizes at Ashburnham

In the announcement of gifts made to Ashburnham School for Boys, at Ashburnham, Mass., it is stated that Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins of this city has presented several prizes for the completion of courses of study.

Met With Boswell Ave. Member

The Arhelma club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. O. Johndrow of No. 324 Boswell avenue and played cards. The first prize went to Mrs. Edah Cruthers and the consolation was taken by Miss Mazie Connors.

Notice!

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Kosciuszko & Pulaski Corp., of Norwich, Conn., will be held on Thursday, Dec. 4, 1930, at 8 o'clock P. M., on the Kosciuszko & Pulaski Lower Hall.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SCALP ECZEMA
Stop the embarrassing itching and get rid of the trouble with Resinol

1790 1930

Norwich, Thursday, Dec. 4, 1930

VARIOUS MATTERS

Three weeks to Christmas.

Light vehicle lamps at 4:49 this evening.

These are bleak mornings for those obliged to rise early.

This month the fixed star Vega sets in the northwest about 10 p. m.

At Chaplin, Mrs. Charles Perry has received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Jacobson, in Sweden.

Thermometers which read 42 early Wednesday afternoon showed a drop in the mercury to 34 an hour later.

St. Francis Xavier, commemorated Wednesday as apostle of the Indies, originated the Society of Jesus, Aug. 15, 1534.

A new cottage is being erected on the east side of the lagoon at Groton Long Point for Clinton Hanover, of Groton.

The Christmas meeting of the Woman's guild of the United Congregational church is set for Wednesday evening, Dec. 10.

Mrs. Fred Royce, who was housekeeper for Mrs. Julian Clark in Willington, has returned to her home in Stafford Springs.

It is claimed that boys of New London broke 160 school house windows during the past fiscal year, at a cost of $160.72 to the city.

Steady progress is being made on the remodeling and renovation of the stores in the building of Ralph Devito, on upper Franklin street.

Peck library, Slater hall, catalog lists as a recent gift Arthur L. Peale's informing book, Memorials and Pilgrimages in the Mohegan Country.

This appears to be official Apple Week in Norwich, such an abundance of fine looking apples is offered by the stores and at such reasonable prices.

The impulse to aid the needy has stirred up such a cleaning out of wardrobes, attics and clothes-presses in Norwich as has not obtained since war-time.

Sale and pinochle in Odd Fellows hall tonight.—adv.

Stories come from other cities of children fainting in class because of having lacked breakfast. No such cases of destitution are known of in Norwich.

Whist and bridge, Thursday evening, Dec. 4, Lafayette hall, by St. Jean's society.—Adv.

Wednesday evening, Builders' circle of the Central Baptist church met in the mothers' room, with Mrs. C. E. Lane, Miss Rathbun and Miss Cock hostesses.

D. of U. V. Christmas bazaar, Buck. Mem. Sat., 2 p. m. Baked bean, salad supper, 5-7 p. m.—adv.

Merchants floated on the high tide of brisk business Wednesday, when the Christmas club checks were released and holiday buying began in earnest.

The fascinating silks and velvets being brought to the fore by a number of local merchants would easily solve one problem as to what to give for Christmas.

Recently, Nicholas A. Dardis, of New London, left for Keego Harbor, Mich., where he will spend several months at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bruce K. Harding.

In a dull season, tanners throughout Connecticut have benefited steadily by the unbroken demand for colored leathers for garments, in particular for women and juniors.

Friday afternoon the executive board of the Woman's Federation of Park Congregational church is to meet with the president, Mrs. William Tyler Browne, of Broadway.

Yantic church, today, chicken supper, Christmas sale, 3:30 to 7:30. Afternoon tea.—adv.

Gay and persuasive literature setting forth the delights of a winter in the South or in California is reaching many local residents with the leisure and the means to travel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrickson, Jr., of Philadelphia, have been visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. Hendrickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrickson, of Oswegatchie.

Christmas portraits $6 and upwards per doz. Desmarais, 325 Main street. Tel. 1365.—Adv.

At the meeting of Wesleyan guild at Trinity Methodist church this (Thursday) afternoon, Miss Ruth Baker is to report from the recent W. H. M. S. convention at New London.

Deceased members of the Holy Name society were remembered Wednesday at 8 o'clock in a high mass of requiem sung at St. Patrick's church by the rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. M. H. May.

The December meeting of the Stonington group of the New London County Farm bureau will be held today (Thursday) from 10:30 until 3, at the home of Mrs. David Shaw in Wequetequock.

Salesmen in town in connection with last-minute holiday orders refer to the sharp drop in the demand for small giftwares for home decorations as having given place to a healthy activity since cold weather came.

There are nine beaches about Niantic, well developed, for which protection has to be provided. Water basins will be located at Black Point, Town wharf, Black Point road, Bride brook and Giant's Neck. Work will be given at once to the unemployed of the town.

Pinochle party, Grotto Home, tonight, Dec. 4., at 8 o'clock.—Adv.

Selden Bacon, associated in New York this week with State Supreme Justice Daniel F. Coholan as defense attorney without pay in the famous case of Louis E. Thibault, is a former Norwich resident, a son of the late Rev. Dr. Leonard W. Bacon, eloquent and scholarly pastor of Park church.

MEMBERSHIP CONTRIBUTORS FOR UNITED WORKERS

The following are additional contributors in the annual membership campaign of the United Workers:

Goodwill Members—Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Gurdon L. Bidwell, Mrs. F. A. Collins, Mrs. W. H. Cruickshank, Mrs. James J. Donahue, Mrs. David N. Gordon, Miss Eunice H. Gulliver, Mrs. James I. Hewitt, Mrs. George A. Keppler, Mrs. Leon F La Pierre, Mrs. Frank B. Lamb, Mrs. Susan M. Lester, Miss Annie T. Mahoney, Mrs. Alexander M. Pasnik, Miss Alexandrine Trumbull, Miss Harriet R. Trumbull, Charles F. Whitney.

Contributing Members—Mrs. W. L. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taggart, Mrs. Barbara Wunderlich.

Sustaining Member—Mrs. G. L. Randall.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Delia Murphy has returned to Norwich after spending some time with friends in Noank.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rathbun of Norwich have been guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathbun of Noank.

Mrs. Samuel Hunt and daughter, Electa, of Centerbrook, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jette and family of Norwich.

Rev. Harry P. Brothwell, pastor of the First Baptist church of Jordan village, formerly of Greeneville, was the speaker of the December meeting of Jordan Parent-Teacher association Tuesday night, at the Jordan school giving a travelog.

JEWISH TOOL CAMPAIGN STARTING IN NORWICH

Organization for the Jewish tool campaign in Norwich was effected at a meeting Wednesday night at the Jewish Zionist center on Fairmont street. The purpose is to raise the Norwich quota in the national fund of $5,000,000 in five years to provide for supplying tools, machinery and apparatus and to build factories for the relief of unemployed Jews in Russia.

How tremendously important it is that this need should be met was described by the speaker of the evening, Max Levitan, of New York, a nationally known journalist, who has spent six months in Russia.

The campaign here is to start with a mass meeting on Jan. 5, at which the local officers are hoping they may have Felix Warburg for a speaker. He, with Prof. Einstein, are two of the prominent backers of the campaign.

Officers of the Norwich organization were named as follows: Chairman, Maurice W. Meyer; secretary, Louis Goldblatt; treasurer, P. Kirstein; directors, Daniel Polsky, Rabbi J. N. Rosenberg, M. I. Silverman, Elkin Smith, Abner Schwartz, Maurice W. Meyer, Irving Eisenstein, Aaron Goldblatt, Isaac Fishkin, Jack Soffer, Mrs. Daniel Polsky, Mrs. J. N. Rosenberg, Mrs. A. Abelman, and Mrs. A. Bruckner.

BOUND OVER ON CHARGE OF STEALING AUTOMOBILE

Michael Barniak, 26, coast guardsman, who has been in the Backus hospital since he was injured in an automobile accident on Derry hill on the night of Nov. 24, was bound over to the criminal superior court when he was presented in the city court here Wednesday morning on the charge of theft of an automobile. In default of $1,000 bail he went to jail.

The charge against Barniak was the same as that made against his two companions, Kenneth Whitlock and George Dickson, when the three took the machine of Arthur Sylvia from Dunham street and collided with a trlley car on Derry hill. The other two have already been bound over and are in jail in default of bonds.

SHIFTS IN POSITION IN WEST SIDE PINOCHLE

In the second night's play of the second series of the season, Wednesday evening at the West Side Pinochle club, Dr. N. B. Lewis jumped from 7th to 1st place, Dr. Boynton dropping back to second place and J. Jordan to four from third place, Pettis moving up to third place from fourth place. The scores Wednesday night: Lewis, 7,620; Underwood, 7,095; Pettis, 6,990; Boynton, 6,755; J. Jordan, 6,640; A. Jordan, 6,640; Schuler, 6,605; McNaught, 6,575; Bailey, 6,335; Peckham, 6,030; Parker, 6,000; Ellsworth, 12,715.

The standing to date:

Lewis, 14,365; Boynton, 14,040; Pettis, 14,010; J. Jordan, 13,860; Underwood, 13,720; A. Jordan, 13,550; McNaught, 13,280; Bailey, 13,185; Schuler, 13,040; Ellsworth, 12,715; Parker, 12,230; Peckham, 12,205.

FUNERALS.

Frank Skawinski.

The funeral of Frank Skawinski, who died in Salem, Monday, at the age of 83 years, was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Polanski, of Colchester, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. There was a requiem mass at 10 o'clock at St. Andrew's church, Colchester, Rev E. L. Morrison, celebrant. Henry J. LaFontaine presided at the organ and the burial was in the family plot at St. Andrew's cemetery, Colchester, Rev. Father Morrison conducting the committal service.

The bearers were the following sons and grandchildren: Leo Skawinski, Rudolph Polanski, Stephan Polanski, Rudolph Skawinski, Stephan Polanski, ski and Wladyslaw Ogoniak. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Mourners were present from New York, Hartford, New London, Salem, and Colchester.

Surviving Mr. Skawinski are his widow, three sons, three daughters, a brother in California and 13 grandchildren. J. Woitkowski had charge of the funeral arrangements.

George Henry Popham

The funeral of George Henry Popham was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m., at funeral parlors on Pleasant street, Worcester, Mass. Many relatives and friends attended. The flowers were many and beautiful. Friends acted as bearers.

Mr. Popham passed away Saturday morning, Nov. 29, at a Worcester hospital, after an illness of 11 days. He was born Dec. 22, 1891, in Colchester, Conn., the son of Elizabeth Gay and the late John H. Popham. He was united in marriage at Worcester with Miss Elizabeth L. Love, who survives him with two children, the Misses Esther and Priscilla Popham; his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Popham Allen; two brothers, Edward and William Popham, and one sister, Mrs. Eva Loomis, of Norwich. Mr. Popham was a World war veteran and also was overseas. He has been employed for the past ten years as manager of the Atlantic Refining Co., in Lincoln square, Worcester, until the time of his death. He was a kind and loving husband and father and will be missed by his many friends.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Aiken have returned to New York, William Hopkins has gone back to Worcester, and Mr. and Mrs. Selden Bacon to their home in Manhattan, after a holiday visit with Miss Mary A. Aiken and Miss Jane McG. Aiken, of Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Johnson have had as their guest Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Ellen Fales, of New York.

Mrs. Willis Austin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Lloyd, of Cleveland

Mr and Mrs. A. Stuart Kelsey, of Elmwood avenue, will be hosts to the Friday Evening club this week.

The distinguished lecturer, Dr. James J. Walsh of New York, was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. James J. Donohue at their home on Harland road during his stay in Norwich. Preceeding his lecture, Dr. Walsh, Rev. John J. Reilly and Dr. Donohue had dinner at Norwich inn.

JURY VERDICT FOR DEFENDANTS IN LA BOUNTY AUTOMOBILE SUITS

The jury in the superior court here Wednesday afternoon, with Judge Ernest A. Inglis presiding, returned a verdict for the defendants in the two suits against the J. P. Frisbie Co. of Hartford and the company's driver, Sebastian Silva of New London, which were brought for a total of $35,000 in damages for the death of three-year-old William LaBounty and injury to his six-year-old sister, Jeanne LaBounty, children of Mr. and Mrs. William LaBounty of the Palmertown section of Montville. The children were struck by the company truck on May 3, 1930, as they coasted down a driveway in a little cart out onto the highway.

Suit was brought for $10,000 damages in the case of the little boy and for $25,000 damages in the case of his sister.

Defense testimony was given in the morning session of court Wednesday, with Amy B. Lynch and Sebastian Silva, the driver, called as witnesses. The evidence for both sides was concluded at 11:20, after which the arguments were made by counsel for the plaintiffs, who were Attorneys Perry Hollandersky and Foster K. Sistare, and by the defendants' attorneys, Ralph O. Wells and K. W. Weeks. Judge Inglis concluded his charge to the jury at 3:10 and 53 minutes later the 12 men came back and reported through their foreman, Charles W. Burton of this city, a verdict for the defendant in both cases.

Jury For $25,000 Suit

Following conclusion of the LaBounty cases, a jury was called for trial of the $25,000 suit of Miss Catherine Downey of 465 Montauk avenue, New London, against the Connecticut Power Co., of that city, and Frederick A. Baker, now of Unionville, who was a motor driver for the company in May, 1929.

The suit is brought to collect damages for injuries sustained by Miss Downey on May 19, 1929, when it is alleged that she was standing in front of her home as Baker drove by in a company machine and motioned to her that he would take her to church. Baker backed the machine to pick her up and struck her as she was crossing the street to get into the car.

At the time, it is claimed, Miss Downey was completing a course of study to take the state examination for pharmacist and was earning $25 a week, but because of the injuries she received she has been obliged to discontinue her studies and is no longer able to earn wages.

The injuries she received are described in the complaint as fracture of third, fourth and fifth lumbar vertebrae, injury to left leg, head, back and eyes, and severe shock. Attorney G. C. Morgan is counsel for Miss Downey and Attorney C. V. James for the defendant company, with Attorney Smiddy.

Judge Inglis adjourned court till the next day as soon as the jury had been chosen, the 12 men being as follows: Charles W. Burton, John Kukla, Norwich; Walter S. Tarbox, Preston; Everett H. Hiscox, Frank Eccleston, Griswold; Irving R. Main, North Stonington; Leroy E. Lathrop, Bozrah; George A. Miller, Franklin; Clement L. Perkins, Sprague; Albert A. Rist, Paul Geist, Lisbon; Fred W. Holmes, Colchester.

CHRISTMAS CAROL PROGRAM FOR D. A. R. CHAPTER

The December meeting of Faith Trumbull chapter, D. A. R., was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Wauregan House parlor, the regent, Mrs. A. N. Van Wagenen, presiding. It opened with the singing of America, salute to the flag and the Lord's prayer. After a very short business meeting there was a reception for all the members, the regent, Mrs. A. N. Van Wagenen, and the officers being in the receiving line. The ushers, who assisted, were Miss Florence Fitzpatrick, Mrs. A. J. La Pierre, Mrs. Myles E. Standish and Mrs. Herbert R. Kind.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brewster Davis, chairman of the programme committee, then introduced Mrs. W. Tyler Browne, who gave a very interesting account of the origin of Christmas carols and a sketch of the composer of each carol, which included Holy Night; Adeste Fideles; Hark! the Herald Angels Sing; We Three Kings of Orient; Away in a Manger; The First Noel; It Came Upon the Midnight Clear; While Shepherds Watched; O Little Town of Bethlehem; Antioch. Mrs. Helena M. T. Church led the singing with Miss Annie E. Vaughn at the piano. After the singing of the carols by all present, tea was served from a beautifully decorated table where Mrs. Archibald Mitchell and Mrs. William H. Oat poured. Mrs. Arthur M. Thompson, chairman, was assisted in serving by Mrs. Harvey M. Briggs, Mrs. Charles J. Twist, Mrs. Albert J. Bailey, Mrs. Alfred M. Haring, Mrs. Louis A. Wheeler, Mrs. George L. Ingalls and Mrs. Elijah S. Burdsall.

AUTO DEALERS WANT REGISTRY BUREAU HERE

A dinner meeting of the Norwich Automobile Dealers' association, held Wednesday evening at the Wauregan hotel, voted to make a request to the state motor vehicle department to establish a branch registration bureau in this city. In the discussion it was argued that such a bureau could take care of motor car owners in the northeastern part of the state better than requiring them to go to New London or Hartford to get their number plates, while the New London station would take care of the shore line towns in this end of the state.

Irving J. Lines of Worcester gave some of the high lights of the convention of finance companies which he attended in Chicago and the relations between manufacturers and dealers.

President O. E. Wolfe presided at the meeting, which had an attendance of about 20.

WHITE CROSS COUNCIL PLANS SPEAKING CLUB

Plans for the organization of a "speaking club" were discussed at an interesting meeting of White Cross council, No. 13, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening at K. of C. hall on Broadway, at which Grand Knight Patrick Coleman presided. The programme, which was arranged by Lecturer Matthew Sheridan, included four addresses, two of them by Michael J. Curran and Thomas H. Beckley, who encouraged the members to form the club. William Stoudt, connected with the Thermos Bottle Co., addressed the council on the subject of Manufacture of Glycerine, and Rev. James E. Dargan also spoke.

ROATH STREET FIRE SET NEAR STONE CRUSHER

Fearing that buildings in the section might become ignited from a bonfire on Roath street, a resident telephoned the central fire station at 9:20 o'clock Wednesday evening and Deputy Chief Dennis Brennan responded with a pump can. The blaze, which had been set by a half dozen unknown young men, was located near a stone crusher owned by the city of Norwich, and several sheds, one of which was at one time used by the city for storage of powder. The fire had been set on two or three nights in succession.

Upon the arrival of Deputy Chief Brennan the young men made a hasty retreat, and their identity was not learned, but the blaze was extinguished with the contents of the pump can. The fuel for the fire comprised timbers, 4x4, and other material.

COMFORT CIRCLE PLANS USUAL CHRISTMAS WORK

Comfort circle of the King's Daughters met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Chester J. Bushnell, of Phillips avenue, 14 members being present. A quilt was tied. A recent food sale held by the chapter netted more than $25. Plans were made for Christmas work. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. William Lathrop.

For Burial in Bridgeport

The body of George Ilis, who died in Preston Wednesday, was sent to his home in Bridgeport Wednesday evening on the 6:35 o'clock train from New London by Undertakers Cummings and Ring. Burial is to be in that city.

DECLARES BODY HEALTH AIDS MENTAL FITNESS

Dr. James J. Walsh of New York, chief counsellor of the international clinics, appearing at parish hall of St. Patrick's church Wednesday evening under the auspices of the study group of the Children of Mary sodality, astounded the unusually large audience with the enumeration of things that are conducive to becoming mentally fit in his address upon the subject "How to Keep Mentally Fit." Two points which Dr. Walsh stressed very forcibly were that "people do not chew enough and do not eat sufficient raw materials." His apt and unique illustrations were expounded in inimitable style and met with the approval of the gathering, since many of them were tinged with humor.

As the mind and body are inextricably associated, it is extremely important that we should keep the body in good condition, said Dr. Walsh, but few people pay attention to the body in the right way. If the body is not in proper condition our mind is disturbed, he said. Most people have the idea that food is the most important thing for keeping one's body fit, but this is not so. You can get along without food for 30 days if you get water, but you wouldn't be able to live without air four minutes. Can you get people to take it? No! They are afraid of drafts, night air, etc. Five minutes walk in the open is better than any amount of tonics.

Dr. Walsh prescribed between six and seven glasses of water between meals and in reference to food, said that most of us eat enough, but do not distribute it properly, adding that a most important thing to remember is to eat something substantial at every meal. That feeling of tiredness, difficulty in studying and failure of concentration on studies is attributable nine of ten times to irregular eating. By experiment it has been found, said Dr. Walsh, that the most important rules of eating are: Eat what you like, eat something raw every day and eat something indigestible every day.

From experimentation professors have learned the value of raw materials, said Dr. Walsh. They have found that raw materials digest better than cooked foods and have prescribed the eating of raw materials every meal, which requires vigorous chewing. We don't chew enough, as a result our food is not digested and therefore our mind does not function well, he said. There are times when we think our mind gets tired, but there is nothing wrong with it; it is our body that is at fault. He went on to tell the audience that the mind can actually produce symptoms in the body, spoke of the value of laughter and the great benefit derived from five miles walk every day.

Those who assisted the committee of arrangements comprise Alex Kilroy, William McKnight, Leonard Desmond, Anthony Kilroy, Nicholas Lamperallo and John P. Corcoran. Hawkins, the florist, and N. S. Gilbert extended courtesies. Rev. John J. Reilly introduced the speaker.

COUNTRY COSTUME DANCE MAKES PARISH ENTERTAINMENT

A largely attended and highly successful holiday entertainment for the benefit of Christ Episcopal church parish was given Wednesday evening in the auditorium at Samuel Huntington school, Norwich Town. The evening's enjoyment had been carefully planned by Mrs. Thomas Richey, wife of the rector, and by Mrs. James L. Hubbard. They received such general and valuable assistance from so many other parish members that Wednesday night they expressed themselves as indebted to many helpers in various lines.

The attendance numbered about 350 and many were in unique costumes. The prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Allen Latham and Mrs. Susan Lillibridge. The judges were Joseph Hall, Jr., Walter T. Camp, Elliott Grover, Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins and Edmund W. Perkins.

The event was an old-fashioned country costume dance with square and round dances. Albert W. Lillibridge was the prompter, and the music was provided by an orchestra led by James L. Hubbard. A delightful feature of the evening was the specialty dancing by Miss Helena Crandall.

The effective decorations were in charge of a committee comprising Mrs. Flint Brayton, Mrs. Eben Learned, Jr., Miss Constance Learned and Mrs. Elliott Brown Grover.

The very tempting food sold was under the supervision of Mrs. Edmund W. Perkins and Mrs. Joseph C. Worth.

The committee on expenses was Mrs. W. Tyler Olcott, Mrs. Gardiner Greene, Mrs. Frank Palmer of Fitchville, Mrs. William A. Norton, Mrs. Lucius Briggs, Miss Sue I. Gallup and Mrs. Joseph Hall of Broad street, Miss Mary H. Paddock, Mrs. Christopher M Gallup. Joseph Hall, Jr., had charge of the ticket table.

Off for Re-Assignment

Cases on the superior court docket this week which have gone off for re-assignment are the following: Joseph Sigoring vs. Frank Paparella, Stephen Awesee vs. Frank W. Woodworth, Hormisdas J. Giadue vs. James L. Giadue, Thomas G. Washburn and others vs. Thomas J. Hill and others, executors, appeal from probate, Herbert Hess, Teresa Hess, Carolyn Shepard and Robert F. Shepard, all against Leonard R. Main, Jr., and others.

FIRST TOY COLLECTIONS MADE BY BOY SCOUTS

According to the local Boy Scout headquarters Mrs. E. D. Rallion, 64 Oak street, and Mrs. Frank Stanley, 331 Washington street, are the first two women in Norwich to answer the annual call for toys for poor kiddies.

Last year the Boy Scouts collected over ten bushels of discarded toys and tried to repair them. This year through the courtesy of the New London-Norwich Sign company, the Scouts hope to collect over 20 bushels of toys and have the poster company do a real job of repairing.

Hardly a day went by last year, declares the scout chief, but what some little tot would come into the scout office and in a quivering voice ask if he couldn't be remembered on Christmas. Hundreds of children will be without means of having toys this Christmas but if every family in Norwich having old toys will respond the little tots will be taken care of. By calling the Boy Scouts, the toys will be collected.

J. W. CARLEVALE IS TO RETURN TO ITALY

Joseph W. Carlevale of Norwich, better known as "Tony," who has been identified for sixteen years in social work here, leaves today (Thursday) for Italy, his native country, where he plans to remain for several years. Before sailing from New York on the steamer Roma Mr. Carlevale will visit relatives in Providence and Boston.

While in Italy Mr. Carlevale will take a graduate course at the University of Rome and will also be a representative of one of America's leading industries. He will reside in his beautiful villa in the historic town of San Giovanni part of the time, and the remainder of the time at his other home in Rome.

HELD ANNUAL INSPECTION OF ST. JAMES LODGE

Annual inspection of St. James lodge, No. 23, F. and A. M., was carried out at its meeting Tuesday evening in Masonic temple when Most Worshipful Grand Master Elbert L. Darbie of Danielson, with Morris L. Payne of New London, district deputy, made official visitation. There was an attendance of over 100 and work in the third degree was exemplified by Worshipful Master Edwin M. Hanks and the lodge officers in for mthat won warm approval of Grand Master Darbie.

Supper was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

POLISH NATL. ALLIANCE GROUP ELECTS OFFICERS

Polish National Alliance of America, Group No. 1038, elected the following officers at its meeting Wednesday evening in Pulaski hall, North Main street:

Michael Jaskiewicz, president; Wicenty Strancz, vice president; Joseph Chrzan, financial secretary; George Bizinski, treasurer; Joseph Romanowski, recording secretary; delegates at large, Joseph Romanowski, John Klukowski and Walter Pianko; trustees, John Kubat and Poseph B. Pysyk; marshal, John Kornlecki.

BOY SCOUTS TO WORK FURTHER ON CABIN

A dozen Boy Scouts will go out to the scout camp after school today (Thursday) and work on the Boy Scout cabin. Many old materials are still needed for the cabin including some flag stones for the fireplace, wall board, 2x4 joists, and plain boards for the roof. A contribution of a few boards for the roof was received Wednesday from the mother of a Boy Scout.

21-CENT HOLDUP IS REPORTED IN TAFTVILLE

A holdup in the Taftville section in which the loot was 21 cents was reported Wednesday afternoon. The victim was reported to have been a Polish resident of Lisbon and the holdup crew was a band of gypsies from two automobiles who passed on their way to Jewett City and encountered the Lisbon man on the road near the velvet mill. They went through his pockets and secured the sum named.

The numbers on the Massachusetts cars they were driving were reported to have been 55-520 and 51-560.

EVENING OF WHIST AFTER BUSINESS MEETING

Monday evening, the Girls' Friendly society of Christ church met with Mrs. Albert Berberich, of Boswell avenue. After a short business meeting, a social time followed, with four tables of whist. The first prize was won by Mrs. John Lucas, second by Miss Freida Johnson, and consolation, Mrs. Walter Krohn.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Albert Berberich, assisted by Marion Krohn.

BOY SCOUTS DISCOVER "LOAF OF BREAD" SUPPER

According to the local Boy Scout headquarters, a scout in delivering a basket of food to a family Wednesday evening found six children eating supper around a table. The supper consisted of one loaf of bread. An attempt will be made by the Boy Scouts to distribute on recommendations of the United Workers any baskets of food left at Scout headquarters in the Thayer building.

Two Chimney Fires

Just before 10 o'clock Wednesday morning a chimney fire at 10-21 Arcadia street called the fire department, Chief Taft, Deputy Chief Brennan and Engine 1 responding to stop the blaze. The building is owned by the estate of Charles Topliff, with William Goodrich as occupant of the tenement where the fire was.

At 9:21 in the evening there was another chimney fire, this time at 9 Bushnell place in the frame dwelling house occupied by Henry W. Whitmarsh and owned by M. Edward Maguire. Six gallons of chemical were used, Deputy Chief Brennan and Engine 6 responding.

Will Provide Christmas Party.

Funds realized from a nickel arcade to be conducted at Norton Memorial health center are to be used by the health club at Norwich Free Academy to provide a Christmas party for poor children of the city.

Off the Assignment List

Two cases which were assigned for trial in the superior court here this week have gone off the assignment list as follows:

Edward Raymond and others vs May Etta Raymond.

Abraham Lazinsk vs. Paul Kuskal.

Ease in 5 Minutes—Comfort in 5 Hours
Cold in Head, Chest or Throat?
RUB Musterole well into your chest and throat—almost instantly you feel easier. Repeat the Musterole rub once an hour for five hours . . . what a glorious relief!
Those good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor—are mixed with other valuable ingredients in Musterole to make it what doctors call a "counter-irritant" because it gets action and is not just a salve.
It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. Keep Musterole handy—jars, tubes. All druggists.
To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.
MUSTEROLE
BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

STUFFY HEAD
Instant relief — just breathe
OZO MIST
Not an imitation, — but an improvement. A few drops on your handkerchief 50 applications — only 50c
At All Druggists

Swiftest Way To End Eczema
Says Alabama Man
There is not an excuse in the world for a person to suffer with fiery Eczema. Yet how many people do you see with ugly skins which spoil their whole appearance!
What you want to do is abolish every trace of eczema with Peterson's Ointment, for years nationwide famous for speedily ending Eczema.
The first application of Peterson's takes out the inflamation, brings blessed relief from that painful itching.
Repeated use of this powerfully soothing, healing Ointment assures a mavelously smooth, delicate skin.
Mr. A. W. Turner of Birmingham Ala., writes: "Was troubled for about 2 yrs. with eczema and after I used Peterson's Ointment for about 4 or 5 times, my trouble entirely disappeared."
One application of Peterson's Ointment will stop the burning and itching of Eczema and one 35c box will prove it—all drugstores.

FATIGUE CAUSES WORKERS TO MAKE MANY MISTAKES
Especially Noticeable During Mid-afternoon—the "Zero Hour" in Business
The condition — "too tired to think"— is familiar to nearly everybody. When experienced by those working under pressure, where mental alertness is necessary, it often results in errors both large and small.
Investigations show that mid-afternoon is the time when fatigue with its attending results is most in evidence. Many men and women, however, have discovered a method to overcome this tired feeling. They take a moment to eat or drink something sweet and are able to proceed with their work with new vigor.
Candy, ice cream, cookies, small cakes, soda-fountain beverages and the "athlete's cocktail" — a glass of water sweetened with sugar — are not only efficient mid-afternoon snacks but accessible to all. They are quickly digested and the energy provided by the sugar is immediately available. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

CHRISTMAS CARDS
with Fancy Lined Envelopes
20 in a box
$1.75
Your name printed to match sentiment
THE BULLETIN CO.
Norwich, Conn.

Gave Illustrated Talk On Bees.

Rev. S. A. Iciek, who has several apiaries in this vicinity, gave an illustrated talk upon "Bees" on Wednesday evening in the hall of St. Joseph's church. The views shown and the accompanying explanations given by the speaker made the evening one of much interest.

PLAINFIELD CLASHES WITH FAST HOKOAH TEAM THIS EVENING

When the Plainfield Pros meet the Hakoah basketball team of New York tonight at the Plainfield Community house they will be meeting one of the fastest clubs in the metropolitan area. The Hakoah team is recruited solely from college basketball stars and numbers on its roster three major college captains and three players who have made the All-Metropolitan mythical team.

The Hakoah players are Tom Spindell, captain of the City college of New York in 1929, George Newblatt, captain of New York university team in 1929, Jammy Moskowitz, captain of the Savage school quintet in 1927, Sam Schoenfeld, Columbia '29, and all-eastern collegiate forward, Jack Gelbert, C. C. N. Y. '27, and all-metropolitan guard and Sam Schein, C. C. N. Y.' 27 and all-metropolitan center. A lineup of this calibre can well be classed as an all-star attraction. And they play brilliant basketball being scheduled with all the leading teams of the United States this winter.

Plainfield is certainly up against strong opopsition and Manager Salisbury in realizing this has strengthened his club by signing Whitey Bernot, popular long distance basket-shooter of Worcester. Whitey stands over six feet in height and is a very fast floor man. Bernot will play one of the forward positions with Marchinick as his running mate. Marchinick made a very creditable showing last week against the Lon Island Pros and fits well in the fast Plainfield combination. Jerry Conway will hold down the pivot position. Jerry played a brilliant game in the opener getting the center tap 75 per cent of the time during the game. He is well liked by the fans.

In the guard positions Manager Salisbury will use Bissell and Dissinger. These boys played in the forward line last week and being out of position did not play the game of which they are capable. But in their regular positions it is expected that both will play brilliantly throughout the season. "Pop" Williams will be held in reserve but the chances are that he will play at least half of the game tonight. Williams plays a hard game and is a hard man to stop on the floor.

On paper this years' Plainfield team looks to be one of the best that ever played at the Communit house and when they get going it will take a mighty fast club to stop them. For the preliminary the Buddies will clash with either the Taftville or Willimantic fives. The preliminary goes on at 7:45 and the main attraction at 9:15 Dancing will close the evening's entertainment.

WALSH TO HAVE CHARGE OF NOTRE DAME ALL-STARS

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—(AP)—Knute Rockne, Notre Dame coach who called off a charity game scheduled here Dec. 14 between a team of his old football stars and the New York Giants professional eleven, telegraphed the committee today that he had asked Adam Walsh, now coach at Yale to get the team together for the game.

Rockne enroute to California where Notre Dame plays Southern California Saturday, wired Daniel M. Daniel, chairman of the committee in charge of the game, from Tucson, Ariz., that he had ordered "the boys" to get together with Walsh at South Bend and play the game. Rockne gave "doctors orders" as his reason originally for retiring from his part in coaching the former Notre Dame stars for the match with the professionals.

His telegram to Daniels follows:

"Have wired Adam Walsh to get the team together at South Bend. Would suggest you (Daniel) go to South Bend and make arrangements with them. My secretary has wired all the boys to get together with him and play the game in New York Dec. 14."

Daniel said tonight he probably would leave for South Bend, Saturday, gather Walsh and the Notre Dame players together, and bring them on to New York for practice. He expects that Rockne's famous "four horsemen" will be among the players.

Mayor James Walker, head of the unemployment committee, said today there had been a misunderstanding and that Rockne's original telegram, cancelling the game, merely had meant that the coach himself would not be here to direct the team. The mayor said there was no question but that the game would be played.

MAHONEY NAMED CAPTAIN OF N. F. A. HARRIERS

At a meeting of the lettermen Tuesday afternoon, Henry (Hank) Mahoney was elected captain of the Academy cross-country team. Mahoney has starred for two years on the Wildcat squad and gave his greatest performance in the interscholastic run this year when he finished fifth.

Coach Matthew Sheridan spoke to the squad reviewing the past season and telling of the prospects for 1931. The team's leading performer, Jonny Wood, will be lost by graduation but there is much promising material which gives hope to the mentor for next year.

The squad won six out of nine meets, the past season the first team taking four out of six and the seconds winning two and losing one. It fell to Coach Sheridan's second team to win the only contest that the school got from Bulkeley in 1930 as they copped the first of two runs, 24 to 32.

Both Wood and Capt.-elect Mahoney broke the local course record in the interscholastic run and previous to that Wood had also broken it in a dual run with Bacon academy.

Mahoney's election was unanimous and no doubt he will be a very popular leader. He will be a senior next year. Besides his work as a harrier he is a mainstay of the track team in the spring, running the half mile and also on the relay team. The new manager is George Bell, who succeeds James Dutton.

The following is the record of the squad:

First Team

N. F. A. 23, Conn. Ag. Freshman 32.
N. F. A. 27, Stonington 29.
N. F. A. 27, Chapman Tech 28.
N. F. A. 23, Bacon academy 36.
N. F. A. 36, Bulkeley 23.
N. F. A. 20, Bacon academy 25.

Second Team

N. F. A. 24, Bulkeley 32.
N. F. A. 21, Westerly 38.
N. F. A. 32, Bulkeley 23.

The Aetna
BOWLING — BILLIARDS
Alleys Reserved for Ladies
55 Shetucket St. Tel. 1912

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

TROJANS HAVE TROUBLE WITH NOTRE DAME ATTACK

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3—(AP)—Impersonators of two Notre Dame stars, Schwartz and Conley, rode through the University of Southern California football eleven's pass defense in uncomfortable fashion today as Coach Howard Jones put his men through their last strenuous paces for Saturday's gridiron test.

Two former Trojan stars, now coaches, impersonated the rough riders on the reserve team during the dummy scrimmage, with Russ Saunders doing Schwartz's backfield chores and Francis Tapaan playing Conley's end in a fashion which resulted in three touchdowns.

Ralph Wilcox, last of the injured absentees, was back in uniform but did not take part in the heavy work He is not expected to start Saturday and will play only a few minutes of the contest under present plans.

Following defensive drill, brief but pointed offensive tactics were tested. Reports of new plays being developed behind locked gates failed to disturb general opinion that Southern California with its superior weight will do considerable line pounding from the noted power formations.

Possibility that a storm brewing off the coast of Oregon might move south to catch the game in a downpour of rain failed to disturb betting which moved apace with no odds available either way. The official forecast was "partly cloudy tomorrow and Friday." However, if prevailing easterly winds shift south a wet gridiron is almost certain.

The Trojans will take a light workout tomorrow and again Friday morning after which they will go to a suburban hotel where they will remain until game time.

After two workouts at Tucson, Ariz., tomorrow, the Notre Dame squad will move on to Los Angeles, arriving late Friday.

WHITNEY HORSES SHOW WELL IN JEFFERSON MEET

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 3—(AP)—The famous light blue and brown topped colors of C. V. Whitney scored for the first time at the current Jefferson Park meeting today, when Blot and Skirl romped home in front of their fields.

The three-year old Blot won the fourth race a claiming affair at six-furlongs. Skirl, also a three-year old, carried off the honors in the Pickwick purse, at a mile and 70 yards. Eugene James, on Skirl, finished three lengths in front of E. F. Brant's Eil-Weir. James also had the mount on Celtic Prince, which finished only a neck back of Blot. Blot paid $11.20 and Skirl $4.80 in the mutuels.

James had another of his brilliant days, riding two winners, a second and one third. In addition to Skirl he was astride F. Wright's Woodgain, which won the second race and paid 9 to 1. W. C. Morris' Marengo proved to be the best bet of the day, however paying $99.80 for his victory in the sixth race.

FOUR TEAMS IN TIE IN SIX-DAY GRIND

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)— Four teams rode into a tie tonight for first place in the semi-annual six-day bike race in Madison Square Garden. In a wild hour of jamming from nine to ten p. m. the teams of De Nef and Charlier. Linari and Binda, Spencer and Debaets, and Georgetti and Crocardo took the lead away from the Canadian pair of Peden and Crossley by a single lap margin.

Several crashes added an extra thrill to the picture. Near the end of the hour it was announced that Paul Buschenhagen, German partner of Franz Deulberg, was forced to withdraw because of injuries. Deulberg was given four hours to find a new partner. Withdrawal of Buschenhagen reduced the field to twelve pairs

TO VOTE ON QUESTION OF RESTRICTED PRACTICE

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—(AP)—Yale athletes and alumni attending the tenth annual "win, lose or draw" party given by the Yale club, of Montclair, N. J., at Nick Robert's barn this Saturday night, will be called upon to vote on the wisdom of the present policy of restricted fall football practice.

Agreements which Yale has with both Harvard and Princeton forbid practice before September 15. Those opposing the policy maintain it places the players under risk of serious injury in early season games through lack of proper conditioning.

Captains of five major sport teams will be among those present as well as the entire football squad and Coach Mal Stevens of Yale and Bill Roper, former Princeton mentor.

BROWN TRACK TEAM HAS TWO DUAL MEETS

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 3.—(AP)—The Brown varsity indoor track team will engage in two dual meets, one intercollegiate event and one open indoor meet, with two dates still listed as pending on dual meetings. In addition to the Northeastern and Boston university dual meets, Coach J. Fred Powers' men will participate in the I. C. A. A. A. A. indoor games and in the annual B. A. A. meet in Boston.

The schedule follows:

Jan. 17, Northeastern at Providence; 24, pending; Feb. 14, B. A. A., at Boston; 21, Boston U., at Providence; 28, open; March 7, I. C. A. A. A. A., at New York.

NAVY HAS SHORT PRACTICE FOR COMING PENN GAME

ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 3—(AP)—Coach Bil Ingram experimented with his Navy backs and ends today in a short but stiff scrimmage in preparation for the Pennsylvania game, Saturday. Tschirgi, Gannon and Hurley alternated at one halfback, but Lou Kirn held his post at the other. Bauer held the quarterback post and Hagberg returned from retirement due to injuries, to fullback. Torgerson and Steffanides were alternated at right end with Byng holding the left wing position.

SPORT BRIEFS

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.— —Arthur De Kuh, Italian heavyweight, and the veteran Jack Renault will meet in the main event of a charity boxing show here December 12, it was announced tonight.

MONTREAL, Que.—Thomas J. Hickey was re-elected president of the American association for one year at the league's annual meeting today.

LOS ANGELES — Ace Hudkins, middleweight boxer, filed his answer today to the $100,000 damage suit brought by Miss Rhea W. Hill, denying he promised to marry her, or inflicted beatings as she had alleged.

BOSTON— Alfred Booker, captain of Northeastern university's undefeated soccer team, was re-elected tonight. Booker, a junior, comes from Pawtucket, R. I. Harry Feldman of Framingham was elected manager.

ST. LOUIS — Maxie Rosenbloom, light heavyweight champion, has been forced to call off a match with Tony Galento in Newark, N. J., scheduled for next Monday night, because of an eye injury in a bout here last night.

WORCESTER — Captain John J. McEwan, whose first Holy Cross eleven defeated its greatest rivals, Boston college, and Harvard this fall has been signed for three more years, according to an announcement made by Holy Cross authorities tonight.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Boston and Providence played one of the most rugged hockey games ever seen at the local auditorium tonight, with the Reds winning, 4 to 3. Twice the Providence club took the lead only to have the Tigers tie it up again.

WORCESTER—Phillip E. O'Connell, of Brockton, was elected captain of the 1931 Holy Cross varsity football team at a meeting of the 30 letter men this afternoon. The vote was unanimous.

NEW YORK—The football regime of Frank W. Cavanaugh at Fordham university was assured for at least another two years today, when the "iron major" signed a two-year contract.

MIDDLETOWN—A list of 16 basketball games was announced tonight for the Wesleyan university quintet The opening contest is with Yale on December 12 at New Haven, and the squad now drilling daily includes seven letter men.

HANOVER, N. H.—Coach "Dolly" Stark sent the Dartmouth varsity basketball team through its opening scrimmage today. Although the shooting and team work of the players was crude, he was well satisfied. Coach Stark selected Myllykangas and Smart, forwards; Burch, center; Magee and Kramer, guards, as his temporary first team and sent it against a powerful scrub quintet.

PLAINFIELD HAS 55 OUT FOR BASKETBALL

Plainfield high school's basketball squad held its first practice of the year in the high school gym at 2:40 o'clock Monday afternoon, 55 candidates reporting for the opening practice. This group includes five members of last year's regular team. Around this nucleus Coach Ringland expects to build a winning team.

Plainfield's first game will be on December 12 when the team goes to North Grosvenordale to play Tourtellotte Memorial high school. As the first game is so close intense practice will be held for its preparation. This game starts one of the hardest schedules that Plainfield has ever had. The schedule:

Dec. 12—Tourtellotte at No. Grosvenordale.
Jan. 7—Tourtellotte at Plainfield.
Jan. 13—Windham at Willimantic.
Jan. 15—Warwick at Plainfield
Jan. 19—Stonington at Plainfield
Jan. 23—Bulkeley at New London.
Jan 26—Windham at Plainfield.
Jan. 30—Fitch High (Groton) at Plainfield.
Feb. 3—Bulkeley at Plainfield.
Feb. 6—Putnam High at Putnam.
Feb. 10—Norwich at Plainfield.
Feb. 14—Killingly at Danielson.
Feb. 17—Putnam at Plainfield.
Feb. 20—Fitch at Groton.
Feb. 23—Norwich at Norwich.
Feb. 25—Stonington at Stonington.
Mar. 3—Warwick at Warwick.
Mar. 6—Killingly at Danielson.

Baltic Girls' Basketball

Before a large crowd Tuesday night at the Baltic Social and Athletic club, the "Queens" won from the "Half Shots" by a score of 14 to 12. in a very close and well played game. The score at half time was -2, in the "Queens'" favor.

The lineup:

Queens

	G.	F.	Pts.
G. Sedden, lf	0	1	2
D. Turner, rf	0	0	0
F. Busch, cg	0	0	0
D. Fox, c	0	3	6
P. Bell, lg	0	2	4
H. Nickols, rg	0	1	2
	0	7	14

Half Shots

	G.	F.	Pts
F. Lucy, lg	0	0	0
B. Ashworth, rg	0	0	0
R. House, cg	0	0	0
F. Barnes, c	0	2	4
L. Almquist, lf	0	1	2
E. Wilson, rf	0	3	6
	0	6	12

Referee—R. Maurice.

Fox, high scorer for Queens; Wilson for Half Shots.

Penn Has Several Injured

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3—(AP)—Old and new injuries, the latter received in practice, cut down the number of Pennsylvania football players today as the squad worked out for the Navy game Saturday. Captain Gentle's condition is a bit too "fine" and in addition he has a twisted knee. He was granted a layoff today and tomorrow. Others who are not expected to get into the Navy game are Raffel, Newcomb Gette and Graupner.

POLISH CIT. OPEN SEASON TONIGHT

The Polish Citizens, who did such great things in baseball during the summer, will embark upon the basketball field this evening at Pulaski hall, the Ockfords of New London furnishing the opposition.

The team has been drilling for over a month and is reported to have secured quite a bit of teamwork, although this is the first year the Cits have gone in for the sport. Lefty Dugas, Norwich's major league ball player, and Jerry Peltier, will be at forwards, with Pete Finn, who held down third base in baseball, jumping center and Les Pingree and Capt. Lemieux at the guards. For utility, Labarre, Wattski and Cimikoski, the latter another baseball star, will be on hand

The Ockfords, who recently defeated the Shymas of Taftville 29 to 25 will attempt to make it two straight over Norwich in this engagement. They will line-up with Edward and Terry or Long at forwards, Robert at center and Kaplan and Griffin at guards.

Emil Raymond will referee and the opening whistle will be at 8:15 o'clock. Dancing will follow.

BOXERS ALL SET FOR BOUTS AT PARISH HALL TOMORROW NIGHT

Everything is all set for the season's feature boxing show at Parish hall on Friday evening and a capacity house is expected as it will be the last card until next February. Reports from the various camps of the boxers state that each and every one is in good condition and ready to go.

Vic Darr and Al Koziol, principals in the main bout, tapered off in their training last night and will get only light work today and a little road work on Friday morning. Interest runs high in this bout and there is plenty of wagering being done on the outcome of the bout. The betting however is at even money there being little to choose from between the chances of the two boys.

Koziol before his five mile jaunt over the country roads last night stepped on the scales and the beam tipped at 146½ pounds. The Laurel Hill mauler expects to enter the ring Friday night weighing 144. Darr will be slightly lighter by a pound or two. Koziol looked mighty good as he stepped around in a round or two of shadow boxing before taking to the road. He was as hard as nails and he showed none of the flabbiness that was evident when he fought Darr the first time. He has been paying plenty of attention to developing his stomach that Darr played for in the last bout. Reports from Danielson where Koziol has been doing much of his training are very encouraging. During his last workout up there he flattened one of his sparring mates, a boy with quite a reputation and a left hander too. In speaking of his coming bout Koziol said that he made no predictions but said that he was going in to win and the fans would get their money's worth. Koziol's mentor, Barney Keenan, was very confident that Koziol would take Darr inside of three rounds.

Not only will the main bout be a feature but there are two other eight rounders on the card that should provide plenty of entertainment for the fans. In one eight rounder Rene Peloquin of Danielson renews his ring feud with little Tony Caprio of Providence. These boys met in a six rounder a few weeks ago and they gave the fans plenty of action. In the other star bout Eddie Reed of Hartford will swap punches with Joey Cayer of New Bedford. Both Reed and Cayer come to Taftville with enviable records each having a long string of wins to his credit.

In the six round preliminary there is bound to be a fast pace set when Al Rodman of Goodyear exchanges leather with the Providence dancing master Pat Jones. These boys are fast, though light, and a real whirlwind bout is anticipated.

Opening the show is the elusive Snooks Lacey of the West Side and Whitey Allen of Manchester, a protege of Frankie Busch, former Norwich boy.

FRISCO $7,500 OPEN GOLF TOURNEY STARTS TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.— (AP) — Amateur and professional golfers, 163 strong, will match strokes here tomorrow in a 36 hole qualifying trial for the 32 places in the San Francisco $7,500 open match play tournament.

Such nationally known pros as Tommy Armour, Gene Sarazen, Horton Smith, Leo Diegel and Harry Cooper will pair off with some of the leading amateurs of the coast, in the 72-hole event.

Among the simon pure entered are H. Chandler Egan of Medford, Ore., twice national amateur champion, Johnny Dawson of Chicago, Fay Coleman of Los Angeles and Jack Neville of Pebble Beach, winner of many California titles, George Von Elm, former national amateur titleholder, now self-styled "business man golfer" will seek a share of the purse.

With the qualifying rounds over, eighteen hole match play rounds will be held Friday and Saturday, with the 36-hole finals Sunday.

The winning professional will claim $1,500, with $1,000 to the runner up and $500 each to the two losing semi-finalists. The four losing quater finalists will receive $300 each with $150 going to each of the eight losing second round players and $100 each to the sixteen losing first round entrants. Winning amateurs will receive trophies.

PRES. HOOVER AUTOGRAPHS FOOTBALL FOR CHARITY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—President Hoover is willing to have his name kicked around for sweet charity's sake. Today he autographed the football which will be used in the Army and Navy charity football game in New York on December 13.

The autographing was done in the presence of Captain Russell Train, Naval Aide, and Colonel Campbell B. Hodges, Military Aide.

BOWLING

TAFTVILLE ALLEYS

Dougherty Cardinals

Pee Wee	86	92	96	274
Dougherty	85	77	86	246
Belisle	93	85	90	268
Landry	83	99	101	283
Lucier	102	96	91	285
Totals	447	449	464	1360

Star Liners

Duprey	85	68	103	251
Bush	87	77	94	258
Coleman	118	117	75	310
Fitz	91	93	111	225
Boenig	112	76	99	287
Totals	493	436	482	1404

High single string, Coleman—118.
High individual total, Coleman—310.
High team three, Star Liners—1404
High team single, Star Liners—493.

Taftville

Gallant	107	97	116	320
Wadja	120	118	89	327
St. Amour	115	125	102	342
Lucier	117	111	124	352
Dugas	95	120	119	334
Totals	554	571	550	1675

Rockville

Lemek	112	105	96	313
Brets	111	111	90	310
Carlo	101	108	117	326
Berthold	143	127	82	352
Morin	111	93	101	305
Totals	578	544	486	1602

Weller's G. Electric

Yerrington	85	100	91	276
A. Lambert	80	103	88	261
T. Lambert	98	95	87	280
Wadja	92	99	95	286
St. Amour	124	92	96	312
Totals	489	489	457	1435

Dougherty Cardinals

Pee Wee	122	86	95	303
Dougherty	73	73	89	235
V. Fontaine	87	80	82	259
Gallant	130	105	92	337
Lucier	105	95	129	319
Totals	517	439	483	1439

TAFTVILLE ALLEYS

Peter Radio Shop

O. Dupuis	91	76	85	252
W. Dupuis	79	98	107	284
E. Dugas	101	84	86	271
T. Landry	88	97	118	303
E. Lemieux	98	117	113	328
Totals	457	472	509	1438

Nagles Lunch

Belrose	90	86	95	271
Paradis	97	77	94	268
Fournier	116	97	91	304
Couture	88	95	82	265
Dugas	90	118	93	301
Totals	481	473	455	1409

Attention Ice House.

The Sons of Rest wishes to challenge you to a game of football to be played on your own field, the Mohegan park, Sunday, Dec. 7, at 2.30 p. m. The Sons after a fall of inactivity have organized for the rest of the month. We have watched the Ice House Wonders in action and are still wondering how they got the name of Wonders, they look like a bunch of novices to us. So if they will answer through this paper we will be glad to give them an opportunity to show whether they are Wonders or not. The Sons average 150 pounds.

Pocket Billiard Challenge

The Jewett City "Jolly Five" would like to arrange a home and home series with Plainfield, Moosup, Danielson or Putnam. Anyone accepting this challenge will please answer through this paper stating date and place first game will be played.

SLATED FOR HEARINGS IN AUTOMOBILE CASES

The following hearings in automobile cases are to be held here next Tuesday morning at 10:45 in the common pleas court room before an inspector from the state motor vehicle department:

Chester E. Corey, 66 School street, Putnam, operating under influence; Carleton A. Cummings, Leonard Bridge, Lebanon, allowing minor to operate an uninsured motor vehicle; George Deschamps, Box 163, Railroad street, Sprague, operating under influence, Mass.; George H. Kramer, 319 Central avenue, Norwich, improper markers; Arthur Merrill, 648 Potters avenue, Providence, R. I., overloading; Theodore D. Taylor, R. F. D. No. 6, Norwich, overloading; Louis W. Colt, 5 North Thames street, Norwich, overloading; Patrick J. Durocher, Box 205, Wauregan, misstatement on public service operator's application; Elpherie Quintal, 74 Front street, Killingly, misstatement on public service operator's application; Arthur Plantier, 39 Ballou street, Putnam, misstatement on public service operator's application; Anastase A. Vonsiatsky, Thompson, conference.

TOLLAND COUNTY FARMING SHOWS DECLINING INDUSTRY

In the five years from 1925 to 1930, according to farm census statistics from Tolland county, the number of farms decreased from 1,985 to 1,553, acreage from 163,081 acres to 140,127 acres and value of land and buildings from $11,940,440 to $11,215,320. Land alone which was valued at $4,719,283 in 1925 was valued at $4,358,695 in the census five years later and buildings dropped from a valuation of $7,221,157 to $6,856,625. Value of implements and machinery also declined from $971,063 to $905,215.

On the other hand, average values increased from $6,015 to $7,222 per farm and from $73.22 to $80.04 per acre.

Other census figures for Tolland county cover the following statistics:

Size of Farms

	1930	1920
Under 3 acres	17	7
3 to 9 acres	76	134
10 to 19 acres	118	160
20 to 49 acres	309	420
50 to 99 acres	508	591
100 to 174 acres	347	430
175 to 259 acres	120	146
260 to 499 acres	51	72
500 to 999 acres	6	12
1,000 acres and over	1	5

Classes of Land

	1930	1925
Crop land, total	34,125	35,946
Harvested	29,143	36,391
Crop failure	873	185
Idle	4,109	2,370
Pasture land, total	68,488	79,831
Plowable	8,270	8,076
Woodland	44,438	45,381
Other	15,780	26,374
Woodland not pasture	28,601	29,504
All other land	8,918	14,806

Livestock

	1930	1920
Horses	1,852	2,894
Mules	52	44
Cattle	11,817	13,475
Dairy cows	7,246	8,331
Hogs	632	3,457
Chickens	135,060	93,239

CONNECTICUT TO WATCH N. Y. OLD AGE PENSION

With an old age pension law certain to be advocated strongly in the forthcoming session of the Connecticut legislature, there is profit in consideration of the present situation in New York state, says the political observer in a Connecticut Sunday paper. It is true that so far there is no revenue in sight for payment of old age pensions in Connecticut and no exact data on the amount of revenue which would be needed. That was approximately the situation in New York when the law there was enacted and made applicable for January 1, 1931.

The New York legislature attempted no definite dole, but left each case to be decided upon its merits, with the cost to be divided between the state and county. The old age security commission which sponsored the law estimated the cost of the law at $12,400,000 a year and the legislature adopted the law on the basis of these estimates.

Now it develops, with actual applications instead of estimates to work upon, that the probable cost will be about $20,000,000 a year. In many of the smaller counties of the state it is apparent to the county supervisors that the amount of money needed for old age pension payments will be much greater than had been anticipated. Some of the taxpayers have made some estimates on the probable increase in their taxes. The result has been a considerable pressure, which is still increasing, for modification of the law by the legislature which meets in January.

New Otis Library Books

The Mysterious Universe — Sir James Jeans.
Fifty Little Businesses For Women —M. R. Dodge.
The Best Poems of 1930—Edited by Thomas Moult.
Memories and Vagaries — Axel Munthe.
The Case for India—Will Durant.
The Modern Newspaper—N. B. Mavity.
One Thousand Sayings of History—W. Fogg.
The Last Voyage—Alfred Noyes.
The Conversations of Dr. Johnson—Edited by R. W. Postgate.
The American Leviathan— Charles A. Beard and William Beard.

New Fiction

Imperial Palace—Arnold Bennett.
About the Murder of Geraldine Foster—Anthony Abbott.
The Red Brand—Charles A. Seltzer.
Rudolph and Amina — Christopher Morley.
Sky Farm—Clarice Blake.
The Gold Shoe—Grace Lutz.
The Mystery of the Folded Paper—Hulbert Footner.
The Trent Trail— Wyndham Martyn.

MAIL-AD
FILL OUT AND MAIL TO
The Norwich Bulletin or Record
NORWICH, CONN.
12c a line. Average 5 Words to a Line. Wants — To Let — For Sale — Etc.
Name .... Classification ....
R. F. D. or Street .... Number of Insertions ....
Post Office .... Amount Enclosed ....
Write Complete Ad. Below, Including Name and Address
—or if Blind Address is Wanted Mark X Here ☐

POETRY

Don't Crowd

Don't crowd! this world is large enough
For you as well as me;
The doors of art are open wide,
The realm of thought is free;
Of all earth's places, you are right
To choose the best you can,
Provided that you do not try
To crowd some other man.

What matter though you scarce can count
Your piles of golden ore,
While he can hardly strive to keep
Gaunt famine from the door?
Of willing hands and honest hearts
Alone should men be proud!
Then give him all the room he needs,
And never try to crowd.

Don't crowd, proud miss! your dainty silk
Will glisten none the less
Because it comes in contact with
A beggar's tattered dress;
This lovely world was never made
For you and me alone;
A pauper has a right to tread
The pathway to a throne.

Don't crowd the good from out your heart
By fostering all that's bad,
But give to every virtue room—
The best that may be had;
Be each day's record such a one
That you may well be proud;
Give each his right, give each his room,
And never try to crowd.

—Alice Cary (1820-1871).

My Bird

Ere last year's moon had left the sky,
A birding sought my Indian nest,
And folded, O so lovingly,
Her tiny wings upon my breast.

From morn till evening's purple tinge
In winsome helplessness she lies,
Two rose leaves, with a silken fringe,
Shut softly on her starry eyes.

There's not in Ind a lovelier bird;
Broad earth owns not a happier nest;
O God, thou hast a fountain stirred,
Whose waters nevermore shall rest!

This beautiful, mysterious thing,
This seeming visitant from heaven,
This bird with the immortal wing,
To me—to me, Thy hand has given.

The pulse first caught its tiny stroke,
The blood its crimson hue, from mine:—
This life, which I have dared invoke,
Henceforth is parallel with Thine.

A silent awe is in my room—
I tremble with delicious fear;
The future, with its light and gloom,
Time and eternity are here.

Doubts—hopes, in eager tumult rise;
Hear, O God! one earnest prayer;
Room for my bird in Paradise,
And give her angel plumage there!

—Emily Chubbuck Judson.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Angus—What makes this auto rock so?

Sandy—It's a Plymouth—The Pathfinder.

"In which zone are the United States of America?"

"In the temperance zone, sir."—Boston Transcript.

"You'll find these collars simply laugh at the laundry, sir."

"Yes, I know—and come back with their sides split."—Exchange.

In one day the Prince of Wales is promoted to vice admiral of the fleet, lieutenant-general in the army and air marshal of the flying force. With the proper backing that boy would get somewhere.—Macon Telegraph.

"Friend, although you live in a trackless wood, I see the world has beaten a path to your door."

"True, good gossip, true. The fact is—."

"Give me a gallon."—Washington Star.

Mr. Strutter—Every man should have a motto. My motto is Live and Learn, Jane.

Mrs. Strutter—Yes; but do you think you will ever live that long, John?—New Bedford Standard.

Little Alfred—Mamma and papa keep me worried all the time!

Little Billie—What do they do?

Little Alfred—Mamma won't let me stand on my head and papa fusses because I wear my shoes out so fast.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A woman bought a house on the United States and Canadian border. She was uncertain as to whether her house was in Canada or the United States, so she called in a surveyor to find out.

After doing the job he told her the house was in the United States.

"Thank heaven!" she said. "I will get away from those Canadian winters!"—Toronto Globe.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Toronto has a hospital for goldfish.

Tornadoes almost always move from southwest to northeast.

A giant toad has been observed to catch 128 flies in less than half an hour.

Ostrich eggs are used as water bottles in the Kalahari desert country of Africa.

Out of India's population of 319,000,000, more than two-thirds are peasants.

The Boston terrier is a cross between the English terrier and the English bulldog.

Cuba had the lowest death rate of any country for 1929, despite its high infant death rate.

Two species of fungus found in Mt. Ranier National park last summer were apparently new to science.

The yellow fever mosquito has the habit of attacking its victims at daybreak, when they are sleeping deeply.

There has been very little variation in the amount of meat consumed a person in the United States in the last thirty years.

The single-span bridge now being built over the harbor at Sydney, Australia, is to be the biggest of its kind in the world.

The mountain beaver is not related to beavers that build dams, but is a burrowing animal somewhat like a woodchuck or gopher.

More than half of the land in the Philippines is pronounced suitable for agriculture, but only about 15 per cent is now being cultivated.

A Dutch engineer has invented an apparatus for measuring the hight of an airplane, somewhat like the echo gauge for measuring sea depth.

Because of the scarcity of food in fields and gardens this summer, fall army worms are particularly prevalent on lawns in the eastern states.

Newsprint, now manufactured almost entirely from spruce pulp, may be made from young pine trees if experiments at the United States forest products laboratory prove satisfactory.

The bluefin tuna, which has almost world-wide distribution, appears in southern California waters in June and leaves in September, with no one knowing where the fish come from or where they go.

The ancient Chinese buried jade carvings with the dead, in the belief that this stone was potent in preserving the body from decay and promoting its resurrection, explains an anthropologist of the Field Museum.

DAMAGE SUIT GROWING OUT OF AUTO ACCIDENT BEFORE SUPERIOR COURT

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 3.—When Washington county superior court closed on Wednesday afternoon shortly after 4 p. m., Henry G. Heath of Hope Valley, R. I., the operator of a steam roller in highway construction at the time of the Bitgood-Williams auto crash occurred near Cord Wood corners on the Nooseneck Hill road, was on the stand for the third witness of the day. The trial of the damage case began on Tuesday when a jury was empanelled with Henry G. Clark of Richmond, R. I., as foreman, and the case was outlined to the jury who were then excused for the day.

Promptly at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday, the jury, under the direction of Sheriff Fred T. Mitchell, took a motor bus for the twenty-mile trip to take a view of the site of the accident where they were met by Judge Jeremiah O'-Connell from Providence, who is sitting on the bench. Judge, jurymen, sheriff, deputy sheriffs, attorneys and a Rhode Island milk inspector, Warren D. Nichols, formerly and at the time of the accident a corporal in the Rhode Island state police, who investigated the accident on Oct. 5, 1926, when it occurred, all returned to Westerly where they arrived at 1 p. m. and an hour was taken for lunch and the court began the afternoon session at 2 p. m. Former Corp. Warren D. Nichols was the first witness and from his report made at the time described the positions of the Nash roadster, coming towards Westerly from which the plaintiff, Elisha R. Bitgood, was thrown and injured and the Buick sedan being driven by Harry O. Williams of Westerly, towards Providence. Plaintiff's Attorney George Hurley had two red toy autos and folded a desk blotter to show the center highway line that former Officer Nichols might place the cars as he found them for the benefit of judge and jurymen. The request by respondent's attorney, George P. Slade, that all of the officer's report be admitted as evidence was denied by Judge O'Connell, by reason of the fact that certain conclusions were drawn in the officer's report on the criminal side were deemed such as would shed no light for the jurymen considering the civil damage side of the auto crash damages. A Mr. Clark, employed in a Hope Valley garage, who took photos of the damage done the Bitgood auto, identified the pictures taken by him. Officer Nichols testified that the front ends of both the Bitgood and Williams autos were badly damaged by the impact and from the pictures admitted as evidence told of his recollection of the auto damages.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT WESTERLY C. OF C. MEETING

(Special to The Bulletin)

WESTERLY, Dec. 3. — Westerly chamber of commerce, at its December meeting with President Dr. John Champlin in the chair, had a larger attendance than usual, there being present some members who are not regular attendants. The chamber membership was reported at the present time to include a paid membership of 98 which included three new members voted upon at this meeting, being Walter S. Price, Wilfred B. Utter and the United Music store, Harold A. Wennberg, Mgr. Treasurer H. Russell Burdick's report showed $1340.44 in the treasury, $844 on checking account, $500 in participation account and cash on hand of $45.

From the trades and manufactures committee, Charles P. Eccleston, chairman, was read a letter showing activities of his committee and reporting his attendance at the New England council meeting the first of last month in Boston.

Harry R. Milner, chairman of the municipal improvement committee, was unable to report much progress in plans to secure a new Pawcatuck river bridge on Broad street. He presented a letter of recommendation for the project by the Jamestown and Newport Ferry Co., operating a line of ferryboats in Narragansett bay from the Rhode Island mainland to the Island of Rhode Island on which the city of Newport, R. I. is located. Mr. Milner urged the chamber membership to "get busy" with the Rhode Island and Connecticut legislators at Providence from Westerly and vicinity and to Hartford from Stonington and adjoining towns.

For the committee on publicity, the chairman, Frank A. Sullivan, had much to say along numerous lines. In reference to a new Pawcatuck river bridge he stated that Westerly legislators, Senator Howard E. Thorp and Representatives Clifford W. Campbell and Dr. John M. O'Connell should have been present at this chamber meeting to acquaint the members with what they are doing towards the securing of needed legislation for a new Pawcatuck river bridge between Westerly and Pawcatuck. He presented a resolution and it was passed asking not only Senator Thorp and Representative Henry A. Stahle of Pawcatuck, Stonington representative at Hartford to be present at the January chamber meeting on Jan. 6th so that the members of the Westerly chamber could ask them what the chamber membership could do on the Pawcatuck river bridge question.

Chairman Sullivan said that costs had been asked for relative to the expense of putting a water main down the Boston Post road to Misquamicut and Atlantic Beach. He said that the Westerly water commissioners should furnish the facts and that it had eventually got to be done and it was a great mistake not to do it now and the commissioners "needed to be hurried." He continued everybody should speak to the commissioners and ask them to have the figures ready at the next January meeting and added that "before some of the office holders are elected to office they went around telling the people they wanted to become public servants and when they obtained the office he did not want to say what they were—but would say they were not good servants."

Under the head of roadside beautification and the elimination of undesirable signs Mr. Sullivan inquired: "How about beautification in the center of the town?" He said that near a one time beautiful spot, that of the Colonial club located on High street, big and unsightly holes had been dug and wooden fence erected a "disgraceful condition." "Beautify the roadside next to the Westerly post office," he advised. He said that the owners of the Rhode Island hotel ruins were to be commended for the removal of the fire-swept tottering ruins, for all present remembered that for many years a gutted business block in the business center of Mystic had remained an eye sore until later removed. Mr. Sullivan declared he did not know how the owners could leave such an eye sore as the site of the Colonial club and urged all to ask the owners and the Wilcox park commissioners. "It makes you sick to look at it," he added, continuing "putting out Christmas decorations—have improvements made to the property now and not wait until 'the sweet bye and bye.'" In a follow up (to Max Novogroski, chamber member present) "who owns the property, Max?"

"I do," said he, when he arose.

Max Novogroski said that Mr. Sullivan, a member of the Westerly zoning board, ought to know the conditions and that it was due to the zoning board's condemning property that owners were unable to obtain its full value. Mr. Sullivan interrupted: "What he thinks and the facts are entirely different," and added, "if he rushed in to get a building line, a matter with which the zoning board has nothing to do, before a law became fully operative he should have the decency at least to leave it in a proper condition," and closed: "If anything goes wrong it is blamed on the zoning board. You owe it to the town to put it in a decent condition."

Mr. Novogroski said that at the present time it was not possible to build a business block and then wait for tenants, but that when the property was first sold plans were submitted for a handsome business block with limestone front and although he had nothing to say before, concerning the conditions, he said that all plans would have to be changed to have it built on a 7-foot set-back street-line and if one building should be made to build on that line all should be made to, including the present Westerly Furniture store, Hinckley-Mitchell block, which under the conditions imposed would project 7 feet beyond the new building to be built by him. The discussion closed when Mr. Novogroski said that he would in the immediate future have the fence removed and the lawn graded.

A third matter that will come before the regular or even a somewhat later date on the January meeting is that of a chamber dinner with a prominent speaker on which Frank G. Ahern, chairman of the reception committee, heads the committee of arrangements.

Dr. John Champlin, Jr., reported some progress made in the securing, in behalf of the health and sanitation committee, of a Westerly town ordinance requiring a health examination of Westerly public food handlers which he said was desired along lines required in Providence where cooks and waiters in restaurants and hotels, soda water dispensers and others dealing in prepared foods secure a license for a year. The payment of fees were a point on which chamber members differed somewhat, Dr. A. Howard Gold, Frank G. Ahern and others deeming the individual examined the one who should pay the examination fee. C. Palmer Chapman said that the Grade A Milk Dealers association for some time back required a physical examination of help and the employers paid the fees. The session closed with an extended description of the New England council session held in Boston, presented by Fred S. Opie, Frank A. Sullivan, Dr John Champlin, Sr., and others.

Real Estate Transfers

Recorded in the office of the Westerly town clerk appear the following transfers:

Dec. 2. Samuel H. Davis to John H. Austin of Pawcatuck, a certain lot or tract of land, Lot No. 49, Elmwood avenue, revised plan of Misquamicut park.

Dec. 3. Catherine E. Spellman to Angelo Gingeralla and wife, a lot or tract of land on the north side of Narragansett avenue and bounded northerly by lands of the Westerly Industrial and Improvement company.

Dec. 3. Oliver P. Crandall, to Westerly, R. I. Troop of Boy Scouts of America, Inc., a lot or parcel of land of approximately four and a half acres, located near Burden's pond and the Pawcatuck river, and bounded on all sides by lands now or formerly of Case Chapman, together with a right of way to the same to the Bradford road, so-called.

For the first time on Wednesday night the community Christmas tree on the site of the ruins of the Rhode Island hotel block in Dixon square was lighted. The festooning of myriad colored electric lights along the sidewalk edges of the principal business streets of Westerly and Pawcatuck were also lighted. Although the retail merchants generally had the illumination in front of their places of business there were a few gaps where the proprietors did not cooperate with the Retail Merchants' association and the South County Public Service Co., in securing this Christmas illumination.

Narragansett commandery, No. 27, K. T. of Westerly, George E. Leonard, commander, held its December conclave in the asylum, Masonic hall, on High street, Wednesday evening. A business session was held and the committee announced fo rthe annual commandery Christmas observance in its armory banquet hall on Christmas day at high noon with toast to Grand Master William L. Sharp of Chicago, Ill., the head of the grand encampment of Knights Templar.

On Tuesday evening Westerly grange, Patrons of Husbandry, held its annual meeting when the following officers were elected to serve for 1931: Master, William E. Owens, reelected; overseer, Linden F. Coombs; lecturer, Grace E. Chapman, steward Hugh Henson; chaplain, Hattie L. C. Barbour; treasurer, J. Hobart Chapman; secretary, Ethel T. James; gate keeper, Courtland R. Chapman; Ceres, Martha Owens; Flora, Daisy Crandall; Pomona, Mary E. Champlin; lady assistant, Ruth Henson; executive committee for three years, G. Maurice Nye; for two years, Ethan Gavitt; pianist, Margaret Fishwick; alternates to state grange, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wood.

The Men's class of the First Baptist church held their annual meeting in the Broad street church vestry on Tuesday evening when Robert Hazard was re-elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice president, Howard H. Barnes; secretary, Ward Alger; treasurer, Arthur J. Edmond; teacher, Judge Herbert W. Rathbun; assistant teacher, Albert G. Martin.

The election of officers followed a roast beef supper which was served to about 75 members of the club and their families at 7 o'clock by the ladies of the church. Music during the meal was furnished by Gould's orchestra.

Don't Pay
If This Fails To Knock Your Cold In Few Hours

Feel Like a New Person Almost Before You Know It

Hill's Cascara Quinine is GUARANTEED to knock a cold in a jiffy. To relieve the pain, to break up tightness. If it fails, you pay nothing.

This guarantee is made to prove to those who have tried fifty ways to lose a cold, that the surest way is to go back to first principles and use something that you KNOW does the work.

Take two tablets now. Then follow directions on box. Drink lots of water too—tha's all. You'll feel like a new person almos. before you now it. Pain eased, congestion broken; your mind cleared and yourself ready to go back on the job with a wallop.

That's because Hill's is a scientific formula made to DO ONE THING WELL: to knock colds in a hurry—not to cure a score of different troubles.

Coats only a few cents at any drug store. Get package now. Your money back if it fails. Try it—you'll be glad that you did.

HILL'S Cascara Quinine Compound

BE THRIFTY—SHOP THE PRINCESS SHOP BEFORE YOU BUY!

SALE READY THURSDAY 10 A. M!

This Is The Most Startling and Astonishing Event!!
The Values Offered During This Great Sale Are Breath Taking

GET HERE EARLY THURSDAY MORNING

LADIES OF NORWICH AND SURROUNDING TOWNS! YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELVES TO VISIT THE PRINCESS SHOP THURSDAY MORNING AND SAVE MONEY!

GREAT MANUFACTURERS' UNLOADING SALE
Today, Thursday, 10 a. m. Sharp

UNLOADING SALE IS PUBLIC'S GREATEST OPPORTUNITY!
People Will Be Amazed at the Low Prices!
GET HERE EARLY THURSDAY MORNING!

Read Every Item! See How Much You Save!

Hundreds of the Newest Coats-Dresses-Hats
WILL BE PLACED ON SALE AT THE MERCY OF THE PUBLIC AT THE LOWEST PRICES IN THE HISTORY
GET HERE EARLY!

1 HOUR SALE
A Rack Full of Dresses That Sold up to $10. Out they go during the Hour Sale at— $1.97
Get Here Early!

Breaking All Records For Values

READ EVERY ITEM BELOW. LET NOTHING KEEP YOU FROM THIS GREAT SALE!

DRESSES
The Smartest Dresses for Mothers, for Daughters. You'll wear these for every occasion! $6.97

AND

DRESSES
Everything That's New for STREET, AFTERNOON, SUNDAY NIGHT and PARTY DRESSES
Lowest Prices in Years! $8.97

DRESSES
A Limited Amount for the Early Comers. They Will Be Gone in a Few Minutes. Hurry!! Get Here Early! Buy Now and Save! $1

COATS
Hundreds of Women will save greatly at this Great Sale. Imagine beautiful Fur Trimmed Coats for only $22.97! $22.97

AND

COATS
The most remarkable Coats at these low prices. Look for them in this group. Buy Now and Save! $29.97

Dresses
Better Values. See these Beautiful new fashions, smartly styled. Great Value! $12.97

Coats
Smart Coats with luxurious Furs. Coat values were never so great! $39.97

THE VALUES AT THE DOWNSTAIRS STORE ARE AMAZING! NOT FOR YEARS HAVE SUCH BARGAINS BEEN POSSIBLE!

—COATS—
Women's and Misses' Beautiful Coats, richly furred. Heavy Crepe or Satin Lined. Plan to get here early and save money.
$14.97 — AND — $19.97

COATS
Never before have Coats like these been sold at this low Price— $12.97

SALE READY THURSDAY 10 A. M.
GET HERE EARLY!

—DRESSES—
These Prices will create a sensation. Arrange your home affairs. Get here early. Dresses at the lowest prices in Norwich.
...BUY NOW AND SAVE!..
$2.97 — AND — $3.97

Hats
New Models. Hundreds to select from. Buy Now and Save! 87c

HATS
For Miss and Matron. Plenty of Large Head Sizes $1.37

CHILDREN'S COATS
Mothers! Bring your Daughters to this Great Sale and Save Money.
GET HERE EARLY! SIZES 5 TO 14 $7.97

THIS PAGE GIVES YOU THE KEY TO BARGAINS EXCEEDING ANYTHING WE HAVE EVER ATTEMPTED. READ EVERY ITEM, THEN COME HERE AND SAVE!

PRINCESS SHOP
205 MAIN STREET
FRANKLIN SQUARE

DON'T MISS THIS GREAT SALE, OR YOU'LL REGRET IT FOR MONTHS!

PRICES WERE REACTIONARY IN A DULL SESSION OF STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Lacking leadership on either side, the stock market stumbled through an irregular session ending in a mild slump today.

Closing prices were a point or two lower and trading became more energetic during the late reaction which started about the time President Hoover's budget message appeared, but the day's volume of only 1,217,460 shares reflected the apathy in speculative circles. If professional traders were downcast by the president's stand against retention of the present 1 per cent income tax cut, they had compensating news in the announcements of higher steel prices.

Even with the increases of $1 a ton next quarter, steel will be selling about $5 under last January's levels. Considerable importance is placed on the upward revision, nevertheless, for Wall street believes that such prominent interests as U. S. Steel and Bethlehem would not take such action unless they felt it would succeed.

Current steel operations are down to 36 per cent of rated capacity, according to "Iron Age," while pig iron output in November was off 11 per cent from October, indications that seasonal declines have not been checked. The drop of 17.6 per cent in freight car loadings for the week ended Nov. 22, was with one exception the largest in comparison with 1929, on the percentage basis, of the year. Loadings fell about 21 per cent from last year in the mid-October week.

The reduction in the Phelps Dodge dividend from a $3 to a $2 annual basis leaves only one important copper producer, Howe-Sound, whose disbursements have not been affected by the depression. This was the first cut by Phelps Dodge; the stock was steady. United Carbon broke about 3 points when its quarterly dividend was cut to 25 cents from 50 cents. On the other hand, the Auburn Auto board voted the regular payments in cash and stock and the shares were strong, closing 3 points higher.

The market opened on a slow decline which extended throughout the first hour. On an equally slow rally the losses were recovered, but there was no vitality behind the improvement, and by early afternoon prices had begun the decline that carried to the close. The final dealings saw minor advances from the day's lows. Steel and metal shares' lost 2. Radio, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, United Corp., North American, Electric Power & Light, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck and National Biscuit averaged more than a point lower. Rails yielded ground in the last hour and there were new 1930 lows in Pere Marquette, off 6, and St. Louis-San Francisco.

The senate's decision to investigate recent declines in cotton found that staple heavy and the active months finished with losses of 90 cents to $1.05 a bale.

Wheat was steady, making nominal declines on favorable reports of Kansas weather and a slack export demand. Corn lost about a cent a bushel, with final quotations the day's lowest. Selling in Chicago was in sympathy with larger contract deliveries and a lower Kansas City market.

Sterling exchange was firm in common with most of the leading European rates, although the French franc reacted.

STOCKS.

Sales in 100s.		High	Low	Close
4	Abitl P & P	10	10	10
3	Abit P & P pr .	42	40¼	40¼
14	Adams Exp	20⅛	19⅝	19⅝
30	Adams Exp pr .	38	37	38
4	Adams Mills	22½	22¼	22¼
2	Addressog	30¼	30	30
2	Adv Rume	3⅞	3⅝	3⅞
3	Adv Rum pr	19	19	19
35	Air Reduct	106¼	104⅞	104⅞
9	Air W E Ap	10⅝	10⅛	10⅛
21	Ajax Rub	⅝	½	½
8	Ala & Vicks .. .	6¼	6	6⅛
2	A P W Pap	7½	7½	7½
35	Alleghany	10⅛	9¾	9¾
48	Al Chm & Dye ..	207½	203	204¼
4	Allis Ch Mfg ..	38⅝	38	38
3	Alph P Cem	16½	16⅛	16½
1	Amerada	21¼	21¼	21¼
1	N Am Ag Ch ct .	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Am Agr Ch	2½	2½	2½
15	Am A C pr	23	22½	23
1	Am Ag Ch pr ...	22½	22½	22½
4	Am Bank Note ..	61	60	60½
8	Am Beet Sugar .	4	3¾	3¾
2	Am Brake Sh ..	35½	35½	35½
6	Am Br B El .. .	11	10⅝	10⅝
30	Am B B pr ...	57	57	57
259	Am Can..	118¼	116¼	116⅝
2	Am Can pr	148⅝	148⅝	148⅝
8	Am Car & F	38¼	37½	37½
2	Am Chain	37	37	37
3	Am Com Al	12	11⅞	11⅞
48	Am & F Pw	39⅝	38	38½
2	Am Hawaii S S .	8¼	8	8¼
6	Am Home Prd ..	52	51⅝	51⅝
1	Am Ice	29¾	29¾	29¾
9	Am Intl	22	21⅝	21⅝
6	Am La F & F ...	¾	¾	¾
30	Am L F pr ..	9¾	9½	9¾
2	Am Loco	30½	30	30
2	Am Loco pr	80	79⅝	80
2	Am Mch & F	36	36	36
12	Am Metal	20⅝	19⅝	19⅝
100	Am Nat G pr .	35⅛	35½	35½
12	Am Pow & L	50	48	48
1	Am P & L 6 pc p	98¼	98⅛	98½
4	Am P&L pr A stp	81	79⅞	79⅞
22	Am Rad St San .	20	19⅝	19¾
10	Am Roll Mill ..	35⅝	34⅝	34½
2	Am Safety Raz ..	59	58⅞	58⅞
10	Am Shipbldg ...	39½	39½	39½
1950	Am Sm & R	53½	52¼	52¼
2	Tm Smelt pr ...	131¼	131¼	131¼
1	Am Sm 2 pr ...	98⅞	98⅞	98⅞
2	Am Solv & Ch ..	4	4	4
2	Am Stl Fdrs .. .	31	31	31
20	Am Stl F pr ...	111	111	111
39	Am Sumat Tob ..	11⅝	10½	10½
6250	Am Tel & Tel ..	190	187⅞	188½
4	Am Tob	106½	106¼	106¼
11	Am Tob B	109⅝	109	109
50	Am Type F pr .	106⅛	106	106
32	Am Wat Wks ...	64½	62⅛	62⅝
1	Am Woolen .. .	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
19	Am Wool pr ...	21⅝	20¼	20¼
1	Am Wtg P pr ..	20	20	20
3	Am Z L & S	5¾	5⅝	5⅝
12550	Anaconda ..	37⅞	36⅛	36½
1	Anacon W & C .	24	24	24
4	Anchor Cap .. .	32⅝	31⅝	32⅝
2	Archer Dan M .	17	16⅞	17
1	Armour Del pr .	72½	72½	72½
14	Armour Ill B ...	2¾	2⅝	2⅝
3	Armour Ill pr	49⅞	48	48
2	Arnold Const .. .	5¾	5⅝	5⅝
10	Ass App Ind	30	29	29
10	Ass Dry Gds .. .	27⅝	26⅞	27½
10	Asso Oil	39	39	39
12	Atchison	189	187½	187½
7	Atl Cst Line ...	121	120¼	120¼
12	Atl Ref	21⅞	21⅝	21⅝
30	Atl Pow pr	99	99	99
1	Atl Stores	11	11	11
293	Auburn Auto .. .	86	82	85⅞
20	Aust Nich pr A .	19	19	19
16	Aviation Co	3¾	3¾	3
52	Baldwin Loc .. .	26¾	26	26
150	Bald Loc pr	100½	100	100½
1450	Balt & Ohio ...	76	74	74
10	Bang & Ar pr .	110	110	110
1	Bang & Ar	87	87	87
11	Barnsdall A	14⅝	14½	14½
50	Bayuk 1 pr	90½	90½	90½
3	Beld Hem	3½	3⅜	3⅜
15	Bend Avia	18⅛	17⅝	17⅝
9	Best & Co	41⅝	41	41
147	Bethlehem	64½	62½	62⅝
1	Beth St 7pc p ...	119½	119¾	119½
5	Blaw Knox	27	26¾	27
2	Bohn Alum	23	23	23
1	Bon Ami	62¼	62¼	62¼
71	Borden	70	68⅞	69⅞
22	Borg Warner .. .	18⅝	18⅛	18⅛
43	Briggs Mfg .. .	17⅛	16⅛	16⅞
1	Brockway Mot ..	4½	4½	4½
7	Bklyn Man Tr .	65⅞	64¾	64¾
1	Bky & T pr .	56½	56½	56½
5	Bklyn Un Gas .	109½	108⅞	108¾
1	Bruns Bal .. .	11	11	11
10	Bruns T & Ray .	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝
11	Bucyr Erie .. .	16¾	15⅞	15⅞
4	Bucyr E cvt pr ..	28⅞	27⅞	28⅛
4	Budd Wheel ..	9½	9¼	9¼
2	Bruns Balke ..	11⅝	11	11⅝
42	Bulova Watch ...	16⅝	15⅝	16¼
2	Burns Bros A .	67	67	67
11	Burr Ad Mch ..	23½	22⅝	22⅝
6	Bush Term .. .	27	26	26
20	Bush Tr 7 pc p	105½	105	105½
1	But Copper .. .	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1	But & Sup M ...	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
5	Butterick	10⅝	10½	10½
6	Byers Co	45½	44¾	44¾
20	Byers pr ...	106¾	106¾	106¾
10	Cal & Ariz	41	39⅞	40
4	Calif Pack .. .	51½	51½	51½
9	Cal & Hec .. .	10⅛	10	10
2	Coop Wyant ..	13	13	13
67	Can D Gin Ale .	42⅝	40⅞	41
21	Can Pac .. .	42⅞	42½	42⅝
6	Cannon Mills .	20	20	20
33	Cap Adm A ..	10	9¾	9¾
3	Cap Adm pr A .	35	35	35
64	Case J I	112¾	110¼	110⅛
9	Caterpil Tr ..	32¼	32⅛	32⅛
1	Cavanagh Dob .	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
1	Celotex Co ..	8	8	8
100	Celotex Co pr .	24⅛	24⅛	24½
3	Central Ag ..	23	22⅞	23
2	Cerro de Pas ..	29⅝	29⅛	29⅝
1	Certainteed ...	3½	3½	3½
13	Checker Cab ..	22½	21⅞	22
18	Ches & Ohio ...	43⅛	43	43⅛
10	Ches Corp	45⅝	45¼	45⅝
2	Chic & Alton ..	1½	1½	1½
1	Chi & A pr ...	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	Chi Gt W pr ..	25½	25½	25½
22	Chi M St P&P .	7	6⅞	7
50	C M St P&P pr .	11⅝	11¼	11¼
14	Chi & N W	42	40⅞	40⅞
2	Chi Pneu T ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Chi Pneu T pr ..	34	34	34
4	C R I & P	61	60⅞	61
40	Chi Yel Cab ...	22⅞	22⅞	22⅞
1	C R I & P 6 pr..	89	89	89
19	Childs Co ...	30⅛	29¼	30
63	Chrysler	18⅝	17⅞	18
3	City Ice & F ..	37½	37⅜	37⅝
20	City I & F pr ..	83	82¼	83¼
1	City Stores ..	4	4	4
2	Cluett Peaby ..	27	26	26
20	Cluett Pea pr ..	102	102	102
5	Coca Cola	159	158	159
1	Coca Cola A ..	51¾	51¾	51¾
2	Colgate Palm ..	50⅛	50⅛	50⅛
2	Coll & Aik ..	15½	15⅛	15¼
6	Col Fuel & Ir ..	26⅛	25⅛	25½
69	Col G & E	37⅛	36⅛	36⅝
25	Colum Graph ..	11⅛	10⅞	11
7	Colum Carb ..	93	91⅝	91¾
6	Com Credit ..	20	20	20
10	Com Cr 6½ p xw	62	62	62
10	Com Cr 7 pr ...	23⅞	23⅞	23⅞
3	Com Inv Tr ..	28½	28	28
9	Com Pri B 5½ ..	81¾	81¾	81¾
1	Com Inv-T cv pr	84	84	84
1	Com In T wr stp	3½	3½	3¼
40	Cm InT 7pc pr	107	107	107
42	Coml Solv	18⅝	17¾	17¾
85	Comw Sou	9½	9⅛	9¼
8	Comw So pr	96⅝	95¼	96⅝
3	Congoleum ..	8⅞	8⅝	8⅝
5	Congress Cigar .	25½	24	24
60	Cons Cg 6½ pc p	62⅞	61½	62
10	ConCg6½pcprxw	62	62	62
1	Cons Film	13	13	13
29	Cons Gas	89⅝	87⅞	88¼
2	Cons Gas pr ...	103⅝	103⅝	103⅝
2	Cons RR Cu pr ..	37	37	37
32	Cons Textile ..	½	½	¼
1	Container A ..	13	13	13
2	Container B ..	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
33	Cont Bak A	23⅛	22	22½
13	Cont Bak B	3	3	3
1	Cont Bak pr	73¾	73¾	73¾
13	Contl Can..	50¼	49⅞	50
2	Cont Diam Fib ..	13	13	13
2	Contl Ins	47	47	47
8	Contl Mot ..	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝
53	Cont Oil Del ..	11⅝	11¼	11¼
30	Contl Shares ..	12⅞	12¼	12¼
9	Corn Prod	80	79	79
20	Corn Prod pr ..	147½	146¾	147½
9	Coty	10⅞	10¼	10⅞
5	Crex Carpet ..	16½	16¼	16¼
2	Crosley Radio ..	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
6	Crown Cork ..	41	40	41
3	Crown Cork pr ..	33½	33	33
4	Crucible Stl ..	57½	56½	56⅝
5	Cuba Cane Pr ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
2	Cuban Am Sug ..	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
3	Cudahy Pack ..	41¾	41	41
3	Curtis Pub	97	96¼	96¼
4	Curtis Pub pr .	117	116⅞	117
155	Curtiss Wright .	3⅛	2⅞	3
20	Curtiss Wr A ..	4½	4⅛	4⅛
20	Cushman 7 pc .	104	104	104
2	Deere & Co pr .	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛
5	Del Lack & W .	87	86¼	86¼
1	Diam Mat cfs ..	214⅛	214⅛	214⅛
1	Dominion St	15¼	15¼	15¼
35	Drug Inc	68⅝	66½	66½
1	Dul S S & A pr .	1¼	1¼	1¼
2	Dunhill Int ..	7¼	7¼	7¼
140	DuP de Nem ...	90⅝	88¼	88⅝
1	DuP deb	117¼	117¼	117¼
8	Eastman Kodak.	166	165½	165½
3	Eaton Ax & S ...	16	16	16
2	Elting Sch ..	4½	4½	4½
68	El Auto L	55	53⅛	54½
1	Elec Boat	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
77	El P & L	45	43⅝	44¼
3	El P & L 6pc p .	91	91	91
1	Elec Stor B	60⅞	60⅞	60⅞
1	Endi Johnson pr .	115	115	115
29	Erie R R	30⅛	29	29⅝
1	Eur Vac Cl	12	12	12
4	Evans Auto L ...	5	5	5
200	Exch Buff	22	22	22
120	Fairb pr	6⅛	5⅝	6
20	Fash Park pr ..	17	17	17
1	Fed Screw	14	14	14
10	Feder D St	19	19	19
2	Fid P Fire I ..	53½	52¾	52¾
2	Firest T & R ..	18⅝	18⅝	18⅝
4	Firest T&R pr ..	66⅝	63⅝	66⅝
4	First Nat St ...	44⅝	44⅝	44⅝
4	Fisk Rubber ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
24	Foster Whl	55	52	52
2	Foundation	6⅝	6	6⅝
4	Fourth N Inv ..	24	23	23¼
126	Fox Film A	32⅛	31⅛	31⅝
2	Freeport Texas .	33⅝	33⅝	33⅝
10	Gamewell ..	60¼	60¼	60¼
10	Gen Am Inv pr .	80	80	80
2	Gen Am Tank ...	67⅝	67⅝	67⅝
7	Gen Asphalt ..	30½	29½	29½
3	Gen Bronze ..	9½	9½	9½
4	Gen Cable A ..	27½	27½	27½
10	Gen Cable pr ..	69	69	69
4	Gen Cigar ..	36⅝	36¼	36¼
323	Gen Elect	50¼	48⅝	48½
10	Gen Elec spl ..	11½	11½	11½
77	Gen Foods	52¼	51⅛	51⅛
25	Gen G & E A .	5⅝	5½	5½
4	Gen G&E cv pr ..	56	52	52
2	Gen Mills ...	47⅝	47⅝	47⅝
1	Gen Mills pr ...	98⅝	98⅝	98⅝
291	Gen Motor	35⅝	34⅝	35⅛
2	Gen Mot pr ...	96⅝	96⅝	96⅝
3	Gen Out Ad A .	30	30	30
2	Gen Out Adv ..	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
2	Gen Rail Sig	70½	70½	70½
8	Gen Real & Ut ..	6¼	6	6⅛
4	Gen Refract ..	46¼	46⅛	46⅛
31	Gen Thea Eq ..	18⅛	17⅞	18
51	Gillette Saf R .	33⅞	32⅞	33
2	Gil Saf R pr ..	68⅝	68	68
1	Gimbel Bros ..	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
3	Glidden Co	9½	9¼	9¼
70	Glidden pr pr ..	73	73	73
11	Gobel Adolph ..	5⅝	5½	5½
160	Gold Dust	35½	34½	35
14	Goodrich	20⅛	19⅞	19⅞
1	Goodrich pr ..	71	71	71
9	Goodyear T ...	51	50	50
1	Gould Coup A ..	5	5	5
18	Graham Paige ..	4¼	4	4
7	Granby Con M .	19⅝	18⅝	18⅝
2	Grand Stl St	30⅝	30⅝	30⅝
3	Grand Un	12⅝	12⅝	12⅝
1	Granite C St ...	22¼	22	22
12	Gt Nor Ry pr .	64	63½	63⅝
13	Gt N I Or ctf .	23⅝	22⅝	22⅝
25	Gt West Sug ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
10	Gt West Su p..	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝
20	Greene Can C .	47⅛	47⅛	47⅛
65	Grigsby Grun ..	4	3⅝	3⅝
17	Hahn D St ..	9⅞	9⅛	9¼
3	Harb Walker ..	41⅞	41⅛	41⅛
1	Helme (GW)	84	84	84
20	Helme pr	135	135	135
20	Hercules P p ...	116¼	114¼	116½
6	Hershey Choc ..	89	88¼	88¼
4	Hersh cv pr .	94⅛	94	94¼
1	Hollander	6	6	6
1	Houd Her B	5⅝	5½	5⅝
1	Househ F pr ...	65½	65½	65½
4	Houston Oil ..	42½	41⅝	41⅝
2	Houston O new .	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
23	Howe Sound ..	26	25⅛	25⅛
25	Hudson Mot ..	25⅞	24½	24⅞
9	Hupp Motor ..	9⅝	9⅛	9¾
12	Illinois Cent ..	81	79⅞	80⅝
1	Ind Motorcy	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
120	Ind M pr as .	29½	28	28
36	Indian Refin ..	4⅝	4¼	4¼
3	Ind Ray	55	53	53
4	Inger Rand ..	180	179	179
3	Inspir Cop ..	10⅛	10	10
1	Insuransh Md .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
4	Interlake Ir ..	12⅞	12⅛	12⅞
5	Internat Ag ..	4	4	4
9	Int Bus Mach .	153⅞	150	150
11	Int Car Ltd	10⅝	10	10⅛
12	Int Comb E ..	2¼	2⅛	2⅛
1	Int Comb E pr .	29	29	29
20	Int Dept St pr ..	63	63	63
8	Int Harvest ..	59⅝	59⅛	59⅝
1	Int Hydro El A .	27⅝	27½	27⅝
4	Int Mat ptc pr ..	63½	63	63
29	IntMer M ctfs ..	17⅛	16⅝	16⅝
172	Int Nick Can ..	19	18⅛	18⅛
110	Int P 7 pc pr ..	43½	43¼	43⅝
17	Int PPP P& P A .	7¼	7¼	7¼
8	Int P & P pr .	40	40	40
1	Int Print Ink ..	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
1	Int Salt	38⅛	38⅛	38⅛
10	Int Silver pr ...	93	93	93
5213	Int T & Tel ..	27½	27	27⅜
1	Invest Equity .	7½	7½	7½
2	Isl Crk C	31	30½	31
8	Jewel Tea .. .	45⅛	45⅛	45⅛
16	Johns Manv ..	69⅛	68	68⅛
60	Jones & L S pr	120	120	120
1	Jordan Motor ..	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Kan City So ..	43	43	43
1	Kan City S pr .	61	61	61
7	Karstadt Rud ..	8	7¾	8
4	Kayser J	17	16⅝	16⅝
4	Kelly Spring ..	2	2	2
30	Kelly Sp 6pc p .	31	31	31
10	Kelly Sp 7pc p.	15	12¼	14
1	Kelsey H W	23⅝	23⅝	23⅝
62	Kelvinator ..	10⅛	9⅝	9⅝
100	Kendall pr ..	36	36	36
87	Kennecott ..	29⅝	28¼	28⅝
20	Kolster Rad ..	1¼	1¼	1¼
2	Kresge S S ..	28¼	27⅞	27⅞
98	Kreug & T ..	24⅛	23⅝	24
10	Kroger Groc ..	24	24	24
25	Lambert	82¼	79⅞	80½
1	Lane Bryant ..	19½	19½	19½
1	Leh Val R R ..	53	52	53
17	Lehman Corp ..	59⅞	59⅝	59⅝
11	Lehn & Fink ..	26½	26½	26½
4	Libbey O Fr G .	13⅝	13⅛	13⅛
4	Ligg & My B ..	85	84⅝	85
10	Lima Loco ..	28⅛	27	27
1	Link Belt	33⅛	33⅛	33⅛
4	Liquid Carb ..	50	49	49
49	Loew's	57⅞	56½	56½
2	Loft	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
2	Loose Wil Bisc .	52⅝	52½	52⅝
37	Lorillard P ..	13⅝	13	13¼
4	Louisiana Oil ..	5	4⅞	5
2	Louis G&E A .	31	30⅞	31
8	Ludlum Steel ..	14⅝	13⅝	13⅝
1	MacAn & Forb ..	24	24	24
22	Mack Truck ..	44½	42⅝	43¼
8	Macy R H ...	110¼	109	110¼
14	Macy R H	110¼	108	108
5	Mad Sq Gar ..	6⅝	6¼	6⅝
12	Magma Cop ..	24⅞	24	24¼
2	Mallinson ..	3⅝	3⅛	3⅝
3	Mandel Bros ..	7	7	7
7	Manh El m gtd .	37	33¼	26¼
1	Manh Shirt ..	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
9	Marine Midl ..	22⅝	21⅝	22
2	Market St Ry ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
2	Mark S R pr pr .	19⅝	19⅜	19½
3	Marlin Rock ..	24⅞	24½	24½
1	Marmon Mot ..	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
10	Marsh Field ..	32	31¼	31⅝
12	Math Alkali ..	38½	37½	38½
5	May Dept St ..	35⅞	35	35
6	Maytag	6⅛	6	6
1	Maytag pr ww .	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
7	McCall ..	35	34⅞	35
4	McKeesp T ..	73⅝	73	73½
55	McKess & Rob ..	17⅛	16⅛	17⅛
16	McKess & R pr ..	38½	37⅛	38⅛
18	McLellan St ..	8¼	8	8¼
1	Mengel	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
9	Mex Seab Oil ..	13⅝	13	13
4	Miami Cop ..	10¼	10	10
6	Mich Steel ..	44⅞	44½	44½
6	Mid Cont Pet ..	16⅝	16⅝	16⅝
3	Midland Steel .	23⅛	22½	22
1	Min Honey ..	43	43	43
4	Minn M Imp ..	6	5⅞	6
1	Minn W I pr ...	54	54	54
6	Mo Kan T ..	22¼	22	22
3	Mo K T pr ..	75½	74¼	74¼
19	Mo Pacific ..	31	28	28
31	Mo Pac pr	102	100½	100½
2	Mohawk Cpt ..	11⅛	11⅛	11½
3	Monsanto Ch ..	27½	27	27⅛
319	Montg Ward ..	23	21⅝	22
2	Mother Lode ..	⅜	⅜	⅜
54	Moto M Gau ..	2⅞	2⅛	2⅛
14	Murray Corp ..	14	13⅞	13⅞
29	Nash Motors ..	28¼	28	28
46	Nat Acme ..	8¼	7⅞	8
16	Nat Bell Hess .	4⅝	4⅛	4⅛
32	Nat Biscuit ..	79⅞	79⅛	79⅞
7	Nat C R A ..	31½	31	31⅛
40	Nat Dairy P xd.	43⅝	42⅝	43¼
1	Nat Dept St ..	8	8	8
20	Nt Dept St 1 pr	75	75	75
22	Nat Distil ..	26¼	25	25¾
29	Nat P & Lgt ..	38	37	37
2	Nat Ry M 2 pr ..	⅛	⅛	⅛
4	National Tea ..	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
33	Nev Con Cop ..	13	12⅝	12⅝
27	N Y Central ..	131⅝	128⅝	128⅝
4	N Y Ch & St L .	81⅝	81	81
5	N Y Investors ..	14⅝	14⅝	14⅝
40	NY Lck & W ..	105	105	105
1	N Y N H & H .	84⅛	84⅛	84⅛
9	NY NH & H pr .	116	115⅝	115⅝
1	N Y Rys pr ..	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
1	Norfolk Sou ..	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
2	Norfolk & W ..	208	207¾	208
8	No Am Avia ..	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
185	North Amer ..	73	71	72⅛
6	No Ger Lloyd ...	34⅛	33⅝	33⅝
11	North Pac ..	54⅛	53⅛	53⅝
3	Norwalk T & R .	⅜	⅜	⅜
92	Ohio Oil ..	18⅝	18	18⅛
33	Oliver Farm ..	3⅝	3⅛	3⅛
53	Oliver F cv ..	6⅝	5⅛	5⅛
2	Oliver F p p ..	19	19	19
5	Omnibus	5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
1	Omnibus pr ..	69	69	69
2	Oppenhm Col ..	28⅛	28	28
10	Otis Eleva ..	58⅛	57½	58
4	Otis Steel ..	14⅝	13⅝	13⅝
8	Owens Ill G ..	30⅝	29	29
1	Pac Coast ..	6	6	6
10	Pac C 1st pr ..	11	11	11
3	Pac G & E ..	49¼	49	49¼
1	Pac Light ..	59⅛	59⅛	59⅛
31	Packard Mot ..	9⅞	9⅝	9⅝
2	Pan A P S	43	43	43
42	Para Publix ..	45⅝	44½	44½
3	Park & Tilf ..	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
3	Park Utah ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
4	Parmelee Tr ..	4½	4½	4½
42	Pathe Exch ..	3⅝	3½	3½
18	Pathe Exch A ..	7⅛	7	7
2	Patl Min ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
6	Pen & Ford ..	39⅝	38⅝	35
12	Penney J C ..	34⅛	34	34
41	Penn R R	60⅝	59⅞	60
3	Pere Marq ..	100	97	97
10	Pere M pr pr .	90	90	90
14	Petro Corp ..	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛
9	Phelphs odge ..	26⅛	26⅛	26⅝
1	Phila Co 6 p p ..	55	55	55
3	Phila R C & I ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Philip Morris ..	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
15	Phillips Pet ..	19⅛	18⅝	19
6	Pierce Oil pr ..	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛
5	Pierce Pet ..	2⅝	2⅜	2⅜
1	Pills Flour ..	29½	29½	29½
14	Pirelli	38⅛	37⅞	38½
2	Pitts Coal ..	25	24⅞	25
10	Pitt Ft W pr .	153⅛	153⅛	153⅛
2	Pitts T Coal ..	4½	4	4
1	Porto R A T B ..	6	6	6
6	Post T&C 7 pr .	40	40	40
11	Prairie O & G ..	17⅝	17¼	17⅝
16	Prairie Pipe L .	27⅞	26⅛	26⅛
1	Press St Car.. .	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
5	Proct & Gamb ..	66	65	65½
11	Prod & Ref .	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
130	Prod & R pr ...	14⅝	14⅛	14⅛
32	Pub Ser N J	76¼	74⅝	74⅝
2	P Sr NJ 6 pc pr .	112⅝	112⅛	112⅝
1	Pb Sr E&G pr ..	111	111	111
1	Pullman	61	61	61
9	Pure Oil ..	11	10⅝	10⅝
100	Pure Oil pr	104	102⅝	102½
9	Purity Bak ..	46	45⅛	46
365	Radio	17⅛	16⅛	16⅝
4	Radio pr B ...	43½	42⅝	42⅝
8	Radio pr	50⅛	50	50
84	Radio Kei Or ..	21⅝	20½	20⅝
0	Raidroad Sec ..	65	60	65
1	Raybestos M ..	22	22	22
1	Real Silk ..	33⅝	33⅝	33⅝
17	Rem Rand ..	18⅛	18	18
1	Rem Rand 1 pr ..	90	90	90
2	Reo Motor ..	9⅝	9½	9½
52	Repub Steel ..	19⅛	18⅛	18½
6	Rep St cv pr ..	44	43	43⅝
4	Reynolds Met ...	14	13⅝	14
2	Reynolds Sp ..	2½	2½	2½
20	Reynolds Tob ..	75	75	75
13	Rey Tob B ..	44⅞	44⅝	44⅝
117	Rich Oil Cal ..	8	6¼	8
4	Rio Grande Oil .	8¼	8¼	8¼
2	Ritter Dental ..	32	31¼	31¼
14	Rossia Ins ..	22⅞	21½	21½
9	Roy Dut sh ..	41½	41¼	41¼
2	Safeway St ..	51⅝	51⅝	51⅝
50	Safew St 6 pr ..	94	94	94
7	St Jos Lead ..	27⅝	26⅞	27
23	St L San Fr ..	61⅝	59⅞	59⅞
3	St L San F pr ..	76	75⅞	76
1	St L South ..	28¼	28¼	28¼
1	St L South pr ..	44	44	44
5	Savage Arms ..	18⅝	16	16½
2	Schulte Ret ..	4⅞	4½	4½
6	Seab Air pr ..	2	2	2
56	Seab Air ..	1⅛	1	1⅛
1	Seagrave ..	7	7	7
6	Sears Roebuck ..	55⅝	54	54⅝
1	Sec Nat Inv ..	4	4	4
2	Second Nat pr ..	47	46	46
1	Seneca Cop ..	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
30	Servel Inc ..	5⅛	4⅝	4⅝
1	Sharp & Doh ..	17	17	17
13	Shatt F G ..	27⅝	27	27⅛
30	Shell Union ..	9⅛	8⅞	8⅞
2	Shell Un pr ..	71	70½	70½
1	Shubert The ..	6	6	6
31	Simmons	18⅛	17½	17½
20	Simms Pet ..	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
74	Sinclair Con ..	12⅞	12⅝	12⅝
3	Skelly Oil ..	13½	13½	13½
5	Snid Pack pr ..	11	9	9
6	Solv A I pr ww .	97¼	96½	96½
4	So Cal Ed ..	47⅝	47⅛	47⅝
2	South Dair B ..	4½	4½	4½
10	South Pac ...	102⅝	100⅛	100⅛
44	So P R Sug ..	16⅞	15⅝	15⅝
20	So P R S pr ..	108	108	108
1	So R M&O ctf ..	78⅝	78⅝	78⅝
12	Southern Rail ..	65⅛	63⅝	63⅝
48	Sparks With ..	11⅛	11	11
200	Spear & Co ..	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1	Spencer Kell ..	12	12	12
3	Spieg M St ..	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
62	Stand Brands ..	19	17½	18½
4	Stand Com Tob ..	5	4⅞	5
5	Stand G & E ..	69	68	68⅝
3	Std Invest ..	3	3	3
3	St Oil Exp pr ...	103½	103½	103½
19	St Oil Cal ..	49⅝	49⅛	49½
1	Std Oil Kan.. ..	19	19	19
46	Std Oil N J	54¼	53½	53⅝
51	Std Oil N Y ..	25½	25½	25½
2	Stl Sec A ..	4½	4½	4½
11	Stl Sec pr ..	8½	7¾	8⅛
5	Stl S cv pr ..	34½	33½	34¼
4	Stewart Warn ..	20	19⅞	19⅞
9	Stone & Web ..	52⅛	51	51
7	Studebaker ..	24	23½	23⅝
18	Submarine Boat .	⅛	⅛	⅛
2	Sun Oil ..	49⅛	49	49⅛
70	Sun Oil pr	104¼	104	104
2	Superior Oil ..	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1	Superior Stl ..	7	7	7
1	Sweets Co ..	11	11	11
1	Symington A ..	6	6	6
3	Tenn Corp ..	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
85	Texas Corp ..	38⅛	37⅞	38⅛
44	Tex Gulf Sul ..	53⅛	51½	51⅛
8	Tex P C & O ..	6¼	6	6
6	Tex P L Tr	14¼	13¾	13¾
10	The Fair pr ..	106½	106½	106½
6	Thermoid ..	5⅞	5½	5⅞
1	Third Ave ..	8½	8½	8½
1	Third Nat In ..	21	21	21
1	Thompson Str ..	5	5	5
38	Tide Wat As ..	8¼	8	8
38	Tide Wat As ..	8½	8	8
1	Tide W O pr ..	82	82	82
2	Timk D A ..	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
9	Timk Rol Br ..	47⅝	46¾	46¾
2	Tob Prod	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
18	Tob Prd A ..	11⅝	11⅛	11⅛
91	Transamerica ..	15⅝	15⅛	15⅝
5	Tri Cont Cor.. ..	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
9	Tri Cont pr	94	94	94
1	Trico Prd ..	31¼	31¼	31¼
2	Truscon St ..	22½	22½	22½
2	Twin C R T ..	11⅛	11	11
20	Twin City pr ..	56½	50½	50½
6	Underw El ..	71½	70	71½
119	Union Carbide ..	63⅛	61⅝	62
11	Union Oil Cal ..	26⅝	25½	25½
7	Union Pac ..	184⅝	184⅝	184½
2	Un Tank C ..	25⅛	25	25
105	Unit Airc ..	30⅛	28⅝	28⅝
1	Unit Airc pr ..	54½	54½	54½
1	Unit Bisc ..	38⅛	38⅛	38⅛
33	Unit Carbon ..	25	23⅛	23
11	Unit Cigar	4⅝	4½	4⅝
1	Unit Cig pr ..	62	62	662
160	Unit Corp ..	19⅝	19⅝	18⅝
3	Unit Corp pr ..	49⅝	48⅞	49
2	Un Elec Coal .	4	4	4
4	Unit Fruit ..	67	66½	66½
31	Unit G & Im ..	29¼	28⅛	28⅛
6	Un Piece Dye ..	25	23⅛	23¼
1	U S & F S	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
2	U S Freight ..	29⅞	28½	28½
5	U S Hoff Mach ..	8	7	7
21	U S Ind Al ..	68⅛	65⅝	65⅝
2	U S Leath ..	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1	U S Lea pr pr ..	68	68	68
12	U S Pipe ..	30½	29⅝	29½
1	U S Pipe 1 pr .	18	18	18
14	U S Real & Im ..	33⅞	33	33
11	U S Rubber ..	16	15⅝	15⅝
6	U S Rub 1 pr ..	29	28	28
1	U S Smelt & R ..	23½	23½	23½
342	U S Steel ..	147½	145⅝	145⅝
2	U S Steel pr ...	146⅛	146⅛	146⅛
1	United St A ..	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
8	United St pr ..	39⅞	39	39
20	Univ Leaf p ..	102½	102½	102½
30	Univ Pict 1 pr .	41	40	40
1	Univ Pi & R ..	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
23	Util P & L A ..	26⅞	26	26
4	Vadsco ..	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2	Vadsco pr ..	20	20	20
309	Vanadium ..	55⅝	53⅝	54
20	V E&P 6pc pr .	104⅛	104	104
1	Virg Car Ch ..	2½	2½	2½
20	Vulcan Det ..	50	50	50
2	Waldorf Sys ..	24	24	24
360	Ward Bak A ..	18	17⅛	17⅛
1	Walworth ..	16	16	16
95	Warner Pict ..	18⅝	17⅝	17⅝
21	Ward Bak B ..	5⅝	5⅛	5⅛
4	Warner Quin ..	6	6	6
5	Warren Bros ..	33⅞	33	33
3	Webster Eisen ..	8⅝	8¼	8¼
2	Wes Oil & S ..	23⅝	23	23⅝
20	Penn El A ...	102	102	102
20	W Penn E 7 pc ..	104	104	104
70	W Penn E 6 pc .	95⅛	95	95⅛
20	W Pen P 7 pc .	116	115	115
40	W Pen P 6pc .	109	109	109
1	West Dairy A ..	28	28	28
11	West Dairy B ..	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
4	West Mary ..	15⅛	14⅝	14⅝
3	West Pac pr ..	30	30	30
7	West Un Tel ..	141	139⅛	139⅛
13	Westinf Air ..	34	33⅝	34
248	West E & Mfg .	101⅝	99⅛	99⅝
20	W E&M 1 pr ..	111⅛	111	111
5	Wh Sew M ..	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
1	Wilcox Rh A...	20	20	20
3	Willys Over ..	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
1	Willys Over pr .	51⅛	51⅛	51⅛
4	Dilson A ..	7⅝	7	7
61	Woolworth ..	63⅛	61½	61⅝
23	Worth P & M .	81⅝	79	79
1	Wrigley Jr ..	68	68	68
8	Yale & Towne ..	33	33	33
17	Yel T & C ..	11⅛	10⅞	11
5	Young S & W ..	24⅝	24⅛	24⅝

Treasury Balance.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3—(AP)—Treasury receipts for December 1 were $5,036,312.36; expenditures $6,776,391.25; balance $82,047,606.46.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—High-grade domestic bonds held steady as second grade issues moved a shade lower in a very quiet session today.

A few wide movements stood out in sharp contrast with the narrow groove followed by the domestic list as a whole, notably Pathe Exchange 7s, which staged a spectacular advance of 15 3-4 points, possibly reflecting rumors that the company was to be acquired by Radio-Keith-Orpheum.

While the report lacked confirmation, the bonds with warrants attached opened nearly 2 points higher at 52 and closed at 65 7-8, compared with a year's high of 80 and a minimum of 36. Other amusement bonds joined the advance. Shubert Theatres 6s gained 3 points and Paramount Famous Lasky 6s and Paramount Publix 5 1-2s were nearly a point higher.

Activity in U. S. governments was at low ebb. Trading was confined to Liberty bonds, and the few sales were at prices a small fraction under the previous final quotation. A note of caution has been introduced into the bidding in view of the remote possibility that the government may find it necessary to issue more bonds which would have an adverse affect on the prices of outstanding issues. Dealers in governments generally see little likelihood of such a contingency. Dec. 15 maturities which may amount to about $500,000,000, are expected to be refunded through one issue of one-year treasury certificates.

Offering of $15,000,000 Federal Intermediate Credit bank debentures was announced today by Charles R. Dunn fiscal agent. The debentures carry 3 per cent interest and mature in from six to 12 months. The debentures are secured by loans and discounts representing advances made from production and marketing crops and livestock as provided under an act of congress. The entire capital of the 12 banks was subscribed for by the United States treasury and all the banks are liable for the principal and interest. The six months maturities are priced to yield 2.76 per cent and the remainder are offered at par.

Foreign bonds were steady to firm. Most of the active issues reflected a very steady tone. Wide movements were mostly on the up side and included Berlin City 6s, Bulgaria 7 1-2s, Chile 6s, Electric Power of Germany 6 1-2s, New South Wales 5s, Hungarian Municipal 7 1-2s, Uruguay 8s, Rhine Westphalian 6s, and Sydney City 5 1-2s. Medillion Municipal 6 1-2s sagged 8 points to a new 1930 low.

U. S. BONDS.

(U. S. Government Bonds in Dollars and Thirty-Seconds of Dollars.)

	High	Low	Last
1st Lib 4¼s '32-47	103	102.28	102.31
4th Lib 4¼s '33-38	103.23	103.20	103.22
Treas 3⅜s '40-43	102.8	102.6	102.6

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Sliding down nearly 2c a bushel, corn today suddenly reversed its higher trend, and pulled other grain values lower. Heavy profit taking in corn found demand inadequate and pit observers said the market had been over-bought. There were also reports of enlarged rural offerings of corn here.

Closing quotations on corn were nervous, 3-4a1 3-4c lower than yesterday's finish. Wheat closed unchanged to 1-2c off, oats 3-8a7-8c down, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15c.

CHICAGO GAIN MARKET.

Wheat—	High	Low	Close
Dec. new ...	77	76	76⅛
Dec. old ...	76¾	75⅝	76
Mar. new ...	79⅝	78½	78¾
Mar. old ...	79⅝	78	78¾
May new ...	81⅝	80⅝	80⅝
Mey old ...	80⅞	79⅝	80
Corn—
Dec. new ...	78⅝	76⅞	76⅞
Dec. old ...	78½	76⅝	76⅝
Mar. new ...	81¼	80⅛	80¼
Mar. old ...	81	79½	79½
Mar. new ...	83¼	81½	81⅝
Ma yold ...	83	81¼	81¼
Oats—
Dec. old ...	36¼	35½	35⅝
Mar. new ...	38⅛	37⅛	37½
Mar. old ...	38⅝	37	37⅛
May new ...	39⅝	38⅝	38¼
May old ...	39⅛	38	38⅛

BANKS, INS., UTILITIES

HARTFORD.

Fire Insurance Companies.

	Bid	Asked
Aetna Casualty	74	78
Aetna Fire	49½	51½
Aetna Life	60½	62½
Auto Ins	28½	30½
Comm Cen	120	124
Hartford Fire	60¼	62½
Hfd Steam Boiler	52	55
Nat Fire	56½	58¼
Phoenix Fire	70	72
Travelers	970	990

Public Utilities.

	Bid	Asked
Conn Elec Serv	65	70
Conn L&P 5½ p pr	103	106
Conn L&P 6½	111	114
Conn Power x	61½	63½
Greenwich W&G 6pc p	..	91
Hfd Gas com	73	77
Hartford Gas pr	42	46
Hfd Elec Light	66	69
Holyoke Wat Pow	..	475
So N E Tel Co	158	163

NEW YORK.

Bank Stock

	Bid	Asked
American	64	67
Bank of U S	12½	13½
Chase	101	103
Chelsea	22	25
Chatham Ph	80	82
Chemical	49	51
City	104	108
Corn Exch	135	140
First National	3825	3950
Fifth Avenue	2450	2650
Harriman	1500	1600
Manhattan	86	88
Public Natl	73	75
Seward Natl	70	75

Trust Companies.

	Bid	Asked
Bankers	109	112
Bank of N Y	605	625
Bronx County	47	53
Brooklyn	605	615
Cent Hanover	244	250
Empire	54	56
Fulton	460	500
Guaranty	488	495
Irving Trust	36½	38
Manufacturers	46	49
N Y Trust	170	175
Times Square (new)	10	14
Title G & S T	135	139

FOEIGN EXCHANGE.

Sterling—	Wednesday	Year Ago
Demand	$4.85 7-16	$4.87⅝
Cables	4.85 9-16	4.86 3-16
France	3.93	3.94
Lire	5.24⅛	5.2311-16
Swiss francs	19.37½	19.43⅝
Pesetas	11.23	13.95¼
Belgian belga	13.94⅛	13.99½
Greece	1.29⅝	1.30¼
Guilders	40.21¼	40.37½
Marks	23.85	23.95½
Schilling	14.95¼	14.25
Sweden	26.85½	26.93
Denmark	26.74½	26.81½
Norway	26.74½	26.81½
Argentina	34.28	41.62

THE CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Liquidation of utility issues tipped the scales toward reaction in another listless session of the curb market today. Transactions aggregated 406,300 shares.

American Gas & Electric appeared to have discounted in advance the announcement of a 20 per cent stock distribution, for after moving up a fraction, the issue sagged to close with a loss of 1 1-4. Electric Bond & Share, United Light A and American & Foreign Power warrants lost a point or more. American Super Power declined 3-4. Utilities Power & Light held steady, and Niagara Hudson and Middle West eased only 1-4 of a point.

In the oils, extensive selling broke out in Cities Service, which dropped 1 3-4 points, then reduced its loss to 1 point flat. Gulf, Humble and Kentucky, however, closed with only fractional declines and Indiana was steady. South Penn rallied a point. The weekly petroleum statistics, showing a further reduction in crude output but resumed accumulation of gasoline at refineries, seemed to have little effect on the market.

There was some activity in mining issues, but trends were mixed. Mayflower, an investment trust with substantial holdings in this group, rose 3-4 of a point. Newmont also gained a fraction and Hudson Bay closed a shade higher. Heckla Mining, an infrequently traded issue, appeared at 8 3-4, off 3-4, and Noranda eased slightly.

Industrials were mostly neglected. Aluminum Co. rose 5 points in a few sales. Franklin Manufacturing preferred sold at 39 1-2, a net loss of 11 1-2. General Laundry dropped from 2 to a price of 1 point. Neet, Inc., and Western Air Express traded at new low levels for the year.

In the natural gas group, Missouri Kansas Pipe Line dropped more than a point to a new low at 6 3-8, then regained most of its loss. Duquesne was firm.

Sales in 100s		High	Low	Close
1	Aero Ind war ...	½	½	½
1	Aero Undcr . ..	7½	7½	7⅛
1	Affiliated Prod ..	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
1	Ainsworth	12	12	12
2	Air Invest war ...	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Air Invest vtc ...	1½	1½	1½
5	Alexander Ind ...	⅞	⅞	⅞
14	Allied Mills . .	6⅛	5⅝	6
1	Alum Co Am ...	168	168	168
3	Alum Goods .. .	16½	16½	16½
1	Alum Ltd	75	75	75
3	Am Aust Cer .. .	2	2	2
3	Am Capit B ..	5	5	5
1	Am Cap pr	29½	29½	29½
2	Am C P&L A .	35⅝	34⅝	35⅝
13	Am Cit P&L B .	8¼	7⅞	8¼
23	Am Com Pow A .	14⅝	14⅛	14½
39	Am Cyan B .. .	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
5	Am Equities . .	6¼	6	6
7	Am & F Pow wr	23⅝	21⅞	21⅞
20	Am Founders .. .	5½	5½	5½
2182	Am Gas & E .	94½	92⅝	92⅝
30	Am Invest B	5⅝	5¼	5¼
1	Am Lt & Trac ..	44	44	44
50	Am Mfg	38	38	38
11	Am Maracaibo . .	1	⅞	1
33	Am Sup Pow .. .	13¼	12⅝	12½
1	Am Sup Pow 1 p	89¼	89¼	89¼
8	Am Thread pr .	3	3	3
21	Am Ut & G B vtc	5¼	4⅞	5
4	Ark Nat Gas ..	8½	6⅝	6⅝
28	Ark Nat Gas A .	6½	6⅜	6⅜
30	Asso G & E A .	19⅝	19	19½
3	Asso G&E db rts	2	1⅝	2
1	Asso Ray pr ...	30	30	30
10	Atl Cst Fish ...	7	7	7
2	Atlas Ply	10⅞	10⅞	10⅞
6	A V M c p pt .	6	5⅞	6
7	Av Crp Am .. .	24¼	23⅞	24⅛
2	Bahia Corp	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
60	Bel T Can.	147½	147½	147½
14	Blue Ridge . .	4⅝	4½	4⅝
9	Bl Rdg cvt pr .	34⅝	34¼	34⅝
2	Bourjois	6⅞	6⅝	6⅞
9	B T & L	25⅞	25⅛	25⅝
18	Buf N & E P p	26	26	26
1	Cab R T vtc ..	1	1	1
51	Cab & Wire A ..	1	1	1
38	Cab & W B	½	½	½
20	Cab & Wire pr ..	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
27	CAM Co vtc .. .	¼	¼	¼
5	Can M Wire .. .	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
4	Carib Syn	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
25	Celan 1 pr ...	62¼	62¼	62¼
10	C P S A	15⅝	15¼	15¼
1	C & S W Util ...	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
3	Cnt St El	11⅞	11¾	11⅞
1	Cent St El pr ...	97	97	97
1	Chain Str St ...	8	8	8
6	Chath P Al nv ..	15⅝	15¼	15¼
6	Chic Nipple A .	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
310	Cities Service ..	19⅝	18⅛	18⅞
3	Cit Serv pr .. .	89¼	89⅛	89⅛
1	Clark Lighter A .	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Cleve Elec Ill ..	48¼	48¼	48¼
1	Cleve Tract . .	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
8	Club Alum Ut ...	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
12	Colon Oil	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Colomb Syn	⅛	⅛	⅛
5	Col Oil & G vtc .	6⅝	6⅛	6⅛
1	Colum Pict vtc ..	22	22	22
29	Com & So war .	2⅛	2	2
2	Com Wat Kks ...	9½	9½	9½
8	Cons Cop Min ...	3⅛	3¼	3¼
3	Con G&E Balt ...	88	87⅝	87⅝
2	Cons Laundries .	12¼	12	12
20	Cons Ret St .. .	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
50	Cont G&E pr pr	100½	100½	100½
4	Cooper Bess .. .	23⅝	22½	23⅝
1	Copeland A .. .	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
12	Cord Corp	5¼	4⅞	5⅛
1	Cor & Rey pr A.	50	50	50
6	Creole Pet	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1	Crocker & Wh .	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
2	Crosse & Bl pr .	23	23	23
1	Curt Wr war ..	⅝	⅝	⅝
28	Dayton Airpl	3¼	2⅝	3¼
27	Deere & Co ...	48	47½	48
25	De Forest	2⅛	1⅞	1⅞
2	Derby Oil	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
16	Detroit Aircr ...	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
42	Dia Mat new ..	18	17⅛	17⅛
10	Dia M pr new ..	24⅝	24½	24½
1	Dogh Die Cst	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞
2	Dresser Mfg A .	35½	35½	35½
1	Driver Harris . .	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛
2	Dubilier Cond	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
4	Duquesne Gas . .	4⅝	4	4⅝
22	Durant Mot .. .	1⅝	1½	1⅝
1	Duval Tex Sul ..	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
125	East G & F ...	20⅛	20⅛	20⅛
1	Educat Pic pr .	18	18	18
4	Eisler Elec	5½	5½	5½
278	El Bnd & Sh ...	48⅝	46⅞	46⅞
1	El Bnd&Sh 5 pc	92¼	92¼	92¼
3	El Pow Asso ..	14⅝	14¼	14¼
10	El Pow Asso A ..	14	13⅝	13⅝
6	El P&L opt w .	24⅝	24⅝	24⅝
1	Elect Share .. .	18⅝	18½	18½
50	Elgin Nat Wtch.	20	20	20
7	Empire Corp .. .	2	1⅞	1⅞
2	Empire Pow	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛
2	Empire Fire In .	5⅛	5	5
1	Emp G&F 7 pc.	81⅛	81⅛	81⅝
4	Emp Pu Ser A .	10⅛	10	10
5	Emp Stl	4	4	4
2	Employ Reins .	22⅞	22⅞	22⅞
14	Europe El A .	8⅛	8	8
4	Europe El db	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Fairch Av A	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
1	Falcon Lead ..	1-16	1-16	1-16
1	Fandango m.... ..		⅝	⅝
3	Fansteel	5⅝	5½	5⅝
2	Federated Met .	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
1	Fiat rcts	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞
12	Ford Mot C A ...	23	21⅝	21⅝
1	Ford Mot Fra .	9½	9½	9½
44	Ford Mot Ltd ...	16¼	16	16
3	Foremost Fab .	4	3¾	4
16	Fox Theat A ..	5½	5	5
1	Franklin Mfg ..	6	6	6
4	Franklin Mfg p	40	39½	39½
1	Gen Avia Cor ...	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
36	Gen Bak	1⅝	1½	1⅝
12	Gen Bak pr ...	34¼	33⅞	33⅞
1	Gen El Ltd rc ..	11¼	11¼	11¼
100	Gen Gas & E ..	53¼	51	51
18	Gen Ldy Mach ..	1⅛	1	1
85	Gen Th Equip ..	11⅝	10⅝	11
3	Gen T Eq cv pr .	32⅛	32	32
2	Gen Wat Wks .	15¼	15	15
4	Glean Comb H .	11⅝	11	11¼
1	Globe Underw ...	7	7	7
3	Gold Coin	⅝	½	½
3	Gold Seal El .. .	1½	1⅜	1⅜
1	Golden C Min .. .	1	1	1
5	Goldfield Cons ..	⅛	⅛	⅛
2993	Goldm S	9⅝	9½	9⅝
20	Gt Atl & Pa ns	179½	179½	179½
3	Groc St Pro vt .	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
1	Guardian Fire .	23⅞	23⅞	23⅞
4	Gulf O C P	76	75½	75½
1	Hartman Tb ...	2½	2½	2½
1	Hazeltine	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛
1	Hecla Min .. .	8¾	8¾	8¾
3	Hir W G & W ...	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
2	Horn & Hard ...	37	36¾	36¾
1850	H B M&S as..	5¼	5⅛	5¼
1	Humble Oil	65⅝	65⅝	65⅝
1	Huyler St De ..	5	5	5
1	Hydro El Ser ...	26⅞	26⅞	26⅞
1	Hygrade Fod ..	3¼	3¼	3¼
31	Imp Oil Can ...	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝
3	Ind Ter Il A	18⅞	18¾	18¾
6	Ind Ter Il B ...	19⅝	19	19
5	Ind Fin ctf	10⅛	9⅝	10⅛
1	Inland Util A ...	6	6	6
25	Ind Fin pr .. .	62	62	62
1	Ins Co Nor Am .	51⅞	51⅞	51⅞
2	Insurance Sec ..	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
1	Intercoast Trade	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
1	Interc Pow A ..	12	12	12
1	Int Pet	½	½	½
125	Int Hy El pr .	48	47⅛	47⅛
8	Intern Pet	15	14⅞	14⅞
3	Inter Util B ...	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
50	Inter Util pr ...	97⅞	97⅞	97⅞
4	Inter Util	4⅛	4	4
11	Inter Superpw A .	4⅝	3⅝	3⅝
1	Kirby Pet	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
5	Kleinert	11¼	11¼	11¼
1	Knott Corp .. .	18½	18½	18½
1	Lackawan Sec ..	35⅝	35½	35½
1	Lakey Fdy	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
1	Lehigh C & N ...	26¼	26¼	26¼
37	Leonard Oil 1.. .	⅝	⅛	⅝
2	Liberty Bak	1	1	1
1	Lily Tulip Cup .	20	20	20
1	Lion Oil	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
2	Lit Bros	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
6	Lone Star Gas ..	24⅛	24	24⅝
32	Louis L & E ...	2⅛	1⅞	2⅛
1	Louis P & L pr .	97	97	97
1	Man St pr	32½	32½	32½
3	Marc I Mar	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
6	Marion Stm Sh ..	8½	8	8¼
1	Mass Ut A	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
14	Mav Bott	⅝	½	½
30	Mayflower As ..	40	39½	40
1	McCd R B	9	9	9
1	Md Johns	77⅝	77⅝	77⅝
1	Merr C & S	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛
1	Mesabi Ir	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
12	Met & Min .. .	1¼	1¼	1¼
3	Mid St P B vtc .	1¼	1¼	1¼
9	Mid W St Util .	23	22⅝	22½
26	Mid West Util ...	20⅛	19⅝	20⅛
53	Mo Kan Pi L ...	7⅛	6⅝	7¼
50	Mo K P L V vtc	6⅝	6	6
1	Moh Hud 2 pr ..	104	104	104
4	Montecat deb rt .	¼	¼	¼
11	Mountain Prd	6	6⅝	6
17	Nat Am Co .. .	6¼	6¼	6¼
18	Nat Avia	5½	5½	5½
1	Nat Bond & Sh .	31⅝	31⅝	31⅝
2	Nat Fam Strs	6	5⅞	6
1	Nat Fuel & G .	25¼	25¼	25¼
4	Nat Inv	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
3	Nat P&L 6pc pr	98½	98	98½
1	Nat Pub Serv . .	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛
1	Nat Pub S B	34	34	34
60	Nat Pub S pr .	84¼	84¼	84¼
2	Nat Short T S .	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛
1	Nat Steel war .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
20	Nat Trans	14½	14½	14½
1	Neet Inc A	12	12	12
5	Nehi Corp	12½	12	12
2	Neisner pr .. .	79⅝	79⅝	79⅝
2	Nestle Le Mur ..	2½	2½	2½
2327	Newm Min	58½	57⅝	58½
2	N Y Merchan ...	11⅛	11	11
3	N Y & H Rosm .	11	11	11
1	N Y St new . .	50	50	50
75	NY T 6½ pc p .	115	114	114
4750	Nia Hud Pw ...	11½	11	11⅛
7	N Hud P A war .	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
6	Nia Hud P B	6	6	6
3	Niag Shrs Md .	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
3	Nipia Mines .. .	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
7	Noma Elec	6	6⅝	6
14	Noranda Mines ..	17⅝	17	17
56	Nor Am Av A ..	1¼	1¼	1¼
2	Nor & Son Am .	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
10	Nor Euro Oil .. .	1⅛	1	1⅛
25	Nor Ind P S pr ..	97¼	97¼	97¼
75	Nor IndPS 6pc..	99⅝	97¼	99⅝
1	Nor St P A ...	131	131	131
1	Northw Eng	14	14	14
50	Ohio Cop	⅝	⅝	⅝
4	Outboard M A ..	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
1	Pac G & E 1 pr .	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝

THOUSANDS OF FAMILIES
IN NORWICH AND ENVIRONS
HAVE BENEFITED THRU
OUR LOAN SERVICE
IN THE PAST SEVEN YEARS WITH TIMELY LOANS
from $30 to $300
WE FURNISH THE CASH
WHEN IT IS MOST NEEDED
FOR PRACTICAL AND WORTHY PURPOSES
IF YOU NEED MONEY TOMORROW
CONSULT US TO-DAY
NO INVESTIGATION FEES
THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT
IS THE ONLY CHARGE ON UNPAID
BALANCES MONTHLY
New England Equity Corporation
OFFICES AT
NORWICH—Room 706 THAYER Bldg.—Tel. 1470
WILLIMANTIC—4 MAIN ST. (Second Floor)—Tel. 1597
PUTNAM—Room 328 Front St.—Tel. 1110

THE CURB MARKET

1	Pac West Oil	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
2	Pandem Oil	5-16	5-16	5-16
10	Pantepec Oil	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
61	Pennroad Crp	7⅛	6⅞	7
1	Pa Wat & Pow	59⅞	59½	59½
1	Petrol Corp warn	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
1	Philip Mor	9-16	9-16	9-16
2	Pitney Bowes	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
3	Pitts Lk Er R	105	104½	105
1	Pitts Forg	12	12	12
3	Plymouth Oil	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛
1	Polymet Mfg	2	2	2
3	Potrero Sugar	5	4⅝	5
3	Prin & Whit	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
3	Prin & Wh pr	16⅝	16⅝	16⅝
4	Prod Roy	5	4⅞	5
16	Pub Util Hold	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
1	Pub Ut Hold w	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
3	Pub Ut Hld xw	6	6	6
5	Pyrene	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
11	Rainb L Pr A	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
30	Rainb Prd B	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
1	Rath Packing	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛
1	Red Bank	4	4	4
1	Reiter Foster	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2	Reliable Strs	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
5	Reliance Int A	2⅜	2⅛	2⅛
1	Relian Manage	5	5	5
6	Reybarn Inc	2⅜	2⅛	2⅜
7	Reynolds Inv	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
1	Rike Kumbler	26⅜	26⅜	26⅜
1	Roan Ant Cop	14¼	14¼	14¼
2	Rossia Intl	3⅝	3⅛	3⅝
1	Roosevelt Field	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
3	Royalty Cp pr	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
3	Ryan Cons	3	2⅝	2⅝
70	Safeway S 2 wr	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
5	St Regis Paper	15	14⅝	14⅝
17	Salt Creek Prd	7⅛	6⅞	7
3	Saxet Co	3⅝	3⅝	3⅛
2	Seaboard Util	4	3⅞	4
1	Sec Corp Gen	21⅜	21⅜	21⅜
5	Select Ind	2⅜	2⅜	2⅛
11	Sel Ind allot ctf	51⅛	51⅛	51⅛
2	Sel Ind pr pr	50½	50	50
1	Sentry Saf Con	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2	Shattuck Den	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
1	Show W & P	54	54	54
10	Shenandoah	6⅞	6⅝	6⅞
3	Shenandoah pr	34⅝	34⅝	34⅝
170	Smith A O	144	140	140
4	Silica Gel ctf	8	8	8
2	So Penn O	24	24	24
1	Sou C Ed B pr	26¼	26⅛	26⅛
3	South Royal	8	8	8
1	South Dairy	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
21	Southw Gas t	4⅞	4⅛	4⅛
1	Stand Motor	1	1	1
44	Stand Oil Ind	37	36⅝	37
13	St Oil Ky	23⅝	23⅝	23⅝
1	Stan Oil Neb	38¼	38¼	38¼
2	Starr Crp	9½	9⅜	9⅜
4	Starrett pr	24⅝	22⅝	22⅝
250	Stein & Co pr	86	85½	86
1	Strauss Nath	5¼	5¼	5¼
2	Str Roth	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
72	Stutz Mot A	2	1⅜	1⅜
1	Sun Invest	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
8250	Sunday Oil	3⅞	3	3
4	Swift &Co	29¼	29	29
13	Technicolor In	9½	9⅛	9¼
10	Teck Hug G	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
40	Timk Dt A p	102	102	102
8	Transc A T	5½	5⅜	5½
19	Trans L D P A	8	7½	7½
1	Tri Cont C w	2½	2⅜	2½
2	Tri Util	28⅜	27	28⅜
2	Tub Ch C B	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜
4	Unger Fin	24⅛	24	24⅛
1	Union Am Inv	18	18	18
5	Unit Car F	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
1	Unit Cor w	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
100	Unit Found	9⅛	9	9⅛
29	Unit Gas	9⅝	9⅛	9⅝
1	Unit Gas war	3½	3½	3½
1	Unit Gas pf	88	88	88
22	Un L & P A	27¼	26½	26½
8	Un L & P B	69⅜	66⅜	69⅜
1	Un L & P cv pr	99	99	99
1	Un Ref Ch pr	7¼	7¼	7¼
10	Un Molasses L	4¼	4¼	4¼
6	U S & I Sec	1⅛	1⅜	1⅜
2	U S & I S pr	42	41⅛	41⅛
4	U S & O cod	14¼	13⅝	14¼
5	U S Dairy Pr A	60	60	60
22	U S Elec Pow	6¼	6⅛	6¼
1	U S Lines pr	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝
3	U S Ply Cds	53	52½	53
1	U S Stores vtc	2¼	2⅛	2¼
6	Unit Ver Ex	8⅛	8	8⅛
1	Ut Ap Min	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
11	Ut P & Lt	11⅝	11⅜	11⅜
31	Vacum Oil	65⅞	64½	65¼
3	Venez Pet	1⅜	1¼	1¼
64	Vick Fin	5⅞	5⅞	5⅞
1	Walgreen war	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
1	Wayne Pump	7	7	7
2	W Air Exp	19⅜	17⅞	17⅞
3	W V C & C	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	Westmold Coal	11	11	11
1	Wil Low Cafet	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞
3	Zonite Prd	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝

WALL STREET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Arrangements have been made for the sale of a New York Stock exchange membership for $250,000, unchanged from the previous sale.

November sales of S. S. Kresge totaled $12,503,020, a decrease of 10.8 per cent from $14,021,354 for the like month last year. Sales for the first 11 months totaled $126,371,648, a decrease of 4.3 per cent from $132,085,718 for the corresponding period of 1929. At the end of November the company had 645 American and 31 Canadian stores in operation.

Increases in both the number of employes and the amount of wages paid by 18 chain store companies for the first nine months this year, compared with the like period of 1929, are shown in a compilation by Merrill, Lynch & Co. Wages paid by the companies for the first nine months this year totaled $37,117,330, an increase of $3,052,592 over the total for the corresponding period last year.

The W. T. Grant Co. reported November sales of $6,677,369, an increase of 2.5 per cent over $6,510,666 in November last year. Sales for the first 11 months this year totaled $59,253,586, an increase of 9.9 per cent over $53,912,458 for the corresponding period of 1929.

MONEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Call money steady, 2 per cent all day. Time loans easy; 60-90 days, 2a2 1-4; 4 months, 2 1-4; 5-6 months, 2 1-2a 2 3-4 per cent. Prime commercial paper, 2 3-4a3. Bankers' acceptances, unchanged.

COTTON

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Futures closed barely strong, 18 to 21 points lower; spot quiet; middling 10.40

More than 6,000,000 acres of Alabama forestry land are now under definite systems of forestral management.

BumsteadsWormSyrup
"To children an angel of mercy." Where directions are followed, IT NEVER FAILS. Despite scarcity and enormous cost of SANTONIN, it contains full dose. Stood 70 yrs. test. All Druggists or by mail, 50c a bottle. [illegible] C. A. Voorhees, M. D., Philadelphia.

Another Carload of Holstien and Guernsey Grade Cows
Will arrive from Wisconsin, Saturday, Dec. 6th.
A Very Choice Lot
JAMES H. HYDE,
North Franklin, Ct.—Tel. Lebanon 30

TABLES SHOWING APPROPRIATIONS ASKED FROM CONGRESS BY PRESIDENT HOOVER

	Estimates, 1932	Appropriations 1931 (x)
Legislative establishments—
Senate	$3,282,522.00	$3,244,744.00
House of Representatives	8,182,298.00	8,174,754.00
Architect of the Capitol	10,336,608.00	8,472,417.58
Botanic Garden	175,082.00	194,500.00
Library of Congress	2,457,722.00	2,767,742.00
Government Printing Office	4,294,000.00	3,270,000.00
Miscellaneous	185,050.00	165,050.00
Total, Legislative Establishment	$28,183,333.00	$27,311,967.58
Executive Office	$473,400.00	$432,320.00
Independent Establishments—
Alaska Relief Funds	15,000.00	15,000.00
American Battle Monuments Com.	304,230.00	1,000,000.00
Arlington Memorial Bridge Com.	1,000,000.00	1,000,000.00
Board of Mediation	318,545.00	328,380.00
Board of Tax Appeals	654,460.00	650,000.00
Bureau of Efficiency	201,470.00	224,330.00
Civil Service Commission	1,678,442.00	1,542,952.00
Commission of Fine Arts	9,335.00	9,080.00
Employees' Compensation Com.	4,736,380.00	4,210,000.00
Federal Board for Vocational Education	10,087,260.00	9,400,400.00
Federal Farm Board	101,900,000.00	1,900,000.00
Federal Oil Conservation Board	20,000.00	17,220.00
Federal Power Commission	319,270.00	299,170.00
Federal Radio Commission	495,320.00	460,000.00
Federal Reserve Board	1,609,200.00	2,560,236.00
Federal Trade Commission	1,625,986.00	1,590,000.00
General Accounting Office	4,363,320.00	4,193,500.00
George Rogers Clark Sesquicentennial Commission	800,000.00	....
George Washington Bicentennial Commission	338,195.00	262,075.00
Housing Corporation	33,700.00	43,950.00
Individual Records, Civil-Service Retirements	....	150,000.00
Interstate Commerce Commission	11,975,593.00	10,329,963.00
Investigation of Enforcement of Prohibition and Other Laws	....	250,000.00
Mount Rushmore National Memorial Commission	....	60,000.00
National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics	1,053,790.00	1,321,000.00
National Capital Park and Planning Commission	4,000,000.00	1,000,000.00
Personnel Classification Board	220,830.00	....
Porto Rican Hurrican Relief Commission	2,000,000.00	2,000,000.00
Protecting Interests of the United States Oil Leases and Oil Lands	20,000.00	....
Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital	5,595,685.00	4,239,044.00
Public Buildings Commission	125,000.00	100,000.00
Smithsonian Institution	1,212,924.00	1,208,671.00
Supreme Court Building Commission	4,250,000.00	1,000,000.00
Tariff Commission	1,240,000.00	785,000.00
United States Geographic Board	9,538.00	13,760.00
United States Shipping Board and Merchant Fleet Corporation	39,406,000.00	6,346,000.00
Veterans' Administration	946,283,753.00	xx836,244,020.00
Yorktown Sesquicentennial Com.	....	8,000.00
Total, Executive Office and Independent Establishments	$1,148,354,811.00	$895,321,171.00
Department of Agriculture	$225,537,476.00	$173,145,474.00
Department of Commerce	54,633,226.00	54,619,485.00
Department of Interior	85,345,212.73	83,375,328.74
Department of Justice	51,988,261.00	xxx45,295,922.00
Department of Labor	13,446,400.00	12,230,170.00
Navy Department	349,628,298.00	382,505,193.26
Post Office Department—
Postal Deficiency Payable from Revenues	735,003,057.00	725,844,097.00
Postal Deficiency Papable from Treasury	114,041,000.00	111,202,200.00
State Department	17,781,306.34	17,316,022.14
Treasury Department	281,296,380.00	350,628,676.00
War Department, Including Panama Canal	464,643,506.00	455,041,951.00
District of Columbia	47,796,047.00	45,397,432.00
Total, Ordinary, Including Postal Service	$3,618,335,563.07	$3,393,344 353.22
Reduction in Principal of the Public Debt—
Sinking Fund	$409,410,600.00	$392,152,200.00
Other Redemptions of the Debt	59,099,305.00	48,846,000.00
Principal of the Public Debt	$468,509,905.00	$440,998,200.00
Interest on the Public Debt	581,000,000.00	603,000,000.00
Total, Including Post Office Department and Postal Service	$4,667,845,468.07	$4,437,342,688.22
Deduct Postal Service Payable from Postal Revenues	735,003,057.00	725,844,097.00
Total Payable from the Treasury	$3,932,842,411.07	$3,711,498,488.22

(x)—Exclusive of the annual cost of the act approved July 3, 1930, amending the classification act of 1923 estimated at $3,975,292.

(xx)—Figures for 1931 include the appropriations transferred under the act of July 3, 1930, from the Interior Department (pensions) and the War Department (National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers).

(xxx)—Figures for 1931 include appropriations transferred under the acts of May 27, 1930, and June 17, 1930, from the Treasury Department (Prohibition Bureau and the United States Customs Court).

EKONK

(AND STERLING HILL)

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gardner entertained their children and grandchildren Thanksgiving day. A roast turkey and duck dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes and family of Willimantic, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tanner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanner and family and Mrs. Phebe Gallup were dinner guests Thanksgiving day at George Tanner's. They also celebrated Mr. Tanner's 75th birthday. He received tokens of their love for him also two birthday cakes with candles.

Rev. Lydia Hartig spent the Thanksgiving recess with relatives in New Jersey.

John and Charles Tanner were delegates to a milk meeting in Providence, Friday last.

Mrs. Mary Sayles entertained a family party Thanksgiving day.

Thirty-one were entertained at the home of Hermon Frink, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin K. Gallup and son of South Voluntown, were visitors at Henry Congdon's, Sunday.

Byron H. Young of New Haven, Richmond Young of Storrs college and Raymond Young of Providence spent the Thanksgiving recess with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron P. Young.

E. E. Freeman dined with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallup, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker, of Winthrop, Mass., spent the holiday and week end with Mrs. Adela Gibson; she also entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Randall and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Gallup entertained a large company Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Frink and son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Brown of New London and Enoch Douglas and daughter, Florence, were dinner guests at John Frink's, Thanksgiving day.

The meeting of Ekonk grange was held in grange hall, Monday evening, 15 candidates were instructed in the first and second degrees. The charter was again draped in mourning for Brother Boris Fleisher who passed away while receiving treatment in New York. Visitors were present from Killingly grange, Moosup Valley and Pachaug grange. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred at the next meeting.

The Ladies Aid society of Ekonk plan to hold a supper and sale.

The thirty children and grandchildren of Mrs. Byron Gallup had a family gathering and dinner Thursday in the vestry of Sterling Hill church. Four generations were present and it proved an enjoyable reunion. On account of sickness in the families of Clark and Everett Gallup, several were detained at home.

Forests and planting areas are leased by more than 100 rural high schools in Georgia.

WINDHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans of New York called on Mrs. Evans' cousin, Miss Gertrude Arnold Saturday evening.

Miss Margaret Granger, Mrs. W. A. Raymond, Miss Margaret Bixby and Miss Gertrude Arnold were dinner guests of Mrs. Emma Neale Thanksgiving. In the evening they, with the addition of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Woods and Miss Marie Rizzo, were guests of Mrs. Charles C. Abbe, when Mrs. Abbe's son-in-law, Charles Campbell of New Haven showed several reels of moving pictures taken when the family was traveling abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bates entertained Mrs. Bates' daughter and family over Thanksgiving.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Guild, who spent Thanksgiving and the week end in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Ada Larrabee, who was in Groton returned to their homes Monday.

Return From Europe

Mrs. Guilford Smith and her nephew, Alfred Abbe, who have been in Europe for three months, have returned home. Mrs. Smith leaves soon to spend the winter in Pasadena, Cal., where she has an apartment.

Earle Harvey returned to his studies at Brown university Sunday.

Church Night Supper

Another church night supper and social for members and friends of the Congregational church will be held Friday. Supper at 6:30, will be followed by a program of moving pictures, violin and piano music and an entertainment of songs and ventriloquism by Mr. Holland, of Plainfield.

Mrs. John Coleman of Hartford has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Donald MacDonald, before going to Miami for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hobron of Hartford were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Hobron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillips.

The December meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held Monday afternoon. After the business session Miss Mary Potter of Hartford gave an interesting talk on Americanization. The mystery table netted $3. Coffee and sandwiches were served by Miss L. P. Oehrig, Mrs. W. R. Dean, Miss Elizabeth Anderson and Mrs. Donald MacDonald.

Monday, St. Andrew's day, there was the celebration of holy communion at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 9:30 a. m. The confirmation class met with Miss Claassen and Miss Stokes Wednesday and the monthly meeting of the Woman's guild Thursday at the same place.

Nahum B. Swink, Liberal, Kas., farmer, has built a five-room house of adobe bricks made by Mexican laborers.

BROOKLYN

Monday afternoon the Brooklyn Women's club met with Mrs. William Walter. After the roll call on current events, the subject of the afternoon, "Famous Cartoonists and What Made Them Famous," was taken up. The president, Mrs. Lester B. Williams read an interesting article on Herbert Johnson, Briggs, Opper, Davenport and Paul Robinson were others mentioned. Two brief brain tests were introduced by the hostess, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Frink came out victorious. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Maine, served dainty refreshments at the close. The next meeting is the Christmas meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. L. B. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbra L. Baker entertained for Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dimmock, of Manchester, Conn.

Miss Helen Palmer was with relatives in Willimantic for dinner last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Russell were with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Yates, in Wauregan.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams over the holiday were Mr. Williams' mother, Mrs. John Williams, Miss Miriam Boomhower, Mr. and Mrs. A. Booker and daughter, Betty of Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. House entertained last week relatives from Hartford and friends from Rocky Hill.

Mrs. Mary J. Hunt was with relatives in Providence over the holiday.

Mrs. J. Dexter Hunt spent Thursday with her sister in Providence.

Mrs. William H. Clewley is a guest of her sister in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller were guests last week of relatives in Springfield.

Patrons were in Plainfield, Tuesday evening, helping out with the grange program.

Occupied 79 Years

George E. and Miss L. E. Spalding entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Gavitt, Mrs. George Cross and Miss Budlong of Charlestown, R. I., and Mrs. T. C. Bradford, Miss Wargie and Ralph Bradford, of Putnam. Mr. Cross who died recently had nearly completed fifty years as town clerk of Charlestown, he succeeded his father and the books have been kept uninterruptedly in the house for 79 years.

Guests at Mrs. Juliette Martin's, Sunday, were her brother, Dr. Herman Atwood, Mrs. Minnie Hyde, Miss Annie Pendleton and Mrs. Back of Stonington, Conn.

Mr. Milton Ray, of New York, was a visitor in town the first of the week.

BOLTON

Bolton Grange, No. 47, at its meeting Friday evening elected officers as follows: Master, George O. Rose; lecturer, Hazel B. Hutchinson; secretary, Gertrude Anderson; overseer, Maxwell Hutchinson; steward, Michael Pesce; assistant steward, David C. Toomey; chaplain, Annie M. Alvord; treasurer, Elsie Deer; gatekeeper, Oscar Anderson, Jr.; Ceres, Elvira Pesce; Pomona, Winifred Lee; Flora, Norma Pesce; L. A. Steward, Cerena Piano; executive committee, Mrs. Viva Massey, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Mrs. Adelia N. Loomis, pianist, Margaret Margaret; insurance committee, Thomas D. Daly, Thomas Manessja and Joseph Mack; home economics, Elsie M. Jones, Viva Massey and Miss Adelia N. Loomis.

Mrs. Paul E. Clement spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Hayes Manchester.

Those who spent Thanksgiving out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mack, at Springfield, at Mrs. Mack's aunt's; Miss Adelia N. Loomis, at Middletown with her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stetson; Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Eaton at Manchester with Mr. Eaton's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merrill entertained on Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Loud of Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. William Robshaw and two daughters of Hartford, and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Merrill of Manchester. Mr. and Mrs. John Toomey, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Toomey and children of Hartford, were at Mr. John Toomey's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Toomey.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet this (Thursday) afternoon. The hostess is Miss Annie M. Loomis.

Mr. and Mrs. Glovel Rockwell and two daughters of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwell and two daughters of Burnside spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rockwell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kneeland Jones and son Junior spent Thanksgiving at the home of Judge J. White and Clement M. Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fish of Manchester have moved into the Dr. Maine house.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haley and son, Junior, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Haley's brother, Eric Labster in New Jersey.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hutchinson Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Hutchinson.

Miss Helen Bentley of Winsted spent the week end at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bentley.

LIBERTY HILL

There were family gatherings, Thanksgiving day, at the following homes: Calmere, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke's and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoxie's.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gurley were holiday guests in Lisbon of the latter's daughter, Mrs. J. C. Phillips, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goodrich and family were in New London with Mrs. Goodrich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Olsen, Thanksgiving day.

Heard Travel Talks

The Men's club met Monday evening at the church rooms, with a fair attendance. W. D. Davoll gave a talk on his trip through New England states and Canada, William Podbesky told of his 17 days' trip to Florida. Refreshments were served by Village Hill parties.

Sunday morning, Rev. J. H. Knott preached, with the 73rd Psalm, 24th verse, Thou shalt guide me with Thy counsel and afterwards receive me to glory, as his theme. No C. E. meeting was held in the evening on account of the storm.

The mercury, Tuesday morning, was 10 above zero with strong northwest wind; a big drop from Monday. Heavy rain came with the southwest storm Sunday night and Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dimon were guests of Mrs. Dimon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Orcutt, in Fall River, Mass., Thanksgiving day.

Miss Harriet M. Fuller, of Columbia, visited relatives the latter part of last week, having Thanksgiving dinner at Calmere.

The Trumbull Memorial highway was oiled and sanded last week.

A flock of about 80 wild geese passed over here Monday forenoon.

Sorrow For Mrs. Kinnaird

The death of Mrs. John Kinnaird, Monday at about 10 a. m., removes from the town a highly respected resident, one of a very charitable and social nature, always holding out a helping hand. The loss brings profound sorrow to many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stiles and son, Leslie, and Mr. Stiles' mother, Mrs. Edna Stiles, were in Monson, Mass., on the holiday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Kennedy. Mrs. Edna Stiles remained for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Foote and Mrs. Maine, of Preston, called on relatives here Sunday.

LEBANON

Mrs. C. S. Goodwin, who is confined to her bed, received a large sunshine bag for Thanksgiving and has expressed to her many friends appreciation of the numerous tokens of their thought and friendship.

Rev. A. G. Littlefield took as his text Sunday, James 1:27: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." Subject: "Vital Religion; What Is It?" The C. E. meeting was led by Miss Leora Carpenter.

Mrs. Phebie Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Knight Ferris and daughters, Miriam and Faye, of South Manchester, were callers Sunday at C. S. Goodwin's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King entertained at dinner, Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bruce and daughter Arlene spent Thursday in East Lyme with Mrs. Bruce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Challenger, of Canaan, were guests Sunday at C. S. Goodwin's. Mrs. Walter Hayes, who has been spending a week at C. S. Goodwin's, returned home with them.

Mrs. Fred Hyde is in Franklin, caring for Mrs. Myron Smith.

OBITUARY

Mrs. John Kinnaird

In the death of Mrs. John Kinnaird the people who knew her have lost a kind friend. The sympathy of all is being expressed to her husband and the other members of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. David Walsh and little daughter, Natalie Lavinia, spent Thanksgiving with their cousins in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Geer entertained, on Thanksgiving day, Mrs. Geer's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Abel and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Abel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wade, in Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetmore spent the holiday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoxie and daughters, Phyllis and Justine, spent the holiday with Mrs. Hoxie's mother, Mrs. Gould, in Woburn, Mass.

Returns to Hospital

Clark Standish, who recently returned home from the Hartford hospital, has had to return to the hospital for another surgical operation.

Mrs. Ida M. Abel entertained a family party on Thanksgiving day, which included Mrs. Mary Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Abel and four children, also Miss Adelaide Hallen and Mrs. Anna Abel, of Norwich; Edwin Abel, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wade, of Hampton.

Thomas Fowler spent the holiday with his brother, James Fowler, of New London.

Entertained Twenty-Two

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bruce, with their son, Harry Bruce, spent Thanksgiving day in Bozrah with their daughter, Mrs. Alfred Colt. Twenty-two enjoyed the bountiful dinner.

James Kahn, of Franklin, spent the week-end in New York, with Laverne Pultz, who returned Tuesday night with him to spend the remainder of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Pultz.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starr entertained a family party of 16 children and grandchildren Thursday.

At Bozrah Card Party

Twenty from Lebanon attended the whist in Bozrah Tuesday evening.

HEBRON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Porter and sons, Gibson and Milton Porter, returned to Hebron Sunday night after spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Brooklyn, N. Y., as guests of Mrs. Porter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Preston.

Over 100 gathered in Gilead Congregational church Sunday night to see the movie "Forgive Us Our Debts" 2 reels, and "Modern Jeptha," by William C. Thompson, 3 reels.

The C. E. Tri-County union meeting of Gilead, Hebron, Colchester, Westchester, Columbia and Marlborough was opened by a fine talk on "The First Martyr," and Forgiveness by Rev. Howard C. Champe. He also offered prayer. Gilead girl and boy orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. John W. Deeter, accompanied at the piano by Miss Olive Warner, played: The Pilgrims Chorus, America the Beautiful, Beautiful Words of Jesus, Blest Be the Tie That Binds. There was a violin solo by Arthur Hamilton, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John W. Deeter. Refreshments were served to the people of Tri-County union meeting, in Gilead hall. Rev. John W. Deeter and J. Banks Jones had charge of the movies.

Miss Rose Motz, with a party of young girls, while driving home from the Tri-County meeting was halted by a flat tire on her Chevrolet car, when in front of C. J. Fagil's store. Lucius W. Robinson and Rev. Howard C. Champe came to Miss Motz's assistance, taking members of her party home and changing the tire.

Rehearsed Cantata

Sunday afternoon, in Gilead church, George C. Munson of Hartford directed about 100 members of the Tri-County C. E. in "The Holy Child," a Christmas cantata to be given at Tri-County C. E. meeting, Dec. 28, in the Congregational church at Colchester. The next rehearsal will be held in Hebron Congregational church Dec. 7, at 4 o'clock. Hebron and Gilead church members will give "The Star of the East," a Christmas cantata, Christmas night. A rehearsal was held Monday night.

Rev. John W. Deeter's sermon Sunday morning in the Hebron and Gilead churches, was on "Fundamentals of Religious Teachings." The children's story was "The Dog's Bed."

St. Peter's Episcopal church members were unable to hold service Sunday morning because the electric power was off, and shut off the heating service. Services were held in the evening instead.

Mrs. John Morton and daughter, Nada, spent Thanksgiving and the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hilding.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilding entertained at Thanksgiving dinner Samuel and Edward Hilding, Miss Victoria C. Hilding, Mr. and Mrs. John Morton and daughter, Nada.

Mrs. C. E. Hilding, Mrs. Morton and daughter, Nada, motored to New York Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Hewitt of Hebron were guests Thanksgiving day of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hewitt of New London. Mr. Hewitt is John N. Hewitt's son.

A Hewitt family reunion was held Thanksgiving day in New London, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hewitt.

You Are Cordially Invited to Join
THE CHELSEA CHRISTMAS CLUB
For 1931
OPEN NOW
Classes to Suit All!

The Chelsea Christmas Club
Is the Oldest and Largest in Norwich, Conn.
Payments Will Be Made to Members on December 5, 1931

Members paying 25c for 50 weeks $12.75
Members paying 50c for 50 weeks $25.50
Members paying $1.00 for 50 weeks $51.00
Members paying $2.00 for 50 weeks $102.00
Members paying $5.00 for 50 weeks $255.00

Save Systematically For Christmas of 1931
THE CHELSEA SAVINGS BANK
Franklin Square "The Bank of Community Service" Norwich, Conn
Open Saturday Evenings—6.30-8.00 N. B. New Currency and Holiday Containers

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

BORN

PENNICEARD—In Halifax, Nova Scotia, Nov. 29, 1930, a daughter to Mr and Mrs. Frank Pennicard (Marjorie Trider, sister of Mrs. Hector Sebilleaud, of Jewett City).

FIELDS— In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, Dec. 3, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Fields, of 17 East Main street, Jewett City.

HEAP—In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, Dec. 3, 1930, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heap, Box 301, Baltic.

HAVEN— In Norwich, at the Backus hospital, Dec. 3, 1930, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Haven of 15 Spring Garden avenue.

DIED

M'ELARNEY—At Brunswick, N. J., Dec 2, 1930, Margaret, widow of Thomas McElarney and mother of Thomas McElarney, of New London, Conn.

SCHNABLE—In Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 25, 1930, Oscar Schnable, formerly of Westbrook.

LORD—At Lyme, Dec. 2, 1930, Mrs. Annie Davis Lord.

CLARK—In Springfield, Mass., Dec. 2, 1930, William M. Clark, formerly of Norwich.

FUNERAL NOTICES

MONAHAN—In this city, Dec. 2, 1930, Susie V. Monahan, daughter of the late Michael and Mary Connell Monahan.

Funeral from Hourigan Bros. funeral home, 35 Church street, Friday morning, at 8:20. Requiem mass at St. Mary's Memorial church at 9. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery.

ATCHISON—In Watertown, Mass., Dec 2, 1930, Ella E., widow of John Atchison.

Committal service at Yantic cemetery, Norwich, Friday at 1 p. m.

LAMBERT—In Norwich, Dec. 2, 1930, Mary Ann Kane, wife of Napoleon Lambert, aged 66 years, 6 months.

Funeral from her late home in Occum Saturday, Dec. 6, at 8:30. Requiem high mass in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Joseph's cemetery, Dayville.

INGRAHAM—In Norwich, Dec. 3, 1930, Mrs. Annie Lafey Ingraham, aged 33 years, of 53 Spring street.

Funeral from Grant's funeral parlors Taftville, Friday, Dec. 5, at 2 p. m. Burial in Lovett cemetery, Sprague.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Church & Allen
15 MAIN STREET
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
Lady Assistant
HENRY E. CHURCH
WM. SMITH ALLEN
Telephone 328-3

C. A. GAGER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR TEL 642-2
LADY ASSISTANT
PROMPT SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT

CUMMINGS & RING
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
322 Main Street
Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

J. J. LYONS and CO.
MORTICIANS
48 MAIN STREET
Tel. 896-W

The Henry Allen & Son Co.
DAVID H. WILSON
88 MAIN STREET
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Lady Assistant Telephone 410-W

HOURIGAN BROS.
Funeral Directors and Embalmers
Funeral Home, 35 Church Street.
Office, 62 Main St. Branch, Jewett City

THOMAS J. SHAHAN
MORTICIAN
351 Main Street Tel. 2470

WILLIMANTIC

LINCOLN and POTTER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS and EMBALMERS
62 Church St., Willimantic
Phone 705-2
DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Avery & Van Zandt
Succeeding JAY M. SHEPARD
Established 1870
Funeral Directors, Embalmers
Sixty and Sixty-Two North Street
Willimantic, Conn.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
88 Union Street Willimantic, Conn
Phone 290 Lady Assistant

PLAINFIELD

F. W. Tillinghast & Sons
UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
CENTRAL VILLAGE, CONN
Tel. Moosup 282-2

JEWETT CITY

FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Earle E. Gilbert
JEWETT CITY
Phone 158-2

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

FOR SALE—Fancy native milk fed turkeys, dressed or alive. P. M. Christensen, Hanover. Tel. 3662-2. 3tdec4

FOR SALE— Female Angora kitten, 10 weeks old. 104 Franklin St. 2tdec4

FOR SALE—Laying pullets and capons. April hatched. Tompkin's Reds. 40c lb. Frank Clyde, Old Mystic, Tel. 889-13 6tdec4

WANTED—All kinds of live poultry. Broilers a specialty Tel. 539 S Colt tffeb18

WANTED—All kinds of poultry; will call anywhere; highest prices paid. Joseph Horn. Tel. 1501 Willimantic. tfmar19

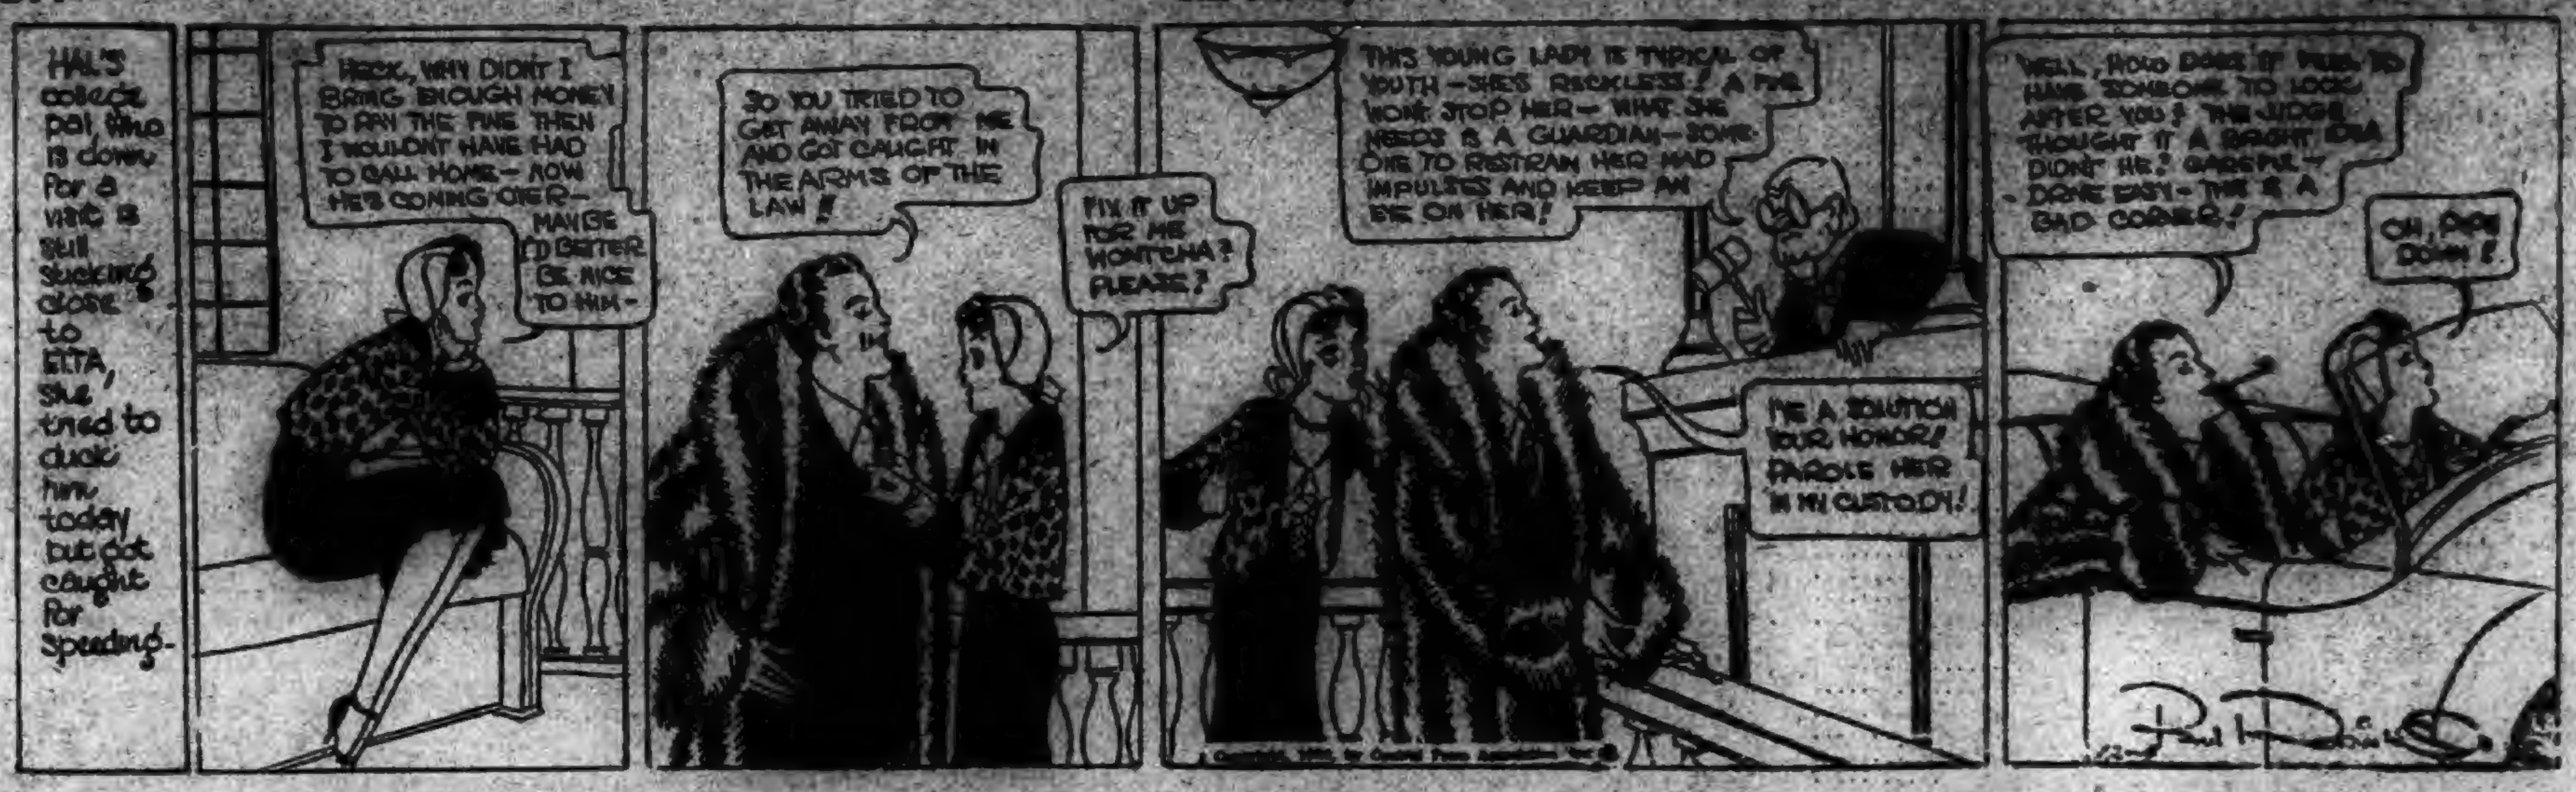
FOR SALE—Dogs

FOR SALE— Spaniel puppies, color golden liver. Pedigreed. Very handsome, admired by all. Make good hunting dogs, land or water. Good house dogs, kind and affectionate with children. F. D. Warner, 354 Hamilton avenue. Phone 3399. 6tdec1

ETTA KETT

The Penalty!

—By PAUL ROBINSON



HAL'S college pal, who is down for a visit is still sticking close to ETTA, she tried to duck him today but got caught for speeding—
HECK, WHY DIDN'T I BRING ENOUGH MONEY TO PAY THE FINE THEN I WOULDN'T HAVE HAD TO CALL HOME— NOW HE'S COMING OVER— MAYBE I'D BETTER BE NICE TO HIM—
SO YOU TRIED TO GET AWAY FROM ME AND GOT CAUGHT IN THE ARMS OF THE LAW!!
FIX IT UP FOR ME WONTCHA? PLEASE?
THIS YOUNG LADY IS TYPICAL OF YOUTH—SHE'S RECKLESS! A FINE WON'T STOP HER— WHAT SHE NEEDS IS A GUARDIAN—SOMEONE TO RESTRAIN HER MAD IMPULSES AND KEEP AN EYE ON HER!
I'M A SOLUTION YOUR HONOR! PAROLE HER IN MY CUSTODY!
WELL, HOW DOES IT FEEL TO HAVE SOMEONE TO LOOK AFTER YOU? THE JUDGE THOUGHT IT A BRIGHT IDEA DIDN'T HE? CAREFUL— DRIVE EASY—THIS IS A BAD CORNER!
OH, PIPE DOWN!

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

FOR SALE

FOR SALE— Farm, 102 acres, and stock to be sold at once. Sickness compels owner to sell. Holstein cow, milking 19 qts.; Ayrshire cow, milking 16 qts.; brown mare, aged 8 years, weighing 1350 lbs., sound, work anywhere on farm, clever and worth double the price I will receive. Shetland pony, age 4 years, a regular pet, very pretty, safe for children; must have good home. 47 hens, 24 cord hardwood, 400 bushel hand-picked apples. One 1927 Buick four-passenger coupe, Standard model, mileage 16,173 miles, runs perfect; very pretty in appearance; never abused; woth double the price I ask. If you need a coupe I will sell for $200. Drive it home. Drive over to farm, 12 miles from Danielson, Conn., on the Chopmist Hill Road, North Scituate, R. I. After you pass Tourtellotte's peach farm first road on left. Nichols Farm. Tel. North Scituate, R. I., 34-11.

FOR SALE—MacKay plot located on River Road, only short distance from Jewett City. Opportunity awaits you. Extraordinary new method of development. This is not a sale of lots but of acreage. Therefore, when you buy you immediately become owner of enough land so you can subdivide and sell to your friends, thus creating a neighborhood "classified" with original purchaser. Investigate today and enter into this first acreage sale ever instituted near Jewett City. Prices remarkably low. Easy terms. William McNicol, Land Developer and Real Estate, Jewett City. 4tdec2TTSM

FOR SALE—Parlor heaters and kitchenettes. Low price. 471 No. Main St. 3tdec3

FOR SALE—Home-made bread and pastry. Orders for parties a specialty. Call 1171-W. 2tdec3

HOUSE LOT with barn 40x149. Electricity and water. Price $195. Your own terms. One mile from Jewett City P. O. Address H. L., Bulletin Office. 7tdec3

FOR SALE— One horse wagon and sled. log boat, dry planks, cart and wagon bodies. Repair work done. M. H. Parker, Mansfield, Conn.

FOR SALE—A 1930 DeSoto Six sedan; looks and runs like new; genuine bargain if sold this week; terms arranged. Call 3285.

FOR SALE OR RENT—In Thamesville, new 6-room house and heated garage. Will be sold regardless of cost. $160 cash. Balance same as rent. Tel. 3579-W. 3tdec2

ASKT THE MAN down ta the inn what the bridle path wus fer, 'n' he ced that it wus fer newlyweds. He ced if the bridle walk down the path it wod brink her good luck. That's a joke I bet. See our 50c Briar pipes. They are pips. Fagan's Smoke Shop.

State Road location of 12 acres
8-room house, barn, well adapted for poultry. Price $1500—one-half cash.
Tryon's Real Estate Agency
Willimantic, CoCnn.

FOR SALE — Home furnishings at lowest prices. Living room sets, $3.00 up; dining room sets, $45 up; bed outfits, $7.50; 9x12 rugs, $12.50; buffets with mirrors, $12.50; kitchen cabinet, $15. Norwich Used Furniture Exchange, 29 Shetucket St.

FOR SALE—Bargains in single and double houses. Have what you need in real estate. Quinn Insurance Agency.

FOR SALE—Used ranges, also parlor stoves that sold up to $50; now $10 and $15. Reasonable terms. Silberman's Furniture Store, 37 Main St

FOR SALE—At once, to settle the estate, all the property at Wintergreen Point, in Waterford. For particulars see Miss Moore at The Bulletin office or R. E. Burton. Phone 1125.

FOR SALE—Used dining room suite, also odd oak buffets. China cabinets and tables. Silberman Furn. Store. tfaug13

FOR SALE
1. Two-apartment house, Box Ave. One in Greeneville section. Good investment. (2). Canterbury turnpike, cottage with 25 apples trees, 4 acres land, nice barn, one cow, low price. Call Clarence Sholes. Tel. con. tfeodnov25

WANTED—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Small farms, with or without stock. For a quick sale write, giving full description and location, stating lowest price and conditions of sale. Racine Farm Agency, Danielson, Conn. Tel. 53-3.

MIRRORS resilvered and glass for every purpose. Norwich Glass Co. 5 Bath St. Tel. 3463.

SPECIALIZING — Pawtuxet Valley, East and West Greenwich and Coventry farms. Arthur Kinne, East Greenwich, Rhode Island.

COAL AND WOOD

FOR SALE — Seasoned hard wood. Stove lengths. J. Siegel. Tel. 1663-5. tfdec4

FOR SALE—Coal, seasoned wood and kindling. Delivered anywhere. R. Shapiro, Chestnut St. Phone 504 or 87-W. 6tdec3

FOR SALE—Sawed white birch wood, $7.00 a load. Call 1062-J. 6tnov18TTS

FOR SALE — Delivered, kindling or split wood. 7 baskets, $1.00. $8.00 a load. Coal, 5 bags, $1.00. Tel. 3666

FOR SALE—Livestock

FOR SALE—30 Guernsey and Holstein grade cows. Just arrived from Wisconsin. James H. Hyde, North Franklin, Ct. Tel. Lebanon. 30 6tnov29

FOR SALE—Radios

FOR SALE —Used and demonstrated radios, battery and all electric at low prices. Some as low as $4 Hanover-Curland Co. 24 Franklin St

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin Want Advertisement Will Get It

TO RENT

FOR RENT— Apartment, No 364 Washington St., Norwich Town. Tel. 636-W. Oct15

FOR RENT—4 rooms, bath and pantry, front and side porch, private front and back door; garage. Call after 7 p. m., at 30 Yerrington Ave. Phone 2904-W. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—Funished, three rooms and bathroom. Steam heat supplied. $27.50 a month. Located near Washington Sq. Tel. 597 or 298.

TO RENT— Tenement on Mathewson St. Inquire Arremony's store, Jewett City. tfdec3

FOR RENT—Rooms; board if desired 78 McKinley Ave. Tel. 2557-J. tfnov18

FOR RENT — 4-room apartment; all improvements. Heat furnished. 152 Broad St. 2tdec3

FOR RENT—4-room apartment, all improvements. Inquire at Eagle Clothing Co. 6tdec3

TO RENT— Two connected furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Mrs. Willet, 248 Main St, Tel. 2049-J. 3tdec2

FOR RENT—Four new built modern apartments; 5 rooms each. Rent $15 per month. Call 849-M. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—5 and 6-room tenements. 344 Franklin St. Phone 1951. 6tdec2

FOR RENT—2 light housekeeping rooms. 21 Ripley Place. Tel. 3519-M. 5tdec2

TO RENT— Several desirable apartments. J. A. Cunningham, Thayer Bldg. Tel. 2056. tfdec1

TO LET — 5 rooms, $16, all improvements. Jeweler's, 77 Franklin St.

TO RENT—5-room tenement. $15 a month. Call 1422-W. tfnov26

TO RENT—Furnished apartment, well heated, garage. Phone 285-J. tfnov25

TO RENT— Two light housekeeping rooms. 45 Union street, all improvements tfnov25

FOR RENT—6-room apartment; all improvements. Phone 946-W.

FOR RENT—At Wintergreen Point, to small family, 6-room house with garage. See Miss Moore at Bulletin office.

FOR RENT—7 rooms with all improvements. 39 Asylum St. tfOct16

TO RENT—6 lovely rooms. 32 Hill St. Inquire Brooklyn Outfitters. tfnov11

TO RENT—7-room cottage, bath, hot and cold water. Fountain St Call 77 Cedar St. Phone 868 tfnov15

FOR RENT— Modern 5-room apartment 47 Otis St. Tel. 1085-R tfnov13

TO RENT— Flat of six rooms. 6 Church St. Tel. 2637-J 3tnov5MWF

TO RENT—Modern 6-room apartment. Best section in town. Oil heated, hot water. Available now. 50 Broad St. Inquire Hanover-Curland Co., Franklin St tfnov8

STORAGE—Gilbert Furniture Co. inquire 68 Broadway. tfoct118

TO LET—5 nice rooms. all improvements. 11 High street. tfsept17

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; modern and central. Phone 311 Sept26

FOR RENT—Heated apartment in the Osgood Caron's Specialty Shop

TO RENT— A 6-room and a 4-room apartment; all modern conveniences, 357 Washington St. Tel 1085-R tfsept17

TO RENT—Flat of six rooms with all improvements. Inquire of Gilbert Bowers 130 Washington St., or phone 1132-M. tfsept27

FOR RENT—Rooms for gentlemen. On car line. Phone 2653-W. 12tnov19

TO RENT
If you want a 5-room apartment a little out of the ordinary, at a reasonable price, see those in the "Huntington", 170 Broadway. Tel. 3282.
D. T. SHEA

For Rent
FINE LIGHT STORE IN SUNLIGHT BUILDING
Occupied Continuously for 15 Years as Barber Shop
Apply BULLETIN OFFICE

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Black and white Beagle, mostly white, 15 inches high, one all white eye. Last seen in vicinity of Phoenixville, Windham County, Connecticut. Liberal reward. Notify Crompton Smith, Worcester, Mass. Tel. Millbury 87.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—On Broadway or Main St., between Shea's newstore and Metropolitan store, a pigskin keytainer, with five keys. Return to Williams Tire and Supply Co., 315 Main St. or call 1600.

FOUND— Came to our farm, sheep. Owner can have same by proving property and paying charges. Mrs. A. Lucas, Preston. Phone 3878-5. 3tdec3

RADIO REPAIRS

—CALL 2350—
Radio Service Our Specialty
SMITH'S RADIO STORE

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

WANTED—Male

MEN to sell our high grade garden and field seed direct to planters. A good position with big income. Experience unnecessary. Cobb Co., Franklin, Mass. 8tdec2

AT ONCE—South America or United States. Permanent positions; labor, clerical, mechanical, salesmanship; experience unnecessary. Salaries $25-$100 weekly, transportation furnished. Box 1175, Chicago.

POSITIONS—On ocean liners to Europe, Orient, South America. Good pay. Experience unnecessary. Self-addressed envelope brings list. Drawer 292, Mt Vernon, N. Y.

MAN WANTED
for Rawleigh Route of 800 Customers in Norwich, New London, Willimantic, Putnam and nearby localities. Reliable hustler can start earning $35 weekly and increase every month. Write immediately. Rawleigh Co., Dept. CU-49-S, Albany, N. Y.

WANTED
An exceptionally bright man between ages of 23 and 45, to represent Montgomery-Ward & Co. in personal contacts with customers. We do not desire the high pressure house-to-house canvasser, but a man who at the present time is without a position who is upstanding in his community and who is really interested in a future.
MONTGOMERY-WARD & CO.
Putnam, Conn.

WANTED—Female

WANTED—Position as housekeeper or practical nurse. Will give a week's service. Mrs. A. E. Mall, Gen. Del., Norwich. 3tdec4

ADDRESSING ENVELOPES — Work at home during spare time Substantial weekly pay; experience unnecessary. Dignified employment for honest, sincert, ambitious persons. Workers League, Naperville, Ill.

WANTED—Position as bookkeeper. 6 yrs experience. Call 3095-J. 3tdec2

Wanted
Dressmaker for high grade Ladies' Shop. Must be A1 sewer and fitter. Only those with good experience need apply. Good salary. Steady position. Apply by mail only.
DRESSMAKER
Care Bulletin Co.

LEGAL NOTICES

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

Estate of James D. McCrohan, of Norwich, in said District, an incapable person.

James D. McCrohan of Norwich, Conn., appeared in Court by counsel and filed a petition praying, for the reasons therein set forth, that he be restored to capacity and his property and estate be restored to him and that his Conservator file his final account with said estate.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said petition be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1930, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order one time in some newspaper having a circulation in said District at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and that return be made to this Court.

NELSON J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, HELEN M. DRESCHER, Clerk.

SPECIAL STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

A special meeting of the stockholders, both preferred and common, of The Central Worsted Company, is hereby called to be held at the office of the Company in Central Village, Connecticut, on Monday, December 29th, 1930, at two o'clock P. M., to see if they will vote to confirm the vote of the Directors of said Company to terminate its corporate existence, which vote was passed at a meeting of the Directors duly and legally held at the office of said Company in Central Village on the 24th day of November, 1930, a copy of which said Directors' vote is as follows:

"Resolved: That the corporate existence of The Central Worsted Company be terminated, and the affairs of said Company wound up in accordance with the provisions of the statute law of Connecticut."

Dated at Central Village, Connecticut, the 28th day of November, 1930.

EARL R. BRAGG,
WILLIAM T. WILKINSON,
STUART M. ELLSWORTH,
A. E. SHOLES,
JOHN G. GREENHALGE,
CHARLES BRAGG,
Directors of The Central Worsted Company.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

LEGAL NOTICES

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at North Stonington, within and for the District of North Stonington, on the 2nd day of Decemebr, A. D. 1930.

Present, CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge.

Estate of Henry Ross, late of Revere, Mass., deceased.

The Administratrix c. t. a. appeared in Court and filed a written application alleging that said estate is now in settlement in said Court, and praying for an order to sell certain real estate belonging to said estate, fully described in said application.

Whereupon, it is Ordered, That said application be heard and determined at the Probate Court Room in North Stonington, in said District, on the 9th day of December, A. D. 1930, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of the pendency of said application, and of said hearing thereon, be given by the publication of this order once in The Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said District at least 5 days prior to the date of said hearing, and that return be made to the Court.

CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD at North Stonington, within and for the District of North Stonington, on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1930.

Present, CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge.

Estate of Henry Ross, late of Revere, Mass., deceased.

Ordered, That the Administratrix c. t. a. cite the creditors of said deceased to bring in their claims against said estate within six months from this date, by posting a notice to that effect, together with a copy of this order on the signpost nearest to the place where said deceased last dwelt, and in the same town and by publishing the same once in The Norwich Bulletin, a newspaper having a circulation in said district, and make return to this Court.

CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge

The above and foregoing is a true copy of record.

Attest, CHARLES A. PALMER, Judge

NOTICE

All creditors of said deceased are hereby notified to present their claims against said estate to the undersigned at North Stonington, Conn., care of Probate Court, within the time limited in the above and foregoing order.

AGNES S. ROSS,
Administratrix c. t. a

Business Notices

ANTIQUE FURNITURE

WANTED—Second-hand antique furniture Best prices paid A. Bruckner 100 Franklin St. Phone 555.

LOUIS D. WARD Antique and second hand furniture bought and sold 6 Main St Norwich Tel 1833 tfjw3

CLEANERS AND DYERS

WE CALL & DELIVER FREE
MENS-SUITS-TOPCOATS LADIES PLAIN COATS, ETC. CLEANED & PRESSED
$1
PHONE 2060
CLEANERS & DYERS of EVERYTHING SPECIAL ATTENTION TO LADIES WORK
Russell's
DOLLAR CLEANERS

CONTRACTORS

P. F. SWEENEY
GENERAL CONTRACTOR and BUILDER
25 Chestnut Street

DENTISTS

Dr. D. J. Coyle
Dentist
Sellas Building
Franklin Square

INSURANCE

J. L. LATHROP & SONS
Insurance of All Kinds
28 Shetucket Street

MONEY TO LOAN

NEED MONEY QUICKLY
Cash Loans of $10 to $300
Within 24 Hours
Small Monthly Repayments

You'll be suprised how easily a loan can be arranged. Our friendly and courteous service has helped many when they needed money quickly. Come in, 'phone or write for full information. There is no obligation. The only charge is three and one-half percent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
Room 307, Disco Bldg., 257 Main St. Norwich, Conn.

TRUCKING

JOSLYN—Excellent storage. Mover of teaming and auto vans at your service everything; expressing, freight handling.

TREES AND SCHRUBS

MAPLEWOOD NURSERY CO.
Fruit, Ornamental Trees and Shrubs
East Great Plain Tel 976-7

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

RADIO PROGRAMMES

THURSDAY, Dec. 4

333—SPRINGFIELD, WBZ—990

12.03 p. m.—Republican-Daily News bulletins; New England agriculture; stock-exchange quotations; agricultural markets; Farm and Home hour.
1.30 p. m.—Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs.
2.01 p. m.—"Russia and Russian Music, Mrs. James A. Moyer; Matinee Melodies.
3.00 p. m.—Band of a Thousand Melodies; "Land of the Rising Sun," Courtenay Crocker; Home Forum Cooking school.
4.00 p. m.—Doug Woodman's orchestra; Air Castle; State House Safety talk.
5.00 p. m.—Brazilian-American concert; agricultural markets; Tip-Top Roadman.
6.03 p. m.—Dinner music; McCoy Boys; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters; Phil Cook; Friendly Five Footnotes.
8.30 p. m.—Ames Appetizers—All-star ensemble, Edward Matthews, baritone; Salvy Cavicchio, xylophonist.
8.45 p. m.—Arkansas Pioneers.
9.00 p. m.— Knox-Dunlap orchestra; Maxwell House Melodies.
10.00 p. m.—Westinghouse Eskimos.
10.16 p. m.—Pioneers quartet; Mason & Hamlin concert—Frances Foskette, soprano; Raymond Simonds, tenor.
11.03 p. m.—McEnelly's orchestra.

283—HARTFORD, WTIC—1060

12.00 noon—Farm and Home Forum; Studio String quintet.
1.30 p. m.—Piano interlude, Len Berman; Medical talk; Bond Trio.
2.00 p. m.—Knights of Melody; D. A. R. talk.
3.00 p. m.—Hartt school recital; The Mixing Bowl.
4.10 p. m.—Orchestral Matinee; "The Morgan Memorial."
5.00 p. m.—In the Spotlight; Toddy Party.
5.45 p. m.—Ilima Islanders.
6.00 p. m.—"Speaking of Sports"; Highlights in Sport; Diamond orchestra.

243—BOSTON, WNAC—1230

6.00 p. m.—Shepard Modernists; La Lasine Melodists; Fireside Fancies; Insurance Budgeteers.
7.00 p. m.—Fro-Joy Novelty Dance; Tip-Top club.
8.00 p. m.—Pudding Men; Rogers Fur String choir; Kaltenborn Edits the News; Hamilton Watchman.
9.00 p. m.—Van Heusen program; Detective story.
10.00 p. m.—The Lutheran hour; Melody Moments.
11.15 p. m.—College Inn orchestra; Ted Weem's orchestra.
12.00 p. m.—Broadcast from Cocoanut Grove; Ann Leaf at the organ.

508—BOSTON, WEEI—590

4.10 p. m.—Stock Exchange quotations.
5.45 p. m.—String Ensemble.
6.00 p. m.—Big Brother in a Spelling Bee.
6.45 p. m.—Uncle Abe & David.
7.00 p. m.—Chevrolet Chronicles; Parco Players.
8.00 p. m.—Fleischmann hour
9.00 p. m.—Arco Birthday party; Arlace High Steppers.
10.00 p. m.—Lucky Strike orchestra.

422—NEWARK, WOR—710

6.00 p. m.—Uncle Don; Sports period; Montclair concert ensemble.
7.15 p. m.—The Three Cheers; "Ohrbach's."
8.01 p. m.—Bamberger Little Symphony with Kremlin Art Quintet.
9.00 p. m.—Character readings; Tudor Arms Entertainment; McAleer Melodists; Plymouth World Tours.
10.15 p. m.—Astor dance orchestra; Globe Trotter.
11.05 p. m.—Terrace orchestra; Moonbeams.

379—SCHENECTADY, WGY—790

11.45 a. m.—New York stock reports.
12.00 m.—Farm program; Michigan Limestone program.
2.01 p. m.—WGY Matinee Players; Household Chat; Chester Vedder, baritone.
2.05 p. m.—Chat to Women, Mary Lansing Musicalities; St. John's Banjo Quintet.
5.35 p. m.—Highway report; The Toddy Party; Uncle Jim.
6.45 p. m.—Uncle Abe and David.
7.00 p. m.—Fro-Joy Dinner Dance; Niagara-Hudson program.
8.00 p. m.—Fleischmann Hour.
9.00 p. m.—Arco Birthday Party; Jack Frost Melody Moments.
10.00 p. m.—Lucky Strike program.
11.00 p. m.—Organ recital.
11.30 p. m.—Jack Albin orchestra.

394—NEW YORK, WJZ—760

12.30 p. m.—National Farm and Home hour.
1.30 p. m.—George—the Lava Man.
1.30 p. m.—Three Little Maids, string trio.
2.00 p. m.—"Your Daily Menu," Mrs Julian Heath; Blue Chasers; "The World We Live In," Sidney Greenbie; Band of a Thousand Melodies.
3.15 p. m.—"Bardic Tales of Ancient Ireland," Grace Edmond Fogarty; Chicago Serenade.
4.00 p. m.—Happy Harmonies.
5.00 p. m.—Brazilian-American program—Don Carlos and his Marimba band.
5.35 p. m.—Stock Market reports.
6.00 p. m.—Raising Junior; Peter Van Steeden, orchestra; Topics in Brief—Lowell Thomas.
7.00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy; Tastyeast Jesters; Phil Cook; Friendly Five Footnotes.
8.00 p. m.—Aunt Lulu's Adventures; Landt trio and White; the Campus adventures of Dirk Trevor, freshman.
9.00 p. m.—Knox orchestra; Dunlap orchestra; Maxwell House ensemble, male quartet.
10.00 p. m.—Victor Herbert Opera series—"Her Regiment."
11.00 p. m.—Slumber Music, string ensemble.
12.00 p. m.—Horace Heidt orchestra.

454—NEW YORK, WEAF—660

12.00 noon—Countess Olga Medolago Albani, soprano; On Wings of Song.
1.10 p. m.—Merchants' Association Luncheon—Floyd Gibbons
2.15 p. m.—Home Music Lessons—Harriet Seymour; Melody Three.
3.00 p. m.—"Reptile Collecting for the American Museum," William Hassler; Musicalities.
3.30 p. m.—La Forge Beramen musical.
4.00 p. m.—"Magic of Speech," Vida Sutton; Lady Next Door.
5.00 p. m.—In the Spotlight; the Toddy Party; Rex Cole Mountaineers.
6.05 p. m.—Black and Gold orchestra.
6.45 p. m.—Uncle Abe and David.
7.00 p. m.—Midweek Hymn Sing—mixed quartet; Niagara-Hudson program.
8.00 p. m.—Fleischmann hour — Rudy Vallee and his orchestra.
9.00 p. m.—Arco Birthday Party—reincarnation of Samuel L. Clemens; Jack Frost's Melody Moments — Helen Corbin Heinl, pianist, guest artist.
10.00 p. m.—Lucky Strike orchestra.
11.00 p. m.—Florence Richardson's orchestra; Cotton club.
12.00 p. m.—Jack Albin orchestra.

348—NEW YORK, WABC—860

6.00 p. m.—"Our Changing World," Dr Stephen P. Duggan; Barbizon Plaza orchestra.
7.00 p. m.—Fro-Joy Novelty Dance; Tip-Top club.
8.00 p. m.—Voice of Columbia; Kaltenborn Edits the News; "In a Locomotive Cab."
9.00 p. m.—Van Heusen Program; Detective Story.
10.00 p. m.—The Lutheran Hour—Dr Walter A. Maier, large choir and organist; Boston Entertainers.
11.00 p. m.—Ben Bernie orchestra; Orchestra from St. Paul.
12.00 p. m.—Morton Downey with Pettis orchestra; Ann Leaf at the Organ.

A Bulletin For Sale Advertisement Will Sell It

MERCHANT TAILOR

S. P. KEPPLER and SON
FINE TAILORS
Showing Fine Woolens for Fall and Winter
NECKWARE
of Style—Quality—Novelty
90 MAIN STREET

TRANSPORTATION

NEW YORK
Boat leaves New London at 12:00 Midnight
Daily Except Saturday
Staterooms ready at 7:00 pm
Tickets and Reservations at R. R. Station—Phone 216-R
Fare from Norwich
$3.38
Automobiles carried at low rates
Return Steamer Leaves Pier 14, N. R., New York, 12:00 Noon Weekdays
NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP LINES

ANSWERS TO WHAT DO YOU KNOW

1.—The population diminished.
2.—They were left unfenced.
3.—They became overgrown with bushes.
4.—It fell into such a state of dilapidation "that the bad weather did often spoil both bags and corn."
5.—It sent a committee to treat with the miller.
6.—He promised "as soon as it was good weather to set the mill in good repair and make up the mill-house sufficient for the benefit of the town."
7.—William Bartholomew.
8.—Deacon Benjamin Sabin, Matthew Davis and Benjamin Griggs.

MONTVILLE

The Girls' Sewing club of Montville held a meeting Wednesday evening with Miss Mary Szczygiel, at Uncasville. The early part of the evening was devoted to sewing. Later refreshments were served by the hostess and this was followed by a social hour. Present were Misses Caroline Ywarski, Blanche and Delma Couture, Jennie Soja, Bertha Luty, Frances Zaramba and Leona Gero.

A large number of members of Thames lodge, I. O. O. F., attended the meeting Tuesday evening in their lodge rooms at Palmertown when the initiatory degree was exemplified. This was followed by a lunch, under the supervision of Archie Fisher.

A supper held in the Montville Community house at Uncasville Wednesday, under the auspices of the eighth grade of the Uncasville school, proved a success.

The Ladies' Aid society of Palmertown Union Baptist church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Alice P. Mitchell, of Palmertown, this (Thursday) afternoon.

At Norwich Funeral

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Harrison B. Wilson, held in Norwich Wednesday afternoon.

The Montville Aces basketball team will hold a practice session in the Community house Friday. All of the regulars have been requested to be present.

Patient at New Haven Hosp.

Fred Johnson, of Haughton's Cove, was a recent visitor in New Haven, calling on his brother, George Johnson, who is improving rapidly in the General hospital, New Haven, where he is undergoing treatment.

AUCTION
By WITTER BROS. Auctioneers
Monday, Dec. 8, at 10 a. m.
Rain or Shine
18 cows, 5 heifers, 1 bull, 3 horses, 20-ton hay, 5-ton mowed oats, 45-ton silage, and full line of farming tools. Sale by order of Dr. H. A. Foster.
One half mile east of Grove St. cemetery, Putnam Heights, Putnam, Conn.

DR. BITGOOD AND HOUSEKEEPER, NEW LONDON, SUED BY PUTMAN MAN

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 3—Dr. George E. Bitgood, well known veterinary and his housekeeper, Mrs. Dorothy Parkhurst, were made defendants in a suit for damages of $4,000 today when property belonging to the defendants was attached as a result of a suit being instituted by Fremont S. Bruce of Putnam. The property is situated on Willetts avenue and was attached for $5,000. A short time after the accident which resulted in the suit being brought against the defendants, Bitgood caused title in the realty to be transferred to Mrs. Parkhurst. Bitgood and Mrs. Parkhurst were riding on the Hartford turnpike last Sept. 29 and when in Marlboro the automobile, which Bitgood was driving collided with a truck operated by Bruce. The truck was badly damaged and according to the writ served on the defendants today, the plaintiff was compelled to expend $2,000 for its repair, besides being deprived of the earning capacity of the truck for a long time. Bruce did not sustain in[illegible], but Bitgood and Mrs. Parkhurst suffered painful injuries and for a time were patients at a Hartford hospital. The suit is returnable before the superior court of Hartford county the first Tuesday in January.

CONCERTED EFFORT TO PROVIDE CHRISTMAS CHEER

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 3—The deserving needy of the city will be taken care of again this year for the city's charity department and New London lodge of Elks, as well as the B. P. Learned mission are making arrangements for providing food and clothing to the many families that are in dire need of assistance. With the one time in the year nearing when the spirit of good will grows strongest the municipal authorities and the heads of the other two organizations realize the need of things that go to make the home comfortable and happy. With that knowledge, many families will be provided with necessities and delicacies and articles of raiment they would not enjoy but for the charitableness of those who watch out for the needy. Already two chain stores have donated sums of money to the city's charity department, the money representing a percentage of sales of the stores during a specified period. The American Legion is to conduct a whist, the profits of which will also be turned over to the city for charitable purposes. The lodge of Elks is daily receiving communications from the city's poor, requesting apparel of various sorts for members of the families seeking assistance. In order to alleviate the distress of families, the numerous welfare organizations will donate several hundreds of dollars to the charity department for expenditure in any manner that will succor the suffering.

ALLEGE ILLEGAL ENTRY AGAINST LOCAL GREEK

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 3—Kostandinos Ninas was arrested this afternoon at 95 Bank street, by an immigration officer from Hartford charged with violation of the immigration laws. Ninas was taken to police headquarters and locked up. It is claimed that Ninas, a Greek, obtained illegal entry to this country recently and when that information was obtained by the federal author[illegible] a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Two cases of intoxication will be tried in police court tomorrow for this afternoon two men were rounded up by the police on that charge and locked up.

The state police at Westport barracks, this evening requested the New London police to be on the lookout for the driver of an automobile carrying New Jersey markers, B-28143, who is wanted on a charge of reckless driving. The automobile hit a woman as the passenger was alighting from a trolley car and then speeded away.

At the annual meeting of Nameaug Engine company last night the following officers were elected: Foreman, James L. Sullivan; first assistant foreman, W. T. Hamilton; second assistant foreman, W. J. McMahon; secretary, James A. Wood; treasurer, L. E. McGrath; executive committee, E. J. Frankewicz, chairman; Emil Telage, Ray Fogg, Michael Paresi and Harry Dowsett; sick committee, William Nordenhold, chairman; Samuel Wilson; trustees of death benefit fund, L. E. McGrath, C. W. Harvey and W. F. Mahoney.

Harold B. Robinson, Station 5, Waterford, was a member of the crew of the Ocean Liner America, which sailed from New York Saturday for Southampton, England and France and Hamburg, Germany.

Lucius Parsons has returned to his home on Manwaring street having visited several weeks in Washington, D. C., and Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brutzman have returned to their home in Springfield, Mass., having visited several days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brutzman, Blackhall street.

WATCH OUT FOR GYPSY FOR THEFT AT EAST LYME

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 3—The New London and state police are on the lookout for a band of gypsies, one of which is wanted for the theft of a sum of money from a resident of East Lyme. The gang was in East Lyme this afternoon and, as usual, started applying their talents at thieving, with the result that one of their number stole the money. The theft was not discovered until the automobile conveying the Nomads had departed and then a request was made for the arrest of the offenders.

OBITUARY

Frederick Maynard

Frederick, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Maynard, 3 Mountain avenue died last night at Lawrence-Memorial hospital. The baby had been ill five weeks.

J. Frank Tooker

J. Frank Tooker, 70, formerly of New London, died yesterday at his home in Taunton, Mass. He moved from New London about 20 years ago. Mr. Tooker is survived by his wife, four daughters, a half-sister, Mrs. C. O. Tracy and a nephew, George Tooker, both of New London.

At a meeting of W. W. Perkins Relief corps held in Union lodge room yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Hortense Cottrell; senior vice president, Mrs. Verna Conary; junior vice president, Mrs. Harriet Smalley; treasurer, Miss Flora Lester; chaplain, Mrs. Georgianna Goddard; conductor, Mrs. Isabelle Stewart; guard, Mrs. George Copp. The following delegates were elected to the spring department convention: First, Mrs. George Copp; second, Mrs. Nellie Evans; third, Mrs. Marie Westie; fourth, Mrs. Mary Thompson. Mrs. George Goddard, Mrs. Mary Cone, Mrs. Harriet Sullivan and Mrs. Mary Tourjee were elected alternates.

The Auxiliary to Chev Sholem elected the following officers at a meeting held in the synagogue last night: President, Mrs. Louis Elionsky; vice president, Mrs. Barney Belgrade; secretary, Mrs. Abraham Shapiro; treasurer, Mrs. Zelda Wein; recording secretary, Mrs. Lena Goldstein. The officers were installed by Mrs. Morris Socol, Mrs. Herman Rutman and Mrs. George Elion.

Perry Daughterty of 20 Starr street; Mrs. Raymond Orazi and infant daughter, 3 Pierce street; Mrs. John Sullivan, and infant son, 70 Connecticut avenue; Miss Helen Coates, North Stonington; Mrs. Dominick Lopez and infant daughter, 8 Schoolhouse lane; Mrs. Joseph Pendegast and infant son, 34 Starr street, patients at Lawrence-Memorial hospital, were discharged today.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Charles P. Prince

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth P. Prince, wife of Charles D. Prince, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, 14 Pearl street and was attended by a large gathering of mourners, including delegations of the several societies of which Mrs. Prince was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth pastor of the First Church of Christ. The bearers were George Mitchell, S. Victor Prince, Arthur Rudd, George Williams, Harry Prince and Leroy Kelly. Burial was in Jordan cemetery.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Thomas McElarney

Mrs. Margaret McElarney, 80, widow of Thomas McElarney and mother of Thomas McElarney of this city, died this morning at her residence in New Brunswick, N. J. Mrs. McElarney's husband died but a few months ago.

Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stoeckel today ordered the suspension of the driver's license of Stephen L. Dion, 375 Bank street. Commissioner Stoeckel also ordered the return of the driver's license of James J. Corbett, submarine base.

An automobile truck owned by Palmer Bros., was hit by a New Haven railroad switch engine last evening at the crossing at the north end of the union station. The truck was badly damaged.

MISSING NORWICH BOY SOUGHT IN NEW LONDON

The New London police this afternoon were requested by the police of Norwich to be on the lookout for Kenneth R. Browning, 18, who disappeared from his home earlier in the day. The youth is described as being about five feet seven inches in height, of stocky build, brown hair and eyes. He wore a light overcoat and light hat. The youth walks with a limp.

SAILORS TO BLAME RATHER THAN BOY

Roger Gramoline, a boy residing at 26 East street, was in the police court this morning charged with violation of the liquor law, but because of the trivialty of the alleged offense and the circumstances attending the charge, the youth was found not guilty.

The Gramoline boy and a companion were approached by three sailors stationed at the United States coast guard academy, Monday evening, who requested that the boys procure for the bluejackets a quantity of wine. The sailors informed the boy that the wine should be delivered to them on the academy reservation and that arrangement had been made with the guard to permit the youth to pass the academy gate. The Gramoline youth went to his home and during the absence of his father stole the wine from a cask in the cellar. Retrning to the academy entrance, the youth was stopped by the guard and when it was revealed that the youth was attempting to smuggle the wine into the reservation, officers there were informed. Complaint was made to the police and the Gramoline boy was arrested the following day. As a result of the incident, the sailors, who were identified by the boy, are locked up in the brig and will be given a court martial.

Fined $100 and Costs

David Mulcahy, 145 Glenwood avenue, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, was fined $100 and costs. Mulcahy was arrested last night on Pequot avenue by Sergeant John Courtney and Automobile Patrol Officer George Cockell.

Thomas White, United States coast guard, stationed at the state pier, was also charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. He was fined $100 and costs and $50 of the fine was ordered remitted. White was arrested by State Police Officer Donald Drown on the Thames river highway bridge yesterday.

STAR BOARDER ORDERED TO LEAVE ZIELINSKI'S

(Special to The Bulletin)

NEW LONDON, Dec. 3—Mrs. Mary Zielinski, Crystal avenue, was charged with breach of the peace and intoxication. She was fined $20, but execution of the sentence was suspended. Mrs. Zielinski was arrested upon complaint of her husband, who was discharged from a hospital yesterday. When Zielinski went to his home he discovered that a roomer had taken his place in the affections of his wife during his absence and the man and woman were intoxicated when Zielinski entered the house. When he remonstrated with his wife and the roomer for their conduct, Zielinski was attacked and beaten by the man and woman, being forced from the house. He made complaint to the police and Mrs. Zielinski was arrested by Sergeant John Courtney and Automobile Patrol Officer George Cockell. In arresting the woman, the officers were compelled to use force. In imposing sentence, Judge Daniel Mr. Cronin instructed the police to order the "star boarder" to vacate the Zielinski household at once. Zielinski was in such a weakened condition that he was not in court.

A man charged with intoxication had his case continued to Saturday next. He was arrested on North Bank street yesterday by Patrolman Lawrence Fardy.

Edward Coe, 282 Huntington street, was charged with reckless driving and was fined $10 and costs. Coe was arrested on Williams street yesterday by State Police Officer Donald Brown.

HARTFORD YOUNG WOMAN LACKS FUNDS AND SHELTER

Rebecca Garbus, 21, residing at 617 Wethersfield avenue, Hartford, was arrested today by Patrolman William Riordan, being apprehended more for her own safety than any acts that she may have committed. She was locked up and the Hartford police were requested to notify her parents so that the young woman could be taken care of. The arrest of the young woman was made on State street where her conduct attracted the attention of the officer. It was ascertained that she had been in New London but a short time and was without funds or a place of shelter.

DEL-HOFF HOTEL PROPERTY TITLE TRANSFERRED

A quit claim deed was received for record at the office of the city clerk today, transferring title in real estate consisting of a house and lot on Ocean View place, Ocean Beach, this city, a house and lot, Water street, Stonington and the property on Broadway, Norwich, known as the Del-Hoff Real Estate company.

Norwich Bank Foreclosures

The Chelsea Savings bank of Norwich, today instituted foreclosure proceedings against Reuben Lubchansky and others and property of the defendants in this city has been attached. The property is located on Broad street, corner of Parker street. The suit is returnable before the next term of the superior court.

MYSTIC

Williams Woman's Relief corps met in G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Before the meeting a covered dish supper was served to those having birthdays in October, November and December. At the meeting the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Elsie Thorpe; senior vice president, Mrs. Anna Inderfurth; junior vice-president, Mrs. Lillian Barden; conductor, Mrs. Anna Higbee; associate conductor, Mrs. Cassie M. Neff; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Jewell. These officers with the appointive officers will be installed at a later meeting.

Fruit Crop Early

Letters from Mrs. Charles B. Allyn from Orlando, Fla., state that they stopped at several places of interest on their way down, including Longhorne, Pa., Ashland, Va., Henderson, N. C., Kingston, S. C. Also at Appomattox, Va., where Gen Lee surrendered to Gen Grant. Mrs. Allyn says they found fruit trees well loaded with fruit and some of it ripened much earlier than usual.

Many local persons are seen along the shore digging clams, in some instances having to cut holes in the ice to get at them.

There is local interest in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hauschild of Groton are parents of a daughter Mr. and Mrs. Hauschild were former residents of Old Mystic, Mr. Hauschild being the son of Joseph Hauschild and Mrs. Hauschild being Miss Lizzie Main, who made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pierce.

Rev. Robert J. Chrystie, PhD., has been called out of town and will not be able to give his talk on Washington, at the West Mystic school, as planned. He will give it on the evening of December 12.

The Ladies Aid society of Old Mystic Baptist church met with the president, Mrs. W. D. Beckwith, Wednesday afternoon. One quilt was tied and a short business session held. Those attending were, Mrs. Lizzie Austin, Mrs. Anna Williams, Mrs. Margaret Williams, Mrs. Ellen Williams, Mrs. Amanda Eldridge, Mrs. Etta Wheeler, Mrs. Rebecca Eldredge, Mrs. Mattie Burdick, Mrs. Emily B. Holmes and Mrs. Beckwith.

NORWICH D. A. R. REGISTRAR MAKES GIFT OF A HISTORY

The December issue of the D. A. R. magazine received in town states that at the National Board meeting held October 15, 2215 members were admitted, bringing the total up to 172,689. Connecticut's membership totals 6888. The National Registrar reports the gift of the book "First Congregational Church of Stonington 1674-1874" by Richard A. Wheeler 1875, presented by Mrs. Herbert W. Gallup, registrar of Faith Trumbull chapter of Norwich. This church is commonly called the Road Church. An article in the magazine of interest to many is "A Huguenot Heroine, Dame Ysabeau Gilbert who settled in South Carolina." There is a very good picture of the celebrated Huguenot Church in Charleston, S. C., which is open to the public and is visited by nearly all of the persons traveling to and from the South.

The December business meeting and social of Plus Ultra Bible Class of the Old Mystic Baptist church was held Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Horace S. Williams. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served to about 30 members. Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Elliot of New London attended.

Miss Winifred Wheeler, in company with friends from Groton, was a recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Leander F. Park of Northampton, Mass.

Held Quarterly Conference

The board meeting and the Third Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was held in the vestry Wednesday evening, with Rev. Myron E. Genter, of Norwich, district superintendent, in charge.

Miss Violet M. Adamson has returned to her duties in New York, after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adamson.

Mrs. Emily B. Holmes has completed the personal tax enrollment of the fifth district, (Old Mystic) for the year 1930.

Edward Spicer of Groton, with his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Edmond Spicer of Waterbury, spent the day recently with his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Brown, of Denison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stribl and children, Charlie, Bernice, Thelma and Dorothy visited Mrs. Stribl's sister Mrs. E. C. Stone of Springfield, Mass., recently.

Chilly in Florida

Cards received from Mrs. Newton A. Dickinson state that they have had several real cold days in Orlando, Fla.

NOANK

A meeting of Harrison Morton Ward post No. 115, American Legion will be held Friday evening.

John Loftus of New London was a business caller here Wednesday.

A meeting of Washington council, Junior O. U. A. M. was held in their hall on Front street Tuesday evening. Several visitors were present. The past councilors' association will hold a meeting with Washington council next Tuesday. At the close of the meeting a social was enjoyed.

A meeting of the Junior World Wide Guild of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Jenssen Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ann Robertson of New London spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson.

Thomas Burbine of the Watch Hill lifesaving station has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burbine.

Mrs. Harrie H. Park is spending several days with Providence relatives.

Edward Mahoney has returned from a business trip to New York.

Musical Entertainment

Plans are being made by the young people of the Methodist church to present a musical entertainment in the church soon. The program will be under the direction of Miss Marion MacDonald. Several of these programs were presented last winter and were much enjoyed by the audiences.

John Lane of New London was here Wednesday.

A pinochle party was held Tuesday evening in Mechanics hall under the auspices of Washington council, Junior O. U. A. M. Four tables were in play. Mrs. Hazel McGrath and Miss Josephine Conklin and Raymond Sistare received the prizes. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. This was the first in a series of six pinochles and the holder of the high score at the end of the series will receive a capitol prize. The pinochle was in charge of John Bentley.

Miss Melvina Paquett is spending several days with relatives in Providence.

Friday night, at the Baptist church, Rev. E. E. Knapp of Cedar Crest is to give a talk on Alaska. The address will be illustrated with lantern slides. There will be special music by the choir.

Mrs. John Scroggins spent Wednesday with friends in Mystic.

Miss Anna Bodreau has returned to Groton after spending several days with Miss Hazel Trahan of Main St.

A number of men have taken advantage of the low tides the past few days and have been engaged in digging clams, also a number have been fishing for eels in the channel.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meader's Recital Work

In addition to his work with the Metropolitan Opera company, where he is one of the leading tenors, George Meader, who is to sing at Slater hall Friday evening in the second concert of the series, has made for himself a most enviable position in this country as a recitalist. In New York, Boston, Chicago and other large cities his recitals are regarded as notable events of the season. His audiences are large and distinguished and everywhere the critics seem unanimous in their approval of his art, while his voice is justly regarded as one of unusual quality.

Shortly before ex-President and Mrs. Coolidge left Washington Mr. Meader sang at the white house before an assembly of their guests, giving on his program two numbers which are included in the program for Norwich, Friday evening.

There will be popular priced seats for this concert, 100 being put into the rear of the annex, to be sold today and Friday at Cranston's. See adv.

Palace Theatre

Now playing at the Palace theatre, one of the strongest of double bills yet offered to the patrons of this theater. A show that will thrill you and hold you till the end. Truth About Youth with Loretta Young and "Brothers" with Bert Lytell, two big features that really will be a treat to see.

Another of last year's successful stage plays has been brought to the screen. It is "Brothers," the Columbia dramatic vehicle with Bert Lytell in his original dual impersonation role. "Brothers" is now on view at the Palace theater, where it opened last night for a three days' run.

The story is concerned with the lives of twin brothers, separated in infancy and the effect of contrasting environments on their personalities. One is brought up in an atmosphere of wealth, the other in poverty. In unfolding, it reveals the dissolute life of the rich boy ending in murder and the wholesome life of the poor boy. Because of the physical resemblance, Eddie Connolly, the poor boy, is accused of the crime of his twin, Bob Naughton, whose identity he was unaware of until this time.

What is the truth about youth?

If you'd really like to know, you might drop into the Palace theater some time this week and see the new First National picture that is playing there. What's its title? Why, just what we were talking about—"The Truth About Youth."

This is one of the most absolutely delightful screen offerings that have come to this town in many a weary moon.

Starting Saturday for four days, the sweetheart of the screen, Marilyn Miller, in her latest success, "Sunny," with Joe Donahue. I know you'll love Sunny.

Broadway Theatre

William Haines puts on a one-man radio program which alone is worth the price of admission to see "Remote Control," his new talking picture, now playing at Warner Bros. Broadway theatre.

In his clever vocal impersonation of some of our "ether" favorites, Haines inspires one of the most hilarious scenes of his career. He tells a bedtime story for the kiddies, does an Amos 'n' Andy dialogue and cuts all sorts of microphonic capers before he is through, ably abetted by Polly Moran, Charles King and Roscoe Ates, not to forget John Miljan, whose radio clairvoyant talks supply motivation to the story.

Adapted by Sylvia Thalberg and Frank Butler from the stage play, the new Haines picture provides swift and furious action, replete with bank holdups, the sensational roof-top hotel robbery with a radio station furnishing the background and novel premise upon which the story is based. It is by far the most unusual plot the screen has seen for many months and is bound to be a surprise whether you've seen the play or not.

ROAD SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barlow and children spent Sunday with friends in Ledyard and Bethel.

Miss Sylvia Palmer, who spent the holiday week with her parents, has returned to her school in Bristol.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noyes entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, of New London on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Wheeler, Jr., entertained on Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Tourjee of Noank.

Mrs. N. Stanton Gates had as Thanksgiving day guests Mrs. Kariska Gates of Mystic, Miss Helen Hust of New York and Alphonse Kennerson of Yale university.

Mrs. Walter Morgan and a friend. Mrs. Cowling Hilton of Keene, N. H., called at Maple Lawn Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burdick were among the guests of Mrs. Longnecker on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams and Miss Grace D. Wheeler were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Minchell in Westerly Tuesday.

Denison Miner spent Friday and Saturday with his brother, Alfred Miner, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. G. Wheeler.

The lecture given by Rev. Fred Bunker Sunday morning was well attended and proved most interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Golden of Westerly and Mrs. Mary Crandall and son, Harold, called at Ralph C. Wheeler's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Wheeler with their daughter and sons, called recently on Mrs. Wheeler's mother in Westerly.

Billings Wheeler and daughters were at West Mystic Friday and Saturday at Robert Machett's as they are soon to move from their home to Wallingford, Conn.

Miss Helen McGinness, Miss Harding and William Burdick, of Norwich, were recent callers at Edmund Burdick's.

NORTH STERLING

Mrs. Jennie Winther has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., for hospital treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks and daughter of Providence were holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Hall of Sterling spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Spooner. Evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Philip La Fantasie, of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Spooner spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip La Fantasie, of Brooklyn. Games were played, the radio reception was fine and a lunch was served.

Robert G. C. Spooner of U. S. S. Camden on the way to Honolulu made a stop at San Diego, Cal. While there he visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crowell, also his sister, Irene.

A HISTORY OF CONNECTICUT INDUSTRY

Released by Manufacturers Association of Connecticut

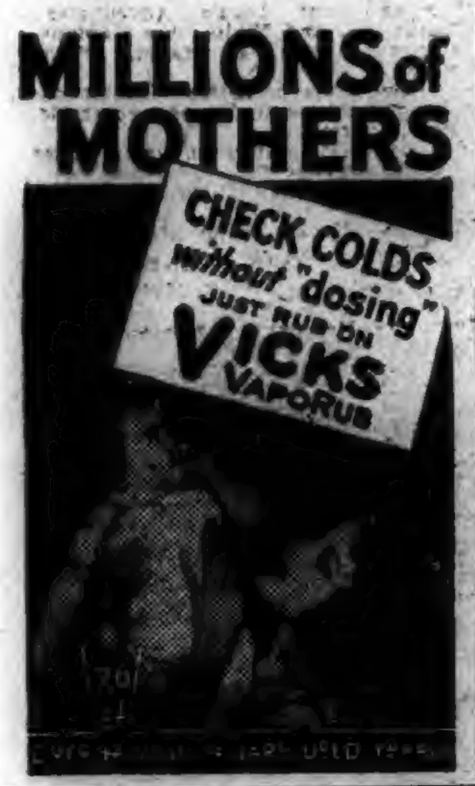
The Russell Jennings Mfg. Co., Chester.

In 1840, in the town of Chester, the production of auger bits was started by Russell Jennings who 15 years later patented what is now universally known as the "extension lip bit." The steadily increasing demand for this product as well as the various other types of bits manufactured in later years, brought about the incorporation in 1895 of The Russell Jennings Mfg. Co.

The extensive use throughout the entire world of bits produced by the company is due to the very highest standards of workmanship and material used. The manufacture of good auger bits requires steel made to special analysis and for this reason genuine tool steel, made to order, is the raw material from which they are made.

The forging and tempering processes are highly important and the company's special means of handling the latter is the very best method known.

The present officers are: Chas. R. Brothwell, president; Stephen E. Jennings, vice president; Wm. R. Jennings, secretary; Ernest A. Jennings, treasurer.



COMPLETE DISPERSAL
—AT AUCTION—
25 REGISTERED GUERNSEYS, PAIR HORSES
ALL FARM MACHINERY AND IMPLEMENTS
WATERMONT FARM, Uncasville, Conn.
(Mr. Willis P. Austin, Owner)
Uncasville is 6 miles south of Norwich and 5 miles north of New London. Farm is 1½ miles west of town, road marked by signs on Sale Day.
Thursday, Dec. 11, 1930. Under Cover—10 A. M.
Regardless of Weather
A two-year-old son of Prince Charlie of Linda Vista 45951. Several Imported cows and heifers, others of choice American breeding. A herd of outstanding blood lines. Stock sells at 1 P. M.
— Herd Under State and Federal Supervision —
Pair Chesnut Horses (2800 lbs.); 1930 Ford Delivery Truck; Blizzard ensilage cutter; John Deere manure spreader; riding cultivator; two-horse two-row planter, tractor plow, tractor harrow, mowing machine, horse rake, land pulverizer, team wagon, harnesses, horse fork, litter carrier, etc. Everything practically new. General Electric milk cooling tank, separator, sink and bottle washer, cans, bottles, crates, milking machine, etc. All purchased recently. Write for catalog—
Sale under management of E. M. GRANGER, JR., Auctioneer
Thompsonville, Conn.

FIGURE OUT HOW MUCH YOU NEED NOW!
★
COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN HOW EASILY A LOAN CAN BE ARRANGED.
★
HERE YOU GET THE FULL AMOUNT OF YOUR LOAN IN CASH.
★
FROM 1 DAY TO ALMOST 2 YEARS TO REPAY, IF YOU WISH.
★
QUICK, COURTEOUS SERVICE.
$10 TO $300
WITHIN 24 HOURS
PRIVATE CONSULTATION ROOMS
PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
THIRD FLOOR, DISCO BLDG.
257 MAIN STREET
PHONE: 3233
★ NORWICH, CONN. ★
The only charge is three and one-half per cent per month on unpaid amount of loan.

STOPS FALLING HAIR
LUCKY TIGER, a proven germicide, corrects dandruff and scalp irritations. World's largest seller—Money-Back Guarantee. Safe for adults and children. At Barbers and Druggists.
LUCKY TIGER

BROADWAY NOW PLAYING
A PACK OF THRILLS—A MILLION LAUGHS
TUNE IN ON—
WILLIAM HAINES
—IN—
"Remote Control"
A Rollicking, Romantic Melodrama Based on the Play that Broadway Gasped at.
With MARY DORAN

—TODAY—
Mammoth Double Bill
PALACE
A POWERFUL DRAMA THAT WILL THRILL YOU
BERT LYTELL in BROTHERS
Co-Feature
LORETTA YOUNG
CONWAY TEARLE
DAVID MANNERS
They Will Tell You the Whole
TRUTH ABOUT YOUTH

Basketball Tonight
PLAINFIELD COMMUNITY HOUSE
Plainfield Pros vs.
Famous Halcoahs of New York
FAST PRELIMINARY AT 7:45—MAIN GAME AT 9:15
—Dancing After the Games—

Aunt Lucia
Reserve Seat Sale
MARA'S DRUG STORE
Friday, Dec. 5, 9 a. m.
All Seats 75c Only

Dance Tonight
UNCASVILLE AUDITORIUM
FEATURING
Benvenuti's Orchestra
Dancing 8:45 to 12
ADMISSION 50c

2nd of Slater Hall Series
MEADER
Metropolitan Opera Tenor
FRIDAY, DEC. 5th
SEAT SALE AT CRANSTON'S
TODAY AND FRIDAY
Tickets $2.00 each
100 Popular Priced Seats at $1.00 in Rear of Annex

POULTRY SHOW
Now Open
Olympic Hall
TODAY and TOMORROW
10 a. m. to 10 p. m.
Admission 25c

Annual Dance
Given by
Taftville Dramatic Club
PONEMAH HALL
Friday, December 5
Music by D. and O.'s Troubadours
Spotlight Dancing
Dancing 9-12—Admission 50c

DANCING
Plainfield Community House
Friday Eve. Dec. 5th.
Return Engagement of DON DEFOREST and his
OREGONIANS
A Sensation Direct from the West Coast
Entertaining—Novelties—Singing
Dancing 8:30 to 1 a. m.

For Your Next Breakfast
Eat Our
Home Made
PORK SAUSAGE or
SAUSAGE MEAT
100% Pure
40c per lb.
THUMM'S
Delicatessen Store
60 Franklin Street

CLOUDY TODAY,
COLDER AT NIGHT

Norwich Bulletin

NORWICH, CONN., THURSDAY, DEC. 4, 1930

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

The Bulletin

Norwich, Thursday, Dec. 4, 1930

THE WEATHER

Conditions

An area of high pressure is moving rapidly eastward over Ontario and pressure is high south of Newfoundland in the Atlantic states and over the middle and northern plateau.

The outlook is for partly cloudy weather on Thursday nad cloudy weather on Friday in the Washington forecast district. It will be slightly colder on Thursday in New England and the north portion of the middle Atlantic states.

Winds

North of Sandy Hook, Moderate to fresh west winds; weather somewhat overcast Thursday.

Sandy Hook to Hatteras, moderate to fresh west winds over north portion and gentle variable over south portion; weather somewhat overcast Thursday.

Forecast

For southern New England, Delaware, New Jersey, cloudy Thursday, slightly colder at night; Friday cloudy.

Observations

The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Wednesday:

	Ther	Bar.
7 a. m.	18	30.60
12	40	30.60
6 p. m.	34	30.60

Highest, 40; lowest 18.

Comparisons

Predictions for Wednesday: Increasing cloudiness; not so cold.

Wednesday's weather: Fair, cold in early morning followed by rising temperature; variable winds.

SUN, MOON AND TIDES

	Sun		High Water	Moon Rises
	Rises	Sets
Day	a. m.	p. m.	a. m.	a. m.
1 ..	6.55	4.19	6.30	2.06
2 ..	6.55	4.19	7.10	3.10
3 ..	6.56	4.19	7.49	4.19
4 ..	6.57	4.19	8.28	5.28
5 ..	6.58	4.19	9.09	rises
6 ..	6.59	4.19	9.52	4.38
7 ..	7.00	4.19	10.36	5.48

Six hours after high ater it is low water, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVILLE

FUNERALS

Mrs. Harrison B. Wilson

The funeral of Mrs. Harrison B. Wilson was held at the home of her brother-in-law, William E. Wilson, No. 148 Broad street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the service was conducted by Rev. Charles H. Ricketts, pastor of the Greeneville Congregational church. The burial was in Maplewood cemetery and Rev. Mr. Ricketts conducted the committal service. The bearers were James Service, Archibald Buchanan, Neil Finlayson and George Mitchell. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Undertaker C. A. Gager had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Thomas Nevins of Meriden is spending a few days at the home of his mother on Golden street.

A second test was held at the Eighth street crossing on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of Joseph P. Wade, transportation engineer of the public utilities commission at Hartford, First Selectman William S. Murray and railroad officials. Several tests were made at the crossing to determine the effectiveness of the crossing signal. In conclusion every one concerned expressed themselves as being satisfied with the safety of the device at the present time. On the night of Nov. 22 a complaint was made that the signal was not working properly. An investigation revealed that the light flashed continually despite the fact that there was no train in the vicinity. On being advised, railroad officials sent a man to the crossing until the signal was repaired. Later it was found that a broken bond wire was responsible for the defect. It was explained yesterday that a broken bond wire or a broken rail would cause the trouble. Another thing brought out during the demonstration was that though the light did not work right on the night of Nov. 22 it operated in favor of safety. During the past year the signal has not given any serious trouble and it is believed will not in the future. At the demonstration, besides Selectman Murray and Commissioner Wadhams were W. H. Brooks, assistant superintendent of the New Haven division, W. W. Losaw, general foreman of the signal department, Arthur H. Pickhardt, foreman of the maintenance signal department and Yardmaster Henry Dunn of this city.

Troops 2, Boy Scouts held its regular meeting in the hall of the Third Baptist church. The meeting began by saying the scout oath and law. Exercises were given and games were held. First aid and various tenderfoot lessons were reviewed. Another talk on corving aeroplane propellors was given by Mr. Moje. Fifteen were present.

REPORTS ATTEMPT AT FAIRMOUNT ST. HOLDUP

An unsuccessful attempt to hold up and rob Herman H. Ragovin of 35 Fairmount St. was made late Monday night by two men, near the Hebrew Institute on that street. Mr. Ragovin conducts a grocery store at 155 West Main street. He closed the store at 10:15 o'clock, and started for his home. In addition to the day's receipts at the store he had quite a sum of money with him.

When he arrived at the Hebrew Institute two men appeared from the institute yard and demanded his money. One of the men attempted to grab him but Mr. Ragovin pushed him away and called for help. The bandits were scared off and disappeared.

A passing autoist went to Mr. Ragovin's aid and they searched the immediate vicinity but found no one. The police were notified and made a search without result. Mr. Ragovin could give no description of the men, other than that one was very short.

NORWICH
PET SHOP

WILL OPEN SOON with a full line of BIRDS, CAGES, DOG FOODS, GOLDFISH, MEDICINES and SUPPLIES. We shall carry the celebrated Spratt's line of Seeds and Dog Food.

10 BATH STREET
Next to Bailey's Garage
Chas. C. Miller, Prop.

When YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

WOMEN VOTERS MAKE REPORT ON NORWICH SCHOOL CONDITIONS

Reports of the beginning of an investigation by the Norwich League of Women Voters into conditions in Norwich public school buildings made a feature of the league December meeting which was held at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Slater hall annex with "Education" as its subject. The report covered visits to five schools and further visits and reports are to follow.

In her opening remarks the president, Mrs. Leslie L. Brewer, said that, for the benefit of those, who had been unable to attend the first meeting of the league in October, she would like to state, that the Norwich league, in addition to its programme as printed, was studying schools. This is not a particular study, taken up by the Norwich league but is in line with a nation-wide study of schools as advocated by the National League of Women Voters in their convention last year at Louisville. In our study of schools, she said, we, the Norwich League, are following as closely as possible the comprehensive and exhaustive questionnaire gotten out by the state league in Hartford. Any member of the league can obtain one of these questionnaires by writing to the league headquarters in Hartford and sending 3c. You can readily see that a study of this sort requires a vast amount of research and cannot be accomplished in a short space. In order to carry on this survey as rapidly as possible a special committee has been appointed to visit our local schools. As there are twenty schools in our town this will take some time.

The questionnaire is still in the hands of Miss Whitehead at the superintendent's office, that the technical questions may be answered authoritively, Mrs. Brewer said.

To date the committee has visited the following schools—Broadway, Broad street, High street and Pearl street and the following facts ascertained:

General facts appertaining to all four schools—

School floors usually washed once a year, sometimes twice.

No school has a private fire alarm box.

With the exception of Greeneville, none of these schools has an opportunity room.

There has been no milk supplied to the undernourished children in these schools for the past two years and none to date this year, although the town has voted $500 each year for this purpose and the Red Cross an additional $100. However, this appropriation for health work is a blanket fund only which may be used for some other purpose than for milk.

The money voted for schools is not a special fund, but a general fund, so, if for any reason there is a deficit in tax collection, all of the money voted is not available. Last year this deficit was $8,000 in the school appropriations. This money is definitely lost to the schools as such a deficit is never made up.

Broadway School

Walls in rear hall very dirty and badly in need of cleaning and paint. This condition has existed for eleven years. Eighth grade very much overcrowded, the old cloak room being used for recitation rooms for about 45 pupils, the pupils sitting on wooden benches, and the only ventilation being two windows directly back of the pupils.

The toilets especially on the boys' side very unsanitary, the odor being noticeable upstairs in the rear hall, also in the girls' cooking room. Three of these toilets have been out of order and nailed up for five years, this with an over crowded condition of the school.

Fire conditions bad. In a fire drill held by Chief Taft, the school was emptied in 2 and 3-4 minutes, but the inside stairs were used by the smaller children. In case of fire these stairs would be useless on account of smoke. The reason given for their use was that the smaller children become confused and timid, when obliged to use the fire escapes.

Greeneville School

This school in a very unsanitary condition, walls and floors dirty, toilet bad. In place of waste basket, wooden box nailed to wall in hall. Reading books, dirty torn and many without covers. Special class in basement room, one of these children is attending clinic for mal-nutrition. This room never has any sun. The ceiling of this room is in bad condition, the plastering having fallen in several places. The outside of the building is stained from the boys' urinals. On account of the over crowding of this school a room is being partitioned off from the third floor hall, this room heated from the hot air from the other rooms. The only provision for fire in the smaller school is a bell given by the janitor.

Broad Street School

All rooms well ventilated. Toilet clean but old, boxed in with wood and very dark—electric lights needed. Some of the walls have not been painted since the school was built. Several wooden ceilings, increasing fire hazard. Only two drinking fountains in building. In fire drill, school emptied in one minute.

Chance for an opportunity room in this building. Two rooms on the second floor in the front of the building, sunny, now used for supply rooms. By taking out the partition between the two a fair sized room could be obtained for very little expense. No over crowding in this school. Kindergarten, large and well equipped. Only in use in the morning.

High Street School

Building freshly painted with metal ceilings, but toilet very bad, one toilet out of four working in the boys' basement, and one out of seven in the girls'. Fire escapes not used in fire drill. These fire escapes empty into a yard below the street level, and when used the children would have to go up a flight of stairs close to the building in order to reach the street.

Pearl Street School

Walls and ceiling clean. No over crowding. Toilet in good condition. No fire escapes, but not necessary. Floors as in other buildings washed once a year. No ventilators in windows.

Following this report, announcement was made by Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins that a "Child Welfare" luncheon would be held in February, under the auspices of the Norwich League of Women Voters, and it is expected that there will be an outstanding speaker from Washington who is taking part in President Hoover's child welfare conference. Further announcement will follow.

Mrs. Nathan Gilman, chairman of international relations, called attention to the sixth national conference at Washington on the cause and cure of war, of which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is chairman. This is held from January 19 to the 22 and she suggested that the Norwich league send a delegate.

Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman then reported very interestingly on the state convention of Women Voters held recently at Bridgeport, and comprising delegates from most of the 70 towns organized in Connecticut. By means of these leagues women are constantly reminded of their immense social duty in finding out the needs of the people and how to carry out these measures by legislature. The state league programme for 1930-1931 proposes the study and support of many important matters, including public finance, education and child welfare matters, shorter hours for working women, jury service for women, immigration and international cooperation of women to prevent war. Mrs. Gilman was greatly impressed by the personnel and fine character of the women in charge of the convention and referred to the several speakers of note.

The next speaker on the programme was Mrs. Helen Lewis of Hartford, for six years a member of the state legislature and chairman of state board of education. Her subject was "Education". Mrs. Lewis spoke of what the state has been doing in improving the educational system of Connecticut. This is distinctly a home rule state and consequently the duties of the state board of education are largely advisory only, although certain activities are distinctly in the hands of the state such as the four normal schools and the twelve trade schools. The board is at the service of any town or citizen—ready to assist with its research and surveys, offering facts about school costs, school standards, etc.

This board was appointed in 1923 to revise school laws of the state, and it found that the most outstanding need was to equalize the educational opportunities of town and rural schools, and the result of their six years' work has been a new code of school laws which was recently passed by the house with no questions at all, but was held up in the senate. It will come up again at the present legislature. The new commissioner, Dr. Butterfield, is most anxious to make the acquaintance of the people of Connecticut and is willing to be called upon at any time to speak on his work.

A general discussion of Norwich school problems followed and many questions answered by Mrs. Lewis.

TAFTVILLE

With a large attendance, the regular business meeting of the members of St. Veronica's society was held Wednesday evening in their rooms on Providence street with the president, Miss Helen Breault presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mather of Providence street entertained a number of friends at cards Saturday evening.

Hartwell Zuerner of Hunters avenue was a visitor in New London Wednesday.

The Independent Order of Foresters held their monthly business meeting Wednesday evening.

The quantities of all sorts of winter berries which serve as food for the game birds and a plentiful supply of walnuts for the squirrels this year, are causing the local weather sharps to predict a long and cold winter ahead.

Alfred Mathieu who spent the Thanksgiving recess at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mathieu has resumed his studies at Assumption college, Worcester, Mass.

Lauren Benoit, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Benoit and family of Hunters avenue has returned to New Haven.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amede Pion and family of Hunters avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Faucher and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Poirier of North Grosvenordale.

A number of local Odd Fellows and Odd Ladies were in Baltic Wednesday evening to attend the dance given by Loyal Samaritan lodge, I. O. O. F. M. U. of Baltic.

The annual production of the Taftville Dramatic club, "Some Little Fixer" a comedy in three acts under the direction of Miss Flossie M. Meyer was presented to a crowded house Tuesday evening on the opening night of the annual fair and bazaar of the Taftville Congregational church at Ponemah hall. This year all agreed that the characters were exceptionally well chosen, the play ran along very smoothly, and called for a great deal of applause from the interested audience. The cast: Madge Turner, Miss Jean Copeland; Eleanor Allen, Miss Helen Thoma; Alice Reddin, Mrs. Richard G. Oat; Henry Topper, Richard G. Oat; Larry Thomas, Laughlin Houston; Ernest Slater, Earle Mathewson; Charles Young, Charles Helmboldt; Jane King, Miss F. Saroske; Frances Long, Miss Mildred Troeger; Richard Timberlain, Reginald Monty; Dannie, Rev. William Penner; Martha, Mrs. Elsie K. Pingree. The stage appointments were by A. Pion.

Attractively decorated booths about the hall did a brisk business. An apron booth sponsored by the church school was in charge of Miss Eleanor Heinrich and Miss Hilda Troeger The fancy work booth was under the direction of the Ladies Benevolent society and those in charge were Mrs. John Wohlleben, Mrs. George W. Weller, Mrs. John Volkman, Mrs. Allan Bogle and Mrs. Charles T. Webster.

Ice cream was sold by the members of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor. At this booth were Miss Mary Greenhalgh, Miss Dorothy Hunt, Miss Ruth Grimshaw and Miss Eleanor Mather. The candy booth in charge of the Church school was directed by Miss Elizabeth B. Houston who had as her assistants, Miss Helen Troeger and Miss Charlotte Pilling.

Edmund Mathewson and Irving Alexander sold soda and hot dogs, and their corner proved to be a busy one. Delicious home cooking, consisting of cakes, pies, bread, biscuits and other appetizing foods such as made by only Taftville cooks, was disposed of by Mrs. John W. Seddon, Mrs. Edward Eckart, Mrs. John Seidel and Mrs. Adolph Leupold.

NORWICH TOWN

Concerning the interests of the Norwich Town Methodist Episcopal church, when Rev. Francis H. Rose started the painting fund in memory of his aunt, Mrs. Frederick H. Bushnell, a committee was formed to go ahead with this worthy project and if possible through the solicitation of church members and friends chiefly by letter, accumulate the required amount to cover the expense.

The church treasurer, Miss Theodora Brown, during November, forwarded a number of letters to interested friends. Besides the generous donations by others of the Rose family, there has been liberal response from many others as about fifty letters to date have been responded to, thus greatly assisting the church treasury, though there is yet need of subscriptions, that the goal may be reached, as was introduced by Rev. Mr. Rose, before leaving Norwich Town for his home on the Philippines. The committee in charge of this fund comprises the pastor, Rev. George Warren Potter, chairman; Stanton W. Brown, William Weaver, Rutherford Snow, Mrs. George L. Randall, Mrs. George Manning, Miss Florence M. Bennett and the treasurer, Miss Theodora Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Harvey and daughter, Miss Marjorie Harvey, moved Tuesday from Sunnyside, Yantic, to the Tyler Stanton house on Sentry hill, Norwich Town.

Within the past few months at least five new houses have been constructed on Harland road, on that end of the highway leading up from the Washington street entrance, and during the past year several new houses have been constructed in the upper part of Norwich Town in West Town street section, near or on Sholes avenue.

The rise in the Yantic river, running through Norwich Town, was noticeable following the severe rain Sunday night.

As in former years the women of the First Congregational church, woman's department of the League of Service are to pack a Christmas box and send it to Miss Ruth Beebe, the contents of which will be distributed to her pupils at Trinity school, Athens, Alabama. Those who intend to contribute to these boys and girls or those who wish to send a personal gift to Miss Beebe have been requested to send their donation to Mrs. Clyde M. Beebe, East Town street, during this week, or very early next week, as she is to pack the box. Any useful gift for older boys and girls, cards, games, or toys for the smaller children will be appreciated also.

POULTRY SHOW OPENS WITH OVER 500 EXHIBITS

With nearly 500 exhibits, poultry, and pet stock, the seventh annual show of the Norwich Poultry and Pet Stock association, got underway Wednesday morning at Olympic hall. The three day show which will come to a close at 10 o'clock Friday night is the finest and largest yet held by the association. It occupies the entire floor space in Olympic hall, the pens being arranged about the sides and through the center of the hall. There was a good sized atendance on the opening day and much favorable comment was heard on the wide variety and quality of the birds and pet stock shown. There are about 350 poultry exhibits, including turkeys, geese, ducks, roosters, hens, bantams, etc., and over 100 entries in the rabbit display. This is the largest rabbit display ever seen at a local show and is attracting much attention.

Announcement was made Wednesday evening by President Frank E. Fitch that Dr. Blake A. Sears, Windsor dentist, and an authority on rabbit breeding and rabbit skins, will exhibit a splendid collection of rabbit skins and lecture this (Thursday) afternoon and evening on rabbits.

The office of the secretary, Edwin F. Griffith, is a huge brooder house erected through the courtesy of A. E. Shedd. The brooder house is 12 feet in diameter and occupies a prominent location in the hall.

Mr. Shedd has on exhibition other poultry plant equipment, mash and feeds.

Another exhibitor is the Gordon Grain Co., showing a complete line of Flory's dairy and poultry feeds at a booth in charge of Herbert Lappie. The Norwich Grain Co., has on display, at its booth, King Scratch feed, buttermilk for poultry feed and poultry plant equipment. A radio loaned by the United Music company provides music for the show.

Over 2,000 tickets fo: the show have been distributed among the pupils of the three upper grad in the public and parochial schools.

In the poultry department the displays are entered by about a score of exhibitors. Among the largest displays is that entered by the Gem Poultry yards of this city, owned by Frank E. Fitch. Other poultry exhibitors include: C. Moussie, North Stonington; Mary T. Bailey, Wallingford; Robert F. Jones of Norwich; Miss Ella Lester, Norwich; Carl A. Ricker, Norwich Town; Christopher Barry, Norwich; R. J. Raymond, Norwich; M. J. Farrell, Norwich; G. M. Wilson, Bozrah; Harry Way, Westerly; W. W. Waters, Norwich; Harry Williams, Taftville; George L. Stillman, Westerly; Earl Wills, Westerly; Tom Thorp, Westerly; A. M. Bugbee, Norwich; A. L. Jensen of Jewett City.

In the rabbit display the exhibitors include Edward Gleason of Norwich; Frank Dembineki of Norwich; Edward Pinsky of Old Mystic; Fred W. Newton of Canterbury; Joseph B. Pysyk, Charles Jaskielz and John Rogers, all of Norwich and R. Beauregard of Taftville.

The judges were busy throughout the afternoon and evening Wednesday judging and awarding the numerous prizes to the winning entries. H. E. Beebe of New London is the poultry judge and H. Cruickshanks is the pet stock judge. The judging is by comparison and, as far as possible by the standards of the American Poultry association with which the Norwich association is affiliated.

The officers of the local association are: President, Frank E. Fitch; vice president, W. W. Waters; secretary, Edwin F. Griffith; assistant secretary J. Handleman; treasurer, R. G. Raymond; directors, C. Barry, M. J. Farrell, C. P. Bushnell, W. P. Lillie, B. F. Brewster; auditors, C. A. Ricker, C. A. Chamberlain; show superintendent, P. J. Desmond.

The association has acknowledged courtesies from the following: A. E. Shedd, C. A. Ricker, Hanover-Curland Co., W. Avery Gallup, The Household, M. D'Atri, Disco Bros., The Reid & Hughes Co., Yantic Grain Co., The Edward Chappell Co., P. J. Morley, J. Ogulnick, Shetucket Coal & Lumber Co., M. Bendett, American Thermos Bottle Co., A. N. Alexander Co., A. M. Bugbee, Lillie's Gas Station, B. F. Brewster, P. F. Sweeney, George Ring, James Sellas.

ROBBED POOR BOX AT COMMUNITY SYNAGOGUE

The police are looking for a man who robbed the poor box at the Community synagogue on Church street Tuesday afternoon. A Jewish-speaking man asked permission of the caretaker, Benjamin Bloomberg, to stay in the synagogue until he got warm, as the weather was decidedly cold. The stranger was allowed to remain and when Mr. Bloomberg went to the basement to coal the furnace fire, the stranger smashed open the poor box and took what cash there was in it. The money is estimated at less than $5. A file with a bent handle was found near the smashed coin box.

"IT'S CHRISTMAS NOW AT CRANSTON'S"

AN OPEN LETTER TO MR., MRS. and MISS CHRISTMAS CLUB MEMBER:

Your Christmas Dollar

This year as never before, we are confronted with the problem of stretching our CHRISTMAS DOLLARS.

With this in mind we have selected our stock this year. BOOKS, BOXED STATIONERY, GLASSWARE, PEWTER, BOOK ENDS, DESK SETS, KODAKS, PICTURES, MOTTOES, GIFT NOVELTIES, LAMPS, all make excellent CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR ADULTS.

Best of all, prices are such that $1—$3—$5—$10 make purchases that are INDIVIDUAL, DISCRIMINATING, and of UNDENIABLE APPEAL.

Every item in our stock is HIGH GRADE MERCHANDISE of UNMISTAKABLE QUALITY and UP-TO-THE-MINUTE SMARTNESS.

And don't forget the CHILDREN—for them we have TOYS of every description in our YEAR 'ROUND TOY DEPARTMENT at prices lower than ever before in our experience. BOOKS, too, meet with a warm reception from most children. These we have from 25c up.

For those whom we wish to remember with a word of greeting we have CHARMING CHRISTMAS CARDS ranging in price from 1c-$1.

Once again we urge you to remember that your CHRISTMAS DOLLAR WILL GO FURTHER and BRING MORE IN SATISFACTION

—AT—

CRANSTON'S
25-27-29 BROADWAY
"IT'S CHRISTMAS NOW AT CRANSTON'S"

SATURDAY
13
DECEMBER
1930
The New Telephone Directory goes to press

A Reminder

—that the new telephone directory goes to press on Saturday, December 13 at noon

If you intend to order a telephone
If you are moving
If you desire a change in your listing
If you wish to advertise in the new directory
If you are planning any business or residence telephone change that might affect your telephone listings—

Please Call Our Business Office

THE SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE COMPANY

Every Boy wants a LIONEL

Make your boy happy this Christmas with a Lionel electric railroad. No other gift could possibly be so dear to his heart. Swift, handsome, colorful trains—steam-type or electric engines—all sorts of bridges, tunnels, semaphores, and other accessories to select from. See Lionel trains demonstrated at your local stores. Lionel train outfits priced from $7.00 to $350.00.

FREE! A beautiful 48 page, full color Lionel Railroad Planning Book and Catalog describing all Lionel Railroads and accessories. Write for this interesting book today.

THE LIONEL CORPORATION Dept. NP 15-19 East 26th St., N. Y. C.

LIONEL TRAINS

Lionel Electric Trains, Accessories, and Multivolt Transformers
Standard of the World since 1900

ON THE RADIO Listen-in to "Uncle Don" and his Lionel Engineers' Club, Fridays, from 6:00 to 6:30 Eastern Standard Time, stations WOR (New York), WLW (Cincinnati), WBBM (Chicago).

Norwich 1796 1930 Bulletin

VOL. LXXII—No. 291 NORWICH POPULATION 32,438 NORWICH, CONN., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1930—16 PAGES CIRCULATION MORNING AND EVENING 19,049 PRICE TWO CENTS

NON-CONFIDENCE VOTE ENDS TARDIEU FRENCH MINISTRY

Tardieu Cabinet Resigned Following 147-139 Defeat in the Senate—Vote Was Taken After a Debate on the Ministry's Internal and Financial Policies—President Doumergue is Expected to Begin Today the Usual Consultations With Political Leaders in an Effort to Find a New Head For the Government—Poincare the Favorite

PARIS, Dec. 4—(AP)—Premier Andre Tardieu's second ministry, placed in a minority of eight votes by the senate, fell today. The premier with his colleagues visited President Doumergue at the Elysee palace tonight and presented the resignation of the entire cabinet.

M. Tardieu went down smiling and fighting to the end. But the grave "elder statesmen" of the third republic decided by a vote of 147 to 139 that the country needed a change of government. The financial scandals which had already resulted in the resignation of three members of the Tardieu ministry were mainly responsible for the overthrow today. But in a wider sense the cause was the senate's dissatisfaction with the cabinet's general policy at a moment of national uneasiness.

The premier already had foreseen that the senate would place a period to his labors. In a speech at the Thanksgiving night dinner of the American club he reminded his hosts that the French senate, like the American upper house, really existed and could exercise its power, however rarely it had done so in the past. This senate, he said, he must face.

Tomorrow President Doumergue will begin the task of bringing another government into life. Raymond Poincare, who has been so often called to power in moments of crisis, was a big favorite in lobby gossip in the chamber and senate tonight. Yesterday he told friends, however, that he preferred not to return to the premiership.

A dark horse picked up by many politicians for the post was Pierre Laval, minister of public works in the Tardieu cabinet, who won popular favor by the manner in which he settled the recent textile strikes.

President Doumergue will first consult the presidents of the senate and chamber and then leaders of the political groups such as M. Poincare, Edouard Herriot, former premier; Edouard Daladier, radical socialist leader, and Leon Blum, who heads the socialist party and has been one of M. Tardieu's most bitter opponents.

M. Tardieu met the Waterloo which Senator Rene Hery said he must meet to complete his resemblance to Napoleon after a five-hour session of the senate. It was the fourth time in the history of the third republic that a government had been forced to resign by the senate instead of the chamber.

The opposition charged the government with the unrest and the menacing situation which it said existed in France, and demanded its resignation on the ground that Tardieu's program was too vague and that he was not in accord with Foreign Minister Briand on foreign policy.

Senator Hery led the attack with a leisurely presentation of what he considered the weak spots in the Tardieu armor, thrusting here and there with minor matters of internal policy and the larger bank and bourse affairs that have for weeks embarrassed the government.

The final blows were delivered by Senator Victor Boret, who was food dictator during the war under Clemenceau. Despite the crowded galleries the senate had a funereal atmosphere from the start and not even M. Tardieu could shake off the gloom.

With a challenge from M. Hery about his final relations with Clemenceau in his ears, the premier went to the rostrum with his usual calm smile. But he seemed to maintain his composure with difficulty as the applause grew fainter.

"Get out," someone shouted from the extreme left as Tardieu completed his first sentence.

The senators, however, except members of the aggressive left wing, sat stolidly in judgment on the younger man. Tardieu began by setting forth the financial and economic superiority France enjoys. He admitted that there was a falling off in the deluxe industries and in the number of tourists, while during the past few weeks less fertilizer and fewer automobiles had been bought in the country.

"But," he said, "the franc is the most stable money in Europe. We have continued at our best the work of the eminent Poincare and our state bonds have been going up for a year."

From home questions the premier went on to Germany.

"The Hitler success at the German elections caused us a certain deception," he said. ". . . We were faced with the option of reversing our policy or continuing it and we thought reversing it would have been bad. France continues to pursue its great object, which is to keep its victory and to serve the cause of peace.

"There was a project for European organization suggested by M. Briand. It is branded as an absurdity. Well, in my opinion, if Europe does not organize inside of ten years I won't give much for it.

"As to revision of the treaties, I need not repeat what M. Herriot and M. Poincare said recently—that we could not institute a perpetual rearrangement of the map and the reopening of a case which would never be closed."

HOPES CONGRESS WILL AVOID EXTRA SESSION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—(AP)—Julius E. Barnes, chairman of the board of the United States chamber of commerce, told President Hoover that American business hoped no extended discussion in congress would be allowed to create delay and discussion of an extra session "at this sensitive time."

Barnes, who also is chairman of President Hoover's business survey conference, said it could be stated fairly that "business management welcomes the evidence that the president and political leadership in both the parties in congress seemed determined to put the emphasis of legislation on the necessary appropriation for public administration, and to provide emergency measures to increase employment."

"It is to be hoped that no extended discussion of measures, which may be worthy in themselves, should be allowed to create delay and discussion of an extra session, at this sensitive time," he added.

"Recent events have shown a high degree of statesmanship and party leadership from which we can hope for effective aid to industry in attempting to recover and expand."

SOCIALIST PRESIDENT OF AUSTRIAN NAT'L ASSEMBLY

VIENNA, Dec. 4—(AP)—With the aid of Chancellor Johann Schober's economic bloc, the socialists today elected one of their number, Dr Mathias Eldersch, as president of the national assembly. The socialists are the strongest single party in the national assembly, and the election was against the combined votes of the Christian socialists and the Heimwehr party.

The election was hailed in some political circles as a far reaching step in solution of Austria's economic problems as the votes of the socialists are necessary to carry through the chancellor's program against the combined opposition.

MRS. KEITH-MILLER AVIATRIX, PROBABLY ON ANDROS ISLAND

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 4—(AP)—Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian airwoman, and Captain W. N. Lancaster, her flying associate, had not arrived at Miami tonight from Nassau when Pan-American airport was closed at 7:30 p. m.

British Vice Consul L. A. Oates announced earlier receipt of a message that she was en route from Nassau. Later, however, he said a message had been quoted to him incorrectly and that it said she might possibly be at Andros Island late today.

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT IN TEXTILE INDUSTRY

GASTONIA, N. C., Dec. 4—(AP)—Signs of improving conditions in the textile industry in this section were disclosed today in a survey of mills in Gaston county.

A number of mills reported they had placed large orders for products and mill executives expressed themselves as encouraged by the outlook for the immediate future.

PROSPECTS OF SHOWDOWN ON NATIONAL DRY REFERENDUM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. — (AP) — Prospects of a showdown in both wet and dry ranks on whether there should be a national prohibition referendum were heightened today as Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, issued a statement favoring the move if the wets would harmonize on a single alternative.

"If the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment will tell us what it is working for," Dr. Wilson said, "I for one, and I am only one, would be glad to help devise a plan by which the two propositions—prohibition and the proposed substitute of the wet group—might be put before the American people for an intelligent choice in a constitutional referendum."

No stipulation was made concerning the substitute. The legalization of beer and wine, return of the saloon, government ownership and the Canadian system were among the possible alternatives named in the statement.

Various dry leaders have opposed the proposal.

PATNODE INDICTED FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER

HARTFORD, Dec. 4—(AP)—An indictment for murder in the first degree was returned against George Patnode, Hartland farmer, by the grand jury in superior court today at 8:07 p. m., after several state witnesses had been heard in connection with the fatal shooting of Miss Jennie V. Carr, in Hartland, on October 13.

Patnode was immediately presented to Judge Allyn L. Brown, entered a plea of not guilty and elected to be tried by the court. The date for the trial probably will be set tomorrow and Chief Justice William M. Maltbie will assign two judges of the superior court to sit with Judge Brown on the case.

Patnode is accused of having shot Miss Carr with a shotgun in a barn on the property of her foster parents. He then is alleged to have thrown the shotgun in a well, from which it was recovered after his arrest by the state police.

ANOTHER FORMER OFFICIAL OF ARGENTINA INDICTED

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 4—(AP)—Another official of the administration of former President Irigoyen was indicted today, Federal Judge Jantus ordered the arrest of Rodriguez Jauregur, former president of the national council of education. Investigators charged him with mismanagement of funds entrusted to him.

SEVERAL BROKEN LIQUOR BOTTLES IN WRECKED PLANE

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 4—(AP)—Several broken bottles with Canadian liquor labels were found this afternoon in the wreckage of the airplane in which William M. Griffin, Berea, Ohio, aviator, fell to his death at Bear Lake, Chautauqua county. They were packed in cardboard.

CABLED PARAGRAPHS

LONDON, Dec. 4—(AP)—The MacDonald government scored another victory in the house today when a conservative motion for prolongation of the dyestuffs restriction act was defeated by thirty votes.

RANGOON, Burma, Dec. 4—(AP)—Meagre reports reaching Rangoon tonight indicated that at least 36 persons lost their lives in the earthquakes which shook virtually all of Burma last night and early today.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 4—(AP)—Thirty-six persons were killed and three buildings destroyed when a freight car loaded with dynamite exploded today at the railroad station at Porto Novo Da Cunha, state of Minas Geraes.

LONDON, Dec. 4—(AP) — Britain's electoral system, which has persisted without essential revision within living memory, is likely to be entirely altered and the future of party politics materially changed by an electoral reform bill which Ramsay MacDonald announced today he would introduce before Christmas.

GENEVA, Dec. 4—(AP)—Soviet Russia is particularly dissatisfied with the failure of the preparatory disarmament commission to provide for the reduction of trained reserves in the draft disarmament convention just completed, Anatole Lunacharsky, acting leader of the soviet delegation, informed the chairman of the commission tonight.

LIPTON AFFECTED BY PRESENTATION OF CUP

NEW YORK, Dec. 4— (AP)— Sir Thomas Lipton today received America's cup—without any "the" ahead of it—and for a few seconds it looked as if the excitement might be too much for him.

As he was reading his speech of acceptance his voice faltered. With a quivering hand he adjusted his eye glasses and said huskily:

"Unfortunately I can't see so well as I used to."

Then, swaying a little and groping for support he whispered:

"I—I can't go on."

They got him a chair and a glass of water and Hector Fuller of the mayor's committee finished reading Lipton's speech.

A soloist began to sing "The Star Spangled Banner," and the old baronet feebly started to rise, but Mayor James J. Walker motioned him back into his chair.

He sat there uneasily until the band struck up "God Save the King." Then, pushing the mayor away, he raised himself to his full height—head and shoulders above those about him—and stood through the anthem, proud symbol of the quality to which Americans paid tribute today.

EIGHT ACCUSED NEW YORK POLICEMEN SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—Eight of 27 policemen named yesterday by Chile Acuna, former stool pigeon, as his employers in framing evidence against women arrested on vice charges, were suspended today by Police Commissioner Mulrooney and ordered to departmental trial.

They were charged with conduct unbecoming officers, conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline, and violation of police regulations.

Two more of the men whom the dapper informer tapped on the shoulders yesterday at an open hearing of the appellate court inquiry into New York magistrates' courts were transferred to uniform duty in outlying districts.

The commissioner also announced charges would be filed against other members of the group identified by Acuna as soon as he had been able to go over the testimony.

TWO DEATHS RESULT FROM EXPLOSION OF FIREWORKS

DARIEN, Dec. 4—(AP)—Two men are dead and two others are in a critical condition as a result of an explosion, which today destroyed a small fireworks factory in Darien, near the Stamford line.

Gaetano Solamona, 21, of Long Island City, died in Stamford hospital tonight. His brother, Nicholas, 22, died this afternoon. Little hope is held for the recovery of John Sfarzo, 55, of Long Island City, part owner of the plant, or Antonio Solamona, 44, uncle of the two who died.

BODY OF GRIFFIN FOUND IN WRECKAGE OF PLANE

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Dec. 4—(AP)—The body of William M. Griffin of Berea, Ohio, airplane pilot missing for the past ten days, was found in his wrecked plane this afternoon, four miles southeast of Brockton, Chautauqua county.

The words "Griffin, Cleveland" were painted on the plane. The wreck was found by fox hunters. Coroner George E. Blood of Fredonia was notified and left for the scene at once.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON NOMINATION OF DOAK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4— (AP)— A favorable report on the nomination of William N. Doak of Virginia to be secretary of labor was submitted to the senate today by its committee on education and labor.

Action, however, was postponed until Monday at the request of Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, who objected to its consideration until it was printed on the senate calendar.

INVESTIGATING NEW JERSEY CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—The senate campaign funds committee heard today that $50,000 in addition to the $49,000 reported by his campaign committee, was spent in behalf of Dwight W. Morrow during the New Jersey senatorial primary last spring. The committee, headed by Senator Gerald P. Nye, republican, is here investigating New Jersey campaign expenditures.

WARLIKE WORDS FROM ADOLF HITLER, SOCIALIST

BERLIN, Dec. 4—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, dictator of the national socialist party, told Berlin's student body tonight that every member in his movement must be prepared to give up his life for Germany's regeneration and for recapture of a place in the sun.

"The sword is the final arbiter," he said, "and from the steel of the sword emerges the iron for the plow."

British Miners Vote Down General Strike

Credit is Given Premier MacDonald For His Part in Averting a National Walkout

LONDON, Dec. 4—(AP)—There will be no great national coal strike in Great Britain, for the time being, at any rate.

Delegates to the miners' conference here today turned down a strike proposal by the close margin of 230,000 to 209,000. Their decision also implied there would be no strike ballot in the mining districts in question as up to this morning seemed most likely.

Interest has now turned to the individual districts, above all to Scotland, where 85,000 miners are still out, and to South Wales where the outcome of the negotiations going on between the owners and miners may well give a lead to the whole country.

The "spreadover" working arrangement, which entails a 90-hour working fortnight against a 7 1-2-hour day guarantee, now holds the center of the stage as a focal point in almost all the negotiations, and it is in the industrial districts that the spreadover will now be discussed.

The Miners' federation, as well as the government departments concerned, is naturally keeping in the closest touch with the negotiations and if the federation thinks it is again necessary to intervene in a body it will do so. The outlook is thus still disturbed but at least the immediate danger of a huge national upheaval is over.

Credit was being given tonight to Premier Ramsay MacDonald for his part in averting a national walkout. He and other members of the cabinet, sitting with the delegates themselves, urged that every effort be made to reach a settlement with the owners and his counsel prevailed.

PRESIDENT OF POLAND APPROVES NEW MINISTRY

WARSAW, Dec. 4—(AP)—The president of the republic today accepted the resignation of the Pilsudski cabinet, and approved the new ministry formed by Col. Walery Slawek.

It is constituted as follows:

Premier, Col. Walery Slawek; interior, General Felician Skaldkowski; foreign affairs, Auguste Zaleski; education, Slawomir Czerwinski; commerce, Alexander Praystor; war, Marshal Joseph Pilsudski; justice, Michalowski; agriculture, Leon Janta-Polczynski; communications, Khun; public works, General Norwik Neuhebauer; finance, Ignacy Matuszewski; labor, Rubicki; agrarian, ref, Koslewski; posts and tel, Ignaz Boerner; without portfolio, Pieracki.

The posts of interior, foreign affairs, education, war, agriculture, communications, public works, finances, and posts and telegraph, are filled by their former incumbents.

REP. KUNZ BLAMES CHICAGO GANG GUNS FOR HIS DEFEAT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4— (AP) — Representative Kunz today blamed Chicago gang guns for his defeat at the polls last month and demanded a congressional investigation.

Representative Rainey, also of Illinois, joined his colleague in calling for an inquiry and proposed it be made by the special house committee appointed to investigate campaign fund complaints.

Kunz, a democrat, asserted officials knew of a conspiracy to defeat him but were unable to stop it, that although police machine guns were sent into a few districts the gangsters were out all day and all night "forcing officials to change straight democratic ballots."

In addition he said court records showed the brother of his victorious opponent, Peter C. Granata, to be a secretary of Al Capone.

RAILWAY REPRESENTATIVES TO MEET IN WASHINGTON DEC. 8

CLEVELAND, Dec. 4—(AP)—Officers of the five big brotherhoods of railroad employes announced after a conference here today that a meeting of representatives of the 21 railway labor organizations has been called to meet Dec. 8 in Washington. The conference in Washington will consider plans for obtaining a shorter working day in the railroad industry and to prepare for a common fight with railroad operators against the competition of motor trucks, pipe lines, waterways and buses.

DECREASE IN LOANS TO BROKERS AND DEALERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4— (AP) — Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ending Dec. 3 were announced by the federal reserve board today as $2,111,000,000, representing a decrease of $11,000,000, as compared with the preceding week.

Hoover's Public Work Plans Sent [illegible]gress

How to S[illegible]150,000,000 Withi[illegible] Six Months to Help[illegible]ieve Unemployment

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—(AP)—Congress was informed today by President Hoover how he plans to spend $150,000,000 for public works within the next six months to relieve unemployment.

Administration leaders responded to the chief executive's urgent plea for quick action and the house appropriations committee will begin hearings tomorrow on a resolution to provide the sum. A similar resolution was introduced in the senate and will await house action.

Members of both parties who had looked skeptically at first at his proposal indicated that the chief executive's decision to make known the use to which the money was to be put would create a strong favorable sentiment.

This is how President Hoover proposes to expend $150,000,000 to relieve unemployment:

Department Agriculture
Office of the secretary	$ 82,480
Animal industry	57,995
Biological survey	489,505
Dairy industry	114,000
Forest service	3,540,000
Plant quarantine and control	35,000
Weather bureau	5,000
Federal aid highway system	80,000,000
Total	$84,324,080
Commerce Department
Air navigation facilities	325,000
Public works aid to navigation	538,000
Repair of vessels coast survey	70,000
Construction of station, Bureau of Fisheries	150,000
Total	$1,083,000
Department of Interior
Bureau of Indian affairs	1,083,000
National park service	1,650,000
Office education	250,000
St. Elizabeth's hospital	495,000
Howard university	239,000
Freedman's hospital	50,000
Total	$ 3,757,000
Justice Department
United States reformatory (to be located west of Mississippi,	100,000
National training school boys, Washington, D. C.	155,000
Hospital defective delinquents	100,000
Total	$ 355,000
Navy Department
Bureau of yards and docks public works	4,620,000
Treasury Department
Coast guard	170,000
War Department
Military activities quartermaster corps (housing)	9,694,500
Sea coast defenses	3,161,000
Signal corps	398,000
Air corps	4,731,000
Ordnance department	6,902,000
Chemical warfare service	1,447,000
Military academy	1,645,000
National guard	2,042,000
Total military activities	$30,527,500
Non-military activities quartermaster corps	1,266,300
Army engineers	25,500,000
Total	$26,766,300

R. N. BALDWIN SUMMONED BY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP) — The American Civil Liberties union announced today that its director, Roger N. Baldwin, had been summoned to appear at Washington tomorrow before the congressional committee investigating communist activities in the United States as a result of his refusal to appear voluntarily as a "waste of time."

Baldwin charged the committee with playing into the hands of "professional patriotic societies."

Chairman Hamilton Fish of the committee said he wanted to discover whether there was any connection between the union and communist organizations.

ATTEMPTING TO PERFECT A TORPEDO-AIRPLANE

LONDON, Dec. 4—(AP)—Taking an idea developed originally by an American naval authority, strategists of the British admiralty are attempting to perfect the torpedo-airplane as an offensive arm of the service superior to ordinary bombing planes.

While no authoritative information has been made public regarding the experimental work, it is generally believed that progress is being made by admiralty officers in perfecting this method of attack.

ASSURANCE OF NO SHORTAGE IN FUNDS OF THE MOOSUP TRUST CO.

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 4. — Rumors were current here today that the state bank commissioners' office has ordered that Lewis A. Hoar, former treasurer of the Moosup Trust Co., be taken into custody.

Mr. Hoar's difficulty is said to have arisen from the making of improper and in some instances excessive loans and the making of certain loans without first referring them to the loan committee or other directors of the bank for approval. The bank's shrinkage in assets from these causes reported to be possibly $45,000 has been fully covered.

From an absolutely reliable and well informed source it was learned tonight that the Moosup Trust Co. is solvent and that the state bank commissioner stands ready to issue a certificate to that effect. The bank has ample liquid assets and an abundance of ready cash. There is not the slightest reason for the depositors to become uneasy.

On the authority of one in intimate touch with the bank's affairs it was learned tonight that there is no truth whatsoever in the story that has gained considerable circulation that Mr. Hoar is $50,000 short in his accounts. A recent audit of the bank's books showed the cash balancing to a cent.

The Moosup Trust Co.'s official board includes powerful financial interests amply able individually and have been so to protect the bank's interests to far and above any sum involved in the present situation. On the board are Charles T. and Henry L. Aldrich, millionaire owners of the Aldrich mills at Moosup and among the wealthiest residents of Providence. The powerful Cranska interests are also represented on the bank's board.

There was also the matter of Mr. Hoar's bond to protect the depositors. On the authority of the state bank commissioner's office it was stated that the Moosup Trust Co. is solvent and sound and that the depositors are fully protected.

Mr. Hoar came to the Moosup Trust Co. in 1926. Prior to that time he had been with the Rhode Island Trust Co. at Providence.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS

Two men were injured, one seriously, yesterday, in an explosion and subsequent fire that wrecked a brick building.

The election of Samuel Goode Williams of Charleston, S. C., as chairman of the junior prom committee at Yale was announced.

Police raided a Bronx apartment yesterday and captured "Big John" Petruzzelli, wanted in the slaying of Detective Thomas Hill.

Miss Kate Ralph, an employe at the J. & E. Stevens company toy factory, at Cromwell, for 66 consecutive years, yesterday observed her 82nd birthday.

Establishment of a fast freight service between Baltimore and Havana, Cuba, beginnig this month, by the Munson Steamship line, was announced.

From January to the end of September 1,114 persons committed suicide in New York city, compared with 952 in the same time last year and 908 in 1928.

A half-million dollar fire in the Pratt works of the Standard Oil company on the Brooklyn water front was under control yesterday but firemen were still watching it.

Membership gains were reported at a regional conference in Louisville, Ky., of the executive committee of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

A bull moose which escaped from a game preserve in Berkshire county several years ago, was reported by deer hunters to be wandering in the western part of Massachusetts.

The St. Louis county court changed the name of Denny Road, one of the most important highways in the county, to Lindbergh boulevard, in honor of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

Fifty men, the first group of 285 veterans ordered released from the National Military home at Leavenworth, Kans., because of insufficient disability, have left the institution.

Senator Sheppard, democrat, Texas, said it "seemed practically certain" that President Hoover would nominate George C. Butte of Austin, Texas, as vice governor general of the Philippines.

Lloyd E. Perry, Waterbury baker, lists liabilities of $32,654.10 and assets of $22,699.58 in one of three petitions in bankruptcy which have been filed in the U. S. district court, in New Haven.

Three veteran Lorain fishermen were safe at Wheatley, Ont., across Lake Erie from Lorain, Ohio, after floating nearly 24 hours in the rough waters of Lake Erie in a disabled fishing tug.

Hundreds of automobile tires, as well as other property, went up in smoke in Manchester, N. H., as fire destroyed a business building on Elm street, causing damage estimated at more than $35,000.

Shortly after she was adjudged mentally unbalanced in Lincoln, Vt., by physicians and while arrangements were being made for her transfer to an institution, Mrs. Mathew Loven committed suicide.

Philip Reilly, 52, died at Rhode Island hospital, in Providence, of burns suffered while attempting to extinguish a fire which started when he accidentally knocked over a lighted oil heater in his room.

A legal difficulty was placed in the path of alien commuters by an immigration ruling anounced in Detroit, barring all except those who have had continuous employment for as long as six months recently.

The American Cotton Co-operative association released figures showing that more than $72,000,000 has been advanced to cotton belt farmers on delivery of this year's cotton crop to the state co-operatives.

Condemnation of employers who reduce wages and discharge workers in times of stress was delivered by Mayor James M. Curley in Boston, before the session of the northern division of the Daughters of the Revolution.

A woman's plea that the intense heat of last summer superinduced a mental condition that led her to slay her husband was accepted in Washington by a jury in acquitting her on a second degree murder charge.

Discussion of unemployment and steps to be taken in aiding the needy featured the series of talks at a joint meeting of the New Haven and Bridgeport Exchange clubs, held in the New Haven railroad station.

Frank H. Warder, former N. Y., state superintendent of banks, convicted of accepting a bribe not to examine the books of the defunct City Trust company, opened a fight in appellate supreme court yesterday for reversal of his conviction.

With decision divorce action on charges of habitual intemperance against him now pending in superior court, Dr. Elbert W. Blakeslee, 59, was arrested in Westport on charges of drunken and reckless driving and evading responsibility.

The engagement of Darius A. St. John, treasurer of the state grange and member of the town board of assessors, to Miss Grace J. Elwood teacher of mathematics in the junior high school, New Canaan, became known yesterday.

Mrs. Lyon Weyburn, of Waterbury, Conn., was re-elected regional director of Junior Leagues of Region One at the closing session of a three day conference in Portland, Me., on league matters. Bridgeport, Conn., was chosen as the conference city for 1931.

Only a few blocks from Millsaps college in northeast Jackson, Miss., the 29th producing natural gas well blew in with an estimated flo wof 35,000,000 cubic feet per day. The Morton Lumber company and the Love Petroleum company are owners.

Mary McCormic, Chicago Civic Opera singer, told interviewers in New York, that she expected to marry Prince Serge Mdivani, ex-husband of Pola Negri, screen player. "It won't be until next year," the singer said. "But then, it's almost next year now, isn't it?"

ARMED MEN LIBERATE SIX MANIACS FROM MATTEAWAN

Gunmen Invaded New York State Asylum For the Insane About 3 A. M. Wednesday—Leader of the Gang Which Liberated the Madmen Was Recognized As William Nelson of New York—At Least Two of the Men Freed Had Records As Killers and a Third Was a Pyromaniac

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—New York's hundred thousand byways were searched tonight for six demented felons.

The maniacs were liberated about 3 o'clock this morning by armed men who invaded the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan, and apparently they came straight to New York city, Matteawan is some 40 miles north of New York.

At least two of the men had records as killers and a third was a pyromaniac.

One knocked at the door of his wife's apartment in West 53rd street a few hours after his delivery, and demanded admittance. He was Frank Vanderkuylen, who killed a bigamous wife with acid.

Later in the day he appeared again in the rectory of a church, and escaped before a priest could summon police.

The liberty of the second killer, Harry Gordon, known as the "Mad Butcher," struck terror in Rochester, N. Y., where a few years ago he rampaged through the town, killing two butcher competitors and wounding a third.

The other objects of tonight's search were:

Anthony A. Alloy, 41, Brooklyn pyromaniac.

John F. Gambill, 29, who last year assaulted a man with a knife in Manhattan.

Joseph Kaylor, 35, of Long Island, adjudged insane after an arson and burglary record.

John G. Biggins, 30, of Brooklyn, adjudged insane after violating a parole.

The leader of the gang which invaded the hospital, overpowered attendants and liberated the madmen, was recognised as William Nelson of New York. Nelson escaped a fortnight ago from the same institution. He had been committed for burglary.

Two men accompanied Nelson on the expedition. Four of the inmates were dressed and ready for the escape, The other two, including Gordon, left in their night dress. They were carried away in two motor cars.

Alloy escaped once before this year He was captured near his home in Brooklyn.

Nelson and his two aides entered the hospital grounds by a rear gate. They encountered Patrick McGrath, night watchman, and forced him to accompany them. Then they proceeded to the kitchen, added Night Cook Clifford Cooper to the party and went to the front of the building, where they captured Joseph Brown, roundsman.

The three attendants and another were herded into a front office and guarded by one of Nelson's men while Nelson and the other aide summoned the escaping inmates from their sleeping quarters.

Mrs. Vanderkuylen, who fled with her children to the home of a relative after her demented husband's visit, said he told her last Tuesday he was to be freed. The conversation took place when she visited him at the hospital and she gave the matter no thought, she said.

Gordon's wife told authorities she received a letter from the sister of a former Matteawan inmate in which the woman told her she was furnishing funds for Gordon to make his escape. She would not reveal the woman's name.

When she visited Gordon recently, Mrs. Gordon said, he told her, "I'll get out of here some day and when I do I'll take a boat for Poland right away."

Police were watching the steamship piers.

RUMBLINGS OF CONFLICT IN HOUSE AND SENATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—(AP)—The senate started talking steel prices today and wound up in its first discussion of unemployment.

It listened to charges that a railroad lobby was operating among its membership in an effort to kill the Couzens motor-bus bill.

And to enliven a lively session still further, there were public professions of party harmony from the democratic side of the chamber.

Meanwhile, the name of Al Capone crept into the record of the house through a demand for an investigation of Chicago gangster activities last election day.

Both branches received from President Hoover a supplemental budget estimate covering his requested $150,000,000 unemployment emergency fund, to be expended on public construction.

It had hardly been received when bills covering its recommendations were introduced in house and senate, and rumblings of an approaching conflict were heard.

VICTORY FOR GERMAN GOVT. IN THE REICHSTAG CONCEDED

BERLIN, Dec. 4—(AP)—While the reichstag talked for seven hours today about the 1931 budget and the drastic financial reforms which Chancellor Bruening proposes, communist disorders which had arisen in various parts of the country spread to the capital itself.

The debate in the reichstag brought out nothing to change the general belief that the government is going to win this contest, but the communist demonstration developed into a riot of major proportions.

A small army of marchers streamed into the Busch circus, a public square, and raised a wail of "We want work and we want bread." When the police came they were pelted with rocks, and the officers fired into the air to intimidate the mob.

The demonstration was put down after ten of the most belligerent rioters had been arrested, but as the men and women fled before the advance of the police shopkeepers put up their shutters and locked their doors.

SENATE RECOMMITS THE PARKER-COUZENS BILL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—(AP)—By 51 to 28, the senate today recommitted the long-pending Parker-Couzens bill for federal regulation of interstate passenger travel by motor bus, decreasing considerably the chances of action at this session.

A charge by Chairman Couzens of the interstate commerce committee. that a railroad lobby was trying to kill it because of a provision preventing mergers of railroads and bus lines, preceded the vote, on which party lines divided.

The bill was passed last session by the house and had been recommitted once before by the senate. It was the unfinished business for the short session. Senator Couzens said he would take it up with his committee as soon as possible but he made no forecast for its return to the floor.

SEVERAL INDICTMENTS IN NEW YORK OF RACKETEERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—A grand jury which for two weeks has been delving into racketeering in New York has returned several indictments, reported to involved charges of violence in the window cleaning industry.

The names of those indicted were withheld.

SUGAR SEIZED IN RAIDS TO BE GIVEN NEEDY FAMILIES

HENDERSON, Ky., Dec. 4—(AP) — Federal officers conducting raids here today turned from the usual custom of destroying all seized material and turned over 400 pounds of sugar to the Public Welfare association to be given to needy families

BRITISH AVIATRIX SWIMS TWO MILES TO SAFETY

BEL MONTE, Italy, Dec. 4—(AP)—Winifred Spooner's airplane came down in the dark on the Tyrrhenian sea, two miles from shore some time after dawn today. She peeled off her heavy flying togs, jumped into the water, swam two miles to shore, and woke up some people in a railroad station.

She asked them to get somebody out to the plane, where Captain E. C. T. Edwards was waiting to be rescued, and then sat down to catch her breath.

This 23-year-old girl is known as England's racing aviatrix. She and Edwards started out from Croydon yesterday for Cape Town, landed at Rome last night and were heading for Catania by moonlight when their engine stopped and Edwards had to set the ship down. He was rescued by two fishermen, and together the two castaways came over here to spend the night in the mayor's house.

When it became known that Miss Spooner had swum those two miles in the dark, still wearing her heavy breeches and a woolen shirt, almost everybody in Bel Monte came over to the mayor's place to see this young English heroine.

FIVE OF GANG OF POULTRY THIEVES UNDER ARREST

HARTFORD, Dec. 4—(AP)—With the arrest in Springfield, Mass., today of John Faircloth, five members of an alleged gang of poultry thieves have been rounded up by police during the last two weeks.

John Kluntz, of South Windsor, was arrested two weeks ago as the alleged leader of the gang. Later police arrested his wife, Minnie, 44, and Paul Glassiracusa, 17, and Albert A. Becker, 21, both of Norfolk. The four have been bound over to the superior court on bonds ranging from $3500 to $200.

Several farmers in the eastern part of the county have had their poultry plants raided during the last five months, while Tolland county farmers have also reported heavy losses due to the operation of a large gang of which the five already arrested are believed to be only a small part.

SHOWGIRL UNABLE TO GET CHANGE FOR A $1,000 BILL

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—In these days of tight money, shed a tear for Sydelle Parker, showgirl, who found herself today in the sad predicament of being unable to get change for a $1,000 bill.

Miss Parker was in traffic court to pay a $5 fine. She tossed out a $1,000 bill. The court, after the first shock, found there was not $995 in the place to give Miss Parker in change.

The prospect of much delay loomed, but the actress rummaged around in her purse and finally found a $100 bill which the court was able to change.

$55,000 JEWELS DISAPPEAR WITH "PRICELESS" BUTLER

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(AP)—The Zardos, who moved to Pelham Manor recently, are looking for a butler.

Buno is the name. He is the quiet type, with the air of a grand duke and the manners of a Chesterfield—positively the perfect servant.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Zardo discovered their need only this morning, when Buno had left. At about the same time they also discovered that the family jewels were missing.

Buno was described as "priceless." The jewels were valued at about $55,000.

CONNECTICUT "FLIVVER" PLANE AT SAVANNAH, GA.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 4—(AP)—Edward Wingerter, 25, Newark, N. J., and Joseph L. Jones, 19, Riverside, Conn., on a flight to South America flew their "Flivver" monoplane here from Florence, S. C., today.

WILLIMANTIC

[illegible] Square Phone 150-W Residence Phone 401-J

SELECTMEN TO PLAY SANTA CLAUS TO NEEDY KIDDIES

(Special to The Bulletin)

WILLIMANTIC, Dec. 4.— What is believed to be a new and favorable precedent is being established in the town with the announcement by the board of selectmen that in addition to their other duties they would undertake this year to assume the role of Santa Claus for the special benefit of the needy families and children. Not only will the selectmen send collectors about town on the forenoons of December 8 and 9 for bundles of clothing and toys to be donated but they plan to institute a "hospital" where Santa's tiny gnomes will remedy many ailments found in used toys. The people are requested to search attics for discarded toys and clothing that, when properly repaired will bring untold joys and comfort to those children whose parents are unable to provide Christmas extras. The plan of the selectmen is not to conflict in any way with those of other organizations.

Andover Hospital Committee

Announcement of the membership of the hospital drive committee in Andover was made today to comprise Mrs. Edward M. Yeomans, chairman; Everett Allen, Ralph Bass, Nathan Gatchel and Miss Gertrude White. Andover is within the hospital zone of Willimantic and the committee is to secure subscriptions to the $500,000 new hospital campaign from residents of the town. The second report meeting and rally of the drive will be held with a dinner at the state armory Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock at which the chairmen of the neighboring towns are especially requested to be present or be represented so that reports from these towns may be secured.

R. W. L. Co. Moving

Occupancy of attractive new quarters in the Capitol theatre building will begin next Monday by the Rockville-Willimantic Lighting company with the removal of all offices and departments from 850 Main street. The change of quarters is intended to provide more efficient working conditions for employes and enable the company to institute certain progressive office arrangements and policies to serve its customers better. Three floors are to be occupied in the theatre building. The sales and show room, fronted by a large display window of improved lighting effect, will be on the Main street floor. The interior is finished in walnut with a floor of marbleloid terrazzo. In the sub-street floor additional display rooms and storage quarters are provided as well as an appliance repair shop. On the second floor will be the offices of Manager John F. Ahern and his staff, there being four office rooms of large size with modern ventilation, heating and lighting systems. The accounting department will be on the third floor where the former theatre hall has been remodeled into an expensive centralized office. The engineering department and demonstration kitchen and lecture room are also located on this floor, the latter department in charge of Miss Anna Rodier, who has recently joined the staff of the company as home service director.

W. H. S. Honor Roll

There are 247 names on the honor roll for the second marking period at Windham high school as announced today by Principal Egbert A. Case. Under a new arrangement in the composition of the roll pupils who have not less than 3 A's and a B, which represents an average of 90 per cent or over are listed in the higher classification and those in the next highest classification are pupils having not less than 3 B's and a C, an average of 80 per cent or over in four subjects.

The higher classification for the second period comprises six seniors: Norman Paulhus, Jean Chamberlin, Janet McCracken, Vera Rabinowitz, Mary Shuba and Frances Smith; nine juniors, Wendell Dexter, Frederick Haddad, Eleanor Chaffee, Elizabeth Davis, Elizabeth Dennis, Ruth Harrington, Olive Jacobs, Ruth Latimer and Phoebe Merrill; nine sophomores, Leonard German, Said Haddad, Francis Johnson, Gail Smith, Arthur Tessar, Barbara Amidon, Helen Katarzyniec, Wilma Walker and Georgia Yonclas; 19 freshmen, James Curran, Leo Pittabile, Marjorie Congdon, Claire Gagnon, Hilda Hendry, Margaret Lewis, Elizabeth Sharpe, Dorothy Shippee, Susie Shuba, Barbara Taylor.

In the classification of 80 per cent or over there are 43 seniors, 54 juniors, 46 sophomores and 70 freshmen.

Officers of Francis S. Long Woman's Relief corps elected for the ensuing year are: President, Marjorie Duggan; senior vice president, Harriet Ladd; junior vice president, Sara Stoughton; treasurer, Alice Easterbrooks; chaplain, Marietta Johnston; conductor, Catherine Higgins; guard, Mabel Dimock, (all re-elected); delegates, first, Harriet Ladd; second, Ethel Larned; alternates, first, May Russ; second, Minnie Blackmar; tellers, Florence Williams, Minnie Mathieu and Lucy Champlin.

FUNERAL

Mrs. Sarah G. Backus

Services for Mrs. Sarah G. Backus were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth N. Hillhouse, 74 Bellevue street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock officiated. The remains were taken to Springfield, Mass., for cremation and will be interred in the Maplewood cemetery, Norwich, Friday. The bearers were: Kenneth N. Hillhouse, Raymond A. Parker, Ernest Champlin and Alfred Bliven. Arrangements were by Avery and VanZandt.

A one-ton truck owned by Lyman Maine of the Plains road, Windham, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock this morning, the garage in which it was located being partially destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Maine succeeded in saving the bungalow occupied by them. The fire was discovered by two men who were passing and who aroused Mr. and Mrs. Maine and remained to assist in extinguishing the fire with pails of water and pushing the burning truck out of the garage. The origin of the fire, which caused a loss estimated at $500, is unknown. There was no insurance on the machine or garage.

Some 60 men, about 50 of them residents of this city, have been engaging in a chopping bee on land of Robert G. Brooks at South Coventry, in acceptance of an invitation of Mr. Brooks that any family head in needy circumstances could come and cut all the wood he wanted without cost. About 80 cords have been chopped and carted away since Mr. Brooks issued his invitation through the local chamber of commerce, clearing a tract of about 16 acres of land. The woodlot is located on the old Gardiner farm on Ripley hill.

Arthur J. LeBlond was elected president at the annual meeting of the Willimantic local, No. 832, National Federation of Post Office Clerks, held at the home of Edward J. Eagan Wednesday night. Louis Medbury was elected secretary and treasurer. There are eight members in the local unit.

During the regular meeting of Willimantic lodge, No. 1311, B. P. O. Elks, held Wednesday evening, Past Exalted Ruler Roy W. Downer was presented with a beautiful white gold diamond and ruby set Elks' ring, the presentation being made by Exalted Ruler George W. Hickey on behalf of the lodge. A committee composed of Lester M. Shea, G. Donald Bartlett, Raymond A. Parker, Lyndon E. Little and Raymond L. Angier was named to stage the annual New Year's eve frolic at the home. It was voted to allow the use of the home, Sunday, January 25, to the Catholic Daughters of America, for their state quarterly meeting. The annual Elks' memorial exercises are to be held in the lodge room next Sunday evening.

A novel military whist was held in the town hall tonight by Gold Star post, No. 1724, Veterans of Foreign wars and auxiliary with a large attendance. Points were counted with flags instead of the usual manner, the flags being of all the allied nations. Refreshments were served and special prizes awarded.

OBITUARY

William Smith

William Smith of South Coventry died at his home there Wednesday following an extended illness. He leaves two sons, Earl and Harold Smith; four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Hanna of Paterson, N. J., Mrs. Charles Rogers, Mrs. Richard Ruddell and Mrs. Elof Johnson and one brother, George Smith, all of South Manchester. He was in the employ of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and had resided in South Coventry for the past 15 years, coming there from South Manchester.

A report of three samples of the city's drinking water taken from the supply November 13, and analysed by the bureau of sanitary engineering at Hartford, is to the effect that the water is satisfactory and perfectly safe for drinking purposes.

Alfred Staebner of Chaplin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Staebner of this city, is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital where he is to undergo an operation for an intestinal trouble.

Local Rebekahs attending the meeting of Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., in Norwich Wednesday evening were Miss Sadie E. Curley, Mrs. Marion St. John, Mrs. Mabel Scribner, Mrs. Louise Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson.

Today a half an inch of ice covered the three main bodies of water from which the city's ice supply is secured. These are the supply reservoir at Mansfield, Brown's pond and Ayer's cove on the Willimantic river.

Mrs. William B. Lonergan entertained the Jolly Seven Sewing club at her home on Prospect street Wednesday evening.

Arthur and Gladys Allen Legance of Mansfield avenue, who are respectively 24 and 23 years of age, became the parents of five children through the birth, on November 28, of twin daughters whom they named Marie Rose and Rose Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fichthorn have returned from a two weeks' visit with their son, Attorney LeGrand P. J. Fichthorn of the interstate commerce commission at Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin D. Boss are en route by train to Florida where they will spend the winter in Ankona.

Virgil M. Palmer, son of Mrs. Hattie L. Palmer, is now at his home in Rochester, N. Y., after having been a patient in a Rochester hospital for three weeks following an operation.

John A. McKenna, of Pawtucket, R. I., was renewing acquaintances in town today.

Mrs. George F. Stiles of South Windham has joined her husband in Holyoke, Mass., where he staying on business.

For Coughs

From Colds Where You Want

Super Help

Coughs from colds that hang on call for super help. Don't take the chance with anything less than Creomulsion. That combines seven major helps in one. See label. It does the utmost for such coughs.

But wise people use it for milder coughs—use it to be safe. It costs a little more than lesser helps based on a single factor. But it costs nothing if it fails to bring you prompt relief. Your druggist guarantees it. Is it not worth $1.25 to have supreme help for a trouble that breeds danger?

CREOMULSION

for Difficult Coughs from Colds

Dr. W. Blaine Oliver

DENTIST

[illegible] Church St., Willimantic, Ct.

Telephone 1740

COLCHESTER

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reed have moved from the Anthony Pechinski house to the Robert A. Miller house, on North Main street.

Carpenters are building the foundation for a two-car garage in the rear of the Cora E. Carrier residence on South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt J. Cornwell, of East Hampton, former local residents, visited friends here Tuesday.

Miss Mary Djiagon has returned from several months' visit with friends and relatives in New York.

Baconian Good Number

The quarterly school publication "The Baconian," was distributed the past week to interested townspeople. The pamphlet is devoted to editorials on "Armistice Day," "Thanksgiving," and "The School Spirit"; short stories, a record of alumni activities, school songs, a record of the past three months' activities of the Home Economics, Dramatic and Glee clubs; a list of the class officers, a record of the school social and athletic activities and a page of jokes. The publication was prepared by the Baconian Board, comprising: Editor-in-chief, Gertrude Seger; literary editors, Edward O'Connor and Anna Sigal; assignment editor, George Wasniewski; sports editors, David Levine and Anne Ewafoe; business managers, Doris Riley and Michael Busel; club reporters, Beatrice Gitlin, Beatrice Jaffe and Max Chmiel; joke editor, Joseph Busel; art editors, Dora Dinerstein and George Ramras; faculty advisor, Miss Barbara C. Cole.

Colchester Well Child conference will be held in the basement of the Congregational church Tuesday, Dec. 9, from 2 to 4.

Fred W. Holmes and William E. Avery are serving on the jury at the superior court session at Norwich this week.

Supper Followed Work

Colchester grange, No. 78, P. of H., held a well-attended meeting in Grange hall Wednesday evening, Worthy Master Foote presiding. The Hebron grange degree team conferred the third and fourth degrees on eight candidates. Among those who addressed the gathering were Charles M. Adams, of Groton, steward of the State grange, and Worthy Master Carroll Hutchinson, of Hebron grange. A delicious supper of chicken pie, mashed potato, creamed peas, rolls, whipped cream cake and coffee was served at the close of the meeting under the direction of the efficient committee, Mrs. J. M. Riley, Mrs. Harold Clark and Mrs. Fred Kopp.

MANSFIELD DEPOT

The sixth, seventh and eight grades in Miss Alice Vermler's room at Reynold's Memorial school had a Thanksgiving party at the school Wednesday afternoon. Games were played and sandwiches, cookies, cake, candy, cocoa and sweet cider was served.

Irene Gordon of the Municipal hospital, Hartford, spent a day home recently.

Tuesday during the noon hour there was all kinds of weather—a thunderstorm with sharp lightning, hail, wind, rain, snow, then sun shone and a rainrain, snow, then sun shine and a rainbow appeared.

Lucy Hansen has chicken pox.

The body of Anthony Jacobson was recovered Saturday morning, three weeks after he disappeared while lobstering in a boat off Fishers' Island. Mr. Jacobson was a brother-in-law of Martin Hansen. Harold Hansen went to Fishers' Island as soon as word of the recovery was received here.

Mrs. Minnie McCollum spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Hans Voltheitch of New York.

Scott Cushman and George Gordon spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cushman, at Emosburg Falls, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Green held the Whitaker reunion at their home, Thanksgiving day. Nineteen enjoyed a turkey dinner. Guests were present fro New York city, Chaplin, North Haven, Wormwood Hill, Mansfield Center and Storrs.

Mrs. Amelia Strong attended a reunion of the Strong family held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Beersworth, of Scantic, Thanksgiving day. Twenty-two were present and four generations were represented.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowers entertained their son Francis and family and their daughters Helen and Mildred Thanksgiving. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowers, Mrs. Francis Bowers and two boys and Helen and Mildred motored to Broad Brook and called on relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davoll, Jr., and son Wilbert Arthur of North Haven spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Green.

Martin Hansen is moving his grain room to make room for a garage.

NEW ORLEANS TO BUILD AIRPORT ON LAKEFRONT

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(AP)—Plans for a lake front airport to cost $1,500,000 are being drawn here by John Klorer, New Orleans engineer, who has completed a national tour of major airports.

Tentative plans call for a field of 300 acres with 20 hangars. The longest runway will be 5,000 feet long and will be built in the direction of the prevailing wind, northwest.

A fill of 4,000,000 cubic feet will be made into the lake in semi-circular form, surrounded by a breakwater, 2,000 feet out and 3,000 feet long to provide calm waters for seaplanes.

Fourteen of the 48 states pay 25 per cent or more of the cost of public education within their borders.

Holidays!

Ready even if holiday ACUTE INDIGESTION should strike? You ARE ready with Bell-ans.

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

CAPITOL THEATRE
Willimantic
— NOW PLAYING —
"Those Three French Girls"
With An All Star Cast
Lois Moran in "The Dancers"

The best gift in the load!

ATWATER KENT RADIO

with the GOLDEN VOICE

WE'RE JUST as proud to sell you the famous new Atwater Kent as you will be to own it. In our long experience we've never known an instrument so beautiful and so satisfying... Be foresighted. Order now, for delivery any time up to Christmas. Pay as you enjoy, under our special budget plan.

HAROLD I. PHILLIPS
THE ONLY LOCAL AUTHORIZED DEALER
Capitol Theatre Building, Willimantic

Stafford Springs

The annual banquet of the local district of Connecticut Teachers association was held at the Stafford Springs house, Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock. The gathering was attended by about 90 teachers and superintendents. Dr. Butterfield, the new commissioner of education in Connecticut, and S. N. Light, field director of rural education addressed the meeting. This district includes the towns of Stafford, Union, Woodstock, Pomfret and Eastford. Two meetings are held each year, the annual banquet in the early winter and a field day in early summer. The town school committee members were guests of the local teachers' club.

In the recent drive by the American Red Cross in Stafford and Union $1,327.33 was contributed. 807 members were enrolled as follows: 761 annual $761.00; 28 contributing $140; 10 sustaining $100; 8 supporting $200; gifts more than $1.00, $80.25; gifts of less than $1.00, $56.08.

The work was carried on under the direction of Parley C. Patten, chairman assisted by Charles R. Newton, assistant chairman. The result of the drive is very gratifying considering the hard times which Stafford is experiencing.

Theodore Gnatowski is at Johnson Memorial hospital with a fractured leg which he received while playing football.

Give Jacquar to Park

The jacquar which has ben used as a mascot at the Stafford Springs state police barracks for the past two months has been presented Forest park in Springfield, Mass. The jacquar originally came from South America and was given to the state police by Coleman Brothers Shows during Stafford fair. At the time of the American Legion convention in Boston it was in the parade with State Policeman Kenneth W. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bishop of Boston, are visiting Mrs. Carrie B. McLaughlin.

Ten tables of whist were played at the Knights of Columbus rooms on Main street Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Helen Edson and John Driscoll. Mrs. Mary Beausoill and Thomas Young. Following the whist dancing was enjoyed, to music by Tizianni and Sartori.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cordner of Montreal have been guests of Mrs. John M. Leach.

On Shore Leave

Danny Haigh, pianist in an orchestra on a steamship line traveling from New York to ports in South America, is visiting at his home on Grant avenue.

At New York Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Pinney and Leigh MacKay Pinney attended the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Pinney daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pinney and C. George Courcier, Jr., in New York Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed in the Little Church Around the Corner.

OBITUARY

Timothy Lynch

Timothy Lynch, a former resident of Stafford, died suddenly at his home in Rockville Tuesday evening. He is survived by his wife and a brother Mortimer of Providence, R. I. David McCormick of Stafford Springs nephew.

Miss Marion Lord is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Clara Beard in Ackworth, N. H.

Miss Edith Pease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Pease of Hyde Park, a student at the Springfield Kindergarten Training school has been chosen secretary and treasurer of the junior class for the coming term.

Miss Edna Learned has returned to her studies at the Sargeant School of Physical Education, after spending a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Edward Learned Jr.

Mrs. James Lewis of Stafford Hollow is visiting relatives in Suncook, N. H.

Students of Springfield Conservatory of Music plan to present An Evening of Music at the Baptist church in Stafford Hallow. Henry Tieranlt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tetrault of West Stafford, who is a student at the conservatory will play violin selections. The entertainment is being sponsored by Mrs. Frederic Faulkner of Highland Terrace and is for the benefit of the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plumb have returned home after spending two weeks with relatives in Boston.

Attilio Cini and Frank Panciera of Mystic are making a few days' visit with relatives in the borough.

FUNERAL

Anthony Jacobsen

Funeral services for Anthony Jacobsen, whose body was brought here from Fishers Island, Monday night, were held at Grace Episcopal church, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. George D. Wilcox read the service. Burial was in Stafford Springs cemetery.

William Rhodes, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes.

Francis Greaves, student at Storrs college, has been spending a few days at home.

Miss June Adams of Stafford Hollow is recovering at Johnson Memorial hospital, after a recent operation for appendicitis.

Miss Julia Csiki, a student at Bay Path institute, Springfield, is one of 32 students attaining first honor roll averages during the first marking period. Miss Csiki is a graduate of Stafford high school, class of 1930, and was an honor student at high school also.

Miss Anna Leonard has returned to Hartford after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. David McCormick.

Mrs. William J. Hanley has returned to Parkess street after spending several days with Troy, N. Y., relatives.

Protest To Assessors

Several local manufacturers appeared before the board of assessors, Wednesday afternoon, relative to the assessment on their plants and stock. Business in these mills has been at a very low ebb for several months and the owners feel that the valuations placed on their plants should be conservative.

The Stafford Savings bank is mailing checks to members of the Christmas club this week. The amount being distributed is about $17,000 and it is felt that when this is in circulation local merchants will benefit.

The borough registrars were in session Wednesday afternoon making up the borough lists for the election next Monday, Dec. 8th.

There will be no services at the Methodist church at Crystal lake, Sunday, and the congregation have been invited to attend the services at Stafford Springs Congregational church.

Plans are being made for the presentation of "The Queen of Kingdom Corners," by Courtenay Savage and Wallace Peck, which will be presented by the senior class of Stafford high school, during December. The following students will take part: Mary Ellen Potter, Sylvia La Mere; Martin Dusenbury, John Skalnik; Aunt Mary Lott, Clara Hajosy; Mrs. Tillie Thayer, Ruth Reid; Eb Roundtree, Myron Davis; Charles Edmund Lastone, Cyril Bradway; A. Vincent Boyd, John Adams; Constance Rowland, Janet R. Foster; John Symms, Wesley Prucker. The play is a part of the literary instruction and is included in the senior English classes.

Leon Adams who is employed in Monson, Mass., is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams.

Seaplane Port Built In City

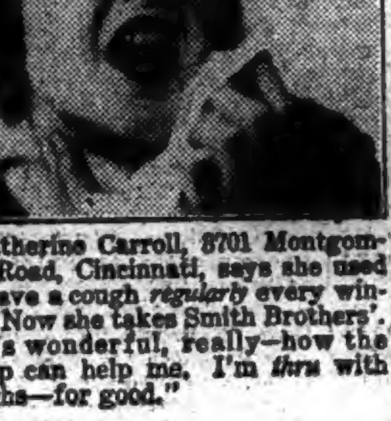
MILAN, Italy —(AP)—A hydroplane station has been built in this inland ctiy, consisting of an artificial lake 3,252 feet long, 656 feet wide and from 10 to 16 feet deep.

SeekNew Variety of Peas

AMES, Iowa—(AP)—Iowa State college experts are seeking a variety of peas that will maintain an even color after they are canned. Stuart N. Smith, in charge of the project, says most canned peas are unattractive because their colors range from white to dark green.

The United States imported 10,738,000 bags of coffee valued at $290,000,000 from Latin America during 1929.

DANCE
Lebanon Grange Hall
TONIGHT (Friday)
FLETCHER'S ORCHESTRA



QUICK RELIEF

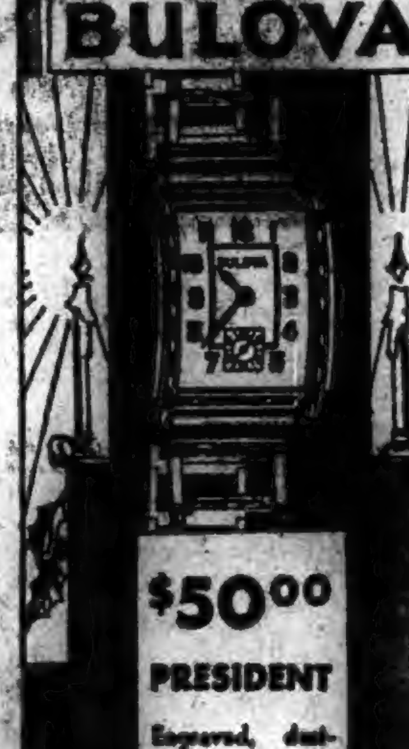
Catherine Carroll, 8701 Montgomery Road, Cincinnati, says she used to have a cough regularly every winter. Now she takes Smith Brothers'. "It's wonderful, really—how the syrup can help me. I'm thru with coughs—for good."

TRIPLE ACTION

1—Soothes irritation
2—Is mildly laxative
3—Clears the air passages

SMITH BROTHERS COUGHSYRUP

ONLY 35c



BULOVA

$50.00
PRESIDENT
Engraved, dustite and curved to fit the wrist; 17 jewels; link band to match.

Smith-Keon
JEWELERS
WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

The J. F. Carr Company's

20% DISCOUNT SALE

AT WILLIMANTIC

Closes Tomorrow (SATURDAY) NIGHT AT 9 P.M.

"A GOOD TIME TO SAVE MONEY"

MEN'S CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS

J. F. CARR COMPANY

An Open Letter to the Public

To avoid any misunderstanding which may arise in the public mind through the change of name of our hospital from "St. Joseph's Hospital, Inc.," to "The Windham Community Memorial Hospital, Inc.," I wish to assure the public that all subscriptions given in the campaign now under way will be used exclusively for the construction and equipment of the new Windham Community Memorial Hospital. No part of the fund raised during this movement will go to the present St. Joseph's Hospital for any purpose, whatsoever.

The money raised in this campaign is solely for the construction and equipment of the new Windham Community Memorial Hospital. Every dollar subscribed will be wholly within the control of the new and enlarged board of directors of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital. As treasurer of this fund, I shall hold all subscriptions and make withdrawals only for the construction and equipment of the new hospital, and only upon the order of the new board of directors of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital under whose control the new hospital will be constructed and operated.

H. CLINTON LATHROP,
Treasurer of the Windham Community Memorial Hospital Campaign Fund

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 4.—Manuel Silva, alleged member of the silver bandit gang who surrendered yesterday by pre-arrangement to State Attorney Howard C. Bradford of Putnam, was before Judge W. Fenner Woodward in the town court here to answer to a charge of robbery with force. His counsel, Attorney Harry E. Back, demurred to the complaint, but the demurrer was overruled and probable cause was found for holding Silva for trial in the superior court for this county.

Prosecuting Attorney Arthur G. Bill suggested that Silva's bond be set at $10,000. Attorney Back protested that the amount was too high, especially in view of the fact that Silva had voluntarily come into Connecticut from Rhode Island to surrender and face such charges as might be filed against him in this town, where the silver-laden truck was robbed. After some consideration of the matter, $5,000 was suggested as the amount Silva should post for his release. Attorney Back contended for a reduction to $4,000, which amount he believed his client could raise and gain his release from custody. So the bond was fixed at $4,000, and Silva taken over to jail to await the posting of that amount with the court.

Killingly's newly organized Democratic club has attained its goal of getting a minimum of 200 members, it was stated this morning following a meeting of the organization in a hall in the Exchange building last evening. A. J. Cavanaugh, Dayville, named temporary president at the organization meeting last month, was regularly elected to the office last night. Likewise, other temporary officers—Mrs. Laura Gorman, vice-president; John M. Dowe, secretary, and Francis Gagnon, treasurer, were elected to fill these offices. Messrs. Dowe and Gagnon are the party's representatives-elect from Killingly to the session of the legislature that will convene in January. Plans for future meetings and party consolidation and booster work were talked over, the next meeting to be on Jan. 15. Refreshments of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee were served.

Party workers have been given lists and will canvass for additional members.

It was made clear today that the club does not wish the impression to go out that it desires to supercede the town committee, but rather to work with and help that committee. The club would like to overcome the "trading" policy that has been practiced in the ranks of the party for several years past, to the benefit of individual candidates, spokesmen for the club say, but to the great disadvantage of the party as a whole in Killingly.

"The Meanest Man in Town"—annual senior class play, K. H. S. auditorium tonight. Good seats available. —adv.

"This year let every Christmas card and package carry two Christmas seals where one sufficed before." That's the interesting suggestion that comes to hand incident to the sale of such seals now going on in Danielson. In the first place, the cost of these tokens is so little that about everyone can afford to buy whether the sun shines or the rain pours. In the second place, this is a year when winning the battle which recently has been waged against tuberculosis, with money derived from the sale of seals, is likely to suffer a set-back unless many lend helping hands.

The strain of unemployment in the families of many workers, with the mal-nourishment that strain often brings, probably will lead to an increase in tubercular cases. That's why extra resources will be needed to combat a difficult situation.

The Danielson association provides a visiting nurse, a clinic and milk and eggs for the afflicted. Every seal purchased helps along this laudable work.

Just what the explanation is no one seems to be quite sure about, but there has been a marked dwindling in the number of mendicants drifting into Danielson in the past fortnight. "Hived up somewhere for the winter" is the most frequently heard explanation. In any event they have largely disappeared from the local scene. It is possible they have been congregating in cities where there are facilities for caring for these wanderers that Danielson does not possess.

Do it today! Deposit in our savings department today and your deposit will draw interest from Dec. 1. The Windham County National bank —adv.

An item in this column this morning telling of a teacher in this town working for $14 per month recalled to the mind of Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Ayer that he recently saw an account of the cost of a funeral back in the 50's. The casket and all other expenses amounted to $18. The charge for digging and filling the grave was $1.00.

There was some delay in the arrival of the mail from the south this morning, due to the fact that one of the mail trucks struck and fatally injured a man at the Submarine base.

A checkup by officials shows that there has been a reunion of the family in which a baby was being fed on flour mixed with water, the father having come here and taken his wife and the child to another town.

From the eastern part of the town there came a report today of a large flock of wild geese winging southward. Other flocks were reported passing over that area earlier in the week.

Don't forget to make a deposit in our savings department. Deposits made on Dec. 5 will draw interest from Dec. 1. The Danielson Trust Co. —adv.

Next Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock a Well Child conference such as is periodically held here will be in session at the Connecticut Light & Power Co. building.

Amazing sale of ladies' hats: $10 models are reduced to $3.00, the $7.50 styles to $2.00, the $5.00 styles to $1.00; at the Georgie Hat Shoppe.—adv.

The first of the Christmas lights and greens are appearing in Danielson, it was noted last night. The number will be greatly increased during the coming week.

Lieut. Ross V. Urquhart was in Hartford today, attending a meeting of commanding officers of the state police organization of the state. State Officers H. Theodore Strand, Lionel Poirier and George Martin also were in Hartford on department business today.

It is regarded as likely that foreign money orders for relatives overseas will be less in total this year than is ordinarily the case at Christmas time. Each year there are residents here who remember relatives in their old homelands with gifts of money, but this year conditions will not permit of their being as generous as usual.

At 3:35 this afternoon, an alarm from Box 14 called out the department for a chimney fire in a frame dwelling house owned by Robert Diamond on Carter street. The fire was extinguished without damage to the property, the firemen getting back to quarters at 4 o'clock.

Churches of Danielson will make the Christmas services as inspiring and beautiful as possible this year. Christmas music, concerts and tree parties all are included in the plans for mak-

PILES

Ended Without Cutting or Salves

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salve or cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To end Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation and strengthen the affected parts.

Dr J. S. Leonhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1,000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 960 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

Dr. Leonhardt's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and Lee and Osgood invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if it does not end all Pile misery.

FOR LOCAL POLICE FOR FORGERY

(Special to The Bulletin)

DANIELSON, Dec. 4.—Ralph S. Long, occasional, itinerant preacher, was picked up by officers in Allentown, Pa., today for return to Danielson to answer to charges of forgery. It will be specifically charged against him in the Killingly town court that on Nov. 18 and Nov. 20 he forged orders bearing the name of George E. Paine of the Green Hollow road and presented bank books of Mr. Paine's to a bank in Providence and two banks here and withdrew a total of $1,250 of Mr. Paine's money.

It is alleged that he did a clever bit of forging of Mr. Paine's handwriting, and having the faked order and the bank books he was not suspected when he withdrew $550 of Mr. Paine's money from the Brooklyn Savings bank, where he was given a cashier's check, and $150 at the Danielson Trust company, where he got the money in cash and also cashed the Brooklyn Savings bank check. At Providence he presented another order purporting to have been made by Mr. Paine, and upon presenting the pass book, he withdrew $550 from Mr. Paine's account in that bank. These alleged happenings were on Nov. 18 and 20. Shortly afterward he departed for Allentown, near which city he has a brother resident.

The brother became suspicious when Ralph purchased a candy store down there and because he appeared to have such a considerable amount of money when he usually has so very little. Acting on this suspicion and knowing that Ralph had been living for some months past at the home of Mr. Paine, the brother wrote Mr. Paine and suggested that he check up on his bank accounts. This Mr. Paine did and discovered his loss.

It appears that Mr. Paine very infrequently looks at his savings account books. It also develops that Ralph Long must have discovered where Mr. Paine kept them while he was living in the home, and made the most of his opportunity to write the forged orders and leisurely get away with the cash.

A state officer will leave here, probably tomorrow, to bring Long back to Danielson. Long has sometimes been referred to while he was resident here as a clergyman, but he is not, though preaching as the mood seized him from time to time.

WESTMINSTER

The Moody homestead on Westminster Hill, known as Rest-a-While, is soon to go under the hammer, severing the last link of the family who for the past quarter of a century have lived and who died there. Mrs. Moody died last May and Mr. Moody died two weeks ago. Mr. Moody was twice married; by his first wife there is a son, Oliver, who is married and living in Milwaukee, Wis. By the late Mrs. Moody, a son, Manfred, aged 11, survives. He left soon after the funeral with his brother for Milwaukee, where he will make his home.

Friday morning the mercury stood from 5 above to zero, in this locality. Monday, green swamp was being plowed. Tuesday morning it was 10 above—typical of New England.

One double and one single flock of wild geese flew over this section bound for the southland, one day this week.

At Home Haven farm, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nash entertained a large party of relatives over the recent holiday. Out of town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albin and daughter, Mabel, of Westport and Mr. and Mrs. Michell, of Bridgeport.

At the Newton homestead, there was a family reunion for Thanksgiving—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meade and children motored down from Antrim, N. Y. The Meades are leaving soon for Florida where they will make their home.

Belated Robins

There are still robins to be seen. While they are welcome, bird-lovers would rather they had left for warmer climates before a snowstorm arrives. A robin after a fall of snow is a pitiful sight.

Walter Jones, accompanied by a friend, motored up from Jersey City to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. J. A. Jones.

Guests Prepared Feast

At Elm Arch farm the usual family gathering did justice to a big turkey. Owing to the illness of Mr. Davis, Mrs. Davis did not feel equal to the task and it had been decided to omit the festivities this year, but the turkey and relatives arrived simultaneously and the dinner was prepared by the guests themselves. This is a new one but was decidedly pleasant and much appreciated in this case.

$100 Note Embarrassing

A one hundred dollar bill which a local resident had given up for lost has been returned to its owner. It was given in mistake for a 10-dollar bill and was not discovered until a week later when it came very near being passed to a third party for a 10-spot. That century note was promptly returned to the bank whence it came.

MOOSUP

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Main, Monday evening in honor of Miss Martha Turner. Those attending were girls from the Epworth league. Games were played during the social time. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Main, assisted by Miss Turner.

WEDDING

Parkhurst-Baton

A wedding of interest which took place the day before Thanksgiving was that of James Parkhurst, of Moosup, and Mrs. Martha P. Baton, of Waterbury. They were married at Willimantic Camp Ground by Rev. W. H. Dunnack, a former Moosup pastor. They will reside in the Saad block.

Scheduled for Saturday morning at eight o'clock is an all day hike by the Boy Scouts of the M. E. church. They have been advised to dress warmly, to carry either bacon, steak or "dogs" to cook, with rolls and a bottle of cocoa.

The annual Ladies' Aid society Christmas sale and entertainment was held in the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon, articles at the various booths were for sale, and at 5:30, a delicious supper was served to a large number, consisting of baked ham southern style, mashed potato, mashed turnip, apple sauce, rolls, cake, coffee. At 7:30 the entertainment which was entitled "Mrs. Apple and Her Cores" was given by members of the Ladies' Aid society. Those taking part were: Mrs. Everett Dawson as "Mrs. Apple," Mrs. Irvie Whitehead, Mrs. Olin Potter, Mrs. A. E. Tingley, Mrs. Luman Bennett, Mrs. Ernest Wilde, Mrs. Wm. Shelly, Mrs. Richard Daggett, Mrs. Samuel Lewis, and Miss Gertrude Preston. The different booths were in charge of the following: Miscellaneous, Mrs. Irvine, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Florence Baker; aprons, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Bert Briggs; fancy work, Mrs. A. E. Tingley, Mrs. Frank Sheldon, Mrs. William Heywood; candy and grabs, Mrs. Tingley's class; ice cream and soda, Thos. Hargreaves, Roy Jeffers, Mrs. Benjamin Dawson was chairman of the supper committee.

Mrs. L. P. MacLennan of Portsmouth, R. I., is ill again, caused from the effects of an accident which she sustained last summer. She will have to remain in bed for the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Main and family, visited Mr. and Mrs. MacLennan recently.

THOMPSON

A large delegation from here attended the Tom Sawyer matinee in the Bradley theatre Tuesday afternoon.

Like Sunday Record

The local newsboy, George Bates Jr., has extended his route to Brandy Hill. He reports that the Sunday editions of The Norwich Bulletin go like hot cakes before all other papers. He is advised to order more so that all can be supplied who wish it.

The Girl Scouts meet Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Amidon's for their first rehearsal of "Christmas at Skeeter Corner."

There was a cottage prayer meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stark Thursday night.

Educational Night at Quinnatisset grange was the biggest night of the year. A. Maitland was in the lecturer's chair and introduced W. G. Colby, superintendent of schools, who spoke briefly on the school system. He said he and the teachers were making child centers for individual children; that there is no typical or average child but each child must be trained in his own line by the cooperation of parents and teachers. He spoke highly of the fine, enthusiastic teachers. The pupils present spoke well for themselves.

GOSHEN

Rev. Mr. Mellinger of Columbia Congregational church conducted the morning service Sunday, in exchange with the local pastor. Stephen Gorski accompanied Rev. Howard Bushnell to Columbia and sang during the service. Rev. Mr. Mellinger read the return of the prodigal son and gave a dramatic interpretation of the chapter comprising the epistle to Philemon.

Among the home gatherings on Thanksgiving day was a family party at Wm. G. Thomas'.

E. H. McCall entertained Mr. and Mrs. Royce McCall and three children from Saybrook, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Norton, of Westchester, E. H. McCall, Jr., and cousin, Miss Lau . McCall, of this place.

Miss Clara Gillette spent Thanksgiving and the week end with her sister at the home of her uncle, G. H. Thomas, Sunnyside farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall were members of a family group of fifteen, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Randall in North Haven on Thanksgiving day.

Saturday, Mrs. J. R. Case and daughter Grace of Danbury and Mrs. Calvin McCall and three children of Colchester spent the day at Maple Hill farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinckley and sons entertained Mrs. Hinchley's mother and sister from Willimantic Thanksgiving day.

Friends of Deacon J. Y. Thomas are pleased to know that he is able to be up, after two months of serious illness.

The sound of wild geese was heard on Tuesday evening regardless of the low temperature, traveling south by moonlight.

Thanksgiving here was a home day and a happy day of family reunion.

PIMPLES

Every pimple that mars your beauty is a discharge of poisonous matter. Take NATURE'S REMEDY—NR—and rid your system of poisonous matter in the natural manner. Quite often pimples are the simple sign that your system needs this mild, safe, vegetable laxative to help it. Get a box at your druggist's, 25c; try it and look for remarkable results.

Mild – Safe – Purely Vegetable

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Alright

Nature's Remedy

NR—TABLETS—NR

TUMS for the tummy! Quick relief for sour stomach, acid indigestion and heartburn. Tums are antacid. 10c

(Special to The Bulletin)

PUTNAM, Dec. 4.—The little basement court roo min North Grosvenorment court room in North Grosvenorlotte deals with Thompson's law breakers was jammed this morning to a point where standing room was at a premium when Frank O'Clair, proprietor and 11 frequenters, arrested in a raid conducted by state police of Danielson barracks Sunday morning in the speakeasy and gambling house known as "Davy Jones' Locker," were arraigned on charges pertaining to violation of liquor and gaming laws. O'Clair and the corps of frequenters received blanket defense furnished by Attorney Irving H. Miron. When the Putnam lawyer and his band of clients appeared they were forced to mill their way through the gaping crowd that was without seating arrangements.

O'Clair, alleged proprietor and steward at the nautical named gambling resort was arraigned on charges of owning and keeping for sale and actual sale of intoxicating liquors and owning and keeping a gambling house. Through his attorney, he entered a plea of nolo contendre, was found guilty and fined $200 and costs, in addition to receiving a 30 days' jail sentence on the first count and paid a fine of $25 and costs and received a 30 days jail sentence on the second. In both cases jail sentences imposed were suspended.

Of the frequenters five entered pleas of guilty, received severe reprimands from the justice and were discharged upon payment of costs. Two others who pleaded guilty paid fines and received 30 day suspended jail sentences. Frequenting charges filed against a North Grosvenordale man, employed in a Putnam grocery store were waived when it was explained that his presence in the Independent club on the morning of the raid was businesswise, inasmuch as he had delivered the club an order of groceries and stopped on his way out for an order of beans.

The entire group of offenders were threatened with superior court arraignment and much more severe measures of punishment should they ever come before Justice Tourtellotte again.

The cases were presented by State Officer John Murphy of Danielson barracks, who conducted the Sabbath morning raid that put an end to the unlawful night life in the little textile village.

Edward H. Burt and Godias Rivard, both of this city are among the list of 24 jurors drawn for jury duty at the December criminal and civil terms of superior court now sitting in Willimantic. Other jurors whose names are contained in the list published today by Curtis N. Dean, clerk of courts are Charles E. Anthony, Nelson A. Daniels, Willimantic; Clarence H. Barlow, Arell L. Green, Ashford; Arnold Wild, Clifford H. Starkweather, Brooklyn; Howard A. Rix, Hollis M. Reed, Canterbury; Charles B. Russ, Chaplin; Frank M. Smith, Eastford; Jesse Burnham, Hampton; Armond J. Hebert, Joseph Duval, Plainfield; George T. Moran, Charles G. Carver; James P. Sharpe, A. D. Briggs, Pomfret; M. W. Roberts, Scotland; Winthrop Ballard, William L. Arnold, Thompson, Albert Hammond, Woodstock; Byron P. Young, Sterling.

The list of civil assignments for superior court from December 5, to December 16, were published today and are as follows: Court cases for Friday, December 5th at Putnam, (following naturalization cases)—The Labelle & Page corporation vs. Zoe B. Wilson; Leon V. Brown vs. Fannie G. Paine.

Court cases for trial at Willimantic, Tuesday, December 9, at 10 o'clock—Charles Chesters vs. Louis J. Haines; state vs. Edmund Meinhold, assault, breach of the peace. To the jury—State vs. Joseph Kishazy, poisoning cattle; Jennie L. Farnum administrator estate Wheeler, appeal from doings of commissioners on estate.

Court cases for trial Tuesday, December 16th at Putnam at 10 o'clock—Albert B. Webb vs. Charles A. Parker; Edwin H. Perry vs. Asa D. Cheney; George Potvin vs. the Society Ste. Jean Baptiste of Putnam; George Swelki vs. Byron M. Lewis.

The first of a series of weekly meetings between the Cargill Council Knights of Columbus and the members of the Canadien Athletic club, to take place during the winter indoor sports tournament, was held Wednesday evening in the Knights of Columbus rooms on Main street. Eight tables of bridge were in play, the Kaceys were deadlocked with Les Canadiens in a 4-4 score which was broken up when the K. of C. in a drawing scored an additional point.

The season opened with a display of enthusiasm on the part of members of both clubs and a promise that many additional teams will be in the race before the season advances further. In last year's tournament, the Knights took their Odd Fellow rivals into camp with comparative ease and this year decided to set out in quest of stronger opposition. It appears that the sought after, has been found in the C. A. C. bridge men who played as follows: (C. A. C. players first)—Mathurin and Latour won from Hogan and J. Hannifan; A. Guertin and L. Guertin won from Welsh and T. Hannifan; Courtemarche and Paulhus won from Benoit and Rev. Father Normand; Marion and Allard lost to L. Phaneuf and Bourgeois; Miller and Dupre lost to McCauley and Williamson; Beausoliel and Dupre lost to Bove and L. Charron; Latour and Magnant won from J. Light and L. Light; Bardier and Beaudreault lost to Duffy and Martin. Next week's round will be played at the C. A. C. rooms on Providence street in the north end.

It was announced this morning that Arthur Dupre, proprietor of Pepin's South Main street 20 cent taxi has joined with the drivers of the three companies which on Tuesday agreed to adopt a uniform scale of prices. In reaching an agreement Dupre will on Monday, December 8, inaugurate with the other city hackney men, the new city rate of 25 cents for one passenger and 10 cents for each additional rider.

OBITUARY

Frank Rich

Frank Rich, for more than fifty years a resident of this city died this morning at his home on Grove street, following a few minutes illness. A heart attack is believed responsible for his sudden death. Mr. Rich was in his 71st year.

Mr. Rich suffered from the effects of a shock with which he was seized several years ago and had not been in good health, but his death was unexpected. He retired Wednesday evening showing no symptoms of illness. At an early hour this morning groans were heard coming from his room. His wife responded to his calls for assistance, but he died before any medical aid could be summoned.

Mr. Rich was a native of Trowbridge, England, having been born there on April 8th, 1860, the son of William and Caroline (Lindsey) Rich. When he was a small boy the family emigrated to the United States. His father, who was a textile overseer served in this capacity in the finishing department of the Putnam Woolen company for a held for a number of years. Since coming to Putnam, Mr. Rich has made his home on Grove street. Besides his widow, Mr. Rich leaves two daughters and four brothers, Walter, Samuel, Jesse and Charles Rich of Fitchburg.

According to figures released today by Judge M. H. Geissler, clerk of the town school committee the town of Putnam will receive state aid for 1792 children between the ages of 4 and 16 enrolled in grammar and high schools. A report concerning the number of pupils subject to the state aid as provided by the state legislature, was submitted to the state department of education upon the completion of the school enumeration work today. The number of state aid pupils is smaller by about 50 students this year it was said this afternoon when figures were compared with the report of 1929.

Mrs. Edith M. Arnold of South Main street, has left on a six week's trip to Arizona and Los Angeles, California where she will visit with relatives and friends.

WESTFORD

Mrs. Bassett attended the teachers' meeting in Mansfield Wednesday.

Mrs. Nathan Armitage and Miss Clara Armitage attended the home economics meeting in Abington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buck have named their little daughter Carolyn.

Mrs. Nettie Lyon has been very ill at Mrs. Wilbur's, in the village.

Guests at the Bassett home Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. George Bassett and daughter, from Mansfield Depot; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson and daughter, from Willimantic; Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold and family, from Warrenville, and Mr. and Mrs Reginald Bradway, from Norwich.

Andrew Baricak and Miss Gladys Jackson, of Hartford, spent the holiday at the Baricak home.

Holiday guests at C. D. Chism's were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dawley, of Norwich, and Miss Whiton, of Westford. Guests at J. W. Armitage's were Miss Amidon, of West Hartford, and H. N. Amidon, of Westford.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Bicknell, A. W. Chisholm and W. D. Chisholm spent the holiday with Maurice Bicknell, at West Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Armitage and

PASADENA, Cal.—(AP)—In normal reproduction of living cells, says Dr. Calvin B. Bridges of the California Institute of Technology, "each chromosome in the cell first doubles its mass and then splits into two equal parts."

The chromosomes are tiny bodies governing hereit.

Each part then enters one of the two daughter cell-bodies produced by division of the original body cell continues Dr. Bridges, adding:

"Futher, the evidence indicates that each of the tiny particles called genes which make up chromosomes like a string of beads, is repoduced in exactly the original position in the new chromosome string.

"This means that each gene has attended to its own reproduction.

"The genes are the smallest and simplest bodies in the cell that are definitely known to live a life of their own in the larger body of the cell.

"Indeed, their business in life is to govern autocratically the doings of that larger body.

"The genes make vast numbers of cells cooperate to build an eye that is blue or a brain that thinks."

STAFFORD

Miss Esther Warren has returned to Winsted after spending the Thanksgiving vacation with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Warren.

Willard Rhodes, of Boston, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes.

Mr. Holmes of Springfield spent the holiday with his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Eno.

Automobile registration in nine southern states showed a gain of 63.7 per cent during a five-year period ending in 1929.

17
SHOPPING DAYS TO CHRISTMAS

Aspirin Genuine

SAFE For COLDS

prompt relief from HEADACHES. SORE THROAT. LUMBAGO, RHEUMATISM, NEURITIS, NEURALGIA, COLDS ACHES and PAINS

Does not harm the heart

BAYER ASPIRIN

Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions. Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets. Also bottles of 24 and 100—All druggists.

Growing of new forests in Louisiana to preserve the sawmill industry has been shown as feasible by experiments.

TODAY . . . Two New Cars Now Ready . . . TODAY

The GREATER HUDSON EIGHT 2-PASS. COUPE $875 (COACH $895)

OTHER BODY MODELS AS ATTRACTIVELY PRICED — SPECIAL EQUIPMENT EXTRA — ALL PRICES F. O. B. DETROIT

Amazing qualities . . . Astounding prices

The NEW ESSEX SUPER SIX $595 COACH OR 2-PASSENGER COUPE

OTHER BODY MODELS AS ATTRACTIVELY PRICED — SPECIAL EQUIPMENT EXTRA — ALL PRICES F. O. B. DETROIT

"We invade a new field with vastly improved cars at the lowest prices in our history"

BY WILLIAM J. McANEENY
President, Hudson Motor Car Company

WE have built these models up to and beyond the 1931 standards of performance and quality in every way, and have never in our history offered so many improvements. Quality is greater down to the last detail. Every phase of performance has been greatly improved, and the luxury we have built into the cars is substantially greater than ever before. Motors are larger and more powerful. An efficient system of oil cooling is introduced. A marked improvement in carburetion increases flexibility and economy. Bodies are longer and wider. These cars possess the finest, easiest riding qualities. For the first time, such comfort is available at these low prices. Only great manufacturing economies and the fact that our large resources permit us to take the fullest possible advantage of reduced commodity prices have enabled us to offer the public the greatest combination of quality and low prices in our entire history.

Owner-Management Permits Exclusive Value Advantages

Owner-management enables Hudson-Essex to give you outstanding advantages in quality and price. The men who are now guiding its destinies have been with the company since its inception twenty-two years ago. Its department heads and principal distributors are its controlling owners. Their independence is backed by unusually large resources in capital and plant facilities. It enables Hudson-Essex to lead in design and engineering quality. It permits economies in manufacture and distribution that bring exceptional quality direct to the public at distinct price advantages.

See both new cars at these places today:

Norwich Hudson-Essex Co.

"WHERE FAIRNESS IS FEATURED"

125 NORTH MAIN STREET — OPEN EVENINGS AND SUNDAY

[illegible] 1930

Norwich Bulletin

Norwich Courier

Entered at the Postoffice at Norwich, Conn., as second class matter.

Telephone Calls:
Bulletin Business Office 480
Bulletin Editorial Rooms 35-R
Bulletin Job Room 35-W

Willimantic Office
Jordan Block, Lincoln Square. Phone 1151-2.

Printed every day in the year except Sunday.

Subscription price 12c a week, 50c a month, $6.00 a year.

140 YEARS OLD

Members of The Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news despatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published therein.
All rights of republication of special despatches herein are also reserved.

Norwich, Friday, Dec. 5, 1930

NORWICH ENTITLED TO BRANCH OFFICE

Norwich Automobile Dealers' association wants a branch registration office of the motor vehicle department established in this city and has voted to make a request for its establishment.

This is something in the way of an accommodation for the owners of automobiles which has been needed for years and the only surprise in connection with the action of the local association is that there has been a delay until this time in asking for it. Conditions have been worse than they are at the present time. There have been years when it was necessary to have an application sent through the mail sworn to, and possibly a fee paid to the notary public. This meant that those using the mail had to pay more than those who could step into one of the branch offices and get his markers.

This requirement of having a signature sworn to has been abolished, but it is still necessary for a large number of the residents of the state to either get their markers by mail or to travel varying distances to branch offices and possibly spend hours in line waiting to be accommodated to the extent of having this license on his car collected.

Norwich is the largest center in this end of Connecticut. Norwich itself has about 6,000 autos and many thousand others are owned in the neighboring towns and villages. To all these it would be a great convenience if there was a branch registry office here.

The Bulletin has maintained for years that such an office should be established here and the discrimination which now exists in behalf of those auto owners of the state who have the advantage of branch offices should be removed by making provisions whereby they will all be treated alike. Not only should Norwich have a branch office of the department of motor vehicles, but there should be one in every city of the state. Then accommodations of a similar character would be extended to all sections alike.

The motor vehicle department may as well distribute its facilities among all the cities of the state as to extend them to only a few. It should be concerned with the accommodation of the many, rather than the few, and if it finds that it lacks appropriations for the establishment of such branches the importance of going to the legislature and getting the authority might properly be suggested to it, with the general assembly session only a few weeks off.

It is to be hoped the association doesn't let up in its efforts until it gets what Norwich is entitled to.

TAX RESTORATION

When Secretary Mellon, in his annual report, sets forth that the 1 per cent tax cut which was put in operation this year as a temporary reduction, but with the hope that conditions might permit its continuance, is at an end, he sets forth what the country has already been made to realize through the president's message and other government statements.

The tax cut was, in fact, an emergency measure. Congress approved it on the suggestion of the president at the time when it was recognized that there was need for cooperative effort in meeting the business slump. While industry, utilities and other large corporations were being urged to go ahead with projects which had been contemplated in order to provide employment, there was an opportunity for the government to let up on demands from the taxpayers, and it did it. Had conditions abroad and here improved and the government's revenue responded accordingly there would have been little doubt that such a cut could have been continued, but with revenue much below estimates and a deficit faced, it is quite evident that it is unwise to push the government finances further into a hole through trying to maintain this emergency tax cut. Such would simply pile up debt and make the cost of getting out all the greater in the end.

Thus, with no assurance that there could be a continuance of the 1 per cent cut and with conditions faced which do not justify it, the termination of the cut is the logical step. Because it could not be seen how such a restoration could be avoided, the declaration does not come as a surprise, but it would have caused surprise and regret had the suggestion been advanced that debt should be piled up in order to avoid returning to the previous income tax rate.

WHY NOT BE CAREFUL?

At the County street crossing in Taunton there have been six fatalities in the past four months, three having occurred there one day last week. In referring to this intersection of rail and road, the Providence Bulletin declares that it is not a blind one, that drivers in clear weather have a view for a considerable distance in both directions and the crossing is equipped with a bell that rings and a light that flashes on the approach of trains. It is not a crossing that is much used by the railroad, and the view is sometimes obscured by fog, but in spite of all the provisions for the prevention of accidents they continue to occur.

"What to do to prevent accidents at such intersections," says the Bulletin, "is a problem. To compel the railroad to eliminate the crossing seems unreasonable, in view of the small number of trains passing over it and the fact that it is on a line on which the road is already undoubtedly losing money. The only other effective alternative would seem to be to station a crossing tender there and install gates."

When the problem at railroad crossings is considered it is invariably the case that all the responsibility for safety at such a point is placed upon the railroad. It is a reasonable demand that warning signs and signals or lights be placed at crossings, especially where they are blind, but it cannot be overlooked that there is some responsibility resting upon the highway user in assuring his own protection.

At a crossing where the highway user can see in both directions, where a bell signal has been established and where lights flash at the approach of trains, it would seem that fatalities at such a point must be chalked up to those who refused to abide by the warnings, the assumption being, since no claim has been made to the contrary, that the signal and light work properly.

The problem at open crossings would be greatly reduced if the drivers of vehicles were mindful of their own safety, and that is a point upon which too much attention cannot be centered in the effort to reduce the accidents at such places. The record at the Taunton crossing indicates that had there been proper respect for the danger, set forth by sign, signal and light, all the deaths might have easily been avoided. If it is foggy, why not be a bit more careful? It seldom costs anything in effort or time.

NYE'S HARD JOB

Senator Nye continues to dig into the primary that was held in the state of Pennsylvania and he professes to have found out that more funds have been reported as spent, which doesn't indicate that there has been any failure to comply with the law in that respect. He finds also that the money was spent in behalf of the so-called Davis-Brown ticket.

Anyone who has followed the campaign in Pennsylvania knows that it was a spirited and hard-fought one. At no time did it appear that Senator Davis was encountering any serious opposition and the results, both in the primary and the election, show that he had what might easily be regarded as a walk-over. It was, in his case, a characteristic republican victory in that state.

As for the governorship, there was a different story. It was there that the fight was centered. This was caused by the entrance of former Governor Pinchot into the contest. He was out to win and he did win, but the efforts of the managers of the Davis-Brown ticket had to be concentrated upon the governorship, rather than upon the senatorship. According to report, Mr. Davis spent about $10,000 himself. The reported expenditures for the campaign waged for the whole ticket ran into several hundred thousand dollars and the impression that Senator Nye is trying to create is that this was the sum that was spent for Senator Davis.

Just how the senate committee is going to prove that the expenditures of the campaign managers for the Davis-Brown ticket, a ticket representing all the officers of the state as well as the United States senator, were spent in behalf of Senator Davis is not quite clear. Pennsylvania hasn't had a more mixed or hotter political battle than it had this year but, with the real fight over the governorship and the United States senator contest being a walk-over for Davis, the effort to place the whole outlay on the Davis candidacy is ridiculous. As a matter of fact, with the expenditure for the whole ticket, and the presumption that it was used where it was most needed, the difficulty in determining just how much was spent for the individual candidates presents a Chinese puzzle.

STEAMSHIP BUILDING

Rivalry continues to display itself in regard to ships, quite the same as in the field of aviation. The launching of a bigger ship than sails the seas, or the establishment of a faster ship than plys the briny continues to serve as a prod to other ship-owners to produce something bigger, better or faster.

In the building of ships those out for the top honors understand that it means much these days to outrival competitors. It means the construction of a huge ship, the spending of a vast sum of money for speed and equipment and a decided uncertainty as to how long the product will be able to retain the distinction of being the largest or fastest.

For a great many years the Mauretania has been the fastest ship in service between Europe and this country. Even though that ship has accumulated age it still is a speedy craft, but with the bringing out of the Bremen and the Europa it was obliged to recognize superiority. The margin is not great, but it is enough, and as time goes on it is quite apparent the Mauretania stands no chance of reclaiming lost honors.

That being so, the Cunard line intends to regain it by building a new and larger ship. It will not be content to be second best. It thus announces that it plans to build a 73,000-ton steamship with the expectation that it will not only be the largest but that it will develop speed that will eclipse all other records. Such vessels cannot be turned out in a day but, even though it will require three years to build, it will be accepted as a warning by other lines that it is time for them to do a bit of thinking if they propose to challenge the right to leadership of the new ship. They may wait until they find out what it accomplishes, but something that will beat the best must be in mind.

EDITORIAL NOTES

If we are getting a hint of December weather, it certainly gives plenty of encouragement to the iceman.

"Wants mosquito control continued," says a headline. There'll not be much interest shown in it for the next few weeks.

The man on the corner says: Now that you are headed for Christmas do not be a mope till the day before and then try to be a speedbug

C. AND A. R. R., BUILT UP BY NORWICH CASH, TO BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER

The Chicago and Alton railroad, in whose stock eastern Connecticut once had millions invested, on next Thursday is to be offered for sale to the highest bidder. This road achieved the name of being "the greatest little railroad in the world" under the presidency of Timothy B. Blackstone, who married Isabelle F. Norton of this city and whose brother was long a prominent resident of Norwich.

On April 8, 1867, The Bulletin announced that $1,000,000 of Chicago and Alton securities was held in Norwich alone, and on April 18, 1877, it said that one-third of the railroad's stock was then owned locally.

The Associated Press story on the coming auction of the Chicago and Alton railroad is as follows:

83 Years Old

WILMINGTON, Ill.—(AP)—Eighty-three years of financial ups and downs brings the Chicago and Alton railroad to the auctioneer's block on December 11, when it will be sold to the highest bidder.

The $125,000,000 road with its $85,000,000 indebtedness will be offered for sale on the platform of the railroad's station here. The auction, ordered by federal court, will terminate a receivership under which the Alton has operated since 1922.

Wilmington, a rural community of 1,400 persons, was chosen for the auction because it is the center of the original C. and A. line.

Default in the payment of dividends on two bond issues caused the foreclosure action. One was for $22,000,000 issued in 1900. No dividend has been paid since 1923. The other was for $18,000,000 and was issued in 1912. It never has paid a dividend.

A mortgage of $45,000,000 resulting from Harriman financing, is not involved. Those bonds always have paid dividends.

B. and O. to Control

The Baltimore and Ohio is understood to have paid $21,500,000 for enough bonds to assure control of the 1,000-mile road.

Strictly a mid-western road, traversing rural districts of Missouri and Illinois, the Alton always has been a "home" road, close to the hamlets and cities through which it ran. At its three terminals were a trinity of cities, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.

Four generations of Missouri and Illinois folk grew up with a feeling that the Alton was a part of their lives, as essential and as beloved as their home town.

It was one of the first to employ bright colors for its passenger coaches. The red trains of the Alton used to draw scores to C. and A. stations on Sundays.

George Pullman fire tried out his sleeping car on the Alton in 1857. Lincoln had a small job in the legal department of the Alton and Sangamon, forebear of the present-day road, the year the road was incorporated, 1847.

Off and on for the next decade Lincoln was a counsel for the railroad. He was chief attorney for the Chicago and Mississippi, successor to the Alton and Sangamon. Lincoln later appeared on the opposite side of the table in C. and A. litigation.

Harriman Bonded the Road Heavily

E. H. Harriman acquired the Alton in 1896 for $39,000,000. He loaded it with a $40,000,000 bond issue and a few years later added $20,000,000 additional in bonds.

The war operation, the shopmen's strike and the miners' walk-out of 1920-22 brought the receivership. W. A. Bierd, who had been the president since 1914, became the receiver.

The Baltimore and Ohio obtained approval of the interstate commerce commission to acquire stock in the road and obtain control.

The next issue of the Bulletin will contain a biography of Timothy B. Blackstone, the road's most famous president, who by marriage and kinship was closely associated with Norwich, where he now lies buried.

Mr. Blackstone's estate amounted to $5,760,000. The great Blackstone hotel in Chicago is named in his honor.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—That precept of youthful sportsmanship, "turn about is fair play," might apply in the case of Simeon Fess, a senator from Ohio, and Calvin Coolidge, now a columnist.

Columnist Coolidge rushed to the defense of Fess when the latter's continuance as chairman of the republican national committee was assailed by republican stalwarts like Fred Britten and James Wadsworth, who don't see quite eye to eye with Mr. Fess on prohibition matters.

It will be recalled that Mr. Fess, in 1927-28, was the loudest and longest shouter of the "Draft Coolidge" battle cry. He was popularly supposed to have been verbally spanked by Mr. Coolidge for this too ardent championship.

Coolidge Gets Even

Columnist Coolidge had a chance to even things up a bit when the "Oust Fess" cry was raised following the election. He deplored a tendency he saw toward adopting into politics from that other great American sport such outcries as "kill the umpire" and "take 'im out."

After all, Columnist Coolidge argued, if Fess didn't bring home the bacon in the bye-elections in the form of a substantial party majority in congress, neither did John J. Raskob for the democrats. And Raskob also was being assailed at that time.

So Columnist Coolidge advised both parties to make the most of chairmen of ability and character.

Quite possibly the inclusion of Raskob by name in this tribute from the republican president emeritus made it taste no sweeter to Fess. It is rather an oddity among political happenings.

If nothing else, it tends to disclose the former president in a most detached attitude toward partisan political hub-bubs.

Perhaps two years' isolation in Northampton from the warring factions in Washington has induced that mood of philosophic calm. Or again, maybe turning out a piece for the paper every day has tended to tone down his partisanship.

Maybe Dreaming

Or yet again; maybe Mr. Coolidge is looking ahead, and dreaming dreams of his own. He's a young man yet, politically speaking. He has been meditating at Northampton since he left the white house largely an onlooker at the game of politics he has played all his life.

The storms of business depression, drought, the revolutionary up heavals to the south and near political revolution at home all are things of the time since he became again just Citizen Coolidge. Who could blame him if he saw visions now and then of a "Back to Coolidge" movement somewhere ahead?

Stories That Recall Others

Curious

Two poultrymen were discussing their egg production in the presence of a small lad. As the lad and his father were nearing home the lad said:

"I want to see the 50 per cent things our hens have been laying."

Trained

Roberts was telling her teacher about her mother's birthday.

"How old was your mother?" inquired the teacher.

"Oh, she is always 25 on her birthday," replied the well trained seven-year-old

YOUR HEALTH

Near-Sightedness (Myopia)

By L. L. McCoy, M. D., Seattle.
(From Gorgas Memorial Institute)

Near-sightedness is a condition in which one's vision is better for near objects than for those at a distance. As a rule myopic individuals enjoy books, detailed hand work such as ivory carving, and embroidery and are quite frequently studious. They prefer occupations that require close visual application because their interests center where vision is best. Usually the first indication that a child is myopic is the fact that he holds his books or objects abnormally near his eyes or he has to sit near the blackboard in the school room.

About 5 per cent of infants are born myopic. Between the ages of six and sixteen many children are myopic. These ages form the period when bodily growth is most rapid and it is the time when the sight is used most arduously for close work. Some investigators believe school work is responsible for the large number of myopes seen at this period. Certainly some present day school work with its increasing amount of required home study, even in lower grade children, would lead one to believe it is an injurious factor, particularly for those who are myopic or have a tendency that way. The more many physicians see of the steadily growing number of children who need glasses, especially near-sighted children, the more they are convinced that no child under twelve years should be required to do any school work at home that necessitates close or long continued application of his eyes—several hours daily in the class room is sufficent. It is not uncommon to see even small children carrying home their books for study during the evening and outside of this being required by over-enthusiastic parents to study music, sewing and whatnot when they should be free to play. It is the opinion of many that children are being pushed too strenuously nowadays to the detriment of their nervous systems in general and their eyes in particular.

Myopia is commonly found among Oriental children, and there is some evidence to support the view that it becomes an inherited tendency after generations of individuals whose occupations have consisted of very intensive close work.

Occasionally one sees a case in which the myopia progresses rapidly to a high degree. Eyes of this type undergo destructive changes in their tissues which may eventually lead to a very poor vision or even blindness.

A myopic individual should keep his general health in the best possible condition, avoid close application of his eyes as far as is compatible with a livelihood and, if he is a myope of high degree, he should change his occupation to one in which eye strain is nil, provided his present activities require excessive visual energy. Looking at distance objects should be indulged in as much as possible, and when using his eyes for near work, the best possible illumination, both as to position of the light and its intensity, is important, also frequent rest periods might be very beneficial. He should consult a reputable eye physician at regular intervals—as often as every three months if necessary, and keep his refractive error carefully and constantly corrected.

BURGESS BEDTIME STORY

Desperation

There's many a thing you do not dare
You'll do when driven by despair.
—Young Muskrat.

The black shadows were creeping out from the purple hills across the green meadows. Already they had reached the lower part of the Laughing brook. The trapped young muskrat with one aching leg held fast in steel jaws had spent a day of utter misery. Pain and fear had been almost more than he could bear. All day he had dreaded the coming of the trapper. Now as the black shadow came creeping nearer he forgot the trapper and began thinking of Reddy Fox and other prowlers of the night who might find him.

Suddenly Jerry Muskrat, who had been down the Laughing brook toward the big river, appeared swimming rapidly. With his tail he gave the danger warning that every muskrat understands. Mrs. Jerry, who was keeping watch not far away, dived into deep water. Jerry himself did not dive. He swam straight to that old log where the young muskrat was held prisoner. "That trapper is coming," said Jerry. "It is your leg or your life now, and you haven't much time."

The young muskrat began to whimper. He knew his father must be telling the truth. He knew that Jerry wouldn't have given that danger signal for nothing. But oh dear, how could he do such a dreadful thing, such a horrible thing, as to bite off his own leg? He couldn't. Perhaps that boy wouldn't come all the way there after all. Perhaps he had other traps and would forget this one. To bite his own leg off was too horrible even to think of.

Jerry Muskrat was floating close at hand, looking down the Laughing brook and listening. A stick snapped. The young muskrat heard it. He looked at Jerry. "He's coming," said Jerry.

Again a stick snapped. Then the young muskrat heard the sound of heavy feet along the bank and the rattling of branches as some one pushed through the brush. A few minutes later he saw that boy, the strong boy whom he had so often seen when Farmer Brown's boy was about. He was coming along the bank and in one hand he carried a stout stick. He was looking eagerly towards that log on which the young muskrat sat. He began to run forward. He had seen that young muskrat caught in the trap.

It was then that desperation took possession of the young muskrat. He plunged off that log into the shallow water. There he twisted and turned and pulled and twisted and turned some more. It hurt terribly, but fear was greater than the pain. The boy was almost there. With a cry he rushed forward, his stout stick raised for a blow at the young muskrat, a blow that would mean the end of him. Turning, twisting, all the time wrenching and pulling, the young muskrat struggled. Just as that stout stick started down for his head he suddenly found himself free. Yes, sir, he found himself free. In his haste to get into deep water, and in the sudden relief from that terrible grip, he didn't at first realize that he had lost that leg. He had, however. He had twisted it off. It was back there in the trap. The bone had been broken by those dreadful steel jaws that wouldn't let go and in his desperation he had twisted himself free.

His father, Jerry Muskrat, was there just ahead of him, showing him the way

His father, Jerry Muskrat, was there just ahead of him showing him the way. It was fortunate that he did not need that lost front foot for swimming. He could swim very well without it. So, as he followed his father, he didn't fully realize what had happened to him.

As for that boy, he had seen the struggle of that young muskrat. As the latter escaped the boy's first feeling was one of disappointment. Then he saw that pitiful little black foot in the jaws of the trap and pity for the young muskrat swept over him. He took up the trap. He went to two others and took them up. "Never again," said he, "will I set one of these cruel things. I didn't realize how cruel they are. No more steel traps for me."

And from that day to this Jerry Muskrat has never found another steel trap around the Smiling pool or along the Laughing brook.

(Copyright, 1930, by T. W. Burgess)

The next story: "The Cripple."

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Motor Caravan to Cross Least Known Asia.

Plans for one of the most comprehensive and most completely equipped expeditions of modern times were disclosed recently when Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the National Geographic Society, announced that the society will cooperate with Georges-Marie Haardt of Paris, in sending out eight caterpillar cars, with scientists in a dozen fields, to span 5,000 miles of least-known Asia, from Beyrouth (Beirut), Syria, to Peiping (Peking) China, and then return across 8,000 miles more of a southern route.

M. Haardt came from Paris to Washington to complete arrangements with the society to send a representative with the expedition, whose other personnel will be entirely French, and which will have the approval of the French government and specific missions from France's ministry of foreign affairs.

The patron of the expedition in France is Andre Citroen, lifelong friend of M. Haardt, and benefactor of many scientific projects, who also gave his support to M. Haardt's famous expedition which traversed Africa and first crossed the Sahara Desert in motor cars.

The trans-Asiatic expedition, with the National Geographic Society cooperating, will take the field in March, with its eight caterpillar cars each carrying a trailer, conveying a personnel of 35 men, including specialists in geography, archeology, ornithology, botany, geology, anthropology and other branches of science.

It plans to start from France's westernmost Asiatic territory, in Syria, traverse Iraq, Persia, Russian Turkestan, Sinkiang, and China, turning south at Peiping for the long trail down to French Indo-China. Thence, from Saigon, it will return through Siam, Burma, India, Baluchistan, Persia and Arabia. In that journey it will traverse areas which have been little visited by Europeans since Marco Polo's time, skirt some of the world's highest mountains, lofty plateaus, cross the vast Gobi and Ala Shan deserts, and come upon tribes and racial remnants of ancient Asiatic peoples whose habits and habitats are virtually unknown.

Two cars will be devoted to the taking of one of the most comprehensive geographic vocal motion picture records ever made. This phase of the expedition, requiring special scientific and technical experimentation, is being conducted by Pathe-Natan, Paris. The scenic wonders of innermost Asia, the customs and the costumes of its peoples will be photographed, both by the black-and-white and the color camera; and native dialects, songs, chants, and rituals will be preserved in sound records.

Each trailer will carry tents, cots, camp chairs, and a camp table for the personnel assigned to its car. One of the cars will be an auto-kitchen, equipped for quick service when the explorers halt for a meal.

The expedition will carry a radio sending station which at all times will keep it in touch with Paris; and this sending station will be utilized by the National Geographic society's representative in filing dispatches to the society's headquarters in Washington which, in accord with the society's invariable custom, will be released simultaneously to all press associations and newspapers desiring news of the expedition's progress.

Among the technical studies to be made by members of the expedition will be those dealing with meteorology of areas which now are blank spaces on world weather maps. Magnetic observations will be made. An artist will supplement photographic studies with sketches of ethnographic value. Another will specialize in collecting objects of ethnological interest since the expedition will be traversing areas where some of the earliest phases of mankind's history transpired.

Georges-Marie Haardt, leader of the expedition, has been called the "motor car Livingstone of France," because of the amazing expedition he previously led through 15,000 miles of deserts and jungles in Africa. Upon that trip he used caterpillar tractors and automobiles; taking eight months to go from Algeria across the Sahara, around Lake Chad, and through the Belgian Congo to Mozambique. Some of his cars were then transported to Madagascar and he explored the interior of that island.

Upon another expedition he made the first crossing of the Sahara with automobiles, thus first demonstrating the possibilities of mechanical conveyance in desert areas.

In the broad scope of its investigations dealing with many fields of science, in the length of its proposed route, aggregating some 13,500 miles, and in the modern aspects of its equipment, utilizing motor transport, the natural color photography, the radio, sound recording moving pictures, and various other new devices the expedition is unique—in fact it would not have been possible a few years ago. It will be in the field at least a year, perhaps 18 months.

What Do You Know About Eastern Connecticut?

1.—When was Griffith's dancing school opened at Norwich?
2.—What was its address?
3.—What dances were taught?
4.—When were the lessons given?
5.—How often did the pupils give a ball?
6.—Who was a popular dancing instructor ten years later?
7.—Where did he hold his classes?
8.—When was the town of Lebanon incorporated?

Answers Will Be Found On Classified Page

How Old Are You?

Gloriously Alive At 45

My Friends: Correct Your Eating Faults and Lose Your Fat With Kruschen Salts

Yes: I'm forty-five today—built like a race horse, my friends say—and I know I feel 10 years younger than I did three months ago—and I'd hate to tell you how much fat I lost with Kruschen.

I call Kruschen Salts the "magic salts" because when I was fat and wretched, despondent and half sick all the time—it took only one bottle that I bought for 85 cents to liven me up—put ambition and energy into me—make me feel years younger and with the help of a change in diet show me how to lose the fat I was so ashamed of.

Cut out pastries and desserts—go easy on potatoes, cream, cheese, and butter — eat lean meat, chicken, fish, vegetables and fruits and never fail to take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

Every drug store worthy of the name in the World sells Kruschen Salts—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—not much to pay for buoyant health.

Don't Quit!

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will
When the road you are trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
When you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but do not quit.

Life is queer with its twist and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns;
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow,
Often the goal, it seems, is nearer then
To a faint and faltering man.
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup,
And he learned too late when the night slipped down
How close he had been to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tints of the clouds of doubt,
And you can never tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar—
So stick to the fight when you are hardest hit,
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit!

—From a Scrap Book

DO YOU KNOW CONNECTICUT?

By Conn. Chamber of Commerce

Q. What are the functions of the board of compensation commissioners?

A. To administer the compensation act, approving agreements in undisputed cases and hearing evidence in disputed cases and making decisions.

Q. Where was the first lighthouse in the state erected?

A. At the entrance to New London harbor in 1760.

Q. How heavy is the average snowfall in Connecticut?

A. Over a period of years the average snowfall is about 40 inches in the southern part, graduating to approximately 50 inches in the northeast and 60 in the northwest.

Q. How does Connecticut compare with other states in the raising of fruit?

Q. Why was Silver Lane in East Hartford so named?

Q. How many families are there in Connecticut?

(Answers to these questions will be published in Monday's paper.)

GUILTY OF SLAYING HIS WIFE AND FOUR CHILDREN

HAMILTON, Ohio, Dec. 4—(AP)—Charles King, 39, barber, who is charged with slaying his wife and four children, was convicted of the first degree murder of his son, Robert, 14, tonight by a jury which declined to recommend mercy. The verdict carries the death penalty.

J. R. & W. D. MORAN
SUCCESSORS TO J. C. MACPHERSON
291 MAIN STREET Opposite Chelsea Savings Bank

ALL READY TO SERVE YOU
With a Brand New Stock of First Class Merchandise at Prices That Will Please You. All Dependable Goods
DO YOUR XMAS SHOPPING HERE!

NEW SUITS
$27.50 — $29.50
ALL HAND-TAILORED AND MADE TO FIT

OVERCOATS
MUCH BELOW LAST YEAR'S PRICES
$29.50
BUYS A GOOD COAT

LADIES' FUR COATS
AT THE LOWEST PRICES IN YEARS
$87.50 — $100 — $125 — $195
EVERY COAT GUARANTEED

GIFT SUGGESTIONS
NECKWEAR — GLOVES — HOSIERY — BATH ROBES — HOUSE COATS — MUFFLERS — HANDKERCHIEFS — BELTS — SILK SHIRTS

J. R. & W. D. MORAN
"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

NOT IN YEARS HAVE YOU SEEN SUCH BARGAINS!

TODAY AND SATURDAY

We Wish To APOLOGIZE to All Those Who Couldn't Get Waited On During Big Rush Thursday!

BE WISE! GET HERE EARLY!

THE GREAT MANUFACTURERS'
UNLOADING SALE
AT THE PRINCESS SHOP
IS THE TALK OF EVERY WOMAN IN NORWICH!

Dresses
HOUR SALE NOTHING RESERVED
$1.97
Get Here Early and Save Money

Hundreds of the Newest
Coats-Dresses-Hats
Reduced at the Lowest Prices in the History

Dresses
Get Here Early While They Last
$1.00
Savings to Be Thankful For.

A FEW OF THE STARTLING VALUES:

DRESSES
Your Unrestricted Choice of more than 500 Brand New Dresses, for Mothers and Daughters, worth up to $15.00. Friday and Saturday at this Great Sale—
$6.97
DRESSES — The values speak for themselves. Buy Now! $3.97

COATS
See these Beautiful Coats. They will surprise you. Large Fur Collars and Cuffs. Your husbands will thank you for buying here. A chance of a lifetime
$14.97 — $22.97
COATS — While they Last GET HERE EARLY! $7.97

LET NOTHING KEEP YOU FROM THIS GREAT SALE!!!

PRINCESS SHOP
205 MAIN STREET FRANKLIN SQUARE
GOODS ALMOST GIVEN AWAY AT OUR BARGAIN BASEMENT

"IT'S CHRISTMAS NOW AT CRANSTON'S"

Fostoria

GLASSWARE

A Most Charming and Acceptable CHRISTMAS GIFT

in Four Shades

Topaz Rose
Azure Green

A Variety of Shapes and Patterns At Prices Most Reasonable

Make Your Christmas Gift Selections

— at —

CRANSTON'S

25 BROADWAY

"IT'S CHRISTMAS NOW AT CRANSTON'S"

Rheumatism Goes Swollen Joints Vanish

How To End Rheumatism in Less Than a Week

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, sore muscles or stiff inflammed joints, it's because your system is full of the dangerous poisons that cause rheumatism and make thousands helpless. What you need is RU-MA and need it right now.

RU-MA acts on the blood, stomach, kidneys and liver, and drives the dangerous rheumatic poisons from the system through the natural channels of elimination—it eases pain the first day.

You must use an internal medicine to free the joints and muscles of crippling stiffness, soreness and torturing pain. That's why RU-MA succeeds while external remedies and pain deadening drugs give only temporary relief.

Lee & Osgood says no matter what kind of rheumatism you have or how long you have suffered, try RU-MA—it must completely end all rheumatic agony or you get your money back.

TYPEWRITERS

Authorized Factory Representative for ROYALS — CORONAS

All Makes and Models SOLD, RENTED, REPAIRED

RELIABLE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE

287 Main Street, Lerou Bldg.
Tel. NORWICH 2499W

Agent for

EASY

Washer and Ironer

United Music Co.

For Demonstration Call 3263
84 Main St., Norwich, Conn

CHRISTMAS CARDS

with Fancy Lined Envelopes

20 in a box

$1.75

Your name printed to match sentiment

THE BULLETIN CO.
Norwich, Conn.

TODAY'S THRIFTY BUY

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound large (Family) size, $1.20. Each bottle of the Family size holds 5 times as much as the Small 30c size. [illegible] 20c, price of one small bottle. Buy today. Over 100,000,000 bottles sold. Quick and dependable for coughs, croup (spasmodic), dry tickling throat, troublesome night coughs. Careful Mothers endorse it. Exactly suits elderly persons, being sedative without opiates, mildly laxative. Ask for Foley's Family size, [illegible] Lee & Osgood's.

1790 1930

Norwich, Friday, Dec. 5, 1930

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 4:49 this evening.

Sunday and day schools have begun their rehearsals of Christmas carols.

It is planned to have a Christmas tree and exercises at church at Quonochontaug.

People who go through the streets step lively without any admonishing from anybody.

Residents of Eastern Connecticut have been in Boston this week for the big exposition of antiques.

An exhibition of paintings by Guy Wiggins of Old Lyme, opened at the Bridgeport Art league Wednesday.

Odd Fellows public pinochle, Odd Fellows' hall, tonight.—adv.

The mid-week service at Trinity Methodist church considered Galatians II, 11-14, Rev. Joseph Cooper reading.

For gifts for men, local dealers are offering some unusually handsome articles in the very smart buffalo luggage.

Severe weather is sending city people away from their country homes earlier than usual, following the recent holiday.

The country school-boy with the horsehide coat can smile at cold weather and feel thankful that he lives in a modern age.

The Sub-marine Base newspaper has much to say during these wintry days of athletics, which keep the men interested and physically fit.

At a recent special meeting of Park Congregational parish a total of $2,000 was voted in benevolences for the coming year, covering nine lines.

The cabinet of the Guild of the United Congregational church meets this (Friday) afternoon in Miss Pullen's study, over the Otis library.

Girl Scout Troop 3, of Staffordville, at the last meeting learned six more letters of the Morse code, and practiced sending and receiving them.

A full moon should be an advantage to shoppers from suburban points, after the stores begin to keep open at night for the holiday trade.

Roast pork supper Preston Bap. ch., Dec. 10, from 5:30 on. 50c.—adv.

Steam fitters in the employ of a firm from Providence, are installing a sprinkler system in the foundry of the Atwood Machine Co., at Stonington.

The Hiking club at Norwich Free Academy has chosen Virginia Young leader. A hike averaging five or more miles is planning for every Tuesday afternoon.

Money deposited today in the Chelsea Savings bank will draw interest from the first of the month.—adv.

The Connecticut branch of the National Women's committee on law enforcement, will hold an all day meeting today (Friday) in the Federated church, Tolland.

Several cottage owners at Weekapaug and Misquamicut have had repairs made on their summer cottage as a means of helping in the unemployment situation.

Narrow ribbons always figure largely in the doing up of holiday parcels and some very pleasing novelties in the green and red and gold ideas are procurable at low prices.

The government has been seeking an automatic scale expert, $2,300 a year to fill a vacancy in the customs service, Savannah, Ga.

On the weekly calendar of the Central Baptist church best wishes are expressed to Marion Royce and Lloyd E. Neil, married recently and to make their home in New Britain.

Prudent local housewives, who took advantage of recent sales on blankets and the warm and fluffy puffs, are finding that they made no mistake, with the household demands for comfy bedding.

The organ at the Bishop Seabury Memorial Episcopal church, Groton, which has seen over 50 years of service, has been taken from the church and sent to New Haven, where it will be remodeled.

St. Nicholas whose feast is Dec. 6, is the protector and friend of little children. In fact, the Santa Claus of Christmas is no other than St. Nicholas—Claus being an abbreviation of Nicolaus.

It is expected that one of the first things on the calendar when the legislature comes in Jan. 7 will be the purchase of Rocky Neck beach, Niantic, property for a state park for eastern Connecticut.

A team of 12 members from each of the three Waterford fire departments, Jordan, Goshen and Quaker Hill, will open a pinochle tournament tonight (Friday) at the Quaker Hill headquarters.

Some of the gossamer frocks shown in the display windows and intended as samples of what will be worn at the southern resorts are in marked contrast to the prevalent conditions in New England weather.

In the White Ribbon Banner recently, Miss Nellie J. Starr, of Uncasville, county president, wrote at length regarding the importance of instructing young people in every community in the principles of prohibition.

MASTER PLUMBERS MET FOR ANNUAL BANQUET

The Master Plumbers association of Norwich and New London had an attendance of 50 at its annual banquet held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at Norwich inn with a full course turkey dinner served. Included among those present were three past state presidents, Mr. Mills and Mr. Peterson, both of New Britain, and Harry Kennedy of New London and also President Skau of Hartford.

Harold C. Dahl was toastmaster for the informal speaking programme in which the visitors were heard in interesting remarks, while John Morton was chairman of the banquet committee.

Representatives of the American Radiator company of New York, Crane company of Providence, Norwich Plumbing Supply House, Pierce, Butler and Pierce of New London and Hoffman Specialty company of Bridgeport were present.

NCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Arthur M. Thompson was the ze winner Thursday afternoon when e Contract club met with Mrs rbert M. Lerou, at her home on rroll avenue.

The Aftermath Contract club was tertained Thursday evening by Mrs arles C. McNamara, of Broadway. rs Mary G. Shannon, Miss Ella C. annon and Mrs. James J. Donohue k the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverley M. Bliven l their daughter, Miss Emily Bliven ve been guests recently of Mr. and s. Harold E. MacDonald at News, Mass.

PERSONALS

Franklin Matteson of Melrose visited recently with his parents in North Stonington.

Miss Florence Buck of Stonington is in Hanover, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Dwight C. Stone.

Miss Nellie Walicki, of Versailles, spent the week end in Hartford with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Bagenet.

Mrs. Charles W. Burton of 780 North Main street is confined to her house by a severe attack of the grippe.

John A. Dunn, well known Norwich druggist, left Thursday for Lakeland, Florida, for the winter. He will go by boat from New York to Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Tuber, who were married on Thanksgiving day, have returned from their wedding trip and are residing at 26 Warren street.

CLAIMS $25,000 DAMAGES FROM MAKERS OF MOVIES

When motion picture producers tried to take the pictures for a talkie of Capt. D. G. Dedrick and family at their home in Groton, the captain was burned about the face and eyes, the electric system in the house was burned out and the house was set on fire, according to the complaint in a $25,000 damage suit which he has brought in the superior court.

Captain Dedrick was the navigator who brought from Norway to New York the vessel "City of New York," which was the steamer which Commander Richard E. Byrd used in his successful expedition to the South pole, and the Groton captain is uncle of Brent Balchen, who was Byrd's pilot on the expedition.

The defendants named in the suit, which is returnable in January and has been filed with Court Clerk John H. Walker, are Paramount Public Corp., the Paramount Famous Lasky Corp., the Famous Players Lasky Corp., and the Paramount Publix Corp., all of New York.

It is alleged that on the morning of Dec. 1, 1929, silent pictures were taken by a Mr. Edwards, an employe of the defendants, to whom Captain Dedrick had given his consent to have the pictures taken. Later in the same day another employe of the defendants, named Ferenstron, came to the Dedrick house to take sound pictures.

Captain Dedrick claims that before any of the sound equipment had been installed or any pictures taken, he inquired as to the possibility of damage therefrom to himself or his family, or to his home or household furniture, and was assured by the defendants' employes that there was no danger of any personal or property damage at all. Thereafter the sound picture equipment was installed and an attempt to record the interview with Captain Dedrick was made.

According to the complaint, during the operation, because of the defective equipment and the negligent and careless installation thereof, the lighting system at the home of Captain Dedrick was burnt out, fuses blown and the meter destroyed, and as a result of intermittent explosions or flashes, caused by the defective equipment and the negligent use thereof, irreparable damage was done to the eyesight of Captain Dedrick, and certain of his household furniture and furnishings were badly burned and destroyed.

The injury and damage were caused, the complaint states, by reason of the carelessness and negligence of the defendants or its agents, employes, etc., in the installation of improper and imperfect equipment, and the defendants well knowing the high, intense, and dangerous volume and current of electricity necessary in the operation of their equipment, far in excess of that which is furnished or supplied by the ordinary house current, negligently and carelessly attempted to operate the equipment by the low power furnished by the house current, resulting in the flashes or explosions before mentioned and the burning and destroying of the fuses and meter.

ELKS' LODGE TO HOLD ITS ANNUAL MEMORIAL

With the address to be given by Rev. Joseph H. King, pastor of St. Francis Xavier church at New Milford, Norwich lodge of Elks is to hold its annual memorial service Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Elks' home. The instrumental music is to be by an orchestra conducted by William J. Malone, a member of the lodge, and the Philharmonic male quartet of Springfield, Mass. will be heard in several vocal number.

The order of exercises will be as follows:

Orchestra, march, "Militare" (Schubert); overture, "Norma," (Bellini); quartette, "Invictus," (Huhn); opening ceremonies, Exalted Ruler James T. Egan, Esquire Paul Zahn; invocation, Bro. Lionel Boucher; quartette, "In the time of Roses"; selection, "Forever and Ever," orchestra; roll call, quartette, "Night Song," (Mendelsohn); ritualistic ceremonies, address, Rev. John H. King; quartette, "Morning," (Speaks); selection, "After Sunset," orchestra; "Auld Lang Syne," closing ceremonies.

Rev. Father King, who is a member of the order, is a native of Norwich and the nephew of Exalted Ruler James T. Egan.

The arrangements for the exercises are in charge of the memorial committee, Daniel F. Driscoll, Charles W. Cassidy, Fred J. Ortman, Fred G. Thumm and Charles M. Hutzler.

MILK FOR SCHOOLS THROUGH RED CROSS

Through the Women Voters League of Norwich it was stated Thursday night that it had been learned there was no appropriation in 1928 and 1929 by the American Red Cross chapter to supply milk for children in the Norwich public schools, but in the two years previous there were appropriations. There is an appropriation of $200 by the Red Cross this year for supplying milk.

OBITUARY.

William M. Clark.

William M. Clark, formerly of Norwich, died at his home, 36 Arch street, Springfield, Mass., Tuesday. Mr. Clark was born in Norwich, Oct. 14, 1867, the son of William Henry and Harriet Guile Clark. Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. George Denison of Stonington and Mrs. Frank L. Grover of Norwich, and several grandchildren.

Scouts Need Volunteer Masons

Several masons familiar with the construction of a fire-place which will throw out heat are needed to put up the fire-place for the Boy Scout cabin. Those who will volunteer their services for Saturday morning or afternoon are asked by the scout officials to call the local Boy Scout headquarters. Transportation and a dinner will be furnished.

Will Lecture At Synagogue

The speaker this (Friday) evening for the series of lectures at the Brothers of Joseph synagogue on West Main street is to be Attorney Charles H. Gowan of New York, who is a noted orator and journalist.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO RAVINE AT PRESTON PLAINS; TWO MEN HURT

Two Norwich men sustained injuries which sent them to the hospital about 1 o'clock Thursday morning when the machine in which they were riding left the Norwich-Westerly road on a curve, overturned and was practically demolished. The victims of the accident were Stanley Lakowsky of 16 Avery street and Joseph H. Roy of 60 Laurel Hill avenue, who were riding in a small roadster with Lakowsky driving. At the Pendleton place, near the birch mill at Preston Plains, the automobile left the highway, evidently traveling at high speed, for it shot across a field for 80 feet and then crashed into the bank on the far side of a ravine 18 feet wide and four feet deep, where the car upset.

Both men were brought to the Backus hospital in this city in the ambulance, reaching there about 1:25 a. m. Roy had deep lacerations of his right leg and after having these given attention he went to his home. Lakowsky's injuries were to his right hip and leg and abrasions on his left leg. He remained in the hospital until Thursday afternoon, when he was discharged to go home.

Trooper Clarence Hoxie of the Groton barracks is making an investigation of the accident.

This is approximately the same location where there were fatal accidents on two successive days in the last week of August, one person being killed in each accident.

GRANTS APPLICATION FOR ADDITIONAL TAXICAB

After a re-hearing upon the application of Clarence A. Gwiazdowski of this city to operate an additional taxicab, this permission has been granted by the state public utilities commission.

At the first hearing on Aug. 25 his application was denied, but he applied again on Oct. 9 for a hearing and this was held Nov. 25, with Attorney C. W. Cassidy appearing for the applicant.

A memorandum of decision by the commission is in part as follows:

At the re-hearing upon said application the applicant testified that frequently the applicant has been unable to take care of calls received by him for transportation in Norwich on account of insufficient equipment and has therefore frequently turned over such calls to other taxicab operators. It appeared further that the applicant's cab has been occasionally laid up for repairs or inspection as long as a day at a time and during such periods the applicant has been unable to render service.

Several patrons and the applicant's wife, who is his business assistant, corroborated the testimony of the applicant to the effect stated. The applicant submitted at the hearing a number of letters from individuals in Norwich who are patrons of his service also in corroboration of the evidence set forth above and stating that public convenience and necessity require the operation of an additional taxicab by the applicant.

Francis S. Durga and Joseph Garrish, doing business under the trade name of Norwich Taxi and Luxor Cab company, appeared in objection to the application upon the ground that the present number of authorized taxicabs in Norwich is sufficient to take care of all reasonable demands for transportation. There are at the present time 14 authorized taxicabs in Norwich, of which only eight are in operation. Norwich has an estimated population of 33,000. The Norwich Taxi and Luxor Cab company holds a certificate for eight taxicabs, of which only two are in operation. The former owners of the Norwich Taxi and Luxor Cab company, although holding a certificate for eight cabs did not operate more than five taxicabs at any time since they received their certificate and were only operating three taxicabs at the time of the recent transfer of said certificate and business to the present owners. It appeared that the decline in operation of taxicabs by the former owners of the business was due in part to the preference of patrons for the taxicab service of other operators in Norwich.

From the evidence presented at the hearing, the commission is of the opinion and finds that public convenience and necessity require the operation by the applicant of one additional taxicab within the territory covered by his certificate and an amendment will be made to his existing certificate of public necessity in accordance with this finding.

CELEBRATES AT SALEM OVER MAIL DELIVERY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winakor in the town of Salem gave a social at their home this week to celebrate the first delivery of mail to their door, a privilege which they will enjoy daily hereafter.

For 22 years they had been obliged to get along without having the mail route go past their door, but now they have succeeded in having the route extended for the benefit of their neighbors as well as themselves and they thought the event worthy of a celebration.

BOY SCOUTS DELIVER TEN CHRISTMAS TREES

In clearing the land for their new scout cabin on the Quinebaug river the Boy Scouts cut quite a few cedars which are still beautiful and green. Any public or charitable organization desiring the tops of these trees as bundles of branches for decorative purposes will receive them from the scouts free as long as the supply lasts. The scouts delivered ten such trees Thursday to Slater museum for decorative purposes.

Enjoyable Birthday Party

A birthday party in honor of Miss Mary Weiler was given at her home, 44 Spring Garden avenue, Thursday evening. The house was fittingly decorated and appropriate favors in honor of the occasion were passed.

A bountiful lunch was served. The hostess, assisted by Miss Helen Kadish and Miss Marie Desmond, poured. Besides local friends, there were present guests from Voluntown and Pomfret.

Moves to Set Aside Verdicts

Attorneys for William LaBounty of Montville who lost his suits in the superior court here Wednesday when the jury verdicts were against him have filed motion to have the verdicts set aside and for a new trial. LaBounty sued as administrator of his son's estate for $10,000 for the death of the three-year old boy, William, and for damages of $25,000 for the injuries to his six year old daughter, Jeanne, when they were struck on May 3, 1930 by a motor truck of the J. P. Frisbie company of Hartford, driven by Sebastian Silva of New London.

To Act On Application

The New London County Bar association will hold a meeting here this (Friday) morning to consider the college credits of Harry F. Morin of New London, a graduate of Georgetown university, who has applied to take the state bar examinations. President William H. Shields will preside. Notice of the meeting has been sent out by Clerk John H. Walker of the superior court.

Took Waltz Prize

Miss Ann Macknicki, of Jewett City, when attending a dance, took first prize in a waltz contest with Geel Jackson of Westerly, R. I. The dance was at Voluntown Grange hall.

MAKES SIX CLAIMS TO HAVE SUIT DISMISSED

Six reasons why the state of Connecticut should be dropped as a party defendant in the middle dollar suit brought by Edyth B. Gray of Groton and other Mohegan Indian descendants have been advanced in a motion by Assistant Attorney General H. Roger Jones for dismissal of the suit against the state. The motion is on the list to come up before Judge Ernest A. Inglis in the short calendar here this (Friday) morning.

The suit is the one in which the Masonic temple corporation, the town and city of Norwich and the state of Connecticut are named as defendants on the claim to recover a 16-acre plot alleged to be the Royal Burial ground of the Mohegan Indians.

The following are the claims in the motion to dismiss the case against the state:

It does not appear that the state of Connecticut, a sovereign state, has given its consent to be used or made a party defendant in said cause.

It appears that the court in said case is without jurisdiction as to this defendant.

It does not appear that the state of Connecticut has any interest in the subject matter of said cause.

The court has no authority and is without jurisdiction to make any order against this defendant as prayed by the plaintiff.

It does not appear that the plaintiff has any interest in the subject matter of said cause nor does it appear the plaintiff is entitled to the relief as prayed.

The complaint and whole proceedings in said entitled cause are too indefinite and too uncertain to constitute a cause of action against the state of Connecticut.

STORRS FOOTBALL HOP TO HAVE 150 COUPLES

(Special to The Bulletin)

STORRS, Dec. 3—More than 150 couples are expected to attend the annual football hop, Friday evening, at Hawley armory which is given in honor of the graduating football letter men.

The dance is in charge of Russell F. Glennon, '31, of New Haven. Glennon played regular at center on the Aggie grid team this fall. Assisting him on the executive committee are: Stanley L. Storrs, '31, of Storrs; Ruell A. Sloan, '32, of Hartford; Raymond L. Walker, '31, of Derby; Virginia Smith, '31, of Hartford. The decorations committee consists of Herman R. Libutzke, '31, of Hartford, chairman; Henry H. Kirkpatrick, '31, of Storrs; Esther L. Northrop, '31, of New Milford and Walter Robinson, '32, of Wauregan. The refreshments committee is in charge of James J. Levanti, '31, of Stonington, assisted by James J. Green, '32, of Thompsonville.

The patrons and patronesses will be Coach and Mrs. Sumner A. Dole, Professor and Mrs. Roy J. Guyer, Captain and Mrs. Thornton Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell H. Kinsey, Miss Mildred P. French, Mrs. C. C. McCracken, and Miss Marjorie Bartlett. Dr. Henry K. Denlinger, faculty advisor to the class of 1931 will be a guest of honor.

BAD TO USE RED LIGHT FOR ADVERTISING

Red lights should not be used for advertising purposes along Connecticut highways, said Motor Vehicle Commissioner Robbins B. Stoeckel in a bulletin read over station WTIC on Thursday afternoon.

"The use of a red light to indicate a filling station or a lunch room or any other enterprise distracts the operator's attention from the road in the degree of attention he must divert to finding out why the red light is there. The advertiser, of course, wants the motorists to slow down and see the sign, and perhaps stop and buy something, but the use of a red light for this purpose is a misuse of a danger signal and ought to be stopped. There is no Connecticut law which prohibits it. Whether there ought to be, or whether one could be drafted which would be inclusive enough to be effective, is a broad question. Red lights, identified with danger, ought to be intensified in their use to a point where they are absolutely distinct. Every time one is observed there should be no cause for misunderstanding or mistake. When there is a red light, it should be an indication of a situation in which there is danger and that care is necessary."

Storrs Hartford Alumni Meeting

(Special to The Bulletin)

STORRS, Dec. 3—Announcement was made here today that the alumni of Connecticut Agricultural college living in Hartford and vicinity will hold a get-together and banquet at the Hartford Women's club, 7 p. m., December 10, for the members of the Hartford Alumni association to make the acquaintance of Dr. Charles C. McCracken, recently appointed president of the college.

Rabbi From Revere To Preach

Rabbi William Greenberg of Revere, Mass., a senior at the Jewish Theological seminary of New York, will be the preacher at the services of the Norwich Community synagogue, Church street, this (Friday) evening and Saturday morning. A graduate of New York university, Rabbi Greenberg is said to be an able preacher, having appeared in many large cities in the east. In addition to preaching Rabbi Greenberg will conduct the newly formed Sabbath school services.

Receiving Toy Contributions

Another address was received Thursday of a friend of children who wishes to give some toys, Mrs. R. C. Britten, 449 Boswell avenue. Scouts are anxious to have many contributions immediately so that the workers at the New London-Norwich Poster company may start repair work.

Boy Scout Conference For Willimantic

According to the local Boy Scout headquarters, a conference of interested scouters from Stafford Springs, Putnam, Willimantic, and Norwich will be held at the Nathan Hale hotel, next Thursday evening, December 11, at dinner with Deputy Regional Scout Executive George Felker, of Boston where the present and future of scout work in this section of the state will be discussed.

REMOVING BAD TASTES FROM RESERVOIR WATERS

Means by which objectionable tastes and colors in reservoir water may be eliminated were discussed in a radio talk Thursday afternoon over Station WTIC by Warren J. Scott of the state department of health.

He spoke in part as follows:

About 25 per cent. of the water supplied in Connecticut through public water supply systems is filtered and about 12 per cent. is chlorinated. Filteration consists in passing water through a bed of sand with or without chemical. Chlorination is carried out by adding minute quantities of chlorine to the water (about four pounds of chlorine to the million gallons of water). Proper operation of filteration and chlorination plants is duty of local authorities, but an engineer from the state department of health visits these plants and checks up on the operation.

Objectionable tastes and odors in a water supply may be due to a variety of causes. Water entering a reservoir may carry with it leaves and other harmless organic matter, when deposited on the bottom from the water and the resulting products of decomposition may spread through the entire body of water, causing a taste or odor. This is likely to occur particularly in the spring and fall when, because of temperature changes, the bottom end and top water in a reservoir change place. Microscopic plant and animal growths in a reservoir, such as algae, flourish occasionally to such an extent as to impart a fish, oily, or other taste or odor, characteristic of the particular organisms. Consumers living near dead ends of pipe lines frequently secure water that is affected by sediment in the pipes. Overdoses of chlorine are not common but may result in an objectionable taste.

Frequently taste and odor conditions can be done away with by such steps as shutting off offending reservoirs where there is more than one, copper sulphate treatment to destroy algae, blowing off hydrants on dead end mains, or more careful regulation of chlorination. In some cases, the only remedy may be the installation of water treatment by aerating the water to release dissolved gases and filtering it. On a large supply, the installation of treatment may cost hundreds of thousands of dollars but if the trouble is sufficiently serious, treatment may ultimately be necessary. Practically all objectionable odor and taste conditions are due to causes which are harmless from a disease producing standpoint. They should be called to the attention of local and state authorities where they occur and remedies sought wherever practicable. Remedies cannot always be immediate.

MAKING CONTRIBUTIONS TO SANATORIUM HOLIDAY FUND

The following are contributors to the Uncas-on-Thames holiday fund, according to the report of the committee:

Miss Alif Stephens, C. J. Hoefer, Mr. and Mrs. William Tyler Olcott, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allis, Mrs. Gardiner Greene, a friend, Mr. and Mrs. William Bogue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Chase, Mrs. E. D. Fuller, Miss Helen L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Woodard, Turner & Stanton Co., Charles F. Noyes, New York, Miss Nellie Scanlon, Franklin, J. B. Martin Co., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Colt, Porteous & Mitchell Co., Mr. and Mrs. Neville Bliss, Mrs. William B. Young, Miss Edith E. Young, Armour & Co., Miss Anna G. Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Mitchell, 4th, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Jones, Miss Ella Fanning, Miss Porteous, Miss Mary E. Richards, Savard Bros.

Schools—Laurel Hill—Alice Kilroy, Edna Day, Minnie Wheeler, Alice Kennedy, Helen Weinstein.

Yantic — Mary Roberts, Margaret Mahoney.

East Great Plain—Blanche Peterson, Leona Comstock.

Union Sunday School association,

BISHOP SCHOOL CHILDREN SHOWED PHYSICAL EXERCISES

The children of Bishop school gave an excellent exhibition Thursday evening of the physical exercise work done by the schools in the town. All the children in each grade took part. The dancing was done in costume, which added a great deal to the enjoyment of the large audience.

The program was under the supervision of Miss Margaret D. Shugrue, physical director in the school, who explained the purpose of each exercise and dance and what the children gained by it. Miss May Woods played piano accompaniments for the dances.

The training of the class was done by the grade teachers and each group was a splendid demonstration of coordination and rhythm as the result of excellent training. The auditorium was filled to its capacity. The teachers were highly commended by the audience, many of whom expressed their desire to see the exhibition again when it is repeated this (Friday) evening.

The following was the program: Sing a Song of Sixpence, Rocka Bye Baby, Three Bears, grade 1, Miss Ida Lillibridge; Indian dance, grade 2, Miss Gertrude Gallup; pantomime rope jumping girls, grades 6 and 7, oxen dance, boys, grades 6 and 7, Miss Geraldine Enos and Miss Marguerite Foley; Virginia reel, grade 4, Miss Miriam Shereshevsky; flag drill, folk dances, grade 5, Miss Mae Shields; folk dance, special room, Mrs. Teresa McMahon; Dutch dance, grade 3, Miss Helen Gallup; Coming Thru' the Rye, games (boys), grade 4, Miss Shereshevsky; march and song, grades 6 and 7, Miss Foley and Miss Enos.

DOWNEY SUIT SETTLED WITHOUT COURT TRIAL

Settlement was reached out of court Thursday in the $25,000 damage suit of Miss Catherine Downey of 46a Montauk avenue, New London, against the Connecticut Power company of that city and Frederick A. Baker of Unionville, formerly an employe of the company. According to the understanding in court circles, Miss Downey received a settlement for $3,000.

A jury for trial of the case had been chosen late Wednesday afternoon, but in court Thursday morning the attorneys informed Judge Ernest A. Inglis that the settlement had been reached. Miss Downey sued for injuries she received on May 19, 1929 when she was struck by one of the company's truck, which Baker was backing in the street in order to pick her up to give her a ride to church.

The Children of Mary society of St. Patrick's church will receive holy communion in a body Sunday morning at the mass at 7:30.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION NOW IN STATE WORK

The state of Connecticut's service of vocational rehabilitation for the disabled, inaugurated Sept. 15, is now well in hand under the directorship of Edward P. Chester, former head of the state trade school. Headquarters of this service for all residents of the state over 16 who have suffered physical disabilities and are thereby handicapped in securing employment are at 130 Washington street, Hartford.

Authorized by the legislature and administered through the division of trade and vocational education of the state board of education, it has inaugurated a threefold programme of rehabilitation, physical restoration, vocational training, and guidance and advisement for employment.

Not a Charity

It is not a charity but quite the opposite, being designed to render physical handicapped persons fit to earn their own living.

Mr. Chester was appointed Sept. 10. Funds for the new state post were provided by the 1929 legislature in addition to an amount from the federal government. The state board adopted a plan in December, 1929, and the federal board for vocational education approved it the same month, thereby obtaining for the state a federal grant, matching funds from the state.

With the aid of medical science, rehabilitation effects occupational activities and economic independence for those who apply themselves for the service offered. The disability of the applicant may have developed as the result of a birth condition or a disease, or of an industrial accident. All public and private agencies in the state are requested to bring such persons to the attention of the state, and the diabled themselves are urged to apply immediately.

Each Individual Studied

When admitted, each person is carefully studied as an individual. Effort is made to be certain that the maximum degree of physical proficiency has been obtained through medical science.

Then effort is made to prepare a rehabilitation programme that will best fit the individual for establishment in a suitable occupation. The guidance of a physically and vocationally handicapped person into training for such employment depends upon the interest and effort of the individual, as well as upon the factors of type of disability, amount of education, natural aptitudes, previous work experience, and the employment opportunities a specific type of work may offer.

When a practical rehabilitation programme has finally been prepared, training suitable to the needs and condition of the individual will be provided. This training may be secured in an established school, occasionally by methods of correspondence and private tutoring, or in an industrial or commercial establishment, directly under regular employment conditions. Before the training is completed, great effort will be made to find the right job, in which the individual can be a producer, owing to natural skill, specific training and a great desire to succeed, and in which job he or she can truly be an asset to the employer. It is intended to follow up the placement of individuals to make sure that the rehabilitation programme has been effectual.

Although rehabilitation service is free it is not an act of charity. Rehabilitation is a definite function of the state board of education. Intended and administered for the purpose of providing for the physically disabled the same vocational opportunities that are now offered to eligible normal persons in the state.

The training and establishment of disabled civilians in employment began in this country in 1920, by an act of congress offering to aid the states in the promotion of the work. Since that time 44 states have passed rehabilitation legislation. Disabled persons subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act do not lose any of their rights by accepting rehabilitation service.

It is earnestly hoped that various communities throughout the state will cooperate to provide local assistance that will facilitate the effectiveness of rehabilitation.

Especially it is hoped that prominent medical authorities, educators, representative employer and employe organizations, civic bodies and other interested groups or individuals, may see their way clear to combine their efforts in most valuable effort.

Will Investigate Carefully

It will be the policy of the service to suggest and provide vocational training for disabled persons only after careful investigation has determined that the physical defect or handicap cannot be removed or alleviated. In other words, physical restoration is recognized as preceding any type of vocational training.

However, it must be understood that physical restoration, as such, is not a function of the service. Disabled persons requiring such treatment will be referred to agencies cooperating with the service who are specialists in the field of restoration. Advisement, training and placement are the major functions.

Certain disabled persons may need to receive guidance and advisement only as to the type of occupation for which they may be already fitted. An attempt will be made to find suitable employment for such persons. The service holds, however, that rehabilitation accomplishment through preparation for a specific job is more lasting than mere placement in a job or mere placement as a result of the furnishing of physical restoration or artificial appliance.

To Seek Out Disabled

Those whose disabilities were incurred through industrial employment will be located through the compensation offices of the state. School departments are to be requested to name officials who will locate, report and aid in the development of programmes of persons of school ages. Hospitals and clinics are requested to report persons disabled through accident or disease.

"All the service asks of employers is their open minded cooperation on a purely business basis," says a bulletin of the state service. In this regard it is hoped that employers will hire disabled persons, if they prove satisfactory, rather than normal persons from outside the community.

The available facilities of reputable schools already established will be used in institutional training, and employment training will also be stressed whereby training under actual working conditions is carried on. When disability at the time will not permit attendance at school, correspondence and tutorial training is planned. In general, professional courses extending over a period of years will not be approved.

Not all disabled persons may reasonably profit by the service as for instance the aged and home bound, and those in penal institutions, nor those affected by mental disease.

Applications may be made in person or by mail to the vocational rehabilitation service, 130 Washington street, Hartford.

TWO NORWICH MEN HELD IN NEW JERSEY

Peter Yeitz, 20, of No. 143 Bromley street and Julian Falcone, 28, of No. 29 Ore street, this city, are held by Belleville, N. J., police, on charges of having a stolen automobile in their possession, according to word received Thursday by Chief George Linton of the local police department. The Belleville police asked the local police for the men's records, and were told that Yeitz has no record in this city but Falcone has been arrested three several times for liquor law violation and motor vehicle law violations. It is said that Falcone and Yeitz were in Norwich the past week end and that they had an automobile in their possession at the time. It is not known whether the machine was the stolen machine they are charged with having in their possession.

PLIGHT OF FOODLESS FAMILY IS RELIEVED

A box of food was received Thursday by Boy Scout headquarters for the family told about in Wednesday's issue of The Bulletin that was practically out of food with the exception of a loaf of bread. The box contains groceries and says, "From A Friend." The food will be given to the family described.

Compare This Amazing Value!

With Other Wringer Type Washers Selling from $99.50 to $165.00

EASY

$79.50

Slightly more on Easy Terms

For This Big Oversize

EASY WASHER

with porcelain tub

$5.00 DOWN

UNITED MUSIC COMPANY

NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST RADIO RETAILERS

84 Main St., Norwich, Ct.
Phone 3263
MITCHELL WOLFE, Manager

Armstrong Tires and Batteries

AT FACTORY PRICES
Fully Guaranteed

Also Pan-Am Gas and Oils

Always at Your Service at

Economy Garage

267 North Main Street

Telephone Orders Promptly Attended To.
CHARLES O. MUELLER

WANT TO LOOK YOUNG?

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They help bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c, 60c.

PLAINFIELD DROPS SECOND GAME OF SEASON TO NEW YORK HOKOAHS

(Special to The Bulletin.)

PLAINFIELD, Dec. 4. — Plainfield suffered its second successive defeat of the season at the hands of Hakoahs five of New York here this evening by the score of 30 to 25, in a game that was marred with rough play at times. The locals experienced no little trouble in shooting baskets, the oval on several occasions striking the top of the hoop, cavorting about for a time and then jumping out.

The New York boys literally stood Plainfield on their heads, having at practically all times a lead over the losers. Whenever the locals did gain the lead, the winners went right out and secured the necessary points to surge ahead. The visitors led at the half way mark 15 to 9.

Schien and Schuman, of New York, performed brilliantly, making a combined total of 24 points, each scoring 12 points each. Marchineck led his team with eight points, with Casper and Nadler helping out the cause with four points each.

The Buddies of Plainfield, competed with Jewett City in the preliminary contest, the former winning by 34 to 29. The summaries:

Hakoahs.

	G.	F.	ts.
Schoenfeld, lg	2	0	4
Schien, rg	5	2	12
Goldberg, c	1	0	2
Newblatt, lf	2	0	4
Schuman, rf	4	4	12
	14	6	34

Plainfield.

	G.	F.	ts.
Dissinger, rf	0	1	1
Casper, rf	2	0	4
Marchineck, lf	2	4	8
Conway, c	1	0	2
Nadler, rg	2	0	4
Morley, rg	0	0	0
Kiley, lg	5	0	10
	12	5	29

Score at half time 15 to 9, New York. Referee Harper. Two 20 minute halves.

Plainfield.

	G.	F.	ts.
Mercer, rf	2	0	4
Cohen, lf	2	0	4
Mette, lf	3	0	6
Dysart, c	2	0	4
Bromley, rg	1	2	4
Peterson, lg	3	1	7
Korab, lg	0	1	1
	13	4	30

Jewett City.

	G.	F.	ts.
F. Derda, lg	3	0	6
J. Derda, rg	0	2	2
Walsh, c	3	0	6
Sweet, lf	1	1	3
Kaminski, rf	4	0	8
	11	3	25

O'BRIEN KNOCKS OUT GROVE IN 1ST ROUND

HARTFORD, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Frankie O'Brien, Hartford, New England middleweight champion, won a knockout in the first round over Izzy Grove, of New York, in the feature ten round bout of the boxing show held at Foot Guard hall tonight. Frankie O'Brien weighed 157 3-4, Grove 163 1-4.

In the semi-final ten round bout Tony Leto, 127 1-4, Hartford, earned the decision over Johnny Delano, 126, Boston.

Carmen Knapp, 137 1-4, New Haven, was awarded the decision over Sal Carta, 136 1-2, Middletown, in a six round bout.

Nick Christy, 129, Bristol, won a knockout in the second round over Jimmy Ireland, 124 1-4, Schenectady, N. Y., in a scheduled six round bout.

Vin LaBella, 130 1-2, Middletown, lost the opening four round decision to Brownie Tucker, 138 3-4, Hartford.

"THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET" FOUND ON LOADING PLATFORM

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 4—(AP)—Intact and unmarred after being in the hands of kidnapers for ten days, the "Old Oaken Bucket" was found late today on a loading platform in downtown Lafayette.

The trophy over which Purdue and Indiana football teams have battled since 1925, was turned over to the Purdue athletic department to await shipping orders from Indiana officials. It had been missing since November 24, when a group of youths posing as Indiana students obtained it in Indianapolis while it was en route to Bloomington for a "victory dance" celebrating Indiana's 7 to 6 victory over the Boilermakers.

An elderly man was reported to have deposited the crate on the loading platform of the Lafayette Journal and Courier, where it was discovered by employes of the newspaper.

No note accompanied the return of the bucket, and no explanation of its absence was forthcoming.

TO ASK NEW YORK FOR $375,000 FOR OLYMPIC EVENT

